

Sweet love 1423

Chapter 1423

Dr. Price immediately got up and arranged for Julia to have a CT scan of her entire body.

About half an hour later, all specialists received the latest whole-body CT scan, as well as a thin-layer scan of the lungs.

They view it on top of their iPads.

The two thoracic and general surgeon specialists discussed and nodded to each other.

The way they moved, Karl couldn't help but tense up, and he clenched his fists slightly, his spirit tense.

Joyce glanced over and said with relief, "Don't be nervous, there will be a way."

Luther, "They are communicating, and there must be something new to discover. Let's be patient and wait."

Michal couldn't sit still the most, "Excuse me, I'd like to go out and walk around a bit."

With that, she stood up.

with you." Cecelia just stood up thoracic surgeon suddenly spoke up,

into her chair, folded her hands,

the original. Although Ms. Lin did not have a rib fracture, but the impact of the car accident, here extrusion deformation,

has been done in the lungs to go down after a car accident, and it is not possible to see if the swollen blood vessels have narrowed. The swelling should be recent, and there was no whole-body CT done during that time, so it would be normal to overlook it. Because she's saved?" Karl asked

Michal asked excitedly, "Doctor, please, please, please make sure she wakes up. No matter how big the general surgery specialist reassured, "This family, take it quite difficult. Once the hemorrhage is triggered, the patient will die immediately. You need to discuss with your family to maintain the status quo, she may also wake up someday, maybe never again. No one can Michal sniffed and blanched.

asked, "How risky is it? What are the chances of technology,

as soon