

Chapter 2161:

The village had been getting better and better in the past few years. Liu Fang's father had never been left behind in the selection of village cadres. Liu Fang's father did things fairly, so everyone in the village trusted him, while Liu Fang's father had been the village chief for the past few years, he had been very fair. As long as he was asked to appear in the village matters, there would be absolutely no problems.

Today, the Liu family was very lively because a guest had arrived.

"Look, that's Xiao Yan?" The villagers pointed at Yan Huan and the other two and whispered.

"She hasn't changed at all." The original villagers of the Li family village naturally knew Yan Huan. After all, they had asked Yan Huan to cut their hair many times in the past.

What was going on? They were already middle-aged. Their hair was white and their bodies were full of fat. However, this Xiao Yan didn't even have a single wrinkle on her face. Where did this demon come from.

"Exactly. I really don't see any difference from a few years ago."

The others also nodded one after another. There was no difference. She was so beautiful, just like a young lady in her twenties.

"Auntie, who is she?" One of them was the daughter-in-law who had married into the village. She heard Xiao Yan this and Xiao Yan that, but who was Xiao Yan? Where did she come from?

"She is our village's benefactor."

One of the Aunties thought of the days they had lived in the village in the past, and she did not dare to think about it. They were used to such good days, but they could not imagine it. In the past, they had no water or produce, they did not even have a television.

They could only eat meat during the new year. They spent the entire winter in this small village. The life they had lived in the past was as if they were isolated from the world.

This middle-aged woman's face had been worn out by the passage of time. Knife began to talk about Xiao Yan. In the past, she was also a young and handsome little wife. Now, she was called an aunt, however, Xiao Yan was still like a big girl, young and beautiful. Of course, she was still very rich. They drove that kind of small car here. He had heard from his son that the car was at least several million yuan.

Even if their village was rich now, they wouldn't take a few million yuan to buy a car, right.

Moreover, when their village built this road, it was said that they had spent a lot of money. They were all waiting to split the mountain.

The little wife listened with great interest. Although she didn't see what happened with her own eyes, she could hear the problem.

“Aunt, didn’t you say that Uncle Changsheng saved that Xiaoyan?”Originally, she wanted to say Aunt Xiaoyan, but she was so young. It seemed that he was about the same age as her., no matter how hard she tried, this auntie could not shout out.

“Yes, he saved her.”The Auntie recalled the situation at that time and still remembered it. “Back then, Changsheng was the one who fished Xiaoyan out of the river. In the past, Xiaoyan also lived in Changsheng’s house.”

“Otherwise, how could he have saved Changsheng at that time? He was the one who saved her life.”

“Then why is it like this now?”The little wife still didn’t understand. No matter what, they should be going to Changsheng’s place. What was going on? According to Liu Fang’s words, this Xiao Yan was better than Liu Fang’s family. Every time she came, she would be at the Liu family. This time, she would stay at Liu Fang’s home.

This was also done in a strange way.

The aunt pursed her lips, “She thought that Xiao Yan was in trouble in our house and sold all her jewelry just to go home. However, Changsheng’s mother was really blinded by lard at that time. She got mixed up with that Jingeng mother who sold all the young people in our village. For some reason, she took Xiao Yan’s money. That was Xiao Yan’s money to go home. How Long would it take to go from our village to Hai City? This money was her life-saving money. At that time, Xiao Yan was still injured. Her face was ruined and her legs were crippled. She was even more miserable than Changsheng now. However, Changsheng’s mother was too much. She didn’t know what was going on. She just wanted to force people into a dead end.”

“It’s the middle of winter, and she even chased her out. She thought it was behind our village, and there was only an empty shabby house. It had been a long time since anyone had lived in it. She chased her out, and even the clothes on her body were about to leave. Back then, Xiaoyan was a hairdresser in the village, and she didn’t live in their house for free. However, at that time, Changsheng’s mother was really ruthless. She wasn’t worried about chasing her out and whether she could still live. All she could think about was that Changsheng had gone out to earn a lot of money, and she would become a city dweller in the future. Did she really think that she had to cling onto her family’s Changsheng and not let go?”

“Her changsheng is just a lump of gold, isn’t it? She stole her money, so there’s no need to talk about it. She even scolded her. I heard that she even spat on her.”

“Xiaoyan is still a good person. When we return to the village, when we need to build a road for the village, when the village is connected to water and electricity, mother Jingen will not have a share. However, she does have a changsheng mother. This proves that she still cherishes the kindness of Changsheng. If it were me, I wouldn’t care about her life and death.”

“Then what is going on with Liu Fang’s Family?”The little daughter-in-law nodded. She roughly understood what was going on. So that was what Changsheng mother was like. It was no wonder that everyone looked at her strangely, so Changsheng mother used to do these things.

“Liu Fang is different.”When the aunt talked about Liu Fang’s family, she felt all kinds of envy in her heart. What could she say? She could only say that a good person had good karma.

“Back then, when Xiao Yan was chased out of autumn by Mother Changsheng, it was the Liu Fang family who couldn’t bear it, so they brought Xiao Yan to their own home. Later on, Xiao Yan came back to build a road for the village and stayed at Liu Fang’s home.”

“The Liu Fang family’s people are all honest, so a good person has good karma. It’s no wonder that they can live such a good life, but the others can’t.”

The little wife kept nodding her head. That was the reason.

She was going to ask something, but her sharp eyes found an old lady with white hair standing not far away. At this time, her old face was pulled up, as if even her chin was going to poke people.

The little wife was scared, but the aunt was not afraid.

“Hey, who did I think it was?”

The aunt saw Changsheng Ma and pursed her lips again, “Changsheng MA, come back. I saw Xiaoyan go to your place just now, but she came back again. It seems that your house is really too big, and she is still willing to live in a small house.”

Chapter 2162: hated his daughter-in-law and his grandson

Changsheng’s mother glared at this talkative woman, but she could not refute.

She returned to her home in a Huff and happened to hear her eldest grandson talking to his mother?

“Mom, brother Lu Guang gave me a watch. I can take it to school in the future. Brother Lu Guang’s mother is so young. I thought she was brother Lu Guang’s sister, but why didn’t they come to our house? Why did they insist on going to the village chief’s house? The village house isn’t as good as ours.”

Originally, when Changsheng’s daughter-in-law was about to speak, Changsheng’s mother rushed over and glared at her daughter-in-law. She was probably getting old these few years, and her temper was worse than before. Of course, her attitude toward her daughter-in-law wasn’t too good either, especially after she was deceived by Jingen’s mother, and her son was crippled, she felt that the world was too unfair to her and her son. Even the daughter-in-law she married wasn’t capable, she couldn’t even cook a meal. Moreover, she was only a few years old and had already grown so old. Similarly, the daughters-in-law of other people in the village were not like her. They were really old and ugly, causing her to lose all her face. She had forgotten.

However, she seemed to have forgotten that when Changsheng had just returned back then, not only did his legs become like that, he also lost a kidney. In the village, people called him a ghost with a short life, meanwhile, Changsheng’s mother had also anxiously asked Zhang Luo to marry a wife for her son. At that time, Changsheng had only just begun to learn how to raise chickens and farm in the village. Normally, the daughters of good families would not be willing to marry a cripple like changsheng, there were also short-lived men

It was only after she had asked for help, found some connections, and finally spent a large amount of dowry money that she found a wife for her son.

However, this wife was married back, and she was dissatisfied with this and that. The whole family was originally fine, and there weren't any big issues. At first, their lives were pretty good, until Changsheng started his business.., after the family became richer and richer, everything changed. Changsheng's mother's illness was acting up again, and she felt that others weren't worthy of her son. Now, her son was able to earn money, and he was the famous mushroom king, however, she did not even look at him. Changsheng was now crippled, and one of his kidneys was missing. Although that girl did not look good, she could still give birth. Within a year, she had given birth to a fat boy for her family.

Although he looked a little ugly, how could this person be perfect.

Could it be that they all thought that she would be like Xiaoyan? After her face was better, she would actually look like a fairy. She was rich, and she could still give birth. In the past, she felt that she was not good enough for Changsheng, but now, to put it bluntly, even if Changsheng was to carry her shoes, she would not be willing.

And wouldn't it be good for her to protect her son and grandson? She was already so old, and she was a demon every day. Changsheng could not have become like this. In the end, wasn't it just that Changsheng's mother insisted on letting him out? If she had listened to Xiaoyan's words.., if he didn't scheme against Jingen's mother every day, would changsheng have been turned into a beggar by Jingen?

Now, he still hadn't grown a conscience. He had to kill his own son, didn't he?

This Changsheng's mother used to be a pretty good person. Why did she become more and more muddle-headed as she grew older.

When Changsheng's mother saw that her daughter-in-law's face was even older than hers, she was so angry that she wanted to slap her daughter-in-law's face. It seemed that she wanted to talk to Changsheng again and ask Changsheng to divorce her.., with Changsheng's current status and status, with their family's current wealth, even if they wanted to find a university student, it would be fine.

She had mentioned it to Changsheng before, but Changsheng did not agree, in the past, it was already good enough for their village to marry a wife. Who would divorce? Moreover, Changsheng had never thought of divorcing his wife. This woman had followed him for almost a lifetime. How could he abandon her just like that, then, he would marry a young and beautiful woman. if he dared to do so, he would be drowned by the spittle of the villagers in the village.

When Changsheng's mother saw her grandson's face, she was even angrier.

Mingliang looked like his mother, but he did not look like his father at all. It could not be said how ugly he was. He was just an ordinary child. However, compared to Yan Huan's two children, he was simply too far away.

What she could not bear to see was not that her grandson was ugly or that he was not smart. It was that Yan Huan, whom she had tried every means to chase out in the past and had looked down on, was now a billionaire woman, she had even given birth to three children.

This was simply a slap on her face.

Of course, Changsheng's mother was not regretting it. She was jealous. She was deeply jealous. Her family was clearly a well-known wealthy family in this area, but why was it that they could not compare to Xiao Yan, whom she had looked down on the most in the past.

The more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt. In a while, she would start to dislike her own grandson. He was so ugly, but he had already followed his mother. He didn't follow her son at all, if he followed her son's looks, at the very least, he wouldn't be so ugly.

When Mingliang saw his grandmother's disdainful eyes on him, he also shrank back. He had actually known since he was young whether his grandmother liked him very much, thus, he always ran away the moment he saw his grandmother.

And when he hid behind his long-lived wife and saw that his mother was washing clothes, and they were all dirty clothes, he felt sorry for his mother. There was clearly not much work to do at home, but his grandmother always made his mother do this and that.

"Grandmother, your clothes aren't dirty much. Why do you have to change them every day? whose clothes are changed every day?" Even if water didn't cost money and electricity didn't cost money, the clothes still needed money, right?

If she washed them every day, she would tear the clothes apart.

"You ate them yesterday. Don't tell me you won't eat them today?"

When Changsheng's mother heard her grandson talk back to her, she felt uncomfortable in her heart. She also disliked this grandson who looked like his daughter-in-law even more. She really didn't know if Changsheng's mother treated all the women.., as enemies who stole her son. She had obviously married this daughter-in-law herself, but now that her son had become rich, the daughter-in-law was useless.

As a result, her heart was not in balance, and she had long hated him.

The changsheng wife lightly tugged at her son's sleeve and shook her head at him, meaning to tell him not to talk back to his grandmother. No matter what, he was still an elder, and the Changsheng Mother's current temper was very bad.

The more mingliang talked back, the more she protected her as a mother, and the more difficult his mother-in-law would make things for him. In any case, she was already like this now, and she had already been able to bear with it for so many years. If she could bear with it for a few more years.., the current Changsheng mother was already so old. She did not have many years left to live. She endured until Changsheng mother was no longer around.

Chapter 2163: torturing a daughter-in-law

People said that a daughter-in-law for many years had become a mother-in-law, but she was still following the path of her predecessors.

Mingliang was just about to retort, but when he saw his mother like this, he could only forcefully swallow the words that were originally blurted out.

“Mom, I’ll help you wash.” Mingliang rolled up his sleeves and was about to help Changsheng’s daughter-in-law wash the clothes.

Changsheng’s wife immediately separated her son. Besides, it was a woman’s job to wash the clothes and cook.

“It’s okay, Mom. I’ll wash it for you. After washing it, you can eat. I’m hungry.”

As Mingliang said this, he reached his hand into the big basin. However, as soon as he put his hand in, it almost froze his hand. The water was really cold, and when he saw his mother’s head of white hair., then he thought of Yan Huan’s face, which was so young that he could go against his age. His mother was still younger than Yan Huan, but why was Lu Qi and Lu Guang’s mother so young? Yet, his mother had to suffer such hardship.

He didn’t understand it in the past, but now he knew.

It was this kind of life that made his mother grow old ahead of time, and it also made his mother’s hair turn white.

“Mom, you can use the washing machine at home.” The family had actually bought a washing machine long ago. However, his mother had never used it before. Since she had bought a washing machine, she had to use it. If she didn’t use it, why would she buy it back? This was a household appliance, not a piece of furniture.

“Your grandmother doesn’t like the cost of water and electricity, and she also doesn’t like the fact that it can’t be washed clean.”

The long-lived wife’s words were quite indifferent. In any case, I was really not used to using those things. Even if I washed it clean, it wouldn’t harm my clothes.

Ming Liang wasn’t stupid. He knew that his mother was only saying nice things for him to hear, and he saw that his hands were placed in the water. It was only for a short while, and he couldn’t stand it, let alone his mother, who was always washing clothes, whether it was cold or hot, she was washing clothes.

The corners of his eyes were wet and uncomfortable.

He rolled up his sleeves again. In the past, he was insensible. In the future, he had to help his mother wash clothes. He did not let his mother work as hard as before. He forcefully rubbed his clothes in the water.

However, he used so much strength. He did not know that at this moment, his grandmother looked at him and his mother as if they were enemies.

Perhaps it was because Changsheng’s wife was bought that she had the lowest status in the family. She was not a married wife at all, but a servant of Changsheng’s family who naturally came to Changsheng’s house, she almost did not have a good life. Changsheng’s mother was not stupid. When Changsheng was around, she was still very polite to Changsheng’s wife. However, as soon as Changsheng left, she began to look at Changsheng’s wife. This was not pleasing to the eye, and that was not pleasing to the eye, changsheng was busy outside. He still had to go out and help others grow the same mushrooms. In addition, if he was discussing business with others outside, he would only go door-to-door a few days a year, in addition, Changsheng's daughter-in-law's personality was soft. Of course, she would not complain in front of Changsheng's mother-in-law. Therefore, perhaps even Changsheng himself did not know what kind of life his daughter-in-law was living?

Or maybe, he knew a little, but he had never put it to heart.

Speaking of which, maybe it was because.

This wasn't the person he cared about.

Mingliang and Changsheng's wife hung the washed clothes in the courtyard. This was one of the good things about the village. Compared to the tall buildings outside, there would be a big courtyard. The courtyard could be used for farming, and it could also be used to pull a long rope, only the washed clothes could be hung on the rope. The courtyard was very large. It could be basked in the sun, and there would also be wind, so the clothes would dry very quickly.

Mingliang walked into his room. There was only a cabinet and a small wooden bed in his room. He was very envious of Lu Qi and Lu Guang because they both had a computer. It was a laptop, and it was very expensive, it was also a light laptop.

They had a computer class to learn from, and he liked it very much. However, his father did not buy it for him. His father was not the same as before. He always thought that having a computer would affect his studies, but how could it be? Brother Lu Guang knew how to use a computer when he was in primary school.

He took out his textbook from his schoolbag and prepared to prepare for tomorrow's lesson. Just as he took the book out, he heard his mother's scream. His fingers trembled, the book in his hand also fell to the ground.

He hurriedly ran out and heard his mother's screams from the kitchen from time to time. Each cry made his heart feel uncomfortable.

His eyes became hot and he almost cried out

He hurriedly ran into the kitchen and almost bit his teeth. He saw Changsheng mother scooping water from the pot and pouring it over his mother's body. That was the water in the pot. It was boiling water.

Even so, Changsheng mother was still angry. She directly took a kettle from the side and poured the boiling water into it.

"Mom..." her bright eyes glared, and without thinking, she pounced on Changsheng's wife. The basin of water was also poured over his head.

Instantly, a pot of boiling water was poured over, and bright screams of pain could be heard, as well as the wailing of Changsheng's wife.

With a clang, the kettle in Changsheng's mother's hand also fell to the ground. She was so scared that she ran out, not caring about her grandson anymore.

At this moment, in Liu Fang's house, Yan Huan was already asleep in the guest room. Lu Qi pulled the blanket over her and covered her up. Then, he took out his phone and sat down to look at it.

"Brother..."

Lu Guang walked in. However, when he saw that Yan Huan was already asleep, he did not say anything else.

Lu Qi turned around and saw his younger brother's grave expression. He knew that something was about to happen.

He stood up and walked out as well. He closed the door so that his mother wouldn't wake up from the noise outside. After his mother arrived, she wasn't used to the environment. If it wasn't for his father's busy work., he would have come over himself.

Now that his father wasn't around, the two of them couldn't take care of his mother's illness.

"What happened?" Lu Qi asked his younger brother.

They were triplets. Naturally, they could sense what was going on between them.

"Something happened," Lu Guang said. He always liked to smile, but now he didn't even feel like smiling.

"Something happened to Ming Liang."

"What happened?" Lu Yi looked outside. It seemed like he could hear the noise outside even from here. It seemed like something big had happened.

"Let's go take a look first." Lu Qi took a step forward and Lu Guang followed.

Chapter 2164: Burns

His mother might still need to sleep for a while, so she wouldn't wake up now. In fact, whether it was bright or not didn't have much to do with them. However, because they had said a few words., and they kept saying that it was brother Lu Qi and brother Lu Guang. No matter what, they had to go over and take a look. What exactly happened?

And when they arrived, they were all somewhat frightened.

"What a sin," a middle-aged woman stood at the side with red eyes and wiped away her tears. She could only cry, but she did not dare to move.

She saw that Changsheng's wife's face was swollen, and her hands were covered in blisters from the burns.

And Bright's appearance was even more terrifying and more serious. The skin on his hands and face seemed as if it was about to explode, and his entire body was red and swollen.

He had been scalded.

Lu Guang took out his cell phone and called 120. They did not dare to touch these two people now. It was as if the skin on their bodies would tear apart if they touched it.

Fortunately, the roads in the village were repaired. Whether it was large cars or small cars, they could pass through smoothly. If they wanted to go through the mountain roads like before, they would have to wait for death here.

The development of the village was pretty good. There was a hospital outside the village. It was not too far away. If there were no problems, an ambulance would come in a while.

These were all villagers who were watching the show. Why? Did they not think of calling an ambulance?

In fact, Lu Guang had really misunderstood the villagers here. These villagers had been poor and had gone through hardships. They had never left this place a few miles away. In the past twenty years, the village had developed well, however, they had not seen much of the market. Moreover, everyone had been frightened by this sudden situation, so they had to find an ambulance.

Lu Qi walked over and squatted in front of the bright mother and son.

“Don’t touch him. Wait for the Doctor to come.”

Changsheng’s wife’s hand froze in the air. She choked and did not dare to move.

“Don’t cry.” Lu Qi’s face darkened again. “It’ll get infected.”

His gaze stopped on Changsheng’s face. “You’re the same. Endure it.”

Changsheng did not dare to move now. He really did not dare to move, nor could he move. He did not dare to shed tears again, afraid that it would be like what Lu Qi had said, infected.

It was not a big deal. Lu Yi observed the bright light for a long time. It was obvious that it was only scalded, and he was also frightened. Therefore, other than the injuries on his head, face, and hands, his entire body was, of course, not in life-threatening danger.

It was just that..

“How did this happen?” He raised his head and looked around. The villagers had built their own kitchen. There were two large pots on the stove. The water in the pots was still half full, but it could still be seen now.., the water in the pots was steaming.

And how did bright and Changsheng’s wife get scalded by boiling water? How did this happen? Did they put themselves in the pot to be boiled?

Meanwhile, Changsheng’s daughter-in-law only cried, but she didn’t even dare to shed a single tear. And how could she say it? How could she say it? Was it Ming Liang’s own grandmother who scalded them with boiling water?

That wasn’t anyone else. That was Changsheng’s mother, and also Ming Liang’s grandmother.

“What happened?” A voice suddenly came from outside the crowd.

Lu Guang hurriedly pushed aside the crowd and saw that Yan Huan had woken up. She was wearing a silvery-white fur coat and a complete set of hats on her head. She was indeed very young, there was no trace of time on her body. It was impossible to tell that she was old.

If she did not say it, no one would believe it. She was already a fifty-year-old old woman because she was really too young.

“Mother, why are you here?”

Lu Guang hurriedly went over, afraid that Yan Huan would be squeezed by others.

“What happened?” Yan Huan went forward and saw the kitchen. Something seemed to have happened. This was Changsheng’s home. What happened to Changsheng’s Home?

“They were scalded.” Lu Guangba pointed inside. “It’s mingliang and his mother. Both of them were scalded to different degrees. They’ve already called an ambulance. They’ll be here soon.”

“Scalded?” Yan Huan wanted to go in and take a look. She had naturally arrived at the Chen clan village and had never thought of stepping into the Changsheng family. Even though the house was later rebuilt, it was still visible, there were things that belonged to the past.

The homestead grounds in the village belonged to each family. Later on, they were all built in the village. However, they were still built in the same place as before. Yan Huan also had an inexplicable sense of rejection towards the Changsheng family.

She really did not want to go in. Just as she was about to go in, an ambulance’s clothes came from outside.

The ambulance had arrived.

The crowd made way for the ambulance. In a short while, two people were carried away on two stretchers. They were indeed Changsheng’s wife and Changsheng’s son.

How did these two people become like this? No one could answer.

“Mom, I’ll go over for a while,” Lu Qi tidied up her sleeves and said to Lu Guang.

“Okay, I got it,” Lu Guang quickly agreed. Just as Yan Huan was about to go forward, Lu Guang quickly stopped her.

“Mom, don’t worry. Big Brother is here. Everything will be fine. We’ll go back and rest first and wait for big brother to come back.”

Yan Huan did not go in the end. She went back to Liu Fang’s house. Liu Fang had specially prepared a room for her. Now, even Lu Qi and Lu Guang had their own rooms. The Liu Fang family had been living quite well these past few years, Yan Huan also gave them some things every year. He had never let the Liu family down. Of course, the ones he gave the most were actually the more practical money.

The Liu family was not greedy. That was why they had been keeping their hearts in their hearts all these years.

Yan Huan did not feel uncomfortable living in the Liu family. She was special to the Liu family because she was indebted to them. It was enough for her to live for the rest of her life. Coincidentally, she was recording a program nearby, it was also a little closer to the Li family village, so she came over. However, Lu Yi was worried about her, so he asked Lu Qi and Lu Guang to accompany her.

Lu Qi and Lu Guang were still university students. They hadn't graduated from the University of Hai City. Originally, Lu Guang wanted to study abroad, but he decided later that he wouldn't go.

He couldn't help it. He wasn't used to eating bad food abroad. Since he was young, he had been fed by all kinds of delicious food. If he didn't have good food, what was he going to live for?

If he had to go, he would have packed Lu Wei. After all, his sister cooked good food. Of course, this was impossible, so in the end, he didn't choose to study abroad, instead, he chose to continue staying at Haishi University, which was also close to home.

Chapter 2165: scourge of a thousand years

This time, both of them had taken a few days off. One was to accompany their mother, and the other was to come over. They also wanted to see what the village chief of the Li family looked like.

Changsheng and the others naturally knew each other. After all, they had seen each other when they were young, but their memories of when they were young were somewhat fuzzy. Now that Changsheng was old, it was impossible for him to be the same as before, so they really did not recognize him.

Moreover, they had also come to see Liu Fang. It was also because too much time had passed, so they did not have much memory of Liu Fang. However, they still remembered that there was a little auntie who often accompanied them to play. Thinking about it., that Little Auntie was Liu Fang.

They were originally in a pretty good mood here. The customs here were pretty good. If they were to simply treat it as a trip, then it could be considered a pretty good trip. However, who would have thought that such a thing would actually happen.

Yan Huan walked into the room. It was very warm inside. Although the weather was cold now, Liu Fangzhi's house did not feel cold because the ground was burning with a kind of earth warmth, it was also quite warm when it was burning on a painful day.

Yan Huan took off the coat he was wearing.

Lu Guang quickly held his mother's coat in his arms and hung it on the side. His mother's coat was really not cheap. Other people who wore fur coats like this would look bloated, however, his mother did not have such a feeling. Instead, it made people feel that she was very elegant, just like those models on the runway. She was thin, beautiful, and beautiful.

Yan Huan had just sat down when Liu Fang rushed in in a hurry. She might have also heard about the incident with Changsheng's wife.

"Sister Yan, Guess What I found out?"

Liu Fang also sat down and hurriedly told Yan Huan about what she had just asked.

Perhaps Yan Huan would feel incredulous when he heard it.

Actually, not to mention Yan Huan, even she felt the same. Moreover, she was from this village.

“En, what is it?” Yan Huan raised his face. He was originally a little drowsy, but when Liu Fang came, she also felt a little spirited.

Liu Fang was still the same as before. She liked to gossip the most, but now that she looked relaxed and fat, he knew that her life was pretty good. If it was really because she was forced to live.., she couldn't even care about food and clothing. How could she think about other people's matters every day?

Only then did Liu Fang tell Yan Huan the news that she had gotten from outside

“I heard that it was scalded by Changsheng Mom.”

“Her?”

Yan Huan frowned. “No matter how vicious and ruthless she is, no matter how ignorant she is, it's impossible for her to do anything to her own grandson, right?”

“Then you don't know?” Liu Fang curled her lips when she mentioned the Changsheng family, “It's not like you don't know what kind of person she is. When Changsheng first returned to the village, he had a crippled leg and lost a kidney. which normal woman would be willing to marry him? Later, it was Changsheng's mother who spent a lot of money to buy Changsheng a wife. Changsheng's wife is actually a pretty good person. Other than her bad looks, she's not very smart either. However, she's a virtuous woman. However, later on, because Changsheng became rich, Changsheng's mother began to dislike Changsheng's wife.”

“Tsk...” when Liu Fang talked about those terrible things in the Changsheng family, he couldn't finish it even if he talked for three days and three nights. And this time, she heard the people in the village talking about it. They said that the boiling water on Ming Liang and his mother's body were all splashed by Changsheng's mother.

How could there be such a heartless grandmother in this world? That wasn't anyone else, that was her own grandson.

The reason why her longevity had become like this was all because of her mother. Her son was crippled, could it be that she had to burn her grandson until his face was disfigured? Just how much worry did this old lady have with her own son and grandson, only by making the entire family restless would there be peace.

When Yan Huan heard Liu Fang's words, his beautiful red lips were pressed tightly together.

After Liu Fang left, Yan Huan turned to Lu Guang.

“My Brother said that he's fine.” Lu Guang knew that his mother was going to ask about this, “Brother said that he's already in the hospital. Although his life isn't in danger, this burn is still very serious. After all, this is a burn. He still needs to be treated for infection. And Bright's injury is his face. The matter on his face can't be a small matter. It's hard to say if his face will be disfigured.”

As for Ming Liang's mother, she was slightly better than Ming Liang. Without checking, the doctor immediately called the police. Ming Liang's mother's body was full of injuries, big and small. The new injuries were also old injuries. Some were green, some were red, and some were scratched. With so many injuries as evidence, the doctor could tell at a glance, this injury was not caught by him. He was obviously beaten up by someone. Not long after the doctor called the police, the police had already driven to the village. There was no need to investigate, the village's seven aunts and eight aunts automatically helped to confess.

It was just a matter of the mother-in-law abusing her daughter-in-law. Ever since they had just married, she had not been nice to them. This time, she even scalded her grandson and daughter-in-law, and she herself was like a coward, she did not even bother to care about it. She had become a mouse hiding somewhere. Now, both of them were sent to the hospital. Now that they were out, they still had to stand outside and scold this and that.

It was unknown if this was what others said. A good person did not live long, but a disaster would last for a thousand years.

When the police saw the white-haired old lady who was full of energy and had a fierce face, they did not know if they should bring this person back.

After all, she was already over sixty years old. If something happened to her, who would be responsible for it? Moreover, this old lady looked like she was going to arrest him, leaving the police with no choice, in the end, they could only stay here by themselves. In any case, they could run away from the monk, but they could not run away from the temple. If they could not arrest this old lady, didn't she still have a son?

When Changsheng returned, his face immediately turned green when he heard about this matter.

He hurriedly went to the hospital to see his wife and son. The injuries on their bodies did not seem too serious now. They just needed to stay in the hospital for a period of time. As for their hospitalization procedures., lu Qi had also paid for the hospitalization fees. As for that tall and handsome young man who did not like to smile, changsheng always felt an indescribable pressure.

Changsheng still wanted to say something, but Lu Qi didn't seem to be too willing to pay attention to him.

The men of the Lu clan were born to protect the women of their clan. They looked down on men like Changsheng. No matter how successful you were, what was the point? In terms of personality, you were always a loser.

Chapter 2166: leaving the village

As for Changsheng, in front of Lu Qi, it was just like standing in front of Lu Yi all those years ago. He had an indescribable sense of inferiority.

It was as if he was a high and mighty God. As for him, he was still a pile of mud that no one wanted, hiding silently in the corner of the wall.

People really could not compare.

It was not that he was afraid of what would happen?

It was that he was afraid of hurting himself.

He was afraid of hurting himself.

When Changsheng had arranged the matters in the hospital and hired a nurse to take care of the two of them, he was ready to return to the village. However, when he reached the village, he heard people pointing at his back, they said that it was his mother who had done those things.

To be honest, Changsheng had not heard such ugly words for a very long time, and he had not been humiliated like this for a very long time. Even though he had returned from the outside world with a crippled leg and a missing kidney, he did not feel anything. Because he was not wrong, and also because he was a victim. And now, he was not a victim. He was a sinner, and also a failure.

Changsheng almost walked away dejectedly. He could not help but stop at the door of Liu Fang's house. He also looked inside. She knew all this, right?

Coincidentally, Lu Guang walked out from inside. He stretched his back, completely different from Lu Qi's rigid manner. He was more casual and loved to laugh, while those who loved to laugh.., those who did not know would close the distance between them. However, those who were familiar with him knew that behind such a smile, it could not be that it was not cold, but it was not distance.

"Uncle Changsheng's mother is really amazing."The more Lu Guang cracked a smile, the happier he became. The words he said were also pleasant to hear. His smile also made people's eyes light up. If there were women around, they would probably pounce on him and bite him a few times.

"Now I finally understand why my mother suffered so much from Uncle Changsheng's mother. This is also the first time I've seen such a powerful shrew. Coincidentally, my family runs an entertainment company. When I go home, I'll get someone to write a script called 'poor daughter-in-law, evil mother-in-law'. Uncle Changsheng's mother is the best prototype."

On the other hand, Changsheng's face was hot and ugly after hearing Lu Guang's words. He covered his face and ran back to his own house.

As soon as he arrived home, he was taken away by the police. This incident was extremely bad news. In addition, Changsheng was a well-known mushroom king. His celebrity was already very progressive in this generation, of course, his positive image was also good. It was also a live advertisement for the entire Li family village and several nearby villages. Right now, this was not the same as when some actors' personalities collapsed, but the result was the same when their reputations were ruined.

Yan Huan originally wanted to stay in such a beautiful place for a while. However, it was a pity that this village was a little too chaotic now. It was likely that this place would become even more lively in the near future, it was likely that the people from all over the countryside would come over to admire Changsheng's mother. She did not have much interest in what this shrew looked like.

Changsheng was a good person. He was a child who grew up in the mountains. He was practical and generous. Of course, he was also hardworking and could endure hardships. However, he was extreme.

And this shortcoming.., it was not something any woman could endure. He clearly knew what kind of personality Changsheng's mother had, yet he allowed her to hurt the person next to him, his own child, because that was not someone else, but his own mother.., however, he seemed to have forgotten that his actions would only make Changsheng's mother more and more severe. His hands would also become more and more weightless. Did he have to wait until everything was irreparable before she would wake up?

Changsheng's entire family had been destroyed by Changsheng's mother, and Changsheng's mother did not know the slightest bit of repentance. She did not feel that there was anything wrong with her. If she did not have a daughter-in-law, then she did not have one. Her family had plenty of money, however, she had married a young and beautiful woman.

However, she seemed to have forgotten how old Changsheng was. He was already over forty years old. To put it bluntly, he was already an old man. Yes, he was rich, however, an old man who was crippled, old, and had lost a kidney. which woman would be willing to be with you? Even if she was with you, could you guarantee that that woman was truly sincere towards you?

If there really was someone who was truly sincere towards a man like changsheng...

Then perhaps many people were willing to believe in love. However, would there be such love in this world?

If one was willing to be together with such a person, how could it be because of love? It was just because of longevity's money. Perhaps one would still be thinking about why longevity was still alive. After he died.., wouldn't all the money be his.

At this moment, Yan Huan had already left. Her program was about to start filming, so she had to rush to the filming location.

"Miss Yan, you're here."

When the director saw Yan Huan, he hurriedly walked over.

"Call me Auntie." Yan Huan was really helpless against this young director. "I'm already two rounds older than you, so it's time for me to call you Auntie. How can you be so disrespectful to your elders? This is outrageous."

The director laughed until his face turned red. He couldn't call her that.

She was such a young Auntie. She could even be called an elder sister. However, Yan Huan was actually half his age, so if he didn't call her auntie, what else could he call her.

"They are?"

The director was quite surprised by the two young men who were following Yan Huan. However, when he saw their appearances, he guessed, "They are your sons, right?"

"Yes." Yan Huan smiled. "My sons, Lu Qi and Lu Guang."

"Hello." Lu Qi extended his hand and placed it in front of the director. "My name is Lu Qi."

The director extended his hand and shook Lu Qi's hand. However, there was always a sense of distance from Lu Qi. Although they were close, they did not feel close.

"My name is Lu Guang." Lu Guang also reached out his hand. This person was much more down-to-earth. Although he looked exactly the same, it was because of this smile that he felt like his entire temperament had changed, of course, this person seemed to be easier to get along with.

In fact, this was something that only a bunch of strangers would think of. If they were really familiar with each other, then they should know that Lu Guang was actually much more difficult to get along with than Lu Qi. Lu Qi's personality was cold, however, he was not a person who was good at beating around the bush. As for Lu Guang, he was a very flamboyant old fox. He was smiling at you, but you would never be able to catch his heart, which had always been wandering.

Yan Huan recorded this gourmet program from when she was young to now. From her current age, it would not be a problem for her to host it for another ten years. Moreover, she had a good face., she had neglected her age.

Chapter 2167: was all about children

After the program was finished, they were going to drive back to Hai City. Yan Huan also received a call from Liu Fang. On the phone, when Liu Fang talked about this matter, she felt a little sad, after all, perhaps no one had expected such an outcome.

Changsheng's daughter-in-law wanted to divorce changsheng, and she wanted to be bright.

Bright was also determined to follow his mother. Of course, Changsheng's mother was eager for them to divorce so that she could find a young and beautiful one for her son. In the future, she would give birth to a smart grandson for their family, she didn't want a grandson that looked like his mother and had a stupid personality.

Liu Fang said that she had never thought that Changsheng's wife would make such a decision. After all, with Changsheng's wife's personality, she was too unopinionated. If she had a little bit of courage., she wouldn't have been bullied by Changsheng's mother for more than ten years.

However, perhaps Changsheng's mother herself had not thought about it. She had racked her brains trying to chase Changsheng's daughter-in-law out, but in the end, after this basin of water, the other party had to take the initiative to leave.

If she had known earlier, perhaps Changsheng's mother would have regretted it and gone to do something earlier. Why hadn't the water been splashed out earlier.

In fact, everyone had a bottom line that he could tolerate. He could not tolerate it all the time, and he could not tolerate it all the time. If he tolerated it for a long time, when he could no longer tolerate it, he would., the decisions that they could make were also unexpected. They were just like Changsheng's wives.

Lu Guang was playing with his phone. He seemed to have thought of something, and a smile appeared on his lips. There were some other meanings that he could not put into words.

Lu Qi looked at his brother.

“What are you going to do now?”

They were triplets, and they had grown up together. How could he not know what Lu Guang was thinking?

“Nothing?” Lu Guang did not admit it. Even if he was going to do something, he could not let his boss know.

The light in Lu Guang’s eyes dimmed slightly.

“No matter what you do, take it easy.”

“Don’t worry, brother. I know.” Lu Guang grabbed his hair. “Don’t worry about what I do.”

Lu Qi narrowed his eyes again and closed them to rest.

While he was sleeping, he felt as if something was covering his body. He opened his eyes and saw Yan Huan covering his body with his coat. She was still his mother from before, just like how he was only three years old, and she was thirty years old.

“Thank you, Mother.” Lu Qi finally had a trace of a smile on his face. His right face was slightly sunken, with a small dimple.

Yan Huan stretched out his hand and poked his son’s face. “Xiao Qi, you don’t like to smile. Is it because you have a Dimple?”

Lu Qi touched his own face. He couldn’t tell when he was young, but when he grew up, it came out.

Yan Huan poked his son’s face again, and he laughed so hard that tears came out of his eyes.

Lu Qi really couldn’t do anything to his own mother. How could there be a mother who would cheat her son like this.

He had always walked the path of a cold and aloof CEO, but now he had grown a dimple. How could he bear it? It didn’t matter if the dimple grew on Lu Guang’s body. He might even like it very much, he would be very proud. Moreover, with this smile, his charm would come out. However, if it grew on his body, it would undoubtedly make him unable to even smile.

And he knew that when his mother found out about this, she would definitely laugh until she went crazy.

As expected.

Lu Qi was also quite helpless. If it was another woman, he would have scared her to her knees with a glare. However, this person was not someone else. This was his mother who gave birth to him.

His mother looked young and had a young personality. Therefore, she was like a young person and liked to cause trouble. Of course, she loved to pinch his face the most. Not only did she like to pinch him, but Lu Guang also liked to pinch him.

Therefore, when his mother wanted to pinch him, not only did he have to generously offer his face, but he also had to bend his waist. Otherwise, his mother would not be able to touch his face. The men in his family had always been tall, however, they were not as scary as the Lei family. The people in his family were all good-looking, but they were not like the Ye family, who did not differentiate between men and women.

He and Lu Guang looked like their father. Of course, they were more delicate than their father because they also looked a little like their mother.

As for their sister, she looked the most like their mother. She was a great beauty, and their entire family had been protecting her since she was young. Of course, their sister was also a very obedient and good girl.

When he thought of his younger sister, he had not seen her for a long time. He did not know how her younger sister was doing. This time, she did not follow him out because her father was still at home. Her younger sister had to cook for her father to eat.

He closed his eyes again. Yan Huan pulled his coat up again. Even though he had grown up to be a young man, in his mother's eyes, he was still a child.

"Mom, you're so good to Big Brother. Aren't you afraid that I'll Be Sad?" Lu Guang bent down and directly hugged Yan Huan's arm.

There were many children in the family, and it was inevitable that they would fight for the favor. However, their family did not have one. The most doted on in the family was their younger sister. Even the two of them, who were brothers, doted on their younger sister the most.

As for Lu Qi and Lu Guang, they were very mature since they were young. It was impossible for the two of them to fight for the favor. However, Lu Guang was bored now and wanted to be a child for once.

Yan Huan pinched her son's face hard.

"How Old Are You?"

"Mom, don't you know how old I am?"

Lu Guang hugged his mother's arm again. He had to lean his big head on his mother's shoulder. He missed his mother just like other children. He naturally loved his mother the most in this world.

As for Yan Huan, she did not know whether to laugh or cry.

She patted his big head again. "Yes, you're already twenty years old. Both of you have grown up, but mother is getting old."

Time was indeed unforgiving. Although it did not take away her beauty, it also took away her time and health. She had been feeling a lot of things lately, and she was beginning to feel that she could not do as much as she wanted.

Old, really old. Even if she did not accept her old age, she could not do it anymore.

The car continued to drive forward. Not long after, they arrived at the program team. Yan Huan still had to record the program for the next few days before he could return to Hai City.

Lu Qi had always been on the program team. It was a pity for the director to see Lu Qi and Lu Guang for the first time. With such a good image, why didn't he become an actor? If he became an actor, he could guarantee that he would definitely become famous. No., he would definitely become famous. It was just that Lu Qi and Lu Guang did not want to. They had no intention of becoming actors at all.

However, it was a pity that Lu Qi and Lu Guang had forgotten about Lu Wei. If Lu Wei were to take over Yan Huan's class, who knew how good it would be.

That's right. If Lu Wei's face had not been hidden by her family, she would have become famous by now.

Chapter 2168: was really tiring to talk to her boss

The Lu family didn't need Lu Wei to earn any money, much less become famous. Besides, Lu Wei herself didn't like it. Now, even if Yi Ling wanted her to be a guest, she wasn't willing.

She liked to grow flowers and plants. Then, she learned how to cook from her mother. Of course, she was also very similar to her mother. That was, as long as they found delicious dishes, no matter what., they all wanted to learn how to cook those dishes. Therefore, in these few years, not only did she learn what her mother knew, she also learned many unpopular dishes.

Yi Ling always said that it was Yan Huan who had raised Lu Wei so badly. She was clearly such a good seedling of a celebrity and had such a beautiful and photogenic face, but she had to be buried like this.

However, Yan Huan did not feel that he had raised his daughter so badly. The road of being an actress was not an easy one. Only they themselves knew how hard it was. They would soak in ice water in the winter and wear cotton-padded jackets in the summer, this was the most normal thing. Lu Wei had always been introverted since she was young. She was not suitable to take the road of being an actress.

Moreover, what was wrong with growing flowers and plants? She was always looking at these flowers and plants. Could it be that her mood was not beautiful? Moreover, staying with flowers and plants was much better than running around all day.

Lu Guang leaned on the side. He went out to play for a few days before returning. Then, he stayed here to accompany his mother to finish filming the rest of the show. However, he had more things to do recently. As for what..

Ha... a secret.

After Yan Huan finished filming the show, he did not stop. He returned to Hai City. Lu Guang had always been smiling, but he did not know what he was smiling about?

"Is your face smacked?"

Lu Qi asked his younger brother.

“I know. You are jealous of Hong Guoguo. Lu Guang is still happy because when your mother gave birth to you, she did not give you the nerve to smile, so you won’t smile. You must be jealous that my smile is so good-looking.”

Lu Qi glanced at him indifferently, as if he was looking at an idiot.

He smiled like an idiot every day. Was he not an idiot.

There was a generation gap between people like you and me. Lu Guang would not argue with his big brother about these things. He wanted to fight, to compete for the title of the leader of his family. It was quite boring, and he was willing to say more, the other party was not even willing to give him a single word.

So, the poor thing could only talk to herself.

If he and his big brother’s faces were exactly the same, to be honest, he really could not believe that they were actually born from the same mother. They were even rare twins. Of course, Xun Xun was put aside first, this matter had nothing to do with Xun Xun.

They were only talking about what happened between them.

Boss Lu spoke pitifully little, and second brother Lu was a chatterbox.

And the two of them, apart from their looks, each had their own extreme personalities.

Lu Guang and Lu Qi had grown up together for twenty years. How could they not know what each other’s personalities were like? That was why Lu Guang would not fight with boss over what was right and wrong.

This was the experience he had accumulated countless times. Every time he was not convinced, he wanted to fight with his boss over who was right and who was superior. His saliva flew everywhere as he spoke for half an hour, there was even an hour where he was moved by his own words. How could he not be moved by others.

And when he asked his boss with anticipation, “Brother, how do you feel?”?

His boss slowly raised his face and opened his thin lips. The voice that came out of his mouth began to pierce his face.

“Are you done?” Boss Lu asked.

“Oh, I’m done,” second brother Lu said.

“Brother, don’t you have anything to say?”

“No,” boss Lu continued to do his own thing. “Sorry, I was distracted just now...”

Was this enough of a blow?

This was a lesson that was akin to blood and tears.

Therefore, it was really too tiring to talk to his boss.

Lu Guang took out his phone from his pocket. His phone was turned off. Although he could turn his phone on and use it now, he was still used to turning his phone off as soon as he boarded the plane. When he was in the middle.., he also didn't know how to switch it on because there was nothing to play with.

He then placed his phone in his pocket and sat next to the plane, watching what Yan Huan was doing?

In the end, he saw his most beautiful mother flipping through a book. It was a natural joy.

He directly leaned his big head on his mother's shoulder.

Sigh, he really loved his mother too much. How could their lives be so good? They had such a good mother like Yan Huan. Back then, she gave birth to them without any regard for her own life. She also gave birth to them to be so handsome and handsome. He really hoped.., his mother could continue to be young, and he was smiling so much that he could not see his eyes. With one look, he could tell that she was a child who had grown up in a honey pot. However, her heart was like a black sesame seed.

They were on a private plane. In the entire plane, other than the three of them, there were also the crew members.

This was provided to Yan Huan by the Ye family's airport. As long as she wanted to go anywhere, this plane could take her anywhere at any time.

Of course, this also prevented them from being treated like monkeys when they were on other planes. One would touch her, and the other would pinch her.

Lu Guang crossed his legs, and the corners of his lips were clearly curved. These curves suddenly deepened. It was possible that he had thought of something again.

When they returned to hai city, Lu Qi and Lu Guang had already returned to school to continue being students.

Lu Guang parked his car at the station and opened the door. He waited outside the station until he saw a big and a small person carrying bags of luggage walking over from the train.

It had already been a few hours' journey. It would be strange if they were not tired.

"Mom, look, it's brother Xiao Guang!"

Ming Liang recognized Lu Guang at a glance because Lu Guang was too easy to recognize. He was like a luminous body. Even among the crowd, he could be identified at a glance.

Changsheng's wife. No, she was no longer Changsheng's wife. She had already divorced Changsheng. Now, she was just an ordinary mother with a son who was still in school.

However, she had to come out with her son. Otherwise, if they were still in the village, Changsheng's mother would not let them go. Regardless of whether she divorced changsheng or not, Changsheng's mother would be like a devil, she would follow her mother and son for the rest of her life.

When Ming Liang said that he wanted her to come to hai city, she thought about it for the entire night. In the end, she gritted her teeth and agreed

She had heard from Liu Fang that Hai City was a good place filled with gold bricks. She was not missing an arm or a leg. She could do any kind of work and endure any kind of hardship. She believed that.., she would definitely earn enough money to support herself and her son.

Lu Guang walked over and lifted Ming Liang's mother's luggage. Ming Liang's mother needed two hands to lift things. He could do it with one hand. He opened the car door and also stuffed the cars.., into the trunk of his own car.

Chapter 2169: the people he disliked would not make things easy for him

There were not many things that Ming Liang's mother and Ming Liang had. In the first place, they lived in a long-lived family. Ming Liang's mother had not left the village in the past few years, and everything in the family was done in an orderly manner, but in the end, she was still unable to do a good job.

In the end, she was kicked out of the village.

Otherwise, how could Ming Liang's mother, a middle-aged ordinary woman who had never left her house, leave the small mountain village where she had lived all her life, and her people were already standing on the land of another city.

Just like what Liu Fang had said, how could the buildings in hai city be built so high, one by one? weren't they afraid of living so high?

She looked up at the sky-high skyscrapers everywhere. She didn't even dare to walk, afraid that the buildings would suddenly collapse and destroy her.

Ming Liang's mother and Ming Liang sat in Lu Guang's car. Ming Liang was so carefree. After all, he was still young. Of course, his heart was also very big. As soon as he sat in the car, he began to sleep soundly.

However, Ming Liang's mother was different. She was an adult, so she knew how to feel embarrassed.

"I'll have to Trouble You Then."

Ming Liang's mother said unhappily. Her entire body was uneasy, and she didn't know where to put her hands.

"Aunty, you don't have to be so polite."

Lu Guang drove the car. His smile was still the same as before. After being bathed in the spring breeze, it was also a cold summer.

Of course, Ming Liang's mother wouldn't be rude. She felt that she owed the other party too much. At that time, she and Ming Liang's medical expenses were paid by the other party. They hadn't paid back yet, and now she was helping them so much.., she really didn't have the ability to pay back.

"Aunty, you really don't have to be so polite."

Lu Guang turned the car around, but Ming Liang still didn't wake up. After all, the train ride was too long, and he was tired.

Just as Ming Liang's mother was about to say something, Lu Guang's smiling voice came from his mouth. His voice was warm and comfortable, and the woman's heart couldn't help but follow him, even the middle-aged woman, Ming Liang's mother, was the same.

"Aunty, I'm also helping you unconditionally." Lu Guang's words made Mingliang's mother nervous. Her fingers also grabbed her clothes. She knew that this time, the other party would help him. It was impossible that she would not be able to take anything. It was just that she really did not have much money at the moment. The money in the house was all from Changsheng's mother. She did not have much money in her pocket. People said that Changsheng would give mingliang alimony. However, she did not have the money in her hand. The money in her hand was borrowed from Liu Fang.

She touched her pocket and took out the money. She did not know how much she was going to give. In the end, she gritted her teeth and left only a little money, she was going to give all the money to Lu Guang.

Of course, Lu Guang saw her actions and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

Was he short of money?

His mother had saved a billion dollars of adult funds for each of them, and he knew how to invest. This month's income was enough for him to spend it however he wanted. Even so, he couldn't spend it all.

Of course, he wouldn't touch the education funds his mother had given him. Besides, he didn't feel like he needed money anywhere.

He already had a car and a house.

"Auntie, you don't like your mother-in-law, do you?"

Lu Guang's sudden voice scared bright mother out of her wits. She quickly clenched the money in her hand. She was going to give it to her mother-in-law, but now she was so scared that she just stood there and waited.

The word 'mother-in-law' was like a thorn that stabbed her heart.

"She doesn't like me and looks down on me."

"What About You?" Lu Guang asked bright mother again. "If you want to live a good life, you have to be honest with yourself."

Bright mother smiled bitterly. "Yes, I don't like her either."

"Me too." Lu Guang did not hide his dislike for Changsheng mother at all, "Aunty, you don't have to give me your money. I'll help you, but I don't want to let that old lady have her way. You let Changsheng be taken away by the police. Do you think she'll let you and Your Mother Live Well? Even if you and your mother beg for food in the future, she won't give it to you, right?"

Ming Liang's mother's expression darkened for a moment. That was exactly what happened. This was what Changsheng's mother had said at the time. She had said that as long as she got divorced, she would never be able to enter their home again. Even if she could only beg for food in the end., but she would never give them a single grain of rice.

Lu Guang naturally knew that his guess was correct.

“So...” Lu Guang was still smiling, but his smile, which was held at the corner of his heel, turned a few degrees colder.

“What I want is for her to have a hard time. I want to make her uncomfortable.”

It was a woman, and an old woman at that. If it weren't for these things, if it were a man, he wouldn't even say a single word. If it was a man, his fists would be a greeting gift.

However, the other party was an old woman. He couldn't do anything, so he had to use this method to avenge his mother.

The car drove to the entrance of a residential area. Lu Guang got out of the car and opened the trunk. He also took out all the luggage inside.

A woman and a middle school student were still studying. He didn't know how they brought these things into the car. All that could be seen in the luggage was the bedding. Even the bowls and washbasin seemed to have been brought along.

Outside the residential area was a school. I had already informed them that mingliang could go out there to study.

He carried the things up the stairs and took out a key from his pocket. He pushed the door open and walked in.

“This is where you'll be staying in the future. This is Linlang's staff dormitory. It's free too. I've already asked the cleaner to clean it up. It Won't be too dirty. If you think it's dirty, you can clean it up again.”

“Oh Right.” He took out a business card from his pocket and gave it to Ming Liang's mother.

“This is my uncle's secretary's business card. Call him directly tomorrow. He'll arrange a job for you. This job is enough for you and Ming Liang to live.”

“Alright.” He patted his hand. “I have to go back. If you have anything else, you can call me anytime.”

“Brother Lu Guang, I remember your phone number.”

Mingliang patted his small chest. His eyes were sparkling and he smiled shyly.

In the village, he was like a monkey. When he was young, he still liked to roll himself all over with mud. However, when he stood here, he seemed to be a little reserved and could not let go.

Lu Guang smiled at him again and did not disturb him again. He thought that bright mother and son had a lot to say. Of course, they also had to clean up, it was impossible for him to roll up his sleeves and help them clean up.

Chapter 2170: she made money

He didn't like to clean his own room. It was all the help of the family's nanny. Of course, he didn't know how to do it. If it wasn't for his mother and sister, he wouldn't be able to do it.

After Lu Guang left, Ming Liang's mother heaved a sigh of relief. She was still holding the Thousand Yuan that she had borrowed from Liu Fang. This thousand Yuan could last a long time in the village.

Although Changsheng's family was rich, this money was all in Changsheng's mother's hands. Ming Liang's mother had never known how much money Changsheng had earned, and she didn't have much money in her hands. This time, when she came out., she didn't even have the money for the journey. If Lu Guang hadn't told Ming Liang to borrow some money from Liu Fang in case of difficulties, they probably wouldn't even be able to find the money for the train tickets.

So now, who would know what kind of life they were living?

Ming Liang's mother hurriedly took out all the things she had brought and arranged them one by one. She went into the small washroom inside and used a basin to receive a large basin of water.

This house wasn't big, it was about 60 meters long. There were two rooms that could fit the mother and son. There was a small kitchen that couldn't compare to Murakami's Big Kitchen. This kitchen could only fit one person at most, it was difficult for them to turn around, so they brought a small bathroom with them.

Although the house was small, it could be considered complete.

After they thoroughly cleaned the house, Bright Mama was so tired that she didn't want to move.

However, when she saw that it was a brand new home, she couldn't help but feel her nose ache, and tears almost flowed out.

This was her home. In the future, she could do whatever she wanted to eat. If her child wanted to eat meat, she could also buy and eat as much as she wanted. And she believed that as long as she was diligent, it would be difficult for her to not earn money?

The next day, she first went to the school and looked for the person in charge of the school. She wanted to tell him about Ming Liang going to school. And when she just found him, she actually only said one sentence: I want to help my child transfer to another school, my Son's name is Li Mingliang.

Before she could finish her sentence, the other person agreed immediately. He even said that the school fees had been paid by someone and the classes had been divided. As long as Liang Liang came over, he could attend classes at will.

Even his school bag had been prepared for him and his books had been matched. Of course, he didn't even charge for the school fees. He said that the other person had already told him.

As for this person, even Mingliang's mother didn't need to think about it. Other than Lu Guang, there was no one else who would help them do these things.

The school even gave Mingliang a school uniform. The school here was different from their school. The students in the school had to wear the school uniform every day. The quality of the school's teaching was very good, and the principal had already promised, they wanted to assign mingliang to a good class. As long as Mingliang studied well, it was possible for him to even want to go to an elite class in the future.

Mingliang's mother was also a big matter. She didn't feel that it would be so easy to transfer schools. Mingliang put on the school newspaper and really went to report to the school.

He was a good child and also loved to laugh. As soon as he entered the school, his wide-open smile immediately left a good impression on the new students. Of course, with his friendly personality., it was not easy to get along with his new classmates.

In just a few classes, he had already gotten along with them and talked a lot.

Ming Liang's mother picked out a piece of clothing that could still be worn and prepared to go to the airport. In fact, she did not know what kind of job Lu Guang gave her. He just asked her to make that call, and she did., he asked her to report directly to the airport. The airport was also very close to here, so she could just walk there.

However, it did not matter what kind of work she did. She was not that old now, so she could do anything from light to heavy work. In the past, when she was at Changsheng's house, Changsheng had to go out to teach skills to others, therefore, she did not spend much time at home. However, Changsheng's mother treated her like a man, and she could do anything that a woman could do. She could also do things that a woman could not do.

Once again, as long as she was diligent, would she be afraid of not earning money?

She had already decided to toy with her. No matter what kind of work Lu Guang had arranged for her, she would definitely do it well. Even if it was cleaning the toilets and taking out the trash, she would not mind it.

When she arrived at the airport, she only said her name. The other party immediately gave her a set of work clothes without a second thought. They let her change into them first, then they brought her to the airport. The work that they arranged for her., it wasn't like cleaning the toilets or anything like that. Instead, she was helping out in the canteen. The work wasn't heavy, and there was no need to clean up. She was just dressed neatly, serving dishes, and handing things over. In the beginning., she was all flustered, but in just half a day's time, the work was done smoothly. After all, it wasn't a skilled job.

She was only in her thirties, and she was used to doing things at home, so she was able to guess what the chef wanted with just a glance?

She still did not know how much her salary was. On the tenth day, she received her first salary when she went out. It was more than 2,000 yuan. When she took this money., she couldn't believe her eyes. She thought that it couldn't be a mistake. She should have received 200 yuan from someone else's salary, but she received 2,000 yuan instead, she even took the money and went to the finance department, saying that she received the wrong salary.

Was it an extra 20 yuan.

The finance department really liked this kind of honest woman. Of course, the money wasn't wrong at all. Her monthly salary, apart from her pension, was close to 6,000 yuan, this might be a very high salary in other places, but it was not much in Hai City. However, it also depended on what kind of work she did. A job like Ming Liang's mother's was a normal salary in the airport, of course, not everyone could enter the airport. Ming Liang's mother could enter because she had used Lu Guang's back door. Who Was Lu Guang? He was the cousin of the Big Boss. The Big Boss treated him better than his own son.

Ming Liang's mother took the money and hid in the toilet alone. She covered her face and cried. This was the most money she had ever seen in her life. Thinking back, her parents had used three thousand yuan, she had sold her to the Changsheng family. At that time, she was only fifteen or sixteen years old. She had already stayed in the Changsheng family for more than ten years. She was only in her thirties, but she had already become an old woman, putting aside Yan Huan, who was much older than her, Yan Huan was also not someone that ordinary people could compare to.
