

Chapter 2131: it was not easy to be the son-in-law of the Lu family

It was strange that there was no one in the Lu family who loved money as much as he did. Even Lu Qin, who had died in the past, did not love money as much as he did. He was just a cheap fan. How Old was he now, other children were waiting for their parents' love, their parents' protection, and they were throwing tantrums and crying. They wanted to buy this one today and that one tomorrow.

But Lu Guang was good. All he could think about was money.

He shook his little hand again and climbed onto his small bed.

He and Lu Qi shared a small wooden bed. They folded the quilt and made the bed.

These were all things they had done since they were young. Of course, even their small clothes had to be washed by themselves.

Even Xun Xun had to wash her own clothes, not to mention the two of them.

Also, he was lying on the bed, propping up his face. When he thought about how he had to go to the Lei family's place on Saturday, he wanted to cry. His brother's beating was so painful, and when would he be able to beat up his brother.

He was better at playing computer games than his brother, and he was also better at making money than his brother. However, his brother's fists were very powerful. Beating people also hurt, and looking at people made people afraid.

He was not afraid of his father now, but he was most afraid of his big brother.

Because his big brother and he had a telepathic connection. His Big Brother knew what he was afraid of, and he felt that he was like a poor little transparent. As long as his big brother took a casual glance at him., he would expose everything in front of his big brother.

And he had never been able to figure out his big brother's personality.

"Ah, what should we do?" He buried his little head in the pillow. He was so useless that he wanted to cry.

Yan Huan arranged the dishes in the kitchen for the two aunties. There were two tables and one table was probably not enough to sit on, so she directly arranged two tables.

Who asked them to have so many children? Her family had the most children, especially after they grew up. Because they were growing up, their appetite was really getting better and better every year, when they were growing, they were also growing faster than other children.

The door outside was opened, and Lu Yi pulled his daughter's little hand and walked in.

Xun Xun was already tall. She was a big girl, a little shorter than her two older brothers. However, compared to the other children, she was a little taller. Yan Huan had always been worried that her daughter would not grow tall, when that time came, she would become a little dwarf.

After all, xunxun had only been a little when she was born.

However, she was really a little too worried.

Xunxun was a normal child. Of course, she was also a very healthy child. At the age of ten, she was already a little girl. When she grew up, she was not like her childhood. She was not a soft and tender little ball.

However, she was really a child who had been beautiful since she was young. Moreover, her looks were similar to her mother's face. There was nothing that was not beautiful about her.

Moreover, she was clearly even more beautiful than her mother.

Of course, Yan Huan did not let his daughter continue filming. Otherwise, xunxun would be a very famous child star now. Xunxun also gradually lost interest in filming.

She did not like filming. This was very similar to her mother. She did not like dancing too much. Of course, dancing was only because this was something a lady needed to learn. This was a skill that she needed to have.

If one were to ask her what she liked, she liked to plant flowers.

Of course, with such a character, Ye Shuyun was the happiest because she loved to plant flowers.

At this moment, Xun Xun was holding a bunch of pink roses in her arms. It looked like she had just picked them.

Xun Xun ran in front of Yan Huan and handed the flowers over.

"For the most beautiful mother."

She smiled and revealed a pair of beautiful dimples.

"Thank you, baby." Yan Huan hugged her and kissed her daughter's little face.

It was not easy to raise a little cotton-padded jacket, but raising it made one's heart soften. It was sweet.

Yan Huan placed the flowers in the vase. Then, she took the chopsticks from her aunt and placed them on the table one by one.

Yan Huan had always taught Xun Xun Xun how to cook. Xun Xun also liked it. This could be considered a common hobby with her mother. Therefore, when Yan Huan went out to record programs, the little girl had followed him a few times.

Now, Ye Shuyun would sometimes let Xunxun try out the Lu family's meals. Most of the time, it was made by Xunxun herself. Although it was not as delicious as her mother's cooking, it already had the taste of her mother's cooking.

Of course, Yan Huan's daughter's hobby was also supportive.

Xunxun did not need to be a strong woman. She just needed to be herself. Of course, she had to remember that when she grew up, she absolutely could not meet a scumbag like Lu Qin. However, she also felt that it was impossible.

The men of the Lu family were not blind. They were scumbag men with bad character. First, they could not even pass the test of Old Master Lu. Furthermore, there were layers of people keeping watch over Lu Jin, Lu Yi, and Xunxun's two sister-obsessed older brothers.

In fact, she really had to wipe away her tears of sympathy for her future son-in-law.

It was not easy to be the son-in-law of the Lu family.

Of course, she also had confidence in her daughter. Her Little Xun had a small face and a good personality. She would be a good cook in the future. She was not like her mother, who was unloved and unloved, she had loved her family so much. Of course, no one would dare to lie to her in the future, and no one would dare to bully him. Otherwise, anyone who went would be beaten into a dog.

After a while, Mei Ru came over with Xiaomei. The Yuwen family also came over with their children. Because of these children, their relationship was a little closer, of course, what they liked the most was to take out a day to freeload at Yan Huan's place. Yan Huan was good at acting, but his culinary skills were even better.

She could really be considered to have the teachings of a famous expert.

That was why they liked to come to Yan Huan's place. Other than the culinary skills of a famous expert, there was also the feeling of peace and tranquility in the garden. It was also the most natural feeling.

This place seemed to be far away from the hustle and bustle of the world, and there were no more fights.

This was especially so for the Yuwen family. They were in the business world and often fought to the death with each other. Their lives were also filled with schemes. However, as long as they were here, they could truly relax.

Yan Huan had no relationship with any of them in terms of benefits. During these few years, she had only hosted that gourmet program and was also the resident judge there. However, her fame had never diminished, of course, there was also the box office record that she had maintained. Currently, no one could break it. When her name was still on the list, she would not be forgotten by others. When her name was still on the list, her fame would still be there. She would be an everlasting legend.

Even if it had been five years, six years, or seven years, it would still be the same.

Chapter 2132: Where's the Treasury

The two kids from the Yuwen family had a very good relationship with Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang. They would definitely be best friends in the future. They had grown up naked together, and they had also been beaten up together. In the Lei family., they had been beaten up many times. In the beginning, the four children had hugged each other and cried together. Now that they were used to it, they were all better.

Xiaomei was still the same. She was very shy. She had always been a very shy girl. She did not fight with anyone. She had a very good personality. She could feel that when she grew up., she might also have such a good personality.

It was just that sometimes she was too easy to be bullied.

Lu Qi placed a bag of snacks in Xiaomei's hands. If he did not give it to her, Xiaomei would not want it. It was because the two people from the Yuwen family were like bandits when they saw delicious food.

"Thank you, brother Xiao Qi." Xiaomei hugged Ling Xin in her arms, her eyes beaming with smiles.

Lu Qi's solemn little face seemed to crack into a small smile.

Yan Huan blinked her eyes, then turned back to look at Lu Yi. She saw that Lu Yi was quietly eating. Six years had passed in the blink of an eye, and he hadn't changed much. The mellow red wine-like charm on his body., made him even more mesmerizing.

And the more immersed he was in the red wine, the more mellow it was.

Lu Yi lifted his face and coincidentally met Yan Huan's eyes. Actually, it might be a little far-fetched to say that Lu Yi had not changed at all. However, he had not changed much. However, Yan Huan had indeed not changed at all. No one knew who had said that., yan Huan's time seemed to have stopped at her twenties. Even now, it was the same. She really had not changed at all. If she took photos, even if she did not wear any makeup, she would still be able to withstand the scrutiny of time.

At night, Lu Yi would still cook a bowl of noodles for Yan Huan.

As Yan Huan ate the noodles, she was still thinking about what happened during the day.

"What are you thinking about?" Lu Yi sat over and reached out to help her comb her hair so that it wouldn't fall into the bowl.

"I'm thinking... Yan Huan put down his chopsticks and cupped his chin. "Is Little Qi going to find a little wife for him?"

"You Mean Little Mei?" Lu Yi ate his noodles and got straight to the point. What was Yan Huan talking about?

"Yeah." Yan Huan picked some noodles, but he put down his chopsticks after a while.

Lu Yi got married at the age of 25 because his partner was her. In his previous life, he only got married when he was in his thirties, and he was childless all his life. Yan Huan was not yet at the age of Ye Shuyun in her previous life, but he already knew his own son.

Nowadays, it was already good enough to be able to marry a wife. What else was there to choose from? She was just afraid that when Xiao Qi grew up, it would be Lu Yi's very unlikable personality.

Actually, Lu Yi's personality was not bad. It was just that women liked men like Lu Qin who could speak sweet words and were like gigolo. They liked to listen to what men said and live in their own vanity.

Of course, not every woman was like this. However, women liked this in their bones, even the original Lu Yi was the same.

Otherwise, how could she fall in love with Lu Qin? who asked Lu Yi to be so fierce. No matter how many times they met, they felt that this wasn't a man who was easy to get along with. She had to die an unnatural death and start all over again, only then would she know who was the best to her in this world.

A man like Lu Yi was really the kind of man who would put in all his effort without getting anything in return. In the end, he had to marry a woman like Fang Zhu.

It was also really difficult for a man like Lu Yi to actually have to suffer so much for his character.

Therefore, Yan Huan would definitely not let his son suffer so much. Xiao Guang was not worried. Xiao Guang only had a small mouth like honey and big eyes that liked to smile. In the future, he would definitely be the center of attention, but what about Xiao Qi? He was exactly the same as Lu Yi.

If he really found a little wife for himself, then she would not have to worry.

They were still young. Lu Yi really felt that Yan Huan was overly worried.

"They are not even ten years old. They are considered nine years old," he emphasized the age of the children. "You don't want to be a grandmother so early, do you?"

When Yan Huan heard the word 'grandmother', she could not help but shudder.

Lu Yi's words hit the nail on the head. It pierced through Yan Huan's heart, causing her to feel a chill run down her spine.

She touched her face. Was she really that old?

"There's no rush." Lu Yi was afraid that Yan Huan would think too much and become anxious.

"There's still 20 years left. You can think about who your future daughter-in-law is."

Yan Huan's mood improved a lot when he heard that there was still 20 years left.

"Oh right," she thought of something. "Do you know where Xiao Guang's little treasury is?" She was just a little curious. Where could that kid hide the things? Of course, he also wanted to know exactly how much money he had spent in the past few years, how much money did he actually have selling his mother's face and making snacks?

When she was young, she had no idea at all that Xiao Qi had actually become a little money-grubber. This meticulous and meticulous person was far too different from Xiao Qi's quiet personality.

"I've heard that the most dangerous place is the safest place?"

Lu Yi asked Yan Huan.

Yan Huan nodded. Yes, it should be at home. She could think of that, but she couldn't find it.

Lu Yi stood up.

"Finish your noodles first. I'll bring you to your son's little treasury. It's also to satisfy your curiosity about the children's world."

Yan Huan picked up her chopsticks and finished the noodles in a few bites. Then, she eagerly waited for Lu Yi to bring her to her son's little treasury. This kid had been saving since he was in primary school, he had been holding all the new year's money for the past few years. So, how much money did his little treasury have? Yan Huan was actually just curious.

Lu Yi opened a door. This was the children's room, and it was also the place where their toys were kept. There were Baby Xun, Xiao Qi, and Xiao Guang's transformers, but when they were older.., they didn't really like to play anymore.

Lu Yi opened a cabinet and took out a small box.

"This is..."Yan Huan looked at the small box in surprise. Every child in his family would have such a box. It contained the things they liked most when they were young, and it could be considered as a kind of memory.

Because the memories of their childhood would gradually disappear with time, Lu Yi let them keep these things, hoping to keep more. He was clear that every child kept things inside.., and these were the most precious things they had in all these years.

Xiao Qi kept his own honors. For example, the certificates he received, the awards he received in the semester, and the large characters and paintings he had written. He had been outstanding since he was young, so these things were the representatives of his growth.

Chapter 2133: miser Lu Guang

As for what Xun Xun placed, it was all her favorite small toys and accessories.

As for Xiao Guang..

What was that placed there?

Lu Yi took out Xiao Guang's small box and placed it on the ground as well.

"Take a look for yourself."

"Could it be that it's here?"Yan Huan pointed at the box. Lu Yi nodded.

"We'll know once we take a look."

She quickly crouched down and opened the small box. There was another box inside, and the rest were all toy parts. She didn't know where Xiao Guang had taken them from, but what did it mean? And no matter what, as long as Xiao Guang said it was his memory, it meant it.

Her gaze shifted to the box, and she carefully took it out. She opened it again, and sure enough, there was money inside. Moreover, it was neatly placed together. From the looks of it, it was probably several thousand yuan.

Of course, she didn't touch the money either. This was what Xiao Guang was interested in. She wouldn't invade the children's private space, and she was really just curious.

Yan Huan felt that her face was indeed worth quite a lot of money. She had earned so much pocket money for her son. Of course, she also didn't feel that there was anything wrong with being sold by her son, her face was only sold because it was valuable. She should feel very honored.

At the very least, she could earn some pocket money for Xiao Guang.

Lu Yi couldn't help but feel a slight pain in his forehead. He shook his head and kept the box properly so that Xiao Guang wouldn't cry if he found out.

"How did you know that he put the things here?" Yan Huan looked around. This place wasn't hard to find, but it wasn't easy either. There were too many good places to put these things in the garden. She knew all about it., she knew that Xiao Guang had a small treasury, but she didn't know where it was. And how did Lu Yi know about it.

"He's been in and out a little too many times."

Lu Yi opened the door and walked out with Yan Huan,

"This kid Xiao Guang loves money. He's a little money-grubber. To be able to enter this place frequently, only his small treasury is the one that fascinates him the most."

Yan Huan thought about it. It seemed like that was the case. Xiao Qi seemed to like staying here. In the past, she thought that he had good things to put in there, but now it seemed like that wasn't the case, Xiao Guang was saving money for her.

After seeing the things, Yan Huan wasn't that curious anymore. In fact, she felt like she was a mother who was trying to trick her child. Xiao Guang had been sneaking around to avoid his mother, in the end, his mother found out about everything. He even thought that he was very powerful and had deceived his parents. However, he did not know that his mother was the one who found out about those little secrets.

Yan Huan had made quite a number of cookies that day. They were exquisite and exquisite. There were also quite a number of them that looked like cartoon animals.

She packed the cookies into small transparent bags. These were the children's after-meal snacks. The school that the Yuwen family invested in had been closed all day from elementary school to high school. The children would have their lunch at noon, they ate in the school. Some children brought lunch boxes, while others ate in the school cafeteria.

The three children of the Lu family, Xiaomei, and the two children of the Yuwen family ate in the school cafeteria.

The Yuwen family specially opened a small kitchen to take care of their children. The three children of the Lu family and Xiaomei also ate here. The small cafeteria had a chef specially found for the children, naturally, they would give the children the best food and would not mistreat them. Otherwise, Yan Huan would not be at ease and let the three children eat outside.

Now that the Yuwen family was taking care of them, Yan Huan was not worried about them anymore. He only made some snacks for them to bring over. Of course, these snacks were given to Xiaomei and the children of the Yuwen family.

One portion wasn't much, just a dozen or so. The children's appetites were small, so it wasn't much if they were treated as dessert after dinner.

Xiao Qi's eyes lit up and he ran over to hold his mother's hand. It was obvious that he was acting coquettishly.

Yan Huan had seen this small gaze of his many times. This kid only had such clear eyes when he saw money. He had once again entered the eye of money.

Yan Huan really did not know how he could give birth to such a little money-grubber. No one in his family was as greedy as Xiao Guang, but Xiao Guang was such a strange existence.

"Mom, can you give me more?" Lu Guang blinked his eyes and pretended to be cute. He almost rolled on the ground.

"Can your tummy eat?"

Yan Huan asked despite knowing the answer.

"Yes, yes." Lu Guang patted his tummy. "Mommy, don't worry. I can eat a lot. I can definitely eat too. I'm still growing."

Yan Huan pinched his little face. It was tender and white, just like a delicious bun. However, this bun was filled with gold.

This little money-grubber.

Lu Guang let his mother pinch his little face. Actually, the three children did not like others touching their little faces. They had been unwilling since they were young. However, this person was not someone else, but their mother., no matter how unwilling they were, they had to endure it.

Yan Huan pinched his second son's little face for a long time. Then, Lu Xiaoguang used his cute little face to get two more bags of biscuits. It seemed like it was time to earn money again. At least 20 yuan.

Lu Guang calculated in his heart. The smaller ones were sold for one yuan, and the bigger ones could be sold for 1.5 yuan. Moreover, even with such a small price, he found it cheap. The biscuits made by his mother., they were gold-plated and silver-plated. Moreover, they were both good-looking and delicious.

When Lu Qi saw his younger brother smile like a cheating cat, he knew what he was thinking. It was most likely that he was blinded by money again.

Xunxun liked these kinds of biscuits. She asked her brother to take her share and Lu Qi put the two biscuits in his backpack, then, he held his sister's hand and prepared to ask the driver to send them to school.

It would take about twenty minutes to get to the detention center. It was only about ten minutes from the Lu family and they were on foot. When they were in the Lu family, Grandma would take them to school. If they were in the detention center, the driver would send them there, Lu Yi was now at work, and Yan Huan had to tidy up the house and record the show. Hence, the three children had been sent to school by Ah Shi, the chauffeur.

Ah Shi had been with Yan Huan for six years and was absolutely loyal. Of course, he could be trusted. Otherwise, Yan Huan would not have given his three children to her.

Chapter 2134:

Ah Shi sent the three children to school. The three young ones had already gone to their own schools. The Lu family triplets had always been influential figures in their studies. Lu Qi and Lu Guang were the top students in their studies, their studies were very good and they didn't seem to be very serious. However, every time they took an exam, they were ranked first or second in the school. Lu Wei's studies weren't bad either, but she wasn't as good as her brother, however, Lu Wei had a pretty little face. She was simply loved by everyone. This was a world that looked at faces. As long as she had such a small face, what was there to be afraid of?

Moreover, she was born in the Lu family. Even if she had to be a millet worm for the rest of her life, it did not matter. The education fund that her mother had saved for her was enough for her to live for the rest of her life.

Yan Huan didn't believe the rumors of the Lu family. They said that the girls born in the Lu family could bring glory to their ancestors and make the Lu family rich and powerful. The Lu family was already very rich and powerful, if the rise and fall of the family were to be placed on a girl, then why would they need a man from the Lu Family?

Xun Xun could have been very famous. Her words and her life would be noticed by many people. Of course, there would also be many fans. Even the clothes she wore and the food she ate would be imitated by others.

However, Yan Huan did not let her daughter walk that path. She let her daughter learn to cook and learn how to grow flowers and plants. However, she did not let her become a child star. Otherwise, she would not have such a simple life.

As for what kind of Path Xun Xun would take in the future, everything depended on herself. On this point, Yan Huan did not force her.

The three children were already carrying their school bags and sitting in their own seats. They had been in the same class since they were young. From kindergarten onwards, the three children's academic results were also very good, especially Lu Qi and Lu Guang, their looks were hard to distinguish, but it could not be denied that they were outstanding.

At noon, they went to have lunch.

They went to a small cafeteria, each with a table. Each person would have a meal prepared by the chef. There was meat, vegetables, fruit, and soup.

One portion was not big, but it was enough to fill their small stomachs.

Xiao Qi gave everyone a small bag of snacks made by his mother. One small bag was not much, but there were more than ten of them. They ate almost one at a time, and soon they were all gone.

Xiao Qi gave his portion of snacks to Xiao Mei. He just needed to eat a few.

“Thank you, brother Xiao Qi.” Xiao Mei didn’t eat much. Instead, she put the snacks in her school bag.

“Why not?” Xiao Qi asked Xiao Mei. The snacks made by her mother were obviously very delicious, but Xiao Mei didn’t eat them. She even had to put them away. Why? Did she not like the things made by her mother?

However, Xiao Qi felt that Xiao Mei should like the desserts her mother made. Whether it was food or desserts, Xiao Mei would eat a lot every time. In his heart, his mother was not an ordinary mother, his mother was the best, the smartest, and the most beautiful mother in the world.

“Xiao Mei keeps them for Daddy and Mommy.”

Xiaomei smiled shyly.

Aunty’s desserts were the best. Mommy and Daddy also liked to eat them.

Xiaomei was a special child. Although her family didn’t lack anything, she was very obedient and well-behaved. Of course, she was also a dedicated child. When she had good things, she would always think of her daddy and Mommy, although it was a family of high officials, Xiaomei was well-educated by her parents.

Xiao Qi also remembered it. Therefore, every time his mother made something, he would ask for an extra portion. However, when Yan Huan asked about it, he was unwilling to tell her. He even made Yan Huan Sad for a long time, he said that his son had grown up and was unwilling to let her get close to him. Now, he also had a little secret that he was unwilling to share with his mother.

As for Xiao Qi, he was just a child who liked to explain. In any case, he had asked for a portion and given it to Xiao Mei. This way, Xiao Mei could eat a portion, and it was possible for her to bring a portion back to her parents.

Xun Xun also used her little hands to pinch the snack and eat it.

“I don’t think I’ll eat it anymore.”

Lu Guang had been thinking about his sister’s snack for a very long time.

Although he was young, he was already very good at scheming. He could not count on the two brothers of the Yuwen family. They were like pigs, stuffing everything into their mouths, it was impossible to get anything out of their mouths. If they wanted to snatch it, it was fine.

They would turn into little dogs, ready to bite.

Although Xiao Mei ate little, she would put away the things she didn’t eat. He didn’t dare to admit it because he was too ashamed to admit that he couldn’t beat his Big Brother. They were clearly born from the same mother, they were clearly learning ancient martial arts together, but why couldn't he beat his big brother.

Of course, Lu Guang didn't know that this was called talent.

In terms of learning, he was just as good as his big brother.

But in terms of martial arts, he couldn't. His big brother was a genius in martial arts.

He couldn't move his big brother. Even if his big brother couldn't finish it, he didn't dare to think about it. So, he could only place all his hopes on his beloved sister.

Xun Xun Bit on the snack and also looked at her brother's pitiful little eyes. She blinked a few times and then took the initiative to give the few remaining snacks to her pitiful second brother.

Of course, she was still an honest child. She had never thought that she would be like her big brother and ask for an extra portion for her mother. This way, she could eat by herself and give a portion to her second brother.

Lu Guang took the snacks and quickly went out to coax the children.

These were personally made by his mother Queen Mother. Each one was neither too much nor too little. They only cost one yuan. One Yuan was just a popsicle. Moreover, how could a popsicle be as delicious as the snacks made by his mother.

The snacks made by his mother did not have any additives, and there was nothing bad about them. They were eaten by themselves, and his mother used the best ingredients, and the taste was so good, how could it not be delicious.

Look at how good his children were. They were all raised by his mother with these tiny little hearts.

When everyone heard that Lu Guang could become beautiful and smart by eating, they took out their pocket money and went to buy biscuits. One Yuan for one yuan. It was indeed not much. Lu Guang only ate one and tasted it. It could be said that his sister also felt pity for him. If she did not eat it, these four packs would cost nearly 50 yuan, and he had earned more than 50 yuan all of a sudden.

Chapter 2135: Lu Guang's abilities

Every day, his mother would cook delicious snacks. Only when his mother was recording the program did they not have snacks. On the other hand, his mother would record the program once a week, so he only had six days in a week, in addition, he did not go to school on Saturdays and Sundays. Therefore, he only had four days in a week. Only then would he be able to earn money. If he earned 50 Yuan a day, he would only be able to earn 200 yuan in four days. After a month.., it was just about a thousand yuan.

He was counting in his heart. Of course, he liked to earn money, but he never thought of using the money to buy anything. He had everything at home. Aunt Mei Mei would bring him a lot of things every month, she would buy him a lot of clothes and toys. He couldn't wear all of them, so even if he had money, he didn't seem to be able to spend it.

In the end, he realized that he was just enjoying the fun of earning money. It had become a disease. His love for money had reached a terrifying level. Just like what they said., she wanted nothing more than to cut off her head and stuff it into the eyes of money.

After returning home, Yan Huan had already prepared dinner for the children. After they finished eating, they would have free time to play. They could have an hour to watch TV, and of course, they could also play with the computer for a while, however, the children at home used this one hour to do other things.

Xiao Guang played on the computer, Xiao Qi went to practice martial arts, and Xun Xun learned housework from her mother.

Xun Xun stood on the small stool and was washing the dishes seriously. She seemed to like doing these things. As long as she finished eating, she would take the initiative to put away the bowls on the table. She was more proactive than anyone else, she did not seem to be reluctant at all.

“Does Xun Xun like to do housework?”

Yan Huan asked his daughter. He was afraid that his daughter would be too obedient. If she did not like to do things because of what her mother said, then she had to be obedient.

“I like it.”Xun Xun nodded vigorously. “Xun Xun wants to be like mother, and make the best dishes.”

“You don’t want to act anymore?”Yan Huan asked her again. As long as she wanted to act, then Yan Huan, as her mother, would not stop her. He would also help her find the best resources and let her rise to the top, it was also a meteoric rise.

Xun Xun shook her head. “Xun Xun doesn’t like acting. Xun Xun just wants to cook the best food. Then, she will cook it for great-grandfather, grandfather, grandmother, father, mother, and brothers.”

Yan Huan caressed her daughter’s waist-length hair.

She really felt that she had given birth to her daughter too beautifully. Of course, she had taught her right. In the future, her family’s Xun Xun would definitely be a good wife and mother. Of course, she would also be a Super Gourmet.

She summarized her experience from her own body. A Woman’s life was not about what achievements she would have, but rather about what kind of man she would marry, and then the continuation of her own bloodline.

Outside, Lu Qi was punching.

His posture was very good-looking, and of course, he also had a good aura. At such a young age, he had already begun to be obsessed with martial arts. It was no wonder that Lu Qi could not beat his brother, because the focus of their lives was different, they had never put much thought into their studies. The primary school curriculum was simple to them. For the rest of their time, they liked to do what they wanted to do. Obviously, Lu Qi liked martial arts, and now, Lu Guang was hugging his computer and playing happily.

But no matter what, they were just ordinary primary school students.

One day, Lu Yi received a phone call and was very surprised. It was the person-in-charge of a gaming company who wanted to meet him.

“Mr. Lu, please take a look at this.”

The person-in-charge carefully pointed his computer towards Lu Yi. Of course, he was very respectful towards people like Lu Yi. Lu Yi’s current status and his position in Hai City., there weren’t many people who wouldn’t be afraid, especially those who weren’t clean to begin with. In this world, there wasn’t anyone who was truly clean. Everyone would do something wrong more or less, it was just that no one knew about it.

Lu Yi brought the laptop in front of him. There was a small game on it. After looking at it for a while, he roughly knew how to play it. It was very simple, but it was quite playable.

“Tell me, what do you want to talk to me about?”

Lu Yi had already finished looking at it. He pushed the laptop towards the person in charge.

“I’m a prosecutor, not a gamer.”

“No, no,” the person in charge quickly shook his head. That was not what he meant. How could he have the courage to let the grand prosecutor Lu play such a game? Wasn’t that a joke?

Of course, he also wanted to poach Lu Yi. To be honest, Lu Yi was indeed a computer genius, but unfortunately, this person was too big and too heavy. They could not hire him. Moreover, the people of Hai City did not want to lose an upright and upright person, he was also a shrewd and reserved prosecutor, so he really did not even think about this matter.

“Mr. Lu, what do you think of this game?”

The person in charge carefully asked Lu Yi’s thoughts.

“It’s Alright,” Lu Yi’s answer was very pertinent, “Although the game is simple, it’s playable and can be used to pass some time. It’s very suitable for people who don’t like to waste their brains, who don’t like to spend time, and who just want to relax. So, in general, this small game still has some prospects.”

When the person-in-charge heard Lu Yi’s high evaluation, he became even more confident about the release of the game.

Of course, he also wanted to talk about the main topic with Lu Yi.

“Oh...” Lu Yi sat up straight. “Talk to me. Does this game have anything to do with me?”

“Yes.” The person in charge sat up seriously. “It has something to do with you because this game was developed by your second young master, Lu Guang.” He was only a ten-year-old child, the person in charge really wanted to cry. Why were all these geniuses from the Lu Family? If they were from other families, they could have poached them over and taken them over. However, the Lu family., who would dare? The Lu family was not short of money, so how could the Lu family work for others? Even if they wanted to work for others, they would work for themselves.

Moreover, they had to go through Lu Yi to buy the ownership of this game. Lu Guang was only a ten-year-old child, so he did not have complete authority to make decisions, everything had to go through his guardian, which was Lu Yi.

Of course, they did not dare to steal this game. Stealing and snatching could be done to anyone, but it could not be done to the Lu family. They could not afford to offend the Lu family, Lu Yi and the others could not afford to offend either.

Chapter 2136: was about to get beaten up

Lu Yi was the person they were most afraid of.

Lu Yi used his middle finger to lightly tap the table. Lu Guang, that kid, had actually researched all of this. Oh, selling money, success, selling, they were all sold. He had raised them to such an age, so he had to pay a little.

When he arrived at the Liuyuan Garden, the three children at home were all busy with their own things. Yan Huan was teaching Xunxun how to make cakes. Xunxun had more talent in these things than she did in acting. She was like a mother.

Lu Yi was naturally happy to see her succeed. He also felt that his daughter was too outstanding. It would be better to be a rice worm in the future.

Women were too smart and too strong. Their relationships would become more complicated.

Therefore, he would rather his daughter not be so smart but be able to live a smooth life. She must not be like his mother who had suffered so much. Now that he thought about it, Yan Huan's life was indeed too complicated, of course, behind the tortuous life, it was probably exciting. Lu Yi would rather not have such exciting life.

Of course, the men of the Lu family had to be excellent. This was also the reason why he did not oppose his son's ideas. For example, if Xiao Qi was good at martial arts, he would satisfy him and let him get the best education as long as he liked it.

Xiao Guang had an abnormally fanatical love for computers, so he taught him. However, he did not expect that Lu Guang was even more thoughtful than he had imagined.

Lu Guang carefully stood in front of his father.

The ones he was most afraid of were: first brother, second father, third mother.

His great-grandmother and grandparents spoiled him. Of course, they were also his biggest backers. Sometimes, when he was mischievous and his father wanted to beat them up, his grandfather and grandmother would block him.

Right now, there was only his mother. He turned around and took a few glances. His mother would definitely not come in. Even if she did come in, it would be useless. If his father wanted to beat his mother up, his mother would definitely help him, his father would beat him even more fiercely.

Was there any other child who was more pitiful than them? If his mother beat him, his father would help his mother. If his father beat him, his mother would help his father. They were the only ones who were pitiful. No, he was the only one who was pitiful, because he was the one who received the most praise. Who asked him to love computers? Computers cost his eyes, and his eyes were injured when he was young. He was almost blind, therefore, his mother did not allow her to use the computer too much, but he liked it.

Also, he was right about his little finger. His father found out that he sold his sister's snacks. How could that little ingrate forget how good he was to her? When it rained.., he even carried her. His sister was a smelly little girl, and she hated to dirty her clothes the most. When it rained, it was the two of them who acted as moving mounts for her. who asked them to be taller and stronger than her sister, she was his sister, and they were his brothers.

"Come here," Lu Yi said to his son indifferently.

Lu Guang shivered for no reason. He thought to himself, 'this is the end. Daddy is going to Spank My Little Butt.' He couldn't help but cover his little butt. He was really afraid of pain.

"Why? Are you hiding something from me?"

Old Ginger was not spicier. Lu Yi knew at a glance that Lu Guang had done something wrong. Otherwise, why would he look so guilty.

"Daddy, I was wrong."

Lu Guang was a smart kid, and smart kids would naturally know their mistakes and change them. They had to admit their mistakes first.

"Huh?" Lu Yi raised his eyebrows. "Tell me, what did you do wrong?"

Lu Guang put his face down and pointed at his little finger.

"I shouldn't have snatched my sister's snacks and snacks."

Lu Yi reached out and placed his hand on his shoulder and pulled him over.

"You snatched it?"

"No, no." Lu Guang shook his little head hurriedly. How would he dare? Of course he didn't dare to snatch it.

"I didn't snatch it. It was given to me by my sister."

Also, Big Brother was there at the time. If he dared to touch his sister, Big Brother would definitely kick his little buttocks. Big Brother's kicks were very painful. Although there were no injuries on his body, he would hit him where it hurt the most, he would even be beaten until he cried. He was already a boy. It was a very shameful thing to be beaten until he cried. And he would definitely not do such a shameful thing. No matter what.., people would always call him little prince.

Of course, he automatically ignored the word 'little money grubber'.

"Stand properly!"

Lu Yi's voice was not heavy, but Lu Guang felt his scalp go numb. His father was quite strange today. It did not seem like he was afraid, but also like he was angry.

Lu Yi took his laptop from the table. Lu Guang was dying of envy. He just wanted to know when he could have his own computer.

He knew about his father's computer. It was brought back from abroad by his mother's uncle. Every year, she would send one back. It was for his father. Not only was it light, but it was also very good for sex, he just didn't get a share.

Lu Yi tapped on the computer a few times and placed it in front of his son.

"Do you know this?" He asked Lu Guang.

"I know it." Lu Guang was an honest child. "This is made by Xiao Guang. Xiao Guang can play until the 53rd level." A Genius's small brain was very sensitive to numbers, he could completely charge forward.

"Daddy, isn't Xiao Guang very smart?" Lu Guang raised his chin proudly. It looked like he was very proud of his small achievements.

Lu Yi took the cup on the table and leaned his back back.

Xiao Guang stood there for a long time before he started to feel uneasy. He pinched the corner of his shirt. Daddy is so scary. What should I do?

Lu Yi raised his eyelids and glanced at his son indifferently. This glance was enough to scare Lu Guang for an entire day. He was afraid of his brother because he was afraid of his father. Later on, he was also afraid of his father because he was afraid of his brother.

In any case, Lu Guang's fate in this lifetime was to live under the oppression of his father and brother.

Especially when his father was silent and expressionless. He simply did not know what his father was thinking. His father's bear-like palm might smack his little buttocks later on.

He quickly covered his little buttocks and looked at the door behind him. He wanted to know what he would do if his father really beat him up. Would he cry for help or run away?

After thinking for a long time, he finally realized that no matter which path he chose, if his father decided to beat his little buttocks, he would be beaten up. There was no grandfather or grandmother here, and there was no great-grandfather.

So no one spoke up for him.

Why was he so pitiful? He was going to be spanked by his father again. If word got out, he would lose face.

He raised his little face and stole a glance at his father. If it wasn't for Lu Yi, he would have laughed out loud.

Chapter 2137: He didn't get a single cent

Lu Guang was a scheming child. Out of the three children in the family, he was the most scheming one.

“Stand properly!” Lu Yi said again.

Lu Guang hurriedly stood properly, still standing upright and straight.

Only then did Lu Yi put down the cup in his hand, and then put his notebook on his lap.

“Xiao Guang, someone wants to buy your little game.”

Lu Yi didn't want to play with his son anymore. He was afraid that he would really scare him to tears.

“Buy?” Xiao Guang blinked his eyes as though he still didn't understand. “That buy, do you want to buy it with money?”

“Yes,” Lu Yi replied again. “I've already agreed.”

“Then dad...” Xiao Guang took a step forward and tugged at Lu Yi's sleeve. “Dad, how much did you sell it for?” His eyes were sparkling. This was proof that Lu Guang was greedy for money.

“500,000.” Lu Yi was very generous this time. He answered whatever his son asked him?

“Wow!” Lu Guang's eyes widened. So this could be sold for money.

However, Lu Guang pursed his lips and tugged at his father's clothes again. “Daddy, can you give Xiao Guang some?” He knew better than anything else, Lu Yi wasn't going to give him these things. After all, he was still young.

“Didn't you earn it yourself?” Lu Yi asked Lu Guang. It was obvious that he wouldn't give Lu Guang the money. What was a primary school student doing with so much money? Flaunting his wealth? If he dared to give him so much money, he would beat him to death.

The children of the Lu family had to be upright.

Lu Guang knew it. He pursed his lips and tugged at the corner of his shirt. Sure enough, his father would not give him the money.

“When you're eighteen, I'll return it to you.”

Lu Yi placed his hand on Lu Guang's small shoulder.

“I don't object to you earning pocket money for yourself, but Lu Guang, remember this. You're only ten years old now. Before you turn eighteen, you have to be a good child and not be too outstanding, understand?”

Lu Guang nodded his head. His father wanted him to keep a low profile. He understood, he understood.

His younger sister could have been a child star. Those famous child stars weren't even as beautiful as his younger sister. But now that she was so popular, and his younger sister was still an ordinary primary school student, it was obvious that.., he still felt that his younger sister was living the happiest life.

Also, his father said that he was eighteen years old. When would he turn eighteen? He was only ten years old now, and he still had eight years left. and eight years was so sad.., sometimes, he would dream that he had grown up, but when he woke up, he was still a little kid.

Although ten years old was already very old, he was still a primary school student. He was not even a junior high school student.

Lu Guang had no idea that such a greedy person like him, like his elder brother and younger sister, had received a coming-of-age gift from his mother when he was eighteen years old, it was the one billion education fund that his mother had saved up in their name. Of course, at the same time, they were also kicked out of the Lu family unconditionally and out of the detention center, then, they rushed to the Lu family's house that their grandmother had prepared for them before they were born. Fortunately, their younger sister had already learned their mother's cooking skills at that time, she did not remember that they were starving.

It was just that these days had not passed yet. The three of them, including Xun Xun, were sent to the special forces, where they endured for another two days.

Therefore, it was not easy for the children of the Lu family. They absolutely could not grow crooked. If they grew a little crooked, then it would not be as simple as a good beating. They had been growing up.., the adults instilled in them a positive attitude. There was also the need to memorize all kinds of legal knowledge. These legal knowledge not only had to be remembered in their hearts, they also had to be remembered in their actions.

Of course, these were all matters for the future. After all, they were still very young and were still primary school students.

The first bucket of gold that Lu Guang earned with his own labor, his 500,000 yuan, was directly confiscated by his family, and they did not even touch a single cent.

However, this also provided a new way for Lu Guang to earn money.

Next time, he just had to keep it from his father. If that happened, his small wallet would be more and more full.

In fact, how could Lu Yi not know what his son was thinking? As long as he saw his eyes rolling, he knew what he was going to do. But, he would give him one hour a day to touch the computer, he wouldn't stop his son from having his own hobbies. Even if he used such hobbies to make money, it was their own business.

As long as they had the ability, as long as they could earn money, as long as they did not look nearsighted.

However, not long after, Lu Guang did not really wear glasses anymore.

Although it was not rare for primary school students to wear glasses now, of course, it was not strange. However, this way, the two brothers would be easily recognized. The one who did not wear glasses was Lu Qi, the One who wore glasses was Lu Guang.

As for where the glasses came from, it was not because Lu Guang really had myopia. It was because he loved playing computer games. When Lu Yi brought the three siblings for a checkup., their uncle he suggested that Lu Guang protect his eyes now. Although he was only given one hour a day to watch the computer, the light from the computer was harmful to the children's eyes, therefore, there were not many people who were nearsighted in the past. However, now, almost half of them had to wear glasses. This was especially so for primary school students nowadays. At such a young age, they only knew how to play on their father's and mother's mobile phones. They also knew how to play games, there were also more and more people who were nearsighted.

When he Yibin thought of this, he gritted his teeth until they hurt. Even the kid in his family, who was so young now, did not know how to play computer games. However, he loved watching television. In the future, he would most likely be nearsighted.

He had no choice but to give his children and Xiao Guang a pair of goggles each to reduce the damage caused by the blue light to their children's eyes, even though they were not used to it, after all, who was willing to put a pair of goggles on their face.

However, they were all disobedient. After putting on the goggles, it was also to let them learn a lesson. They had to do everything in moderation so as not to really damage their eyes. Therefore., lu Guang would become a primary school student wearing glasses in the future. However, he did not care. Moreover, he felt that his glasses looked pretty good. Moreover., he did not want others to always think of him as his big brother, okay?

Chapter 2138: Mama was unhappy

He was obviously much better looking than his big brother. Although they looked exactly the same, he loved to smile so much. How could he be the same as his big brother? His big brother was just like his father, did he have that kind of terrifying feeling.

Of course, the teachers at the school were also happy. The main reason was that it was really difficult to recognize Lu Guang and Lu Qi. The two of them looked very similar, and even their voices were very similar. Since kindergarten., it was very easy for the teachers to mistake the two of them. Fortunately, they were eating by themselves. Otherwise, if they were mistaken, that person would be hungry, and that person would be stuffed.

In the Lu family, no one would mistake them. Of course, they would definitely not appear. One would be stuffed from eating, and the other would be hungry.

However, because the two brothers were really too similar, it was normal for the teachers to call them that. Other than that, it was the teachers' embarrassment.

This time, the biggest difference between them appeared. One of them was Lu Guang, while the other was Lu Qi. With just one glance, it was immediately obvious.

Lu Guang also liked to wear glasses. Perhaps it was because he was very handsome when he wore glasses. After all, in school, very few people wore glasses, and he was already very proud to wear glasses every day, of course, his eyes were fine. The reason why he wore glasses now was to prevent his vision from being affected.

And every time he had a physical examination, his vision was very good. It was definitely 2.0 glasses.

If he wanted to see far, he had to see far. If he wanted to see close, he had to be able to see close.

Yan Huan had just returned from recording the program when Xiao Guang ran over like a lackey. He kicked off his shoes and climbed onto the sofa. Then, he stood behind his mother and massaged her shoulders.

Yan Huan scratched his son's face. "You're the only one who knows how to perform."

"Because my IQ is higher and MY EQ is higher." Lu Guang smiled until his eyes were curved. He also looked harmless, but he was really a little fox that loved to smile.

Yan Huan's phone that he had placed in Bao Chen Rang. Lu Guang could have been a bystander a long time ago. Of course, he was also an observant child. He opened his mother's bag and took out his mother's phone, then, he handed it to his mother.

Lu Guang felt very sad. Many of his classmates already had a phone, but they didn't have one. Even his mother's old phone didn't belong to them, moreover, even if they became junior high school students, they wouldn't buy it for them. They even said that they would only give it to them when they became adults.

Now that they were using their phones, they still had to wait until high school. The adults in their family were really strict. Now, when they became adults, when they were kicked out of the Lu family., they wanted their family to be more strict, but they could not.

Especially after they were thrown into the military camp, it was simply unbearable. However, their family did not even give them a call. At this time, they felt that it was better to be strict, most of them wanted to be more strictly controlled. However, it was a pity that at that time, no one treated them like children. Instead, they were being raised like sheep.

Yan Huan took the phone from her son's hand. She really felt that raising children was too good. Look, they could do many things.

She held the phone in her hand and glanced at the caller ID. It was ye Xinyu. Why was he calling her at this time?

She picked up the call and placed it beside her ear.

"Cousin..."

Ye Xinyu called her cousin.

They used to be cousin-in-law, but after he found out that Yan Huan was ye Rong's daughter, he started calling her cousin instead. She was his cousin anyway, so Yan Huan did not have any objections to calling her cousin, he could call her whatever he wanted.

Yan Huan rubbed Lu Guang's little head and let him play by himself.

Lu Yi happily went to play his computer. He was currently working on a new game, and he only had one hour per day to play his computer. It was really too short, and in order to play a little more on the computer.., he had already paid a lot. Look, he had even added a layer of skin on his face. Was it easy for him?

Now that his father wasn't around, as long as his mother agreed, he could play on the computer for a while longer and he could also study the game for a while longer.

Meanwhile, his mother was also on the phone. That wave of her hand meant that she wanted him to play on the computer, right?

Yan Huan listened to the voice on the other end of the phone. His originally calm eyes became a little colder.

After so many years, there were still some people whom she had not forgiven. For example, she had never wanted to acknowledge the members of the Su family. As for the members of the Ye family, she had only acknowledged them except for ye Jianguo.

"Cousin, I know that this is a little too much. When ye Xinyu said these words, his voice was also very bitter and unbearable. I also hate him, so I have not spoken to him for the past few years. However, he is old after all, and people make mistakes. He already knows that he is wrong. During these few years, he has not returned. He has been living alone in Grandma and aunt's resting place, guarding their graves and speaking with them."

"It's been six years. Cousin, can you forgive him just once? He doesn't have much time left. I know he wants to see you the most, and he also wants your forgiveness."

Yan Huan put down her phone and didn't want to listen to Ye Xinyu anymore. If she continued, it would only be a few words to make her acknowledge ye Jianguo as her grandfather. He didn't have a grandfather, so she didn't have any feelings for ye Jianguo, after all, she didn't grow up by ye Jianguo's side. What ye Jianguo gave her, apart from hatred, was resentment. Nothing he did could be forgiven.

He almost destroyed their family. Those things were still fresh in her memory. The things he did were no less than what the Su family did.

Regardless of whether he had been deceived by others or whether he was such a selfish person, those things had already happened. It was impossible to redeem anything. Hence, he wanted her to forgive him.., did they really think that it would be that easy?

Lu Yi returned at night. When he saw Yan Huan sitting there without saying a word, the three children obediently did not disturb their mother. Even Lu Guang did not play with his computer anymore. He just sat quietly at the side.

Yan Huan's appearance must have frightened the three children. The children were the most sensitive. They knew whether their mother was happy or not. And now, their mother was clearly unhappy, she was also very unhappy.

Lu Yi asked the three children to come over. The three children ran to their father's side. Each and every one of them raised their heads to look at their father. They did not know what happened to their mother. was their mother unhappy?

Chapter 2139: the last part

Over the years, there was almost nothing that could make their mother unhappy. It had been a long time since they had seen their mother so unhappy. They sat there for a long time without saying a word, it made them very worried.

Lu Yi patted his daughter's shoulder and saw the worry and helplessness on his two sons' faces.

"Daddy will ask Auntie Shi to take you to Grandpa and Grandma's place. Go pack your things."

Lu Qi and Lu Guang went to get their things. They didn't need to take anything. They lived at Grandpa and Grandma's place more than they lived in the garden, so they only needed to take their school bags, because they had to go to school tomorrow.

However, Xunxun didn't leave. She looked at her mother and then at her father. She still stood there.

"Mommy's fine," Lu Yi comforted his daughter. "Mommy can't figure out some things. It'll be fine when she does. Xunxun will go to Grandma first."

Xunxun pursed her lips. She might have wanted to say something, but in the end, she still took her school bag and Ah Shi drove them to the Lu family home. However, the three children were still worried about their mother, because that wasn't anyone else, it was their mother.

Lu Yi walked over and squatted down in front of Yan Huan.

"He's sick. He's very sick. He wants to see you for the last time."

"I have no feelings for him." Life and death seemed to be nothing in front of Yan Huan. She had died twice. After ye Rong's death and Yi Ling's death, she had also endured her own death.

So who died and who lived? wasn't that very normal?

People lived to wait for the day of their death.

"I know." Lu Yi held Yan Huan's hand in his large palm, "Let's meet for the last time. No matter what he did in the past, just take a look on account that he's your mother's father. Everything he did was actually for your mother's sake."

"Your mother is a kind woman. She left the ye family back then for you, and now she's sacrificing her own daughter to give these things back to the Ye family. Do you understand?"

Yan Huan pursed his red lips. He knew that Lu Yi was right. The Ye family was different from the Su family. Anyone who died in the Su family had nothing to do with her. To put it bluntly, her feelings for those two people in the Su family.., perhaps not as much as Zhu Meina.

But the ye family was ye Rong's family, and Ye Jianguo was ye Rong's father. She did not recognize this grandfather, but would ye Rong not recognize this father? If ye Rong was around, given ye Rong's character.., in the end, she would still not let go of her father, even if ye Jianguo had done so many wrong things..,

Lu Yi was right about one thing.

Ye Rong owed the Ye family. If she had not left, Grandma Ye would not have been so depressed and loyal. Ye Jianguo would not have been sick enough to look for his daughter for his entire life. He would not have done so because of a fake granddaughter, he did not even want his own grandson. This gave Sun Yuhan an opportunity to take advantage of him. She used a father's guilt towards his daughter to do so many immoral things.

No matter what, the cause of everything was due to Ye Rong.

Ye Rong indeed owed the Ye family.

Lu Yi saw that Yan Huan's expression relaxed a little and was no longer as cold as before. Only then did he heave a sigh of relief. Fortunately, he could make sense of it. Otherwise, with Yan Huan's character, it would be difficult for her to agree to it.

Yan Huan was a woman who had a clear distinction between love and hate. Of course, she should not forget that she was petty. When necessary, she was extremely petty. Of course, she bore grudges.

Moreover, Yan Huan was also a woman who liked to get into a dead end. This was something that Lu Yi understood better than anyone else. If anyone offended her, she would remember the grudge they had for the rest of their lives.

He was worried that Yan Huan would not be able to talk her out of it. He was also worried that Yan Huan would get into trouble and would not be willing to come out for the rest of his life. This kind of character would also be recorded in her heart, it would let her remember those bad things for the rest of her life.

If she did not forgive, she would not forgive. However, she could forget.

Hence, she should not get into trouble this time.

Fortunately, Yan Huan didn't get into her body again. At this moment, her face was slightly pale under the light. Her brows were tightly knitted together as though there were still some things that she couldn't figure out. However, at least.., she didn't reject him.

"Let's go over tomorrow. I'm going to look for another person."

Lu Yi stood up and gently stroked Yan Huan's hair. Even though she was still 20 years old, he still felt a little helpless. He was afraid that if he aged too quickly, others would treat him as her father in the future?

Yan Huan was truly an amazing woman in this lifetime. Perhaps it was because she had been reborn and had not felt it before. After all, if a woman took good care of herself.., there were many women in their 40s who were in their 20s. However, no matter how young a woman was in her 40s, there would always be traces of time on her body.

However, Yan Huan did not. There were no traces on her body. Her time seemed to have stopped at the moment she was reborn. Over these years, it had not changed at all.

Even Yi Ling and Luo Lin had changed too much. Of course, it could not be said that they were old. After all, they were still very young. However, when they stood together with Yan Huan, they could instantly be compared.

Right now, he hoped that Yan Huan could grow up a little. No, he was older. He felt that he was no longer worthy of Yan Huan.

Lu Yi sighed softly. Having a young and beautiful wife at home was actually a kind of pressure for a man.

In the women's prison of Hai City, no matter how the Sun and Moon changed and time passed, it seemed like nothing had changed here, including the rust-covered railings. Sometimes, one could also see the marks of time, time left something on everyone's face, and it was also imprinted in their lives.

In fact, nothing had changed. There would be people coming in here every year, and there would be people going out every year. The world here was a place that normal people could not understand. The people here yearned for freedom outside, they also yearned for a free space, a place where they could breathe freely.

Some could play chessboards, but they were still waiting. Some people could only guard the visible sky and spend their days, days, and years.

This place was isolated from the world, and time was approaching. What was happening outside, and how life was changing, perhaps even they had forgotten about it.

"7056," the prison guard suddenly shouted a series of numbers. The women here were all numbers. Their names were code names, and their lives were also code names. Even their entire lives.., were also code names.

Chapter 2140: was just this one time

There was nothing in this world that belonged to them, and what could belong to them was actually just this string of numbers.

Sun Yuhan walked out of the factory. She was wearing prisoner clothes that had been washed to the point that they were colorless, but she was still wearing them. Other than the gray color on her body, there was also her almost colorless face, she also wore the same pair of pants that had lost their color.

Six years had passed. She was much older. She lived here every day, doing repetitive work. She was also used to the same life and wore the same clothes, she saw the same faces.

The people in front of her changed batch after batch. Some were still familiar, and some were new people. During these six years, no one came to see her, and she gradually forgot everything about herself, she had even forgotten her own name. Who Was She? Yes, who was she? She was a prisoner here, a prisoner who would be imprisoned here for the rest of her life. She had no relatives, no friends, and no loved ones. She had nothing. All she had was a long time, then, she used it to mourn for the six years that had passed. It also transformed her from a young woman into a woman. The word "Middle-aged" had to be added before it.

It had been six years, and she was already a middle-aged woman. She was already old, and her heart could no longer grow old.

And suddenly, someone came to see her.

She narrowed her dull eyes. Someone came to see her. Yes, someone was coming to see her, but who would come to see her?

She followed behind the prison guard and walked forward carefully. For the six years, her area of activity was the place where she lived and the factory. She lived year by year.

She had even forgotten how old she was. She only knew that every day when she woke up, she would go to work and then leave work. Such a day would pass, and during that time.., she even seemed to have forgotten how to speak.

When she reached the visiting room, there was a man sitting there. It was hard to tell how old he was. He was probably between 30 and 40 years old. His back was very straight. No matter where he was.., he had the superiority and pressure that only a superior person had.

Sun Yuhan stopped and walked over.

The expression on her face twitched a few times. Her mouth also moved a few times, but she did not know how to open her mouth. What did she want to say? What did she have to say? Could she still speak?

“I will pick you up tomorrow.”

Lu Yi stood up and did not have any intention of talking more with Sun Yuhan.

“Pick... Me Up?”

Sun Yuhan repeated this sentence, but she did not understand. What did it mean to pick her up? And why would she pick her up?

You will know tomorrow.

Lu Yi turned around and left. His back view brought with it an unfeeling feeling feeling.

In the distance, there was only the buzzing sound in her ears.

She actually didn't believe it. Yes, she didn't believe it. How could she believe that she could actually go out and leave this place.

And she didn't really think of leaving this place. He just wanted to go out and take a look, even if it was just to see another piece of the sky.

But she already had no extravagant hopes.

That night, she tossed and turned and couldn't fall asleep. She kept feeling as though she was dreaming. It was as though other than the breathing in the air, there was also that man's voice.

There was also the sound of the prison guards' footsteps outside from time to time.

She did not know how or when she fell asleep. When she opened her eyes, it was also a conditioned reflex that she had been used to for the past six years. She sat up and quickly put on her clothes, the others did the same thing.

They were almost like machines. They had to do morning exercises, attend classes, carry out ideological education, and go to work.

“7056, change your clothes and get ready to go out.”

The prison guard said to Sun Yuhan again.

Sun Yuhan thought that she had heard wrong and did not move for a long time. When the prison guard opened his mouth again, she returned to her bed. The prison guard had already brought the set of clothes that she had worn when she came in, this set of clothes was something that they would only wear when they went out. However, she had not touched this set of clothes for six years. The clothes that she wore were loose, and the wind blew in from all directions.

She walked out of the prison. When the sunlight outside fell on her body, she was almost lost in thought as she looked at the blue sky in front of her.

It had been a long time since she had seen the sky outside. She just wanted to take another look at it. It might be the only chance she had in her life.

She had stayed in the prison for too long. She had even forgotten how to sit in the car. She sat in the car.

The car drove forward. She did not ask where Lu Yi would take her. It was good to go anywhere. What was the difference between her current state and death?

The car stopped at the entrance of the Ye residence. Sun Yuhan came out of the car, but her legs were constantly trembling. She did not even have the courage to take a step forward.

“Old Master wants to see you,” Lu Yi said faintly, “He is about to die. After all, you were his granddaughter for a few years. You know very well how he treats you. Sun Yuhan treats you the best in this world. It’s just that he treats you better than you treat yourself. He really treats you as his granddaughter.”

At this moment, Sun Yuhan could not help but cry with a painful face. She believed her. At this moment, his tears were repentant and real.

Lu Yi did not leave. It was as if he was waiting for someone.

Before long, Sun Yuhan heard footsteps behind her. However, she did not even dare to turn her head back. She was very afraid of strangers now. She did not even dare to meet anyone. She felt inferior and cowardly.

“He’s coming.” Lu Yi walked over, and Sun Yuhan only heard the footsteps before she finally stopped.

Let’s go in. Lu Yi placed his hand on Yan Huan’s shoulder. On account that he was your mother’s biological father, perhaps he did not have any qualifications, but this was the only time.

“I know.”

Yan Huan knew what he had to do. Otherwise, she would not be here now.

Just like what Lu Yi said, this was the only time.

Sun Yuhan's body stiffened. She must have known who was here?

"Why is she here?" Yan Huan Glanced at Sun Yuhan who looked like an old woman.

"She owes ye Jianguo." Lu Yi didn't say too much. Instead, he brought Yan Huan in. As for Sun Yuhan, she couldn't escape either. When Sun Yuhan came out, she naturally had prison guards with her.
