

Chapter 2051: he doesn't want you anymore

Outside, the golden sunlight had penetrated through the thick clouds and brought some hope for a sunny day. However, what disappointed people was that.

Today was gloomy.

"What, you don't care about your mother anymore?" Su Muran looked at the mirror with foundation in her hand. She patted the foundation on her face from time to time. Recently, her complexion had been pretty good. It was still very good, perhaps this was what other people said about people having good news and feeling refreshed. Right now, she was having good news. Although two of the three children had run away, one of them was the most important, and this was the most important., but it was the most compatible with her blood type. When she drew all the blood of that little bastard into her body, she would be able to live a long life like an ordinary person.

That's right, she threw the foundation in her hands.

"Lu Qin, I think they already know that you're not dead, so they're making an example out of your mother. Your Mother is now taking the blame for you. If you don't appear, your mother will go to jail for the rest of her life."

Lu Qin lifted his eyelids indifferently. "You don't deserve to mention the word 'mother' to me."

Yes, Su Muran didn't deserve it. She was completely unworthy. She didn't even care about her own mother, so how could she care about other people's affairs?

"She's too embarrassing for me." Su Muran had no intention of bringing Zhu Xianglan back. What was the use of bringing her back? Zhu Xianglan was of no help to her. The Su family had chased her out, Zhu Xianglan was now a good-for-nothing, a beggar. Now that she had a man, why would she bring him back? was she embarrassing her?

Anyway, she loved herself the most now. She did not love anything else.

As for Lu Qin, she wanted to know if he was that ruthless. was he going to save her mother or stay here and not leave.

"If you want to leave, I won't keep you." Su Muran sneered. "Anyway, you can't betray me. If you go back, you won't be able to come out again. Of course, if you're still alive."

The threat from Su bed miscellaneous also made Lu Qin's expression turn extremely ugly.

Yes, indeed, his expression was very ugly, and Su Muran's meaning was very clear.

"Lu Qin, if you go back, there will only be death. If you want to live, if you want to die, that's your business. Anyway, if you die, no one will be able to catch me."

By then, she would have finished changing her blood and could go abroad to live a good life.

Of course, Lu Qin could also choose to live freely. He could either go back to prison for the rest of his life, or he could change his appearance with her and become a new person. He could live a carefree and happy life outside and have whatever he wanted, he could only get what he wanted, and everything was in Lu Qin's mind.

Of course, Lu Qin was not stupid. He naturally wanted to live, not die, and not live half-dead, which was more painful than dying.

Even if he had to give up on Qin Xiaoyue in the end.

"It seems that he doesn't want you anymore."

Lei Qingyi was not making sarcastic remarks. He was telling the truth now. It was obvious that they had set up such a good trap, and Qin Xiaoyue was also very cooperative. They had also designed it flawlessly, however, there were people who refused to acknowledge their mother, so there was nothing they could do.

"Stop being so mysterious." Qin Xiaoyue just could not stand Lu Yi's stupid things, "My Son is already dead. What else do you want to Do?" She ground her teeth and continued to shout at the top of her voice. You still said that he was not dead. You really know how to talk nonsense. "My Son is the most filial. If he is really not dead, why didn't you save me? "My Son is dead. He is already dead."

Lei Qingyi's face was splattered by Qin Xiaoyue's spittle, and his face was frozen.

"How about I get someone to take you to the morgue to take a look. is that corpse your son's? You take a good look and identify it inch by inch."

Qin Xiaoyue was stunned and her mouth shut.

"I'm just feeling it now." Lei Qingyi touched her chin, "Back then, you didn't deliberately insist that the corpse belonged to your son. After all, anyone can make a mistake. But as a mother, you can't make a mistake. And you deliberately wanted us to think that Lu Qin was already dead. So, you just assumed that your son was dead so that Lu Qin could get away with it, right?"

Qin Xiaoyue gritted her teeth and didn't reply. Of course, she couldn't tell whether Qin Xiaoyue had the same thoughts or not, it didn't matter now.

Anyway, Lu Qin and the others were looking for her while Qin Xiaoyue was still looking for her.

The Sky's net was long and wide, yet it was still there.

They would capture Lu Qin and of course, they would save their little xun as well.

However, they couldn't use Qin Xiaoyue anymore because they had released the news for a long time, but there wasn't any news about Lu Qin at all, so they had to make another plan.

Lu Qin wouldn't care about Qin Xiaoyue anymore, and whether Qin Xiaoyue lived or died had nothing to do with him

However, they didn't know where Lu Qin had taken Xun Xun, the woman who looked like Yan Huan. He had already checked everything, but none of them were suitable for him, there was also no such suspect. Of course, the most likely and most suspicious person was none other than that Yang Keke. However, Yang Keke and the rest had already investigated and indeed had evidence of her alibi, her face was still swollen, so the possibility of her taking Xun Xun away was not high. If they could not make it through Yang Keke's place, then they did not know where to look for the second person who looked like Yan Huan, to be able to have such a clear understanding of the children's lives, they were actually able to take the children away.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had already returned home. They were well taken care of by their grandmother. They had good food and adults to coax them every day, but as for Xun Xun, not to mention Lu Yi., even as an uncle, his heart ached whenever he thought about how Xun Xun had been bullied and did not have enough to eat.

How was their adorable Xiao Xun? Did he eat or drink? was he afraid? was he beaten.

This Lu Qin was really a bastard. If he had found him, his bones would definitely have been broken.

At this moment, the ruthlessness that came from Lei Qingyi almost made Qin Xiaoyue Shiver involuntarily.

A Bun was separated from the middle, and a doctor wearing a white coat sat on the ground. Then, he gave the half of the bun in his hand to the dirty child sitting on the ground. There was still blood on the child's forehead, the wound was a little scabbed, but it still looked very shocking.

Chapter 2052: the kind doctor

"Eat."The doctor placed the bun in front of the child. It was a little girl, a very beautiful little girl. She was only three or four years old. The clothes on her were dirty, and she had not changed for several days. There was blood and dirt on it. The little girl was very dirty. Only her eyes were very big, and she was also very beautiful.

The little girl took half a bun and put it by her mouth before biting it.

With a bang, the door outside was pushed open. The doctor quickly stood up and pushed the little girl inside so that she could carry the person on her back.

Su Muran walked in and was a little impatient. "How is it? Have you finished checking? When can you change my blood?"

When she saw the child on the ground, her eyes were filled with unconcealed disgust.

"Miss Su, I want to check you first."The Doctor had already taken out all the things he needed and then took out the syringe. Su Muran knew what he was going to do. He was going to draw her blood again, and she hated drawing blood now., she did not have that much blood in her body to begin with. If all the blood was drawn out for her, what was she going to live for? But in the end, she still stretched out her arm. The Doctor took the syringe and drew out some of Su Mulan's blood.

Su Mulan retracted her arm. She did not like this kind of thing. Even though she had been living like this for the past few years, drawing blood every few days for a test, her blood was also drawn out like this.

The Doctor put the tube away and pointed at the dirty little girl who was hiding under his feet.

“The injury on that child’s head also needs to be treated.”

Su Muran narrowed her eyes. “What do you mean?” She still needed to care about that child’s matter. What she wanted was her blood. What did her injury have to do with her?

“Miss Su, you’ve been in the hospital for a long time, haven’t you?” The doctor asked the expressionless Su Muran. Su Muran’s nostrils were a little angry, and she turned her face away. She did not like to answer such a question.

“Then you must also know that if a person is injured, there will be infections, fever, and a series of diseases, right?”

“If that’s the case...” the Doctor explained in his own professional terms, “There will be a certain amount of virus in her blood. At that time, it’s impossible for her to give you blood.”

As Su Mulan listened, she felt a little unhappy. However, she could not deny that what the Doctor said was completely normal. She would not want the poisoned blood. She wanted to save her life, not commit suicide.

“Do as you see fit.”

Su Mulan stood up and turned to leave. She held her arm and glared fiercely at the child who was curled up in the corner

“Also, Miss Su...” the doctor still had something to say. “Give her some good food.”

“Why?” Su Mulan frowned. She had put in so much effort and plotted for so long. Not only did she have to reform Yang Keke, but she also had to think of a way to dig Lu Qin out of prison, only then would she be able to get this little brat out. Don’t tell her that she had brought him here to provide good food and drinks.

“This child is seriously underweight.” The Doctor was just stating the facts and did not mean anything else, “Her weight is too light, so she won’t be able to draw much blood. It Won’t be of much use to miss su’s body.”

Actually, the doctor had always wanted to say this in his heart

Even if ten of these children came and replaced the blood on Su Muran’s body a few times, Su Muran would still not be able to survive in the end. This was because her illness had nothing to do with blood, but with the deterioration of her organs, even if all her organs were replaced, it would still be impossible for her to survive.

He originally wanted to leave, but he was unwilling to accept this patient. This was not a disease of the body, this was a disease of the brain.

However... he turned around and glanced at the little one hiding in the corner.

How Old was this child? Was it three or four years old? Or was it even younger.

He walked over and squatted in front of the child. The child was not afraid of him, but she had a pair of beautiful big eyes. This child was really very pretty.

He reached out and picked up the child. He then placed her on the hospital bed and took a box of medicine.

“Baby, Uncle Wants to treat your wound. It might hurt. Don’t cry.”

The doctors were helpless. Even an adult could not bear such a big child, let alone a small child.

The child gently sniffed his nose and occasionally sobbed.

The child’s head hurt the moment he touched it. The doctors could clearly feel that the child’s small body was trembling, but in the end, he did not Dodge.

The wound on his forehead was treated with good medicine. However, the child’s small arms and legs also had many injuries on his body.

However, Su Muran still knew some things. At the very least, the food given to the child was a little better, and he did not abuse her anymore. However, the child was not willing to speak. He just hid in that small corner, no one knew what he was thinking.

“When can the surgery be carried out?”Su Mulan asked again. She was extremely uncomfortable and very impatient. Her body also felt much worse than before. She urgently needed blood now, she also needed to live.

“Miss Su, there is nothing wrong with your body. However, the blood is not very clean now, so you still need some time to remove the poison. Otherwise, even if you change the blood, there will still be poison in the blood.”

The doctor had been talking to Su Mulan for a long time, and his words were actually very clear.

She was actually not sick, but there was no medicine to treat her. Now, she was desperate to seek help. Unfortunately, the current medical science simply could not save her life. Of course, he was only doing these things for money, and he would not tell Su Mulan the truth, even if he told her, she would not believe him. At that time, no matter how hard she tried to grab onto some life-saving straw, this straw was too thin and weak. He scratched the child, this child was very beautiful.

The child blinked his eyes and a small hand suddenly grabbed the doctor’s finger. That small hand was soft and small. In an instant, the Doctor knew what was going on, and his heart trembled.

It was as if the softest part of the heart had been ruthlessly stabbed, and then there was an indescribable feeling. Children were little angels given to adults by the heavens, and this little angel was beautiful and cute., that pair of big eyes seemed to be able to speak. To be honest, he felt that no matter how cruel and ruthless a person was, they would become soft and kind because of this small face.

Who would be willing to part with such a beautiful child.

“Don’t be afraid.”The Doctor placed the child on the table. She was really too young. He squatted down to make her raise her small face to look at him.

Chapter 2053: was not for an early death

"I'm not afraid. I'll help you. I don't want to do such a thing. If I had known that person wanted me to do such a thing, I wouldn't have come. But I can't Leave Now."

He wanted to find a way to get this little one out. Otherwise, this little one might really be drained of blood in the end. He didn't know what else he could do, and he only had one chance.., if he didn't do it well and was caught, he would immediately bleed out.

"Come, uncle has helped you change the dressing. It might be very painful, so bear with it."

The Doctor took the medicine and carefully continued to treat the wound on the child's forehead. It was just that this wound had been there for too long, and Su Muran didn't treat it, so the blood on it had stuck to his forehead.

Could such a young child endure it? The doctor was really a little worried. This young child looked like a three-year-old. He held the drawing of lots, but the moment he moved, the child would shrink in pain. A pair of big eyes would also stare at him from time to time. Two small teardrops.., he would not fall either. It was really very heartbreaking. He could not even bear to do this. No matter how he looked at it, he felt like he was an executioner.

But in the end, he made up his mind. This child was more obedient than he had imagined. Although it hurt so much that he cried, he did not move.

"You are a brave and good child."The Doctor felt that his heart could not help but feel uncomfortable.

The little girl bit her lips and then shrunk her small body into the corner of the wall. She was so thin that she was almost like a small bone.

The doctor really could not do anything about it.

Su Muran was already abnormal. The child had no idea where she found him. She wanted to drain the child's blood and use it on him. Of course, he did not dare to call the police. Forgive him, everyone was selfish, although he was not selfish, he knew the consequences. If he called the police, his reputation would be ruined and he would not be able to be a doctor anymore.

Of course, he wasn't that bad. He felt sorry for this child and for not having a child. If he didn't have money, if he didn't commit some crimes, if he didn't need a large sum of money to understand this matter.., he would definitely not do such a thing. The problem now was that regardless of whether he wanted to or not, the matter had already come to this.

Forget it. If he could delay it for a day, then so be it. If he could let this child live for another day, then he would live for another day.

This world was cruel to adults, let alone such a big child.

Su Muran could no longer tolerate it.

“When can you have the surgery?” She came over again. This matter could not be delayed any longer. The people on Lu Yi’s side already knew that Lu Qin was still alive. Sooner or later, they would find her.., at that time, she would not even have the opportunity to perform the surgery. She did not have much time. She really did not have much time. If this continued, what would she do? Did she still want to live? Did she still want to leave this place, then, she would leave this place with a healthy body and live a new life. Then, she would live a long life.

The doctor took Su Mulan’s examination report and placed it in front of Su Mulan.

“Miss Su, you can take a look at your blood test report. There are a few things that aren’t very good right now. With your body, no matter what surgery you do, it won’t work. When the time comes, it won’t be to save you, but to harm you.”

“How could this be?” Su Muran took the report. She herself knew how to read these things. It wasn’t because she had studied them, but because she had been ill for too long, so she had become a doctor after a long illness, the numbers on these reports were indeed not very good, and they were very bad

“Miss Su, did you take your medicine on time?”

The doctor asked Su Muran. If she did not take her medicine properly, it was normal for her body to become like this. She did not want to die, so she could not blame others.

“I did.” How could su Muran not take her medicine properly? She prescribed her medicine regularly every day. This was a matter that concerned her life. How could she be careless? How could she be perfunctory? How could she lie.., she was not lying to others. She was lying to herself and her life.

“Then let me take a look at the medicine that Miss Su is taking now.” The doctor still felt that this was not right. According to the medicine that he prescribed for Su Muran, not mentioning how good it would be, it would make Su Muran become a normal person. However.., at the very least, it would make Su Muran’s body better day by day. Of course, this would also be better than some time ago. There was no reason for the medicine that Su Muran took to become worse and worse.

Su Muran reached into her pocket and took out a bottle of medicine.

She was not lying. She had always brought these medicines with her. She had never left them behind, and she had never eaten them wrongly. She ate them several times a day, took a few pills at a time, and even drank a lot of water, she paid attention to them. It was impossible for her to miss them.

The doctor had taken the medicine from Su Muran’s hands. Su Muran’s mind was not on the doctor, but because she was not feeling well anywhere, she was a little confused, she was also unable to concentrate, so she did not notice that the doctor’s expression changed slightly when he held the medicine bottle.

Meanwhile, the Doctor held the medicine bottle for half a day.

“Why, is there a problem with the medicine?” Su Muran narrowed her eyes fiercely. Was it because the medicine was not right? Her mood was not good at the moment, so of course, she was also irritable.

Was there really a problem? Was it because the medicine was not prescribed correctly? The medicine did not cure her, and instead, it treated her badly.

“No.” The Doctor placed the medicine back into Su Muran’s hand. “There’s no problem with the medicine. Miss Su, please take it on time.”

“Then when can I have the surgery?”

Su Muran tightened the medicine bottle and almost screamed. She did not care about anything else now. She just wanted to know when she could have the surgery.

Before the doctor could speak, Su Muran interrupted him. “If you don’t have the ability, then get lost!”

The doctor was not in a hurry. Of course, he did not take Su Muran’s threat to heart, “Miss Su, in your current body, no doctor will perform this surgery for you. You perform the surgery to survive, not to die early.”

The doctor was very straightforward. This was not the responsibility of the doctors. Su Muran’s life was limited to a few years at most, and because she was forced to take these drugs, it was for the sake of performing this surgery, almost all of them were overdrawing her already broken body in advance, and were also depleting her remaining time.

He had told Su Muran, but Su Muran did not believe him. What she believed the most right now was not anything else, but that she wanted to use the blood of a child in exchange for her own blood. This was simply nonsense, however, Su Muran believed it. He still firmly believed it.

Chapter 2054: Don’t gain weight

As for how she died in the end, the doctor could only say one thing. Perhaps this person also had a death wish. Therefore, Su Muran did not die of illness. She had a death wish.

Su Muran grabbed the medicine again and threw it into her bag. She also walked out. However, it could be seen that the viciousness and change in her body were increasing instead of decreasing.

Such great sorrow, great joy, great anger, and great dryness were very harmful to the body.

According to the professional terms of doctors, the best thing for Su Muran now was to enjoy the rest of his life in a good mood. He might be able to live a little longer and live a good life.

Otherwise, when the time came...

However, he had vaguely reminded her of all this, but the patient did not listen to him. There was nothing he could do about it?

When he turned around, he saw the little girl huddled in the corner of the wall. Then, he walked over and squatted in front of the child. Then, he reached out and placed his hand on her little head.

“Listen to your uncle and eat less. No matter who gives you food, you have to eat less, understand?”

The little girl nodded her head sensibly. Her little face was much smaller than when she first came here.

“I can’t put on weight,” the doctor sighed. Yes, I can’t put on weight. I definitely can’t put on weight. If I put on weight, I might be killed.

The sound of footsteps came from outside. The doctor stood up and walked to his desk and sat down. He pretended to look at the things on the desk. Not long after, the door opened and someone came in, he was carrying a carefully prepared meal.

This was all for the child. Of course, he also wanted to fatten the child and then kill the child.

The child's small hands only took a small steamed bun and ate it. She did not move anything else. She pouted her small mouth aggrievedly. She would sniff at the delicious food and snacks from time to time, however, she still listened to the doctor's words. She did not eat so much. She only needed to eat a little every day.

After the people who delivered the food left, the doctor put down the documents in his hands. There was one thing that he did not have an idea about, and that was the medicine that Su Muran had given him, it was obvious that it was not the kind of medicine that he had prescribed for her.

The medicine that he had prescribed for Su Muran was imported from abroad, and the medicine was very expensive. However, the medicine that Su Muran was taking now, although it was the same medicine and had the same ingredients in it, the efficacy of the medicine was far from the same, and taking such a medicine would result in a short life.

Of course, he did not say this out loud.

As for who did this, he did not want to know.

It was better to avoid trouble. This was his way of handling things.

Su Muran shook the medicine bottle in her hand. There were only a few bottles left. She was going to buy the medicine again.

She threw her card to Lu Qin. "Go buy the medicine for me." When she spoke to Lu Qin, it was as if she was talking to a dog. She casually threw the card to the ground.

Lu Qin picked up the card and walked out. He was really like a dog that Su Muran kept. If he was told to go east, he would go east. If he was told to go west, he wouldn't dare to go the other way.

Lu Qin went to the bank to withdraw money. Of course, he bought cheap medicine for Su Muran. He couldn't be blamed for this. It was Su Muran's fault for her short life. It was her fault for treating him not as a human but as a dog, an obedient dog, however, his dog was unhappy now, so he had learned to bite people.

He placed the medicine and the rest of the money on the table. The contempt and contempt in Su Muran's eyes were almost piercing. As for Lu Qin, he had long been used to it.

Su Muran took a bottle of medicine from the table. Then, he poured out a few pills from it and stuffed them into his mouth. Now, he was just waiting for the blood exchange.

Yes, she was just waiting for the blood exchange. She believed that it would not be long.

She suddenly laughed ferociously and pulled up the skin on her face. The skin was also wrinkled together, and her facial features were twisted together in an ugly manner.

It was already the fifteenth day since Yan Huan went missing. To Yan Huan, her days were just waiting. However, to the Lu family, their days were torturous.

Every minute and every second was torturous.

At this moment, no one in the Lu family had a good sleep for a long time. Even when they fell asleep, when they woke up, they would have countless nightmares. And after every nightmare, it would be a new nightmare.

Ye Shuyun held Xun Xun's small milk bottle in a daze every day.

The moment she saw Xun Xun's toys, she would cry

Her Little Xun, her poor Little Xun, how was he now? Half a month had passed, and her little xun had been missing for almost half a month.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had been found, but Xun Xun had not been found.

It was not easy for her little xun to gain some weight. When she found him, she did not know how to make up for it. That child was just like her mother, a picky eater, she was also a child who loved to get sick since she was young. She did not know if those people had abused her little xun.

Thinking of this, Ye Shuyun wiped her tears again.

What should she do? She could not hold on any longer.

It was all her fault. She was the one who had lost Xun Xun.

Lu Jin walked over and placed his hand on ye Shuyun's shoulder. He patted her, "Don't worry, everything will be fine. Yes, everything will be fine. Everything will be fine. Our Little Xun Xun will definitely come back. She is a child born with good fortune. She will not leave us so easily."

Ye Shuyun held the pink milk bottle in her hand tightly.

"Xun Xun needs to drink milk at night. She is too picky with her food and knows how to choose milk powder. Other than this brand of milk powder, she doesn't drink anything else. Moreover, she needs to use her own milk bottle. She has tried to give up on it several times, but she is unwilling."

"I don't know if they gave Xunxun milk powder."

Lu Jin sighed. He couldn't bear to say it. Those people took Xunxun away. He didn't know what they were doing. Perhaps his little granddaughter didn't have any food to eat, so how could she still have milk to drink?

But she was still young. She was only four years old, and she was still a child who drank milk.

Thinking of this, his eyes couldn't help but Redden, and the rims of his eyes couldn't help but hurt, yan Huan opened the door and closed it again. She walked into the room and sat beside Xiao Qi and not only Xiao Guang. The two of them couldn't sleep well until now. They were clearly so obedient., in the past, she was also very obedient when she slept, but now, she slept very restlessly.

“Mommy...”Xiao Guang stretched out her small hand and wanted to grab her mother’s clothes.

“What’s Wrong?”Yan Huan picked Xiao Guang up. “Are you unable to sleep?”

Xiao Guang hugged her mother. She was too attached to her mother.

“Mommy, when will sister be back?”

Chapter 2055: There’s nothing to live for

Yan Huan lied to her son and also to herself.

They all thought that xunxun would be back very soon. Yes, she would be back very soon, and she would be back very soon as well. However, when would she be able to come back? Who would be able to answer her? Who would be able to answer her.

When Lu Yi returned, Yan Huan was still sitting beside her children in a daze. The two children were both asleep, but they had to be next to their mothers. They simply couldn’t leave their mothers.

Lu Yi gently pulled out a blanket and carefully draped it over Yan Huan’s shoulders. Yan Huan lifted her face. She wanted to smile at Lu Yi, but she could not.

“We’ll find her.”Lu Yi also sat down. He held Yan Huan’s hand tightly, but he realized that her fingers were extremely cold. There was almost no warmth at all.

Yan Huan gently touched her red lips, which were also cold. She only held Lu Yi’s hand tightly, but she could not say a single word.

She felt as though she was about to lose her voice as well.

Xunxun, do you know that Mommy Misses You very much?

Xunxun, you must be strong. We’re very obedient, right?

Mommy will definitely find you, so you must be obedient and wait for Daddy and Mommy to save you together.

At this moment, Lu Yi’s eyes were completely bloodshot. He had not slept for several nights, but even so, he still could not fall asleep. All he could do was investigate, and up until now., he still had no way of knowing who had saved Lu Qin. No matter what methods they used, even if they tried to take action against Qin Xiaoyue, there was still no news of Lu Qin, he did not even know how to acknowledge his own mother. How could they still hope to find Lu Qin.

Lu Qin was indeed heartless.

It was no wonder that in his previous life, he would attack him. However, he had underestimated Lu Qin. Even if he was locked up, he would still come out.

Also, he gently stroked Yan Huan's hair. He was really afraid that the incident from his previous life would repeat itself. No, it was not just Yan Huan's previous life. He had also participated in that life. No matter which life it was.., regardless of who Yan Huan ended up with, she had died at Lu Qin's hands.

He was just afraid that they wouldn't be able to escape that fate.

No, he shook his head. Not in this life.

He muttered to himself. He spoke to himself in a voice that only he could hear. It was also a promise to himself. It was also a promise to himself. It was also an oath

"I will not let anything happen to you in this life. No matter what, I will not let anything happen to you. I will not let anything happen to you. I will not let anyone hurt you. I will not let you walk the same path as you did in your previous life."

"And Xun Xun. I will definitely find her."

The sky outside gradually darkened. Another Day passed. This was the sixteenth day of Xun Xun's disappearance. It was more than a day in half a month. However, time was really too long for them, as the days passed, every second passed. It was as though their hearts were in pain.

The wind outside blew the leaves until they rustled. After which, the ground became desolate.

There was a 'Ka'sound. It was as though a tree branch had broken off. After which, it smashed heavily onto the ground.

In such a lonely night, only the street lamps on both sides could accompany each other. The light that shot into the sky seemed to have become dim.

The stars in the sky flickered with light that was tens of thousands of light years ago. The light from the street lamps was too weak, so they could not reach there. The light could only extend outwards, there were also moths that had already pounced upwards.

At this moment, on such a night.

With a Kacha Sound, a thick tree branch really smashed into the ground. It almost smashed into a woman's body. The woman hurriedly took a step back. Her body was also tattered, the clothes on her body were smelly and dirty, and the shoes on her feet were made of mud and soil. Not only that, the front of the shoes had long been worn out, half of her big toe was also sticking out from the inside.

The woman patted her chest, thinking that she must have been quite scared. Actually, she could be called a woman because she still had a female figure.

No matter how hard she patted her chest, she was still patting it vigorously. Since it was such a big chest, it was impossible for her to flatten it. And with a woman, of course, she was not afraid. She could pat it however she wanted, at the very most, she could stuff another piece into it.

Anyway, the two pieces were stuffed with something. They were fake.

And this woman was none other than Zhu Meina.

Zhu Meina looked up at the sky and sighed heavily.

She couldn't help but touch her chest again. It was only skin and flesh, there was nothing on the outside. Yes, there was nothing on the outside. She looked up at the starry sky speechlessly. It was clearly so beautiful, except for the streetlights.., she couldn't even see her own fingers.

And she herself looked like she had nothing to live for. She lowered her head again and continued to walk forward, and the big toe that was exposed seemed to be laughing at her incompetence.

Wasn't she incompetence? Similarly, they had all left their homes. Why was Yan Huan able to sell all the jewelry he had on him? He could take the train or the car. But for her, she had clearly come prepared, but.., she didn't know where she had taken the bracelet. She was penniless, and in the end, she could only beg for food and go home.

What was even more troublesome was that it wasn't that she couldn't remember her phone number, nor could she remember anyone else's number. The only thing she could remember was that she was from Hai City, but what was the point of remembering all this, she still had to beg for food to go home.

It was only now that she began to truly reflect on herself. What had she lived her entire life to the end, and what contributions had she made to society.

Yan Huan could still have a good reputation. As for her, it seemed that the only person who could think of her in the end was Yan Huan alone. However, Yan Huan was thousands of miles away, and no one knew how far he was relying on her, how far was she going to go?

Forget it. She lowered her head again and looked at the shoes she had picked up from God knows where. She really wanted to slap herself.

"Zhu Meina, no wonder people say that you have big breasts but no brains. You really have big breasts but no brains. It's even more shameless. You actually take pride in the words 'Big Breasts but no brains'. You deserve to be a beggar."

She looked at the endless road ahead. Anyway, she could just walk forward from here. If she had money now, it would be great. At the very least, she could buy herself some clothes and hitch a ride along the road.

She habitually shook her hair, but she did not know how much dust she had thrown out. She had not chosen too much for a long time, and her hair was stuck together. She felt that it was going to be dirty.

Chapter 2056: she was too noble

Perhaps in the end, her hair, which had become hairy balls, had all been cut by a pair of scissors.

She sniffled, feeling wronged.

Not everyone could live up to her level.

There was another car in front of her, and she did not want to stop it. She wanted to take a ride or something. With her current image and appearance, who would pay attention to her? Don't tell her, you can try, if you don't try, how would you know if they would pull you or not.

Did she think that she had not tried? She had tried, she had tried, of course she had tried.

If she had not tried, how could she just resign herself to fate and use her two legs to walk back? It was not like she had stopped them once or twice, but when they saw her ragged clothes, who would be willing to pay attention to her, this was her experience and lesson from the blood and tears she had shed along the way.

And she relied on her two legs to walk forward step by step, rain or Shine, day or night, without stopping

Wiping her face, she could see the dust flying out of her face. It had been a long time since she had washed her face, so why wash her face? At least she was dirty, and no one had any designs on her, it was better to give her that before that. She was still safe. At least, she could walk home like this, however, it shouldn't be too far away. She was already in the territory of Hai City. Although she still needed to walk for a few days, it was only a matter of time.

Right now, she was just killing time. She was just killing her feet.

Also, she lowered her head and looked at her big toe that was exposed outside. She hoped that this pair of shoes would be able to last until she returned to Hai City. Otherwise, she would have to wait for her to get a new pair of shoes before they rotted, okay, this should at least give her some hope so that she could return home.

The sound of the wind rustled in her ears, but her face was already covered with tears.

It was true.

She had already smelled the smell of Hai City, and also smelled the water vapor unique to Hai River. Although she was not born in Hai City, she grew up in Hai City.

How could she not know what hai city was like.

She had arrived, yes, she had arrived. In a few more days, she had to carry on.

And just like that, she walked back to hai city on her two legs. She had forgotten how long it had taken, and she could not remember it clearly. She only remembered that she had spent the night here, the next day, she would sleep in that Ge la jiao again. Just like that, she was safe and sound. When she arrived at Hai City, she had tears streaming down her face. She wanted to wipe away her tears of sympathy.

This familiar city, this familiar smell, this familiar person.

Hai City, Ah Hai City, I still have the life to see you. In this life, I haven't lived in vain.

Now, I can be considered a person who walked out of a storm.

And this time, she didn't come back to the Su family. The Su family, hmph, the Su family. They would settle the score later. She was going to find Yan Huan Now and let him know that those two people were in cahoots with each other. She also had to be careful of the child, but what she didn't know was that it wasn't a matter of carelessness. The child had already been lost. As for how the child was lost and who attacked them, Zhu Meina was probably the only person in this world who knew.

However, Zhu Meina stopped again. The garden of detention was too far away. If she relied on her feet, who knew how long she would have to walk for? Moreover, she was currently in such an empty state. Others might even chase her out, of course, there was another point. She really couldn't walk anymore. If she really went over, she might not walk, but crawl.

She had no way of entering the Lu family. Should she steal a piece of clothing, but she would be arrested and beaten half to death?

Forget it. She shook her head. If she couldn't do all this, then what should she do? What should she do?

Right, she went to look for Lu Yi. This place wasn't very close to the Procuratorate. It was only when she stood at the gate of the Procuratorate that she remembered that this procuratorate was no longer the same person as before, this place had long been useless. The Procuratorate had moved to the lower part of the Liuyuan Garden. In other words, she had no way to ask for help again.

No, her eyes suddenly lit up, and then a layer of dust appeared.

Wasn't there a safety hall? This place was quite close to that person's safety hall. If she couldn't find Lu Qin, could it be that she couldn't find Lei Qingyi.

She pulled out her hair that was stuck together again, but she touched a hand of dirt and dust that flew up. As for the curvature and the beauty, she couldn't find anything.

Dream on.

Zhu Meina moved her two legs again and walked forward step by step. She hoped that this time her luck would be better and that she would be able to enter someone's door. She hoped that she would not be chased out like a beggar.

This city was glamorous and beautiful no matter where it was. Of course, it was stylish and tall. However, she was implicated by a beggar who was covered in dust. She was so sad that she hung her head in dejection, other people would stay as far away from her as they could. They would also avoid her. There were even quite a number of people who pinched their noses, dismissing her as dirty and smelly.

She was smelly and dirty. She felt that she was now tall and big.

Her thoughts were so pure and her person was so noble. Her entire body was filled with a mesmerizing fragrance. Where could she find someone like her? Her heart was now so beautiful. Who could compare to her now?

She was sacrificing herself for others, and her thoughts were pure. Otherwise, would she be like this now?

Of course, her words were just words. Even if she had promised Su Muran back then, she might not have gotten any benefits. In the end, Su Muran would either sell her or kill her.

That woman was not normal now. She was not alone. She was a devil, and she was the most terrifying devil. Such a devil could do anything, and would dare to do anything.

If she made a deal with a devil, she would also become a devil and be eaten by the devil.

Her rejection at that time was really a rejection. Hehe, she sneered. The dust on her face might have fallen down another layer.

Who Was she afraid of? For a short-lived devil like Su Muran, even if she had the Su family's support, what could she do? Abducting women and children and helping Lu Qin escape from prison was enough to make her suffer a few times. Even if she did not die of illness, she would still have to go to prison until she died. She would be imprisoned for the rest of her life just like Lu Qin who was already dead.

When she thought of this, she could not help but laugh wildly when she thought of SU Muran's fate in the near future.

Her ferocious gray face and her strange laughter also caused the others to back off. Almost no one dared to stand within three meters of her.

Chapter 2057: she was back

She still stepped on her shoes, which had already exposed two big toes, and went to the safety hall, hoping to meet someone she knew. However, when she arrived, she did not know whether she was disappointed or desperate. Lei Qingyi did not seem to be there, when those people saw her like this again, it was as if she was a lunatic from somewhere. They also unceremoniously chased her out.

She turned around and looked at the tall buildings behind her. They were so tall that they were all representatives of Hai City. However, she couldn't even enter. She had contributed a lot of money to this place, but in the end., in the end, what kind of people didn't even want to look at her.

She found a place for herself to sit down. As expected, everyone avoided her. No one was willing to pay attention to her, and they were even a few meters away from her.

However, it was not a bad thing to dress like this. At the very least, it was quiet beside her. There was not even a single person disturbing her.

Zhu Meina raised her face. The weather today was quite gloomy. Of course, it was also foggy. Dried leaves had fallen all over her body. Even the cleaners were not willing to come in front of her.

Actually, she could understand. Of course, she did not blame anyone. If it was the past her, she would also be like this. She would stay far away from such people. Of course, she looked down on them in her heart. Until now, when she was truly a beggar., only then did she realize how innocent they were and how helpless they were.

Perhaps there were many people like her who couldn't return to their homes or recognize their loved ones.

She stood up again and prepared to go to the Su family first. The SU family was the closest right now. However, when she bitterly walked over, the guards outside didn't listen to her explanation. Of course, they also didn't believe her, she was Zhu Meina. She had chased them out for her.

Just you wait. She stretched out her finger and pointed at those people. When I go back, I will definitely not let you off. I will make all of you follow me and get lost.

As for those guards, who would put a beggar's threat in their eyes? They would do whatever they were supposed to do. During that time, they did not even look at her or pay attention to her.

Her stomach growled as well. She had not eaten for a long time. She had forgotten what kind of life she had been living in the past half a month. She had always picked up things that others did not want from the rubbish heap, she had been drinking the water left in the bottle that others had thrown at her. That was how she had lived. If not for the tap water, she would not have jumped into the sea to drink water.

However, she touched her stomach and it let out a gurgling sound again. Right now, she only wanted to know where she was going and where she could go. She had a home that she could not return to, but she could not see her family.

She moved her legs and walked forward. No matter how far away she was, she had to find Yan Huan. She believed that no one in this world would be able to recognize her. However, Yan Huan would definitely meet her at Yan Huan's party.

However, after taking a few steps, she was already famished. Coincidentally, a wave of pain came from her stomach, and it felt as though her intestines were about to be twisted.

What was wrong with being sick at this time? She hugged her stomach and found a place to sit down. Initially, she thought that the pain would be over in a moment, and she would be fine in a moment. However, the pain was getting more and more unbearable. She was in so much pain that she was sweating all over. If she rubbed her stomach, who knew how much mud would come out.

No matter how painful it was, could she find something to eat first? She had been hungry for a long time, but the pain was endless. It was so painful that she did not even want to eat. She also curled up into a ball.

However, people nowadays followed the good qualities of an old man who had fallen. For a beggar like her who was about to die from the pain, no one would be willing to help her. She was in so much pain that she was dying, however, no one looked at her.

She wanted to ask for help, but she could not even speak. She could only endure the pain that twisted her intestines again and again

"Auntie, What's Wrong?"

At this moment, a heavenly sound descended. It made Zhu Meina, who was in so much pain, feel as if she was alive. There was someone, there was someone.

Yes, there was someone. Could she be saved? She didn't want to die. She couldn't die yet. She hadn't lived enough. Her good days had just officially begun. She hadn't seen those two B * tches receive the punishment they deserved, how could she be willing to let her die like this? How could she be willing?

Therefore, she couldn't die. She absolutely couldn't die.

She stretched out her hand, wanting to grab the hand that was reaching towards her, but she didn't hear clearly what the other party called her, Auntie.

Yes, Auntie. When did she become an Auntie? No, she was already an Auntie. She was already in her thirties. If she wasn't an Auntie, would she still want to be an older sister?

Without any explanation, she grabbed onto the corner of the other person's clothes, as if she was grabbing onto a life-saving straw

"Save, save me..."

She covered her stomach with her hands. The pain caused her entire body to twitch, and her entire body was covered in sweat. The sweat almost drenched her clothes.

"Auntie, are you in pain somewhere?"

It was this childish voice again. Zhu Meina raised her face, which was dirty and colorless, and was also pale from the wind.

The one squatting in front of her, whose clothes were being pulled by the corner, was a student in a school uniform..

An adult..

No, it was a child. The child had a very childish appearance, good skin that only children had, and the school badge on his clothes, the school badge of a small school in Hai City.

This was a student, a primary school student who had the body of an adult.

He was so tall even when he was squatting. How tall was he when he stood up? was he 1.8 meters or 1.9 meters.

Zhu Meina was in so much pain that she couldn't even make a sound. She narrowed her eyes. Why did she feel that this child looked so familiar? Yes, he looked too familiar. Where had she seen him before.

Small.

And her voice was so small that it was almost soundless.

"Small..." no matter how much pain she endured, beads of sweat fell from her forehead.

"Little Lei Zi, are you little lei zi?" She tugged at the child's school uniform again.

It was little lei zi, yes, it was little lei zi, it was little lei zi's.

He was Lei Qingyi's son. Perhaps in the entire hai city, there would never be another elementary school student who was this tall.

"Auntie, do you know me?" Little Lei Zi was puzzled. Those who knew his nickname were all acquaintances. Why did this beggar Auntie know his name? Or was he already very famous? Yes., he was already very famous. who asked him to be so tall? He was the tallest child in his class. No, he was the tallest in the entire school.

Chapter 2058: I am your beautiful aunt

Therefore, this beggar aunt should know him.

And if Zhu Meina knew that she had become a beggar aunt in Little Thunder, she did not know how much pain she would feel and how much her heart would hurt. She was not a beggar aunt, she was his beautiful aunt.

“Little Thunder, Little Thunder...”

Zhu Meina held on tightly to Little Thunder’s school uniform. She was afraid that she might really faint from the pain.

“I am your Meimei Auntie. Tell your auntie to come over and look for me. I have something, something...”

She only said a few words and her body was covered in cold sweat. She could not even speak for a while.

“Aunt Mei Mei?”

Little Lei was still a little confused. Where did this beautiful aunt come from. “... She’s obviously a beggar aunt. How Is She Beautiful?”

That’s not right. Little Lei’s eyes widened. He carefully looked at Zhu Meina’s facial features. This seemed to belong to that Aunt Mei Mei. Aunt Mei Mei was a very nice person., every time he went, she would bring a lot of delicious food to him and his younger siblings.

As for children, those who had milk were their mothers, and those who were given food were their fathers. Although little lei zi was tall, it could not be denied that he was still a child. He was a very, very young child, and the person in his heart was the best, he was given good food, and Zhu Meina was born to be someone who liked to give food to children.

Of course, Yan Huan’s three children did not eat less, and he himself did not eat less either. Therefore, he really remembered this Meimei Auntie. He still remembered very clearly that this was Meimei Auntie’s, it was that Meimei Auntie’s.

It was Meimei Auntie’s. Why wasn’t she beautiful?

Then, what should he do now? Little Leizi did not know what to do either. He scratched his head, and Zhu Meina was about to faint from the pain.

Oh right, he should go to the hospital and have uncle he take a look. Shouldn’t he go to the hospital first when he was sick?

He pulled on Zhu Meina’s arm. After all, she was still a primary school student, so he did not know if he would break his Meimei Auntie’s arm if he continued to pull on her like this.

Of course, Jumeina was in so much pain that she almost didn’t scream

Child, this is your aunt’s arm, not lotus. If you continue to pull her arm, you’ll only be able to have one arm. Are you trying to save her, or are you going to tear her apart.

Jumeina was in so much pain that she couldn’t speak. She could only cry in her heart.

Children, Little Lei Zi, although you are a primary school student, you are so tall. Can’t you carry your beautiful aunt on your back? which time did the snacks not have you? If there are three children, there will be you, look at your beautiful aunt treating you so well. You have grown so tall for nothing. How can your head be so simple?

Yes, Little Thunder's head is quite simple because he's still young. How Old is he? Of course, he doesn't know anything?

Little Thunder would pull on Zhu Meina's leg, then pull on her arm. Finally, he remembered that he had to carry Zhu Meina on his back.

Zhu Meina had not eaten properly for half a month. Now, she was so hungry that she was only skin and bones. Even if she was not skin and bones now, in fact, she was just like skin and bones. That pitiful look.., she really only had a handful of small bones.

If it was the old her, perhaps little thunder would not be able to carry her. After all, Little Thunder was still a child.

But now, Zhu Meina was as thin as a ghost. According to Little Thunder's weight and height, it was not difficult to carry her Little Thunder hung his school bag around his neck and carried Zhu Meina on his back.

It was actually a good thing that Zhu Meina was very light now. Little Thunder carried her very easily. It was also thanks to Little Thunder's height. If he was an ordinary primary school student.., perhaps even if he was pressed to the ground, it would be impossible for him to carry an adult on his back. Therefore, Zhu Meina was lucky this time. She met a simple little thunder, a primary school student.., and a very tall primary school student. Otherwise, even if she wanted to help, it would be useless.

She would definitely die from the pain.

"Little Thunder, Little Thunder..."

Zhu Meina was really about to faint from the pain.

"You asked your aunt to come and see me. I have something to tell her."

After she said this, she could only break out in cold sweat. She could only cry out in pain. The cold sweat on her body fell down. The fierce one that fell almost dehydrated her.

The other person was already dehydrated, but she was good. She was sweating so much that she was almost dehydrated.

Little Leizi remembered. He carried Zhu Meina to the hospital and went to find a doctor

Little Leizi was very smart. Of course, he was also very young. So even if he brought Zhu Meina to the hospital, he did not know that he had to register first and then find a doctor. He directly carried Zhu Meina to he Yibin's place, of course, he knew where Bao Yibin's office was. Ever since he was young, his vaccination was always given at he Yibin's place. He did not know how many times he yibin had stabbed his little buttocks.

His understanding of He Yibin started from the pain. He would never forget these painful memories for the rest of his life. Therefore, he always felt that little brother Ningning was quite pitiful to have a father like he yibin, how many needles would he have to take to get this butt.

Of course, he also knew where he Yibin's office was. Even if he closed his eyes, he could still find it.

With a bang, he threw Zhu Meina to the ground. He had actually forgotten that this was a human, not a sack. Even if it was a sack, he couldn't just throw it like this, right, but he just had to throw it like this.

He almost didn't kill Zhu Meina. If Zhu Meina really died in the end, it wouldn't have been from the pain, but from Little Thunder's fall. It would have been from Little Thunder's anger.

Only then did little thunder knock on the door, and soon the door opened.

"Yo, Little Thunder, why are you here?"

He Yibin was indeed here, and almost all the things he killed were here. Whether it was a storm or rain, he came to the hospital on time.

He thought it was someone, but it was little thunder.

With little thunder's height and wearing the school uniform of a primary school student, he might be the only one in the entire hai city. As long as the school had a sports meeting or something, he would participate in all of it, of course, getting first place was a simple matter as long as the school did not restrict his height.

Right, why was he here today?

"Hello, uncle he..." lei zi happily lowered his head and let he Yibin touch his head. He was too tall, and he yibin was not short either, but it was impossible for him to touch the head of a child who was even taller than him.

He Yibin touched the little thunder head, "Is something wrong, come to find uncle he?"

Chapter 2059: Surviving a catastrophe

"No, no."

Little Leizi hurriedly shook his head and denied it. Then, he extended his finger and pointed at the half-dead Zhu Meina on the ground. "Uncle he, look."

Only then did he yibin realize that there was a person on the ground, and it seemed to be a beggar.

Of course, he was a doctor, and he did not discriminate. Whether it was a beggar or a beggar, as long as they came to him, there was only one identity in front of him, and that was the patient.

He Yibin squatted down and also laid her down flat. He saw that this person was hugging her stomach, and the clothes on her body seemed to be soaked through.

"Does it hurt here?" He Yibin pressed his hand on a certain part of the beggar woman's stomach.

The woman kept nodding, but she could not speak.

“It might be acute appendicitis. Let’s do a check-up first. If the result is yes, we’ll have to do the surgery. You...”

He Yibin actually wanted to ask if there were any family members. However, when he saw the woman’s clothes again, he knew that she was a beggar. With that, how could he find any family members.

“Uncle He.” Little Leizi pulled he Yibin’s sleeve.

“She’s Auntie Meimei.”

Was she beautiful?

He yibin sized up this woman who was in so much pain. Her entire body was smelly and dirty. How was she beautiful? She wasn’t beautiful at all.

“She’s Auntie Meimei,” Little Leizi said again.

“Oh, Auntie Meimei...”

He Yibin nodded. A child’s taste in beauty was a little strange.

He quickly found a nurse to check on her first. Later, she might have to undergo surgery. As for the cost, the hospital would settle it first.

Meanwhile, he stood up. Suddenly, he thought of something.

He squatted down and was almost dumbfounded.

“You’re Zhu Meina?”

This woman was Zhu Meina. When he and Rowling lived in the Liuyuan Garden, Zhu Meina would often go there. She liked to let the three children call her aunt Meina the most.

But now, this aunt Meina had become a beggar. What was wrong with her?

Zhu Meina was in so much pain that she couldn’t speak. She could only nod her head, half-dead. Another drop of cold sweat rolled down. It was almost killing her.

“Don’t be afraid. I’ll arrange an operation for you right away.” He Yibin quickly comforted Zhu Meina. He didn’t say anything else. No matter what Zhu Meina’s identity was, they knew each other. Now, let’s not talk about anything else, first, they had to save her.

Zhu Meina’s situation was not much different from what he had expected. She had acute appendicitis, severe malnutrition, and of course, she was hungry. He really did not know how she had ended up like this, how did she end up like this.

Zhu Meina was not someone else, but a member of the Su family. She was also Su Qingdong’s new wife. She was fine. It could not be that inhumane thing, Su Qingdong, who had sold his wife, in the end, it was someone who came back begging, right?

And he was only half right. Zhu Meina was indeed sold by someone, but it was not Su Qingdong who sold her. It was Su Qingdong's daughter who sold her. Zhu Meina was indeed a beggar who came back, so it had to be said that.., bao Yibin was indeed the truth.

After Zhu Meina completed all sorts of examinations, she was already in so much pain that she almost lost consciousness. She was also directly carried onto the operating table. This was not a major surgery in itself. It was only a minor surgery. However, if she did not do it.., it would really hurt Zhu Meina to death.

Even though Zhu Meina was dirty now, it was indeed a very serious challenge for the doctors and nurses in the hospital.

When Zhu Meina woke up, it was already the second day. She had been unconscious for two whole days. According to he Yibin's experience, people would usually wake up in a few hours for such a minor surgery, moreover, it was impossible for it to be a general anesthesia. Only a local anesthesia was enough. Some patients were awake during the surgery, but Zhu Meina slept for a day and a night. Of course, the surgery was one thing, most importantly, she was hungry.

When she woke up, she saw Yan Huan sitting at the side. Her expression was very ugly and her eyes were not very friendly.

"Oh, you're here."She reached out her hand and wanted to shake Yan Huan to greet him.

Yan Huan's face was cold as if he wanted to chop off Zhu Meina's claw.

Zhu Meina quickly retracted her claw and did not dare to say anything more.

"That..."she laughed dryly.

However, she did not know how to explain it. The pain in her stomach made her gasp. Even if it was a small surgery, it was still a surgery. It had also opened a wound on her body, she even had to cut out a part of her intestines. Although it was already broken, it was still her thing.

She was in so much pain that she continuously bared her teeth and grimaced. She was also in so much pain that she broke out in cold sweat. Fortunately, a nurse came over and gave her an injection to relieve the pain. After a while, it might have taken effect, zhu Meina also did not feel that much pain.

It was just a small operation, just like how she performed a c-section to get the child out.

Yan Huan's eyes were still very cold.

Zhu Meina took a few deep breaths in succession. She also knew what Yan Huan wanted to say. He was scolding her for being brainless and not being a good-for-nothing. However, she could not be blamed for this, and right now, she really could not explain anything to Yan Huan. She still had the most important thing to say to Yan Huan.

But just as she was about to speak, she let out a hiss.

It really hurt too much.

“Don’t Scold Me First.”

Before Yan Huan could speak, Zhu Meina hurriedly interrupted her. She really could not scold her, and neither should she scold her. She was not a tortoise. She was here to cause an undeserved disaster.

She was a victim. She really could not scold him

“I have something to tell you.”Zhu Meina also endured the pain. After she finished speaking, it would not be too late to scold her. Throughout the entire journey, she did not need to say how miserable she was. There was still a cut on her stomach, who Did she offend.

“Lu Qin isn’t dead.”She took a deep breath and said this seriously. Of course, she wasn’t joking. She wasn’t joking at all.

“How do you know?”Yan Huan knew that Lu Qin wasn’t dead, so he wasn’t too surprised when he heard the news. However, because it was Lu Qin, she wasn’t surprised, but it was an accident, how did Zhu Meina know about this.

“I’ve seen it,”Zhu Meina was in so much pain that she broke out in a cold sweat. When she went to the airport, she received a call from Su Muran. Then, she told him that she was kidnapped and how did she get out.., and she had to beg her way back to hai city.

Yan Huan endured it until Zhu Meina finished speaking. Her face turned ugly. She quickly took out her phone and called Lu Yi.

Chapter 2060: where did she get a sister from

Meanwhile, Zhu Meina was still nagging,

“You see, I’m a good friend, right? I’ve been begging all the way here because I wanted to inform you when I came back so that you could be prepared.”

Yan Huan put down his phone. It felt like he was going to strangle someone.

Zhu Meina shrunk her neck. She didn’t say anything wrong, nor did she do anything wrong. Why did she have to stare at her like that?

“Zhu Meina, how stupid do you think you are?”

Yan Huan’s curses were like a knife cutting through Zhu Meina’s heart.

“You wouldn’t have informed us and insisted on walking back on your own.”Yan Huan really wanted to strangle this stupid woman to death.

“I forgot my cell phone number.”Zhu Meina also wanted to do so. She didn’t have money, nor did she have a cell phone number. How could she inform them?

“You don’t know how to Ask?”Yan Huan was too lazy to talk nonsense with Zhu Meina. This woman was really stupid at times. She was beyond redemption.

“Who should I ASK?”

Zhu Meina felt wronged in her heart. Was it easy for her? She had been begging all the way back. How hard could it be? She was already in this state, yet she still had to scold her. She was unfamiliar with this place. Where was she going to ask.

“You don’t know how to call the police?” Yan Huan squeezed his voice out through the gaps between his teeth, “It’s such a simple logic. Don’t you know that Lei Qingyi is from the safety department and Lu Yi is from the Procuratorate? There’s only one safety department in the entire sea city. With such a procuratorate, don’t tell me you can’t even call the police?”

The corner of Zhu Meina’s eyes twitched.

How could she have forgotten about this?

She could only laugh dryly. She was also in pain. With a red face, she let Yan Huan scold her like a dog.

Not long after, Lu Yi and Lei Qingyi came over.

“Are you sure it’s Su Muran?”

Lu Yi asked Zhu Meina.

Zhu Meina was in pain, but when she heard someone mention Su Muran’s name, her heart ached even more. The more pain she felt, the more she wanted to eat her flesh, drink her blood, and then pull out her tendons and skin.

“Even if she turns into ashes, I can still recognize her. She wanted to attack the three children, but she forced me to do it. However, I didn’t agree, so she sold me out. In the end, I was the one who ran out. Oh right, I still remember the license plate number. I wonder how those women are doing now?”

Lu Yi brought Yan Huan out. Lei Qingyi naturally knew what to do with the rest. Of course, they would also think of ways to save those kidnapped women.

They had thought of many possibilities. For example, Lu Qin had done it himself. His goal was to take revenge on Lu Yi and the Lu family, but they had never thought that there would be another SU Muran in the middle, that was the person they had always ignored and did not take to heart. Indeed, this was the person they had all ignored.

They had all thought that Su Muran was waiting for death, but they had never thought that Su Muran would be involved in all of this.

We went back first.

Lei Qingyi said to Lu Yi, “We need to investigate the SU family first. As for this place, Yi Ji is here. We don’t need to care about it. Zhu Meina is our most important evidence and also a witness.”

Lu Yi placed his hand on Yan Huan’s shoulder.

“Trust me, Xun Xun will find it very soon.” Yan Huan’s emotions were already at a boiling point. The Su family and Su Muran, why were they still lingering around? How long were they going to harm her?

They had killed her mother, repeatedly harmed her, and even harmed her child. She really did not understand how a family like the Su family could still become a famous family. Each and every one of them had such black hearts, were they not afraid of going to Hell after they died?

It was indeed not a good idea to stay in the hospital now. They had yet to find Xun Xun. They wanted to find that little fellow and bring him home.

Lei Qingyi went back to investigate the matter of SU Muran. As expected, just as Zhu Meina had said, Su Muran had already left the hospital and returned very early. This matter., the SU family had not revealed it to anyone, so no one knew that Su Muran had already returned to the country. As for her body, yes, she had indeed not died, but she did not have much time to live either, it was probably a year or two at most.

Lei Qingyi was afraid. Why did Su Qingran want to capture the three children?

Could it be that she wanted to search for the umbilical cord blood again? Or was she crazy? Thinking that she could not live, she did not want others to live.

He did not even dare to think about such a guess. However, no matter what Su Muran wanted to do now, they already knew that the person behind the scenes was not someone else but su Muran.

With a bang, Lei Qingyi kicked open the door of the Su family. Sometimes, it was useless to reason with such a person. It was more convenient to lift a leg.

Su Qingdong walked out from inside. When he saw Lei Qingyi's aggressive look, he felt uncomfortable.

"Lei Qingyi, even if you are the director of the Hai City Security Department, you can't break into someone else's home without permission. I can sue you for breaking into people's homes like this."

Before he could finish his sentence, the threat in his mouth was not finished either. Two more people walked in from outside the door. They were Lu Yi and Yan Huan.

Su Qingdong could only swallow his next words. He stared at Yan Huan with a complicated expression because this was Yan Huan. This was not someone else. This was Yan Huan. This was his daughter, but this was a daughter that he would never be able to recognize in his entire life

You..

He wanted to speak, but he realized that his mouth was very stupid. He did not know what to say.

This was not someone else, this was his daughter.

Where was Su Muran? Yan Huan asked Su Qingdong directly.

"Your sister..."

"I don't have such a sister." What annoyed Yan Huan the most was Su Qingdong saying such words about his sister, "My mother only gave birth to me as a daughter. She never gave birth to any elder sister for me. I just want to know where Su Muran is."

Su Qingdong was also extremely embarrassed by Yan Huan's retort. As for where Su Muran was now..

“She...” Su Qingdong’s voice was very dry. He was also suppressed by so many things. It was as if he had suddenly aged by more than ten years. The only thing he was alive now was his frail years.

“She’s in a hospital overseas.” He didn’t want to mention Su Muran. He couldn’t bear it. Su Muran was waiting for death because he was afraid that Su Muran would be hurt. After all, she had too many enemies in Hai City. She also had Zhu Meina at home, if Zhu Meina made Su Muran angry a few more times, perhaps Su Muran would also be angered to death.

At this moment, there were too many complicated emotions hidden in his eyes. For this biological daughter that was clearly his but could not be recognized.., he sometimes thought that if he had not encountered such a thing, if he had not done those things back then, how great would it have been? He would have had two daughters, and now he also had three lively and cute grandsons.., in the future, if Guo Ji one was with them, then the SU family would not be considered to have lost their roots.
