

Sweet Wife 2101

Chapter 2101: A few of them came out

And when she said it, Lu Yi couldn't possibly answer.

Who could give them a guarantee? who could give them such a promise.

And at this moment, someone shouted.

"How many children seem to have come out?"

The fire brigade's captain looked up and saw a few dirty children crawling out from the side. They were all small and small. The children's small bodies were more or less injured, and some of their hair was burnt, their clothes were also covered in dust, and none of their faces were clean. They had crawled out from the safety passage.

"Save them!" He hurriedly ran over with his team members and quickly carried the children out one by one.

There were a total of six children. Heavens, there were actually six children.

"Mommy, I want Mommy, I want Mommy..."

"Mommy..."

"Wu... Mommy, I want Mommy..."

Once the children were picked up by the adults, they began to cry and make a racket. However, all of their voices were hurt, and they were hoarse and pitiful.

Lu Yi was suddenly stunned.

This voice seemed to be his Xun's. He turned around and saw that the firemen were all carrying children in their arms.

Lu Yi's pupils constricted.

He also squeezed Yan Huan's shoulders tightly. He wasn't afraid of hurting her, but he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to wake her up.

"Huanhuan, look, look. Our children are fine. They're all fine. Oh right, how could we have forgotten that Bai Zhi once taught our children how to survive?"

The fire, the earthquake, and the stampede... They had all received strict professional training

"Children..." Yan Huan looked up and saw a few black children being carried by the firemen. She recognized them at a glance. There were her Xiao Qi, Xiao Guang, and Xun Xun.

"Xiao Mei, my Xiao Mei."

When Mei Ru saw her daughter, she also rushed over. She stumbled and hugged her daughter from the arms of a fireman. She wouldn't be mistaken. Yes, she definitely wouldn't be mistaken, this was her Xiaomei, her daughter.

"Mommy, Xiaomei is scared," Xiaomei cried until her voice was hoarse. She had never been afraid since she was so old.

Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin also rushed over and hugged their grandson while Xun Xun was already in Lu Yi's arms.

"Daddy..." Xun Xun's voice was choked. She hugged her father and refused to let go.

When Lu Yi hugged his daughter, he also took off his clothes and wrapped his daughter up. Xun Xun's beautiful long hair had been burnt off by the fire, but she was brave, wasn't she? She had come out of the fire herself.

Yan Huan took her daughter from Lu Yi's arms. At this moment, this was a kind of joy and excitement that had been lost and regained. She believed that nothing would make them excited, make them rejoice, make them be grateful to the people., it would make them go from Hell to Heaven.

The other two children were also taken away by their parents.

We first sent the children to the hospital. Lu Yi stood up with his daughter in his arms. He then touched the little faces of his two sons. Their little faces were dirty. He wondered if they were injured?

The ambulance was placed not far away from them. When they saw someone come out, the doctors rushed over and took the three children.

Xunxun was carried by her father. The back of her little hand was also pricked with a needle. She was very brave and very obedient this time. When the needle was pricked, she did not cry at all.

When they arrived at the ambulance, Xunxun insisted on being carried by her mother. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang could not leave the adults either. They were very uneasy, but it was still considered good. The Doctor said that they did not suffer many injuries, there were no injuries on their bodies, but the smoke had reached their throats.

The fire at the kindergarten was still burning. Out of the seventeen children, six had escaped, and eleven were still inside. At this time, everyone was probably waiting for hope that six could escape, would there be more children coming out in a while? However, they were disappointed.

No more children came out. When these lucky children were sent to the hospital, the fire at the kindergarten was still not extinguished.

The reporters had gotten the news from God knows where. They had been waiting at the entrance of the hospital for a long time.

The door of the ambulance opened and Yan Huan carried his daughter out. Lu Yi and Lu Jin each carried Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang. At this moment, the cameras in the hands of the reporters were all on them. Although the adults had protected the children very well, these people seemed to know that these three children were the triplets that Yan Huan had given birth to. The security guards outside quickly blocked the reporters outside, another ambulance stopped. Three more children came out from the ambulance.

They were all carried by adults. These children's families were all prominent families in Hai City. Mei Ru and the nanny were also here.

Mei Ru carried her daughter, and Rainstorm also carried Gao Yulin safely on the phone to prevent him from worrying too much.

And this time, it was really enough to scare them out of their wits.

It was okay. Gao Yulin suddenly felt the rims of his eyes heat up. He turned his face and secretly wiped his tears. It was good that he was okay. Yes, it was good that he was okay.

The secretary at the side also overheard this sentence. Only then did he heave a sigh of relief. Actually, he was still thinking just now that there were six children out there. He just didn't know if there were the mayor's daughters in there, and now that he heard the mayor say this, he finally put down his worried heart. It was good that he was fine. Yes, it was good that he was fine. It was good that he was fine..

However, he still had a rather gloomy expression on his face.

Out of the eighteen children, one had been carried out by the life teacher. There were seventeen children inside. It was said that the children had crawled out by themselves, but only six children had crawled out. There were eleven children inside.

And these children might have been..

Right now, Gao Yuling was clearly very worried about his daughter. He had to personally go to the hospital to take care of his wife and children, but he still couldn't leave.

He had already sent his secretary over to the Ji Garden. The fire there had already been extinguished, but everything was still too shocking. It was impossible to tell that this had been a kindergarten before, everything inside had been burned to the ground, leaving behind only rubble and broken walls. There was also an empty frame of steel and cement.

To the parents, this scene not only burned the kindergarten into powder, but also burned them into ashes.

They did not wait for that miracle to appear on their bodies.

Their children did not come out again.

At this time, in the hospital, Xiao Qi, Xiao Guang, and Xun Xun were all in the same ward. They had undergone a comprehensive physical examination, and the children were really not in too much trouble. There were no burns on their bodies, even though the children's throats had been choked by the thick smoke, it had also affected their lungs. Their lungs were infected, but it was not too serious.

Chapter 2102: his grandson was fine

But he still had to stay in the hospital for observation for a few days. After all, they had inhaled a lot of thick smoke.

For adults, this might really be a life after a disaster. Ye Shuyun did not even dare to blink her eyes. She was afraid that something would happen to her grandson. These three children were her life to begin with.

If something really happened to the three children, she might commit suicide in a second.

As for the children, they might not have that much consciousness because they were still too young. They still did not understand what life and death meant. They also did not know what death meant?

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were both asleep, but xunxun rubbed her eyes, not wanting to sleep.

“Mommy...”xunxun tugged at Yan Huan’s clothes.

“What’s wrong, Baby?”

Yan Huan gently caressed her daughter’s little face. It was a child as fair as snow, but there were a few more scars on her little face. However, they were not too serious, and of course, there would not be any scars.

Her daughter was so beautiful. How could she ruin her little face.

“Mommy, Big Brother said that as long as Xun Xun and Big Brother come out together, big brother’s snacks will be Xun Xun’s in the future.”Xun Xun was not thinking about anything else right now. Her heart was still thinking about those snacks.

Yan Huan used both hands to pinch her daughter’s tender face.

“Mm, it will be Xun Xun’s in the future. Mommy will buy it for Big Brother again.”

She had already decided that she would no longer stop the children from eating snacks in the future because no one knew what kind of additives were in them. Yan Huan also did not like to let the children eat those things. She usually gave the children snacks, they were small snacks like biscuits that she made herself.

However, the children still liked those big and small bags. It might not be very delicious, but the children still liked it. In the past, she did not let the children eat too much either. She only gave them one bag each, moreover, she would only give them one bag once in a very long time.

And in the future, she would definitely not be strict with them anymore. They could eat as much as they wanted. Compared to if something really happened to them, she wanted them to live happily.

So, they could eat as many snacks as they wanted.

Xunxun grabbed her mother’s clothes and slept very peacefully. She might not have the feelings of fear that an adult would have. Of course, it did not matter if this was a hospital or not. After all, she grew up in a hospital, it was normal for her to stay in the hospital a few times a year. Moreover, she had to go through injections and take medicine. She had to go through more than most children.

She had already recovered and grown up. Her body had also recovered and she was now a healthy little girl. In the end, such a thing happened. Fortunately, she was fine. Yes, fortunately, it was not a big deal.

Old Master Lu only found out about these things later on. He almost had a heart attack from the shock. Even Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin did not believe that she was fine, ye Shuyun and Lu Jin didn't have any credibility with him. The last time their children had an accident, they lied to him, so he didn't believe their words. He had to go to the hospital to see his three grandchildren.

When he arrived and saw that although they were slightly injured, they were still fine grandchildren, he heaved a sigh of relief.

How could the children of the Lu family die so easily.

Old Master Lu was very satisfied with the performance of the three children. They were the children of the Lu family. When they were in danger, they would naturally turn misfortune into good fortune.

Even though he said this, he was actually really afraid in his heart. He couldn't help but not be afraid. His clothes were drenched in cold sweat.

It was good that he was fine. It was good that his little grandsons were fine.

As for Xun Xun and the others, they were fine. Perhaps it was just as Old Master Lu had said. The children of the Lu family were protected by the ancestors of the Lu family. How could anything happen to them.

However, the other children were not so lucky. Eleven children had all died. Only these six survived, and the one who was carried out by the life teacher.

No one could take responsibility for this disaster, and no one could take responsibility for it

If it were not for the few children who had escaped, there would have been eleven children who had died, or seventeen.

Among them were Yan Huan's three children, and mayor Gao's daughter.

Of course, the police had also taken good care of the few children who had survived. They did not reveal any more information about these children. After all, whether it was the children or the parents., perhaps no one was willing to talk about this matter. They were willing to expose the children who had narrowly escaped death to the public. These things were not the children's fault and should not be borne by them.

Why did they have to bear the responsibility for the mistakes of the adults.

The six children were all well protected. Other than Mei Ru, the other two parents had also specially come to thank Yan Huan's three children. They had heard from the children that when the fire was burning., these children were running around everywhere, and the ones who died were those who ran around. However, Lu Qi and the others did not run. They followed the escape route. Later, they met Xiao Mei and the other two children, they were the two little boys who ran out later.

These two little boys were cousins. One of them was called Yuwen Ling, and the other was called Yuwen Hao.

They were the children of the Yuwen family, the leader of the electronics industry in Hai City. The Yuwen family first started their business in the electronics business, and then slowly got involved in computers, televisions, and the like. Now, they also had their own products, the sales were also quite good. They had only moved to Hai City recently. Their family business was very big, and they were also well-known families in Hai City. They were also gradually going to replace the position of the Su family.

In the past, after the Su family swallowed the Ye family, they were almost unstoppable. Of course, they were also one of the top existences in Hai City.

However, it was different now. The SU family was already like that. Sooner or later, they would also decline and disappear from Hai City.

The Yuwen family caught up later. According to this development, it would only be a few years.

The two brothers in the Yuwen family had gotten married and had children early. Of course, it was the two little boys. They had chosen the best kindergarten for their children, and the kindergarten they had chosen was indeed not bad. However, they had not expected.., a huge fire had almost burned everything away.

The two little brothers in the Yuwen family were the roots of the Yuwen family. It was extremely difficult for the Yuwen family to give birth and raise children. Almost every generation, there was only one child. This time, the Yuwen family had heard from the two brothers.., the two of them had stayed together. Later on, they met Lu Qi and the others. It was Lu Qi and the others who had brought the two kids out from the safety passage. At that time, the smoke was very thick.., it was unknown how Lu Qi and the others had done it. Under the circumstances where nothing could be seen, they had brought these few children out.

Chapter 2103: saving grace

It was only after they met Lu Yi and Yan Huan that they found out that these three children were actually Lu Mingyi and Yan Huan's children. Yan Huan was very natural, and everyone knew about her, her daughter, Lu Wei, was also a very famous little actress. At that time, the box office earnings of the top two were so high that they couldn't possibly not watch it. That movie was really suitable for both young and old, at that time, the appearance of the little girl in the movie was really too lifelike. In fact, this was also the first time they had seen Yan Huan in person.

Of course, it was only now that they knew that Lu Yi's two children were actually learning ancient martial arts. In the future, they would have to be thrown into the military. No matter how precious the children of the Lu family were, they would not be pampered, it was also because of this that their children knew some ways to deal with disasters, this was also the most useful way to deal with disasters. Therefore, even if there were no adults, even if there were no one else, they would still be able to face disasters calmly, and when they encountered life-threatening injuries, how could they save themselves.

In this world, relying on others to save you is never as safe as relying on yourself.

Perhaps many people didn't think that it was useful to let some four-year-old children learn here. Yes, it was useful, because many of them were a little too difficult, but in fact.., no one knew what would happen to them in the future, and they had to be prepared in advance, so that they could deal with those who didn't know when, where, and what happened was too dangerous, and they would always have an unexpected life.

When the Yuwen family members heard these words, they also felt that it was very right. They thought about it, and finally decided to throw their two children who survived the disaster into the Lei family. Although it was very difficult for them., but the children of the Lu family could persevere. Of course, the children of their family could also. Their family raised their children too coyly. They were the future of their family. In the future, all the glory and disgrace of their family would be on the shoulders of the two of them., this time, they were able to escape death because of their good luck. However, what about the next time? What about the next time.

Therefore, it was better to teach them some good skills. At the very least, in the future, if they were to fight with other people, they would only be able to beat them up. It would not be like them being beaten up into pig heads and crying when they returned, no matter how embarrassing it was.

Their Yuwen family did not have such a cowardly child.

After this incident, the Yuwen family did something that they had thought about before, but did not have the energy to do, in any case, their family was rich enough to buy the most expensive and best private children and primary schools in Hai City. They did it so that their children would not be in danger in the future.

Not long after, they threw their two precious children into the Lei family. Of course, these were also the two children of the Yuwen family in the future, they would have to bow down to the two brothers of the Lu family for the rest of their lives.

Who asked them to owe the Lu brothers their lives? If it wasn't for Lu Qi who brought them out at that time,. They might have already died in the fire. Therefore, they owed the favor of saving their lives for the rest of their lives.

This was also the most fundamental reason why they had to live in misery in the future.

The grace of saving a life had to be repaid with a lifetime.

They hated that group of people to the core, and many of them also hated this fire to the core. After the fire, their eyes were filled with dust.

They were lucky, but there were even more unfortunate things. Those eleven children were still not rescued. Then how would their loved ones bear the pain.

Of course, the consequences of this incident were very serious. As for who would bear the responsibility in the end, that was none of the Lu family's business.

The children had all gone home, and they were no longer going to school. Yan Huan planned to wait until the Yuwen family's school officially started, and then send the three children There to study.

She also no longer squeezed the three children for snacks. They could eat as much as they wanted, as long as they didn't skip meals.

Of course, to the three children, they had already forgotten about the fire.

They still wanted to carry their school bags to school, find teachers, find young classmates, and call out the names of many children. However, they would never see these children again, and when they grew up.., perhaps they had even forgotten about this matter. It was just like how they would not remember too many things when they were young. Their memory would slowly disappear as they grew up. Perhaps they would still remember something.., however, they would not remember too much. Even though their memory was better than the average person's, they would not be able to escape the word 'forget' in the end.

This matter might still affect them for a long time. Yan Huan had protected his children early on, not allowing them to accept the fact and burden too early. They were still innocent and cute children, each and every one of them was living without a care in the world.

About a month later, the Yuwen family came to inform them that the kindergarten was ready. They could send their children over at any time.

The new kindergarten's address was not far from the Lu family. Of course, it was also not far from the Yuwen family. It was right in the middle of the two families. In this way, both the Yuwen family and the Lu family were very close, moreover, it was a little closer than the original kindergarten. As for the original kindergarten, no one had entered it for a long time. The place had been burned to ashes. Whether it was the kindergarten director or the teachers.., or the staff, they would not be able to escape the punishment that they had to bear this time.

As for the cause of the fire, it should be the old electrical wires that caught fire. That was why it caused such a huge fire.

When Lu Yi heard this, his face instantly darkened. He had told them a long time ago that the electrical wires needed to be repaired. Not long ago, he had specially warned them. He had also said that this matter.., if they were unable to do it, he could even hire someone to repair it himself.

However, they had promised to do it well, but behind their backs, they did not hear it well. In the end, they had caused such an irreparable disaster, and also caused the deaths of more than a dozen innocent children.

If not for their children's good luck, even their children would not have been able to escape this time.

His family had three children. If something happened to the children, wouldn't their family be destroyed.

This case was handled by Lu Yi personally. He did not leave any face for anyone.

If he gave them face, then how would he explain the death of the eleven children? How would the families of those children explain it.

They were still children. They were still so young.

Chapter 2104: strange children

Lu Yi stopped the car. This was the first time their children had been to a new kindergarten. The new kindergarten was the property of the Yuwen family, and there were also small schools, primary schools, junior high schools, and senior high schools that were currently being built, it was also a one-stop elite education. The Yuwen family had the same plan, but they didn't have a good opportunity. Now, the children at home almost had that kind of thing happen, it was also for them to implement this decision.

Now, the children were in small classes in the kindergarten. When they reached the age of six, they still had more than two years. In these two years, there was absolutely no problem in primary school. When they reached primary school, there were still six years to junior high school, there were still three years to senior high school. Such a long time was definitely enough for them to wait for the new teaching building to be built.

The new school was not far from here. In the future, the children would not have to wake up early or sleep late.

Although Yan Huan herself did not build a school, she had invested a sum of money into the school to improve the school's facilities. She did not do it for anything else but for the sake of her children. She wanted them to be safe and sound, in the future, nothing like that would ever happen again. They really could not bear it anymore.

Yan Huan got out of the car first, then carried the three children down one by one.

They were all wearing the uniforms of the new school, and the new school was also an absolutely aristocratic kindergarten. The children in the new school had to wear school uniforms, and the uniforms were all very beautiful and cute.

The little girl was still wearing a small skirt, little white shoes, and the little boy was wearing short shorts.

Yan Huan squatted down and adjusted the school uniforms of the three children.

She then rubbed the little head of her son, remembering to take good care of her younger sister and not let anyone bully her.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang held their younger sister's little hand. They would not let anyone bully their younger sister. They were taller than other children and were stronger than them. They were better at learning and knew more than them.

They would never bully others, and of course, they would never allow others to bully their little sister.

They would never bully their own little sister, let alone others.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were good older brothers. Naturally, they would take good care of their little sister.

"Let's go." Yan Huan sent the children in. The children held each other's little hands. Compared to other children, they did indeed look quite good.

The other family had a teacher coming over to pick them up, but their family needed at least two teachers.

Xunxun turned her head and shook her small hands at her mother. This also allowed her mother to see her little nest. This proved that she was very happy now. She was very happy about the new kindergarten, she did not feel too much about it. In any case, it might be the same for Xunxun no matter where she went. They did not leave any negative effects because of the fire. The children were all young., they were actually quite gullible. As long as they were well coaxed, they had almost forgotten about that matter. They were all happy to go to school.

As for which kindergarten they went to, it did not matter, especially xunxun. In any case, as long as she was with her two brothers, she would have food, water, and toys to play with.

It didn't matter if the teacher wasn't the same as before. As long as her mother was her mother, it was fine.

Yan Huan stood up and pushed up his sunglasses before getting into the car. When school was over, Ye Shuyun would come over to pick up her grandchildren.

Mao Xiaoqian's mother glanced at the car that had already left, and the corners of her mouth couldn't help but curl up. This was their compensation. Her son was already so scared, but in the end, they only gave him a place to go to school, and some of them did not charge tuition fees.

They did not give him anything substantial.

Their child was also a victim.

She was not like Yan Huan, who was rich.

"Go to class."

Mao Xiaoqian's mother nudged her son, but Mao Xiaoqian's food had been too good recently. She had fattened up, and of course, she had become lazy. She did not want to go to school at all.

Now, for the sake of going to school, the mother and son had beaten each other many times. She had dragged Mao Xiaoqian out by force.

"Mom, I'm not going." Mao Xiaoqian rolled around and threw a tantrum. She had used everything. They had educated their children to this extent. They didn't have any upbringing at all.

"I can't not go either."

Mao Xiaoqian's mother pinched her son's butt hard. She was also dragged in by the teachers.

These teachers were specially hired by the Yuwen family. They were all highly educated and high-quality teachers. Of course, working here, their wages were also very high, and the children they had to teach... were also children from wealthy families.

They had observed the children over the past few days. They were all very well-behaved and very cute. Especially today, there was a pair of triplets, and the two boys looked exactly the same, the little girl was very beautiful. She was also a child star.

They were also very well-behaved and polite.

In the end, why did such a weirdo come out.

Although the children were so disobedient and rude, the teachers were still very patient with these children. They absolutely would not punish the students physically. This was a private kindergarten.

Mao Xiaoqian threw a tantrum for a very long time until the teacher promised to give him a new toy. It was also different from other people. Only then did he feel happy and stop making a fuss, of course, he also found the Lu siblings and two cousins of the Yuwen family sitting on the small chair at the side.

It had to be said that Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were quite capable. They had already found a younger brother who had a life for them at such a young age. When they grew up, they would be good friends for life.

Of course, Xun Xun had also found herself a little best friend, and that was Xiao Mei.

The few of them were just having fun when suddenly, a hand reached out and forcefully pulled Xun Xun's hair. That was the hair that Grandma had combed for her in the morning. Xun Xun's hair had been burned off during the last fire, some of it had burned off.

She had taken blood, injections, and medicine herself, but she did not cry. However, when her mother cut her hair, she cried for a very long time.

She shook her little head. She did not like others touching her hair at all. Only the wet nurse and the others were allowed to touch it. Now that someone had grabbed her pigtail, she was unwilling and unhappy.

Just as Mao Xiaoqian wanted to grab her again, a small hand went up and slapped Mao Xiaoqian's small hand that was grabbing Xun Xun Xun's head.

"Don't touch my sister."

Xiao Qi pushed Mao Xiaoqian away forcefully. She hated it when others touched her sister.

Xun Xun hugged the doll and hid on her brother's back. Her little mouth was pouting so much that it was about to be filled with oil.

Chapter 2105: the child was no longer around

When Xiao Guang heard that his sister had been bullied, it was even worse. The Yuwen Brothers, who had just been promoted to become their lackeys, also stood up and ran in front of Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang. They also faced the outside world in unison.

When Mao Xiaoqian saw this kind of situation, he was frightened. He sat on the ground and started to kick his legs and cry loudly.

When he went back, he told his mother that the children in the kindergarten were bullying him and that he would never go to school again. How could Mao Xiaoqian's mother just let this matter go, the next day, he went straight to the kindergarten, saying how the kindergarten was opened and why they were bullying his children.

As soon as the kindergarten started, Mao Xiaoqian and her son caused a commotion.

Mao Xiaoqian's mother crossed her arms and lifted her chin. She also wanted to compensate them. After all, they were victims.

In the end, all she got was a withdrawal letter and Mao Xiaoqian's tuition fees. Every cent was returned to her. She did not pay the so-called tuition fees, and they were refunded humanely.

Mao Xiaoqian's mother was also dumbfounded. She was waiting for compensation and an apology, but it was not a school dropout. How could her son be expelled? This was such a shameful thing. It was clearly the fault of others, it was others who bullied her son. Why was it her family who was expelled in the end? They took responsibility.

She was not convinced. She was not convinced at all.

The next morning, she went to the kindergarten early in the morning. She was clamoring for an explanation.

If she did not quit school, her family would never quit school. If she did, the quota would be gone. This was a school for the aristocrats, and the school would bear all the living expenses, in the future, as long as the children went to school here, their future would be limitless.

But now, they were actually expelled. This couldn't be allowed, this couldn't be allowed either. No matter what, they couldn't be expelled.

Absolutely not.

She went to the principal's office park. The principal wasn't willing to meet Mao Xiaoqian's parents. This was an order from the Yuwen family. No school in the Yuwen family would accept such a student in the future, Mao Xiaoqian would be permanently expelled from the Yuwen family by the new student.

"Principal, you can't do this. My son was clearly wronged. Why should we be the last to leave?"

Mao Xiaoqian's mother slammed her hand on the table. "This isn't fair. This isn't fair at all."

"Because you provoked someone you shouldn't have provoked."

The principal didn't hide anything because this was the truth.

"Who are the people we can't offend? Just a few smelly money and you can do such a Thing?" Mao Xiaoqian's mother thought that they were all good princesses. How could they offend others?

"So what if you're Rich?"

Mao Xiaoqian's mother loved to compare herself with others. Of course, she also looked down on those rich people. They were the typical rich people who hated the rich. Other than money, what else could those people have left.

"They are amazing."

The principal bluntly mocked Mao Xiaoqian's mother, "If you were a rich person, you could have sent your son to any kindergarten you wanted. However, you don't have one now. This kindergarten was built by the Yuwen family, and the funding was also provided by the Yuwen family. As soon as your son came, he beat up his son. Do you think he will let your son go to school again?"

“It was clearly them...”

“They were the ones who hit my son.” Mao Xiaoqian’s mother stood up with a cry. However, she was interrupted by the principal’s words and choked to death.

“Who can be the witness?”

The principal was too lazy to argue with Mao Xiaoqian’s mother. What was there to argue about?

“You only have one mouth, but they have several mouths. They are richer and more powerful than you. No matter which of the two families it is, you can’t beat them. Needless to say, the two families are together.”

“When you have their family background, then come and fight with them. Just like this, they can strangle you to death with a strand of your hair.”

Mao Xiaoqian’s mother wanted to do something, but the principal made it clear that she couldn’t beat them. She could only take the returned tuition fees and find a new kindergarten for Mao Xiaoqian, however, a kindergarten of the same level was frighteningly expensive. She truly could not afford to pay for this tuition fee.

Why did she have to hold on so stubbornly? It was also because she wanted her son to learn from such an aristocrat. Ever since kindergarten, she had wanted him to become a superior person so that she could make friends with those rich people in the future, in the end, she wanted to find a good future for herself.

But now, there was nothing left. Her son had been expelled from school.

Yan Huan combed her daughter’s hair, but it was much shorter. Poor Little Xun Xun, her hair had been burned by a fire. If she didn’t cut it, it would be very ugly. But fortunately, no matter how much she cut her hair., in the end, it could still grow back.

Xun Xun shook her little head.

“What’s Wrong?”

Yan Huan adjusted her daughter’s two braids and tied them into two small flowers. She instantly became very beautiful and cute.

“Mom.” Xun Xun shook her little head again.

Xun Xun pouted her little mouth. She hated it the most when others touched her hair.

“Don’t worry. The Bad Child Won’t come tomorrow.” Yan Huan touched his daughter’s face. It was that kind of child. With that kind of temper, if it was placed in kindergarten, it would affect other children. Therefore, those children who were rude could not stay in school.

They had already told him to scram. Of course, like Mao Xiaoqian and his family, they also wanted to stay away from her daughter. She was so young and only knew how to bully others. Moreover, she had a mother. Thinking about it., the possibility of her child growing crooked in the future was also very high. The children of his family absolutely could not grow crooked. They had to have healthy roots.

Would they? Xun Xun tilted her little head. However, she knew that her mother would not lie to her. Her mother said that the annoying fellow would not come, so it meant that he would not come. When they went to kindergarten the next day, Xun Xun really found out., the Annoying Fellow didn't come. Of course, she wouldn't see that annoying fellow again in the future.

The new kindergarten was very beautiful. They all liked it very much. The children also grew up day by day. Of course, their IQ was also very high, including Xun Xun. However, Xun Xun was still slightly inferior to her two older brothers, however, she was still very smart.

Yan Huan held one of her sons in each hand and wanted to bring them to try on clothes. Today, there was a new batch of clothes. Her biggest hobby now was not filming, nor was it filming commercials, nor was it filming a show.

The assets under her current name were enough to set up a family for her sons and daughters. Moreover, the children of the Lu family did not rely on their ancestors. There were some things that they had to use their own hands to fight for.

Chapter 2106: longevity

As for Xunxun, Ye Shuyun brought her to Mama Lei's place. After she finished buying for her son, she also brought a set of clothes for xunxun. Xunxun loved new clothes the most. As long as there were new clothes to wear, she would be happy.

"Mama, give Xiao Qi money."

Xiao Qi stretched out her small hand and refused to leave.

"Sure."Yan Huan took out his wallet and took out a ten yuan bill from it to give to him. They were still too young and did not know what money was. However, they knew that money could buy things., yan Huan would never refuse the children's requests. As long as they wanted it, she would give it to them. However, she would not give them too much.

Yan Huan took out another ten yuan note and gave it to Xiao Guang.

One for each of them. No one had more, no one had less.

Lu Qi held his younger brother's little hand. Then, they walked to the side of a beggar sitting by the roadside and gave him all the money in their hands.

Yan Huan stood at the side, his eyes never leaving the two children. The two children had been taught by Lu Yi to be very sensible. They were not naughty, but very loving. Look at how well-behaved they were.

Two Ten-yuan bills suddenly appeared in the beggar's bowl. He hurriedly raised his face and saw a pair of brothers. They were four-year-old children. They looked exactly the same, and they were dressed exactly the same, they were both very beautiful children. At a glance, one could tell that they came from rich families.

Yan Huan did not pay attention at first, but he kept feeling that something was not right. This beggar's appearance seemed somewhat familiar.

She seemed to have seen him somewhere before, but she was not very sure.

The beggar took his bowl and limped forward like a hobbling old man.

His figure was extremely thin, almost as thin as a pile of skin and bones. There was only a layer of skin on his bones, and his face was as thin as a ghost. It was terrifying and ugly.

Yan Huan stared blankly at the beggar's back for half a day. She still felt that something was familiar, but it was too long. She didn't remember until it seemed like some vague memory was about to appear, but in the end, she was stuck somewhere.

And the back of the beggar also walked further and further away.

Yan Huan still didn't remember anything.

She held her two sons's small hands and also brought them to the children's clothing store, buying a set of clothes for each of them.

"Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang seem to have grown taller again?" The shop assistant compared Xiao Qi's and Xiao Guang's heights. Yan Huan saw them every day, so she didn't feel anything.

However, the shop assistants in the children's clothing shop had not seen the two brothers for a long time.

And children grew very fast. It was possible that they would look the same every day

"Did they?" Yan Huan also compared the height of her two sons. She felt that they did not grow much either. They were still small.

"They did grow," one of them said. It might be a little unbelievable, but since both of them said it, then it should be like this. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had really grown taller again.., Lu Yi had just measured them a few days ago. Why? Did they grow taller again?

Look, even their clothes were a size bigger than the last time.

Yan Huan took the clothes and compared them with the children's clothes. It seemed like they were really quite suitable. She also took a smaller size. This was the size of the clothes that Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were currently wearing.

And this size of clothes was obviously not too suitable. It was just a little smaller.

"You guys are growing so fast." Yan Huan really felt that the children were growing too fast. In the past, she could still carry them. Then, she started to feel that she could not carry them anymore. Now that they had grown taller again, they had grown a lot more in a year.

And if the children grew too fast, she would grow older even faster.

“Perhaps, your mother will soon become an old woman.”

Yan Huan touched her face and took the clothes that were a size bigger. She went to help them change. When she bought clothes for Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, they had bought the exact same clothes. The two children looked the same, their height and weight were the same, and they had the exact same hairstyle. Only their own family members would be able to recognize them.

At first, she had thought of bringing a set of clothes back for Xun Xun. However, after Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang finished trying on the clothes, she felt that it was better to bring her back. If Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had grown.., then Xun Xun had grown as well.

Xun Xun had always been a head shorter than her two older brothers. Now, she was still a head shorter. When she reached her older brother’s chin, she thought that Xun Xun had grown a little longer. In the end, it did not seem to be a problem of growing a little longer, it was a problem of growing a lot. If she bought it according to the current size, it would definitely be small.

She would bring Xunxun here in person another day.

She did not bring the clothes with her. She still had to bring her two children and go to Linlang later. She did not drive the car either. She had walked over. If she were to carry two bags that were so big.., she might end up carrying the bags. As for her son, she had no way of controlling him.

“Mom, it’s that beggar uncle again.”

Xiao Guang stretched out her chubby little finger and pointed at the beggar not far away. It was the one they had given money to.

Yan Huan also recognized him. It was not because of anything else. It was because of the beggar’s appearance that she was somehow familiar with him. That was why she recognized him at a glance.

She frowned slightly. Perhaps everyone would have a thought when they encountered these things.

That was, did they encounter a swindler.

It would take a while to sit here and there.

As for the word ‘swindler’, Yan Huan also kept a respectful distance from it.

She did not want to be a swindler. Of course, she also did not like others to use the word ‘swindler’ on her.

She also did not want to be deceived by others.

The beggar seemed to have also discovered Yan Huan and his son. He smiled humbly in an attempt to curry favor with them and wore dirty clothes. It was unknown how long it had been since he had changed his clothes. There was a very strong smell to it.

The wrinkles at the corners of his eyes deepened as well. He was like a person in his forties or fifties. At such a young age, it was possible for him to be at the end of his life.

Yan Huan clenched his two sons’s small hands tightly, afraid that these people would hurt them.

Just as she was about to leave with her children, she suddenly thought of something. She slowly turned around in disbelief.

Then, she stared at the beggar's appearance.

"Longevity?" She asked uncertainly.

The beggar suddenly raised his face. He narrowed his eyes. His protruding cheekbones were connected to his skin and flesh. One of his legs was also twisted beyond recognition. There were wounds of all sizes on his face, as well as those left behind by time, but they were also scars that would never be forgotten.

Changsheng, Yan Huan hurriedly walked over. The two children obediently took one corner of their mother's clothes each and tugged at their mother's clothes.

Chapter 2107: was smashed to death by a pie

"You are Changsheng?" Yan Huan asked again with uncertainty.

She would not be mistaken. This person was Changsheng. Although he was so skinny that he was out of shape, and his entire person had become dirty, smelly, and listless, he was still Changsheng., his facial features didn't change, and the small scar on his forehead didn't change either. And that small scar was left behind by immortal since he was young.

Immortal had said before that this was left behind when he was naughty when he was young and climbed trees. Of course, the appearance of this scar was also a little strange. From afar, it looked like a machete

Other things could be changed, but this scar was unique to immortal.

And as long as Changsheng's mother mentioned this scar, she would say that her family's Changsheng could not be lost. As long as she found that big knife, she would be able to find Changsheng.

The last time Yan Huan saw Changsheng, she was still at the Li clan village.

At that time, there was still half a scar on her face. At that time, her legs were also crippled.

But Changsheng was a normal person.

However, it had only been a few years, and Changsheng had become like this. His face was ruined, his legs were crippled, and his legs were still like this.

"You Are..."

The beggar opened his mouth, but the sound he made was almost like that of an old man. Not only had his body lost its moisture, but his entire person was also the same. He was so withered that he did not have any vitality left.

"I'm Xiao Yan. Do you still remember?" Yan Huan covered one side of her face. When she was in the Li Village, the other side of her face was injured, not both of her faces were injured, so Changsheng should be able to remember her appearance at that time.

The beggar was stunned for a moment, then he opened his mouth in disbelief.

“You...”

Yan Huan was right. This person was indeed changsheng.

“Xiaoyan?” Changsheng seemed to be a little lost at first, but he couldn’t remember this person’s name.

“Li Village, on the mountain. Xiaoyan, you saved me. I’m staying at Your House. I know how to cut my hair.”

Yan Huan reminded Changsheng and helped him recall.

The beggar was still in a daze. He did not know that he had been forced into such a state by life. He even said that he had really forgotten everything.

Did you call yourself a worker? Were you from Li Village? Did you only have one mother? Did you go down the mountain with Jingen to earn money.

Yan Huan asked again. Did you say yes or No?

The beggar only reacted after a long time. He opened his mouth, but it seemed that he could not squeeze out any sound.

“NOD, or Shake Your Head?”

Yan Huan was already certain that the beggar standing in front of her was changsheng. However, how did Changsheng become like this? At that time, she had already felt that there was something wrong with that person, Jin gen. she had also investigated him in the past, but she could not find anything.

She thought that Jin Gen might have brought Changsheng to a private place of work. No matter what, when Changsheng found out that the Li clan village had improved, the mountains had also opened up breeding farms., it was very convenient for the people in the village to go down the mountain or go down the mountain. The livestock products there had a fixed income, especially the free-range native eggs, they could completely feed the people of a village.

Therefore, the young men in the village did not need to go out to work anymore. Even Liu Fang’s family had returned to the village.

Liu Fang’s eldest brother had opened a small restaurant in the town. The vegetables he used were all grown in his own home, and they had not been treated with pesticides or chemical fertilizers.

Business was booming, and he had married and had children. His life was very comfortable, and he earned a lot of money. His family’s small building had been built twice, and it was not worse than those people in the city.

If Changsheng knew that his family’s situation had improved and that he did not have to go out to earn money, he should be able to go back.

However, she had never expected that Changsheng would end up in Hai City. He was even a beggar, and he even treated him like a beggar.

She frowned. 'didn't you go out to work with that Jin Geng? How did you end up like this?'

Changsheng thought for a moment. Perhaps at first, he wasn't able to wrap his head around the situation, but when he suddenly widened his eyes and saw Yan Huan's face, he still couldn't recognize him. But gradually, his eyes began to heat up, then, he covered his face and cried like a child.

What was it that could make a man cry like this? It was almost as if he was wailing loudly. Even Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang hadn't cried like this for a long time.

"Mommy, What's wrong with uncle?" Xiao Guang asked Yan Huan.

"Nothing." Yan Huan rubbed his son's little head. "Uncle is just homesick."

"When you two are homesick, don't you cry too?"

She had Xiao Qi hold Xiao Guang's little hand so that she could keep an eye on them. There were too many people abducting children nowadays, so whenever she came out, she would definitely hold the child's little hand, she had never let them leave her outside line.

Yan Huan took his phone and dialed a number.

"Lu Yi, are you free now? I'm on the street and something happened. Come over first..."

He Yibin walked out, pulled a chair and sat down. He had been on duty all night yesterday. He had originally said that he would rest early, but in the end, Lu Yi sent another person to him. Wasn't this., there was no way he could leave work.

"How is it?" Lu Yi asked he yibin. On the other side, Yan Huan was holding the hands of his two sons. However, the two little fellows were sleepy. They leaned against their mother and rubbed their eyes from time to time.

"Not too good." He Yibin raised his eyes that were bloodshot, "One of the kidneys has been removed. Because the surgery was not done properly, it has not recovered well until now. The comminuted fracture of the thigh was struck by a heavy object. Of course, there is also severe malnutrition."

Yan Huan shook his son's small hand. In an instant, he felt indescribably uncomfortable.

Although Changsheng did not like to talk, he was a tall and strong man. He was not a bad young man. If he were still in the Chen clan village, with his ability and diligence, he would already be like the other people in the village, they were all married and could live a good life with their children.

The outside world was too complicated. It was not something a simple person like him could understand. It was impossible for a pie to fall from the sky. Even if it did, it might not even reach his mouth, he would be smashed to death.

She had once advised Changsheng not to go.

The money outside was not easy to earn. It was not what he had imagined. There was gold everywhere. The so-called gold required opportunity and ability. He was a person without culture, skills, and knowledge, what else could he do besides becoming a migrant worker?

Chapter 2108: Do You Want Revenge

But no one listened to her. Neither Changsheng nor Changsheng's mother listened to a single word of advice from her.

And now, her kidney was gone, her leg was broken, and she was half-dead.

Yan Huan walked in. Changsheng turned his face and smiled at her. He was still the same as before, but he had changed too much. Things had changed, and people had changed.

Whether it was Yan Huan or Changsheng, it was the same.

Changsheng had been recuperating in the hospital for a few days, but he had recovered. He was no longer as afraid of people as before. Of course, he was still unwilling to speak, but he was basically able to communicate.

Yan Huan carried some food that he had bought outside and walked into the ward. He also stood in front of Changsheng.

Changsheng was not afraid of Yan Huan.

However, he still did not quite believe that Yan Huan was the Little Yan that he had fished out of the river.

"You... Are You Really Little Yan?" Changsheng asked again with uncertainty. However, it was precisely because he had not spoken for a long time that his tone was strange and not fluent. Was Your Face Ready?

If half of her face was covered, this would be little Yan's. She was the Little Yan that he had saved. However, her scar was now gone. She had become very beautiful, just like a celebrity.

"It's me." Yan Huan walked over and placed the things he was carrying on the table. Then, he opened the lunchbox and pushed it in front of Changsheng for him to eat.

"Thank you." Changsheng took it. It was possible that he was really famished. He sat up and did not have any image. He hugged the lunchbox and wolfed it down, it had been a long time since he had eaten such delicious food. He had also not eaten so much food.

After he had eaten his fill, he also ate his fill. The food that Yan Huan had brought was enough for two people to eat. However, Changsheng had eaten it all by himself.

"What happened after you came out of the Chen Clan Village?"

Yan Huan sat up and asked.

Changsheng slowly put down his bowl, and his eyes were once again filled with tears. I really should have listened to you back then. That Golden Root was really not a good thing. Thinking back on everything in the past..., changsheng really felt like he had a nightmare. He would sometimes think that if he waited until he opened his eyes one day, he would return to the quiet and peaceful Chen clan village. He might not have earned much money, but he was living happily, he was also living without illness or disaster.

He had a pair of hands, so he could do a lot of farm work. He was also diligent. He was not afraid that he could not feed himself or his family.

However, every time he woke up, it was still the same place. Day After Day, day after day, he was like a dog, lying on the ground, crawling and walking. It was just to win the sympathy of others, so he had to pay a lot of money.

As for what happened when he came out of the Chen Clan Village, to be honest, he was still afraid of everything that had happened.

At that time, Jin Gen said that he could make a lot of money by going out, and that the work was easy. As long as he earned a few years, he would be able to take home tens of thousands of yuan. They all believed it and were full of hope, they followed Jin Gen out of the village. However, they did not expect that after a few days and nights on the train, what awaited them was to be drugged. When they woke up again, they found that their kidneys were gone, then, his legs were broken, and some of them were splashed with sulfuric acid. They did not treat them as human beings at all. Those people made them pretend to be beggars to gain the sympathy of others. They also had to pay a certain amount of money every day. If they could not pay it.., they would be beaten.

There were a few times when Changsheng really wanted to die. He did not want to live like this. He lived like a dog. There was no honor, no tomorrow, and even more so, no future. But when he thought of the lonely old woman in the village.., he could not bear to die, and he could not die.

If he died, who would support his mother in her old age? Who would send his mother to her death? When he did not want to live, he would be a dog. When he died, he would continue to be a dog.

He never dreamed that one day, he would be able to meet Xiao Yan. In the end, it was this woman who had once saved his life.

He also knew that Xiao Yan's real name was Yan Huan. She was no other than a very famous actress. She was not more famous than he had imagined. She had a husband who loved him very much and three children.

Although he was very sad, he sincerely wished her well. Because with him like this, there was no future for him in the future. Even those feelings that had just sprouted in the past were all gone during these few days when he was out, he was no longer beaten and kicked by others.

Right now, he only wanted to live. He only wanted to live like a person.

Yan Huan did not say anything more and did not continue asking. In a while, Lei Qingyi would come over and ask Changsheng about something. Lu Yi said that Changsheng should have a tissue that sold human organs.

Just like abducting and selling women and children, some children were used for sale, while others were beaten and crippled by him. They were used as beggars to cheat people.

As for men, perhaps it was because there were no women who were as easy to sell as children, so those people would target their organs. Such a thing was simply outrageous and shameful.

Yan Huan had never dreamed that such a terrible thing would happen to her one day.

She then thought of those children who had been kidnapped by criminals. Some of them had also been harmed and turned into immortals. She did not dare to imagine what would happen if these children were replaced by her Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang., what would happen if it was her Xun Xun?

Therefore, human traffickers were really too hateful. They should really be caught and executed

Let's see who would dare to traffic in human beings in the future.

In the afternoon, as expected, Lei Qingyi came over.

He had talked with Changsheng for a very long time. There were some things that Changsheng did not know, nor did he know if it was a criminal gang. He just had to hand over the money he wanted every day. If he did not hand it over., or if he did not hand it over enough, he would be beaten.

And he could not even remember how many times he had been beaten in the past few years.

He only knew that if he did not pay enough money over a long period of time, or if he could not reach that amount, they would cripple him again. Only then would he be able to gain the sympathy of more people, and the amount of money he would get would also increase.

He had also been struggling to survive these past few years. Sometimes, in order to avoid being beaten, he had done all sorts of things. He went to the trash can to pick up food that others had not finished eating, and he went to steal money that was loved by others. Otherwise., now, he might not even be able to walk, just like many people. In the end, both of his legs had been broken, and he could only crawl on the ground like a dog

And he did not want to be a dog. He wanted to be a human. He was clearly just one person.

“Do You Want Revenge?”

Lei Qingyi asked Changsheng.

Chapter 2109: they were human beings

“Revenge?” Changsheng thought of the days he had spent these past two years, and how he was now neither human nor ghost. If he said that he did not hate and that he did not want revenge, then was that true? He wanted revenge., he wanted to tear the people who had broken his legs into pieces. He wanted a person who had dug out his kidney to be dismembered.

Doctor he had said that when his kidney was taken away, because the disinfection was not in place, the medicine used later was not enough. There was always inflammation inside, and it was also infected. If it was not handled properly., it might implicate other organs. His liver and kidney were also damaged. If even the other kidney could not be used, then it could really be said to be finished.

Therefore, what he needed to do now was to protect his only kidney.

His current body was so serious that it was in decline. The food money that he had asked for had been taken away by someone. He did not have any money to buy medicine for himself. He had only picked things up from the trash can to eat, how could he buy medicine to eat? It was because there was no medicine that he was like this now.

At first, he thought about leaving, running, and going home. But after a long time, he no longer had the confidence that he had in the past. He was Numb, afraid, and about to die, he also thought that his life would be like this, and that he might die one day.

But in the end, he met Yan Huan.

He also met so many good people. He had secretly cried in the middle of the night. A grown man cried like a child.

So now, when Lei Qingyi asked him if he wanted to take revenge, how could he not want to take revenge? How could he not want to take revenge? He wished that he could beat those people to death with his own hands and dig out their kidneys to feed the dogs.

Thinking of this, Changsheng suddenly raised his face. All the flesh on his face was trembling.

“I’ll take revenge. I’ll definitely take revenge. I Can’t wait to kill those demons with my own hands.”

“Alright then.” Lei Qingyi stood up. “I’ll ask he Yibin to stop the medicine for you in a while. You should first make some preparations and cooperate with us well. Then, we’ll be able to destroy those people’s lairs once and for all.”

Changsheng nodded without thinking. Of course, it was also because he was so angry that he bit his own teeth in the end, and even more so, his own heart.

Thus, when Lei Qingyi asked him for help, he would definitely help. He would definitely help.

He did not want those people to harm others, especially Jin Gen, who was dressed in silver and had a mouth full of lies. His heart had long since died. The people he harmed were all his own people, and the people he harmed were all the people in the village.

Not only had he found many young men from their village, but he had also found many young men from the same village. However, this was not to find jobs for them, nor was it to bring them out of poverty to become rich, he was waiting for them to be disemboweled.

They were not animals. They were human beings. They were all living people. How could he treat them like this? How could he harm them like this? How could he make their lives worse than death.

On the second day, he Yibin helped Changsheng stop taking the medicine.

“Don’t worry. Even if you stop taking the medicine, you will be fine for the time being. The inflammation in your body has almost subsided. If you don’t take the medicine for ten days to half a month, you will be fine. When you come back, I can arrange for you to have the surgery.”

For this matter, Lei Qingyi’s first member was he yibin. He Yibin was Changsheng’s attending physician. If he did not agree, then Jingen would not be able to leave the hospital.

He did not care what case they wanted to solve. He only knew that Changsheng was his patient.

Now that he could agree, it proved that Changsheng could indeed leave. Otherwise, no matter what Lei Qingyi said, he would not let Changsheng leave the hospital.

Xun Xun often came here now. Changsheng had saved Yan Huan’s two lives. She would take what others owed her, and she would also repay what she owed others.

And no matter what Changsheng’s mother had done to her, she had nothing to do with Changsheng’s mother. However, Changsheng was the savior who had rescued her from the Haijiang River. He was also the Savior who had brought her home when her rice had been stolen.

Otherwise, she would not be the person she was now. Their entire family would probably have parted ways long ago.

Yan Huan had told Xun Xun that this uncle Changsheng was a good person, so the three children all liked Changsheng very much.

Changsheng had once had a little interest in Yan Huan, but it was only after he had descended the mountain and his stomach had been forcefully cut open. He had also broken his leg and asked for food for a few years. He had lived a life that was worse than a pig or a dog for a few years, that he gradually left.

Perhaps he did not actually like Yan Huan that much. After all, the kind of affection he had in his heart was only good affection. However, it had yet to sublimate into affection. Therefore, when he knew that Yan Huan had actually gotten married and had children a long time ago., actually, the most he could do was to think things through.

They had all underestimated her. Only now did he know that the Little Yan who had nothing at all back then was Yan Huan, and that Yan Huan was an international movie queen. She owned a company and could earn several hundred million a year as an actress, her husband was the public prosecutor of Hai City. They had three children.

And now, he really did not have any feelings for Yan Huan.

How could he be worthy of her if he was like this? Moreover, he had always been overthinking things. He was very clear in his heart and also very clear on this point.

Uncle did not want to eat? Xun Xun picked up her small steps and took the bag of snacks. This was her favorite. In the past, her mother would not let her eat it. She only gave her one bag a week, but now she was allowed to eat it, and no matter how many bags of snacks she ate, this was her favorite.

And she gave her favorite food to this uncle.

“Uncle will give it to you.”Xun Xun opened the bag of snacks and brought the snacks to Changsheng.

“Thank you.”Changsheng used his fingers to gently pinch Xun Xun’s small face, xun Xun cracked open her small mouth and smiled, revealing two very beautiful little nests.

Xun Xun still stared at Changsheng with her big eyes, as if Changsheng didn't want to eat, so she had to keep looking.

Changsheng had no choice but to put the snacks in his hand into his mouth.

The taste was a little strange, but it was very delicious.

And he had never eaten any snacks since he was young. His village was very poor, and the people in the village were all the same as him. They had never eaten these foods, and they hadn't even eaten instant noodles a few times.

Let alone such delicious snacks.

"Uncle, Xunxun's doll is for you. Let the doll accompany you. You Won't be afraid at night."Xunxun stuffed her doll into Changsheng's hand and ran to the door. At this time, a big hand reached out, it directly hugged her in its arms.

Chapter 2110: crippling

"Daddy..."xunxun immediately called out to her father. She knew that it was her father's. Because her mother said that she had grown taller, her mother could not carry her, and her father would carry her until she was tall.

"Daddy, xunxun has grown taller."Xunxun held her little face and happily said to her father. Growing taller was the happiest thing for her.

"Yeah, our xunxun has grown taller,"Xunxun had indeed grown taller. She had grown another two centimeters taller. Although it was not much, she was still growing every year.

"So, eat your meals properly so that you can grow taller,"Lu Yi pinched his daughter's little face and encouraged the little fellow.

"Mm,"xunxun nodded her little head vigorously. "Don't worry, Daddy. Xunxun will definitely eat her meals properly."

Actually, she was no longer picky about her food. She was more obedient when eating compared to the past, and she ate more than before. However, compared to Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, she still ate too little.

She was already growing, and there were all kinds of small amounts of meat. The meat that had been taken away by Su Mu ran this time had yet to grow back. She was already a child who did not grow meat easily, and now she was even thinner, those who did not know would have thought that they had abused her.

She was very cute to begin with, and her pair of big eyes seemed to be able to speak. They were misty and sparkling, and she also knew how to act cute.

This child really made people not know how to raise her.

Lu Yi walked in with his daughter in his arms.

Changsheng hurriedly put down the doll that Xun Xun had stuffed into his hands and sat up straight.

Of course, he did not have any ghosts in his heart, so he did not feel any fear.

Moreover, he also believed that Lu Yi was an upright person. The past was in the past, so he really did not think too much about it now.

“Don’t worry, you will be fine. Qingyi has always been very cautious. Moreover, you don’t have to take any risks. He will help you. Moreover, as long as we have sufficient evidence, we will definitely be able to eliminate those criminal gangs.”

“I know.” Changsheng had never thought that he would be afraid.

“Whether it’s for myself or for the people of the village, I will definitely help you this time.” Changsheng lowered his head, his fingers tightly clutching the doll in his arms. No matter what, even if he died., he still wanted those who had harmed him, as well as the people of his village, to be brought to justice. He couldn’t let them harm anyone else, and he definitely couldn’t let them harm the people of the village.

Changsheng then changed into his professional begging clothes. He did not know where Lei Qingyi had found these clothes, but just looking at them made his hair stand on end. They were simply too smelly.

However, Changsheng did not care. He directly took the dirty clothes and put them on. He then found a broken bowl and left. Of course, he also went to the place where he used to live and sat there as a beggar, he had been here for two years and was used to this kind of life. Of course, it was so that others would not find him easily. He also knew what to do, which was the best.

Although, at the beginning, he was quite nervous and felt uneasy because what he was doing now was a big matter.

Lei Qingyi had said that as long as he did this, he would become a big hero.

He did not want to be a great hero. He just wanted those people to stop harming the people in their village.

When the time came, he took advantage of the fact that no one was paying attention to him and put the money that Lei Qingyi had given him into his rice bowl to ask for money, if the situation in the past, such as snow or snowfall, he would not be able to find any business for the entire day. Based on the fact that they would not be able to pay up, they would definitely be beaten to death.

He rolled up the money that he had prepared and touched his pocket. Only then did he turn around and walk towards a certain place.

Not long after, there were already quite a number of beggars in the city. Large and small, the majority of them were physically handicapped, and children were the minority, a bald man walked in and extended his hand forward.

This was the action of asking for money.

Changsheng touched his pocket, then took out the money from inside and placed it in the Bald Man's hand.

The bald man dabbed his own saliva on it. This was a line-by-line count. Actually, there was not much, and it was even less likely that there would be large bills. A person would at most ask for a hundred or so dollars a day, and most of them were tens of dollars. It was not that people did not have a family heart, but there were too many swindlers like them in this world.

This time, Changsheng had just handed over a hundred and thirty Yuan, which was a lot. Of course, there were even more because they had stolen it by chance, and it was obviously much easier to steal it than to get it, it was also a lot more.

But if they were caught stealing or robbing, they would be beaten to death.

But if they wanted more money, wanted to eat better, and didn't need to be beaten, then they had to use robbery, whether they wanted it, stole it, or robbed it, whether it was thousands or tens of thousands, they had to pay the public, and after they paid the public, they didn't have much left.

Soon, they heard people crying. There were men, women, and children.

This was because they didn't pay enough money, so they were beaten. They were all men, and if you were talking about women, there weren't many. There were only one or two of them, and they were holding children in their arms, all of them were so hungry that their faces were sallow and emaciated. They were big and burly, and they were extremely ugly. They had always paid a lot of money.

It was winter, and they were all sitting on the street with their children in their arms, enjoying the wind. Of course, they asked for a lot of money. which adult would be willing to sacrifice their children's lives in exchange for that? If they tortured them like that, they would definitely not be their own children.

The screams were also coming in waves. Those who submitted were rejoicing that they did not have to be beaten today. However, most of them were already worried about tomorrow. If they did not complete their mission tomorrow..., then, those who were screaming here might be replaced by them.

Therefore, they were not rejoicing. Instead, they were more worried and fearful.

No one dared to be sure that they would become one of them. They had all been beaten up before, and the pain they felt when they were beaten up was almost as if their tendons and bones had been separated. This was the method these people were used to.

Changsheng placed his hand in his mouth and took it out later. He was not considered a professional actor, so he was a little nervous, so he did not dare to look at people. Fortunately., the others did not realize that something was wrong with him. Those who were counting money were counting money, those who were smoking were smoking, and those who were screaming were playing music. No one really looked at him anymore, changsheng.
