

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 14 She Quit

She was an A-list star, with popularity and a decent business ability, she could bring money to every company she was in.

Hence, everyone was happy that such a female star was willing to sign with Glory Group.

Shawn was obviously satisfied with this effect, and after a while he slightly raised his hands, interrupting their excited voices.

"One more thing, the lady sitting next to me is called Julia, most of the people here may not know her, but for people who have been in the industry for more than 10 years, I think you should have heard of her.

I bring her here today because she will be our new PR manager and lead our PR department in the future to make progress!

To make our company better and stronger!"

The room remained silence after he finished his speech.

Everyone seemed to be a bit unprepared, and it took several seconds before a few sparse applause.

Then, everyone turned to look at Natalia.

There were sympathy and regrets in those glances, as if they had finally confirmed this morning's rumor.

Also, there were people who didn't know Julia's background, and after inquiring it to their colleagues, their gaze became somewhat complicated when looking at Natalia.

After all, although Natalia's ability was great, considering Julia's qualifications, her ability wouldn't be inferior to hers. Since Mr. Miller had already hired her, they couldn't say anything.

However, there were still one or two who would stand for Natalia, after seeing this, they indignantly stood up and objected.

"I don't agree!"

"I don't agree either!"

As we all know, Natalia is our PR manager, she has been doing a good job, lending a helping hand to our company at our most critical time, leading the PR department to this day, with great credits, isn't it too hasty for Mr. Miller to fire her!"

"Yes!"

Miss Natalia didn't do anything wrong, so if Mr. Miller wants to replace her, you must give us a reason, right?

And although this senior Julia used to be a very famous PR, I heard that she hadn't dealt with any cases for ten years, and I wonder if she's still capable now?

If she isn't, won't it be a waste of time?"

The challenges instantly stirred up a thousand waves like a stone being cast into the lake, causing the rest of the employees to stand up for her.

"Yeah, although Julia was prestigious, it has been ten years since her peak time."

"The popular artists in the entertainment industry have changed several times, is it okay for her to continue to be a publicist now?"

With doubtful stares from the crowd, Shawn frowned slightly.

As he was about to speak, someone suddenly tugged at his sleeve.

Jessica gave him a hint, and Shawn pursed his lips, then he saw Julia smiling slightly and stepping forward to address the public.

"It is a misunderstanding!"

She gazed around the crowd and finally landed her gaze on Natalia.

"Mr. Miller didn't mean to replace Miss Dawson by inviting me, Miss Dawson has worked hard as a stabilizer in Glory Group, how could Mr. Miller make such a decision to break everyone's heart?"

Hearing this, the crowd couldn't help wondering.

"Then what did Mr. Miller mean by his words?"

Julia smiled and calmly said.

"As we all know, Glory Group is no longer the small, insignificant company as it was two years ago. Today, apart from Annita International, we hardly have any competitors.

In other words, now we have no other enemy except the Annita International, and I think anyone knows how powerful the Annita International is.

It takes more than expert business skills and responsiveness to beat a company like this, as it takes a deep understanding of the industry and a wide range of contacts.

These two things, however, happened to be what Miss Dawson lacked the most. After all, she only had two years of experience.

That's why Mr. Miller asked me to come over, but he just wants me to help Miss Dawson to manage the PR department, and to fill in the gaps in the industry information part as well as the networking part, that's all."

Everyone knew what Mr. Miller meant by her speech.

That's why.

It couldn't be denied that what Julia said was true.

Today, personal skill was actually not that important compared to financial strength, strong networking and deep understanding of the industry.

One must be well prepared for the future, and it was true that one could only develop these abilities by accumulating enough experience and being in the industry for a long time.

Everyone seemed to understand, and only one person raised a question.

"Then what position Miss Dawson will hold since Julia will be the manager of the PR department?"

The crowd looked at Natalia.

Shawn looked at her, and after two seconds of silence, he said in a deep voice.

"Natalia will be the assistant manager!"

First, I'll learn from my senior, and then I'll upgrade her later when I have the chance."

The crowd was startled

It's not uncommon to make mistakes and get demoted.

It's really... pretty humiliated to take credit for being demoted!

Natalia finally showed a sneer.

Under everyone's gaze, she calmly stood up and propped her hands on the table to look at Shawn, who was sitting in the main seat.

"Mr. Miller, you said I'm flawed in the industry depth as well as networking, do you have any evidence or specific cases to illustrate that?"

Shawn was in a daze.

It had to say that every case that Natalia handled was done well, and... there was no evidence to show that point.

Natalia's clear, cold eyes stared at her and sneered.

"Since it doesn't, what makes you think that I will definitely lose to Julia in these two aspects?"

Shawn didn't answer her question.

Natalia smiled coldly as she watched his stumbling look.

She stayed up late to read materials and learn case studies to understand the industry in the past two years.

In order to pull in contacts for the Glory Group, she, who had never liked to entertain, had attended many drinking parties.

There were many times that she directly vomited on the table in order to bring more resources to Glory Group.

There were many times when she worked overtime until midnight and returned home exhausted, only to be revived by a call from the brokerage department.

It was said that when something happens to a star from the Glory Group, it is always the fastest to resolve it.

But no one ever understood how much hard work and sweat was behind this.

He couldn't see it, or, he deliberately avoided to see it.

Now he even demoted her because of her qualification.

Natalia felt really funny and had never felt so despaired.

Even though she was ready to resign, she didn't expect Shawn to do such a shameless thing to her.

Shawn was speechless for a long time, then he said in a deep voice.

"Natalia, this is a chance for you to learn, be humble and in the future..."

"There isn't a future!"

She sneered and suddenly pulled her resignation letter from her book, "Snap."

The letter was thrown in front of him.

"Isn't this what you want?"

I agree!

I also don't want to be in this company to be bullied by you. You can invite anyone to take charge of the PR department. I am going to quit this job!"
