Chapter 1251

Ten rounds just now, he has done his best.

The reason why he want to shoot first is because he was afraid that if he shoot later, he will lose to her on purpose because of his soft heart.

This will not allow him to fully present himself in front of her.

Frank and Howard both looked at each other. There was a grim look in each other's eyes.

It's over. Who knew Chris was such a good shot?

Only two shots were 10.8 and the rest were 10.9, meaning Joyce could only shoot one 10.8 and had to shoot 10.9 for the rest to win.

Any normal person knows that it is almost impossible.

The accuracy of 0.01 mm. In addition to ability, there is also an element of luck.

It's over, the two of them are definitely going to make a fool of themselves today.

Frank lamented that he should have known better than to follow Howard's blind rant.

Luther glanced worriedly at Joyce, who also did not expect that the chess match.

Before, it was he who underestimated Chris , able to command the Alvonia warlords, really have a few brilliance.

Joyce's lips flattened as she realized she'd fallen into Chris's pit.

The first two to react were Frank and Howard, who looked at each other.

Howard could almost fit an egg in his mouth, "Hey, Frank , what did we just see?"

Frank opened his mouth and swallowed, "Yeah, what did we just see?"

It was outrageous, a true Missy, with outrageous levels of marksmanship. Completely beyond the scope of their knowledge, this is a human being can play out of the results? Afraid that God also has a look away, hand shaking time it!

Everyone looked at each other, touched their noses, and all had the sense to be silent.

"I heard that the Qin family has produced female generals for generations, and it is true." Luther looked respectfully at Cecelia .

". " Cecelia laughed, "Well, our ancestors had a hundred steps to go through the Yangtze, and they were very talented, but unfortunately, in our generation, the number of people is very thin, which is a pity. It's a shame that our generation is so thin. It's a good thing that Joyce has carried on the tradition of her ancestors, so I'm glad."

Luther proudly said, "Andres slingshot is very accurate, where to point, I am afraid that in the future practice, also have the talent of a marksman."

", yeah?" Cecelia's lips spread a smile as she thought of her adorable little grandson, "It's wonderful to be able to pass it on from generation to generation."

In front of the range table, Joyce took off her headphones and unloaded her gun.

She turned her eyes to Chris, "Cousin, I used the latest custom-made gun stock today, it's quite smooth and stable, I'm afraid it's not enough to win. Why don't I take off the stock and shoot again? I'm afraid I won't be able to do as well as I did earlier."

She gave Chris a step up, as a way of giving him face.

Chris, with a bright light flowing under his eyes, laughed, "Cousin's marksmanship was superb, and I was convinced to lose. If cousin fights again, in front of my many cronies, that would be a real disgrace."

Press Release.

In the afternoon, Karl was notified by Joyce and took the lead in holding a press conference.

House of Inspection rarely appears in public, but this time it was a special case because the entire case, which involved the military's inner circle, was taken over by the Special Investigation Unit from the beginning to the end.

Kane received Joyce's instructions and was ready to spread it across the network first.

After everything is ready.

All of Charlotte's crimes from Khebury to the Capital were brought to light.

For each charge, there is corresponding evidence to support it. In order to deal with the unexpected situation, Karl has actually prepared in advance, but still did not expect that the progress is so fast that everything needs to be released to the public now, almost seamlessly.

Karl graciously admits, "As you might guess, I came back to the Capital precisely to investigate the case. I entered the Special Investigation Unit because of the internal affairs of the military."

Karl clearly informed the public at this point that he was involved in Joyce's affairs from beginning to end.

It was for Joyce that he returned to the Capital.

He knew that Otis would see the press conference today.

It is possible that Otis did not know him very well before and did not know his purpose.

But now, he was completely exposed to Otis. He knew he might suffer a blow from Otis for this, but he didn't care.

No matter what Otis does, he's waiting to receive it.

A cold smile curved his lips as he waited for Otis to retaliate against him.

After Karl left the launch site in a hurry, he got into a Telecom vehicle dedicated to the Special Investigation Unit before taking out his cell phone.

Turning on his phone, he dialed Joyce's number.

"I've just heard from my subordinates that the Charlotte affair has been publicized and has caused a stir on all major online platforms. Now, the media is staring too closely, I won't go backstage to avoid rumors that you and I are too close."

"Got it, I watched it live too. I didn't expect you to be so well prepared, but also went to do the paternity test of my mother and me. Mom was shocked when she saw it just now." Joyce said back.

", you should. Although all the evidence that you are the Heath family's daughter is not as convincing as a piece of paper, dealing with the media requires the most authoritative evidence. I thought of that a long time ago." Karl bowed his head and smiled.

"Thank you." Joyce paused, "Just now the reporter those questions ... I worry that Otis will focus on you."

"Don't worry, Otis has already lost half of his army, if he wants to touch me, he has to consider the consequences and whether he can afford it." Karl laughed coldly, unimpressed, "Are you ready?"

"It's almost time, we've arrived backstage at the press conference."

Cecelia gently patted Joyce's shoulder, "You're the only one who deserves it." After saying that, she smiled and turned around, and as she left the lounge, she took the door with her in passing.

After Luther saw Cecelia leave, he dropped the lock on the door with his hand.

"Click".

Joyce looked up in surprise, "Why are you locking the door?"

Luther raised an eyebrow, "You have to change your clothes, of course you have to lock the door."

"Huh." Joyce's lips curled up in a sarcastic laugh, "That's right, I need to change, shouldn't you get out?"

He didn't pay any attention to her, and walked straight inside with the box in his arms, placed it on top of the sofa, and pulled the curtains closed.

"Why should I go out? I'm here to watch you change. Where have I not seen on you before? What are

"If you don't take it off, I'm going to do it myself." He came close to her ear and spoke evilly.

Even his hand, which had reached her collar, took advantage of her inattention and unbuttoned two buttons, revealing her bare white neck.

"Wait, I'll do it myself."

Joyce suddenly held his hand, unable to let him do whatever he wanted.

She moved away from his hand and took off her jacket herself, needing to take off another sweater.

"You turn around. I'm going to undress."

Luther looked at her funny, "You still have a shirt inside, it's not like you're not wearing anything, what's wrong with taking off a sweater? I can't look?"

"You!" Joyce couldn't get angry, so she had to turn around and take off her sweater herself.

"You are nonsense ... who tempted ..." she stammered, her heartbeat "thumping" faster.

He smiled wickedly and unbuttoned her chest uniform one by one.

"There is something called uniform temptation, you have not heard of it?"

Her brain "boom", only then reacted to his meaning! Damn man, the brain filled with these improper things.

"Get up, let go of me, if you don't get up I ..."

She struggled and resisted, but her words were lost in the sudden kiss he dropped.

This time, he kissed sharply, as if he had no patience left, only impatience. It was almost as if he was tearing into her. Like a hungry leopard that has caught its prey and immediately wants to eat her into its belly.

The buttons on her chest were all open, her clothes were half faded, and all the effort of dressing just now was wasted.

His large, restless palms ignited waves of flame on her body.

Her eyes were open and she was staring at him, damn man, he wasn't going to do whatever he wanted to her here. There was a press conference later, her clothes, her hair all messed up, what was Joyce washed her hands repeatedly and desperately in the bathroom.

She was just crazy, right, to pity him to agree to his kind of unreasonable request.
She is really being sold, but still feeling so happy to help him count the money.
Crazy simply.
The more she thought about it, the hotter she felt, and she really wanted to find a hole in the ground and go inside.
After repeatedly washing her hands several times with hand sanitizer, she wiped her hands clean with paper towels, stood up straight, rearranged her uniform in the mirror, and straightened her long, slightly disheveled hair. Earlier in the lounge, she could not see how she looked, but now, looking in the mirror, she felt that the outfit did fit well, with a unique rhythm and an extraordinary aura.
