

Sweet Love 901

Chapter 901: Huang Lili, do not start a rumor.

“Do you know of your girlfriend’s happenings when she’s still a student? It was spread all over the school! You’re not still in the dark, are you?”

He pursed his thin lips; his eyes glinted dangerously.

“When she was in school, her name was everywhere at a young age! I heard that she was kept by several rich men. There’s a rumor of her stopping school at 18 due to being pregnant and recuperating at home! Some of my friends bumped into her at a hospital; she’s with a big belly and doing an ultrasound! She’s a third party. Everyone in school then knew of this!”

He remained silent. His piercing eyes revealed a flash of cold light as he lifted them.

Eighteen?

When Shishi was 18...

He abruptly jerked.

That year was when she became a surrogate for the Mu family.

This matter had spread in school, huh?

People even surmised that she was kept by the rich...

His eyes gradually turned dark.

Xiao Xue was stunned, too. She did not expect Huang Lili to be so mean.

The latter laughed contemptuously. “What? Did you not know of this? Did you really think that your girlfriend is pure and clean? She pretends to be ignorant about the world, but who knows how cheap she really is on the inside?”

Du Jiayan furrowed his brows. “Rich? She was kept by the rich? Surely not?”

“Jiayan, I’ve never told you this before because I wanted to leave some face for someone!”

She continued. “Once, she returned to school to do the suspension procedure, and she alighted from a Bentley. I saw it with my two eyes!”

“I’ve encountered all the rich families in the capital; perhaps, I know him.”

“Who knows?” She pouted.

Xiao Xue warned, “Don’t talk nonsense.”

“Hmph! The entire school knew of this matter. Why do you say that I’m talking nonsense? I’ve seen it with my two eyes. Can it still be false?”

The crowd’s expressions became more and more bizarre as they bowed their heads and whispered.

Being gossipy, they shifted closer to her and softly asked, "Hey, are you telling the truth? I thought that that's all fabricated!"

"What fabrication could there be? I witnessed that for myself. It's not baseless."

"Don't you go overboard. Just because others don't know, doesn't mean that I don't! Shishi was never kept at all, and there's no so-called illegitimate child! These rumors were all fabricated by you! Don't you start rumors; Shishi quit school because of her family situation!" Xiao Xue insisted.

"She's been telling lies all along. Only you would believe her and speak up for her. You believe the nonsense of that kind of person?"

"That kind of person?" Her voice rose sharply as she slapped the table. "What kind of person is she?"

"Actually, I don't really like that loner. She doesn't talk much and is a social pariah. She's very maudlin and serene. That woman has no personality at all. I bet she's wild on the inside. This kind of woman is the scariest."

Another female classmate chimed in. "I don't like her, too. She is so boring and dislikes to talk. Just sitting in the classroom for the whole day, this kind of woman always has bad intentions; I can tell that she's a shrewd person. I usually don't dare to have any dealings with her!"

"Yes, I agree. I also don't dare to get too close with her. What's the use of her pretty face? I feel that she's just pretending to be pure. Wasn't there a very handsome senior in college? He seemed to like her and wooed her for a long time. I bet she used some dirty methods. A vixen incarnate, indeed!"

Chapter 902: Loose Woman

Furious, Xiao Xue cried, "What are you talking about? Shishi is the best girl I've ever met! She's just a little stubborn and likes to keep to herself, but so what? At least, she's sincere! Bad intentions? Hah! My friend has never spoken ill of people behind their backs!"

With that, she glared fiercely at her. "Unlike certain people who only know how to spread rumors! Disgusting."

Huang Lili sneered in disdain.

Someone whistled, "Oh, my. How touching! When has Lili ever spoken ill of your friend? She's merely revealing what she witnessed! Why are you so hostile today? We're not talking about you."

A fleeting scorn flashed across Du Jiayan's eyes as he quickly mediated. "Well, well. It's rare that you all gather for a class reunion; let's not spoil the friendly atmosphere and talk about other things, instead."

She said to Mu Yazhe, "I find you rather pitiful. You look quite talented, but don't be fooled by what you see! Yun Shishi isn't so pristine and good. Previously, I saw that video Jiang Li had sent in our group chat; her son is already six years old. Of all women to be your girlfriend, why do you find a loose one?!"

Anger was evident on him and his eyes glinted dangerously.

However, before he could make a stand—spatter!

No one knew when Xiao Xue had stood up with a glass of wine in hand, but in the next moment, she splashed that expensive liquor on the other's face.

Huang Lili froze in her seat. The wine poured soaked her head and seeped into her eyes. Her eyes stung, and she looked like a total mess.

She stared at her, dumbfounded. Apparently, she did not expect her to splash her with wine. Her chest undulated uncontrollably. She was hopping mad.

"You dared to splash wine at me?!"

"Loose woman? I bet you're the loose woman! You say that Shishi is a loose woman, but why don't you take a look in the mirror? During college, you didn't return at night and often hung out in nightclubs; do you need me to count for your boyfriend how many rich guys have bed you? Huang Lili, I feel disdainful about revealing your dirty past! It'll just disgust me!" she said with agitation, her face flushed from anger.

The scene went completely out of control.

The group of people was dumbstruck. Never did they expect for things to take a turn for the worse.

At her side, even Du Jiayan stood up to grab hold of Xiao Xue's wrist.

"What are you doing?! Have you gone crazy? Are you a shrew?!"

"Let go of me! Don't you see who's acting more like a shrew? Your girlfriend is a mad dog, biting people everywhere she goes!"

"Shut your mouth!" He glared threateningly at her.

With things devolving into this, slandering his girlfriend was akin to slandering him; how could he take it lying down?

"How dare you?!"

Gao Nan stood up sullenly and pushed the other man away. He protectively pulled his girlfriend to the side. "Don't you touch her with your dirty hands!"

"How dare you push me?! How are you qualified to speak to me?!" He was in his prime, after all. Seeing that this person dared to push him, he flew into a rage.

"I give you that little bit of face, and you really think that you're a crown prince?!" Gao Nan growled in disdain.

It was on his girlfriend's account that he did not want to make things ugly at this class gathering.

However, with this guy shedding any pretense of cordiality, he would never pick up the tab for him!

"Gao Nan..."

He immediately turned to hold her hands and carefully checked them. The area this guy had held earlier was now red!

His heart ached for a moment.

Turning around, he threw a punch at the man.

Chapter 903: No one is leaving!

Turning around, he threw a punch at the man.

Du Jiayan, who was caught off guard, took it square in the face and collapsed onto the table, instantly overturning the liquid on top.

The worse thing was that his white shirt got ruined.

“What are you doing? How dare you punch my boyfriend?!” Huang Lili stood up in anger and pushed away the female who was kindly giving her a handkerchief. Like a shrew, she rebuked, “Xiao Xue, your boyfriend is really such a good model! He still dares to take action, huh? Yun Shishi is really a scourge. Are you going against me for her?”

“What does it have to do with my best friend! Don’t you slander her!”

Du Jiayan had been helped up by someone. Loosening his jaw, he spat out a mouthful of blood. The other man’s punch had caused him to lose a tooth; he was even madder now!

A look at his dirty state, and he became furious. He raised his head in anger with a fierce look. “You two, no one is leaving here today!”

“Why? Are you threatening me?”

Gao Nan was livid. “Alright! I’d like to see what you are capable of and what you can do to me!”

Touched by his defense, Xiao Xue hugged him by the waist and glared down at Huang Lili.

“You’re such a bully! It turned out that you haven’t changed your nature since graduation! Well, I haven’t settled the college scores with you yet!”

Hearing this, her boyfriend asked with doubt, “You two have a vendetta during college?”

“Yes!”

She sneered. “During school, she bought a high-quality imitation of the Louis Vuitton bag. I could tell that it was fake, so I called her out for it, and then we got into an argument. In the end... guess what? She sicced a bunch of ruffians and hooligans from off campus on me at the school gate! If not for Shishi protecting me and secretly calling the police, I would’ve been dragged away by those men!”

Her anger was aroused and she said with indignation, “Hmph! I later learned that the ringleader of that gang was a hoodlum on East Street, and I heard that they were in a relationship!”

“You’re talking nonsense!” The other pointed at her angrily. “I’m warning you: you’re forbidden from slandering me!”

“Why do I have to slander you? What good is it for me to do that? You claim that Shishi is a loose woman, but you don’t look at yourself. During college, how many boyfriends have you gotten? How many abortions have you done, and those friends of yours, do you need me to list them off one by one? I see that your boyfriend is the pathetic one, instead; he doesn’t even know how many times he has been made a cuckold of by you! Shishi has all along led an honest and clean life, and never once did she hook up with men; how can you be compared to her?!”

“You!”

Agitated by her words, Huang Lili flushed in anger. She unconsciously glanced at her partner, who was standing behind her, and got flustered at the sight of his brows in a knot. “Jiayan, surely you don’t believe her words? She’s trying to cause a rift between us!”

With a doleful face, he did not say a word.

Xiao Xue only scoffed at this. “Why do I want to sow discord between you two? You’re both scourges, so you two in love is simply eradicating evil for the people! What a perfect match!”

Her words were extremely insulting.

She could not be blamed for not reining in her anger, however.

What she said was the truth, neither fabricated nor exaggerated.

After graduation, these two women kind of buried their hatchet and let bygones be bygones.

Chapter 904: Do not dare to think any further.

She had never been absent from the past class gatherings.

One could say that she got along relatively well with her.

However, with her friend’s attendance today, Huang Lili constantly picked on her and even wanted to bring out old debts.

Turning over old accounts, huh?

She was unafraid of her.

This woman had so many old accounts; she did not mind exposing them one by one!

With that, a male classmate asked in disbelief, “Xiao Xue, are you telling the truth?”

“Of course! Why would I lie? You’ve all been thoroughly deceived by her appearance!”

Pausing, she suddenly gave a scornful smile. “There’s a sentence perfectly fit for you: ‘A white lotus who loves gentlemen is actually a real b*tch!’”

“You!”

Completely outraged by this, Huang Lili pounced on her and clawed at her.

Gao Nan, with good reflexes, quickly pushed his girlfriend out of harm’s way and ended up receiving the assailant’s attack, her nails leaving a deep bloody mark on his arm.

“Get off me!” With a look of disdain, he pushed her aside.

She lost her center of gravity and fell to the ground, looking like an utter mess.

“Don’t touch me; it’s dirty.” He quickly picked up a wet wipe from the table and vigorously rubbed the spot where she had touched with it.

His action was undoubtedly the biggest insult to her. It angered her boyfriend as well.

“What do you mean by that?!”

“Her hands are dirty,” the man repeated coldly. His haughtiness infuriated him even more, and he aimed a fierce kick at him.

Xiao Xue let out a scream of surprise. Never did she expect Du Jiayan to turn violent.

Fortunately, Gao Nan was nimble, and he dodged him while protecting her in his embrace. The two men then entered a scuffle.

Huang Lili gawked at the side.

Meng Qinghe hurriedly stepped forward to stop the fight. Alas, it was an unwise decision to intervene in this fray at this point of time as it resulted in him receiving a punch from Du Jiayan and a kick from Gao Nan yet did not manage to pull them apart.

Xiao Xue was worried by this scene, afraid that her boyfriend would be on the losing end.

Was he someone to be trifled with, though?

He was half a skilled man in fighting; in his youth, he learned judo and had some skills. As for the other man, not only did he not gain the upper hand, he received several punches in the face as well. He looked terrible.

After wrestling with each other for a while, he was actually on the losing end and at a disadvantage.

“Stop fighting!”

“Stop fighting, stop fighting! Ah...”

The scene descended into chaos.

...

Feeling the churning of her stomach and an acid reflux, Yun Shishi held onto the glass counter for support in the washroom.

A queasy feeling kept assailing her, and she incessantly retched.

Alas, she only spat out some gastric juice and could not vomit out anything else despite retching for quite some time.

She splashed some water on her face. Unknown if she was having a hangover or something else, but she felt terrible as the urge to vomit was ever present.

Huang Lili's ferocious yet aggressive face suddenly came to her mind.

She regretted it all of a sudden!

This class gathering was undoubtedly an ambush.

She felt extremely tired to see such an ugly and hypocritical face.

Taking out a piece of wet wipe, she gently drained the water splashes on her face. The urge to vomit came to her again, and she clutched the glass counter for support while she retched...

Her heart skipped a beat in that moment.

She recalled that she did not drink much at all.

Why...

She clutched at her chest as her thoughts jumbled up.

At the thought of her period, she realized that it had been delayed for some time, and there was no signs of it thus far.

Could it be...

Shocked, she did not dare to think further.

Chapter 905: Flare up!

She looked at her face in the mirror. Her brows were furrowed and her eyes swam with complex emotions.

Her period had always come on time.

At most, there would only be two or three days of difference.

Why is it now...

Could it be...

...

The crowd that was helplessly standing at one side exchanged glances; they did not know what to do about the situation.

Meng Qinghe took a glance at the man seated in an elegant posture. The latter was slowly twirling the wine glass in his hand as he savored its velvety flavor. His eyes, with drooped lids, never once left the conflict.

His indifference made it seem as if he were an uninvolved party in this current farce.

This made him feel secretly surprised; at this juncture, how could this man still leisurely savor wine?

Still, the man did not come across as totally indifferent to all this.

Being a man himself, he could feel Mu Yazhe's unique aura. Like a respectable man of high standing, he had an arrogant demeanor.

He was no average man.

Secretly, Meng Qinghe was astounded.

He was suddenly sure that this was no simple man what Yun Shishi had claimed him to be.

A company employee?

How could a company employee have such a kingly aura?

This extraordinary aura belonged to a big shot, who had mingled with the rich and famous and dealt with many bloodbaths and brutal obstacles for years!

The scene was a complete mess at this moment.

The table was overturned, and the expensive dishes stained the expensive carpet; it was simply unsightly.

Seeing her boyfriend at a disadvantage, Huang Lili could no longer watch on. She, thus, rushed forward and grabbed Gao Nan's waist.

The man was momentarily immobile due to her sudden display of strength.

He truly felt nauseous when she bit him hard in the arm.

Seizing this opportunity, Du Jiayan flung his fist into his face.

This fierce punch took him by surprise, and he tumbled backward upon contact. The other took advantage of this to rain him with punches until he collapsed on the floor.

Xiao Xue watched on the sidelines with trepidation. She wanted to join the fray upon seeing the other woman's despicable method, but she was stopped by Meng Qinghe.

"Why are you stopping me?!" Her eyes shone with fury.

"Why are you getting agitated, too?! Don't blow up this matter!" He broke out in a cold sweat.

Why did a class reunion descend into such a state?

It was even held at such a luxurious place.

If any of the many antique vases in this chamber was accidentally broken, they would be in even more trouble!

She snarled, "Don't blow up the matter?! Is it my fault? Are you really defending her even now? Shishi never likes to cause trouble, while this woman is narrow-minded. Now that she has gotten herself a rich boyfriend, she is so smug! What? Does that entitle her to bully my good-natured friend whose boyfriend comes from a family with an ordinary background? For four years in college, she picked on Shishi, but did my friend ever say a word in retaliation?! Four years! My friend spent four years tolerating her; is that not enough?! First, this woman started a rumor about Shishi giving birth to a child out of wedlock; second, she claimed that my friend was a kept woman before! Huang Lili, why are you so vicious? You're so vile and shameless!"

Chapter 906: A man cannot communicate with a mad dog.

Xiao Xue had totally lost her cool by then. She pointed her finger frantically at Huang Lili and lambasted.

Deeply embarrassed, the latter glared at her viciously and gnashed her teeth. Her face had quickly turned a few shades darker.

"He he he! What's so great about having a rich boyfriend?! Have you heard of the Xiao family?! Let me tell you: The Du family is nothing! When you bully Shishi, you're coming at me, and it means that you're stepping on my family's toes!"

"The Xiao family?" Du Jiayan's face changed as he looked at her incredulously. "Is Xiao Zheng your father?"

"Yes," she affirmed proudly.

Since Huang Lili repeatedly used her rich boyfriend to put down her friend, she would use her family background to fight it out with her, too.

The woman only sniggered at that. "Are you fighting for justice? Look at your friend's boyfriend; unlike you, he isn't even agitated!"

Everyone looked at Mu Yazhe and saw him sitting there all composed and calm. He was twirling the wine glass in his hand silently.

Xiao Xue was rather upset at the sight. She walked up to him and pointed to the other woman. "You... Aren't you angry? She's been humiliating Shishi, and you're fine hearing all that?"

The man slowly drank the liquor in his glass before casually spouting, "A man can't communicate with a mad dog, after all."

His words shocked everyone at the scene.

Her agitated look broke into a wry expression, unable to decide whether to stay angry or laugh at his words.

Meanwhile, the couple looked terrible; their faces had sunk at his sarcasm.

What did he say?

Did he just mockingly call us mad dogs?

Du Jiayan was antagonized. He strode up to the seated man and stared down at him, asking derisively, "Do you know who I am?"

"Huh?"

"Do you know the Du family in the capital, eh?!" The one standing tried to cause a scene this way.

Having suffered a defeat in front of Xiao Xue, he was trying to win back his pride through him now.

While he could not afford to offend the Xiao family, this was not true for this seated chap before him. A mere junior employee was somebody he could easily trample on.

"I have no impression," Mu Yazhe replied.

He had no memory of this man's family being mentioned in the capital.

There was also no news of a wealthy family going by the surname of Du in this city's high society.

The other man was about to blow a gasket when someone knocked at the door out of the blue; a waiter then entered respectfully.

The clamor in the private room had finally disturbed this private clubhouse's owner, Wang Chuande.

The man was passing by when he overheard the commotion inside the room. He then ordered a waiter to check it.

This Yongye private clubhouse was just one of the many subsidiaries under his name.

He was most renowned as Wanke Real Estate's president, and this property company was among the top five in the nation. As a mogul in the real estate field, he was worth tens of billions.

There were many such private clubhouses in the capital.

Before turning this place into a clubhouse, his personal winery was used to gather his business partners.

There must be alcohol when it came to business meetings. It was an unwritten rule among the Chinese that no business deals could be reached sans alcohol.

The man had, thus, spent a fortune transforming this winery into a private clubhouse.

In reality, though, this clubhouse was all along suffering from a financial loss.

Chapter 907: Fawning

In reality, though, this clubhouse was all along suffering from a financial loss.

From the piece of land this club was built on and the opulent design down to every decorative vase inside the place, everything was costly. The vases, in fact, were expensive antiques won in auctions.

Despite this, owning a private clubhouse was convenient when conducting business dealings and building connections.

The mogul walked in and held a deep frown when he saw the mess inside the room. He exuded a regal presence as he stood there.

Du Jiayan saw him and greeted politely at once. "It's President Wang!"

His countenance changed at the sight of this middle-aged man. Unlike the arrogant stance he had shown Mu Yazhe earlier, in a flawless imitation of a lackey, he now waited on all fours in front of this new arrival.

The young man hastily wiped his dirty hand on his pants before extending it respectfully.

Wang Chuande glanced at the outstretched hand from his periphery and studied the man before him. Covered in splotches of sauces from head to toe, the former frowned at his embarrassing state and found it too disdainful to touch his hand!

"Sir Wang, do you still remember me?" the young chap asked humbly and respectfully.

"Who are you?"

"My father is Du Boxiong. I'm his son, Du Jiayan!"

"Du Boxiong?!"

The man cocked a brow as he pondered on it for a moment. He seemed to have a faint impression of this name.

He mingled with the rich and famous on a daily basis and knew many prominent figures. As this family was just a typical nouveau riche, the surname was somewhat obscured to him, and so he did not take it to heart. After all, this was no elite family and needed no further heed.

It became awkward for Du Jiayan when the mogul ignored him and stayed mum despite his fawning!

From how respectful her typically haughty boyfriend was behaving, Huang Lili could guess this middle-aged man's importance.

Thus, she hastily smoothed her messy hair and hurried over with a hand holding her dress hem. Standing beside her boyfriend, she smiled coyly before the middle-aged man. "How are you, sir? I'm Du Jiayan's partner, Huang Lili."

Inwardly, she was wondering bitterly, Is this guy more powerful than my man?

If not, why is my man fawning excessively at him?

This man must have a lofty status.

Wang Chuande did not even look at her.

He had seen plenty in this world and met many women like her who would try to leech off fame and wealth from the rich and famous.

He could tell at a glance what she was like.

This kind of woman was unqualified to talk to him; thus, he ignored her totally and took her as air.

In that instant, when he gave her the cold shoulder, she looked terribly ashamed.

This mister is more important than I reckoned! No wonder he's ignoring Du Jiayan.

Her boyfriend kept a smiling face for fear of offending this prominent figure, and she made her smile even more coquettish.

“What happened here?”

Chapter 908: Uncle!

“What happened here?”

Wang Chuande walked into the room, only to see everyone standing around awkwardly. A man with a cold and stern figure was sitting with his head lowered. He played with the wine glass in his hand and did not even bother to ask who this new visitor was.

He was instantly displeased.

Gao Nan was helped up by his girlfriend. Raising his head, his smile wholly morphed once he saw this middle-aged man.

“Ergh... uncle...” He was stumped.

Uncle?!

Hearing him address this man like so, everyone present on the scene was taken aback.

Du Jiayan widened his eyes in disbelief and then said unhappily, “Hah! Did you mistake him for someone else? Let me tell you; this is Wanke Real Estate’s president. Don’t blindly take him for your relative!”

“...” He gazed at him coldly but was too lazy to bother correcting him. Instead, he walked to the front of the new arrival.

The other man was about to stop him when he spotted Wang Chuande’s expression changing into one of grimness. “Gao Nan, what are you doing here?!”

His legs weakened at these shocking words. As he stood rooted to the spot, his flabbergasted face was incomparably amusing!

What?!

Why would this Xiao woman’s boyfriend address Mr. Wang as uncle?

Is Mr. Wang indeed his uncle?

Wait a minute...

Her boyfriend is called Gao Nan?!

Huang Lili, who was standing at the side, was panic-stricken at the situation.

From the very start, she had only focused on Yun Shishi. Therefore, she did not ask about the identity of Xiao Xue's boyfriend.

It turned out that... this Gao Nan was actually a relative of Mr. Wang!

She was on tenterhooks.

It seemed that this man came from a powerful background. Thinking back on how she had offended him earlier, would he take revenge on her?

The more deeply she pondered on it, the more unsettled she felt. She looked at her boyfriend anxiously, only to see his pale face.

"It's my girlfriend's class reunion. I came along with her," Gao Nan answered truthfully.

His uncle did not show much emotion on his face, but compared to his complexion when facing Du Jiayan, he was slightly more at ease.

Speaking of their actual relationship, the young guy was addressing this middle-aged man as his uncle because the latter was his grandfather's sister's son.

Simply put, he was his mother's older cousin.

His uncle had engaged in politics since his early years. Once he stepped down from all that, he ventured into the world of entrepreneurship, and solely relying on his vast connections, he turned Wanke Real Estate into a successful company. In these ten years, it had celebrated many successes and was ranked third among all the major real estate enterprises.

Regarding this nephew of his, he expected better from him. Initially, when this relative was still a lad, he wanted to polish him by sending him into the army.

Alas, his younger cousin doted on her son a lot and refused to heed his suggestion.

After all, he was her only son. How could she bear to send him for training in the army?

He would certainly have a hard time.

Wang Chuande had thus dropped the subject altogether.

He had always been strict to this young chap. Therefore, even when they were in public, he kept a stern face and a firm attitude toward his nephew.

"What is going on here?!"

He interrogated him as he saw the mess in the chamber.

Gao Nan stole a glance at the other couple in the room. He did not want to blow this thing out of proportion. If this matter were to get out, it would be embarrassing for all of them.

It would be shameful if people caught wind of the elite Gao family's young master being embroiled in a fight with an upstart family's member.

Therefore, he answered, "Um... It's a misunderstanding."

“Yes, yes, yes! Mr. Wang, there’s just a slight misunderstanding between me and your nephew!” Du Jiayan nodded vigorously, effectively discarding any responsibility.

Chapter 909: It is an honorable attendance from Master Mu

“Oh, I see!” his uncle muttered to himself.

Seeing the mess in the chamber, normally, he would chase everyone out regardless of who started the disturbance.

However, for his nephew’s sake, he decided not to make a fuss.

“Boy, you are no longer young. Stop always thinking about fooling around outside!” he reprimanded.

Naturally, under his reproach, his nephew could only agree.

He turned to leave under a few people’s escort.

This was when Du Jiayan stole a glance at the man seated all this while. As though possessed, he took a step forward and blocked the middle-aged man’s path.

Wang Chuande was stunned. Looking at him from his periphery, he asked coldly, “What?”

“Sir, it’s like this. Today is my girlfriend’s class gathering. It was supposed to be a happy reunion, but a few outsiders got into the mix and caused the scene to turn so ugly! For a high-class place like the Yongye clubhouse, commoners shouldn’t be permitted inside. If they accidentally touch or hit any expensive antiques in this clubhouse, won’t it be troubling for me? Sir, please send people to chase these commoners out of here!”

As he said that, he pointed at the seated man. “It’s him. We don’t even know his identity. The commotion today was started by him!”

This time, he intended to shirk off responsibilities by shifting all the blame onto Mu Yazhe.

He had two reasons for doing this. First, he wanted to save some face in front of this prominent figure and to avoid being labeled as a troublemaker. Second, this man, who just sat there arrogantly, did not sit well with him; thus, he was venting his anger by having this man kicked out in a humiliating way in front of everyone.

This mogul looked at the seated man who was still not saying a word. His back was cold and solemn, and he appeared to be brooding.

Staring at him, he asked, “Who are you?”

The man did not reply.

This made him crease his brows. Having mixed with the famous and the rich for years, he had yet to encounter someone as impudent as this one.

How dare he ignore me?

He was inwardly furious.

Therefore, with one look, the bodyguards around him got the message and started walking toward the man.

At the side, Du Jiayan took pleasure in the disaster that was about to unfold. He was secretly pleased and was dying to see the sad sight of Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi being thrown out of the place.

Huang Lili was trembling with excitement as well.

She hoped that they could vent their anger through this middle-aged guy.

Alas, just as these security personnel reached his side, the man turned around slowly, and his impeccable profile got revealed in this mogul's sight.

Upon making eye-contact with the man, he was stunned for a moment. His expression then morphed into one of utter shock before stopping everyone at the top of his lungs. "Wait!"

Du Jiayan was appalled by his sudden exclamation.

He gathered himself hurriedly and inquired respectfully, "Sir, what's wrong..."

Wang Chuande did not wait for him to finish inquiring. He pushed him aside and walked to the seated man at a fast pace.

Mu Yazhe was still sitting there calmly.

This middle-aged man went up to him. Seeing that it was really him, his face quickly broke into a flattering smile. "It's an honorable attendance from Master Mu..."

The man lifted his hand to stop him. "I'm here to accompany my woman in this gathering; no need for you to make this public!"

The latter shut his mouth accordingly, but the respectful smile on his face never wavered.

Chapter 910: I heard someone wanting to chase me out.

Everyone was stunned by the unfathomable scene unfolding in front of them. They stared at one another in consternation.

Not only the cantankerous couple, even Gao Nan, who was standing at the side, was flabbergasted.

Why did his uncle put on such a courteous expression the moment he saw this man?

What exactly was this man's identity?

He was prudent. Seeing that there was no one else and thinking that his uncle might have mistaken someone, he quickly headed to the front and asked, "Uncle, this chap is—"

“Do not be rude!” The latter castigated him at once.

He was observant and could take a hint. For someone to make his uncle bend, his background was clearly not simple!

Therefore, he behaved himself and kept quiet.

“It’s been a long time, Mr. Wang.”

“Yes, yes! I never thought I’d meet Master Mu here. What a coincidence!” Wang Chuande nodded repeatedly. He lost his condescending attitude from before, and a very respectful smile now graced his face.

“Please excuse me for not greeting you; I didn’t recognize you at first! Please forgive me!”

“No need for such formalities,” the man replied succinctly. “I thought I heard someone wanting to chase me out earlier?”

“Who dares?!” He promptly straightened his back, his eyes solemn and his tone cold. “Since Master Mu is here, you are now my guest of honor! Who is so blind to seek tarnishing Master Mu’s respectable reputation? How dare they shamelessly talk about wanting to chase you out? That’s only causing me to lose face!”

Cowed by his harsh glare, Du Jiayan swiftly lowered his head and did not dare to raise it. He wrung his hands and smiled. He was clearly feeling guilty beyond belief.

Huang Lili looked at the middle-aged man before shifting it on to her speechless boyfriend. Indignant, she was ready to speak up but was pulled aside by him with a reproachful look. He hissed, “Stop causing trouble!”

“... Oh!” She bit her lip and hung her head low.

Yun Shishi returned from the washroom. Entering the chamber, she easily perceived the tension in the air.

At the door stood three to five men in black suits; their expressions were solemn and respectful.

She was startled.

As she entered, she saw a group of waiters cleaning the mess and a group of people sitting in the living room. Huang Lili and Du Jiayan sat on the couch, fidgeting in their seats.

Xiao Xue and Gao Nan were sitting at the side.

She swept her gaze around but failed to see Mu Yazhe anywhere.

The moment she returned, everyone looked at her with complicated eyes.

In their eyes, she saw a tinge of unfathomable reverence.

What happened?

The moment her friend saw her, she quickly approached. “Shishi, what took you so long inside? What did you do?”

“I wasn’t feeling well, so it took me awhile.” She paused before continuing. “You know me; I can’t hold my liquor. I got a bit dizzy.”

“Okay.”

“What’s wrong? Why is the table overturned like this? Did something happen?”

“Hmph! Shishi, it’s lucky that you’re not here earlier. Huang Lili took that chance to say bad things about you in front of your man!”

At the mention of her deed, the feeling that she was sitting on a cushion of needles intensified. “Don’t talk nonsense...”

She was just treating Xiao Xue haughtily a few moments ago, but the moment she learned of the relationship between her boyfriend and that big shot, she immediately became more courteous with her.

“Was I talking nonsense? Did I? Hmph! Who’s the one saying that Shishi was provided for in college and that she’s a single mom...”
