

No.1 Supreme Warrior by Moneto

Chapter 4171

Jack frowned. After he reached out to grab Presti's neck, Presti's life ended with a crack.

Shin's eyes widened as he looked at Jack with fear. His savior could very well kill him!

Cavill started to panic as well. He looked at Jack with alarm. Even though he was thankful that Jack saved the two of them just now, he had no way to tell what Jack would do after this.

Jack slowly walked in front of them, and he did not show much emotion on his face.

Cavill said in a dry voice, "Jack, you...?"

Jack shook his head, "Don't panic. I won't kill you. Let's work together. It's not like only one person will be able to enter after the door opens."

Shin looked at Jack with an incredibly inquisitive look.

He thought about it before he said, "I... I don't want to work together. I'll give you the key as thanks for saving me. That Valley of Enlightenment doesn't sound like a good place at all. If I enter, I don't even know if I'll be able to survive."

As he spoke, Shin had a bitter look on his face.

He looked at the injuries on his body. It would be a miracle if he managed to recover his full strength in a short amount of time. Going to a place where geniuses trained together with Jack would just be suicidal. He had enough self-awareness for that.

Shin took a deep breath, "I'm a realistic person. It's already good enough that I managed to survive. There are warriors from first-grade worlds in the Valley of Enlightenment. With my meager skills, I can't even handle warriors from second-grade worlds there."

He took out a red key from his storage ring, "I thought that this key could unlock some amazing treasure that would send me to greater heights. Now it looks like it was all just a dream. However, it's good that I misunderstood... If I knew what the key did, I wouldn't have held on against Presti for so long. I'd have given it to him, and I wouldn't be alive right now."

It was all down to luck in the end. Jack knelt down and took out a recovery pill as well as five pieces of purple gold, putting it in Shin's hands.

If he could enter the Valley of Enlightenment through that door, then he would not need to spend large amounts of purple gold to purchase the ninth-grade spirit crystals. It was no big deal to give Shin five pieces of purple gold as thanks.

Shin widened his eyes and hurriedly refused it, "Jack, you don't need to be so polite! I'm giving you the key as thanks. If you weren't here and if you didn't save me, I'd be a corpse right now."

Cavill agreed, "That's right. You didn't just save Shin, you saved me and Soare as well. Just keep the gold. The key is nothing to us anyway."

Cavill's tone was incredibly sincere, and Jack nodded as he took the red key.

At that moment, Jack already had two keys, and the last one was with Zayne. Jack already had his next target.

After a brief rest, Shin recovered a little. However, his injuries were quite serious, so he was in no state to fight with his true energy.

After thinking about it, Cavill made the decision, "Let's leave this place. It's too dangerous. You're not the only one who's hurt, Saunders is heavily injured as well."

Shin had the same thought in mind, "That's right. I don't want to continue staying here anymore. I don't even want to stay in the Radiant Hall anymore. There's so much danger here. I just want to make it out of this place alive and wait for the Whirling World to close. I don't want to come here anymore."

Shin was already filled with fear of the Whirling World.

Death was everywhere in that place, and he lived every day filled with worry.
