

Sweet Love 3471

Chapter 3471: A New Addition (87)

Butler Fu turned around and picked up the boy, coaxing him, "Butler Fu will play with you, okay?"

"Sure!"

After Chu He went upstairs, she called Li Xiaofeng to switch her leave to the morning.

She did not mention anything about what happened last night or the text messages.

Perhaps he had said those words on impulse because he had had too much to drink.

Now that he was awake and sober, it was something that he didn't wish to bring up again.

Chu He was naturally happy for this to be the case!

By the time she had changed and walked downstairs, Butler Fu had already prepared her household register and identification card.

Chu He was surprised to see the household register.

After she had settled down in the Gu family, her household register became an issue. However, Butler Fu had his ways around everything, and settled the problem in a matter of a few days. An identity was created with the name "Chu He" and registered under Butler Fu's household register as his daughter.

On the basis of this account, Uncle Fu was her father.

The Civil Affairs Bureau needed a household register and identification card to register a marriage, hence Butler Fu had already prepared these four items in advance.

By the time Gu Jinglian came downstairs, Chu He was waiting for him at the entrance.

The two of them got into the car and Butler Fu waved goodbye to them with tears in his eyes.

"Sigh!"

Old Master is finally getting married!

This is such a joyous occasion!

...

When the car pulled up at the entrance of the Civil Affairs Bureau, Chu He saw countless couples everywhere, grinning from ear to ear.

What happened to not being crowded!?

Why were there so many people!?

Gu Jinglian got out of the car and frowned when he saw so many people. He seemed unhappy.

As registering their marriage was a sudden decision, there had been no special communication between them. Otherwise, they could have gone through a special procedure and done it directly. But now, they could only get in line and queue for a number.

Chu He rushed ahead to the registration hall, leaving Gu Jinglian behind. She got a number at the booth and turned around to see Gu Jinglian walking in casually.

Many young couples were already seated on the bench waiting. When Chu He noticed that many of the couples were wearing white shirts, she was confused for a moment. She then looked at herself. She was in an old casual shirt and a pair of long pants. Her shoes were also ordinary sneakers. She felt out of place.

The moment Gu Jinglian walked into the main hall, his imposing aura instantly filled the air.

Everyone turned to look at him, stunned by his handsome appearance!

“Is this a celebrity ?...”

“Impossible. I’ve never heard of such a person.”

“But he’s so handsome!”

“Have you noticed... he looks a little like Gu Xingze?”

“What is this man here for? Don’t tell me he’s here to register his marriage.”

“Arghhhhhhh! Why are all the handsome guys in the world spoken for!? I’m really curious about who he’s marrying!”

Following that, everyone saw this perfect man walk up to a woman who was dressed in shabby clothes.

Everyone fell silent!

How could it be this shabby looking woman?!

She was not exactly shabby. However, she was dressed modestly. Many young couples who came to register their marriage would dress up beautifully. At the very least, they would have put on light make-up, enhanced their eyes with an eyeliner, and use some foundation..

Chapter 3472: A New Addition (88)

Whereas this woman?

She had no makeup on and was wearing an old casual shirt. More critically, she was wearing sneakers!

Sports shoes!

So old-fashioned!

Standing next to this man, they looked like a complete mismatch.

Chu He felt as if everyone was looking in her direction.

These people were looking at her with contempt, disdain, and even...

Hostility!

Why were they all looking at her!?

Gu Jinglian asked expressionlessly, "How long do we have to wait?"

"I don't know..." Chu He looked at the number disc and then at the window. They were calling for number 28 and she was holding number 65.

"We'll probably have to wait another hour."

"How troublesome." Gu Jinglian walked to an empty seat.

Chu He also walked over and sat down beside him. Before she could settle down in her seat, the looks that she was getting from all directions became increasingly obvious. For a moment, it was as if there was a sharp backlash.

"Look, that woman is really miserly..."

"Why are the women that handsome guys marry always so... I just can't find the words for it."

"Actually, this woman is quite pretty. It's just that her dressing is a little unsightly."

"Could those sneakers have been bought from a wayside stall? I saw that the man is wearing a Patek Philippe watch. I heard that it cost several million yuan each! This is the first time I've seen an actual watch."

All the eyes immediately fell on the watch on Gu Jinglian's wrist.

"Patek Philippe! Could it be a fake?"

"It can't be a fake! It's very exquisite. Also, this man has excellent carriage. He's either rich or noble. One look and you can tell he's a young master."

"Then why is he marrying this woman?"

"No matter how poor you are, you still have to dress up a little! At least wear a white shirt."

...

Even though the discussions were in hushed tones, Gu Jinglian and Chu He could hear them quite clearly.

Gu Jinglian looked in the direction of the voices and narrowed his eyes dangerously. Those who were gossiping immediately turned their heads away nervously, not daring to take another look.

The world seemed to have finally quieten down.

Gu Jinglian turned and coldly sized up Chu He's clothes. He frowned slightly. "Why are you wearing this?"

Chu He replied, "I only have a few pieces of clothing that I wear on rotation."

"Why didn't you buy more clothes?"

Gu Jinglian said unhappily, "I remember that Butler Fu would transfer money to your account every month."

"That's your money. Why should I use it?" Chu He said expressionlessly, "I have my own hands and feet, I can earn money to buy clothes."

Why should she use his money to buy herself clothes?

Gu Jinglian was speechless. This woman was so poor that she had nothing but her backbone.

He suddenly stood up and said to her, "Get up."

Chu He stared at him blankly. "What?"

"Buy some clothes." With that, he walked towards the exit.

His tone and chosen words were especially in line with his unique style. He did not seem to be asking for her opinion.

Chu He was confused, "Hey! We don't have to specially buy clothes for this, right? It's just a marriage certificate!"

Seeing Gu Jinglian walk further and further away, she stood up reluctantly and ran after him.

Behind them, the group of people looked at each other, puzzled.

What was going on? There's actually a woman who doesn't like shopping, dressing up or buying clothes?

From what the man had said, he gave that woman money every month. Could it be...

"Could she be a kept woman?"

"Why would a kept lover be here to register marriage?"

Everyone was confused.

Chapter 3473: A New Addition (89)

The Civil Affairs Bureau was near the bustling city center.

Gu Jinglian walked far ahead. Chu He finally caught up with him and said unhappily, "Gu Jinglian, what are you trying to do?"

He and his whims and fancies!

"Buy some clothes."

“What clothes?” Chu He continued, “What’s wrong with this dress? Besides, we’re here to register our marriage today, and we’re leaving right after that’s done. Is there a need to go through so much trouble?”

And more importantly, there was not enough time.

She made a mental calculation.

It was now 9:30am. If they were to go shopping for clothes at the mall and then come back, the Civil Affairs Bureau would close for lunch break and they would only be able to register in the afternoon. It would be a waste of time.

Gu Jinglian was grouchy. “How are you going to take a photo in this dress?”

He was a typical Virgo, a perfectionist and unable to tolerate any flaws. Initially, he thought that he only needed to get a certificate to register his marriage. However, he later realized that he had to take a photograph.

There were so many couples who were all dressed up, yet she appeared so casual.

And to think he was wearing a suit. How could he tolerate her dressing this crudely and taking a photograph with him?

In what ways was her present outfit an eyesore to him?

Was there a problem?

The corner of Chu He’s lips twitched. “I didn’t expect that even for something like getting your marriage certificate, you’d want it to be perfect.”

Gu Jinglian ignored her.

He walked into a department store and Chu He followed behind him with a troubled expression. The dazzling decorations and furnishings almost blinded her.

Too flashy!

She subconsciously rubbed her eyes and in a blink Gu Jinglian was ahead by miles again.

This guy!

With such long legs, each step he took was easily a meter wide. Couldn’t he walk a little slower?

Chu He caught up with him, but he suddenly stopped at a clothing store. She couldn’t stop in time and rammed right into his back. She reeled from the impact.

“Get in.” He was stingy with words. If he could express what he wanted with a single word, he would definitely not waste another word.

Chu He stepped in reluctantly and was greeted by a light fragrance in the air. Shortly after, she was dazzled by the high-end fashion on display.

“Hello!”

The shop assistant came up to Chu He. Before they could exchange greetings, a chilling presence permeated the space, causing the assistant to look behind Chu He. She saw a handsome but imposing man walking in.

Gu Jinglian's icy and sinister expression, as well as his incomparably noble and superior attitude, gave off a frightening aura!

The staff froze on the spot.

Gu Jinglian pushed Chu He in front of the shop assistant and instructed expressionlessly, "Pick a few dresses for her."

"Yes, I'll do so right away!"

The shop assistant was so frightened that she broke out in cold sweat. She immediately went to the wardrobe to make a selection.

Chu He looked around and noted that the garments in this clothing store were all exquisite and beautiful, they were absolutely stunning.

As the saying goes, you get what you pay for.

There is a reason why expensive things are expensive.

Chu He acted calm as she walked to the racks and randomly picked up a piece of clothing. She reached for the price tag and sneaked a look. Then, she tried to remain calm as she turned around and walked back to Gu Jinglian.

"Gu Jinglian, did you bring enough money?"

"Money?"

Gu Jinglian said confidently, "I don't have any money on me."

"..."

Chu He lowered her voice and questioned, "Why did you come to the mall if you didn't bring money?!"

"I brought a credit card.."

Chapter 3474: A New Addition (90)

"I brought a credit card."

Credit card?

Credit cards have a credit line don't they!

The clothes here were easily in the tens of thousands. Would one credit card really be enough?

Chu He asked suspiciously, "Do you have an adequate credit line?"

Gu Jinglian frowned and looked at her coldly. He did not know what kind of brain this woman had that she would doubt his credit card limit. Not to mention a few pieces of clothing, it was more than enough to buy this shopping center.

Seeing that he was ignoring her, Chu He suddenly pinched his arm. However, she found that although he didn't have thick and bulky arms, when she pinched it, it was solidly muscular and almost impossible to pinch.

...Scary.

"Gu Jinglian! Don't sell me out if you can't pay for the clothes!"

As Chu He started to feel anxious, the shop assistant walked up to her with a pile of clothes and said respectfully, "Miss, please come with me to the fitting room to try these on.!"

"Gu Jinglian, you picked so many!?"

She hated trying on clothes. It was so troublesome to take them on and off and on and off. She braced herself and entered the fitting room while Gu Jinglian waited outside.

Half an hour later, Chu He was still in the fitting room.

The shop assistants looked at each other. Gu Jinglian was also beginning to get suspicious. He walked to the door of the fitting room and kicked it.

"Did you die inside?"

"..."

Everyone was dumbfounded when they heard that!

What was their relationship?

Initially, they had thought that this man and the woman were a couple, but seeing him kicking the door so violently and speaking so fiercely, it didn't seem like they were a couple.

He was more like a loan shark trying to chase down a debt.

Chu He's angry voice came from the fitting room, "What are you rushing me for? Shut up!"

Many of the garments were dresses. Just the zipper alone took a lot of effort.

Gu Jinglian finally lost his patience. He pushed open the door and was about to enter when Chu He immediately stopped the door and said angrily, "What are you doing?"

"Come out!"

"I'm not dressed yet!"

Gu Jinglian said impatiently, "I'm giving you ten seconds." With that, he raised his hand and stared at his watch. He was serious about counting down the seconds.

Chu He panicked and tried to cover herself up. At the last second, she pushed the door open and walked out, glaring at him with a flushed face. "Are you tired of living? What are you rushing me for?"

Gu Jinglian turned around to look at her, but when she saw what she was wearing, he was stunned for some reason.

She was in a chiffon dress with a hem that fell just at her knees, revealing her slender legs. The design of this dress was especially unique. It was made of pure white satin and there was a layer of gauze over it. On the gauze, there were handmade flowers. It made Chu He look like a flower fairy.

He had never seen her in a dress before. In the past, in her identity as Red Lotus, she was always dressed in black, and would wear her hair up, coming across very androgynous.

Even after giving birth to Baby Chu, her temperament did not change much. She wore average and functional clothes.

She didn't like things that were too complicated, so casual shirts and jeans were almost her standard garb.

That was because they were very simple to wear. She liked black clothes because they were not easily dirtied. However, she did not expect that if she were to take the pains to dress up, she did not look in any way inferior to those celebrities on television.

The few shop assistants were deeply amazed!

There is a saying that how a person looks is dependent on what the person wears.. Indeed there was truth to this saying!

Chapter 3475: A New Addition (91)

Initially, when Chu He walked into the shop, she was dressed in plain clothes that weren't eye-catching. Even if she was pretty, her clothes were so dull that hardly anyone would have given her a second look.

However, now, even without any makeup, she was already stunning in a dress!

"So beautiful!" The shop assistant sighed with emotion, not so much as giving a compliment.

Chu He tugged at the hem of her dress in distress. When she saw Gu Jinglian's stunned expression, she thought that she must look very ugly in this dress and muttered awkwardly, "Why is this dress so short?"

Gu Jinglian snapped back to his senses and asked unhappily, "Why were you in there for so long?"

"Didn't you ask me to try on the clothes?" Chu He continued, "There are so many pieces. It takes effort to try them on."

Gu Jinglian was speechless.

So, this dumb woman really thought that trying on clothes meant seeing if they fit? Did she really just mechanically try one piece after another? That was why she had been in there for so long.

The staff respectfully asked for Gu Jinglian's opinion. "Sir, what do you think of this dress?"

Gu Jinglian sized her up. Even Chu He was waiting for his evaluation.

“Average.” He replied in a casual manner.

Average?

Average, meaning that it was only barely pleasing to the eye?

Chu He said, “A dress doesn’t suit me.”

“How could it not suit you?” The shop assistant encouraged her, “Miss, you look beautiful in a dress!”

Gu Jinglian said, “We’ll take them all.”

“Take them all?” the shop assistant repeated with a shocked expression. “Sir, you mean these clothes...”

Gu Jinglian did not have the patience to listen to their banter and directly handed over a black and gold card. “Cut the crap. Package everything up.”

“...”

What a wealthy man!

This man must be very well-to-do!

The staff then handed the black and gold card to the store manager, who had just prepared the bill. He reached out for the card and was so shocked when he glance at it, that his eyes almost popped out!

“Am I seeing things...”

The shop assistant became nervous. “What’s wrong, Manager? Is there a problem with this card?”

“If I’m not mistaken, this is the American Express Centurion Card... This is the first time I’ve seen a real card...”

“What is a Ceturion Card?”

The Centurion Card was a high-end card released by American Express and was recognized as the king of cards.

It was said that the Centurion Card was only reserved for the elites, for example, royalty, billionaires, and socialites from all over the world had the qualifications to apply for it. Generally, there was no limit.

Apparently, card holders enjoyed the exclusive treatment reserved for the elites all over the world. There were not many of them issued in the country. There were maybe ten of them or so. Furthermore, they were co-issued by major banks.

As far as she knew, there were only a dozen or so cards in the market.

If this black card was real, then this man’s identity...

He was definitely a billionaire.

Or perhaps, a high-end socialite. Moreover, this card was not something that one could own by just being rich!

The total cost of the entire set of clothes was about 100,000 yuan. Adopting the attitude of just testing it out, the store manager swiped the card and entered the amount. He actually successfully made payment.

A passcode-free transaction for a 100,000 yuan purchase?!

Chu He was nervously waiting when she saw the store manager personally walk over with a large bag and return the Centurion Card to Gu Jinglian respectfully.

Even by the time Chu He left with the bags in tow, she had no idea what had gone on..

Chapter 3476: A New Addition (92)

The transaction went through, just like that?

There was no need for a passcode?

As Chu He was trying to work this strange situation out, she saw Gu Jinglian approaching another counter. She looked up. "Manolo Blahnik." What brand was this? It looked Italian.

Walking in, she saw high heel shoes on the display shelves.

By the time Chu He walked out with Gu Jinglian again, she was wearing an eight-centimeter high heel, struggling to keep her balance. She had never worn high heels before, much less ones that were this high. Not only did it hurt the tip of her toes, it was almost impossible to walk.

Chu He felt pathetic. She could have caught up with Gu Jinglian if not for the heels but now, she was left far behind.

How hateful!

Normally androgynous in her dressing, she was now suddenly made to wear a dress and a pair of high heels. Instantly, she felt a sense of embarrassment, as though a man dressed as a woman.

It was especially awkward.

Gu Jinglian turned around, only to realize that she had fallen far behind. He frowned, looking at the woman with disheveled hair and a crooked dress waddling towards him like a duck.

"..."

It wasn't easy for Chu He to catch up with him and she said angrily, "Will you walk slower?"

The man frowned again and said icily, "So slow."

Chu He kicked her high heels off and threw her bags onto the ground in anger. She crossed her arms and said, "Gu Jinglian, what do you want? Are you teasing me? Is it fun to see me dressed in such a weird way? You do as you please and are used to getting your way. I don't have the patience to entertain you!"

Gu Jinglian was speechless.

When the passers-by saw this scene, they all cast curious looks at the couple. A tall and handsome man and a woman looking rather pathetic in a dress, were standing facing each other.

The two of them stared at each other in a direct confrontation. The atmosphere was tense and seemed as though it would erupt at any moment.

Gu Jinglian sized up Chu He's ashen face. He narrowed his eyes and frowned coldly. Chu He initially thought that he must be on the verge of losing his temper. However, he suddenly bent over and slowly got down before her on one knee. He picked one of the shoes on the ground with one hand and his other hand extended towards her in an open palm. His cold voice slightly softened.

"Give me your foot." He looked up at her.

Chu He was slightly taken aback, and asked, "What do you want?"

"Foot." He repeated, "Give me your foot."

Gu Jinglian was notoriously impatient and his temper was volatile. To be precise, he was never in a sunny disposition. It was either looming dark clouds or a violent storm.

However, at this moment, he actually patiently repeated his words a second time. In the past, this would never have happened.

Chu He saw how he was holding a shoe and extending the other hand towards her, she began to wonder if he wanted to put her shoes on personally? The high and mighty Master Gu would actually serve someone so patiently?!

Chu He didn't believe it. Hence, she stuck out a foot skeptically.

She was a tall woman, but her feet were only a mere size 37. He took her foot in his hand and held it like it was nothing. His large palm made her foot appear even tinier. Gu Jinglian lifted her foot and slowly slipped it into the high heel shoe.

When Chu He saw this, she was rather surprised and could not hold herself back. She burst out laughing. All the anger that she had been suppressing in her heart suddenly and completely vanished!

She blurted, "I didn't think that Gu Jinglian would help someone put on shoes! Haha..."

At once, the man's expression darkened.

Chapter 3477: A New Addition (93)

Gu Jinglian's expression darkened in an instant. He held back his anger and abruptly removed the shoe. He suddenly stood up and stared down at her.

"Put it on yourself."

Chu He was flabbergasted. She looked at her foot. He had taken off the high heel shoe and tossed it aside. As her foot came into contact with the cold marble floor, the smile on her face froze!

Only a second ago, she was secretly laughing to herself, thinking that the insufferably arrogant Gu Jinglian would humble himself to serve someone.

She only teased him a little before the man's face darkened.

How ungentlemanly!

"You..."

Gu Jinglian arrogantly turned around and walked off! He could not stand being ordered around.

Chu He was speechless and could not be bothered to argue with him. At least, she had enjoyed his service once and was satisfied. She then put on her high heels again and carried her bags before running after him.

Originally, the two of them had been prepared to leave.

Gu Jinglian happened to walk past a jewelry store. The shop assistant smiled and asked, "Sir, are you shopping with your girlfriend? Buy a ring for your girlfriend!"

Majority of the employees who worked at these counters of the department store were all highly skilled veterans. Just by looking at the customer's attire and temperament, one could tell the customer's purchasing power.

Gu Jinglian was only passing by the counter. The shop assistant's eyes were sharp and immediately saw the watch on his wrist.

Patek Philippe!

This was the king of the Swiss watch brands! Patek Philippe was founded in 1839, and is among the world's top ten watchmakers. And it was not one of the top brands for no reason. Exquisite aesthetics and precious materials go into creating the brand value of Patek Philippe. It has been around for a long time.

The watch on the man's wrist belonged to the Patek Philippe super complications series, the 5002P platinum mechanical watch. It was made of 950 platinum and exquisitely crafted. It was worth 17 million yuan.

It had to be said, this staff had a sharp eye.

Gu Jinglian did not even turn his head, but the shop assistant continued enthusiastically, "Aren't you going to buy a ring for your girlfriend?"

Behind him, Chu He had caught up and glanced at the dazzling diamond necklace and ring on the counter.

Gu Jinglian suddenly turned back to the counter and asked seriously, "Do you need a ring to get married?"

"Is this your girlfriend?" The staff glanced at Chu He and smiled, "Your girlfriend is so pretty. Are you guys getting married?"

Gu Jinglian said expressionlessly, "Answer my question."

The staff froze.

Obviously she was taken aback by Gu Jinglian's cold and dark expression. She subconsciously replied, "Of... of course! We have to buy wedding rings for the wedding!"

Had she attracted a wealthy customer?

Or a Demon King?!

This man had such a strong and terrifying presence...

Seeing Gu Jinglian stop at the counter, Chu He went up to take a look and saw many beautiful diamond rings on display. Then she looked up and saw a signboard overhead carrying the word "I Do", it was shimmering like gold.

Even the signboard was dazzling.

On the other hand, the shop assistant talked incessantly, "Which youngster nowadays doesn't buy a diamond wedding ring? A wedding ring not only represents a promise, it also represents a beautiful true love and a sacred marriage !..."

Chu He's eyes flickered as she listened..

Chapter 3478: A New Addition (94)

Gu Jinglian suddenly glanced at Chu He and his gaze fell on her hand that was full with all the shopping. Her ring finger was bare and indeed unpresentable.

He did not know much about the wedding procedures. After all, he had never planned to get married, so he did not pay attention to the complicated details of marriage. However, since this woman was Gu Jinglian's wife, of course for a wedding, he could not possibly give her less than what the other normal people had.

Since a diamond wedding ring was a norm, then she had to have one too.

Gu Jinglian said, "Pick one."

Chu He was staring at the diamond rings on display, so she did not immediately realize what Gu Jinglian had said.

Gu Jinglian turned around and repeated, "Pick one."

"Huh?" Chu He looked up, surprised. "What?"

The shop assistant kindly explained, "Your husband wants you to choose a ring! You're getting engaged, right? You can't go without a wedding ring!"

Chu He pondered for a moment before asking, "Must I buy a wedding ring when I get married?"

She had no idea.

Everyone fell silent. The shop assistant could not help scrutinizing in silence.

Your man is wearing such an expensive watch. It's worth more than ten million. Why aren't you even interested in diamond rings?

Which woman doesn't love diamonds?

This must be a fake woman.

"Of course you need to buy a wedding ring!"

Chu He glanced at the counter again and felt that all the rings looked the same. She shook her head and said, "I don't fancy any of these."

"Miss, perhaps the items displayed on this counter may not even catch your eye. However, if you have no concerns with the budget, I can recommend two of the store's treasures to you."

As she spoke, the shop assistant opened the safe and walked over with an exquisite-looking box. Then, she put on a pair of gloves and carefully took out the ring. In an instant, a flash of brilliance!

Inside the box sat a uniquely-shaped ring.

"This model is one of the best rings in our store, Tower's "Oath".

She carefully held the ring up and introduced it to Chu He. "Madam, take a look. The side of this ring is exactly the shape of the French Eiffel Tower. Under the light, the image projected is the shape of the tower structure. The one-carat diamond is very exquisitely cut."

Chu He wasn't moved by it. She only felt that the diamond was so big and shiny.

Noticing her indifferent expression, the shop assistant asked disappointedly, "You don't like this?"

"It's too big. It looks cumbersome."

Perhaps it was because she had been carrying out missions for a long time, but she was already used to her bare hands.

The shop assistant said, "You don't have to wear this wedding ring all the time. If it's inconvenient, you can just take it off! If you don't like this one, I can recommend another one."

Then, the staff took out another box from the safe. When the box was opened, Chu He took a casual glance and was attracted by the dazzling ring! She was attracted not because of the 2.5-carat diamond on it, but because its shape was especially eye-catching.

"This is the Crown of True Love's "Princess". The Crown of True Love series is I Do's high-end customized series! The Crown of True Love series uses diamond-studded designs that look like crowns, and the ruby on the side is just like the eye-catching highlight that crowns every love story, making every bride feel like a fairy tale princess..."

“Pfft...” Before the shop assistant could finish, Chu He could not help bursting out in laughter. Princess? She was not a girl anymore.. Did she really believe in fairy tales?

Chapter 3479: A New Addition (95)

What a childish pitch.

However, the ring did look good. From the side, the diamond-studded ring looked like a crown, as though symbolizing a noble status. The claws of the ring resembled a flower, forming a lotus shape. At the same time, it also symbolized the purity of a girl. On each end there was a ruby, which was one of the top four gems, they were quite rare.

In Europe, rare rubies represented power.

Although Chu He didn't like diamonds, she had to admit that this diamond ring was indeed beautiful.

She casually asked, “How much?”

The staff smiled. “200,000!”

“...” Chu He thought she had misheard and asked again, “How much?”

The staff gave a pretty smile and replied. “Two hundred thousand, ma’am.”

“So expensive!” Chu He did a mental calculation. 200,000 yuan. Given her monthly salary of 5,000 yuan, it was 60,000 yuan a year. She could only afford it after four years without eating or drinking!

So expensive!

Chu He asked again, “Two hundred thousand for a pair?”

“Two hundred thousand is only the price of the lady's ring, ma' am.”

“...”

And it was only the price of a single ring for the bride?!

Chu He almost got knocked off her balance. Her eyes glistened. As though she could see bank notes floating about.

200,000 yuan... 200,000.

So expensive, so expensive...

Just as Chu He's mind was spinning like a whirlwind...

“We'll take this.” Gu Jinglian added, “Put it on her.”

The staff immediately asked Chu He, “Ma'am, would you like to try it on?”

Chu He asked cautiously, “Do I have to pay to try it on?”

The shop assistant's smile froze. She blinked for a long time before smiling stiffly. "No need to pay, ma'am..."

Chu He held out her hand. Her right hand bore five slender fingers with distinct joints. It was a good-looking hand, fair and elegant, but when she turned it over, it was an unbearable sight.

There were many scars on her palm. Some were from training, while others were from injuries from her missions.

The staff slipped the diamond ring on her finger. Every angle and movement of the ring caught the light and shone brilliantly.

Too beautiful.

Even Chu He was quite impressed. Her fingers were not thick, so size 9 was just right for her.

The staff then said to Gu Jinglian, "Sir, I'll get you a ring for the man."

Gu Jinglian didn't say anything and just stared at Chu He's hand. The bright diamond looked especially good on her fair skin.

Gu Jinglian naturally didn't care how much a ring would cost or how many figures the price came in. He only cared about whether it looked good.

The shop assistant brought over a ring for a man and was about to put it on for him when Gu Jinglian said, "I'll do it myself."

"Let me help you, sir."

"Your hands are dirty." The man frowned in disgust, his eyes dangerous and his tone icy. "Don't touch me."

The staff was taken aback and fell silent. The other employees at the counter were almost frozen by his icy presence.

He was a cleanliness freak and couldn't stand being touched by others.

Even when his Centurion Card had been handled by someone else's hand, he would wipe it down before putting it away.

The shop assistant was completely unnerved. This pair of customers were truly something! The woman appeared a little dense and went on and on about the price, while the icy man was so stand-offish.

However, if she sold this pair of rings, she would have hit her sales quota ahead of time.

Gu Jinglian tried on the diamond ring himself. It fit perfectly.

"Heavens, there's actually no need for any adjustment! This means that this pair of rings is fated to be yours!"

Chapter 3480: A New Addition (96)

The shop assistant continued, "Because it's a man's ring, there's no grand design. Men are generally more reserved. However, the highlight is the engraving on the inside of the ring. There are two small rubies embedded in it. This also has a meaning. It means that love is in the heart."

Chu He leaned close to Gu Jinglian and said in a low voice, "200,000 yuan. Gu Jinglian, it's too expensive. A pair of rings don't need to cost this much, right?"

Without even looking up, Gu Jinglian asked, "How much?"

"That's three hundred thousand, sir."

Gu Jinglian handed over the credit card. The shop assistant took it and realized that it was a card she had never seen before. The store manager, however, was taken aback when he saw it. "Black and gold card..."

The staff lowered her voice and asked, "What's a black and gold card?"

"I'll tell you later. Swipe it first."

Afraid that Chu He would regret her decision, the staff quickly swiped the card.

After the money was paid, the shop assistant asked respectfully, "May I help you wrap these up?"

Gu Jinglian replied, "No need."

Since he was wearing the ring on his finger, there was no reason for him to take it off.

Otherwise, what was the point of a wedding ring?

"The after-sales cards..."

Gu Jinglian replied, "No need."

The manager watched in a daze as the couple walked away. The shop assistant, who was standing by the side, asked cautiously, "What does the black and gold card mean?"

"That's a high-end card issued by American Express globally. Those who have it are either billionaires or socialites."

The staff was stunned. Such a young man was actually a billionaire?! Initially, she had even suspected that the watch on Gu Jinglian's wrist was a fake. Otherwise, how would a man wearing a watch worth more than ten million have such an obviously poor girlfriend.

Unexpectedly...

Before they left the department store, they used the VIP service to deliver their purchases of clothes and shoes back to the Gu residence.

When Gu Jinglian and Chu He then returned to the Civil Affairs Bureau. Coincidentally they were calling for queue number 64.

Walking into the registration hall, they ran into the couples who had been around earlier on. They had now gotten their marriage certificates and were at various stages of their process. When they saw that Chu He had changed into a new set of clothes and high heels, they were all stunned.

Chu He had a strong ability to adapt. Although she wasn't one to wear high heels, she managed to get used to it very quickly and by now she was walking quite well.

When they saw this couple leaving earlier on, they thought that the two of them had a fight and were no longer registering their marriage. Unexpectedly, they had actually gone to a nearby mall shopping for clothes!

Some people noticed the ring on Chu He's finger and gasped!

"Oh my god! What a big diamond!"

"It's at least one carat!"

"What's with the look in your eyes? Have you never seen a one-carat diamond ring? How can it be so big?! This ring must be at least 2 carats!"

"...How much would that cost?!"

"Eh?! Wait, I saw this ring yesterday at the mall! Isn't this from I DO's Crown of True Love series?"

"Is it very expensive?"

"A two-carat ring would cost at least hundreds of thousands!"

...

Chu He stared at the number displayed on the window. Finally, it was their turn.

She walked over and received the application. When she returned, she and Gu Jinglian each took one.

"What's this?"

"The application form. Fill it out."

"...How do I fill it?"

"How stupid! Let me do it then."

Being a person who liked keeping things simple, Chu He took the form from the man and filled it out together with her own..
