

Sweet Wife 1961

Chapter 1961: Some people regret not coming back

This was an indescribable feeling.

Perhaps it was bitter.

If Fang Zhu was now married and living a peaceful and beautiful life, she might not have felt anything. However, Fang Zhu was still single, and she felt a strange lump in her heart.

Moreover, she actually did not have any deep hatred or fear towards Fang Zhu. The main reason was that Fang Zhu looked down on her in her previous life, so it was only natural. After all, she had never done anything good, thinking back to how bad and stupid she was back then, even she looked down on herself, let alone an intellectual like Fang Zhu.

Taunting and looking down on should be human nature.

Why Taunt? It was because he looked down on her.

Why did he look down on her? It was because that person had something to look down on.

Just like her in the past, the Lu Qin who had followed Lu Qin and done so many bad things for him.

Just as her thoughts were still running wild, a man walked over. He looked to be in his forties and did not really care about his appearance. The buttons on his clothes were also randomly buttoned, and his beard was not completely shaved, moreover, his body also had the smell of scallion pancakes.

His face was not on Lu Yi's arm, and he could not bear the heavy smell

The man sat down on the sofa and picked up the coke on the table. He drank it in a few mouthfuls.

Fang Zhu endured it and did not say anything.

If it was her in the past, she would have stopped him. She did not like this habit. She had thrown away all of Lu Yi's milk tea powder, and no matter what, milk tea was better than this coke. At the very least., the milk tea was still hot, but these were cold, and it was the kind that was thoroughly cold.

But now, she didn't want to ask about it no matter how others messed around.

It was only now that she knew that sometimes her truth was hated and hated by others. Then what else did she need to say and do? What she liked, others might not be willing, what she wanted to do., others might not want to do as well.

She had her own life, and so did others. She could not just let others adapt to her life and cater to everything she did, but she had never treated others as human beings.

As for this other person, the one she thought about the most was Lu Yi. However, it was already impossible for Lu Yi to be with her. Lu Yi had been married for many years, and now he had three children. As for her, Fang Zhu., she was about to enter the age of forty, but she had always spent her time on blind dates. After leaving Lu Yi, she had to face some men.

Until now, no one wanted to pity a forty-year-old woman anymore. If she did not get married, her relatives and friends would not know what to say about her. She could lose face, but what about her family.., could she lose face again?

However, she glanced at the unkempt man next to her. Suddenly, the man spat on the ground and stepped on it with his foot.

Fang Zhu instantly felt nauseous.

However, she resisted this nauseous feeling once again.

She could not even imagine that she would really have to live with such a unkempt man. This man was not even 170 centimeters tall, did not have a good job, had a bad temper, and did not have any ability.

Did she really have to suffer for the rest of her life.

She was always picky. In the past, she always thought that others were not good enough for her. With her education, her job was good, and her personality was strong. No matter what, she was still a talented person. But now, what talented person, what beautiful woman.., in the end, she could not beat that reality.

She could not help but look at Lu Yi again, and the woman beside Lu Yi who was talking to him.

She regretted it almost every day. Why did she break up with him in the first place? and the result of breaking up was that she wanted to follow such a man.

However, it was impossible to take back what was done. She did indeed want to take him back. She even wanted to take him back more than once or twice. However, she didn't take him back in the end.

Don't ask why?

That Man didn't love her. It was just that simple.

The one he never abandoned was always his wife, and it was also always that woman.

Yan Huan placed her phone on Lu Yi's lap and continued playing with it. She had thrown everything else aside. Some things weren't something she could take care of. Then what was she thinking about? was she going to let herself go?

If she felt guilty towards Fang Zhu, could it be that she was going to give Lu Yi up and then stuff the three children back into her stomach.

The movie was about to start. Lu Yi looked at the watch on his wrist.

Just as he finished speaking, the radio rang at the same time. The movie was about to start, and they could enter.

Yan Huan kept her phone and put it back into Lu Yi's pocket. Then, she hugged the large bucket of popcorn. She wore a pair of black glasses on her face. Her hat was pushed down a little, and her scarf covered most of her face, so no one realized that she was Yan Huan.

Lu Yi found his seat and then put Yan Huan's seat down for her to sit properly. He took off his coat and covered her legs with it. Of course, there was also a glass of coke, it was a coke that was warmed to normal temperature by his body temperature.

This was the third time Yan Huan had refreshed the top two.

At this moment, the entire studio was filled to the brim. Otherwise, it would be impossible for the top two to have such high box office earnings every day.

This time, it was unknown if it was fate. Fang Zhu sat next to Yan Huan again. Yan Huan was also a little helpless about this. They were all love rivals who were extremely jealous when they met, when their love rivals met, they were naturally still exceptionally jealous.

After a few minutes of advertisements had passed, the movie was about to begin. Just as the movie started, there was a whoosh. Many people could not help but lean back, as if the fire was about to burn them.

This time, the movie earned more than 6 billion at the box office. It was not fake at all. It was worthy of such box office earnings.

The investment in this movie was huge, but the biggest investment was in the post-production. This was a 3-d movie that filled up the eyes. If one wore glasses, it would be more realistic and more shocking

The whole story was very tense. It made one not have to pee the entire time. It would poke at your smiling face, of course, it would also poke at your tearful eyes. During that time, the entire viewing room would be filled with laughter, of course, there would also be the sound of people secretly wiping away their tears.

From the beginning to the end of the movie, the story structure was very complete. Of course, the actors also performed very well. These were the current A-list stars in the country. Of course, they acted in this movie, they could be said to have acted out of friendship. The most expensive part of the movie was the special effects and post-production. That was why it gave people such a shocking visual and audio enjoyment.

Chapter 1962:

Yan Huan now treated herself as an ordinary audience, and everything in the movie had nothing to do with her. She was not an actress in the movie, and she had nothing to do with the movie. She was just a person who had spent money. Come and sit down, she still needed to spend a few hours to watch a movie, and when the movie ended, she would ask herself, was this movie worth it?

In the end, she completely excluded herself from everything. Her evaluation of this movie was still very high. It was definitely not a loss to spend a ticket

Of course, she was not the only one who said this. Many people said the same thing.

The first two films had been very successful. Whether it was the box office or the word of mouth, they had all achieved great success. Now, there were all kinds of big awards coming up. The only thing was that she did not know this time., whether or not she would be able to get that international award for best actress or not, of course, she didn't really care about whether or not she would get it. She had already been given the title of Best Actress for a while. Now that it was the second time, she was very calm.

After watching the movie, Lu Yi asked Yan Huan where they were going next. As he said that, he tied the scarf for Yan Huan to prevent her from freezing. Although it was already march in the spring and the weather had warmed up., but after a spring rain, it was unexpected and made people feel cold.

"Let's go shopping and eat. Let's go eat something good."

Yan Huan placed her hand in Lu Yi's pocket and held his pocket to warm her hand.

"Let's go." Lu Yi also reached his hand into his pocket and held Yan Huan's hand tightly. He did not let her get cold. And now, no matter how cold the weather was, they did not feel much of a chill, perhaps it was because they wore too many clothes, or perhaps it was this kind of warmth that they gave each other.

They strolled through the streets and alleys like this. They did not buy many things, but they bought a doll and two toy airplanes for the two children to play with. The time of the day passed very quickly, of course, they also played very easily. They rarely had the opportunity to put everything down and come over. Yan Huan did not work anymore, but Lu Yi wanted to come out, but he threw his work aside, and now, just like a long time ago, they walked hand in hand through the streets and alleys. In ten years, many things had changed. The only thing that had not changed was nothing else, it was the relationship between them.

It was always the same.

It was also like the vows they made when they got married.

Whether it was sickness or poverty, they could not be separated.

Promises were made, but if they had to keep them, only a few people could do it, and Lu Yi did it.

After returning home, Lu Yi first went to the kindergarten to pick up the three children.

Mom, Mom, Xun Xun came in and wanted to call her mom. The moment she saw her mom, she ran over happily. Her little arms also hugged her mom's legs and refused to let go.

Xunxun loved her mommy the most.

Yan Huan carried his daughter up. Although she had grown up a little, she was still a little one.

Did she eat enough today? Yan Huan asked his daughter. Their mother and father did not go to the parent-teacher conference. Would the three little ones be angry?

However, it seemed like they did not know how to be angry at all. Xunxun even danced and talked about the things that happened in kindergarten. Her childish voice was exceptionally tender. Yan Huan was actually a little muddle-headed from listening to her, this child always liked to ramble on and on. She didn't know where she was going with the rambling.

However, she still listened very seriously. Then, she gave the doll that she bought for her daughter to her.

“This is your gift, Mommy. Do You Like It?”

“I like it.” Xunxun hugged the doll happily and climbed down from the sofa to show off to her father.

“You guys have one too.” Yan Huan also took out two small toys. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had one.

“Thank you, Mommy.” Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang also took their toys. Compared to the delicate xunxun, they were much more composed. Even if they took the toys, they didn’t play with them. They still had to wait for their mommy.., only when their mommy said they could play could they play.

Yan Huan hugged his two sons. “Tell Mommy What You Want to eat tonight. Mommy will make it for you, okay?”

“Mommy, I want to eat fish.” Xiao Guang’s eyes curved up. Why were those curved eyes so cute? It was just that Xiao Qi didn’t like to smile. Her personality was just like Lu Yi’s. In the entire family.., only Xiao Qi was the closest to her father.

“Xiao Qi wants to eat fish too,” Xiao Qi said to her mother when she saw her brother speak.

“Okay, I’ll Cook Fish for you.”

Yan Huan went to cook for the three children in a while. After learning from her father Xie for half a year, the children liked to eat her food more and more. She didn’t know if it was because they liked to eat, or because they were well-nourished, they all grew taller and better.

“You guys go play.” She gently patted the heads of her two sons and let them play by themselves. The two children then hugged their toys and sat at their usual place to play the game of disassembling and assembling.

When Xunxun saw that her brothers had gone to play, she also hugged her new doll and climbed down her father’s leg to watch the two brothers dismantle it. She hugged the doll and sat down. The two brothers were dismantling it, and she was watching, anyway, she was not bored. The children’s world had its own rules. These adults did not understand, so of course, they would not understand.

Yan Huan opened the refrigerator. There were fish that Auntie Gu had killed and chickens that she had killed in the morning. They had all been chopped into pieces. Yan Huan thought about it and realized that there were fish and chickens now. Don’t look at Xun Xun and pick the meat to eat, however, she liked to eat fish and chicken. Now, she finally understood that back then, in order to let her eat more meat, Lu Yi had to worry about how many strands of hair had turned white.

Now, in order for Xun Xun to eat another piece of meat, she had almost pulled out all her hair. Xun Xun had never liked to eat meat since she was young, and in the Lu family, everyone was obedient to her. When they fed her, she would turn her face away, if she dared to force-feed her, she would cry. Of course, Old Master Lu could not bear to let Xun Xun Cry, so he let her do whatever she wanted.

But here, it was different. She had to put in all her effort almost every day to stuff meat into her little belly. So Lu Yi was really right. It was not easy to raise a little cotton-padded jacket. It was really not easy to raise, if she raised it up, she felt that she would age before she grew old.

She was not worried about the child outside, but Lu Yi was still there.

Yan Huan rolled up her sleeves and took out the chicken nuggets and fish from the fridge.

Not long after, the people outside smelled a very fragrant smell coming from the kitchen.

Xun Xun picked up the doll and climbed up from the ground. Then, she ran into the kitchen. Her little nose was really sharp.

“Mommy, it smells good.”

She used her little nose to sniff the smell again. Yes, it smells good, it smells good.

Chapter 1963: Memories that can not be replaced

Yan Huan took out a small piece of meat from the plate and placed it by his mouth to cool it down a little. He then fed it to Xun Xun's small mouth.

Xun Xun opened her small mouth wide and ate it in one bite.

“Mother's cooking is the most delicious.” This little girl knew how to praise others. She praised Yan Huan so much that his confidence was inflated. Xun Xun could really praise a person to the point of foolishness.

Yan Huan patted her daughter's little head and bent down slightly. She also met her daughter's big black and white eyes.

“Eat more when it's good to eat. Do you know that we, Xun Xun, must grow up quickly so that we can be as tall as Big Brothers?”

“Mm.” Xun Xun nodded her little head vigorously. “Xun Xun will definitely eat obediently and grow taller as well.” She ran out of the doll and sat down next to her two big brothers, she stretched her two calves straight and her pair of little white feet swayed back and forth.

“Brother, Mommy's food is really delicious.” Xun Xun's eyes were curved into crescent moons. She still had to praise her mother in front of her two brothers. It was only her little foot that kicked, she kicked off her little socks and her beautiful little foot was exposed.

“Brother's socks fell off.”

Xun Xun pouted and pointed at her little feet.

Xiao Qi put down the toy in her hand and picked up the little socks to put on her sister.

Xiao Guang knelt on the ground and helped her sister tidy up her hair.

The two of them continued to play with the toys. These two brothers were good brothers. They loved their sister so much at such a young age. When they grew up, they would definitely be sister-obsessed.

Of course, it was also important not to forget that the Lu family still had three mountains.

The three generations of the Lu family were present. In the future, Yan Huan would have a headache for his future son-in-law. Each and every one of them had already caused so much trouble for Xun Xun. In the future, if he wanted to marry her, he would probably have to have three heads and six arms.

Of course, Yan Huan did not feel that his daughter was easy to marry. It was not easy for him to raise the little girl with his entire family. When he was young, he would get sick every two or three days in the hospital. When he grew up, he would guard against this and that, and give birth to a daughter..., his father's hair was a few strands of white.

"What are you thinking about?" When Lu Yi entered, he found Yan Huan in a daze. He was still holding an egg in his hand. Fortunately, he was just playing and did not pinch it.

"It's nothing." Yan Huan took a bowl and also hit the egg in the bowl. "I'm just thinking, when Xun Xun grows up in the future, what will happen if she gets married?"

Lu Yi's face darkened when he heard about marriage. His Xun Xun was three years old now, and there were still more than twenty years before she grew up. However, Lu Yi still could not bear that kind of imagination.

Was a wolf cub trying to snatch her daughter away? He had carried her since she was young, and she was the daughter that he had spent so much effort to raise. No Way, Xun Xun would not get married.

Lu Yi walked out, his face terrifyingly gloomy.

When Yan Huan went out, he heard Lu Yi talking to Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang.

"You have to protect your sister well, understand? Don't let other boys get close to your sister, or else your sister will be snatched away by others. You Won't have a sister in the future, and you won't have a sister to play with."

Yan Huan, "..."

Can We not talk about these things now? How old are Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang? They still don't understand.

But that was what Lu Yi said. He wanted Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang to remember from a young age that others would snatch their little sister away. If they were snatched away by others, then they really wouldn't have a little sister in the future.

No little sister to play with them, no little sister to buy toys for them, and no little sister to earn milk powder money for them.

It was also under Lu Yi's guidance that Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang guarded against other little boys like wolves, not letting others get close to their little sister at all.

Both of them doted on their little sister very much, and they only had one little sister.

Yan Huan could only sigh at this. Being the daughter of the Lu family was really not easy, and being the son of the Lu family was even more difficult.

Ever since Yan Huan finished filming the first two scenes, he had almost never been to Linlang. It seemed that this time, the first two scenes had made many people famous, especially Xie Weining. She had indeed become famous, not just because of a small supporting role, this supporting role had a lot of scenes in it, which was why so many people wanted this role. It was also because of this role that Yang Keke ended her contract in the end. Later on, reality proved that.., the first two scenes had indeed become famous. They had become famous as the main character, the supporting role, Little Lu Wei, and even the director, producer, and so on. However, the others had not changed much, after all, big names like Liang Chen and Yan Huan had gone for the first two scenes. Therefore, after they finished filming, they would live their own lives. They would still be the same. There weren't many changes, of course, they didn't think of making a comeback.

It could also be said that the first two scenes were the last dream they had been chasing. They didn't want anything else, but the end of this dream. Fortunately, they finally succeeded.

Xie weining had been busy filming ever since the first two films had been released. Of course, her luck was indeed good. After one or two films, she had gone from being a nobody to slowly being online, right now, she might not be in the top tier, but as long as she continued to develop normally, she believed that she would soon become a popular actress, after all, Linlang was wholeheartedly trying to make her famous.

Wouldn't it be easy for Linlang to make someone famous?

In addition, Xie Weining's looks were good, her temperament was not bad, her acting skills were good, and she was very innocent. She did not have any dark history, so it was not difficult for her to become famous.

Perhaps she would not reach Yan Huan's level. After all, no matter which aspect Yan Huan was in, no one could easily surpass him. The most important thing was not how many films she had made, it was also how many achievements she had made. It was because she had gradually withdrawn from the entertainment industry and did not make many films anymore. It was also because she could rarely be seen on television.

The first two were special and were also exceptions.

However, the number of films that Yan Huan would act in later on might be very few and far between.

And it was precisely because they were few that they were called classics. Even if there were many people who wanted to remake them in the future, they would not be able to surpass those classics. It was not because of their looks, nor was it because of their acting skills, nor was it because of their external conditions, it was because it was a memory of a generation. It was the most beautiful and unforgettable memory of that moment.

And because of her retirement, she created many memories that others couldn't replace.

Chapter 1964: someone wants to step on her

As for Xie Weining, she was already very busy. She had to rush here and there every day. Of course, her fame came with her not having her own private time. She had to bring her bodyguards when she went out, also, she no longer had her own private space.

Of course, this was none of Yan Huan's business. Yan Huan had always stayed at home. Every day at noon, she would go to Lu Yi's place and deliver lunch to Lu Yi. Then, she would stay there for the entire afternoon, then, she would go home with Lu Yi. Even if she was not a single person, she would still be tortured to death by this spread of dog food.

Who wouldn't want a wife like this? She was beautiful, bright, and famous. She could be in the hall, but she could also be in the kitchen.

Yan Huan took out her phone. She was still at Lu Yi's place and did not want to go anywhere else. Lu Yi was still busy, unless there were other cases that required him to go out. However, under normal circumstances., he was currently busy at the prosecutor's office. He could not be invited to a small case now. He would only appear in court for a very important case.

She lay on the small bed, holding Lu Yi's phone and playing a game. Her phone was on speakerphone and she was on the phone with Yi Ling.

Fortunately, she had two phones. Otherwise, she would not be able to play anymore.

"What's Wrong?" Yan Huan asked Yi Ling. Why did she call her at this time.

"Huanhuan, haven't you been watching the latest TV?"

"The latest TV?" Yan Huan sat up. "What TV?" She hadn't been watching anything recently. She just read more books. When she and Lu Yi went home, it was already late. Lu Yi had to work overtime at night, so she fell asleep, when she was free, she would also play this little game. If it was TV, she really hadn't watched it. No, she had watched it before. It was just watching cartoons with the three children.

"I can't explain it to you right now. You'll know when you go back and watch it." Yi Ling's tone was a little anxious. Perhaps it was because she was busy over there, so her words weren't clear.

"Okay, I got it."

Yan Huan hung up the phone and lay down again, wanting to continue playing the game. However, after playing for a while, she felt that she couldn't continue playing. Playing the game itself was a form of relaxation. However, there were some things in her heart right now., she naturally didn't have any interest in the game anymore.

She picked up her phone and also looked for the television drama that Yi Ling had mentioned.

When she opened it, she might not have felt anything at first, but after a while, she felt that something was wrong. Wasn't this the TV series that she had filmed before? Although there were some minor changes in the plot., the general plot was still the same.

And the woman who played her previous role seemed to be..

Yang Keke.

She took out her phone again and called Yi Ling. Yi Ling quickly picked up.

“You’ve seen it?”

“Yes, I’ve seen it.” Yan Huan put her phone to the side. Her eyes were still on the screen of the phone, as well as the familiar lines and plot. She felt very uncomfortable. Was this a remake, or was it the imperial court, did they even give her a reply.

To take out a remake of a film that she had shot in the past, was this also using her to create hype, or was it using her to become famous? She really didn’t like this kind of behavior.

“This is a film I made in the past. No matter how bad Shi Yanhuan’s memory is, she made it herself. She Won’t forget it.”

“Yes,” Yi Ling also felt uncomfortable. It was as if someone had ripped off a piece of clothing from their bodies. They had worked so hard to make it, but in the end, it was all in the bag of a person.

“This is borrowing your fame.”

Yi Ling’s words were indeed bleeding.

“The viewership ratings of this film are very high right now. Moreover, it’s much better than the viewership ratings of our new film.”

This kind of film itself was a very popular theme. Everyone knew this, but we had never thought of remaking it. We Were Afraid of ruining the classic, and we were also afraid of comparison, of course, we also didn’t want others to use your name to make it famous. This was something Yi Ling couldn’t accept, and it was also something Yan Huan couldn’t accept.

If this was an internal remake of Linlang’s film, she wouldn’t say anything. After all, this film was originally made by them, but now it was someone else. Without their permission, they casually remade this film, other than feeling uncomfortable in their hearts, they also felt unhappy.

Wasn’t this making a wedding dress for someone else.

“Is this considered a copyright infringement?”

Yan Huan asked Yi Ling. He had taken out her previous film and remade it without her consent. Could This not be considered a copyright infringement? Could it not be considered a crime?

“It doesn’t count.” Yi Ling sighed. Actually, she did not know how to put it. Of course, it was not just Yan Huan who felt uncomfortable about this matter. Even she felt the same. She was extremely uncomfortable.

“I have already looked for the original author over there. The original author said that he has already sold the copyright to a company.” That company was also very generous. They directly paid a very high price, not just for the copyright., even the ownership of the rights had now become someone else’s. That was why they could film this. Regardless of whether the filming was good or bad, regardless of whether it destroyed the classic or who it destroyed, it did not matter, the main reason was that Yan Huan’s shadow had already been used in this drama. If it was Yan Huan’s fan, he would watch it again to reminisce about the past, to reminisce about the past, and to reminisce about his own time.

Yi Ling's voice continued to speak. She didn't seem to be irritable, but one could feel the calmness in her tone.

"This movie has only aired six episodes now, but the viewership is very scary now. I think it's probably influenced by your fame, and many people will recognize me. You're trying to make this Yang Keke famous."

"What can I Do?" Yan Huan's face darkened. She didn't want others to step on her shoulders and climb up the ladder. She had used her fame to succeed. She was not related to them, so why would she sacrifice herself to such an extent.

Her name was not so easy to borrow, and her fame would not be given to others for free.

Yi Ling shook her head, but soon found that her shaking was a little useless. How could Yan Huan see her movements? She tightened her grip on her phone and paused for a moment before continuing.

"We've already tried to contact the person in charge over there, but there's still no news. Moreover, from a legal point of view, this isn't considered breaking the law. The so-called evidence that we have in our hands is of no use to them." Of course, it was impossible for them to rely on this, they could force the other party to stop broadcasting. After all, the copyright of the television drama was currently in their hands. They could film and act however they wanted, and they could use whatever actors they wanted.

Chapter 1965: was also going to be remade

Whether it was Yang Keke or Ma manman, they were already slowly becoming popular because of this television drama. Moreover, it seemed unstoppable.

At the mention of the name Yang Keke, Yi Ling was almost angered to the point of internal injury. If she had known earlier that the woman had terminated her contract with Linlang, she would have sued her until her reputation was ruined, even the slightest ripple would not be able to cause a stir.

However, things were better now. She had been doing it out of kindness. In the end, someone had come over to bite them back. How could she swallow this anger? How could she swallow it.

Yi Ling's temper was not very good to begin with. Moreover, in the past few years, she had not learned much from Lei Qingyi. However, she had learned 70-80% of Lei Qingyi's temper. Therefore, she could not hold back her temper even more.

It felt like she was tutoring her little lei zi on his homework. There was a rhythm that made her want to piss herself to death.

She patted her chest, really hoping that this was just a coincidence. If this Ma Manman, no, it was Coco who really wanted to use Yan Huanhuan to climb up, she definitely wouldn't let her off.

There was also the company behind Coco Yang. Up until now, she still could not find out who actually started it. She only knew that it was a newly opened entertainment company, and the person in charge was a producer who did not have a good reputation in the past. But based on her years of experience in this industry, the boss behind the scenes was definitely not this person. Yes, it was not this person, it could not be this person.

No, it was no one who dared to step on Yan Huan and climb up. Yan Huan was not used to be stepped on.

Yan Huan tugged at her bed sheet. She was not in the mood to play any more games. She sat up with a whoosh. She could not think of who was so bold as to brazenly steal her corner.

“What’s wrong? What are you unhappy about?”

Lu Yi walked over and saw that Yan Huan’s expression was not very good. Facing a cell phone was like facing her enemy. Furthermore, this cell phone belonged to him. However, how did his cell phone offend her?

“Take a look at this.”

Yan Huan picked up the cell phone and placed it in front of Lu Yi. Lu Yi took his cell phone and sat down as well. Of course, one of his hands rested on Yan Huan’s shoulder as he patted it gently, she was clearly in a bad mood. Was she angry?

Yes, a good girl should not be angry. Although Yan Huan always said that she was already an old woman, she had always been the bright and beautiful young lady in Lu Yi’s eyes.

The scene on the phone continued. This was a television drama. It was played by an unknown person. It might be very famous in other people’s eyes, but in Lu Yi’s eyes, it was unknown, so it was an unknown person.

At first, he did not understand what it meant, but after a while, he also discovered the problem. He had seen every single movie that Yan Huan had filmed in the past. From the small cameo role of the Little Golden Silkworm, to the first two, to hongxiang, and then to the divorce. Yan Huan remembered it, and so did he, he did not like watching television, but every single movie that Yan Huan had filmed was a must-see.

If his memory was not wrong, this movie should have been acted by Yan Huan in the past. What was going on? Now, someone else was acting in it.

“You saw through it?” When Yan Huan saw Lu Yi’s expression, he knew that he had also remembered it. Even someone like Lu objective, who did not like watching movies, had thought of it. What about the others? Didn’t they just notice it at a glance, it was so obvious. Was he trying to fool a fool?

“Yes, I can tell.” Lu Yi put his phone aside. He could still hear the sounds coming from the phone. At this moment, it wasn’t considered wonderful. In fact, it could even be said that.., what they heard made them feel a little annoyed.

Lu Yi directly pressed his phone. In an instant, the sound also came to a sudden stop.

“What’s Wrong?” Lu Yi still didn’t understand. “Someone else took your film?”

“It’s so obvious. You could tell all of a sudden?” Yan Huan was still in a bad mood. Of course, she was also very uncomfortable. She still felt so uncomfortable that she wanted to curse.

“En.” Lu Yi touched her face. “Tell me, who made you so angry?”

“No one.” Yan Huan turned her face away. She didn’t want to bother Lu Yi with this matter. If others wanted to slap her, that was their freedom. If she was like this every time, what did she become? In Lu Yi’s heart.., she was a very magnanimous woman.

“No One?” Lu Yi didn’t know. If there was no one, how could she be so angry?

Lu Yi really didn’t believe it. Yan Huan was really fine. How could he not understand Yan Nan’s temper?

Yan Huan raised her face and hesitated for a long time..

“My menopause is here.”

Lu Yi,“...”

Alright, Lu Yi didn’t ask anymore. He checked it himself. Then, he took his phone and shut down the website. Then, he turned on the little game that Yan Huan liked to play recently.

“I’m done, I’m not angry anymore.” He patted Yan Huan’s face and coaxed her. “I’ll play games with you for a while.”

“Sure.” Yan Huan was happy. What she liked the most was Lu Yi’s godlike skills. She thought that she would never be able to learn Lu Yi’s hands in her lifetime.

This was a question of IQ. There was really nothing she could do about it.

In a short while, she would forget about those annoying things. However, when she thought about Coco Yang’s hateful face, she would feel a little disgusted for no reason. It was the kind of disgust that made her want to throw up.

This kind of disgust had started in her previous life.

Some people were like this. For example, Su Muran and Lu Qin. Even if she was unreasonably hateful, it was impossible to forgive her. For example, this brother Yang Keke. She was certain that this woman had nothing to do with her, however, this woman clearly did not seem to have such thoughts. She just did not know how much more ambitious she could be?

Yan Huan suppressed this hatred in her heart. As time passed, she forgot about it. She deliberately did not mention it and did not want to think about it.

The remake of the television series had been broadcast for about a month.

Whether it would succeed or not was not mentioned at first. However, with her fame, that woman managed to climb up a little.

“What did you say?” Yan Huan found it hard to believe. “You want to remake it even though you lost your marriage?”

Yan Huan touched his forehead. What was going on? Why did they have to start from the past? There was no new script in this world, no new plot? There were clearly so many things that could be filmed, so many things that could be chosen.., why did they have to reshoot those outdated television dramas? Moreover, they had to reshoot the lost marriage.

Moreover, the lost marriage script was not with her, and the people over there dared to film it. This proved that they had already obtained the ownership of the script.

Chapter 1966: Why was she the one again?

Moreover, she couldn't decide on the matter of remakes. Some films had been remade five or six times, but there were still people who continued to film. They could even recite the script lines from the script, but.., what could she do? She still couldn't stop those remakes.

Moreover, it seemed that they were also very successful.

What was wrong with reproductions in this world? Every drama was suitable for reproductions, but why did they have to remake it and lose their marriage. Losing her marriage could be said to be Yan Zhan's famous work, and it was also her first fortune. Now, there was actually someone who wanted to remake her marriage. After so many years, even she herself had never thought of making a remake, so why did someone else want to make a remake.

Moreover, it was going to be filmed into a television drama.

"Who is the lead?"

Yan Huan asked Yi Ling. She wanted to see who would challenge her broken marriage. Who Dared to challenge the classic and success that she had created? who had the ability and courage to do so?

"Guess?"Yi Ling did not want to say it. She also did not want to mention that woman's name. Really, even if she said it out loud, she would feel a toothache. She was trapped because it was sour.

"Yang Keke!"

Yan Huan narrowed his eyes. Whether it was her or not, Yi Ling had already given her these two words. Moreover, that "You guess"also carried a special meaning. It was helpless, powerless, and she still did not want to mention it.

And for Yi Ling to reveal such emotions, it seemed that only Yang Keke had the ability to do so.

"Congratulations, you got it right. I'll give you ten points."

Yi Ling could still joke around with Yan Huan. If she didn't joke around, what could she do? Make her cry? But she couldn't cry. Of course, she couldn't laugh either.

You could shoot whatever you wanted. No one would pull you in whichever role you wanted to play.

This was the case in the industry.

Everyone liked to challenge classics, but you couldn't climb up from others. To shoot so many films that others had shot, it could even be said to be an unpopular film.

And it had to be done from Yan Huan.

The reason why the previous film had so many good reviews was because of something. It wasn't because they had done so well, nor was it because they had produced another classic. Of course, it wasn't because they had created a myth, it was because it was Yan Huan's performance.

But so what? After all, if Yan Huan could shoot it, other people could too.

They could not stop other people from filming this film either. It was rumored that Yan Huan wanted to stick to that Yang Keke. Otherwise.., why would Yang Keke remake the film that Yan Huan had filmed? Why did Yang Keke not reply directly? Why did she still leave such an ambiguous answer.

Could it be that she had admitted it?

This was also what made Yi Ling and Yan Huan the most angry.

The identity that Yan Huan had now was not something that could be trampled on like this. They had never thought of using Yan Huan, but someone else did.

"Can you think of some ways to get the script back?" Yan Huan discussed with Yi Ling.

"No, I've tried." Yi Ling scratched the table, her hands itchy, "When I first found out, I already tried. But the script is newly written and has already been handed over to that company. This is legal. If I force it, it becomes illegal."

If they really did this, they would have been justified, but in the end, they became unreasonable. Then, who would they go to to argue with.

"Then let them do it." Yan Huan pursed his red lips slightly. "They can do whatever they want. If anyone asks me to do it again in the future, reject them on my behalf."

"I understand." Yi Ling was also thinking about this question. Indeed, it was just as Yan Huan had said. If they wanted to do it, they could do it lightly. As for ruining the classic, they would still achieve something.., as long as they did not use Yan Huan as an advertisement.

Yan Huan did not like others to step on her. Of course, Yi Ling was even more unwilling.

Initially, the first two successes were enough for her to be happy for half a year. In the end, such a thing happened. She could forget about being happy. Now that she thought about it, there were still a lot of things that she had not done.

The shoot for the divorce had already begun. This was something that they could not stop. Moreover, Yang Keke had participated in a program in the middle and had gained quite a lot of popularity. She was not some unknown actress to begin with, she also had her own abilities and reputation, so it was very easy for her reputation to follow.

"Does Miss Yang feel any pressure about the divorce?" A reporter asked Keke Yang. This kind of question was something that many people wanted to know.

"There is definitely pressure." Keke Yang raised a bright and beautiful smile and continued to use the excuse that she had long thought of, "After all, Miss Yan created such a classic at that time. To be honest, not only am I under pressure, but I'm also under a lot of pressure. However, I believe that I will definitely act well. I think that Miss Yan also wants to see the different experience of watching this movie.”

“Then, is it convenient for you to reveal the plot?”The reporter asked Coco Yang again. After all, that movie was indeed very popular at that time, and it also stirred up a series of social reactions, of course, until now, when she watched it again, she would still be touched by some things in her heart.

“Actually, it’s almost the same. It’s just that it’s richer and more exquisite. I believe that everyone will not be disappointed.”Coco Yang still gave some ambiguous answers, and she did not say anything else.

“Oh, right.”The reporter suddenly remembered something, “I heard that there was a character in the first two roles. The character that Xie Wei, ning, and Miss Xie played in the end belonged to you, Miss Yang. But for some reason, it was changed to Miss Xie in the end. Is that right?”

“This...”Yang Keke was a little hesitant. She was probably considering whether she should say it or not. Of course, she was eager to say it. She also wanted to let everyone know Yan Huan’s true colors and how hateful he was.

“Maybe I’m not suitable for it.”Yang Keke smiled. The answer contained in her smile naturally made people ponder over it. The reporter did not continue asking.

As for the following questions, they were always casual and did not direct them to the film. They all talked about Yang Keke’s private life, but surprisingly, they could not leave the word ‘Yan Huan’.

It was unknown whether the reporters had mentioned it, or whether Yang Keke had mentioned it intentionally or not.

Yan Huan turned off the remote control. She could not even be bothered to roll her eyes at such a woman.

Now, if she still did not know that someone wanted to go against her, she would really become a big fool.

Chapter 1967: was about to win another award

However, who would oppose her? What was this person’s goal? Could it be that he wanted to nurture a Coco Yang to fill the gap for her? If that was really the case, then she really had to congratulate that person because he really succeeded. The success made her angry and angry.

She stood up and walked into the kitchen. That anger came and went quickly.

Fine, step on it. She wanted to see how long that Yang Keke could step on her?

When she walked into the kitchen, she had already adjusted her mood. The children would be back in a while. Yes, she was not living for anger. What some people did had nothing to do with her, as long as it didn’t threaten her privacy and interests, then why did she care so much about her?

The most important thing to her in this world right now was her family, which was Lu Yi, and her three children.

When she brought out the last dish, the door outside rang. Lu Yi had already come over with his three children.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang ran in as well. They weighed their little toes as they watched their mother cook something delicious.

“Mommy has fish?” Xiao Guang licked his lips. He loved fish the most.

“Mommy also has chicken.” Xiao Qi also pointed to a dish on the table. He knew it. This was his favorite dish.

“What Mommy made today is what you both want to eat.”

Yan Huan rubbed his two little heads. It was really not easy. These two children had always been very sincere. They were different from little lei zi. Little Lei Zi was tall, but his mentality was childish, however, her little Qi was different from Little Guang. They had not grown up yet, but they had more thoughts than others. They were also more mature than the other children.

Yan Huan thought about how to make them more lively every day. In the end, she failed. In the end, she could only focus on eating. Finally, the two children loved to eat their mother’s cooking the most, every time they came, they would come over to see if their mother had cooked something delicious for them.

“Xiao Qi, Xiao Guang, come and wash your hands.”

Lu Yi called out to his two sons. He had already helped Xun Xun wash her little hands.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang ran over and picked up the tips of their little feet. They washed their little hands themselves and also washed their little hands until they were white and clean. Lu Yi took a towel and wiped their little hands clean, only then did he bring them out.

“Mommy, your hands are clean.” Xun Xun placed her two little hands in front of her mother. Recently, she had been more obedient and liked eating meat. As a result, she grew faster and gained a little weight, her little arms and legs were also strong.

Yan Yi touched her daughter’s little hands. It was really fun. Why were her little hands so small and soft.

“Mommy...” Xun Xun pursed her lips. “Xun Xun is hungry. It’s time to eat.”

“Alright, let’s eat, let’s eat.” Yan Huan put her daughter’s little hand down and carried her to the chair. As for Lu Qi and Lu Guang, they had grown up, and her mother wouldn’t be able to carry them anymore, of course, it had to be Lu Yi.

Yan Huan placed their small bowls properly and placed their favorite dishes in front of them. The three children had small arms and legs, and it was actually the time for someone to feed them, however, they had already learned to eat by themselves.

Recently, they were still practicing eating with chopsticks. However, they were too young and couldn’t learn it. In the end, it was more convenient to use a spoon. The three children ate obediently, and each of them looked like they had grown a little, however, they were still so small and cute.

“Let’s eat.” Lu Yi placed a piece of meat into Yan Huan’s bowl.

Yan Huan picked up the piece of meat with her chopsticks. This time, she did not pick anything and ate it very happily. The dishes that she made were all very delicious. Moreover, this was chicken. She was naturally not afraid to eat it.

The entire table of Rice was eaten by the five of them. Today, they had all done well. Everyone had eaten two bowls of rice. Only food seeking principle was slightly smaller. However, they had also eaten a small bowl and a half, he had given his mother a lot of face.

After they had finished eating, Lu Yi brought the children out to play and let them digest their food. Then, they had one hour to watch cartoons, memorize books, and do their homework.

Yan Huan carried the plates into the kitchen and washed them clean before putting them in the disinfectant cabinet. She also had to make some biscuits and snacks for the children to bring over. Tomorrow was their sharing session again.

Just as she rolled up her sleeves and was about to get busy, her phone rang. She took her phone and it was a call from Yi Ling.

“Mm, alright, I got it. I’ll prepare it over here.”

Yan Huan put down her phone and continued rolling up her sleeves before preparing to make biscuits for the children. She had achieved quite a number of good results in the first two rounds, and now they were waiting for all sorts of awards. If there were no surprises., even if she could not win an international Best Actress award, she should still have a share in the domestic awards. Yi Ling had told her to attend the award ceremony and to bring Xun Xun there. However, she did not want to do so. Xun Xun was already in the limelight., let her live a quiet life and study quietly. Furthermore, Xun Xun seemed to like a simple life. She was still living a life that was not too different from before. Perhaps it was because she was young, but of course, it was also because she was too carefree., she had no idea how famous she was now. She was a small celebrity.

She had never thought of selling her daughter to live a life, so she did not want her daughter’s life to be filled with all kinds of things. It was better for the children to be simpler.

When Lu Yi brought the children back, they were already drenched in sweat.

Xun Xun stretched out her little hand.

“Mommy, eggs.” She held two eggs in her little hand. “Xun Xun received them herself.”

Xun Xun happily showed her mother her results. She was already very good, but she had collected her eggs.

“Xun Xun is so obedient.” Yan Huan pinched her daughter’s little face. “Mommy will steam your eggs for you to eat tomorrow, Okay? Xun Xun and Big Brother will eat them together. Use the eggs that Xun Xun collected.”

“Okay.” Xun Xun was so happy that she cracked her little mouth open and smiled. Her dimples also popped out.

At night, the Three Little Fellows were all asleep. Each of them had a small bed, so they would not fall down. Moreover, they were very obedient when they slept.

“Why? Are you going to win the award again?”

Lu Yi tapped Yan Huan’s forehead. He was quite confident in her.

As soon as Yan Huan told him that she was going to attend the award ceremony the day after Tomorrow, Lu Yi knew that she was going to win an award. There was also a pile of her awards at home. These were all won by Yan Huan in the past, they were all achievements that she had made in those few years. However, it had been a long time since she had won an award. It was mainly because she had never filmed any films. After so many years, she was finally able to.., win an award again.

Chapter 1968: won the award

Lu Yi tapped Yan Huan’s forehead. He was quite confident in her.

When Yan Huan told him that she was going to the award ceremony the day after Tomorrow, Lu Yi knew that she was going to win an award. There was also a pile of her trophies at home. These were all won by Yan Huan in the past, they were all achievements that she had made in those few years. However, it had been a long time since she had won an award. It was mainly because she had never acted in any films. After so many years, she could finally.., win an award again.

“I think it will probably happen.”Yan Huan propped up her face. It was most likely the case. After all, the box office earnings were there, and her reputation had not collapsed. Her evaluation score was also very high. If she could win an award.., the entire first two film crews could win the female lead award, Supporting Award, Deng Jiang Award, Plot Award, and director award. She thought that it was possible for them to win all of them.

“Yi Ling asked me to take Xun Xun there, but I didn’t agree.”

Yan Huan pulled Lu Yi’s sleeve again. “Do you think this is a good idea?”

“Yes, okay.”Lu Yi also supported Yan Huan. “Xun Xun is too young. People who are too outstanding don’t have any friends. Our daughter will be fine as long as she is a little more ordinary.”This was his truest thought.

He had never thought of making his daughter as smart as her son. She only needed to be an ordinary little girl. He himself had a relatively high IQ. He had already been selected by the Procuratorate when he was in university, he was also the Procuratorate appointed by the Procuratorate in Hai City. Although he loved his work and was proud of it, only he knew how hard it was. It was not a job that an ordinary person could do, he did not want his daughter to end up working hard because she was too smart. She should just be ordinary for the rest of her life and eat and drink.

However, she could not be the second Sun Yuhan. The child of the Lu family could be a little stupid, but she had to be born with a bright future.

When Yan Huan went, she did not bring Xun Xun over. Just like what Lu Yi had said, Xun Xun was too young. She was already too popular, and she was only a four-year-old child, just let her be an ordinary child.

Yan Huan wore a white one-piece dress. It was the simplest and most generous style. Of course, she did not think of competing with other movie stars for the limelight. In fact, she was just here to be a bystander, of course, she also did not really talk to others.

“Miss Yan, I would like to ask you...” when a reporter saw that Yan Huan was empty, he quickly ran over and blocked Yan Huan’s way.

Yan Huan still smiled appropriately. However, she really felt that these reporters were really all-pervasive. She had just come to the bathroom, and she was caught just like that.

Of course, as an actress, she had to remember that a reporter’s identity was absolutely not to be offended. Their mouths and pens were really giving her a headache.

“Miss Yan, I would like to ask, the first two roles were originally for Miss Yang Keke and Miss Yang. Why did it become Miss Xie Weining in the end?”

Yan Huan suddenly smiled. This smile caused the reporter’s heart to involuntarily thump. The face of the best actress Yan was really too amazing. Although she was already married and had rarely appeared in the public eye., however, the title of the fifth most beautiful woman in Asia was really not given in vain.

“Who said that the role was given to Yang Keke? Did she say it herself?” Yan Yi smiled faintly. However, everyone could feel that her smile at this moment was a little cold.

“Could it be that it wasn’t?” The reporter’s eyes lit up. No one had said it before. There seemed to be an inside story. Perhaps he would obtain a big piece of news this time around.

“If it was, why didn’t she act in the end?” Yan Huan seemed to be talking and laughing, but he couldn’t be any more serious.

“Then in the end, the reason why you didn’t choose Yang Keke was because she wasn’t good in any aspect?” The reporter hurriedly asked again, his eyes shining with stars.

“No.” Yan Huan lightly pursed his red lips. “She was good in all aspects.”

“Then...”

“I don’t like her.”

Yan Huan’s domineering reply left even the reporter dumbfounded.

This Yan Ying was really full of surprises. Yang Keke just kept quiet and let them guess what was going on, what methods Xie Weining had used, and what she had done, however, Yan Huan was a very honest young lady.

He would say whatever was ruthless?

He would say whatever was destructive?

He would not leave anyone with a way out.

“I’m sorry, I have to go.”

Yan Huan adjusted his clothes slightly. When the reporters were about to ask more questions, Yan Huan's bodyguards had already arrived. This time, even if the reporters had wings, they would not be able to fly in front of the reporters, however, there was no lack of information about this move, and it was not written in vain.

As for Yan Huan, she had already sat in her seat and was waiting for the awards to be presented. She would go home and leave. As for these awards, how many of them would she get in the first two were still unknown, however, there would indeed be a few big awards in the first two. This was obvious.

She did not take the incident with the reporter to heart. Of course, the reporter did not dare to write too much about the matter that was disadvantageous to her, much less make groundless claims. Yang Keke was not someone who had always claimed to be her successor, in that case, Yan Huan wanted to see how Yan Huan, who hated her so much, would groom a woman he hated as his successor. If this was not creating trouble for himself, then what was it?

Was Yan Huan really that stupid? was she that stupid? She would really use him as a weapon for her.

The host above had already announced the awards for this round. The first award was for the best screenplay and the best story adaptation. These two awards had both fallen into the hands of the top two, and had also fallen into the hands of Yi Ling, this was the first time Yi Ling had gone up on stage to receive an award. However, the past few years of being a strong woman had not been in vain. Her neat short hair and the black and appropriate outfit also accentuated the aura of a strong woman on her body.

Yi Ling held the two awards in her hands. Her smile was still very natural and well-fitting. It was likely that she had participated in such an award ceremony many times over the past few years. The award that she had received today was naturally something that she could take for granted, it was also something that she deserved.

Without her, it would have been impossible for the first two awards to be filmed. It would also be impossible for her to meet the audience. Furthermore, it would be impossible for her to have a high box office earnings of 6.3 billion. This had also shocked the entire domestic film industry.

This was because she was the only person in the world who could invite Yan Huan Out. The only person who could get Liang Chen and the others to come out was Yan Huan. Many people did not do it for Linlang's sake, but for Yan Huan's sake.

If it had been someone else shooting the first two, they definitely would not have had such a success.

Chapter 1969: the Lu family's genes are good

Therefore, Yi Ling's award was indeed worthy of her name. She deserved it.

Next was the best director award. Unsurprisingly, director Jin received it again. Director Jin had frequently produced good films in the past few years. Of course, he had also received quite a number of awards, but this time, he was happy to receive it, he was already a director worth ten billion.

Six years before the start of the first film, he had already accomplished something. Six years after the start of the second film, he had once again accomplished something for her. What he was waiting for now was not anything else, but the International Best Director award that was about to be selected. If he could get it again.., then his entire career as a director would be over. He was also willing to do so.

As for the Supporting Actress award, everyone was thinking about who would win it in the end. The most likely winner would be the first two. After all, the first two had already won many big awards, and there was no suspense about what would happen next, the best female lead, best male lead, and supporting actor and actress would probably be taken over by the first two.

As she had imagined, the best supporting actor and actress award was Qi Haolin and Liang Chen. The two of them clenched their fists tightly as they stepped onto the podium. They had been married for many years, but their feelings for each other had never faded, liang Chen had gradually withdrawn from their field of vision. Qi Haolin's career was also at its peak. Moreover, he did not have any scandals. He was also an actor who loved his own integrity. His reputation within the industry was very high, of course, in other aspects, he was also very low-key. It was precisely because of this low-key that his popularity remained high.

The best male lead role was not unexpected. In the end, it was picked up by the best actress Yan. Yan Huan graciously went on stage. Although he was wearing a simple dress, there was not much decoration on it, however, they were not outdone by the female stars who were competing with each other for beauty. Some people had the advantage of bearing, temperament, and that kind of atmosphere. And all these pleasantries were already available. Of course, there was also her title of being the fifth most beautiful woman in Asia, of course, these were all based on her actual status. She was actually still very young. If she wanted to continue filming, it was not impossible. However, in the end, she gave up a lot of opportunities and also gave up a lot of good films, she had to be a good wife and mother.

When the host asked her if there would be any new films in the future.

Yan Huan only smiled. Perhaps there would be. It was also possible that there would not be many scenes. It was also possible that there would be close ones. Other times, she had to spend time with her children. Because she was already a mother, the focus of her life was.., she also placed all her attention on her family. She did not want to miss out on the growth of her children. The three of them were the best gifts that God had given her in this life. She could give up everything, but she could not give up on her children.

A person's entire life was actually a choice. She did not feel that there was anything wrong with her choice, and such a choice was the decision that she did not regret the most.

Of course, many of these things could be understood, especially for a woman who had become a mother. For example, Liangchen gave Yan Huan a thumbs up. She also loved her daughter, and she couldn't imagine the day.., when she was out filming, not to mention ten days to half a month, what would she do if she didn't see her daughter for a year? would her precious daughter forget about her? Would she catch a cold or have a fever? Would she want her mother, however, her mother was not by her side.

Whenever she thought about this, she could not bear it. That was why she did not want to continue filming. This time, it was only because it was the first two. Otherwise, she really did not want to leave her daughter for so long, in the future, she would not continue filming. She would focus on accompanying her child. Even if it was the first three, she would not continue filming. The first two had been separated by six years. If the first three were separated by eight or ten years, she would be too old to continue filming.

And this time, the best newcomer award was won by Xie Weining. This was a very unexpected result. Of course, in the minds of others, Xie Weining's popularity had indeed risen quickly. Of course, she was also an outstanding actress, but even so, Xie Weining had never thought that she, who had just debuted, would accidentally win such a big award.

She swallowed her saliva and was so excited that she could not speak.

And this time, there was actually a special award, the Most Promising Celebrity Award. This award was given to newbies. This award was voted by the Internet and was also selected by the major program teams, it was the future star. In the future, he could take charge alone. It could also be said that he could be the future star of tomorrow. And what Yan Huan did not expect was that.., this award with the greatest potential was actually given to Xun Xun, who was only four years old now.

The award was given to Yan Huan, the mother. As for when the host asked if Little Lu Wei had other films to shoot next, Yan Huan's answer was very clean and did not give anyone an ambiguous answer.

She would not let her daughter enter this circle anymore. As for what her daughter would think after she grew up, that was her own matter. On this point, Yan Huan could not make the decision for her daughter.

When the others heard that Yan Huan's daughter did not plan to continue making her debut and did not plan to become a celebrity, they felt a little regretful. After all, Yan Huan's daughter was indeed a very spiritual child. Her small face was very cute, at the same time, she had inherited her mother's talent for acting. Unfortunately, she would not be acting again.

This time, the first two winners of the awards ceremony had almost won all the awards. Of course, they also became the biggest winners of the year. The first place in the box office ranking was finally eliminated. However, it was the original batch of people who had been eliminated.

Now, everyone was anticipating when the first place would be broken, but it would still be a long time before that. In the past few years, the first two places could still be maintained for a long time. No one had ever heard of any large-scale films being released. Usually, large-scale films would require several years of preparation and several years of filming.

Most people guessed that the first two spots would be broken by the first three spots. However, even Yi Ling did not know what the first three spots would be.

After all, if they really wanted to film, it would be the younger generation.

At this moment, in the Lu family, when the Lu family found out that their Little Xun Xun had won another award, everyone was so excited that they were all beaming.

"My granddaughter is good at everything. She is so cute, so this award is naturally hers." Lu Jin looked as if he was honored, as if he had gone up on stage and won the award himself.

“That’s right.” Old Master Lu also raised his chin proudly. “Don’t you want to see whose excellent genes you inherited?” And when he said whose excellent genes, that gaze, that action was obviously referring to him talking about himself.

“Yes, Dad. It’s just that our family’s genes are good.” Lu Jin flattered old master Lu. On this point, the father and son had reached an agreement for the first time. No matter whose good genes it was., it wasn’t the one with the surname Lu. It was Old Master Lu, which was also Lu Jin’s. It was also the Lu family’s.

Chapter 1970: ruined their reputation

And when it came to bringing glory to the Lu family, the two of them were definitely very clear-headed.

Ye Shuyun, who was sitting at the side, looked at this and then at that. In the end, she was very smart and did not say anything. She did not dare to say anything and just let the father and son be proud of themselves. The two of them added up., they were both over a hundred years old and could really lie through their teeth. When did their acting talent have anything to do with the Lu Family? They were clearly just like Yan Huan, okay?

She stood up. She could still hear the father and son discussing the issue of their Lu family’s genes. Meanwhile, Ye Shuyun was going to pick up her three grandsons.

Sigh, she had not seen them all morning. She did not know if they were doing well, if they had eaten any fruits, drank any water, or missed their grandmother.

The little ones were already four years old. It was not easy for them. They had grown up by another year.

Yan Huan placed the trophies in her hands in the cupboard. At this moment, the cupboard was already filled with her trophies. She had kept all the trophies she had won here for the past few years, from her first Best Newcomer Award, Best Supporting Actress Award, Best Actress award, to the internationally renowned Grand Award, she had won all of them. These were all her honors.

However, once she closed the closet, all the honors were sealed.

Her greatest honor was having three children. They were the greatest pride of her life.

She walked out. In a while, she still had to deliver food to Lu Yi. Lu Yi was still very busy, and she didn’t know how long he would be busy. However, Yan Huan was already used to his busy working state.

If the mountain didn’t come, she was going to find the mountain.

Lu Yi was too busy to accompany her, so she went to accompany him.

Therefore, between husband and wife, there was indeed someone who needed to take a step back. Yan Huan liked Lu Yi at work because that was Lu Yi, so she took this step back.

And she herself wasn’t an ambitious woman. She walked into the kitchen and was still thinking about what to make for Lu Yi to eat.

HMM, let's make some noodles and some fried meatballs. She had not eaten these meatballs for a long time. That was all for today.

She thought about the dishes today and put on an apron. She stood in the kitchen and made a loving lunch for her husband. However, she did not know that she had once again made the headlines on the internet, it was not because she had won an award, but because she did not like brother Yang's straightforward words.

Yes, she did not like Yang Keke, which was why Yang Keke did not participate in the first two acts. It was also because of this that Yang Keke had unilaterally broken her contract. Now, she had been filming Yan Huan's previous famous works, it was still misunderstood by others. Was Yan Huan beating her up? And every time this question came up, she would cleverly avoid it.

This time, Yan Huan was the one who said it. She did not like someone. Since she did not like someone, why would she promote a woman that she hated? Why would she let such a woman take photos of her famous works.

Yang Keke did not know where she got the courage and face. Did she really think that she could climb up with Yan Huan's fame? Moreover, she used her tiny body to bump into Yan Huan's big tree.

Behind Yan Huan was her reputation over the past few years. It was Linlang, the Lu family, and her husband. There was no need to say so much, as long as one of them was enough to crush Yang Keke to death.

When Yan Huan's fans heard about this, it would be even worse. This was the time to compare fans. Yan Huan had accumulated a lot of fans over the years, especially her crazy cabbage battle team, their combat strength was quite formidable.

If their goddess hated them, they would naturally hate them. If their goddess didn't like them, they could forget about making them like them.

Yang Keke was once again hyped up. It was a pity that they were all positive, and she wanted Yan Huan's fame to rise. This meant that she could forget about being a positive actress in the future.

At this moment, Yang Keke's manager did not expect so many things to happen. They wanted Yang Keke to get out of the entertainment industry. The power of fans was very terrifying, only Yang Keke was still very indifferent.

"Isn't that great?" Yang Keke curled her lips. "Didn't I make the headlines once?"

"But this kind of reputation will have an impact on you in the future."

The manager felt that Coco Yang's brain had been stuck in the door. This wasn't something to be proud of. It was a scandal now, and to be able to be so calm in a scandal.., how Big was Coco Yang's heart?

"My reputation hasn't been good since Linlang came out. Why Do I Need a reputation?" Coco Yang didn't care anyway. She only wanted to be famous. Yes, she only wanted to be famous. No matter how famous she was, she was famous now.

Seeing that Yang Keke couldn't make sense of it, her manager was really helpless. What else could she do? Follow such a disobedient artiste.

As for Yang Keke, she didn't seem to care about it on the surface. However, in reality, only she herself knew what was going on.

After the manager left, Yang Keke finally let go of her hand that had been tightly clasped together. She also bit down hard on her upper and lower teeth, she almost bit off all of her teeth.

She took out her phone and dialed the number.

"You're looking for me?" It was a strange voice. It sounded like she was about to die. She couldn't even tell if she was angry. Every time she heard this voice, Coco Yang was afraid, it was like a poisonous snake that would crawl out of the phone at any moment and bite her.

"Didn't you say that you could make me red?"

"Didn't you say that you could make me red?" The voice on the other side suddenly laughed. The grinding of her teeth made Yang Keke feel uncomfortable.

"I don't want this kind of red method." Yang Keke bit out her voice. "My reputation has already become like this. What is the use of being red?"

She said that she could make her famous, but she didn't say that she would lose her reputation and be despised by others.

"You Can't blame me for this." The voice on the phone was so cold that there wasn't even a trace of warmth, "Do you think that Yan Huan is a fool? I can really let you step on her shoulders and climb up. Back then, you chose this path because you knew that you had to go against that woman."

"But you didn't tell me this." Yang Keke was filled with regret. How did she provoke such a ghost back then? Yes, she was famous, she was famous, but she didn't want such a red method like hers, this was despised by tens of thousands of people, and this was also notorious for thousands of years.

Now, not only had she become enemies with Yan Huan, but she had also become enemies with Tong Linlang. She didn't have much of a background, nor did she have any backing. When that time came, she would die without knowing how.
