No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4050-After that, it would be the training grounds.

There were no intense challenges there, so he would have enough time to rest. He could take the time to recover.

Just thinking about that, he suddenly felt a lot more spirited and felt like everything was in his control.

Hearing what Mitchell said and looking at Mitchell's expression, Smeil knew that his advice was no longer going to work.

He sighed before he patted Mitchell on the arm again, "Whatever! Since you've already decided, then I won't try to talk you out of it. After you enter the Black Path, make sure you don't take any risks. Stay alive above all else."

Living was the most important thing in the end. No matter how bright one's future was, they needed to be alive to enjoy it.

Mitchell nodded vigorously. At the same time, a cold laugh was suddenly heard.

Jack looked over to the source of the sound and saw two men in white clothes coldly observing everything.

At that moment, they were looking over with mocking expressions, as if they were trying to use their expressions to mock the other two for not knowing their place.

Mitchell frowned and had an unhappy look on his face, "Dante, what are you doing?!"

Dante scoffed as he held his head slightly higher and said, "I'm not doing anything. It's just that I finally found out that you're an idiot!"

Mitchell clenched his teeth and stepped forward angrily, "You're the idiot! Others might be afraid of you, but I'm not! Aren't you just judging others however you want to just because Desmond is your fellow disciple?! What right do you have to call others idiots?!"

Dante's lips curled up as he said proudly, "Stop with your nonsense! What does my fellow disciple being a warrior at the peak have to do with me calling you an idiot? I'm just speaking the truth from what I see."

"I'm at the top fifteen amongst above-average warriors, while you're at the bottom. Do you think I can't tell what you're worth? I called you an idiot because you're throwing your life away for that one single point!"

Next to Dante was his fellow disciple, Haversham.

Haversham scoffed as he continued, "Not only are you throwing your life away, you think too highly of yourself too. You think that you're going to be able to get those four points if you try to. You're regarding yourself too highly. It's quite a miracle that someone like you managed to live for so long. After all, those guys who don't know their place are mostly already dead by now."

Mitchell's face reddened in anger when he heard all of that.

They were speaking in a nasty manner, not only calling him an idiot but even saying that Mitchell would definitely die.

Mitchell clenched his teeth tightly as he glared at them viciously, "What do you know?! It's not like you've seen me fight before. You don't know how strong I am at all. It's definitely risky for me to pick the fourth level, but there's no way I'll die even if there's some danger. I'll walk out of the Black Path alive! I won't even be heavily injured!"

As he said that, Mitchell held his head high.

Everything he said seemed incredibly firm and resolved. Yet, when the other two heard Mitchell's words, they started to laugh.

Haversham in particular was laughing in an incredibly exaggerated manner, as if he had heard an amazing joke.

The laughter attracted a lot of attention from around them.

Mitchell's face reddened even more at their laughing, and he seemed incredibly emotional. He had never been laughed at like that before in his life.
