

Chapter 1561: was knocked out by the noise

“Don’t tell me you want to buy a woman back?” Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina suspiciously. Why was she so excited when a woman had been sold?

“What do you know? Only when this woman has been sold will the next dish be mine. The thing I saw was about to be served.” Zhu Meina’s voice was filled with excitement, they were all fanatical, as if they had gone mad.

After the blonde mermaid was sold, another person was brought up. It was a man.

At this moment, Zhu Meina wanted nothing more than to go up and eat his meat and drink his blood. She gnawed on his bones like a hungry wolf. Yan Huan had the urge to knock her out and carry her back.

The Man on the stage had been smiling the entire time. At this moment, the man seated below seemed to have quietened down a little. He was no longer as noisy as before. However, it could not be ruled out that there was also a man with a special hobby.., was he also waiting for this man to enter the stage.

Yan Huan once again sized up the man on the stage who was about to be appraised and sold. He saw this man gently rotating his wrist and lifting a pair of emerald-green eyes, his eyes were like the purest green gemstones, as deep as the purity of a pool of spring water. It was as if he wanted to completely suck in one’s soul, his facial features were extremely deep and three-dimensional. He did not know which country he was from, but his skin was slightly tanned. It was neither white nor black, and his figure was also extremely good, especially his inverted three types of physique, almost all of the women present screamed, and he was only wrapped up in a piece of cloth somewhere.

The previous women were all judging her by her weight, but the man on the stage did not seem to feel uncomfortable at all. He was even like a king, as if he was looking down on everything.

“I want him, I definitely want him.” Zhu Meina seemed to have gone crazy as she began to scream. The others were similar to her as the numbers on the screen continued to rise, just now, the woman had only sold him for 100 million, but this man had already exceeded 100 million and was still rising.

Yan Huan furrowed her brows. She did indeed feel that this man was strange. Of course, that included that woman. He actually made everyone present go crazy because of them. And if that was really the case.., then Harmony wasn’t beautiful, but terrifying.

As for why Yan Huan didn’t feel threatened, she didn’t feel anything wrong, nor did she have any impulse to want it. In fact, she didn’t even feel anything at all, she thought.., perhaps it was because she had been reincarnated for several lifetimes, so her soul was still very tenacious.

To be honest, she would rather spend 100 million to buy that set of porcelain than buy a person.

Why would she buy a person? She had to eat, drink water, be bullied, and be betrayed when she was caught off guard.

At this moment, Zhu Meina, who was in the midst of her excitement, stopped talking. She hurriedly pulled on Yan Huan's sleeve. "Yan Huan, lend me some money," she said pitifully.

"Sure."

Yan Huan was very generous.

"Really?" Zhu Meina was delighted, but her eyes never left the man on the stage. It was as if that man had already seduced her soul away.

"Just you wait, I'll transfer it for you."

Yan Huan placed his hand in his pocket, while Zhu Meina was still anxiously walking. She had forgotten when Yan Huan had been so generous. One had to know that Yan Huan had always been a stingy woman.

Especially in front of her.

Up until now, she had only remembered that one million.

One Million, one million..

She, Zhu Meina, was only worth one million, but she was almost worth two hundred million.

Of course, her IQ had also really dropped to zero. When they came in, they did not bring their phones with them. How could they turn it on? All they could use was that white card.

Yan Huan stretched out his hand and placed it on the back of Zhu Meina's neck. Zhu Meina did not know what he wanted her to do. In the end, her neck suddenly hurt, and her entire body also collapsed onto the chair, fortunately, this chair was able to hold her in place. Otherwise, Zhu Meina would have slipped down.

Yan Huan patted his hand and placed his hand on the armrest of the chair at the side. Just like that, he indifferently looked at the man in front of him, who was being sold at a price of two catties. Suddenly., that man's gaze seemed to be on her. Yan Huan turned his face away and looked at other things. He was also listening to the numbers that those people had reported.

The final transaction amount was 250 million.

Actually, it could be said to be 250 million.

It was unknown whether that man was taken away by a man or a woman. As for who won the bid for that man or that woman, it had nothing to do with Yan Huan. At this moment, when that man went down., the entire venue seemed to have quieted down in an instant. However, it was unknown whether it was because after that wave of enthusiasm, there weren't many ripples left behind. It was all within the norm, especially when there were., however, there weren't many surprises left.

Yan Huan placed his hand on the back of Zhu Meina's neck and pressed down hard. This was something that Lu Yi had taught her. It was a method that could knock someone out in an instant. However, even though the time was a little short, it could buy some time, it was enough for one person to escape.

“What happened to me just now?”Zhu Meina rubbed her neck. The face underneath the mask was also covered. Why did she feel as though she had slept for a long time? Her entire body was aching from this long period of time. Also., what exactly happened just now.

Why did she fall asleep just like that? Or did she faint?

“Yan Huan, what happened to me just now?”Zhu Meina still felt that her head was dizzy and her neck was also in some pain. Oh right, what exactly happened?

“It was too loud.”Yan Huan still had the same expression. The man who was led away suddenly stood up. His gaze swept across the crowd from time to time as though he was looking for someone, finally, his gaze landed on Yan Huan. Yan Huan had never thought that others were looking for her. Everyone in this place was wearing the same clothes and masks. It was normal for someone like her to be like this, perhaps when she took off her mask, her identification would be a little higher. However, now that she was the same as everyone else, who would be able to tell who she was?

Zhu Meina twisted her neck again.

“Does it have anything to do with me being too loud?”

“Yes,”Yan Huan replied in all seriousness. “You fainted from the noise.”She did not blush or have a thick neck. It seemed to be the case. Yes, it seemed to be the case.

For the first time, Zhu Meina felt that she would still faint from the noise.

Chapter 1562: had a restaurant

“Where’s my handsome guy?”Zhu Meina almost fainted from crying in the toilet. “Why is he gone the moment he woke up?”

Yan Huan pointed to a spot not far away. “You can still take a few more glances. In a while, he’ll leave with another woman or man.”

Zhu Meina cried again. It was as if a piece of her heart had been dug out. However, there was nothing she could do. This was the place where one had to buy and leave the hand. After she patted it, it would be yours.

Zhu Meina raised her face and looked at the green-eyed man who looked like a messenger not far away.

“That, Yan Huan...”

“HM?”Yan Huan was playing with her fingers in boredom, wondering when she could go back. She was hungry.

“Why do I feel that my green-eyed handsome man is looking at you? Could it be that your mask is better looking than mine?”

“I noticed it too.”Yan Huan was not surprised at all. “He’s looking at the person behind me.”

Zhu Meina's gaze glanced behind her and saw that there was an extremely tall... man sitting behind her. Compared to Yan Huan, he was about a head taller. As expected, he was a little taller and his target was a little bigger, however, why would her green-eyed handsome man look at a man? Could it be that he liked men.

"Do you like him that much?" Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina curiously. Of course, Zhu Meina was now completely devoted to her green-eyed handsome man. Not to mention her heart, her soul had already flown over to him, now, she wasn't even interested in anything anymore.

"What's so good about him?" Yan Huan really didn't understand. What was so good about that man that made these people go crazy? In the end, he even hyped up a price of 250 yuan.

"Haven't you noticed that he's very handsome?"

Zhu Meina's eyes widened, as if Yan Huan was a big monster that came out of nowhere.

"No." Yan Huan shook his head honestly. There were many good-looking men and women in the entertainment industry. This man was very handsome, but it was impossible for him to charm people to such an extent. In her opinion, people who looked like this were all a little demonic, and she had never really liked demonic things.

"Don't you feel that his figure is very good?"

Zhu Meina felt that she was unable to communicate with a woman like Yan Huan.

Yan Huan shook his head again. In general, his figure was not bad, but it was not standard. He was also a little thin. She did not like fresh meat, nor did she like men who were too thin. She liked her family's Lu Yi's figure. That was his figure, and his body would have muscles, however, she was not conflicted. Her hands were very strong, and she could carry three children at the same time. In her opinion, a man could take on the responsibility of a father and play the role of a husband. His wife loved him.., making the children love and respect him, that was a real man.

"Don't you feel that his eyes are like emeralds?"

"Yes." Yan Huan agreed with this point.

Zhu Meina also heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, she wasn't so hopeless.

"I know that wolves have eyes of the same color," Yan Huan reminded Zhu Meina again. "What would you do if you woke up in the middle of the night and a pair of wolf-like eyes stared at you sinisterly?"

Zhu Meina suddenly felt a cold breeze blowing past her. She touched her arm and felt her scalp go numb.

She seemed to have paid less attention to that green-eyed man and wasn't as crazy as before. However, she didn't understand why she was so crazy back then?

Why couldn't she remember.

"I want to see other things." Zhu Meina stood up. The auction was over. She didn't get anything from the auction nor did she buy anything. No matter what, she had to bring back some good things for herself, otherwise, she would be letting herself down.

"Why don't you come with me?" Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan.

Yan Huan waved his hand. "You can go by yourself. I'm not going. I want to rest here for a while."

"Alright then." Zhu Meina wasn't forcing herself. She went to play by herself, and after one round, it was probably because she had regained her heart. She also bought some small things, but they were all jewelry, like antiques. She didn't even look at them. She still believed in jewelry.

When Zhu Meina came back, Yan Huan was still sitting there. This time, Zhu Meina recognized her at a glance, because Yan Huan's butt had never left that seat.

Zhu Meina also sat down.

"I'm done."

"Oh..." Yan Huan raised his face. "Then can we go back?"

"Go Back? Why do we have to go back?" Zhu Meina hugged her arm. "There will be an extremely difficult performance later."

"A performance? Didn't I see it?" In Yan Huan's place, the so-called performance meant that he had seen it when he entered the venue. What was it? A circus? Was it still being performed? Was there a need to watch the repetition?

"That's not it at all. That's just an appetizer. After that is the main course. It's also the most famous one here. You must take a look. Otherwise, the next opportunity might not come for you."

Yan Huan believed it. Who Didn't know if she could participate in such a trade fair again? Would she know? Would she happen to have the time? Would she be able to find a ticket, this might really be the only time.

"But what if I'm Hungry?" Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina. How much longer would she have to sit here? She was already extremely hungry and had low blood sugar like her. If she really fainted from hunger, what would she do?

"Are you stupid?" Zhu Meina really wanted to knock Yan Huan on the forehead. "There's a restaurant here. There will be pure delicacies from all over the world. You can eat whatever you want as long as you can afford it."

Yan Huan pointed at the mask on his face. "With this, how am I supposed to eat? With my eyes and nostrils?"

"There's a completely enclosed restaurant here, so you can immediately have the delicacies you want."

Yan Huan stood up and was about to go find a restaurant.

"Wait, I want to go too."

Zhu Meina sometimes felt that this woman, Yan Huan, was too difficult to get along with. Could she not ask if she wanted to eat, if she wanted to go, and if she was also hungry? Actually, she could not blame Yan Huan, who asked Zhu Meina to have a body structure that was different from others.

In the past, when they were at their most down and out, Yan Huan only thought about eating and how to live. However, Zhu Meina only thought about how to buy clothes and how to buy cosmetics.

Therefore, their worldviews were completely different. Unexpectedly, they became friends, and they were even friends who shared weal and woe together. If it was in the past., yan Huan probably didn't expect that he would become friends with a woman like Zhu Meina. Moreover, this friend of his had even forgotten about her husband.

At this moment, they had already walked to the entrance of the restaurant. When they entered, they saw that there were many small cubicles. Those who didn't close the door could tell that the things in the small cubicles were complete, in one of the cubicles, there was a soft tatami. They could sit and lie on it, and there were delicacies all around them. They could take whatever they wanted.

Chapter 1563: delicacies from various countries

There would be chefs personally cooking for the guests, and the food that could be eaten was also varied. Yan Huan also discovered that some wild animals were also there, and there was also an extremely large python, which also wanted to eat snake meat, yan Huan hurriedly moved away, but Zhu Meina's interest was not bad. She had already run over, wanting to eat a meal of snake meat.

Yan Huan did not really like eating meat, so she kept a respectful distance from such strange meat. She roughly walked around, thinking that she could be considered to have eaten all the delicacies in various countries. She had lived for two lifetimes, life was tough in the front, rich and noble in the back. The food she ate was naturally very good. However, she had actually never seen the food here. It was flying in the sky, running on the ground, swimming in the water. In short., as long as one could name it, one could basically find it here. However, Yan Huan really didn't have much interest in things that she had never eaten or seen before, right now, she just wanted to eat a bowl of noodles. However, there wasn't any noodles that she wanted to eat here. Instead, there were some spaghetti.

She ordered a bowl of spaghetti and a fruit salad. The fruits were all tropical fruits. It was probably something that they didn't have here. There were also some small red fruits that looked like grapes, however, Yan Huan knew that these weren't grapes.

She also ordered a cup of freshly squeezed fruit juice for herself. However, she didn't know what kind of fruit it was squeezed out of. However, after she took a sip, the taste was sour and sweet. It could be considered delicious.

When she brought all these over, Zhu Meina didn't come back. This was a small cubicle that they had reserved for themselves. It was also very secretive. They could only enter after swiping the white card in their hands.

There was still a place to rest on the small tatami. If one was tired, they could lie down on it and rest. There was also a quilt beside it. Moreover, if one sat on it, it would be very soft. It was as if one's entire body had sunk into it, moreover, it was not small. It would not be a problem for two people to lie down on it.

With a ding, the door opened. Zhu Meina came in from the outside with a plate in her hand. The things on the plate were also things that she had brought back. These things looked strange, it was just that she didn't know what kind of meat it was. In fact, sometimes it was better not to know and just eat it. If she knew, she might really not be able to eat it.

"You Only Eat This?" Zhu Meina pointed at the spaghetti that Yan Huan placed on the table. "There are so many delicious things, but you only eat these?"

"Yan Huan, your structure is indeed different from others."

"I don't really eat meat." Yan Huan picked up the fruit juice and took another sip. "Moreover, my gastrointestinal function is poor and hasn't recovered well. I don't like spicy and greasy things." Zhu Meina laughed dryly. That's right..., how could she have forgotten about this? Yan Huan had been sleeping for a few months. In these few months, she had been eating liquid food. It had only been less than ten days, it was impossible for her gastrointestinal function to recover so quickly. This was also why Yan Huan's food had always been bland, but she had been drinking too much soup. In addition, she did not eat meat to begin with, therefore, in the eyes of others, she did not eat or touch other delicacies.

Yan Huan took the plate of spaghetti and placed it on his lap to eat. At this moment, she was sitting on top of the tatami rice and eating the noodles on the plate. When these noodles entered her mouth, it was also very strange. She could not help but smile, why did she think this place was so simple? How expensive was this spaghetti? It could already buy fifty to sixty bowls of noodles. She thought that this kind of price was normal inside, it was like going to some tourist attraction. If she didn't want to go hungry, then she could only be ripped off. Therefore, as long as she could eat her fill, even if she was ripped off once, it wouldn't be a big deal.

But she didn't expect that

This noodles looked like spaghetti on the outside, but there was something else going on inside. There should be prawns in this noodles, and there were also many good things inside. That was why this noodles was tens of times more expensive than the ones outside, now that she thought about it, it was understandable.

Yan Huan finished eating the noodles and felt that this noodles wasn't bad. It should be two bowls. She put on her shoes and went out. After a while, she brought back two plates of noodles.

Zhu Meina was not interested in noodles. What she wanted to eat now was meat, not noodles. If her stomach was occupied by the noodles, then how could she eat meat later? Hence, no matter how many Noodles Yan Huan brought back..., she was not particularly moved. Although the appearance of the noodles was better and the taste was better, how could the noodles taste better than the meat.

Because of this, she missed out on the delicious taste of the noodles. From Yan Huan's point of view, the noodles tasted pretty good, but she did not know if they could be taken out. If they could be taken out, she would bring some for her family, it was also for her child to taste. Of course, there was also this unknown fruit juice

She picked up another plate and ate it. The taste was even more different. The noodles should have been made from some kind of seafood because they could taste the seafood.

She was finally happy and also ate the other two plates of noodles. After all, she hadn't eaten for more than half a day, and the amount of noodles wasn't too big. Otherwise, three plates.., she really couldn't eat.

She finished eating the noodles. Now that she was full, she felt sleepy. Anyway, when the program started, there would be people coming over to knock on the door until they came out.

Yan Huan pulled up the blanket and prepared to sleep. She was tired from shopping, so of course she had to sleep. However, Zhu Meina did not understand her.

It was such a good opportunity, yet Yan Huan was actually sleeping. She kept stuffing her mouth with food. In just a short while, she had already eaten all the food in this place into her stomach, even so, she was still not full. When she went out again, she came back with a lot of things in her hands. They were all good snacks.

When Yan Huan woke up, Zhu Meina was still eating. Yan Huan rubbed his face. He was not at home, so there was no familiar smell. Therefore, she did not sleep peacefully. She kept having nightmares, she dreamed that something was chasing after her. Her mouth would occasionally make gurgling sounds, as if she was biting something.

Another gurgling sound rang in her ears. Zhu Meina continued to eat her food, while her mouth was also gurgling happily.

Yan Huan looked at Zhu Meina in boredom. There was a pile of bones on the table. Just how edible was she.

Chapter 1564: was a program that she didn't like

"Come and have a taste." Zhu Meina generously pushed the plate in front of her to Yan Huan. "I found it by chance. It tastes pretty good. I heard it's the ancestral food of a tribe."

"Thank you, but there's no need." Yan Huan didn't have that kind of curiosity. Of course, he also didn't have much interest in the things that Zhu Meina mentioned about the tribe. Who knew what kind of things were made of.., then, she boldly ate them into her stomach. She wasn't afraid that she would have diarrhea.

She took the mask from the table and slept for a while. After eating some food, she felt much more comfortable and felt a little more energetic.

Then, she found some food for herself. She even specifically asked if it could be taken out. When the other party said it could be taken out, she happily bought a lot. Of course, she had to bring a few more portions of that spaghetti.., she gave it to the children to taste.

The children actually had more tastes like her. The food she liked should be similar to theirs.

She picked a few dishes that weren't too strange. However, when she returned, Zhu Meina went out again. There was a pile of plates on the table. Yan Huan took the plates down and placed them under the table, as long as she did not kick them, it was fine. After the table was cleaned, she sat down and ate the things she brought back. Some of them were vegetable rolls and the like.

After a while, Zhu Meina returned again. She took another pile of things. In any case, she insisted on bursting her stomach. She bit on her bones. In any case, she liked to eat these things, she didn't even know how many plates she had eaten. In any case, she didn't know how many she had eaten.

She came here to be extravagant and not to save money. Therefore, the money was here. From the moment she came in, she didn't calculate it anymore. It would easily reach millions and thousands of dollars, there was really no one who would care about it anymore.

"I'm full." Zhu Meina touched her stomach. Indeed, she was full and hadn't stopped eating.

Yan Huan was still eating his vegetable roll slowly. She had originally thought that it was just an ordinary vegetable, but it wasn't. She didn't know what it was made of, but the taste was quite good. After she ate it., then, she took out a tissue and wiped the corner of her mouth.

Zhu Meina rubbed her stomach at the side. Sigh, she had eaten too much, and she was still full.

Also, no matter how beautiful a person was, she was still beautiful. It was fine if she was pleasing to the eye when she ate, but after she finished eating, there was no one like Yan Huan. That was why it was really important for her to be taught by a family.

This was something that could only be achieved through the influence of one's ears and eyes. It was also something that could be revealed through one's years. It was something that came from one's body. As time went by, it became more and more profound and rich.

Zhu Meina could not learn this kind of thing. She was the so-called big-breasted brainless person. No matter how much she imitated Yan Huan and chewed slowly, she could not be like him. At most, she could only imitate him a little.

When they went out, the people outside were still walking around. However, the volume of transactions was much less than in the morning. After all, this did not seem like a temple fair. There would be people leaving from time to time, there would also be people coming in from time to time.

The number of people here was fixed. Once they went out, they would not be able to come in again. Therefore, they only had one chance. Whether they could grasp it or not depended on themselves. Therefore, there were a lot fewer people than in the morning. There were also a lot of people who had left the venue.

Therefore, there were very few people who could still buy things here.

Even Zhu Meina, who loved shopping, didn't really want to buy anything anymore. So, she just sat on the chair and waited for the performance.

Yan Huan sat next to Zhu Meina. She still leaned lazily on the chair, waiting for these performances that Zhu Meina couldn't forget. There were also things that were rumored to be magical.

When the program above started, Yan Huan unexpectedly sat up straight. Of course, he perked up. The first few acts were all thrilling and so on. Even the president and the king of a certain country., had watched such a program together. And today, they had also witnessed it. They had actually enjoyed the treatment of an emperor.

It had to be said that these programs were varied. They were thrilling and exciting. It could be said that they could be brought to the stage. There were also some programs that were extremely thrilling and could make people involuntarily scream, the thrilling ones also made Yan Huan feel that he had not waited in vain. He had not sat there in vain. He had not even wasted half a day of his time here.

At the end of the program, he began to draw the style. Perhaps there was a sudden appearance of a so-called common appreciation of elegance and vulgarity. At the end of the program, in Yan Huan's eyes, it was a little low-class.

Perhaps everyone was a dark existence deep in their bones. They were wrapped in a perfect shell. For too long, even they had forgotten what their original appearance was?

And now, they had only brought out another side of themselves. No matter how crazy they were, no one could know.

The programs above also became more and more vulgar. Men and women wore fewer clothes, and they were all handsome men and beautiful women. They were even bold enough to perform in certain aspects.

Yan Huan stood up, and Zhu Meina also followed. Actually, she wanted to watch, but it was obvious that Yan Huan did not like these things. Of course, this was not the end. There was still a show after this, and it might even be those people on the stage, they would even be auctioned off

As for Zhu Meina, she had eaten too much right now. When she was full, she just wanted to digest her food. People said that it kept her warm and reminded her of lust, but she had never heard of it before. What should she do if she was full from eating? What was there to feel like eating.

Yan Huan went to the door and showed his card. She had basically paid for everything she wanted to buy. Zhu Meina did not have any yet, so Zhu Meina naturally brought enough money. As long as she did not buy that man, the things she bought., it was definitely enough. When she saw the things Yan Huan bought, she was stunned.

“You bought fish?”

“This fish is beautiful.”Yan Huan smiled but did not say anything. These things were all stored in her small sports car. Fortunately, although the sports car was a little small, it was not a problem to store these things.

The car directly drove out. As for whether she could come again next time, that would really depend on luck.

The sports car also drove all the way to the Lu family. The Liuyuan Garden was a little far from the Lu family. If it were any other time, she would have preferred to return to the Liuyuan Garden. However, it was different now, she also brought so much food. If she took these food to the Liuyuan Garden and brought them back, they might have to cool down. Although they had been carefully insulated, the temperature would still change with time, as time passed, even the taste of the food became lighter.

Chapter 1565: Mommy Is Back

Just as the car stopped, the Lu family's door opened. Lu Yi came out with three children.

"Ba Ba, is Mommy Back?" Xiao Guang raised his head and asked his father. They had been waiting for mommy to come back. When they saw the car outside the window, they knew that someone was coming, but was it Mommy, they didn't know that they were missing their mother.

Lu Yi shook Xiao Guang's little hand.

"Yes, Mommy is back."

"Then, did mommy bring anything delicious for Xunxun?" Xunxun was now a little calumny cat. She had grown up, and her two brothers were growing taller, but she was really good. She hadn't grown a centimeter this year., instead, she had become a little foodie who only knew how to eat every day. It really made ye Shuyun not know whether to laugh or cry. It was just that such a child who could eat so much did not seem to grow up.

The car stopped and Yan Huan raised her hand at Lu Yi. Lu Yi understood and handed the three children over to the nanny at home to take care of them first.

He walked over and realized that there were quite a few things in the car.

"These are ours." Yan Huan pointed at the things in the car. The big ones were all hers because there was a fish tank with those big-eyed fish in it.

Lu Yi fell in love with these big-eyed fish when he saw them.

Perhaps there were some things that were engraved in his heart. He did not remember them clearly, but he did remember them. He had always kept these fish because they were Yan Huan's favorite. He had always taken care of them carefully, in the end, not a single one of these fish died. That was why he understood the habits of these fish. He touched the fish tank. The water in the tank was still slightly warm, and he heaved a sigh of relief, these fish lived in a relatively warm water all year round. It looked like he had to find someone to make a fish tank tomorrow. Otherwise, the fish might not live for more than a few days.

Lu Yi picked up the fish tank. It was not too heavy, but it was still okay.

The other things were not too heavy. They looked a little more, but they were not heavy. There was also a gemstone and two paintings. They were also very light. Even the notebook that Yan Huan bought for Lu Yi., they were almost so light that they did not have any weight.

Lu Yi took these things back home. After putting the fish away, the children squatted on the ground curiously.

They had never seen such a fish before. The fish were very beautiful and came from half a foot away. They were fat and had a pair of big, flexible eyes. They were not afraid of people.

The fish had to be served well. Lu Yi ordered a fish tank overnight. It was best to make it overnight and deliver it tomorrow. Otherwise, the fish would die very soon.

"The fish are really beautiful." Ye Shuyun squatted down with the children and told them about the fish and its color. The three children were happily chatting with their grandmother about the fish, their little voices were so cute that they almost melted the adults.

Yan Huan took out two more boxes and gave one to old master Lu.

Old Master Lu harrumphed. However, he was naturally happy to receive a gift. After so many years, this country would change easily, and it was hard to change one's nature. Old Master Lu still put on his airs, however, his expression was one of satisfaction.

However, when Yan Huan gave Lu Jin another gift, the old father and son started to lose their face.

"I knew I would get a share."

Lu Jin was not anxious at all. Otherwise, he would not have been so calm when he saw the old man's smug expression just now. He would have died from the pain

In any case, as long as he knew that he had a share, it was fine. He just did not know what was inside.

He opened it impatiently, but when he saw the painting inside, he was shocked. Wasn't this Ouyang Xiu's? He recognized it at a glance, and quickly ran into his study to study it.

Old Master Lu also opened his own painting, and inside it was also a painting. It was actually from a famous family. This one was a calligraphy piece, but it was clearly more precious. Old Master Lu couldn't sit still anymore. He also moved his buttocks, and in the end, he couldn't help but stand up. He also wanted to study this properly, and he even said that it wasn't a father and son, he even said that he picked it up. Wasn't this a father and son? Originally, everyone didn't approve of father and son. Now, they were becoming more and more alike.

"Is there one for me?" Lu Yi asked Yan Huan. "There is." Yan Huan pointed to a box. From the looks of it, the outer packaging wasn't that eye-catching.

"This is yours. The fish is for mom," Yan Huan said again.

Every single one of them had it.

Yes, every single one of them had it. She had it too. She had three children too. As for the three children, they were all part of this feast from all over the world.

Yan Huan placed the dishes that she had brought back on the table. Fortunately, she did not drive too slowly. The food that she had brought back from the gang had only taken about half an hour at most, therefore, there was no need to return the dishes to the pot. There were also a few dishes that were extremely hot to the mouth. Of course, they could maintain the original taste of the ingredients.

A few children stood in front of the table with their small hands on the table. They wanted to see what was different about today's meal. Unfortunately, the three of them were still too small, xiao Qi Xiaoguang could barely see a few large portions of spaghetti, but Xun Xun was almost half a head shorter than her brother. No matter how hard she weighed her little toes, it was impossible for her to see what was on the table.

Fortunately, Ye Shuyun was afraid that the children would overturn the table, so she directly fixed the table here. Otherwise, even though the weight of the three little ones was not much, one was still okay, but if three of them were counted.., it was really easy to overturn the table.

The more she grew up, the more careful she became.

"Grandma, Carry Xun Xun." As expected, the little girl found herself a helper.

Ye Shuyun hurriedly came over and carried her granddaughter. Xun Xun was still the same as before, as if she hadn't grown at all. She was still taking small steps. She was worried that the child wouldn't grow tall in the future, but.., he Yibin had said that the child's growth was normal. It wasn't that she grew slowly. It could only be said that Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang grew too fast. Xun Xun wasn't considered short in kindergarten, and she wouldn't grow askew in the future, at least she would be taller than her mother, and her mother wasn't short either. 163 was considered average among women. They were all above average height.

Ye Shuyun carried Xun Xun and let her see the things on the table. Even ye Shuyun had never seen these things before, and they smelled really good. Xun Xun sucked on her little finger, then, she pointed at the big plates on the table. "Grandma, Xun Xun wants to eat noodles."

Chapter 1566: be careful not to eat too much and get fat

"Sure, let's eat noodles. Grandma will make noodles for our xun Xun later."

"Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, do you want some noodles?" Ye Shuyun asked her two grandsons. The two grandsons were different from Xun Xun. Xun Xun didn't like meat very much, but the two boys liked it very much, therefore, they sometimes ate different things from Xun Xun. They would add more meat to their rice, but Xun Xun's rice only had some minced meat, so she couldn't tell. Although she wasn't as picky as she was when she was young now.., she also ate some meat, but compared to other children, she still ate less.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang nodded at the same time.

Ye Shuyun put Xun Xun down. Xun Xun turned around and ran to Yan Huan. She also threw herself into Yan Huan's arms.

"Mama, Xun Xun is going to eat noodles in a while."

"Then she will eat it obediently. If she can't finish a bowl, she will be a little rascal."

Xun Xun raised her little face unwillingly.

"Xun Xun will definitely finish the noodles. I Won't be a little rascal."

Yan Huan pinched her daughter's bulging little face. She was just like a little squirrel, with more flesh on her face. It was really easy to pinch. After she finished pinching her daughter, she came to pinch her two sons.

Xiao Guang still smiled shyly. As for Xiao Qi, she was as old as ever. However, in front of her mother, she was still just a child. They could not avoid the fate of their mother pinching their little faces.

However, the three children loved their mother very much. If an ordinary person wanted to touch their little cheeks, they would not be able to.

They were all very proud children.

Ye Shuyun took three small bowls from the disinfection cabinet in the kitchen. They were still the same. The small bowls were divided into different colors. The pink ones were Xunxun, the blue ones were uneven, and the green ones were Xiao Guang's

Ye Shuyun carefully cut the spaghetti into pieces with scissors. They were cut into small sections and segments, one inch at a time. It was convenient for children to eat with spoons. They were still small and did not know how to use chopsticks.

There were also other things that were carefully cut into pieces and placed in their small bowls. Among them, there was a type of prawn that looked very delicious.

"Alright, let's eat." Ye Shuyun set up the three small bowls.

The three children looked at the table. Each of them was drooling. It was also time for them to eat. The children had never suffered from hunger since they were young. Of course, they could not be hungry. How could ye Shuyun Bear to let her grandchildren starve? Therefore, she always fed their small stomachs until they were full. It was also thanks to Grandmother's meticulous care of the three of them. Otherwise.., how could all of them be so strong? Their arms and legs were now very sturdy, and they were taller than most children. Other than the good genes their parents gave them.., it was also because Grandma worked hard to feed them one by one.

Every day, she took care of their stomachs so carefully. She fed them three meals a day, and she did not repeat the nutritious and delicious meals for them. Fortunately, all her efforts were in vain.

Look, all of them were fair and tender. They were all three-year-old children now. They were beautiful, cute, and healthy. Ye Shuyun's heart was really focused on her three grandsons every day, she did not feel anything else. All her thoughts were focused on her three children.

Lu Yi carried the three children to their small chairs and placed the small bowls in front of them. In each small bowl, there were noodles and side dishes. They looked very delicious, but.., the noodles were all cut into small pieces, which was convenient for them to eat.

These dishes looked very exquisite, but when they were not eaten, they did not know how they tasted?

Yan Huan believed that they would definitely like to eat them very much. Of course, if they liked them, it would not be in vain for her to bring these things back from so far away.

Lu Jin and old master Lu were obviously in a very good mood today. It was likely that the painting had been sent to their hearts. However, they did not know what agreement they had reached, and they did not quarrel.

“Eh, the taste of these dishes is really special?” Lu Jin took a bite and felt that the taste of the dishes today was very good. The appearance was so exquisite that people could not bear to move their chopsticks. As for the ingredients for cooking., they could not even think of it.

“Yeah, I tasted it after taking a bite.” Ye Shuyun usually ate a lot of delicious food when she was at home, so under normal circumstances, she did not eat much. However, she was surprised today., she could not control her mouth all of a sudden. Even the three children did not speak. They ate the noodles in their bowls one bite at a time. Their small faces were also chubby, each of them was like those little goldfish. They were very cute. Of course, they also loved to eat.

“Mama, Xun Xun has finished eating.” Xun Xun picked up her small bowl. Her pair of big, watery eyes kept blinking. “Xun Xun still wants to eat.”

She asked in a childish voice. Her small stomach wasn't full yet?

“Yes, there's a portion for you.” Yan Huan gave the children another small bowl of rice. He couldn't give them more. If they ate too much, they would be full.

Later on, he had to give them more soup.

The three children were given another small bowl of noodles, but they were all finished. Then, each of them drank a small bowl of soup. This way, their stomachs would be full.

“Where did this come from?” Lu Jin was enjoying the food. “Did you poach this chef?” Lu Jin was actually joking. However, if he could eat such delicious food every day., he must be living a very enjoyable life.

“It was made by a foreign chef. He has already returned to China.” Yan Huan didn't dare to say it out loud. This was made by a bunch of domestic and foreign chefs with great care. Moreover, she didn't dare to say how much this table was worth, moreover, even if they didn't lack money, it wouldn't be easy for them to eat again in the future.

“What a pity.” Lu Jin indeed felt that it was a pity. The dishes tasted quite good. Look, even the three small ones ate half a bowl of rice today.

“Eat your food and speak less.” Old Master Lu rolled his eyes at Lu Jin, “If you eat like this every day, I think you will die of obesity.”. “Although the current era is good and life is good, we still have to think hard to make it sweet. There are so many dishes today, and there are only a few people in the family. How many do you want left? In my opinion, it's fine as long as the food at home is simple. Don't make it so complicated and wasteful.”

“Yes, father, I've learned my lesson.”

Lu Jin would naturally listen to his old father's lesson. He also felt that it was better to eat less of these dishes. Their stomachs were only a little big, and they were old. They also had to pay attention to their health, they should eat less meat and more vegetables and more coarse grains on a daily basis. Such dishes could be eaten once in a while. If they ate it every day, it would indeed be unbearable

Chapter 1567: might be hypnosis

Lu Yi and Yan Huan took the three children out to digest their food. When they returned, the three children were all tired. Yan Huan held the hands of the two children in each hand. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang rubbed their eyes and also wanted to sleep.

As for Xun Xun, she had already fallen asleep on her father's shoulders when her father carried her.

When Ye Shuyun saw that her three children had fallen asleep, she hurriedly came over to carry Xun Xun. She also brought the three little ones to sleep. In a while, she had to wipe their hands and faces. She took care of the three little babies by herself, she did not feel annoyed.

And now, she could not fall asleep without seeing her three little babies for a day.

These three were now her lifeblood. She could not leave them every day. On the contrary, it was impossible for Lu Yi and Yan Huan to bring the children over to take care of them for a few days. The three mountains in the house were pressing down on them, even if they wanted to, they could not do anything.

When Lu Yi brought Yan Huan back to the Liuyuan Garden, Yan Huan was so sleepy that he did not want to speak. Although he did not walk too much today, he had stood there for an entire day. He only took a short nap in the middle, other times, he would stand. This was no less than shopping for an entire day. Of course, her shopping was not as good as Zhu Meina's. Zhu Meina wore high heels for an entire day, and she even wore heels that were more than ten centimeters long, Yan Huan really admired Zhu Meina. Just based on this point alone, she did not seem to be as ruthless as Zhu Meina.

"Go to sleep." Lu Yi covered her with the blanket.

Yan Huan opened his eyes. Perhaps he still wanted to say something to him, but in the end, he was too sleepy. She fell asleep in a daze. When she woke up, she was already in her room, but she was still sleepy, she hugged the blanket and only opened her eyes after a long time. She pointed at the two boxes on the table and said, "The big one is for you, the small one is for me."

"I got it. Go to sleep." Lu Yi tucked the blanket in for her and let her sleep well. She was already so tired. It seemed that she would not be able to recover her spirit in just a few days.

She was just fine. Why was she so careless.

When Yan Huan woke up again, he realized that Lu Yi was still awake. He was sitting in front of the table. There were two computers on the table. One was old and the other was new. It was the one that Yan Huan bought from there.

She carefully sat up, pulled the blanket away, and leaned on Lu Yi's shoulder.

"How was it? Did you like the present I gave you?"

"Yes, I liked it very much. This is a high-end item. Where did you get it?" Whether it was the fish, the dishes, or the computer, none of them were ordinary items.

Where did she go today? Why didn't she tell him?

"I went to an underground trade fair, not on the surface." Yan Huan was still leaning on Lu Yi's shoulder. Of course, he wouldn't hide anything from him, "It was Zhu Meina who brought me there. It's an underground organization. The things sold there are all strange things. I found these there."

"There will also be people and organ sales there." Yan Huan thought about the man and woman who were now thinking about the auction and felt a little strange.

"I clearly felt that the person was very ordinary, just that his figure was a little better and he was a little more beautiful. However, it wasn't to the point where he would drive people crazy. The woman sold it for 100 million while the man sold it for 250 million." It could be seen that.., a woman's spending power was really much higher than a man's.

She once again recalled the crowd that was almost going crazy at that time. She couldn't help but touch her arm. Why did she suddenly feel a little cold.

Lu Yi held her hand. "Why? You're not interested in a man who would drive a woman crazy?"

"No." Yan Huan wrapped her arms around Lu Yi's neck and rested her chin on his shoulder, "I feel like he's not as good as my husband. He's not as handsome as my husband, he's not as tall as my husband, and his figure isn't as good as mine."

"And he seems to be a sissy." She frowned. She hated sissies the most in her life. They were the kind of men who relied on women to get ahead and make a fortune, just like Lu Qin.

Therefore, she hated people like Lu Qin very much.

As for that green-eyed man, she didn't know his personality yet. However, he had the appearance of a pretty boy, so she didn't take a lot of money and prepare to throw it at him like other women did, she also didn't think of throwing it at him.

Moreover, not to mention asking her to throw money, even if it was given to her for free, she would not want it.

"Tell me, why are women so crazy? Have they been drugged?" Yan Huan asked Lu Yi curiously. Zhu Meina was also crazy. Her intuition was telling her.

There was something strange about that man.

"It could be some kind of hypnosis," Lu Yi was not sure. This was just his feeling. "It's like in our ancient martial arts, there is an illusion that can make others have a certain favorable impression of themselves."

Yan Huan felt that this might be the case.

She then hugged Lu Yi's waist tightly. This was the way she liked to be with him the most. The amount of time that they had spent together was actually not that much. Ten years of being together, ten years of being together.., in fact, after removing those twists and turns, how many more would there be? In fact, even Yan Huan did not dare to calculate it. If he really wanted to calculate it, it would be pitifully few.

"In the future, go to fewer places like that. It's too dangerous." Lu Yi's voice was a little reprimanding. This person was a little too bold. Why was he running around everywhere? He had heard of that kind of trade fair before, no matter how many safety measures there were, there would still be accidents. What green-eyed Man? If he was really seduced by a green-eyed man, he would find her wherever he wanted to go and bring her back.

"I got it. I Won't go in the future." Yan Huan didn't think about going any further, and she heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. Fortunately, she hadn't told Lu Yi about the performance she saw at the end. If those things were found out by Lu Yi., she didn't know if he would punish her for not eating for a few days, or if he wouldn't let Zhu Meina cut ties with him in the future.

"I'll go and cook some noodles for you."

Yan Huan stood up. Judging from Lu Yi's appearance, he would probably be busy for some time. Actually, they didn't eat much today. They could taste those things, but it was impossible for them to fill their stomachs.

Yes, Lu Yi also wanted to eat the noodles made by Yan Huan. No matter how delicious the noodles he made were, he had to change the taste occasionally

"Go ahead." Lu Yi stood up and adjusted the hair that hung on her shoulders. He saw that her complexion was pretty good, and she looked like she was eager to give it a try. He didn't stop her.

Yan Huan walked into the kitchen. However, as soon as he entered, he yibin arrived as if he had been informed in advance. He arrived just as she arrived.

"Why are you here today?"

He Yibin thought that it would be Lu Yi, but it was not. It was Yan Huan.

Chapter 1568: was too gluttonous

"He's busy. I'll cook today's noodles. Do you still want to Eat?"

Yan Huan asked he yibin, "Why don't you wait for me to finish cooking before it's Your Turn?"

"There's no need." He Yibin shook his head awkwardly. "You don't know what kind of noodles I'll cook. You just need to cook two more people."

"Sure." Yan Huan didn't mind. She just needed to cook two more bowls. It didn't take much effort. She began to knead the noodles and then rolled out the noodles. This would take a longer time, but she wasn't in a hurry either, he Yibin did not seem to be in a hurry, which meant that she could still wait. Well, it was good that she could wait. She was really afraid that she would really starve that pregnant woman because of her.

Today, she had mostly prepared some noodles and prepared to cook four bowls of noodles.

What she cooked was soup noodles. There were eggs, fungus, tofu, and vegetables in it. The taste was pretty good, and there were a lot of eggs. It was very enjoyable to eat. The main thing was that the soup taste of the noodles was very good, Yan Huan liked to eat it, and so did Lu Yi. As for Rowling's taste, Yan Huan did not know yet. If he did not like it, he yibin would cook it himself.

And she really did not believe that he yibin did not know how to cook noodles.

Of course, he Yibin really knew how to cook noodles. However, he only knew how to cook a bowl of terrible instant noodles. He himself did not really eat it, let alone a pregnant woman like Rowling. She was most likely able to cook it, it was also difficult to swallow.

Yan Huan passed two bowls of noodles to he yibin. She and Lu Yi each took one bowl.

She placed the bowl on the table while Lu Yi was still putting the two notebooks together. Yan Huan did not know what he was doing. Lu Yi said that he was cloning the information in the notebook into a new notebook, the new notebook was obviously much more useful. The most important thing was that it was very light and could be taken out at will. This was not an ordinary notebook. This notebook was practically the most recent electronic technology, apart from being able to do work, it was also an electronic tracker. In that case, this computer would not be lost if it was correct

There were other uses for it. Lu Yi was not very clear about it now, but he would study it in the future

Yan Huan passed the chopsticks to Lu Yi. Lu Yi sat down and placed the bowl in front of him to eat.

Yan Huan was a woman who was not bad at cooking. She had good cooking skills. Of course, the noodles she cooked were also delicious. Moreover, she had made this kind of noodles many times. No matter what, the temperature and the taste when she cooked the noodles., she could almost grasp the taste of the noodles very well.

Therefore, the taste of the noodles was in her heart. It could almost be said that it was as straight as a palm

Lu Yi ate a mouthful of the noodles. mm, the taste was not bad.

As for Luo Lin, she had already finished a bowl of noodles. Even so, she still coveted the remaining half of he Yibin's bowl.

"You can't eat anymore." He Yibin was afraid of Luo Lin. "The director said not to let you eat more. In the end, you still eat like that every day. It's not enough to be brazen, but you still have to eat secretly."

Therefore, aside from the main meal, how many meals did she have to eat to be full?

"If you don't let me eat, I'll tell your mother." Luo Lin took the noodles from he yibin's hands without saying anything and placed them in front of her. This noodles tasted good and she liked to eat it. So what., you still won't let me eat? If you want to starve to the point of a pregnant woman, can you be any more shameless?

Didn't he see that she was pregnant? Why did pregnant women always push her around when she wanted to eat? Did they still treat her as a pregnant woman?

When he yibin heard this, he couldn't put down his hands in the air.

"It's always this kind of excuse. Can we change to something else?"

However, Luo Lin didn't want to change. As long as he Yibin dared to make a mistake, she would immediately throw he Yibin's mother out. Even if she threw her own mother out, she would also let he yibin suffer under the torture of three women, almost all of them were living a life worse than death. They had also suffered a great deal of torture. Right now, he was just hoping that his child would be born. Perhaps, his suffering would also come to an end.

However, when would this end? When he saw that Rowling finished half a bowl of noodles, but still looked as if she had finished the rest, his heart trembled. Oh God, how could she eat so much?

"Is there any more?" Rowling was indeed not very satisfied because she was not full. She wanted to eat another bowl now. No, half a bowl was enough.

"There's no more." He Yibin hurriedly put away the two bowls.

"Great-aunt, we're eating and living under someone else's roof now. What else can you ask for? Can you ask someone to cook for you every day?"

"The noodles are made by Yan Huan. I don't dare to ask Yan Huan to make noodles for you. If I dare to say it, we can pack up and leave tomorrow."

"Alright, I got it." Rowling still had eyes for these noodles. In the end, she had no choice but to ask he Yibin to pour her a cup of water. She sat there and drank, filling her stomach that was not full yet, she had to drink until she was full.

At this moment, Yan Huan had already finished preparing the bowls in the kitchen. She was still thinking about whether she could change to another type of noodles the next day. If she only ate this type of noodles every day, she was afraid that if she continued to eat it, no matter how delicious the noodles were.., she was also going to get sick of it. mm, she would think carefully about what kind of noodles she wanted to make. Moreover, it had to be the kind that was easier to digest.

Although there were many varieties of noodles, no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't make them too hard. Although it was satisfying to eat like this, if she ate too much, she might suffer from indigestion.

She had been thinking about what kind of noodles she wanted to make all night, but she still couldn't think of what to make. In the end, she still felt that it was better to make soup noodles, but she could turn the noodles into flag-flower noodles.., the noodles were thin, so she decided to try it tonight.

When she opened her eyes again, the sky was already bright, and she habitually touched the blanket on one side. There was no warmth left, and she rolled over to Lu Yi's side, the blanket still had his scent, and she couldn't bear to leave.

However, it was time to get up. The pregnant woman had already woken up

In a while, Yi Ling would be coming over to discuss the first two filming with them. They had never avoided talking about this with Yan Huan. Of course, they had never asked Yan Huan about it.

Yan Huan's role was to fatten himself up a little. He wanted to return to his previous state within a year. Although it was impossible for him to return to his previous peak, at the very least.., he couldn't be so sickly that he would gasp for breath after taking a few steps. If that was the case, how could he continue filming? They hoped that Yan Huan would be as determined as he was in the past.

Chapter 1569: human nature can not be ruthless

But now, it was a bit of a pity. Yan Huan felt that he was getting old. He really couldn't put it together anymore.

That was how we were. The two of them were still discussing. In my opinion, this team was the best. Yi Ling and the team that had confirmed the previous one. We could rest assured about their technology, mainly because they had cooperated once, so no matter what, there was more or less a tacit understanding between them. Rowling nodded. I had the same thought. Let's not talk about other things first. We can start on the technical side now.

The two women were chattering non-stop. Yan Huan took a bowl of soup and placed it on the table.

"That..."

She carefully interrupted.

"Adults speak, children should not interrupt."

Yi Ling directly threw out a sentence.

Yan Huan blinked. May I ask, what kind of child is she? Yi Ling also realized that she had said the wrong thing. She coughed awkwardly, "We are talking about professional sexual issues now. It's better for you not to interrupt. You are not on the same line as us. What you need to do now is to eat and sleep..."

"And then wait to be killed by you?"

Yan Huan sighed faintly.

"Can I say something?"

"Yes, you say it." Yi Ling was naturally quite humane. If Yan Huan wanted to have his own ideas, then they would naturally welcome it. It was just that the question of whether he could accept it in the end was not too easy to say at the moment.

Yan Huan put the spoon to his mouth again.

"I don't plan to act. You guys can look for a new actor."

"You Don't plan to Act?" Yi Ling's voice was almost instantly raised to the top.

"Yan Huan, are you joking with me?"

At this moment, Yan Huan had a serious expression on his face. He definitely would not joke. She would not joke first. At the very least, she would not joke about this matter.

She did not want to shoot the film. Shooting the film was too tiring. Even if she wanted to shoot it, she only wanted to make a cameo appearance. That was all. Those injuries would take up a lot of time, and she would be running around everywhere. She did not want to shoot it.

“Yan Huan, say one more sentence for me.”

Yi Ling narrowed her eyes. There was a strong sense of threat in her voice. Say it, say one more sentence for her.

Yan Huan raised his face again and said very clearly, word by word, “I don’t want to shoot it.”

“Yan Huan, how Dare You?”

Yi Ling stood up with a whoosh. One of her hands was placed on her waist and the other was pointing at Yan Huan.

“Yan Huan, tell me, in what lifetime did I, Yi Ling, commit the sin of having an artist like you?”

Her tone was a little strange. Why did it feel like she was scolding her son? Yi Ling’s mind went blank and she quickly pulled back the nerves that she had pulled out. She then lectured Yan Huan in a serious manner.

“Yan Huan, listen to me carefully. This time, you have to do it. Even if you don’t do it, it’s still going to be done. Linlang is yours as well. Now, everything is being prepared. We have no choice but to do it. If you don’t do it, you know what we will lose and what we will lose. My and Rowling’s faces are Linlang’s reputation. It’s the hard work that Rowling and I have put in for so many years. This isn’t something that you can destroy just because you say so.”

Rowling kept nodding her head. Her meaning was obvious. Yan Huan had to take a picture if he wanted to.

Yi Ling pointed at Yan Huan’s nose again. She wanted to scold Yan Huan. Yan Huan stood up and slowly walked into the kitchen in front of the two exasperated women. Then, from inside.., she scooped some soup from her bowl and sat on the sofa to drink it.

Alright, she knew that it was to drive her, this duck, to death.

In fact, she really did not want to film. However, there were times in this world where there were so many things that she could not do anything about, but it was not something that she wanted to do.

This was the case everywhere in life.

And human nature couldn’t be heartless.

The two women talked about shooting movies. For example, they needed to build a filming site now. Their first choice was the primeval forest, which was a good place they went to last time, moreover, with their previous experience, they already knew how to take such a picture.

First of all, they had to have electricity there. Last time, they used mostly generators. It wasn’t that the generators weren’t working, but that the sound was too loud. Occasionally, they could use them, but.., if they really had to use them every day, then they really couldn’t stand it.

There were also places to live. The conditions for them to take photos of the upper part weren't very good. Everyone lived in tents, and the warmth of tents was very poor. So when they were filming that movie, they could simply say that they suffered every day, therefore, this time, they had to have a decent place to live. The most important thing for him now was to build some houses, so he had to use cement and concrete, so., they were going to build some houses there. Of course, they were also going to build mobile homes that did less harm to resources.

And they had to go to the Environmental Protection Bureau. Thinking about it, it should be about the same. Even if it was really destroyed in the future, they might have to pay some fines, so there was nothing they could do. After all, they had to succeed, they had to pay. It didn't matter if it was them or the others.

These were things that had to be resolved now.

Yi Ling and Luo Lin, the pregnant women, were studying these things. As for Lu Yi, he took the time to return to the Lu family. He had already ordered people to order a fully enclosed ecological fish tank overnight, they were also preparing to put the fish in. Otherwise, the fish would be very difficult to raise. They would soon be able to make fish soup.

This was a fish tank that was about 1.5 meters tall and about two meters long. The fish tank was not very thick. It was placed against the wall. Inside the fish tank, there were all kinds of aquatic plants, rockery, and half-smooth stones.

This fish tank was very expensive. The expensive part was that it was a simulated ecosystem. It could avoid changing the water. Moreover, the aquatic plants inside could grow freely. Therefore, this fish tank., many things were alive, including the living fish. There was also an electric heating device that allowed the water in the fish tank to be within a certain temperature.

Lu Yi brought out the fish tank. Fortunately, not a single one died.

This kind of fish was too delicate. He did not know why Yan Huan liked this kind of fish, but he had to admit that being delicate also had the advantage of being demonic. It was beautiful, very beautiful.

Grass carp were easy to raise, but who would raise grass carp in a fish tank.

The fish in the fish tank were very delicate fish, and the fish that Yan Huan brought back were just a little more delicate.

When the three children came back, they were all lying in front of the fish tank. They loved this kind of big-eyed fish.

Lu Yi walked over and squatted in front of the three children, holding them in his arms.

"Babies, this is fish, will be your good friends."

Chapter 1570: When you're old, just cut it open

"Pull pull, will the fish talk to Xun Xun?"

Xun Xun asked her father in her childish voice. Of course, the words that came out of her mouth were children's words.

"They will welcome you home."

Lu Yi smiled and touched his daughter's little face. This kind of fish was very smart and would really welcome people, especially after they were cooked. When they saw people, it was like seeing food, very kind.

During countless lonely nights, Lu Yi was accompanied by these fish that could not talk. In the end, he was isolated and accompanied by these fish.

These fish were not only Yan Huan's memories, they were also his.

He also hoped that these fish could accompany his three children to grow up. It would also become a memory that would appear from the beginning of the chronicle.

The three children all liked this kind of fish. As expected, they knew how to interact with fish. This kind of fish was really too beautiful, especially the small crystal-like body that swam around from time to time, it was just like an artifact made from transparent crystals.

Of course, this was also now. When Ye Shuyun came out to pour water for herself to drink, she was shocked when she saw the fish tank outside.

She hurriedly pulled Lu Jin up. Not to mention Ye Shuyun, even Lu Jin, who was used to all kinds of situations, was a little stunned because it was too beautiful.

Transparent and luminous fish had all kinds of colors. At this moment, the fish bodies were emitting a soft light. Under the soft light, it seemed that even their bones and gills could be seen clearly.

It was no wonder that Lu Yi wanted to raise them in such a big fish tank. At that time, Ye Shuyun did not understand. However, there were only a dozen fish, so there was really no need for such a big fish tank. In fact, a small fish tank was enough.

Only now did they know that if they used a small fish tank, it would really be unfair to these fish. This was because the most beautiful part of these fish was not during the day, but in the dead of night, the changes on their bodies were almost shocking.

Ye Shuyun really liked these fish too much. Because they were too beautiful, she would come over every night to take a look. She could not bear to take her eyes off them.

It was already around 1 pm.

Yan Huan brought in two bowls of noodles. They were the flagstaff noodles that she had thought of yesterday. The noodles were very thin and had tomatoes, beans, potatoes, and carrots added to them, there was also the wooden fungus that was cut into thin shreds. There were also very fresh and tender green vegetables. There was also a bit of chili oil that gave one an appetite

Today's noodles were really good.

Lu Yi walked over and sat down. He also ate a mouthful of noodles. No matter how he changed it, the taste of each bowl of noodles was very delicious. Don't doubt Yan Huan's culinary skills. She was not a woman who could not differentiate between grains. When necessary., she could cook a whole table of dishes. Her culinary skills were not inferior to that of a chef.

Therefore, Yan Huan's noodles were quite delicious. Moreover, there were many dishes and few noodles in this bowl. Even the noodles were thin slices of noodles. Therefore, she didn't feel bloated at all. Even if she ate two bowls, she would be fine.

In particular, there was a layer of red chili oil on top. It made people have an appetite. Of course, it was also delicious.

"This is yours." Lu Yi handed a small white box to Yan Huan. Yan Huan did not think much of it and just threw the box into the cabinet at the side. He did not even look at what was inside.

Yan Huan looked up and saw that Lu Yi had almost finished eating his noodles

"What's wrong? Aren't you full today?"

Although Lu Yi was not so busy now and did not need to work overtime until three or four o'clock, he still could not take care of his own food from time to time.

He had forgotten about it at noon. He hadn't even eaten a few mouthfuls of the rice delivered today when he was interrupted. When he remembered, the rice had already been mashed and he couldn't eat anymore. He didn't eat much at night either, so he was indeed hungry.

This bowl of noodles had more vegetables and less noodles. There was also more soup, so he didn't feel anything when he ate it. "I'll scoop another bowl. There's still some left in the pot. Yan Huan made a lot today, and it's not because she wanted to leave it for anyone. It's just that this is her first time making this kind of noodles, so she doesn't know how much is suitable." So she made a little more today.

If it was her and Lu Yi, half a pot would be enough. However, with a pregnant woman in the house, there was nothing to do. This was because she really couldn't measure the stomach capacity of that pregnant woman.

She took Lu Yi's bowl and went into the kitchen. She opened the pot and was about to give the remaining bowl to Lu Yi.

However, she was stunned when she opened the pot.

After being stunned, she wanted to cry. Her noodles were gone. Needless to say, she knew that it was taken away by that pregnant woman. However, they were given two big bowls. How could it not be enough?

She had no choice but to cook another bowl of tomato and egg noodles for Lu Yi. Fortunately, there were still some noodles. Of course, it was noodles, which she had specially placed here, otherwise, the pregnant woman was so hungry that she had no choice. There was nothing to eat. At the very least, she could cook a bowl of noodles for herself.

In the end, she did not expect that the noodles would not be given to the pregnant woman, but instead, it was eaten by Lu Yi.

When Yan Huan placed the bowl in front of Lu Yi, Lu Yi was stunned for a moment.

“Are there no noodles?”

Yan Huan shook his head. “No, they should have been taken by Luo Lin and the others.”

That Bowl of noodles could not have flown away for no reason. Furthermore, there was not even the last mouthful of soup left. This was Luo Lin’s personality. If she wanted to eat it, she would have taken it out of the pot.

Lu Yi did not mind that it was noodles. Even if it was noodles, it would still be delicious if it was cooked by Yan Huan.

He was also hungry now. A bowl of noodles did not let him eat to his heart’s content. Moreover, he had to work overtime today. If he did not eat to his heart’s content, he might not have much energy at night. Hence, it was better to eat until he was full.

Yan Huan could only think that if she wanted to make noodles tomorrow, she had to make more. Then, she had to prepare another bowl for them. Otherwise, there really would not be enough to eat.

In fact, she also felt that Rowling should limit her appetite. If she continued to eat like this, what if the child ate too much? However, if she wanted Rowling to answer this question, she would still say the same thing.

If she was older, then she would just dissect it. In any case, she did not want to give birth naturally. It was good that she was older and healthier.

Lu Yi continued to be busy with his work. Yan Huan fell asleep in a short while. She had rested well these few days. She woke up a little late in the morning, but her spirit was better. Her physical condition was also recovering bit by bit, if she continued in this state, she should be able to recover a little faster.

“What are you doing?” Rowling walked over with her stomach in her arms. As soon as she came out, she realized that Yan Huan seemed to be busy with something.

“I can eat the bean sprouts that were born a few days ago.”
