

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 13 Signing with Windward

The next day, Natalia arrived at the office early in the morning.

She felt there was something wrong as soon as she entered the office.

Everyone was whispering about something, and when they saw her enter, their faces changed slightly, and they all shut up immediately, giving her an odd glance.

Natalia's eyebrows sank as she entered her office without looking at them.

As soon as she sat down, she pressed the intercom to call Howard.

Howard came in and behaved with reserve, looking at her sympathetically.

Natalia felt his behaviour was a bit funny, leaning back in her chair and looking at him critically, "What's going on?

It's only been two days since we met and you're looking at me like that?"

Howard smiled awkwardly and said awkwardly.

"Natalia, have you..... received anything in advance today?"

Natalia raised her eyebrow, picked up the cup on the table and got up to get herself a glass of water, drinking it as she casually replied.

"No!

What's the matter?"

"Uh... nothing serious, it's just that I heard there's a new employee coming into our company today, and it seems that she belongs to PR department."

"Really?"

Every one got the message?"

"I heard about it from the gossips of the HR department, the guy who came is a senior in the PR industry. She seems to be quite experienced and has done cases for many A-list stars."

She paused for a second and hesitantly looked at Natalia, with a hint of embarrassment in her eyes.

"Miss Natalia, what exactly do you think Mr. Miller means by hiring such a person...?"

Everyone in the company knew that Glory Group's PR department was now run by Natalia and they also knew well that Natalia's background. But Natalia always remained a low-key attitude towards this issue and didn't discuss anything except business.

But no matter what background she had, she was only in her twenties and didn't have so much experience as that woman.

In the PR industry which ranked their grades according to experience, who would believe that Shawn had hired such a great to serve as Natalia's henchman?

If not as a henchman, then...

Natalia finally understood why everyone looked at in a strange way today.

She averted her eyes, hiding her emotions, and smiled lightly.

"I got it, you can leave now!"

Seeing her calm expression, although worried, Howard knew that it was not his turn to speak, so he just left in a worried look.

After Howard left, Natalia pondered for a moment, then smiled kindly.

Gathering her belongings briefly, she took out the envelope she prepared earlier from her bag and headed for the conference room.

9: 00 AM.

The meeting room was already filled with executives of the Glory Group.

When they saw her enter, everyone greeted her, both genuinely and falsely.

After all, the courage she had shown in the past two years, impressed most of people, but there were still a small part that felt she was simply a young girl, she was a little unqualified for such an important position.

Natalia had no time to think about what these people were thinking, and walked to her seat and sat down.

Just then, the door of the conference room opened again, and when he raised his eyes, he saw Shawn walking in with a group of people.

Natalia's pupils shrank and her face went cold.

Following behind Shawn, besides his two secretaries, were Jessica and her agent Julia.

Everyone in the entertainment industry knew that Julia became famous as a PR professional. In the last generation, more than half of the A-list stars were promoted by her, which was a great achievement.

However, later she transformed to be an agent, not knowing whether the entertainment industry changed too quickly or because of other elements, the stars she took charge of were always not that well-known. Now the most famous star she was in charged was only Jessica.

So the bigwig Shawn hired was her?

Natalia curled his lips with mockery.

The rest of the executives were a bit confused when they saw Jessica and Julia.

Jessica was naturally known to everyone, an A-list star in the entertainment industry, and although she only started her career for four years, her popularity always remained high.

It was said that she was the daughter of the Dawson family. With the powerful background, although she was currently not signed to any agency, she had already set up her own studio. As long as she was willing to spend money, she was never short of resources.

The other one, Julia, remained unknown to some of them.

After all, it had been a decade since Julia was at the peak of her career.

The entertainment industry was changing rapidly, and most of the people in the room having no more than eight years of seniority, and only a few having more than ten years of seniority.

Therefore, it was only those minorities with more than ten years of seniority could realize what was going to happen today when they saw Julia and associated it with rumors in the office.

And they all looked at Natalia sympathetically.

Anyone could see that Natalia was really carefully managing the company.

Two years ago, she came during the company's most difficult time and did her utmost to save a desperate situation, keeping the last valuable artists for the company.

In the past two years, she worked conscientiously, and was the one who handled most cases. Whenever anything happened to any artist, Natalia was always there to take care of them!

Anyone would feel sorry for her if she was fired after the situation of the company got better.

However, if there is discontent, there is gloating.

The few people who didn't get along well with Natalia immediately went up to greet Julia and Jessica with smiling faces, with such sentences as "I'm looking forward to seeing you", "Finally, I meet you today" and all sorts of greetings.

Jessica responded them one by one, gentle and generous, only when looking at Natalia, a hint of smugness unconsciously flowed from the depths of her eyes.

Natalia lowered her eyes and pretended to see nothing.

She looked at the watch on her hand with an expressionless face, and after a while, she finally heard Shawn coughed.

"Okay, time's up, let's start the meeting!"

It was then everyone sat back to their seats.

Shawn glanced at Natalia, a hint of complexity flashing through his gaze.

But in the end, he hid his guilt and said in a deep voice.

"Let me introduce them to you, this is Jessica, I think everyone present must know her."

The crowd followed and agreed, "Yes, yes, Miss Jessica is so famous now, who wouldn't know her?"

"I've always seen her on TV and never meet her in real life. Well, she's much prettier than she's on TV."

"No wonder she is the most popular star at present!"

The crowd slithered, and Shawn nodded with satisfaction.

"I've called you all here today to make two announcements.

First, from today, Jessica will sign with Glory Group and become an important employee of us."

The crowd was stunned at first, followed by thunderous applause.

"Well, is that true?

That would be great!"

"Miss Jessica has already been well-known. As a member of the Glory Group, I believe we will all make progress and benefit each other!"
