

Sweet Love 3501

Chapter 3501: A New Addition (117)

"Baby Chu has never had a father, so he'd always been ostracized by children his age. Naturally, he'd feel insecure."

Meng Qingxue paused and replied, "But for children, a mere marriage certificate would not give them a sense of security! A harmonious family is the most important thing!"

Chu He said calmly, "It's a pity that I don't have any feelings for Gu Jinglian and it's pretty much the same the other way round."

"So, are you and Master Gu going to continue putting on this show?"

Meng Qingxue could not help laughing aloud. "When the child grows up, you'll not be able to hide this anymore!"

Chu He retorted, "What can I do about it? Make it real?"

"Chu He, there's something I've been wanting to ask you." Meng Qingxue suddenly broached the subject, "How did you end up with Baby Chu back then?"

"..."

"Something like that takes two hands to clap. With your personality and skills, it wouldn't have been easy for him to do this by force! Don't you have any feelings for the man at all?"

Chu He frowned, her expression complicated. She absentmindedly sucked on the straw, her teeth squeezing the straw out of shape. Her mind was a mess. She did not have a deep impression of the things that had happened before she lost her memory. She was also very curious as to why something like that had happened between her and Gu Jinglian.

Was she unable to control her own feelings or was she forced? If it was really forced, with her unyielding character, Gu Jinglian might not have succeeded.

However, if she had been a willing party...

How could she fall for a heartless man like Gu Jinglian?

Although she did remember some things from before, they were like ordinary memories, and she could not quite figure out how she had felt towards Gu Jinglian back then.

"Chu He, I think you might have had feelings for Master Gu back then. Maybe that was why you had Baby Chu?"

Chu He didn't comment further, as though she wished to avoid this topic. She smiled at Meng Qingxue and said, "Let's eat. I'm starving."

With that, she started cutting the steak. Seeing that Chu He was deliberately avoiding the topic, Meng Qingxue knew that she must be feeling confused. Hence she did not pursue the matter.

...

Chu He returned home and saw Butler Fu in the living room.

The butler immediately came up to her and said excitedly, "It'll be Baby Chu's birthday in a few days! Chu He, do you have any thoughts? Baby Chu said that he would like to invite all the children in his class to celebrate his birthday at the Gu residence! Old Master doesn't like noise, so he didn't allow it. Now, the both of them are in a cold war! Do you want to talk them round?"

Chu He turned to look at Butler Fu with a complicated expression. Suddenly, she probed, "Butler Fu..."

"Huh?"

She opened her mouth but hesitated. In reality, she wanted to ask him how she used to treat Gu Jinglian. Did she like him? Or did she hate him?

If she hated him, then how did all that happen... with Gu Jinglian?

But if she liked him, why had she no memory of those feelings?

Chu He was also confused by the current situation. She did not know how to face Gu Jinglian, nor did she know what to do about Baby Chu's dream to have a happy family.

It wasn't that she didn't want to. However, she was really indifferent when it came to matters of the heart. It was as if she had experienced too many massacres. Matters of life and death, and the cruelty of war had made her a rather detached person..

Chapter 3502: A New Addition (118)

As for matters of the heart, she was indifferent. She felt that relationships were dispensable. Even if she were alone, she could lead a good life.

But ever since she had Baby Chu, he became another burden in her heart. At the same time, she took her responsibility as a mother seriously.

No matter what Baby Chu wanted, she was willing to give it her all. However, it was difficult for her to fulfill his dream. Getting the marriage certificate with Gu Jinglian was just for show. Would she really be able to force herself into a situation and put on a show for the sake of Baby Chu?

Butler Fu saw that she looked like she had something on her mind but stopped short of giving it a voice. He smiled and remarked, "You seem to have something to ask me!"

When Chu He heard this, she mustered her courage and turned around to ask him, "What do you think my attitude towards Gu Jinglian was when I was living in the Gu family residence way back then?"

"..."

Butler Fu was stunned for a long time before he sighed. "I can't judge what happened between you and the old master. However, Chu He, you disguised yourself as Hong He and planted yourself by Old Master's side. At that time, he had already found out your identity. And on the other hand, you were his personal companion. You had countless opportunities to attack the old master."

Chu He was stunned by what she was hearing. After a pause, Butler Fu asked meaningfully, "Unfortunately, you didn't succeed, and Old Master never exposed your identity. Don't you think that's strange?"

"..."

"As the saying goes, the onlooker sees the bigger picture. But as a bystander, I can't say anything! It's just that it's better to let nature take its course when it comes to relationships!"

While Chu He was deep in thought, Butler Fu added, "That's not important! What's important is that Baby Chu and Master are arguing over the birthday venue now. You should go and persuade them and come up with alternatives."

Chu He was flabbergasted.

When she entered the study, she saw Baby Chu sitting on the sofa with his arms across his chest, looking very angry. Gu Jinglian, on the other hand, sat calmly in front of the desk, with the inked calligraphy brush in his hand.

When Baby Chu saw Chu He, his angry face gave way to a crestfallen expression as he opened his arms and rushed towards her, feeling aggrieved. "Mommy! Sob sob sob..."

Gu Jinglian looked up. Seeing that she had returned, he ignored her as if she was air. Chu He lifted Baby Chu into her arms. At this point, the boy started to lament bitterly.

"Isn't it my birthday this Sunday? I told Daddy I wish to hold a birthday party at the Gu residence. This way, we'll be saving money and having fun at the same time! But Daddy wouldn't allow it! What do I do now?"

Chu He's lips twitched. "Saving money?"

"That's right. Daddy said that he'd book a hotel, but I think it's too wasteful!" Baby Chu whispered into her ear, "I heard from Butler Fu that it costs tens of thousands to book a hotel! It's so expensive! I was kind enough to save money for Daddy, but he called me a fool! He even said that the Gu residence is so big, and if my friends lose their way inside and go missing, it would be too troublesome to hunt them down one by one."

Chu He was at a lost for words. There was truth to that logic. The Gu family residence was built on prime and extremely expensive land. But even so, the residence grounds were huge.

The first time she came to the Gu family residence, she got lost in it.

She could imagine how troublesome it would be, if a large group of children came over. If they should go missing and anything should happen to them, it would be troublesome indeed.

Furthermore...

The staff of the Gu family residence were all fierce-looking. Wouldn't they scare these innocent children?

"Why don't we just listen to Daddy and book a hotel for the event?"

Chapter 3503: A New Addition (119)

"Why don't we just listen to Daddy and book a hotel for the event?" Chu He said.

Gu Jinglian suddenly stopped writing. When Chu He said "Daddy", he actually felt strange emotions stirring within him.

Somehow it made him feel...

Warm.

He had never felt this way before.

Chu He continued, "Daddy is rich. Don't think about saving money for Daddy."

He was stumped. He looked up, and his expression darkened.

Chu He glanced at him and continued meaningfully, "Daddy is filthy rich. It's your birthday, you can spend as much money as you want!"

Baby Chu refused, on the other hand, and said, "I want to have the event in my own home!"

As he spoke, he turned around and looked at Gu Jinglian with an expression that said he wanted to talk about this further.

Chu He was helpless and said to Gu Jinglian, "Why don't we let him host it at the Gu residence?"

Gu Jinglian said coldly, "Troublesome."

He didn't like noise.

One Baby Chu was noisy enough. A group of kids would just bring the house down with all the din.

The thought of that scene gave him a headache.

Chu He put Baby Chu down and walked in front of him, snatched his calligraphy brush and tossed it aside.

Gu Jinglian frowned, but she continued, "Gu Jinglian, this is also Baby Chu's first birthday since he came to the Gu family residence! Since he wants to spend it here, can't you just allow it for once?"

"..."

The man narrowed his eyes and saw that Chu He had run out of patience. She grabbed his collar and smiled, but her tone was hostile. "Say 'okay'!"

Gu Jinglian looked displeased and his lips curled into a dangerous smile. "Are you ordering me?"

“How is this an order? This is clearly a friendly discussion with you.”

Chu He smiled and gritted her teeth, “Hurry up and just agree.”

Baby Chu rushed in front of him and threw himself on the table. He stared at the man with his glistening eyes, full of anticipation!

Gu Jinglian was stumped.

The mother and son duo echoed each other with great chemistry.

Gu Jinglian pursed his lips impatiently. “If you want to do it, fine. You’re in charge.”

Chu He agreed immediately. “Fine!”

When Baby Chu heard this, he immediately hugged Chu He excitedly and shouted, “Yay! Mommy is awesome! Mommy is awesome!”

Gu Jinglian was a little angry. Obviously he had taken a step back, but why was this guy hugging Chu He and cheering?!

Baby Chu noticed that look of dissatisfaction and understood. He immediately walked up to Gu Jinglian and jumped into his arms. He hugged the man and smiled contentedly. “Thank you, Daddy! Muah!”

Gu Jinglian pushed him away in disdain. “Get lost.”

...

Thus, this matter was settled.

Baby Chu’s birthday happened to be on the weekend, so all the children came.

Chu He and Butler Fu had things organized beforehand.

However, the most troublesome thing about hosting a birthday party in the Gu family residence was...

...

Chu He stood in front of a group of men standing in a row, looking straight ahead.

In the Gu family residence, other than Gu Jinglian and Butler Fu, the elders of the four halls and the hired thugs were also present.

At that point, if little kids came in, then these people might not...

It was too scary to think about.

Chu He suddenly thought of a solution and discussed it with Butler Fu.

When Butler Fu heard this, he was dumbfounded. “Is this a good idea?!”

“What else can we do? They all look so hostile. What if they scare the children?”

“Make them smile!”

Chu He said, "All of them have villainous faces. Even when they smile, it's scary."

Butler Fu fell silent..

Chapter 3504: A New Addition (120)

The group of underlings complained aggrievedly, "Big Sister Chu, what do you mean by villainous faces?! We object!"

"Exactly! This is a personal attack!"

Chu He suddenly turned her head and swept her cold gaze across the room, scaring everyone into silence.

Butler Fu said helplessly, "Alright! We'll do as you say!"

When the underlings heard this, they started wailing at once, "No! We don't want to wear that kind of clothes!"

"We are heroic men! We'd rather die than wear that sort of clothes!"

"Exactly! Big Sister Chu, it's so embarrassing to wear that kind of clothes! We'd rather die than wear it!"

Chu He said unhurriedly, "Alright then, if that makes you happy!"

...

A few minutes later, more than ten men were lying on the ground like half-dead flies.

The few of them took Chu He on together, taking turns to attack her and were all defeated by the woman single-handedly.

This woman... was terrifying QAQ!

Chu He clapped and shook out her hands casually. In an icy tone, she sneered, "You can't even defeat me and you have the cheek to call yourselves men? It's settled then. Butler Fu, purchase those costumes and get them to change out!"

Butler Fu looked at the "corpses" on the ground and his lips twitched. "Ro... roger!"

In the blink of an eye, it was Baby Chu's birthday.

Baby Chu woke up early in the morning. Normally, he would refuse to get out of bed, but today was different. Today was his birthday! His first birthday at the Gu family residence! He had been so excited that he could hardly sleep all night. And early in the morning, he got up!

The little fella washed up and then ran downstairs. Just as he got to the front door, he was stunned by the strange scene in the courtyard.

Last night, Uncle Fu had spent the night setting up the venue. In the yard, there were colorful hydrogen balloons tied to the trees. Every beam of this heritage building was decorated with colorful ribbons.

Someone wearing a jingle cat doll costume floated past him and said bitterly, "Good morning, Little Master!"

On the other side, a household staff who was usually responsible for sweeping and cleaning was in a Minnie Mouse get-up and tidying the yard with a broom.

Her two ears stood erect on the big head set on top of a thin body. It made her look very cute!

However, it was hard to imagine that under the giant cartoon character was a fierce-looking man.

In the courtyard, a group of thugs had already changed their clothes in advance. Despite their reluctance, they obediently put on their character costumes when Butler Fu distributed them. Chu He was worried that their fierce looks would scare the little kids, so she had asked Butler Fu to buy all kinds of character costumes for them to put on. Now, wherever one looked, one would see all kinds of cartoon characters walking around.

There was Mickey Mouse, Goofy, Donald Duck, and even characters from his own favorite animated film, Nick Wilde and Judy Hopps from Zootopia.

At once, the place had been transformed into a fairytale land!

Baby Chu's eyes lit up. This was unbelievable!

So cute!

Someone nearby was heard complaining.

"So boring!"

One of them had just taken off his head piece when Butler Fu walked over and kicked him. "Put it back on! You're not to take it off!"

"..."

That person had no choice but to put the head piece back on.

"So cute! So cute!"

Baby Chu was so excited that he rushed over and hugged Judy Hopps from behind. "Judy Hopps! It's really Judy Hopps!"

"And Ah Bao! Kung Fu Panda!"

"Wow! And Baymax! I love Baymax!"

Chapter 3505: A New Addition (121)

Baby Chu shouted excitedly.

The entire courtyard was filled with his favorite cartoon characters. He was as happy as a little mouse that had fallen into a rice vat!

Early in the morning, Gu Jinglian was startled by Baby Chu's loud cries coming from downstairs. His eyes were still full of sleep when he vaguely heard Baby Chu's voice from outside the window. "Wow! Judy Hopps, may I have your autograph?! I'm your little fan! I've seen your 'Zootopia' several times! You're my idol! You're my idol!"

"..."

The ends of Gu Jinglian's brows twitched violently. He was a little confused.

He got off the bed, walked to the window, and threw open the curtains. Through the window, he suddenly spotted cartoon characters walking around the yard, and his expression darkened!

The burly and tough subordinates of the Gu family residence had been all forced to change into cartoon character costumes and were now walking around the yard.

There were colorful hydrogen balloons and ribbons on the trees...

Where was this?

The Gu family residence had always had a cold atmosphere. It was beautifully classical and elegant, with a sense of oppression about it. But now, it had suddenly become like a fairytale paradise!

Gu Jinglian was flabbergasted.

He walked to the study and saw Chu He lying on the sofa with her arms behind her head, sleeping soundly.

He kicked her awake.

Chu He woke up with a start. She sat up on the sofa, looked up and saw Gu Jinglian's sullen face. He was glaring at her frostily, as if he was silently interrogating her!

"What have you done?"

Chu He was confused. "Why are you so angry so early in the morning?"

Right after she said that, Baby Chu's voice floated in from outside the window again. "Baymax! Can I hug you?"

"..." Chu He rushed to the window and saw "Baymax", who was carrying a broom and trying his best to clean the yard, being bowled over by Baby Chu. He fell to the ground on his back, his hands and feet struggled and flailed wildly about, but he could not get up!

Baby Chu helped him stand up with much difficulty. He bent down to pick up the broom again, but with his big belly, he could not even squat down. He looked extremely cute!

It was hard to imagine that underneath this Baymax was actually a fierce-looking man.

Chu He turned around awkwardly, only to see Gu Jinglian standing there with his arms crossed and eyebrows raised questioningly. "Did you turn the Gu family residence into this?"

"Isn't... isn't it good?" Chu He smiled. "Look at how happy your son is."

Gu Jinglian was at a loss for words.

"It's a special day!" She added, "It'll be fine after the birthday party."

Gu Jinglian snorted. "Childish!"

"Childish? Isn't it good to be childish? Don't children like childish things?" Chu He paused for a moment and said meaningfully, "I even heard that someone, and I'm not mentioning who, liked the Seven Gourd Babies when he was young."

"..." Gu Jinglian's face darkened and he flew into a rage out of humiliation. "Who told you that?"

"Hmph, look, you admit it too, right? You even hugged Winnie the Pooh to sleep when you were young!"

One night, Butler Fu had a little too much to drink and told her about Gu Jinglian's childhood.

It was said that the four-year-old Gu Jinglian was especially obsessed with cartoons. Tom and Jerry, Stuart Little, Winnie the Pooh, the Calabash Brothers, and the Black Cat Detective were all very popular at that time. After the young Gu Jinglian saw it, he actually said that he wanted to be a police officer when he grew up.. This of course, infuriated the Old Master Gu then.

Chapter 3506: A New Addition (122)

Become a police officer? His grandson was the future successor of the Gu family!

What a good-for-nothing!

Butler Fu also recalled that at that time, there was a murder in Animal City in one of the episodes of the Black Cat Detective. A male praying mantis had died. In the end, the Black Cat Detective solved the case. It turned out that two praying mantises got married, and the male praying mantis had given himself to be the female praying mantis' food, so that she could give birth to his child.

It turned out that female praying mantises need nutrition when they are gestating, hence the male praying mantises would sacrifice themselves to supply this .

This scared Gu Jinglian so much that on that same night, he hid under the blanket and swore that he would never get married.

Butler Foo had explained to him several times that praying mantises were not human beings. His future wife would not eat him. Gu Jinglian was eventually convinced.

This was not the silliest thing though. The silliest time was when they went on the streets and passed by a shop. At that time, Gu Jinglian, who was only four years old, saw a bubble machine in the shop. It looked like a pistol. When the trigger was pulled, streams of bubbles would be released.

At the time, it was a very novel toy and very expensive, but many children liked it. When he saw it, he said he wanted it.

Butler Fu did not agree to it, so Gu Jinglian crossed his arms over his chest and sat cross-legged on the ground, refusing to speak.

This child was stubborn, and although he didn't cry or make a fuss, he refused to speak. He stubbornly stood there, looking as though he wouldn't move from the spot if he didn't have his way.

Butler Fu was not going to let him have his way, so he pretended to leave. However, after walking out of the store and for quite a distance, this little guy didn't follow. He turned back curiously, only to see that the boy was still sitting on the ground, refusing to move.

Eventually, even the boss couldn't stand it anymore. He handed the boy a bunch of bubble machines and said, "Here, stop sulking! I'll give these to you, okay?"

It was also because he found Gu Jinglian too adorable. The boy had a fair and tender face, and when he got angry, his cheeks would puff up like a bun.

Gu Jinglian refused the gift, however. He wanted to buy the toy and refused to take it for free. Butler Fu had no choice but to buy it in the end.

On the way home, Gu Jinglian held the bubble gun in his arms and couldn't bear to let it go. He played along the way and by the time he reached home, the machine couldn't even spit out bubbles anymore. He was an intelligent boy and knew how the bubbles were made. He went to refill the machine with more detergent and had a great time playing with it.

When Chu He heard this, she laughed till she was swaying back and forth. She did not expect Gu Jinglian to be so cute when he was young. Only then did she realize where Baby Chu had inherited his stupidity!

Initially, she analyzed Baby Chu from all possible angles and could not figure out whose genes this guy had inherited.

She was known for her cold personality, yet this guy was so bubbly. More importantly, he was very stupid. Sometimes, he would be moved to tears just watching cartoons!

Now she knew that Baby Chu was indeed Gu Jinglian's biological son.

Chu He walked up to him and sized him up with narrowed eyes. "Tell me, why were you so cute when you were young?"

At the same time, she found it quite unbelievable!

If it weren't for the fact that Butler Fu had mentioned it unintentionally, she would never have imagined that the young Gu Jinglian would be this adorable.

She had always had the impression that the young Gu Jinglian would have been a bully, domineering, rude and unreasonable. Alternatively, he would have been like a little old man with a sullen expression, someone who didn't get along with the other children.

Unexpectedly, he was as childish as the other children!

"Shut up!" Gu Jinglian's face turned strangely red. He turned around and snorted, obviously feeling awkward! He gritted his teeth in silence. This Butler Fu had been talking about his past again.

Such an unreliable blabbermouth! Didn't he forbid the man from bringing these things up?!

Chapter 3507: A New Addition (123)

Chu He walked around him and stopped on the other side, saying, "Don't be shy! Who doesn't have a childhood? Look, didn't you like those things when you were young? Today is Baby Chu's birthday, so just let him be."

Gu Jinglian said expressionlessly, "Do what you want!"

With that, he stomped off with a livid expression!

...

In the morning, the parents started turning up with their children.

Initially, many parents were worried that Baby Chu's parents were not like ordinary folks. If their child were to misbehave and offend them, they would end up being like Li Xianlai!

Hence, all the way to the Gu family residence, the car did not stop until they arrived at the entrance of the venue. The moment they got out of the car, they saw a costumed character standing outside the entrance to welcome the guests!

When the child saw this, his eyes lit up!

"Oh my god! It's Baymax! Baymax from Big Hero!" The children gathered around the character as if they couldn't wait to pounce on it! The parents were also stunned! They did not expect this. Unlike what they had imagined, the birthday party at the Gu family residence would be so full of childlike fun!

At once, they were relieved!

However, this birthday party was too unique!

They had first imagined that the birthday party would be held in a hotel. When they first heard that it was going to be held in the Gu family residence, they wondered how big the property was and if they could accommodate all the children in the class.

When they arrived, all the parents who came to send their children off were stunned! Wasn't this excessive!? It was just like the mansions of those wealthy families in ancient times!

Just walking through the door and seeing the long corridor, as well as the huge garden and courtyard, they were scared out of their wits!

They sucked in a deep breath and only exhaled after leaving the property grounds!

It was too big!

Many parents got a little lost in the winding corridors.

He was indeed wealthy!

This piece of land was one of the most expensive in the entire capital. It could be said that every square inch was gold.

It was rumored that if this place were to be taken over by the government, it would definitely cost three hundred thousand per square meter. From what they could see, the entire Gu residence could no longer be measured in square meters.

It was more likely measured in acres!

Comparisons were odious!

Many parents were filled with emotions.

They had started working hard when they were very young, and only after much hard work did they manage to buy a small apartment of about 100 square meters. This was considered a wealthy family in the capital by standard.

Many of them relied on the properties passed down by their ancestors. The government would acquire that land and demolish the old residence, and in exchange they would have the money to afford the current property at its sky-high prices. Otherwise, how could they afford it?

No one would ever think that another person's property would be measured in acres!

The Gu residence, if demolished, could allow for several buildings to be built at least!

What was even more terrifying was that the Gu family had the right to the land. The government did not dare to touch it.

In other words, even if the Gu family went to ruins some day, they would be able to support several generations by relying on their property. There was no doubt about that!

Many parents came feeling rather anxious. But when they saw the children being picked up by people in cartoon costumes, they left feeling reassured!

Baby Chu had been waiting at the door.

A Mercedes-Benz slowly drove over and stopped. A young lady opened the door and carried Sheng'er down!

"Sheng'er!"

When Baby Chu saw Sheng'er, he ran to her happily and held her hand. He said shyly, "What took you so long? I have been waiting for you for a long time!"

Sheng'er's mother immediately apologized, "Sorry, little birthday boy! There was a traffic jam on the road, so we are late!"

Chapter 3508: A New Addition (124)

"Sorry, little birthday boy! There was a traffic jam on the road, so we're late!"

"It's alright!" Baby Chu was a little embarrassed.

Sheng'er immediately took out an exquisitely wrapped gift from behind her back and passed it to him shyly, saying, "Baby Chu, happy birthday to you!"

"Wow, thanks..."

"Here! This is a gift for you. I wonder... I wonder if you'll like it..." Sheng'er's voice trailed off as she spoke, clearly extremely shy.

Baby Chu, on the other hand, seemed very excited. He said with great anticipation, "Can I open it?"

"Now?" Sheng'er said, "You can open it if you want to... but if you don't like it, don't be angry..."

"Why would I be?! As long as it is a gift from Sheng'er, I will like it!"

"Uh huh!"

Baby Chu opened the gift curiously and saw that in the box was a bouquet of flowers. However, this bouquet was different from ordinary bouquets. This bouquet was made up of many Starry Sky lollipops!

Sheng'er did not know what gift she should give him, but when she thought of how Baby Chu liked to eat sweets, she decided to bunch all her favorite Starry Sky lollipops into a bouquet of 'flowers'.

"Wow...!"

His eyes lit up at the sight of the Starry Sky lollipops.

He suddenly leaned towards Sheng'er and gave her a kiss on her cheek. He said happily, "Thank you, Sheng'er! I like it very much!"

Sheng'er's face instantly heated up!

As a result, she became tongue-tied and stammered, "As... as... as long as you like it! These candies... I couldn't even bear to give them to my father! But, because you're my best friend, so..."

Sheng'er's mother squatted down and said to Baby Chu, "I'll leave Sheng'er in your care today!"

"Uh huh!"

"Sheng'er, have fun today. Mommy will pick you up later."

“Okay.”

The two little guys watched the car leave.

Baby Chu immediately held her hand and said with a wide grin, “Sheng’er, come in quickly!”

She was led into the house by Baby Chu. The moment she stepped through the door, she was taken aback to see all the cartoon characters in the courtyard. Her eyes widened in surprise.

“Wow...!”

Other than exclaiming, Sheng’er was so excited that she could not utter a word!

She also loved watching cartoons, and had watched many of Disney’s animated films many times.

Her favorite movie was Frozen, and she also liked Baymax from Big Hero. Thus, her eyes reddened with excitement when she saw Baymax.

In the hearts of young children, the characters in these animated films were not limited to how the adult world would use the word “cute” to describe them!

To them, these characters were popular celebrities and their dreams.

Most of the kids in the class had arrived by now and were having fun with the cartoon characters in the yard. It was as if they were in a fairytale world. Sheng’er even wondered if she was dreaming.

Baby Chu asked, “Sheng’er, you like Baymax too, don’t you?”

“Yes! Baymax is my favourite!”

Baby Chu immediately shouted, “Baymax! Come here!”

Baymax immediately rushed over upon hearing his little master’s “summon”. He stood in front of them with his big belly and waved at them.

Baby Chu introduced solemnly, “This is Princess Sheng’er!” Sheng’er stared at Baymax nervously. The character suddenly waved his hand and greeted, “Hi! Princess Sheng’er, hello!”

Chapter 3509: A New Addition (125)

Sheng’er blushed shyly and replied, “Baymax, how are you!” She paused for a moment and suddenly smiled brightly with her hands behind her back. She asked nervously, “Baymax, may I... hug you?”

Baymax cocked his head to the side. Outwardly, he looked very adorable, but inside his costume, the man with a scar on his face looked depressed.

He was not good at dealing with children!

However, even then, Baby Chu glared fiercely at him from the side as if he would kill him if he dared to refuse! Baymax immediately spread open his arms and said gently, “Of course!”

Sheng'er's face turned even redder, but she happily lunged towards Baymax!

...

Upstairs, Gu Jinglian watched silently at the garden full of cartoon characters and kids with a darkened expression.

Having such a stupid and crazy son like Baby Chu was enough to give him a headache, to begin with! Now, there was this group of brats.

Especially the fact that there were a few naughty kids who were fooling around in the courtyard. They climbed up the landscape mountains nimbly and there was a large body of water right below. Butler Fu stood under the landscape mountains anxiously and tried all ways to coax them down.

"Not coming down! Not coming down!"

"Wow! There are so many fish in the pond!"

"The fish is so cute! I really want to touch it!"

A group of children laid by the pool, looking around.

Gu Jinglian raised his eyebrows. He could hear the chatter of the children, it sounded as if thousands of mosquitoes were flying around his ears.

That was why he hated kids of this age the most. They were especially annoying!

Speaking of Gu Jinglian, he did not like spoiled brats.

Initially, he did not have much patience for Baby Chu. However, after spending some time together and getting used to this guy, he sometimes found him cute.

Although he was really annoying at times.

However, the lad was his son.

But when it came to other kids, he might not have half the patience to deal with them!

Gu Jinglian shut the window and returned to the study. After a while, Butler Fu walked upstairs and knocked on the door. "Old Master, we're about to cut the cake!"

"I don't need to be there surely!" Gu Jinglian said impatiently.

The thought of going downstairs to cut the cake and having to face dozens of little fools... it was just too troublesome.

"This... is not ideal, isn't it? After all, you're Baby Chu's father and the boy is celebrating his birthday. If you're not present on Baby Chu's birthday, you'll... inevitably make the little guy unhappy!"

Gu Jinglian was flabbergasted.

He frowned somewhat wearily and stood up.

...

Ten minutes later, Gu Jinglian appeared downstairs and happened to see Chu He pushing the three-tier cake carefully into the dining room.

The dining room was huge and there were ten tables with four children sitting at each. However, Baby Chu and Sheng'er had a table to themselves!

The table was filled with sumptuous dishes, fruits, desserts, and all sorts of delicacies. However, the children did not care about these! They were looking forward to the cake, so the food in front of them did not attract their attention at all!

Everyone looked around in anticipation!

When Chu He slowly pushed the cake tower into the dining room, the exquisite creation caught the eyes of the brats and caused a great commotion!

No one had ever seen such a beautiful and exquisite cake!

Although the children here were all from wealthy families, but not every family would spend a few thousand yuan to customize such expensive birthday cakes.

Chapter 3510: A New Addition (126)

Butler Fu had specially planned for this cake.

He realized that Baby Chu especially liked Baymax, so he had sent his subordinates to ask around a long time ago. They found the classiest cake shop in the capital and booked this cake a fortnight in advance.

There were three tiers making up the cake tower, and each tier was covered in chocolate. The top tier was made of sugar paste and looked very cute. It perfectly reflected the cartoon image in the movie!

"Wow! What a beautiful cake!" The children widened their eyes in envy. As they watched Chu He pushing the cake to the center of the room, they started drooling!

Gu Jinglian had just stepped into the dining room when he heard thunderous cheers that sounded like seawaves crashing onto the shore!

"Baymax!"

"What a beautiful cake!"

"Ahhh, I want that Baymaxi!"

...

Gu Jinglian's head almost exploded from the noise!

Chu He immediately said, "Baby Chu, come on up here! We're about to distribute the cake!"

Baby Chu walked over and started looking for a knife and fork.

Butler Fu immediately stopped him and chided the boy, "Baby Chu, you haven't sung the birthday song yet!"

“Oh right! Birthday song!”

Sheng'er stood up immediately and turned around, saying, “Let's all sing Baby Chu a birthday song together!”

“Alright!”

The children, eager to eat the cake, were surprisingly cooperative. As they clapped their little hands, they started singing in an uncoordinated manner.

“Happy birthday to you! Happy birthday to you! Happy birthday to Baby Chu ~ Happy birthday to you!”

Clap clap clap...

There were more than thirty childish voices, out of tune and terribly unsynchronized!

It almost drove Gu Jinglian crazy listening to it, but Baby Chu was overjoyed.

Chu He put the crown on his head and urged, “Baby Chu, make a wish!”

“Uh huh!”

Baby Chu immediately put his palms together, closed his eyes, and began to make a wish.

Following that, he blew out the lit candle!

“Happy birthday, Baby Chu!”

“It's time to have some cake! It's time to have some cake!”

...

The children swarmed forward like a tide.

Butler Fu immediately rushed over to maintain order. “Don't snatch! Let our birthday boy cut the cake!”

Baby Chu looked up at Gu Jinglian and said nervously, “Daddy, the cake is so tall. How do we cut it?”

The cake was more than a meter tall, and it towered over the boy. He could not cut it even if he stood on tiptoe.

Gu Jinglian gave him a look of disdain but immediately bent down and carried the boy in his arms. Chu He held his hand and the mother and son cut the cake together.

It was time to distribute the cake, but the group of little guys started arguing.

“I want Baymax!”

“Baymax is mine!”

“Mine!”

“Mine!”

“Mine!”

Sheng'er stood aside and tugged at Baby Chu's sleeve, saying pitifully, "Baby Chu, I really like Baymax, can you give Baymax to me?"

"Of course!"

Baby Chu said to everyone, "Shall we give Baymax to Sheng'er?"

A boy stood up and said indignantly, "Why should we give that to Sheng'er alone, Baby Chu, you are biased! I want it too!"

Sheng'er pouted. When Baby Chu saw this, he acted like he was protecting her, "Give it to Sheng'er!"

"Give it to me!"

"Baymax belongs to Sheng'er!"

"Baymax is mine!"

...

Gu Jinglian could not bear to listen any longer and cut Baymax in half.

Clean and efficient.

"Half each."

Baby Chu was stumped.

As was Sheng'er'er.

...

All of a sudden, everyone fell silent.
