

Sweet Wife 1341

Chapter 1341: she was actually there

The director gave her three days. Tomorrow, she would find a house for herself and put all these things in it. She actually had a house. Among the top roads in Hai City, there were three, but no, she didn't want to live there.

She took out her phone and turned it on. The man inside was still online, but he had gone out. He was wearing a newspaper. Did he have time to play with this.

She pressed the word "Is", but in the end, she deleted it.

When she was half asleep, she heard the sound of the door opening. She didn't move, thinking that the housekeeper had come to pack up. The footsteps came and went from time to time, stepping on the ground heavily, it was also a bit messy.

When she was about to lift the quilt, she heard Qin Xiaoyue's voice.

"Lu Qin, what do you think is in her safety cabinet? Did she give you the key?"

"What? You haven't gotten the key yet. Why Don't you get it quickly? When you're done filming, when will you be done filming? Hurry up so that you don't cause too much trouble."

Her voice stopped for a moment and then started again, "Didn't you say that woman was quite stupid? You can give her whatever you want. You told her to go east, but she won't Go West. But it's been so long. Why is she becoming more and more disobedient?"

"I don't care what you do. First, stabilize her. I've heard that she has a piece of royal jewelry in her hands. It's just that one piece of jewelry. Someone wants to buy it from her for hundreds of millions. Also, she has a lot of real estate in various places. When you get these, you can do whatever you want."

As Qin Xiaoyue spoke, she searched around the room, but she couldn't find anything useful.

"B * tch..."

She hung up the phone and started cursing. She didn't want to give her any jewelry. Fine, she didn't have to. After all, it would be mine from now on.

She swaggered out, not knowing that there was someone lying on the bed.

She really did not know, and she really did not notice. Because her heart was not on it, because her heart was still on the safe. Every time she came in, she wanted to secretly open it, but she did not dare to. She was afraid that if Yan Huan found out, he would cause trouble for her again, lu Qin had said before that he would not let her touch this, lest Yan Huan get angry and put it somewhere else. Then, wouldn't the gains outweigh the losses.

She closed the door and walked out. At this moment, the blanket on the bed moved. First, a hand stretched out from under the blanket. Then, she pulled the blanket away, revealing a face that did not look too good.

It was clearly covered by the blanket. It should be red, but it was green in color.

“You will never be able to get my things,” she sneered. When she turned around, she saw the fish in the fish tank still spitting bubbles in big mouthfuls. Bubbles would occasionally escape from their mouths, then, with a ‘Pa’ sound, they shattered.

Yan Huan took out her phone again. She turned it on and looked at the lit profile picture. Even so, even if there was no communication, even if it was just a phone, she did not feel lonely.

You said that you would accompany me for the rest of my life.

You said that you could not have a girlfriend.

I will stay with you forever, okay?

I will not find another man, men are bad, I want to stay with you forever, but can you be like me, also stay with me forever?

You said why I did not meet you at my best time.

Am I born with this kind of life, am I born to be destined to be alone.

She sniffed and covered her face with the blanket. At this moment, no one knew what kind of grievance was added to her broken heart.

Her mother was gone, and her sister was gone.

She was the only person in the world.

However, she was still deceived. If it was not for her momentary realization, she did not know what kind of life she would lead when she was useless, what kind of taste, and what kind of result.

She pressed her face against the pillow. At this moment, she was all alone. Her hand hurt, and her heart hurt.

She cried alone.

No one comforted her, and no one felt sorry for her.

She stayed here for the whole night. She didn’t eat, didn’t drink water, and was thirsty. She just drank some tap water, and then laid down like this. She didn’t want to go out. Was it meaningful to go out?

She was no longer shameless enough to treat this place as her own home. This was Lu Yi’s home, not Lu Qin’s home, nor was it Yan Huan’s home.

What’s wrong? Did the food today not taste good?

Ye Shuyun asked her son, “Why aren’t you talking? You’re not even eating?”

“It’s nothing.” Lu Yi picked up his chopsticks and started eating again. However, it seemed like he was perfunctorying his stomach.

“Why hasn’t Little Zhu come recently?”

Ye Shuyun thought for a while. Fang Zhu hadn’t come for a while. “Is she too busy, or did you guys quarrel?”

Lu Yi raised his face. His sitting posture had always been very straight and well-mannered. It was as if nothing in the world could hold his back.

“Mom, we broke up.”

“Broke up?” Ye Shuyun stood up with a huff.

“What did you say? You broke up?”

“Yes.” Lu Yi continued to eat. The word ‘break up’ seemed like cold water to him. In fact, it was as if he had drunk cold water. He knew his own feelings.

“You actually broke up with little bamboo?” Ye Shuyun widened her eyes.

“Lu Yi, tell me, what’s going on in your head?”

Lu Yi didn’t say a word. His mother was cursing him.

“Lu Yi, Lu Yi, you’re already 30 years old, and you have such a stony personality. It’s already good enough that you have a woman with you. Tell me, other than Xiaozhu, is there any other woman in this world who wants you? Do you want to be single? Do you want your father and I to have no grandchildren? Do you want the Lu family to be extinct?”

Ye Shuyun almost always criticized her son for having nothing to do with him, it was indeed nothing to do with him.

She had been his girlfriend for almost three years. How could they break up just like that? Was it because he didn’t want her anymore? Even Fang Zhu didn’t want him anymore. What could he do in the future?

“Mom, I’m done eating,” Lu Yi stood up and didn’t eat much. He let his mother point at his face and scold him. Obviously, he felt uncomfortable in his heart.

Ye Shuyun pointed at Lu Yi’s back. Just be a bachelor for the rest of your life.

Lu Yi pursed his thin lips and strode into his room. However, after a few steps, he suddenly stopped and looked at the top floor of the second floor, in a certain direction.

Is he gone?

He went into his room and turned on his computer. On the chat app, there was a picture that was always lit. It didn’t seem to have been dimmed.

Chapter 1342: no one knew that she was back

His fingers rapidly tapped on the keyboard. The room was extremely quiet, and only the sound of his fingers tapping on the keyboard could be heard.

After half a day, he stopped and saw the IP address on the other side. It was with him.

In other words, she was still there.

Yan Huan sat up. Her head hurt a little. Then, she touched her forehead. It seemed to be a little hot as well, as if she had a fever?

She carefully sat up and walked straight to the bathroom. She turned on the tap and placed one hand under it. She used her palm to catch some water and began to drink it.

She came out again and hid under the blanket.

En, it's fine. She told herself that she would be fine. She had already booked the plane ticket for Tomorrow. She would return to the production team tomorrow. Initially, there were still a few days left. She wanted to see if she could buy a house and settle down first, however, the other side was in a hurry to film, so there was no rush for the house. It would be the same when she returned from filming. By then, she would have plenty of time to leave this place. Then, she would have a clean life and no worries.

Ding! Her phone rang. She took the phone and placed it in front of her eyes. She realized that it was a message from him.

Hadn't he never taken the initiative to chat with her? Why was it that today was an accident? He even knew that he wanted to chat with her. Wasn't it strange from time to time?

"Are You There?"

Why did this tone sound like something she used in the past.

"Yes, I'm here." Yan Huan smiled. She hid under the blanket and started typing on her phone.

Lu Yi said, "You're here."

Huan Huan: "I woke up hungry."

She touched her stomach. She woke up hungry, thirsty, and even more so from the fire.

Lu Yi: "What do you have to eat?"

Yan Huan licked her chapped lips.

"I have fish at home."

Lu Yi: "Fish?"

Huan Huan: "Yeah, fish. It's very beautiful. It's colorful and has big eyes. It blows bubbles at me. It's a cute fish."

It was as if there was a snap in the air. A few fish spat out a few more transparent bubbles and quickly ran to the bottom of the fish tank.

Lu Yi said, "You want to eat fish?"?

Yan Huan wanted to bite her finger out of habit, but she realized that her hand was wrapped like a palm. She could only bite on the gauze. The gauze didn't taste good and had a medicinal smell.

Huanhuan: "I want to eat boxed lunch."

Yes, she wanted to eat boxed lunch. She thought about the boxed lunch provided by the production team, but she couldn't get it now.

She closed her eyes and looked at her phone in a daze. Even her breath seemed to burn a little. The phone in her hand fell on the pillow, but she fell asleep.

Ding! Another message came from the other side.

But she didn't answer anymore.

Lu Yi stood up, pulled open his drawer, and took out a bag of medicine. When she came back today, he had already noticed that her expression was not right.

Why? No one in the family had found out that she had come back, and Lu Qin was relieved that she was alone. and Qin Xiaoyue, didn't they know that she was at home?

How could she be someone else's husband and mother-in-law, she married you because she had entrusted her entire life to you. She had given birth to your children, washed your hands, and treated your parents with respect. As a man, shouldn't he take care of her? Shouldn't he love her?

He opened the door and walked upstairs. At this time, it was already three o'clock in the morning. Even the ghost was asleep.

He put his hand on the door, but he did not go in for a long time. In the end, he twisted the doorknob, but the person inside did not wake up.

The window was half-open, and the light from outside was shining through. It was not very dark, and everything inside could be seen clearly. He could also see that there was something curled up on the big bed.

He walked over and stood, staring down at her from above.

She was still holding her phone in her hand, her long eyelashes looking unusually fragile under the light. There was also a tightly wrapped hand. At this moment, she seemed to be biting on the gauze on this hand, but fell asleep.

Her breathing was a little heavy, and even her throat was making some sounds at the slowest. Lu Yi reached out and placed his hand on her forehead.

She did indeed have a fever.

"Hey..."he gently patted Yan Huan's face, but he could feel that her face was burning hot even as she stood there.

He sighed softly and found a cup, but realized that there was no water here. He could only go out again, and when he came back, he already had a cup of water in his hand.

He carefully helped her up. The little woman was really small. Her face was a little bit too. She was very thin and very thin.

He placed the cup by her mouth.

“Drink it.”

Perhaps she was muddle-headed from her illness, or perhaps she was thirsty, so she drank up the cup of Medicine with the cup.

Lu Yi sat there for an unknown amount of time until she was sweating and her fever stopped. Only then did he walk back. He was afraid that she would wake up, and he was also afraid that some things could not be explained clearly.

The door closed gently, as if that person had never appeared. It was also as if that footpath and that voice had never appeared.

When Yan Huan opened her eyes again, it was already almost dawn the next day. However, the sky was still dark. She took out her phone and looked at the time. It was already half past six, she was on the flight at eight in the morning, so she should be up by now.

When she sat up, she could not help but shiver. However, she realized that she was actually covered in sweat. Even her clothes were drenched.

She touched her forehead and could not help but feel happy.

Mm, it's great. Her fever has subsided. She's recovered.

It's just that... She looked at her wrapped hand. The Doctor said that she could not see water, so she could not wash her hands. It was not easy for her to even take off her clothes with one hand, so how could she take a Bath?

She could only use all her strength to take out a towel from the bathroom. She roughly wiped her face before changing into a new set of clothes. Then, she pulled out all the things that were placed inside

She left just like that. She carried her suitcase and prepared to leave. Just like that, no one knew that she had returned, and no one knew that she was leaving again. Lu Yi did not care about her, and Qin Xiaoyue did not care about her.

And she did not need their hypocritical concern. Who knew what kind of thoughts and schemes were hidden in their concern, and she did not want to live in such schemes from time to time.

When she was about to leave, she suddenly thought of something.

She put down the box and walked to the fish tank. The fish inside were still swimming happily, especially after seeing people. There was no fear at all, and they even surrounded her from time to time.

Chapter 1343: fear of pain

Yan Huan's finger lightly tapped on the glass a few times. Then, she took off her clothes and moved a stool over. She reached her hand into the fish tank. Fortunately, there was a set near the surface of the water. Fortunately., her hand could still feel it. She reached her hand into the rockery and touched it. Then, she fished out all the jewelry that she had once thrown inside.

At that time, she had casually thrown it down. Perhaps she had thought that she would be fished up again soon, so she had not thought of putting it in the safe. Besides, to her., these were not valuable things. To put it bluntly, they were just some ordinary jewelry. They were not worth putting in the safe, however, now that she had decided to leave, there was no reason for her to leave these things behind. Even if she lost them, she would not leave them behind for Lu Qin and his vampire-like mother.

She took out one piece of jewelry after another with great effort. When she fished them out, her clothes were all drenched.

The fish hid far away. When her hand finally left, the fish swam happily.

Yan Huan lowered her head to look at her clothes and the hand that was wrapped like a dumpling.

The rice dumpling was flooded.

What should she do?

The Doctor said that she couldn't see water, but she had forgotten about it.

She should be fine, right?

She changed into another set of clothes and then put the jewelry under the blanket. After that, she used the blanket to wipe it clean. As expected, it was real gold and silver, real diamonds and real pearls. Even after soaking in the water for so long., it was still crystal clear as before.

She opened the box again and put all the jewelry in a box, a whole box.

But now she didn't understand why she wanted to buy these in the first place.

And was it useful to buy these?

She made her appearance expensive, but she was cheap in her heart.

In front of others, she was surrounded by the pearl light stabilizer, but behind her back... It was unknown how many people were still commenting on her naked photo.

She let out a deep sigh and stuffed everything in the box. She covered it with a piece of clothing before pulling her suitcase out.

There was still no one outside. Those who should be sleeping were sleeping, and those who weren't awake wouldn't wake up either.

Just like Qin Xiaoyue, she wouldn't wake up until ten o'clock every day.

"Eh, Miss Yan, you're back?"The nanny that Yan Huan hired was shocked when she saw Yan Huan. When did she come back? Why didn't she know

Moreover, she glanced at the suitcase in Yan Huan's hand. was he going to leave again?

"Shh..."Yan Huan put his finger to his lips.

The nanny knew that this was Yan Huan's intention to not let others know, so she didn't say anything.

“Oh right,” Yan Huan suddenly remembered something. “Can you help me find a medical kit?”

“Oh, okay.” When the nanny heard this, she hurriedly went to look for gauze in a low voice. Yan Huan put down the suitcase and sat on the sofa at the side. She placed her hand on her leg, then, she removed the wet gauze bit by bit. She removed it carefully, as if she was afraid of pain. Her lowered eyelashes were also filled with fear.

Yes, it was fear, but it was also pain.

She was afraid of what she would do if she tore off a piece of flesh. She was afraid of what she would do if she tore open the wound later. What if the wound was too ferocious?

What she did not know was that at this moment, not far away, a man was standing there. He was holding a cup in his hand, and the white robe on his body was slightly revealing his collarbone, he stood sideways, but he did not move and did not say a word.

After a while, the nanny ran over with a medicine box in her hand. When she saw Yan Huan’s hand, she was also shocked.

Miss Yan, how is Your Hand? Is it hurt.

Yan Huan smiled bitterly. Yes, it’s hurt. It’s still very painful.

The worst thing was that she was still afraid of pain.

The wet gauze was finally removed. She was not a professional. Although it was very small, it still hurt. It hurt so much that the corners of her eyes were wet because she was crying.

When the gauze was removed, she looked at her own wound. It was very big and looked like it had been stitched up. Fortunately, it did not bleed. However, when she saw the water, she was shocked. It looked like it was in pain, there was no need for her to feel pain.

“Miss Yan, let me help you?”

The nanny said softly

“No need. I’ll do it myself. You...” she glanced at the nanny. “Put down the medicine box and go rest by yourself. Don’t let anyone know that I’m back. I’ll leave immediately.”

“Okay.” Although the nanny did not know why Yan Huan did not let anyone know that she was back, she thought about it. It was probably because Yan Huan did not want to disturb others. After all, it was not even five o’clock yet.

It was not that the nanny was worried, but in the end, she could only leave. However, she turned around and looked at Yan Huan several times. Why did she feel that the current Yan Huan was quite pitiful.

Yan Huan rummaged through the medicine box for some medicine that could be used. Although she was not a doctor, she had been struggling to survive for so many years. It was not rare for her to apply medicine on herself, but she was quite afraid of pain.

There was no one who was not afraid of pain. Those who were not afraid of Pain were all lying. Everyone knew pain, and everyone was afraid of pain.

She took out a bottle of disinfectant and placed it on her knee. Then, she used a cotton swab to apply some on her palm. The moment the disinfectant touched the wound., her body shrank, and so did her hand

It was very painful.

She sniffed and clenched her teeth. She endured the pain and carefully applied it on the wound and the skin around the wound. Then, she took the gauze and wrapped it around her hand, her long eyelashes drooped. She could vaguely see the water droplets rolling down from her eyelashes and her wet hair.

She bit the end of the gauze with her teeth and tied a knot. Only then did she put the disinfectant back into the medicine box. She picked up her used gauze and dragged the box outside, at this time, the sky outside seemed to be still dark.

When she was outside, the air was filled with dew. It seemed that there was also some frost around her. Suddenly, it was a little cold. She shrank her body, then, she threw her used gauze into the trash can at the side. Only then did she carry the box and continue walking. There were no cars here. She had to walk to the intersection in front of her before there was a bus or a taxi.

The wind blew on her face from time to time. She used her uninjured hand to wrap her clothes a little tighter. Only then did she pull the box and continue walking.

The wind lifted the corner of her coat from time to time, revealing a fair but bloodless face.

Chapter 1344: who knew more about life

The clothes on her body were extremely thin. They were almost lifted up by the wind, and the wind seemed to blow them away.

With a screech, a car pulled up in front of her and stopped.

Yan Huan's footsteps also stopped, and she looked at the car not far away. It was a black Hummer. Among the people she knew, only one person liked to drive this kind of car.

It was Lu Yi's car. She also knew that this was his car because this car was a special model that Lu Yi liked.

Lu Qin had just bought a new sports car half a year ago. In total, it cost more than 20 million yuan. This was her birthday present to Lu Qin, and Lu Qin drove this car. There had been some scandals with several female celebrities, it was unknown whether he was showing off his car or showing off his beauty.

She had done everything for Lu Qin and thought of everything for him. But now, she was sad to find that she had never sat in the car that she had given to Lu Qin.

She pulled up her suitcase again, then lowered her head and continued to walk forward. If it was before, she would have mocked him openly and secretly. But now, she did not even have a face, so how could she mock others.

The wind rustled her clothes and blew her scarf into the air. She hurriedly put down her box and chased after her scarf. As the scarf flew forward.., it also blew onto the man's shoe and was blocked by the man's legs.

Yan Huan's face was slightly cold from the cold, and her hands and feet were also shivering from the cold.

A hand reached out and picked up the scarf from the ground, then patted the soil on it.

The man walked over. Yan Huan lowered her head and could only see his feet standing in front of her. He did not like to wear name brands, and most of the time, he was wearing a uniform, the shoes were also brand names that could not be identified. Perhaps it could be said that they were not brand names, but custom-made. There was no name or aura, but the feet were very comfortable.

Compared to Lu Yi, who was wearing a pair of shoes that cost hundreds of thousands of Yuan, Lu Qin, who was wearing a pair of shoes that cost hundreds of yuan, did not know whose taste was higher.

Perhaps it could be asked this way.

Who could be more knowledgeable about life and treat themselves better.

She raised her face. Her face had turned blue from the cold wind. The wind blew against her neck, causing goosebumps to appear on her skin one after another.

She stretched out her hand, wanting her scarf. She hadn't even thanked him yet. She felt a warmth around her neck, and the scarf was already wrapped around her neck.

The man's expression was still emotionless, and his entire body was stiff. It was difficult to approach him, but when his fingers touched her skin, it was unexpectedly warm.

"Are you going to the airport?"

The man asked her.

Yan Huan touched her neck and gently nodded her head.

Lu Yi had already lifted her suitcase and turned around to walk to the car. He opened the trunk of the car and placed the suitcase inside.

He opened the car door and sat in it himself.

Yan Huan was still stunned on the spot for a long time. When a gust of wind blew past, she hurriedly hugged herself and was so cold that she wanted to cry.

Gently, she bit her lips, which were so cold that they were blue. Only then did she walk over and carefully get into the car. When she pulled the seatbelt over her body, her hands were numb from the cold. She couldn't even fasten the seatbelt properly, the more she fastened the seatbelt, the more flustered she became. Her hands and feet were also flustered, but she also wanted to cry.

At this moment, a hand reached out and pulled on the seatbelt.

With a drip, a drop of water fell from the corner of her eye onto the back of the man's hand.

Lu Yi raised his head and glanced at her. At this moment, Yan Huan turned her face away and only looked at the street lamps. The uninjured one was also desperately clutching onto the clothes on her legs.

The car was already moving forward slowly. There were very few cars on both sides of the street, let alone the pedestrians who were passing by.

Under the street lamps, the Sea River seemed to have the entire sky upside down. It also seemed as though the bank had been moved to the surface of the water. At this moment, the water surface was still calm and beautiful, just like a colorful mirror.

The Sea River reflected the light of the street lamps, refracting the numerous stars in the sky that was a few hundred meters high. It was also unknown if there were fireflies that landed in a corner.

Yan Huan had forgotten how long it had been since she had seen the city properly.

She suddenly turned her head and looked at the man's side profile. He was actually very good-looking. Compared to Lu Qin's tender flesh, she looked very mature. It was also a matter of age, he was not young anymore. He was thirty years old.

The man was thirty years old.

He was the prosecutor of Hai City, and there was no other prosecutor like him in Hai City. A thirty-year-old man should have a wife, a son, and a successful career. But now, he only had a girlfriend, and he was not married, and he did not have children.

Compared to Lu Qin's honey-tongued and vicious words, he seemed to be more likable.

It was not because of his looks or his job, but because of his personality and charm.

A person's personality, a person's character.

She lowered her head and looked at her finger and the hand that was bandaged. There was still an indescribable pain in her palm, but it was far from her heartache.

"I'm sorry..."

She lowered her head again, but she really wanted to say it to him.

Yes, the man only had one syllable. It was just like when he was chatting on the Internet. It was exactly the same tone, exactly the same vocabulary. It wasn't much, but it was enough.

"I'm sorry." Yan Huan tightened his grip on his clothes again.

What was there to be sorry about? There were too many things to be sorry about.

She was sorry that she ate and lived in other people's homes for free, and even bullied and schemed against them.

I'm sorry for bullying and scolding Lu Yi.

I'm sorry for bullying Lu Yi's mother. Actually, now that I think about it, they were all good people. Even if they were scolded, they still tolerated their family in the end, including her. They gave her food and drinks., even Lu Yi, if he wanted to, he could totally take revenge, but he didn't. He had done everything.

Lu Yi gripped the steering wheel tightly, his gaze unwavering. Under the streetlights on both sides, his facial features were more three-dimensional. Only his pair of black eyes were unexpectedly deep, but not dim.

The car had already driven into the airport. It had only been half an hour, and the sky outside was still dimly lit. Lu Yi brought Yan Huan's suitcase over and placed it on the ground. Then, without even looking at her, he prepared to go back.

"You, wait a moment."

Yan Huan suddenly lifted her face, as though she had decided on something.

Lu Yi stopped in his tracks and turned around, staring at her indifferently.

Yan Huan put down her suitcase and opened it. There weren't many things inside, so she touched the small box with one hand.

Chapter 1345: was a gift from her

Then, she hugged the small box in her arms, stood up, and walked towards Lu Yi.

She placed the small box in front of Lu Yi. "This is for Big Auntie, I... I'm sorry..."she sniffed. She knew she was wrong, she really knew, but it was still too late, wasn't it?

Her mother said that it was a good child to learn from one's mistakes. As long as she was willing to change, she could still turn back.

Lu Yi's hand was always in the pocket of his pants, but he did not move. Yan Huan's hand was still in the air.

He did not move, and neither did she.

He did not stop, and neither did she.

Lu Yi took out his hand from his pocket, took the small box, and then turned to leave. However, the wind from the corner of his shirt shocked Yan's eyes.

Suddenly, she felt pain in the corner of her eyes. She clenched the phone in her hand and remembered the person who said he would always be with her. That person wasn't Lu Yi, right?

Something blurred her eyes. She turned around and picked up her suitcase, leaving the place step by step. She didn't know that a man had been watching her., until she reached the innermost part of the airport.

Lu Yi placed the box on his lap, turned the steering wheel, and brought it back.

Ye Shuyun only got up when he reached home.

She yawned as she asked Lu Yi, who had obviously just returned, curiously. She was drenched in the morning dew. "What did you do so early? Did you exercise?"

She went to do something. "This is for you."

Lu Yi placed the box in his hand in front of Ye Shuyun. The box wasn't too eye-catching. It was just an ordinary paper box. Of course, it wasn't too heavy. Sometimes, when he picked it up, he could even hear the clanging sounds coming from inside.

"What's This?" Ye Shuyun hurriedly took the box. "When did you learn to be so obedient? You even know how to give gifts to your mother. I've never seen you give gifts to your mother on her birthday."

"Didn't I give you a cake?" Lu Yi didn't understand why his mother always disliked her so much. Could it be that it was his fault that he didn't give birth to a girl?

"Can a cake be the same as a present?"

No matter how Ye Shuyun looked at Lu Yi, she didn't like him very much. It was also possible that it was because of Lu Yi and Fang Zhu's breakup that she was still unhappy.

Although Ye Shuyun said that she disliked Lu Yi from the left and disliked him from the right, she still opened the box happily. As soon as she opened it, she was shocked.

She quickly pulled her son's sleeve. When she saw that there was no one around, she heaved a sigh of relief.

"Where did you get it?"

Ye Shuyun held the box carefully. Could it be that there was a bomb inside.

"It's a gift from someone else." Lu Yi's expression was the same. Nothing had changed?

"It's a gift from someone else?"

Ye Shuyun gritted her teeth. "Take a look at what this is."

She directly took the box and stuffed it into Lu Yi's hand.

Lu Yi opened it. In an instant, the light from the box pierced his eyes. There was an extremely large blue gemstone in the middle. That kind of light almost made me intoxicated.

"Take a look at this."

Ye Shuyun pointed at one of the rings.

"This ring is Yan Huan's. You know that I like watching her act on TV. Although she's not a good person, I have to say that her acting skills aren't bad. This ring was taken by her back then. There are only a few of them in the world, and there's even an autograph on it. She picked up the ring from the inside and took a look. It's this ring, that's right."

"And this," she pointed at another necklace, "Qin Xiaoyue is bragging about it almost every day. She has a ruby necklace, but she has never worn it before. This is the string. She says it's hers, but it's Yan Huan's."

"Lu Yi, did you steal it?" Ye Shuyun could not help but gasp. There was also a huge sapphire inside. Wasn't this the lost Royal Treasure of that country?

Even Yan Huan would not sell it for hundreds of millions now.

Where did such an expensive thing come from?

No matter how well Lu Yi closed the box, compared to Ye Shuyun, Lu Yi was clearly much calmer. Moreover, there was not much expression on his face. He was still very indifferent, just like when the mountain collapsed, he probably had the same expression.

Ye Shuyun thought that it was probably her fault. When she gave birth to the bun, she forgot to give birth to his expression. That was why he was like this. Usually, even when he smiled, he was too lazy to be stingy with others.

Lu Yi then placed the box in Ye Shuyun's hand.

"She wants me to say sorry on her behalf."

"I'll give this to you."

Ye Shuyun was stunned again. Obviously, she knew who she was. Other than Yan Huan, she didn't have any other thoughts.

"She gave it to me?"

Ye Shuyun still didn't believe it. "She would give it to me?"

"She gave it to me." Lu Yi didn't say much. Of course, Ye Shuyun knew him well. He said that it was Yan Huan who gave it to her, so it was that person who gave it to her. However, Ye Shuyun couldn't figure out why that person gave it to her.

She heard that recently, Qin Xiaoyue had racked her brain trying to get some benefits from Yan Huan, but there was no result. She was so angry that she did not have the energy to argue with her, every day, she would go to the other person's house to steal some things, but unfortunately, none of them were valuable.

And now, she was holding something that Qin Xiaoyue wanted to get even in her dreams.

Especially the huge sapphire inside.

She wanted to ask Lu Yi, but Lu Yi was unwilling to tell her. She had no choice but to hold the box in her arms, but she didn't dare to put it anywhere. What should she do now? Where should she hide it, it wouldn't be safe no matter where she hid it.

And she couldn't help but let out a bitter laugh.

She didn't dare to take this thing that was worth hundreds of millions of dollars, nor did she dare to touch it. She also didn't know where to hide it. She kept feeling that it wasn't safe here and there, and that it was dangerous everywhere, because there was a dangerous person in her family.

That person had already taken so many things from her, and she also turned a blind eye to it. No matter what, those things weren't too valuable, but this was valuable. Ye Shuyun Cai hugged the box tightly in her arms.

She felt that these things were not heavy, but they were extremely heavy. They were so heavy that she could not breathe. In the end, she had no choice but to hide them at the bottom of the cabinet, however, she still felt that it was like a ticking time bomb. She did not know what was going to blow them up, or whether they would be blown to pieces.

“Lu...”

No matter how much she wanted to look for Lu Yi, he had already left. He had left her here alone, staring at the air.

Where should she put this? Where was the safest place to put it?

Chapter 1346: she did not go back

What should she do? She felt that it was not safe to put it in the cabinet again. She gritted her teeth and picked up the box again, preparing to put it in her son's place. No one dared to enter Lu Yi's house because everyone in the Lu family knew..., there were very strict surveillance cameras in his room. It was also because of his work that there were many important documents in the room. Under normal circumstances, even the maids who cleaned the room did not dare to stay long inside, every piece of information inside needed to be kept confidential.

As for Lu Yi's room, Qin Xiaoyue did not dare to enter. Even if she walked to the door, she probably did not dare to take a second look.

Therefore, this thing, Ye Shuyun was holding the small box in her arms. It was clearly not big, but why did it pressure her so much? She could not help but sigh. Why did it have to be given to her..., she did not dare to take it out. If Qin Xiaoyue recognized it, she would tear her face apart. It would be better to pound her with a cake. She could still eat it for a few days.

Lu Yi put his phone on the table. He turned on the computer and started to process the documents. On the computer's chat app, the profile picture had already dimmed. It was probably on the plane..., therefore, regardless of whether it was electrical appliances, his phone had to be switched off. Of course, his phone was no exception.

Actually, that wasn't the case. Yan Huan pulled his luggage and left the airport. She didn't return to Shadow City. She was supposed to go back to filming, but just as she was about to board the plane, she received a call from her assistant, it was said that the filming location had been closed for the time being. Due to an unexpected situation, Lu Qin fell off his horse while filming. Of course, he didn't fall off his horse on his own, but because he had to protect someone, that was why he had fallen on himself.

However, it wasn't a big deal. He had only sprained his ankle. Even so, he would still need to wait for two days. The production team would need to stop filming for two days before they could get back to work, they still had to continue filming Lu Qin and Mengni's scenes. Even if she went back, she would still have to sit on the bench.

Right now, most of the scenes with Yan Huan were scenes with Lu Qin. Now that Lu Qin was injured, she could have a few more days of vacation. Even if she went back now..., it was about locking herself in her room to read the script. She still liked sea city. She wanted to be closer to her mother's Yi Ling. She thought that if she died one day.., then she had to bury her bones in Hai City so that she could accompany her mother and Yi Ling.

However, she took out her suitcase, but she didn't know where to go. The Lu family couldn't go back, and she didn't have a home outside. So after thinking about it, she found a hotel and settled down, no matter what, it was better than the Lu family.

Of course, she couldn't rush back now to see the injured Lu Qin.

Was she really that stupid? Did Lu Qin accompany her? When she was injured, did he care about her? Did he give her a greeting? No, he was accompanying Mengni to talk about love. Although it was said to be a tied-up scandal.., however, she did not believe that a person like Lu Qin could not have any feelings for her. A man and a woman, even if they were deliberately trying to create hype, could it really be that there was some love between a man and a woman, and it would turn into brotherly love. To be honest, if Lu Qin told her that he and Mengni were just brothers, it would definitely negate her limited intelligence and treat her as an idiot.

But was she stupid? was she really stupid? How was she stupid.

No, she was stupid. She wasn't stupid. How could she sell herself to Lu Qin and his mother? They were like vampires, sucking up her flesh and blood, if she sucked up all her stuff, she would lose her life.

Fortunately, she had come to her senses. She had become smarter, but she was still missing all this flesh and blood.

She took out her notebook. When she was free, she would surf the Internet and watch TV. After she left the Lu family, it was as if she had relieved the burden on her shoulders. She could actually watch TV here.

During those days in the Lu family, how could she watch TV? All her energy was spent on Lu Qin and his mother. She was focused on scheming against her uncle's family. How could she have time to do anything else, she had spent her good days being eaten by dogs, if her days were so tragic, then tell her why she had to live like that. She was alone. She had no parents, no children, no siblings. She was already wronged enough, why did she have to be wronged again.

She opened the chat app. Lu Yi was not surprised, but for some reason, she did not know what to talk to him about. When she left the Lu family, she would never see him again.

Maybe they would be like this in the future

He would accompany her, who was single, for the rest of her life, single, she would accompany him with her soul for the rest of her life.

At this time, Lu Yi was also putting his laptop on his lap. By chance, he found that Yan Huan was online.

This was impossible. He pressed his finger on the profile picture. It was indeed online, and it was on the computer. The IP address was actually in Hai City, but she should be on a plane right now.

Raising his wrist, Lu Yi looked at the time.

According to the time.

Yan Huan was indeed on the plane right now. If the plane took off on time, then she would still need more than an hour to get to the movie city. It was impossible for her to turn on the computer and surf the internet right now.

Moreover, she was using a laptop.

His fingers moved to the keyboard of the computer again, and then began to tap gently on it. When the room came out, only the sound of his fingers tapping on the keyboard was very fast, there was also a certain rhythm to it.

He placed his hand on his temple and found out the information of a plane ticket.

Yan Huan, female, 25 years old, native place, Hai City.

She did not board the plane.

There was also another piece of information. Yan Huan was currently in a hotel in Hai City. She was in Hai City, but she had never thought of going back to the Lu family. And this time, she did not tell anyone that she had returned, she had even given him such a valuable item.

She had become smarter, which meant that she had already seen through the nature of some people.

Where was she.

He quickly typed two words. Before he could press enter, his phone that was placed at the side rang.

It was Fang Zhu Calling.

What was she trying to do now?

Lu Yi did not think that the two of them who had already broken up could continue to contact each other and be friends. He was not the type of person who could not be a lover, but would become an enemy. However, it was even more impossible., he would also become friends with his ex-lover.

Chapter 1347: she was getting married

He didn't have such an interest because he was responsible for his future woman. He didn't want her to have any unnecessary thoughts, and he didn't want her to let her imagination run wild all day long.

Yes, this was his personality.

Although he was stiff, he wasn't romantic, and he wasn't a good boyfriend, but in a certain point, he was a good choice for a husband.

"Lu Yi, come over to my place once. I have something to buy."

Lu Yi didn't say anything. In fact, he didn't want to go.

"Consider it an end between us. After all, you've dragged me down for three years."

Fang Zhu said indifferently, "My three years are not something that you can compensate with five million."

Lu Yi's lips pursed even tighter.

He took his clothes and walked out in big strides. There were still three words on his computer that had yet to be sent out.

Where was it?

Yes, where was it?

It was in Hai City.

Why did it have to be in Hai City? Why didn't you leave?

And what were you going to do

And..

Did your hand still hurt?

He walked very quickly. When he reached the outside, he had already opened the car door and sat in it. When he passed by the hotel, he stopped, however, it was only for five seconds before he drove forward again.

Yan Huan did not know why, but she walked to the window and pulled open the curtains. At this moment, the sunlight was shining on her face. She narrowed her eyes and her red lips could not help but lift up slightly.

The spring sunshine was just right.

Time was flourishing.

But she was already withered. She did not blame others, but herself.

At this moment, Lu Yi's car had already driven far away. It had also arrived at the place where Fang Zhu had asked him to go. It was a jewelry store.

"You're here." When Fang Zhu saw Lu Yi, there was no difference from the past. It was as if they were still boyfriend and girlfriend. They did not feel love at all.

"What's the matter?" Lu Yi asked Yan Fang Zhu. What was he doing here?

"Actually, nothing." Fang Zhu pointed at the jewelry on the side. "I want to choose a ring to wear. I'm getting ready to get married."

Fang Zhu raised her chin, as if there was some pride written on her face.

And she seemed to be saying, "Look, I'm getting married, but not you. I've been with you for three years and have never mentioned marriage. Maybe if I gave you another three years, I still wouldn't say it."

"You're not as attractive to me as I am. Now that I've left you, I'm getting married."

"So, staying by your side is such a wrong decision."

"And leaving you is such a good choice."

“Congratulations,” Lu Yi said sincerely. He didn’t feel like he had been dumped, or that his woman had just left him for a few days, and good things were about to happen. Was it an insult or a betrayal to him.

His serious words of congratulations that he could no longer take seriously made Fang Zhu feel angry. If it were not for her self-control, she would have pointed at Lu Yi’s nose and questioned him loudly.

Don’t you have anything to say to me? Don’t you have anything to say to me?

As long as you say that you don’t want to get married, just say the word, and we’ll start over, I’ll forgive you.

But no, not at all. Actually, there was no marriage, there was no boyfriend. It was all made up by her. What she wanted was for Lu Yi to give in, and for him to admit defeat. She wanted him to propose and tell her.., he couldn’t do it without her.

Without her, he would never be able to get married in this lifetime.

But in reality, everything in front of her had already deviated from her hopes and expectations.

It was even hard for her to back down now that she had said it out loud. It was impossible for her to slap herself in the face again. She said that she was the one who had caused the birth. Even if she were to continue pretending, she had to continue pretending.

Fang Zhu stood up straight and started to pick out a wedding ring for herself. In fact, she did not like any of them. They were either too fancy or ugly. What she wanted was something simpler, and Lu Yi had always stood by the side, he was like an unimportant person, which made Fang Zhu even more angry.

And the more he was like this, the calmer he was, the more expressionless he was, and the more he didn’t care. Fang Zhu’s actions of picking out rings also became slower and slower. The slower one tried one ring, the slower one tried another.., perhaps she even planned to stay here and try for an entire day. It was also because she had the intention of coming over to try again the next day if she didn’t try it out today.

She had tried almost all the rings in the shop. Even the shop assistant, who had a temper that wanted to treat them as gods, couldn’t stand it anymore. She had tried it out for more than two hours. More than two hours? Could it be.., she was only serving her?

Fang Zhu finally picked one. She was quite satisfied with this one. Of course, the price was also quite good. It was close to two million yuan. Although Fang Zhu’s salary was considered high in Hai City, it wasn’t that high, her salary, together with various bonuses, was about twenty thousand yuan. Lu Yi’s salary was very high. No one knew how much he got, but it was really high. Moreover, the Lu family didn’t lack money. In a family that had a hundred years of inheritance.., they never lacked money.

If she wanted to buy this ring with Fang Zhu’s salary, well, it would take ten years. She would tighten her belt and not eat or drink. Of course, if she had to use the breakup fee that Lu Yi gave her, it would be a matter of seconds.

It was a pity that Fang Zhu would not spend so much money to buy this thing. It was expensive and not practical. However, Fang Zhu despised a woman named Yan Huan. She had always liked to buy this, not to mention two million, even if it was more than twenty million, she could buy it without blinking.

And none of them knew that at this moment, a woman wearing sunglasses and a hat walked in. This woman was none other than Yan Huan.

She had given away all her jewelry, so she came over to see if there was a new model. Oh right, she was the kind of woman that Fang Zhu said would only buy such useless things.

Even if she liked it, she could afford it. Who could do anything to her? When Yan Huan walked in, Lu Yi had already noticed her. Although she had wrapped her bag very tightly, the way some people looked.., it had long been imprinted in his mind. He had forgotten how long it had been. It should have been five years.

“Do you have any new styles?” Yan Huan asked the shop assistant.

“Yes.” The shop assistant had already taken out a set of jewelry from the boutique area. There were necklaces, bracelets, and rings. They were all very exquisite, but they were not too eye-catching. Yan Huan liked the style of the jewelry design in this shop the most. In the past, she liked to be ostentatious, so she bought big diamonds and the like. But now, things had changed a little, she did not like to be ostentatious. Now, she liked these fine chains and the like. They were not ostentatious, low-key, but they were exquisite and beautiful.

Chapter 1348: robbery

“How much is this?” Yan Huan asked the shop assistant. One of her hands was injured, so she could only barely make a rough comparison on her wrist. She felt that it was about the same.

“The total price of this set is 25 million,” the shop assistant directly quoted a price.

“Oh, 250?” Yan Huan directly lost a zero. Actually, not only was the shop assistant embarrassed, even her own was also embarrassed. Could it be that she really looked like a 250.

“This one needs a discount.” The shop assistant smiled embarrassedly, but in her heart, she was crying. What kind of price was this? Fortunately, this customer didn’t seem to care too much about these things. Otherwise, this 250.., might have offended all of the customers.

“If the discount is lowered, it will be 21 million.” The shop assistant once again reported the price.

Most people would be afraid of such a price, let alone be afraid of it.

Because it was too expensive, an ordinary family wouldn’t be able to earn it in a few lifetimes.

Yan Huan thought about it and indeed liked it. She took a piece of paper and wrote down her current address and phone number on it, then handed over a card.

“Press the address on it and rush to deliver it before tonight.”

“Okay, Miss, please wait a moment.” The shop assistant was stunned when she heard this, but she quickly took the card. She could not help but take another look at Yan Huan. The current Yan Huan was extremely practical.., she also did not know what he looked like.

“Lu Yi, look at this?”

A voice suddenly sounded, causing Yan Huan to turn around and see the man who stood out from the crowd just by standing there. It was as though he had attracted the attention of everyone in the world.

At this moment, Fang Zhu was holding a ring in his hand. There was no need to guess why a man and a woman had come to buy a ring?

It was because it was time. It was because their love had reached the depths of their hearts. It was because they wanted to start a family. It was because they wanted to get married and have children.

Yan Huan sat there. Her uninjured hand was still clutching the corner of her shirt.

Liar, yes, she was a liar, a big liar. Her eyes were filled with white mist, but she suppressed it firmly.

Don't Cry, yes, Don't cry. He was not Lu Yi, not her Lu Yi. Her Lu Yi was just a virtual character on the internet, her favorite paper person. He said he would accompany her for life, he would not lie to her.

Fang Zhu was not sure if he had been stimulated by something. When he heard that someone else had bought more than 20 million yuan worth of jewelry, he did not even blink his eyes. His heart was filled with anger. It was just more than 2 million yuan, what could he not buy.

She could not be worse than the others. At the very least, she was much better than Yan Huan, who had a face but no brains.

Yan Huan did not even glance at them. He only focused on waiting for the shop assistant to return her card to her.

She picked up a mirror and looked at herself to see if there was anything that had been exposed. In the end, there was nothing. However, when she wanted to take a closer look, she saw some people walking in through the door, they were all using a cloth to cover their faces, preventing her from seeing their true faces.

Suddenly, her heart jumped and she instinctively looked towards Lu Yi's direction.

At this moment, she heard someone screaming. It seemed to be Fang Zhu.

A gun was already placed on Fang Zhu's head. Fang Zhu had just opened his mouth and was about to scream, but he did not make a sound.

Lu Yi also looked towards Yan Huan's direction. He gave Yan Huan a look, but it was obvious that he was worried.

Yan Huan carefully looked behind her. There was a counter there, and everyone was hugging their heads as they squatted on the ground. Yan Huan was the same. She carefully hid herself in the crowd, after that, she moved inside and tightly shrunk her body.

Her heart was beating rapidly. It was so fast that it felt as though it was about to jump out of her chest.

Was she having a bad time? Was it not easy for her to go out recently? Why did she encounter a robber when she finally went out? When she raised her head, she realized that the shop assistant who had received her earlier was also standing there, she was still holding the set of jewelry in her hand. The robber did not care what she was holding and directly grabbed it. His nails also scratched the female shop assistant's wrist, and the female shop assistant's legs trembled even more violently, the cold sweat on her face also fell down one by one.

With a bang, the glass was smashed. These people directly reached their hands in. No matter what they grabbed, they stuffed it into the bag they were holding in their hands, as for the gun that was pressed against Fang Zhu's head, it still didn't move. Fang Zhu's mouth was wide open, and he was completely dumbfounded.

The person standing in front of Fang Zhu had his head wrapped up, almost only revealing a pair of eyes. He reached out and directly grabbed the ring from Fang Zhu's hand, then threw it into the bag.

"AH..."

Fang Zhu was so frightened that she immediately screamed, the veins on the robber's forehead also jumped. The smelly cousin raised the gun and pointed it at Yan Zhu. Lu Yi directly reached out and grabbed Fang Zhu. He pulled her by the collar and turned her back. At this moment, suddenly, the alarm sounded, the eyes of the robbers began to turn red.

"Hurry up. The police are coming soon," the person who had been standing still all this time said to the others. Those people's actions of grabbing the gold and silver jewelry also became faster.

Lu Yi narrowed his eyes. This was also a secret calculation. He was calculating his chances of winning. At this moment, there were quite a number of guests here besides the employees. Among them, there was a gun., lu Yi could guarantee that he would not be injured, but the others were uncertain. There were most of the hostages here, and with their skills, he could not be sure if he could guarantee the safety of so many people, nor could he prove it., would these robbers be desperate.

He only stood with the others, but he was always thinking about how to not hurt people

Suddenly, with a bang, these people opened fire and heard a man's scream. The man was also holding onto his leg, and blood would come out from the bloody hole from time to time.

The man fell in front of Yan Huan. Yan Huan tightened her body and squatted down, not daring to move. She lowered her presence.

At this moment, a pair of legs blocked her way. She lifted her face and could not see clearly, but she saw that the shoes on this man's feet were a pair of shoes without any brand logo.

She hurriedly covered her mouth and blocked all her voice.

"Who told you to move?" A hand reached out and pointed at the space between Lu Yi's brows,

Chapter 1349: gunshot wound

Lu Yi pursed his lips and lowered his head to look at the man who was hugging his injured leg.

"You're going to kill him. Robbery and murder are not the same as criminal law."

"Do I need you to say more?" The gun almost touched Lu Yi's skin. "One more word and I'll shoot you."

“Boss, it’s about time.” A few people at the side lifted their bags. All the valuables were there, and the alarm had sounded. They didn’t have time to waste here.

The person standing finally withdrew his gun, and Lu Yi’s eyes narrowed. Right now, the other two hadn’t taken their guns out yet, so he had the chance to catch these people without hurting anyone.

He was just about to move when he saw a woman run out like a madman.

He grabbed the woman with one hand.

The robber had already raised his gun. Seeing this, the woman instinctively pulled a man beside her, pulling him to block in front of her, with a bang, blood seemed to splatter, and then spurted out.

“Ahhh...” someone screamed, after a while, more screams were heard, and the sound of police cars could already be heard from outside.

They quickly left, and the few robbers hurriedly ran away with their belongings. At this moment, Lu Yi turned around. His hand was still holding onto Fang Zhu, but there was a big hole in his chest, and that hole was bleeding from time to time.

It was like a small river, like a red river..

“You, are really stupid.”

After he said these three words, his body swayed a little before he slowly fell onto the ground. With a bang, he crashed onto the ground, and the room of dust seemed to have formed beneath his body, the glass shards under the ground had pierced into his back, but they were not as painful as his chest.

He breathed in and out, and the air in his lungs seemed to be squeezed out of his chest. It was as if someone was shouting in his ear, someone was talking, and someone was crying, but he could not hear anything.

He turned his face slightly, as if he was looking for something.

Then, a woman crawled out from the crowd. The glass shards cut her hands, legs, and knees, but she was still crawling forward. Her glasses fell to the ground, she did not know when her hat fell off. At this moment, she was trembling with her colorless red lips. Tears could be seen rolling down from the corners of her eyes.

Lu Yi slowly stretched out his hand as if he wanted to grab something. However, the pain was accompanied by the loss of consciousness.

The woman was still crawling forward. She also stretched out her hand and grabbed his hand bit by bit. Her fingers were very warm, and he suddenly felt a little cold, it was as if she was sucking all the warmth out of her body.

He wanted to take it back, but she held it very tightly. The woman sat up, took off her clothes, and covered his body. One of her hands was also covering his chest.

His pupils constricted, as if he was thinking of the first time he saw her on television. She was very young then, only nineteen years old. He would never forget it. It was just a moment, a sudden heartbeat.

And what he would never forget was the current thumping heartbeat of this heart.

If I'm not here, won't there be no one to accompany you.

If I'm not here, won't there be no one to protect you in the future.

If you're not here, won't you continue to be deceived by others.

If I'm not here..

Who will guard you, who will guard you, protect you..

Police officers suddenly ran in one after another from outside.

When they saw the people on the ground, they hurriedly shouted to the outside, "Quick, let the Doctor in, someone is injured."

Then, it was chaotic again.

Yan Huan opened her eyes and realized that someone seemed to be carrying her. She could only watch helplessly as the man was carried into the ambulance.

"It's okay," the doctor comforted her. "You're only slightly injured. You'll be fine."

"What about him?" Yan Huan asked the Doctor. At this moment, she seemed to have lost all her strength. Even her words were almost exhausted from her graduation.

"Sigh..." the doctor sighed, "He's very dangerous. The wound is on his chest. Right now, we don't know how far the bullet is from his heart. It's good as long as it doesn't hurt his heart. But if it hurts his heart, then even a god can't save him."

Yan Huan had already been brought into the ambulance. Her entire body was covered in glass shards. The Doctor was helping her remove the glass shards, but every time he removed one, the doctor would feel pain, but Yan Huan seemed to be ignorant and unfeeling. She didn't feel any pain, nor did she cry.

When they arrived at the hospital, she was still the same. Only her eyes were open, but there was no focus.

With a bang, the door to the ward was suddenly pushed open, and an extremely tall man walked in. This man was none other than Lu Yi's biological cousin. He had also grown up with Lu Yi and disliked her very much, it was lei qingyi who also hated her very much.

"It's really you."

Lei Qingyi strode over and was about to reach out to grab Yan Huan's person.

"What are you doing?" A doctor hurriedly pulled lei qingyi back. "She's still a patient. Didn't you see the surveillance footage? It wasn't her who harmed Lu Yi, it was Fang Zhu. It had nothing to do with her."

"I know." Lei Qingyi flung the doctor's hand away forcefully.

"I didn't think of doing anything to her." Lei Qingyi's eyes were bloodshot. He was like a child who could cry right away, "Lu Yi was hit in the chest. He was hit in the chest. He needs blood now. He needs a lot of blood, but it's not like you don't know his blood type. She's the only one we can find now."

"She..." the doctor was also helpless, "You know how much blood Lu Yi has lost and how much blood he needs to draw from her. Do you think she's willing?" "The last time Lu Yi needed blood, Auntie ye knelt down to save her, but it was useless. Now You Want to draw a third of her blood. Will she be willing?"

"Why won't she be willing?" Lei Qingyi's voice was like thunder at this moment.

"If it wasn't for Lu Yi, would she be a movie queen now?" "If it wasn't for Lu Yi secretly helping her all this time, she would have been able to climb up smoothly from the cameo. Otherwise, a woman like her who has no status, no money, no backing, no backing, and could even be a movie queen. If it wasn't for Lu Yi, she would have been eaten alive long ago, and there wouldn't be a single piece of skin left."

"Tell me, why can't she give Lu Yi some blood? "Lu Yi has protected her for five years, five years. Yi Bin, do you know how many things Lu Yi has solved for her? Even when he is with Lu Qin, even when she has done those disgusting things, Lu Yi is still secretly protecting her."

Chapter 1350: whose child is it

"Five years. Even if it's 300 cc of blood a year, she won't lose out."

"It's all up to her." The Doctor pulled Lei Qingyi away. "If she didn't have a heart, you wouldn't have forcefully taken her blood. Besides, she's a patient now."

"Sick my ass. She's sick, but Lu Yi is going to die."

Lei Qingyi's voice was still increasing in volume as she screamed. It was as though the entire building was about to collapse.

The moment they left, Yan Huan opened her eyes. At this moment, something had covered her eyes, layer after layer.

She slowly sat up and looked at her hands. They were all wrapped in sand cloth, and she was practically a mummy. She placed her feet on the ground, opened the door, and walked over.

"You..." when the doctor in the room saw her, he quickly came over. "What are you doing here? Don't forget that you're a public figure."

Yan Huan raised her face. She knew this doctor. He was also a good friend of Lu Yi's. His name was he Yibin, and he was a doctor in this hospital. Lu Yi's friends didn't like her, including this doctor.

"Are you still lacking blood?" She asked he Yibin. Her eyes and nose were very red.

He Yibin gritted his teeth. "Very. We can't find any blood reserves. His blood type is the same as yours. It's very rare."

"Do you want to give her a blood transfusion?"

He Yibin asked carefully. Perhaps he was afraid that Yan Huan would not agree or refuse. Lu Yi's situation was very dangerous now. If there was no blood, he would die. However, if there was too much blood transfusion. Her life might be in danger.

Yan Huan nodded his head lightly.

He wanted a lot, so Yibin reminded Yan Huan again. He really wanted a lot, not just a little or two. In a moment, it would be one-third of the blood in your body, and it might be even more. You have to know that if a person's body lost too much blood, then their life would also be in danger.

Yan Huan nodded again. She looked at the wound on her left palm. Although she did not say anything, she did not refuse because she had agreed. Yes, she had agreed to everything.

"Alright, follow me."

He Yibin turned around and brought her to the operating theater. He walked very quickly while Yan Huan trotted behind him. At this moment, every step she took would leave a bloody mark on the ground.

When they arrived, he yibin squatted down in front of her.

Yan Huan's eyes were very clear and her eyelashes were slightly curled. Although her red lips did not have any color, they were really beautiful.

"You're sure. You Can't stop at the beginning."

"Si." Yan Huan nodded her head lightly. I've signed the dangerous consent form with you. You Don't have to be afraid of taking responsibility. I'm not an Iron Man. If I really die, I Won't blame you. In any case, I don't have anything.., "If I die earlier, I'll be able to see my mother and sister earlier."

He Yibin tightened his grip on her hand.

"Do you know?"

"Mm..." Yan Nan didn't understand, but her face was really clean at this moment.

"You're like an angel now."

He Yibin opened his mouth and smiled at her.

"Thank you." Yan Huan lowered her head and looked at the thick steel needle that had slowly pierced into her blood vessels.

At this moment, her blood was already starting to flow out.

"Can it be mended?" She muttered to herself. However, she wasn't talking about herself, but about him. She saw a large hole in his chest. That large hole was bleeding out from time to time, his blood flowed like a river of blood. No matter what, she couldn't stop it.

She looked at her hands. It seemed that there was still blood in her hands. It was warm and cold.

Once the blood left the human body, it became cold.

She felt in her pocket and took out her phone. She opened the chat app and looked at her chat history with him.

You said that you would stay with me forever.

You said that you wouldn't have a girlfriend.

You also said that I would find you no matter what.

You also said that when I had no home, you would pick me up.

But, you lied to me.

But, even so, I still want you to live..

She put the phone on her chest, and tears seemed to roll out of the corners of her eyes, but they turned into flowers, spread out, and then broke, just like that, one flower after another, broken after broken..

In the Blur, she seemed to see a very strange world. She did not recognize it, but it was very familiar..

"Mommy..."

Was he calling out to her? But she clearly did not have a child?

She stopped. She walked forward and saw a child running over from afar.

"Mommy."The child happily hugged her leg and buried his little face in her leg.

"You Are..."she squatted down and touched the child's tender face. It was so familiar.

"Mama,"the child reached out his small hand and touched her face. "Mama, you have to go home quickly."

She looked at the child's eyes.

These eyes were really beautiful, but why were there no lights.

"Can't you see your eyes?"

The child still smiled innocently. "Pull pull said that mommy took little light away during the day. As long as little light brings mommy back, little light will be able to see. Mommy, come, accompany little light home."

The child held her hand and was about to pull her forward, but she also took one more step forward, one more step..

However, it was as if something was pulling her back.

It also pulled her back forcefully.

"Mommy, Mommy..."

"Mommy Won't go, Mommy Won't go."The child hugged his leg and cried so hard that his lungs almost burst out.

Yan Huan suddenly felt her heart ache. She hugged the child tightly.

“Mommy Won’t go, Mommy Won’t go, I Won’t go...”

“Mommy will bring you to your eyes. Mommy will definitely treat your eyes.”

She hugged the child tightly and didn’t dare to let go. However, the suction force behind her became stronger and stronger.

What should she do? If she didn’t go back, she didn’t want to go back. Even if she died, she didn’t want to go back.

However, the sudden suction force once again landed on her body. She also felt a headache. The little soft body in her arms also disappeared..

“Mommy, Mommy...”

Xiao Guang suddenly cried out loud.

A big hand lifted him up and touched his little forehead.

“What’s wrong? Did Xiao Guang have a nightmare?”

“Pull, pull...”

Xiao Guang threw himself into his father’s arms and cried out loud.

“Xiao Guang found Mommy, but Mommy was taken away by the bad guys. What if Mommy Can’t come back? Xiao Guang wants Mommy, Mommy...”

The man held his son in his arms. At that moment, the sadness in his eyes could no longer be hidden. Just like that, little by little, he gave up on his heart, bringing with him an intense pain..
