

Chapter 1661: He confessed

How could there be a son like this? How could there be a father like this.

Forget it, let's not think about this anymore. Ye Chuji's expression was still very bad. Especially when he thought about his current situation, his heart felt even worse. If it was left for his son, he would be willing to die from exhaustion.

However, no matter how much his son could spend, it would all end up in the hands of a person with another surname.

Sun Yuhan was his niece, so even if ye Rong was here, as long as she had a daughter like that, he wouldn't even want to acknowledge her.

"Tell me, what happened at the airport?" He exhaled lightly. He hadn't forgotten why he was here. He wasn't here to feel sorry for himself, he was here to ask for the reason.

"Mr. Ye, something did happen at the airport," Xinghe said with a serious tone as she straightened her body. Yes, something did happen, but everything was fine now.

It had been resolved, and they didn't even know what had happened in the past or what the consequences would be.

When Ye Chuji finished listening, his hand that was resting on the table was gripped tightly. His facial features were twisted, and the veins on his forehead were throbbing.

If Sun Yuhan was there, Xia Xing was certain ye Chuji would strangle her to death.

"How dare they?"

Yes, how dare they? Xia Xing agreed. This was a young man who didn't know what was good for him, or a newborn calf who wasn't afraid of a tiger.

Eight billion was enough to destroy an entire family. How many businesses would be destroyed by then? Did they know how many people would die and how many people would die?

Everything was fine now. However, when ye Chuji recalled the situation back then, he broke out in a cold sweat. He did not expect that it was just a sudden thought of his that nearly destroyed the Lu family.

Fortunately, nothing happened to the Ye family. It was also fortunate that nothing happened. Otherwise, how could he face the Lu family, his sister, Yan Huan, and his three children, how could he face all the employees at the airport who were dragged into this, and a series of consequences that even he couldn't imagine.

He couldn't afford it, nor could he afford to carry it.

Ye Chuji stood up and turned to leave.

Xinghe wanted to say something, but in the end, she didn't. However, why did it feel like Ye Chuji was really old now that he was back. Even his back couldn't straighten up.

Life was supposed to be good for him, but why did he age so quickly.

No, this was normal human aging. He was almost sixty years old.

However, he was still more tired than a young man.

After all, he was supporting the entire Ye family and Sun Yuhan, who spent money like water.

Ye Shuyun put down Xun Xun in her arms and the nanny behind her held two in her hands.

"We'll wash our hands later and then we can eat." Ye Shuyun squatted down and pinched Xun Xun's little face. No matter how she looked at it, her family's Little Xun Xun was beautiful and cute, but she had been unhappy recently.

"Grandma, will mommy come to visit Xun Xun?"

Xun Xun pouted. She had not seen her mother for a long time.

"Mommy is sick and needs to stay at home to recuperate. When she is well, she will come to visit Xun Xun." Ye Shuyun patted her granddaughter's little head, not daring to talk about their mother, xun Xun's mind was much more sensitive than others since she was young. When she was young, she loved to get sick. Now that she was better, she still could not be scared. Otherwise, she might get scared again.

"Let's go. Let's eat first." Ye Shuyun rubbed the heads of her two little grandsons.

"Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang walked over." She held her little sister's hand. The three of them had always been like this. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang would definitely hold their little sister when they were outside, of course, the two brothers would not let others bully their little sister.

When Ye Shuyun opened the door and entered with the three children, she found old master Lu sitting in the living room. Lu Jin was also sitting at the side, and there was a person kneeling on the ground. She was stunned. This back view..

Wasn't It Ye Chuji?

Ye Shuyun hurriedly asked the two nannies to carry the children into the room so as not to scare them.

She walked over and wanted to say something, but Lu Jin shook his head at her, indicating that it was best for her not to say anything now.

Ye Shuyun could only stand there and watch her big brother kneel on the ground. When she found out about the accident at the airport and asked the Lu family to take the blame, to be honest, she hated the ye family to the core, this included her big brother, but later on, she also heard from her son that ye Chuji did not know about this matter. At that time, he had good intentions, but he did not expect that someone would take advantage of this loophole. Moreover, he was not in the country at that time.

Therefore, strictly speaking, this was not his fault. It was all caused by that Sun Yuhan.

And now, although her family was fine, and it was a blessing in disguise, she still had a grievance that she could not go over, and it was all because of the Ye family. Although she no longer blamed the ye family in her heart, not blaming did not mean that.., she could forgive the Lu family back then when they were cornered. The Ye family did not even have a single person. Each and every one of them avoided seeing each other and threw such a big disaster onto the Lu family.

Regardless of whether it was intentional or not, whether it was intentional or not, they all owed the Lu family. If they owed the Lu family an explanation, they would also owe the Lu family an apology.

Of course, they could also accept ye Chuji's kneeling.

Ye Chuji himself had never thought that such a thing would happen. At this moment, he almost had no place to be ashamed, "At that time, when I went out, I didn't know what I was thinking, but I gave the ownership of the airport to Shuyun. Perhaps I was thinking that no one knew what would happen in the future. Maybe I would die outside, or maybe I wouldn't be able to return for a few months. So I thought that no matter what, the airport couldn't fall into the hands of some people."

"It's just that I really didn't expect that such a decision would almost cause harm to the Lu family." He really didn't know. If he had known earlier, he definitely wouldn't have done such a thing. No.., he definitely wouldn't have gone out.

Why was he still looking for that damned brat? If he wanted to come back, he would come back. He deserved to die outside. No matter what, he couldn't bring harm to his younger sister's family. Moreover, his younger sister had three such young grandsons.

Ever since Old Master Lu saw Ye Chuji, he didn't have a good expression on his face. However, Ye Chuji was like this now. A person who was about to become a grandfather had actually led his life to this state. He really felt that he wasn't angry now.., he was going to sympathize with him.

"Enough, enough." Old Master Lu didn't want to talk about those things anymore. How could their Lu family fall so easily? Even if they were going to fall, it would be others who would fall, not them.

Chapter 1662: he went to look for his son

"Get up." Old Master Lu did not want to scold him, nor did he want to hit him with a cup. His temper was much better now, of course, because of his soft and cuddly granddaughter.

He was afraid that his violent appearance would scare his little granddaughter. What should he do if he did not kiss his great-grandfather?

"Big Brother." Ye Shuyun quickly stood up and was about to help ye Chuji up.

When she saw ye Chuzhu's white hair, she was no longer angry. In the end, all that was left was her heartache for Ye Chuji.

"Shuyun, Big Brother has really let you down."

Ye Chuji almost burst into tears. His eyes were red. He was afraid that old master Lu wouldn't forgive him and ye Shuyun wouldn't acknowledge him as her big brother. What else did he have now? His son was like that, so he didn't care about him anymore, he only had one sister left.

"Big Brother, it's over, it's over, it's all over," ye Shuyun quickly comforted ye Chuji. She was afraid that Ye Chuji would follow her and would not be able to get out.

Lu Jin also sighed and helped Ye Chuji up. This was the big brother that he had called for decades. It was a little unseemly for him to make his big brother kneel.

"It's good that you're back." Lu Jin was really fed up with that airport. "I don't know how you manage that airport. As long as I go there, I'll have a headache. You want your airport back, but our Lu family doesn't want it."

"That won't do." How could ye Chuji still want the airport? How could he still have the face to ask for it

"Our family doesn't want it," Old Master Lu snorted. "It saves people from saying that we're after your ye family's things, and we're not at a disadvantage." Who would complain about having too much money? However, they would take what was rightfully theirs, just like that eight billion yuan. Since he could still live for quite a while, he didn't want that money either. It belonged to his family's three grandsons. Those three grandsons would be the hope of his Lu family in the future. Would his Lu family be able to continue to be glorious, wouldn't that depend on them.

As for the Ye family's airport, he had never thought about taking the ye family's things and why he wanted them. He didn't want that old scoundrel ye Jianguo to say that his Lu family was greedy or something like that.

"Yeah, Big Brother, I changed the airport back to your name." Lu Jin had been in a mess because of that airport recently. Therefore, even if ye Chuji didn't come back, the airport still belonged to the Ye family, it was ye Chuji's plan. They had never wanted to take it. The reason why he went to manage the airport was not because he wanted to take the airport in his hands, but because he really needed someone there. Since ye Chuji had returned.., he was relieved and could take care of his three grandsons. And now, in his heart, there was nothing more important than his three little grandsons

Ye Shuyun hurriedly asked the housekeeper to prepare the food,

"No need." Ye Chuji quickly stood up and was about to leave. He had no face now, so how could he still have the nerve to eat here.

"Big Brother, stay. It's just a meal. Our family has a new chef, and the dishes are good. The roast chicken is even better. The three children all like it."

Ye Chuji also felt that he was really hungry now. If he went back, he didn't know when he would be able to eat, so he could only thicken his skin and stay.

Moreover, he missed his three children. He even brought a lot of gifts for the three children. These gifts were almost impossible to give away.

"Hello, great-uncle." Xun Xun ran over happily with a bag of snacks in her hand.

Ye Chuji carried her up and weighed her weight. This sentence of 'Great-uncle' made him feel even more guilty. There were not many people in this world who were so pure and liked him.

These three children were among them.

'Our Xun Xun has grown up.' Ye Chuji could clearly feel that Xun Xun had become much heavier. She was much heavier than the last time he carried her. The last time he carried Xun Xun was two months ago.

Suddenly, there was a grunt. Ye Chuji also felt extremely embarrassed.

Xun Xun lay on Ye Chuji's stomach. Sure enough, after a while, Ye Chuji's stomach started to growl again.

"Uncle, are you hungry?"

When Xun Xun was hungry, it was this pillow that growled. However, Xun Xun rarely went hungry. Her grandmother and mother did not allow her to go hungry, and she also had a lot of snacks to eat, therefore, she never knew what it felt like to be hungry.

She placed the snack bag in her hand in front of Ye Chuji.

"Uncle, eat. You Won't be hungry after eating."

Ye Chuji's eyes turned red once again. He had just gotten off the plane and his feet had not stopped. No one cared whether he was hungry or sleepy.

There was only such a small child, yet he still bothered about his stomach.

How pitiful was he, Ye Chuji.

Ye Shuyun urged the people in the kitchen to make the food better. In fact, she had also heard the rumbling of ye Chuji's stomach. Otherwise, she would not have allowed him to stay and eat. If he went back.., there was no one at home to take care of him. He would not be able to rest even if he ate or not. He still had to deal with the backlog at the airport, so he would not have the time to eat.

He was already old. He could not continue to fight like this if he was not younger.

"By the way, Big Brother, why did you leave for so long this time?" Ye Shuyun asked ye Chuji. It had been two months. If Ye Chuji was on a business trip, it would at most be about a month. This time, it was indeed long.., if it wasn't for the accident at the airport, which had distracted their attention, they might have really thought too much. After everything was almost over, they just thought about it, and Ye Chuji just happened to come back.

"What kind of meeting can make you not even pick up the phone?" Ye Shuyun wanted to find ye chuji the most, but unfortunately, he could not get through to his phone. Moreover, his person was not in the country at that time. Even if he came back.., it was useless. After all, distant water could not quench the thirst of the near future.

"I'm not going to a meeting." Ye Chuji put down his chopsticks. He felt better now that there was some food in his stomach.

"Then what did you do?" Ye Shuyun just did not understand this. Since it was not a meeting, what were you going to do, or did it take so long?

"I went to look for Xinyu." Ye Chuji took out his phone. On it was the message that ye Xinyu had sent him, "He said that he met with trouble outside and asked me to go over. He asked me not to tell anyone else, so I went. In the end, I had to dig through the ground but I could not find Xinyu. Moreover, there was indeed no signal there. Later on, I went further and further away. Not to mention my phone, even the electricity there was gone. Later on, I came back because I could not find him."

Chapter 1663: remember to wipe your mouth after eating secretly

"Let me see." Ye Shuyun took ye Chuji's phone. Sure enough, it was ye Xinyu's number on it. She asked ye Chuji to look for him, but what was wrong with this child? Why was he getting more and more insensible.

And now, what gave Ye Chuji a headache was not only ye Xinyu, but also Sun Yuhan..

"Your uncle is back," lei qingyi said to Lu Yi as soon as he saw him.

"I know, I just saw him." Lu Yi was not in a good condition and he had been searching for her day and night. She was no longer around for two days and two nights. In these two days, he did not feel at ease for a single second, if he could not find her again, he did not know how he would spend every minute and second in the future.

"Don't worry, there will be news soon." Lei qingyi patted Lu Yi's shoulder and comforted her. At least there was a clue this time. As long as we found out where Sun Yuhan was., then there would be a chance to find her.

Lu Yi didn't speak. Perhaps his mood was so heavy that it couldn't be any heavier.

His eyes were filled with all sorts of red veins. It was likely that he hadn't had a proper meal for a long time.

It was that small window again. Outside the window, it was already drizzling and the sound of Raindrops could be heard. The rain would occasionally hit the glass of the window. Other than the sound of raindrops hitting the glass., there were also some drizzling raindrops that were like broken wires.

Yan Huan sat up and removed the blanket on her body. Then, she took out a bottle of mineral water from the corner of the wall and drank it. All the way outside the door, there was the sound of the lock and the mechanical collision.

Then, with a creak, the door opened.

Arnold was still standing at the door. His footsteps were the same as before, and he did not take a single step forward.

"It's time to eat."

Yan Huan put the water bottle aside and followed behind Arnold. It was still a table full of dishes, but there was not much meat. It was possible that Arnold knew the reason why Yan Huan did not like to eat meat too much, therefore, the meat on the table was also gone, and most of it had become vegetarian dishes.

Yan Huan raised his head and glanced at Arnold. There was still no change in Arnold. He would prepare three meals a day, but he had not starved her once. Moreover, he had bought a lot of snacks for her.

“Can you let me go?” Yan Huan could not help but ask him again. No matter if it was me or you, it was impossible for them to live in such a place.

“Isn’t that good?” Arnold’s eyes were exceptionally green.

“We can see each other every day.”

Can Yan Huan say that I don’t want to see you?

However, she did not dare to say it.

She could only lower her head and continue eating. However, when Arnold was not paying attention, she left some food under the table. When Arnold went out to take out the trash., yan Huan then took the food that she had left and placed it in a paper box.

The door that had been closed all this time also opened.

“Where’s my food? Where’s my food?”

Sun Yuhan came out from inside. Her feet were still tied with chains. She hurriedly took the paper box in Yan Huan’s hand and directly ate it with her hands.

“Why is there so little food today?” Sun Yuhan felt her heart ache when she saw that there was only so little food. The expression on her face was also distorted. Of course, the words she said were not very pleasant to hear.

“Why are you so useless? You Only Got Me So Little. He gives you big fish and meat every day. Can’t You Get Me More? Are you trying to starve me to death?”

Yan Huan did not want to say anything more to Sun Yuhan. This was the most pathetic thing about people. They often did not know their identity and could not distinguish the current situation. Did they really think that everyone had to revolve around her, did everyone have to look at her face?

You better prepare more for me tonight, did you hear me.

Sun Yuhan used her hands to grab the food and stuffed it into her mouth from time to time. Her hanging eyes also stared at Yan Huan from time to time. Her mouth was clearly wolfing down food, but her mouth did not want to be idle.

“Did you hear me?” Sun Yuhan reached out her hand to grab Yan Huan’s clothes. The moment Yan Huan saw the oil on her hand, he felt disgusted.

Could you not touch her? It was so disgusting.

However, Sun Yuhan seemed to have done it on purpose. She insisted on touching Yan Huan’s clothes.

“You have thought it through.” Yan Huan did not Dodge. He only stared coldly at the malice in her eyes.

“If you dare to leave your paw print on my clothes, guess what will happen to You?”

Sun Yuhan could not help but shudder. What would happen? What else could she do? That man who had changed too much would strangle her to death.

She withdrew her hand and wiped it on her clothes for half a day. However, no matter how hard she wiped it, it was still oil on her hand. The clothes on her body had not been changed since Yan Huan was caught, she didn't know how many days she had worn it. The clothes were covered with oil and dirt.

"Get me more at night." Sun Yuhan grabbed the food in the paper box and stuffed it into her mouth.

"Why should I listen to You?" Yan Huan hated Sun Yuhan's current tone. She was begging for help now, but did she have such a begging attitude?

"That's my money."

Sun Yuhan was still stupid enough to be justified. You eat my food and drink my food. If you don't want to eat, you won't let me eat.

"Then go ask him."

Yan Huan was too lazy to talk to a woman like Sun Yuhan. When Sun Yuhan opened her mouth to reveal her big yellow teeth, Yan Huan interrupted her again.

Sun Yuhan remembered your current situation, "If I'm in a good mood, I'll give you some. If I'm in a bad mood, I won't use my own life to exchange for yours. You're rich, so don't tell me I'm poor? "If you didn't bring me here, I can live whatever life I want now. I don't need to be locked up by others."

Sun Yuhan gritted her teeth and stuffed the vegetables into her mouth.

However, the way she looked at Yan Huan was getting more and more vicious.

"Remember to wipe your mouth after you've secretly eaten. Don't let others know." Yan Huan really couldn't be bothered to say another word to this woman. Naturally, there was a time when she didn't know what kind of good intentions she had. She gave this woman food once, but in the end, she was targeted by this woman. What was going on? Did she really think that she was a good person and had to take care of her in everything?

It was already considered giving her face that she didn't mess with her to death. Could it be that she still had to follow her orders and make her do this and that?

Sun Yuhan, she was really shameless.

Yan Huan turned around and left. However, after taking a few steps, he suddenly turned back.

"Who was the one who smashed my mother's Ashes?"

Sun Yuhan's fingers, which were stuffing vegetables into her mouth, trembled just like that. Then, she continued to eat as if nothing had happened.

"How would I know? You Don't even know who smashed your mother's ashes. How would I know? I call you stupid, but you're really stupid. You were lured here by just this one message."

Yan Huan opened the door and slammed it hard.

Chapter 1664: was not left for her

Sun Yuhan kept stuffing the food in the lunchbox into her mouth, as if she was the reincarnation of a starving ghost. She stared coldly at the closed door, she also spat on the ground.

“Even if I knew, I wouldn’t tell you.”

“Yan Huan, don’t even think about finding out who dug up that dead woman’s mother’s grave and smashed her ashes. She was unlucky to have given birth to a daughter like you. When she was alive, she suffered. When she died, her bones were crushed. If I were her, I would have strangled you to death when you were born.”

“You are the biggest stain in her life and the main culprit that caused her to die early.”

“So there are some things that you’d better not know. Otherwise, the one who will suffer will be you. Look at how good I am. I Won’t tell you. I Won’t tell you. I Won’t tell you. I Won’t tell you. I Won’t tell you.”

She snorted and closed the door, afraid that the man outside would suddenly come in.

Of course, she had cursed that man countless times in her heart.

Yan Huan closed the door and took out the half-empty bottle of water from the table. Then, she sat on the edge of the bed and drank it one mouthful at a time.

It was still raining outside, and it was also raining quite heavily. The current sea city could be considered a water city.

She pulled up the curtains out of boredom. In fact, it was an unconscious action. With a clang, something fell on her head. She touched her head, and it still hurt. She lowered her head, she found a pen on the ground. She quickly bent down, picked up the pen from the ground, and drew a line on the back of her hand.

It was a ballpoint pen. There was still oil in it.

There was a pen. She held the pen in her hand and took the bottle. She wanted to write on the bottle. However, she felt that it was useless. The bottle was eventually thrown out of the window, she had lived here for so long, but she had never seen anyone come. Moreover, there was not even a garbage collector. If she used this method to get someone to save her, she felt that she might die, it was impossible.

This method wouldn’t work.

Yes, it wouldn’t work. This method definitely wouldn’t work.

As for this pen, it didn’t seem to be of much use.

It should still be useful. She hid the pen in her pillow. It might not seem useful now, but it would definitely be useful in the future. She would keep it for now.

At night, she ate Xiao Long Bao. Yan Huan liked to eat these, especially the soup dumplings that were slightly hot. Frankly speaking, she really didn't suffer much here, nor did she starve once, compared to the previous two times, this time was really paradise. She didn't suffer any pain, nor did she suffer. She could even eat her fill. Therefore, she should be grateful to this man, Arnold.

No matter how he treated others, at the very least, he treated her, this criminal, not bad.

Yan Huan sighed softly. This was the fifth day she had gone missing.

She actually did not like this feeling. She had clearly been keeping a low profile, but why were these people so unwilling to let her go? They had dragged her down with them once or twice, and she only knew now.., it was a mistake to know some people.

As for Sun Yuhan, she really detested her.

She took the buns and ate them one bite at a time. Today's buns were really delicious. Unknowingly, she had already eaten two baskets. Perhaps it was because something had happened, or perhaps she did not care. By the time she reacted.., two baskets of buns had already been eaten by her.

"You like to Eat This?" Arnold seemed to have discovered a new world.

"It's alright." Yan Huan really loved soup dumplings,

"Then we'll eat this tomorrow?" Arnold said excitedly.

"Alright." Yan Huan lowered her head and agreed. She also finished the remaining soup dumplings.

However, she had eaten too much, so the taste was probably better than before. She had eaten two pots, and Arnold had also finished the remaining three pots, so Sun Yuhan didn't get any.

Arnold put away the trash on the table and opened the door to throw the trash out. He didn't know where he would throw the trash, but he might throw it further away. He might also know about Yan Huan's mysophobia, therefore, every time he threw the rubbish out, it would take about half an hour.

Of course, he did not forget to lock the door properly. It was still a big lock with a small lock on it. He was very cautious and very careful. Although Yan Huan did not meddle in other people's business and ate whatever was given to her and drank whatever was given to her.., however, Yan Huan still yearned for the outside world. He knew in his heart, but no matter what, he had to keep her by his side.

When the outside was locked, Sun Yuhan walked out. However, Yan Huan sat in front of the table and didn't speak. He didn't give her anything to eat either.

"Where's my food?" Sun Yuhan's voice was almost shrill as her hands began to turn under the table. Every time Yan Huan hid his food, it was placed here, so her food should also be placed here.

However, tell her why it was gone. Where was her food? Where was her food?

"Yan Huan, where is my food?" Sun Yuhan's face was ferocious, almost as if she was going to eat Yan Huan as if he was her food.

"He has finished eating," Yan Huan said indifferently. She was willing to leave it for her, but it was also her freedom to not want to stay.

“You have finished my food?”

Sun Yuhan looked as if Yan Huan had committed a heinous crime. “That’s my meal. What right do you have to eat it? Why Don’t You Leave It for me?”

“Then what right do you have to lie to me to come here?”

Yan Huan questioned Sun Yuhan coldly, “Tell me, what right do you have to lie to me to come here? Do I have anything to do with You, Sun Yuhan?”

Sun Yuhan was choked by Yan Huan. There might be something in her mouth, but she did not dare to say it.

Yan Huan opened the door and walked in as well.

She had no obligation to leave any food for Sun Yuhan. Whether she was hungry or not, it had nothing to do with her. If he wanted to eat, he could eat. If he did not want to eat, then forget it. In any case, she was not the one who was hungry. He really thought of her as a good person.

She did not settle the score with her because she did not want to dirty her hands. Such a dirty woman was disgusting to her even if she saw it. Furthermore, she had slapped her on the face, but it was her hands that were dirty.

Sun Yuhan stared hatefully at the closed door.

“Yanhuan, I will definitely not let you off.”

No matter how fierce or sharp her voice was, no one heard it. It was as if she was drowned in the current rain.

Arnold touched his pocket again. There was not much money left. He put on his hat and a pair of sunglasses and put a bank card in his pocket. He had not checked how much money was on this bank card, it was still quite a lot. When he had no money, he would go and get it.

Chapter 1665: take or Die

He walked to a 24-hour ATM and saw that there was no one around before he walked in. He also inserted the card inside and prepared to take out the money. He did not know what had happened to the card today, he had tried several times but could not operate it. It was only when he pulled the card out and put it in again that it was normal.

What he did not know was that there were already several cars approaching.

After he finished withdrawing the money, he came out and found that something was wrong. A few days ago, he had been living like that, like a fugitive, running and hiding in the streets and alleys, he was also like a rat crossing the street, everyone was shouting for him to beat up.

The past few days had been quiet. He thought that he was safe, but now, it didn’t seem like it.

He also instinctively felt danger. Just as he was about to run, he heard the sound of messy footsteps behind him.

“Don’t run, if you keep running, you’ll be shot!”The people behind him caught up with him, guns in their hands. Arnold tightened his sleeves and walked through the darkness, he had walked this path many times, so he knew how to avoid these people.

And now, he was a little irritable. He didn’t know how these people found him so quickly. He took out the bank card from his pocket. It might be this card. She wanted to throw it away, this card was now a scourge.

But in the end, he didn’t throw it away. If he threw it away, there would be no money to spend. If there was no money to spend, then how could he live? He couldn’t go begging.

He also felt that he couldn’t live here anymore. It was better to change to another place. When he found a place and took out all the money, then he didn’t need this card. And he really regretted it, he did not know why he had to take out more money back then.

When he walked to his own place, he looked back and saw that there was no one following behind him. Only then did he walk in. The lock on the door was still there and had not been touched by anyone. Therefore, he knew that the people inside were also there, and they were going to leave today.

He opened the door and walked in. He also began to pack up his things, yan Huan also heard the noise outside. She opened the door and just as she walked out, she found Arnold packing his things. was he going to leave?

She couldn’t help but have a bad feeling in her heart.

No matter what, they were all in the sea city, and the possibility of them being found was very high. In total, it was only a small place. Perhaps to others, sea city was very big, but to Lei Qingyi and the others.., it was very small.

Therefore, she was not worried at all. She believed that they would find her very soon. They would definitely find her. However, if they were to leave this place...

“Go and pack up. We will leave immediately.”

Arnold lifted his face. At this moment, the green light in his eyes was clearly dimmer. Yan Huan knew that although Arnold had treated her well, she had not forgotten that she was still a prisoner in Arnold’s hands. As long as he was willing.., he could end her life at any time.

Yan Huan did not ask him where he was going because she knew that even if he did, Arnold would not tell her.

After closing the door, Yan Huan found a larger bag and stored all his things in it. He kept a few pieces of clothes each. It was fine as long as there was cotton. To put it bluntly, they were all there to escape, it wasn’t like the refugees were there to travel, so why would they need to bring any beautiful clothes? The clothes she brought were loose and convenient, and she didn’t take her shoes either. She tried her best to take less luggage, but more luggage.., arnold couldn't even protect himself, so why would she help carry luggage? She turned around and glanced at the window behind her.

In the end, she seemed to have thought of something. She hurriedly stood up and picked up the pillow. She also took out a pen from the pillow. She gripped the pen tightly and lifted up the bedding.

She quickly wrote on the pen. If they could find this place, if they could still find these words, they might not have gone far before they were rescued.

After he finished writing, Yan Huan laid down the bedding. She could already hear Sun Yuhan's scream outside, but it was silent after a while. When Yan Huan came out.., she saw Arnold holding a sack and carrying Sun Yuhan.

She touched her arm. Fortunately, it wasn't Sun Yuhan. She really didn't want to be put into the sack.

Arnold glanced at Yan Huan. At this moment, his eyes were filled with warning. Even his green eyes seemed to have turned a little scarlet at this moment.

Arnold directly carried Sun Yuhan onto his shoulder and turned around to leave. Yan Huan followed behind him. Actually, she had thought about it. If she wanted to run now, it might take a while, she was just like Sun Yuhan.

And she was really right. As long as her steps were slightly wrong, Arnold would turn around. At that moment, his ink-colored pupils would also shrink.

Arnold opened the car door and unceremoniously threw Sun Yuhan inside. Then, he opened the car door to let Sun Yuhan get out.

"Why did you bring her to run?"

Yan Huan asked Arnold, who had already opened the car. He clearly didn't like it and clearly hated it, but why did he have to bring her along.

Arnold drove the car very fast. It was so fast that Yan Huan could feel the car's speed in the bumpy road. He didn't know where the car was going. It seemed to be an old car, and it was also an old car that no one paid attention to. If he drove it like this, would the car fall apart?

Arnold's voice was as cold as ice.

"Either you bring it with you, or you kill it."

Yan Huan did not ask, and neither did she say anything. She understood what Arnold meant. If that was the case, then she would bring it with her. In fact, no one was willing to be stained with human life.

Although Arnold was ruthless, he wanted to torture Sun Yuhan, but he did not really want to take her life.

Otherwise, Sun Yuhan would have died long ago. She was still alive because Arnold really did not want to kill anyone.

Yan Huan leaned against the car window. From here, he could see a corner of the Haijiang River. It was a place that he was very familiar with. However, the road they took was getting farther and farther away from the city center. It seemed that there was the sound of a police car passing by, Yan Huan clenched her hands tightly. She could only sit there, unable to do anything for herself. She couldn't even say a word to save her life.

A group of police cars passed by. The one driving at the back was a Hummer with a very good license plate number. Yan Huan watched as the Hummer left. She lifted her squirming red lips, however, he tasted a sour and bitter taste.

That was Lu Yi's car, but that car had left.

Chapter 1666: No One

A few police cars ran all the way into this small place that was almost uninhabited.

Lei Qingyi said as she walked. This place was uninhabited in the past. Later, a man rented this place. She didn't know who else lived here, but she only knew that there was a man and a woman inside.

"I think it should be here." Lei Qingyi could almost confirm it. They searched for a few days before they found this place, and they also found it from Sun Yuhan's bank card withdrawal record.

That person was very careful. Every time he withdrew money, he would go to the ATM. And every time he withdrew money, he would change his location. This time, it was not easy for us to find out about him.

As for whether the woman inside was Yan Huan or Sun Yuhan, it was still unknown.

He gestured, and a special police officer ran up. Then, he quickly opened the door. There was almost no sound at all.

"Director, there's no one inside."

Not long after, the special police officer came out from the center and said quietly.

"No One?" Lei Qingyi ran in again in disbelief. "Did someone run away?"

With a bang, the lights were turned on and the things inside were all clear at a glance. Indeed, there was no one, no one, but they found something here, it seemed that these people left in a hurry. They did not even bring all their things.

Lei Qingyi pushed open a door. The things inside were all men's things. His clothes and shoes had not been collected yet. They were all randomly thrown to the side. He then rummaged through the things inside again, the things that fell on the ground were all rummaged through. There was nothing inside. There were only some clothes, but nothing could be found.

He then pushed open another door. Immediately, an unpleasant smell came from inside, as if something was sour and smelly. Inside, there was only a broken wooden bed board, the quilt on top was also black and hard. When he pulled open the quilt, there were a few steamed buns in the corner of the Quilt. The steamed buns were hard as rocks, and some of them even had hair. He did not know how long they had been there, but he had forgotten, or could it be that these things were deliberately hidden.

After rummaging around for a long time, they had only rummaged through a few steamed buns. Was this person a rat? Why did he like storing food so much? Moreover, he had also stored the food so dirty.

Another door opened. This place was quite clean. The quilt was folded neatly, and even the bedsheets were spread very neatly. The interior could be considered very clean. At the very least, there was no excessive smell coming out. The windows were half open, and the air inside and outside could be exchanged. There were also a few boxes of mineral water in the corner. It was clear that someone had lived here before.

Lei Qingyi walked over and pulled open the quilt. There was nothing under the quilt. Of course, there was no strange smell, nor was there any stored food. Of course, there was no acid or bad food.

Lei Qingyi put down the blanket again and shook his head. He did not discover anything because everyone had left.

Just as he was about to leave, he thought of something and flipped the entire blanket over.

He did not plan to find anything. In fact, he was just checking everything out as a routine. In the end, he really did find out.

“Lu Yi, come over and take a look.”

Lei Qingyi hurriedly took a look at Lu Yi who was standing outside. Lu Yi strode over.

“Quick, take a look.” Lei Qingyi pointed at the words on the bed and his expression changed

Lu Yi took three steps forward and saw a few lines of words written on the bed. It was Yan Huan’s handwriting. Yan Huan’s handwriting was very delicate and neat. When Yan Huan wrote, no matter what handwriting she used, it would always have its own characteristics.

And these few lines of words might have been written hastily. And from these words, they already knew what they wanted to know.

And the person who lived here was none other than Arnold. Sun Yuhan was here because Sun Yuhan had tricked her into coming. However, she told them not to worry. She had not suffered any harm and had not suffered any hunger, she just did not know why Arnold packed up his things and left the moment he returned. As for where they were going, Yan Huan did not know. He only knew that they were going to leave.

Very good. Lei Qingyi hurriedly took out her phone and began to deploy it. Now, as long as she knew the target, two women and a man, the man was the wanted criminal at that time. His eyes were very special, so it was very easy to find him, with the addition of the two women, such a combination should not be difficult to find. And with their speed, they should still be in the sea city.

He just hoped that everything could be in time and that they could find Yan Huan and the others.

He came over again and patted Lu Yi’s shoulder. “I told you she would be fine. Look, she’s not fine anymore.”

Trust her, she had been through a lot. She had gone through so many things, and in terms of mentality and endurance, she was no worse than a man. She had already said that she would look for an opportunity to leave.

And look here. He pointed at this simple yet comfortable room and knew that she was living well. She hadn't suffered much.

Lu Yi looked at this room for half a day before he walked over and sat on the small bed. He only wrote a few strokes, but he had already said a lot of things.

Lu Yi knew that Yan Huan wrote these words for him. She said that she was fine, that she didn't suffer, that she had food to eat, and that she didn't get beaten up. She was only under house arrest and no one hurt her, so he could rest assured, also, he would definitely come back. As long as she found an opportunity, she would definitely come back.

The police were doing their best to search for Arnold and the other two. However, what they did not know was that Arnold was walking on a small path. Furthermore, the car was relatively old, and Sun Yuhan was tied up and treated as a cargo, therefore, no one really noticed them. At this moment, they were on a small path up the mountain.

There were very few people here, and they were the only cars that moved around the entire day.

Yan Huan took a bun and ate it. When she came, she brought some snacks. Arnold would sometimes go out to buy some things from the villagers, and of course, he would lock them in the car, as a result, they had already been out for a few days, but there was still no chance to escape. Yan Huan knew very well that now was the time when Arnold was the most nervous, and also the time when she could finally escape, as long as she kept to herself, then slowly waiting until Arnold believed in her, it might be her chance, and she was looking for such an opportunity.

However, Sun Yuhan was absolutely stupid. She had already tried to run a few times, but in the end, she was forcefully grabbed by Arnold. After grabbing her once or twice, he would not hit her, but he would not give her anything to eat, he did this on purpose to starve Sun Yuhan. He was so hungry that he did not have the strength, so he could forget about running.

Chapter 1667: Escape

Sun Yuhan was hungry for quite a while, and her face was almost empty. She had never eaten her fill before, and now she was so thin that she didn't even have any flesh on her body. If she continued to lose weight, she would really become skin and bones.

She was so hungry that she was weak. She didn't even have the strength to lift her eyelids. On the other hand, Yan Huan was still sitting at the side, eating snacks. That kind of voice almost made her jealous and resentful like crazy.

Yan Huan would not give it to Sun Yuhan even if he ate. She could not protect herself now, so how could she care about others? Moreover, this Sun Yuhan was really stupid. She had messed up her escape plans several times, and now she was still here., she was still in this car. Even when she got out of the car to go to the toilet, there were people watching. This was the thing that she could not bear the most.

Yan Huan had never given Sun Yuhan any food from the beginning to the end. Sun Yuhan was already so hungry that her head was dizzy. However, it was also because she was so hungry that her head was dizzy. That was why their ears and ears felt a little quieter, it also made Yan Huan's heart clear as he thought about how he could leave this place. However, the car drove further and further away. Even Yan Huan did not know where this place was. Even if she ran here.., however, how was she going to go back? Could it be that she had to use two legs? This place was surrounded by mountains and forests. There was not even a single person around. At that time, she would either be killed by the green-eyed Arnold or the green-eyed wolf.

Yan Huan calculated that it was about time. While she was eating, she threw some food at Sun Yuhan. It was as if she was throwing it at a dog or a cat. Sun Yuhan grabbed it and stuffed it into her mouth, she was about to faint from hunger, so she ate whatever she was given. If she was given a rock, she would also directly stuff it into her mouth.

Arnold continued to drive. Yan Huan was worried that the car would run out of gas. However, Arnold was not stupid. When they encountered a car that drove past, they would use a high price to buy the gas. This way, their car would always be on the road, and they had not stopped since then.

Arnold stopped the car, and Yan Huan opened the door. She could not hold it in any longer, and she wanted to go to the toilet.

"You don't have to look at me," Yan Huan turned around and said to him. "In this place, there's no village in the front, and no shops in the back. I Won't let myself stay in this place, so you can rest assured that I won't run away."

Yan Huan did not want to not even have the time to go to the toilet. He had to be stared at by a pair of eyes.

Yan Huan found a place where no one was around and settled her physiological problems.

In a short while, she stood up. Although she had eaten a lot and had never been hungry, she ate these things every day. She ate dry food and drank water. If she continued to eat like this.., even if she did not want to lose weight, she would still lose weight.

Yan Huan walked over. The moment she entered the car, she discovered that the steamed buns they carried in the car had somehow been taken by Sun Yuhan. Meanwhile, Sun Yuhan's mouth was still whimpering. At this moment.., she was like a vicious dog. Her eyes were green.

Yan Huan did not want to sit in the back. She was really afraid that she would be bitten by Sun Yuhan.

When Arnold was about to Slap Sun Yuhan again, Yan Huan sighed softly. Let's leave quickly. There might be other people ahead who could also find some food to eat.

Actually, Yan Huan understood Arnold. They did not bring much food along the way, but Sun Yuhan held one in her right hand, one in her left hand, and another one in her left hand. She gnawed on that one, wishing that she could bite into every bun.., she could not leave behind her teeth marks. or could it be that this was her intention? As long as they were bitten by her, no one else would be able to eat them.

Moreover, Ah Nuo was not such a magnanimous person, nor was he a good-tempered person.

When the sky turned dark, they could be considered lucky. They really found a village. It was just that this village was a little backward. There were no inns or anything like that. It was just an ordinary small village in the mountains, Arnold gave a family some money, and this family gave them a basket of steamed buns. Then, they poured some water into the kettle. They rested at the car for the night and didn't enter the house.

And the money in Arnold's hands wasn't much now.

Yan Huan was sleeping in the car in a daze, but she heard the sound of someone crying. She suddenly sat up, and under the dim light, she realized that there was no one in the car. She was the only one left, and there were two people fighting outside. It was Arnold and Sun Yuhan.

She pushed open the car door and went out. She saw Arnold really hitting Sun Yuhan. This slap after Slap made Sun Yuhan's originally fleshless face instantly swell up into a bun.

Let You Run, I'll let you run. Arnold now treated Sun Yuhan as if they were in love and killing each other. Usually, it was either boxing or kicking. She didn't like men who hit women, this was because men who hit women were the most useless. However, she had to admit that sometimes, Sun Yuhan was really too stupid.

She also wanted to run. However, if she could run, she would have already run. She wouldn't have waited until now. She had secretly inquired about where this place was, but even the villagers didn't know, they had always lived here. Many people had never left the mountain in their entire lives. They only knew that they had to walk a very long mountain path to reach the outside world.

Yan Huan did not think that he was a superman. He could walk out of the mountain without eating or drinking. Perhaps Sun Yuhan did not know how terrifying the mountain was, but Yan Huan had seen it before. She had lived in the Chen family village for a winter, and it was a closed world, it was impossible for a person who did not have a certain level of life experience. Therefore, it was impossible for her to escape. She did not have a car, and she did not have oil.

Yan Huan turned around again, but she could feel Sun Yuhan's gaze on her. That gaze was truly vicious.

She did not care about Sun Yuhan. She could not care about her, and she could not even save herself. Furthermore, she had to save others. She did not have the ability to do so. She opened the car door and sat on it, letting out a sigh of relief, she looked up again and saw the twinkling stars in the sky. It had been a long time since she had seen such a beautiful starry sky. Of course, it was also the first time she had seen such an empty place.

This place seemed to be far away from her previous world. Now, she only wanted to know if she could go home and when she could go home. In the beginning, she still remembered the time, she remembered how long she had been out. One day, two days, three days, four days. However, in the end, she realized that her days were becoming numb, and she had forgotten, how many days had she been out? Ten days, half a month, or a month.

Chapter 1668: they ran away

When she opened her eyes again, the sky outside was already bright. Arnold brought a bucket of oil and filled it up. It should be gasoline. She didn't know where he got it, but it might be from the village, there seemed to be a motorcycle in the village.

Sun Yuhan was still lying half-dead behind. Her face was almost completely swollen, her eyes were blue, and even the corner of her mouth was broken. She must have been really pampered.

After Arnold filled up the gas, he sat in the car and drove away. However, no one knew that the corners of Sun Yuhan's lips were deliberately curved.

"I want to get out, I want to get out!" Sun Yuhan suddenly sat up.

Arnold completely ignored Sun Yuhan's shouting.

"I want to get out, I want to go to the toilet, or I'll pull you to your car, as long as you don't mind the smell."

With a cold face, Arnold stepped on the accelerator. He had just thrown Sun Yuhan out of the car. Sun Yuhan got out of the car and ran into the grass. Only a pair of eyes stared at her without blinking.

In just a short while, Arnold realized that he could not find Sun Yuhan. He opened the car door and strode out.

It was the same for Yan Huan.

She really felt that Sun Yuhan was courting death. She had gone missing in this place because she didn't want to live anymore. There wasn't even a person here. Wasn't she afraid of freezing to death or starving to death by herself? If she met a wild car., she would be eaten by wild beasts. If she met a person, she would be a good person, but if she met a bad person, she would probably be disassembled into parts and sold.

Although she did not like Sun Yuhan at all, but now, no matter what, she had to find the person.

In the end, she searched around but still could not find him. She just did not know how Arnold was doing, or if he had found the person. She opened the car door again, but she still could not sit still. Sun Yuhan appeared out of nowhere and directly opened the car door.

Then, she stepped on the accelerator and the car rushed out.

"Sun Yuhan, are you crazy?"

Yan Huan wanted to stop her, but it was too late. Sun Yuhan drove the car too fast. "If you leave him behind, he will die."

"Then you can get lost." Sun Yuhan sneered. "If it weren't for the fact that I don't have the strength, I would definitely kick you down. How can you watch him torture me? Are You Happy? Don't worry, after I get rid of her, it will be your turn."

At this time, the cars were also speeding forward. Yan Huan opened the car window, and her clenched hands were trembling. She took out some food from the side and threw it out the window.

No matter how Arnold treated Sun Yuhan, he was indeed very good to her. So, no matter what, she really couldn't let Arnold die here.

With these things, she could at least fill her stomach.

Meanwhile, Sun Yuhan drove like a crazy person. She didn't even give her time to react. In just a short while, she had already gone back the way she came.

Yan Huan really didn't know how long the car had been driving. Sun Yuhan drove so fast that she couldn't see anything. She could only see the rugged mountain road. From time to time, she would retreat backward. Sun Yuhan stepped on the accelerator as if she was trying her best, one hour, or two hours, until the car screeched to a stop.

Sun Yuhan hammered the steering wheel and stepped on the accelerator with all her might, but the car didn't move anymore.

There was no more gas, and it was already dark.

Their car could only stop here. The wind outside blew in from time to time, and the sound of wailing ghosts and Howling Wolves almost made Sun Yuhan break down.

Yan Huan, do you think there are wolves here.

Sun Yuhan said with trepidation. She originally wanted to kick Yan Huan out of the car, but fortunately, there weren't any. Otherwise, if she were to stay here alone and the car ran out of gas, what would she do?

Why didn't she feel this way when Arnold was here? But now, she really felt it and was afraid.

What should she do? Yes, what should she do? What should she do?

She seemed to hear the cry of a wild beast. She didn't know if it was a wolf or something. She had only seen that thing in parks and zoos. But in this wilderness, who knew if there would be that thing?

A Wolf had just escaped, and another one had come. When would they be able to return home.

Yan Huan hugged the bag in his arms, but he still did not reply.

"Idiot, idiot." Sun Yuhan kicked the car door, but she could only curse these two sentences. Then, she muttered to herself for the entire night without stopping. Yan Huan did not sleep very well, but.., these few days, she had been living like this everywhere. She had probably gotten used to it, so no matter how uncomfortable she was, she still slept until the morning. In the morning, she was woken up by the cold, Yan Huan took out her bag from the car and found a piece of clothing to wear. In the end, a hand reached out and grabbed the clothes tightly in her hand.

"Yan Huan, this is mine. If I didn't bring you out, would you still be free now?"

Staying by her side was safer than staying by her side.

Yan Huan also didn't want that piece of clothing. She took out another piece of clothing from the inside and wore it on her body. Don't think that she didn't know what Sun Yuhan was thinking. It wasn't clear that she wanted to drag her down with her, it sounded nice to say that she wanted to take her away, but who knew when she would kick her out of the car.

At the very least, Arnold would not kick her out of the car. At the very least, there was something that he would split in half, but Sun Yuhan would not.

There was still some food in the car. Sun Yuhan stuffed it into her arms. And now, she had formed the habit of storing food for herself. Yan Huan withdrew his hand. There were still two in her hands. It was enough to eat, she really did not want to snatch it from Sun Yuhan. Even if she snatched it, she would not eat it. It was too dirty.

Today, they could only sit like this. If they waited any longer, if they could not find it, then they could only abandon the car. However, they could not even find a direction.

Yan Huan opened the car door and looked behind the bushes. He was prepared to go to the bathroom, but just as he squatted down, he saw a car stop. Sun Yuhan was also shouting at that car, as if she had found her savior.

That person seemed to be asking something, but Sun Yuhan's finger pointed in her direction.

Idiot.

Yan Huan really wanted to beat Sun Yuhan until her grandfather didn't recognize her.

He had seen idiots before, but he had never seen such an idiot.

To think that she was an actress. Could it be that she really didn't have the ability to read people's expressions?

These people all had pointy mouths and monkey cheeks. Moreover, they had also sized Sun Yuhan up and down for a long time. It was obvious that they had bad intentions. Could it be that Sun Yuhan was so stupid that she really couldn't tell.

That person glanced into the bushes. Yan Huan looked around for a place where she could hide for a while. However, in the end, she discovered that this was the only place where she could hide and hide, in the end, she couldn't escape the fate of being caught.

Chapter 1669: Human Trafficker

She cursed Sun Yuhan in her heart again. Then, she grabbed a handful of soil from the ground and smeared it on her face. She still had her hands. Then, she lowered her head and looked at the clothes she was wearing, the clothes had been worn for a long time. Moreover, she had not washed her face for a long time, so she could not tell anything. In addition, she had been rushing on the road for the past few days, so she did not eat well and sleep well, therefore, she lost weight very quickly. In just a few days, she had already lost more than one round of weight

Those people said something to Sun Yuhan again. In the end, Sun Yuhan walked over unwillingly

“Hey, Yan Huan, they said that they can send us back to Hai City. If you don’t come out, we’ll have to leave.” Sun Yuhan seemed to be very proud because she was the one who found this. According to her temper., yan Huan would have long left her. And if she wanted Yan Huan to do anything, she would just leave her here. It would be best if she starved to death or was eaten by a wolf. As long as she died, no one in this world would be able to stand in her way of making money.

At this moment, she was very pleased with herself. There was no flesh on her face, and she was definitely not good-looking. Even if she told everyone now that she was Sun Yuhan, an actress, and a famous actress., she was also the eldest daughter of the Ye family. Perhaps others would call her a lunatic and add on the fact that her face was bruised and swollen, making her look like a ghost.

However, even with such an appearance, she was extremely safe now.

No matter how much Yan Huan smeared dirt on her face, she was also glad that she was not too fat all this while. Now, she was even slimmer and her clothes were wider. Hence, she had to have a figure without a body and a face without looks.

Sun Yuhan couldn’t find Yan Huan, so she told those people again. Perhaps she wanted them to bring her back alone.

“Let’s go quickly.” Yan Huan didn’t want to go with them. Even if she was alone, she could find a way out.

However, she had underestimated these people. Yan Huan felt that in their hearts, he was a piece of fat. He was a piece of fat that was about to reach his mouth. How could he let her run away just like that.

Those people continued to say something to Sun Yuhan. Only then did Sun Yuhan reluctantly walk over. Her mouth was also somewhat foul-mouthed.

Yan Huan knew that she wouldn’t be able to hide here for long. She stood up from the bushes. Her face was covered in dirt and looked ashen. At this moment, she looked like a foolish fool.

Sun Yuhan pursed her lips. She felt that Yan Huan had made her look like this.

“No wonder you didn’t come out. It turns out that you’re someone you can’t stand to see.”

Yan Huan heard her sarcastic remarks and even gave her a lazy smile.

Oh right, she could laugh now. She could laugh now, but who knew what would happen in the future? She really didn’t want to sit in that car, but she realized that those people’s eyes were all staring at her, all of them had bad intentions. Even if she was willing to stay here, others might not be.

Yan Huan still sat at the back of the car. She was still thinking if she could find a place to jump off on the road, but she realized that the car door was already locked.

“What are you doing?” A man stared at Yan Huan’s hand on the car door, as if he wanted to chop off Yan Huan’s hand.

“I’m just checking if the car door is tightly shut. What if I Fall Down?”

She was afraid of death. Sun Yuhan covered her laughter and looked at that stupid look.

Yan Huan lowered her head and also placed her hand on her leg. She was no longer a pig teammate, but a god-like helper.

Sun Yuhan was still bragging to the people in the car about her previous films and how many fans she had. However, Yan Huan found that the two men were just laughing, and even making fun of her, they simply didn't believe what Sun Yuhan said, and Yan Huan simply didn't believe that the two men would really send them back to Hai City.

Of course, Sun Yuhan was still very excited. As long as she could escape from that death transformation, Arnold, she would be willing to do anything. She ate the hard pancake in the car, but in her heart, she was also thinking about what to do when they arrived at Hai City, what to eat and what to play? Of course, she couldn't let Arnold off. There was also Yan Huan. She didn't forget that when Arnold hit her, Yan Huan had always stood by and watched.

She, Sun Yuhan, swore that she would definitely kill Yan Huan. Otherwise, her surname wasn't Sun, and she wasn't Ye Jianguo's granddaughter.

The car had always been driving. Even at night, it didn't stop. Even if they wanted to go to the bathroom, it was the same as when Arnold was there. They had to follow them.

Gradually, Sun Yuhan also realized that something was wrong.

"Where are you taking us?"

Sun Yuhan was not too stupid. She already felt that something was wrong. "Didn't you say that you were going to send us to Hai City?"

However, this was not the way back to Hai City.

The man who was driving consoled Sun Yuhan. "Don't worry. We took a shortcut. We will be able to return to Hai City very soon."

Sun Yuhan was still a little suspicious, but since everyone had said so, she could only wait.

However, Yan Huan was not as optimistic as her. This was indeed not the way to Hai City. This was simply leaving Hai City, and it was also the opposite of Hai City. She had seen the road signs. The way to Hai City was to go north, however, these people were going south. That was why she said that these people would not send them back to Hai City. They were liars, and they could also be human traffickers.

She was very clear and understood. However, Sun Yuhan was still stupid. She was still dreaming. These two people were going to send them back to Hai City.

The car drove further and further away, and Yan Huan's heart became heavier and heavier. She did not know where these people were taking them. She had lived alone outside. No matter what, she could find the way home, moreover, she placed her hand on her neck and pretended to scratch her hair. There was a thin necklace around her neck. As long as the necklace was not taken away by these people, she should be able to find her way home, as for Sun Yuhan, she could not help her. It was up to her ability.

Being able to live was her ability. Being taken away was her fate.

At night, they slept in the car. The two men were outside the car. Yan Huan didn't know what they were talking about. She didn't hear them clearly until she was in a daze. She heard their voices.

"How much can these two women be sold for?"

"The Silent One can't be sold for much. The talkative one seems to have some figure. and the silent one is dull-witted and her face is so yellow. I don't think she's sick, right?"

"I think so too. The Silent One is dull-witted and her eyes are lifeless. She might not be able to sell for a good price, while the talkative one and the braggart one are not bad. They can sell for at least tens of thousands."

"You have to keep an eye on these two. They are our money tree. They are not money yet. Only when we have the money will we have it."

"Exactly."

Chapter 1670: went missing

The other man also nodded in agreement. "Don't worry, I'll keep an eye on them. It's just these two idiots. They really thought that we would send them back to Hai City. They've already left the territory of Hai City."

There was also that talkative person. There was an 80% chance that she had a problem with her brain. She had always said that she was a rich young lady and had even filmed on television. With her ugly appearance, she really thought that she was a celebrity. If she was a celebrity.., if I was a celebrity, then I would be his father. At this point, both of them burst out laughing. This sort of teasing was extremely laughable.

Yan Huan closed his eyes again. It was just as she had imagined.

These two people were indeed not good people. She had to think carefully about how she was going to escape.

Only then did she leave the Wolf's Den and enter the wolf's stomach again.

She had no choice but to think about what she would do if she was really sold. She knew what kind of life those women who were sold would lead. After being sold, they would be like a dog or a pig, no one would treat them as human beings anymore. They would be beaten and kicked at every turn. They would also be locked in some small dark room. They would not be allowed to come out unless they had children. Moreover, even if they had a son, they would have to give birth to another one. At that time, they would not even have any respect for Yan Huan, he might even be bullied by the entire village.

Yan Huan had seen such movies before. Of course, he knew about such news. They were all female university students who had been deceived. They were originally in their prime. They were in their prime, but in the end, they became the victims of human traffickers.

Just like goods, they were sold into those poor mountains and ravines. After that, they would lead a life worse than death.

Yan Huan was very afraid just thinking about it.

What should she do? She was regretting it now. Why didn't she train her skills properly? She really should have let Lu Yi teach her properly. The more she lived, the more she came back. If it were in the past.., she would have no problem fighting these two alone, but now, she couldn't challenge either one of them.

In fact, what she didn't know was that not only was she awake, even Sun Yuhan was awake. Sun Yuhan heard the sounds outside and was so scared that she was trembling. Her entire body was trembling uncontrollably.

What should she do? Yes, what should she do?

These people wanted to sell her to those old bachelors who couldn't get a wife, or fools and Madmen. Then, her life would be over. She was still young. She had money that she couldn't play with. She was also a celebrity, she could have whatever she wanted. She couldn't sell her. Yes, she couldn't be sold by others. She had to escape.

The next day, Sun Yuhan didn't like to talk much. Even when she smiled, it was weird.

She didn't know how to hide herself. All her expressions were written on her face.

The two men also noticed this, so they kept a close eye on Sun Yuhan.

They were walking on a small road. There was no one on the road. The most they did was to fill up the car before stopping. However, even if they filled up the car, they locked them inside.

In the past, Sun Yuhan didn't care. She would go to Hai City anyway. However, these people didn't want her to go back to hai city. Instead, they wanted to sell her to a madman and a fool. How could she be willing to do that.

She was still looking for an opportunity for herself. As for that stupid Yan Huan, what did it have to do with her?

She finally found the opportunity. She didn't know what the two men had eaten, but they started to have diarrhea. Sun Yuhan rolled her eyes and knew that today was her chance to escape.

As long as she ran out, no matter where she was, she could always go home. She could go back to hai city. She was rich, so she could get someone to send her back to be mocked. She could ask for as much money as she wanted.

She secretly opened the car door, but Yan Huan was still leaning against the car and sleeping. She didn't think to inform Yan Huan. Although the two of them had walked all the way here, in her opinion, Yan Huan's life had nothing to do with her, moreover, she could still earn some time here. When the time came, the two of them would realize that she was missing and would come over to catch her. In any case, they already had Yan Huan in their hands. Even if she ran away, it wouldn't be a big deal.

She thought so and did so. She opened the car door and ran out.

Yan Huan, who was sitting in the car, sighed softly.

“Run. It’s good that you can run far away so that you won’t implicate me.” She would think of a way. She was waiting for an opportunity. In fact, she had been observing these two people recently. If they were just ordinary people without any skills., well, she could fight two people by herself.

Therefore, she wanted to give it a try. At most, she would be beaten up. It was impossible for her to be beaten to death. Sun Yuhan did not want to be sold. She was not a fool, so how could she want to be sold.

This Sun Yuhan had been sabotaging her along the way. It seemed that she was the same as Sun Yuhan. As long as she met Sun Yuhan, nothing good would happen to her.

If she could find a good scene to shoot, she would be able to fall from the sky. With a phone call, she would be kidnapped. Not only that, but now she would also be sold by human traffickers into a poor valley.

She closed her eyes and prepared to recover her strength. The food these people gave them was not bad. Perhaps they had done this kind of thing in the past, afraid that they would suspect it, so they had never starved them, of course, it was also possible that they had a high level of confidence in themselves, so they had never thought of drugging them.

Not long after she closed her eyes, she heard footsteps. They were back.

“What are you eating? I can’t even poop anymore?” The short-haired man held his stomach with one hand and his anus with the other. Sure enough, he seemed to be out of water. He even started to wobble when he walked.

“How would I know?” The other person also said weakly, “I really don’t have any strength left?”

“Go and see if those two women are still alive. We’ve suffered so much on the way here, but it’s all for them. If this deal doesn’t work out, then we’ll have wasted our entire journey.”

“Go and see. I don’t have any strength left.”

The other human trafficker wanted to lie on the ground. He didn’t have any strength left to pull at all. In any case, he didn’t want to move.

The two human traffickers pushed each other around, but they didn’t want to stand up. In the end, the last one stood up and walked over unsteadily. With one glance, he saw Yan Huan inside and was very satisfied.

“Don’t worry, he’s not lost. He’s still sleeping. He’s sleeping like a dead pig.”

After he finished reading, he was also satisfied. However, why did he feel that his stomach was uncomfortable again.

Just as he was about to find a place to settle it, he suddenly shivered and ran over in disbelief.

“Not good, one of them escaped.”

“Escaped?” The short-haired human trafficker quickly stood up. However, he could see that his footsteps were weak and he did not have much strength. Even his voice was different from before.

“Let me take a look.”
