Wrong marriage and sweet love (Joyce and Luther)

Chapter 601

Juanita also rushed over and held Joyce's hand tightly, "Does it hurt? Don't worry, we'll send you to the hospital right away."

"Good."

Joyce curled up helplessly in Luther's arms, unable to care about anything else at this point, and she covered her belly.

For the first time, fear welled up from the bottom of her heart. Although she had once thought about not having the child, now since she had made up her mind, it was as if the child had become part of her body.

Just now, learning that Shelly wanted to cause her to miscarry, she felt a deep sense of fear in addition to anger, but fortunately she noticed that in time and escaped.

Even so, she was hurt.

It must have been that at that time, she was trying to dodge Jimmy and the impulse caused her belly to hit the railing of the overpass.

She didn't feel any pain at the time, and was fine afterwards.

It wasn't until just now in the negotiation room that she was alerted to the fact that something was wrong. At the beginning it was just her legs, and then she had a vague pain in her belly.

Luther hugged Joyce and ran wildly all the way out the door.

His car was parked in front of the police station.

"Hmm."

When they arrived at the ward, four doctors were already there.

Luther rushed to place Joyce on a special monitor bed.

"Leave this to us, please go out first." The nurse said politely.

Immediately afterwards, she pulled the curtain shut.

Luther and Juanita turned around and left the ICU.

No matter how worried they were, they could only watch as the glass doors of the ICU closed automatically.

Juanita's heart was pounding.

Her mind was blank, and her heart felt scared. She had never experienced such a thing before.

She glanced at Luther's hand and saw the blood. She could not help but shrill, "Boss, your hand ... There is blood ..."

After the doctor stepped out of the VIP ICU, he took off his mask and said, "Which one of you is a family member?"

"I'm her husband." Luther blurted out.

"Oh. Her abdomen was hit by an external force, resulting in the displacement of the endometrium. Thanks to your timely delivery, otherwise the consequences are unthinkable. The condition of the fetus has been stabilized. Its heartrate is normal, and the bleeding has stopped."

"Good. Thank you doctor."

Luther took a deep breath, as if relieved.

Juanita, who was listening, also wiped the cold sweat on her forehead. She did not notice that in fact her back was already soaked.

"Let's keep the patient in the ICU for observation tonight and then we will transfer her to the VIP ward tomorrow morning. For the sake of her safety, she may need to stay in the hospital for about a week to ten days for observation, depending on the situation. Since you are friends of Mr. Jones, you can go in and see her now." The doctor briefed them about the situation and left first.

"Yes, doctor, thank you." Juanita smiled as she sent the doctor off.

Luther walked impatiently into the VIP ICU, and Juanita rushed to follow.

Inside the ward, the doctors had all left, leaving only a nurse to look after them.
Joyce was sitting on the bed with a cushion behind her.
Although she still looked a little pale, she was in a much better state than before.

Joyce pursed her lips and resisted, "I have my own hands, and my hands are not injured. You just give it to me, and I'll do it myself."
"Eat."
He pressed the spoon against her lips, his handsome face slightly sunken with displeasure.
She was finally forced to open her mouth and take a spoonful.

Honestly, she was really hungry, so hungry that she felt upset in her stomach.

He fed her another spoonful.

When Juanita came in again, she saw that the boss was feeding Joyce, and she knew better than to get in. She simply closed the door, found herself a unoccupied corner, opened her own dinner box and ate up alone.

Every now and then, she glanced up at them.

Boss seemed to be quite natural with it when he was feeding Joyce and he had been very thoughtful, since he would use a napkin to wipe the corners of her lips from time to time.

After Luther was gone, Juanita asked in surprise, "Is he living in Eden Apartment? With you?!"

Joyce's long eyebrows furrowed. She also did not expect Luther would say something like this, and it was really a headache.

Joyce did not say anything, so that was pretty much just the truth. She was then even more surprised, "So Boss does not live in his own mansion and live in a tiny single apartment with you! Wow, only an extraordinary man could have such extraordinary ideas. It's not something I can understand with my IQ."

"It's not like that." Joyce rubbed her brow and said with a headache, "He said that after losing his memory, he couldn't sleep elsewhere, but only in my apartment, so ... forget it, he can just live there if he likes the place. I can always move out again. "

"Joyce, after Boss lost his memory, did you mention to him what happened between you before?"

"Here's the situation. Karl and I have found the person who drugged me and ordered Thomas to molest me and finally set Lauren up. It was actually Charlotte."

"What!? That beastly thing with a human face!" Juanita shouted excitedly, "Usually she looks gentle and modest, dignified and polite, but I didn't expect that she is just acting! What a scheming woman!"

"Shh, keep your voice down." Joyce held out a finger to her lips, making a hush gesture, "Not only that, we also have evidence of Charlotte and her escort Ricky having an affair!"

"What!" This time, Juanita jumped straight up from her chair, unable to believe what she heard. It was such a breaking news! It was so shocking, that she covered her mouth hard to prevent herself from losing her manners.

She waited until she had slightly digested the explosive news before slowly releasing her hand.

The next day, Joyce's fetus was stable and she was transferred to the VIP ward early in the morning.

The VIP room was located on the top floor of the hospital, with a large floor-to-ceiling window. When the curtains were open, she could see the entire garden of the hospital, which was quite relaxing.

Juanita had gone to work at R&S Group headquarters early in the morning, and Aaron had moved all of Joyce's computers and drawing boards to the VIP ward, as well as some of the documents Joyce needed. The room was set up like a small office.

When Luther pushed the door in, Joyce was lying on the bed, clutching the drawing board in her hand, and concentrating on making changes to her previous design. She was completely unaware that he had entered.

He frowned and strode forward to jerk the stylus out of her hand.

He reprimanded, "Can't you just rest properly? It's just your first day here, what are you doing already?"

"Hey, I haven't even made one stroke just now!" Joyce was upset to see how her pen was suddenly jerked away from her hand, and she showed an extremely dissatisfied expression. It was still a bit before she could finish her design.

"No other strokes to draw after this one? Do you know why you are here? You just can't have a rest? Lie down and rest! No painting today, or I'll ask someone to move all the stuff away." Luther ordered with his cold face.

Half a long time, he finally held back his anger, and he picked up his jacket expressionlessly.

"I'm leaving, and you get some rest."

After saying that, he left the VIP ward without looking back.

When Luther left, Joyce's mood became more and more irritable.

With nothing else to do, she simply continued to draw, but drawing still could not relieve her depression, and her mood was still in a mess.

As she drew, she simply tossed the drawing board aside. Damn it, she got no inspiration at all.

Lying in the bed, feeling bored, she suddenly remembered that there was still one important thing she had not done.

She hurriedly took out her phone, found her chat with Christian, and sent him a message.

"Are you there?"

"There's something I'd like to ask you for a little favor. Last time you mentioned that Ricky rented the AWM sniper rifle from the black market, can you help me buy this rifle back from the black market that Ricky used. I have an important use for it."

In the late afternoon, an unexpected guest came to the VIP ward.
Joyce considered the person in front of her.
She's tall, with an aquiline nose and a pair of sharp, spirited eyes. Her lips were thick and sexy and her wheat-colored skin made her even sexier. It was cold out there already, but she was in her black short, revealing her perfect curves that was the perfect combination of strength and softness.
She would never forget someone as special as she was.
"Vicki, it's been a long time."
Joyce smiled and greeted her.
She hadn't seen Vicki for a long time after the Hill Benjamin kidnapping.
"Long time."
Vicki walked right up to Joyce, "Are you okay?"
"I'm fine. I never thought I would see you every time when I was at my worst time."

Otherwise, it backfires."

Joyce froze and got rid of the evil.

Vicki is really a person who has been in the business for many years and acts boldly and decisively.

She also knows that taking down Charlotte has to be thorough, but Charlotte has a military background, so how easy is it to talk about?
