

Sweet Wife 2061

Chapter 2061: the good deeds done by Su Muran

However, reality was cruel. This daughter had never thought of acknowledging him, nor did she want anything from the Su family. She would never give a child to them, even if the Su family had no descendants, it had nothing to do with her.

And compared to Su Muran, ye Rongsheng's daughter was indeed very outstanding, but it was a pity..

Now that he mentioned his other daughter, how could he not feel heartache? His Muran was now waiting to die, and there wasn't even any medicine that could save her life.

"Are you sure?" Su Muran was waiting to die in a foreign hospital.

"Are you sure?" Lu Yi asked indifferently.

This sentence of waiting to die had to be said. It almost poked at Su Qingdong's heart, and it also stabbed his heart until it was dripping with blood. Although this was the truth.., the truth was often the most hurtful.

And Lu Yi's truth was hurting Su Qingdong's heart.

No, this simply wanted to rip his heart out and make his life worse than death.

And Su Qingdong did not like it. Others used such a tone to curse Su Muran. Su Muran was his daughter. She was the daughter that he had doted on since young.

"Mr. Lu, please be careful with your words." His face darkened as he warned Lu Yi. No matter what, he was still Yan Huan's father. He was also Lu Yi's father-in-law. If they were really related by blood.., Lu Yi wanted to call him 'father'. Was this the way he spoke to his elders?

Before Su Qingdong could finish his sentence, Yan Huan smashed the vase on the side with a bang. The broken pieces also gave the nanny who was standing at the side a big fright.

As for Su Qingdong, he was also frightened.

"Su Qingdong, do you dare to say that your daughter is really waiting to die abroad?"

Yan Huan's voice was like a sharp knife. Every sentence was piercing, every word was piercing to the heart.

Su Qingdong's face was blue and red, but he could not say a single word.

"I don't want to talk nonsense with you." Yan Huan felt disgusted at the sight of Su Qing's face. Once she entered the SU family, she did not even want to breathe. It was clear how much she hated Su Qingdong, how much she hated the SU family.

"I'll ask you again. where is Su Muran Now?"

Yan Huan's face was very dark. She didn't want to talk nonsense, and she didn't want to listen to nonsense either.

"She's..." Su Qingdong suddenly felt that his voice was stuck in his throat. It was difficult for him to blurt it out. He could be tough to anyone, but the only person he couldn't face was Yan Huan.

It was his daughter, this one. He had never thought of acknowledging her as his daughter.

"She's abroad." He closed his eyes. "If you want to see her, I can arrange for you to see her. However, she doesn't have much time left. Can you do it?"

He thought that Yan Huan wanted to take revenge again, and he still had the delusion of using his weak kinship to move Yan Huan. After all, Su Muran really did not have much time left, so could you please forgive her on account that she was about to die., "Forgive her..."

Even if Su Muran had done something in the past, it was all in the past. She had already made up for it with her own life and paid the price. With her status as the daughter of the Su family, after the glory was over., she was just a pitiful woman waiting to die.

"Shut up!" Yan Huan was very annoyed now. She had almost smashed the vase onto Su Qingdong's head, not the ground.

She was fed up with Su Qingdong's hypocrisy.

Lu Yi held her hand and told her to calm down. Losing her temper now would not solve anything. It would only make her panic and lose all her calmness.

"Mr. Su, don't be too full of yourself."

Lei Qingyi was also annoyed. The moment she entered, she had to play dumb for them. That sentence was clearly for Su Muran's sake, but even if Su Muran was going to die tomorrow., she would still be punished by the law today.

"What do you mean?"

Su Qingdong was not a fool. He could smell a different smell in the open and in the dark.

"What do I mean?" Lei Qingyi sneered, "Didn't you say that Su Muran is abroad? You can ask now whether your precious daughter is waiting to die abroad and not doing something shameful."

Lei Qingyi paid attention to his words. Su Qingdong narrowed his eyes, warning him.

"Oh, are you angry? Or are you angry out of embarrassment? Or did Mr. Su secretly participate in this matter?" Lei Qingyi had never been polite when speaking. Su Qingdong had nothing to do with him, he was not a person to him?

Lu Yi walked forward and blocked Yan Huan behind him. He was afraid that Yan Huan would not be able to hold it in any longer and would destroy the SU family. Now, Yan Huan was clearly at the critical point of his outburst.

"Mr. Su, Miss Su helped Lu Qin fake his death and escape from prison. She also kidnapped three of my children. Do you know about this?"

Lu Yi's words were very polite, but it was because he was too polite that it was even more unacceptable. And indeed, Su Qingdong could not accept it.

"What did you say?" He thought he had heard wrong?

"My daughter helped Lu Qin escape from prison and took away your three children?"

"How is this possible?" Su Qingdong did not believe it. It was impossible for him to believe it. Yes, how was this possible? How could Su Muran do such a thing? She was still in a hospital overseas, she could not even have normal activities. How could she help Lu Qin escape from prison and take away the children that the Lu family had protected very well.

Those three children were the lifeblood of the Lu family. They were usually very careful. How could they be taken away.

Moreover, the person who took those children away was none other than his ran ran. This was impossible. This was absolutely impossible. He didn't believe it. No matter what, he wouldn't believe it.

"If you don't believe it, you can go and investigate." Lei Yaoyi was tired. "Mr. SU, please cooperate with our work. I also hope that you can give Miss Su a chance."

If Su Muran knew about the chance he was talking about, she might find it ridiculous. Wasn't it ridiculous? Su Muran had a long life, and it wasn't like she didn't know about it, it would only take a year for her to die sooner or later. However, some people would use this year to do crazy things, and Su Mu was obviously one of them.

Su Qingdong still did not believe it. He took his phone from the table, found a number, and called it. He sent Su Muran there. He did not care about Su Muran in front of others, but in fact., he had always been in contact with Su Muran's attending physician. It was not that he did not love his daughter. On the contrary, he loved his daughter very much and was doing everything he could to protect Su Muran, every day, Su Muran's attending physician would tell him about Su Muran's condition. Recently, he had not said that Su Muran's condition was good and his mood had become much calmer. He was still thinking about whether he should bring his daughter back recently.

Chapter 2062: As long as I say yes

However, what he did not expect was that just as he had this thought, someone told him that his daughter was not in the hospital. Then, who was the doctor talking about every day?

After he made the call, the doctor was still talking about Su Muran's condition like before.

Su Qingdong was not really stupid. He had done a lot of business. Who was lying to him? Did he not have any awareness in his heart? Obviously, he could hear that there was something wrong with the doctor's words. He had not noticed it before, and of course, he did not care. He did not think that the doctor had been lying to him all along.

He could clearly tell that the doctor on the other end of the phone was pretending to be calm. There was also that kind of deception that wasn't hard to detect. This doctor was lying to him. Yes, he was lying to him. He could feel it.

"Let my daughter answer the phone."

He directly interrupted the doctor's voice to tell him that she was safe. He didn't want to hear anything right now. He just wanted to let Su Muran answer the phone. The doctor on the other end was first stunned, then he said that Su Mu was asleep, he waited until she woke up before asking him to pick up. Then he said that Su Muran was still angry. It was best to let her stay calm for a few more days. Then he said that Su Muran did not want to pick up his phone. In short, there were a lot of reasons, the only explanation was that he could not let Su Muran pick up the phone. That was it.

Su Qingdong did not need to ask again. He did not need to personally verify it because he was already certain. Su Muran was not there.

However, he did not know where Su Muran was right now.

When he was facing Yan Huan, he was already embarrassed. Now, he did not even dare to look at his daughter. Of course, he did not have the face to acknowledge her anymore.

Yan Huan coldly pursed his red lips. It was true that some people could not change in their lifetime. This was the seed that Su Qingdong was born with. With such a father, what kind of good daughter could he teach, Zhu Xianglan did not teach Su Muran well, but did Su Qingdong teach his own daughter well? To put it bluntly, he did not Yan Huan would not acknowledge such a father, and he would not let his own child acknowledge such a selfish grandfather. If he really took him seriously, who knew how he would be taught.

As for Su Muran's hiding place, Su Qingdong really did not know, so they did not get any useful information from him. However, there was no such thing as an airtight wall in this world, as long as it was really Su Muran, there would definitely be some clues.

Su Qingdong did not know, but there was one person who knew, and that was Su Ancheng. If the Su family did not have anyone to help Su Muran, how would Su Muran be able to get Lu Qin out of prison? How could he do such a flawless thing? To put it bluntly, Su Muran was just an actor, she could not have thought of such a perfect and flawless method. She had even managed to trick Lei Qingyi, and she had tricked the real Lei Qingyi. Otherwise, they would not have gone through so much trouble, in the end, they found out about her.

When Yan Huan and the others left, Su Qingdong clenched his fingers tightly. His expression was extremely dark. Even if he said that the Su family had not participated, not to mention Lu Yi and the others, even Su Qingdong himself did not want to believe it, yes, he did not believe it

He took out his phone again and dialed a number. He did not want his guess to be correct, nor did he want his suspicions to be correct.

"Dad, it's me."

Su Qingdong was silent for a moment before he finally opened his mouth to ask. His voice was a little difficult and also a little weak.

“Dad, Tell Me, do you know about the things that ran ran did? Perhaps you can also say that you were not involved?”

However, he did not get any answers because the other side directly hung up the phone. However, Su Qingdong already understood.

Su Ancheng knew.

He dialed the number again, but the other side did not pick up the call again.

“Dad, how can you be so stupid?”

SU qingdong weakly pressed his finger between his forehead.

This would never end.

Did they really think that Yan Huan was a soft persimmon and that the Lu family was so easy to bully? They had underestimated the Lu family too much. Of course, they had also underestimated Yan Huan too much. The things that Yan Huan could do were things that they could not even imagine. Of course, they could forget about using that little bit of kinship, all they wanted was to get a compromise from Yan Huan.

This time, even he might not be able to save Su Muran.

Su Muran took the medicine bottle and poured a few pills into her palm. She did not even drink the water before swallowing it. She was already used to the bitter taste of the medicine. Such bitterness.., it seemed to have become a part of her life.

At this moment, the phone that she had placed at the side rang. She took the phone and looked at it. Then, she placed it directly by her ear.

She did not know who was calling, but her expression changed drastically. With a bang, she threw the phone on the table. She almost broke the phone.

The doctor could not believe his ears. Didn't they say that the surgery was not urgent? Why was there a sudden need for surgery.

“Yes, soon. I Can't wait any longer.”

Su Muran pressed her hands on the table. At this moment, the green blood vessels on the back of her hands were very obvious. Of course, she could not help but feel a little afraid.

She had to do the surgery. Of course, she could not wait any longer. If she waited any longer, she would only be waiting for death.

“Miss Su, now is not the time for you to perform the surgery,”the Doctor said the same thing. “Neither you nor that child can do it.”

“No, no, you only know how to say no.” Su Muran was already anxious and uneasy. She pounded the table with all her strength, and even the doctor was shocked by her crazy behavior.

“What do you mean no? As long as I say yes.”

She did not have time. Those people might come tomorrow, so she had to perform the surgery now.

“You have to perform the surgery now.” Su Muran pounded the table again, “The money I gave you is not for you to keep saying that you can’t do this or that. I don’t care about anything now. I just want to perform the surgery. Do you understand?”

“Prepare it for me right now.” Su Muran stretched out her finger and pointed at the operating theater that had already been prepared. She wanted to perform the surgery right now. She wanted to perform the surgery right now. If those people knew about it and they knew about it, could it be that.., if she didn’t do it right now and waited for them to come looking for her, would all her efforts be wasted? If they really found her for him, how would she be able to live?

After Su Muran finished speaking, she had already gone to prepare. She wanted to change her clothes, she wanted to undergo surgery, and she wanted to live.

Chapter 2063: Hurry Up and leave

After Su Muran left, the doctor turned around and glanced at the little girl who was as thin as a kitten. The little girl still had a pair of innocent and big eyes that were filled with fear, she still did not know how to write her own fate?

The Doctor walked over and squatted in front of the little girl. He did not know what to do? Was he really going to drain all the blood from this child’s body? And the consequence of draining all the blood would be death.

She was still such a small child.

He gritted his teeth and touched the little girl’s small head.

He picked up the child, opened a cabinet at the side, and put her in. Then, he put his finger to his lips.

“Shh, Don’t move. Don’t talk. When we are far away, keep running outside, understand?”

The little girl still had her eyes wide open and shrunk her small body. She was obedient and never said a word, which made people think that she was a little mute.

The Doctor closed the cabinet door and then walked out to prepare for the surgery. As for whether the surgery was successful or not, it was none of his business.

Everything was ready. Even Su Muran had already hung the needle. Now, she was waiting for the surgery. She was waiting for her new life so that she could live well in the future. When she closed her eyes.., while she was waiting for her rebirth, the nurse outside ran in in a panic.

“Oh no, doctor, the child is missing!”

“Missing?”The doctor stopped the preparation work in his hands. “How could it be missing? Isn’t it always outside? Go and look for it again.”

The nurse wanted to say something but hesitated. She could only go out and look for it again. However, she looked everywhere but could not find it. Moreover, she was preparing to perform the surgery inside. Where did the child go.

After a while, the nurse ran over again.

“Doctor, I can’t find him.”

The doctor stopped again, and Su Mulan suddenly had a very bad feeling in his heart.

The people outside were rummaging through the cabinets. When the Doctor opened the cabinet again, he saw a small child sitting inside the cabinet. She tried her best to shrink her small body, but she did not make any sound.

The Doctor quietly closed the cabinet door again. “Did you open the door just now?”He turned around and asked the nurse.

“I. . .”The nurse shook her head. “I didn’t.”

“Then did anyone go out?”The Doctor asked the nurse again.

The nurse thought for a moment. This was the same as before. “Only that skinny gentleman goes out at this time every day. Could it be...”

The Nurse’s heart sank. “Could it be that gentleman who took the child away?”

“That’s impossible.”The doctor shook his head and denied it. “He’s Miss Su’s friend. How could he do such a thing? He wouldn’t ignore Miss Su’s life and death.”

“But...”the nurse still thought that it was that person. “He’s the only one who has gone out here. Who else could it be?”

“If it was him, he would have taken the child away long ago. He wouldn’t have waited until now,”the Doctor analyzed in a very orderly manner. However, the corner of his eyes fell on the top of the closed cabinet.

“Isn’t that because he’s about to undergo surgery? He can’t wait any longer.”

The nurse snorted. Before she could finish her sentence, she saw Su Muran standing at the door. Su Muran was holding the back of his hand. She didn’t know how long he had been standing there?

“What are you still standing here for? Go chase after them!”Su Muran saw that the doctor and nurse were still standing there. She almost screamed her lungs out. What were you still doing here? Go and find someone for her. If you can’t find them., don’t even think about taking their money.

Su Muran was also touching her phone on her body. However, after touching it for a long time, she finally remembered that she didn’t have her phone with her at all. She wanted to go and get her phone. She wanted to ask Lu Qin. What was the meaning of this?

Why? Did she want to burn the bridge after crossing it? Did she not want her to live?

She closed the door with a bang and found her phone, but the phone on the other side was always switched off. She was so angry that she almost smashed her phone.

She opened the door again and walked out. Her face was very long. She put on her sunglasses, took the car keys, and prepared to drive out.

The sound of the car engine outside also flashed past.

“Doctor, what should we do?”The nurse asked the doctor. were they going to look for someone, or were they going to stay where they were.

“We first looked around the vicinity. Maybe we were hiding somewhere and fell asleep?”

The earth protection felt that it was also possible. Otherwise, how could a little one grow wings and fly away?

“Go there and look. I’ll look here again.”The doctor told the nurse to go to another room. The nurse nodded and went to look.

At this moment, the Doctor hurriedly opened the cabinet door. The little girl was still sitting there. Her small face and small body looked especially pitiful. The doctor patted her small head again, then, he carried her out of the cabinet and walked to the door.

He pointed in the direction in front of him.

“Run quickly. This is the best that uncle can do for you. They won’t be back yet. If you encounter a car, remember to hide. You’re small and your target is small. Go find your mother.”

The Doctor Thought for a moment, then took out some money from his own pocket and stuffed it into the child’s small hand. “Uncle, I don’t know if you know how to use these, but take them.”

Then, he pushed the child’s small shoulder. “Hurry up and go.”

After the child ran a few steps, she turned around and bowed deeply to the doctor. The doctor could not help but feel a little sour in his nose. He was glad that he did not go against his original intention of being a doctor, it was also because he did not go against his own morals, so he did not regret it.

He still had to earn money, but if he really had such a small life in his hands, he thought that he might have to spend the rest of his life in a nightmare.

He hurriedly steadied his emotions, turned around, and squatted by the cabinet. He also opened the cabinet door. When the nurse came out, she saw that the doctor was still looking for something. Inside the cabinet and under the table.

“Doctor, there’s no one.”The nurse quickly came over. I’ve looked everywhere, but I don’t know where she went?

“You keep looking here. I’ll go to other places.”The doctor stood up and patted the soil on his clothes. Only then did he go to other places. The nurse searched everywhere, but where did that child go?

That child had been watching her. If she really lost it, Su Muran would skin her alive. Moreover, this was illegal. No, she had to be found.

Chapter 2064: was crazy

At this moment, she did not know that the child she had been looking for was already outside. However, she did not know where to go. She could only keep running forward with her calves, even if she fell to the ground, her small hands were covered with injuries. She wanted to go home. She missed her mother, her father, her grandparents, her great-grandfather, and her two brothers. She wanted to go home.

She wanted to go home to find her mother.

A car sped over. The child carefully hid her small body and watched the car drive back. She had been hiding her small body and did not move at all.

Su Muran stopped the car and walked out of the car herself. Her expression was very bad. Then, the car door opened and an expressionless Lu Qin walked out.

Suddenly, with a slap, Su Muran slapped Lu Zao's face. Lu Qin didn't Dodge but took the slap instead.

Of course, Su Muran was half dead, but when she hit someone, she was no worse than the others.

"Did you let her go?"

Su Muran was so angry that she slapped Lu Qin again. This was all her hope. He actually dared to let her go. She was just one step away from success.

Lu Qin touched his face.

"Do you think it's possible for me?"

Lu Qin asked Su Muran back, "If I wanted to let her go, why would I help you catch her in the first place? Do you really think that if I let her go, Lu Yi would let me go and help me become the Lu Qin of the past? You have already turned me into a dead person."

Su Muran clenched her fingers by her side. It was not that she did not have a brain, nor did she not know how to think. She was just overly angry and overly excited, which was why she did not have the ability to think for a moment.

It was just like what Lu Qin had said. Regardless of whether he let the child go or not, he was already a dead person. Moreover, letting the child go would not benefit him in any way, so he was not the one who did this.

However, if he did not do it, then who did? Would that child fly to the Sky? He actually dared to run. Could it be that he was born by that woman Yan Huan, so he was as treacherous as her mother.

"Find him, all of you!" Su Muran roared at the others. He also did not notice the cold glint in Lu Qin's eyes and the threatening resentment.

Yes, he was resentful. How could he not be resentful.

He sneered.

Su Muran, there is no one in this world who can save you. So, just die. Of course, when you die, all your money will be mine.

At this moment, they did not know that a car had already driven towards them. The person sitting in the car was none other than Su Ancheng. His expression was extremely ugly and it was almost green and white.

After Su Mulan returned, she smashed her room and threw away her medicine. A normal person would not be able to endure such great joy and sorrow, let alone a patient like Su Mulan, in a short while, she clutched her chest. She did not even have the energy to breathe.

She stumbled out and there were sounds coming from her throat.

“Help...”

She grabbed her neck, everything in front of her was spinning. Suddenly, her legs went limp on the ground, and she couldn't even move a single step.

“Ah, ah...”

Her mouth kept making these grunts as if someone was strangling her neck. When Su Ancheng came in, he happened to see Su Muran half-dead, Su Muran's face turned blue, and her hands kept scratching the ground.

Su Ancheng felt his mind go blank. He quickly held onto the wall and managed to stabilize his body.

“Doctor, Doctor...”

He shouted outside.

Fortunately, although this was not a hospital, there were already doctors here. Of course, it was this doctor who saved Su Muran. Otherwise, Su Zhuran might have already prepared for the afterlife.

“How is she?” Su Ancheng asked the doctor, “Is my granddaughter okay?”

“She's fine for now.” The doctor had already put a needle in Su Muran's arm. “However, old Mister Su, you should be mentally prepared. After all, with Miss Su's current body, she might not be able to last long.”

“Didn't you say that you can change her blood?”

Su Ancheng was now like Su Muran. They were already desperate enough to turn to the doctor.

“Can't people with the same blood type do it? What about biological sisters with the same blood type?”

Su Ancheng did not give up and asked the Doctor again.

“My family has a biological sister. Although they were not born from the same mother, they have the same blood type. Their bone marrow is also suitable. It can’t be useless, right? It Can’t be impossible to save them, right?”

Fortunately, Yan Huan did not know about this at the moment. Otherwise, she would have known that it was the right thing for her to not recognize the SU family. No one in the SU family was good, including Su Qingdong.

His granddaughter’s life was her life, but could it be that other people’s lives were not their lives?

He wanted to use other people’s lives to exchange for Su Mu ran’s life, but it also depended on whether the other party was willing. He also did not have the right to take other people’s lives, he only wanted his granddaughter to live for a few more days. To put it bluntly, he had already saved Su Muran twice. There was no reason for him to save her a third time.

Besides, why should he save Su Muran.

Therefore, Su Muran did not know where she found the method. She said that bleeding could save her life, so she was obsessed. She did not have the ability to catch the big ones, but she wanted to catch three small ones, in the end, two of them ran away, and now there was only one left. In the end, they still ran away. It made her work so hard, and all of it was wasted.

Of course, her life was still here. She was still half-dead and half-alive. It was also the same life that was worse than death.

Because of Su Qingdong’s words, the doctor did not react for a long time.

It was understandable that Su Muran, a patient who was desperate to be treated, would have such unreasonable thoughts. However, a normal person like Su Ancheng, who had lived his entire life, would actually think this way.

They really dared to do so?

Because of the Doctor’s gaze, which was like looking at a monster, Su Ancheng instantly felt his face burning up and he was a little embarrassed.

His face instantly darkened, and he was also a little angry from embarrassment. “I’m asking you a question. Are You Mute?”

The Doctor was stunned for a long time before he finally came back to his senses. Of course, some things had to be said clearly.

“Old Mr. Su, do you want to ask about the blood exchange?” He asked Su Ancheng. He hoped that Su Ancheng’s brain would not be like his granddaughter’s, which had been kicked by a donkey.

Chapter 2065: the child

Su Ancheng’s face continued to darken. He did not want to answer and only nodded slightly.

When the doctor saw this, he finally answered, "Old Mr. Su, this is nonsense. We all have to pay attention to science and medicine. There is no cure for Miss Su's illness."

"You're talking nonsense."

Su Ancheng stood up. "How can my granddaughter die? She will definitely not die. Only a quack like you can not cure her illness."

The Doctor closed his eyes. It was not logical for him to argue with Su Ancheng. It was no wonder that Su Muran had such thoughts. It was not because of anything else, it was because she had a grandfather like that.

He really could not treat Su Muran's illness, so he knew his limits. Perhaps he wanted to trouble them to ask for help. However, before he could ask them for help, a car stopped outside, when a group of people came in, Su Ancheng was so shocked that he did not speak for a long time.

When SU Muran woke up, it was as if nothing had happened and she was very healthy. However, only she herself knew that one of her feet had already stepped into the coffin, and anytime, anywhere., her other foot had also stepped into the coffin.

"Grandfather, you betrayed me."

When Su Muran saw these people, her voice was sharp as she shouted.

Su Ancheng moved his lips, but he couldn't say anything for a long time. He also couldn't refute.

She didn't betray Su Muran. How could he betray Su Muran? This was his granddaughter, and also his only granddaughter. Although Yan Huan was also his granddaughter, so what, after all, one had been raised since young, and the other had only met him a few times. He didn't even acknowledge him. Even if he did, his heart would still favor Su Muran in the end.

However, what was the point of saying all this now? These people were brought here by him and had followed him here

And these people were none other than Lei Qingyi, Lu Yi, ye Chuji and his son, as well as Bai Zhi. Lu Yi did not let Yan Huan come over. It was not for other reasons, but because he was afraid that something might happen, and Yan Huan could not bear it.

"Where's My Daughter?" Lu Yi's face was dark, and the coldness in his body froze the air.

Your daughter, su muran sneered, "I ate them all. Otherwise, why would I capture her? I boiled her alive into a pot and watched as I ate her bite by bite."

"Lunatic!" Lei Qingyi was so angry that he kicked the cabinet to the side. With a clang, the cabinet fell down, and the documents and medicine inside all fell to the ground.

"Hehe..." Su Muran covered her mouth and laughed, "Yes, I'm a lunatic. I'm a lunatic. So what? I'm going to die anyway. Maybe I can still live if I'm crazy."

"Grandpa, don't you think so?" Su Muran glared at Su Ancheng with resentment.

And now, everyone in her heart was her enemy, including Su Ancheng. If he really loved her, if she really wanted her to live, then why didn't he help her to capture those children, he even wanted her to do it herself. Look, she was very powerful. She really brought them out, but what was the point of bringing them out? In the end, they still escaped.

If she really loved him, she wouldn't have brought so many people here. This was to kill her, right?

Su Ancheng was also frightened by Su Muran. Not only because of the piercing words that SU Muran said, but also because Su Muran's hatred towards him almost made him unable to breathe.

"Muran, grandfather..."

Su Ancheng wanted to explain, but no matter how much he explained, Su Mumiao Qi had to be able to listen. It was obvious that Su Muran could not listen to anything, nor could he listen to anything, let alone his explanation.

"Don't call me!" Su Muran was almost hysterical.

Su Ancheng wanted to reach out and comfort his granddaughter, but Su Muran pushed him forward forcefully. He had completely forgotten that she was pushing her grandfather instead of someone else, it was her grandfather who loved her the most.

With a bang, Su Ancheng was pushed to the ground. There were a few cracking sounds as if his bones were breaking.

At such an old age, he could not fall. If he fell, all the bones in his body might be broken.

"Su Muran, you lunatic."

A person suddenly walked in from outside. It was none other than Su Qingdong. When Su Qingdong saw his father being thrown to the ground, his face was also pale. However, Su Muran stood aside coldly, his eyes were almost red. What kind of sin did su qingdong do in his previous life to give birth to such a daughter.

The doctor hurriedly squatted down and checked su Ancheng's injuries. It was obvious that he had broken his bone. Moreover, it was very serious. So what if he had finished the surgery, in the end, he might even lose his life in this fall.

With a slap, Su Qingdong directly slapped Su Muran's face. In order to save her, he had given up on his other daughter. In order to save her, he had stuck his old face to the ground, what else did she want? Yes, what else did she want? Did she want all the members of the Su family to die with her? Would she be satisfied?

"Su Muran, are you still human? This is your biological grandfather..."

Su Qingdong's heart ached so much that he could not breathe. What kind of daughter was this? What kind of granddaughter was this? Even his own biological grandfather could do this to her.

So what? Su Muran had gone crazy because she was about to die. Her face was swollen, and her smile was hideous and disgusting.

“Where’s the child?” Su Qingdong grabbed Su Muran’s shoulder tightly, wishing that he could crush the bones in her shoulder.

“I told you, I’ll cook it and eat it.”

Su Youran cracked her mouth, revealing a mouthful of cold white teeth. Her nose was also bleeding.

I ate it one bite at a time. The meat was really fragrant. It was just a pity that I only ate one. If I could eat all three of them, how good would it be.

Su Qingdong suddenly let go of his hand and looked at Su Muran as if he was looking at a monster. This was no longer a person. This was a monster, this was a monster. This monster was not his daughter at all.

Su Muran was still smiling, and her smile was deliberately infuriating.

Lu Yi lowered his head and looked at the doctor who was taking care of Su Ancheng. There was not even a hint of emotion in his black eyes.

Su Muran was not alone here. He would not believe what Su Muran said. He only wanted to know where his search was?

Chapter 2066: -the child did not suffer

“I’ll leave this place to you,” Lei Qingyi said to her subordinate. He was going to search for her when everyone had already left. Besides a doctor, there was also a crazy Su Mulan. Even Lu Qin had disappeared, thinking about it, Lu Qin was really much smarter than Su Mulan. When he saw that the situation was not good, he had already run away. Only Su Mulan was still here. She really thought that there would be someone who would share her joys and sorrows with her, would he never abandon her for the rest of his life?

She did not put her heart into others, yet she still wanted others to give her their heart. She was really thinking too much.

Su Muran was still smiling, but no one paid attention to her.

She could not die yet. It was not that easy to die. Just as Lei Qingyi said, even if she died tomorrow, she would still be punished by the law today.

Could it be that she still wanted to come with wealth and live a long life?

That was impossible.

Su Qingdong could not control his daughter. Su Ancheng’s current condition was that he had to be sent to the hospital. Su Ancheng wanted to be strong for his entire life, but he ended up in such a situation. He had yet to wake up, however, it was an absolute comminuted fracture. For a young man, such a fracture would be very easy to recover. However, he was now an old man in his nineties, he would probably never be able to walk again.

The person who made her unable to walk was none other than his biological granddaughter. It was his biological granddaughter who had suffered so much pain from the miscarriage that she practically poured her heart out.

The Doctor stood up. These people had come too quickly. He knew that he could not escape. The law of nature was always in place. Even if he ran, he would still be caught in the end. Therefore, he did not leave.

“Is that Child Your Daughter?”

The doctor asked Lu Yi because he heard Lu Yi ask Su Muran where his daughter was. If he did not hear wrongly, then that child should be this man’s daughter.

“It’s my daughter.” Lu Yi stopped and stood in front of the doctor. “Can I know where my daughter is? Is she okay?”

“She’s fine.” The doctor looked outside. He did not know where the child had gone to, “I let her go. I don’t know where Miss Su came up with this idea. She said that as long as the blood is changed, she can recover.”

When Lu Yi heard this, all the muscles in his body tensed up. There was a hint of profiteering in his eyes.

“Sir, you can rest assured that the child will be fine. The doctor quickly said that I’ve been lying to miss su. She’s not suitable for surgery, so the child didn’t suffer any harm. It’s just that I don’t know what happened to miss su today. She insisted on having surgery, so I let the child go. She should be outside now. If you want to find her, you can find her. The child is young and can’t run far. She must still be hiding nearby.”

Actually, the Doctor was a little embarrassed when he said all this. If it wasn’t for the family crisis and the urgent need for money, I wouldn’t have done such a thing. It would be detrimental to medical ethics and morality.

Lu Yi took out his wallet and took out a card from it. He placed it in the doctor’s hand and said, “There’s a million dollars in the card. You can leave on your own.”

“Sir, what are you...”

The Doctor held the card in his hand and felt that the weight in his hand was as heavy as a thousand gold coins. He did not understand why Lu Yi would give him this amount of money. Logically speaking, the current Lu Yi should hate him to death, he was also prepared to be arrested. Why did he have to let him go this time and even give him money.

“Thank you,” Lu Yi thanked him sincerely. Yan Huan had also been kidnapped back then. If the doctor had been like this back then and helped Yan Huan, Yan Huan would not have suffered so much, although the doctor did not say much, he could feel it.

His Little Xun had not waited for her father to save her, but she had met a kind person.

And he had decided to let the Doctor Go. There would be a head for the wrong and a debtor for the debt. All of this had nothing to do with the Doctor.

The Doctor's eyes were burning as he clenched the card tightly.

If one were to ask, what was the most right thing he had done in his life? He had let the child go. He did not know if he really wanted to say that a good person would have good karma

And his good karma had come.

Lu Yi had indeed let the Doctor Go. Even Lei Qingyi did not ask further. The Doctor had taken the card and left. As for what kind of life he would lead in the future, no one knew.

One could only say that his own life and how he led it depended on his own luck.

Su Muran was directly thrown into the police car. Whether he was dead or alive, he had to undergo a formal trial. Su Ancheng had also been sent to the hospital by Su Qingdong. It was likely that this injury would not recover for the rest of his life.

That was not right. It was not a lifetime. To put it bluntly, this was a lifetime that had passed. A person would also be buried in the yellow soil. However, who could be blamed for the end result?

Lu Yi drove the car and looked for his daughter nearby. The Doctor said that he had let Xun Xun go. However, there were so many places outside. Xun Xun was only a four-year-old child. Where could she go.

At that moment, he had no idea that Xunxun was hiding behind a big tree. She heard the sound of the car driving past and carefully shrunk her little body. When she stretched out her little head.., the car was already gone. She only walked out when it was dark, but she did not know where to go?

She missed her mother, and she missed her father..

She took a few small steps and walked forward. She was only a small person, and she wanted to go home. She wanted to find her mother.

She walked very carefully. As long as there was the slightest movement, she would be afraid. She was afraid that she would be discovered by others, so she had to hide herself.

And at night, a car came over again.

Yan Huan pressed her face against the glass of the car.

She simply could not fall asleep. She wanted to see her little daughter, and the sky was so dark. Xun Xun must be very afraid. She was the most timid. It was not easy to raise her courage, but no matter how bold she was.., she was still a child, a four-year-old child who was not very sensible.

The car suddenly drove past, and a child carefully walked out. She turned around to look at the car, then walked forward with her little feet.

She pitifully licked her little lips, then squatted in front of a puddle, reached out her little hand, and picked up the dirty water inside to drink.

"Drive back,"Yan Huan suddenly sat up. She didn't know why, but she just wanted to go back. She grabbed Lu Yi's arm tightly, and squeezed her nails into Lu Yi's flesh.

Chapter 2067: found the child

Lu Yi also turned the car around and drove back the same way. It was still dark in front, and only the lights in front of their car shone on the ground. The ground was also rough and uneven

Just in front of the small puddle, the car's lights shone on it. There was actually a small figure. It was a child. She was drinking the water in the small puddle with her small hands.

The child raised her small face. The moment she saw a car, she stood up and ran.

At this moment, the car door opened.

"Xun Xun..." Yan Huan ran out, but she did not see the child.

"Xun Xun, I'm Daddy." Lu Yi also came out. At this moment, his hands were tightly clenched with sweat. That was his xun, it was his xun.

"Xun Xun, I'm Mommy. Mommy is here to look for you."

Yan Huan had already recognized that it was her daughter. It was her xunxun. However, xunxun seemed to have been frightened. She hid herself. Did she not recognize Daddy and Mommy?

Yan Huan squatted down. What should she do? Xunxun did not recognize them.

Lu Yi also squatted down and comforted her. "We'll wait here. Don't be afraid. She's just scared. She'll come out. Our Xunxun is very brave. She'll definitely recognize Daddy and Mommy too."

Yan Huan sat on the ground. She didn't care how dirty the ground was. She just wanted to find her daughter. She also wanted to wait for her daughter here. She could feel that her Xun Xun was still here. She didn't leave, she was just scared, so she didn't come out. They didn't dare to move. They were afraid that they would scare Xun Xun, so she ran around randomly. If that happened, she would hurt herself.

The headlights were still shining forward. It was also in the darkness. There was only some light left, and between the lights were the parents who had lost their daughter for a long time.

There was a string of footsteps behind them. They were constantly moving forward to persuade her before they stopped.

Lu Yi turned his head and saw a thin and small child standing behind them. It was their Little Xun.

Lu Yi stood up and walked over as well. He squatted in front of his daughter. He didn't even dare to touch her, afraid that he would scare her again.

"Baby, do you still recognize your father?"

Xun Xun looked at her father for half a day. Then, she carefully reached out her little hand and touched her father's face. Then, she turned her little face away.

She touched her mother's sleeve again and buried her little face in her mother's arms.

“Mommy, Xun Xun is afraid. Xun Xun is hungry too.”

The child sobbed from time to time. Her small appearance was very pitiful. She was so thin that she had become a handful of small bones. Her small body, which had originally grown some meat, was now unable to touch any meat. Her small face was very, very small, she was even smaller than her father’s palm. Her small, tender little fingers were almost broken with a single break. Only a pair of large eyes remained on her small, pitiful face.

Lu Yi took off his clothes and held his daughter in his arms. That feeling, that feeling of recovering something that was lost, made a grown man like him almost cry from being moved.

His daughter, his Little Xun, had finally been found.

Xun Xun’s nickname was really good. No matter what, they managed to find her in the end. They also found her because she was their Lu family’s Little Xun Xun. She was their Lu family’s most beloved child.

The car drove very fast and splashed a lot of mud water. This mud water also splashed onto the car. In the car, Xun Xun was already asleep. She could only sleep peacefully in her mother’s arms, however, she did not sleep soundly. Her small body would twitch from time to time. It seemed that even such a small child would have nightmares.

“Mommy, Xun Xun is hungry.” Xun Xun opened her eyes and held her mother’s finger with her small hand.

“We can go home soon. Grandma made a lot of delicious food for Xun Xun. Can you bear with it?” Yan Huan coaxed her daughter, but her eyes were filled with tears.

“Okay,” Xun Xun obediently agreed. Then, she searched her body for a long time and took out some money and placed it in her mother’s hand. “Uncle Doctor gave it to Xun Xun. Xun Xun didn’t spend it. It’s all for Mom.”

Yan Huan opened her fingers. There were a few pieces of money in her palm. There were five Yuan, ten Yuan, and fifty yuan.

“Mommy, can you use this money to buy some bread for Xun Xun?” Yan Huan caressed her daughter’s hair. She realized that Xun Xun had lost too much weight. Not long ago, she could barely carry her daughter, but now, she could easily carry her. It was clear how thin Xun Xun was now.

It was because of her constitution that it was not easy for her to gain weight. Furthermore, she had lost weight very quickly. However, it had only been half a month, and her little face had lost all its weight.

“Okay.” Xun Xun nodded her little head vigorously. Her little tummy would growl from time to time, but she was very well-behaved. She did not make any noise and did not make any noise.

Her mother told her to endure it. Her mother said that if she bought bread for her, she would eat it. Her mother said that she would not eat it, so she did not eat it.

The car drove forward. Lu Yi also found the convenience store that was open 24 hours a day. In the end, they found a fast food restaurant.

Lu Yi stopped the car.

“Baby, Daddy will take you to eat this, okay? You used to like it. Daddy will allow you to eat a lot of things today, okay?”

He stroked his daughter’s little head and felt that this child was really scared. She didn’t like to talk anymore. Xun Xun had always been like this since she was young. If she was scared or unhappy, she didn’t like to talk, her words would also change very, very little.

Xun Xun raised her head and glanced at the Huai Restaurant. Then, she buried her little face tightly into her mother’s embrace.

But after a while, she raised her little face again.

“Mommy, Xun Xun wants to eat.”

She licked her little lips. She wanted to eat a lot of things. She wanted to eat her mother’s cooking, French fries, hamburgers, and delicious chicken nuggets.

Lu Yi opened the car door and walked in. Yan Huan led Xun Xun to wash her hands and saw that her little hand was like a chicken claw. It was tender like grass, almost breaking at the slightest bend.

Yan Huan carefully held her daughter’s little hand. The child’s arms and legs were now very thin, almost touching the bones of her body.

Yan Huan helped her daughter wash her hands, and her nose could not help but ache.

It was all because she was useless. It was because she did not take good care of xunxun, and it was also because she did not protect her daughter well. When she was young, she did not give her a good body. Now that she had grown up with great difficulty, she had become healthy.., but she had to suffer like this.

“Mother, Xunxun is not afraid. Xunxun is thin. A bad aunt would not eat Xunxun.”

Xunxun clever said, but let Yan Huanqi to want to smash the Su family now, and then strangle Su Mu ran that Devil.

Chapter 2068: this pitiful little bone

Su Muran wanted her daughter’s flesh and blood so that she could live. However, how could there be such a cheap thing in this world? Fate was already predestined. Even if she wanted to change her fate.., how could she not pay something.

That was why she died an unnatural death in her previous life and how difficult fate was in this life.

It was because she was changing her own fate and the fate of others that she had to pay more. However, she had always been taking what Su Muran had given. Had she ever helped others, had she ever done anything good? Therefore, her fate was destined. She was destined to be a short-lived ghost.

She even wanted to bring her Xun Xun with her.

In her past life, she did not have the ability to protect her daughter. In this life, no matter what, she would never let anyone harm her little xun.

“Mommy.”Xun Xun stretched out her little hand.

“Soak it in water.”

Yan Huan applied some hand sanitizer and applied it on Xun Xun’s little hand. She did not dare to use too much strength. Xun Xun was now too thin. In just half a month’s time, she had already become a small anchor, she was afraid that if she used too much strength, she might break xunxun’s small hands.

After washing her hands, Yan Huan used her clothes to carefully wipe Xunxun’s small hands and face clean. Only then did she carry her daughter out. Lu Yi had already ordered a table full of things, and Xunxun was carried by her mother, her small stomach rumbled again, making Yan Huan’s nose ache involuntarily. Her Little Xun had never been hungry before. This time, she was being starved to the point of becoming thin.

“Let Daddy carry her.”

Yan Huan handed her daughter’s to Lu Yi.

Xun Xun stretched out her small arms. She was now so thin that she was only a handful of small bones. In the past, when her father carried her, he still had a small portion. But now, her mother could easily carry her, then, it was clear that her father could carry four of her.

“Baby, let’s drink milk first, okay?”

Lu Yi placed the cup next to his daughter’s small mouth. There was no milk bottle here, so we drank from the cup first.

“Okay,”Xun Xun agreed. She carefully drank the milk in the cup. The gurgling sound of her small stomach could be heard by anyone. The little girl was really starving, but she was still obedient like a little lady, her father fed her milk, and she drank milk. She ate whatever was given to her.

However, she was still famished. In the past, when she ate, she had to be coaxed by an adult to eat more. However, now that she had eaten much better, her little mouth still didn’t stop.

Because she was really hungry

Lu Yi ordered the table full of food for her daughter, but the two of them had never eaten a bite.

They couldn’t eat.

They would rather suffer for themselves than let their daughter suffer a little bit of harm. Yet, this little girl had to suffer like this. How could she be like her mother.

Yan Huan didn’t think about how outstanding her daughter would be. She just hoped that she could grow up peacefully and find an ordinary man to marry in the future. It would be good enough for her to live a simple and rich life.

Lu Yi reached out and placed his hand on Yan Huan’s face. “It won’t happen again in the future. This might be the tribulation she has to go through. Only then can she grow up, right?”

Xun Xun had indeed grown up. In the past, she was still a picky eater. Her family had come up with all sorts of ways for her to eat more. Her grandmother, who doted on her, even wanted her to eat more, she would even make small steamed buns look like small animals, just so she could eat one more. But now, she was so obedient.

Lu Yi asked her, would she eat this?

She nodded.

He asked her, would she eat that?

She still nodded.

He told her that because she didn't have a milk bottle, she had to drink water from a cup, and she drank it obediently. If it was in the past, she would definitely not compromise. Xun Xun's personality was like Yan Huan's, she was also an extremely stubborn child.

Of course, it was not easy to coax her. However, this time, she was very obedient. No matter what her parents said, she agreed. She was also obedient.

"Are you full?" Lu Yi touched his daughter's belly. This kind of growing up method was a little cruel. However, they had met each other after all. They could only continue to face it. They could only accept it.

Fortunately, their Little Xun had returned home. Nothing bad would happen to her in the future. Before she had the ability to protect herself, she was still young with her parents protecting her.

"I'm full."

Xun Xun also caressed her belly. Her small and cute appearance made people's Hearts Ache.

"Let's go, we're going home."

Lu Yi carried his daughter and wrapped her up with his own clothes to prevent her from catching a cold. The family was all around now, so it was possible that no one could sleep.

They almost lost Xun Xun, and thinking of such a terrible result, Lu Yi was still in fear. He did not even dare to imagine what would happen if anything happened to Xun Xun..., what would happen if they could not find their little xun in the future.

He could not afford to lose one of the three children in the family. They were all his children, the most precious babies in his life.

The car stopped at the entrance of the Lu family home. The door had already opened, and Ye Shuyun also ran out. When she saw the child in Lu Yi's arms, she could not stop her tears from falling.

Her Little Xun had finally returned.

"She's asleep." Lu Yi carefully handed Xun Xun to Ye Shuyun. Xun Xun might not have slept well, but because she was a grandmother, she did not wake up.

“She’s lost so much weight.” Ye Shuyun touched her granddaughter’s face and knew that the child had lost weight. She hugged her again and could not help but cry.

She had really lost weight, and she was still very thin. How did the Su family torture her xunxun? How did Xunxun lose so much weight?

Ye Shuyun quickly carried her granddaughter in and wanted to change her clothes.

Her Xun Aimei was beautiful. She washed her hair every day, and of course, she treasured her hair the most. Now, her hair was all messed up. How Sad would she be.

She was wearing the same clothes when she threw them away half a month ago. When she took off Xun Xun’s clothes and saw the small body of Xun Xun, she wanted to kill Su Mulan.

How could there be such a vicious woman in this world who could be ruthless enough to lay her hands on a four-year-old child.

Ye Shuyun and the nanny carefully helped Xun Xun wipe her small face and hands. However, when they saw the bones on the child’s body, even the nanny could not help but wipe her tears. Xun Xun was so obedient.., there was really such a ruthless person in this world.

This child must have suffered a lot.

If the old man found out, what would he do?

Chapter 2069: Old Master Lu was back

The nanny recalled Old Master Lu’s personality. If she saw her favorite little great-granddaughter turning into a pile of bones, she would scold them to death and then tear down the Su family.

Ye Shuyun touched her granddaughter’s little face, but it was okay. Although she had suffered a little, she still went home.

She carefully pulled the blanket over her granddaughter and covered her with it. She stayed by her side and did not dare to leave Xun Xun anymore. She would not be so careless with the three children at home anymore.

Xun Xun fell asleep obediently. It was possible that she was really tired, so she did not wake up the whole night. Even though she knew that her grandmother had made delicious food for her, she still did not wake up.

The next day, Lu Yi carried Xun Xun to the hospital. He wanted to examine her body. He did not know if Su Muran had given her any wrong medicine.

They were most worried about this matter. Su Muran was a lunatic. She was capable of anything.

“Baby, we are not afraid.” Lu Yi took out his daughter’s small arm. This small arm was so thin that it was almost broken with a single break. It was so thin that even her bones could be seen. If they did not know.., one would think that their family had abused their child to make her so thin. On her small face, only a pair of big eyes remained.

“Daddy, Xun Xun is not afraid.”

Xun Xun was a very brave child. She had been sick since she was young, so it was not the first time that she had her blood drawn. However, when the needle pierced into Xun Xun’s small arm, Lu Yi’s heart still ached.

Not to mention Lu Yi, even he yibin, a doctor, could not bear to do that.

After he drew the blood, he touched Xunxun’s small face. “Our Xunxun is still as brave as ever. She doesn’t cry. She’s a good child.”

Xunxun cracked her small mouth and smiled. Her small arm was also wrapped in her father’s clothes.

After the blood was drawn, she still had to go through all sorts of examinations. This way, she could know if there was anything strange in her body. However, he Yibin felt that, based on his many years of medical experience., xunxun was just malnourished. The rest was basically fine.

The examination results were soon out. Of course, it also made Lu Yi heave a sigh of relief. It was just as he Yibin had expected. Perhaps it was because that doctor had some conscience and some medical ethics., he did not give Xunxun any medicine. He only told Xunxun not to eat too much. Otherwise, she might be forced to undergo surgery. Therefore, xunxun was starving to the point that she was malnourished, but she did not take any bad medicine.

There were still children who were malnourished. He Yibin held the examination report in his hands and was somewhat unwilling to believe it. The One in my house was so fat that he had become a ball. Right now, I wanted him to lose weight, however, he was not allowed to do this or that. If he said another word, he might be beaten into a ball.

He Xiaopeng was now an absolute he Xiaopeng. He was born fat, and now he was even fatter. His family doted on him and spoiled him. They raised a boy who was even more delicate than when Xunxun was young, and his terrifying weight. How Old was he now? He was not even one year old, but he was born heavier than Xun Xun Now.

No, he had to lose weight for he Xiaopeng when he went back. If he didn’t lose weight, what would he do if he developed all kinds of diseases.

It looked like he really couldn’t lose weight.

“Daddy, Xun Xun wants to go home. Xun Xun doesn’t like hospitals.”She wanted to go home. She wanted her grandmother and her mother.

“Okay, Daddy will bring you home.”Lu Yi picked up his daughter again, then lowered his head to meet his daughter’s big innocent eyes.

“Baby, when we go home, remember to eat well. You have to be very fat.”

“Like he Xiaopeng?”Xun Xun thought of he Xiaopeng’s chubby look. Suddenly, she pouted her little mouth. “Daddy, Can Xun Xun not become he Xiaopeng?”

Bao Yibin stood at the side with a face full of tears, his family's he Xiaopeng had already been despised. was he still not going to lose weight? If he didn't lose weight, he wouldn't even be able to get a wife in the future.

How difficult it was for them to get a wife? How difficult it was for them to give birth to a son.

But they couldn't let their genes harm the next generation, therefore, when they went back, they asked he Xiaopeng to lose weight immediately. Otherwise, he would be an old bachelor again.

Lu Yi carried Xun Xun back. However, when he entered the house, the atmosphere in the house was a little strange. No one dared to say anything. They saw old master Lu sitting on the sofa, staring at the door. When Lu Yi entered.., it was as if the stiff atmosphere had eased up a little and softened a little.

Old Master Lu's face was very ugly. His face was even longer than a horse's face when he pulled it up. He probably knew about the three children.

Lu Yi put his daughter down. When Xun Xun's little feet touched the ground, she was not willing. She stretched out her little arm and wanted her father to carry her.

"Go to great-grandfather's place." Lu Yi bent down and touched his daughter's little face. "Tell great-grandfather that Xun Xun is fine. Tell great-grandfather not to worry, okay?"

"Okay." Xun Xun nodded her little head vigorously and ran to great-grandfather Lu. She also stretched out her little hand for great-grandfather Lu to carry. Only then did great-grandfather Lu's expression ease up, he carried his little great-granddaughter, but when he saw Xun Xun's little face, she was so thin. He really wanted to curse.

"Great-grandfather, Xun Xun is fine. If she's thin, she'll get fat. Xun Xun will eat obediently. Don't let great-grandfather worry."

Xun Xun was still the same old Xun Xun. Other than being a little thinner, she was still beautiful and cute. No one could be angry at her. No matter how angry they were, as long as they saw her little face.., they all disappeared in an instant.

Ever since grandfather Lu returned, he had not spoken a single word to Lu Jin or ye Shuyun. They had lied to him about going to some kind of recuperation and health care. He did not know that his xunxun had been missing for so long. If it was not for his sudden impulse.., he had secretly returned from the hospital just to take a look at his little great-granddaughter. Could it be that they were going to hide it from him for the rest of their lives? Even if they died, they would not let him know?

His heart ached when he thought about all the suffering Xun Xun had gone through these past few days.

"Did Xun Xun Suffer?" Old Master Lu picked up his granddaughter and let her stand on his lap. Then, he asked her carefully.

Xun Xun was four years old. She was a very smart child. She could answer whatever he asked her.

Xun Xun shook her head. Then, she opened her mouth and smiled at her great-grandfather. Her big eyes became bigger and more curved.

“Dad, let’s eat first.”

Ye Shuyun said carefully.

Chapter 2070: infuriates you to death

“HMPH!” Grandfather Lu snorted. “What food are you eating? You can still eat. My Little Xun Xun has been hungry for God knows how many times, and you still dare to mention food to me?”

“Dad, even if adults don’t eat, children still have to eat.”

Ye Shuyun’s voice was even softer. wasn’t she feeling sorry for her granddaughter? She had to go to the hospital for a check-up in the morning, so Xun Xun had not even drunk water. Her stomach must be hungry now.

“Then what are you waiting for?” Old Master Lu heard that his little great-granddaughter was going to starve to death.

Why hadn’t this child eaten yet? was she going to starve to death?

But because Xun Xun was too obedient and did not cry hungry, he thought that Xun Xun was not hungry.

Ye Shuyun quickly got the nanny to bring the prepared food from the kitchen. The food had been prepared long ago. She was afraid that Xun Xun would be hungry when she came back, but who knew that old master Lu would come back just like that, such a sudden attack on them had also frightened them.

They had even forgotten to put the food inside.

Xun Xun was indeed much more obedient than before. She was no longer picky and ate whatever was given to her. However, it made old master Lu even angrier. How exactly did these people treat Xun Xun, did they not feed Xun Xun? Why was this child not picky about food? In the past, she was the most picky eater. She must have been abused by others.

Even now, Lu Yi did not dare to tell his family the reason why Su Muran had taken Xun Xun away.

He was afraid of telling his parents and grandfather that Su Muran wanted Xun Xun’s blood. He wanted to drain Xun’s blood and put it on himself. If he dared to say it, there might not be anyone here who could bear it.

At night, Old Master Lu was still holding on to Xun Xun. His face was as black as a pot lid.

“Dad, Xun Xun needs to look for Mom Tonight.” Lu Jin had no choice. After Xun Xun came back, she looked fine, but other than being a little thin, she was actually not. She was still scared, she was also a little timid. Now, as long as Dad and mom slept at night, they had to sleep with dad and mom. Otherwise, she would sleep very restlessly and cry at night.

Old Master Lu was reluctant to part with her, but in the end, Xun Xun was brought back to the garden by Lu Yi.

Yan Huan combed her daughter's hair. It was already very long. Her Little Xun Xun was a little princess and also a little lady. She was a little lady who had been well-educated since she was young.

She gave her daughter two braids and changed her into a cartoon pajamas. Then, she picked her up,

"Let's go, we're going to sleep."

"Okay." Xunxun hugged her mother's neck obediently. Her attachment to her mother was even stronger now, but she was still a very sensible and good child. As long as she could see her mother, she would not cry.

They did not go to the kindergarten first. Things were not over yet because there was still one person they had not found.

That was Lu Qin.

And Lu Qin was still outside. He was a ticking time bomb that could explode at any moment. He could blow them up at any moment. So if Lu Qin really found him this time.., then they definitely wouldn't leave him any way out.

Xun Xun had already fallen asleep. She obediently slept between her father and mother. Her little nose was also moving. It was clear that she was sleeping very soundly. She was tired today, so let her sleep well.

In the hospital's high-ranking ward, Su Ancheng could only lie flat like a salted fish. He could not move at all. His leg bone was shattered. At such an old age.., it was impossible for his bones to grow back. Even if he recovered, he could only sit in a wheelchair and spend the rest of his life.

However, he was lucky. He only hurt his leg and not the other parts. Otherwise, everything he had in the future would be taken care of by others and he would have to live his whole life, however, in the end, he didn't even have any respect. This kind of survival was torture for Su Ancheng.

The door outside opened. Su Ancheng turned his face to the side. He didn't want to talk to anyone.

Why? You shouldn't apologize to me.

Old Master Lu walked over. His back wasn't bent, his legs weren't bent, and even his eyes were brighter than the average old man's. Of course, his spirit was much better than the others.

And he seemed to be doing it on purpose. He walked around in front of Su Ancheng like he was showing off his legs that could jump and run.

Old Master Lu was indeed ruthless. He would stab wherever it hurt. He would not stop until he was stabbed to death. Even if he was stabbed to death, he would spit on the grave. He would make the dead man so angry that he would crawl out of the coffin.

"I apologize to you. Can you let my granddaughter go?"

Su Ancheng, the grandfather, had become like this. He was half-dead like a cripple, but in the end, he still remembered his unfilial granddaughter. Yet, he treated Su Mulan with all his heart, but what about Su Mulan.., what had she done exactly? She had ruined her grandfather's reputation for his entire life. Even her grandfather's legs and his grandfather's life had been rubbed away.

Old Master Lu smiled coldly, "Old Thing Su, you're thinking too well. You have a granddaughter, and I have three grandchildren. Your granddaughter tortured my family's Xun Xun until she was so thin. Do you think that your apology is enough? How Big is your face? Do you want me to let go of your poisonous granddaughter?"

Speaking up to this point, old master Lu did not care about Su Ancheng's bruised face. He continued to poke at people. Even if I could let her go, do you think that my son, my grandson, and Yan Huan could let her go? Don't forget that there is still the ye family., the Ye family has yet to repay you for what you have done to the Ye family. Your Face is really big, really big. He patted his old face. How shameless and embarrassing.

He walked to Su Ancheng's hospital bed and complained that he could not anger Su Ancheng to death. Anyway, if this person really died of anger, it would have nothing to do with him. He had lived to such an old age, yet he still lived to such an extent, if he could not even be a good person, then he might as well die.

"Humph!" He snorted again and curled the corner of his mouth. "I can tell you one more thing..." see, he was embarrassing himself again, "Not only did your precious granddaughter help Lu Qin escape from prison, but she also arrested my great-granddaughter. She is also suspected of trafficking women. How many years do you think she will be sentenced to if she is really sentenced?"

No, no, old master Lu seemed to suddenly realize something.

"See, how could I forget about this matter? How many years are there? It is also a question whether your granddaughter can live for a year or not. But even if she dies, she will have to bear that name for the rest of her life."
