

Chapter 2141: six years of repentance

When Yan Huan entered, the Ye family members arrived. Only Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin came. No matter what, Ye Jianguo was already in such a state. In addition, Ye Chuji and ye Xinyu were also present, they had to come over no matter what.

Initially, Ye Shuyun's heart was hardened. In the past six years, she had not come once. Of course, it was also a very long time since she had seen ye Jianguo, however, when she saw ye Jianguo's body that was almost as thin as a skeleton, her heart felt a tight pain.

Lu Jin gently held her shoulder and silently comforted her. Birth, old age, illness, and death were all human nature. Not everyone was like Old Master Lu who was still alive and kicking, he was almost 90 years old, but his body was better than that of an average 60-year-old man. Other than paying attention to his health, he was also open-minded. It was also because his life was complete that he was naturally in a good mood every day, his body was also better.

However, ye Jianguo was different. Since he knew that he had been deceived, he could be said to be dead. He used six years to atone for his sins and also persisted for six years, however, after six years, he also wanted to end his life.

And he could only persist for these six years. No matter how much more, he could not persist any longer.

When Sun Yuhan saw ye Jianguo like this, her tears could not help but roll down. She walked over, and with a plop, they all knelt on the ground.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry..."

Her voice was hoarse, and she was also sobbing.

And the words "I'm sorry" were what she had always wanted to say to Ye Jianguo. She had endured for six years, thought for six years, and confessed for six years. She thought that her entire life.., she would never have the chance to say 'Sorry' again. However, one day, she would still be able to see him, and her grandfather.

In this lifetime, the person who treated her the best would be him.

All of this was her fault. She was the one who caused all of this. In fact, Lu Yi was right. If she had not been so ambitious and selfish back then, she might still have been able to live in the Ye family, as long as she really dumped ye Jianguo, this old man, as her biological grandfather.

However, she didn't know. She really didn't know.

She already regretted it now. Was it still too late?

Ye Jianguo opened his eyes. He placed his hand on the top of Sun Yuhan's head and sighed softly. He originally wanted to say something, but in the end, he didn't say anything. Let's just leave it at that.

He looked towards Yan Huan's direction. His trembling fingers seemed to be touching something. Ye Chuji hurriedly went over and took a square wooden box from ye Jianguo's pillow.

Lu Yi placed his hand on Yan Huan's shoulder and gently pushed her forward.

Yan Huan turned back to look at Lu Yi. She also realized that Lu Yi was encouraging her.

Yan Huan smiled and did not force herself to walk over.

"This is your grandmother's." Ye Chuji placed the wooden box in Yan Huan's hand. "This is your mother's dowry. Back then, she took you away, so these things have always been here."

Yan Huan opened the wooden box. There were some jewelry inside. They should have been worn by Grandma Ye when she was young. Grandma ye herself was born into a scholarly family, so these things were not fake, they were all very valuable items. Of course, Yan Huan was not short of money right now, but these were left behind by Grandma Ye for her mother. If they were really in her mother's hands, then they would also be hers in the future.

"Take them."

Ye Chuji was still afraid that Yan Huan would not take them. These were originally your mother's, so it was only right to give them to him.

"Thank you." Yan Huan hugged the box tightly and accepted it.

Ye Jianguo finally smiled. His aged face actually made people feel a little afraid. The flesh on his body seemed to have been blown off by the wind in the world because of these few years, now, all that was left was a dry skeleton and the layer of flesh on the skeleton.

Even if Yan Huan hated ye Jianguo now, he did not want to hate ye Jianguo anymore when he saw that he was at the end of his life and did not have much time left.

He was going to die soon. What was the use of hating him?

Ye Jianguo's mouth was wide open, but he could not say anything. His life was coming to an end, and he just did not want to swallow it.

"I know what you want to say." Yan Huan clenched his fingers in his sleeve and lowered his head. His gaze also landed on ye Jianguo's skinny face, "I think my mother has already forgiven you. After all, your fault is due to her fault."

"She sacrificed her life as a substitute for her own fault. You sacrificed her life for your fault."

"I don't want to blame anyone anymore. And these things..." she hugged the wooden box in her arms tightly. "I will accept them. I will keep them for my xunxun in the future. This can also be considered as grandmother's dowry for Xunxun."

Ye Jianguo suddenly smiled, and there was even a kind look in his eyes.

Yan Huan quietly stared into his old eyes and felt that the light there was really about to disappear.

"If you want my forgiveness, then I will forgive you."

Ye Jianguo was already in tears.

Although Yan Huan still did not call him 'Grandpa', Ye Jianguo knew that Yan Huan had really forgiven him. He used six years to repent, and in the end, it was all repaid, right?

Ye Jianguo looked at Ye Shuyun again.

Ye Shuyun walked over and squatted down as well. Then, she clenched his withered tree-like fingers tightly.

"It's Daddy's fault..."

Ye Jianguo opened his mouth with difficulty. "Daddy gave you... gave you... said... said sorry..."

Ye Shuyun shook her head at first and then nodded. She could only sob uncontrollably. First, she was heartbroken, then hurt her feelings, and finally broke off the relationship. However, Ye Shuyun still didn't forget, it was ye Jianguo who had raised her all those years ago.

This was her father, and this was her biological father.

"Good, good, good..." ye Jianguo used all his strength to hold ye Shuyun's hand tightly. "Good, good, take good care of her."

Ye Shuyun understood, she understood.

She nodded. "Dad, don't worry. We will treat her well. She will live a very good life. We will return everything that we owe ye Rong to her. She is not only my daughter-in-law, but also my daughter."

"Thank you, thank you..."

Ye Jianguo's fingers slowly loosened as if he was asleep. Life was like this. He would clench his fists and cry, but when he died, he would let go and leave with a smile..

Yan Huan turned around and reached out to hug Lu Yi's waist.

"I don't like him at all." She sniffled, her voice clearly choked with sobs.

"I know," Lu Yi said, gently patting her shoulder.

Chapter 2142: what he meant

"But I'm still a little sad."

Yan Huan disliked this kind of life-and-death situation the most.

"That's the right thing to do." Lu Yi placed his hand on her hair and stroked it gently as if he was comforting the knot in her heart, "You're not a cold-blooded animal. You're a human. You have thoughts, and you will also have emotional fluctuations."

"No matter how much you hate him and dislike him, you can't deny that it's because of this blood relationship. You Can't forget it, and you can't deny it."

“He sacrificed six years for everything he had done in the past. It’s also his last six years.”

“Sometimes, forgiving others means letting go of yourself, right?”

Yan Huan had already heard many people crying. Some were ye Shuyun, some were ye Chuji. It seemed that everyone had forgiven her. However, in this instant, the victim’s heart seemed to be relieved. There was no hatred, there was no hatred either. Perhaps those hatred and resentment were gradually taken away over the past few years.

She turned her head and saw ye Jianguo lying there peacefully. However, his chest was no longer heaving. He was very peaceful. It was as if he had fallen asleep. His life had already disappeared from now on.

Perhaps to him, this was a relief. He could finally see his daughter. He could also guard her well with his wife.

Yan Huan’s gaze once again landed on Sun Yuhan. Sun Yuhan lay on the ground and wailed loudly. In that instant, Yan Huan even forgot what this woman had done back then?

Just like what Lu Yi had said, her sadness was not because of anything else. It was also because of this blood relationship. She could not deny the existence of this blood relationship because a part of the ye family’s blood flowed in her body.

And at the end of ye Jianguo’s life, he might really be able to rest in peace.

After all, he had found his daughter and his granddaughter, and his granddaughter had also forgiven him.

Ye Jianguo’s funeral was very simple, and he did not inform anyone. This was what ye Jianguo had requested when he was alive, and there were not many people in the world who were as old as him.

He did not do anything good when he was alive and he did not have the face to hold a funeral after he died. He just wanted to protect his wife and daughter. There was no need for anything else because he did not know anymore.

Old Master Lu also came over. He was still very energetic. He actually did not feel much about ye Jianguo’s death. There were not many people of the same generation who were still alive, he would send away almost every one of them. This year, he sent ye Jianguo away.

Old Master Lu held his great-granddaughter’s small hand tightly.

“I, Lu Yuanyang, will protect your grandson well, but I will definitely not let others bully them.”

Old Master Lu couldn’t help but feel sad in his heart. There was nothing he could do. This person, at his age, was used to being born, old, sick, and dead. He always wondered if it would be his turn one day.

Of course, it was also something that was much more open-minded than a young person.

And he had long forgiven Old Man Ye. After all, he was already dead, so why bother with those things from the past?

Xunxun raised his small head and looked at his great-grandfather. Then, he clenched his great-grandfather's fingers. The children were already old, so they understood some things. They also inexplicably knew about being born, old, sick, and dead, of course, they also knew what death was.

It had to be said that nowadays, television and computers were extremely convenient for humans. However, at the same time, they provided too much knowledge to the children who were still young.

If they died, they would be gone.

If they died, they would never come back.

If they died, they would be gone.

The people who died were gone. The people who were still alive had to continue living. They would also walk to the end of their lives. Ye Jianguo's death also made him depressed for quite some time.

And sometimes, there were some people that could only be remembered in their hearts.

"What do you think?"

Lu Yi asked Yan Huan. This was his wish before he died. If you don't agree, then forget it. Just pretend that I didn't mention it, okay?

Lu Yi gently held Yan Huan's shoulder, afraid that she would feel uncomfortable.

"My Feelings?"

Yan Huan thought about it and suddenly smiled, "I don't have any special feelings. I'll do whatever he says as long as he doesn't let anyone appear in front of me. I've been teaching him for five to six years, and if he still can't teach me anything, I can only say that he's really tired of living."

In the past, she had someone backing her up. Now, she had no ability. Some things depended on her status and money to support her. She was just an old and ugly middle-aged woman. Perhaps she wouldn't be better off if she came out than she was inside.

After all, there was food, drink, and shelter inside, while living outside required courage.

Lu Yi was surprised. How could Yan Huan be so easily explained this time? He was still worried that it might take a lot of persuasion, but in the end, it was an accident. There was nothing. She was very calm, she was more calm than any of them.

Or perhaps it could be said that she didn't care. She had forgotten.

Well, it was good that she had forgotten.

Of course, there were some dangers. He would eliminate them from the outside world. Moreover, that person was no longer in any danger now.

This was the second time Sun Yuhan met Lu Yi. Sometimes, she felt as if she was in a dream. She had actually had such an experience in the first half of her life. She had actually lived in the home of such a person in the past. She was so famous, it was extremely luxurious. Sometimes, in her dreams, she could taste the sweetness of cream, the mellowness of chocolate, the coolness of ice cream, and the person under the money package. Even she had forgotten about herself.

“Sun Yuhan, your decision? This is what he wants, to reduce your sentence.”

“I...” Sun Yuhan licked the corner of her lips, which had almost no color. She yearned for freedom outside, and also wanted to touch the blue sky.

After staying in there for six years, she no longer had any survival instincts.

However, she still wanted to go out. Even if she had to die outside, she still wanted to go out. She wanted to get rid of the shackles on her heart. Even if she had to die, she still wanted to die free.

“I...” She repeated the word “I” but did not continue. It was not until a long time later that she lifted her face and made a decision.

“I want to go out.”

Her voice was hoarse, and the color of her old face could no longer be seen clearly. She was only a dying woman, a young middle-aged woman who had lost her life. In fact, it was the same everywhere, she was just waiting for her life to end.

She still had to support herself outside, but even if she was a beggar, she still hoped that her soul could be freed and not die in such a place. In the end, no one would claim her body.

Chapter 2143: love to death

On this day, Sun Yuhan walked out of the prison with a few things. Because she was released from that courtyard-like place, she didn't know how Lu Yi did it, but her feet were already standing outside, she was still wearing her old clothes, and her clothes were the same style she had worn six years ago. Whether it was the clothes or the pants, they were too big, and they didn't fit anywhere.

However, she still felt that it was good to wear her own clothes. At the very least, she could breathe free air, and she could have her own time. From the moment she left that door, she was already free.

From the last step of leaving here.

She was already her own.

She dragged one leg and walked forward step by step. When she turned back, she saw that the iron door was still tightly closed. It seemed that there were still many people who were struggling for their lives, they were also wasting their lives there.

She turned around and walked away without leaving a single step.

She did not know where she was going. Perhaps she would go back to her previous home. She would turn over a new leaf and be a good person in the future.

She took out her ID card. However, the person on the ID card was completely different from her now. No one would associate her with this photo. She touched her face, she did not know what she had become. After all, six years had passed in a flash. Her most beautiful youth was gone.

She flipped open the back of her ID card. The date on the back had not expired, and the only thing that had expired was her face.

She put her ID card back into her bag. Then, she took her things and prepared to go back to her home. Actually, thinking about it again, there was no home of her own in this world.

She touched her pocket, which was empty. There was nothing in it. She had no money on her, nor was there anything valuable. Other than the clothes she had worn six years ago in this bag, there was nothing else, there was nothing else.

With a creak, a white car stopped in front of her. The car door opened, and a man walked out. Under the setting sun, it seemed to coat this man's entire body with a layer of gold, it was as though he was a celestial being.

This man habitually adjusted the corners of his sleeves. Even the buttons on his sleeves seemed to have turned gold.

Time also gave him a more beautiful color than others.

This man's lips were red and his teeth were white. He was extremely beautiful. It could be described as exquisite. However, he used this expensive suit to block it a little.

Sun Yuhan was very familiar with this brand of suit. This was a set of custom-made clothes. One set was enough for a family to live for several years. However, she had forgotten all about it, how did she spend money like water back then? How did she not put money in her eyes.

She did not know how many times she had worn custom-made clothes like this. No matter how many times she had worn it, no matter how expensive it was, with her old-fashioned personality, she would not be able to wear a suit that cost tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of dollars, she had worn a dress that cost millions of dollars ten times.

She had even forgotten how it felt to wear such custom-made clothes. She only knew that the dress she was wearing six years ago was obviously better than the one she wore in prison.

The Man in front of her was shiny and beautiful, but it also made her look even more pathetic and lowly.

"I still hate you." Sun Yuhan was very familiar with this extremely beautiful man because it was none other than Ye Xinyu. He was sold by her rookie back then, Ye Xinyu.

"I know." She smiled bitterly. She didn't have anything that others liked about her.

Ye Xinyu walked over and stood in front of Sun Yuhan. The current Sun Yuhan was like an old woman. A woman could hide her age, but she also didn't need to hide it. Just like Sun Yuhan, no matter how much she wanted to hide, she couldn't hide the fact that she had become an ordinary middle-aged woman. No, she wasn't even comparable to an ordinary person.

Ye Xinyu took out his wallet and took out something from it. It was a set of keys.

“This is the house that my cousin bought with the money he used to sell the ring. It’s still here. He threw the keys to Sun Yuhan. Even if my cousin pitied you, after all, you took him in.”

He took out his wallet, took out some money from it, and threw it to Sun Yuhan, “Take this money and stay as far away from us as possible. Sun Yuhan, don’t challenge my bottom line again, if you still want to go in.”

“Don’t worry, I won’t.” Sun Yuhan put away those things. Her smile was a little bleak. Now she was still like this, who else would she want to target? She just wanted to have a place to live, then, she just needed to have a job that could support her.

She had been in prison before, so she didn’t have any skills. She didn’t know which employer would want a person like her. Maybe she could only set up a small stall and sell some small things.

Ye Xinyu sat in her car. Bai Zhi was sitting in the driver’s seat. She held the steering wheel and rolled her eyes at Bai Xinyu. “Do you really hate her?”

“I do.” When ye Xinyu saw Bai Zhi, his aloof look was gone. He became a middle-aged man again.

“Honey, come here. Give me a kiss.”

As he said that, he kissed Bai Zhi’s face. Bai Zhu raised her foot and kicked ye Xinyu. This was a real-life version of a wild girlfriend.

“Sigh, don’t hit me.” Ye Xinyu hurriedly raised his hands, but he still shamelessly hugged Bai Zhi and refused to let go.

Wife, I really love you too much. You Don’t know how much I love you.

“How much?” Although Bai Zhi’s face was still flat, it could not be denied that the faint smile on the corner of her lips. No matter how powerful a woman was, she still needed a home, even a woman like Bai Zhi was no exception.

“I love her so much that I can die.”

Ye Xinyu buried his face in Bai Zhi’s neck. With such a violent wife, there was nothing he could do. However, he loved her.

“Oh right, you haven’t answered me yet. Why are you helping her? Don’t you hate her the most?”

Bai Zhi also allowed ye Xinyu to hug him like a piece of candy. After all, he was just a piece of candy.

“I do hate her.” Ye Xinyu raised his eyes and looked at Sun Yuhan who was walking forward like an old woman, “She made me suffer, and she made all of us suffer. But there are gains and losses in this world, and there are naturally gains and losses. Although I suffered, I didn’t meet you. Otherwise, where would I find such a good wife like you?”

Chapter 2144: Reverse Growth

Ye Xinyu was telling the truth. If it wasn't for Sun Yuhan, Lu Yi might not have poached Bai Zhi, and Bai Zhi wouldn't have been able to save him and marry him.

Otherwise, where would he find such a good wife and such a beautiful... Son.

And now, he finally understood why he always made people want to beat him up. Because now, he wanted to beat up his son every day. Why did a boy look so beautiful? What if he grew crooked?

And the next generation of the Ye family, that little child, was destined from the moment he was born. If his father was the same, he would be beaten up since he was young.

Of course, ye Xinyu's words were not words of love. However, it made the heartless woman Bai Zhi's heart soften

Alright, let's go home and see that beautiful son.

Sun Yuhan took out her identity card. The security personnel had also looked at her for half a day. However, no matter how many times they looked at her, they could not tell what was the similarity between this photo and Sun Yuhan, the photo on the ID card was clearly a beautiful woman. Of course, the photo on this ID card was made by someone else in the past, so the ID card was also real, however, she had put on makeup at that time and let someone else take the photo. Of course, this was also because her current image was too different.

One was a beauty, and the other was an old woman with gray hair.

"I. . ."Sun Yuhan opened her mouth. There were some words that were difficult to say, but in the end, she still couldn't say them.

"This photo was taken six years ago. I didn't have the time to retake it."

The person in charge of security looked at the photo for a long time, and finally found some similarities. He returned the ID card to Sun Yuhan and let her pass.

Because Sun Yuhan had been in prison for six years, she didn't know how to get along with others anymore. She habitually hid in a corner and held her small bag tightly in her hand.

This was her future home.

The scenery outside the train was retreating from time to time, and the sound of the train's wheels pressing on the track came into her ears.

One sound after another.

It was like the passing of time, the passing of time..

The outside suddenly turned dark. It was a very long tunnel. Perhaps when they met again, it would be another time, perhaps ten years later.

And ten years was enough to change many things. It could allow a ten-year-old primary school student to grow into an outstanding university student, and it could also allow a young girl to grow into a yellow-faced old woman.

However, a yellow-faced old woman would never fall into the hands of a woman.

On the television, a very young woman was sitting on the judges' panel. Her hair was still smooth and straight. Her face was also covered with light makeup. Her skin was extremely fair and her facial features were exquisite.

However, who would have thought that this woman was actually already 48 years old. She was already a mother of three children. However, her face was still like that of a young girl. Even the color of her lips was light pink. She was Yan Huan, currently, Yan Huan was still the number one at the box office.

Although more than ten years had passed, the legendary era that belonged to Yan Huan was still around. Those two movies were just like the first and second. Up until now, no one had surpassed them. However., after hearing that, Linlang was preparing to release another sci-fi movie. A sci-fi blockbuster like this would basically not be bad. and such a blockbuster would usually only be shot in a few western countries, linlang had spent more than ten years sharpening her sword and preparing to re-enact the glory of the first two films. Of course, she wasn't sure if Yan Huan would accept this film.

Of course, the most talked about was Yan Huan's face, which hadn't changed for more than ten years.

Others said that she was frozen, but she was the real frozen. She hadn't seen a trace of wind or frost on her body. Of course, the people who were the most envied were the Lu family members.

Old Master Lu was more than a hundred years old this year, but he was still very energetic. Perhaps it was because the soil in the Lu family was too nourishing, but a hundred-year-old man could still walk like a bird, therefore, everyone was thinking that it might be because the soil in the Lu family was good, because the people of the Lu family ate vegetables grown by themselves, and the eggs they ate were also produced by chickens raised by their own families, that was why their bodies were so good. A hundred-year-old man's body did not lose out to those young people at all. Although his hair was completely white, his spirit was very good, moreover, no matter how one looked at him, he looked like an eighty-year-old man. Look at Yan Huan. He was almost fifty years old, but he still looked like a twenty-year-old woman. Therefore, many people said that the feng shui of the Lu family was really good, and it was also to support people, otherwise, how could old master Lu have such a long life? Moreover, how could she give birth to three children? However, other people could only give birth to one child. Moreover, those three children were all smart and beautiful.

"Miss Yan, thank you for your hard work." A staff member said to Yan Huan with a red face.

"I should call me Auntie Yan." Yan Huan actually felt that she was still quite young. However, no matter how young she looked, it could not hide the fact that she was already at this age. She was still old.

"I can't call you that."

The staff member was about thirty years old. Yan Huan's face was really too young. He really could not call her auntie. He wondered how Yan Huan's husband felt when he looked at Yan Huan's face every day. He heard that Yan Huan's husband., was only five years older than Yan Huan. Could it be that the two of them were standing on the side in disharmony.

To be able to marry a woman like Yan Huan was not something an ordinary man could do. This woman was too strong. Not only was she good at earning money, but she was also famous. Of course, she could also give birth.

Now, there was a frozen face. How much pressure did this bring to a man.

Her husband was in his seventies and eighties, but her wife seemed to be in her twenties. The two of them were clearly around the same age, but her wife was always young. This was somewhat infuriating. To a man, this was very damaging to his self-esteem.

Yan Huan put his phone in his bag, and a black hummer was already parked by the roadside. Lu Yi's previous car had long been scrapped. Although the appearance of the car was.., and the performance of the car was still pretty good, it had already passed the age limit.

Yan Huan opened the car door and sat in. Lu Yi was sitting in the driver's seat. Yan Huan saw Lu Yi every day, so he did not feel any change in him. He said that her time had been frozen, but Lu Yi was about the same, although he was not as monstrous as her, he was now like a mature man in his thirties. There was not a single strand of white hair on his head.

Chapter 2145: I will remember you

Actually, not to mention Lu Yi and old master Lu, even Lu Jin and ye Shuyun didn't seem to have changed much. Perhaps it was because the Lu family's feng shui was too good, and also because of the food that didn't have any public hazards, that was why time was frozen on them and didn't pass by too much.

The elderly lived a long life, but the middle-aged were young. The three children were even longer, and they were all much smarter than the average child.

Therefore, the land price of the Liuyuan garden had risen too much over the past few years. Originally, it was a place that no one cared about, but now it had become the top land in the entire hai city.

Everyone said that the water and soil in the Liuyuan Garden could support people. Not only could it keep them young, but it could also prolong their lives

Hai City was an international metropolis. Of course, there was no shortage of rich people. These rich people had already earned enough money. Now, of course, they were thinking about other things, such as longevity and youth, therefore, they were all willing to spend such a large sum of money for nothing other than to live for a few more years.

Therefore, during these ten years, the development of Liuyuan garden was very fast. Originally, it had deviated from the center of the city. However, in these few years, it was actually because of the gathering of many rich people, no one knew who spread this news.

It was said that the feng shui here was good. Even if it was used as an office location, it could still earn a large sum of money. Many superstitious developers had their eyes on the land here. Other than raising the price of the land here to a sky-high level.., there were also some that gradually made this place become hai city, another economically developed central area.

Fortunately, Liuyuan itself existed independently. Moreover, it also had a long chain of mountain roads to walk. Therefore, it did not have much of an impact on Liuyuan. Liuyuan could still be said to be a place isolated from the world.

“Your hair has grown.” Yan Huan brushed Lu Yi’s hair. “It has grown. I’ll help you cut it when we get back.” Yan Huan’s haircutting skills were all trained by Lu Yi and the three children.

Although it was not very professional, it could tidy Lu Yi up very neatly.

“Okay.” Lu Yi drove the car to the Liuyuan Garden.

Yan Huan rested her head on Lu Yi’s arm and took her work schedule. Ever since her three children had grown up, she had been taking on more work. In fact, it was to make her life a little busier, she couldn’t go to the prosecutor’s office every day. After all, that was where Lu Yi worked. Moreover, it was a very formal place. If she went there too often, it wouldn’t be good.

Therefore, she spent the rest of her time on her work. She also did her work very well.

Lu Yi had always been very good to her. Although they were an old married couple, the relationship between them had never changed. Perhaps it was because they had suffered too many setbacks before, so these dozens of rooms., they cherished every day even more. It was almost as if every day and every moment existed in their memories.

Looking back, it seemed that they could still remember a lot of things. If it wasn’t for the fact that too much time had passed, Yan Huan wouldn’t have believed it. She was already in her forties, almost 50 years old.

“Lu Yi, do you think that if my life was over, would I be able to live another life?”

“It’s possible.” Lu Yi continued to drive. Yan Huan wasn’t old, but neither was he. From the looks of it, he was in his thirties. He was mature, steady, and successful.

“If I can do it again.” Yan Huan felt like she was dreaming again. However, the law didn’t say that she couldn’t dream. Perhaps she would really have another life., perhaps the heavens would give her a chance to be reborn.

“Then, this time...”

“I want to go back to when I was younger. I want to see my mother and protect her well.”

Just as the traffic light was red, Lu Yi stopped the car.

He lowered his head and placed his hand on Yan Huan’s still young and beautiful face.

“If you return to your childhood, I will look for you.”

“You have to remember your words.” Yan Huan hugged his arm again. She did not want to fall in love again. Lu Yi was a part of her life that she could not give up. Without him, her life would be meaningless.

“I will remember you. You have to remember me too.”

“Of course.”

Lu Yi also followed Yan Huan's words. Of course, for an atheist like him, it was already not easy to witness Yan Huan's rebirth. He had to be reborn again. To be honest, even if he was proficient in numbers., he still could not figure it out in the end. There was a possibility that they would do it again.

He did not want to go over, and he would not want to come back to the next life.

In this life, he didn't lose anything.

He had a wife, children, parents, and grandfather

Wasn't this good enough?

He just hoped that their days would go on like this, until a long time later, until the day they were no longer around. They would also fulfill their promise that they would be together when they were alive, even if they died, they would still be together.

The car drove very quickly and soon arrived outside the Liuyuan Garden.

Only the two of them were in the Liuyuan Garden now. On weekends, the three children would also come over, but on weekdays, they would only be with them.

The Procuratorate had always been at the foot of the mountain, so it was convenient for Lu Yi to go to work. However, Yan Huan felt that according to the importance the procuratorate placed on Lu Yi, Lu Yi could only retire when he was around 70 years old, of course, Yan Huan also knew that even if Lu Yi really retired, he would still be a person who had nothing to do. He would still have a lot of things to do.

For example, which school would he go to to become a legal consultant? He would give lectures on legal knowledge to the students and so on.

The three children had grown up listening to these things since they were young. Therefore, they would definitely not make any mid-to-low-level mistakes.

Yan Huan took out his own tools to cut his hair. They had already been detoxified.

Lu Yi walked over and sat down as well. He took a set of clothes from the side and skillfully put them on.

Yan Huan looked at them in the mirror. He really couldn't feel any changes in them. She was still her and he was still him. There was nothing wrong with them. It was just that time passed too quickly for them.

Their child was already twenty years old.

She took the scissors and started to cut Lu Yi's hair.

Fine strands of hair fell down. It was her clear and beautiful eyes, as well as her long eyelashes that were always thick and enviable.

As her long eyelashes fluttered, it was as if one could see a string of things called time in her eyes.

Yan Huan was still very beautiful. Time stopped on her body. She was still elegant and beautiful, and she was also intelligent and young.

However, what made people envy her the most was not just these, but the fact that she had a husband who had always treated her like a treasure, as well as three children.

Chapter 2146: was still a picky eater

Of course, her three children were also under pressure to have a celebrity mother.

But it was okay.

Their parents were excellent, and they would be even better. Of course, don't forget that the girl who almost looked exactly like her mother.

The sound of cooking came from the kitchen, and soon, there was a taste that almost made people swallow their saliva.

In this aspect, his sister was the most like his mother.

Lu Qi placed the notebook on his lap, and his fingers quickly pressed on something. Of course, there was also the delicious food cooked by his sister.

It was a shame that his sister was good at cooking. Otherwise, if she was like other girls, who only knew how to cook instant noodles, what would he do?

They had already moved out, and of course, they were independent. They could not go back to their parents' place, nor could they go back to their grandparents' place.

And their three meals a day, they had to go back to their grandparents' place for lunch, and in the evening, it was all cooked by their younger sister.

Their younger sister was personally taught by their mother, and she was also rather spiritual when it came to cooking. No matter how difficult a dish was, it would turn into an authentic delicacy in her hands, unlike the two brothers.., she was good at everything, but when it came to cooking, she was a little stupid and couldn't learn how to cook. At most, she could cook noodles, and it was the kind that tasted terrible.

Lu Guang took away the notebook on his lap and put it on the table. He began to wait for his meal out of boredom.

He turned his head to look at his expressionless big brother, and couldn't help but be covered in injuries from the cold.

With this portable air conditioner here, it was freezing cold.

As for Lu Qi, he was still the same as he was when he was young. He wasn't as stiff as Lu Yi, but he was too mature, which made people feel a little scared, of course, he was even more accurate in reading other people's minds.

Lu Qi majored in law at university, and his minor was psychology. If nothing went wrong, he might become the second police officer in Hai City.

As for Lu Guang, he had been a little fox since he was young. When he was young, he liked to save pocket money. Of course, this was his biggest hobby. However, when he grew up, for some reason, he still liked computers more.

Of course, they had never thought that their mother would give them all their education funds when they became adults. It was also for them to control independently.

Lu Guang had already invested one billion each, and it was a 100% profit. As for his big brother and sister's money, they were all used by him.

Big Brother did not care too much about these things. As for his sister, she was raised too well. He was afraid that she would be cheated.

Alright, here it comes. A young version of Yan Huan walked out from the kitchen. However, she was a little more obedient and innocent than Yan Huan. This was the little princess of the Lu family.

It was rare to see her. She was pampered by thousands of people, but she was not spoiled at all. Of course, she did not have any bad habits. She was an extremely obedient girl, of course, she did not have any bad hobbies. She also had a good education. Of course, she did not chase after celebrities. Her mother was a big star. If she wanted to, she could become famous immediately. After all, she had a lot of resources, as long as she wanted to, she could become her.

However, she didn't like this at all.

She didn't like acting, and she didn't like being famous. She just liked to cook, and she also liked to grow flowers and grass.

Of course, it was because of this hobby that her character became more and more quiet and comfortable.

Lu Guang stood up. He was 183 centimeters tall, with long arms and legs. His pair of long legs were against the heavens. It was a pity that he didn't become an actor. Of course, when he looked at his sister's small face.., that would be a real pity.

Of course, one shouldn't think that his sister was well-protected. She was just a flower in a greenhouse that couldn't stand the wind and the Sun. In fact, when necessary, his sister would also become a little Tyrannosaurus, when necessary, she would also become a little Tyrannosaurus.

Because their mother had once suffered a loss in martial arts, Lu Wei had also practiced martial arts. Although she didn't have two brothers who could fight, her martial arts weren't bad either. She had practiced some of the more useful moves.., moves that were used to fight people.

In times of danger, don't always expect others to save you. It was better to rely on your own safety than to rely on others.

Therefore, Lu Wei had also stayed in the army with her two brothers. Of course, her martial arts skills were not bad. She could still fight with them for a while. Of course, her sister's current martial arts skills.., were also taught by her triplets.

Lu Guang walked into the kitchen with a plate in each hand and came out.

Lu Wei had already prepared food for the two brothers. They could eat soon.

"Okay, you can eat now." Lu Wei sat down and gave the chopsticks to the two brothers.

Lu Guang took the chopsticks and started eating without saying anything. The food made by his sister was naturally delicious, and of course, it was comparable to the cooking skills of a chef.

Lu Qi was still not picky. He ate whatever he picked up.

His sister made chicken with potatoes, braised fish, sweet and sour meatballs, stir-fried cabbage, and a soup. There was also an oily prawn that the three siblings liked to eat. They were all peeled and ready to eat.

“Eat the meat.” Lu Qi picked up a piece of meat and placed it in his sister’s bowl. Then, he used the chopsticks to hit the back of his sister’s hand.

“I wasn’t picky at first, but now I’m picking it up again. Eat It.”

“Brother, why did you hit her?” Lu Guang quickly threw down the chopsticks in his hand and held his sister’s little hand to watch.

“Oh right, Xun Xun, you want to eat meat. Look at you. You’re so thin. How can you not eat meat?”

Lu Guang could not help but pinch his sister’s face. “You were only born a little when you were young. I haven’t seen you gain weight in the past few years. You haven’t gained much weight.”

Lu Wei placed her hands behind her back. She lowered her head and sighed softly. Having two sister-obsessed older brothers showed how envious her life was. She was helpless.

Needless to say, he also had a great-grandfather, a grandfather, and a father. There were five men in the family, each more difficult to deal with than the other. She picked up a piece of meat and placed it in her bowl, she was worried that she would be able to marry off in the future. Since she was young, she did not even have a male creature by her side.

With two brothers following her every day, who dared to get close to her.

“Oh right, brother, I have the same thing that you have.”

Lu Guang stood up and took his schoolbag from the sofa. Then, he took out a letter from it.

“This is for you. Maybe they thought I was you.”

Lu Wei took the letter from second brother’s hand curiously.

“Another love letter?”

Chapter 2147: was for him to handle again

“Big Brother, this is your tenth letter this month. You have one more than second brother. Could it be that the aesthetic standards of girls have changed and they prefer the cold and aloof CEO style instead of second brother’s neurotic style?”

“What neurotic style? Your second brother is a sunshine-type handsome prince.” Lu Guang ran his fingers through his hair and lifted his chin slightly. He was indeed the son of a noble family, of course, Lu Qi and Lu Guang looked like Lu Yi, but they also looked a little like their mother. Therefore, their facial features might be a little more delicate. Naturally, they were at the very popular level of the school weeds.

“Second brother, no matter how handsome you are, you won’t receive as many love letters as Big Brother, so you have to work harder.”

Lu Wei put the letter on the table again and ate by herself.

That’s right, she was quite impressed by these little girls. Each and every one of them could be so persistent. They clearly knew that it was impossible, but they would still send one letter after another. If the love letters received by her two brothers were counted.., from junior high school, each person didn’t count much. If each person received a hundred love letters in a semester, if these love letters were sold together, how much money would they be sold for.

Not to mention, her eldest brother and second brother’s love letters. Ever since she entered university, they all fell up like snowflakes, but she had yet to receive a single one.

She really wanted it. Every girl in the class had received love letters and gifts, but she didn’t have a single letter, nor did she have a single gift.

She had grown up since young, and in front of her two brothers, she could be said to be invisible. The boys around her were at least three steps away.

No, there were two other people. The two cousins of the Yuwen family might have been too close to her. They were good friends with her eldest brother and second brother. The four of them had grown up wearing the same pair of pants, after staying for a long time, they also treated her as their younger sister.

From Primary School, junior high school, to high school, they all went to school together. Anyway, she knew that there were people who had secretly written her love letters. In the end, she was beaten up by her two older brothers. From then on.., no one dared to confess to her. There were also some who were more courageous. But in the end, she still did not receive a single letter.

Now that she was finally in university, no one had confessed to her yet. Then, they wrote her a love letter.

Xiao Mei had said that perhaps they felt that she was too cold and aloof, so they could not do it.

But, was she really cold and aloof? She was clearly very gentle, okay?

She never lost her temper. She also liked to laugh. HMM, at home, was it because she didn’t like to laugh that people mistook her as cold and aloof?

In fact, she just didn’t want others to see her dimples.

It wasn’t that her dimples weren’t good-looking. Perhaps it was because the impression she left when she was young was too deep, and she had become a certain condition to fire.

As long as she smiled, as long as she revealed her dimples, her face would be pinched by this and that. Of course, she was the same as her eldest brother and second brother. She didn’t like others touching her face at all.

Her family could do it, but how could outsiders do it? That was why she didn't want to smile outside. It was just that she was afraid that others would pinch her face again.

She had gotten used to it after so long. It was just that she did not like to smile. It was just that she was cold and aloof. Was it just that she was not easy to get close to? Where did this come from?

Could it be that she smiled like a flower and was easy to get close to? If they sold you with a smile, you might even have to count the money for them.

And there were many types of smiles.

Just like her second brother, her second brother's smile was pretty, right? He smiled every day. Moreover, this smile could make a woman's face look very attractive. It was even informed by women of all ages.

But he was clearly an old fox, and he smiled every day. But in fact, even as his younger sister, she knew what he was thinking in his heart. His second brother was not as easy to get in touch with as his eldest brother.

His eldest brother said one thing and it was one, and he said two things and it was two. He always did not like to beat around the bush. If it did not make sense, he could just use his fists. But his second brother, he put everything in his heart, and he was clearly smiling on his face, but you don't know what he was scheming in his heart?

Could it be that this kind of person wasn't cold and aloof, or was it that he was easy to get close to?

And now she was really glad that she was Lu Guang's younger sister, her biological sister. Otherwise, if she met a fox like Lu Guang, she would feel that she wouldn't know how she would die in the future.

Thinking of her second brother's scheming on his face, and then saying a bunch of things that didn't seem like it, she couldn't help but shiver.

Really, it was a little too scary.

Her two brothers were both very scary, especially her second brother. With such an intoxicating smile on his face, no one knew what kind of rejection he had in his heart.

She knew how easy it was to get along with her second brother, who had a similar temperament as her father. Back then, her father was so stiff that he couldn't even find a girlfriend. If it weren't for her mother marrying him.., who knew what kind of woman he would marry in the end? He would probably be single for the rest of his life.

However, thinking about it this way, it was really scary. If her father hadn't met her mother, they wouldn't have been there. Without her eldest brother, without her second brother, she wouldn't have been there..

"What are you thinking about?" Another chopstick hit her forehead.

"Nothing?" She looked up and saw her second brother's smiling face, but the warning in his eyes was clear.

“Xunxun, don’t Be Picky.”

Lu Wei looked at the table full of dishes. Why did she feel like crying? Next time, she would cook a table full of vegetarian dishes and let them wash their intestines and stomach with her.

“Oh, right.” Lu Wei suddenly remembered something. She picked up the love letter from the table again and placed it in front of her eldest brother.

Lu Qi took the love letter. There was no expression on his face, but he always had the air of a domineering CEO. Even Lu Wei had to admit that her two brothers were really charming, especially her second brother, they were almost soul-stealing.

Initially, Lu Wei thought that no matter how unwilling her brother was, he should at least take a look out of courtesy. As for whether he agreed or not, she would not mention it at first, but it was okay to take a look. However.., her eldest brother directly threw the letter to her second brother.

“You went to handle it.”

“Why me again?”

Lu Guang directly did not want to do it anymore. Originally, he wanted to throw the chopsticks, but when he saw his eldest brother’s solemn face, the chopsticks were only bitten by him, but he did not fall.

“It’s not written for me, why do you want me to handle it?”

“You brought it back yourself. Deal with it yourself.”

Lu Qi picked up his chopsticks again and picked up a lot of meat. He put all of it in his sister’s Bowl. “Eat well. Don’t be picky.”

Chapter 2148: Clear Your Intestines

Lu Wei usually picked some from her grandmother’s house and the Liuyuan Garden. She didn’t eat this or that, but in front of her two older brothers, she couldn’t do anything. Even if she wanted to fool them, she couldn’t.

They were triplets. They were born together and grew up together. Lu Wei only had better memories, but her IQ was average. She was just an ordinary girl, however, Lu Qi and Lu Guang were both monsters with high IQ. No matter what, their younger sister could not escape from the sharp eyes of their elder and second brothers.

Therefore, it was perfect to hand over Lu Wei, the Picky Eater, to her two elder brothers.

Only then did Lu Wei pick up her chopsticks and eat the meat that she did not like, piece by piece, into her mouth. However, she had already decided that from tomorrow onwards, her family would only eat vegetables. She would cleanse the intestines of her two elder brothers who loved meat.

Since she was used to eating big fish and big meat, she should also eat some porridge and side dishes to wash away the impurities in her body.

Hai Shi University had been in the country for decades. If one counted its history, it might have been more than a hundred years. During the Manchu and Qing dynasties, this was the most famous academy. During the Republic of China., it was also the only university in Hai Shi. Even now, it was still a nationally famous university.

There were many universities in Hai City, and the departments were varied. The most famous ones were actually the performing arts and music departments of Hai City University, it was also Hai City's unique geographical location. There were several very famous entertainment companies here, which could also be called the cradle of Stars. The most famous one was probably Linlang, who had risen to fame in the past twenty years, Linlang had already risen to fame.

Although Linlang had not been established for too long, when other people were still developing, Linlang had poached a group of good talents. Now, they were all very famous figures in the industry, this was also where Linlang's confidence lay. As long as they were filming, as long as these people were in the right time, it would be easy for them to come over and receive the scenes.

Furthermore, there were three large-scale film studios here. If they wanted to accumulate experience, they could go to the set nearby. They might even be able to act as passersby A, passersby B, or something like that. Who knows., they would be able to rely on this role to become famous in one shot.

This was the beginning of a woman's dream of stardom. Of course, those who could be accepted could indeed be said to be one in a thousand. After all, acting was not like other departments.

This department had very high requirements for external appearance. Not everyone had such external conditions that could be used.

Song Qingqing was such a young girl with a dream of stardom.

Her appearance was also very eye-catching among the crowd. She had always been very confident in her appearance. Therefore, she had absolute confidence in applying for the acting exam in Hai City.

She believed in her appearance and temperament. Even if she became a movie queen, she would definitely be able to show off in the entertainment industry.

Moreover, Yan Huan would be coming over this time around. She would be a special teacher.

In the hearts of the students here, Yan Huan was practically a god-like existence. After all, not every actor could be awarded a second title or an international movie Queen Award, some people would spend their entire lives at the edge of that award, but Yan Huan had received two in his lifetime. Actually, everyone knew that after the first two titles, best actress Yan would be considered a retired actress, she did not take on any other films. Sometimes, she did not even have a cameo. She only participated in a food-related program, and the viewership ratings of this program had always been at the top of the rankings. This was not a talent show, but unexpectedly, the ratings didn't fall. It might have a lot to do with the nature of the show. Sometimes, other than inviting some ordinary people, there were also some big-name celebrities.

Although Yan Huan didn't film anymore and didn't work at Linlang, sometimes he worked as a small lecturer in school. Of course, he was also looking for talents that he could use.

At this moment, Song Qingqing was standing outside. Even though she had tried her best to calm herself down, her heart was still beating very fast. Her palms were also sweating profusely.

She was standing at the back of the crowd, waiting for the interview. When it was her turn, she took a deep breath and told herself that she could do it. Yes, she could do it., she was the one with the best conditions here, and she was also the most beautiful. If she wasn't blind, she would naturally be chosen.

When she reached the door, she took a deep breath and walked in.

When she stood properly, her eyes were filled with many teachers. One of them was probably someone that all the examinees knew.

Although she had seen Yan Huan's figure on television more than once, after all, Yan Huan's popularity had never been low. However, it had to be said that what she saw on television was still very different from what she saw in real life.

After all, on television, people could put on makeup and learn how to make up light. Some celebrities died in the light and could not appear without makeup. In reality, they were almost completely different from the people on the screen.

However, Yan Huan was a special case. Just like now, she was only wearing a white suit and did not have any extra jewelry on her. Her hair was draped over her shoulders and there was a slight glow, however, it was naturally colored.

There was also a very thin chain around her neck, which could be considered a finishing touch. She was currently conversing with the people around her. At the same time, she was flipping through the information placed in front of her desk. Sometimes, when others were listening, she was listening., her expression was also very relaxed. Of course, what made people sigh was that it might be due to her age. A woman who was forty-eight years old, who was almost fifty years old, maintained her appearance like a young woman in her twenties. There was not much heavy makeup on her face, and her makeup was very light. Moreover, it was almost all plain, however, it could be seen that the texture of her skin was better than that of an average young person. It did not rely on external appearance, nor did it have any artificial traces. It was also very natural and beautiful when she leaned her neck slightly forward.

As long as an examinee entered, everyone's attention and gaze would be on Yan Huan. She was like a focal point, it was unknown if it was because she was whiter than others by a level.

Song Qingqing took a deep breath. She was actually still a little nervous, but no matter how nervous she was, she had to perform well.

She straightened her back slightly and began to introduce herself. She might have been a little nervous at first, but after the nervousness passed, it was natural,

Chapter 2149: was her child

Of course, her condition was much better than she had imagined, and her appearance was quite eye-catching. However, to some of the teachers, there were countless beautiful and young girls who were signed into their hands, although this song Qingqing was indeed eye-catching, it didn't make people feel that she was outstanding. At the very least, from the looks of it, she was still a little tender. However, her external conditions were indeed good, if she was properly groomed and packaged, she might become popular.

However, it was indeed too rare to find someone with the looks and acting skills of Yan Huan.

Song Qingqing finally finished her speech after much difficulty.

When she came out, she felt that her legs were no longer hers. She leaned against the wall and used the wall to support her body. Now, she could still feel the thumping sound of her heart, it was almost jumping out of her chest.

She clutched the clothes on her chest and took a long breath from time to time to calm herself down.

She felt that her performance this time was pretty good. Of course, she also brought out her strength. Although it couldn't be said to be perfect, her self-feeling was commendable. After all, she had been carefully nurtured by her parents since she was young, therefore, in terms of talent, she was naturally not too bad.

She lifted her face and sized up people like her who were still staying in the hall. In fact, they should have left. In the end, it was impossible to tell them, but they still could not bear to leave. To put it bluntly.., they wanted to know if there was someone better or worse than them. would it make them more confident or give up.

At this moment, a young girl walked over. At that moment, many people could not help but feel their eyes brighten. Of course, women who were more beautiful than themselves felt inexplicably uncomfortable and jealous.

This was a girl who was at the same age as a flower. She was in her twenties, and her long hair was so soft that it was almost blown up by the wind. Her entire body was full of vitality, and she had the unique youth and beauty of a young girl, of course, her looks were also modest.

Of course, the most important thing was that even though this girl was just walking, she had the scholarly air of a lady from a noble family, and she didn't seem to be ostentatious at all, on the contrary, she seemed to be a little embarrassed to be looked at by so many pairs of eyes. At this moment, she had already lowered her head, hugged the book in her arms tightly, and walked toward the performance hall.

Song Qingqing couldn't help but feel a little uncomfortable in her heart. There was also a sense of difference that almost made her feel uncomfortable. Originally, she could have been ranked first here, but now, such a person had come, not to mention her, many people actually felt a great crisis in their hearts.

However, they were all more open-minded than song Qingqing. After all, it was impossible to only choose one person. They had never thought of getting first or second place. As long as they could pass the test, it would be the first step to success, however, Song Qingqing, who was quite satisfied with her appearance and ability, felt a little unbalanced.

Apart from passing the exam, she had come here to take first place.

If she wanted to do it, she had to do her best and not just pass the exam. She wanted to take first place, and first place would give her a lot of points for her image. It was also very important for her future development.

But now, there was an opponent who was stronger than her in all aspects, regardless of looks, temperament, and so on. How could she be happy? No one had seen her family background before, but.., she could tell from the clothes on that girl's body and the bag she was carrying that it was quite different.

Moreover, although the clothes on this girl looked very ordinary, her pair of shoes were international brands. Each pair was worth several thousand dollars. If she was just a poor student.., it was impossible for her to trample on her living expenses for a few months, not to mention that the watch on her wrist was actually worth over a million dollars.

She was wearing a house on her wrist, how could she still be a child of a poor family?

Just when everyone thought that this girl would go in for an interview, she didn't move. Instead, she stood to the side and leaned against the wall behind her. No one knew who she was waiting for?

She took out her cell phone. It was the latest model, and each one was worth tens of thousands of yuan.

Song Qingqing couldn't help but touch her cell phone. She thought that her cell phone was already very high-end. After all, a few thousand Yuan wasn't something an ordinary student could buy?

But now, compared to the other students, she felt that her cell phone was really unpresentable.

Not long after, the teachers inside all walked out, and among them, best actress Yan was the most eye-catching. Almost as soon as she appeared, she became the focus of everyone's attention, and many people's eyes were also attracted to her, because she was too young and had too much charisma. Moreover, was she going to be fifty years old, thirty years old, or even younger, like twenty years old? Could it be that Yan Huan was going to be like this for the rest of his life, that she would never age, then, was she a human or a demon?

Yan Huan seemed to have seen something. After saying a few words to the people beside him, he walked to the side of the extremely beautiful young lady.

The moment the young lady raised her head, she saw Yan Huan walking towards her. She placed her phone into her school bag before putting it on her back. She then jogged over.

"Mommy..."

Her sudden words caused the jaws of many people present to drop. Only then did they remember that Yan Huan had children. She also had three children, two males and one female. Her daughter, Lu Wei, had also received an award when she was young, she had even acted in a television series and received an award. However, she did not develop in this aspect later on. Otherwise, she might have become famous for a while now. After all, she had great resources in front of her.., and now, news of Lu Wei had not appeared for a long time. It seemed that she had no intention of debuting.

Even when Yan Huan was interviewed by the media, he was also asked about this question.

Yan Huan gave a clear answer at that time. Her children would never set foot in the entertainment industry. If it were an ordinary person, they would probably be so unyielding that they wouldn't dare to say it out loud. They were afraid that their answer today.., in the future, they would slap themselves in the face, but Yan Huan wouldn't. She took it as an answer. If she could say it, she would do it. Of course, she wouldn't let others slap her in the face.

Song Qingqing couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief. If Yan Huan was Lu Wei, then she didn't have to worry.

Because Lu Wei couldn't enter the entertainment industry, she wouldn't fight with her for anything?

Fortunately, she absolutely believed that Lu Wei wouldn't debut. If she really wanted to debut, she wouldn't have waited until now.

Chapter 2150: poisonous mouth

"Where's your brother?" Yan Huan asked his daughter. Today was Lu Yi's birthday. No matter how the three children were, they would never forget their father's birthday. They were going back in a while to make a cake for his birthday.

Of course, Lu Yi's birthday had been like this for the past few years. He didn't invite too many people. Usually, it was his family that was together and only celebrating his family's birthday.

"What's wrong? These two brats forgot their father's birthday. What Time Is it now?" She raised her wrist and looked at the time. It was almost noon, and they still had to make a cake when they got back, they still had to make preparations, so there wasn't much time to waste.

Lu Wei shook her head. She didn't know. She had never been able to find her brother.

"En..." she thought about it again. "Big Brother might be in the student union. Big Brother is the president of the Student Union. As for second brother, second brother's cell phone is switched off," so she couldn't contact him in person.

"Let's go look for him." Yan Huan took out his cell phone and called his eldest son. His eldest son's cell phone was connected.

"Xiao Qi."

"Mom..."

When Lu Qi heard his mother's voice, he hurriedly stood up as well.

"I'm in school. Come over later."

"Okay, I got it." Lu Qi tidied up the things on the table and was ready to leave.

"Senior, are you leaving?"

A student asked Lu Qi carefully. He really felt that Lu Qi's expression was too scary. He didn't dare to look at his face and talk. What should he do?

“En, I want to go home once.” Lu Qi took his things and left. He was surprised. Why did his mother come today? Didn’t she usually not come here?

However, he just remembered that today, it seemed that the school’s acting department was recruiting new students. His mother would sometimes come here to be a judge teacher. She also wanted to recruit a few new people for Linlang, he just didn’t know if there was anyone who caught her eye this time.

He took out his phone again and dialed Lu Guang’s number. In the end, that kid actually turned his phone off.

Didn’t he know that it was his father’s birthday today?

If he dared to forget his father’s birthday, let’s see how he would deal with him when he returned home?

At this moment, in front of a rarely-seen teaching building in the school, coupled with the fact that it was already lunchtime, there wasn’t a single person here.

A girl stood nervously and looked around from time to time, but no one came.

Until the sound of footsteps came from not far away.

She turned her head and saw the tall, steady, and breathing young man walking over.

He didn’t walk fast, but there was a gentle breeze blowing on his body. He stood in front of the girl, took out an envelope from his pocket, and placed it in front of the girl. The girl’s face., instantly turned into two red apples.

“Yours?”

Even the voice was not that of any other boy. It had a special taste, and it was slightly hoarse with a magnetic charm.

The girl nodded, and then lowered her head in embarrassment. Her hands occasionally pulled at her clothes. It could be seen how nervous she was.

“You Like Me?”

Lu Qi’s expression did not change. Even his voice seemed to be very indifferent. Just like his face, there was no expression, making it difficult for others to approach him.

The girl was stunned for a moment. After hesitating for a long time, she mustered all her courage and said, “I . . . I like senior Lu Qi.”

“Oh...” Lu Qi curled his lips slightly. “Are you so sure that I’m Lu Qi and not someone else pretending to be him?”

“How is that possible?” The girl lifted her face, and determination flashed across her eyes. “I naturally won’t mistake senior Lu Qi for someone else.”

“Then do you understand me?”

Lu Qi's voice was still calm, and there was a hint of a smile in his tone. This kind of irresponsible liking was more impulsive for a young girl. As for the rest, he did not see it.

"I understand, of course I understand," the girl quickly said. Her voice was trembling, and her face was excited, "I understand senior Lu Qi. I know what senior likes to eat, what size of clothes to wear, what size of shoes to wear, and what small animals he likes."

"I like small animals. Who did you hear it from?" The corner of Lu Qi's mouth was a little sarcastic. Then, he moved closer to the young girl, and the girl's face burned again, as if it was on fire.

"I... I heard... I heard it from a lot of people..." the girl lowered her head even more.

"I really like small animals," Lu Qi put his hand in the pocket of his pants, "I've broken the head of a rabbit and killed a few chickens, and you said you like small animals. I'm sorry, I won't do such a thing."

"Also..." he straightened up, as if the girl in front of him was some lowly creature.

"What right do you have to like someone like you? When you truly understand me in the future, you can stand in front of me again."

The girl choked on Lu Qi's poisonous mouth and almost cried. Didn't he say that although Lu Qi didn't speak, he was a gentleman? Didn't he say that although he was a little cold, he wouldn't freeze to death? He was like an ice-cold snow lotus. Although he could only be seen from afar, and although he would freeze your entire body, he was still unable to abandon the fragrance that was almost frozen on his body, even if he was frozen into an ice cube, he would still want to hug and gnaw on it and never let go for the rest of his life.

Although Lu Guang looked exactly like Lu Yi, Lu Qi looked like a snow lotus while he looked like a blazing sun. All the women who had seen him, regardless of gender, old or young, almost all wanted to take a bite out of him, however, every woman had different hobbies and liked different things. Just like her, she only liked the cold and aloof Lu Qi and not that charming Lu Guang who always had an impeccable smile.

However, she did not expect that the love letter that she had painstakingly written and her full of love would end up being treated viciously by Lu Qi.

How could he do this? How could he do this?

How could he casually trample on a girl's heart? How could he use such vicious words to scold a girl.

"What, aren't you going to get lost?" Lu Qi's voice was almost cold. Of course, the words that came out of his mouth were still very heavy. "For an ugly freak like you, even if you're naked, I'll still look at you one more time."

When the girl heard this, how could she endure it any longer? She immediately covered her face and ran away.

Not far away, there were still a few girls secretly watching the show.

"I said she will not succeed," a girl can not eat grapes said sour grapes.
