Chapter 1422

Miss Scott nudged Nina, "Wow, here's your booster. Thank you quickly."

She remembered, no wonder it sounded familiar, and only when she heard Nina call out to Professor Degan did she realize that it was the famous violinist Luke. He is currently the President Emeritus and Doctoral Advisor of the Capital Jennifer College of Music.

Nina took a moment to recover and thanked him.

"Thank you Professor Degan."

A little concerned, she sidled up to Miss Scott and asked, "But the boss's side?"

Miss Scott said, "It's okay, didn't you hear Professor Degan say? He's going to be the name of the training institute, and the owner will definitely agree. That's great, we're going to have a presence at the Capital."

Luke looked kindly at Nina.

"Do you have any more questions? If you don't have any questions, come see me tomorrow at Jennifer College of Music, here's my card."

He handed over his business card.
