

Chapter 1691: he was back

She wanted to struggle, but one of her feet was still in a cast and was still fixed. The man's other hand was still covering her mouth. As for the other hand, it was placed on her neck and began to tighten.

Sun Yuhan wanted to stick out her tongue, but she also began to roll her eyes. Her chest rose and fell violently. Her uninjured leg was also stretched out from time to time, and her hands were also randomly flapping.

Suddenly, with a clang, she threw the vase on the table to the ground. The moment the vase broke, it made a loud sound.

The nurse outside was also frightened.

She hurriedly pushed the door open and ran in. When she saw the man on the hospital bed strangling Sun Yuhan's neck, her face turned purple. She was so scared that her entire face turned white. Suddenly, she screamed.

There were already more doctors and nurses outside.

The Man Who Was Strangling Sun Yuhan directly opened the window and jumped out. Sun Yuhan finally caught the air. She held her neck and kept coughing, she almost coughed herself up. There were also a lot of scratches on her neck.

"Cough..."

Her entire face was flushed red. What was even more frightening was that the man's green eyes that were like wolves pierced into her heart.

It was him. It was him who had returned. It was that man who had returned.

It was him who had returned. He wanted her life. He wanted to kill him. He really wanted to kill her.

The doctors quickly went to the window. The window was already open, and the curtains were blown up and down by the wind. There seemed to be a special smell here, as if there was some dust, there was also the smell of oily hair that had not been washed for a long time.

Sun Yuhan coughed from time to time. She pointed outside and felt as if her neck was about to be snapped.

"Miss Sun, don't worry. It's fine. That person is already there. We have already called the police."

Sun Yuhan was still coughing and pointed at her neck. Was her neck about to be snapped? Could she still breathe? Could she still live?

The Doctor examined Sun Yuhan's neck and quickly comforted her, "Miss Sun, don't worry. Your Neck is fine."

Sun Yuhan quickly shook her head. No, no, she couldn't breathe.

“AH... ah...”from time to time, this strange sound came from her throat.

She couldn't breathe. She really couldn't breathe. Her neck was about to break, and she rolled her eyes. At this time, she looked as if she was dead, which shocked the medical staff present.

However, they found out that she was just scared out of her wits. She was still alive and nothing had happened except for her leg that was still in a cast.

When ye Jianguo came, he was so angry that he wanted to smash the hospital when he heard that someone was going to kill his granddaughter. He scolded everyone in the hospital, including the director, even the nurses did not dare to make a sound.

When Sun Yuhan woke up again, she was still in a daze. Now, as long as she closed her eyes, she could see those green eyes. It was as if they were going to eat people. She was in the hospital., now, she was afraid of everyone. She wanted to scream and go crazy. She was also afraid. Every doctor in the white coat here had become the person who wanted to harm her, and she seemed to be suffering from paranoia. She was crazy every day, as if she was about to go crazy.

When Ye Chuji heard this, he smiled coldly. Of course, it was also ironic. In this world, one would never do anything guilty. In the middle of the night, one would never be afraid of ghosts knocking on the door. Even if Sun Yuhan died in the future, she would definitely not die of old age, it was because she had done too many guilty things that she had caused her own death.

Don't blame him for being cruel, and don't blame him for being cold-hearted.

His own son was still missing because of that woman. He hadn't sent him any messages for several months. Now, he didn't have the mood to care about Sun Yuhan. It didn't matter if Sun Yuhan was dead., it didn't matter if she wasn't dead, it had nothing to do with him.

Ye Chuji didn't care about Sun Yuhan at all. He still wanted to find his son. In the airport, Sun Yuhan wasn't allowed to set foot here in the future. If she still dared to make a move against the airport, he didn't care whose daughter she was, even if it was his sister's daughter, he would strangle her to death.

Ye Chuji directly became a hands-off manager and went out to look for that brat. Although he didn't have a destination, it was still better than staying in Hai City. As long as he left, Ye Jianguo and that Sun Yuhan could have some peace.

Of course, he didn't have to worry about ye Jianguo's life or death. Right now, his father was still reluctant to die. He didn't marry that crippled granddaughter out, didn't arrange a good future for her, and let himself be at ease, he could also ensure that Sun Yuhan would not have to worry about food and drink for the rest of her life. How could he bear to leave.

The last few years of ye Jianguo's life were left for his granddaughter.

Therefore, he would not die. He was also reluctant to die.

Before ye Chuji left, he made a trip to the Lu family and handed the airport to Lu Jin.

“Why do you want me to manage your family's business?”

Lu Jin was instantly unwilling when he heard this. He saw how good his grandchildren were every day. He took his three grandsons out to sympathize with his former comrades. It was simply a wonderful life. Why did he have to carry such a big pot on his back.., carry such a big pot on his back.

“Your family and the Lei family’s shares are in the airport. If the airport loses, you won’t suffer any losses. You Don’t have to do anything. You just have to look around and don’t let others get in.”

Ye Chuji reached out and patted Lu Jin on the shoulder, “You’ve already touched it, so it shouldn’t be too difficult. It might have been a little more difficult in the beginning, but I think you’re almost familiar with it now. So to you, don’t worry. It Won’t crush you. This is the capital you left for your third grandson. Don’t you want to care about it? Don’t you want it?”

“Alright, Alright, I got it. Don’t set me up.” Lu Jin slapped ye Chuji’s hand away. He would put on a high hat for ye Chuji and pinch his weak spot. He knew that the three children were what he cared about the most, this was the milk powder money for his three children. No matter what, he would not let others take advantage of him for nothing.

“How long will you be out this time?” Lu Jin asked ye Chuji. The sympathy of the red fruits also made ye Chuji feel bad.

See, even Lu Jin sympathized with him.

He lost his wife before he was middle-aged. His son grew up in the Lu family. Until now, he was alone. Now, he had to raise a vampire-like Sun Yuhan with his butt sticking out. He even had to be hospitalized, no one cared about him, and he had to look for his son who had run away from home. Lu Jin was a grandfather with three children, and he carried grandchildren every day. How could he compare to him, who did not even have a daughter-in-law.

Chapter 1692: the truth

“I’ll go look for that damned brat.”

Ye Chuji sighed, “No matter what, he’s still my son. I’m afraid that if I don’t look for him, no one will remember him. My grandfather didn’t even ask a single question, his mind was completely focused on that woman. Now That Ye Rong is dead, if she’s still alive, I really want to ask, why did she give birth to such a mischievous person? Does she really have to harm the entire ye family to feel at ease?”

“Why? Does she hate the ye family so much? Does she hate me as her big brother? What did I do to her? I let her give birth to such a daughter and caused Xinyu to disappear. If something really happened to Xinyu, even if I became a ghost, I wouldn’t forgive Ye Rong.”

Lu Jin originally wanted to say that the matters of the living had nothing to do with the dead. Ye Rong did not know about these matters, and it was also not related to her. However, seeing ye chuji like this, he really needed to vent his anger properly. Otherwise.., he did not know if ye Chuji would be able to withstand such great pressure from love.

“When are you leaving?” Lu Jin did not say those words in the end. Originally, he hated the members of the Ye family, including Ye Chuji. However, when he saw ye Chuji like this, he aged very quickly, he was already so old, yet he still had to look for his son. It was not as if his son had been kidnapped. Why was he acting like a father whose son had been kidnapped.

"I'll leave in a while." He was too lazy to see anyone around him. He was annoyed whenever he saw them. Whenever ye Chuji thought of Sun Yuhan, who was now running amok in the Ye family, he would have an uncomfortable headache. He also gritted his teeth until they hurt.

Lu Jin did not try to persuade ye Chuji. If he wanted to leave, he could leave. Indeed, it might be better if he left. Otherwise, who knew what ye Jianguo and Sun Yuhan were up to, he still wanted ye Chuji to follow behind and clean up their mess.

Did Ye Chuji still clean up the mess behind them?

At night, Lu Yi came over. Today, he was going to pick up the children. Yan Huan made delicious food for them.

"Your uncle came," Lu Jin took the time to say to Lu Yi.

"Your Uncle Came?" Lu Jin frowned slightly. "Is there a problem?"

"No," Lu Jin sighed. "Your uncle has already left Hai City."

"He has a meeting?" However, he had just returned and was about to leave again. Lu Yi remembered that in the past years, he had never seen ye Chuji so busy. It was impossible for him to have just returned for a few days within a month, then, he went out again.

"It's not a meeting." Lu Jin glanced at the three children who were still playing in the living room. The more he thought about ye Chuji, the more sympathetic he became.

"He went to look for Xinyu. Tell Qingyi that Xinyu must continue to look for him. I don't know where the child is suffering now. Your Uncle went abroad to look for Xinyu last time, but he didn't expect that something would happen at the airport. Fortunately, it was a close call." Now, even when Lu Jin recalled the events of the past few days., his heart was also filled with lingering fear.

If the Lu family really took the blame, what would happen to his three grandsons in the future? They were still so young.

"Uncle went to look for Xinyu last time, not for a meeting?"

How Come Lu Yi had never heard of this matter? He had always thought that ye Chuji was going for a meeting.

"Yes." Lu Jin nodded. "I saw the message Xinyu sent to your uncle. He said that your uncle went to look for him, so your uncle went."

Lu Yi stood up and walked towards the balcony. However, he had only taken a few steps when his leg was hugged by someone.

Lu Yi lowered his head and saw that Xun Xun was hugging his leg. Her big eyes were also twinkling beautifully and cutely.

"Ba Ba, did mummy make anything delicious for Xun Xun?"

Xun Xun was a smart baby. Of course, she was also the one who remembered to eat the most. Since they were not going to school today, they had to go to their mother's place to eat the food that their mother cooked.

"Mommy made a lot of food." Lu Yi squatted down and pinched his daughter's little face.

"Xunxun, go play with your brothers. Daddy has some things to do. I'll come back later and bring you and your brother home, okay?"

"Okay." Xunxun finally let go of Lu Yi's legs and went to play with her brothers.

It was better to have more children at home. If there was only one child, there would be no one to play with. Look at how good these three were. They could still play together. The three children could also have a companion.

Lu Yi took out his phone and dialed Lei Qingyi's number.

"You said your uncle went to look for ye Xinyu last time? But Ye Xinyu was clearly..." Lei Qingyi was also confused. Ye Xinyu was obviously missing, but how could he let ye Chuji look for him now.

Was this intentional?

Not long after he left, something happened at the airport. It also almost dragged the Lu family into it. If the Lu family was not lucky enough to have a national treasure of another country in their hands., perhaps they were either sentenced to death or imprisoned.

This was too much of a coincidence.

Even Lei Qingyi felt that something was wrong, let alone Lu Yi

"I can now guarantee that ye Xinyu's disappearance is definitely related to Sun Yuhan. Maybe it was Sun Yuhan who took ye Xinyu to God knows where and then used ye Xinyu's phone to send a message to Ye Chu. In this world, other than them, there is only one Sun Yuhan who knows ye Xinyu's personality."

"If there is no ye Xinyu in this world, then the entire ye family would belong to Sun Yuhan alone."

That's right, he grabbed the table hard. They had no evidence.

It had to be said that Lei Qingyi was indeed in this line of work. His logical thinking ability was really strong. He had found the truth.

"You should first investigate a little." Lu Yi had no way to deal with this now. What he was most afraid of was this kind of headless case. He could not get anything out of it even if he asked, and he could not get anything out of it even if he investigated. They could only start from the floating population of various places, they wanted to see if they could find ye Xinyu.

"I got it. I've been looking for him the whole time."

Lei Qingyi had always sent people to look for ye Xinyu, but they didn't know where he was either. Not to mention other places, even a place like Hai City was enough for them to look for him. If they expanded the scope., it had to be said that they really felt like a tiger eating the sky. They had no idea where to start.

He really hoped that ye Xinyu had gone missing and not been harmed by someone else.

At the very least, there was a possibility of finding him back if he had gone missing. However, if he had been harmed by someone else, then they might not even be able to gather the bones for him.

Lu Yi hung up his phone and just as he turned around, he saw Xun Xun squatting on the ground. She had been staring at him with a pair of big eyes the whole time. Her little face was chubby and pink, she was really very pretty.

“What’s Wrong?” Lu Yi put his phone in his pocket and walked over as well. He then squatted in front of his daughter.

Chapter 1693: Xunxiang’s grandmother

“Xunxun is waiting to be plucked.” Xunxun stretched out her little arm for her father to hug her, “Xunxun wants to go to Mommy’s place to eat delicious food. Mommy can cook fish and vegetables that Xunxun likes. The food that Mommy Can Cook is the best.”

Lu Yi pinched his daughter’s little face. “I don’t know where you learned that little mouth of yours from. It’s So Sweet.” He and Yan Huan were not very good at sweet-talking, but how did they give birth to Xunxun, a child who knew how to praise others.., the little mouth of the child was like smeared honey.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were like him. Usually, they were not children who liked to talk too much. Of course, the little mouth would not say anything nice, unlike Xun Xun, who was a pretty auntie, a pretty grandma, a handsome grandfather.., what Auntie, you’re Pretty? Uncle is really good-looking. Just her little mouth alone had praised almost everyone in the vicinity. which one of them did not want to give their own to take home when they saw her? It was a pity.., this was the child of the Lu family and the only girl in the Lu family. She was treasured by everyone. Ever since she was young, she was unwilling to give others a hug.

Lu Yi carried his daughter up with one hand. “Alright, Daddy will bring you and brother back. Go and eat the food that mommy made.”

“Okay.” Xun Xun’s big eyes were curved into two crescent moons from smiling. There were also two beautiful dimples on her face. Her parents’ best features were all grown up by her.

Her mother’s eyes, her mother’s nose, her mother’s face shape, and her grandmother’s dimples. This was because Xunxun’s grandmother had dimples.

“If your grandmother were here, she would definitely like us to look for her.”

Yan Huan had said that Xunxun and mother Yan looked very similar. It was a pity that mother Yan had left too early. If she were still here, Yan Huan would not have suffered so much.

Lu Yi carried Xun Xun out and found her little shoes to put on at the door. Shi Shuyun had already tidied up her two grandsons and let them carry their little schoolbags. They still had to do their homework in the past, they had to finish their homework at night, and they had to do it well. If they did not do it well, they could not sleep in the bedroom.

They doted on the three children, or they doted on them very much. But when it came to principles, they absolutely could not compromise. For example, when they were students, they had to do their homework well. He had bad grades, however, they had to study hard and act like students.

Lu Yi carried Xun Xun while ye Shuyun held the hands of her two grandsons and let them sit in the car. Lu Yi's car had three rows of seats, and the second row was reserved for the three children.

They had been sitting in their father's car since they were young, so they were not afraid at all.

"You've done so much today." Bai Zhi glanced at the table. It was already a table full of dishes, but they still had to serve them up. How many dishes were there? How many people were there to eat.

There were not many people in the Liuyuan Garden. Usually, Lu Yi had to go to work, but when he went to work, he would spend almost the whole day outside. He would only come back very late.

There were only Yan Huan, Bai Zhi, and nanny gu here. The meals of the three of them were very easy to prepare. Yan Huan wasn't picky, so Bai Zhi naturally wasn't picky either. Originally, Bai Zhi wouldn't sit at the same table as Yan Huan, at most, he would take his own portion and bring it to his room to eat. Or he would find a place where there was no one and quickly settle it. However, between the two of them, Yan Huan would always see her huddled up in a corner. It was quite pitiful.

Therefore, she let Bai Zhi eat with her. In any case, it was a little boring for her to eat alone. It was better to have someone to accompany her. After eating three meals a day, even Bai Zhi was gradually getting used to it, moreover, both Yan Huan and Auntie Gu were good cooks. It was really enjoyable to eat three meals a day.

This could be considered the easiest task that Bai Zhi received. Yan Huan practically did not leave the house. If there was nothing special, Lu Yigen would not let her go out. If she did not go out, when she was in the garden., hence, even Bai Zhi did not do anything. However, it was not nothing. Bai Zhi's skills were very good. Hence, Yan Huan took advantage of the fact that she was free to ask Bai Zhi to teach her, she had some basic skills to begin with. Although she had only learned them when she was a soldier, she did not learn too much. In the past, when she was in good health, she could fight three or four people at once. Now, it was a little difficult to fight one-on-one.

It just so happened that she had stopped here for nothing. On one hand, she was practicing her skills to prepare for the first two, and on the other hand, she was also taking it as a form of exercise.

Yan Huan then brought out a plate of oily prawns from the kitchen.

She had three children and loved eating this oily prawns. Basically, the entire plate of prawns had entered their small stomachs, and the oily prawns were actually prepared for them.

The door outside rang out. Lu Yi entered, carrying Xun Xun in his arms. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang held each other's hands as they walked in as well.

This was about the same as Yan Huan's guess. Yan Huan counted the time and they should have arrived by now. They hadn't even waited for many people before they arrived.

"Mummy..." Xun Xun struggled as she ran over and stretched out her little hand for her mother to hug.

Yan Huan had not seen the children for a week.

Yan Huan pinched his daughter's chubby little face. He simply could not put it down.

"My Xunxun is still as beautiful and cute as ever."

Xunxun cracked open her little mouth and smiled, revealing her two dimples. Lu Wei's dimples were not something that everyone could see. Usually., she was stingy when it came to showing her dimples to others. She was as stingy as she wanted to be.

Now, she finally saw her dimples.

Yan Huan patted Xiao Guang and Xiao Qi's little heads again.

"Did you do your homework obediently?"

Xiao Qi's Xiao Guang nodded her little head vigorously. Compared to Xun Xun, they really resembled Lu Yi's personality, especially Xiao Qi. She was exactly the same as Lu Yi. Xiao Guang was a little better., xiao Guang loved to smile. When she smiled, her eyes would curve up.

"So Obedient." Yan Huan hugged the three children again. She really loved them very much. This was the continuation of her life. It was the child that she had given her all to give birth to. Fortunately, she did not give up on any of them back then. Otherwise, they might not even be here now.

"Let's go. Mommy will bring you to eat. Mommy has made your favorite prawns. I'll Peel them for you to eat later."

Yan Huan brought the three children over and washed their hands clean one by one before carrying them to sit down. The small bowls in front of the three children were filled with rice. Each of them had a small bowl to eat, they were not fed.

Yan Huan peeled the oily prawns. Each of them was first given one, and then he gave them something else to eat. They only had such a small stomach. Although they could eat it., they could not eat all of it.

Chapter 1694: was a little too much

Fish, ah, chicken, eggs, these were all things that they had to eat. Yan Huan kept putting things in the small bowl for them.

"Mama, Can Xun Xun eat another shrimp?"

"Only after eating."

Yan Huan knew that Xun Xun was picky again. Her two brothers had never been picky about food. They were easy to raise, but Xun Xun was still so small. She was already a little smaller than the others when she was born, could it be that she had to be a short person in the future? Therefore, she was most worried about her development.

He Yibin said that Xun Xun was fine. Her development was very normal and she would not be a short person in the future. At least her height of 0 was at least 1.6 meters. After all, her father was so tall, and her mother was not short either, as long as she was not too picky with her food, it would be fine. She was afraid that she was too picky with her food and that she would not develop properly.

Therefore, her family had never allowed her to be picky with her food.

Xunxun buried her little face in the bowl again. Then, she forcefully used a spoon to stuff the rice in the bowl into her little mouth.

However, after a while, she raised her little face again. She really wanted to eat prawns. However, her mother said that she would not eat them, so she did not let her eat them.

When the three children had almost finished eating, Yan Huan kept his promise and peeled a large prawn for each of the children. He placed it in their little wrists and let them eat it. What she didn't know was that when she wanted to eat her own rice, Lu Qi placed the large prawn in his bowl into his sister's Bowl. Lu Guang was the same. They clearly liked to eat it too, but in the end, they gave them all to his sister.

They were obviously the same age, but they already knew that they had to give way to their sister and protect her.

Xun Xun was so happy that she got three prawns in one go. She ate so much that her little face was covered with rice grains.

Meanwhile, Lu Qi and Lu Guang continued to eat their own rice. They didn't sprinkle rice grains on the table either. They were already like a noble young master. Yan Huan didn't notice it, but Lu Yi did. This was the child of the Lu family. They did the right thing., just like him, he did not have any siblings in the past. However, he knew that he had to protect Lei Qingyi, who was younger than him. Lei Qingyi was skinny and small when he was young. He did not look like a human bear now, in fact, before junior high, Lei Qingyi was very weak. He loved to cry and was always bullied. He was also the one who protected and raised him. Later on, after Lei Qingyi passed junior high, he was as tall as a spring onion and kept growing, before she reached senior high school, she grew up to 1.9 meters in an instant. Later on, she also grew up one after another. Not to mention other things, even with his height, he was still remembered and feared by others. In addition, he was slightly older, he was not as silly as he was when he was young.

Looking at Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang now, they were indeed like him in the past.

Even Xun Xun did not know who this little foodie looked like. She did not stop eating all day long. Shu Yun, of course, also hoped that her granddaughter would eat until she was white and fat. However, it was just that Xun Xun ate like this., she did not really become fat. Her small arms and legs were still very thin, but her skin was very white and her little face was beautiful.

Bai Zhi saw everything, but this was none of her business. She just had to remember to eat her food properly.

After she finished eating. Yan Huan cleared the table while Bai Zhi was really bored. He stayed with the three children and taught them some emergency escape methods. Yan Huan felt that it was a little too early to teach this to a three-year-old child. They were still so young., however, when she saw that the three children looked like they were enjoying learning, she let them be.

“Do you all know about the earthquake escape we talked about just now?”

Bai Zhi asked the three children, but he said it very seriously and did not have any intention of joking with them.

“Yes.” Lu Qi pointed to the table at the side. “Go under the table.”

“In the toilet,” Xiao Guang answered.

“At the staircase,” Xun Xun also rushed to answer.

“So Obedient.” Bai Zhi pinched their little faces one by one. However, in the end, he still liked to pinch Xun Xun’s little face. Xun Xun’s little face was the softest, and her skin was the whitest. Sometimes, she looked like.., she was really like a beautiful dumpling that was filled with soup.

She wanted to know if this soup dumpling could really be crushed.

Xunxun also allowed Bai Zhi to pinch her little face. She was still smiling with curved eyes, which made Bai Zhi really want to pinch her little face until it turned red. However, Lu Yi had already warned her several times, she liked this job very much, so she didn’t want to lose it for nothing. This was probably the least bodyguard-like job she had ever taken.

She retracted her hand and didn’t dare to Pinch Xun Xun’s little face anymore. However, this little girl was very pretty, and she couldn’t help it.

“Alright, now let’s train how to escape from a fire.”

The three children listened obediently.

They were still young and didn’t know what method to use. Bai Zhi had taught them all the basic escape methods.

“First, you have to know where the door is. When you arrive at the kindergarten, you have to remember which direction the kindergarten door is. Even if you close your eyes, you have to find it. Do you understand? “The next time you come, Auntie will teach you how to escape from the fire.”

“Okay.” The three children looked as if they had received a big task. Each of them had a serious expression on their faces.

“Is this a good way to teach them?” Yan Huan pointed at the three children who were sitting obediently. There was also Bai Zhi, who had treated the children as adults.

“Bai Zhi is very professional.” Lu Yi raised his head and took a look as well. He had been paying attention the entire time and did not express any opinions. It could be seen that he absolutely agreed to this matter. Although they were young.., they still needed to know some basic safety knowledge.

“I originally planned to hire someone to teach them these things. Life is full of accidents. What we need to do is to keep us out of these accidents. And these are things that they must learn.”

“Alright, if you say so.” Yan Huan did not care about this. In any case, they would do as they said. Since Lu Yi, the father, had agreed, then she, the mother.., it seemed that she could not refuse.

Moreover, the three children seemed to like these things.

She felt that these things were really too much. She really did not know what kind of level they were going to pull the three children to. She felt that the three children in his family were going to lose their childhood.

She secretly counted with her fingers. Usually, she had to go to kindergarten. When she returned home, she had to write a large article every day. It was the weekend. Xiao Qi and Xun Xun not only had to go to the Lu family to learn dance.

Chapter 1695: they were triplets

There was really no time to play. Oh right, she still had to learn these safety knowledge.

However, no matter how uncompromising she felt, she would not stop anything. Elite education was a normal education, and it was absolutely different. Just like her and Lu Yi, she grew up under the care of her mother's older brother, and they were very happy, it was also happy. She did not remember anything, but Lu Yi was different. He had received this kind of education since he was young, so Lu Yi's IQ was higher than hers, and he was smarter than her.

If that was the case, then it was obvious that it was better to be smarter. There was no stupidity in thinking. It was good to be smart. The Smart Ones would not be bullied, and they would not be deceived.

Of course, she also hoped that her three children would not take the initiative to bully others in the future, but they would also not be bullied by others. This was her lifelong wish. Her children could only bully others, but others could not touch them.

Bai Zhi still taught the three children. He did not go easy on them just because they were children.

What she was teaching them now was to escape from the fire because no one could guarantee what would happen in the future. What they could do was to prepare themselves so that at least in the event of an emergency, they could protect themselves.

That was how it was. One by one, you climbed to the door. Remember what I said. Keep your heads down and climb faster. Don't care about anything else.

The three children began to follow Bai Zhi's instructions. One by one, they climbed to the door. They also lowered their little heads. They were originally walking on two legs, but now they were on four legs.

On Monday, Ye Shuyun sent all three children into the kindergarten. Everyone sent one, but she sent three at once.

"Your three grandsons?" A woman who was about the same age as ye Shuyun was really envious when she saw the three children of the Lu family, "These two are twins, right?" When the woman saw that Lu Qi and Lu Guang looked exactly alike, she knew that they were twins. They looked so alike. They had the same hair, the same looks, and the same clothes, moreover, even their little expressions were exactly the same. There was also a little girl. The little girl was slightly smaller than the two boys, and she was also about half a head shorter.

Ye Shuyun touched the little heads of her two grandsons. "The three of them are triplets."

"Triplets?" The woman was shocked when she heard that, but it didn't seem like it.

The twins were rare enough, and they looked exactly the same. What else could she say about the triplets? They were twins. How lucky would they be to give birth to triplets.

Ye Shuyun sent the children in and handed them to the teacher. She was ready to go back, but she couldn't bear to part with her children. She couldn't see the three children for most of the day, and she really missed them.

However, there was nothing she could do. The children had to go to school and they were already used to it. Originally, she wanted the three children to come over for lunch at noon. However, no matter how close they were, they would come and go, the children were also a little pressed for time. It was also because of the few times that Xun Xun caught a cold from the wind.

Therefore, in the end, she decided to place the three children in the kindergarten. She wanted them to eat together with the other children and take a nap together. Moreover, the facilities in the kindergarten were quite good, it was impossible for the three children to be wronged. The children ate nutritious meals that were carefully prepared. The teachers also took good care of them. Every hour, they would drink water and wash their clothes, so, when the children went, they were clean. When they came back, of course, it was the same.

In the kindergarten, Lu Qi and Lu Guang held their little sister's hand and walked to the door from time to time. The teachers thought that they wanted to go home and even persuaded them for a long time, however, the three children still liked to walk to the door for no reason. They walked again and again. The teacher saw that they only walked around the door but did not leave the kindergarten, so he did not care too much.

The children of the Lu family were like this every day. The teachers were also used to it. They liked to walk around like this. It was just that the three siblings had a strange temper and did not like to play with other children, the two older brothers were very protective of the younger sister. The kindergarten teachers were all thinking, who knew what good deeds this Lu Wei had done in her past life to be able to reincarnate into the Lu family, with such a good family background, of course, she was also that kind of parent.

The family background of the three children of the Lu family was only known by the principal and a few teachers here. They were the children of prosecutor Lu and best actress Yan. Actually, everyone was very envious of the children of Best Actress Yan, and they also wanted to know., what exactly did these three children look like? It was just that Yan Huan did not like to expose his children, so there were very few who knew about the children's looks. They were all fans of best actress Yan Huan. Now, they could not see the big ones., they could only look at the small ones first.

Lu Wei actually looked very similar to her mother. They were almost all cut from the same mold. It was just that Yan Huan did not have dimples, but Lu Wei did. She seemed to be even more beautiful than her mother.

Her mother was already the fifth most beautiful woman in Asia. When she grew up in the future, she would be so angry that people would resent her.

That was why people said that being good-looking meant taking advantage of others. There was nothing wrong with that. The teacher took extra care of the three children of the Lu family. Every time he was distracted and gave them some fruits., he would give them more.

The two older brothers took good care of their younger sister, so they ate the delicious food closely to their younger sister.

It was just that the teacher had a headache over the three children's temperaments. The three children stayed together every day and did not interact with other children. They did not fit in too well, so they thought of many ways, they still could not change it, and they were still working tirelessly. However, the three siblings of the Lu family were still unwilling to interact with others.

As for the reason why they were unwilling to interact with other children, Lu Yi knew.

It was because his children found their children too stupid, too dirty, and too ugly.

This was no wonder. Everyone in the family was handsome, and even the old cat at home was very beautiful. They lived in such an environment every day, and they were tired of aesthetics.

The three children looked at each other every day. Their IQ was also better than the average child, so it was understandable that they did not want to play stupid games with other children.

Of course, Lu Yi did not force the children. He was the same when he was young. He was not too willing to play with other children. At most, he brought Lei Qingyi with him. It was only when he grew up that he began to slowly fit in with others.

Chapter 1696: someone was following them

Therefore, he did not force the children to do anything. They were all grown up now, and the three children already had some basic understanding of what was right and what was wrong, they should also think about it now.

By the next weekend, Lu Yi brought the three children back again.

Bai Zhi checked again to see if they had finished their homework.

"Did you recognize the door?" Bai Zhi asked the three kids.

"Yes," the three kids answered in unison. Even their tone was almost the same. They were indeed triplets. It was also Bai Zhi's first time coming into contact with triplets. Twins were still very disciplined, however, there were very few triplets.

Bai Zhi found that the thoughts of the three children were very easy to synchronize. Perhaps this was the relationship between blood ties. To be honest, it was quite strange.

Bai Zhi had nothing to do recently, so he brought the three children here for training. Now, they were learning basic survival skills, such as fire, floods, earthquakes, and some stampedes

Although it was impossible for the school to be very dangerous, they knew all this.

The homework that Bai Zhi gave them was the same. They had to recognize the kindergarten's door clearly, even if they were to close their eyes. Just like that, the three children began to recognize the school's door again, they were small by nature, and their temperaments were very pure, so they could remember things very quickly. Moreover, they basically did the same thing every day. No matter what, they would remember everything that they could remember, now, they could probably walk out of the main entrance of the kindergarten with their eyes closed.

As for Yan Huan, she had finally freed up some time and could properly manage the matters of the children's clothing store. The children's clothing store had been shelved all this while because something had happened to her. There was no major progress at the moment, she wanted to open the children's clothing store as soon as possible.

Bai Zhi stopped the car and opened the car door. The leather clothes and leather pants looked very handsome. Of course, one should not ignore the danger she was carrying, as well as the terrifying tension that made her look like a wolf.

This place seemed to be pretty good. Yan Huan looked at a storefront facing the street. There was no need to go up the stairs, and the lighting was also pretty good. Moreover, the space inside was also quite big. HMM, this should be the place. She was very satisfied with this place, as for the renovation, she didn't need to care about it. As long as she came over to take a look when she was free, it would be fine as long as her thoughts were the same as hers. This was the children's clothing store that she opened for her children, and it wasn't for the sake of making money, instead, it could let the children travel from kindergarten to primary school. When they reached junior high school, if the three children weren't too tall and weren't as mature as Lei Qingyi, they could still wear it.

Bai Zhi's eyes widened as she looked in a direction. She took out the sunglasses on her face and stared at a corner in a daze.

"What's wrong with you?" Yan Huan asked Bai Zhi. She followed Bai Zhi's gaze and looked over. Why was she looking at the corner again?

"Nothing." Bai Zhi put on his sunglasses again. She did not tell Yan Huan that someone was following them. As for who that person was, she should know very soon. No matter who it was., don't let it fall into her hands.

Yan Huan took out his phone from his bag and looked at the time. We first went to a place.

Yan Huan had an appointment with Zhu Meina. In a while, he would go to the hospital to see Rowling's child. The child fell sick and was hospitalized, causing the four elders of the he family to feel extremely distressed.

He Xiaopeng's body had always been stronger than that of an ordinary child. He did not even look at who he Xiaopeng was. When he was born, he weighed nine kilograms and one tael. However, in medical terms, the child born in the past few years was the heaviest child.

Of course, he Xiaopeng's physical fitness was also quite good. He did not have any problems with the newborn. He had always been a very healthy baby. He could eat and sleep, so he was getting fatter and fatter recently, he was also getting sturdier and sturdier. He was only a few months old, but an ordinary person would not be able to carry him. Of course, Yan Huan was one of those people.

She could not carry he Xiaopeng.

However, he Xiaopeng, who was as healthy as could be, was still sick. He was very sick, but it was not a serious illness. He had a cold, cough, and fever, so he did not drink milk anymore. His originally chubby little body., now, he had almost lost a lot of weight, which made the parents of both families feel distressed. It was not easy to raise this kind of meat. He was originally a fair and chubby little grandson, but in just a few days'time., it was as if he had shrunk. His white and chubby appearance was gone, and even his milk had been eaten less. In the past, he had to eat at least a big pot of milk, but now he could not finish it even with a small milk bottle, he was really as pitiful as he could be.

The chubby boy was still living in the hospital. The four old men felt sorry for their grandson every day. They were so heartbroken that they could not eat or sleep. He Yibin felt so good because the chubby boy could finally lose weight.

The little fatty he was really too fat. He could not continue to be fat. Otherwise, if he were to walk in the future, he would be very clumsy.

Really, don't blame his father for being so ruthless. If he was not ruthless, there was nothing he could do. If he wanted to give him less to eat, his parents and in-laws at home were not willing.

The little fatty he was also a gluttonous child. He could not eat his fill every day. Now, he was simply a terrifying little fatty.

But he yibin was clearly so thin, and Luo Lin wasn't fat either. How could he give birth to such a fat boy? and according to he Yibin's years of experience as a doctor, it was because his life was too good and his nutrition was superior, more commonly known was that after eating too much, he had finally turned a small and thin he into a big fat boy.

In the coffee shop, Zhu Meina was wearing a tight red dress that exposed her perfect body. It was so hot that almost all the men blushed. Of course., she had never been stingy with her beauty.

If she did not perform well now, when would she be able to wait until she was Zhu Xianglan's age? Her body was full of fat. if she dared to wear a tight dress, her flesh would sway.

It was really disgusting.

"You're here."Zhu Meina poured a cup of tea for Yan Huan, and the other cup was for Bai Zhi.

"Thank you."Yan Huan took the cup and took a sip. The taste was not bad, but she could not taste any difference from other teas. She was probably destined not to be an elegant person.

"How are they doing recently?"Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina, and they said that they were from the Su family. Recently, the Su family had been much more low-key. No, they were too low-key. With Su Muran's character., how could she miss such a good opportunity.

Chapter 1697: flirting

"It's still the half-step shadow." Sun Yuhan would need at least half a year to get out. No, she wouldn't be able to get out for the rest of her life. With Su Muran's current popularity and the Su family behind her., with the popularity that she had accumulated over the years, it wasn't too difficult for her to break through to a new height. However, it was an accident that she didn't appear and didn't participate in the program frequently, this didn't seem to suit Su Muran's character. Could it be that she wanted to retire as well? This seemed to be impossible.

A woman like Su Muran would never fall behind others and would never put others in her eyes. It was even more impossible for her to give up the opportunity that was finally in her hands.

Of course, to Su Muran, such an opportunity was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. If she didn't grasp it well, she might not be able to turn things around in her lifetime.

However, why did it not appear? This was surprising.

"Could it be that something happened to the Su Family? or did Su Mumu change his personality?" Yan Huan shook the cup in his hand. Was this the right reason?

"Who knows?" Zhu Meina pursed her lips and poured herself a cup of tea to drink. "She went overseas and Zhu Xianglan followed her. My ears are so peaceful now."

"I think you're enjoying it."

Yan Huan immediately exposed Zhu Meina's lie. Of course, she knew that Zhu Meina was doing it on purpose. She was disgusted with Zhu Xianglan every day. No, the two of them were disgusted by each other, and they were disgusted by each other. This was something that they were used to.

Now that Zhu Xianglan was not around and Zhu Meina did not have anyone to be disgusted with, Jingzi did not have much fun. However, she could still disgust Su Qingdong here.

Of course, she could only disgust Su Qingdong. As for that old man Su Ancheng, he was currently hiding in the sanatorium and didn't come out. He really didn't care about the Su family's matters. Of course, Zhu Meina knew that old man., his eyes were sharp. She absolutely believed that as long as there was even the slightest movement in the Su family, that old man would definitely be the first to jump out.

Yan Huan frowned slightly. mm, he was really a little surprised that Zhu Xianglan and her daughter had actually gone abroad. He had also not heard that Su Jiiran had a film to shoot abroad. As for why she had gone abroad., even the endorsements in the country had been put aside. Therefore, this matter was really a little strange. He just did not know what the real reason was for their past?

Of course, Yan Huan did not know about this reason. Zhu Meina also did not know. She did not have the ability to let Zhu Xianglan and her daughter tell her everything.

"Let's go back." Yan Huan brought back his sunglasses and lowered his hat. He still had to go to the hospital to see little fatty he in a while.

Zhu Meina stood up and adjusted her clothes. With her long legs and slim waist, coupled with her big breasts, she was still dressed very fashionably. Coupled with her heavy makeup, she still managed to make her clothes smell good, coupled with a pair of high heels that were more than ten centimeters long, she did not seem like a decent woman at all.

Zhu Meina twisted her waist and continued to walk forward. However, there were always a few people who did not know what was good for them and did not know what was good for them.

“Beauty, are you leaving just like that?”

A lewd man walked over. It seemed like he was trying to tease Zhu Meina.

Zhu Meina took off her sunglasses. She had long curly hair and looked very flirtatious. The fullness on her chest was obvious. It really made the man’s nose bleed.

Men did not care whether this was fake or not. This was the feeling they wanted.

The man’s gaze was glued to Zhu Meina’s chest. He was almost staring straight at his eyes. Now, he was just short of a nosebleed. He reached out and grabbed her.

This woman’s figure was really hot. Just thinking about it made the man’s heart surge and his blood flow.

“Get out of the way.” Zhu Meina was not in the mood to tease other men. She still had things to do, especially with such an ugly face. She did not even look at herself in the mirror to see what kind of pig she looked like and still wanted to tease a virtuous woman.

But the problem was, was she really a virtuous woman?

Of course, if she thought she was, then she was. wasn’t she a virtuous woman.

Daring to tease her, did she not want to live anymore?

“Beauty, it is fate that we meet. Let’s get to know each other, sit for a while, chat, get to know each other...”

“And then have sex?”

Zhu Meina’s red lips parted slightly, and the words that came out of her mouth seemed to have hit the mark of this lewd man,

“If beautiful women don’t mind, I can do it...”

“Scram!” Zhu Meina rolled her eyes and directly said the word ‘scram’ coldly. How could she say the word ‘scram’? The man’s expression immediately changed.

“Smelly B * tch, don’t be so Shameless. It’s your fortune that I fancy you.”

Yan Huan leaned on the side and really wanted to sigh. This was a typical scene of bullying a man and bullying a woman. It was also a scene of flirting with a good woman. There were many scenes like this in television dramas.

Why did she see the live version as soon as she came out.

“Who are you?” Zhu Meina had also been in the underworld before. She had seen all kinds of people and encountered all kinds of things. “When I was drinking soup, you were still drinking your mother’s milk. How dare you flirt with me?”

She was clearly a beautiful and flirtatious woman, but this mouth of her mother's directly made the man in front of her stunned.

"Get lost!" Zhu Meina was annoyed. If you don't get lost, don't blame me for making a move.

The rogue man now had met his opponent. However, it was impossible to let him go. His brothers were all watching from the side. If he went back just like that, he would be looked down upon and laughed at.

No matter what, he would not lose all his face in front of his brothers.

He stretched out his hand and wanted to grab Zhu Meina. Today, I want you to accompany me and my brothers. Just as he was about to make a move.

However, Zhu Meina directly raised her foot and used her high heels to step on the man's Big Foot.

Such a thin root was simply like a thin iron wire. If she stepped on it, it would be like a nail going down. What was the difference?

Yan Huan felt that it was quite painful.

That was why women's High Heels had many good uses. Among them, there was one advantage. They could be used to stomp on people. Of course, they could also be used to smash people. And indeed, they could be used to smash people.

"Stinky B * Tch!"

The angry man grimaced in pain. In a moment, even his face was contorted.

"If I don't Teach You a lesson today, how will I be able to survive on the streets in the future?"

Chapter 1698: you don't know

Zhu Meina smiled brightly. She had seen many people in the underworld, so why would she mention the underworld to her? It was fine if she didn't mention it, but if she mentioned it, she would feel uncomfortable. If she felt uncomfortable, she would hit someone.

Zhu Meina took off her high heels and directly took them to the face of this hooligan. Moreover, they were specialized in face slapping. If she could still be recognized by his mother after beating up this pig today, her name wouldn't be Zhu Meina, Zhu Meina usually didn't look demonic, but if she got angry, she could be considered a shrew.

The shoes were originally sharp, and the heels were even sharper. It was almost as if they would directly cut a layer of skin on the man's face.

When Zhu Meina hit people, she was simply headless and faceless. Her high-heeled shoes were also quite solid. This time, she directly smashed the man's face again and again. Moreover, she wasn't polite at all.

When the people sitting at a table not far away saw this, they only reacted after a long time. Only then did they run over. There were more than ten people with wine bottles in their hands. It was obvious that they were here to cause trouble.

Zhu Meina was naturally not stupid. She directly carried her shoes and ran to Yan Huan's side. Yan Huan had bodyguards behind him.

Don't look at them as a bunch of people, but they were all cowards. They weren't even enough for them to practice

Of course, Zhu Meina was also called a wise man who knew how to adapt to circumstances. Only a fool would stand there and get ready to be beaten up by others.

"Beat them up for me." The hotheaded man covered his wounds and his swollen pig-like face from being pampered. He pointed at the three women not far away, "Beat them all up for me. I'll take them away later. I want them to know that there are some people they can't afford to offend."

"Oh, there are some people they can't afford to offend."

Zhu Meina glanced at Yan Huan. "There are some people you can't offend and can't afford to offend either. Don't you agree?"

Yan Huan looked up at Zhu Meina. "You picked a good place."

"I also heard that this place is not bad." Zhu Meina waved her hand, "They said that the service here is good and the environment is good. If it were me, I wouldn't come here. It's all because of you. I've worked so hard for you just to find a quiet and clean place. You Can't blame me for this."

What she said was the truth. If it were her, she would definitely choose a KTV. How could she find a place to drink tea? However, who would know that such a high-class and elegant place would actually have such a person, how could such a person drink tea? Therefore, this had nothing to do with her. It really had nothing to do with her.

When the men heard the words of the Hooligan, they went forward to arrest him

Yan Huan turned around. She was too lazy to look. She took out her phone and called Lei Qingyi. In a while, she asked Lei Qingyi to settle this matter. wasn't he in charge of safety? Yes, he was the head of the safety department, this kind of fighting was something that should be handled.

Just as she turned around, she heard a few men's screams, as well as Zhu Meina's words.

"Wow!"

"So Handsome!"

"So Powerful!"

"A heroine among women."

"Heroine, please accept my knees..."

Then, with a few loud bangs, when Bai Zhi clapped his hands and adjusted his clothes, he saw a bunch of people lying on the ground. At this time, the owner of the tea shop who had received the news came over, when he saw the situation in his shop, he really wanted to die. This was a tea shop, not something like this or that. He was a serious business, how could there be a fight, was he having a bad year or was he offending the Emperor? Who would dare to come to this shop in the future?

Zhu Meina had already put on her shoes. She walked over and patted the shoulder of the owner of the tea shop. She wore heavy makeup and had a demonic look on her face. Wherever she went, she looked like a vixen, however, if she had just witnessed her fierce appearance, she would know that this was not a vixen but a skeleton spirit. She would still eat people.

“Don’t worry. Someone will deal with these people later. As for the things that were broken, they will be on us. Just give the bill to that person.”

The young boss was stunned for a moment. He immediately felt that everything was wrong. He hurriedly took a step back because Zhu Meina’s huge breasts were almost touching his body.

The boss suddenly felt a heat in his nose tube. Two streams of blood flowed out from his nose.

Zhu Meina suddenly covered her mouth and laughed.

In this day and age, there were no more innocent men. No, they should all die.

The tea shop boss covered his nose. He also felt extremely embarrassed. He had thrown everyone away. The few hooligans on the ground were still lying there and screaming from time to time. It was likely that they had been beaten up quite badly.

“Let’s go.”Yan Huan straightened his body, turned around, and walked out.

The manager wanted to say something, but his nose was now covered in blood. He couldn’t explain anything clearly, and he didn’t know what to do with the few people on the ground.

In the end, he was annoyed. Should he call an ambulance first? A man who looked like a telephone pole walked in and took all of them away. Of course, he also gave him a number, regarding the losses., he did not have to worry. After he had calculated everything, he could just call this number.

Only then did the tea shop owner heave a sigh of relief. In fact, money or not, it was fine as long as he took these people away. He was a businessman, so it was fine as long as he did not ruin his business.

When Yan Huan and the others came out, Zhu Meina had been talking about the pure male boss, and she also looked very interested.

“I’ll go there a few more times and find out about that young boss. If he doesn’t have a family background, he can still develop in the long run.”

When she turned around, she saw Bai Zhi’s expressionless face. Then she blurted out another sentence.

“I don’t think you understand, right?”

Bai Zhi didn’t want to talk to Zhu Meina. If he wanted to talk to such a stupid woman, he might as well do it quickly.

She continued to drive, treating Zhu Meina's words as air and treating Zhu Meina's words as fart.

"Sigh, you don't know..."

Zhu Meina sighed again. "I think you must have never had a man before. You can tell from the way you walk. So you don't understand what I'm saying at all?"

"This woman always needs a man's nourishment."

Yan Huan opened his eyes and stared straight at Zhu Meina, causing the corners of Zhu Meina's eyes to twitch. Could she not look at her like that? She had not said anything wrong, even though she had said it a little too bluntly, but could it be that this was not the truth.

"Cough..." she could only cough awkwardly twice. Of course, she also understood that Yan Huan did not want to hear about these things, so she had better shut up and save some time.., yan Huan asked Bai Zhi to kick her out of the car.

Chapter 1699: the ability to shut people up

This was something that Yan Huan would definitely do.

"That, Bai Zhi, are you really good at fighting?"

Zhu Meina could not get any advantage from Yan Huan, so she could only look for Bai Zhi again. There were only the three of them here, so she would either look for Yan Huan or Bai Zhi. Otherwise, who else could she look for? She would look for air and talk to air.., did she think that she was an idiot or a fool? She was obviously very smart, alright, bai Zhi continued to drive, but he still did not answer. She was like a piece of ice that had fallen from the south pole and would not melt for thousands of years. Of course, she was not smiling. Even if she was smiling, she was still sneering. It was a fake smile.., zhu Meina had never seen this woman, Bai Zhi, actually smile. Who would not know how to fake a smile.

"I heard you're a professional bodyguard?"

Zhu Meina tried to find a topic to talk about, "Isn't your training very hard? "How old were you when you started? How could your parents be willing to let you do such a dangerous thing? Do you have a boyfriend? You wear tights every day. Is it because they're too tight that you don't have breasts? Look at me. My breasts are so big, but they're all for surgery. It's just a small surgery, and there's no pain at all. It can immediately turn your A into my magnificent one. All you have to do is stuff some things into it, and you won't feel anything at all. Also, you don't have to take them out. I think you're pretty good-looking, and your body proportions are also good. Although you're not as good as me, it's not too bad either. As long as you get a new set of breasts, it won't be a big problem..."

"I think that's it. You can find someone you know and get a 20% discount. It doesn't matter if you don't have money. Yan Huan has money. Let Her pay your salary. She has plenty of money."

Bai Zhi continued to drive, but Zhu Meina's mouth didn't stop.

"I see that you're quite capable. What other companions do you have? Introduce one to me." Zhu Meina wanted to say more, but when she heard Bai Zhi's voice, it didn't seem to fluctuate much.

"I have another ability. Do you want to know?"

"What ability?" Zhu Meina's eyes suddenly lit up. "Is it a good thing? Can you teach me?"

"The ability to make others shut up."

Bai Zhi's voice was so cold that it was as if there were ice shards in it. Yes, the ability to make people shut up could immediately shut up.

Zhu Meina was stunned and did not react.

"Make people shut up? Fine, then quickly teach me. In the future, if that old woman, Zhu Xianglan, talks too much, I'll make her shut up."

"Okay, I'll teach you right away." After Bai Zhi said that, he reached out a hand. However, Zhu Meina's face was still smiling. In the end, she suddenly felt a pain at the back of her neck, the smile on her face didn't stop, but she fainted.

Yan Huan leaned against the seat behind him. He really felt that Zhu Meina was a little annoyed. She didn't stop talking along the way and even asked Bai Zhiliang to teach her something.

Of course, she shouldn't joke about Bai Zhiliang's breasts. Bai Zhiliang hated these things the most.

Moreover, some people weren't the bigger the better. People still had to pay attention to stability, just like her.

Nature was the best. Nowadays, those people would do this and that every day. However, when they got old, the skin on their faces might fall off. Also, could Zhu Meina still fly?

Yan Huan propped up his face.

"Bai Zhi, do you think Zhu Meina Can Fly?"

"Huh?" Bai Zhi didn't understand. "Why can't she fly?"

"I don't know how many things were stuffed into her two doodles. Didn't she say that they would explode when she flies?"

"If they explode, she can just stuff them again."

Bai Zhi really didn't have much imagination.

Yan Huan stroked her forehead. Lu Yi was definitely going to find a treasure for her.

Bai Zhi parked the car at the entrance of the hospital. They were going to visit little fatty he. Yan Huan bought some toys for little fatty he to play with. Although little fatty he was still young, children loved toys.

As for her, Bai Zhi pointed at Zhu Meina, who was knocked unconscious by her. This woman was too noisy and she didn't want to listen to her. Whenever she heard her voice, she would get annoyed. As for this Zhu Meina.., she could completely arouse her desire to kill, so it was best not to chatter in front of her in the future. Otherwise, she really could not guarantee that she would not directly strangle her to death.

It was just that there were some people that they really could not get rid of, because Zhu Meina had raised her arm. She was about to wake up.

Zhu Meina slowly woke up, as if she still did not know what had happened

Oh right, what happened?

Also, how did she arrive outside the hospital so quickly? She clearly remembered that she had just gotten into the car, and there was a whoosh. Did she travel through time or something? Did she arrive all of a sudden?

She touched her neck. Why was it strange? Her neck hurt a little, but why did it hurt? Could it be that she had bumped her neck somewhere? Oh right, where did she bump her neck, she had to be more careful in the future. This was her neck, not some other place. If she were to bump into it, she might end up crippled.

“Yan Huan, do you know where I bumped my neck?”

Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan. They were all sitting in the same car. Yan Huan should know about it, right.

“I bumped into the muzzle of the gun,” Yan Huan said lazily. Of course, Zhu Meina could not help but shudder. It was only when Bai Zhi turned his head around that his pair of ice-cold eyes filled with murderous intent.., it also caused Zhu Meina’s scalp to tighten. She could not help but hurriedly cover her face with her hands.

Bai Zhi’s sinister and cold voice rang out in her ears.

“I know one more thing.”

“I will make a person shut up.”

Zhu Meina suddenly shuddered. She walked dejectedly to Yan Huan’s side and used him as a shield. The bodyguard that Yan Huan had found was so terrifying.

This was called not acting and not dying.

This was Yan Huan’s evaluation of Zhu Meina.

In the past, she had acted, but now it had become like this. If she still acted, sooner or later, she would definitely die.

The three of them walked into the ward. However, when they were standing outside, Yan Huan felt as if he had been struck by lightning. Such a small child did not need such a large ward

This was indeed a very large ward. The middle was separated by a curtain, and there were a few beds in total. In the middle, he Xiaopeng was there. He was sleeping soundly, but he was still receiving injections

On one side stood four middle-aged men and women.

He Yibin's parents, Rowling's parents, the four of them could form a table of Mahjong.

She had heard Rowling say that she could not even hold her own son, let alone Bao Yibin. In the past, she had felt that it was a little exaggerated, but now that she saw it, it was not exaggerated at all.

Chapter 1700: he Xiao Thin

However, she thought about it. If she had only given birth to one child, she might have been like Rowling. Old people loved their children. Even if she had given birth to three children, it did not mean that she would be able to stay by the children's side every day.

The Old Man at home was unwilling at first to let the children stay by her side for a night on weekends. This was because the old father and son had given them a great deal of face.

According to Old Man Lu's character, he had to keep the children by his side at all times. If he was not old and did not really lack the energy, three children.., he would definitely have to raise them himself. Even Lu Jin and ye Shuyun would not have a chance.

Not to mention the only child, little fatty he.

Little fatty he could be said to be he Yibin's middle-aged son. He was almost forty years old before he gave birth to a son. Originally, father he felt that he was too proud to have a grandson. Mother he was in despair, in the end, they really did have a grandson.

It was the same for Luo Lin's parents. It was not good for a daughter to be too outstanding. wasn't it because she was too outstanding and earned too much money? In the future, she might have to be an old lady for the rest of her life, but in the end, it happened so quickly, she married off without saying a word. It had not even been a year, and she already gave birth to a big fat grandson for them. wasn't he a big fat grandson? When he gave birth, he was already more than nine pounds, but he was their darling.

Now that the fat grandchild had become a little monkey, how could they not feel sorry for him.

He Xiaopeng had been fat since he was young. He was born fat, not to mention he had always eaten well and could eat and sleep. Therefore, his weight had also been rising in a straight line. He was originally still chubby and small, after staying in the hospital for a few days, he had started to lose weight. Now, he was almost as thin as a handful of small bones.

Every time he yibin heard his parents and in-laws say that the little fatty had lost weight, he wanted to wipe his face. Had they really seen a thin child before? Had they ever seen a child who did not weigh two kilograms when he was born.

Wasn't Little Xun Xun from the Lu family one of them? She was still not healthy.

So, it was not a big deal to lose weight.

However, little fatty was originally chubby. It was indeed very uncomfortable for her to lose weight. Moreover, she was a little listless. She did not like to eat milk too much. It was no wonder that both families' parents were on the verge of death.

Yan Huan and Zhu Meina put down their gifts and went back. They did not stay here for long. Right now, both families' parents wanted nothing more than to stay by little fatty he's side without eating or drinking, they were afraid that fatty he would lose a few more taels of meat that had grown out after much difficulty.

When Yan Huan came out, he unexpectedly bumped into Sun Yuhan.

Sun Yuhan was in a wheelchair.

Yan Huan sized up her legs for half a day. Oh, long and short legs.

"What are you looking at?" When Sun Yuhan saw Yan Huan's eyes, her eyes were full of sparks.

"Are you crippled?" Yan Huan was also very honest.

However, her honesty was Sun Yuhan's sore spot.

"Isn't it all your fault that I'm like this?"

"My Fault?" Yan Huan really looked as if he had heard a huge joke, "Sun Yuhan, the things in this world are not things that can be said clearly with just one mouth. What did I push you out of the car? What did I Break Your Leg?"

"There is a driving recorder in the car, and it happened to be in my hand. Do you want to find a place where I can let it out for you to recall how your leg was injured? Did you jump out of the car by yourself, or did I push you down?"

Sun Yuhan's face, which was originally strong and reasonable, suddenly became unnatural. She even blushed.

"I won't let you off." She let the nurse push the wheelchair. Her face was almost as long as a horse's face.

"Ugly people are often blamed." Zhu Meina wanted to curl her lips when she saw Sun Yuhan's face.

"With that appearance, you can still be a star. Do you really think that everyone's eyes are blind?"

"I'm even better looking than her."

"Let's go." Yan Huan did not want to mention Sun Yuhan. It was really a waste of time. She only knew now. In this world, it was really impossible to be a good person, and some people could not be saved.

Zhu Meina hurriedly followed, but Bai Zhi did not.

"Bai Zhi." Yan Huan turned around and called Bai Zhi. He was fine, why was he in a Daze?

"I'm here." Bai Zhi turned around and took out the car keys that he kept in his pocket and prepared to drive. However, she turned around again and stared coldly at a certain corner.

However, she did not show any emotion. She opened the car door and sat in it as well. Then, she sent Yan Huan back to the detention center. As for Zhu Meina, she would drive back on her own in a while.

Zhu Meina had been living quite well recently. In the entire Zhu family, she was the only one who was throwing her weight around. She could always visit Yan Huan, and at the same time, she could also go for a few meals. That was totally fine, she hoped that Zhu Xianglan and her daughter would never come back

That way, she would not feel disgusted when she saw her two faces.

After Sun Yuhan returned to the Ye family, she thought about what Yan Huan had said to her today and had the urge to go crazy. She threw all the things on the table to the ground and lowered her head, she looked at her legs.

No, it wasn't her fault. It was Yan Huan's fault. It was Yan Huan's fault. If she had been able to drive the car faster, she might not have fallen so heavily. If she had treated it as helping her up., if she hadn't gotten into the car by herself, her injuries wouldn't have been so serious. Hence, everything was Yan Huan's fault. Yes, everything was Yan Huan's fault. Everything was Yan Huan's fault.

She had to take revenge for her broken leg. No matter what, she had to take revenge.

Her leg was broken. It was impossible for other people to have all four limbs intact.

However, when she touched her leg, why did she feel that there was something different about it? However, she couldn't tell what was different about it. Could it be that she didn't have a leg inside.

She gently moved her leg. It seemed to be conscious, so it couldn't be empty. Her leg had been wrapped in plaster from her thigh all the way to her foot.

So It's okay. Yes, it's okay. It's going to be okay. Her leg is fine. Her leg will be fine, right.

She comforted herself and pushed the wheelchair to the living room. Then she turned on the television, wanting to see what was happening recently. After watching for a while, she threw the remote control away.

Why was there no news of her? Even if it was just a picture of her wheelchair, it could still make the headlines.

However, there was nothing about her. However, many photos of Yan Huan were taken.

What she ate today, what she wore, what her clothes were, and her character.
