

Chapter 2151: the biological mother came

“How could such an aloof senior like her? She is the school Belle. Even if she is to be matched, she should be matched with the school Belle.”

“The school Belle is his biological sister,” Girl B reminded Girl A.

Girl A grabbed her hair. “This family is really bullying us. We only have two school belles, and they are two brothers. Even the school Belle is his biological sister.”

“There’s nothing we can do about it.” Girl C shrugged her shoulders, “She’s the fifth most beautiful person in Asia. Look at Yan Huan’s face. He’s going to be a grandmother, but he’s still like a young girl in her twenties. How can a child not be beautiful?”

Therefore, this person couldn’t be compared to others. If they were to compare, it wouldn’t be harm, but suicide.

At this moment, Lu Qi was still standing there coldly. The girls who were surrounding him could not help but say that he was so handsome.

While they were still in a daze, they saw a young woman walking over. As her back was facing them, they did not know what that woman looked like. However, they could tell from her back, this woman had a pretty good figure. Of course, her clothes were good as well. Although she looked ordinary, she looked graceful and decent on her body. Her pair of long legs were almost heaven-defying. Which girl did not want them.

The woman walked over and stood in front of Lu Qi.

These girls could not help but bite the back of their hands, as if they were being hated by their husbands for having a mistress.

They saw that woman standing in front of their Prince Charming, and then hugging her man’s arm. This posture was too insulting to their Prince Charming.

At this time, the woman reached out her hand.

She would definitely be beaten up, Girl A.

“My Prince Charming will definitely turn around and leave,” Girl B.

“My husband will definitely not like this kind of woman,” Girl C.

Girl A and girl B’s faces turned cold.

“Who’s your husband? That’s obviously our husband.”

Her gaze moved forward again, waiting for Lu Qi to curse and cry again. However, their eyes suddenly widened and their mouths opened wide.

They saw that their Prince Charming was omnipotent. He had color, status, ability, ability, and intelligence. He actually lowered his noble head.

That woman put her hand on his Prince Charming's face.

"She dares to touch my Prince Charming's face." Girl A rolled up her sleeves. She was ready to fight with others. She had never touched even a small part of her Prince Charming's face.

"She's not touching him, she's pinching him." Girl B was so nervous that she pulled up her clothes, almost tearing them apart.

C was about to faint. "She's really pinching my Prince Charming's face. Oh My God, I'm going to faint."

At this moment, from their angle, the woman's hands were really pinching Lu Qi's face.

Because Lu Qi's face had been pulled out, he was already young, so his skin was fine. Of course, his skin couldn't be loose, and how much strength was needed to forcefully pull his face out, Lu Qi, who had always been cold and aloof, had to bend down and give his face to that woman to pinch.

And he had a helpless expression on his face. He was even feeling hopeless.

And at this moment, regardless of whether he was helpless or hopeless, he still had to resist the urge to roll his eyes. He didn't have the courage, and of course, he had to maintain his cold and aloof image.

"Mom, can you give me some face?" He said helplessly.

Many people were watching. I'm the President of the Student Union.

Yan Huan tugged at his son's cheek again, but he finally let go of his hand. Then, he looked at his son in front of him indifferently.

"Where are the glasses?"

"They're here." Lu Qi instinctively took out a pair of glasses from his pocket. In the end, he was stunned and immediately realized something?

"Mom, did you recognize it?"

He put the glasses on his ear. He was not used to not having glasses. However, he was not short-sighted. He was just used to it. Ever since he was young, it was because he liked to play on the computer, therefore, his family had asked him to wear goggles since he was young. He was used to wearing them. Moreover, this was the biggest thing that separated him from his boss. It also allowed people to clearly distinguish their identities at a glance. Of course, they didn't like to play such a boring and childish game like 'Guess Who is the boss or the second boss'.

Between the two of them, other than having the same face, the same year, the same month, the same day, and different students, everything was different.

His personality was so good, how could it be the same as his boss' dead face.

He loosened the buttons on his collar and messed up his hair a little. It seemed that in an instant, even the temperament on his body changed, becoming more casual., it also became more natural.

It was no longer as stiff as before, but it was full of elegance.

Just like the noble young masters in ancient times, a smile was enough to topple the city.

The woman in front of him lifted her face again, and he immediately lowered his head obediently. Their mother was shorter, and the men in the house were all tall, but only their younger sister and mother had the same line, therefore, after they grew taller, they began to get used to bending down in front of their mother.

“Mom, how did you recognize me?” Lu Guang was like a child, leaning his head on his mother’s shoulder. It was a pity that he had grown up. If only he had been better in the past., how could he still act coquettishly with his mother?

It wasn’t good for a person to grow up, but there was still a good thing. His mother was still the most beautiful mother.

“I gave birth to you.” Yan Huan stretched out his hand and poked Lu Guang’s face, “Tell me, why did you pretend to be your brother and ruin his reputation like this? can his mouth not be so vicious? If you want to act, you should be more professional. Your brother can’t say such vicious words. The most he can say is a thank you and then leave. There’s no need for you to talk so much nonsense.”

That’s right, this was Lu Qi’s rejection. Even if he was wearing a dragon robe, he wouldn’t look like the crown prince. Even if he was pretending, no matter how much he lied, Lu Guang was still Lu Guang, and Lu Qi was also Lu Qi. Others might be mistaken, but Yan Huan definitely wouldn’t., even if Lu Guang was imitating Lu Qi’s expression, as a mother, she would be able to recognize him at a glance.

Yan Huan stretched out his hand and pushed Lu Guang’s head. ‘Go back and let your father teach you how to respect women. There are many ways to reject a woman, but you used the most unsuitable one.’

Lu Guang smiled bitterly in his heart. ‘brother, you’ve really made me miserable.’

Chapter 2152: you are our mother-in-law

And in front of their own mother, they would always be their mother’s obedient babies. If their mother said one thing, they wouldn’t say two. If their mother said one thing, they wouldn’t say two. If their mother said one thing, they wouldn’t say one thing, and they wouldn’t say one thing. The men of the Lu family all had to protect the women in the family.

One was their mother, and the other was their sister.

Also, Lu Guang was really about to cry in his heart. If his father found out when he got home, he would really be scolded like a dog. At that time, he would even get beaten up.

“Mom...” at this moment, another voice was heard.

Lu Guang raised his head and saw his big brother walking over. He was still dressed in a set of clothes that did not have many colors. His gaze was unwavering and his gaze was steady. This was the real Lu Qi. Just this steadiness., lu Guang would never be able to learn it in his entire life.

His face was the same, his clothes had been changed, and his voice could be heard. His actions could be said to be the same in all aspects. However, the only thing that was missing was his temperament.

Lu Qi's aloofness, as well as that unintentional distance.

However, Lu Guang did not have any of these.

Lu Guang was more like the sunshine. His smile was very infectious, and when he smiled, the corners of his eyes would also bend. Compared to the fresh meat celebrities nowadays, they were more popular with girls.

Therefore, he could not pretend to be so cold. No matter how cold he was, deep down, he still thought that he was approachable.

Actually, how could he be approachable? These two brothers were not easy to get in touch with.

"Come here," Yan Huan said to his eldest son. His expression was not too good, and his tone was not good either.

Lu Qi furrowed his brows and then slightly narrowed his eyes. He looked at Lu Guang coolly and used his eyes to ask.

"What did you do to make Mommy Angry?"

Lu Guang pointed at his glasses and gestured secretly. "Mommy found out that we changed our identities."

Even so, it wasn't that serious. Lu Qi didn't feel that this matter could make his mother angry. He didn't really want to deal with this kind of matter, so since he was young, Lu Guang had helped him deal with these matters regarding women.

No matter how Lu Guang Winked at him, it was his boss who had asked him to do it. Now that his mother had found out, his boss would take care of it.

Yan Huan stretched out his hand to Lu Qi, and Lu Qin obediently bent down.

Yan Huan stretched out his fingers and pinched Lu Qi's face.

"Both of you, go back and write me a letter of apology."

Apology for what?

Lu Qi did not understand. Did he do anything wrong? He had always been strict with himself. Before doing anything, he had thought about it. He would also take responsibility for every word he said.

He was very sure that he had not done anything wrong.

So there was only..

He squinted at his younger brother.

Lu Guang covered his face with his hand as if he did not notice the question in his brother's eyes.

“Mom, we should go back.” Lu Qi’s face was pulled by his own mother, but he still raised his wrist to look at his watch with a cold expression, “Mom, you still have to buy vegetables, cook, and make a cake. We don’t have much time.”

Of course, today was his father’s birthday, and he had never forgotten about it. His sensitivity to numbers also came from his father, so every time such a day came, his brain would automatically remind him, so he would never forget his father’s birthday.

Yan Huan finally withdrew her hand and turned around to leave. Of course, Lu Qi and Lu Guang, who were behind her, also hurriedly followed. Lu Qi still had the same expression, and Lu Guang was also smiling.

A few girls at the side screamed out loud.

Girl A clutched the clothes in front of her chest, really enduring very hard.

“The future mother-in-law is me. It’s me. I’m your future daughter-in-law.”

However, Yan Huan was a little too young. With such a beautiful mother-in-law, how could a daughter-in-law survive?

“I grew up watching her on TV. Girl B also looked intoxicated. She hasn’t changed at all. She hasn’t changed at all.”

“Yeah.” Girl C also kept nodding her head. “I like her the most. When I was young, I already felt that she was so beautiful. And now that I’m a university student, she’s still as beautiful as ever.”

And now, they were all praising their future mother-in-law. They had all forgotten what had just happened.

For example, how did Lu Qi turn into Lu Guang.

And at this moment, Yan Huan was walking forward. Actually, many people wanted her autograph. Although she had stopped filming long ago, her popularity did not decrease at all. Hence, there were still many people around her.

It was a pity. People were clearly attracted by her, but they could only stand far away. This was because Lu Qi and Lu Guang were both standing behind their mother. Lu Qi himself looked as if he did not want anyone to get close to him, Lu Guang was still smiling, but there was a strong warning in his smile

As long as they were around, these people wouldn’t be able to pick up their mother.

In the car, Lu Wei was already there. She was happily flipping through a book. When she looked up, she saw her brother and mother coming from afar.

She hurriedly got out of the car. Her small face was smiling like a newborn flower. It was a fresh and tender color.

“Mommy, you’re here.” She hugged Yan Huan’s arm. Her face was almost identical to her mother’s, but it was much more childish than her mother’s.

“I’m still a baby.”

Lu Wei had never treated herself as a grown-up. Yes, although she had grown up, in the hearts of her family, she was still a little baby.

Yan Huan shook his head and left. When they returned home, Lu Qi had already opened the car door and Lu Guang was driving

The driver had already sped towards the detention center. At this moment, the students who were being blocked by the school security were all boiling with excitement. They were all chasing after the back view of the best actress Yan. As expected, the charm of the best actress Yan., even though more than ten years had passed and she was already middle-aged, she had never changed.

When the car arrived at Liuyuan, Lu Qi and Lu Guang had also changed their clothes. When it was their family’s birthday, they were the ones who made the cake together. At that time, Lu Qi and the others were still young, so they could only help out a little, however, now that they had grown up, time passed really quickly. Sometimes, even Yan Huan himself did not know how these three children had grown up and how they had grown up.

“Mom, what are you thinking about? It’s all done. If you continue to bake, it will burn.”

Lu Wei saw that the time on the oven was up, so she quickly turned off the oven. If she continued to bake for a little longer, their father would really eat the burnt cake. Although, as long as it was made by their mother., whether it was their father or them, even if it was burnt, they would still like to eat it. But if it could not burn, then it should not burn. If it burned, it would be eaten by their whole family.

Chapter 2153: Why isn’t she old

Yan Huan finally realized what was going on. All she did was share some of the cake. How did she forget about time.

However, when she saw Lu Wei carefully take out the cake from the oven, she couldn’t help but sigh.

Time really passed too quickly. In the blink of an eye, she was almost 50 years old. Yesterday, she seemed to be the same as before. It was as if Xun Xun was so big. How did it happen in the blink of an eye, it turned out that she was already middle-aged.

Although her face was still young, her heart was slowly succumbing to old age.

Time had changed. In fact, some things had changed a long time ago.

She and the three children made a very high-level cake. They made it themselves, so of course, they didn’t have to worry about eating it. And this big cake was also made quite beautifully. Sometimes, it looked better than the ones sold outside, that was because they put their heart into it.

At night, when Lu Yi returned home, he found that there were a lot of people at home.

He thought about it and couldn't help but smile. He almost forgot that today was his birthday.

In the middle was a cake with nearly six layers. He received his own cake every year on his birthday. In fact, he was like Yan Huan. Every year at this time, he would sigh in his heart, another year had passed, and he was old again. The children had also grown a step.

"Daddy, Happy Birthday," Lu Wei ran over and hugged her beloved father.

Lu Yi rubbed his daughter's hair. His disaster-ridden Little Xun had finally grown up. This little cotton-padded jacket was indeed not easy to take care of. Now that she had grown up, he had to worry about which blind person would snatch his little xun away, he only had one daughter. She had always been in his hands since she was young. Other than the time when she had been kidnapped, she had not suffered much anymore. She had always been able to make them feel at ease, she had grown up safely and healthily.

"What present are you going to give Daddy this year?" Lu Yi asked his daughter with a smile. His bearing had always been good. After decades of calmness and tempering, the current him, no smile, always made people feel a little afraid. and in front of his family.., he was a good husband and a good father.

"Yes." Lu Wei quickly turned around and ran into her room. Then, she took out a box from inside, ran out, and placed it in front of Lu Yi.

"This is Xun Xun's present for Daddy. I've been preparing it for a long time."

Lu Yi took the box. The box was still a little heavy in his hand.

"Thank you, Daddy." Lu Yi rubbed his daughter's hair again. Of course, he had to open it because his little daughter was blinking her eyes from time to time. It was as if she was saying, "Open it, open it!".

Lu Yi shook his head and opened the box. Inside was a pair of shoes. The style of the shoes was very good, simple and generous. Otherwise, he would have put the shoes on the ground and tried them on.

The size was just right. Of course, the shoes were very comfortable to wear.

"My Classmate's grandfather has been making handmade leather shoes for his whole life. I asked around for a long time before he made a pair for my father. It's not worse than the custom-made shoes of the big brands outside."

It was true. Lu Yi usually wore the custom-made shoes. It felt a little feet-like when he wore them, but this pair was indeed very comfortable. He liked the shoes very much. He liked them quite a lot.

Of course, Lu Qi and Lu Guang also wanted to give their father gifts. It was the same every year. They had spent a lot of effort to get them, so they didn't know what other people's fathers were like, but their father was really too difficult to please. He didn't like ordinary things, so every year on their father's birthday, it was the time that gave them the biggest headache, usually, once their father's birthday was over, they would look for the next birthday present.

Lu Yi patted his two sons on the shoulders.

They were both as tall as him. They were two young men who had grown up. Of course, their responsibilities were also greater.

In a short while, Lei Qingyi, he Yibin, and the others came over with their families. They were usually busy, so they really did not have much time to gather together. However., after they retired, they might come to the Liuyuan Garden to retire and spend some time together.

Yan Huan saw that Lei Qingyi and Little Leizi were about to pierce through the roof. He really felt that the Lei family's inheritance was too good. They were almost two meters tall. Little Leizi had been tall since he was young, in the end, he really grew to two meters. He was so tall that he could play basketball. Of course, Little Leizi also liked it. However, he did not think of it as a career. He did not have the ambition to become a sports star, he wanted to be like his father, a good policeman.

Such a tall policeman with long legs. If one wanted to catch a prisoner, it was likely that there would not be many who could outrun his long legs.

Fatty he also came over. He was thin and tall. He was a very cultured child. Of course, it was also reassuring. It was his fault for being super fat when he was young. Fortunately, he was no longer fat when he grew up, he was also like his father. He had a very beautiful face, and when he smiled, he was very likable. The children in the house all listened to Lu Qi's words, even if Little Thunder was a few years older than Lu Qi and the others, he still had to listen to Lu Qi when it came to making big decisions. Lu Qi had the temperament of a leader. Of course, among these children, he had the highest prestige, perhaps it was also because of his superhuman logical ability. Lu Qi had always been the calmest, and when he looked at things, he would often hit the nail on the head. Therefore, the children were completely convinced by Lu Qi.

The children sat at a table, the men sat at a table, and the women sat at a table. They said that they were celebrating Lu Yi's birthday, but in fact, everyone had found time to get together. They had been busy with their own matters for the past few years, and it was possible that their energy was limited, so, they did not see each other as often as before.

"How did your face grow?" Rowling could not help but pinch Yan Huan's face. And every time they saw Yan Huan, they completely shattered their concept of time.

Yes, how did it grow? How did it grow? Why were they all so Old? It couldn't be said how old they were. They were just normal old people. Although it could be said that they had always paid attention to taking care of themselves, they were also much lighter than their peers, furthermore, when they were out, they naturally paid attention to their own image. However, they were not like Yan Huan, who had actually grown backwards in the end.

Chapter 2154: She had no regrets

"We can't compete with her." Yi Ling would compete with anyone else in terms of age and maintenance, but she would never be treated the same as Yan Huan, "Yan Huan is a demon. I don't know if he ate Tang Sanzang's flesh, so he's now Immortal."

Yan Huan touched her face. Immortal? What were they talking about? She only had a youthful face, but in the past few years, her body had not been very good. Moreover, when she was young, her body had already suffered a great loss. Although she had been taking good care of herself since then.., but now, it was still a little lacking. Every year, she would need to be hospitalized to take care of herself. Otherwise, when she grew old, her body might be weaker than the others.

Although her current appearance could not be seen, she knew that she was still old. No one could not grow old, and no one could truly live forever. To put it bluntly, the so-called immortality.., it was all an illusion in those television dramas or novels. It was also something that humans used to comfort themselves and also to numb themselves.

At this moment, there was a sumptuous feast on the table. It looked delicious and delicious.

Yan Huan's cooking had gotten better and better over the years. Of course, she was also quite professional. In the past ten years, her focus had been on her culinary skills. As long as her life was like this, it was fine as long as she liked it.

The children had grown up from a young age. They were already very familiar with each other. Of course, they were also children of their own families, so they were very open-minded.

They had their own lives to live, and now, they were not adults who could interfere. Of course, they also had their own future, but in general, they did not know what they liked.

Lu Qi might take over Lu Yi's class because Lu Yi had trained his son to his own standards. Of course, Lu Qi did not disappoint him. No matter which aspect he was in, he was very outstanding, as for Lu Guang, he had a wild personality and did not like to be restrained. He was also a computer prodigy. If there were no accidents, he would become a software engineer or something like that. This was Yan Huan's idea, as for whether her son would follow this path in the future, she did not know. It was easy to understand the eldest son, but she did not know if it was because he had hurt his eyes when he was young that his thoughts were.., not to mention others, even she, as his mother, sometimes could not understand.

As for xunxun, the Lu family naturally would not overly restrict her.

Xunxun was forcefully captured back to reality by her family from the entertainment circle of stars and moons. Otherwise, the current Lu Wei might be even more popular than Yan Huan at that time. After all, her external conditions and the power behind her.., as well as her resources, were much better than Yan Huan's

However, it was a pity that she did not continue on. Instead, she took a different path.

Luo Lin was truly regretful. Otherwise, their linlang would have produced another superstar. It was just that no one in the Lu family was willing. Hence, Lu Wei, who was originally a superstar, now grew flowers and plants.., it was truly a pity that her face and her outstanding acting skills were still there.

"Let me show you this." Rowling took her bag from the side and opened it. She also took out something from the bag and placed it in front of Yan Huan.

Yan Huan opened it and saw that it was actually a proposal for the first three films.

Linlang was most famous for the first three films. However, it was a pity that she only filmed two films. These two films were very good in terms of their image, reputation, and box office earnings, the pre-production of these two films was still ranked first and second on the box office rankings. These were the glories that Linlang had created. Even after more than ten years had passed, the word of mouth of the pre-production was still there, and in terms of box office earnings, until now, no one had surpassed them.

The first and second films had spent more than ten years to pay the bills. Of course, there was a third film. During these few years, there had been news about the first three films, but it was a pity, those were all groundless rumors. Linlang had not released any official news about the first three movies.

Recently, news about the first three movies had been spreading quite frequently. However, it was like raindrops. After they had fallen, there would not be any traces left behind.

Many people also felt that they would not continue filming. There were also more people who guessed that there might not be a third movie. After all, a few days ago, Linlang had announced to the public that they were going to shoot a pure sci-fi space blockbuster, as for whether they were really going to film it, Yan Huan himself did not know. She did not care too much about Linlang's matters, so Linlang's decisions were usually internal decisions. After making a decision, she would not change it, linlang was not her own. Of course, she was also used to being a manager who threw her hands out.

She only ate dividends every year and did not participate in Linlang's internal decisions.

However, she was the most surprised this time. Were Rowling and the others really preparing to shoot the first three films?

"This is the last film." Rowling sighed. In fact, she still wanted to continue filming.

"Why is it the last film?" Yan Huan felt that this subject matter had a considerable degree of independence. In fact, it could be filmed over a long period of time.

"Why?" Rowling's gaze stopped on Yan Huan's face.

"You're old. You Can't shoot anymore."

Yan Huan touched his own face. Was she old? She thought that she was old on one hand, but she could not tolerate others openly calling her old.

Who said that she was Old? She was clearly quite young now, alright? Of course, she had to admit that her so-called youth was all based on her appearance. In fact, her current body was already not very good, especially this year, whether it was her immunity or her resistance, she was still a little weaker than before. Therefore, as long as the weather was not too good, she would not go out. Usually, she would also do a lot of health care and other things, she was afraid of getting sick and making her family worried.

She put down the script. "Even if I'm old, it has nothing to do with the beginning, right? Don't tell me you guys want me to continue filming?" She smiled. This kind of scene was too difficult to film. When she was young, she could film.., but now, she really didn't have the ability. if she dared to continue filming like this, she felt that she would be risking her life to film it. Moreover, she couldn't use a double for this movie. If she didn't use a double.., with her old arms and legs, how could she do it.

Meanwhile, Rowling was staring at her with a faint smile. The words she said were obviously filled with temptation.

“Yan Huan, don’t leave any regrets for yourself.”

“I don’t have any regrets?” Yan Huan recalled her life. When she was young, she had suffered a lot, but it was all worth it,

Chapter 2155: She could not accept

Moreover, she had already lived two more lifetimes than others. Her life was so exciting and tenacious. How could she have any regrets? If she really had any regrets, it would be that she did not keep her mother’s life, if she had been reborn a few years earlier, perhaps her mother would not have died. Her mother had died of illness back then, but in reality, it was also a disease that was born from fatigue.

She lowered her head and glanced at the script on the table. “Who are you guys going to make the lead?”

In terms of casting, this movie was very strict, especially the lead. That was something that needed to be considered carefully. Otherwise, it would not just ruin one movie, but three.

It was just that she did not know what kind of person they had in mind. Yan Huan thought about the new talents that had been dug up over the past few years, and which ones were suitable. And after thinking about it, it seemed that there really were no suitable ones. No, it was not that there were no suitable ones., it was just that if her requirements were too high, up until now, none of them could meet her requirements.

In this movie, many people were looking at emotions. There were also many people watching the scenes or the plot. There were also some excellent audio-visual experiences. It was a wondrous world in the past.

If the shooting year was close, using the original crew was obviously the best.

Whether it was the actors, the script, or the post-production of this series, it required a lot of time and energy. Time and energy would change, and the young people would always catch up, but., for the series, they were more interested in that kind of emotion, the excitement at that time, and not a film that might be irrelevant to the prequel.

However, how could the so-called original crew continue filming.

Putting Yan Huan aside, Yan Huan was already forty-eight years old. She could no longer trample on others. Liangchen was almost ten years older than Yan Huan, and now that she was almost sixty, it was impossible for her to continue being the lead actress, instead, Zhou Zizhe and the others were a few years older than Yan Huan. They were both in their fifties, so how could they continue filming?

Even if they were still active, they were all acting in the same generation as their father. How could they still be the main actors and be romantically involved.

Not to mention them, even Xie Weining, who was famous for being in the top two at the beginning, was almost forty years old now. She could not jump up. Moreover, she was like Yan Huan, obviously, she paid more attention to her family, and she really did it. During her most popular time, she married her idol, Song Xihua, in a flash. After she got married, she never made a comeback, she was already a mother of two children.

So now, Yan Huan really couldn't figure out who would play the lead in the first three.

Rowling pointed at Yan Huan.

"What's wrong? Is there something on my face?" Yan Huan touched his face. Could it be that she had smeared it on his face while eating the cake? They were all old and couldn't eat anything too sweet. In the past few years, the food they ate at home had become bland. Although butter was delicious, it was better not to eat too much, it would be a little boring.

She stood up and prepared to go to the bathroom to check if her face was really dirty. If it was really dirty, she would have to clean it up.

"I said she wouldn't believe it. Look, I guessed right."

Yi Ling raised her eyelids.

Rowling took the script to her lap, "There's no other way. After all, she's almost 50 years old. She looks young, but she hasn't experienced youth for a long time. The time interval is too late. It's been almost 20 years. How could there be a film that was shot after such a long time?"

"I don't want to either." Whenever Yi Ling mentioned this, she felt like killing someone in a rage.

"The script has been changed three times. This is the last movie. We Can't ruin the first two movies on this one. Since we're going to shoot it, we have to shoot it well. It has to be better than the first two movies."

In addition to the preparation time and the newly released light and Shadow Technology in the past few years, we had no choice but to upgrade our current technology once again. Just This alone took five years, it was already not easy for us to take it out now.

"They're all sharpening their swords every ten years. We feel like we're going to sharpen our swords twenty times. We're getting old."

Rowling kept nodding. "It's just going to be almost twenty years. In addition to the few years of filming, it'll really take twenty years."

Yan Huan listened to the two of them talking as if no one was around. No matter how unwilling she was, she now knew what they were talking about?

She walked over and sat beside them. Then, she took the script out of Rowling's hands and narrowed her eyes suspiciously. "Don't say it. Are you trying to target me?"

She was already so old. She had not made a movie for decades. It could be said that she had retired from filming. Could it be that they still wanted her to make such a scary movie? What kind of joke was this?

Could she jump or run? Or could she still fight? Moreover, a movie like this would require at least a year's time to film the rollerfish. Could she still shoot?

Did she not want to kill herself? She didn't even dare to catch a common cold now, and she could still endure the wind and rain. Not to mention herself, even Lu Yi wouldn't agree to it. She was already so old., they really shouldn't joke too much.

"Read the script first."

Rowling didn't argue with Yan Huan. She first read the script first. Moreover, Yan Huan had been living too well these few years. He was too pampered, so he should properly exercise.

Yan Huan placed the script in front of him and started to flip through it.

She did not read it word by word. Instead, she roughly skimmed through the content. The beginning, the third, and the third were the contents of the previous film. There was nothing wrong with this, and she really could not stand it, why did she still want to be the female lead? She was already so old.

Although she always felt that she was quite young, no matter how much she denied it, it was impossible to deny it. She was already almost 50 years old, yet she still wanted to be the female lead. It was so high-class., such a precious female lead?

If she failed to act, then all the reputation that she had accumulated in her life would collapse.

Although it seemed that all the fighting scenes in the script had nothing to do with her, this movie was still very difficult to act in. She knew where her abilities were right now. She could not act, and she did not want to act either, she did not want to be old and have her face smeared with black again. She could not accept it.

Chapter 2156: She did not agree

She put down the script.

"I'm not taking it."

Yes, she was not taking it.

"Our nearly 20 years of hard work is all in there," Luo Lin said slowly, "Linlang isn't ours. Yan Huan, Linlang is also yours. Although we have the same shares now, don't forget that you are also the most important shareholder in Linlang. Do you want our 20 years of hard work to be wasted just like that?"

"You guys can find someone else to act."

Yan Huan hated being forced to act like this. It was the same with the previous movie. She didn't want to act at all, but she insisted on letting her act. Although she had made good achievements in the end, she was still considered young at that time. Now that she was so old, why was she still unwilling to let her go.

"This is your show." Rowling was powerless to do anything about it.

“This is the last time, and it’s also the end. This is also the true affirmation of your career in acting. After you finish filming this show, even if you want to film it in the future, you won’t have the chance.”

Yan Huan had never thought of filming any more shows. Of course, she had never thought of what else she wanted to achieve. Her greatest achievement was her three children. Her three children were her greatest pride, no matter what awards she had won or what kind of records she had, it was not important. It was not as important as her three children.

Yan Huan was still unmoved. Of course, Yi Ling and Rowling did not force her. They would not force him either. It was just that this drama could not be done without her.

After all, this was the end of a drama. Just like a person’s life, there would always be a birth and there would always be a day when it would end. No matter how long the journey would be, or whether it would be smooth or not., there were still thorns along the way, or a smooth life. In the end, they all stopped at that final destination.

The difference was that some people’s destination was earlier, while some people’s destination was very late.

“What’s wrong? Where are you angry again?”Lu Yi walked over. The middle-aged man’s bearing had become more and more steady and shocking because of the decades of training.

“Do you think I’m Old?”Yan Huan pointed at her own face.

“I’m not old.”Lu Yi shook his head. “I’m very young.”

Yan Huan’s youth was obvious. From her current appearance, she looked like she was in her early thirties at most. Perhaps she was even younger.

“No, I’m very old.”This was the first time Yan Huan admitted that she was old. “But they actually let me act in the first three scenes?”

“Lu Yi, I’m almost 50 years old. How can I Still Act?”

“Why not?”Lu Yi sat down and placed his hand on Yan Huan’s shoulder. He patted her gently as if he was comforting her.

“No matter what age you are, it’s most important that you don’t admit that you’re old.”

Yan Huan looked up and saw the reflection of herself in Lu Yi’s eyes. It was like a long, long time ago when she first met him. It was the same at that time, but she didn’t notice it.

“I hope we can be reborn again.”Yan Huan was actually a little regretful because she met Lu Yi too late.

“I hope so too.”Lu Yi smiled. “That way, I can raise you up.”

“I don’t want you to raise me. I want to see you only when I’m beautiful.”Yan Huan lay on Lu Yi’s leg and fantasized. Of course, if one fantasized, life would be exciting. She narrowed her eyes, the smile on the corner of her eyes also began to bloom. “If I can be reborn again, I will definitely stop being a child star and earn a lot of money. Then, I will marry my mother and let my mother give birth to a younger brother for me.”

As she spoke, she could not help but burst into laughter. Her heart, which had always been somewhat frustrated, finally calmed down.

As for the top three, she was still unwilling. She did not want to fight for fame anymore. She just wanted to accompany Lu Yi. After all, if they could live to 80, then they only had 30 years left, if they could live to 70, then they only had 20 years. If they were 60, then it would only be 10 years.

If she wanted to shoot a blockbuster like this, it would take at least one to two years. She was not sure if she could continue filming, and she felt that she could not.

Although the script said that there was no danger, filming was a very physically demanding thing. She did not want to spend the rest of her life getting hurt because of a film like this, in the end, she wanted to make her family worry and make them sad.

Hence, her decision was..

Not to film it.

Last time, she was forced into a corner, but this time, no matter what, she would not film it again. Whether it was Yi Ling or Luo Lin, they could not think of using her brain again.

She just did not believe that this film would really stop filming without him in the end. If it really could not be filmed, it would really not be broadcasted.

Lu Yi respected her decision. If she wanted to film it, he would directly apply for leave and accompany her. If she did not want to film it, he would also support her. With him around, no one could force her to do things that she was unwilling to do.

In the end, Rowling and Yi Ling wished that they could strangle Yan Huan to death. However, no matter how much they strangled him, Yan Huan still did not agree.

“Why not?” Yi Ling came over again. “Huanhuan, you’re not in your 70s or 80s. Furthermore, the scenes this time are very gentle to you.”

“No matter how gentle it is, there will still be wind and rain.” Yan Huan had made up his mind, “I won’t do it, Yi Yi...” Yan Huan stretched out his hand and caressed his face. If I had not been abused by those people, I would not have caused my body to suffer such losses. I think that even if I were to reach 60 years old, I might still have to go all out. Perhaps I might even win another best actress award.”

“But you also know that something happened to me when I was young. I narrowly escaped death several times, but my body was destroyed at the same time. I just wanted to cherish myself a little more. I didn’t want to worry about Lu Yi, who had been afraid of me for a lifetime. In the end, I ended up being protected by an illness-ridden me.”

Over the past ten years, if Lu Yi was asked what he was most worried about, it was actually nothing else but Yan Huan’s body. During these few years, he had also been paying attention to these things. If it wasn’t for Lu Yi’s meticulous care.., perhaps Yan Huan’s health would not be as good as it was now. However, no matter how good she was, she could not ignore the hidden dangers within. Hence, the first three places might bring another kind of peak to Yan Huan.., another kind of reputation and honor.

However, if such a peak and such an honor were to be exchanged with her body, she would not be willing.

This was her decision.

And in the future, when she was in her wheelchair and was in her 40s, she would still be able to let Lu Yi push her around instead of her lying down and not even be able to take care of herself.

Chapter 2157: without her, the world would still spin

At that time, she was grateful for the decision she made now. It would allow her to have a good body for the rest of her life. She would also have a good body for the rest of her life. She had almost never been sick before. She would be able to come clean., and she would be able to leave clean.

When you were young, how much did you mistreat your body? When you were old, you would have to pay for your body. It would even be doubled.

When Yi Ling saw Yan Huan like this, she knew that she really would not agree.

After she returned to Linliang, she sat together with Rowling.

“Does she really not agree?” Rowling did not think about this matter back then. She thought that if they coaxed and coaxed him, Yan Huan would probably compromise. Moreover, the scenes were not like the previous two movies. This one was much gentler, she could win Yan Huan.

“Actually, I also feel that it’s better for her not to agree.” Yi Ling stood up and recalled what Yan Huan had said to her, “Actually, there are some things that Huanhuan is right about. If this movie had been ten years earlier, Yan Huan might still have made it. But now, we are almost 50 years old. It’s not like you don’t know how Yan Huan’s body is like. During these few years, Lu Yi has been very careful in taking care of her body. If something goes wrong, from now on, if she doesn’t have her current health, none of us will be able to shoulder this responsibility.”

When Rowling heard Yi Ling’s words, she felt a cold shiver run down her spine. Well, if she couldn’t figure it out, she had to figure it out as well. That’s right, there were some things that had to be done within one’s capabilities. They had to calculate everything well., however, she had forgotten that Yan Huan was already old.

“Then what should we do now?” Rowling had thought it through and accepted it. Yan Huan would no longer be filming this movie. However, if she accepted it, she would accept it as well. However, what would they do in the past ten years or so?

They had done so much work, and so much effort. They had expended so much manpower, material resources, and financial resources. Some could be measured with money, but some could not be compensated with money.

“What else can we do?” Yi Ling rubbed her forehead. “If it wasn’t for Yan Huan, the world wouldn’t have changed. Let’s change the script and change it all to young people. Let’s see if we can make it more thrilling.”

Rowling nodded in agreement. In fact, this script had been tailor-made for Yan Huan. Unfortunately, Yan Huan wasn't willing to act, and they had no choice but to change the script.

Just as Yi Ling had said, even if Yan Huan wasn't in the script, they couldn't just give up their ten years of hard work.

The two of them were strong women who refused to submit to old age, and they were the leaders of Linlang. To them, Linlang was their life's work, but to Linlang.., in fact, it could be said that she was a platform for their freedom back then.

Therefore, they had split Linlang's shares a long time ago. Yan Huan, Yi Ling, and Rowling each took a portion of the shares. Yan Huan was a very irresponsible boss, although.., back then, she was the one who had established Linlang. However, she did not seem to have made much of a contribution to linlang. All of her contributions were the result of the hard work of Yi Ling and Rowling.

She would not have insisted on having Linlang in her hands. Hence, she decided to split the shares in the end.

And now, Yan Huan enjoyed such a life. In this life, although the first half of her life had been full of ups and downs and she had gone through a few life and death situations, it was just like what the fortune teller had said back then, in the end, she was indeed very rich and had many children and grandchildren.

Time continued to pass like this. In fact, to Yan Huan's life.

In the beginning, regardless of whether or not she still knew how to shoot, it was still a small episode in her life that could not be any smaller. She still hosted her own gourmet program. Every Sunday, she would only go on the program once. When she returned home.., she would also cook for Lu Yi the delicious food that she had learned from him. She would not care too much about the three children. After all, they had grown up and had their own lives.

It was not until a few years later that the latest news of the first three was released. Although Yan Huan did not participate and there were no other actors from before, it still became the most anticipated movie of the year, after all, everyone had waited for so many years. Finally, they were summoned.

"I want that, and that..."

Lu Guang pointed at it with his finger. There were many people in his family. They were all a family of three or four. His family was a family of five. Of course, they were not born after birth. They were triplets, so they were not born after birth, if it were not for his mother's poor health at the time, they might have had a younger brother or sister.

In a short while, Lu Guang had brought over a large pile of things. There were several large buckets of popcorn and cola.

The three of them each had a bucket. This was their habit. It was impossible for him and his brother to eat a bucket each. It was not because it was not enough for them to eat, but because the two of them were men. If they ate a bucket of popcorn.., it would not feel very strange. Their younger sister had always eaten a bucket each. They could not compete with their younger sister. After all, there was only one younger sister in the family. They all wished that their younger sister could eat three buckets of popcorn alone. It was just that their younger sister could not eat., if they could really eat, they all wished that they could stuff everything into their younger sister's stomach.

As for their mother, they liked to be alone together. They did not need to care about that.

Lu Guang took out a ticket from his pocket. He had bought the best seats on the stage, and it was not easy for him to get one. He only managed to get one in the middle of the night, it was mainly because the first three tickets were too hard to buy. It was really hard to get one ticket. After all, the reputation of the first two films was too good. Before they were born, the first one was the first on the ticket board. When they were four years old., the first two changes were the first. Now that they were twenty years old, the list had not changed.

The three of them had lived in a world that was connected to television and movies since they were young. When every film was shot, they would come over to watch it. The first three were not shot by their mother. Otherwise., even if he sacrificed his looks, he would still let others come over to watch their mother's films.

When they were about to enter the venue, the person checking the tickets could not help but take another look at Yan Huan. Lu Wei was being pulled by Lu Qi, afraid that someone would squeeze into her younger sister, Lu Wei happened to be hugging a huge popcorn bucket in her arms, which happened to cover half of her face. Hence, it was impossible to tell what she looked like. Yan Huan was wearing a pair of sunglasses, it also covered most of her face.

The people in her family had very good eyes. Yan Huan's eyes were not blurry, and the three of them did not have myopia. Even Lu Guang, who was wearing glasses, actually only wore a pair of plain glasses.

Chapter 2158: was a glorious defeat

Lu Guang stood in front of Yan Huan and smiled at the ticket cutter. His smile was mesmerizing, and the ticket cutter was stunned for a few seconds. At this moment, Lu Yi and the others had already entered the studio.

If it wasn't for the fact that tickets were too difficult to buy, Lu Guang would have booked the entire studio. They could sit wherever they wanted to watch the movie, but in the end, they still felt that watching the movie together was the best, of course, they wanted to enjoy this perfect visual and audio experience. They also wanted to see what other people thought of the movie and how the movie would look like?

Lu Guang sat on the right, Yan Huan and Lu Yi sat in the middle. They sat next to Lu Wei, while Lu Qi sat next to his sister. His two sons also blocked the others, they left this area of silence for their parents and sister.

Lu Wei took a popcorn and ate it. The popcorn here was really delicious, but of course, it was also quite sweet. She turned around again and saw her second brother also eating a popcorn.

Lu Guang smiled and placed his popcorn bucket in front of his sister. As long as his sister liked it, as long as his sister was willing to eat it, it didn't matter if she ate all of his buckets.

The movie began very soon. Lu Wei held a big bucket of popcorn and ate it while drinking it cutely. Young girls never cared about these things. They ate whatever was delicious. After all, their metabolism was good, she didn't have to worry about whether she would gain weight. Of course, she wouldn't gain weight either. Her mother had given her a very good physique. Even if she wanted to gain weight, it would be very difficult.

The first three scenes were indeed quite big. Of course, the scenes were much more exquisite compared to the first two films. The plot was also good. However, it was unknown if it was because they had preconceived ideas, although the scenes were exquisite. Although the plot was also good, it always felt that the sense of immersion wasn't too strong. Therefore, many people didn't feel that they hadn't had enough after watching this.

As for the first and second movies before the beginning, many people still couldn't get over it after watching them. They bought the second ticket on the spot. Of course, it couldn't be said that the first three movies weren't good enough. To be honest, they were still very good, however, they didn't have the urge to buy the tickets and watch it again.

Lu Guang took his phone and did a rough calculation

The top three box office earnings should be around 3 billion. If one looked at the current investment, it would definitely not be a loss. However, if one looked at the reputation of the top three., and the ten years of preparation...

It was actually a loss.

The loss was the tens of minutes on stage. If the other films had been made in the past few decades, they would have made at least five or six films. The combined box office earnings of these five or six films., were more than three billion.

However, the expenditure this time was just like the previous one or two films.

This film was a little awkward. Of course, Lu Guang was sure that the subsequent box office earnings would not exceed three and a half billion.

And it was just as Lu Guang had expected. Because the box office ranking of the first three films was high, it was very easy to earn three hundred million in a day. Just like what they had said before, the box office earnings were also high, of course, under this year's generally depressed ticket sales, this kind of box office sales had already given Linlang a soft spot. However, even though the reputation of the top three was not as good as that of the first two films, the images were still exquisite. The lighting and music., as well as the performance of the words, they were all commendable. However, they still could not escape the fact that they had slowed down a little in the follow-up.

The final stop at the box office was indeed around three billion yuan. Compared to the first and second films, it was far inferior. Of course, compared to the other films, it was an absolute success. However, compared to the first and second films., it was obvious that it had failed

However, even though it had failed, the box office was still there.

Of course, many people were thinking that if Yan Huan's original cast had acted in the film a few years earlier, the situation might not have been like this. It was just a pity that the time interval was too long.

Compared to the first and second films., it had been nearly twenty years since they had been cast. When Yan Huan and the others had filmed the second movie, they were already in their thirties. Now, they were already in their fifties. They really could not film it. But to be able to film it to this extent., actually, it was already very good. At the very least, Linlang had always produced films that had a conscience. Although it could not compare to the first or second movies, it did not cause people to curse. It could only be said that it was far from being enough to compare with their feelings.

Of course, this 3.4 billion box office earnings were also very profitable for Linlang. Of course, this was also the biggest box office earnings that Linlang had made in the past few years. It could be considered a success.

This film could be said to be a big hit. Of course, it had also been popular for a very long time. Of course, it could also be considered a success.

One or two decades had really changed too many things.

One twenty years. The film that they had been looking forward to the most had been broadcasted. However, there was no one that they had wanted to see at that time. Because the world had already changed, because the beauty was already in her twilight years, because time had already been merciless.

And this one twenty years could change many, many things. It was people, it was things, it was time, it was mood.

Li village was still a quiet little village. However, in these twenty years, the entire Li village had undergone tremendous changes. In these twenty years, Li village had changed from a small village that was unknown at the beginning, now, it had become a well-known well-to-do village. Every year, a large number of villages and individuals would come to inspect it. Li village was also built along the mountains. It was located in the middle of two large mountains. This was the reason why Li village had always been poor.

When the young people went out, they would never come back. Everyone wanted to go out. When others were using their computers and mobile phones and watching TV, the Li family village did not even have running water or electricity, some of the elders in the village had never left the village in their entire lives. They also did not know what kind of changes had happened outside the village. Every year, when winter came, the village would be sealed off from the mountains, especially after it snowed, even the roads in the mountains could not be taken. The village was isolated from the rest of the world, living like this day after day.

When the children grew up, the old people also grew old. When the children became adults, children would be born.

More and more people went out to work, and the younger generation in the village also became fewer and fewer. Even if they buried their heads in hard work and toiled to death, they might not even be able to get a wife in the future.

Until later, a young man in the village called Changsheng fished out a woman from the river outside the village, and this woman had lived in the village for half a year, later, Changsheng and a few young people in the village were cheated out by their fellow villagers, and this woman also left. In the end, less than half a year later, this woman returned, but she suddenly changed, she became a billionaire woman.

Chapter 2159: was not a twin

She built a road for the village and dug out the mountain that had blocked the village's road for hundreds of years. She built a road that led directly to the outside of the village. She also electrified the village and filled it with running water, every family gave up their electricity, watched television, and even used a washing machine. She brought many technicians to teach the people in the village how to raise chickens and sell local eggs, it also gave the villagers the ability to improve themselves. Their lives became better and better day by day. The young people who worked outside also returned. Life in the village also became better and better, of course, it also became a well-known wealthy village.

Later, that woman sent Changsheng back. However, Changsheng was crippled and lost a kidney. However, he was a person who did not believe in fate and refused to admit defeat.

He had contracted a lot of land in the village, planted mushrooms, and made mushroom sauce. The mushroom sauce of Li Jia village had become famous within the country after twenty years of development. Moreover, it had been sold abroad, he had started an export business.

Other than the mushroom sauce, the most famous thing in the village was the native eggs raised in the mountains. It was unknown if the soil here was really suitable for raising chickens or if the villagers were hardworking. Most of the eggs produced by the chickens here were double-yolk eggs, this also made Li Jia village even more famous. After the eggs in the village were sold, there was a shortage of supply.

Of course, the people in the village were all because of these chickens. They planted mushrooms on the shelves and made mushroom sauce. Every family built a small foreign house, bought a large color TV, a refrigerator, and the children all had school to go to, the primary school was outside the village, and the junior high school was not far away. It was very convenient to go out now. As long as one left the village, they would go to school. There were more and more people in the village, and there were quite a few people.., however, they all wanted to enter this village, but they had no choice. Without the village's household registration, it was impossible for them to be allocated land in the village, and it was even more impossible for them to learn the skills of raising soil and eggs.

And in the village, the most promising one was the Changsheng family. The Changsheng family, who was close to middle-aged, was still very energetic. Of course, they were also good at growing mushrooms and raising chickens. As long as someone planted mushrooms, where would there be a problem.., with just a glance, he knew where the problem was.

The Changsheng family was in the middle of the village. It was a newly built three-story house. The family also bought a large color TV, a washing machine, a refrigerator, and other electrical appliances, it could be considered one of the top families in the village.

Of course, he was also the mushroom king of the village. He had even appeared on television. Although he had some disabilities, the other party had skills and could earn money. The other party had money, so he was not afraid of not being able to marry a wife.

Changsheng touched his leg. This leg had been with him for twenty years. It had been difficult to bear at the beginning, but now, even if he did not accept it, he would still accept it.

As he grew older, he also wanted to forget about this leg of his. Even if he did not have a leg in his life, he would not have a worse life than others. Moreover, he could be considered a local celebrity, people cared about his craftsmanship and forgot about his leg.

Time actually passed very quickly. One day, one month, one year. In the blink of an eye, before he could even think about it, he was no longer the young man who was filled with all kinds of hope, he had become a middle-aged man. He had a crippled leg and a missing kidney. When he had just returned to the village, everyone in the village discussed him whenever they saw him. Even the children cried whenever they saw him. It was just that he had earned a lot of money later on, he had also become famous in the village. The villagers also liked to get close to him. It seemed that they no longer paid attention to this leg of his.

It was just that sometimes he would still think of the young woman he fished out of the river, the one called Xiao Yan, and later that dazzling international movie Queen Yan Huan.

However, after thinking about it, he could only smile helplessly.

He thought that he might never forget that woman for the rest of his life.

And now, he had already changed from Changsheng to Changsheng GE, and now he had also changed from Changsheng GE to Changsheng GE. His son was also in junior high school, and after a few years, he could also grow into a young man.

One day, when he returned, he said that a pair of very handsome twins and their sister had come to the village. and the people in the village said that the Twins'sister was too beautiful.

Changsheng's thoughts moved, and he put down his chopsticks. When he went out, he saw two young men who looked exactly the same walk out. In between them was a woman who seemed to be in her twenties.

She was really too young. Her beautiful facial features, exquisite face, and slender figure had always been there. However, under the young face, there was a pair of eyes that could see through the world, it could more or less reflect her age, but she was actually not young.

"Mom, this is Uncle Changsheng, right? I've forgotten what he looks like?"

A young man smiled at the woman beside him.

"Yeah,"the woman smiled.

It seemed like he was saying, "Long time no see."

Changsheng also smiled.

Really, really long time no see.

"Brother Lu Guang, the two of you really look alike. You and brother Lu are the twins that look the most alike to me."Changsheng's son was called Mingliang. This was a very ordinary name that was also very easy to remember, but.., this kid's personality was just like his name. He was indeed very bright. When he smiled, it was also very funny. He also had an honest face that looked like changsheng. He did not look like Changsheng, but he might look like his mother.., although he looked a little ordinary, when he smiled foolishly, it really made people dislike him.

When Mingliang saw these two big brothers, he really found them extremely rare. In their imitation, they also had twins. However, they did not look so similar. One of them wore glasses, while the other did not, but as long as they took off the glasses, they would look exactly the same. It was as if even their hairstyles were the same.

"Who told you that we are twins?"

Lu Guang asked Mingliang with a smile.

"My eyes are telling me."

Mingliang pointed at his own eyes proudly. As expected, he was still a junior high school student, full of childishness.

"We're not twins." Lu Guangliang's eyes were bright. No matter how he looked at it, he looked like a little fox from God knows where. He was cunning.

"You're not. That's impossible."

Mingliang waved his hand. He did not believe what Lu Guang said at all. "You're obviously twins."

"Really not." Lu Guang reached out and rubbed Mingliang's head. This kid looked honest and honest. He was also a little short, so he really looked like a little brother. However, he was quite smart.

Chapter 2160: Estrangement

"We're triplets."

"Triplets?" Ming Liang turned to look at Yan Huan, who was sitting at the side.

Then, he pointed at her.

"She's your sister, but she feels a little older than you. Doesn't she look like she was born in a year?"

Lu Guang could not help but laugh out loud. She was not our sister, he was our mother.

And the proudest thing in Lu Guang's life was that they had a mother who could be their sister. When the two of them were together with their mother, no one believed that they were mother and son, they were not siblings.

"Your Mother?"

Ming Liang widened his eyes. "She is really your mother, but how old were you when your mother gave birth to you?"

"Shh..."

Lu Guang placed his finger to his lips. “Women’s age is not something that can be casually asked. No matter how old a woman is, it’s the same. They don’t like people asking about their age the most.”

Ming Liang hurriedly nodded his head in acknowledgement. He also remembered it, so he would never ask about a girl’s age again.

He could not help but glance at Yan Huan a few times. Why did he feel that this sister — no, this auntie — looked like some celebrity.

“Why don’t you go into the house and sit for a while?” Changsheng saw Yan Huan once again. He had never thought that this would be the case. After all, they had not seen each other for more than ten years. When they met again, his hair had grown white, she was also old, but she was still very young. Time seemed to have stopped on her body. One could even see that her appearance at that time had not changed at all.

“I’ll ask my wife to cook some dishes for you. I know that you all eat well in Hai City, but we have specialty home-cooked dishes here and wild vegetables that grow on the mountains. You Can’t eat them outside.” The villagers did not eat these wild vegetables as a meal, in the past, during the lean years, the poor families would still go to the mountains to dig wild vegetables. But now, they did not eat these to fill their stomachs, but these vegetables had become their specialty, there would be people from the outside inspection team who would come over, and they would use this to entertain them. The people in the city did not care about the delicacies of the mountains, they only cared about the things that were native to the mountains, there were also their native eggs.

They had the native eggs of the village, which were picked up all over the mountains. The chickens ate natural, non-additive things, which was why the prices were so expensive. Of course, no matter how expensive the prices were., there were also people who came over with large amounts of money, wanting to buy the native eggs grown in their village, as well as the native chickens.

“No Need, you don’t have to be so polite.” Yan Huan smiled, but his expression was cold and his tone was a little distant.

“Liu Fang’s house is already prepared. We’ll go over to her house to eat in a while.”

“That’s fine too.” Changsheng was still a little embarrassed. In fact, how could he not know that Yan Huan was only going to Liu Fang’s house for a Reason? It wasn’t because of anything else, but because Liu Fang had done her a favor., ever since they had received the express delivery from the village, the Liu family would often receive some things from Hai City. At that time, he knew that this was a gift from Yan Huan to the Liu family, actually, when it came to life-saving grace, they were actually the most important. However, Yan Huan was a different method. Returning this life-saving grace, he had saved his life and also given his family the capital to earn money. However, he was no longer so close to their family.

She should still be blaming his mother.

“Let’s go,” Yan Huan said to his two sons. Lu Qi had already stood up and stood beside Yan Huan. They really looked like siblings.

“Smile more.” Yan Huan stretched out his hand and patted his son’s clothes. You were born together with Little Guang Ming. Why is your temperament so different.

“I can’t learn that stupid smile of his.” Lu Qi’s face was still fixed, while his younger brother’s face was full of smiles. wasn’t that the so-called stupid smile.

Yan Huan was really helpless against the extreme temperaments of his two sons.

On the other side, Ming Liang was chatting happily with Lu Guang. In the end, his older brother was about to leave. He really couldn’t bear to part with him.

“Big Brother Lu Guang, come to my house for dinner. My mother’s cooking is very delicious, and my grandmother even knows how to cook wild vegetable pancakes. She’s famous in the village.”

Lu Guangqing was still smiling, but when he heard the name of his grandmother, the smile in his eyes faded a little.

We’re all going to the Liu family. We all agreed that it wouldn’t be good if we didn’t go.

Lu Guang didn’t have any ill feelings towards mingliang or changsheng. However, he didn’t want to step into the Changsheng family. Of course, he also didn’t want to meet people like Changsheng’s mother, no matter how much time had passed, he had heard his mother mention that Changsheng’s mother had bullied his mother. Later on, he had even specially asked Aunt Liu Fang about it. Aunt Liu Fang still remembered those things very clearly, even how Changsheng’s mother had scolded her mother back then, he and his big brother knew about it.

Thus, they had come to the Li family village this time to visit Liu Fang’s home. As for the Changsheng family, they would not have much interaction with them. They had given changsheng all their lucky money back then, this could be considered as repaying Changsheng’s life-saving grace. That should be enough to buy half a year’s worth of food.

Mingliang was a little discouraged because she really couldn’t bear to part with Lu Guang if he didn’t come to her house for dinner. Lu Guang had already patted his clothes and walked to Yan Huan’s side. He bent down and let his mother tidy up his clothes, he smiled like a little fool.

The three of them also walked towards the Liu family. The Liu family was very famous in the village now. Liu Fang’s father was also the village chief of the Li family village. His family’s conditions were very good, Liu Fang’s eldest brother’s restaurant was very big outside, and Liu Fang later married into the village. She married Liang Zi. Liang Zi was diligent and thoughtful, and Liu Fang also knew how to manage the family, this small life was very prosperous.

And Liu Fang’s father also treated Liang Zi as his own son. It was because this Liu Fang’s eldest brother’s family was always outside, and his grandson was also studying outside. They didn’t see each other much throughout the year.

Liang Zi only had one younger sister, and now that she was married, she treated Liu Fang’s father and mother as her own parents. It was all thanks to Liang Zi’s presence at home. Liang Zi was the one who bought the rice, noodles, and oil, the lights in the house were broken, and the water pipes in the house were clogged. Liang Zi was also the one who fixed them. Whenever Liu Fang’s father met people, he would say that they were not marrying off their daughter, but had clearly gotten a good son for nothing..

The Liu family's reputation in the village was very high. After all, when the village was repairing roads, Father Liu was the one who personally took care of it. The money that Yan Huan had taken out back then was all controlled by Father Liu Fang, father Liu Fang was very conscientious. Even if he spent a single cent of the money, he would announce it in front of the village.
