

Chapter 1201: She should be married

“Movie Queen Yan, when are you coming back to work?” “You don’t have to wait for director Yan’s movie now. If you wait until the reboot, it’ll probably be next year. Recently, I’ve received a few new movies. You’d better come over and make a guest appearance. Otherwise, you’ll be outdated.” “Haven’t I not been outdated?” Yan Huan was still annoyed that Rowling wouldn’t die from anger, so he insisted on adding another sentence. “Even if you don’t, you’ll pass soon.” Rowling rolled her eyes. “Yan Huan, look at you now. Other than the number one in the box office ranking, you’re still there. Tell me, who would still remember you as a passed-out movie queen?” “If you don’t make a name for yourself, I think you’ll pass out sooner or later.” “So what if I pass out. Yan Huan doesn’t care. My husband’s salary can still support me.” “Useless.” Rowling stood up. She had never seen such an artist before, “In the past, you worked hard and were the role model of the entire entertainment industry. You didn’t even blink when you made several films a year. Now, everyone is guessing who broke the first place. Some people even predicted that you would keep this record for yourself. Other than yourself, no one else can break it.” “Why? Don’t you want to remember to make yourself famous again?” “I’m old.” Yan Huan said that he was old and immediately shut Rowling’s mouth. When Rowling was about to curse again, Yan Huan’s voice was heard. “Rowling, you’re already 35 years old, right?” Rowling was older than her by five years. She was already 30 years old, and Rowling was also about to be 35 years old. “Can you stop mentioning age?” Rowling rolled her eyes. A strong woman had nothing to do with age. No matter how old she was, she was still a strong woman. So, don’t mention age to her. Age was her injury, her pain, and her whole life, it was the thing that she couldn’t get. Her youth was eaten by dogs. “You should get married too.” Yan Huan didn’t have any intention of marrying Laughing Rowling. In their circle, people got married relatively late. There were even many people who were single for life, and there were even more people who didn’t have children. “You Know About My Job?” Luo Lin sighed. In fact, how could she not be anxious? Seeing that everyone else was married and had children, seeing that little lei was taller than his mother, and seeing the three children of the Lu family.., they were also in kindergarten. She also wanted to, but she did not have a suitable partner. “Why don’t you help me introduce someone?” She was actually just joking and did not take it seriously. Of course, she was also mocking herself. She might really have to be an old lady for the rest of her life and would not be able to get married. “Sure.” In the end, Yan Huan agreed very quickly. “I just happen to have one here. You can refer to it.” Yan Huan sat up, his back aching from lying down. “Mm, go ahead.” Rowling took the script and read it while listening to it. Why did Yan Huan feel like he was reporting on his work and not being a matchmaker. “A man.” Oh, Rowling raised her face. Of course, if it was a man, she would not be close to a woman. “36 years old,” Yan Huan said again. Rowling did some calculations and found that he was one year older than him. His age was suitable. “Occupation, doctor. He is considered a rich second generation, but he has his own career. His medical skills are high, and he is very popular. His name is he yibin,” Yan Huan said in one breath, but Rowling was stunned. She almost spat out a mouthful of blood. He Yibin, he yibin, it was he yibin, that doctor he. She hurriedly covered her face with her hands. Speaking of which, how old was she? But now, she felt that her face was a little hot. Could it be that she was blushing. She hurriedly threw her phone aside and held her face with both hands. If it was that person, it seemed that she could do it too. She couldn’t choose anywhere. No, it was impossible for her to choose now. As long as she was suitable, it was fine as long as she was married off. As long as she could prove that she was a woman, it was fine. A woman’s age really couldn’t be delayed. If it was delayed any longer, she really felt that even the daylily was going to get cold, and she really didn't want to get cold. Yan Huan waved her phone. Why did she hang up? Was she willing or not? Anyway, she didn't care anymore. She just wanted the two of them to be together. In any case, one was unmarried, and the other was unmarried. It just so happened that they were together. "Are you done?" Lu Yi squatted in front of her and pinched her face as well. mm, she had become a little chubby recently, and even the feeling of pinching her was a little better. "I'm done." Yan Huan shook her legs, then stretched out her hands and hugged Lu Yi's waist. "Lu Yi's husband, I want to drink a drink." "You can't drink it." Lu Yi straightened her body. "You're drinking medicine, so forget about the drink." "Can you only drink a little?" Yan Huan asked Lu Yi to discuss. She had drunk so much bitter medicine just now, could it give her some comfort in her heart. Lu Yi thought for a moment. "Any kind of beverage is fine?" "En." Yan Huan nodded. Any kind of beverage was fine. Anything really was fine. Strawberry Juice, apple juice, milk tea was fine too. She didn't care about the condition as long as there was something to drink. Lu Yi really went to the kitchen to get a drink for her. Yan Huan shook her feet again. This kind of life was really too good. Finally, she had a drink to drink. Nothing mattered. She just wanted to have a sip. Lu Yi came out very quickly and held a bottle in his hand. A milk bottle.. "What's in this?" Yan Huan pointed at the milk bottle in front of her. She suddenly felt that her worldview was about to be destroyed. "The children's milk powder. I'll give you a sip." Lu Yi placed the milk bottle in Yan Huan's hand. "Drink it." Yan Huan held the milk bottle in her hand in a daze. She felt as if she had been struck by lightning. "Didn't you say that anything is fine?" Lu Yi asked her back. "This is milk..." Yan Huan wanted to retort. "That's also a beverage." "How can this be a beverage?" Yan Huan had lived for two lifetimes. Why had no one ever said that milk powder was a beverage. "It's with the three children now. This is a beverage." Lu Yi touched the bottle in her hand. "Alright, drink it quickly. It'll be cold soon." Yan Huan took a look at Lu Yi, gritted her teeth, and directly put the bottle into her mouth. She sucked hard. Some drinks were better than none at all. And that night, there was still that meal that almost made it difficult for her to swallow. Even if she had to swallow it, it would still be a disgusting soup that she would vomit out. Auntie Gu came out of the kitchen. When she saw Yan Huan's appearance, she couldn't help but shake her head. Miss Yan was still a little stupid. Mr. Lu's personality was really scary. At night, Lu Yi carried the three children out of the car and sent them back to their parents. Outside, Old Master Lu and Ye Shuyun were waiting. Lu Jin had also come today, he was not too busy now, so he could come over to take care of his three grandsons.

Chapter 1202: an old man that no one wanted

And the three children were carried away one by one as soon as they got out of the car. "Lu Yi, did you get your hair cut?" Ye Shuyun carried her eldest grandson and realized that her son actually got a new hairstyle. However, it didn't look good and they were all bald. "I learned it from them." Lu Yi pointed at the two little bald heads of Lu Qi and Lu Guang. Lu Qi and Lu Guang were carried by their grandfathers and grandmothers. They still had a confused look on their faces. The two of them were so young, yet they had to take the blame for their father. Their father had obviously hurt his head and couldn't explain it to his mother, so he had cut off their hair. Anyway, the two of them didn't have any concept of beauty or ugliness yet, if they were bald, they would be bald. If they had long hair, they would have long hair. They would still be smiling foolishly. Old Master Lu hugged his little great-granddaughter as his eyes darted around the two grandsons' heads. "You can move Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang's little heads as you please. But I'm warning you, don't even think about my family's search." "She doesn't allow anyone to move her either." Lu Yi didn't have a child to carry him, and there was still a piece of tape taped to his head. If one were to ask how he got it, it would be Yan Huan taking the blame. She had cut off a piece of

Lu Yi's hair during the process of getting a haircut. As for Xun Xun's hair, back then, when his father was getting his hair cut, Xun Xun cried like she was crying. She hugged Auntie Gu and cried, saying that her mother was going to make her a little bald head. Auntie Gu didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang both had big hearts. They didn't care, but they didn't care at all. A Baldy was a Baldy, and they were still laughing happily. They even felt that a baldy was cool. But this time, it was all thanks to Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, as well as their mother who took the blame. No one really asked about the injury on Lu Yi's head. Even ye Shuyun had always thought that.., yan Huan had accidentally cut off a piece of his skin. It wasn't a big problem anyway. He would be fine once his hair grew back. "Is there any news about Xinyu?" Ye Shuyun asked Lu Yi. Ye Xinyu was nowhere to be found, and it was always a worry in her heart. "Not yet." Lu Yi's heart sank. Yes, not yet. There was still no news. Yan Huan had almost gotten something out last time, but he was interrupted by ye Jianguo, at that time, Sun Yuhan was clearly about to say something. He had seen many people like her, so he was sure that Sun Yuhan must know something. Even if ye Xinyu's disappearance had nothing to do with her.., but she must know something? However, it was a pity that they could do nothing to her now. Ye Jianguo had practically put Sun Yuhan under close protection. Not only them, even ye Chuji was implicated by them, after being scolded by Ye Jianguo, there had been no peace for the past few days. In addition to ye Xinyu's disappearance, Ye Chuji seemed to have aged dozens of years. He continued to work while hanging on to the water, he was like an old donkey, at the same age as Lu Jin. However, he still had to manage the entire ye family. However, he had put in so much effort to support them. Also, what was the use of the Ye family that he had poured his blood and sweat into, in the end, who would have the final say? Who would have the final say. Ye Shuyun sighed and stroked little qi Guangguang's little head. She really felt sorry for her big brother. Ye Jianguo only had one granddaughter now. Anyway, it would be fine if his grandson was gone. Didn't he still have a granddaughter, ten Ye Xinyu were not more important than one Sun Yuhan. Anyway, ye Xinyu was not liked by him. If he lost it, so be it. He did not even ask about it. Even though ye Chuji lost his son, he still had to be an old donkey in the Ye family. He had to grind for the ye family until he died. Xiao Guang could also feel that his grandmother was unhappy. He held his grandmother's finger and said in a childish voice, "Grandma, Don't Cry." "Grandma, Why Are You Crying?" Ye Shuyun did not know whether to laugh or cry. She kissed Xiao Guang's little face which still had a milky fragrance. Xiao Guang seemed to be a little embarrassed and pointed at his little finger, that little look really made people feel that he was extremely rare. Ye Shuyun simply loved these three treasures to death. There was nothing more important than her three little grandsons in this world now. Even her son and husband might have rolled to the side. The three old men each hugged one and didn't fight over it. Now, they also felt that their lives hadn't been in vain. Back then, the three of them were worried about Lu Yi's character every day. What if they couldn't find a wife in the future, what if there was no one else? What if the Lu family did not have a future if they could not give birth to a child? In the end, the Lu family had three children. Even the little princess of the Lu family had children. They were all beautiful and cute children. Lu Yi was sitting at the side. His mind was not on this. He was with Ye Chuji. If ye Xinyu did not find him, Ye Chuji would not be well for a day. There was too much mental pressure, sooner or later, it would really weigh him down. Whether it was physically or mentally, it was the same. "Knock, knock..." he knocked on the door. "Come in." Ye Chuji coughed and called out to the outside. The door outside opened and Lu Yi followed in with a fruit basket in his hand. He put the fruit basket aside and saw a pile of documents beside ye Chuji. "Uncle, why aren't you recuperating?" Lu Yi walked over and tidied up all the things. These were all internal matters of the Ye family. Lu Yi had never come into contact with them before, so he did not know much about them, although his IQ was very high, he was separated from his profession like a mountain. This saying was not wrong. And even if he could, he would not touch the Ye family's things. Ye Chuji coughed again. "I'm all alone now. My Son is gone, and my father doesn't want him anymore. Who cares about an old man like me?" "Do you have any apples? Give one to uncle. I haven't eaten for a long time." "Uncle, wait a moment." Lu Yi put the documents aside and opened the fruit basket he had brought over. He took out an apple from it and started peeling it as he sat there. Ye Chuji coughed a few more times and saw the intentional piece of tape on Lu Yi's head. "What did you tell your mother?" He could imagine that if Lu Yi dared to say that his head had been smashed by Ye Jianguo, his sister would not be so amiable when she came to visit him the last time. She would even bring the children over to visit him, then, she would let the children call him uncle. His brother-in-law would not be so polite to him. He might just slam the door and leave. This was a human head. How could he smash it onto someone's head? If something went wrong with it, he would really be smashed silly.

Chapter 1203: Poor Big Brother

"He said that Huanhuan cut my hair by accident." Lu Yi did not care about his hair. This hairstyle was not bad. They all said that it was cool. Moreover, he usually needed to wear a hat in the procuratorate. However, the more he did not care, the more Ye Chuji felt sad. What was going on? He did not have the face to see his sister and brother-in-law's family anymore. Sun Yuhan came to harm people. Why did everything change when she came? Even his Xinyu went missing, however, Ye Jianguo guarded that granddaughter of another surname every day. He didn't even ask about Ye Xinyu's disappearance. This was also what made him feel the most disappointed. That wasn't anyone else. That was his biological grandson. He had seen people who were biased, but he had never seen people who were so biased. He didn't even care about his own biological grandson. What kind of grandfather was that. Lu Yi was still peeling the apple. In just a short while, he had already peeled one. He gave the Apple to Ye Chuji. Ye Chuji had not eaten an apple for a long time, and he could not let the nurse peel an apple for him to eat, when he thought of his current treatment, his heart felt like it was bleeding. What had he worked so hard for all his life? Why did he fall ill in the end? He did not even have someone to serve and care for him. Ye Chuji, that Brat, had raised him up so painstakingly. But when his father needed him, where was he? This son wasn't as good as Lu Yi, his nephew who wasn't related by blood. "You should be more careful recently." Ye Chuji glanced at Lu Yi. There were some things that he shouldn't have said, but he had to say them now., "You Scared Sun Yuhan like that. You scared her so badly that no one was scared silly. Now, she's still acting all weird. Be careful of your grandfather." He didn't know how terrifying Ye Jianguo was now, but he would definitely do something. He had always been a vengeful person, let alone Sun Yuhan, he didn't even have a bottom line. "Uncle, don't worry, I will." Lu Yi peeled a pear for Ye Chuji and put it aside. "Uncle..." Lu Yi suddenly raised his face and called Ye Chuji. "En, What's Wrong?" Ye Chuji had just eaten an apple today, and he felt that his entire throat had become smooth. "Xinyu's disappearance may be related to Sun Yuhan." The apple in Ye Chuji's hand rolled to the side. He sat up as well. "Did you find out?" "No." Lu Yi shook his head. However, there was indeed something wrong with Sun Yuhan's appearance at that time. "Was she the one who did it?" At that moment, Ye Chuji's entire face turned gloomy. He knew that that woman was up to no good. Who would benefit the most from Ye Xinyu's disappearance? Who would benefit the most from it, then, there would be no one else but Sun Yuhan. Without Ye Xinyu in this world, wouldn't the Ye family be surnamed Sun in the future? Hehe... it was just that she was thinking too much. Even without Ye Xinyu, the Ye family would not give it to the Sun family. He had worked hard for so many years, and it was not for the sake of serving the Sun family. Suddenly, he coughed hard. The hoarse voice in his throat was very uncomfortable to hear. Lu Yi poured a glass of water and handed it to him. Ye Chuji took the water but did not drink it. Instead, he asked another question. "Did she do it?" "Even if she didn't do it, she still knows something. Uncle, don't forget what I do." Lu Yi leaned back, "When people lie, their eyes are always wandering. At that time, Sun Yuhan was really scared. She was going to say something, but Grandpa came instead. But I'm sure that she knows something." He had been dealing with people who had secrets all year round. Few people could take their secrets away from him, but some people could take their secrets directly into the coffin, however, there were only a few people who could do such things. The law of the jungle was always in place. Those who were at fault must pay the price for what they had done. It was the same for everyone, including Sun Yuhan. And now, he wanted to know.., if one day he really proved that Sun Yuhan had done it, how would ye Jianguo abide by his principles. "Ahem..." Ye Chuji coughed again. "If that Brat was really harmed by that Sun Yuhan, I'll definitely break both of her legs and let her crawl in the future. Even your grandfather can't stop her." Ye Chuji was so angry that his chest hurt. Lu Yi quickly helped him along his chest and asked the doctor to come over. The doctor came over and gave him an injection. He said that the most taboo thing for a patient right now was to have a lot of emotions. Lu Yi knew this too. However, there were some things that he couldn't talk to him about. Ye Chuji felt much better after lying down for a while. However, he still felt uncomfortable and his chest felt a little stuffy. "Uncle, shall I transfer you to another hospital?" Lu Yi thought about it and felt that it was better to transfer ye Chuji to he Yibin's doctor. I'll get Auntie Gu to come over and take care of you. Auntie gu cooks a good soup and has her own ability to take care of a person's body. There are some things.., food and tonics are still better than medicine and tonics. Moreover, to be honest, Ye Chuji was not really sick. He was just a little too angry and overtired for a moment, which was why this illness was so serious, it was not as he had imagined. He had to be hospitalized for an injection. As long as he recuperated properly, he should be able to recover very quickly. He Yibin had a lot of acquaintances and was close to home. He could ask Aunt Gu to take care of him. His mother could go over on weekdays, no matter how close she was with Ye Jianguo, ye Shuyun and this brother were always close. It was up to you. Ye Chuji would occasionally stroke his chest. His chest was so stifled that he was not willing to speak. Actually, when he was hospitalized, he just wanted to leave the ye family. He did not want to trouble ye Shuyun anymore. It was just that if he did not trouble her now, who else could he trouble? He just felt that if he was still here.., forget about eating an apple, even if he died, no one would know. When Ye Chuji fell asleep, Lu Yi called ye Shuyun. When Ye Shuyun heard that her big brother was living like that in the hospital, her heart ached. Her poor big brother was already so sick. Why was there no one to take care of him? Didn't he spend his daily money on that Sun Yuhan? Then why didn't he go take care of his biological uncle? Even if his leg was incomplete.., even if his leg was broken, couldn't he take a look at his uncle? Neither ye Jianguo nor Sun Yuhan had seen ye Chuji. Ye Chuji couldn't even eat an apple.

Chapter 1204: human sins

What kind of father was this? What kind of niece was this? "Are You At Peace Now?" Lu Shi comforted ye Shuyun, "Your father is so indifferent to his own son. It's still normal for him to treat you. If he treats you the same as before, that would be too unreasonable." "You really know how to talk." Ye Shuyun glared at Lu Jin. "You should put in more effort these few days to take care of the three children at home with your father." "Okay, leave it to me." Lu Jin almost patted his own chest to assure her. "It's okay even if it's just me alone. Go see your uncle and let father go back to the Liuyuan Garden." The corner of Ye Shuyun's eyes twitched slightly, and then she gently tugged at Lu Jin's sleeve. "Did I say something wrong?" Lu Jin did not know who gave him the courage to do so. He was so fat that he was about to ascend to heaven. "He spent the whole day here and did not return to his own residence. He even fought with me over Xunxun. Xunxun is my granddaughter. I haven't hugged her many times in the past year. He didn't even look at his own appearance. His face is full of wrinkles. Isn't he afraid of scaring my little xunxun into having a nightmare?" Ye Shuyun tugged at Lu Jin's sleeve again. "Why are you tugging at my clothes?" Lu Jin was currently pouring out his grievances. His mouth was like a machine gun. Even if he wanted to stop, he couldn't stop. He kept scolding the old man for his wrongdoings, taking his antiques and stealing his xunxun. How shameless and greedy he was. He even brought up the past and matters with old master Lu and his wife. Ye Shuyun covered her mouth with one hand. Heaven does evil, but a man can not live after doing evil. Lu Shi was just about to start, but in the end, it turned out to be good. If there was no audience, then there was no audience, so what was he going to say? Just as he was about to leave, he saw someone standing on the side, it was the dark-faced old master Lu, his biological father, his father. "Dad..." Lu Jin laughed dryly. He also had a very bad feeling. It was over. How much did his father hear just now? He didn't say anything, right. In a short while, Lu Jin's screams that sounded like a pig being slaughtered could be heard from the Lu family. Old Master Lu was holding a pair of slippers as he chased his son around the living room. As soon as he caught up.., he would slap his son's head as if he did not know pain. The nanny asked ye Shuyun in a low voice. "Madam, if this old man keeps fighting, will he beat Mr. Lu into a Fool?" "It's okay." Ye Shuyun was not worried at all, "It's not like I haven't beaten him before. This is not the first time. Besides, he's already so old. It's okay if he's a fool. I have a grandson now anyway. It doesn't matter if I have him or not." The nanny wiped her tears of sympathy for Lu Jin. Besides, Ye Chuji had been transferred to the Yibin's Hospital. It was an independent high-level ward. There was a special passageway to enter and exit. It could go all the way down to the underground parking lot on the first floor, there was no need to squeeze into the driveway with others. He was still looking for parking spaces everywhere. Ye Chuji's main focus was not on taking the medicine. In fact, he was just putting his heart at ease and resting well. He was tired and angry. As long as he was calm and rested well for ten days to half a month, his body would recover as well, however, recovery was easier said than done. If ye Xinyu was not found today, Ye Chuji would not be able to recover for a day. He was tired and bitter. In fact, he missed his son. "Brother, are you okay?" Ye Shuyun personally cooked a meal for ye chuji. "Why are you here? I feel like there are three children at home." Ye Chuji quickly sat up. When he saw his sister, he felt bad. "The children are in kindergarten. There are also Lu Jin and my father-in-law. There are still nannies at home. They deserve it." Ye Shuyun quickly took out a bowl and scooped a bowl of rice for ye Chuji to eat. No matter how good the food in the hospital was, it could not be better than the food cooked at home. "Brother, let's eat first." Ye Shuyun brought the food to Ye Chuji. No matter what, he had to eat until his stomach was full. He had to recuperate first before anything else. Ye Chuji's eyes were sore. In the end, he took the bowl and ate the rice in it one mouthful at a time. His father and niece did not care about him, and his son did not know where he came from. In the end, it was ye Shuyun and Lu Yi's nephew. If it was not for them, he really did not know what to do. Ye Shuyun did not talk much about ye Jianguo and Sun Yuhan in front of Ye Chuji. She only talked about the three children at home and what they did today, what they had done the next day and what they had said. The triplets were still strange. They usually had telepathy, but they did not. Other than Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, who looked exactly the same, and Xun Xun, who looked like his mother, they did not look like triplets at all, most people thought that Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were twins while Xun Xun was a second child. Who asked Xun Xun to grow so slowly? She had always been a head shorter than her brother, and she was the most spoiled. She was unwilling to even walk. Every day, she would either carry him on her back or hug him. Her little foot never touched the ground, she was afraid that the father and son of the Lu family would spoil this child too much. However, she could not say that old master Lu simply treated Xun Xun as his lifeline. Originally, the old man looked like he was in his twilight years and did not have much time to live, but now, she had started to take care of Xun Xun just to spend a few more years with her little great-granddaughter. She could not let the old lady live longer, right. Ye Chuji was envious every time he heard Ye Shuyun mention the three children. When would he have a grandson to carry. Forget it, he still had a grandson. Where did his son Go? He stayed in this hospital and it was considered good. During the day, Ye Shuyun stayed here. The soup made by the nanny that Lu Yi hired tasted a little strange, but it was okay to eat it. Besides, it was a man's.., was he afraid of suffering? Moreover, suffering was better than the previous hospital, where there wasn't even a person to pour water. In comparison, there was a soup to drink. In the end, after a few days, he felt better. He was really better. He didn't know if it was because of the soup or because of his psychological effects, but recently, his chest was no longer stuffy and he was a little more energetic. Yan Huan held Xun Xun's small hand with one hand and Lu Qi with the other. Lu Yi's small hand was also holding onto his younger brother. They had always been like this. There was nothing they could do. One person only had two hands. They could take care of this.., the other two couldn't be taken care of. "Aiya, all three of our family's treasures are here."

Chapter 1205: buying a robot

When Ye Chuji saw the three children, he liked them in his heart. At that moment, he felt that his entire body was comfortable. He kissed this one and then kissed that one. Finally, he picked up Xun Xun. Xun Xun tilted her small head and smiled at Ye Chuji, revealing her two beautiful dimples. When Ye Chuji saw her small appearance, he really liked her. "When Xunxi has dimples, she really looks like Rong Rong." "She does look quite similar," Ye Shuyun admitted. Although she looked like Yan Huan, there were times when she really looked like Ye Rong. She was as delicate as Ye Rong, and she liked to cry and act spoiled. These were all similar to Ye Rong. As for what Yan Huan looked like when she was young, she had forgotten about it. Anyway, she should be quite obedient. She just wasn't like Xunxi who was a little spoiled. "Mommy..." Xiao Guang ran over and hugged his mother's legs. "Xiao Guang wants to play with the robot." Yan Huan squatted down and pinched his son's little face. Xiao Guang cracked open her little mouth and smiled. This was how Lu Yi looked like. Everyone loved Xun Xun even more. In fact, her Xiao Guang was not bad either. Of course, Xiao Qi was not bad either.., it was just that Xiao Qi was a little older and was always ignored by others. "Let's go. Mommy will help you buy a robot." Yan Huan held her son's little hand and asked Xiao Qi again. "Xiao Qi, are you going?" "No." Xiao Qi shook her head. "Xiao Qi is here to accompany Grandma." "My Xiao Qi is so obedient." Ye Shuyun took a rare bite of Xiao Qi's little face. Xun Xun was having a good time with Ye Chuji. He probably wouldn't be going now. Therefore, Yan Huan could only bring Xiao Guang out. It was much easier to bring one with her than three. If she really brought three with her, she might really have a headache. "Come, let Mommy Carry You." Yan Huan carried Xiao Qi and placed Xiao Guang on the car. He wanted to put Xiao Guang on the seat behind him. "Mommy, sit in the front seat." Xiao Guang refused to sit in the seat. He stretched out his little finger and pointed at the front passenger seat. Yan Huan thought for a moment. Alright, he was the only one. The front seat was just the front seat. She then carefully placed her son in the front seat and helped him fasten the seatbelt. She then scratched his little face. Let's Go.., mommy will bring you to buy a robot. As long as Yan Huan didn't go overboard, she would always agree to her children's requests. It was mainly because her mother had failed a little and had never taken good care of her three children, therefore, no matter what the three children wanted, as long as it was within her abilities, she would help them do it, let alone buy a robot. Moreover, the three children of his family had never asked for anything from adults. It was also rare for them to ask for something. She drove to a large shopping mall, took out her sunglasses, put them on, and carried her son down. "Let's go. Mommy will bring you to buy robots." Xiao Guang held her mother's hand tightly and happily went in with her mother. However, she did not know that there were a few pairs of vicious eyes staring at them from afar. "This one?" Yan Huan squatted on the ground and chose a robot with her son. There were many robots here, and she didn't know how to choose one, so she didn't know which one to choose. She picked a few of them herself, and they were all bigger. Her two children liked to dismantle robots, so she bought them a bigger one. "This one." Xiao Guang had already picked one and then picked another one. "One for Xiao Guang and one for Big Brother." Looking at the relationship between the two brothers, Xiao Guang wanted one for himself. He did not forget to ask for some benefits for his big brother. "Aren't you going to give it to little sister?" Yan Huan asked Xiao Guang. Xiao Guang picked up the robot that was even older than him. Then, he raised his little face and said to his mother seriously, "Little sister doesn't like robots. Big Brother and I do. Little sister likes dolls." When they came out, Yan Huan carried two big robots. Xiao Guang carried a little bear doll in his arms. This was bought for his little sister. It was clearly a soft and cute child, however, it had to flatten a small face, and the chubby cheeks were very likable. It really made people want to pinch it. Fortunately, this was only one. If the triplets were all here, they would really be very rare, "Let's go, we're going home." Yan Huan hugged the two big robots while Xiao Guang obediently tugged at the corner of her mother's clothes. This was because Yan Huan really did not have any free hands at the moment. They were also used to it. Most of the time, the position of the toys in her arms would usually be Xun Xun's. Xun Xun did not like to walk and would stop walking after a few steps. She had to be hugged by someone, she could not carry all three of them. She really did not have such long arms and did not have much strength. Therefore, most of the time, she carried xunxun while the two children pulled on the corner of her clothes. "We're here." Yan Huan opened the door and placed the two toys on the car. Then, he carried Xiao Guang into the car and helped him fasten his seatbelt. "Let's go." Yan Huan patted Xiao Guang's little head. He really felt that his son was getting cuter and cuter. She could not help but want to pinch him a little every day. "Mm." Xiao Guang tapped his little head. He was still a three-year-old child. He was still as fair and tender as a little bun that had just come out of the cage. He was especially obedient and obedient. People could not help but like him, one had no choice but to dote on him. Yan Huan got into the car and fastened his seatbelt before driving forward. Little Qi and little light sat in the car almost every day, so they were not afraid at all. He looked forward curiously, his little hands were also holding the Little Bear doll that he had bought for his sister. Then, he turned around to look at his mother. His eyes were sparkling and extremely beautiful. Yan Huan turned around to look at his son. It was as if he was melting from the cuteness of his little appearance. They all said that Xun Xun's eyes were very beautiful, but she felt that Xiao Guang's eyes were like two beautiful little pearls, they were bright, round, and big. Xun Xun looked like his mother, but Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang looked like their father. She smiled at her son. "Sit properly." Xiao Guang sat down obediently. His big eyes were still focused on the front. Yan Huan thought that the most unforgettable thing in her life was the look in Xiao Guang's eyes. It was so pure, so pure.., it was also so irresistible. Yan Huan reached out a hand and patted her son's head. Then, she continued driving. She drove steadily forward. At this time, there were not many pedestrians outside the car, and there were not many cars either, however, she still drove slowly. Xiao Guang lowered his head and played with the doll in his arms. From time to time, he would say a few words to his mother and Yan Huan would respond to his childish words.

Chapter 1206: car accident

But most of the time, Xiao Guang was a very quiet child. Yan Huan stopped the car. The traffic light ahead was already red. She stretched out her hand to touch her son's little face and smiled very gently. But when she turned around, her expression changed. Because a large truck was speeding towards her. The speed of the truck was extremely fast. Yan Huan was so frightened that she broke out in a cold sweat. She instinctively stepped on the accelerator and drove the truck to the side. They could not crash into the truck, or else the truck would definitely flatten their car. The truck suddenly started to shake violently. The truck had already crashed into the front of her car. Even if she wanted to drive away, the truck seemed to have deliberately crashed into her car. Just as it was about to crash into her car... Yan Huan suddenly threw himself to the side and hugged Xiao Guang in his arms. The last thing Xiao Guang saw was blood flowing out of his mother's head, and his little head was also hit hard, the Little Bear in his arms also fell into the car. Lu Yi hurriedly ran forward. At this moment, his face was pale, and he did not even feel any pain or numbness on his fingers. When he ran outside the operating theater, he saw that Lu Jin and Ye Shuyun were there. Even Ye Chuji was there. Lu Jin was carrying Xiao Qi while Ye Chuji was carrying Xun Xun. Xun Xun was already crying herself to sleep. He could see that her little face was full of tears. Even her eyes were swollen from crying, her eyelashes were stuck under her eyes. Even the two shadows that were cast were very fragile. He walked over, and his legs could barely support his body. Ye Shuyun turned around and glanced at her son. She moved her lips, but she could not say anything to comfort him. All they could do now was wait, wait, wait. Ye Chuji walked over and handed Xun Xun to Lu Yi to carry. He would carry her. If she could not find her mother later, she would cry again. Lu Yi reached out and took his daughter. He carried her little body and sat her to the side. He looked at the closed operating theater in a daze. He did not know how much longer he could hold on, he also did not know how much pain they could endure. He also did not know when the ordeal between him and Yan Huan would truly end. Not long after, the door of the operating theater opened and a small child was pushed out. It was Xiao Guang. Xiao Qi suddenly opened his eyes. He rubbed his eyes and started crying. He said that he had a headache and that he wanted his mother and younger brother. Lu Jin quickly coaxed Lu Qi. His eyes were also red "Yi Bin, how is he?" Ye Shuyun quickly asked he Yibin who looked very tired. When Yan Huan was in trouble, he Yibin happened to be the one who took over. At that time, when they sent him over, it was very serious, Lu Guang was only a three-year-old child, but now that he saw that the child's body was filled with tubes, they really could not accept it. Since Young, Xun Xun was the one who loved to get sick the most. However, no matter how serious her illness was, she did not see that her body was filled with tubes. However, Lu Guang was so young, and his small body.., was almost completely devoid of skin. There was not a hint of blood on his small face. How Old was this child? How painful was he. Ye Shuyun wanted to squat on the ground and cry out loud. Her Xiao Guang, her Xiao Guang, it was all her fault. She should have gone. Would Yan Huan and Xiao Guang be fine this way. No, she should not have allowed them to come over. The child was fine at home. Why did she let them come over? If they had not come out, such a thing would not have happened. If something really happened to Lu Guang and Yan Huan, then she thought that she wouldn't be able to live in peace for the rest of her life, and she wouldn't be able to forgive herself. "Xiao Guang is fine." He Yibin glanced at Lu Guang, who had already been sent to the ward, "Yan Huan used his body to protect him at that time, so he was basically not injured. However, he hit his head. We don't know how the situation is right now. We have to wait until he wakes up.” “As for Yan Huan...”he yibin did not know how to say it. This was really too torturous. Yan Huan’s injuries were too serious. She used her body to protect Xiao Guang, but she had multiple fractures all over her body, even her internal organs were bleeding and her head was injured. It was a miracle that she could be saved. He only hoped that Rough Yan’s life would be tougher this time. He hoped that he could survive this. Everything was easy to talk about. There was hope for everything, as long as he could survive. Yes, as long as he could survive. The doctors who operated on Yan Huan were all authoritative doctors. The operation lasted for more than ten hours. When they came out, they did not look too good. “Teacher, how is the patient?”He Yibin quickly went over. After all, Yan Huan’s identity was still there. Otherwise, he would not have invited his retired teacher, who was in his seventies. His teacher was an authority in the brain department. As long as he was there, the success rate of the surgery could be increased to at least eighty percent. However, he was old, and brain surgery required energy and spirit. Under normal circumstances, such a surgery would require a few hours, or even more than ten hours, moreover, it required a high degree of concentration from the Doctor. It was not something an old doctor in his seventies could do. However, this time, the situation was too urgent. This was also their only hope. Otherwise, he yibin would not have invited this person over. After the surgery was over, the old doctor patted he yibin on the shoulder. “We really did our best.” As soon as he finished speaking, he Yibin felt his brain buzz as if something had broken. The last thing he heard was, “We did our best, we really did our best.” Yan Huan’s life was tough. She had escaped death several times and she had survived. But this time, she didn’t. She didn’t escape. She was dead. She wasn’t there anymore. Suddenly, Xun Xun clenched her small fists and started crying loudly. “Mommy, Mommy, Xun Xun wants Mommy...” Lu Yi hugged his daughter and patted her small shoulders from time to time. But at this moment, his eyes were so dark that they couldn’t see the bottom. Even the last glimmer of light was gone. His actions were like a machine. He only patted her gently. However, his fingers became colder and colder. The more he looked at her, the more pitiful she became. She almost cried until her voice was hoarse. He Yibin turned around. Suddenly, the overly glaring light from the window pierced into his eyes. At this moment, this overly bright light actually hurt his eyes and caused his tears to flow.

Chapter 1207: the little blind man

There was still the sound of Xun Xun’s crying in his ears. One after another. At that time, he was actually walking very slowly but also very quickly. It seemed that it was still march in spring at that time, but now it was already close to another autumn. It seemed that he had crossed two seasons. From that time to the beginning of summer.., now that it was autumn, actually speaking, he was still wearing the same thin clothes, but it was already very different. At that time, everything was complicated, but now, it was the withering of everything. From one season to another, who could say that this was not the cycle of a season? This was not the beginning of a life, and this was not the loss of a life. “He sent another message?”Ye Chuji showed his phone to Lei Qingyi. Lei Qingyi took ye Chuji’s phone. “This is the third time, right?” He asked ye Chuji. “Yes.”Ye Chuji nodded. “It’s the third time.”Once a month, no more, no less. was he just going to use a short sentence every month to get rid of this father of his. Dad, I’m exiled outside. I’ll go back when I think things through. Dad, remember to take care of my cactus. Don’t die from it. Dad, I’m fine now. Just leave me alone. I’ll come back when I want to. There were only these three messages, but there wasn’t a single extra word. “Is this really from Xinyu?”Lei Qingyi felt a little strange when she received the so-called first message from ye Xinyu. How could this not be strange? He was fine. Why didn’t he make a call, he had to send a text. Could it be that the place he went to was so backward that there wasn't even a signal? But this was impossible. If there was no signal, then how did this message come out? "It should be his." Ye Chuji was certain of this, "If it wasn't that stinky brat, how would he know about the cactus? His tone is clearly that Stinky Brat's. Oh right, can you find out where he is now?" Ye Chuji asked Lei Qingyi. If that Brat was really found, he would definitely break his legs without saying a word. Do you know how miserable he had made them? If it wasn't for his disappearance, he wouldn't have been so angry that he wouldn't have been hospitalized, Yan Huan wouldn't have brought the three children to visit him, and he wouldn't have gotten into a car accident. Yan Huan and Xiao Guang wouldn't have gotten into this mess either. He was too ashamed to see his sister. He did not even dare to go and look at her. Even his heart ached, not to mention the Lu family. "We can't find out." Lei Qingyi was really helpless about this. If he had to make a phone call, it should be very easy to find out the address. But the problem was that this was just a text message. They were trying to make a phone call., but every time, their phones were turned off. Ye Chuji didn't believe it and took out his phone to call again. Unsurprisingly, his phone was indeed still turned off. Every time he called, it was the same. It was more difficult to find out where ye Xinyu was hiding, it was more difficult than finding a needle in a haystack. "Uncle, don't worry first." Lei Qingyi comforted him. "It's just that Xinyu can send a message. No matter where he is, it proves that he is safe." Ye Xinyu could only comfort himself. However, as long as he could not find that brat, he could not rest in peace. For some reason, he was still feeling uneasy, it started from the moment ye Xinyu went missing. For the past few months, he had been feeling uneasy. Even now, he could not calm down. He was still worried and nervous. "Oh right," Lei Qingyi suddenly thought of something. He took his clothes and put them on. "Uncle, I'm going to the Lu family to see Xiao Guang. Are You Going?" "I'm not going," ye Chuji sighed. There were a lot of things at the airport recently. I need to take care of them. When I'm done, I'll go see Xiao Guang again. "Then I'll go first." After Lei Qingyi said that, he walked out. How could the sun still be so bright outside? It was already autumn, and the heat was so hot that he was a little irritated. He went to the mall and bought a very big transformer for Xiao Guang to play with. When he thought of that child, his heart really felt very uncomfortable. "Ding Dong..." The doorbell outside rang. The housekeeper quickly went over to open the door and saw Lei Qingyi standing outside with a huge transformer on his shoulder. "Aunty, I'm here," Lei Qingyi shouted inside. He took off his shoes at the door and walked in barefoot. His feet were too big and the slippers in the house were custom-made, he couldn't wear normal shoes either. Lu Yi forced himself to wear them. However, Lu Yi was a germaphobe and didn't like others touching his shoes. Of course, Yan Huan was an exception. "Qingyi, you're here," ye Shuyun came out of the kitchen. "Sit down first. Dinner will be ready soon. It's a good time to have dinner with everyone." "Looks like I came at the right time," lei qingyi sat down too and placed the transformer he had brought on the ground. "Little Guang, look what uncle bought for you. It's a very big robot." Lei Qingyi said to Little Lu Guang who was sitting on the sofa watching TV. Lu Guang turned around and stared at him with a pair of big black pearl-like eyes. At first, he might not be able to see anything, but if he was careful., he realized that there was no reflection of anything in his eyes. His pupils were black, and his pupils could not reflect any light. Lei Qingyi could not help but feel his nose turn sour. "Come here, Little Guang. Come to uncle." Lei Qingyi stretched out his hand towards Lu Guang. His hands were long and his feet were long. As long as he stretched out his hands, he could reach the sofa. "Don't be afraid. Come to uncle. Uncle Can Catch You." Xiao Guang Thought for a moment, then carefully climbed down the sofa and stood up again. He stretched out his hands and groped forward, because he... could not see. Yes, he could not see. Such a beautiful pair of eyes, but he could not see. Lu Guang was a little blind. He could not see anything. He was blind. Naturally, after the car accident., he couldn't see anything. This was the side effect that he yibin had mentioned. Little Lu Guang became blind. Little Lu Guang fumbled forward. He walked carefully, but he was still afraid. He had already crashed many times and was injured many times, so he was afraid. He was afraid of falling. He was also afraid of pain. Until his little foot seemed to have kicked something. He carefully squatted down and used his little hand to fumble around the big box. His little hand also wanted to open it from time to time. "Uncle will open it with you and play with you." Lei Qingyi also squatted down and opened the extra-large transformer with Lu Guang. This was the biggest one he had bought in the mall. Lu Qi and Lu Guang both liked these things, presumably, this one would also like it.

Chapter 1208: wanted to see his mother

"Come, touch it." Lei Qingyi pulled Lu Guang's small hand and placed it on the Transformers. This was the head of the Transformers. Wasn't it very big? It was bigger than yours. "This is the eyes, this is the mouth, and this is the body." Lei Qingyi pulled Lu Guang's small hand and said, "Touch it." Little Lu Guang sat on the ground. His eyes were still wide open, and only his small hand was groping. However, there was not a single glimmer of light in his eyes. When Ye Shuyun brought out the dishes, her heart could not help but ache. Even the corners of her eyes were hurting as well. Her poor Little Guang. "Come, Little Lu Guang, we're going to eat." Lei Qingyi carried Lu Guang up. The Little Guy, who was originally as tall and fat as Lu Qi, had lost a lot of weight in an instant, he did not have much meat left on him now, he carried Lu Guang in his arms and fed him later. The other two children in the house were eating in kindergarten. Little Lu Guang at home was too sensitive and they were all taking care of him, even xunxun had to give way to his little brother now. If he got something good, even if he did not eat it, he had to save one for his brother and one for his mother. Lei Qingyi Fed Little Lu Guang a mouthful. He had just learned how to eat. Originally, he was eating quite well, but now, he almost didn't even take a spoon because after he couldn't see.., he didn't want to touch the spoon anymore and didn't eat by himself. Moreover, he was very timid. Sometimes, when people saw his small face, it would make them feel sorry for him. He was such a good child, yet he had become like this.., wasn't it heartbreaking? Wasn't it pitiful? After they finished eating, Lei Qingyi squatted on the ground again and played transformers with Lu Guang. Although Lu Guang couldn't see it, he was having a great time. He dismantled the Transformers piece by piece.., then, he put them aside piece by piece. "Can you put it back after you dismantle it?" Lei Qingyi asked Little Lu Guang. It was easy to take it apart, but it was really difficult to put it back together. could he put it back together? If he didn't, would he cry? He had already thought of it. If he came back tomorrow to buy another one, he would say that the little guy had put it back together. Such a big child.., they were all naive. "Big Brother will put it back together." Lu Guang still used his small hands to take apart the Transformers bit by bit. Although he couldn't see it now, his small hands moved very quickly, this was very similar to their father. From their fingers, it could be seen that if they were to use a computer in the future, they would definitely be as fast as their father. If their father hadn't been a prosecutor back then, he might have been a very powerful software engineer. However, Lei Qingyi really felt that compared to a software engineer.., in fact, Lu Yi was more suitable to be a prosecutor. In fact, it proved to be the case. He had adapted very well to the identity of a prosecutor. In just a few years, he had become the youngest and most promising prosecutor in Hai City. However, now..." "Uncle," Xiao Guang reached out his two small hands and groped, but the ground beneath his feet was thrown by the transformer. With a bang, he also fell to the ground. "Xiao Guang!" Lei Qingyi hurriedly helped him up. He thought that Xiao Guang was going to cry. After all, the fall was so heavy. His little lei Zi's skin was rough and his flesh was thick. With this fall, he would cry for several days, not to mention a small child like Lu Guang. However, Xiao Guang did not cry. He fluttered his long eyelashes and shook his head, "Uncle, Xiao Guang doesn't hurt." He fumbled around and grabbed lei qingyi's sleeve. "Uncle, Xiao Guang wants to touch Mommy." He did not need to see or read this word anymore because he could no longer see or see, so he could only touch. "Okay, uncle will take you to see Mommy." Lei Qingyi endured the pain from the corner of her eyes. She carried Xiao Guang and took him to see Mommy. Not long after, he drove to the entrance of the Liuyuan Garden. The door opened automatically and let him in. Although the Liuyuan Garden was a villa in the mountains, the security facilities outside were very complete, the few doors were equipped with the nearest anti-theft system. Moreover, they were equipped with high-definition surveillance equipment at a certain distance. Although the Liuyuan garden was large, the safety factor was very good. The car stopped at the entrance of the garden. Lei Qingyi walked down and also carried Xiao Guang out of the car. "Knock, knock..."he knocked on the door. Not long after, someone came to open the door. "Hello, Auntie."Lei Qingyi smiled and greeted the person who opened the door. "Hello."Auntie gu reached out and touched Xiao Guang's little head. "Mr. Lu is inside. Doctor he is also here today." "Really? He's here too? Isn't he getting married soon?"Lei Qingyi carried Xiao Guang in. As soon as she entered, she saw he yilin with a stethoscope hanging around his neck. He was sitting inside drinking water. "Isn't he not married yet?" "Why did you bring Xiao Guang Here?" He Yibin walked over and held Xiao Guang in his arms. Then, he touched his forehead. "Have you not eaten properly recently?"He Yibin held Xiao Guang's small hand and said, "Look at you, you've lost weight again. If mommy knew that you've lost weight, she would definitely be sad." Xiao Guang's eyes were as big as black grapes, but there was no reflection in them. "Uncle, Xiao Guang wants to touch Mommy." Xiao Guang lowered his head and put his little finger in his mouth to chew. He missed his mommy and wanted to talk to her. "Alright, let's go. Uncle will bring you to see her." He Yibin hugged Xiao Guang again and brought him to see Yan Huan. The door to the room was opened and there was a faint fragrance inside. The window was open and the air inside and outside was also exchanged, so there was no unpleasant smell inside. From here.., one could also see the mountains outside, as well as the endless green grass outside. This place was suitable for living, and of course, it was also suitable for recuperating. At this time, the curtains covered half of the window. One side was bright, and the other side was slightly dark. On the big bed inside, there was a woman lying, a young woman, the woman had extremely fair skin. Perhaps it was because she didn't often bask in the sun, so what was revealed wasn't a normal skin color, but a sickly white. It seemed to be a little too white. It seemed to be a little too transparent. It also seemed to be a little too quiet. At this moment, a hand reached out and hugged Xiao Guang into his arms. "Pull pull..."Xiao Guang stretched out his hand and touched the man's clothes. He already knew that this was his father. His father had the smell of his mother, so he would not be mistaken.

Chapter 1209:

"Why are you here?"Lu Yi asked he yibin. He was fine at the Lu family's place. He really didn't have time to take care of him here. He lowered his head and met his son's big black eyes. However, these eyes were always dark. No one could imagine that such a beautiful pair of eyes.., he couldn't see it. It was actually a blind man. "Lei Qingyi brought it. He said that he misses his mother." He Yibin reached out and touched Xiao Guang's little head. Let him touch his mother. He missed his mother. Lu Yi put his son down. He squatted down and let him stand in his arms so that he wouldn't be afraid. Xiao Guang could see the light from the beginning, the blue sky and White Clouds. He could see his grandparents.., even his dreams were colorful.., but when he opened his eyes again, he couldn't see anything. He couldn't see anything. Even his mother didn't speak. Because his mother was asleep. Lu Yi took his son's little hand and placed it in the palm of the woman on the bed. The woman's fingers were warm. This was the warmth of his mother. "Little Guang, do you feel it?" Lu Yi asked his son, "Is it Mommy's hand?" "Yes." Little Guang nodded. "It's Mommy's hand." Little Guang turned around and hugged Lu Yi's neck tightly. "Ba Ba, when Can Mommy Wake Up? When Can Mommy Talk to Little Guang? Little Guang Misses Mommy." "Be Good, Little Guang. Mommy will wake up very soon," Lu Yi said as he touched his son's forehead. He then carried his son up, "Let's go back with uncle, alright? Mommy is sick. You have to rest well." Little Guang shook his head. He did not want to go back. He wanted to stay here and accompany his mother. "Be Good, Little Guang," Lu Yi patted his son's head again, "Mommy is sick. She needs to rest. Little Guang is here. Mommy will worry about you. This way, her illness will recover slowly. She will need to sleep for many more days. Does Little Guang Want This?" Little Guang Thought for a moment, then shook his little head vigorously. He didn't want to. He also wanted his mommy to wake up earlier. Then, he would be able to see Mommy, and the sky would be bright, right? Daddy said that when Mommy woke up, the sky would be bright. And he was still young and very naive. He didn't know that other people's sky had already been bright many times. Only his sky was still dark, and it had never been bright again. It might not be bright again in the future, regardless of whether his mother would wake up or not, he could not see the light again. It was not until a long time later that Lu Guang realized that he was actually blind at that time. Lu Guang was carried away by Lei Qingyi again. He was extremely uneasy now. In addition, he could not see. There had to be people around him at all times. Lu Yi really could not care about this little fellow. Yan Huan was like this now. He couldn't leave him at all. If there was another Little Guang, he didn't know who to take care of anymore. "How is it?" When Little Guang was carried away by Lei Qingyi, Lu Yi asked him. It had been almost three months, and there was still no improvement at all? "It's fine." He Yibin found a place for himself to sit down. "Lu Yi, do you know? You're actually forcing me to do this." "Is that so?" Lu Yi held Yan Huan's hand tightly. He was extremely lucky to be able to touch her body temperature and feel her breathing. "Her injuries are too severe." He Yibin looked at the motionless Yan Huan lying on the bed. Even now, he still felt incredulous. Back then, his teacher had said that her injuries were too severe. Although the surgery had already been carried out., it was also a success. However, whether she could live or not depended on the will of the heavens. It was up to the heavens to decide. However, in the end, Yan Huan actually survived just like that. However, what could she do even if she survived., she was just a vegetable who could only breathe. She had injured her brain. Originally, if she could not survive this, she would die. However, this breath of hers remained. However, she had become a vegetable. She might wake up the next day, or she might not wake up for the rest of her life. Lu Yi did not even want to be a prosecutor anymore. He wanted to resign from his position as a prosecutor, but the prosecutor's office did not agree. After all, Lu Yi was so young, it was very difficult to nurture a prosecutor with an unlimited future, so they gave Lu Yi unlimited vacation. As long as he wanted to come back, he could go back at any time, however, Lu Yi's focus was now on Yan Huan. It seemed that he had no intention of going back at all. He really took good care of Yan Huan. He understood all of Yan Huan's habits. He had checked countless information. In order to take care of his wife who had become a vegetable, he would help her turn over every hour and wash her face and hands every day. No matter how dirty he was, he had never seen him cry out that he was tired, but he had never seen him cry out that he was tired. He Yibin had also seen other vegetative states. There were those who were well taken care of, those who were not well taken care of, and those who were well taken care of. However, if they were not well taken care of, it was very easy for them to develop bedsores. However, Yan Huan was not. It had been three months., it was as if she had fallen asleep. The muscles in her entire body did not shrink at all. Except for the fact that she did not see the sun much, she had become a little whiter. The reason why she did not see the sun was because other than the injuries on Yan Huan's head, there were also fractures. Those injuries had also gradually healed. No matter how severe the injuries on her body were, they would recover for another day, however, the injuries on Lu Yi's body might never recover. He did not understand before how much a man could love a woman. In his opinion, love was the most illusory thing. It was only something that could easily be said with one's mouth, 'I love you', but when they really needed each other, they all flew away in great difficulty. Only now did he know that love could still be trusted in this world. Just like Yan Huan, just like Lu Yi, just like they couldn't replace each other. But he still forced her. She was a proud woman. Was it really good for you to be like this? He Yibin did not want to say these words, but he really could not help it. He wanted her to live without respect and without everything. Did she think that she was willing? She was like a cripple every day. She could not even solve her own physiology. She still needed others to serve her. Did you think that she would be willing? Actually, he yibin wanted Lu Yi to give up. Yan Huan was not someone else. She was Yan Huan. She was an international movie queen. And now that she was like this, to be honest, it was no different from death? It was better to let her die. Once it was settled, it would be clean. Lu Yi carefully placed Yan Huan's hand under the blanket. He stood up again and pulled down the curtains. This also made the light in the room seem more comfortable. It was suitable for rest, for sleep, and for contemplation.

Chapter 1210: he did not understand

Then, he turned around and sat down. He looked at the woman who would not give him any response. "Yi bin, do you know what she's thinking about now?" Lu Yi asked he Yi bin. He Yi bin shook his head. "I don't know. According to the scope of medicine, she's not thinking about anything. Right now, she doesn't have any thoughts. She can't hear, she can't see, she can't feel, and of course, she doesn't have any dreams." Lu Yi caressed Yan Huan's face. "Yibin, you're not her, and you're not me, so you don't understand us." Suddenly, he smiled. That smile was filled with happiness. "Because she's still here." "Because she hasn't left yet." "She's very glad that she's alive. This way, she can accompany me. Unlike the flood at that time, what accompanied her was just an ice-cold Tombstone. Our children still have their mothers. They can still see their mothers. Even if they don't wake up for the rest of their lives, they're not children without their mothers. They can remember their mothers' looks and feel their mothers' body temperature. They can still continue to love their mothers, not the Tombstone." "And living is hope." Right now, the only thing he could remember, the only thing he could repay, and the only hope he could have was this one, so he would not give up. He would take good care of her. Even if she never woke up, it did not matter. He would accompany her for a very, very long time, so long that.., one day, he would grow old and be unable to accompany her. So long that he might even die earlier than her. No matter what, he would not give up her life, even if she could not give him any response. He Yibin stopped persuading her. He was really powerless. Whatever. She was in a good condition now. If you continued to take care of her, she would have no problem living for 30 to 50 years. She might even wake up tomorrow. It was also possible that she would not wake up for the rest of her life. However, there was still hope for them. Perhaps things were not so pessimistic. "Oh right," he yibin suddenly remembered something. "I'm not getting married soon. Are you going to treat your three babies as flower girls for me?" "Xiao Guang's eyes can't see," Lu Yi said. "Xiao Qi and Xun Xun Can, but Xiao Guang, he can't let him get hurt." "It's okay." He Yibin thought about it. "I'll take care of Xiao Guang. The two children can do it, and so can Xiao Guang. It's just that his eyes can't see. It's not a big deal." "He can't go." Lu Yi still refused, and there was no room for negotiation. "Lu Yi, you can't imprison Xiao Guang. Although he can't see, we'll take care of him." "How?" Lu Yi asked he yibin, "Do we let everyone know that he can't see with his eyes, or let him hear the sympathy of others?" "Look at how similar the twins look. Why is he blind?" "This child is so pitiful. Such a young blind man..." He Yibin's face suddenly turned white. This, he really didn't expect that he only wanted Xiao Guang to have a normal childhood, but he forgot that the world couldn't tolerate his childhood., it could be said that people spoke. Since ancient times, there had never been a lack of people in this world, just like there was no lack of gossip. He could control their own mouths, but how could he control the mouths of others and control everyone's mouths. They did not care whether Xiao Guang's eyes were visible or not. But for others, the sympathy of others, the pity of others, and even the wrong gaze of others, to Xiao Guang, they were hurt. He opened his mouth, wanting to say something, but in the end, he sighed softly and did not say anything. Lu Yi had already turned around, and he held Yan Huan's hand tightly. If the weather was still this good tomorrow, I'll take you out to bask in the sun, okay? I know you like the air here the most, don't worry., when you wake up, you'll realize that you're the beautiful Yan Huan. Even when you're white-haired, you're still the most beautiful of you. And at this moment, there seemed to be no one else here besides him, and no one else was needed either. His huanhuan, his own company. His huanhuan, he took care of himself. He didn't need anyone else. He would be with her for the rest of his life, he would be with her for the rest of his life, and he would never give up on her. His huanhuan had nothing other than him as her husband. If even he gave up on her, then she would no longer exist in this world. At night, Lu Yi carefully wiped Yan Huan's face, then he took her most commonly used skincare products and carefully rubbed them on her face. "I knew it. You like this smell. It's very fragrant, right?" As he spoke, he poured some more into his hands and gently rubbed her hands. "You have to wipe your hands a little too. This winter, you definitely won't freeze your hands." He placed Yan Huan's hands on his lips. She was clearly smiling, but there was an indescribable loneliness in her tightly shut eyes. Then, something seemed to seep out from the corner of his eyes, a 'Di da'sound was also shattered in the air, just like his heart. After hearing that sentence, it was already shattered. His heart was broken, his soul was in pain, and his world was destroyed. However, he did not expect that the heavens would still pity him and care for his huanhuan. She had already suffered for a lifetime. It was really enough. Therefore, his Huanhuan survived. Although she was in a vegetative state, there was still hope, right? Therefore, he had to maintain this hope at the very beginning. He would take good care of her and protect her, he did not want anything else. He only wanted her huanhuan. "Time to sleep." Lu Yi kissed ning Yanhuan's forehead and laid down. He placed Yanhuan's hand in front of his chest and just like that, he kept warming her fingers. Without either of them, their lives would be filled with regret When Lu Yi opened his eyes again, Tian Yini was already bright outside. "Good Morning." Lu Yi shook Yan Huan's hand again. She looked like she was really asleep. Her breathing was very calm and her chest was moving up and down regularly. Her long eyelashes were also gently covering her eyelids, it was as though she was going to open her eyes at any moment. Lu Yi sat up and dressed himself. He washed his face and came over to help Yan Huan clean up. He then helped her massage her body and flipped her over. He even wanted to change her into a clean set of clothes. His huanhuan had always been the cleanest. He absolutely could not let her feel dirty. At this moment, the weather outside was abnormally good. It was autumn and the air was refreshing. The weather was really good. "Let's go bask in the sun today. I'll help you wash your hair," Lu Yi pulled Yan Huan's hair behind his ear, "Your hair is already long. Don't worry, I'll comb your hair properly. I definitely won't let your hair tie up. When you wake up, you'll be able to see your long hair again."
