

Chapter 1641: Sun Yuhan, you're very good

The money was now frozen by the bank, but who knew in the future.

Even now, he was still thinking about the eight billion that he had put in the bank outside. In fact, he was regretting in his heart now. At that time, he had not thought it through. He should not have put the eight billion in the same place, he should have placed it in a few more places. Even if it was one hundred million, he would have divided it into eighty places. Now, even if he only left one for him, he would not have to worry about it for the rest of his life.

However, there was no use talking about it now. He walked to the table and sat down. Then, he took away the lid of the instant noodles. However, the instant noodles had been soaked for too long. There was not even any soup left.

He picked up the instant noodles and wanted to throw it away. However, he remembered that he did not have much money these days. He did not have much change and his savings were given to those people. He wanted them to think of a way to get him out of the country, as long as he was out of the country, this place would not be able to control him. With the things in his hands, he did not have to worry about life at all.

Not to mention his face and his eyes, he did not believe that he could not find a woman to shelter him from the wind and rain.

Of course, he did not feel that he was shameless. He was such a person. His life was born for such a day

But now, he sat down hard and threw the instant noodles on the table. He picked up the chopsticks that were placed on the side and started eating. After soaking for a long time, he could not even taste the original flavor.

He was used to eating the delicacies of the mountains and seas. He really felt disgusted when he was suddenly asked to eat such things.

But what should he do if he didn't eat? was he going to starve to death?

Yes, was he really going to starve himself to death.

He didn't have much money, and those jewelry couldn't be sold now. He couldn't take the risk, and he had to think of a way to leave this place. Otherwise, he would only die

Suddenly, it seemed that there were footsteps outside. He held his breath, and what entered his ears were the voices of two people. It was not loud, but he could barely hear them clearly.

"You said it's true. Is He really here?"

"I'm sure. I found him here a few days ago. It's exactly the same as the picture posted online. His eyes are green."

"It must be him. What do you think we should do?"

“A million dollars. As long as we catch him, the million dollars will be ours. At that time, each of us will have 500,000 dollars. We can buy a house in our market. Although it’s not big and it’s old, it’s still better than nothing.”

The other one kept nodding, “Then let’s discuss it properly. Don’t let him escape. I think that person is not stupid. Although the two of us are not afraid of one, we are only afraid that he has a knife or something in his hand.”

“So...”

The two people outside muttered for a long time, but Arnold did not hear them clearly. Their voices were not loud, and there was a lot of noise outside. However, even if he did not hear the rest of the words clearly, he knew that.., they were going to capture him to receive the prize money.

One Million, Hehe, one million. He really felt that it was ridiculous. He, Arnold, was worth 250 million. Those women could throw 250 million at him, and he also had eight billion in savings, as long as he got back his savings, he would be a famous millionaire in this kingdom in the future, and these people actually gave him a value of only one million.

A million dollars was enough to buy his life. Did they really think that he was only worth a million dollars.

After the footsteps outside left, he found his suitcase and stuffed all the things from before into it. There were not many things in the suitcase, most of them were jewelry, and now these jewelry.., were his only things.

He lifted the suitcase and stood in front of the window to see if there was anyone outside.

He walked out with the suitcase and left this place without anyone knowing.

He did not know how many times he had changed homes and places.

It was all because of that B * Tch Sun Yuhan. She made him look like trash, hiding everywhere. She actually stopped his card, so he could not take out a single cent.

In the middle of the night, he used his hat to cover half of his face. He also wore a large mask, and even a pair of sunglasses. He wore sunglasses in the middle of the night, other than the obvious fact that he did not want others to recognize him, he was also a pretentious person.

He went to an internet cafe and handed over his identity card. This identity card was not real, but it was not a big problem for him to go online.

He turned on the computer and while waiting for the computer to turn on, his hand occasionally tapped on the desktop. The internet cafe was filled with young people, and it was difficult to find someone as old as him.

Finally, the computer was turned on. He searched for a long time before he found his name, however, when he saw the three words “Wanted criminal” written under the photo, his head buzzed. The person wanted him was none other than the Security Bureau of Hai City.

If a person wanted by the Security Bureau of Hai City was caught, then he would only have a dead end. He stared blankly at the photo of himself, the three conspicuous words in the past., and the color of his eyes in the photo, which was different from that of ordinary people.

The color of his eyes was his pride in the past, but now it was his death warrant.

He put on his sunglasses and hat and followed them out. When he passed by the crowd, he could not help but pull down his hat.

When he reached a place where no one was around, he took out his cell phone.

This time, you must help me. I'm in trouble. What did you say? He did not believe it. You said that the Ye family is looking for me too. They want to buy my life.

Arnold's chest heaved up and down a little. He even felt that he could not bear the violence.

"Sun Yuhan, you're very good."

He hung up the phone and took out a cigarette from his pocket to smoke.

Suddenly, he felt his feet itch. He had just lowered his head when he saw a mouse running past his feet.

He cursed and threw the cigarette he had just taken to the ground. He also stepped on it with his foot.

He took off his glasses. Under the night sky, his pair of green eyes were like a hungry wolf as a cluster of cold green light flashed across them

The entire hai city was still calm. No one knew that not long ago, the weather in hai city might have changed because of the Ye family's airport, it was about to become the greatest humiliation in Hai City. Regardless of whether it was the Lu family, the Ye family, or even the entire hai city, they would have to bear such a humiliation for the rest of their lives.

If the first private airport in the country really had such a reputation, it would be a terrible blow to many industries.

Chapter 1642: worries

This was a very serious matter. However, there were some people who did not know what trouble they had caused. They ate, played, and spent as usual. was there anyone else besides Sun Yuhan?

She was the one who caused the trouble, and she pushed all the blame onto Arnold. She also pushed all the blame onto herself. If there was anyone who was the most shameless among these people, it was probably Sun Yuhan.

Ye Jianguo had to protect her. If she had been born in the Lu family, a prodigal woman like her would have been beaten to death by Old Master Lu. The people of the Lu family had always been righteous, it was absolutely impossible for such a descendant to appear.

However, this was probably inherited. The kind of grandfather would have the same kind of granddaughter.

The apple doesn't fall far from the tree. This was something that should be given to the ye family.

"Did you notice?" Yan Huan asked Lu Yi. "Your daughter seems to have something on her mind recently."

"Something on her mind?" Lu Yi put down the cup in his hand. "What could she have on her mind? She's only three years old."

"Can't she have something on her mind when she's three years old?" Yan Huan felt that there was something on Xunxun's mind. She was the one who gave birth to the child. How could she not know if there was something on her mind? Could it be that he had not noticed that xunxun had been in a daze recently? She could use her little hands to prop up her little face and even learned to meditate. Her little apple-like face really made people want to pinch it. Sometimes, she would nod her head..., sometimes, she would shake her head. Sometimes, she would even talk to herself. It was just that he did not know what she was talking to herself about?

When Yan Huan said that, Lu Yi seemed to have felt that the little girl was more obedient than before. No, she was not obedient, she was dull.

When it was the weekend, he specially brought Xun Xun over. He was afraid that the little girl really had something on her mind.

"Baby, can you tell Daddy What's Wrong?"

Lu Yi placed his daughter on the table and asked her to sit properly. He then bent down and looked parallel to his daughter's gaze. He saw that the little girl had a pair of very beautiful big eyes that were blinking. No matter what, she was very beautiful., she was very cute and made people want to pinch her little face.

"Pull, pull." Xun Xun reached out her little hand and grabbed her father's sleeve.

"Xun Xun wants to learn how to dance, Alright?"

"Sure." Lu Yi wanted to know why his daughter wanted to learn how to dance. It was best for girls to learn how to dance. Yan Huan's good temperament came from learning how to dance from her mother since she was young.

However, how did Little Xun know how to dance?

"Doudou from Kindergarten said that her mother took her to dance. However, she said that dancing hurt, and Xun Xun was afraid of Pain."

Alright, Lu Yi understood. Of course, the mystery was solved. It turned out that his little girl knew that she had grown up. However, she was hesitating while learning how to be afraid of pain. He put his daughter down.

He let her sit on the ground and sat down himself.

"Xunxun is a brave child. As long as we persevere, we will definitely succeed."

"Will it hurt?" Xunxun had always been sick when she was young, so she had always been hospitalized. She did not remember many things, but she remembered a lot of the pain.

Lu Yi let his daughter stand on his lap and pinched her little face, "It's just like daddy pinching Xun Xun's little face. Also, Xun Xun's mother has been dancing since she was young. Our Little Xun Xun will be as beautiful as her mother when she learns how to dance in the future."

"As beautiful as mummy?"

Xun Xun loved her mother the most because her mother was also the most beautiful. One should not look at a three-year-old child, but she already knew how beautiful she was. Now, even when she went to kindergarten every day, she had to pick out clothes to wear, she also had to comb her beautiful hair.

"Yeah, she's as beautiful as her mother."

His family's little girl would definitely be a beauty-loving child in the future, just like her mother, and he was really right. Yan Huan was originally a beauty-loving child. She was also very beautiful. Of course, she was originally extremely beautiful.

A woman had to be responsible for her own beauty.

When Yan Huan heard Lu Yi say that Xun Xun wanted to learn dance and that she was afraid of pain, he didn't know whether to laugh or cry. That was why children nowadays had so many ideas

However, it was a good thing that Little Xun Xun wanted to learn dance. In fact, she had been thinking about this recently. Xun Xun had grown up, and she needed to have her own hobbies.

Her family's Little Xun Xun was so beautiful. Of course, in the future, she also wanted to be a graceful little beauty, so she just wanted Xun Xun to learn how to dance. She just didn't know how to talk to Xun Xun.

But now it was good. Xun Xun had thought of it herself, so she didn't need to put in much effort to communicate with her anymore.

Xun Xun's personality was very obedient on the surface, but she also had a lot of little tempers. If she didn't communicate well, she wouldn't go, and if she went, she wouldn't like it either. So, if she wanted her to like it, she would definitely be able to persevere

Meanwhile, Yan Huan had already begun to look for the most suitable dance studio. In the end, she found a very professional infant dance studio that was closest to the Lu family. However, Xunxun was too young. She was only three years old, if she learned too early, it wouldn't be good for the child's physical development. However, she could go there to lay a foundation for the future.

Ye Shuyun would go to class every week. She directly took the responsibility for this matter. Lu Jin and Old Master Lu were going to fight over it. However, most of the girls stayed there, not as old as the two of them, however, there were still Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had been receiving elite education since a very early age. They could go to the early classes with Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang.

Ye Shuyun liked to accompany her granddaughter to the dance studio, especially when her little Xun Xun stood there. However, the prettiest child in the studio had performed very well even though he had just gone there.

Even the teacher had said that Xun Xun's overall qualities were too good. Moreover, she was obedient. She would do whatever the teacher told her to do. After only going there a few times, she was already able to lower her waist, when they returned, she would perform for Lu Jin and Old Master Lu. Old Master Lu and Lu Jin were both worried and gratified at the same time. However, they could not be blamed for this. The two of them had never seen such a young girl before. Little Xunxun was the first girl in the Lu family in such a long time. A young girl was different from a young boy, the trajectory of her growth was also different. Otherwise, it was impossible for the Lu father and son to be pleasantly surprised every day. Every success of Xunxun was the biggest surprise in Lu Jin and Old Master Lu's lives, it was the biggest surprise in their lives.

"Has that person been caught yet?" Yan Huan asked Lu Yi. She was also eating Xunxun's snacks in her hands. Because she was bored, Lu Yi was still working, and Yan Huan couldn't fall asleep either. Although.., she had just finished eating noodles, but she always had to hold something in her hands. Therefore, Lu Yi gave her the children's snacks. However, she had to admit that they were really delicious.

Chapter 1643: would not be separated

"Soon." Lu Yi turned around and took out a piece of snacks from Yan Huan's bag and put it in his mouth. They might really be the most relaxed parents. Although they had three children and their children were still young.., it was not their place to take care of them.

Actually, it was also good. The children were in the Lu family. It just so happened that Ye Shuyun and the others were not bored anymore. They watched the children every day and felt that their days were fulfilling

As for him and Yan Huan, his work was really a little busy. He really could not take care of the three children. If Yan Huan started filming, he might not be able to take care of the children. At that time, the children would also have to get used to the days when they were away from their parents, it was better to get used to it now than later.

As for Arnold, he narrowed his eyes slightly. Yes, he was about to be caught. They would soon be able to find his traces. Right now, whether it was in the open or in the dark, they were all looking for him, it was impossible for him to hide far away. Moreover, his appearance was different from others, especially that pair of eyes that were different from ordinary people. It was very easy to find him. Of course, it was also very easy for others to find him.

Yan Huan took out another piece from the inside and placed it in his mouth. Then, he took a bite.

However, she didn't know why, but Xinchun seemed to be feeling uneasy. However, she couldn't tell what she was feeling uneasy about.

Nothing should happen to her. She consoled herself. Yes, nothing should happen to her. Now that she did not leave the house, nothing should happen to her.

Just as she was about to take out more snacks from the bag, she realized that they were gone.

She shook the bag in her hand. "It's over."

Lu Yi took out another bag from the cabinet and gave it to her.

“You’re So Nice. You even gave me delicious food.” Yan Huan hugged Lu Yi. She really loved him to death. Indeed, the person who understood her the most in this world was none other than Lu Yi.

“I know you can’t sleep today, so I gave you two bags. You can only eat two bags.”

Lu Yi would indulge her, but he didn’t have to listen to her every time, so he only gave her two bags. He made an exception today. Otherwise, if she were to really eat without restraint, the children’s snacks might all be eaten up by her.

“I got it. This one pack will do.”

Yan Huan waved the snack pack in her hand. Actually, she wasn’t that greedy. One pack was enough to eat. Lu Yi turned around and continued with his work. As for Yan Huan, she had already found a book, she began to flip through the pages one by one.

As she ate the snacks, she looked at them. The warm yellow light fell on her face, and a gentle smile could be seen on her face. At this moment, this was silent companionship, in fact, Yan Huan only wanted to accompany Lu Yi more. Who asked Lu Yi to be so busy? She could only set her biological clock to this state. She slept more during the day and slept less at night. But it could be considered good., although her rest was not very regular, her complexion was good and her spirit was good.

Of course, her body was recovering day by day. She had recovered to her former peak. She did not dare to say it. After all, she had been injured and had laid down for half a year. To be able to recover to this state in such a short period of time., it was really not easy.

Fortunately, she had finally recovered. Even she herself could feel it.

After she finished this packet of snacks, she flipped through quite a number of books. Of course, she was also sleepy.

She yawned, sat up, and stretched her waist. She saw that Lu Yi was still sitting there busy. He was very serious. Even the light cast on the side of his face was extremely serious. She did not know what kind of problem he had encountered., it seemed like he was thinking about filial piety, and it also seemed like he was trying to solve it., however, Yan Huan believed that there was nothing in this world that could be difficult for Lu Yi, because he was not someone else. He was Lu Yi.

She yawned again, and she was really sleepy. The time now was probably around two o’clock. This was also her limit. If she did not sleep, she might be able to fall asleep standing up later.

Alright, time to sleep. She found her shoes, went to the bathroom to brush her teeth and wash her face. Then, she went to make a cup of milk tea for Lu Yi. Lu Yi liked to drink this, and it also had a refreshing effect. Lu Yi didn’t like to drink coffee, he wasn’t used to it, but he liked to drink milk tea.

Yan Huan had thought of ways to buy these milk tea powder, and he had learned it from a professional. Now, she could make a good milk tea, and it wasn’t any worse than the ones sold outside, some of the flavors were even developed by herself. For example, the one she made today was mango milk tea. There was very little sugar in it, and it had a sour and sweet taste of Mango.

This was also Lu Yi's favorite flavor.

Yan Huan placed the milk tea on the table, and there was a warming coaster on the table. As long as the cup was placed on it, no matter what kind of drink it was, it would have some warmth.

As soon as Yan Huan placed the cup down, Lu Yi reached out to take it. He placed the milk tea by his mouth. He really liked this drink. It was what he drank yesterday, and he could still drink it today. HMM, not bad. Yan Huan prepared the milk tea for him, it was never too repetitive, and there were many different tastes. Sometimes, he thought that his family owned a milk tea shop, and the owner of this milk tea shop was called Yan Huan.

Lu Yi put down the cup, and when he turned around, he saw Yan Huan rubbing his eyes. He was already very tired.

"You go to sleep. I'll be busy for a while more." He patted Yan Huan's face. She was really about to fall asleep sitting there. With her temper, he really couldn't do anything about it. No matter what., she just had to stay up late with him. A woman's time wasn't used to stay up late. However, she didn't care, so what else could he do? It was not like he did not know Yan Huan's temper. As long as she decided on something, how could she change it? What he could do was to finish all the work earlier so that he could relax for a while.

Yan Huan rubbed her eyes again. She looked at Lu Yi and rested her chin on his shoulder. I'm going to sleep. See you tomorrow.

"Okay, see you tomorrow." Lu Yi kissed her on the cheek, then turned around and went back to work. Yan Huan was already asleep. She fell asleep with the sound of his fingers tapping on the keyboard, it was the same every night. If it wasn't enough, she might really not be able to fall asleep.

What responded to Lu Yi was the sound of her breathing and the cup of milk tea on the table.

Lu Yi picked up the cup of milk tea and took another sip. The milk tea had always been warm. Drinking it in his mouth was surprisingly refreshing.

He turned back to take a look at Yan Huan and saw that she was already fast asleep. The sound of her shallow breathing could be heard from time to time. It seemed to be the same as the milk tea, warm and rich.

Lu Yi stood up and walked to the bedside to sit down. He pulled the blanket under her chin.

"Sleep." He gently touched Yan Huan's forehead. "I've always been here. In this life, I will never leave you. Never again."

They would not be like their previous lives, separated by life and death.

Chapter 1644: who is your darling

In this lifetime, everything will be fine. Yes, everything will be fine

The warm light fell on Yan Huan's face. At that moment, her eyebrows were tinged with a trace of gentleness.

There was also the cup of milk tea placed on the table. It warmed their hearts and was also sweet to the bottom of their hearts.

Actually, there were times when they did not need many words and did not need any sweet words. Some feelings had already taken root in their hearts long ago. They had sprouted and grown into a huge tree in the sky.

This place was warm and peaceful, but no one knew that at this moment, in another room, almost everything was Golden and resplendent. Everything also represented luxury and taste.

However, there was a lot of luxury, but taste was somewhat reluctant.

There was a photo frame on the table, and inside the photo frame was a picture of a woman, a woman who had been deceived by makeup. Others might think that this was her, but in her heart, this was her.

Her phone rang.

Sun Yuhan sat up abruptly and picked up her phone. There was another message on it, one after another. She was very annoyed. She had smashed a lot of phones, but if she continued to smash them, she would eventually have to buy a new one, as long as she had a phone, that message would be sent to her one after another.

She turned on her phone and saw that it was a message that she was almost familiar with. It was also a message that made her hate him.

"Darling, I miss you. Don't You Miss Me?"

"Darling, you know that I love you the most, so remember to come and see me."

"Darling, why haven't You Come Yet? I've been waiting for you for a whole day."

"My dear, you should know that my patience is limited. We are all tied to the same rope, and we are also tied to the same boat. No matter what happens, you can rest assured that I will definitely protect you. But my dear, you also have to know what I want."

These words of "My dear", when she first heard them, she only felt that it was laughable. How could a man who wanted to take away all her money be worthy of saying "Love"? My dear, my ass.

Sun Yuhan admitted that she liked Arnold more than most people. This might be the man she liked the most in her life. She had cried for him, hated him, and complained for him.

But what could she do in the end? What did it matter if it was true love? could true love be used as food? Could she survive?

She did love Arnold, but she loved herself more.

And between loving herself and loving Arnold, she chose to love herself.

However, she believed that this was a choice that many people would make. People were selfish to begin with, so Sun Yuhan's choice would also be the choice of most women. She originally thought that she had already forgotten about that man.

However, she did not expect that man to appear like a ghost.

It was still the same tone that had captivated her in the past. Every time she heard that sentence, she would be elated, Darling, Darling.

In the past, she had loved this tone, but now she just felt bored. She did not like the word 'love', and she did not like the sentence coming from that man's mouth.

Especially the sound of the haunting voice, which almost caused her to break down. It was the sound of nightmares at night.

With a ding, the other side of the phone rang again. She resisted the urge to smash her phone. The more messages she received, the worse her mood became. Her heart was also in a mess, and she was afraid of this.., she was afraid of the moment when her phone rang. She was even more afraid of the moment when her phone fell to the ground. It was as if she had fallen to the ground, broken, smashed, and finally turned into dust, it was also impossible to find it in this world, and she did not even have a sense of her own existence.

She ran over and grabbed the phone that was placed on the edge of the bed. When the phone was held in her hand, it actually felt as if it had heat. It burned her fingers just like that, and she almost threw the phone.., once again.

Sun Yuhan used all her strength and also exhaled loudly. She could almost hear the nervous beating of her heart.

Thump, thump..

Of course, this was definitely not a woman's heartbeat when she met a man. It was a woman's panic and fear when she met a ghost. To her, this phone, this message, and the person who sent it.., they were all like ghosts.

She took the phone in front of her and opened the message with her trembling fingers.

"My dear, a hundred days of love in one night. This is the favorite phrase of people in your country. We have been married for so long. Didn't you say that you would die without me?"

The word "Die" made Sun Yuhan touch her arm involuntarily. She had goosebumps all over her body. Whether it was a courtship or a declaration of love, it really made her feel a little disgusted.

She took the phone and pressed it a few times. She didn't even want to hear the man's voice. She hated him as much as she loved him in the past. Besides, how could she die for someone else? She only had one life, of course, she loved herself the most.

"What do you want?"

The other side quickly sent a reply. It seemed that even the phone vibrated. At the same time, her heart and her courage vibrated.

She gripped her phone tightly and opened it. She placed the phone in front of her.

“My dear, what can I want? Of course, I just want to see you. Remember, don’t call the police. Don’t forget, I’m not the only one who did this. If I’m arrested, I won’t know what I’ll say.”

“Didn’t you say that if something happened, you would recite it yourself?”

Sun Yuhan added another long string of words.

“I’m reciting it myself. It’s not that I haven’t told anyone. Of course, the prerequisite is that I’m not caught.”

“What exactly do you want?” Sun Yuhan was almost hysterical. Yes, what exactly did he want to do? How could he let her go?

“Darling, I just want to see you. It’s that simple.”

“Okay.” Sun Yuhan gritted her teeth and typed out this word.

She knew very well that this Arnold was simply haunting her. If he wanted to see her, she had to see him. It was not easy for her to make people believe that what she did was not her original intention, she had been bewitched by Arnold, and Arnold did indeed have this kind of illusion to bewitch one woman after another. Ye Jianguo had finally believed her, but if Arnold said anything else., everything she had worked so hard for, her future, and everything she had, had been completely destroyed. and the most regretful thing she had done in her life was to spend 250 million to buy such a man. Now that she thought about it., other than warming a woman’s bed and sweet-talking her, such a man would only harm others.

Chapter 1645: was arrested

And he had really caused her a lot of trouble.

Now, not only did she not get a single cent, but she was almost going to accompany her in.

She threw her phone aside. When she came out again, although she had already put on a thick layer of makeup, even such a thick layer of foundation could not hide the Haggard look on her face, she did not even dare to look at herself, afraid that she would become ugly and old.

Her phone rang. She took it out. The moment she saw the words “Dear” in front of her, she instinctively felt disgusted.

“Dear, remember to keep moving forward. I will tell you the way.”

Sun Yuhan could only move forward. However, her mood was even more annoyed because of Arnold’s deliberately mystifying act. She had already said that she would not call the police, yet he still gave her this trick.

However, she seemed to be unable to do anything other than agree. If she agreed, she could only agree.

She was wearing high heels and making turns. She walked until her feet hurt, but in the end, she still had to grind her feet to walk. And she was a little annoyed that she was wearing high heels today, and the road Arnold gave her.., it was so difficult to walk. She turned here and there, and the road was uneven. No matter how capable she was, it was impossible for her to run in high-heeled shoes.

In the end, she had no choice. When she saw someone selling shoes on the street, she could only buy a pair of shoes. However, when she changed into them, she was extremely reluctant. It had been a long time since she had worn such cheap shoes, however, in the current situation, and she could not go to a large shopping mall to buy a pair of shoes for herself, she could only compromise and change into this pair of shoes. Then, she put her high heels into the bag in her hand, when the road was good, she would put them on again. However, she did not know that today's cheap, flat shoes, which she despised, had saved her life.

Perhaps she was only suitable to wear these shoes because she was destined to wear these shoes. Even if she had everything now, it would disappear like a mirage one day.

However, she still did not understand. She thought that all of this would be foolproof. She also thought that she would always be a member of the Ye family. However, her future was not what she thought nor what she thought. These things.., only Heaven knew.

Sun Yuhan continued to follow the instructions on her phone. The more she walked, the harder it was to walk. If she did not wear such a pair of flats, she might really die here.

When she walked into a small alley, a hand suddenly reached out from behind her and tightly covered her mouth. The other hand fixed her hand

She widened her eyes and struggled as if she had gone crazy. The person behind her had an unpleasant smell, just like the smell in a garbage dump. The smell was sour and disgusting.

“Wu Wu...”

She kept wanting to scream and struggle, but she also started punching and kicking. She even lost the high-heeled shoes in her hand. At this time, the disgusting hand was still moving around her body.

“Dear, what’s wrong? Don’t you like me like this the most?”

Suddenly, the voice behind her made Sun Yuhan’s pupils shrink, and the struggle turned into trembling. Her mouth was also making a sound, as if she was afraid and begging for mercy.

“Dear, remember not to make a sound. Otherwise, I will be angry.”

It was still the same sweet voice. She used to feel charming, but now, she only felt fear.

The man behind her grabbed Sun Yuhan’s shoulder tightly. Sun Yuhan was like a piece of goods, being dragged in. Her mouth was still mumbling, perhaps she wanted to cry for help, but she couldn’t cry out. She couldn’t make a sound, so she didn’t dare to cry out.

With a bang, she was thrown into a warehouse-like room. There was nothing in it except dust. It didn’t look like a place where people lived, but a place where dogs lived.

At this moment, the hand covering her mouth was put down

Sun Yuhan just opened her mouth, but a pair of wolf-like eyes stared at her.

Her mouth was still wide open, but she couldn't make any sound.

"That's right." Arnold reached out his dirty hands and patted Sun Yuhan's face, "What's wrong, Darling? Aren't you happy to see me? "But why am I so happy to see you? Why do I Like You So Much? Darling, do you know that you are my everything? How can I not have you? Even if I die, we will die together."

His voice became softer and softer, and it also made Sun Yuhan's hair stand on end.

"AH..." Suddenly, Sun Yuhan screamed and pushed Arnold away. She ran to the door and wanted to open it. However, no matter how she screamed, she kept pushing and smashing the door, however, the door did not move at all. There was not even a response from her.

Only then did she remember that she had come here in a roundabout way, so much so that she had forgotten the way. And where was this place? It was an abandoned place. No one lived there, and no one would patronize it, there was not even a person who picked up trash.

As for Arnold, he stood to the side. The smile on his face was always a little strange. It was as if he was deliberately looking at Sun Yuhan, who could not get what she wanted and could not run away in a fluster and fear.

And that was what he wanted. A person's body had spirit, but if the spirit and body were carried at the same time, then what else did this person have? What else could he want?

"Ha, Ha Ha..."

Arnold suddenly laughed strangely.

Sun Yuhan turned around, and that inexplicable fear swept over her entire body.

"AH... Arnold... What are you doing?"

She stuttered, and the cold sweat on her forehead dripped down one by one. The makeup on her face had long been ruined, and she revealed her ordinary appearance.

In fact, whether she wore makeup or not didn't seem to make any difference. It was also an ugly word.

Although Arnold was still smiling, his smile was very cold. It was so cold that Sun Yuhan couldn't help but shiver.

At this moment, this man was no longer the same Arnold from before. He had become a disgusting and frightening beggar.

The clothes on his body had not been changed for a long time. His hair had not been washed for a long time. It was also pulled into a ball. His entire body was emitting a garbage smell, which was also nauseating.

Even his eyes, which had always been lake-green, were now like a stinking ditch. They were no longer as clear as before. Instead, they had become dark. His face was thin, and his eyes were green, his entire person seemed to have become a skeleton.

Chapter 1646: she wanted to go home

If he was selling by the pound now, it was likely that no one would pay attention to him. It was not the peerless handsome man who had caused many women to go crazy and become infatuated with him at the trade fair. The current him, not to mention 250 million.., let's see if anyone would want 250 million?

In the past, Arnold was selling his face, but now, even if he was selling his flesh, no one would want him anymore.

Arnold went forward, while Sun Yuhan retreated. She hid her body in the corner of the wall. She was so scared that her face turned blue, and her snot and tears flowed out.

"Darling, How Can You Be Afraid of Me?" Arnold was still smiling. However, such a smile made Sun Yuhan's heart involuntarily shiver.

Her mouth was whimpering, but she didn't dare to speak. However, Arnold's current appearance made her feel a rising fear for no reason. She regretted coming here. She should have asked her bodyguards to follow her, she should have been more cautious. But why? Why? Why was she so stupid? Now she was a lamb waiting to be slaughtered in front of others.

And the thing that terrified her the most was not the person in front of her, but what kind of fate Arnold was going to give her.

Would she die?

No, she did not want to die. She was afraid of death.

"I beg you to let me go?" She cried her makeup into a mess. No matter how she looked at it, it was disgusting, and she still did not know.

"My dear, why would I Let You Die?" Arnold's expression had always been smiling, but this was only on his face. Even his eyes were like they had been dipped in poison. They were dim and cold.

"I love you the most." His thin lips spat out the words. No matter how much Sun Yuhan shivered, she still shrank her body. If she still believed the words of love from Arnold's mouth, then she was really too stupid.

Arnold reached out his hand and also reached out to Sun Yuhan. Sun Yuhan suddenly shrank her body. She was so afraid that she did not dare to move. Arnold, on the other hand, took her bag from her body and then took out a wallet from inside, he took out all the money inside, counted it again, and then put it all on his body.

And when he raised his face again, there was no deep affection in his dull eyes. Even the deep affection in the past was all faked.

"Don't think about running away." Arnold patted Sun Yuhan's face. At that moment, he did not act anymore. He did not say "Dear" anymore, "I'm so good to you. Everything I did was because of you. It was all for you, but you pushed all the blame on me."

“You were the one who did all these things.” Sun Yuhan raised her face, and her voice was almost shrill.

Yes, what did these things have to do with her? He was the one who suggested it, he was the one who did it, and he was the one who saved the money. Later, he was the one who took her things away. He was already unkind to her, so why did she have to carry all these things for him.

“So you’re not that stupid?” Arnold grabbed Sun Yuhan’s hair again, and it also made Sun Yuhan’s entire face contort, “Do you know how ugly you are? Do you know how disgusting it is for me to call you ‘Darling’ every time and still act affectionate towards you? If it weren’t for the Ye family, who do you think you are?”

“You’re the one who caused me to end up like this, so you have to take responsibility.”

“You actually have people arrest me?” Arnold grabbed Sun Yuhan’s hair again with force, causing Sun Yuhan’s mouth to twitch. However, she could only hunch her body, not even daring to say a word, she didn’t dare to curse.

The Arnold now was simply a lunatic, a lunatic.

What made her even more unable to accept was what Arnold said. When he was with her, he was actually disgusted, but there was clearly love between them in the past.

Yes, there was love between them, but it was also fake love.

Arnold stood up, found a rope, and tied Sun Yuhan up. Then, he picked up Sun Yuhan’s phone and found a person’s number on it. There were two words written on it, grandfather.

He picked up the phone and put it beside Sun Yuhan’s ear. You know what to say. Don’t play tricks on me. Otherwise, his finger moved to Sun Yuhan’s neck. As soon as he stopped.., sun Yuhan’s neck would be broken immediately.

“Hello, Yuhan, what’s wrong?” Ye Jianguo’s voice came from the other side. Sun Yuhan’s red eyes trembled from time to time. Several times, she wanted to cry for help to ye Jianguo, but at this time, the hand that Arnold reached out.., would tighten her neck a little. She didn’t have the slightest doubt that Arnold wouldn’t kill her. He would. He would definitely kill her.

For a madman who was on the run and didn’t have any relatives by his side, killing people was very easy.

“Yuhan...” ye Jianguo was also a little strange on the other side. This was clearly Sun Yuhan’s phone call. Why didn’t she say anything for a long time.

“Yuhan, what’s wrong? Tell Grandpa.”

“I. . .” Sun Yuhan had just opened her mouth when she was strangled.

“Grandpa... I. . .” She licked the corner of her dry and cracked lips. “I’m... Fine, I just... I just have a location to shoot recently, so I won’t go back for now.”

“I see. Okay, Grandpa Knows.” On the other side, ye Jianguo’s loving voice made Sun Yuhan almost cry. Although he wasn’t her biological grandpa, he treated her better than anyone else.

She loved this grandfather. As long as she could get out, she would definitely treat him well in the future. She would take care of him until his death. Of course, there was also the Ye family. The Ye family was also hers.

Arnold had already taken the phone and put it in his pocket. When he walked out, he locked the door. Sun Yuhan could even hear the sound of the door being locked.

Sun Yuhan, who was locked inside, finally saw everything in the room clearly. There was nothing but a broken table. There were a few bowls of uneaten instant noodles on the table. She could even smell the smell of instant noodles, the windows were all nailed shut by steel bars. The only way out was the door. She pulled the rope on her body. She was tied to the window, not to mention going to the door, even if she wanted to go to the bathroom now, there was no way.

In fact, she had wanted to go for a long time, but she kept holding it in. What should she do? She couldn't hold it in any longer.

Suddenly, she felt her body loosen up, and some water stains slowly flowed out from her feet, along with a stench.

She couldn't help but burst into tears.

She did not want to be here, she wanted to go home, she wanted to go home..

She did not know how long she cried until she heard the sound of the door. The light outside also brightened up, and with a creak, the door closed as well.

Arnold took a bag of things and walked in. His clothes were also changed. Of course, it could be seen that they were all cheap goods from the stalls,

Chapter 1647: I can help you

His hair almost covered his eyes. Even his pair of green eyes were almost black. His face was so thin that it was sunken in. If one did not look carefully, one would not be able to recognize him, this was the man who had caused so many women to throw hundreds of millions of dollars at him. He was like a monster.

He was now a dirty and smelly beggar. Of course, this was also the reason why no one had found him after he had been out for so long. If one were to compare his previous photos with his current ones, he was a completely different person, forget about comparing his previous photos, it was fine if those who had never seen him didn't do so. Even Sun Yuhan, who was closest to him, didn't recognize him immediately, let alone other people.

Arnold took out a basket of buns and a few cans of beer from the bag and sat there to eat. Every time he took a bite, he would make Sun Yuhan swallow her saliva.

She had not eaten for a long time. She was really hungry.

However, Arnold gave Sun Yuhan a cold glance. He took another can of beer. With a click, he opened the can and began to drink. After he finished drinking.., he picked up the can and threw it aside. Then, he lay on the simple bed and slept.

Sun Yuhan licked her dry skin and cracked lips.

“Can you give me some water?”

However, Arnold didn't even move.

Sun Yuhan was still tied to the window. Arnold was torturing her. She was obviously hungry, but Arnold could eat meat and drink alcohol, and the money was hers.

Every day, Arnold was like a dog. He would throw biscuits at her, and she wouldn't starve to death even if she wasn't full. Sun Yuhan ate, drank, and slept here, and Arnold was the same. This place.., it wasn't ventilated to begin with, and the smell inside was even worse. The two of them were no longer beautiful or ugly, nor clean.

Sun Yuhan, who had been a rich young lady for so many years, paid attention to everything. She ate the delicacies of the mountains and seas, and the dishes that cost tens of thousands per table were common meals

And now, she was still on the ground, picking up the things that Huan Arnold had given her. She felt that she was no longer human.

“How can you let me go?” Sun Yuhan was so thin that she could not even be considered human. She did not know how long she had been wearing the clothes on her body. In any case, she had not changed since she was caught.

She was living like a dog. All she wanted to know now was what Arnold wanted to do, what he wanted, and how he could get her back.

“I'll give you money. I have money. I have a lot of money. You can take all of it.”

Arnold held a bank card in his hand and shook it at her.

“You don't have to give it to me. I can get it myself.”

When Sun Yuhan saw the bank card, her face almost contorted again. This was her card. She did not know how much money she could withdraw from her card, and she had never withdrawn any money. She spent quite a lot of money when she went out. If she had to pay cash, how much cash would be enough in her bag? Therefore, she used her card directly.

She did not look at the number, nor did she look at the quantity.

As for Arnold, he took her credit card and bought food, groceries, and flowers. However, they were still like pigs. They lived in this place. Three meals a day, eating, drinking, and defecating. Everything was settled here.

If this continued, Sun Yuhan would forget whether she was a human or a ghost.

She had never been so dirty before, and she had never been so disgusting. Now, she felt disgusted, let alone others.

Arnold threw the card in his hand to the side and took a roasted chicken. He ate it mouthful by mouthful, but his face was still deeply sunken. He looked like he had aged more than ten years, and his hair was not washed, he did not shave his beard. Now, he had a full beard, and even his eyes were not as bright as before.

As for Sun Yuhan, it was about the same.

So this was what they meant by 'sharing weal and Woe', right?

Sun Yuhan was about to go crazy from the torture.

"What do you want? Tell me."

Sun Yuhan's voice was almost on the verge of collapse. Her hair was disheveled, and she looked like a crazy woman.

Arnold tore off another drumstick and put it to his mouth. He didn't say a word.

He threw Sun Yuhan's phone aside and lay down. He looked at the screen on the phone. The screen on the phone was very small, so he could still see and continue watching.

Why did Sun Yuhan hear this voice so familiar.

Wasn't this the Xianyun that she had filmed? This was the best-received film of the year. She had filmed it herself, so how could she not know? She could recite all the lines on it now.

She did not feel anything when Arnold watched this film. She could already move freely here, but she was always tied up with a metal chain. Arnold treated her like a dog, when she was walking, he could give her some air, but she could not run. She ran back and forth many times, but each time, she never ran out. When she was caught by him, he would beat her up.

Arnold's temper was becoming more and more strange. He began to punch and kick her, which she began to like.

She was afraid of the current Arnold, and did not dare to run anymore. Because she knew that even if she ran again, she would be caught by him. When that time came, she would inevitably be beaten up. The current Arnold simply could not be understood by common sense, he was a lunatic.

Sun Yuhan hid herself in the corner. She could still hear the sound from her phone. At first, she thought that Arnold was bored and liked to watch TV. But later on, she seemed to have a very strange feeling.

Because Arnold watched the same episode repeatedly.

She did not believe it. After listening to it for a few days, she had an almost impossible thought in her heart. It also made her more resentful. Did Arnold treat that woman..

Su Muran or Yan Huan. Which one of them was it?

"Arnold, I can help you find Su Muran, as long as you're willing."

She finally could not endure such torture. As long as she could go out, betraying anyone was nothing to her.

However, Arnold did not even lift his eyelids.

In Sun Yuhan's heart, she felt that Arnold might be more interested in Su Muran. After all, he had once praised Su Muran. She thought that the two of them had quarreled. As for how they reconciled in the end., she had forgotten that if that was really the case, she had said that she would find Su Muran. She believed that Su Muran would definitely come.

She had the ability and the confidence to do so.

As long as she could leave, what did it matter if she sacrificed Su Muran? And she was more than willing to let Su Muran die here. She just hoped that Arnold could torture Su Muran to death, it would be best if both of them died.

Her wishful thinking was good, but Arnold did not even lift his eyelids. Of course, he did not respond to her.

Chapter 1648: was changed

"Arnold..."Sun Yuhan called out Arnold's name again, but it was the same for Arnold. It was as if he was completely ignorant of the outside world.

As for Arnold, he was still looking at the pictures in his phone. Sometimes, it was as if he was dead. He didn't say anything and didn't hum.

Could it be that she was really wrong?

Sun Yuhan's heart was churning again, as if she was in despair after her hope was shattered.

Arnold was still looking at his phone. It was just one episode.

Why did he watch that? Why did he have to watch the same episode? Why did he keep repeating the same voice.

"Arnold, if you want to have a good time, I can help you get her here."

Actually, she did not know what she had said. She just felt that if she did not say anything more, she might even go crazy. It was either her or Su Muran, Su Muran or Yan Huan.

However, she had never thought about Yan Huan.

Yan Huan was already married and had three children. She did not even go out on weekdays, so it was impossible for Arnold to have any thoughts about her. Moreover, Arnold had never said anything to her, he had never mentioned Yan Huan's name, nor had he ever paid attention to Yan Huan.

Therefore, she only thought of Su Muran, but she had never thought of Yan Huan.

Just as she finished speaking, suddenly, Arnold sat up. He stared at Sun Yuhan, causing her to involuntarily shrink back.

At this moment, his lake-green eyes, which had previously mesmerized sun yuhan to the point of dizziness, were actually churning inside. However, his appearance was still as cold and strange.

Such a strange and Crazy Man also made Sun Yuhan really afraid.

He stood up and walked to Sun Yuhan's side. Then, he squatted down. His green eyes no longer exuded gentleness, but a beast-like gloominess.

Sun Yuhan was truly afraid.

"You... What do you want to Do?"

She hugged her head. She always felt that the current Arnold was about to bite off a piece of flesh from her body. She felt fear, and she also felt fear.

Arnold suddenly reached out and grabbed Sun Yuhan's hair again. It was as if he had done the most actions in the past few days. Sun Yuhan did not know how many times she had been grabbed like this, and how many strands of hair had been pulled out.

Sun Yuhan tightly closed her eyes, and her body began to tremble violently.

She was afraid. She was also afraid.

She did not say anything wrong, nor did she do anything wrong. Why was it like this? Why did it have to be like this.

"Can you find her? Suddenly, Arnold let go of Sun Yuhan's hair, and his voice was like a thorn that pierced Sun Yuhan's heart from time to time.

Who, who was she?

Who could she be?

It was Yan Huan.

Ha... Sun Yuhan wanted to laugh, but she realized that she couldn't laugh at all. Of course, she couldn't cry at all.

Why was it her again?

How could she be so lucky? Even if the Su family killed her, she couldn't kill her.

This time, she should be dead, right?

Her eyes went from hatred to calmness now. Under the calmness, there was a hint of madness. She didn't know if she was crazy or if everyone else was crazy.

"Are you talking about Yan Huan?"

She asked despite knowing the answer.

"Don't play any tricks with me." Arnold Gently scratched Sun Yuhan's face, "Anyway, I have nothing left. If I die, so be it. Of course, I will also Drag Miss Sun along with me. My life is cheap." Arnold's Chinese was getting better and better, and even his previous foreign accent was gone, it was unknown whether it was because his speed of speech was good, or that he was just pretending in the past.

Sun Yuhan was once again frightened by his cold tone. Even if he had any thoughts, he did not dare to.

"I can help you. I can help you to capture her."

She stuttered. She could do it. She really could.

Then, I will wait for your good news. Arnold gently blew on Sun Yuhan's face. At that moment, it was as cold as snow and terrifying.

He loosened Sun Yuhan's clothes and took a photo of her clothes. Then, he took out his phone, opened the door, left, and closed the door.

When he came back, he had changed into a new set of clothes. He seemed to have showered. Even his beard had been shaved and his hair had been tidied up.

He even found a mirror and looked at himself in it from time to time.

He believed that he was still good-looking, and he was still attracted to women. Therefore, women should fall for him.

Sun Yuhan also made use of this opportunity to raise her request. "Look, can we just stay here? This place is too dirty. That woman has a mysophobia." As for Yan Huan having a mysophobia., it was likely that many people would know about it.

Arnold also seemed to be considering this problem. He was not stupid, so he did not know what Sun Yuhan meant. It seemed that all of this was for his sake, but everyone knew.

How could this be for him? Sun Yuhan was doing it for herself.

However, Arnold accepted this suggestion. He took out a bank card from his pocket and put on his sunglasses. When she saw the bank card, Sun Yuhan was so angry that her stomach almost burned.

It was her bank card, and it was also her money.

Not long after, Arnold came back and threw a set of clothes to Sun Yuhan. Sun Yuhan took the clothes with trembling hands and tried to change in a hurry. The clothes on her body were almost smelly, they were hard, smelly, and dirty. Every day, she woke up in the smell and slept on her feces like a dog.

Just thinking about it made her nauseous, and the smell of her own body made her even more nauseous.

Sun Yuhan could not care less whether Arnold was in the morning or not. She immediately took off her clothes and changed into new clothes with trembling hands. Because she had eaten too much in the past, she had been trying to lose weight, however, she did not have much results. This time, it was good. She was as thin as a rib. Not to mention being as thin as lightning, she was already as thin as a dried child.

And she would rather be fat to death than not be thin like this.

In just a few days, she could almost touch her own ribs, one by one. She could also touch the bones on her body that were protruding out. And his face, it was also because he had not maintained it for a long time, she did not know how old he had become.

She changed her clothes and smiled unsightly at Arnold.

The clothes on her body were even more unsightly.

She did not need to look at these clothes to know that they were picked from the street stalls outside. These were the clothes she used to wear the most when she had not yet arrived at the ye family. Each of them cost several tens of yuan, and she had long gotten used to the life of wearing clothes worth tens of thousands of yuan.

Chapter 1649: asked her to come over

When these cheap clothes were put on her, she instantly felt that she had become cheap as well.

“1...”

Before she could finish her sentence, she felt a pain in her neck. Her vision changed from light to darkness.

When she woke up again, she was already in another room. There was a metal chain tied to her back. This house seemed to have been occupied before. The house was relatively clean and there was not much dust, there was still nothing in the room. Not only was there a wooden bed, but on the wooden bed, there was only a set of dirty bedding.

The door outside rang. Arnold walked in and threw a mantou on the table.

Sun Yuhan could not help but swallow her saliva. She quickly ran over, grabbed the mantou with one hand, and wolfed down the mantou.

However, she ate too quickly, and she directly choked on her food. Her mouth was still wide open, but her face was a little red from holding it in.

Arnold just stood by the side and watched. Even if she really choked to death, it seemed to have nothing to do with him.

Sun Yuhan’s face had already turned green from choking. With her sharp eyes, she noticed that there was a washroom in the room. She grabbed the clothes on her chest and ran over as if she had gone mad. She turned on the tap, regardless of whether the water was dirty or clean, she directly put her mouth under the tap and poured it into her mouth.

Only when the mouthful of water was forcefully swallowed did she feel that even her breathing was smooth and she was alive.

She lay on the pool and coughed hard, almost hurting her throat.

When she came out again, she looked as if she had collapsed. Her face, which was as white as a ghost, was colorless, and even her throat was hurting.

“Wait for me...” as soon as she opened her mouth, she could hear that her voice was not good. It was hoarse and unpleasant to hear.

Arnold’s eyes narrowed. At that moment, the killing intent in his eyes also shocked Sun Yuhan.

“Tomorrow, Tomorrow,” she hurriedly used her broken voice to guarantee, “Believe me, I will call her over to you tomorrow. I promise, I really promise.” She was about to curse and swear. She was begging

Arnold not to be angry, not to hit her, and not to kill her. The current Arnold.., he was simply a crazy person who could not be determined. If she really could not find that person, she was afraid that Arnold would really stab her to death with a knife.

She wanted to live, but she did not want to die. She already had everything. If she died like this, who would pay for her life? Therefore, she did not want to die. She could not die either. If she died, it would be someone else's death.

The heavens were kind to her, but they could not bear to let her die, right?

"Are you satisfied here?" Arnold asked Sun Yuhan faintly. Sun Yuhan's smile was ugly. Satisfied? How could she be satisfied? She wanted to return to the ye family. She wanted to sleep in her big soft bed, and she also wanted to wear custom-made clothes, she wanted to use international brand cosmetics, not in this morning. She was like a prisoner, a prisoner without human rights, a prisoner who did not know when she would die.

"It seems that you are not satisfied."

Arnold naturally saw the disdain in Sun Yuhan's eyes, "Then you can go back to that place. I feel that it suits you very well. Don't worry, I Won't starve you. I will give you a steamed bun and a bottle of water every day. It will be enough for you to live for a day."

"No, no, it's fine. It's really fine here." Sun Yuhan quickly said nice things. That place was her nightmare. She ate, drank, and defecated in the same place. It was not a place where people lived, it was a pig's nest. She did not want to go back. She would not go back even if she died.

"What method do you want to use to get her to come over?"

Arnold crossed his arms over his chest, "What? Don't tell me. You are lying to me. Sun Yuhan, my temper is not very good right now. You better not let me lose my temper, or I will push your head into the toilet."

Sun Yuhan suddenly felt a chill and hurriedly shook her head. "Don't worry, I Won't lie to you. She'll definitely come. You have to believe me, she'll definitely come."

Sun Yuhan repeatedly promised Arnold that she was almost going to kneel down and swear.

And for the sake of her own life, no matter what, she would definitely get Yan Huan that woman.

However, what kind of excuse did Yan Huan have to find to come here? She still did not know that Yan Huan was too careful at the moment. Moreover, he was staying in Old Master Lu's residence and almost never came out, moreover, even if he came out, he would bring a lot of bodyguards with him.

When she thought of this, Sun Yuhan's eyes rolled. If Yan Huan really came over and brought the bodyguards with him, then even if Arnold had three heads and six arms, he would not be able to live. He was originally a wanted criminal. As long as he went in.., he would definitely be sentenced to death. Then, she would be able to rest comfortably. Sun Yuhan really agreed with that sentence. The most poisonous woman's heart. Yes, the most poisonous woman's heart. Even the person she had once slept with was a vital point.., and she had to use such a method.

She wanted to borrow someone else's hand so that she could get rid of the big trouble in her heart, right?

The problem now was how she was going to get Yan Huan to come over and what kind of excuse she was going to use. Ye Xinyu, no. Now That Ye Lu and Ye Xinyu had become enemies, it wouldn't be too much to say that they were like fire and water.

Then what kind of excuse was she going to use.

Su Muran?

No, Yan Huan had never taken Su Muran seriously. Perhaps in Yan Huan's eyes, Su Muran was just a pile of trash. and whether Su Muran was alive or dead, what did it have to do with her?

Then..

This was the only one.

She bit her chapped lips. That night, she had only slept on the bed and had only been clean once. However, there was only one bun a day, and she didn't even have boiling water, she drank the water that flowed from the tap in the bathroom. In her entire life, she had never lived such a miserable life. Even when she was the poorest and most down and out, she had never lived like this.

In her heart, she wished that she could tear Arnold into pieces. How could she raise such a man? Even if she raised a dog, he would still wag his tail and beg for mercy.

The door outside was pushed open. Sun Yu hurriedly sat up. She didn't dare to sleep anymore.

Arnold placed his phone in front of Sun Yuhan. "Speak, let her come over."

Sun Yuhan hurriedly took her phone and held it tightly. Only then did she find Yan Huan's phone and call him.

Yan Huan was eating the snacks that he had found while watching TV. She had been living such a leisurely life recently. Yes, it would be great if she could continue living like this. However, when she thought about it again., the first two parts of the shoot were about to begin, she felt a little headache.

Chapter 1650: for example

She really didn't want to do it, but now it seemed that she didn't even have the right to refuse. She had no choice but to do it.

No matter what, she didn't want to act anymore in the future. She had already gotten what she wanted. Now, she felt that this kind of life was pretty good. She still had to spend more time with her husband and her three children in the future, the children grew up day by day. In a few months, they would be four years old. Four years old was no longer as fun as three years old. They were so good now. They were so obedient and obedient. However, the older they grew, the more disobedient they became, and the more narrow-minded they were, in the future, she would hide things from her mother. Now that she was just a little young, she was already so narrow-minded.

She had always been honest in the past, so she must have inherited this trait from Lu Yi.

As for grand prosecutor Lu, he seemed to be quite wronged as well. How could his child have grown up and become so calculative? It was also the Lu family's fault.

Yan Huan touched her phone at the side. Because her phone rang, there were also people calling her. and at this time, there wouldn't be many people calling her.

If it wasn't Lu Yi, it would be Luo Lin and the others. As for the others, they didn't even know her phone number. How could they call her?

However, the number displayed on the phone was an unfamiliar number. As for who this unfamiliar number belonged to, she didn't seem to know. She didn't have the ability like Lu Yi. As long as she took a glance at the other party's number, she would be able to know, who was calling.

She still wanted to answer it too much, so she pressed the hang-up button and tossed the phone aside. However, a moment later, the call came again. She roughly glanced at the number, but it was still the same number. She didn't pick it up.

It wasn't until the third time that she wanted to turn off the phone.

In the end, she still placed the phone by her ear. This was her private number, and not many people knew about it. It was possible that they knew it. If they didn't know it, they could just hang up when the time came.

"Hello..." she held her phone in one hand and half-sprawled on the sofa. She was a little lazy. Of course, she had taken good care of herself recently, and her body was indeed much better.

"Yan Huan..."

A hoarse voice came from the other side. It was also calling her name.

This voice was somewhat familiar, but it was quite unfamiliar.

"Who are you?" Yan Huan sat up. Those who knew her name and knew this number, who was this person?

"It's me, I'm Sun Yuhan."

Sun Yuhan gripped the phone in her hand tightly. However, just as she said her name, the other party immediately hung up. A drop of cold sweat dripped down from Sun Yuhan's forehead.

Was Yan Huan trying to harm her life?

However, she refused to give up and dialed Yan Huan's number again. She didn't believe that she wouldn't be able to get through.

Yan Huan took his phone again and pressed on the switch. She did not feel that she was very familiar with Sun Yuhan. Moreover, Sun Yuhan was surprised that she would take the initiative to call her, it seemed that they did not meddle in each other's business. No, they were not enemies now, but enemies.

However, she did not press the switch button in the end. Instead, she placed her phone by her ear.

“Sun Yuhan, what’s the matter?”

“Yan Huan.” Sun Yuhan’s voice sounded as though it was filled with sand. It was extremely ear-piercing. Even Yan Huan moved the phone away a little. She did not like this kind of voice.

Sun Yuhan did not like it either. However, after being tortured for a few days, who could still speak clearly.

Tell me, who could?

“Yan Huan, do you want to know who smashed your mother’s ashes? Who told you to crush your mother’s bones and scatter her ashes?”

Yan Huan gripped the phone in his hand tightly. “Sun Yuhan, what do you mean by this?”

“I don’t mean anything?” Sun Yuhan smiled strangely. “I just want to tell you one thing, and that is that I know who that person is.”

“Conditions?” Yan Huan’s face was also calm, and in the calmness, it seemed as if a storm was coming.

She could convince herself not to take revenge for the time being, but as a child, she could not forget her parents’ revenge. Her mother died without peace, and she swore that if she found out, she would not let that person go.

She would treat others the same way they treated her.

Even if that person died, she would still crush his bones and scatter his ashes. Even after death, she would not be able to live in peace.

“I will tell you when you come here.” Sun Yuhan’s voice was still hoarse and unpleasant to the ears. “But remember, don’t bring your bodyguards or else, you will never know who that person is.”

“Are you that kind?” Yan Huan never felt that Sun Yuhan was a kind woman.

“Of course I’m not that kind.” Sun Yuhan smiled, but her eyes twitched a few times, “Of course I want to negotiate with you. As long as you promise me, I can tell you about this. Don’t worry, I’ll definitely tell you the truth.”

Yan Huan knew that Sun Yuhan wouldn’t suddenly become kind. She regretted it and wanted to be a good person.

If she was a bad person, she could live a little longer. But if she was a good person, she would definitely die very quickly.

For example, Yan Huan stood up and walked to the window at the side. She wanted to hear what Sun Yuhan wanted. If she couldn’t agree to some of her requests, then she wouldn’t go.

If she went, she would just say a bunch of nonsense. There was no real meaning to it.

“For example...”

Sun Yuhan also dragged out her last syllable. "Don't worry, you can definitely do it. For example, the first two."

"You want to be the lead?" Yan Huan really didn't want to ridicule her. "There are many veteran actors in that movie. If you want to snatch the scenes from them, aren't you afraid that they will crush you to death?" And no matter who it was., now, they were all top-notch figures in the industry, and they all had top-notch looks. With Sun Yuhan's face, what could she do? She could still act as a monster.

"Don't worry, My Heart Isn't that big, and my skin isn't that thick." This time, Sun Yuhan was somewhat prescient. She naturally didn't dare to think of the female lead and the second female lead.

"I just need to show my face. When you come over, we'll discuss the details. Remember, don't bring your bodyguards."

Later on, she added this sentence.

Sun Yuhan's calculations were indeed good. She reminded Yan Huan not to bring his bodyguards more than once. Actually, what she meant was that this place was very dangerous. At the very least, you should bring your bodyguards over.

Unfortunately, she was not Yan Huan, and she did not understand Yan Huan. Of course, Yan Huan would not understand her very well. If they were to develop a little tacit understanding, it might be impossible for them to do so in this lifetime.

Therefore, Yan Huan naturally would not understand her thoughts. Of course, Yan Huan would not understand the meaning of her sarcastic words.
