

No.1 Supreme Warrior by Moneto

Chapter 4144

Jack frowned as he turned to look at Zubac, "What have you all tried?"

Zubac sighed. He felt like Jack was being incredibly stubborn. However, Zubac had always been a mild- mannered man.

He did not mock Jack, and patiently continued, "I am of metal attribute. To test if there would be an effect if two different attributes clashed, I attacked together with a wood attribute warrior, but it was completely useless. Just like before, there were just some ripples on the barrier but nothing happened."

Jack frowned and continued, "Is there a difference in the ripples if one person attacks or two?"

Zubac shook his head, "There's no difference at all. If there were, I wouldn't be wasting my time here. I've been here for five days, and I've tried everything. It's all useless."

As he said that, there was a sliver of disappointment in Zubac's tone. He did not know when he would be able to leave the place.

"Why is this challenge so hard? I even feel like it's impossible to leave this place!"

Jack frowned as he looked at the scroll again.

The earlier arguments had stopped, and everyone was deep in discussions again. Even though they could not see any hope, no one was willing to give up thinking about it. They would only be able to leave this place if they broke the formation.

Everyone there already had a certain amount of points. They did not want to just be trapped here forever without being able to exchange those points for treasures.

"There's nothing wrong with thinking about it, but you might've been thinking about it the wrong way," Jack said calmly.

His tone was very light as if he was talking to himself. Zubac was very close to Jack, so he managed to hear everything.

Zubac raised an eyebrow and felt like Jack really was motivated. However, it was hard to keep up the motivation in a place like this.

After failing so much, Zubac lost all his motivation as he started to accept the truth.

With that in mind, Zubac took a deep breath and looked up into the air, "I wonder how long it will take before I can leave this place. This place is so annoying."

Right after he said that, Jack suddenly looked at Zubac, "Let's try it out again."

Zubac was taken aback, "Try what out? Do you want to attack the purple barrier together?"

Jack shook his head, "You've understood things wrongly. Don't use your technique to attack, try something else."

Zubac's lips twitched. He found himself at a loss for words. It was as if he could not understand what Jack was saying at all.

Attacking without any techniques?

Was he supposed to run into it with his physical body like before?

Zubac shook his head vigorously, "Calm down, I've tried that before too. There's no difference between doing it with someone or alone. It'll just make the two of us look like idiots."

Just thinking about a scene like that rendered Zubac speechless. He would definitely be laughed at if he did that.
