Chapter 9 - In The Wei Family, Only Wei Xiaoqing Is The Only Daughter Of Yours

Deng Hui and Dai Tian turned and looked at Liang Zixuan at the same time.

With her hands behind her back, she straightened her back and smirked.

"That's right!"

Wei Guowei didn't notice the smile on her face. He immediately patted Deng Hui and Dai Tian's shoulders in a friendly manner. "Look, just like I said. I am her father."

After he finished speaking, he prepared to enter the ward.

A crafty smile appeared in Liang Zixuan's eyes as she leisurely said, "But I've never treated you as my father."

The smile on Wei Guowei's face froze. Even his eyes were spitting fire, "What did you just say?"

How could he believe that Liang Zixuan, who had always been submissive and at his mercy, would not acknowledge him even after he publicly admitting that she was his daughter?

Liang Zixuan took a step forward and stood between Deng Hui and Dai Tian. She looked at Wei Guowei with a smile, but her words were chilling. "Because you said before that in the Wei Family, Wei Xiaoqing is your only daughter, and only she is the only child of the Wei Family. So, in my heart, you're also not my father!"

Since so many people surrounded them at the door of the ward, this commotion caught their attention. When everyone heard Liang Zixuan's words, they all looked at Wei Guowei strangely.

"No wonder. Weirdly, one is surnamed Wei, and the other is surnamed Liang. So, how could they be father and daughter?"

"That's right; I didn't expect it to be like this!"

"Isn't it too harsh for a father to say such things? Could it be that the children of his ex-wife were picked up?"

"You made the little girl's heart turn cold. You deserved it if she didn't acknowledge you!"

The surrounding people pointed their fingers at Wei Guowei, causing his face to turn blue and white. He didn't really expect Liang Zixuan to say such words in front of everyone.

His face immediately darkened. He gritted his teeth and quietly warned, "Do you still want your grandmother to stay in the nursing home? Do you still want to know more about your brother?"

If Wei Guowei hadn't said that, Liang Zixuan wouldn't have hated him so much at the moment.

All along, Wei Guowei had been using these two things to threaten her. In her previous life, she thought that he would take good care of her grandmother and brother, so she had always been under his control.

It was only when she was dying that she got the truth from Wei Xiaoqing.

At that time, Wei Xiaoqing had been looking arrogantly at her. She said, "Liang Zixuan, after being sisters for so many years, I can't bear to keep you in the dark forever. Anyways, you're useless to me now, so I'll tell you."

"A few years ago, your grandmother was kicked out of the nursing home. She was alone and had no choice but to pick up the food from the trash and eat them until she died. It's such a miserable story. No one even knew that she died under the bridge. People only found her corpse after a few days. At that time, her corpse was already rotten, and there wasn't even someone to collect it."

"Then I intentionally let your brother know about this. Your brother was awesome back then, and after so many connections, he was sent to a dangerous battle. He survived and didn't die, instead, advancing step by step."

"But when he found out that his grandmother died under the bridge and no one came to collect her corpse, he couldn't hold it anymore and wanted to finish the war as soon as possible.. He wanted to come back to collect your grandmother's corpse, but that night, he died in the forest and a wild dog ate his corpse. Why do you think they were so miserable?"
