Wrong marriage and sweet love (Joyce and Luther)

Chapter 741

Sure enough, he was also here for the Artificial Intelligence Summit and he must be staying here in the presidential suite.

Should she get in the elevator?

Or not?

She was a little hesitant.

Whether she got in or not, it would always seem a bit strange.

After a few seconds of hesitation, she stepped into the elevator.

Her eyes didn't linger on him too much, and she did not want him to notice her thoughts.

The accidental encounter at the airport today was beyond her expectation. She thought he was far away in Khebury and certainly, she would not meet him in the Capital. But to her surprise, she met him just right after she got to the Capital.

His fingers were cold, without any warmth.

This unintentional touch made Joyce's body shake, as if electrocuted. She did not want to have any more physical contact with him. Today at the airport it was just an accident.

She sharply retracted her hand.

At this time, the elevator suddenly swayed a bit. She was wearing a new pair of high heels and she was not quite used to it. Due to the shaking just now, she could not stand still, and even one of the high heels slipped off her foot, and she fell entirely over to Luther.

She fell into his arms again, just in time.

Luther, out of instinct, once again took her in his arms.

If today in the airport, he simple held her up under panic.

It was something completely different this time. His hands went through her arms and wrapped around her waist, and her face was so close to his neck. The familiar feeling came again. He had dreamed about it for so many times and he had thought about holding her in his arms in so many sleepless nights. So could he ever forget about it?

His body remembered it and would never lie to him, just like how his body had honestly remembered her and wanted her even when he had lost his memory and forgot about her.

His eyes narrowed slightly.

The next day.

Artificial Intelligence Summit, International Exhibition Center.

The international summit forum of this year was unprecedentedly popular, and tens of thousands of professionals had come here for this summit.

In the multimedia conference center, elites from various countries were having a heated discussion about future prospects.

The purpose of the summit was to facilitate renovation and international cooperation in digital globalization.

Everyone could find the most advanced, fashionable and forward-looking design concepts and exchanged important business ideas with each other.

After the meeting, there was the presentation session.

Hundreds of companies had set up exhibition booths for their high-tech products in the exhibition hall.

Of course, some major leading companies had also set up their presentation booths here, mainly for the bidding of their latest project.

Chapter 744

Even as a woman, she found it hard for her to take her eyes off Joyce. She must be the dream girl of simply every man, right?

Mr. Warner would be here soon, and she finally had this chance to get close to him.

How could she allow such a beautiful woman to steal her thunder?

She absolutely would not allow it to happen.

Everyone knew that Mr. Warner had no women around him, and there was always a vacancy.

There were always people coming for that position, and of course, she was no exception.

Once at R&S Group, Mr. Warner took a few extra looks at her and asked her a few questions, and later even sent her to the Capital to take charge of such an important project. She felt that she must be different in Mr. Warner's mind.

"Come on, get rid of this woman."

Olivia reprimanded impatiently.

"Wait!"

Joyce smiled, but she looked even colder with that smile.

Luther quickly flipped through the documents in his hand, and sure enough, it was a detailed proposal.
JK Intelligence.

He did remember Casey saying that the chief designer and executive president of JK Intelligence was a very beautiful woman.

So it was her!

Luther was stunned.

It was the woman he met yesterday at the airport and at the hotel. Now she not only had all the same temperament, eyes, and back as Joyce, but she was even good at car design and artificial intelligence, just like Joyce!

He was dumbfounded for just a few seconds, and then he quickly came back to his senses.

"Mr. Warner, I ..." Olivia struggled to explain.

"Shut up and get out of the way."

Luther sounded disgusted and didn't bother to give Olivia a glance.

He walked right past Olivia to Joyce and extended his hand to Joyce.

"Ms. Knowles, Ms. Knowles."

Joyce stopped and looked suspiciously at the man with a blue staff badge on his chest.

She recognized that this was the staff member who had been responsible for receiving her at the venue today.

He came over running breathlessly and said urgently, "Ms. Knowles, the president of Blue Maple Group has been looking for you and he wants to talk to you."

"I've been around the booth a few times, and you never answered your phone."

"Could you come over there, please?"

"Oh."

Joyce fished out her cell phone from her bag, and sure enough, when she was in a meeting just now, she turned it to silent and never turned it back.

She had indeed known about Blue Maple Group but she was not interested at all, so she simply turned it down.

She came back with an important purpose.

She would not waste her time on those insignificant orders.

Casey looked at Olivia, who was sitting on the floor lifelessly, and lamented.

President had not cared about the internal management of the group for a long time and today he fired the marketing director all of a sudden. Jesus, it had been so difficult.

Olivia was not just an ordinary employee either. Her family has certain social connections, especially in the Construction Management Agency.

Now, the R&S Group had finally made it to the Capital, and it was time for networking.

The Capital was nothing like Khebury, where they could solve any problem with money.

Basic connections were still necessary.

Wasn't that the reason why the Warner family wanted him to marry the daughter of the Heath family in the first place?

Casey bent down to help Olivia up from the ground. At least, he should not cross the Construction Management Agency.

He gave a wink, signaling Olivia to leave and not to continue to anger Mr. Warner any further.

Olivia wiped her tears and had to leave in dismay.

"The group can show enough sincerity."

"You prepare a generous gift. I will go to her myself."

Luther's dark eyes flashed slightly.

"President, you're going to apologize to her personally?" Casey was taken aback.

The president even took the initiative to condescend to do such a thing! It was the first time such a thing had ever happened.

It seemed that the president had attached a great deal of importance to JK Intelligence.

"Hmm."

Luther didn't really give any reply.

Just now he heard clearly that the staff member called her Ms. Knowles. How could she be a Knowles? She was actually a Knowles!

He must find her and test her face to face to find out who she really was.

Chapter 749

"Hello, Mr. Walshs."

Joyce gracefully walked up and greeted them politely.

The two Mr. Walshs also hurriedly put their tea down and stood up to greet her.

When they both saw Joyce, both of them stared at her in disbelief.

The woman in front of them was simply too beautiful.

Her enchanting almond eyes, her lengthy straight eyebrows, her sexy lips, and her upright chin ... she simply could not be any little bit sexier...

It was not just the face. Her body was also perfectly hot. Although she was dressed quite formally today, that simply could not stop them from their imagination.

She was simply the dream girl of every man.

They had been through quite a lot and had seen a variety of women.

But none of them could be as perfect as the woman in front of them?

"You ... you are the designer of JK Intelligence?" One of the Mr. Walshs said and his eyes showed a salivating glint that could not be concealed.

He kept looking Joyce up and down, and his gaze was fixed firmly on her front.

It was so perfect, and he could not help but have all kinds of scenarios in his mind, imagining himself going up and down on her.

"Wow, I can't believe the designer of JK Intelligence is actually a woman?!"

His eyes were aglow.

Joyce frowned at such a stare, which had made her pretty uncomfortable.

As if she was a commodity for sale.

It's funny. They were obviously looking for her, but they didn't even know whether she was a man or a woman.

"Yes. I heard that you have been looking around for me, so you want to talk about a partnership with JK Intelligence?" She asked.

They had no idea that JK Intelligence was founded exactly by the woman in front of them, and had already made a name for itself in just two years.

"So, Misters, it seems you even want to acquire my JK Intelligence? You have got quite an appetite really."

Joyce lifted her handbag and stood up, "Since you are not really that interested in having a partnership with us ... Let's all pretend we haven't seen each other today and hope we won't see each other again."

She was just about to leave.

The younger Mr. Walsh hurriedly stood up. He stepped forward and squeezed Joyce's wrist, "Ms. Knowles, please stay."

"We certainly do want a partnership with JK Intelligence."

"We need a transformation, and we want your designs at any cost."

Joyce cast a cold glance at his hand squeezing her wrist and said in a low voice, "Please let go."

But how would it even be possible for him to let go willingly? Even through the thin clothing, he could feel how soft this pretty woman was. He simply could not help himself.

"Don't be shy, Ms. Knowles. If you need anything, just tell us and I will do my best to satisfy you."
