

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4051

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4051-Their actions were basically the equivalent of trampling all over his dignity.

Mitchell did not want to endure it anymore. "I'm going over right now! I'll use my results to slap both of them in the face!"

After he said that, he walked right over to one of the Black Paths. Mitchell was quite furious and went over with a storm over his head.

Haversham scoffed and said, "This guy is truly stubborn. He actually went over! We already said it just now, but those who think they're better than they actually are will always pay the price. A warrior like him should've just been smart about it and picked a lower difficulty. The higher difficulties were prepared for people like us. Trying to challenge them will only end up in death!"

Haversham looked down on warriors who were not as strong as him the most.

He detested them trying to pick higher difficulties because it was like a commoner insisting on joining an event meant for nobles.

It was completely out of place!

At that moment, Mitchell could no longer hear what was being said behind him. He had only one thought in mind, which was to use his skills to slap them in the face!

Of the nine Black Paths, seven were being used. Only two of them were empty. Mitchell walked to one of those that was not in use and was seriously looking at the nine crystals in front of him.

Every Black Path had nine crystals neatly displayed. It represented nine difficulties. One just needed to inject their energy into the difficulty they choose.

Mitchell looked at the fourth crystal and hesitated for a moment before he looked at the third one. In the end, he injected his energy into the fourth crystal.

When the fourth crystal lit up, the Black Path was officially opened.

Mitchell took a deep breath, and his steps were a bit heavy, but he still walked up the Black Path with resolve.

When he stood in the middle of the Black Path, the whole place was suddenly shrouded in mist. The mist covered the whole Black Path, obstructing all sight.

After seeing that, Lourain sighed helplessly. He had a conflicted look on his face.

“This challenge really is a test of human character. Every time a challenger steps in, they will be surrounded by mist. Everyone else will have their view obstructed, so no one knows how difficult the challenges actually are. All they can do is evaluate the difficulty based on who successfully completed the challenges before this...”

The fact that the mist obstructed all sight really did make it a test of character.

No one knew what the actual difficulty was, and what they would face. No one knew what sort of difficult challenges were being attempted by the challengers in the fog.

However, the rewards were plain for all to see, and the difficulty was up to the participant.

The most testing thing was the fact that the participants would be given tokens based on their total scores in the White Abyss, and be sent to the corresponding training areas.

Everyone wanted to enter even better training areas, but the better the training area, the more points were needed.

If they wanted a lot of points, then they would need to choose the harder difficulties. With those conditions in place, the participants were all in incredibly difficult positions.

Everyone looked at the Black Path with conflicted expressions. Their rationality was clashing with their inner thoughts.

Lourain clenched his teeth. “Jack, what difficulty do you think I should choose?”

Jack turned to look at Lourain, thinking about it for a moment before saying, "The second difficulty level would already be risky."

Lourain managed to get one point in the Three Energy Space.

On the Path of Fate, Lionel's sudden attack caused Lourain to get no points at all. The lowest token needed three points, which was why Jack asked Lourain to choose the second difficulty.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4052

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4052-Having Lourain choose the second level of difficulty was probably not too risky. After all, Lourain had improved a lot while he was with Jack. Lourain had experienced a lot of things too.

In particular, Lourain had been able to constantly train and battle on the Toman Battlefield since Jack had been with him.

Before entering the Radiant Hall, Lourain had even managed to get quite a lot of items to improve himself with the spirit crystals that he earned.

Lourain was already incredibly close to becoming an above-average warrior and was just a tiny sliver away from that level.

Lourain nodded. "I think I can do it. There's no way I can challenge the third level, but the second level shouldn't be too big of a problem."

At that moment, the Black Path at the center suddenly let out a wave of white light. Right after that, a figure floated toward the White Abyss from within.

"My friend succeeded! I knew he would succeed!" A man in shorts said excitedly.

A warrior next to him scoffed and said, "It's just the second level of difficulty, did you need to be so happy about it? If I didn't know any better, I would have thought that he succeeded in challenging the fourth level."

The man in shorts froze before saying angrily, "So what if it's the second level of difficulty? It's not something everyone can pass. There have been those who died in the second level of difficulty before this! He's always been careful, and that's why he chose the second level. With his skills, he would have even been able to challenge the third level!"

After he said that, those that were around him immediately started to mock him. "Stop bragging, alright? What do you mean he's always been careful? He's just someone who knows his place and knows that he isn't strong enough. That's why he didn't pick a higher difficulty. Did you think he'd have let a chance to earn one more point slip? You can say whatever you want, but don't think that we're all idiots who would believe whatever you say."

They were bickering back and forth when the sixth Black Path suddenly let out a ray of black light.

Right after that, a figure was sent flying from the black light with a bang.

A corpse that was covered in injuries was thrown to the center of the plaza.

"No!" Someone shouted out as he rushed to the corpse, reaching out to hold the body that had already stopped breathing.

His face was filled with anguish.

Seeing that scene, everyone sighed quietly. No one felt much pity since it had been that person's choice.

The body was full of claw marks. It was evident that the body had been injured by a beast. Some of the wounds were so deep that bones could be seen. It made for an ugly sight.

The fatal wound was on the body's neck. There was a bite mark there, so the person was probably bitten to death.

The plaza was suddenly much quieter after the corpse appeared.

Quite a few people exchanged solemn looks with each other.

This time, the test really was a huge test of character. If one was more careful, they would be able to leave the place alive, but they would lose out on an opportunity as well.

Points were very important to them. Yet, if they chose something that exceeded their abilities, it was very possible that they would lose their lives.

Lourain looked at that corpse, not able to say anything for a long time.

He remembered that the participant had chosen the fourth difficulty in the end and lost his life.

The next moments had more people passing or being tossed back to the Black Abyss as corpses.

Jack did not participate in the challenge immediately because he wanted to see what kind of skill was needed for the various difficulties.

He finally got a clear view and had just wanted to tell Lourain when he heard an exclamation.

A black light lit up, meaning another participant died.

Lourain widened his eyes, "That direction... It's that participant named Mitchell..."

The moment Lourain said that, Mitchell's corpse was thrown out.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4053

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4053-Practically every corpse had been thrown to the center of the Black Abyss.

When Smeil saw Mitchell's corpse, his whole face paled. His body started to tremble, and his eyes widened dramatically.

He could not believe that his fellow disciple had died just like that! Lourain sighed. He had thought that Mitchell would be able to succeed in the challenge, but this ended up being the result.

Dante's cold laughter could be heard from afar, "I told him he didn't know his place, but he refused to listen. He thought too highly of himself, so this is the end result. I called him an idiot, but he refused to admit it. He even declared he'd use his results to slap us in the face. What a joke!"

Those words were especially hard to listen to at that moment.

Smeil's eyes were completely red as he looked up and glared at Dante viciously, looking like he wanted to rip out a piece of the other party. However, Dante did not seem to mind.

He scoffed as he continued to say, "Are you unhappy? Did I say anything wrong? He didn't know his place and insisted on choosing the fourth level of difficulty. In the end, he lost the challenge and died! The truth is plain for all to see, so why are you unhappy about the result?!"

Smeil was getting so angry that he was about to lose his mind.

He quickly started walking over, looking like he was about to attack.

When Lourain saw him in that state, he reached out and grabbed Smeil's arm. "Are you crazy? Are you really going to attack someone in a restricted area?"

Anyone who dared to attack others in a restricted area would immediately turn to ash. The laws did not care how wronged a person was.

Lourain had reminded Smeil in time, causing Smeil to snap out of it. He breathed heavily, and his expression started to twist.

However, he quickly managed to control himself, "Thank you for the reminder!"

He saluted Lourain gratefully and did not continue arguing with Dante. Instead, he turned around and walked to the center of the Black Abyss to collect Mitchell's corpse.

Lourain sighed, "Actually, that guy isn't wrong. If one doesn't know their place, they could very well lose their lives..."

Dante scoffed in disdain, no longer looking at Smeil as he nodded at Haversham, "It's almost time. Let's go!"

After the two of them were done, they walked toward the Black Path.

When they arrived, Dante did not hesitate to pick the fifth difficulty, while Haversham picked the fourth one. Everyone had strange looks on their faces when they saw that. After all, most of the warriors there were conflicted over picking the second or third difficulties.

Meanwhile, Dante picked the fifth one without any hesitation at all.

Everyone could see how confident he was.

A warrior from a third-grade world said unhappily, “Whatever! It’s suicide trying to compare ourselves with this high-ranking above average warrior.”

After making the choice, the two of them steadily walked on the Black Path. The mist that obscured all sight appeared around the paths, causing everyone to look at the paths in silence.

Jack laughed as he said in exasperation, “We were too slow. There aren’t any empty spaces remaining.”

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4054

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4054-Earlier, seven of the Black Paths were being used, while two of them were empty.

At that moment, Dante had clearly been a step ahead of the two of them, so they were forced to wait.

Lourain sighed and said, “It’s a good thing. I can take this chance to catch my breath. Actually, I’m not mentally prepared yet. I’m so worried that I’ll be careless and die inside.”

Jack patted Lourain on the shoulder. “Don’t burden yourself with such heavy thoughts. You’ve improved quite a lot, and you’re only one step away from being an above average warrior. You should be able to handle the second level of difficulty. Even if you’re not careful and end up injured, they should just be minor injuries...”

Lourain knew how Jack’s personality was.

Jack never exaggerated things and always spoke the truth no matter who the listener was. With Jack’s words, Lourain’s mental burden lightened quite a bit.

“Lourain?” There was suddenly a voice behind him.

Hearing this, Jack frowned.

To prevent any unnecessary trouble, even Lourain had put on a disguise. There should be no one who recognized him.

The two of them turned around to see a man in green robes. He frowned as he looked at them curiously.

When the two of them turned around, that person suddenly had a look of surprise, “Oh, I’m sorry! I’ve got the wrong person...”

The moment that was said, Lourain excitedly grabbed that person by the sleeve. “Vaughn! It’s me!”

As he said that, he excitedly took off his disguise, revealing his true face.

When Vaughn saw that it was Lourain, he let out a sigh of relief.

He smiled and said, “I knew it was you from your back, but when you turned around, I saw a complete stranger! I thought I had the wrong person! Hahaha!”

After that, he said with some hesitation, “Did you get into some trouble? Why did you disguise yourself?”

Lourain’s lips stiffened as some hesitation flashed in his eyes. He suddenly found himself unable to explain.

Vaughn was close to him, but he did not know if Jack was willing to let him tell the truth or not.

When Vaughn saw Lourain’s expression, he immediately felt that Lourain was in a rough spot.

He smiled and put his hand up. “It’s fine... If it’s difficult to explain, then there’s no need to do so...”

Hearing this, Lourain nodded.

He did not want to say too much about Jack. Even though telling Vaughn who Jack was was not that bad, he still felt that it was better for others to know less about Jack.

Lourain simply introduced everyone. He only introduced Jack as a friend who helped him a lot.

After hearing that, Vaughn no longer regarded Jack that coldly.

“Oh, what a coincidence! You’re here too!” At that moment, a sly voice was heard behind them.

Jack turned around to see a sinister-looking man and a large man looking over toward them with ill intentions.

After hearing those people speak, Vaughn's face immediately darkened. "Are the two of you done? Are you two getting ahead of yourselves just because I don't want to deal with you?"

When Lourain saw the two of them, his expression soured as well. He looked at them like they were two piles of crap.

Lourain could not hold back his disgust for them and turned to whisper to Jack, "The clan those two belong to has a grudge against my clan. Whenever we meet their disciples, there would definitely be some conflict. I've fought those two before as well. The one on the left is Keller, while the tall one is Burke..."

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4055

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4055-Jack nodded.

Vaughn looked incredibly sour as well. "You don't know this, but I was sent to the southeastern side just now. The two of them were lucky enough to be sent there together while I was alone. After they saw me, they kept going with their snide words. We can't fight here, and I don't want to waste any time on them, so I started to walk here. That's how I ran into you. Those two are just disgusting. They're following me wherever I go like parasites."

Lourain looked at the two of them with hatred. "Are the two of you just parasites? Do you need to follow wherever others go? Can't you tell that Vaughn is in no mood to deal with the two of you?"

Right after that was said, their expressions darkened completely.

Keller sneered and said, "I've wanted to rip that mouth of yours off for a long time! I can go wherever I want. Is that something you're allowed to control?! Both of us have gone through so many challenges lately, and we managed to get some very good things."

"Our skills are so much better than they used to be! In front of me, you're just an ant that can be stepped on at any time. You should be thankful that we're in a restricted area. Otherwise, I would have sliced you to pieces for what you said!"

Lourain scoffed at those words.

If he had not been following Jack, those words might have affected him a little. However, their words felt like a joke to him at this point.

Those two could improve, but was he not allowed to do the same?

Looking at Lourain's expression of disdain, Keller's face darkened even more.

He scoffed and said, "Brat! Do you think I'm joking with you? If you don't believe me, let's settle it on the Black Path! I've already decided to choose the third level of difficulty! What about you?"

As he said that, Keller's voice was brimming with confidence. He had a lot of confidence in facing the third level of difficulty.

Lourain heard that and was stunned. If that confidence was not faked, then Keller really would be stronger than him!

He should already be at the level of an above average warrior, and a reasonably ranked one at that. It meant that Keller had gone through a major improvement.

Vaughn raised an eyebrow as he whispered, "The two of them really did get incredibly lucky. I don't know what they went through in Chaos City, but the two of them managed to get over twenty golden keys. With those keys, they managed to get a lot of valuable treasures..."

"After taking those treasures, they went through quite a few challenges too. Their skills have taken a big leap forward in just half a year! They're already above average warriors."

If that was the case, then those two really did get incredibly lucky.

Lourain's lips twitched, wondering why he never got that luck. Even though he had managed to improve thanks to Jack, he was still a bit away from being at their level.

Keller held his head high as he looked at Lourain with complete disdain.

"Right now, you're just trash in our lives! You aren't even worthy of wiping my shoes! You have no right to act so arrogantly before us!"

As Keller said that, he looked at Lourain as though Lourain was a pile of crap. Lourain's expression darkened.

This time, he was quite infuriated. The last time he met Keller, they had been about equal in strength.

Keller had only improved by a bit, yet he already dared to make such bold claims.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4056

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4056-he more Lourain thought about it, the angrier he got.

He could not stop himself from taking a step forward. "What? Who do you think you are to talk about another's worth? If you want to talk about that, then in front of my friend here, you're nothing!"

Lourain's anger soared, surging through his entire body.

He had quite a bit of past conflict with Keller and Burke. Even before entering the Whirling World, they were regularly in conflict.

Each time they encountered each other, there would be an argument on the spot. There was no way Lourain could stand the two of them hurling insults at him like that!

At that moment, all he could do was use Jack to help himself. He was weaker than those two, but Jack was over a hundred times stronger!

Jack let out a helpless smile. He knew how angry Lourain was at that moment, so he did not want to be too petty. He would let Lourain use him for leverage.

Keller raised an eyebrow as he looked at the man next to Lourain who had been silent for the whole time.

Jack looked quite unassuming and did not seem to be holding anything back. He seemed like his skills were only around Lourain's level. There was nothing impressive about him.

Keller pointed at Jack, "Is he that friend you were referring to?"

Lourain nodded proudly. Jack was obviously the person he was referring to.

Keller and Burke both measured Jack up and failed to see anything special about him at all.

Internally, they wondered if Lourain was trying to pull one over them. He was no match for them, so he tried to use someone else to salvage his dignity.

Burke laughed and said, "Him? He's clearly just around your level. Stop trying to scare us!"

Lourain looked at Burke disdainfully. "That's just because you're an ignorant fool. The two of you should be feeling thankful that this is a restricted area. If we actually fought, even four of you wouldn't be enough to face him!"

Vaughn was completely stunned as he listened. He started to measure that warrior who seemed close to Lourain as well.

Those two had been annoying them the whole time, so Lourain had not managed to tell Vaughn anything about that man. He merely gave a brief introduction.

With what Lourain was saying, that man called North Woods seemed to be very strong. He was probably in the top ten among above average warriors!

If that person really was that strong, then it would be fantastic!

Burke said disdainfully, "Stop trying to brag so much! You speak like he's in the top ten among above average warriors! If he's really that skilled, then how could he possibly have any dealings with you? With your skills, you wouldn't be able to catch his eye at all! You sure are good at bragging. However, don't assume that everyone else is stupid enough to believe everything you say!"

Vaughn raised an eyebrow. Even though he hated Burke a lot, he had to admit that Burke made sense.

If that person really was an above average warrior who was in the top ten in rankings, then there was no way he would be Lourain's friend.

Looking at the two of them, it was obvious that they were quite close.

Vaughn could not help but have some questions in his heart.

Lourain scoffed, "What do you know..."

He was just about to continue arguing when Jack reached out to stop him.

He shot a look at two Black Paths that had just been emptied and said calmly, "It's not like we can fight here. There's no point in arguing..."

There was no point in wasting time on those people.

Lourain nodded and spoke a few words with Vaughn before he stopped speaking. He rolled his eyes at Keller and Burke before following Jack onto the Black Path.

They needed to focus on what was important. There was no point in arguing with those two.

Following what was already decided, Lourain chose the second difficulty.

Jack stopped for a moment and injected energy into the ninth crystal.

When others saw that, there was suddenly a huge commotion.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4057

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4057-"Is that guy crazy? Is he trying to commit suicide? The ninth level! I thought I would never see anyone attempt that difficulty!"

"Who is that guy? Did something happen to him? Doesn't he know what the ninth level of difficulty represents? Maybe he's just trying to go right into the beast's den?"

"What beast's den?! This guy probably just wanted to die. After we entered the Black Abyss, the token already sent all the rules into our heads. Either this guy is a complete idiot, or he is mentally handicapped! Otherwise, there's no way he wouldn't know what the ninth level means!"

"Something must have happened to him. Otherwise, how could he possibly choose the ninth level of difficulty?!"

When Keller and Burke saw Jack's choice, they were stunned. After that, they started laughing frantically as if they had just heard the greatest joke of their lives.

Even though the two of them were laughing in such an exaggerated manner, Vaughn was in no mood to get angry. He was a bit stunned as he looked at Jack's back, not knowing what to say.

He thought that Jack must be crazy as well.

Choosing the ninth level of difficulty was basically suicide. Even the eighth level of difficulty was something no one could pass, let alone the ninth!

Even warriors at the peak would not choose something so crazy.

Choosing the ninth level of difficulty was no different from suicide. Vaughn's lips trembled a bit as he fell completely silent.

Meanwhile, Keller and Burke looked like they had been inhaling laughing gas as they laughed in an increasingly exaggerated manner.

As they laughed, they said, "Is this guy just here to make us laugh? Did he just choose the ninth level of difficulty just to prove his ability?"

Burke scoffed and said, "There's something wrong with his head. Any normal person wouldn't do something like that. Keller, how long do you think this guy will last inside?!"

Keller shook his head, "I'm not sure about that. After all, none of us know what kind of challenge is inside! However, that guy will definitely die. That's something I'm sure of!"

Time slowly ticked on.

After a few minutes, the Black Path that Jack was on was still calm.

Everyone was quite stunned at the sight.

Was that guy incredibly adept at running away?

He could just be avoiding all the attacks on the Black Path.

Was that why he lasted so long?

Jack did not care about what was going on outside, and what the discussions were after everyone saw his choice.

When the mist covered up the Black Path, a crimson figure walked out of the mist. It was a beast that looked like a tiger, and there were crystals all around its body.

Jack frowned as he looked at the beast, vaguely remembering that the beast was called the Ruby Tiger. As for what level of power the Ruby Tiger had, Jack could not really remember it.

After all, Jack only knew about the Ruby Tiger from those ancient heroes. However, those ancient heroes did not remember everything in detail, and there were too few memories about the tiger.

That Ruby Tiger was still immature, but it already had an impressive aura around it. It did not seem weak at all. After all, the Ruby Tiger was part of the ninth level of difficulty.

Jack took a deep breath and was on full alert.

The Ruby Tiger shook its head, and the crystals around it shook as well. Its red eyes stared right at Jack as if he was the prey that would die very soon.

Jack took a deep breath, not daring to hesitate at all as he took out his gray sword.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4058

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4058-His left hand started to form seal after seal. Countless seals started to condense in the air, forming a broken blade.

The Broken Soul Blade had countless red runes glowing on it and was filled with soul energy that circulated all around him, making Jack look like he was covered in a layer of black.

Jack raised the sword in his hand, and the Broken Soul Blade immediately fused with Jack's sword. The moment they fused, countless red runes appeared on his sword as well.

The ninth level of difficulty could not be underestimated, and Jack immediately used a storm god rank technique. After the test on the Path of Fate, Jack was not sure how much power he needed to use, or if he was even assured of victory after giving his all.

Jack was not absolutely confident, but he still chose the ninth level of difficulty in the end. When he chose that difficulty, Jack only looked calm.

In truth, he was very conflicted inside. Twenty-seven points meant that he would get the red token. That was the highest level token.

With the red token, he would be able to enter the best training ground. Jack had managed to get the full nine points in the past challenges.

If he chose a lower difficulty this time, then he would miss out on the red token, and would only be able to get an orange one.

The orange token only needed twenty-one points.

Jack had counted things out very clearly. If he chose the eighth difficulty, then he would be wasting five points. So, he chose the ninth difficulty in the end!

His conflict was actually just like Mitchell's earlier. It was just that he was more confident than Mitchell.

Many in the Black Abyss had the same problem. The choice was with the participants, and they were basically floating between heaven and hell.

The rules of the challenge were incredibly testing of one's character. It was precisely what the person who set the test wanted to challenge.

The Radiant Hall was not just testing a person's skill and talent, but their hearts as well. It was quite a holistic test.

A low roar broke Jack's thought. The Ruby Tiger lowered its body, adopting an attacking stance. Its claws started to glow red.

Jack could immediately tell that the red glow was a flame attack used by many flame attribute beasts.

The Ruby Tiger shook the crystals on its body. After that, its legs swooshed as it rushed at Jack.

Jack aimed his sword right at the Ruby Tiger's neck and slashed down!

The Ruby Tiger was faster than Jack expected. In just a flash, it was already right in front of Jack. It raised its right claw, and when the sword was slashing at it, it quickly avoided the attack before slapping its claw at the sword.

With a bang, Jack felt a massive force coming from his sword.

The Broken Soul Blade, which had been unrivaled all this time, was batted away for a full meter by the claw. Even though it was only a meter, he could clearly feel the power of the Ruby Tiger.

Jack frowned and was about to change his attack angle to pierce the Ruby Tiger's stomach instead. However, he never expected that the tiger would open its mouth right at that moment and bite right onto the sword!

At the same time, it raised its other claw and slashed it right at Jack's face. The claw was filled with flames, and he could feel the heat brushing past his left cheek.

If that claw landed on Jack's face, then Jack would probably be completely mangled. At the same time, the flames would enter his body, and he would probably lose his life!

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4059

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4059-Jack bit his lower lip, admitting to himself that he had underestimated his opponent. He should not have used the Broken Soul Blade for this battle.

The Broken Soul Blade was a storm god rank technique, but it was still just the most basic attack from Soul Sky. He had used Broken Soul Blade because he wanted to test things out, but it ended up throwing him into danger.

Under the urgent situation, Jack let out a shout as the sword that the tiger was biting suddenly exploded with an imperious power.

The Broken Soul Blade left the gray sword and entered the tiger's throat from its mouth.

The Ruby Tiger quickly let go of its bite!

Then, it started to rapidly retreat. Only then did Jack manage to preserve the left side of his face.

After resolving that urgent moment, Jack did not pause for a single moment as he took advantage of the time the tiger was retreating. The laws of space started to activate under his feet, and he disappeared from his original spot.

When he appeared again, he was already behind the Ruby Tiger.

The Ruby Tiger did not expect that at all and was unable to react. Jack did not even think about it before he pierced right through the tiger's back!

Jack only heard a crack, and he suddenly widened his eyes!

He was shocked to notice that the sword did not really injure the tiger at all despite piercing its back. He could clearly feel the attack only falling on the red crystals on its back. The red crystals suddenly shimmered with dark red runes.

The force from the attack was suddenly transmitted all over its body, evenly spreading the destructive force throughout the body.

Each of the crystals suffered from the exact same force, and the cracking sounds were constantly heard. Every one of the crystals on the tiger started to crack, but the cracks were not large. They were only the size of a nail.

At the same time, the tiger let out a low roar as it quickly sped forward, pulling away from Jack! After seeing that, Jack's expression darkened a bit.

The tiger really was hard to deal with!

Earlier, his attack had not been weak despite him not using his full might. If it had been a warrior at the peak who was in the lower ranks there, the person would probably not have been able to take Jack's attack. Yet, he failed to truly injure the Ruby Tiger, and merely caused some cracks!

Furthermore, he was shocked to notice that the Ruby Tiger did not advance after it pulled away. The runes on the crystals started to glow even brighter, and the cracks slowly started to recover!

The Ruby Tiger was not just shockingly strong defensively. Even its rate of recovery was not to be scoffed at. That caused Jack to feel a lot more pressure on himself!

At the same time, he was left in a difficult predicament.

How was he going to defeat it?

It seemed like he would need to put his life on the line this time!

He needed to shatter all of the crystals in one go so that the tiger would not be able to recover that quickly. Then, he needed to use that opportunity to attack again. Only then would he be able to win!

Jack took a deep breath before he kept his sword. His hands started to rapidly form seals that started to merge in the air. A black ring the height of half a person was formed from the seals, and it slowly spun around in the air, making cracking sounds!

At that moment, all of the crystals on the Ruby Tiger started to recover.

After the Ruby Tiger recovered to its earlier spirited state, it started to get closer to Jack again, and its eyes were filled with murderous intent.

It was as if the earlier injury had stirred up all the anger in the Ruby Tiger's heart.

Jack pushed forward, and the Soul Burst

Ring shot at the Ruby Tiger incredibly quickly. The Ruby Tiger looked up and opened its mouth, letting out a devastating roar.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4060

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4060-This time, the roar was different from the roars before.

There was a sound wave attack within the roar itself. The roar was so loud that it shook the air around, forming ripple after ripple.

With a bang, the Soul Burst Ring clashed with the sound waves.

The Soul Burst Ring spun frantically, bringing forth immense power as it constantly destroyed wave after wave. The Ruby Tiger's sound waves showed no signs of weakening, never diminishing at all.

The two techniques clashed in the air, and it was impossible to tell who had the upper hand!

Jack clenched his teeth. If that went on, he would definitely lose!

His true energy was being rapidly depleted. Storm god rank techniques were naturally very strong, but they consumed a lot of energy as well.

Before this, he was able to deal with all his opponents with one attack, so he did not need to use that much true energy. Yet, this time, he had to deplete his true energy to sustain the Soul Burst Ring. Only then would he be able to hold off the Ruby Tiger's sound attack!

Jack frowned and muttered, "This is it!"

A gray mist started to rise slowly behind Jack. The mist had the laws of the soul within it.

A gray figure started to form behind him, and the figure looked like a clone of Jack.

It was Jack's world avatar.

After his world avatar was formed, it suddenly let out a wave of intense energy that shot right into the Soul Burst Ring. With the support of the world avatar, the Soul Burst Ring suddenly let out an intense red light, and wave after wave of sound was destroyed by the Soul Burst Ring.

In just a moment, the Soul Burst Ring was already right in front of the Ruby Tiger, causing a look of shock to flash in its eyes.

At that moment, the Ruby Tiger was already aware of the danger it was in. It tried to attack as it retreated, pulling away from the Soul Burst Ring.

Jack could immediately see what the Ruby Tiger was planning.

He let out a low shout as he started to form seals with his hands again. Those seals started to flow into the Soul Burst Ring, and the Soul Burst Ring's energy started to increase dramatically.

The speed at which the sound waves were being destroyed increased another notch. The Ruby Tiger merely took a step back when the Soul Burst Ring suddenly expanded, surrounding the Ruby Tiger.

This time, the Ruby Tiger was in complete panic. It wanted to rush out of the Soul Burst Ring, but there was no way Jack would give it the chance to do so.

Jack shouted out, "Explode!"

With a bang, the Soul Burst Ring suddenly exploded. The intense explosion caused a huge shockwave, but Jack was already prepared for it, so he was merely pushed a step back by the resulting shockwave.

The Ruby Tiger, however, was not so lucky. It was caught right in the middle of the explosion, and its body suffered the full force of the blast. No matter how strong its defenses were, they were useless before that explosion.

The crystals around its body started to shatter, slowly turning into dust. Through the cracks, Jack could clearly see the tiger's real skin.

Jack once again used the laws of space under his feet and disappeared from where he stood! When he appeared again, he was already close to the Ruby Tiger.

He did not dare to hesitate at all as he took out a dagger from Mustard Seed, aiming right between the cracks as he slashed downward.

At that moment, the tiger was already heavily injured. When it sensed the danger, it frantically struggled. However, it was already too late.

With a squelch, fresh blood splattered all over the ground, and the tiger suddenly lost the ability to struggle. Its four limbs stopped moving, and Jack took a deep breath as he wiped off the sweat from his forehead.

He had won! He almost had his face ripped off earlier.