Chapter 1241

Now, she has messed with Otis, and it's hard to get out of it.

I don't know how Otis will treat himself.

The Warner family and President Euan, also have a certain friendship, when appropriate, I will go to see the President. Pascaylia is so big, not Otis can control it. "

"Hmm." Joyce took a deep breath, "I'll go up and talk to Andres and tell him to stay home with Ivy today, he's going to school tomorrow. I was going to take him out for a little bit today, but I don't think I'll be able to."

"Starting tomorrow, Aaron will take Andres to and from school every day. You don't have to worry."

Luther has made arrangements, and with Joyce's identity restored, it's much easier for him to do many things.

". " Joyce turned around and went upstairs, and on the second floor, she met Ivy who was cleaning her room.

Ivy saw Joyce hurrying upstairs, "Ms. Knowles, you're going out? Where's Mr. Warner?"

Joyce drove alone to the outskirts of town, where she had previously given Luther his special custom-made badge.

She knows a lot about guns, so she knows a lot about these special materials.

There are very few places in the Capital that can make this particular material, and the hardware market on the outskirts of town is the only place that has it.

She previously found a store called ONE in the suburban hardware market through the Internet, where she could customize various special objects that could not be found on the market in general.

She needed a pair of special stocks, tailored to her hand size, that would reduce the recoil of the pistol to a greater extent.

This allows her to shoot more consistently, hit more accurately and be more precise during mobile shooting.

After what happened to Ricky, she knew better than ever that she had to be prepared for anything if she wanted to deal with Otis' people. In addition, the body sheet for bulletproof, also need to be re-customized.

She parked the car and flung the door open.

ONE's store is on the third floor of the market. She walked into the lobby, and it was a weekend, and there were many people coming.

"Don't ask more questions about things you shouldn't know." Joyce grimaced and handed over a cool look.

"Good, you can rest assured that there are rules of confidentiality in the industry. You have come to the matter, in addition to you know I know, keep no third person know!" The boss patted his chest to guarantee.

Joyce glanced at the surveillance in the store, the red light kept flashing, and suddenly her heart had a feeling of unreliability.

If Otis finds out her whereabouts, probably, she won't be able to come to this store in the future.

She has to find a new place, damn it.

Leaving the ONE store, this time, she clearly felt that she was indeed being followed.

She quickened her pace, trying to shake off the man behind her.

At the corner at the end of the hallway, there were water stains on the floor that she didn't notice.

The feet slipped and the whole person fell out.

Joyce froze.

Is this a pick-up line?

Originally, she had a few good feelings for the man in front of her. Being accosted by him like this, it was completely ruined.

The crows in the world are really black in general. See a beautiful woman, can not resist hitting on.

Her face immediately fell, at which point she noticed his hand, still on her waist, and hurriedly shook him off.

The voice also became unfriendly, "You don't need to know."

Chris was obviously choked, so hot, he couldn't help but touch his cheek, his face value dropped? He's been rejected for hitting on people? It was so humiliating!

Joyce turned away, not wanting to dwell on the person in front of her.

She noticed that the people who were following her earlier had quietly left because of the presence of the man in front of her, so now she was safe.

Chapter 1245

She drove fast, and by the time she reached the Hurley base, it had only taken her half an hour.

the Hurley base is in a depression with an above-ground entrance that is quite hidden. The rest of the base is underground.

Joyce is not the first time to see this kind of secret base, once she took over the Capital land project, the Xia family and Luther shared the land, there is also a secret base above, in the underground very deep. And the Hurley base some similar, even deeper than here, she had done a full set of security design.

From the entrance, there is a staircase going down, which is very deep and long.

Arriving at the bottom, there is a circular open space with a fire door in front of it.

As if she knew she was arriving, the fire door opened automatically when she landed.

Joyce looked both ways and walked in.

She had heard them talk about the Alvonía warlord commander-in-chief, Chris. Although they were distant relatives, they did not see each other much after all, and being in a foreign country, she was grateful to be able to receive a helping hand in a crisis.

She subconsciously looked toward the door.

And she was simply stunned!

Surprisingly... It was him!

A pair of dark gray eyes, gray trench coat, isn't this the man who just met in the hardware market, first helped her and then accosted her?

He? That's Chris? What a coincidence!

Chris entered the base, casually took off his windbreaker jacket and threw it on top of the bench at the entrance with a dashing movement.

He walked in with a stride and froze and froze again when he saw Joyce.

"Oh. No wonder, when I came here just now, I received a message. Otis seems to have removed the communication control to Military Staff House. Just now." Chris took a sip of his tea, "Looks like he's ready to split."

Frank stood guard and looked at Cecelia's face, "Ma'am, shall I go and contact the General's direct line now?"

Cecelia waved her hand, "Go ahead. Inform them one by one, so that nothing is left out."

Luther glanced at Joyce, who was sitting next to him.

He placed his hand gently on the back of Joyce's hand and patted it. He wanted to comfort her.

Her marksmanship, especially at the firing range, was something he had seen firsthand.

If Chris is not convinced, perhaps Chris would be taught a lesson later.

Cecelia had indeed never seen Joyce shoot, and it would be a lie to say that she was not curious. Her own daughter has just been recognized, she certainly also wants to know more about her.

However, she glanced worriedly at Joyce.

Chris blatantly questions and provokes, and she worries that Joyce will not be pleased.

Joyce smiled a little, she naturally knew that Chris was deliberate, before in the hardware market, Chris already knew that she could karate, now Chris also wanted to see her shooting skills.

"Yeah, you want to fight me? Anytime." Joyce stood up in style.

She was never afraid.

"Ha, if we hadn't sent you the telegram, you would have succeeded so easily. Don't we get the credit?"

"Let's not argue, saving people is the right thing to do. You can't take this matter."

"Yes, yes, yes. Don't say that."

"Our commander-in-chief is the best of men, there is no way he will lose."

"What if he lose?"

"Then I'll crawl on the ground and bark like a dog, three times around the range! Hm, dare you bet?"

"Bet on it, if my Missy loses, I'll strip naked and guard the gate for three days."

Chapter 1250

Chris's cronies are all standing on the left, and Cecelia's the Hurley troops are all standing on the right. They were all waving their hands to show support. Such a stance makes Joyce feel overwhelmed with headaches. Why does it feel like you've been forced into a gladiatorial ring? She held her forehead. Why was it so childish. She's not a child anymore, but also to compete with people to shoot, there are so many onlookers. Instantly, there is a feeling of being in a zoo. "Don't worry, it's all your own people." Cecelia gently patted Joyce's shoulder and smiled gently. It doesn't matter what the score is, who wins and who loses in the end. Being able to compete with Chris was enough to gain the recognition of the whole army. Because she knows very well that Chris is also a rare marksman in the world. Chris and Joyce walked to the front of the stage separately. In front of them were air rifles for special training, and headphones, etc.

Right in front, on the big screen, someone has already connected the equipment, clearly showing the current situation.
