

No.1 Supreme Warrior by Moneto

Chapter 4155

Lourain had an absolutely sour expression on his face.

With six points, all he got was a Purple Energy Pill. He found it hard to accept. Even if it was worth something, it was still only twenty-five million!

That amount of spirit crystals was useless.

Could he have already used all his luck at the White Abyss?

"What? Why are you so affected? It was just six points. Getting a Purple Energy Pill is already quite decent," A tone of mockery could suddenly be heard.

Lourain's face turned cold as he turned to face the person who uttered. He knew that it was Syfen, who had just mocked the fat man earlier.

That person was with Seymour. He had skills and had Seymour behind him, so he dared to do things without any fear.

Lourain clenched his teeth as he hated people like that. He was already mortal enemies with Seymour anyway, so he did not care about offending Seymour even if everyone else did.

At that moment, he was in an especially bad mood.

"Can you stop barking like a wild dog? No matter what happens around you, you seem intent on barking at everyone to prove your existence," Lourain's words were very direct, and Syfen was completely stunned when he heard that.

Syfen never would have dreamed that Lourain would dare to call him a wild dog to his face.

When everyone else heard it, quite a few of them were stunned.

Who was that to dare to face Syfen head-on?

Was he not afraid that Syfen would kill him?

Could that person have some significant background?

Even if he did, there was no way he could be so fearless.

His words were completely meant to offend Syfen. Even if he had some background, Syfen would not let him off easily.

"Brat, what did you say? How dare you?! Do you want to die?! I'll skin you alive!" Syfen almost choked in his anger.

Lourain's words completely humiliated him just now. It caused Syfen to become furious!

Lourain scoffed, "Did I say anything wrong? Do I even know you? I don't, so why are you trying to meddle in my business?! You want to bark at everything that happens here, so aren't you just a wild dog?"

A lot of the onlookers struggled to hold back their laughter.

Right after that, there was some giggling around them. Most of them did not like the fact that Syfen was mocking everyone around him. He was acting without any reservations because of who he was.

Lourain was right, Syfen really was a wild dog that barked everywhere.

Syfen's face reddened when he heard the laughter around him. Embarrassment started to crawl up his body.

His eyes widened as he said, "Brat! Do you want to die?!"

Lourain raised an eyebrow, "What? Do you want to hit me? Come on then!"

Even if Syfen was crazy, he would not dare to attack. He was so angry his whole body was trembling, but he could only threaten Lourain with his words. Yet, those words meant nothing to Lourain. Lourain had heard so many threats recently that he had gone numb to them.

At that moment, Seymour, who had been resting, slowly stood up.

He walked over to Lourain's position with a calm expression on his face, as if he had heard nothing just now.

Jack noticed that Seymour was moving, so he frowned as he looked away from the wooden boxes.
