

Chapter 1621: gave birth to three at a time

It almost caused the Lu family to be destroyed and their families to be separated.

Eight billion, Heh... Lu Yi sneered. It was enough to kill at least two members of the Lu family, while the other would be imprisoned for life.

With such a ruthless heart, how much hatred did he have against them? could he really not tolerate a single member of the Lu Family?

And at this moment, he originally still had a trace of kinship with the Ye family, and he could no longer find it.

It was because his heart was hurt, and it was also because his heart was cold.

From now on, Ye Jianguo was no longer his grandfather, and he would no longer call him 'grandfather'. His mother, Ye Shuyun, was even more so. She would no longer acknowledge ye Jianguo as her foster father.

Their Lu family would no longer have any relations with the ye family in the future. As for the airport, they would wait for the Ye family to give them an explanation. If there was no explanation, then in the future, Ji Yang would belong to their Lu family, and they would have complete relations with the Ye family.

After all, they had bought it for eight billion yuan.

Lu Yi parked his car at the entrance of the kindergarten. The school was not far from the Lu family, so most of the time, Ye Shuyun came to pick up the children by herself. She had to walk, and as long as he drove over, the three little guys would know..., if they were to go to the kindergarten to see their mother...

At this time, there were already quite a number of parents standing at the entrance of the kindergarten. They were also here to pick up the children.

This kindergarten was a bilingual kindergarten. Whether it was the facilities or the teachers, they were all very good. Every meal was prepared according to nutrition. They were absolutely safe and at ease. Moreover, no matter where they were..., the school was equipped with surveillance cameras, and these surveillance cameras were all connected to the parents. As long as the parents wanted to see their children, they could see their children's daily life and learning situation on the computer.

Of course, this kindergarten was not so easy to get into. If one wanted to get in, they had to pay a certain amount of tuition fees and also have good connections. After all, the kindergarten did not have an unlimited number of students, there was a limit to the number of people in each class, and the teachers in the school were also meticulous in their division of labor. A teacher could only take care of five children at most. Of course, they were also very patient with children. After all, most of them were still children, moreover, those who could afford to go to their family's kindergarten were all from wealthy and noble families. If there was even the slightest mistake, it was possible that this kindergarten would be torn down by others.

Not long after, the gate of the kindergarten was opened. The teachers of the school also brought the children out. Each and every little child, from three to five years old, stood in an orderly manner.

There were already many luxury cars parked in the surroundings. It could be seen that the status of the children here was not too low.

Among them, the three children standing in the front were the most eye-catching because the others were standing in two rows. The children were also holding hands with their small hands. However, there were three standing together, so there were only the three of them, all the formations were broken.

There were two boys and a girl. The two little boys looked exactly the same. The little girl stood in the middle and was held by the Little Boy's hand. However, the little girl was very beautiful. Although everyone thought that their children were not bad-looking., they had to admit that this little girl really had red lips and white teeth. She was too beautiful.

Of course, those who had been here for a long time already knew that these three children were rare triplets. The two little boys were the older brothers, and the little girl was the younger sister. They were all taking one child after another, but they were taking three at once, they had grown up year after year. If there were triplets, the house would be very lively. It was a pity that they were not lucky enough to give birth to three at once.

To give birth to three at once, there were both men and women, and they were all so good-looking. Just how lucky was this family.

Of course, if they really met the child's mother, they might not have such a feeling. This was not only luck, but also heredity.

Lu Yi strode over.

As soon as Xun Xun saw her father, she held her brother's little hand and ran over. Usually, it was ye Shuyun and Lu Jin who picked up the children. Lu Jin carried Xun Xun Xun while ye Shuyun held one hand in each. Otherwise, if it were a person., the hands were not enough.

"Let's go, we're going home." Lu Yi reached out and carried Xun Xun up. Then, he gave one hand to his two sons. Xiao Qi held her father's big hand while the other small hand held her brother's small hand tightly, she was afraid that she would lose her little brother.

"Is Daddy going to take us to find Mommy?"

Xun Xun asked Lu Yi happily. However, tomorrow was not the weekend. Only on the weekend could they go to their mother's place to play. Their mother was going to earn money for their milk powder.

"En, I'll take you to find mommy today. Mommy has made delicious food and is waiting for you."

As Lu Yi spoke, he also put his daughter down. Then, he opened the car door and placed the children on it one by one. He let them sit on the child safety seats at the back.

The three children sat down obediently. Lu Yi fastened their seatbelts for them one by one before pinching Xun Xun's little face.

"Is Xun Xun obedient today? Did You Trouble Big Brother?"

This little spoiled brat was really getting more and more spoiled. Although she said that she was obedient when eating, she still had to be taken care of by her two big brothers who were the same age as her. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang not only had to help her sister beat up the bad guys, they also had to help her sister comb her hair, they also had to help her sister Pat her skirt and supervise her sister while she ate.

Xun Xun pouted her little mouth. "Ba Ba, Xun Xun is very well-behaved. She eats her own food and fruits."

"It's good that she's well-behaved." Lu Yi patted his two sons' little heads again. It was good that he knew that they were very well-behaved. There had been a lot of things going on at home recently, and even the children had become nervous. Fortunately, everything was fine. Fortunately., the weather had cleared up after the rain. Otherwise, he did not dare to imagine what he would do if the three children did not have him to take care of them in the future?

He drove back to the detention center. When he came, he had also told Yan Huan that the three children would be coming over today. When they went back, they could have dinner at the same time. They would talk about it at night, if Ye Shuyun was fine, he would talk about other things. If it was still not right, he would let the three children sleep with them.

When they arrived, Lu Yi carried the three children out one by one. They were still too young and very light, especially Xun Xun. She was about the same age as Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang when they were two, they were both half a head shorter than their two brothers. It was no wonder that no one treated them as triplets. Xun Xun looked much younger.

"Mommy, Mommy..."

Xunxun ran in and was about to look for her mother.

Yan Huan came out of the kitchen. She was cooking prawns for the children. Her three children were like her mother. They liked to eat oily prawns very much.

When Xunxun saw her mother come out, she immediately hugged her mother's legs.

"Mommy, what are you cooking for Xunxun and brother?"

"I want to cook the prawns for you. Daddy will peel them for you to eat later." Yan Huan was still holding a spatula in her hand. She really couldn't hug her.

Chapter 1622: the child was stolen

She squatted down and used her forehead to gently knock her daughter's small forehead.

"Baby, go and bring brother and father to wash their hands together. We can eat in a while."

“Okay.”Xun Xun happily nodded her small head and then ran over again. One of them also grabbed the brothers’small hands and asked father to bring them to wash their hands.

Yan Huan walked into the kitchen once again. The deep-fried prawns in the wok were ready. She took out all the prawns from the wok. As the children had eaten too much, she didn’t put any chili in. After this plate of prawns was made., each of them was very big and shiny. Their colors were bright red and they were made from fresh prawns.

Lu Yi brought the three children over and dressed them in little aprons to prevent them from dirtying their clothes. He carried them one by one to the chairs and sat them down.

Auntie gu scooped some rice into the small bowls for the three of them and placed them in front of the three children. As a father, Lu Yi did not eat them, but he had to serve the three children well, if they wanted to peel prawns for them to eat, they would give one to each of them. It was neither too much nor too little. Even if Xun Xun was a girl, she would not give an extra one to the youngest.

The love he gave to the three children was the same. The children of his family had never fought for favor.

After they finished eating, Auntie Gu brought the three children out to play. Only then did they finish eating. They also had to digest their food.

“Has the matter been resolved?”Yan Huan and Lu Yi were still eating. They were concerned about the three children, so they didn’t eat much. They were also hungry.

“It’s alright. Daddy will take care of the things at the airport.”Lu Yi peeled a prawn and placed it in front of Yan Huan. Yan Huan himself loved to eat the most, but in the end, he gave the three children the most, she didn’t eat much herself.

Yan Huan ate the prawn happily mainly because her mood was much more relaxed. Therefore, she also felt that her appetite was much better than before.

When she heard Lu Yi say that the matter had been resolved, regardless of the final destination of the airport, as long as she passed this crisis, it would be fine as long as she didn’t bring disaster to the Lu family in the future.

Thinking about it, from now on, they also needed to pay some attention.

There was really nothing impossible in this world, and there was also nothing absolute.

And what they needed to do was probably to take precautions before it happened. And perhaps it was because there was a master in the dark, that they could get past the most difficult hurdle because of that diamond.

It was a pity that they lost eight billion.

Yan Huan did not feel much heartache. He just did not know which person had gained the eight billion.

She picked up a prawn for herself and ate it. She made it herself, so of course, it tasted very good.

At night, Yan Huan gave the three children a bath. Then, he let them sleep well and told them stories.

“Alright.” Yan Huan covered the three children with blankets. “Do you understand that you have to sleep obediently?”

“I understand.” The three children obediently promised their mother that they would sleep.

Yan Huan stood up and saw that the three children were all sleeping on their own little beds. They were very obedient and their little faces were soft. It seemed that the food in the kindergarten was not bad, it had made them all fatter and they were all cute little fellows.

“How is it? Have you slept?”

Lu Yi walked in and saw Yan Huan placing his finger on his lips.

“Shh, Lower Your Voice. They’re all asleep.”

That was good. Lu Yi also heaved a sigh of relief, afraid that the children would not sleep well in another place. The three children were more often at the Lu family’s residence. They were all taken care of by Ye Shuyun and the two nannies, and there were fewer at the Liuyuan Garden.

He was afraid that they would not be used to it and cause trouble again, fortunately, the three children were very good and slept well. However, they should be sent back tomorrow.

At this time, Ye Shuyun opened her eyes out of habit and was about to walk out with her shoes on. Lu Jin did not think too much and thought that she was going to the bathroom.

She had been annoyed for two days and cried for two days. Finally, she was in good spirits. She could sleep and eat well.

However, in a short while, Ye Shuyun ran in and pulled away the blanket on Lu Jin.

“Old Lu, it’s bad. Who stole our children?”

Lu Jin lay flat and stared at the ceiling blankly.

How could he let anyone sleep.

“Old Lu, Get Up!” Ye Shuyun saw that Lu Jin was still lying on his back. She was so anxious that she wanted to strangle him. The three children had been stolen, how could he still fall asleep, she didn’t know how to find the children.

Lu Jin was still lying on his back. He didn’t move, didn’t get up, and didn’t reply.

Ye Shuyun gritted her teeth and directly picked up her pillow and smashed it on Lu Jin’s body.

Lu Jin was really unable to withstand ye Shuyun’s attack.

“What are you doing?” He really wanted to call ye Shuyun ‘Great Aunt’. could he let her sleep well? His hair had turned white from the worry he had for the past few days. It was not easy for him to have a good sleep

“Aren’t you going to look for the three children?” Ye Shuyun threw the pillow on the ground. She really wanted to step on Lu Jin’s face. “If anything happens to my grandson and granddaughter, I will definitely kill you.”

Lu Jin was as innocent as he could be.

“Didn’t Lu Yi take the children away? I told you that they were in the detention garden today.”

“Did he?” Ye Shuyun touched her head. It seemed that she had forgotten what Lu Jin had told her.

“Why didn’t he?” Lu Jin wanted to cry. “I’ve told you several times. Otherwise, why didn’t the children eat at home today? Didn’t you wake up after sleeping for a while?”

“I think so.” Ye Shuyun quickly pulled away the blanket and lay down. Of course, she didn’t dare to look at Lu Jin anymore. She had beaten him up for not sleeping in the middle of the night.

She thought about it again. Lu Jin really did say that he would let Lu Yi take the three children away, but the three children were not around. Why couldn’t she fall asleep.

“Lu Jin, I miss the children.”

Ye Shuyun loved children. She had to get up several times every night. Not seeing them for a day meant that she was thinking too hard. Moreover, it would take a few days. She had never been separated from her three grandsons, if they were separated for a day, it would be difficult for her to bear it, let alone for so many days.

“I’ll get Lu Yi to bring them back tomorrow. They still have school to attend.”

Lu Jin opened his eyes. Come on, if they were beaten, they were beaten. As long as Ye Shuyun did not mention anything about the Ye family, it would be fine.

Chapter 1623: the person who wrote the anonymous letter

Ye Shuyun really did not mention anything about the Ye family. She knew that after Lu Yi found a way to fill the gap, he did not mention the Ye family anymore. Even Ye Chuji., he did not mention Ye Xinyu’s name anymore.

Lu Jin also understood her, so he did not mention it anymore. He could just pretend that he did not have any relatives in the future. His face was already so torn. Did he still need to pretend to be close to her? There was really no need., his face was about to be torn.

The next day, Lu Jin asked Lu Yi to send the three children back so that Ye Shuyun wouldn’t let her imagination run wild. As long as the children were around, her heart would always be filled with grandchildren, so she wouldn’t think about other things.

As for the Ye family’s airport, he had already taken over it. Although he hadn’t gone there yet, the ownership of the airport was in his hands. As for the others, as long as they could get close to the Ye family’s airport, which was the core of the place., they would all have to be investigated.

On the fourth day, there were already people from above. As the Ye family's airport was suspected of being illegally transported, there was also the convenience tax situation. Therefore, an investigation had to be carried out.

Those people openly investigated. After they investigated for an entire day, they discovered that there were no problems within the Ye family. Moreover, the seizure of goods mentioned above was also something that did not exist, as for tax evasion and tax evasion, that was even more impossible. Wasn't it that electronic payment now? They had changed it to electronic payment of taxes. The various taxes had already been submitted. Just a few days ago, they had just paid it.

And the higher-ups checked the accounts again. Indeed, they had indeed paid it. They had paid it without missing a single cent. Therefore, there were no problems with the Ye family's airport. Even if it was a matter of details, they had done it very well.

However, it could not be said to be perfect. This was because there was no perfect matter in this world. Even if there was, there was no perfect place.

And for a large place like Ji Yang, it was definitely impossible to cover all aspects. However, there were some areas that could be ignored. After all, they were still developing towards those good areas and working hard.

Of course, this was also an internal matter of the airport. It had nothing to do with the others.

After these people left, everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

One of the men heaved a huge sigh of relief. When he found out that the airport was still operating normally, he was truly relieved this time.

He was none other than the person who had written an anonymous letter to Lu Yi. He had accidentally discovered that someone had tampered with the accounts. He also knew what the consequences would be if this matter was found out.

Therefore, he first informed Lu Yi in advance. If the Lu family had the ability, they might be able to escape this calamity, and the airport could also escape this calamity. Ji Yang was not only the Ye family's, but also those of them.., if something really happened at the airport, it would bring a devastating disaster to the Lu family. At the same time, it would also bring a devastating blow to the airport, and such a blow could be life-long.

What would happen to them at the airport? What would happen to the many employees under them? Therefore, he had no choice but to carefully plan this matter and inform the Lu family in advance. Fortunately, at least.., the crisis was averted.

Just as he finally relaxed and the gloominess on his face receded, he heard his cell phone in his pocket ring.

He took out his phone and saw a string of unfamiliar numbers.

"Hello..." he placed the phone by his ear.

"Mr. Xia Xinghe?"

A deep but pleasant voice came from the other end of the line. It was a voice that was so unfamiliar to Xia Xinghe that he couldn't recognize it.

"I'm Lu Yi."

The person on the other end of the line introduced himself, and Xia Xinghe was taken aback.

"Hello, Mr. Lu," he quickly recovered from his shock. He knew this day would come. After he sent the anonymous letter, he knew with Lu Yi's ability, it wouldn't take more than a few days, Lu Yi would definitely call him with this phone call.

"Do you know why I'm Looking For You?" Lu Yi asked directly without beating around the bush.

Smart people naturally had smart ways of communicating.

"I understand." Xinghe couldn't help but smile. "I'm the one who sent that letter. I admit, this is nothing to be ashamed of, and I don't feel like I've done anything wrong."

"I have something to ask you tomorrow," Lu Yi said before hanging up the phone.

Xinghe held the phone with a wry smile. Even if he wanted to meet, shouldn't he tell her the time and place, or should he wait for the notification.

Perhaps he would really have to wait for the notification.

From then on, Xinghe had no idea what the man was going to ask. The pressure Lu Yi gave others was immense. It was not like he had never met Lu Yi before, he thought.., there was really no one who could escape from his eyes that could almost read people's minds, and it seemed like he couldn't either.

The next day, he brought his cell phone with him and was ready to take a leave of absence at any time.

However, his cell phone hadn't rung since morning. He was afraid that he would miss Lu Yi's call, so he even took his cell phone with him when he went to the toilet.

Moreover, he placed his cell phone on the table. Once it rang, he knew that it was him calling

It wasn't until 11 o'clock in the afternoon that he received a call from Lu Yi. However, the place that Lu Yi wanted him to go was a little strange. No matter what, it wasn't a place that Lu Yi could go to.

There were a few times that he wanted to call Lu Yi back. He wanted to know if Lu Yi had made a mistake or if he had heard wrongly. They should be in a teahouse or a coffee shop, or perhaps they were at a quiet place, but he never thought they would be at a fast food restaurant or a place with fries and burgers.

That was a place that young people and children loved to go. Even though his name was Xia Xing and his name was rather childish and young, in reality, he was already a thirty-five-year-old man. He felt that.., he was no longer a young man.

That place was not a place that a man of his age could go, nor was it a place that a successful man like Lu Yi would go to.

However, he remembered that the place that Lu Yi had mentioned was the same place.

He had no choice but to drive there. However, when he saw the young people inside, she felt her scalp go numb. After all, he was a successful man, after all, he was the person in charge of the Ye family's airport, if people knew that he came to such a place, wouldn't it be quite embarrassing.

People would definitely say how slanderous his mouth was. Why was he like a few years old child.

He gritted his teeth and grabbed a handful of his hair before walking in.

Most of the people inside were young people. There were many children. Because it was considered a weekend, there were especially many children inside. The voices of children could be heard everywhere.

Chapter 1624: was written by him

He used his near-500-degree nearsightedness to look for Lu Yi, and he found him. Lu Yi was sitting in an empty seat, so he could only see Lu Yi sitting there alone, there were some hamburgers in front of him.

Xinghe couldn't help but feel her forehead break out in cold sweat.

So, Inspector Lu liked this?

"Mr. Lu..."Xinghe called out to Lu Yi.

"You're here."Lu Yi pointed to the seat opposite him.

"Please have a seat."

"Thank you."Xinghe quickly followed him to his seat, but she felt like there was something pressing against her bottom. However, he didn't pay too much attention to it. He thought, perhaps the chairs here were just like that., they were meant to be used by young people. Unfortunately, he was no longer young, so perhaps his thoughts and hobbies were different from those of young people.

Perhaps this was the kind of place that young people liked to sit. It was soft, and it felt like there was something pressing down on his bottom.

"Uncle..."

Suddenly, a little girl appeared out of nowhere and stood in front of him.

Xinghe lowered her head and saw a little girl standing in front of him. She had her hair pulled back into two braids, and her eyes were wide open. She was a beautiful little girl, and her lips were pink. Her face., however, she was so pretty. Whose child was this? Why was she so good-looking? Her parents sure knew how to give birth to beautiful children.

"Uncle,"the little girl called out again.

"You called for me?"Hearing the word 'uncle', tears welled up in Xinghe's heart. Child, can I call you 'uncle'? He really isn't that old, he looks about the same as the person sitting across from me., however, when he saw the mature look on her face, her bearing, and her young but sophisticated face, he really wanted to cry. They were from the same generation, but why., she didn't have a bald head or a belly.

“Uncle,” the little girl frowned and pointed at the spot where Xia Xing was sitting.

“Uncle, you’ve squashed the doll.”

Xia Xing was stunned. There seemed to be something under her butt, just like how she felt when he sat down earlier. Could it be that this was not a young man’s chair but a little girl’s doll.

He searched the chair for a long time and finally pulled out a doll. It was a little bear.

He was so embarrassed that he didn’t know what to do. He patted the Little Bear and placed it in front of the little girl. “I’ll return the bear to you. Go find your parents.”

The little girl looked at Xinghe for a long time before running over to Lu Yi.

Lu Yi picked her up and placed her on his seat. Then, he placed the plate in front of her and said, “Help yourself.”

“Thank you,” the little girl said as she shoved the bear into her father’s arms. She picked up the french fries and started eating. She was a professional eater and knew she had to dip them in ketchup.

“Mr. Lu, she is...” Xinghe’s eyes widened.

Could This Be Lu Yi’s daughter?

“My daughter, her nickname is Xun Xun,” Lu Yi said as he rubbed the little girl’s head. When Xun Xun heard his name, she smiled at her father and continued to eat the food in front of her.

Xinghe sighed in relief. In fact, she was so close to touching the drink. Thankfully, she didn’t touch it or she would have lost her face.

“Mr. Lu’s daughter is very beautiful.”

Of course, Xinghe meant what she said. The Lu family’s daughter was beautiful, this was something that many people knew. After all, Lu Yi was married to Yan Huan, she had such good genes, even if the child was born ugly, it was impossible.

“Thank you,” Lu Yi said politely, but this kind of politeness put a lot of pressure on Xinghe. As expected, negotiating with Da da Lu was a disadvantage.

Lu Yi was the best at Reading People’s thoughts. Of course, this also made people feel a sense of fear. Perhaps it had a lot to do with Lu Yi’s profession.

At this moment, Lu Yi stood up and said to his daughter, “Baby, Daddy is going to buy some things. When he comes back, sit down and don’t move.”

“Okay.” Xun Xun nodded vigorously. She would be very obedient. She still had little bear to accompany her.

Lu Yi went to the front and ordered two cokes. He placed one in front of Xinghe and said, “There’s nothing here but this. You can have it, my daughter insists on eating this.”

“You’re welcome, this is fine.”

Xinghe thanked him immediately and placed the cokes in front of her. Indeed, only cokes could be drunk here. Otherwise, what would they have to drink, a sweet bucket or an ice cream?

“Why did you send me an anonymous letter?” Lu Yi raised his head and asked directly. It took him a long time to find out it was him.

“How did Mr. Lu find out?”

Actually, Xia Xing didn’t plan to hide it from anyone. He knew it might be found out one day, but what he didn’t expect was that Lu Yi would be so quick. It had only been three days, he had already found out it was him.

“I compared the handwriting of the airport staff.”

Lu Yi said lightly, “The only people who know this information are the airport staff, and the number of people who have come into contact with this information is not more than five.”

“I see,” Xia Xing finally understood. How could he have forgotten to use a printer to print it out? Indeed, the handwriting could be compared, and it could be found out with a simple comparison, his handwriting was so obvious.

“Can you tell me the reason?” Lu Yi took a sip of his coke. It didn’t taste very good, but occasionally, it didn’t hurt.

Xinghe didn’t know how to explain it.

He needed to think about it, and he needed to organize his words.

“Initially, I was the one who first discovered the problem with the airport’s accounts, but it was already so big then,” Xinghe said. Even now, her heart was still breaking out in cold sweat. Just a little more, yes., just a little bit more.

“When Mr. Ye left, he transferred the airport to your mother’s name. Actually, he did it out of kindness. He didn’t expect things to turn out like this at the airport. If the airport was exposed, not only would the Lu family be in trouble, even the airport would be ruined by this incident.”

“That’s why I wrote an anonymous letter. On one hand, I wanted to remind you. On the other hand, I wanted to bet that you had a way to deal with this matter.”

“And I didn’t do anything wrong, right?”

Chapter 1625: the man who left

Xinghe sighed again.

It was indeed a close call, but they were almost done for.

Lu Yi reached out to grab the packaging of the burger for Xun Xun to Munch on. She was too young, so she couldn’t understand what her father and uncle were talking about, after all, she only needed to fill her stomach.

“Who is the most suspicious person at the airport?” Lu Yi asked. Of course, he wouldn’t suspect Xia Xing. Xia Xing wasn’t that stupid to inform him in advance. There was no need for such a method, if she really wanted the Lu family to be destroyed, this letter shouldn’t have been sent.

Therefore, it wasn’t Xia Xing, it was someone else.

And now, he wanted to know who else was there.

Of course, this was the first time he had heard that his uncle had made the decision to transfer the ownership of the airport to his mother’s name. After all., he might be gone for a long time this time, and Sun Yuhan was still in the Ye family. It was inevitable that Sun Yuhan wouldn’t ruin the airport.

In fact, Ye Chuji had good intentions. He had no intention of harming the Lu family and ye Shuyun. If he were here, even if he took the blame, he would not let the Lu family take the blame.

And now, he wanted to know who did this.

Could Sun Yuhan really be so stupid as to use such a method to take revenge on the entire Lu family.

One had to know that if this matter was really exposed, not only would the Lu family be finished, even the airport would be finished as well. At that time, there would naturally be other families staring at the fat meat at the airport. Who would be able to eat it, it would depend on who’s luck.

And after losing the airport, it was already very difficult to say how the Ye family would maintain their position as the number one boss of Hai City.

Therefore, after much thought, he realized it wasn’t Sun Yuhan. He still believed it was an inside job, and the Ye family couldn’t afford to take the blame, so he decided to let the Lu family take the blame

He could trust such a reason, but he wouldn’t do anything else.

“This...” Xinghe was also considering this question, “Only a few of us are able to participate in the internal operation of the airport, and we are the people Mr. Ye trusts the most. Otherwise, Mr. Ye wouldn’t have given the airport to us in the first place. The main reason is because we are here, so naturally, we have our own set of principles. We will ensure that the airport runs smoothly.”

“It’s just that we didn’t expect such a thing to happen. Mr. Lu, you have to trust us.” When Xia Xing said this, she didn’t sound so calm. Eight billion was not a small sum, if this matter was found out, it would be said to be a huge crime of commercial fraud. If the Lu family were to take the blame, they might all be locked up. However, if it was the rest of them, they would probably end up dead, first of all, the nature of the crime was completely different. The Lu family could be accused of self-theft, but the Lu family could be accused of fraud.

Eight billion, they wouldn’t be able to afford it for several lifetimes, so they could only risk their lives.

“You should know better than me who has access to these things.” Lu Yi only wanted to know the reason. He wouldn’t believe anything he saw, including Xia Xing, he might have helped them, but the meaning behind it was still unknown.

He had never judged based on his own emotions, but his rationality and his years of experience in judging people.

“Pah Pah Pah, Xun Xun still wants to eat French fries,” Xun Xun said as she lifted her face. She did not realize that Xinghe was drenched in cold sweat from Lu Yi’s pressure. Even though Lu Yi did not say anything, he knew.., lu Yi this is to investigate from them, until find out who is so bold, dare to steal more than eight billion from the airport.

Eight billion, such a big mouth, such a big face, don’t you see if you can eat it? Even if you eat it, will you be stuffed to death? If you get eight billion, you must be alive to spend it.

Lu Yi picked up the small paper bag containing the chips. He shook it, Oh, it was empty.

“Can your stomach still fit?” Lu Yi caressed his daughter’s stomach. Did the little girl eat too much today?

“Yes,” Xun Xun covered her stomach with her clothes. “Xun’s stomach is still empty, there are still a lot of chips in it.”

“Okay,” Lu Yi had something important to say to Xia Xing, so he told the little girl to be quiet. He stood up and went to buy a serving of french fries for his daughter.

“Eat it.” Lu Yi poured the french fries onto the plate and let her eat it herself.

Xun Xun used her small hands to grab the french fries before dipping them into the ketchup and eating.

She was really a foodie now. She really cared about her food. Her two older brothers were not as good as her. Whenever they saw something delicious, their little faces would smile like flowers, their eyes were also filled with stars.

After settling his daughter down, Lu Yi turned to look at the frowning Xia Xing.

“Why, have you thought about it?”

Xia Xing shook her head.

“Mr. Lu, I’ve thought about it. We’ve been with Mr. Ye for a long time, we really don’t have the guts to lose so much money. Even if someone really did steal it from us, they wouldn’t have stayed behind to wait for someone else to catch them. They would have been happy to take the eight billion away. If they can’t do it at home, they can still go abroad or anywhere else, but they won’t be staying at the airport anymore. Now that we’re all here, we haven’t left yet.”

“From the looks of it, they have no idea. If it wasn’t for my investigation, they probably wouldn’t have known about this.”

“Is there anyone who left recently?” Lu Yi wrapped his arms around his arm, thinking about what Xia Xing had said. He had to admit, Xia Xing’s words did make some sense.

It was true, many people would have wanted to do this, but no one dared to touch so much money. Eight billion was a lot of money, and if caught, they would be shot. He found the whereabouts of the eight billion in a foreign bank account, it was an illegal bank account, and it was not regulated by international treaties, so it was not easy to recover the money. However, as long as they found the person, they would have to spit out all the money they ate.

However, it seemed like no one had left. Everyone was there.

They were all doing their jobs, so why would they leave? Ye Chuji treated them like his own brothers. They were all going to retire here, so how could they leave?

And indeed, not a single one of them left.

Lu Yi touched his daughter's braids. The little girl rubbed her eyes with her little fists. She didn't eat French fries anymore. Was she sleepy?

Chapter 1626: suspicion

Lu Yi picked up his daughter and removed his jacket to cover her. As expected, after a short while, Xun Xun fell asleep clutching onto her father's clothes.

It was time for Xun Xun to take a nap. They slept at this time every day at the kindergarten, so it was normal for them to be sleepy.

"By the way," Xinghe suddenly thought of something. Her voice was a little loud, causing Xun Xun to furrow her brows. However, one of her small hands was still holding onto her father's shirt, her tiny fingers were so soft that they looked like they were going to snap at any moment.

Lu Yi didn't touch his daughter and allowed her to hold onto his shirt. Perhaps it was because Xun Xun had been searching for her mother when she was young, but she still didn't feel safe. Now that she was three years old, she could see her mother more often, however, she was still afraid that her mother would leave, so she was still timid. When she fell asleep, she had to hold onto something. In kindergarten, Xun Xun had to sleep with her older brothers, perhaps it was because they grew up together in her mother's womb, so with her two older brothers by her side, she wasn't afraid anymore. However, once she left her two older brothers, she would feel uneasy. She had to grab onto the adults' clothes.

It was as if Xinghe realized her voice was too loud. Not only did it scare Xun Xun, the others also turned to look at her. He also started to feel awkward, his old face also started to burn.

"Mr. Lu, I think of someone."

"Who is it?" Lu Yi carefully protected his daughter. The Little Princess was sound asleep and her breathing was well-proportioned. It seemed like she had no intention of waking up.

Xinghe lowered her voice as well.

"It's a man named Ah Nuo."

"Ah Nuo?" Lu Yi frowned. "Green-eyed?"

"Yes," Xinghe nodded. "He entered the airport not long after Mr. Ye's business trip, and it was also because of Miss Sun." Needless to say, Miss Sun was none other than Sun Yuhan.

“Miss Sun placed Arnold at the center of the airport and said he was the future son-in-law of the Ye family. Since Mr. Ye wasn’t around, we went to look for elder Ye, and elder ye said everything was up to Miss Sun.”

“The company’s top management agreed, so there was nothing we could do. Furthermore, elder Ye’s shares are all in Miss Sun’s hands, so we had no choice but to agree to her request.”

Xinghe carefully observed Lu Yi’s expression. When she saw that there was not much change on his face, she continued, “He left the airport a few days ago.”

“I understand.” Lu Yi lowered his head to see the little girl sleeping soundly. Her beautiful round face was chubby as well. It was not easy to raise her, who weighed less than two kilograms, to this day.

In his heart, he had a rough idea of who it was.

No, it was more or less confirmed.

It was that Ah Nuo. He had known all along that this was the work of someone inside the airport. Of course, he didn’t expect it to be that Ah Nuo. He was the one who was sold by weight.

It was him. Yes, it was him.

What he wanted to know now was whether that stupid woman, Sun Yuhan, was involved?

Lu Yi stood up with his daughter in his arms. Let’s go. He told Xinghe that he knew everything and had asked everything he needed to know.

Xinghe’s heart was still in a mess because Lu Yi didn’t ask any more questions. He was going to leave, and it was good that he was going to leave. In fact, he felt like he was at odds with this place, many people were giving him strange looks, but they were also wondering why he was wearing a suit and tie.

Lu Yi was fine because he wasn’t dressed properly and had a child with him. However, at his age, this Mr. Lu really knew how to torture people.

When he came out, Lu Yi turned around. That glance made Xia Xing’s skin tighten. He wasn’t as old as him, but he was still a little scary

“My father will be picking up the phone from the airport in a few days. When my uncle comes back, we’ll talk about other things. Be careful with the airport’s operations. If we do it again, the airport might not have anything to do with my family.”

It was enough to be tricked once. If there was a second time, the Lu family wouldn’t be so stupid.

“I understand, Mr. Lu. Don’t worry, Xia Xing promises that we will cooperate.”

“Thank you.” Lu Yi carried his daughter and prepared to leave. The little girl would need to sleep for several hours, and there were some things that he needed to take care of at home.

By the time Lu Yi reached the Lu family’s door, elder Lu was already pacing back and forth outside, mumbling to himself, “Why isn’t she back yet? Where did she take my granddaughter? Did she eat properly? Did she drink water? Did she cry?”

“Dad, that’s Lu Yi’s daughter. How could Lu Yi abuse his own daughter?”

Lu Jin was also waiting outside with old master Lu. He was still talking about Old Master Lu. If he wasn’t worried, what was he doing here? He couldn’t be worried about his own father.

Old Master Lu had a strong body. He could live for another 20 years without any problems.

“What do you know?” Old Man Lu directly spat at his son. Lu Jin wiped his face and really wanted to wash his face with 84 later.

“Dad, how can you scold people?”

Lu Jin couldn’t scold his own father, but if he didn’t scold people, he would be civilized, okay?

“So what if I scold you?” Old Man Lu was in a bad mood now. It just so happened that this Lu Jin had to bump into old man Lu’s muzzle. If Old Man Lu didn’t scold him, who else could he scold?

Even if he was scolded to death, it was all his own doing. Just as Old Master Lu was about to hit his old son, Lu Yi came back with Xun Xun in his arms.

“My Xun Xun,” Old Master Lu hurried over. His long face was also short of laughter.

He quickly reached out and carefully hugged his little great-granddaughter.

“Dad, be careful.” Lu Jin was standing at the side anxiously. This old master was too old. What if he dropped Xun Xun? They only had one treasure.

“Get lost.”

Old Man Lu cursed again. It made Lu Jin lose face. In front of his son, how could he treat his son like this? He didn’t give his son any face.

Old Man Lu would either howl or scold his son when he saw him, or pull his face. But when he saw his Little Xun Xun, he would smile like a fool. He was as stupid as he could be.

“Xun Xun, great-grandfather will take you to bed.”

Chapter 1627: did not make any calculations

Of course, Xunxun did not wake up. She was only holding onto the adults’ clothes with her small hands. Her small mouth was also pink. No matter how she looked at her small face, she could not get enough of it.

Lu Yi had already entered the house. At this time, Lu Qi and Lu Guang were also asleep. It was just that they slept a little late. Because their sister was not around, they did not sleep very well. Now, they finally fell asleep, ye Shuyun was looking at them.

Lu Yi opened the door. As expected, Ye Shuyun was the only one sitting between her two grandsons. She would look at this and that from time to time. However, she began to like to sigh.

Actually, Lu Yi knew that it was because of the Ye family.

She was already in complete despair of the Ye family. However, at the same time, her heart was also hurt. This time, the Ye family almost caused the entire Lu family to fall apart. If that was really the case.., with her, Ye Shuyun would become the Lu family's sinner for all eternity. Even if she was not afraid of herself, she would also harm a family and three grandchildren. In the future, she would not have a father, so how could she bear such responsibility, how could she cause the LU family to fall into such a state.

Now, even if the matter was resolved, she was still the sinner of the entire Lu family, and she was too ashamed to face anyone.

"Mom," Lu Yi walked in and called out to Ye Shuyun.

"En, you're back." Ye Shuyun wiped her tears. "Why, where's Xun Xun?" Lu Yi brought Xun Xun out. The two brothers were going to the morning classes, and Little Qiao wouldn't go either, in the end, she cried and wiped her tears, so she could only follow Lu Yi out. Since Lu Yi was back, Xun Xun should be sleeping by now.

"Grandpa took her away." Lu Yi came over and sat down as well. He touched Xiao Qi's little hand and then Xiao Guang's little face. The two children actually looked exactly the same, but as the child's father.., he could recognize them at a glance. Which one was Xiao Qi and which one was Xiao Guang.

"How are they today?"

Lu Yi asked ye shuyun, "Are they still obedient?"

"Of course my grandson is obedient." Ye Shuyun loved these three children the most. Old Master Lu and Lu Jin had the same preference for Xun Xun, and she loved all three of them, especially Xiao Guang. Perhaps it was because Xiao Guang had been blind before.., that was why she doted on Xiao Guang very much.

Xiao Qi was the eldest brother, and he was the most sensible one. At such a young age, he could already take care of two young children. Although, in fact, the difference in age between the three of them was only a few minutes.

"Mom, I have something to tell you." Lu Yi placed his son's small hands under the blanket. Each and every one of them was not as obedient as they used to be when they slept. They were also not very well-behaved, they had to be watched by adults all the time.

"What is it? Tell me." Ye Shuyun's spirit was not very good, and she was not interested in anything. Except for her grandson, she also had a smiling face, and even when she was facing her son.., this face had not smiled for a long time.

Lu Yi found a place for himself to sit down, and Ye Shuyun's hands were busy. She tidied up the children's laundry and wore them when she woke up tomorrow.

"Mom, I saw the person who sent me an anonymous letter today."

Ye Shuyun was still folding her clothes, as if nothing had happened to her.

"Then you have to thank him properly." Ye Shuyun gently patted her folded clothes. Only when she saw the childish faces of her two grandsons would her eyes light up.

She had been completely betrayed by the people closest to her

If she had been more extreme, she might have started to distrust human nature from then on.

“He told me some things.” Lu Yi knew where Ye Shuyun’s heart knot was. If he didn’t untie it, Ye Shuyun might still continue like this. Even a trace of a smile would disappear. As time passed..., she would really get sick from holding it in.

Ye Shuyun didn’t seem to be very interested.

Lu Yi’s voice continued, but she was actually listening,

“That person is an internal employee of the airport and also uncle’s confidant.” Ye Shuyun’s hands paused for a moment when she heard this. Then, she picked up a small piece of clothing and folded it.

“Before uncle left, he passed the airport to your name. Perhaps he was afraid that Sun Yuhan would have designs on the airport if he stayed outside for too long. Therefore, the airport was written under your name in the end and not in advance. Mom, Uncle regards you as his closest person. Even if he gave the airport to you, he wouldn’t be willing to give it to Sun Yuhan.”

“However, he didn’t expect that someone would use these things to set up such a trap for us.”

Lu Yi stood up and placed his hand on Ye Shuyun’s shoulder, “Mom, you weren’t betrayed. In uncle’s heart, he always wanted you to be his biological sister. Everyone in the Ye family may harm you, but you have to believe that Ye Xinyu, who you raised with your own hands, won’t. Ye Chuji, who grew up with you, won’t either.”

Ye Shuyun wiped her face with the back of her hand, “What are you telling your mom for? How can I not understand your uncle’s character? “This is a loophole that was exploited by others. You have to find this person and the airport. Our Lu family spent eight billion on it, and it will belong to our Lu family in the future. As long as Sun Yuhan doesn’t get lost, they won’t be able to take it back in the future.”

Ye Shuyun stood up after saying that and prepared to go out and look for Lu Jin. She wanted Lu Jin to look after the airport properly so that he wouldn’t be dug out by others again. At that time, his Big Brother’s lifetime’s effort would be ruined.

Lu Yi lowered his head and saw Xiao Guang stretching out his little hand again.

He had been sleeping more and more dishonestly recently. Lu Yi carefully put Xiao Guang’s little hand back into the blanket.

He then carefully stroked Xiao Guang’s tiny forehead. Now that he thought about the days when Xiao Guang couldn’t see it, his heart was still aching. His Xiao Guang would definitely grow up safely.

“You have to grow up obediently.” Lu Yi stroked Xiao Qi’s little face again. “Daddy doesn’t require you to be smart, good-looking, or outstanding. I just hope that you can grow up safely and safely.”

“Your mother has already started to save money for you. It doesn’t matter even if you have to be rice worms for the rest of your lives. Although Daddy also wants you to be outstanding, he wants you to be healthy.”

Before he became a parent, he might not have known until he became a father of three children. He already knew that the three of them were the ones pressing on him.

He wanted to watch them grow up day by day. One day, they would also get married and have children.

His children should not have to suffer.

He was not like Lu Jin, nor was he like Old Master Lu. He and Yan Huan had finally gotten together after much difficulty. Originally, they might not have had children, but God had given them three beautiful and cute children. Therefore.., he would not force them to become anyone, he just wanted them to be honest with themselves.

Chapter 1628: disappeared

As long as they didn't do anything illegal in the future, they could do whatever they wanted.

"Alright, go to sleep."

Lu Yi kissed the two children's little faces and stood up again. He still had things to do, and the person at the airport was still not found. How could he be at ease.

Also, the eight billion was only for him to spit out. His family was not scared for nothing. His mother had shed so many tears, and the white hair on his father's hair did not match his grandfather's bent waist.

Some things could be tolerated, but some were absolutely impossible.

He gently closed the door. The moment the door closed, a warm breeze gently lifted a corner of the curtain. The two little fellows were still sleeping soundly.

They still had childish little faces, but they already looked very much like their father.

"What did you say?" Arnold's expression suddenly changed. Even his eyes, which were as quiet as a lake, dimmed. They were like a lake filled with garbage, or a sea filled with seaweed, the green color changed from clear to dirty.

This kind of green was not pure, nor was it clean. It was even filled with all kinds of impurities and garbage.

"I haven't found anything. Everything is normal." Arnold gripped the phone in his hand tightly. His heart was beating irregularly. Even the veins on the back of his hand were throbbing, there was also a drop of cold sweat that began to quietly ooze out from his forehead.

They had made up the money. How was this possible? Arnold had never heard of such a thing. Making up the money, making up the money. How was this going to make up the money? Could the money be made up just like that? Eight billion.., that was not a small amount. He had calculated the financial resources of the Lu family. Even if the Lu family could make up the eight billion, it would not be possible to make up the money in a few days. That was why he had such an idea, it was also a step-by-step plan. Finally, he had completed the whole set. Then, he waited for the people of the Lu family to jump down.

He wanted to destroy the people of the Lu family. Everything he wanted from that woman was destroyed. What he wanted to see was her tail wagging and begging for mercy. What he wanted to see was her kneeling and begging for mercy.

He already had eight billion in his hands. He was already the richest man in the world. That woman would definitely regret it in the future, and what he wanted was for that woman to regret it, he wanted to make that woman, who was not bewitched by his eyes, regret it. But now, tell him why it had become like this. The people of the Lu family were fine, but they had actually taken out eight billion to fill the gap.

He put down his phone. He himself had a beast-like sense of danger. He quickly turned on the computer at the side and checked his external mirror card, the one with eight billion bank card, as long as the money was there, he was still a billionaire.

“S H I T!” Suddenly, he punched the table. The light in the green room became more and more chaotic

“Which B * Stard froze my card?”

Yes, his card, his eight billion, all of them were frozen.

“No, I want to leave this place.”

Arnold grew up in that place. He learned how to please women, but he learned more about survival. He understood the word ‘survival’ better than anyone else, and he had to persevere.

Of course, he knew what kind of danger he was in.

It wasn’t heaven ahead, it was hell.

He turned around and hurriedly took out his leather suitcase from the cabinet. He opened the cabinet and pulled out the things inside. He stuffed them into the chest and then opened the drawer, he also threw Sun Yuhan’s pile of jewelry into the chest.

He also robbed all the money he had left at home.

He closed the chest with force, took out his ID, and walked out. He wanted to seek international protection. If he stayed here, he might be sentenced to death.

He left in a hurry. As he walked, he made a phone call.

“It’s me, I’m Arnold. I’m ready to leave this place. No matter what method I use, you have to let me leave this place as soon as possible.”

He grabbed his box again and threw it into the trunk of the car. The car drove away with a whoosh, and then disappeared without a trace.

As for Sun Yuhan, she had to eat, drink, and have fun in her current life. Of course, there was also shopping. Although this place was not as prosperous as Hai City, it was still not bad. There were still a few good ones, it was also a very high-class shopping center. She held a bag in her hand and walked into the small garden house in her high-heeled shoes

After entering, she threw her things on the sofa, kicked her shoes to the side, and sat on the sofa.

“Darling, my leg hurts. Help me massage it.”

She just wanted Arnold’s methods of serving people. It was simply irresistible.

However, she waited for a long time, but Arnold did not come out

“Dear...”she shouted again, but still no one answered.

He must have gone to find a surprise for her, and Sun Yuhan was looking forward to what kind of surprise Arnold would give her. Just thinking about it made her feel like her heart was going to melt.

However, she had been sitting here for half a day, but Arnold still did not come out.

What was wrong with him? Could something have happened?

Arnold was the most ingratiating person. Every time she came back, it was as if he knew in advance. He would carefully prepare a program for her, but why was there no one here today? It was as if.., she was the only one here.

And this thought made her shiver involuntarily. A bad feeling suddenly flashed through her heart, and she didn’t like this feeling.

She hurriedly grabbed her bag and found her phone. She also called Arnold in a flurry.

“Sorry, the user you are calling has turned off his phone.”

Turn off my phone!

She immediately threw her phone on the ground, and with a clang, the phone was also smashed into pieces.

“Arnold, Arnold, my dear...”

She suddenly stood up, as if she had gone mad. She began to search for that man. He must have fallen asleep. Yes, he must have fallen asleep, or he must have been sick, so she didn’t know that she was back. Yes.., it must have been like that.

“Arnold...”she pushed open a door, but there was nothing inside. There was only the big bed that belonged to two people. The white bedsheets were somewhat dazzling, almost as if they were mocking her current paleness.

She pushed open another door in disbelief, but it was still empty.

There was nothing here, there was nothing here.

Chapter 1629: he abandoned her

There was nothing here either. She had practically searched every corner of this place. She had even looked under the bed, but there was nothing. There was nothing. How could there be nothing here, her heart and liver had been ripped out just like that. It was only now that she knew what pain felt like.

This was the first time she felt such pain since she became the eldest daughter of the Ye family.

She truly loved that man. She gave everything she had to him, even the rest of her life. She even risked the entire ye family to bet on their future, their brilliant future., their future was filled with sunshine.

But why did he disappear.

No, no. Sun Yuhan kept comforting herself and hugged her arms. She did not believe that he would leave without saying goodbye. She also did not believe that he would abandon her.

He had clearly said that she was the woman he loved the most in his life.

And only she was the only one in his life, his person, his everything.

His life existed because of her, and also because of her.

Therefore, she absolutely did not believe that such a man who loved her like his life would abandon her. No, not abandon her, but abandon her.

She, Sun Yuhan, was the favored daughter of heaven. In this world, she was the only one who schemed against others. No one schemed against her, only abandoning others. However, no one dared to abandon her or deceive her.

She turned around and ran out again. She did not even wear her shoes. When she ran to the garage, she found that the limited edition sports car that she had bought for Arnold was gone.

Yes, he must have gone out.

Sun Yuhan comforted herself. He must have gone out to prepare a surprise for her, but he had forgotten to charge his phone. That was why he could not pick up her call. He would be back in a while, so he would not go too far.

He loved her so much, and he couldn't leave her.

Sun Yuhan touched her face. She couldn't have messed up her makeup, right? Arnold had said that he loved the way she looked when she wore makeup the most, because after her makeup, she was very beautiful. She was his goddess, she was his goddess for life.

She hurriedly ran back, and when she saw herself in the mirror, she was shocked.

Was this her? Was this still her?

At this moment, the woman in the mirror could be described as unsightly. The makeup on her face was all gone. Her fake eyelashes fell on her face. Her eye shadow was also ruined. Two black lines flowed down her face, her lipstick was also smeared everywhere.

How could she meet people like this? How could she meet people like this.

She quickly ran to the bathroom, wanting to wash her face clean. After that, she would have to put on a beautiful makeup.

As for her without makeup, even he himself wasn't willing to take another look at her.

No matter how much she denied it, no matter how unwilling she was

Her without makeup was indeed not good-looking. Yes, that was what she said. It wasn't good-looking, and it was a very tactful compliment. In reality, her without makeup was simply ugly. Her eyelids were cut out., no matter how she looked at it, it was not as pretty as someone else's. It was too fake and the marks were too obvious. The corners of her eyes that were cut out were also not pretty. Even her nose had been moved, but no matter how she moved, she could not be said to be pretty, her face was still fangzheng-like. She did not look delicate at all. And Her face was only suitable to survive under makeup.

But because she wore makeup every day, her real face seemed to be devoid of sunlight. It was also white and colorless. There were large and small spots on it. and such a face., was a nightmare for her.

She hurriedly ran out and took out foundation from the dressing table to apply on her face. Bit by bit, her colorless face began to become multi-colored, it also began to become beautiful, she looked at herself in the mirror again. She also saw that her makeup was almost perfect. However, she felt that her neck was a little empty. She should change into another piece of jewelry.

She pulled open the dressing table. Suddenly, her eyes straightened. She could not believe what she saw.

This was impossible. Where were her jewelry? Where were her jewelry? Those were beautiful and expensive jewelry. Had it been stolen by a thief.

Yes, it had been stolen by a thief. It must have been stolen by a thief. When she came back, the door had not been locked.

She wanted to call the police. She had to call the police.

She quickly went to look for her phone, but she found that she did not know where she had thrown the phone until she saw the body of the phone lying on the ground

She ran over and grabbed her phone, but the screen of the phone was black. No matter how she turned it on, the phone was still black.

"Get lost!" She threw the phone on the wall in anger

With a bang, the phone was thrown out again. This time, even the screen of the phone was shattered.

She sat on the sofa again. Under the heavy makeup, it was impossible to tell what had changed on her face. She stood up in disbelief and opened all the drawers in the dressing table, but there were still not many pieces of her jewelry inside.

She opened the other drawers again, but there were no more valuable things, including the valuable things she put here. She almost rolled and crawled to the wardrobe.

She still did not believe that the man who said he loved her like his life would betray her and abandon her. She had treated him so well, and she had poured her heart and soul into him. She had never treated anyone like that.

She loved herself the most, but she loved him more than she loved herself.

Lu Qin, Lu Yi, they were all gone. She loved him the most.

She stretched out her hand, but the hand in the air was trembling and powerless. She placed her hand on the door of the wardrobe. For a moment, she wanted to leave. She didn't want to open it, nor did she want to know, she didn't dare to face it.

But in the end, she still forcefully pulled open the door of the wardrobe. The inside of the wardrobe was in a mess. The originally neatly hung cabinets were also in a mess. There were clothes everywhere inside, the clothes inside were her pajamas, her coat, and her skirt. However, the clothes that belonged to that man were gone. No, there were still some. There were still a few pieces that might have been left behind in the panic.

But what was the use of these? What was the use.

That man really ran away. Whether she admitted it or not, whether she was lying to herself or not, that man had run away. He had left her behind. He had even taken her things, her jewelry, and her money.

He even took eight billion from the airport.

Eight billion, eight billion.

That's hers, that's all hers, that's all hers.

Chapter 1630: she would be fine

She had to pay the entire ye family airport to get it.

And what she could not tolerate the most was this. Arnold had left with all her things. She simply could not bear such a betrayal.

Sun Yuhan spent the night like this. In fact, she might still have some small expectations in her heart. Perhaps, now that he knew he was wrong and regretted it, he would come back in a while. As long as he came back.., she would definitely be magnanimous and not pursue the matter with him.

They would still be living a loving life like before, with food and no worries. They could squander their entire lives.

However, she had waited here for an entire week or so, but there was still no news from Arnold. She had a guilty conscience to begin with, and it was impossible for her to call the police. If anyone were to find out.., she was the one who did the things at the airport. When that time came, she wouldn't even know how she died. And when she thought of Lu Yi's terrifying face and his hatred of strangling her to death, she didn't even dare to return home now.

It was all that Arnold's fault. What good idea did he give her? Didn't he say it was foolproof? If it was really found out, would he bear it all himself?

No, she stood up again, pushed open the door, and left. Was it because the matter over there had already been settled? That was why Arnold had selfishly wanted to take the eighty billion for himself.

Eight billion was not a small amount. Eight billion was enough to support a ye family, a Lu family, and a su family.

Since such a big thing had happened to the Lu family, it should be possible to find information from the Internet. When that time came, whether it was Lu Yi or Yan Huan, they would lose their reputation. They would never be able to rise again in this lifetime, meanwhile, Hai City would also become Sun Yuhan's world. Even if there was no airport, she would still have other things.

However, when she was looking for her phone to check, she forgot that she had already completely smashed her phone.

She hurriedly ran to the computer at the side, wanting to know what was going on there.

However, after searching for a long time, there was no news. It was as if nothing had changed.

Hai city was still calm. It was so calm that it could not even stir up a wave. Not a single grain of sand was stirred up.

The airport of Hai City also carried out its work step by step. It still received so many passengers every day. Clearly, it had become the most important transportation hub in the entire Hai City. At the same time, it also drove., the nearby tourism industry, the catering industry, and some handicrafts also allowed the second largest center of Hai City to settle down there. It was originally an uninhabited place. Who would have thought that at this moment., the value had actually reached a terrifying level. All of this was also because of the Ye family's private airport. Of course, this airport also brought endless wealth to the Ye family., it also provided the Ye family with a better life than many people. In fact, just like her, it allowed her to squander money wantonly.

However, this was impossible.

Sun Yuhan did not believe it. She absolutely would not believe it. There was a deficit of eight billion in it. There was also a portion of the tax money and the important goods were all placed there. This eight billion was enough to destroy the Lu family.

In just a few days, how could they have raised eight billion yuan? Yes, how could it be? She just wanted to know how they had gathered it. Eight billion yuan. This was not eighty million yuan, nor was it eight hundred thousand yuan.

It was not something that a family could easily take out.

But to tell her, what was the reason for the current calm? Could it be that they did not transfer the money at all? But it was impossible. She had personally seen Arnold tamper with the airport, it was only after a few months of planning that the eight billion was taken out without anyone noticing. It was also deposited in an offshore account. He had said that this account did not belong to any country, therefore, no one could get the money, and only she or he could get it.

Their information was left there.

The amount of money was correct. She remembered it, but it told her that even though there was so much money missing, how could the Ye family's airport still operate as usual? Even the Lu family was safe and sound, even the recent hair shots were taken of Yan Huan bringing the child around the shopping mall. It was just a photo of his back. Even if these reporters really saw Yan Huan in person., or even took a photo of the child's face, they did not dare to expose it.

The airport was fine. The Lu family was fine.

In that case, she was the one who was in trouble.

She slid onto the ground. At this moment, she was a little lost.

She seemed to know the reason for Arnold's disappearance. It was because he knew that the matter had been exposed. That was why he abandoned her and ran away. But on what basis? Yes, on what basis? This matter had nothing to do with her.., she wasn't the one who did it. Even if she wanted to catch him, it was still to catch Arnold.

It took her a long time to stand up from the ground. However, after trying a few times, her legs were still soft.

Although she had already done some mental construction for herself, and although she had been consoling herself, she was still afraid.

And now, she didn't even have a single person to discuss it with. Not a single person

It was not easy for her. She climbed up from the ground and started to pack her luggage in a flurry.

She wanted to leave this place. Yes, she wanted to leave this place. However, when she stuffed all her clothes into her luggage and thought of something, her hands started to tremble unconsciously.

If she left this place, where would she go?

The Ye family was everything to her

And without the ye family, she was nothing.

She had to think carefully. She had to think carefully. She had locked herself up here for almost a few days without going out. During this time, she was even hoping that Arnold might return.

And Arnold had never returned. His news was like a stone sinking into the sea. Sun Yuhan only realized now that her understanding of Arnold was practically zero.

She had spent more than 200 million to buy Arnold, and Arnold did not even seem to have a nationality now. Of course, he could also join any country's nationality as long as he had the eight billion in his hands.

And every time she thought about it, Arnold always ran with the eight billion. Sun Yuhan's heart felt like it was being cut by a knife, and it was extremely painful.

Just like that, she spent a few days like a crazy person. If she continued like this, she would really be driven mad. Her hair was disheveled. Not to mention makeup, even her face had not been washed for a long time.

And she did not know if she was going to stay here as a turtle for another lifetime.

No, she wanted to go home. She wanted to go back to hai city. Yes, she wanted to go back to hai city. Wasn't the airport fine? Wasn't the Lu family fine?

Then how can she be fine?
