

Chapter 1751: She still had to film

All the signs were saying that something had happened to ye Xinyu. It was just that someone had been deliberately misleading them, making them think that ye Xinyu was not dead. But why did that person do it?

Up until now, Lei Qingyi had not guessed.

“Don’t say it yet.” Lu Yi raised his eyes and pursed his thin lips tightly, “Just let him think that ye Xinyu is still around. Let him search for him. Even if it’s for the rest of his life, at least he still has hope and not true despair.”

Despair was too hurtful. Ye Chuji only had this kind of persistence towards his son. That was why he had so much energy now. It was not because of the ye family, not because of ye Jianguo., not because of Sun Yuhuan, but because he still wanted to find ye Xinyu and see ye Xinyu again.

He needed this kind of expectation and also needed this kind of lie to support his current life.

However, that person had not sent a message to your uncle for a long time. Lei Qingyi stood up and leaned her body to the side. Yes, it had been a long time since he had sent a message, it was as if he had given up.

“Help me copy Xinyu’s card.”

Lu Yi thought for a moment and said to lei qingyi, “Stop his original card.”

Lei Qingyi nodded. “I also feel that this card must be stopped. That person is obviously misleading your uncle. Also, that person sent a message last time saying that if ye Xinyu is in danger, send your uncle over.”

“And just as your uncle left, something happened at the airport. How can there be such a coincidence in this world? Actually, we all know that it might be related to that woman, but we just can’t investigate it. Ye Jianguo is protecting that granddaughter as if it’s his own life. This is really too much. I, Lei Qingyi, have worked on a case for so long, but this is the only one that is the most difficult to handle. Because I can’t even investigate it. If I can’t investigate it, then how are they going to find evidence? How are they going to find clues?”

“I’ll stop the card immediately.” Lei Qingyi stood up straight and prepared to do this. If the current holder of this card was ye Xinyu, then it was impossible for him to have forgotten his father’s phone number, it didn’t matter even if he had forgotten it. There was still him, Lei Qingyi, and Lu Yi. As long as he checked their phone numbers, he would be able to find out. He was from the security department, and Lu Yi was from the procuratorate. These two places., could it be that it wasn’t easy to find? If ye Xinyu didn’t have it, then even if the card couldn’t be used, that person would probably ignore it.

Lei Qingyi did this very easily. Very quickly, the phone card was already in Lu Yi’s hands.

Back at home, Lu Yi took out a phone that he rarely used and put the card into the phone.

“What are you doing?” Yan Huan stared at his actions strangely. Why did he have to change the card? But it wasn’t like he had never changed his card before, and he had no intention of changing it. Sometimes, a person would get used to something after using it for a long time. and Lu Yi called his phone card habit.

“I’ll tell you later.”

Lu Yi turned on the phone and sat down. Yan Huan directly leaned on his shoulder and watched his movements.

Because this card had been copied, there was no information on it. It was just a blank.

He found the information column. What was typing on his finger?

As he typed, Yan Huan also watched.

“Dad, I’m doing very well now, but I don’t really want to go back. You Don’t have to care about me. I’m doing quite well outside. Don’t come to me either. My life right now can not be any better.”

Then, he pressed send, and the text message was sent in an instant.

“This is for uncle?”

Yan Huan was actually already certain, but he still had to ask if it was sent to ye Chuji.

“That person hasn’t sent a message to uncle for a long time.” Lu Yi put down his phone and clenched it tightly, “In the future, this might be uncle’s spiritual sustenance. It Won’t be enough to make him fall.” This was actually a true white lie

Yan Huan took the phone. “Actually, I should have asked at that time.”

Yan Huan recalled the time when Sun Yuhan broke her leg and asked her to save her life. If she had asked about ye Xinyu at that time, Sun Yuhan might have told her. Now, she might be able to find him.

“Even if you asked, she might not tell you. Even if she did, it wouldn’t be the truth.”

Lu Yi finally understood that woman, Sun Yuhan.

“So we really don’t have any solutions?”

As long as Yan Huan remembered that so many things were related to Sun Yuhan, but they just couldn’t do anything, he felt very aggrieved.

“Now we can only wait, wait for a good opportunity.”

“Wait for Ye Jianguo to die?” Yan Huan’s words were actually a little rebellious, but this was indeed the only way. As long as ye Jianguo was protecting them, they couldn’t do anything to Sun Yuhan?

As long as ye Jianguo wasn’t around, Sun Yuhan was the only one. If they wanted to crush her to death, it would be a matter of minutes.

“Let’s sleep first.”

Yan Huan used his face to rub against the soft pillow. As soon as his head touched the pillow, he fell asleep.

Lu Yi put his phone in the drawer and walked out. Then, he looked at the twinkling stars outside.

Maybe you're right. We can only wait until he's gone. However, some people might be willing to die. For example, Ye Jianguo. He would definitely arrange Sun Yuhan's life in the future. He knew her better than anyone else, if he was gone, then Sun Yuhan would probably be eaten alive. Even his son, Sun Yuhan's biological uncle, might be the first person to attack Sun Yuhan.

And Now, Sun Yuhan was still in the hospital. She was so bored that she wanted to go crazy. In two months, her leg had already grown for two months. The doctor had said that her leg could already be removed from the cast outside.

After another month, she would be able to walk and wear high heels. Of course, she could also go back to filming.

"Grandpa, did you invest in a new movie for me?"

"A new movie? Do you want to film it?" Ye Jianguo stopped and stopped with Sun Yuhan's wheelchair.

"Yes." Sun Yuhan didn't feel surprised. She calculated the time now. If she invested now, it might take two to three months to prepare. When the shooting officially started., it might even be half a year later. By then, her leg would have already healed.

"Yuhan, let's not shoot anymore, okay?"

Ye Jianguo advised his granddaughter, "Your leg is like this now. You have to listen to the doctor. You Can't act anymore."

Chapter 1752: seemed to be different

"I won't." How Could Sun Yuhan Not Act? This was her obsession. She couldn't change it. She couldn't stop.

"Grandpa, I must act. Acting is my pursuit. I don't like to live a life where I stay at home day by day."

"I'm not asking you to stay at home." Ye Jianguo tried to persuade her again, "You can go wherever you want to go, play whatever you want, and eat whatever you want. Why do you have to make yourself suffer to film those scenes?"

"Grandpa, that's Not Suffering," Sun Yuhan refuted ye Jianguo. "I only know how to film, and I like to film too. Otherwise, what's the difference between me and a piece of trash?"

"Grandpa, help me invest now. After my leg recovers, I can act."

"Alright," ye Jianguo agreed, but only verbally. He couldn't really invest in a movie to let Sun Yuhan Act. With Sun Yuhan like this, she couldn't act anymore in the future.

No matter how good a director was, it was impossible to let such a Sun Yuhan Act. To put it bluntly, the current Sun Yuhan was a cripple. Her leg was crippled, and her person was crippled as well.

Although ye Jianguo didn't know how to film, he knew that a person with a crippled body couldn't possibly become an actress or a star. If she were to film in such a state., it was probably just annoying and annoying.

And how could he let his granddaughter endure the abuse of tens of thousands of people? If he could, he would be the one to bear all of this.

Rong Rong, Daddy has really let you down. Ye Jianguo thought of his daughter who died early, and his heart never felt at ease, nor did it not hurt.

However, don't worry. Even if Daddy risked his life, he would not let anyone touch a single hair on your daughter's head. In this life, if you have never enjoyed anything, Daddy will return it to your daughter.

When I die, I will be able to see both of you.

Ye Jianguo continued to push the wheelchair while Sun Yuhan was still thinking about how to invest in a movie. Didn't she shoot some xianxia movies? Should she make another one?

No, she couldn't make any more xianxia movies. Her ancient makeup didn't look good. The modern ones should be very fashionable. No, there were fewer people watching modern movies nowadays. The audience still preferred mythological movies.

Linlang did not want to shoot the first two movies. If she took the opportunity to shoot a movie similar to this one, then could she also enter the international market? That movie did not look at acting skills, but the scenery?

Yan Huan could do it, but why couldn't Sun Yuhan do it? She had never thought that she would be less than Yan Huan?

That's right, it was just like that. She had to think about it carefully and discuss it with her grandfather. She didn't want to act in any other movie. She wanted to act in a movie with a similar theme, if she invested more in this movie, she might be able to suppress Yan Huan's movie. Moreover, with the influence of the Ye family's financial resources, it wasn't a big deal if she wanted to invest in such a movie, she was also very confident about this.

As long as her leg was healed, yes, as long as her leg was healed, she lowered her head and touched the plaster on her leg. This leg was completely wrapped by this layer of plaster and could not see the light of day.

Finally, she did not need to be wrapped in this damn layer of plaster anymore.

In the hospital, there were specialized doctors doing all kinds of examinations for her.

"The bones are almost healed."The doctor looked at the X-ray in his hand for half a day. "As long as you pay more attention in the future, there should be no problem."The doctor looked at ye Jianguo again, of course, there were some things that he did not dare to say now.

“Doctor, when can I Walk?” Sun Yuhan was now thinking about when she could walk. She desperately wanted to walk. She did not want to sit in a wheelchair anymore, she didn’t want to sit in a wheelchair for the rest of her life.

“In about a month, it will be fine. Doctor San gave Sun Yuhan some time. Actually, if she wants to remove the cast, she can do it. However, she needs to use a crutch. After all, her two legs are not the same length.”.

He didn’t say the last sentence.

Ye Jianguo didn’t allow him to mention the matter of Sun Yuhan’s long and short legs. Naturally, he didn’t want her to know that even if her leg was healed, she would still be a cripple and a cripple.

However, things were already like this. What was the difference between accepting it so early and accepting it later?

However, this was Ye Jianguo’s request, and he respected it.

“Then why can I remove these casts?”

Sun Yuhan asked again. She really wanted to smash open these damn casts.

“Miss Sun, please don’t be anxious. It will be done soon. I will arrange for a doctor to remove the casts for you.”

Sun Yuhan closed her eyes and finally let out a heavy sigh. She smiled. It was the kind of arrogance that she was used to. She seemed to have seen herself standing on the podium, under all kinds of spotlight, it was her honor. Her success. She had already stood on the position that she wanted the most. It was already her world. Su Muran, Yan Huan.., they would all be trampled under her feet.

After a while, a doctor came over and took Sun Yuhan to remove the cast on her leg.

Sun Yuhan was still nervous. She couldn’t help but not be nervous. However, she was nervous. Both of her hands gripped tightly onto her clothes. She was afraid that something would happen to her leg later?

No, it wouldn’t. Yes, it wouldn’t. There must be no problem. How could there be a problem? The Doctor had already examined her and said that she was fine. He also said that she would be able to walk soon. If there was really a problem with her leg, the doctor could not guarantee that she would be able to walk.

Under her tense emotions, the cast was finally removed. At this moment, Sun Yuhan almost felt as if all the pores on her leg had been opened, she could breathe in the air outside. This was the third month that she had carried the cast. She swore that she would treat her leg well in the future.

The doctor checked her leg for half a day.

“There’s no big problem, but in the short term, there might not be much strength in the leg. Because it’s always wrapped in a cast, the muscles are a little loose, but it doesn’t matter. It’ll be fine after she gets used to it. Miss Sun still needs to come over and insist on her rehabilitation. If she wants to walk, it’s better to use crutches in the end.”

Sun Yuhan was a little annoyed by the word "Crutch." She did not want to use crutches even if she was in a wheelchair, she was not disabled, so why did she have to use crutches.

She tried to move her leg, which had been removed from the cast, but somehow, she felt a little strange.

Chapter 1753: her leg was fine

"Why do I Feel Like This leg is short?" Sun Yuhan mumbled unintentionally, but she did not notice Ye Jianguo's face that changed color instantly behind her.

"That's because the muscles are too tense. It's Your Illusion."

The Doctor put away the things on the ground.

"Alright, Miss Sun, you can go back now. However, remember not to move that leg too much for the time being. Also, it's best that you don't look at it."

"Why?" Sun Yuhan did not understand. She had already recovered, so why was she allowed to look at it? It was her leg and not someone else's leg. Could it be that she really could not look at it.

"Because there are still scars on it." The Doctor was also giving Sun Yuhan a suggestion. Of course, it was up to Sun Yuhan whether she listened to him or not. What he said was actually quite incisive.

"Women like to be beautiful. No one wants to leave any scars on their body. Miss Sun, the scars left by your operation this time are quite serious, so it's better that you don't look at them. You Don't want to affect your mood."

"Medicine is very advanced nowadays, and scars are very easy to remove. When the scars on your leg are removed, it won't be too late for you to look at them again. Now, whether you look at them or not, your leg is like this. Not only does it affect your mood, it also affects your recovery. If you're not in a good mood, the recovery of the injury will be slower."

"Okay, I got it." Sun Yuhan covered her leg with a blanket. At this moment, she really didn't want to look at her leg. As long as she remembered that her leg was covered with scars of all sizes, even if she were to look at it..., she wouldn't look at it.

Ye Jianguo pushed Sun Yuhan out of the hospital. He also let out a sigh of relief. Sun Yuhan hadn't realized that there was something wrong with her leg. He had no choice but to delay it for a day, if he delayed it for a long time, Sun Yuhan's leg injury would be healed. Even if she knew, what would happen in the end? She could only accept this fact.

He believed that everything would pass. Yes, everything was in the past. As time passed, Sun Yuhan would accept her fate. Even if her leg was short, it did not matter. She was still his granddaughter, she was still his granddaughter. He could find a good man for his granddaughter, and this man would never despise her legs.

However, was there really such a man in the world? and whether there was such a man or not, even he himself didn't know.

After all, Sun Yuhan had long and short legs. In addition, her reputation wasn't very good. She was divorced and had kept a man. And now, ye Jianguo really blamed himself. It was all his fault, it was all because he had turned his granddaughter into this. It was because he had been too indulgent that Sun Yuhan had committed so many mistakes. But even so, he did not feel sorry for others, he just felt sorry for his granddaughter.

After Sun Yuhan returned home, she had become more well-behaved. She kept her leg at home every day. Of course, she did not dare to look at her leg, she was also afraid of seeing the scars on her leg that made her uncomfortable.

However, she did not know why, but she felt that her leg was a little strange.

That day, she was sleeping. She was in a daze and seemed to be in a half-asleep state. However, she heard the two nannies at home whispering to each other. At first, she did not understand, but later, she woke up, she didn't like the way the others were whispering to each other. She narrowed her eyes and instinctively felt that the two of them were talking about her.

"Didn't you feel anything from the eldest lady's Leg?"

"Feel what?" The other nannies really didn't feel anything. "I think it's just like that. It's been wrapped up for a few months, and now it's finally seen the light of day. It's much skinnier than the other leg. That's normal."

"I'm not talking about that," the person who spoke earlier lowered his voice. "I don't feel skinnier. It's clearly shorter."

"Shorter? How is that possible?" This was because the muscles had atrophied a little. I've seen a person's leg look like this before. After it was done, it also looked thinner than the other leg. It was shorter, but the other person would be fine after a few... "Also, you'd better keep your mouth shut. You Can't let Missy know about this. Otherwise, with Missy's temper, she might chase you out."

After that, they still said something, but Sun Yuhan couldn't hear them.

Everyone's skin was loose. Sun Yuhan felt that the nanny at home should be changed. As long as she didn't do her job properly, she only knew to gossip and get lost early. Their ye family had plenty of money, was she afraid that she wouldn't be able to find a nanny? If not, she wouldn't be able to find a maid.

She lowered her head and looked at one of her legs. It was short. How was this possible? Yes, how was this possible? How could one of her legs be long and one short? It was clearly caused by the temporary atrophy of her muscles.

The doctor had already said that this condition was very normal. As long as she recovered well, she would be able to walk very quickly

If she really had short and long legs, then how would she be able to walk if she was told?

All of them had long mouths. They would get lost the next day.

In fact, even Sun Yuhan herself might not know. At this moment, other than the inexplicable irritable feeling that made her break down, there was also a kind of fear that even she herself did not realize.

Perhaps she also felt something, and some bad things.

But she deliberately ignored it.

She ate and slept as usual. She also sat in a wheelchair every day. She asked the nanny at home to take her to various large shopping malls to buy designer brands, cosmetics, bags, perfume, and a lot of luxury goods, of course, she also had to buy all kinds of beautiful shoes, and each pair was high heels.

“Give me that.” Sun Yuhan pointed to a pair of silver high heels on the shelf. The heels were very high and thin. They were almost like nails, so thin that they could stab people.

However, the shoes were indeed very beautiful. They would definitely be more beautiful when worn, and it seemed to suit her temperament.

She stretched out one of her feet and put it in the air. The injured leg was tightly wrapped by the stall.

The nanny quickly went forward and half-knelt on the ground. She carefully put the shoes on Sun Yuhan’s feet.

The shoes on her feet were really beautiful.

Sun Yuhan stepped on the wheelchair twice. It was quite good and also quite suitable for her.

She tried a few more pairs and liked them very much. There were five pairs of shoes in total. Without even looking at the price, she directly threw her card over.

The nanny carried five pairs of shoes and a lot of things. She also had to push the wheelchair. It was not easy to make money these days, but that was exactly the case. This young miss was too difficult to please. She was always acting weird all day long, it was hard to understand her personality.

Chapter 1754: buying shoes

However, rich people were different. They would never bargain when buying something. Of course, the nanny had seen the prices of these shoes.

A pair of shoes was worth several thousand yuan, but it was probably two to three months’ salary for her. However, the rich lady directly put her several months’ salary on her feet and stepped on the ground.

However, the nanny secretly glanced at Sun Yuhan’s other leg. She had just arrived. On the first day, the sweeping Auntie had secretly told her that the old man was easy to talk to, however, this lady was not easy to talk to or get along with, so when she had nothing to do, she remembered to work more and talk less, especially not to discuss this lady’s leg.

The nanny could not remember anything, but she clearly remembered what the cleaning lady had told her. She absolutely could not say anything about Sun Yuhan’s legs, but she just could not understand it?

You said that she only had one leg, so why did she buy so many pairs of high heels? And why couldn't she wear them?

She could only keep these things in her heart. As for the rest, she did not dare to say. This rich family was like this. They did not have many things to do, but they also had many things to do.

Sun Yuhan asked the nanny to stop. She sat on the wheelchair and looked at a shop not far away. The woman sitting on the chair was doing well. She was not... changing at all.

Yan Huan. Yes, it was Yan Huan. She really did not understand how a monster like Yan Huan could exist in this world. Why did all the good things go to her? Even what she had now was snatched from her, moreover, it was something that could not be beaten or killed.

And she would never be able to give this identity to her.

Yan Huan, you can't blame me for this. You already have the Lu family and Lu Yi, but I only have one grandfather.

However, even if I were to return the Ye family to you now, you wouldn't want it, right? Therefore, I am the only granddaughter of the Ye family in this world. There will never be another person.

She clutched her clothes tightly. At that moment, in her eyes, she fainted. It wasn't anything else, but a bone-piercing pain. She grabbed tightly onto the blanket on her leg, but this injured leg.., suddenly, there was pain. Her expression also changed, and her entire body seemed to be distorted.

"Let's go." She tried her best to keep her voice calm, but the sound cut her throat, but it was also accompanied by the pain of a knife.

It was clearly said that her leg was healed, and it was clearly said that she could walk soon, but why couldn't she walk now? Why did it still hurt? Why did it hurt again. She picked up her cell phone and called Ye Jianguo. Her voice also began to cry.

"Grandpa, my leg hurts. What should I do if my leg hurts?"

"Yuhan, don't be anxious. Grandpa will send you to the hospital right away. Don't be afraid. You'll be fine in a while. It might just be a little inflammation."

After Ye Jianguo said that, he also became anxious and walked out directly. He was really afraid that something would happen to his granddaughter's leg again. Now it was a section shorter. If something happened again.., what if some of it was cut off? It would be even shorter.

The nanny hurriedly pushed Sun Yuhan away. Only the bags and boxes hanging on her neck and arms were dangling out of her eyes.

And these weren't shoes. In the nanny's eyes, they were all money. They were all money.

"What are you looking at?" Lu Yi walked over and found Yan Huan in a daze.

"It's nothing." Yan Huan lowered her head and allowed Lu Yi to take off her shoes and help her try them on.

"I think I saw Sun Yuhan just now?"

“Don’t worry about her. She doesn’t have time to cause trouble right now.”

What Lu Yi said was the truth. If she couldn’t even control her own legs, how could she care about others? If she had time, she should think about how to walk with her two long and short legs.

Lu Yi didn’t have any sympathy for Sun Yuhan at all. She had brought this upon herself. Arnold had lost his life, but she had only lost one leg. Compared to her life, anyone would know which one was lighter..., which one was heavier.

And whether Sun Yuhan lived or died was a matter for the Ye family. It had nothing to do with them.

“Alright, stand up and try it on.”

Lu Yi first stood up, then let Yan Huan stand up and let her try on the shoes on her feet.

Yan Huan took two steps forward. To be honest, the shoes were really comfortable because they were flat-bottomed.

“How are they?” Lu Yi asked Yan Huan. He had picked them out, but Yan Huan had said that they were quite comfortable. That brand of shoes were handmade leather shoes made of real leather. They were very comfortable to wear.

“It’s not bad.” Yan Huan had already fallen in love with these flat-bottomed shoes, so she was wearing less high heels now.

Her blood sugar was extremely low right now. Lu Yi was afraid that if she were to fall and wear high heels once in a while, she might really break her own. That was why he did not allow her to wear high heels now, he did not allow her to wear one pair either. He even wanted to throw away her high heels from before. She had to fight with him for a long time before she managed to keep them.

Lu Yi took another pair and asked Yan Huan to sit down and try on another pair.

A man was half-kneeling on the ground, helping a woman change her shoes. He could do this for a woman, and it was enough to show how much he loved this woman.

“This pair is not bad either.” Lu Yi felt that the pair on Yan Huan’s feet was also pretty and delicate.

“You bought them, right?” Yan Huan leaned on Lu Yi’s shoulder. “You can change into them.”

“Okay.” Lu Yi also felt that it was good to buy two pairs of shoes.

Lu Yi took out his card and gave it to the shop assistants to settle the bill. Then, he held the shoes in his hand and bought other things with Yan Huan. After they left, the two shop assistants stood together. They sounded a little nervous.

“That sounds like Yan Huan?”

“Yeah, it’s her. I can confirm that it’s her. I watched for a long time. You know I was so nervous at that time. It’s the first time I saw her up close. She’s so young and beautiful. I feel like she’s even prettier than on TV. Her skin is so nice and she doesn’t even have any makeup on.”

“Yeah, yeah,” the other shop assistant quickly agreed. “It’s a pity that we didn’t ask her for her autograph. No, let’s take a photo with her.”

The two shop assistants sighed and felt that it was a pity. They were so nervous that they didn’t even take a photo. It was a waste of this opportunity, it wasn’t like they could meet celebrities every time.

At this time, Lu Yi had already taken Yan Huan to other places.

Chapter 1755: felt an inexplicable pain

By the time they returned, Lu Yi was already carrying a bunch of things, but Yan Huan’s hands were empty. Even the bag she carried when she went out hung on Lu Yi’s shoulders.

This was what a husband should be like. He had to accompany his wife on the streets and pay the bills. Of course, the spoils of war that he bought were also for him to take. Wasn’t a husband just a laborer?

Of course, Lu Yi was very happy to be Yan Huan’s laborer.

But even so, Lu Yi still did not like to let Yan Huan go out. He always felt that there was still some danger and he did not go over because there were still some things that they had not resolved and some people that they had not caught, and there were also some things that were far from over.

Yan Huan opened the door and walked in. There was only Aunt Gu at home. Bai Zhi had a mission to go out, so he left for a few days first. Recently, Yan Huan only found out that.., bai Zhi was not really a bodyguard. She still had to go out on missions sometimes. Yan Huan did not know the details, but he did not know where Lu Yi found him, there was no more Bai Zhi. She was a little bored. Recently, even Zhu Meina had not come for a few days.

It seemed that Su Muran and the others were coming back, so Zhu Meina decided not to go anywhere. She was prepared to disgust the mother and daughter, so Yan Huan was the only one left in the garden, the three children were still occupied by her grandparents and great-grandfather, so there was no place for her as a mother. Lu Yi was afraid that she would be bored out of her mind, so he brought her to go shopping.

Yan Huan happily took the spoils of war that he bought today and flipped through them one by one

Women always had an inexplicable liking for shopping. Some women could shop for a whole day in high heels, but they did not see how tired she was after a night of rest, second, they could continue shopping.

Yan Huan, of course, also liked shopping. She quite liked it, but she did not shop much. In recent years, she and Lu Yi were like an ordinary couple. They went shopping, went shopping, and went to the movies.

Lu Yi did not go to work, and Yan Huan did not film either.

They had always spent less time together and more time apart. They could finally make up for the time they had lost. They also hoped that they would not have any more regrets.

“Do you still want to Go Tomorrow?”

Lu Yi sat down and asked Yan Huan again. She was so happy today. If she still did not have enough of shopping, he could accompany her again.

“You don’t work anymore?” Yan Huan hugged Lu Yi’s arm. “Aren’t you usually very busy? Why are you so free these few days?”

Lu Yi fixed his hair and said.

Yan Huan kissed Lu Yi’s face and then opened the things he bought. Then, he took the pair of shoes and put them on his feet.

Lu Yi raised his eyebrows. This was not called willful. This little heartless person. He still saw her staying at home all day and sighing. She was so free that she was almost moldy. She specifically asked for leave to accompany her. She was really good. She had learned how to talk.

“Do I Look Good?”

Yan Huan stretched out her foot.

“Yes.” Lu Yi liked Yan Huan wearing these shoes. Women wearing high heels did look good, but it was a type of injury to the feet. Therefore, he did not allow Yan Huan to wear high heels.

It had been a long time since Yan Huan had worn high heels.

However, it had to be said that flat shoes had their own unique beauty. They were different from high heels. They were cleaner, more handsome, and also had a simpler taste.

Best Actress Yan was indeed Best Actress Yan. She could even control high heels and low heels. However, she was now used to wearing flat heels. Even her own feet were unable to wear shoes that were too high.

Of course, she did not care. Lu Yi was already so much taller than her. She was 1.62 meters tall and he was 1.83. The difference between them was 20 centimeters. In any case, Lu Yi did not mind that she was short, but she did mind that Lu Yi was too tall.

Yan Huan wore flat shoes and happily went out for a walk. Actually, there was a lot of space in the garden, so she didn’t feel very wronged. In fact, if she had to talk about it, she had a lot of things to do every day. For example., she had to plant vegetables in the sunlight shed again. When she was free, she would go over to help. Although she couldn’t be said to be an expert at growing vegetables now, at the very least, she couldn’t be considered to be at a loss for what to eat. Moreover, she had to eat the vegetables that she had grown., that feeling was different.

Lu Yi shook his head and suddenly smiled again. He took out his laptop and sat at the side, busying himself with his work.

In fact, there was one thing that Yan Huan was really right about. That was that Lu Da's procurator was very willful. He could ask for leave whenever he wanted to. Yes, he could ask for leave whenever he wanted to. And the reason why he asked for leave was because of his ability.

He had been a procurator for more than ten years. No one was more familiar with this job than him, and no one was more capable than him to handle this job. If it were someone else., they would either be crushed to death by this heavy work, or they would have vomited blood and died.

His fingers tapped on the keyboard from time to time. His voice was clear and melodious. The light from the outside shone through the window, adding a sense of tranquility to the place.

"How is it?"Ye Jianguo asked the doctor. "Is my granddaughter's leg okay?"

"It's fine,"the Doctor said after putting down the examination report, "There's nothing wrong with her leg. After that, he picked up the film that Sun Yuhan had just taken and looked at it. He had compared it to these films several times. According to his experience of more than 20 years, Sun Yuhan's leg is completely fine. She's recovering now."

"But, what is the reason for the intense pain in her leg?"

Ye Jianguo heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that she was fine. However, he thought for a while and realized that something was wrong. If she was really fine, then why was she in so much pain? It was simply a heart-wrenching pain, she could even knock herself out from the pain. could such pain be normal?

"This..."the doctor couldn't explain it clearly. "Logically speaking, it's impossible for miss sun to have such a condition. There's nothing wrong with her legs, so the possibility of pain isn't high."

As for why Sun Yuhan suddenly became like this, they couldn't give ye Jianguo an answer for the time being because they didn't even have an answer for themselves.

"How about this?"The Doctor Thought for a moment and then said to Ye Jianguo.

"First, Miss Sun will stay here. We need to look into it carefully."

Ye Jianguo could only nod and agree. But now, he did not have anyone to discuss it with. It was as if they had been abandoned by someone. They could not find anyone, so they could only rely on themselves.

Chapter 1756:, spiritual aspects

However, he seemed to have forgotten that there must be something hateful about a poor person. The reason why he was so pitiful was because he had done all kinds of bad things. Therefore, they had to suffer the consequences of their actions.

Sun Yuhan was once again admitted into the hospital. From time to time, she would cry out that her legs were hurting. However, no matter how many times she had gone through the examination, she still could not find any problems.

"Doctor, are you going to give me a cast? Will the pain stop after I get a cast?"

Sun Yuhan asked the doctor. The pain in the past few days had almost driven her crazy.

“A cast?” The Doctor suddenly thought of something?

“How Does Miss Sun know that the pain will stop after I get a cast?”

“Isn’t it?” Sun Yuhan did not know either. “When you gave me a cast, I did not feel any pain. I started to hurt not long after the cast was removed, so it must be a problem, right?”

The doctor seemed to be deep in thought. He looked at Sun Yuhan for half a day, and then he gently nodded his head, “Miss Sun reminded me that Sun’s calf might be in pain because it was not protected by the cast. I’ll immediately contact the doctor over there and help Miss Sun put the cast on again. We’ll see what happens next.”

“I guess that’s how it is.”

Sun Yuhan laid down. She seemed to have relaxed a lot and was no longer in pain.

The Doctor quietly observed Sun Yuhan for half a day. In the end, he found the doctor over there and put the cast back on Sun Yuhan’s leg. The cast had just been put back on.., sun Yuhan felt much better. Moreover, she had never heard her say that her leg hurt again. This was also the Quietest Day since Sun Yuhan was admitted to the hospital again. She did not scream or cry, she did not throw a tantrum. Instead, she fell asleep. She slept very soundly and did not have any nightmares. This was the most peaceful sleep she had in a long time. She did not even need any injections.

“Have you found the reason?”

Ye Jianguo came in and asked the doctor anxiously, “How is my granddaughter? Have you found the reason? What Happened?”

“Old Ye, please take a seat first.”

The doctor hurriedly let ye Jianguo sit down. He was already old, so it was better for him not to be too excited.

Ye Jianguo also sat down patiently, but he was still worried about Sun Yuhan. She was fine, so what? Why did it hurt so much? It did not hurt, but it did not hurt. Did they find the reason, did they know what the problem was?

“We have found the reason.” The Doctor flipped through Sun Yuhan’s case.

“What is that?”

Ye Jianguo was indeed nervous when he asked this question. Didn’t he say that her leg was fine? Why was it so painful? Ye Jianguo was also very worried, he was afraid that Sun Yuhan didn’t know what had happened to her, or if it was some other aspect of her body.

The doctor placed the case on the table again and pressed his hand on it. “We have checked. There is indeed nothing wrong with Miss Sun’s leg. Her bones are indeed recovering.”

“Then why is it still so painful?” Ye Jianguo’s face had always been calm. He felt that the doctor was playing with him, right? All of them said that they were fine. Their bones were growing, and they were recovering. However, everyone was in so much pain. How could they be happy?

“There is indeed no problem,” the Doctor explained to Ye Jianguo. “There is no problem with Miss Sun’s body. The problem is not anything else, but... her spirit.”

“Spirit?” Ye Jianguo did not understand the meaning of these words. Would spirit hurt, or was it not spirit, but nerves.

“It’s spirit,” the Doctor explained, “Miss Sun doesn’t want to see her leg. Maybe she’s afraid, so she always feels that there’s nothing wrong with her leg. Of course, she doesn’t want to see that leg, so she has to put another cast on it. This way, she can feel safe. This sense of security can give her the best comfort.”

“She’s fine now.”

Ye Jianguo sat there and exhaled heavily.

“Is there any way to treat this illness?” If what he said was true, he couldn’t let Sun Yuhuan put casts on him and his legs every day and let these casts accompany her for the rest of her life, she was only thirty years old. Even a healthy person wouldn’t be able to live well, let alone a person with a problem with her legs.

The doctor was silent for a long time before he finally spoke, “Actually, this kind of problem is not considered an illness. It might recover after some time. When Miss Sun accepts her current self, this kind of thing will no longer happen to her. Actually, I feel that if the doctor were to flip through the medical records again, Miss Sun might know that there is a problem with her leg, but she is unwilling to accept it. Instead, she chose to escape. This way, she can keep her feet on the ground. This way, she can obtain a sense of security and a sense of existence.”

“Moreover, it’s not a big deal. Many patients couldn’t accept it at first, but they gradually accepted it. Miss Sun’s condition is still good now, especially since she’s not a disabled person in the absolute sense. As long as she can cross that hurdle, she should be fine. Time will always be the best medicine for injuries.”

Even though the doctor had said so much, he had only given Ye Jianguo one message, and that was to accept his fate.

To make Ye Jianguo accept his fate, to make Sun Yuhuan accept her fate, to protect Sun Yuhuan Xun, would she accept her fate? Would she be willing to accept her fate? If she really accepted her fate, then why would she run away like this now.

Ye Jianguo stood up. His old body could no longer stand up straight.

He was old. He was really old.

He was useless as a grandfather. He couldn’t even save his granddaughter. He poured everything he had into his granddaughter, but in the end, he crippled half of her leg.

Sun Yuhan's condition was just as the Doctor said. She was no longer in pain. After she slept, she was like an ordinary person. She didn't feel anything, her leg did not feel any pain at all.

"Grandpa, can I be discharged from the hospital? I feel like I'm fine."

Sun Yuhan touched her leg that was in a cast. She really felt like she was fine. The doctor had said that my leg was in pain because I had a cold due to a bone injury. As long as I was in a cast, I would not be fine, after recovering for some time, I would be able to walk again.

Ye Jianguo could only smile as he spoke to Sun Yuhan. However, he couldn't ignore the sadness and helplessness hidden in his eyes.

Chapter 1757: she was a normal person

He was actually already certain that Sun Yuhan knew something. After all, this was her own body. No matter how deep they hid it and how careful they were, they would still be able to find some clues.

However, these clues were something that she could not accept.

A doctor came over to help Sun Yuhan with all sorts of examinations. When the examination results were out and nothing major happened, Sun Yuhan could indeed be discharged from the hospital. When Sun Yuhan sat on the wheelchair once again., her leg that was in the cast was also on the wheelchair. It was also true. She felt a lot better. This time, she did not dare to say that her leg was long or short. She was not. She was only injured., when her leg was healed, let's see who dared to say that her leg was a problem.

The Doctor said that Sun Yuhan was fine now. She could completely go home to recuperate. As for her mental problems, she could only let her overcome them by herself. Other than her own, no one else could help her. Yes., no one could help her. No one could help her.

Sun Yuhan returned to the Ye family again. She was still sitting in a wheelchair as if nothing had happened. She was nursing her leg. In the past, she did not like to let others know that she had a cast on her leg. However, this was not the case now., she had to know that she had a cast on her leg.

Perhaps she would rather have a cast on her leg than have some incurable injury on it.

Sun Yuhan was indeed lying to herself. Of course, she couldn't accept it. She couldn't accept the fact that her leg was long or short.

As for ye Jianguo, he really saw it, but he remembered it in his heart. What should he do now? Yes, what should he do now.

He really couldn't think of any method, so he could only call ye Chuji and ask him to find a doctor for Sun Yuhan. He wasn't afraid of spending any amount of money as long as he could make Sun Yuhan recover.

However, he seemed to have forgotten that Sun Yuhan wasn't sick. The bones in her leg were shorter. How could he treat this? Doctors were just doctors. They weren't gods. They couldn't be like radishes, he wanted Sun Yuhan's leg to grow out just like that.

Ye Chuji took out his phone. When he saw that it was ye Jianguo's phone, he immediately disconnected the call.

He said to his secretary, "If you want ye Jianguo to call me in the future, don't answer any of my calls."

In the future, when ye Jianguo was too old to walk, he would take care of his old age and send him to his death. However, he could not think of asking him to do anything for his granddaughter. Did he think that he had not caused him enough misery, he had to stab him in the heart again.

Ye Jianguo put down the phone and did not give up. He went to call ye Chuji's office again, but ye Chuji still did not pick up.

Ye Jianguo was so angry that he almost dropped the phone in his hand. His face darkened. Fine, if he did not pick it up, he would go find it himself.

This was not the first time that the father and son of the Ye family were at odds with each other. To Ye Chuji, he had forgotten the way the father and son used to get along in the past. Now, the thing that he remembered the most was nothing else, it was ye Jianguo's repeated coercion and his repeated compromises. In the end, he had to compromise everything he had.

"Find a doctor for Yuhan immediately. She's your biological niece."

Ye Chuji raised his eyelids indifferently. "Where did I get a niece? I only have one nephew. His name is Lu Yi."

"Rong Rong is your biological sister!" Ye Jianguo almost had a new growth on his face, and it was shaking violently. At this moment, his facial features were twisted, and his body was tense. If he didn't know..., he would have thought that he was talking to his enemy.

"She's already dead." Ye Chuji's voice was even colder and emotionless, "She's my sister, I know. But what does Sun Yuhan have to do with me? Aren't you very capable? Then go deal with her yourself."

Ye Chuji opened the door and walked out directly. He was not afraid of angering ye Jianguo to death now. It was good that he was angered to death. He would take the blame for this. In order to prevent Sun Yuhan from harming others in the future, he would kill this evil person himself.

However, he knew clearly in his heart that ye Jianguo wouldn't be angry to death. Sun Yuhan was in such a state now, and he could still be angry to death. He wouldn't be satisfied if he had to live for another ten or eight years.

As for helping Sun Yuhan find a doctor.

If he wanted to find them, he would find them himself. What did it have to do with him?

Ye Chuji didn't leave in the slightest. It could be seen just how cold his heart was. Ye Jianguo gritted his teeth so hard that they made a sound, but he had no other way.

What Solutions did he have? What other solutions did he have?

Right now, he and ye Chuji were no longer like father and son. Speaking of which, enemies were more suitable.

When he returned, he saw Sun Yuhan sitting on the wheelchair, talking to the new nanny at home.

“My leg has been cast. You guys have to be careful. The things on the floor have been cleaned up for me.”

She was not stingy at all in showing others that her leg had been cast, and this was obviously done on purpose to let others know.

Ye Jianguo clearly knew that Sun Yuhan was lying to herself, but he could only go along with Sun Yuhan. He only hoped that she could accept this matter as soon as possible, and accept the fact that her leg was shorter.

It was already the best outcome for her to be able to live her life with two legs, because she wouldn't even be able to keep her legs if she was a little short.

However, she could still walk. Her legs were only a little short, but her bones were good. She could also walk. She didn't even need a walking stick. She only needed to wear a special custom-made shoe, she could be like a normal person.

However, Sun Yuhan could not accept such a disabled normal person.

She had always compared herself to Yan Huan. Yan Huan was prettier, more famous, and had acted more than her. He was also better than her in marriage. He had three children, and now the people of the Lu family treated him sincerely, he had a good husband, but what about her? Apart from Sun Yuhan's identity, what else did she have? She just wanted to prove that she would be more suitable to be the granddaughter of the ye family than Yan Huan. She could be ugly, and her figure could be bad. These could all be changed the day after tomorrow. Hadn't she already become much more beautiful than before, moreover, she already had a bad reputation. As long as she worked harder, she would be able to catch up to Yan Huan's reputation.

And the thing that she could not tolerate the most was that Yan Huan's life was better than hers. She would never forget that everything she had now belonged to someone else. It was all stolen by her. It was all stolen by Yan Huan.

This was like a magic spell hanging on her body. At any moment, it was possible for her to die without a complete corpse.

Chapter 1758: the madman

And now, she was still alive, still alive, but she had lost a leg, no, she had not lost a leg, her leg was fine, her leg could not be better, but it was in a cast, after the cast was removed, her leg would be fine, she could walk, and she could act again

That was how she consoled herself, and that was how she had always thought.

She had always believed that if she was going to be fine, she would definitely be fine, right?

Sun Yuhan sat up abruptly and reached out her hand to pull on the table lamp. She looked around and saw that she was still familiar with everything in front of her. This princess-like room also gave her everything.

She wiped the sweat from her forehead. She still clearly remembered the dream just now. That Nightmare was also a nightmare that she hated.

She dreamed that she was disabled, and also dreamed that others had discovered that she was not ye Rong's daughter. They stripped her of her expensive clothes, jewelry, and bags, and also took away everything she had.

She was just like before, poor and destitute, with nowhere to hide.

She pulled away the quilt and was about to walk down, but she also forgot that her leg was in a cast. She suddenly stood up, but with a click, her injured leg also heavily stepped on the ground, and then the cast also cracked.

Her body slanted, and she instinctively grabbed the table by the side to prevent herself from falling.

Actually, it didn't hurt. Yes, it didn't hurt. Her bones didn't hurt much. It still didn't hurt at all.

She lowered her head and looked at her feet. At this moment, both of her feet were on the ground. She didn't believe it and moved her legs again.

Eh, it's okay. Yes, it's okay. She's okay.

She didn't feel any pain. It seemed like everything was okay.

She stood up carefully. She wanted to take a step, but her whole body fell to one side. She straightened her body in a panic.

But strangely, she seemed to be unable to straighten her body. She stood up again in disbelief, but only one of her feet was on the ground, and her other foot was curled up in the air.

If she wanted both feet to be on the ground, then she had to bend one of her legs. It felt like something, like a 10-centimeter high heel on one foot.

She straightened her body and lowered her head to look at her suspended leg and foot.

"AH... Ah..."

She suddenly covered her face and screamed.

Then, the lights of the entire ye family lit up.

Everyone in the Ye family woke up.

When ye Jianguo rushed over, he was also shocked. He saw Sun Yuhan standing on the ground. One of her feet was on the ground, while the other was still in the air.

Sun Yuhan was still screaming. She didn't want this fruit, she didn't want it, she didn't want her leg to be crippled, and she didn't want it to become long or short..

Ye Jianguo hurried over and comforted his granddaughter, but Sun Yuhan still stared in horror. The secret that ye Jianguo had worked so hard to keep was finally found out by Sun Yuhan.

Sun Yuhan kept screaming and was really frightened. She couldn’t accept the fact that she had lost a leg.

She shook her head and her whole body trembled.

She wanted to use the blanket to cover her short leg. She couldn’t even hear the word short. She became hysterical like a lunatic, but everyone couldn’t do anything to her, she couldn’t accept it. She couldn’t accept it. She couldn’t accept that her leg had become like this.

She also couldn’t accept the fact that she had become a cripple.

She was now a cripple. She was a cripple.

How could she, Sun Yuhan, be a cripple? How could she be a cripple? She was clearly the eldest daughter of the Ye family. She clearly had everything. Whatever she wanted was within her reach. What she wanted.., was also possible.

But now, she had actually become a cripple.

At the beginning, she could not accept it at all. She was almost completely insane.

She did not eat, she did not sleep, and she loved to smash things. Almost everything in the room was destroyed by her. Even the few nannies at home were injured by her, after that, no one came to the ye family to be a nanny anymore.

They all said that Sun Yuhan was crazy. No matter how high the Ye family’s salary was, no one would risk their lives. Money had to be earned, but one had to have the life to spend it.

Until a new nanny came, she stood at the door feeling uneasy. Everyone said that the ye family could not come because the owner of this place would beat people up. Every single person who left the ye family.., they were either injured or badly bruised. Although the ye family had compensated for this, who would be willing to make money like this? If it was just a superficial wound or bleeding, it would be fine. But if there was really a problem.., no matter how much money they paid, they wouldn’t be able to get it back. But wasn’t she short of money? So she really risked her life to make money.

“Get me a glass of water.”

Sun Yuhan looked up at the timid nanny. Where did she get this? How could she be so stupid.

The nanny hurriedly poured a glass of water for Sun Yuhan. When she walked toward Sun Yuhan, every step she took was like stepping on a landmine. Every step she took was like holding a bomb.

If she wasn’t careful, it might be either a landmine or a bomb.

The glass of water was already in Sun Yuhan’s hands. Just like that, the nanny still had to brace herself and stand there. She still had to wait for the glass to hit her head, face, or body

Bang.

She couldn't help but shake her body, but strangely, she didn't feel anything. It didn't seem like the glass had fallen to the ground. She turned her face again and found that there was a perfectly fine glass on the table, the cup was also quietly placed there. The nanny quickly grabbed the cup with one hand and ran out. She was afraid that Sun Yuhan's illness would flare up and she would hit someone with the cup again.

When she came in again, the nanny's heart became even more nervous. She was wondering if she should put a hard hat on her head. If that was the case, at least when something fell., she wouldn't be bleeding, and she wouldn't be so careless as to turn her into a fool. But in the end, she didn't dare to wear the hard hat, she could only use her real head to welcome a Sun Yuhan who could get sick at any time.

When the dishes were carefully placed on the nursing table, the nanny could only stand aside with her scalp tingling, waiting for Sun Yuhan to hit her with a bowl or plate, and then she could get a generous compensation.

Chapter 1759: two moves

She was really using her life to earn money.

However, after waiting for a long time, the bowl did not fall on her. By the time she reacted, Sun Yuhan had already pushed the nursing table and went back to sleep.

The nanny tidied up everything on the table and carefully ran out. However, the heart was in her chest and kept beating wildly.

She covered her chest. Her heart was still beating very fast. Of course, she was also nervous because she was sweating all over. She had escaped this time. Maybe Sun Yuhan was in a good mood, or maybe she was tired, she had escaped the fate of being hit by a bowl and a plate.

She was lucky. She could hold on for two more days. If she could hold on for one more day, she could get one more day's money. If she could hold on for two more days, she could get two more days' money. If she could hold on for a month., she would be able to get 10,000 yuan. If she was smashed again, she would be able to get even more.

In her heart, she was also hoping that she could work for a month until the last day of the month. Then, she would be smashed on the head by Sun Yuhan. After that, she would take the money and leave.

In the next few days, she was trembling with fear. She was also very cautious. Every time, she was worried that something would hit his head. Then, it would be something stupid.

Just like that, a few more days passed. Another week passed. Another half a month passed. Her head was still not hit. Sun Yuhan also began to sit in her wheelchair. It was as if she had accepted her fate, she had accepted her fate. She was no longer as hysterical as before. However, there was no longer a trace of emotion in her eyes.

She ate and slept as usual. Of course, she did not hit anyone again. However, the hatred hidden in her chest could not disappear.

No matter what, it could not disappear.

“Grandfather, you must avenge me.”

She raised her face. The hatred in her eyes that seemed to have destroyed everything also flashed past. Ye Jianguo gently stroked Sun Yuhan’s hair. “Tell me, what do you want to do? Grandfather will help you.”

Ye Jianguo compromised. He completely compromised. As long as Sun Yuhan didn’t go crazy anymore, as long as she accepted her fate, as long as she didn’t hurt him anymore, as long as she was alive and well, he was willing to do anything for his grandpa, he would agree to everything.

Even if it was murder and arson.

Sun Yuhan suddenly smiled, but this smile was a little painful.

She looked outside. When the light outside fell on her body, it seemed that even the light was cold. However, it was spring outside and there were no clouds, the sun was shining brightly.

However, these lights could never shine into Sun Yuhan’s heart again.

Her life was already dark.

Her sunshine was gone.

Her life had been ruined here.

And she would never forget who had ruined her life.

She wasn’t having a good time, but of course, she wouldn’t let others have a good time either.

The nanny who was standing at the side couldn’t help but shiver. She touched her arm. Why did she suddenly feel a little cold? The same sunlight, the same air, the Ye family was oppressive and cold, but the Lu family was happy and warm.

Yan Huan woke up early in the morning. She jogged along the mountain road. She was used to running a lap every day. She felt that her body was much better. Even her low blood sugar was not easy to get, of course, she had exchanged a few moves with Lu Yi recently. She had recovered to her usual skills. However, she had not practiced for a long time, so she was a little rusty. However, if she were to leave now., it would not be a problem for her to defeat two grown men.

“When do you think I can defeat you?” Yan Huan leaned on Lu Yi’s back, feeling a little depressed. Meanwhile, Lu Yi was still sitting in front of the computer, processing documents. Prosecutor Lu could not be willful anymore. He had been a little busy recently., even working overtime at night had become normal. Of course, he spent the entire day at the prosecutor’s office, living the life of eating takeout.

However, such days would not last long. When he moved to the new prosecutor’s office, he would be very close to the detention center. If he drove, he would be able to get to the detention center. He would be there in ten minutes. No matter how busy he was, he would still have time to go home and have a meal.

Even if he didn't, he could still send him a piping hot meal.

Lu Yi closed his notebook.

"You'll never beat me up in your life."

He turned around and met Yan Huan's eyes. "Do you believe me?"

"No." Yan Huan's eyes suddenly turned. "I'll definitely beat you."

"Mm..." Lu Yi raised his eyebrows. "Do you want to Bet?"

"What do you want to Bet?" Yan Huan was also interested. Oh right, what did he want to Bet?

"Bet?" Lu Yi thought about it. "If you lose, give me a month's worth of meat."

"What If you lose?" Yan Huan felt that it wasn't worth it. It was just giving her a month's worth of meat, not medicine. What was there to be afraid of?

"I'll eat vegetables for a month."

Lu Yi had sacrificed enough. Yan Huan didn't like meat, but that didn't mean that she didn't eat meat. In fact, she ate meat because she ate less. As for giving Lu Yi a month's worth of vegetables, that was a bit of abuse.

Lu Yi could be considered a person who did not like meat. Every day he ate, he had to have meat. It was fine if he did not eat for a day, but if he did not eat for three days, he might feel uncomfortable. If he did not eat for five days, he would be irritable. If he did not eat for a week., he might not be able to concentrate at work. If he did not eat for a month, Yan Huan felt that Lu Yi might bite everyone he met.

And he had not not eaten meat for a month yet, so this bet was big and ruthless.

"Okay," Yan Huan agreed.

"When do you want to start?" Lu Yi asked Yan Huan, "In a few years?"

"Not in a few years, right now." Yan Huan suddenly narrowed her eyes and smiled. Her smiling eyes were filled with unspeakable starlight. She was still in her twenties, and her skin was fine and clean, in addition to that, her eyes were as clear as ever. No matter where she was, no matter what she had experienced, no matter how much time had passed, no matter how much suffering she had experienced.

In front of Lu Yi, she would always be a simple woman.

Lu Yi stretched out his hand and lifted her chin. "Miss Yan, didn't we exchange blows yesterday? How many blows do you think you exchanged with me?"

Yan Huan raised her hand and stretched out two fingers.

"Two moves."

Lu Yi was like that. He would never let Yan Huan win. Letting her win only made her happy. Her confidence was inflated, and she really thought that she was omnipotent. However, in reality, she was still the same, and this aspect of her skills could not be faked. She could still shoot a scene, but if she really used it to fight, she would die without knowing.

Chapter 1760: Accept Your Loss

Of course, Lu Yi couldn't possibly let Yan Huan be so overconfident that he didn't even know his surname in the end?

"Then how did you defeat me?"

Lu Yi looked at Yan Huan and asked very seriously. Of course, he couldn't help but smile with his eyes.

Yan Huan pulled his hand away, and his fingers gently slid across the back of his hand.

"Mr. Lu, the war between women and men doesn't have to be based on physical strength."

"I know." Lu Yi pulled her hand and then clenched it tightly. His fingers moved up as well, and he easily reached into her clothes.

"I'll let you eat meat for a month."

"You're the one who wants to eat food for a month." Yan Huan was originally very confident in herself, but in the end, her voice paused slightly, because Lu Yi's calloused fingers had already touched her skin, and every time she passed by, she would feel waves of tremors.

"We'll know soon enough."

Yes, we'll know soon enough. This was a war between men and women.

Whether the men won or the women lost, the answer would soon be revealed.

When it was time for dinner, Auntie Gu was quite surprised.

"Miss Yan, why did you start to like meat? Haven't you always liked to eat vegetables?"

"The meat is quite delicious." Yan Huan almost choked. Moreover, the taste of the meat in his mouth was indescribably sad.

"Eat more." Lu Yi picked up some more meat and placed it in Yan Huan's bowl. He had a serious look on his face, and it did not seem to be any different from before. He was still the same chief prosecutor Lu.

However, Yan Huan had seen through him.

She used her chopsticks to poke at the meat in the bowl. It was almost as if she was going to crush it. No matter how rotten it was, she still had to stuff it into her stomach in the end.

She glared at Lu Yi again.

"A hypocrite."

Lu Yi raised his eyelids indifferently.

"A bet is a bet."

This was a hypocrite with a sanctimonious appearance.

“Eat meat.” Lu Yi picked up another piece of meat and placed it in Yan Huan’s bowl. He really was Yan Huan’s creditor for two lifetimes, wasn’t he? In his past life, he died for him, and in this life, he lived for him, yet he still had to be suppressed by him everywhere.

And she still had to eat meat for a month.

She clearly hated eating meat the most, but now, looking at the meat in her bowl, even if she cried, she still had to eat this meat.

They had to keep their word. If they lost their word once, they would lose their word for life. They could not lose their word, and of course, they could not lose their face. Even if they lost their face, they definitely could not lose their pride.

Yan Huan was really going to fight with the meat this month.

Lu Yi smiled and gently stroked her hair. “Miss Yan, you have to be honest. If you don’t want me to be gone, you won’t eat anymore.”

“Don’t worry.” Yan Huan rolled her eyes at him. “I’ve always been a man of my word. I’ll definitely do what I’ve said. I Won’t ruin my reputation.”

“Remember what you said.” Lu Yi piled a lot of meat into her bowl.

“Alright, eat.”

Yan Huan used her chopsticks to poke the meat to shreds before stuffing it into her mouth.

Auntie Gu really wanted to give Lu Yi a thumbs up. Only Lu Yi could make Yan Huan willingly eat something that he did not like.

It was not like she did not know how stubborn Yan Huan was.

She had been by Yan Huan’s side for ten years. The thing that Yan Huan hated the most was meat. Every time he saw meat, it was as if he had met his enemy. Even Little Xun had the same habit as his mother, little Xun had to turn her head whenever she saw meat. She had to be coaxed. For the sake of this little granddaughter, Ye Shuyun had a headache. However, there was nothing she could do about this little fellow.

She did not know if she was really like her mother, but her little mouth was very picky.

If Ye Shuyun dared to add a little bit of meat to her rice, she would be able to eat it. She would have to coax her for a long time before she would eat it unwillingly.

Therefore, Auntie Gu really believed that Yan Huan did not eat meat to maintain her figure. The reason why she did not eat meat was not because of anything else, but because she was born with it. Yes, this was the reason why she was born with it, it was just like Xun Xun.

And now, she was actually willing to eat it. Although she was still unwilling, she was really eating it.

She didn't know how Lu Yi did it.

Of course, there were some things that could only be understood but not spoken of. The husband and wife might know, but outsiders might not know.

Yan Huan felt that she had been tricked by Lu Yi.

Could it be that Lu Yi had really lied to her? He had premeditated and deliberately made that bet with her in order to trick her into eating meat. Regardless of whether it was true or not, she had already lost.

If she lost, she would have to pay the debt and then eat the meat.

She covered her face with the blanket. In any case, she would definitely not make any bets with a black-bellied man like Lu Yi in the future. She would fight back and forth as if she had never won before. She would always lose, and after she lost.., she would have to face another painful price, just like now.

"Auntie, Can We Eat Something Light?" Yan Huan's head began to ache when she saw that the table was filled with vegetables with meat. Moreover, she was already full before she even started eating. Could she eat some vegetables.

However, the bet between her and Lu Yi was still there. However, it didn't matter. If Auntie Gu didn't cook meat, and if there was no meat on the table, then she didn't need to eat.

However, she had really thought too simply of Lu Yi. Lu Yi's IQ could definitely bully her to death.

"Miss Yan, you can't. This is the recipe that Mr. Lu has set," auntie gu said with a smile. "Mr. Lu said that Miss Yan's taste has been very good recently, so he has to let Miss Yan eat more meat."

Her taste was very good, and Yan Huan's heart was filled with anger. How did she look like she had a very good taste? She was clearly not good at all. She did not have any intention of having a good taste at all.

She really wanted to throw down her chopsticks and stand up. Then, she would slam the table with force and call out heroically, "I don't want to eat anymore."

However, she realized that she could not do anything else. When Lu Yi came back, he was going to say that she didn't keep her word. When did Yan Huan not keep his word? She was the one who kept her word the most, alright?

In the end, she took the chopsticks and swallowed the rice as if she was taking medicine.

Suddenly, she thought of giving Zhu Meina a call. Zhu Meina didn't like meat the most. As long as she came over, she would definitely finish all the meat in the dishes. Then, there would only be leftovers.

And since there was no meat in the dishes, it could not be considered that she had broken the appointment.

She thought it was pretty good, but of course, she was also quite smart. In the end, she still lost to Zhu Meina's words. She wanted to welcome the return of the slut, and she also wanted to disgust the slut to death, so she would not go over for the time being.
