

No.1 Supreme Warrior by Moneto

Chapter 4124

At that moment, the evil beasts that were rushing over looked like one another.

They had green skin and looked similar to humans. However, their limbs were longer, and they had red eyes and incredibly long teeth!

They looked incredibly vicious.

"Everyone, calm down. We will head to the south!" Jack said calmly.

In truth, no one there knew anything about Jack. All they knew was that Wellis seemed very polite to him, and would regularly discuss things with him. So, he was probably quite strong.

At that moment, his calm tone was like a command before the battle.

Jack started to form countless seals with his hands, and a rattling Soul Chain appeared. It danced in the air, and he reached out to grab it. His expression turned serious as he headed south!

At that moment, Jack did not think about anything else as he looked right to the south.

"Come with me!"

The moment he said that, eleven people followed Jack and they rushed toward the south.

Only when they got closer to the evil beasts did Jack and the rest clearly see how they looked.

There was a strong rotting smell coming from the front as if it was coming from a corpse that had been rotting for a hundred years. The smell caused everyone to frown.

The dark green skin had a translucent liquid on it. Looking over caused one to gag. Those who could not handle it as well immediately vomited after being assaulted by both the smell and the sight.

Those zombie-like evil beasts had incredibly sharp and bloody teeth. It was as if they had just eaten. It caused everyone to shudder in horror. Even Wellis had to frown at the sight as his expression darkened.

Jack whipped his chain over, and the chain that had dark red runes on it slammed right onto two of the evil beasts with a tremendous wave of soul energy!

Bang!

Two of the evil beasts exploded into pieces!

Wellis was the second one to attack. He aimed his sword at one of the pieces, and slashed it right on its arm!

Crack!

The sword pierced through the evil beast's dark green skin, but it only managed to pierce through half of it before it got stuck!

Wellis widened his eyes in disbelief.

Even beasts that looked the same had a difference in strength?

Jack had clearly shattered two beasts with just a flick of his chain, but Wellis' own sword was stuck on an arm.

The evil beast let out a roar before he reached out with its other arm to claw at Wellis' face.

Even though the beast's body was hard, it was still incredibly quick. In just a flash, its claws were already in front of Wellis!

Even though Wellis was incredibly shocked, he quickly reacted as he moved his head away, barely avoiding the claw. Yet, the smell alone almost caused Wellis to go dizzy!

His intuition told him that the scent was probably poisonous. If he inhaled too much of it, it might even cost him his life.

"Attack their foreheads, it's their weak point!" Jack shouted out.

Wellis immediately reacted as he pulled up his sword and leaped up, aiming right at the evil beast's forehead before he slashed down.

A red slash quickly pierced right into the evil beast's forehead. With a crack, the evil beast seemed to have lost all its energy as it immediately crumbled onto the ground.

When the others saw that it worked, they immediately did everything they could to attack the foreheads of the evil beasts!