

No.1 Supreme Warrior by Moneto

Chapter 4175

After seeing that, there was a surprised look on Warren's face. However, he quickly pushed back that surprise. Even if that man was skilled, he would just be an above-average warrior.

Above-average warriors were like paper to him!

"Brat, it looks like you have some skill. However, that means nothing in front of me. I'll show you right now what a warrior at the peak is!"

Right after he said that, he circulated his true energy around his feet. Red energy started to frantically blow away the dust on the ground. He lunged into the air incredibly fast.

Jack raised an eyebrow before he started to form seals with his hands. Countless seals danced around in the air, and a chain appeared. That chain looked like a black dragon as it danced in the air.

Warren scoffed in disdain. It was just a petty trick from an above-average warrior in his eyes. That chain would shatter in just one blow.

He did not even bother thinking about it as he raised the sword in his hand.

A silver ray of light quickly condensed in the air, and countless stars seemed to fall from the sky before they enveloped him.

Shin could not help but remark at the sight, "Sure enough, you can't underestimate the warriors at the peak. I'm no match for them at all."

Cavill consoled, "Otherwise, they would not be so arrogant. There's no need to think about it too much. No matter how strong he is, he can't escape Jack."

Shin nodded as he discarded his thoughts.

Bang!

The silver slash clashed with the Soul Chain, and in just a moment, it was completely shattered by the Soul Chain. It turned into pure energy and dispersed into the air.

Warren widened his eyes in disbelief, "What?"

He did not expect his technique to shatter like paper in front of his opponent. He had failed to put up a fight.

He thought that he would be able to show that man what being truly strong meant, but it went the complete opposite!

"Who are you?!" Warren said with a pale look on his face.

Jack scoffed as a look of disdain flashed on his face. When facing those arrogant fools, it was always best to defeat them before anything else!

Jack's hands started to move again as seal after seal flowed into the Soul Chain. The Soul Chain suddenly expanded and doubled in size! It doubled in speed as well!

The Soul Chain continued to fly in the air. In just a few moments, it was already in front of Warren.

Warren let out an angry roar, "Get lost!"

He slashed out at the Soul Chain, butting all his strength into it!

Unfortunately, there were no effects at all. The Soul Chain had a crack on it, but the red runes started to glow and it completely recovered.

The Soul Chain spun around in the air before it wrapped around Warren.

When Warren saw that the situation was off, he immediately tried to retreat. Yet, it was already too late. Earlier, he had thought that the attack would be somewhat effective, but he only managed to hold on for less than a second!

Suddenly, the Soul Chain quickly wrapped around Warren. The gray mist started to frantically enter Warren's body.

"Argh!"

An incredibly sharp shout filled the air.

After his soul started to decay, Warren was in so much pain he lost his mind. He could no longer control the energy in his body, and he fell to the ground.
