

Sweet Wife 2021

Chapter 2021: grew taller

Although Xun Xun was usually very obedient, no matter how obedient she was, she was still a child. As a child, she had a small temper. Moreover, if her small temper flared up, it would be much bigger than when her father was young. It would be difficult to pacify her.

However, it wasn't like she couldn't be beaten or scolded. If anyone moved Xun Xun, Old Master Lu would definitely find someone to fight with.

In any case, his little granddaughter couldn't be beaten up by others. Whoever beat her up would be in charge. Whoever dared to beat her up would have to be prepared to be beaten up.

Meanwhile, Yan Huan had already arrived at the program team. It was time to prepare for a new round of competition.

However, the guest for this episode had been changed. It was Yang Keke who had been changed to Xie Weining. The program team naturally wanted a more positive image of the guest and a better reputation, it was not like Yang Keke who only knew how to win everyone's attention with dirty tricks. Therefore, Yang Keke had also been thrown out of this program. Moreover, she did not have any skill in commenting on the program's content, how could a person who could not even cook instant noodles participate in a gourmet program? That would really be a waste of the contestants.

Therefore, the program team decided to replace Yang Keke and let Xie Weining replace her.

Xie weining was naturally very interested in this program. Of course, she was also very confident. No matter what, she could still be said to be a professional chef. She was personally trained by her father Xie, moreover, Yan Huan was also a disciple of her father Xie, so she could be said to be Yan Huan's senior sister. Some of their opinions were the same, and the two of them were very professional in judging these dishes, sometimes, they could even tell at a glance what ingredients they used.

It was not difficult for Xie Weining to know. After all, she had been exposed to these things since she was young. Even if her father did not teach her professionally, she had listened to them for so many years, watched them for so many years, and smelled them for so many years, no matter what, she had some experience.

As for Yan Huan, she also had some good experience.

Regardless of whether it was because of habit, experience, or talent, the opinions of the two of them would definitely win the hearts of the people on the stage. As for the others, they would only start from the word 'eat', it was just that people said that it was difficult to adjust to a crowd. A hundred people eating a dish might have a different taste. Some people liked it, while others did not.

Most people were just customers. Sometimes, their opinions were subjective.

Therefore, compared to being more professional, the contestants on stage still liked Yan Huan and Xie Weining's comments. However, Xie Weining's appearance on this show was not long-term. She was currently in the stage of development, the company was naturally trying its best to promote her. As long as she did not go astray, as long as she followed Linlang's arrangements and developed, she would be able to become popular in a few years.

However, the prerequisite was that she would be very busy and would not have time to rest for a year. For a program like this, she would not be able to come all the time because time was not allowed.

Therefore, Yan Huan might still be the most popular judge in this program team in the future. Of course, many people also knew that Yan Huan's special hobby was to participate in food-related programs, there were also quite a few program teams that sent invitations to Yan Huan, hoping that he could join their own program team. It was a pity that Yan Huan didn't have much time, she also didn't want to put the bill in her work every day. She rejected everything else. It was just that by participating in this program, the viewership ratings of the program itself were already very low. Now, it had already started broadcasting for three years, it was very popular with the public, and there was also a certain amount of audience. Of course, the people who participated in the program were also ordinary people. The program did not lack in content, and it did not lack in popularity. That was why Yan Huan chose this program to stop, so that she could continue to learn from others, of course, it was also to prevent her from staying at home alone every day, causing her to be stupefied.

This time, Yan Huan learned another three dishes. However, two of them were not very suitable for eating every day, and they were also not considered as home-cooked dishes. The cooking method was also a little complicated. If she ate too much, she would easily get angry. She just had to go back and make one for Lu Yi, let him have a taste.

After she went back, she really used a lot of time and energy to finish making the three dishes. When Lu Yi finished eating, his brows were slightly furrowed.

The taste was a little strange. Of course, this was his most honest answer. The taste was a little strange. It was not a little strange, but it was still very strange.

Yan Huan also ate a mouthful. It was the same as the one made by that person. The taste was a little strange, but the nutritional value was quite high. It was just that the taste was not very good, so this dish was ultimately rejected.

As expected, the so-called delicacies really catered to the tastes of the masses. If everyone did not like to eat it, then this dish would be considered a failure because it was just like clothes. If one bought it and did not wear it., it was equivalent to buying it for nothing, which was also equivalent to a failure.

Therefore, this dish failed in front of Lu Yi. Yan Huan only remembered the recipe, but she did not want to cook it in the future because no one liked to eat it. Lu Yi had a very high evaluation of the other two dishes, of course, there were also some people who liked it, so they ate quite a lot.

Therefore, it was useful to participate in those kinds of programs often. At the very least, she could learn a few more dishes and cook for Lu Yi. Her stop ticket was to eat Lu Yi until he became a big fat man.

However, she had underestimated Lu Yi. Don't look at him as an office worker. In fact, he had a lot of activity. Moreover, his physical fitness was good, and his metabolism was naturally much better than the average person, with this, she would not be fat. Just look at Old Master Lu. The physical condition of the Lu family members was not much different.

Lu Jin and Old Master Lu were not fat, so how could Lu Yi be fat.

Therefore, Yan Huan's plan to raise Lu Yi to become a fat man was probably a myth, and Lu Yi's plan to make her fat was a myth. Therefore, they should really be grateful for their good physique, in this era where people were desperately trying to lose weight, people who ate nothing but did not gain weight were truly blessed.

Yan Huan carried Xun Xun up and made eye contact with her pair of beautiful big eyes.

Xun Xun blinked her eyes and then reached out her small hand to hug her mother's face. She also placed her small face on her mother's face.

"Mommy..."

A soft and soft little girl was the most likable. Her baby voice was really adorable.

"Why aren't you speaking properly?" Yan Huan pinched her daughter's little face. "Call me Mommy, not Mommy. When we grow up, we have to learn how to speak properly."

Xun Xun pouted her little mouth. "Mommy."

"So Obedient." Yan Huan kissed her daughter's little face and saw that her daughter was really too cute. Her lips were red and her teeth were white. She was really a beautiful little milk bun. In the past, she absolutely did not believe that... she would come out with such a beautiful little girl.

Chapter 2022: she had yet to grow up

That's right, she was really afraid that she would lose her daughter.

"Xunxun, what if someone abducts you in the future?"

"Xunxun is very smart."

Xunxun raised her little chin and had a proud look on her face. "Xunxun will not be abducted." She puffed out her little chest again. She did not agree with her mother's words, she started counting with her little fingers.

"Xunxun knows her mother's number, her father's number, her grandparents' number, her family's number, and her great-grandfather's number. Xunxun knows that she is xunxun. Her big name is Lu Wei and her nickname is xunxun. Xunxun has two older brothers who look exactly the same. Xunxun knows where her family lives, where her father works, and that her mother is very pretty and looks like Xunxun."

Yan Huan did not know whether to laugh or cry. What was wrong with this little fellow? She even knew so many things. Of course, she had made so many preparations before she left. It turned out that all of them were for that last sentence, that last sentence... did she know that she was beautiful?

However, could they keep a low profile and not always say that they were beautiful.

Although she is really beautiful, big or small, and her little xun is the most beautiful child in kindergarten.

“Let’s go.” She picked up her daughter. Fortunately, she could still carry her. However, if she grew any longer, she really couldn’t carry her daughter. Instead, she could carry her daughter on her back. She wasn’t as tall as Xun Xun’s father, of course, she was not as strong as Xun Xun’s father, who could carry her daughter with one hand. It was quite strenuous for her to carry her daughter now. Therefore, it could be seen that Little Xun, who was only two kilograms in weight when she was born, had finally grown into a big girl, it was just that she grew up a little too quickly. She had only carried her daughter for a few days, but her little xun had already grown up. If there was a next life, she would definitely become a Hercules. In that case, she would not be afraid of her daughter growing up.

“Mommy, where are We Going?” Xun Xun happily placed her thumb in her little mouth and sucked on it. It was a little action that she had just learned recently, and it was from a little girl who had yet to grow up.

Yan Huan carried his daughter into the bathroom. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were both washed by her father, so she would properly serve this delicate little beauty. In a while, she would become a fragrant little beauty.

Xun Xun was the same as her mother. They were both very smelly. As long as others said that she was beautiful, she would be very happy. Now, Yan Huan had already understood her thoughts. For example, if she was picky about her food, she would say that she would become beautiful after eating it, the little girl would be very happy and scare herself into eating the food. This trick was really not bad. Anyway, she was still young and had a very clear gut. She was not afraid that she would discover that her mother was lying to her.

After Yan Huan bathed his daughter, she became a fragrant little princess. The little girl still had to watch cartoons with her brother outside. They could watch cartoons for an hour every day before going to bed.

Lu Yi took his daughter from Yan Huan’s hands. He saw that his daughter was really like a beautiful little ball. No matter how stiff his heart was, it had become soft because of her.

It was the same for him. Who would be willing to part with such a cute and obedient child? She placed her daughter in the middle of Xiao Qi’s Xiao Guang and took a doll and placed it in her arms, after letting her watch the cartoons, his gaze shifted to Xiao Guang’s little face. Xiao Guang was staring at the television with his big eyes wide open. His little face was full of seriousness, he did not know where he got so much attention from. Also, he was watching an animated cartoon. Xun Xun’s little expression was vivid. Sometimes she was afraid, and sometimes she was surprised. But these two little brothers..., why did they follow Daddy’s expressionless face.

He walked over and rubbed Xiao Guang’s little head. Xiao Guang turned around, but only saw Giant Daddy’s leg. She could only raise her little head again to see Daddy’s face.

He opened his little mouth and smiled at his father in a silly manner. Only Xiao Guang would smile like that. However, Xiao Qi’s five did not move at all. Their little expressions were pitifully few.

Lu Yi really did not have a bad attitude towards his two sons. There was nothing he could do about it. This was how good the Lu family's genes were. That was why life was really a wonderful thing because it really remembered many things.

It was just like how Xun Xun had a mother's face, just like how Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had a father's personality.

"Daddy..."Xun Xun stretched out her small arms, wanting daddy to hug her again.

Lu Yi stretched out his hand and picked up his daughter. He didn't have to do it deliberately, but he could still hold her up high.

"Daddy, Xun Xun wants to drink milk."

Xun Xun rubbed her eyes. She was going to sleep, and she had to drink milk before she went to sleep. Otherwise, she wouldn't sleep. Even if she kept rubbing her eyes, she wasn't willing to sleep.

"Daddy will go get you some milk powder."Lu Yi could only carry his daughter with one hand and go into the kitchen. Then, he took out a pink bottle from the disinfectant. This was Xun Xun's special bottle, little Qi Xiaoguang really only used a cup now. Only Xun Xun still drank from the bottle every day. No matter how hard she tried, she couldn't quit the bottle. They could either use a bottle or a washbasin. It was their choice.

"Baby, you're four years old."Lu Yi prepared the milk powder for his daughter. Then, he placed the bottle in her little hand and told her to drink it obediently.

"Yes, baby is four years old."Xun Xun hugged the bottle with her little hands and drank it in large gulps.

"Baby, we're going to use a cup. Don't you think that Big Brother uses a cup?"

"No."Xun Xun turned her little face away and hugged the bottle tightly with her little hands. She was going to use the bottle anyway.

Lu Yi's words had been spoken since she was three years old. Even if he forcefully gave her the bottle, her grandparents and great-grandfather spoiled her in the Lu family. As a result., it would be a long time before this little girl wanted to give up the bottle.

He wanted to see if he could help her form a good habit at home and use a cup instead, but it was a failure.

Lu Yi rubbed his daughter's hair. Why? was he still unwilling? was he unable to change?

"Daddy..."Xun Xun turned her small face and said to her father very seriously.

"En, What's Wrong?"Lu Yi was quite democratic. "What do you want to say? Daddy is listening."

Xun Xun held her small bottle in one hand and her small hand was also placed on her waist. En, if she still had a waist, she would actually be a chubby little cutie.

"Daddy, Xun Xun is still a baby. Daddy can't ask the baby to do this and that. The baby hasn't grown up yet."

Lu Yi was stunned at first and couldn't help but pinch his daughter's little face. Where did you learn this from?

She had really grown up. She knew that she had to reason with Daddy.

Chapter 2023:

Fine, Lu Yi didn't want her to become as obedient as Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, but it would be best if he gave up on the bottle. People said that if he used the bottle for a long time, his little mouth would turn up, his daughter had such a cute little face, and his mother was the fifth most beautiful woman in Asia. His daughter was even more beautiful than his mother, but if her little mouth turned up in the future and she only knew how to talk back to him every day, what would he do?

Wouldn't she be worried to death as a father?

"It can't be, right? Are you really going to be like your mother, only preparing to wean yourself from the bottle when you're five years old?"

Xunxun hugged the bottle again and sucked the milk in the bottle hard. Her two little faces bulged out, just like those big-eyed fish raised by the Lu family.

After she finished drinking the milk, she directly stuffed the bottle into her father's hand. Then, she rubbed her eyes and was about to go to sleep. Yan Huan had already let her two sons drink the milk, and in a while, they would also go to sleep.

"Let's go. Mommy will take you to sleep."

She stretched out her hand to her two sons.

There were only her and Lu Yi at home right now, so they had to take care of their three children. Fortunately, the three children were very obedient, and of course, they were also very easy to raise. They fed them until they were full, so they didn't make any noise at all, after they finished their homework, they watched cartoons for a while, played for a while, and then went to sleep

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, as brothers, never fought with their younger sister for things, nor did they fight with their younger sister for the love of their parents. They loved their younger sister very much, just like their parents.

Inside, Xun Xun was already asleep. Her two little faces were pink and tender. Every time Lu Yi saw his daughter, his stiff heart softened. This was his daughter, from such a small point.., she had finally grown up. Now, she was obedient, beautiful, and cute. Of course, the most important thing was that she was very healthy now. As long as she didn't get sick, it would be fine.

In the past year, they had also protected her very well. She was very disappointing. After filming so hard with her mother, she had never gotten sick before. In the future, she had to be healthy too, right?

Yan Huan walked over and stood to the side. Lu Yi really loved his daughter. It wasn't that he didn't love his son, but it was just that he doted on his daughter more because her daughter was like her.

"Let's go to sleep too." Lu Yi stood up and saw that Yan Huan's eyes were also filled with exhaustion.

"Okay." Yan Huan rubbed his eyes and turned around to look at the three children. Auntie Gu wasn't around today, so the children's small beds had been moved into their bedrooms.

However, Lu Yi felt that he had to bring one of the Lu family's nannies back in the future. Otherwise, they wouldn't be able to sleep well at night. Moreover, he had to go to work the next day, and Yan Huan happened to have a program to record.

He would make do today.

On this night, Lu Yi woke up many times. The three children obediently slept on their small beds. They didn't move at all and slept until early in the morning.

After putting on clothes for the children, Lu Yi first sent them back to the Lu family. He went to work by himself while Yan Huan went to record a show. The three children were also left unattended at home. When they arrived at the Lu family.., with his parents and grandfather around, they didn't have to worry.

Yan Huan sat in the car and took out his cell phone. She dug out Zhu Meina's number and called her. What a heartless woman. They had already agreed to bring back some things for her when she went abroad. Where were the things? Where was she? Where was her phone? Why didn't anyone come over.

How long had she been gone for.

However, even after she called once, her phone was still switched off. Yan Huan put down his phone. What was this woman up to?

In fact, she wasn't worried about Zhu Meina's safety at all. Zhu Meina valued her life very much. She would never go to dangerous places. On the contrary, she liked to stay in places with many people, of course, if there was no one around, how would people be able to appreciate her beauty.

Yan Huan shook his head and didn't take this matter to heart. In any case, Zhu Meina was just like that. Sometimes, it was very normal for her to not contact her once in ten days or half a month. At most, once.., there was no news for a month. It was said that she had gone overseas to watch some show. Then, she went to another place and played there for a few days. Her personality was really similar to ye Xinyu's in the past. She was the same dumb and stupid, she was also the same insensible. However, how could that damn woman Zhu Meina forget how old she was now? How Old was she? She was already a woman in her thirties, yet she still had to play with these things that only boys and girls would do, even though she kept saying that she was a beautiful girl all day long.

Was she a girl? Did she not have any self-awareness in her heart?

Yan Huan took her bag from the side and also took out the program schedule from her bag. She knew that she would be able to learn another three dishes today. However, she only realized later that she was actually not that smart.

She could still remember and learn the simple three dishes, but if it was too difficult, then she really didn't have the ability. Therefore, she decided in the future.., she didn't have to force herself to learn three dishes. She only needed to learn one of them. She only needed to make this dish taste more authentic. There was no need to learn three dishes, moreover, Lu Yi did not like some dishes, much less eat them.

Just like the soup that she had spent a lot of effort to make last time, Lu Yi despised it very much. Most importantly, she also despised her own dishes.

In this way, she did not have to focus so much and could relax a little.

However, when she glanced at the program list, she realized that she could not read a single word. Instead, she could not help but worry.

“Zhu Meina, Zhu Meina, I hope that you won’t be like ye Xinyu and easily believe others. When that happens, you’ll lose your life. However, I think that you won’t be so stupid anymore. After all, you’re not ye Xinyu. At that time, ye Xinyu did not experience any hardships. It’s normal for him to be a little stupid. However, if you’re stupid, I don’t know what to say.”

She shook the program list in her hand. For some reason, she thought of these things randomly.

She took the program list and placed it on her lap. Then, she flipped through them one by one. In fact, even she herself did not expect that her casual words would actually turn out to be true, that woman, Zhu Meina, had really been harmed by someone. Everyone thought that she was currently enjoying herself overseas. However, they did not know that Zhu Meina was currently sitting in a sealed car, she looked like she had nothing left to live for.

The car continued to drive forward. Unlike other kidnapped women, Zhu Meina had a pig-like face. She ate and drank as she was supposed to.

When her mind was blank, she would sigh.

Chapter 2024: ran away

She did not expect that Zhu Meina would be betrayed a second time.

“Lu Qin, Su Muran, you’d better not let me go back. Otherwise, I’ll definitely let you have a taste of what it’s like to be betrayed, and Yan Huan, Yan Huan...”

Zhu Meina could only trust Yan Huan Now, “You must come and save me. The only person I can rely on now is you. If I can’t get through to my phone for a long time, then something must have happened to me. You’ll definitely find out that I was kidnapped, right?”

“I’m big-breasted and brainless, but you’re not. You’ll definitely find me. I believe in You.” However, what was the big deal about being sold? It wasn’t like she had never been sold. She had lived under brother Long’s hands before, she had stayed in such places before. What else could she not dare to go to? Moreover, she wasn’t some chaste and virtuous woman. She had to seek death for those things, she treated it as if she had been kissed by a pig.

Her hand was tied behind her back by the rope. These people would only let go of her when they were feeding her. There was only one steamed bun a day, and she could only drink a little water. She ate so little., she could not even pull.

She twisted her neck. She could still feel something cutting her skin on her chest. It was a bracelet on her wrist. These people had stolen all the jewelry on her, but they did not know.., when they had not discovered it, she had secretly hidden a bracelet. This bracelet was filled with diamonds, and it was very valuable. It was worth more than a million, so she did not have to sell it for millions, she could sell it for tens of thousands of yuan, and it would allow her to safely return to Hai City. As long as she returned to Hai City, it would be her own territory. She could do whatever she wanted.

Of course, she would also be safe.

This was what she had heard from Yan Huan. When Yan Huan was in the Chen family village, he had relied on the jewelry he had on him to return to Hai City. At that time, the jewelry he had on him was not worth much, however, Zhu Meina knew that she was different. Every single one of the things she had on her was worth a lot of money. As long as she could escape, she would definitely be able to return home. She would also be able to see her son again.

Little Guang, you should know that your godmother was in trouble because of the three of you. It was also because she wanted to protect the three of you that she ended up in such a miserable state. Who knew where she would be sold to

The car continued to drive forward. The road was bumpy, and it was suspected that they were walking on a mountain road. When night fell, these people would release the women and let them off the hook. A Day was only two convenient times, if they missed this time, they could only endure it. If they really couldn't endure it in the car, then they could only make it convenient in the car.

Whether these women were swindlers, kidnappers, or even her, there were about ten women. When these women entered, they were either crying or making a scene. Each of them was shouting that they wanted to go home, who were they looking for.

But was this useful?

This was not the first time Zhu Meina was betrayed. When she was betrayed, she was also like them. She was crying and making a scene. She was not willing to compromise even if she was beaten to death. But what happened after that? They would beat her.., her life was in the hands of others. If they wanted her to live, she would live. If they wanted her to die, she would die.

At this time, it was useless to cry. If these people dared to do such illegal things, they would not take any threats to heart. What they did was illegal.

As for them, they could just stay here and recuperate. Maybe they could even escape. Of course, it seemed that this was just a beautiful idea, but it was also because of this idea that existed, that was why the world was even more beautiful.

Perhaps there would really be a miracle. As for where these people were going to sell these women to, how could Zhu Meina possibly know? It wasn't something that had been shown on television, and she didn't know if it would really happen to them, for example, a university student would be sold to a ravine and give birth to one child after another, but in the end, they would all die of old age there. However, she wasn't a female university student, so she knew what she was. She was just a big-breasted and brainless idiot.

As her thoughts ran wild, she looked around in boredom. Their legs were tied with ropes, so none of them could escape. She found herself a bush, took off her pants, and began to relieve herself, she was a little constipated, but as she squatted there, she rolled her eyes and looked left and right. In the end, she saw a woman untying her legs.

She quickly retracted her gaze and continued to grab the weeds by her hand. She secretly looked up again and saw that there were a few other women doing the same thing, she could not help but place her hand on her leg and undid the rope without leaving a trace. Of course, whether she could succeed or not depended on the lives of these women. At this moment, her heart was beating wildly, it was beating so fast that she felt that her heart was about to jump out of her chest.

It was loose. Yes, it was a little loose. The more she untied it, the more nervous she became. She did not even dare to breathe loudly. The women had already untied the rope and were running forward like crazy.

Zhu Meina pulled with her finger and the rope was untied by her.

However, she did not run with the women. She could not outrun a four-wheeled car. She looked at Tongzhou and then appeared. It seemed that there was a big tree growing under the mountain road, this big tree had grown for an unknown number of years. Its branches were luxuriant. She retreated little by little without alerting anyone.

The rest of the women also untied the ropes. They didn't know if the ropes were too loose today, so they could be untied easily. As for the human traffickers., they didn't know if they were the same as these women.

They had eaten too many steamed buns and water, so they were constipated.

Zhu Meina climbed over carefully, not making a single sound. Of course, it was also thanks to the strong wind that there were many trees here, so the little sound she made could be heard by others, it was just the sound of the wind blowing on the leaves.

"Not good, they ran away!"

A man was the first to react. He quickly jumped down from the car and chased after the women.

Zhu Meina quickly stuck her entire body to the ground and let the leaves cover her whole body. She could still see the men running in one direction.

Chapter 2025: was missing one

In fact, she felt that this tree was really not very safe. If these people were not busy chasing other women, as long as they looked here, she might have been discovered.

She gritted her teeth, and through the gaps between the leaves, she could see the car clearly. There was food and water on the car, and she was still thinking whether she should take this opportunity to run and get some.

But in the end, she decided not to take the risk. She really could not afford to take the risk. Food, life. She would choose life first.

She touched her chest. There were a few hard steamed buns inside. She had secretly hidden these for herself. Fortunately, she had some foresight. She had thought of this long ago, she thought that if there was a chance for her to escape, then she should at least leave some food for herself. She was not like other women who could escape and run away as she pleased, however, she had never made any preparations.

Hope and success were reserved for those who were prepared. For example, she stood motionlessly and hid her body under the tree. Then, she climbed down and hid a little deeper inside, she pulled a few leaves to cover her head, but she did not know that there was a shiny object on the ground. She did not dare to look anywhere, and she did not dare to look around, moreover, there was light. If she had noticed it, she would have realized that the shiny object was none other than the things that she had secretly hidden for herself. It was also something that she was planning to sell, then, it was the stuff that she had to return home with.

In the end, it was because she had accidentally lost her belongings. Therefore, she did not know that this path of finding her family would not be easy. Moreover, it would be very difficult. She would not even be able to cry.

She had just hidden herself for a short while when she heard the sound of a woman crying not far away. There were also a few women's heart-wrenching cries. Zhu Meina did not dare to move. She only carefully raised her face, in fact, she could see many people on the mountain path through the gaps here, but she did not know if they would notice her.

She grabbed a leaf and was so nervous that her palm was covered in cold sweat. Even the sweat on her forehead was dripping down, landing on the leaf, as if it was raining, she pressed her face against the leaf. She could smell the scent of the leaf and the danger.

Thump, thump, thump..

Her heart was beating very fast. It was almost there. She was afraid that these people would hear her heartbeat. What if they found her then? Although she would not be beaten to death, she would definitely be beaten up. Moreover, these people would definitely guard against these things in the future.

Of course, it would not be so easy to find such a good opportunity to escape the next time.

These people might have originally thought of selling them further away, but after this time, they would think of selling them as soon as possible. They would first get the money first.

Wasn't there a saying that everyone often said? When the money was in their hands, it was the real money. The money they spent was their own money, and the people who caught them had always been fearless, this time, they had caught so many women. They knew that this was a big criminal gang of human traffickers. They had salesmen and sellers. Of course, the silver and goods were all cleared. Zhu Meina was finished.

“Have you caught enough?” Someone asked. Someone was counting the number of people one by one. They had caught ten goods this time. They had brought them from all over the country. This was also the most they had brought, of course, they could not let anything happen to them. Even if one of them ran away, they would still recognize their faces. If they called the police, they would not be able to bear the consequences, also, their car had a license plate hanging on it.

Therefore, this person’s heart was filled with hatred. How could they have been so careless? They had all run away. Even if they had caught all of them, they still did not feel very happy.

A crew cut counted the number of people. Those who did not believe it counted a few more times. However, as they counted, it did not seem right.

“Boss, one is missing.”

“What?” The man who was called Boss walked over and counted one by one. The women lowered their heads and shrunk their necks. In the eyes of these human traffickers, they were not people, they were goods, things.

They did not have any respect.

“One is missing. Go and find her again,” boss shouted at the crew cut. “You have to find her.”

There was the sound of women crying and the sound of the car door closing. Bang. This sound also hit Zhu Meina’s heart, which was already clenched because of Zhang. She could not be seen. Yes, she could not be seen., she was so nervous that she laid on the ground. She did not dare to move at all. All the muscles in her body were stiff. She did not even have the strength to shake hands or raise her hands.

The people on the top had searched back and forth countless times. There was even one time when she heard the footsteps of these people moving towards her. She was so scared that she almost cried, it was also so scared that her heart almost stopped beating.

She opened her eyes wide and could only hear her rapid breathing. There were also sounds of her heart beating again and again, almost jumping out of her chest.

Just when her nervous heart was about to stop beating, the people on top of her said something again. Then, she heard the sound of a car leaving.

Zhu Meina finally heaved a sigh of relief. It was good that the people had left. Did she mean that she was safe? Did she mean that she could go out? And these people were waiting for her, she had to get people to arrest these damn human traffickers. They were people, not objects. They were people with thoughts. Their lives and freedom belonged to themselves and not to others, why should they be sold as if they were goods.

She would definitely not let Lu Qin and Su Muran off either.

Right, her heart tightened again. She did not know what the two of them were planning. It was obvious that they wanted to get hold of Xiao Guang and the others. If they could not get hold of her, they should not think that the two of them would give up, those people were capable of anything. Their faces and their morals were all distorted by them.

Chapter 2026: escaped

Although Zhu Meina wasn't a good person and was only a little vain, she felt that her worldview was at the very least correct and she wouldn't do anything illegal. Moreover, Yan Huan was the one who taught her a lot of this legal knowledge, moreover, Yan Huan was taught by Lu Yi. To Lu Yi, who had been a prosecutor for ten years, he could probably recite these laws by heart. Of course, he was Yan Huan's legal advisor, this was also to ensure that Yan Huan would not make any mistakes. When Yan Huan was free, he would tell her these. Lu Yi would tell Yan Huan while Yan Huan would tell her.

Although listening to this legal knowledge sounded a little boring, after listening to it for too long, even Zhu Meina, who was previously blind to the law, could recite it. As for Su Muran and Lu Qin, they were courting death here.

However, even if Su Muran did not seek death, she would still die. Now that Lu Qin was already dead, it was really difficult to guard against him. Hence, this was the most troublesome matter.

What could two people who were not afraid of Death Do? To be honest, even Zhu Meina did not know. However, didn't they say that they were fugitives? This meant that.., they could do anything.

She wanted to climb out, but a thought suddenly flashed through her mind. She lay there and did not move. Should she wait until it was dark? Maybe she could meet a car to give her a ride. No, she shook her head again, she could not just sit in someone else's car. Who knew that she would meet a good person and not a bad person? Perhaps, if she got into someone else's car, she would jump into a wolf's den from the Tiger's mouth. It was not easy for her to escape, it wasn't easy for her to be safe.

At this moment, there wasn't a single sound from the car. Zhu Meina looked around carefully. There wasn't a single person. Of course, there wasn't a car either. The car might have been driven away for an hour or two, just when she couldn't help but want to get up again, she heard the sound of a car. Then, with a squeak, the car should have stopped. Moreover, from the sound of the car, she knew that it was a large car, it was not a small car. She also played with cars and listened to these sounds every day. How could she not know? How could she not know.

She was still lying there and did not move at all. However, her ears clearly heard the voices of a few people

"How is it? Is anyone coming?"

Zhu Meina could not help but break out in a cold sweat when she heard this voice.

This was the boss that they had called, which was also the leader of these criminals. He was big and burly, dark and fat. There was also a scar on his face. Although his eyes were small, they were extremely focused, he also had a ferocious face and his voice was hoarse and gloomy. It was impossible to forget the second time one heard it.

"No." The crew cut had been sitting here for almost two hours. "I have always been here. It is likely that everyone has run far away, so it is impossible for us to be here. Boss, we have waited in vain."

They couldn't find anyone anywhere. They had caught the ones who had run away, and these women stayed here every day. If they ran, they would all run together, so they didn't get anything out of them, they only knew that these women were all running in the same direction. There was no reason that all of them had been caught. Only one of them hadn't been caught. This was illogical. They had been doing this job for a long time, it was not that they had never seen someone run before. However, ever since they started this job, there was no one who could really run away.

Therefore, they thought that this person must still be nearby. She was hiding somewhere, but they could not find her. Therefore, they deliberately drove the car away, leaving a person to guard the spot, waiting for that woman to come out, they walked right into the trap. In the end, two hours had passed, but there was no movement at all.

"Boss, the sky is about to turn dark. Perhaps the person is really not here. Do we still need to wait?"

"We don't need to wait." The boss narrowed his eyes and scanned his surroundings. Zhu Meina could sense that his eyes, which were emitting a vicious light, were looking in her direction, he even paused for a few seconds.

Zhu Meina held her breath again. She did not even dare to breathe.

Zhu Meina only let out a soft breath after the spying period had passed. Even so, she was extremely afraid. These people were too cunning. If she had not been daydreaming just now and thinking about things.., she might really have left just because she was thinking about how to torture Lu Qin and Su Muran, that pair of scumbags. It was all thanks to her wild imagination that she managed to escape with her life.

"Let's go. Let's send this batch of goods out first. After we're done, we'll hide for a while. If there's nothing else, we'll wait until the wind is quieter before we come out."

After they finished speaking, the few of them also got into the car. The engine of the car also started. Zhu Meina listened to the sound of the car in a low voice until the sound of the car disappeared, only then did she let out a huge sigh of relief. Even so, she still did not immediately go out.

She could not be captured and brought back. Yes, she could not be captured and brought back. She definitely could not be captured and brought back. She also had to inform Yan Huan that someone wanted to harm Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang. Someone was plotting against them, there was also the short-lived ghost of Cheap Man Lu. They were still alive.

After waiting for a while until she was sure that she was fine, she pushed aside the leaves and climbed up.

It was not easy for her to climb up. Her clothes were covered in mud and dirt, even her face. It was as if she had rolled around in the mud. She was as embarrassed as she could be. She was as ugly as she could be, she stood in the middle of the road. At this moment, her heart was still thumping. Her clothes were almost drenched. Regardless of whether it was in front or behind, there was no car and no one, she finally felt relieved. Yes, she finally let out a sigh of relief. This meant that she had escaped, right? She had also escaped, right?

She did not remember to clear the road, but these people's cars were moving forward. If she walked in the opposite direction, she would be able to go home. She did not dare to follow that car. If that car turned back in the middle.., what would she do if they were to look for her again?

She limped towards the delivery. She lowered her head and looked at the shoes on her feet. They were still her high heels, but the heels were gone. If she were to walk with these shoes, she would rather go barefoot, however, this place did not have any shops. Where would she find a pair of shoes? Even if there was a small village here, as long as there were people, others would be able to help her, she would not be able to go home soon. When she thought of the word "Home", she almost cried.

Chapter 2027: could not be contacted

"Lu Qin, Su Muran, you two scumbags. When I go back, I will definitely tear you into pieces."

She walked in circles. Although her feet hurt, her hands hurt, her face hurt, and her entire body hurt, the pain was worth it. She finally did not have to be sold. If she was sold to those poor people., she did not know if she would have the chance to come back. If the person who bought her was a dead man, then what would she do? Don't forget that she was the one who sold Zhu Xianglan. She knew what kind of life Zhu Xianglan was living, could this be the newspaper of reality? She sold Zhu Xianglan, but Zhu Xianglan's daughter wanted to sell her.

It seemed that she could not do too many bad things in the future. In the end, she would suffer retribution. She finally understood this sentence. In the future, she would be like Yan Huan. Whenever she encountered a disaster, she would donate some, she would buy one less bag and one less bottle of perfume. If she went abroad less, she might save a lot of people.

In the past, she didn't have this kind of understanding, but now she knew.

People do indeed have karma.

"Yan Huan, why didn't you tell me this earlier?" Zhu Meina sucked in her own mucus. This person didn't have a village in front of her and didn't have a shop in the back. They all wanted to cry. But even if she cried, who could she cry for?

Oh right, couldn't she show it to the heavens? The heavens also cried for her at the same time.

Because..

It was raining. She held a leaf in her hand as an umbrella and found a place that could shelter her from the wind and rain. She was like a puppy, almost crying as she hugged the leaf. She took out half of a steamed bun from her chest, she bit down on it. The steamed bun was hard, and she did not know what it smelled like. It could be the smell of sweat on her body, or the dirty smell of not having bathed for a few days.

However, she seemed to be hungrier than a dirty one. So now, she did not care whether it was dirty or not. As long as she could eat her fill, it was more important than anything else. The most important thing was that it was raining. Didn't she have water to drink.

"Yan Huan, do you know what kind of life I'm living now? SOB SOB..."

She raised her head and looked at the sky above her head. The rain continued to fall on her face, and her face was filled with sorrow and despair.

“What’s Wrong?” Lu Yi sat up with Yan Huan. Why didn’t she sleep? Lu Yi placed his hand on Yan Huan’s shoulder and gently clenched it. She had already filmed a whole day’s worth of programs. According to her usual schedule., she should be very tired. Moreover, she slept very well at night. The number of times she woke up at night was also very few. She would sleep until dawn.

“It’s nothing.” Yan Huan shook her head. “I just dreamt that something happened to that woman, Zhu Meina.”

She took her phone from the side and dialed Zhu Meina’s number. If she dialed during the day, her phone might be switched off because it was in the middle of the night over there. There was a time difference between the two places, so she could understand. However, if it was at night., it should be around 12 o’clock in the day. would such a time difference be enough?

Even if Zhu Meina could sleep, it was impossible for her to still be asleep at 12 o’clock. She had been sleeping from yesterday until now.

However, when the call was dialed, she felt that her mood was not good at all. She threw her phone to the side and switched it off again.

“Lu Yi, what do you think happened to Zhu Meina? Did her brain go crazy again? Or did she follow ye Xinyu’s example and let herself go. However, didn’t she take a look at her age? She’s already a middle-aged woman. Why would she let herself go?”

“Isn’t she always like this? It’s normal for her to go out for a month or two whenever she has nothing to do.”

Lu Yi had always been neither good nor bad to Zhu Meina, and he had always treated her as a friend. Zhu Meina was a woman with a big chest but no brain. However, the person who had accompanied Yan Huan through the most difficult part of his life back then was none other than Zhu Meina, if it wasn’t for her taking care of Yan Huan, who knew how Yan Huan would have been able to spend his days alone.

At the very least, when Yan Huan was in a vegetative state, Zhu Meina was the only one who often came to visit Yan Huan. At that time, everyone had said that Yan Huan couldn’t take it anymore. In fact, they didn’t even advocate saving her, wanting her to die with dignity.

At that time, besides him, there was only Zhu Meina who objected the most. And there was a type of friend who was like that. Logically speaking, with Yan Huan’s character, he would definitely look down on a brainless woman like Zhu Meina, it was also impossible for him to have much of a relationship with her.

However, they were just friends, friends who had survived. Of course, it was impossible for a person to be perfect in every aspect. Zhu Meina had her own shortcomings, and there were still a lot of them. However, in a certain aspect., she could indeed be considered a woman who was worthy of being a close friend. And now, with Yan Huan’s current state, whenever she was mentioned, he would look as if he hated her to the core. He would also look as if he was gnashing his teeth. Lu Yi felt a little powerless

Morning mouth had been scolding her the entire time. He was also scolding her, but he did not know that she was actually worried. She was probably hating iron and steel, right? She was worried about Zhu Meina. She was worried that that woman would kill her.

Meanwhile, Yan Huan was still scolding Zhu Meina.

“Usually, she would only rely on her boldness and strong backing to do things. Why is it that she is becoming more and more brainless? She is also becoming more and more unreasonable when doing things. She doesn’t even need to use her brain to think. If she doesn’t use her brain, what’s the point of having a brain? It’s better to put on straw.”

However, Lu Yi knew that the more Yan Huan cursed, the more worried she was. Yan Huan had many friends in the industry and knew many people, but there were very few people that she cared about, among them, Zhu Meina was one of them.

“Sleep first. She’s not a child. She’ll take responsibility for what she does. Of course, she won’t really jump into the pit.”

Yan Huan turned over and hugged Lu Yi’s arm, continuing to fall asleep.

Very soon, she fell asleep as well.

“Sleep,” Lu Yi pulled the blanket for her again. As for Zhu Meina’s matter, he would get someone to do a thorough investigation tomorrow to find out where she was. Why was she not returning his calls?

They slept peacefully that night. Of course, they could also sleep.

However, there were people in this world who could sleep well at night. There were also people who could not sleep, and there were even people who were restless day and night.

With a whoosh, Coco Yang suddenly sat up. She hurriedly took her phone from the side. It was because she was too nervous or something. She had just held the phone in her hand when the phone suddenly rang, it slipped out of her hand and also fell down. Fortunately, it only fell on the bed and did not fall to the ground. She even sincerely hoped that it would be better if she just broke it like that, how good would it be if she just could not hear anything?

Her eyes were wide open, and the sound of the phone still rang in her ears from time to time. Of course, her pupils were printed with the phone number that was vibrating on it.

Chapter 2028: CAN’T HEAR, can’t hear

She didn’t write her name on this number, and it was just a string of numbers. However, it was this string of numbers that shocked her so much that she wanted to run to a place where there was no one. She didn’t want to hear it, nor did she want to see it.

She hurriedly picked up the quilt and threw it on her phone. Her hands pressed down hard. She couldn’t hear it, she couldn’t hear it..

Yes, she couldn’t hear, she couldn’t hear anything.

But no matter how much she lied to herself, she could still clearly hear the sound of the phone. The sound was like a ghost crying and howling, constantly piercing her eardrums, it was as if it was going to pierce her eardrums.

She didn't want to see, she didn't want to hear, she didn't want to pay the 16 million, and she didn't want to help Su Muran. No matter which one it was, the result wouldn't be good.

She did not have that much money to pay the penalty of nearly 20 million, and she could not promise Su Muran to help her do those things. She might not have heard of it, but she could not do it.

If it was really that easy, then why did Su Muran look for her? Yes, why did she look for her? Why did she have to look for her? She even set up such a trap and dug a big hole, by making her jump, she was slowly leading her into that place. She could not leave, and she could not escape.

And now, she had not forgotten that everything she had was still in Su Muran's hands. As long as Su Muran released those indecent videos of her, she would be doomed.

The more she thought about it, the more afraid she became. She never dreamed that she had forgotten the most hidden things back then, but now, it had become her death warrant, it had also become evidence that she had ruined all her reputation. No, she shook her head. She couldn't. Yes, she couldn't let such a thing happen. She couldn't let others know either, she took out her phone from under the blanket. There were three missed calls on her phone. They were all from that person. Today was the third day of their meeting. She didn't even know how she had spent the past three days, did she eat, sleep, or care about anything else? She just locked herself in her room and pretended that time was moving very slowly

But even if it was very slow, in the end, it was still no match for the passage of time itself.

This was the third day, she knew.

This was the third day of her appointment with Su Muran, and to her, this third day was like a torture to her body and mind. It was as if she was being fried in a pot of oil, and it was difficult for her to have a peaceful day and a peaceful night.

She took her phone. Just as she was about to call back, a string of music came from her phone. The numbness from the vibration was transmitted directly from her fingertips to her heart, at this moment, even her heart seemed to have stopped beating.

Her fingers trembled and her phone fell into the blanket once again. However, the sound was still there. It was following her relentlessly. No matter where she ran to, the sound would follow her all the way, until the end of the world, or until she became the target of everyone's attacks. In the future, she would be like a mouse crossing the street. Her life would be worse than that of an ordinary person.

She picked up the phone and placed it by her ear. However, her throat kept moving and she couldn't say a single word.

'Yang Keke, today is the third day. I don't have much patience.' Su Muran lightly tapped on the phone in her hand. When she looked outside, her eyes were indescribably eerie.

Of course, he could also see that her body was inexplicably uncomfortable.

She was uncomfortable everywhere. She was not in a good mood either,

“Yang Keke, don’t play dead. If you want to die, go and commit suicide now. Then everything will be settled. Of course, if you die, everything will be settled. However, the thing in my hand will not die. I will let you live in peace. After you die, you will be looked down upon by millions of people. You will be disgraced for thousands of years.”

“Coco Yang, don’t play games with me. What? You still want to play games with me? When I was in the entertainment industry, you were just a side character in some small corner. I’ve said it before, I’ll only give you three days. I don’t have any good patience, and I feel that my patience is almost running out.”

Coco Yang’s hand trembled, and the phone in her hand loosened again. The phone slipped out of her palm because it was too slippery. Of course, she wasn’t as lucky as last time, the phone fell to the ground. With another clang, the back cover of the phone fell off, and the screen shattered. Just like her heart, the support was shattered into thousands of pieces.

Once again, it was the same place. It was the place where she met the woman for the first time. It was even the same seat and the same makeup.

Yang Keke hugged her bag tightly and sat down as well.

“What’s wrong? Have you thought about it?”

Su Mu ran was still wearing a thick layer of makeup. Such a thick layer of makeup could cover her face and her expression. However, the green color under her eyes was clearly exposed, no matter what, it was clearly exposed in front of everyone’s eyes.

However, no matter what, she was much better than Yang Keke. Moreover, Yang Keke should have not slept for the past three days. When she came out, she did not put on any makeup. The recognition of a plain face was not high, perhaps no one would be able to recognize such a person walking in the crowd.

The plain-faced Yang Keke was indeed not outstanding. That was because she was considered beautiful when she put on makeup. However, as long as she did not put on any makeup, she would be a passerby in the crowd.

Of course, Su Mulan had to admit that the person who had been praised for being more beautiful than after putting on makeup over the years was not anyone else but Yan Huan.

Whenever the name Yan Huan was mentioned, Su Mulan’s entire being seemed to turn sour. Even her body had a sense of unpleasantness that made people shudder, it was as if even the blood all over her body had turned cold.

Yang Keke was shocked and placed her hand on her arm. She even felt the tiny goosebumps on her arm.

“What do you want me to do?”

She took a deep breath and closed her eyes. Finally, she asked this question.

For this question, Su Muran had thrown in tens of millions of dollars. He had also thrown in a few movies, as well as countless amounts of money and time. Now, he was going to kick her into Hell. What he was waiting for..., wasn’t it just this sentence of hers.

Wasn’t that what she wanted? Yes, that was what she wanted.

Chapter 2029: a fake face

“Oh...” Su Muran raised her chin. Obviously, she knew that Yang Keke had agreed.

“Do you agree?” She asked again, knowing the answer. She didn’t want to let her imagination run wild. In a while, another one would come for her. She didn’t want to. She, Su Muran, wasn’t so easily manipulated by others.

“How can I not agree? Isn’t this what you want? Even if I don’t agree now, you will dig more holes for me to jump into.”

“So...”

Yang Keke lifted her face in a mocking manner. When she looked at Su Muran with those eyes, there was only a cold smile and hatred.

“I can only agree, right?”

Su Muran did not care. If she wanted to hate her, then so be it. Only those who did not have the ability would hate her. However, they did not have the ability to choose and take revenge. Yes, she was the one who dug a hole for Yang Keke to jump into.

Yang Keke did not lose out either. If it were not for her, the current Yang Keke would still be in the limelight. In front of a small invisible person, and not in the entertainment industry, she would have gained quite a bit of fame, she had not acted in many television dramas, but she had also let people know her name. Of course, she also had this face. She had to dress up properly so that she looked more like Yan Huan.

If it wasn’t for Su Muran, how could Yang Keke have such good popularity.

If it wasn’t for her, how could Yang Keke have such a face.

If it wasn’t for her, Yang Keke would still have sold herself to Linlang. Who knew how many years it would take for her to become famous.

Of course, she only wanted to do a good deed. There was really no need to thank her.

Su Muran slowly put down the cup in his hand and stared at Su Muran’s face, from nose to mouth, to chin.

Now that Yang Keke looked like she was facing a great enemy, Su Muran only wanted to laugh. In fact, she really didn’t have to. She wasn’t that bad. She had to get people to commit murder and arson.

“Don’t worry. What I asked you to do isn’t difficult. Really, it’s not difficult.” Su Muran moved his finger to the edge of the cup. His hand was still very white, but there was a hint of cyan in it, it was like a dead person’s hand, and it was as cold as the temperature of a dead person’s body.

Only she herself knew that the blood on her body was almost frozen, so she wanted blood. She had to change her blood now. She wanted to change her own blood, and the blood of those little brats was just right.

She had checked all three of Yan Huansheng's children, but they all had the same blood type as her. One was not enough to change them, but weren't there three more? If she could replace all three of them at the same time, wouldn't she be able to have a whole body of blood again.

At that time, this body of blood would make her whole body warm up. Of course, it would also allow her to live for a long time. It was not what the Doctor said. She would definitely die from multiple organ failure in the end.

Moreover, it would be incurable.

No, she did not believe it. She also did not accept her fate. She would definitely not give up her life. Many doctors said that she was going to die, but what about her? Did she die? She did not die. She had lived a good life for a few years, so she would not die in the future. Those quack doctors would talk nonsense to her, saying that she was going to die, that she had to die, that she was going to die.., you were incurable.

No, they were incurable, but that did not mean that other people were incurable. She, Su Mulan, did not need a doctor. She could save herself, and she had already found a way to save herself. That was to change her blood. Yes.., change her blood, drain all the blood in her body, and replace all the dirty blood in her body with other fresh and clean blood.

Then she could live.

Yang Keke could not help but hug her own arm. At this moment, the madness on Su Mulan's face and the curve of her lips were like a life-threatening charm. It was as if she was drinking human blood. It was bloody at a glance.

She could not help but shiver.

She resisted the urge to run away with her things.

She could clearly feel that if she cooperated with this woman, she would definitely die a horrible death. She might even die without a complete corpse. It would definitely be worse than losing her reputation.

However, she could only care about the present. All she could do was agree. Other than agreeing and compromising, she had no other way out, and Su Mulan would not give her a second way out.

And now, she was waiting, waiting for Su Mulan to ask her to do something.

Su Mulan's eyes blinked strangely, and her scarlet red lips pulled to the sides.

Yang Keke suddenly shivered again. The Su Mulan in front of her was like a vampire. She did not know where to put her black hands. At this moment, she was smiling, but her teeth were bleeding, perhaps even she herself did not know how ugly she looked and how disgusting she was.

Yang Keke stumbled out from inside. Her face was pale and her mind was in a mess.

Suddenly, she could not help but lie down on the wall. She also vomited everything that she had not eaten in the morning until there was nothing left to vomit. Only then did she crouch on the ground, in the end, she only vomited the acid in her stomach.

She then recalled how Su Muran's mouth looked like it was filled with blood. Her stomach turned up again. She could not help but spit out the acid in the end. Perhaps in the end, she could not spit out the acid either. She vomited bile.

She sat there for half a day. Finally, she took out a mask from her bag and put it on. Then, she put on her sunglasses and walked into the crowd. Soon, she was also submerged.

At this moment, she was just an ordinary passerby, walking forward.

The people around her might be walking in a hurry, some were not in a hurry, and some were doing nothing. They were close to her, and then far away from her.

She touched her neck. She always felt that her neck was tightly grasped by someone, and this hand almost choked her to death.

She practically rolled and crawled forward until she reached her own place, but there was no one inside. She randomly threw her bag on the ground and ran into the bathroom, she turned on the tap and poured cold water on her face from time to time. The cold water irritated her skin, causing her to shudder involuntarily. A layer of goosebumps involuntarily appeared on her body, even the hair on her body stood up one by one.

She panted loudly in front of herself in the mirror from time to time.

This was really not her face, but a fake face.

Chapter 2030: was in a bad situation

This fake face was also unfamiliar. Even she did not recognize it.

"Su Muran, you must be an evil ghost..."

She smashed the mirror with all her might and heard a clang. The entire mirror was shattered by her, and the shards were scattered everywhere. Within each shard, she was the one who was distorted, it did not seem like her face had a woman's malicious thoughts. And that woman was called Su Muran.

She hated Yan Huan, but she did not hate him as much as she hated Su Muran.

She hated Yan Huan the most, but Su Muran, she really wished she could eat her flesh, drink her blood, pull out her tendons, and peel off her skin.

She had ruined her entire life.

She had given her such a face and given her the dilemma she was in. She wanted her to learn from Yan Huan's words and actions. It turned out that this was her plan. It turned out that this was her goal all along.

She opened the bathroom door and with a bang, the bathroom door was slammed open. Another piece of the mirror on the wall fell. With a crash, it shattered, and the curtain fell, it was a broken world that could no longer be pieced together.

After Su Muran returned, she was in a good mood. After all, she would soon get what she wanted. Of course, she could also take revenge. She wanted Yan Huan and Lu Yi to suffer a fate worse than death, if she, Su Muran, could not live well in this world, it was impossible for them.

She cracked a smile, but when she saw Lu Qin, her face turned cold as well.

Lu Qin's gaze stopped on Su Muran's mouth. He frowned slightly, but in the end, he did not say anything.

His facial features were more feminine than before. Now that he was very thin, his face, which was not considered handsome, looked like a layer of flesh had grown on his bones. No matter how he looked at it, it was ugly, no matter how you looked at it, it was disgusting.

"Give it to me." Lu Qin stretched out his hand to Su Muran. She wanted that thing, and his face was very ugly. No, his face had not been good since he started touching this thing, he was destined to live and die with this thing until the day he died. Su Muran opened a drawer and took a bag of things from it and threw it to Lu Qin, however, she did not throw it on the table, nor did she throw it directly in front of Lu Qin. Instead, she threw it on the ground.

Lu Qin quickly picked it up. At this time, he did not want any honorifics. He did not even want his own mother. This thing was his life now. It was a life that he could not lose.

"Useless. It's really like raising a dog."

Su Muran mocked viciously. She and Lu Qin weren't in love or killing each other. They didn't have love to begin with. They hated each other, but they had to tie each other up, who asked them to have a common enemy.

As for Lu Qin, he heard that sentence too. He opened his hand and looked at the thing in his hand. His eyes were wild and vicious.

Yes, he was the dog that Su Muran kept by her side. In this world, there weren't only dogs that bit people. Dogs that didn't bite people were scary.

Su Muran twitched her mouth at Lu Qin's face. However, she suddenly licked her dry and cracked lips. Why did she always feel that there was a strange taste in her mouth today, could it be because of the drink she drank in the coffee shop? How could there be such a taste? She also knew who invented it. It was really disgusting.

She walked into her room and licked the corner of her lips. The taste was really bad.

She put her things away and walked into the bathroom. Then, she reached out to turn on the tap and put her hand under the tap. She also started to do it. Suddenly, she raised her face, she opened her mouth and saw herself in the mirror. Suddenly, she let out a scream.

Lu Qin only raised his eyelids in a drunken stupor. He didn't even bother to pay attention to her.

She wouldn't be able to live for long. Only an idiot like you would believe that you could live if you replaced all the blood in your body with clean blood. Even if you replaced it with clean blood ten times., it would be useless. He would still die in the end.

The doctor had already given Su Mulan an injection. This time, Su Mulan's gums were bleeding. It wasn't a good thing. There was always something hidden behind such an inexplicable bleeding.

"Miss Su, you must be hospitalized as soon as possible."

The doctor advised Su Mulan, "This is good for Miss Su's health."

Su Mulan was already used to being hospitalized or given injections. She was also numb. Over the past few years, she could not remember how many injections she had received.

There was still an uncomfortable taste in her mouth. She had always thought that it was the strange smell left behind by the things she drank. However, she did not know that it was not a strange smell, but her blood.., she continued to drink her own blood.

However, how precious was the blood on her body? Others might not know, but could it be that she herself did not know?

She had spent a lot of effort to obtain this body of blood. Who would know? No, she had to act quickly. She was about to obtain the blood of the three little brats so that she could live.

The smell that came from her mouth from time to time reminded her that she was drinking her own blood. This kind of knowledge made her want to kill someone. She wanted nothing more than to destroy everything, outside, the Doctor found Lu Qin. Lu Qin was as thin as a living ghost. Even if Qin Xiaoyue was here, she might not recognize her son. There was only a layer of skin wrapped around his bones, her previous appearance was also nowhere to be found.

"Miss Su's condition is very bad."

The doctor absolutely did not dare to mention this to Su Mulan. He could only find Lu Qin. After all, Lu Qin was the only person by Su Mulan's side now.

I have already obtained Miss Su's blood test report. Right now, it was not just a problem with her blood. The most serious problem for her was the exhaustion of multiple organs in her body.

"What if I have to change her bone marrow again?" Lu Qin asked the doctor. Naturally, he didn't want to imagine how wonderful it would be. He thought that he was trying to find a way for Su Mulan to live. Was this woman Su Mulan Dead or Alive, what did it have to do with him? He just wanted to know whether Su Mulan still had a way to live and how long she could live. How Long would he have to stay before he could prepare a way out for himself.

"This is not a bone marrow problem." The Doctor was also telling the truth in front of Lu Qin. Of course, he had never thought of Lu Qin as that Lu Qin. He had only thought of Lu Qin as Su Mulan's man. Of course, he could also think of Lu Qin as a family member. Of course, there were some things that had to be discussed with the family members.
