

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 2 Excel Your Mom

Philip Dawson shouted out loud behind Clara, “Bastard!

What are you talking about?”

“I am talking about the truth.”

She never expected that Jessica would have an affair with Shawn.

She tried to vent her hatred towards Shawn for his betrayal. That was why she called the police.

Unexpectedly, it was not only her fiance cheating on her. She found that Jessica, as her half-blooded sister, tangled with Shawn as well.

That was funny!

“You!”

Clara was in a towering rage. Aleena stopped her when she tried to hit Natalia with her stick.

“Calm down, Mom. Don’t get angry. It hurts your body.”

Then she turned to Natalia, “Stop displeasing your grandma anymore. Jessica was the one to blame for. You could do whatever you want, but not to your grandma. Don’t be rude to your grandma.”

Anyone who was not familiar to Aleena would think her as a thoughtful lady.

Natalia raised her lips ironically.

Philip got more angry by seeing the look on her face.

“Are you feeling proud of yourself now?”

You sent your sister and your fiance to the police station, and made both the Dawson and Miller family embarrassed?”

Do you still know who you are?

Jessica was a pop star. You would ruin her career by what you did today.

She wouldn’t be able to work in the entertainment industry anymore.

Our family would lose connection to the Miller family as well.

Have you thought about all these?

Natalia gave a bleak smile, “These were all you could think about?”

Philip was stunned there.

“You are here to blame on me for what they have done?

Then what do you expect from me?

Turning a blind eye after finding out everything?

Or generously send my blessing out?

Philip was silenced. He roared back after a few seconds.

“You vented on someone else for not keeping your fiancée?

If you are admired, how would Shawn fall in love with your sister?

You never reflect on yourself, just like your mom. All you can do is to blame others.”

Natalia was badly provoked.

The guy in front of her was beyond her imagination.

Philip cheated on her mom five years ago. Until Aleena brought Jessica in, she met her little sister for the first time.

The terrible blow drove her Mom crazy and she commitetd suicide soon after. She drove a car and run to a river.

The Dawson family sent Natalia abroad to avoid trouble. They left her alone and never cared for her well-beings.

By inherit her Mom’s property, Natalia survived those years. Otherwise, she might be dead already.

She didn’t expect her Dad and grandma would slander her Mom after her death, although they didn’t like her all the time.

Natalia was bitterly disappointed. She fleered,

“You are right!

I am useless. I can’t inherit anything from a Mom who seduced someone’s husband. Jessica was doing much better than her Mom, as I can see.”

Aleena’s face was suddenly pale.

Philip burst into anger, “What kind of bullshit are you talking about?”

“You know what I am talking!”

“You!”

“Enough!”

Grandma shout out snappishly. Philip was persuaded by Aleena when he was about to continue.

The moment he looked up, Charlie Miller took Shawn and Jessica out from the hearing room on the other side of the corridor.

Charlie, together with Shawn and Jessica, were all stern-faced.

Jessica grabbed Shawn’s arms tightly with grievance and tolerance on her face. Her eyes turned red in pity.

The crowd rushed forwards with great concern.

“Jessica,

are you Okay?”

Jessica shook her head and replied dejectedly, “I’m fine.”

Then she turned her face to Natalia behind the crowd.

“Sister.”

She called in a gentle voice, with a guilty look towards Natalia, and moved forward.

“I’m sorry. I didn’t expect you to come over... Me and Shawn... We never did that on purpose. Please forgive us!”

Natalia stared at her with her poker face.

Charlie sighed with resignation.

“We are the one to blame for what happened. What happened is happened. Let me know what you want for compensation. We will try our best to fulfill your needs.”

Natalia fleered, “Compensation?

Are you trying to bribe me with hush money?”

A sense of guilt went across Charlie.

He glared back to Shawn snappily, “You are such a bastard.

Come over to make yourself clear for what you did!”

Shawn reluctantly yielded to his Dad’s authority, and moved towards Natalia.

“We don’t fit each other, Natalia. Let’s cancel our engagement!”

Natalia was shocked.

His words cut her like a knife, with pains all over.

She already figured out their ending. But when he spoke it out, the sadness rushed across her heart, chilling her entire body.

She stared at the man in front with a pouty mouth and reddish rims of her eyes.

“How long have we been together, Shawn?”

“Six years.”

“Six years?”

“Well.”

That was what she got after six years

He had no sense of guilt, no action to keep their love or even no apology for his behavior. All he said was that they were not fit for each other.

Something was tore apart from the bottom of Natalia’s heart. She replied sarcastically with no hesitation, “Okay. I agree with you.”

Shawn was surprised by how decisive she was.

He questioned with knitted brows, “Seriously?”

“I can agree on the cancellation. But I need the three newly-acquired subsidiary companies under my name as a compensation.”

“What?

Are you crazy?

Philip screamed out before Charlie and Shawn tried to respond.

Natalia fleered at her, “You’ve already taken her business into consideration, before you two get married?

Isn’t it too early to flatter at this time?”

“You!”

“Stop!”

Charlie lifted his hand. He interrupted Philip and turned to Natalia with a calm look.

“I promise you for what you want. As soon as you bring in the marriage contract, I will transfer the ownership under your name.”

“Deal.”

Charlie left with his lawyer. Philip gave a fierce stare towards Natalia. He supported his Mom and walked away under the company of Aleena.

Only Natalia, Shawn and Jessica were left there.

Natalia didn’t want to be involved with them anymore. She turned around with a straight face when Jessica pulled her over.

“Sister!”

She was blocked the next second.

Jessica choked with sobs. She grasped Natalia’s arm and asked in a quaking voice,

“I’m sorry, sister. I didn’t mean to steal Shawn from you. Please don’t be mad at us. I will do whatever you want me to do for compensation.”