No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4031-Jack did not care about how everyone else regarded him. He merely looked at Lionel with a cold expression.

When Lionel saw that Jack had stepped forward, Lionel looked elated.

He scoffed and said, "Brat, you sure are something else! You know I won't let you off, yet you're still coming right at me!"

Earlier, Lourain had jumped off the Path of Fate very quickly.

Lourain had jumped off before he could really do anything painful to Lourain, so Lionel had lost his chance, which he lamented. Even though Lourain had still been injured, those injuries were not enough to soothe the hatred in his heart.

He needed to at least give the guy a good beating, so it was perfect that Jack had stepped forward.

At that moment, Lionel decided that he would not let the guy escape like before. He would make sure to cut off any path of escape, and properly torture the guy on the Path of Fate. He would make sure to beat the guy up in front of everyone.

He would let them know the consequences of offending him.

With those thoughts in his mind, Lionel's lips started to curl up into a vicious smile.

Looking at Lionel's expression, it was clear to Jack what Lionel was thinking.

Jack scoffed, not wasting time with any words as he looked down slightly before he formed seals with his hands.

Countless seals started to form around Jack's fingertips.

Everyone watched quietly, wanting to see what kind of technique the confident challenger had.

What surprised everyone was the fact that the seals did not float in the air but sank into the ground instead.

The Path of Fate was made with a special green stone, and there were faint green runes carved on the stone. The whole Path of Fate glowed in a subtle green light which got darker the closer it was to the floor. When the seals touched the ground, they were covered by the faint green glow.

Everyone was stunned when they saw that.

What was this guy doing?

Even though there were no rules that said that seals needed to float in the air after being formed, it was very rare for anyone to sink their seals under the ground.

A lot of them started to send out their senses to figure out what was going on, trying to investigate the seals. Yet, they were disappointed to find that they could not pierce through the green light no matter how hard they tried.

They did not know what was so special about that light that allowed it to block their senses. They failed to figure anything out.

Jack caught onto the look of disappointment on everyone's faces, and he was completely at ease!

Sure enough, the others got the same results as he did. No matter what, no one was able to pierce through the green light with their senses. It was a natural barrier that was perfect for Jack.

At that moment, Jack wanted his identity to remain hidden. Even though it would not cause too much trouble if it was exposed, he still wanted it to be hidden. He was waiting for the right moment.

Countless seals were hidden by the green light, and they quickly turned into a hundred Soul Swords.

Jack pulled his hands back, and the Soul Swords turned into a dark gray mist and wrapped around Jack. The mist was filled with the energy of the soul.

After it got close to Jack, it quickly covered up his whole body.

A part of it seeped into the gray sword in his hand as well. After he did that, Jack took a deep breath before he took the first step forward.

The power of the laws of nature started to assault Jack, but it was completely blocked by the mist.

Jack started to get closer and closer to Lionel's location.

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4032-At that moment, everyone was looking at the Path of Fate with great interest. They were looking forward to what was about to happen.

"How long do you think that guy will be able to stand up to Lionel? I think he should be able to last until the fourth exchange!"

"I don't think he'll even last for a single exchange. That guy and Lourain clearly have some problems with their heads. There's no way someone like that would do something we can understand."

"You shouldn't underestimate him too much. Don't forget, he seemed quite clear with his logic just now and doesn't seem like someone with any mental problems. He seems like someone who knows what he's doing."

As everyone else had their discussions, Jack started to close in on Lionel.

They were already at a dangerously close distance from each other. The moment someone attacked, there was no chance of avoiding anything.

Lionel gave Jack a cold look. He narrowed his eyes slightly as he measured Jack with a vicious look as if he was trying to see something from Jack's expression. Yet, no matter how long he tried, all he could see was Jack's calm and nonchalant expression.

Lionel raised an eyebrow and asked, "Brat, I'm very curious. Do you think you can beat me?"

Hearing this, Jack laughed as he replied calmly, "Just shut up. I hate listening to nonsense."

The moment that was said, quite a few people started to look at Jack differently. So, Jack really was confident in himself.

The way he was speaking, and his expression did not seem faked at all. It did not seem like he was forcibly trying to put on an act!

Blant frowned as he measured Jack. The person behind Blant was a fellow disciple of his, Adler.

Adler coughed before saying in a soft voice, “Blant! Is this Lionel guy reliable or not? I feel like that guy has something up his sleeve and isn’t as weak as they claimed. If Lionel..”

Adler did not have to finish for Blant to understand what Adler was saying.

Blant raised an eyebrow, then said, “Even if Lionel is no match for him, Lionel cannot let him off easy. Lionel has to teach that guy a harsh lesson and deny him the chance to get anything good out of it. Otherwise, everyone else will just see us as a joke.”

Adler nodded vigorously. Blant took a deep breath, and his expression darkened as well. “We’ve never seen Lionel in action, so we can’t tell how strong he actually is. However, I heard that Lionel is at least in the middle of above average warriors. He’s not that weak.”

Adler had a look of disdain in his eyes. “He’s nothing special, what good will he be? We should make our own preparations. If Lionel loses, we need to have a response.”

At that moment, Lionel did not know what Blant was talking about with Adler at all. His mind was fully focused on Jack.

On the other hand, Lionel was already thoroughly angered by Jack.

He clenched his teeth as he looked at Jack, “Brat! Do you not treasure your life? Since you want to die so badly, I’ll grant you your wish!”

Right after he said that he pushed forward, and three chains of lightning lined up together as they shot at Jack.

Seeing this, Jack’s lips curled up as he raised his sword and slashed down on the chains.

Crackling sounds could be heard, and the lightning chains started to let out countless sparks. The gray sword had a wave of gray mist around it. The two energies clashed together violently, and the clash caused Jack's gray sword to be knocked aside, while Lionel's lightning chains were destroyed as well.

That exchange had been completely even, and no one was at an advantage!

Lionel clenched his teeth as his anger grew even stronger!

He never expected this guy to be that strong. Lionel had thought that he could at least push the man back in one blow if not outright defeat him. However, they ended up being evenly matched.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4033

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4033-After seeing that, there was an eruption of discussions from below.

"This guy's not bad! He's already at the level of an above average warrior. No wonder he was willing to rush onto the Path of Fate!"

"It was just the first exchange. Lionel hasn't shown his full strength. That guy is going to lose eventually!"

Lionel had a furious expression. "Brat, don't be pleased with yourself just yet! This is just the beginning!"

Right after he said that, five chains of lightning rushed at Jack. Those five chains were aimed right at Jack's head and limbs.

Lionel was trying to finish him in one blow!

Jack raised an eyebrow, and the laws of space circulated under his feet. The Path of Fate was filled with the laws of nature. Trying to use the laws of space to shift to another location was not very realistic, and he understood that.

Jack was not using the laws of space to teleport but to avoid his opponent's attack as quickly as possible. Even if he could not break through space, he could at least distort it.

Jack turned to the side and avoided the chains of lightning that were targeting his head and his right arm with incredible speed.

As he avoided it, he slashed his sword down, launching a wave of energy that suddenly struck Lionel.

Then everyone heard a crack, and those chains around Lionel were sliced apart.

After those chains were broken, the slash did not stop and continued to pierce into Lionel's right arm.

Lionel felt an intense pain coming from his right arm that spread throughout his body. The soul attribute seemed to climb up his whole body.

Lionel let out a cry of agony due to the pain. He suddenly lost control of the lightning chains around him as they dispersed into pure energy.

Without any protection, the laws of nature around him started to crash violently into Lionel's body. Each wave of energy felt like a ton of force slamming right into Lionel's body.

The sounds of his bones snapping were constantly heard. On top of that, he felt the pain of his soul being ripped apart.

Lionel could no longer hold on as he collapsed to the ground. Blood was constantly being spat out of his mouth! He looked like he was in a horrible state!

Jack raised an eyebrow as he kicked Lionel off the Path of Fate, keeping Lionel alive. Otherwise, the laws of nature would have killed him in a short time.

Letting Lionel die like that would be too kind to him. Just like how Lionel had attacked Lourain earlier, there was no way Jack would let Lionel off easy!

That scene was clearly seen by everyone there.

Quite a few people were stunned in place!

What technique was that?

They were so close, and the lightning chains were so fast, but Jack had avoided it so easily. He had even counterattacked as he did so.

That guy was way too hard to deal with!

“Lionel lost, but he didn’t lose because he was less skilled, but because that man had such a strange technique. When he avoided Lionel’s attack just now, it was not just his body that was moving, but even the space around him! Lionel probably never expected him to be able to avoid the attack at such a close distance! If Lionel knew, there’s no way he would have lost so badly!”

Everyone nodded in agreement at that person’s words. Even though Lionel lost, everyone felt that it could not prove that Jack was stronger than him.

It only proved that Jack had a strange technique that caught him off guard.

At that moment, Lionel was in so much pain that he had lost his mind. He constantly writhed on the ground like an earthworm.

That prideful look he had earlier was completely gone from his face.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4034

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4034-Looking at how much pain Lionel was in caused everyone to shudder.

In their hearts, Lionel did not deserve to lose. However, they had to admit that the strange technique was still part of Jack’s skills, so there were no problems with Jack winning in that way.

Only Lionel was to blame for not being observant enough and being too confident in himself. He had underestimated his opponent, which was what led to this outcome.

Jack stood in place on the Path of Fate and did not continue advancing. Instead, he turned around and looked at Lionel rolling on the ground.

Jack raised an eyebrow before he said in a cold voice, “You want me to pay the price? Just by yourself? It’s not just you. Anyone who tries to make me pay will pay the price themselves!”

After he said that, Jack turned around and looked at Blant with clear mockery in his eyes.

Blant’s expression stiffened at that moment, and the anger in his heart flared up.

That brat was getting bolder. His actions were a public challenge to Blant!

Everyone else's expression changed after that sight as well. The tension between Blant and Jack was immense. The two of them seemed to be incredibly murderous, and their auras were fully unleashed.

Someone stroked his chin and said in a low voice, "This newcomer is even more daring than I thought. Does he think that he'll be able to beat Blant just because he defeated Lionel? Lionel is so far away from Blant. Lionel might be an above average warrior, but there's still a huge gap between them."

"Lionel is at most in the middle range of the above average warriors. There are so many who are stronger than he is. Furthermore, this guy just used some strange technique to win. It doesn't really mean anything when it comes to his skill. He's far from being able to challenge Blant. If the person standing on the Path of Fate was Blant and not Lionel, this guy would probably be the one rolling around in agony right now!"

After that person said that, everyone else nodded.

Even though the newcomer did not seem afraid at all as he challenged Blant, no one seemed to think he would be able to do much.

In their eyes, the newcomer was like an egg from a chicken's nest, and Blant was like a meteor falling from the sky. It was obvious who would win if they clashed.

At that moment, they even felt like Jack's challenge was a bit of a joke.

A fierce-looking man sneered and said, "This guy is just acting so arrogantly because Blant has already finished the challenge and can't step on the Path of Fate anymore. Since that's the case, there's no way they can fight right now. That's why he dared to challenge Jack. Otherwise, he would never have dared to act this way."

Everyone else nodded in agreement.

It was obvious that Jack was acting so pleased because he knew that Blant would not be able to step on the Path of Fate and do anything to him no matter how much he challenged Blant.

After the challenge, everyone would leave and get transferred elsewhere. The chances of meeting again were slim.

Thinking about that, quite a few people started to look at Jack in disdain, not liking how much he was putting on an act.

Since Blant could not do anything to him, he was acting so pleased with himself.

At that moment, Blant suddenly laughed as he waved his Jack a few times before patting Adler on the arm.

Adler's lips curled up into a meaningful smile. He nodded at Blant, and under everyone's surprised gazes, he stepped onto the starting point of the Path of Fate.

Quite a few people were stunned at the sight.

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4035-Jack slowly turned to face Adler. Lourain was quietly standing below the Path of Fate, looking up at everything that was happening.

Everyone else thought that Jack was acting too arrogantly with what he said earlier, but Lourain could tell that Jack had other plans.

Jack was not someone who would let a bit of achievement get to his head. He would never have said that if he did not have a reason to.

Jack definitely had a goal in doing what he did.

When Adler stepped on the starting point, Lourain immediately understood that Jack had been trying to provoke Blant so that he would have his subordinates join the challenge.

In truth, Jack was making a gamble as well. He did not know if the ones around Blant had joined the challenge before. If all of them had already attempted the challenge, then he would have done all of that in vain.

Seeing this, Adler narrowed his eyes slightly as he looked at the other party with a vicious glint.

That expression seemed to be telling everyone that he would completely rip Jack to shreds.

Jack remained completely calm even when faced with an expression like that. It was as if the person standing at the starting point was not his opponent, but an ant that he could kill at any moment. He did not feel threatened by the opponent at all.

Jack's expression was too calm, and that angered Adler.

Adler scoffed, "Brat, try to keep up with that act of yours! Did you think that all of us have joined the challenge, and no one's around to teach you that lesson?! Is that why you were acting so arrogantly? However, you've miscalculated. I just entered this place a little bit earlier than you did, and I haven't had the chance to join the challenge!"

The other participants below started to look at Jack with sympathetic looks on their faces. Jack was done for.

Someone even shouted out, "Hey, you there. You need to be careful. Adler is stronger than Lionel. Lionel's nothing special amongst warriors that are above average, but Adler ranks in the top ten among those warriors. Lionel wouldn't be able to take three blows from him!"

Jack raised an eyebrow. So, this guy was called Adler. Adler was slightly stronger than Jack expected if he was ranked in the top ten. It seemed like Adler did not dare to act like he was better than Blant and had always stood behind him.

It was obvious that Blant was stronger than Adler and was probably in the top five. No wonder everyone was so afraid of Blant.

With skills like that, Blant definitely had the right to act arrogantly in front of everything else.

Adler had thought that Jack would show some fear on his face after hearing how strong he was. Even if Jack was forcing himself to act calm, there should have been some fluctuations in Jack's demeanor when he revealed his skills.

Yet, he was surprised to see that Jack's expression did not change the whole time. Even after hearing that he ranked in the top ten among above average warriors, Jack still seemed indifferent.

The more Adler looked at it, the angrier he got. He wanted nothing more than to rip that man to shreds.

Blant was clearly not happy with Jack's calm demeanor as well. It was as if their skills were nothing in front of that man. Even though that guy would be taught a lesson very soon, Blant was still too impatient.

He scoffed as he said coldly, "You're still trying to put on an act? Even if you act like you're so calm, it won't change your fate. You'll end up even worse than Lionel. That's the consequence of challenging us!"

Jack turned around and looked at Blant calmly before he looked at Adler again.

He sighed, "What a pity. If only you hadn't attempted the challenge and were the one standing here instead. That would've been so much better."

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4036

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4036-Naturally, Jack was referring to Blant.

The others never expected the newcomer to say something like that after hearing what everyone else had to say and after Blant's threats.

He wanted the person on the Path of Fate right now to be Blant?

Was there something wrong with that guy's head?

Was he crazy?

How could he say something like that?!

Who did he think he was?

He was no match for even Adler who was standing up there, let alone Blant. When Blant heard that, he felt incredibly frustrated as he looked at Jack speechlessly.

Was that guy joking?

Blant said, "There really are all sorts of people in the world. I've never seen someone as good at bragging as you are before. Listening to you, one would even think you're a warrior at the peak!"

Adler was absolutely furious at Jack's words. He could tell from Jack's tone that Jack was looking down on him. It caused Adler to feel both exasperated and even angrier.

Adler clenched his teeth and said, "Brat! You're just looking to die right now!"

Jack raised an eyebrow as he ignored what Adler was saying.

He continued to speak, "This guy is fine as well. Once the news spreads out, there'll still be some effect."

Other than Lourain, no one could understand what Jack was saying. They felt like Jack really was completely crazy. Otherwise, there was no way Jack would be speaking like that, saying things that no one could fathom.

Adler no longer wanted to wait. The more Jack spoke, the angrier he seemed to get. He started his attack with a furious look on his face. He started to form seal after seal, and they condensed in the air into the sudden cry of a bird.

Right after that, a completely icy blue phoenix appeared in the air.

That phoenix seemed like a deity of ice as it flapped its blue wings. Wave after wave of cold air came out from those wings. Even the air around them started to get distorted from the coldness.

The ice phoenix circled Adler's head, and it let out a cry again. Right after that, waves of cold energy started to violently surge out of its wings, completely wrapping around Adler. After all of that, Adler started to look at Jack with a cold stare as if he was trying to use his expression to tell everyone that Jack was about to die.

Adler walked forward, slowly closing in on Jack as he moved quickly. Even though he was on the Path of Fate and was being pressured by the laws of nature, the parts at the start were nothing to him.

In just a few moments, Adler was already right in front of Jack.

Jack had not advanced that much in the first place and had deliberately stopped in place.

Adler was just a distance away from Jack; his eyes were full of Malice as if he wanted to rip Jack apart the next moment!

Adler's lips curled up into a vicious smile, "I won't kill you right away, that would be too kind to you. I want you to stay alive as you endure the cruelest torture!"

Jack quietly listened to Adler's threats, and there was not much emotion on his face. It was as if Adler was just speaking nonsense. He did not even bother responding to Adler, but merely reached out and took off the disguise on his face.

Jack had been in disguise the whole time to avoid any trouble. However, he knew that him entering the Radiant Hall and attempting the challenges was no secret.

It would be stranger if he had not entered. His identity would have been exposed eventually. And he was already certain that he would be transported to another challenge after this. The participants he met after this would probably mostly be strangers.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4037

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4037-Since that was the case, exposing himself would not cause him too much trouble.

Earlier, he had used the green light to hide his identity because he wanted to fish up something big, but he only managed to get a fish that was average in size in the end. At least it would still be useful.

When Jack took off his disguise, everyone was stunned. So that guy had been in disguise, and it was not his real face!

Yet, what was he doing?

Why did he take off his mask?

It was not just the crowd that was stunned at that moment, even Blant and Adler were both stunned. They could not understand what that guy was doing.

Just as everyone was wondering what was happening, Jack completely took off that layer of fake skin, and his true face was revealed for all to see.

When everyone saw his true face, there were hisses everywhere.

Adler in particular had his mouth opened so wide he could swallow a whole egg. His eyes were so wide his eyeballs looked like they were about to pop out of their sockets. He looked like he had just seen a ghost.

The whole place suddenly turned silent, and no one spoke at that moment. Everyone was completely stunned.

After a long time, someone said in a shaking voice, "Am I seeing things?! This guy looks exactly like Jack!"

Jack's image had been seen by practically everyone at this point. Everyone had a deep impression of what he really looked like. After all, Jack had caused too much of a commotion in recent times. On top of that, his skills were that of a warrior at the peak, so he became the subject of much admiration.

Most warriors wanted to meet Jack personally. When they did, they felt like they were seeing things. They even wondered if it really was Jack in front of them or just a lookalike.

"What do you mean he looks like Jack?! He is Jack! Even if they looked alike, they would not be so much alike! Oh my god, I never expected that I would meet Jack!"

"Stop talking for now, look at Adler. He looks so devastated. No wonder Jack was so calm the whole time! No wonder he formed those seals underground. The green light blocked our senses, and we couldn't see his technique at all. He was hiding his identity!"

The moment that was said, everyone realized what had happened. They suddenly found themselves understanding everything that had happened.

Before this, they had thought that Jack had been pretending to be calm in front of Adler because he wanted to show up. Yet, it seemed like Jack's calmness was because Adler was nothing in his eyes.

Even if Adler was ranked in the top ten among above-average warriors, he was nothing in Jack's eyes. After all, Jack was ranked highly even among warriors at the peak. Even Triton had died in his hands, it was obvious how strong he was!

Blant looked like he had been struck by lightning. He never would have dreamed that guy would be Jack.

No wonder Jack had said all that earlier. It was just to clear his own name.

At the time, he had thought that Jack was an idiot to offend him!

Blant had been too naive. With Jack's skills, even Blant's eldest fellow disciple would not be able to do anything to Jack, let alone himself!

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4039

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4039-Whether it was the beast or the golden armored fighters or even the crystal fighters, all of them had been completely destroyed by the Soul Burst Ring. Not a single person had managed to survive it. Even warriors at the peak were no match for Jack, let alone himself!

Despair and hopelessness filled his whole body. At that moment, Adler felt like he was going crazy.

He started to breathe rapidly as he begged, "I didn't do it on purpose! I'm just one of their subordinates! I'm just a peon! It's pointless to kill me!"

After hearing what he said, Jack laughed and said, "Did you forget what I said before this? Even if it's you, it'll still be a bit useful!"

Jack's words caused everyone to remember how they had not understood what he was saying earlier.

At that moment, they finally understood. Jack was trying to kill off the subordinates to hurt the ones at the top. He wanted to show those people that Jack would definitely make them pay a price.

Adler had taken four or five steps back. Even though it was still a very dangerous distance, he still managed to get a chance to live for himself.

Naturally, there was no way he dared to take on Jack's attack, it was not possible at all. However, he could still attempt to run!

He suddenly turned around and tried to rush down. Unfortunately, the moment he even took a single step, the Soul Burst Ring was already in front of him.

With a loud boom, Adler was caught in the explosion and completely disintegrated in the air.

Looking at that, quite a few people hissed.

To most of the warriors there, Adler was already incredibly strong. Being ranked so highly among the warriors that were above average was enough to be someone they all respected. Yet, someone they respected so much was weaker than an ant in front of Jack!

Blant could only watch as Adler was killed without even leaving a corpse behind. He could not say a single thing.

If he had known that it was Jack, he would never have dared to go against Jack!

Jack showed no emotion the whole time and remained calm throughout. However, that did not mean that Jack had a mild temper.

Rather, he was always someone decisive and ruthless. Nothing good ever happened to those who offended him!

The moment Jack attacked, he controlled the soul energy within Lionel and reduced the pain so Lionel slowly regained his consciousness. After he opened his eyes, he saw Jack's real face as well as the Soul Burst Ring heading right for Adler.

He had just regained consciousness, but he almost fainted on the spot.

It was Jack!

Why was Jack there?

At that moment, Lionel heard some footsteps behind him. He turned around to see Lourain with a cold smile on his face.

“I guess you don’t recognize me, right? I changed my looks as well. You pestered me in the Killing Hall for so long to tell Jack about you..”

Lionel was stunned. When he heard that, he froze in place.

He was a smart person in the end, and he quickly figured everything out! Lionel’s hands shook, “So it’s you!”

Lourain nodded, “You think you’re so smart, but I think you’re dumb as a mule! Did you think that you would benefit just because you work with them? Did you think you’d be able to get revenge on Jack because of that?! You sure think you’re hot stuff! Do you think you can actually do anything with your meager skills?”

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4040

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4040-The more Lourain spoke, the angrier he got.

He reached out to grab Lionel by the collar and raised him up from the ground. Even though they were in a restricted area, just grabbing someone by the collar was not attacking someone.

Lourain looked at Lionel with a cold expression, “In the Killing Hall, you acted like you were so smart. It was as if Jack not having you as a strategist would be his loss. Smart? You call yourself smart?”

Lionel was so scared that his whole body was shaking. When he realized who he had been speaking to just now, all of his earlier courage had completely disappeared.

Lionel shook his head, “I never thought...”

As he said that, he found himself completely unable to continue. After all, he had said so much before and had slandered Jack so relentlessly.

It was impossible for him to say anything to defend himself at that point, nor would it be meaningful in any way.

Lourain scoffed before he said, "You never had any problems with Jack in the first place. You were just too stupid and insisted on trying to cause trouble for Jack! You have no one to blame but yourself for your current situation. Did you think you would be able to make things better for yourself just because of that brain of yours and vent out your frustrations as well?"

"In the end, you ruined yourself with your own intelligence, or should I say stupidity?! If someone like you had just stayed by the side obediently, you'd have been able to get out of this alive, but you insisted on looking to die! Who else do you have to blame? This is all because of you!"

Lourain's words were like needles stabbing right into Lionel's heart. Even if he did not want to admit it, even if he wanted to argue, his heart told him that it was the truth, that what Lourain said was real. He really had done all of this to himself.

He stepped forward to slander Jack and became a peon for the warriors at the peak. In the end, it cost him his own life.

A feeling of despair and hopelessness filled up his whole body.

Lourain scoffed before he tossed Lionel back to the ground.

When everyone else saw the scene, not a single person was sympathetic toward Lionel. After all, he had deliberately tried to turn them against Jack earlier. If not for the restrictions in place, there would have been others who would have rushed forward to beat Lionel up.

At that moment, Jack had already composed himself and was already ignoring everyone else. Him making those people pay was just something that Jack did because it was convenient.

He came to the Path of Fate because he wanted to challenge it for the rewards and the points. Jack looked up at the end of the Path of Fate.

At that moment, he had only advanced fifteen meters. He was still a hundred and eight meters away from the end.

Jack took a deep breath. After he composed himself, he walked forward toward the end.

As he advanced, everyone else started to turn back to look as well. No one paid any more attention to the dead Adler and the soon-to-be-dead Lionel. Even Blant was staring right at Jack.

With Jack's skills, it was not hard at all to walk forward quickly at the initial part. However, he did not do that. Instead, he slowly walked forward, making sure each step was steady.

"Where do you think Jack will end up? I feel like he will manage to get to a hundred meters at least. He should be able to get to a hundred and ten."

"You're underestimating him too much. Jack might be from a third-grade world, but you can't judge him based on where he's from. Jack truly is a warrior at the peak, and he's probably at the top five, or even the top three among them."
