

Chapter 2171: technicians from the village

Even people of the same age could not compare to her. Now, even in the place where she worked, people called her auntie. They were all young men in their twenties, even older than Lu Guang. Her entire heart, her entire person., even her entire soul felt sad and emotional at this moment. If she had not come out, if she had not come to such a big city, she would never have known what kind of world the outside world was, she wiped her face clean and used her new salary to prepare to buy meat for her child. When they were in the Li clan village, if they wanted to eat a meal of meat, they would be scolded by the Changsheng Mother for an unknown amount of time, even if the meat was finally made, it would not be the mother and son's turn to eat it.

The Changsheng mother ate the meat and kept it for Changsheng. The mother and son might not even be able to eat a mouthful of it. In the past few years, they had very few opportunities to see a meat star.

And now, Ming Liang's mother could actually remember how many meals of meat they had eaten in the past few years.

And when Ming Liang returned from school and saw that there was meat to eat at home, he was overjoyed.

Mom, does our family still have money? Ming Liang asked Ming Liang's mother carefully. Brother Lu Guang said that if he wasn't busy with his studies, he could go to the place where he filmed television and do some minor roles. This way, he could still earn some pocket money. And he was only in the first year of junior high., he could keep up with his studies. If he worked harder, he wouldn't have to worry about not having time to earn pocket money.

In the past few days, he had been attending classes at the new school. He realized that the teachers there would be better than their teachers. The school also provided breakfast, a bag of milk, a loaf of bread, and an egg.

This way, his mother would no longer have to get up early and go dark. She would have to earn money and worry about making breakfast for him. At noon, he could go to his mother's place of work and eat there. When there was no one around, he would be able to do his homework, he could also do his homework on the table. As long as he used his time well, he would not delay his studies.

Bright mother patted her son's head, "Don't worry. I can earn money now. I earned more than 2,000 yuan in ten days. In this month, I can earn more than 6,000 yuan. I also have three meals. This house doesn't need money. Our family doesn't spend much money in a month. I will save this money for you. You can use it to go to university, okay?"

When Ming Liang heard that there was so much money, he was so excited that he almost jumped up.

The school he was currently studying at cost less than a hundred yuan per semester. Ten Days of his mother's salary was enough for him to study at school for ten years. He had also decided to earn some money himself, he didn't want his mother to work too hard.

At this moment, in the Li Village, Changsheng Ma was quarreling with her son every day. She said that she was the only old woman in the family, and there was no one to serve her.

That's right, there was no one to serve her.

In the past, when Mingliang's mother was around, she was the daughter-in-law that she had married. She was also the servant that she had found. She was also the tool that had been passed down to their family. In these past few years, if there was no Mingliang's mother in the house.., perhaps the furniture here would have fallen a layer of soil.

Changsheng's mother had only one problem. He was a person who hated the poor and loved the rich. When there was nothing in the house, she could be considered a diligent and thrifty person. However, as long as there was money in the house, all sorts of problems would appear, she didn't even have much money, yet she liked to act like an old lady.

She didn't like this and she didn't like that either. Other than looking at herself and her son, everyone else who liked to gamble here didn't like her. Even her grandson who didn't look good was the same. who asked her to give birth to that bright mother, who asked her to not look like her son and not be too smart.

That was why she didn't like him everywhere, even if it was her own grandson.

And now that bright mother had left, there were so many things to do at home. She couldn't let this old lady who was almost sixty do it, right? Even if she didn't do anything, she still had to eat, wash the clothes she took off, and she couldn't just make one drink, she threw away the pot. She couldn't just eat one meal and break the bowl.

She started to complain to Changsheng again, saying that Changsheng didn't give her a way out. She just wanted to marry a good wife, and she also had someone to talk to. Otherwise, she would be alone in the village, if Changsheng went out and didn't come back for more than half a month, no one would know that she died.

In fact, Changsheng really didn't want to get married at all. He was already in his forties, so what was the point of marrying and marrying? He was usually so busy. Originally, he didn't feel anything even though his mother was bright, with a woman at home taking care of his mother and child, he could rest assured at home.

But now, Mingliang's mother insisted on getting a divorce, and his mother was also making a big fuss about it. This divorce was true, but the family didn't take care of it. Every day, his mother would make a big fuss about it, making his mood terrible, in the end, he still couldn't stand his mother's constant urging, so he could only marry the female college student that Changsheng's mother found. Changsheng's mother saw that everything was good, so she gave him a big betrothal gift.

Changsheng might have been reluctant in the beginning.

But perhaps it was just a response to that one sentence.

When a woman became bad, she became rich.

When a man became rich, he became bad.

The root-splitting characteristic of men was there. No matter who it was, no matter how old a man was, deep down, he would naturally like to be young and beautiful. Changsheng was no exception. In the beginning, he was unwilling to do anything, in addition, he still felt a little embarrassed, especially when Changsheng's mother insisted on holding a big event. This made the entire village know about it. When the villagers talked about this matter, it was unknown what kind of tone they used. It could be sour, it could also be sarcastic. Behind the scenes, it was also said that Changsheng's family members were not good people. This was because they wanted to marry a young and beautiful woman. That was why they chased away their previous daughter-in-law and son.

Changsheng's face was very bashful, and in his heart, he did not really like his new daughter-in-law.

However, a man's character was always there. When he saw that his new daughter-in-law was young and beautiful, young and tender like a flower, it also made him lose his passion for a very long time, he became young once again.

It had to be said that in the past few years, not only was Changsheng's mother's temperament spoiled by such a good life, even Changsheng's heart was also spoiled by the large amount of money that he had earned in the past few years, his life was getting better day by day, and he had become more powerful. He had also lost his character from the past. In time, it was impossible for a person's character to remain unchanged.

"Did she say that?" Liu Fang's father did not think of it. "Did that person come especially for this matter?"

Chapter 2172: men turn bad when they are rich

"Yes." A man sat in front of Liu Fang's father and pointed at the person next to him. "I'll have to trouble the village chief."

"Okay, this is easy to handle." Liu Fang's father agreed immediately.

This was the technician who had been specially hired to grow mushrooms for the village. He would first live in the village. In the past few years, Changsheng had made a lot of money growing mushrooms, but his heart was also bad. Actually, it couldn't be said that way.., everyone would think the same way.

In the past ten years, only the Changsheng family's mushrooms had been successfully planted. At that time, Changsheng had gone to learn technology. Liangzi had only managed these few farms for him, but in terms of technology, Changsheng had always kept it a secret, the most important thing was that no one taught him. Although there were many people growing mushrooms in the village, they were not as good as Changsheng's. The output of the mushrooms they grew was high, so if they gave them to their customers, not only would there be a lot of them.., similarly, the quality of the mushrooms was also good, which allowed Changsheng to rely on these mushrooms to get rich in the past few years.

Of course, the village chief had never thought that he would force changsheng to hand over his secret recipe.

Didn't they say that cutting off someone's source of income was equivalent to killing their parents.

Even he felt very unhappy.

If it was anyone else, it would have been fine, but Liangzi was Changsheng's biological brother. Why did he have to hide his brother? He really felt that Liangzi was not worth it. Of course, it was also because Liangzi was now his son-in-law, it was equal to half of his.

He did not want Liangzi to earn much money. His family was not short of money. His Liu family's money came from the right path, and it was not less than Changsheng's. However, how much they earned was their own business, they were not like Changsheng's mother, who could not wait to talk about how much money they earned every day. They just wanted the people in the village to be jealous or jealous.

Fortunately, there were no longer people like Jingen in the village. If another Jingen came out, perhaps the whole family would be robbed.

It was better to show off less.

And now, they actually found a technician for him. He said that he wanted to teach the villagers how to grow mushrooms, and it was the latest technology. The village chief was of course welcomed with both hands, and on the other side.., it was also the same thing that the Liu family had always said.

At night, when Liu Fang came back, she was quite surprised to hear this.

"How did they think of this? Logically speaking, Sister Xiaoyan will no longer care about these things," of course, she asked Liu Fang's father about this, of course, Liu Fang's father also didn't know. He only knew that the people had already come. He had arranged for them to come. Of course, this was to do good for the people in the village. Of course, he was willing. If it really happened.., then the people in the village could make money.

As the village chief, he hoped that in the future, the people in the village would become better and better, and the villagers would become richer and richer.

In the future, he was also prepared to package their village and make it into some kind of rural family fun or tourism. If the mushrooms in their village were all planted well in the future.., then he was getting closer and closer to his goal.

After Liangzi returned home, Liu Fang told Liangzi about this matter.

"Tell me, what's Going On?" Why would sister Xiaoyan suddenly send such a person over? Wasn't this going against Changsheng? Changsheng had hidden his ability to grow mushrooms quite well. If such a technician came, what would the latter changsheng family do with the mushrooms?

Liangzi thought about it. This matter..

"Could it be that Sister Xiaoyan is going to take revenge?"

Liangzi tried to ask Liu Fang. After all, the things that Mother Changsheng had done back then had offended Yan Huan. If it weren't for Liu Fang's family helping Yan Huan, who knew how difficult Yan Huan's journey home would have been.

As for what Mother Changsheng had done to Yan Huan, they had not forgotten about it, let alone Yan Huan himself.

Yan Huan had even saved them, who had been harmed by Jingen. If it were not for Yan Huan, they would have long been dead.

Therefore, he was very grateful to Yan Huan. After returning to the village, if there was anyone in the village who had a problem, he would help them if he could. If he could not help them, he would also think of ways to help them. He did not change anything., however, it was also because he was with Liu Fang that the Liu family was very honest. Of course, they were also honest. Therefore, his people also became honest. Even if the ability to grow mushrooms was not taught to him., he did not have any complaints. Moreover, their family's life was not bad either.

And this time, why would Yan Huan send over that skill?

Liu Fang also did not know, and she shook her head, "Sister Xiaoyan is not such a person. Moreover, her time is very tight, and she would not do such a thing that would waste her time. Moreover, if she wanted to take revenge, she would not have connected the electricity to the Changsheng family back then. If she had connected the water, she should have done the same thing to mother Jin Geng and ignored her."

"She wouldn't, but what about other people?"

Liang Zi hit the nail on the head and asked, "For example, Yan Huan's two sons?"

Although Yan Huan's two sons were still young, they shouldn't be looked down upon. One look at them and one could tell that they weren't ordinary people.

Liu Fang still couldn't answer this question. She had only stayed with Yan Huan for some time. At that time, Yan Huan's children were still very young, only three years old. They hadn't seen each other for more than ten years, the children in the past had all grown up. They were all tall and good-looking. As for their personalities, she really did not know.

She did not know if it was those two children who had done it. It was indeed a good thing that the technician had come. In the future, the lives of the villagers would be much better. Of course, it was the same for her family.

Actually, she hadn't told Liang Zi that Yan Huan had given her a sum of money before he left. She didn't want it at that time, but Xiao Qi gave her the card directly, saying that it would be used for her child's education in the future.

She secretly checked and found that it was close to a million yuan. It wasn't enough for her child's education. Even if she married a wife in the future, it would be enough. She didn't dare to touch this sum of money. It was all in the bank now, she would not use this money. Since it was said that it was for her son to go to school, she would keep it for her child.

The next day, the new technician in the village brought a few people and began to measure the land. Liu Fang was also very relieved. How could the technician that Yan Huan sent over be bad, she was the one who hired the technician to teach them how to farm in the forest. It also made the people in their village richer and richer. In the past few years, every household had a good life.

This technician was much more than the farmers who were born and raised here thought. Of course, he was also much stronger.

Chapter 2173: No. 188 was retribution

Changsheng only returned a month later. When he saw that the village was built with large sheds, he had a good feeling.

Coincidentally, he met Liangzi on the road. Liangzi was preparing to go to the ground. Liangzi had been farming for the past few years. Although he was not as good as Changsheng at growing mushrooms, he had sold them for some money, moreover, he was not very ambitious. He was already very satisfied with his current life.

“Why did your family change their greenhouse?” Changsheng asked Liang Zi thoughtfully. In the past, it seemed that every family had changed their greenhouse.

Liang Zi chuckled. “It’s nothing much. I just found a technician to help me guide them for a few days.” He did not say where the technician came from or who it was, he believed that Changsheng would not ask too much.

“If you want technical guidance, you can look for me. Why spend so much money to look for someone else?”

When Changsheng heard this, he felt a little uncomfortable. Presumably, no one would feel comfortable either. After all, Changsheng believed that he was an expert at growing mushrooms. Of course, this was also his strength and also his pride.

And now, he was looking for a technical director, but instead of looking for someone of his age, he went to look for someone else. wasn’t this a slap to his face?

“Weren’t you not here?” Liang Zi laughed. “At that time, the mushrooms in my family’s field weren’t good, so I was also anxious.”

When Changsheng heard this, he couldn’t say anything.

And he didn’t stay here for long. Right now, he had a feeling that his heart wasn’t too solid, especially since most of the village had changed their sheds. He didn’t know if they had even changed the technique of growing mushrooms.

He had his own method of growing mushrooms, but of course, this was also his own secret. The mushrooms he grew grew the best, and of course, they sold for the highest price. If the people in the village grew as well as he did in the future.., then how could he earn money?

His heart was already in turmoil. When he returned home, he couldn’t live in peace. It was just his mother and that university student’s daughter-in-law, and they started quarreling again.

In the past, Changsheng’s mother could not stand Mingliang’s mother. She thought that Mingliang’s mother was ugly, incompetent, and uncultured. She could not even write her own name. Now, it was finally as she wished, after finding a young and beautiful university student’s daughter-in-law, she had gained some face in the village, but what was the use of having face? There was nothing left.

This university student's wife was lazy and mischievous. She was treacherous and like a demon. All day long, she smeared herself like a ghost. She did not clean, did not wash her clothes, and did not know how to cook. She even needed this sixty-year-old hag to serve her.

In the first few days, mother Changsheng was quite proud. After all, not just any family could afford to marry two wives. However, her family did marry, so she was proud for a long time in the village. However, after a few days., all kinds of conflicts came out.

Mother-in-law and daughter-in-law were quarreling every day. Mother Changsheng really took all the women as bright mothers. In the past, bright mothers had always endured it forcefully. They were also soft-hearted and resigned to it, just like a steamed bun, they allowed mother Changsheng to squish them, but this university student was different. She did not know what it meant to endure. She carried her bag and walked in high heels. Then, she went out to live in a hotel and eat in a restaurant. There was no money left, she would give it to Changsheng's mother. If she did not give it to her, then fine. She would take it herself. The money changsheng earned would be hers. Otherwise, why would a young college student like her marry an old cripple.

Changsheng's mother cried at home every day, but the villagers could not show her any sympathy.

Poor people must have their detestable aspects. There were still many nice young men in the village who had yet to find a wife. Her family was fine. She married one daughter-in-law after another. It was fine if she treated the other's children like servants., in the end, she still felt that her daughter-in-law was too old and insisted on finding a young and beautiful one. Now that she had become like this, it was all her own doing.

Of course, this was only the beginning. Right now, Changsheng mother also had a son. She also thought that her son was very outstanding and was one of the best in the village. However, she did not know that not long after., every household in the village had grown mushrooms, and they used the latest technology. The mushrooms grown this way were really white and tender, and they tasted even better than the ones they had grown in the past, therefore, the mushroom harvesters outside were more and more fond of this new breed. Compared to the new breed of mushrooms grown by Changsheng, the mushrooms grown by Changsheng were not very good, and the color was not very good.

In the past, the villagers all felt that the Changsheng family's mushrooms were growing well. Only now did they know that the reason why they felt that the Changsheng family's mushrooms were good was because of what they saw. There was no contrast, once there was a contrast, then it was completely different.

It was really infuriating to compare people.

The goods had to be thrown away.

Mushrooms were less valuable than mushrooms.

The mushrooms of the Changsheng family were becoming harder and harder to sell. The newly married college student wife of Changsheng took all the Changsheng family's money and ran away with a wild man, the Changsheng mother almost died from anger. Of course, this was all in the future.

As for the Li Village, it was still far from Hai City. As for what happened there, it would not be spread to Hai City.

There were many people we knew in this world, but the vast majority of them were also strangers.

Lu Guang was a lackey as he massaged Yan Huan's shoulders. Ever since he was young, he was the most likable person. His face was full of smiles. It was as if he had eaten honey. It was so sweet that it could kill a person.

"Why, what trouble did you get into?" Knowing a child was like knowing a mother. Lu Guang was so eager to please for no reason, so he knew that he had done something good.

"I didn't." Lu Guang was really quite wronged.

"Mom, I didn't do anything. I've been so obedient lately, and I haven't left the house."

"Really?" Yan Huan turned around and glanced at his second son. "Really?"

"Really." Lu Guang raised both his hands. Of course, he couldn't let his mother know about the matter of Changsheng not having a good time. This was just him taking revenge for a small grudge. Of course, he didn't feel that he had gone overboard.

It wasn't a matter of course to repay a debt.

Yes, they had taken revenge. His mother had saved Changsheng's two lives. He had given her his new year's money for nothing.

Yes, they had repaid their debt. He had to return this grudge as well.

Yan Huan glanced at his son again. In his heart, he knew that Lu Guang was indeed hiding something. However, he could do whatever he wanted. She didn't have to worry. The three children in the family had always been their own masters, there was no need for her to care about anything?

She was their mother, but she was not the master of their lives. Their lives belonged to them and not to her.

Chapter 2174: he's still your father

Besides, they were already so old.

At this moment, the phone that she put aside suddenly rang.

Yan Huan took the phone. The caller was none other than Zhu Meina.

"What do you want to do? Tell him yourself."

Yan Huan tossed the phone back to Lu Guang. Every time Zhu Meina called, it was almost always Lu Guang. She had liked Lu Guang since she was young and treated him as her own son. She had always given him good things.

Lu Guang's first computer was given to him by Zhu Meina.

Her love for Lu Guang was better than her love for him as his mother. She also had to pamper him. She had to choose what she gave Lu Guang, but Zhu Meina really gave him whatever she wanted, fortunately, the children of the Lu family had always been upright. Otherwise, who knew how badly they would have been raised?

"Godmother..." Lu Guang's voice made Zhu Meina love him dearly.

As expected, Zhu Meina had never given birth to a child in her life. She had only lived a life where she could do whatever she wanted in the Lu family. This was the path she had chosen. She also felt that it was pretty good. A person's life was like this, as long as she lived a good life, it was fine.

Anyway, she now had a godson. What was there to be afraid of? She just needed someone to clean up her corpse and sweep her grave. When she was sick, someone would just ask about her well-being.

Lu Guang had always done well. Perhaps it was because Zhu Meina was the one who accompanied him when he was at his most helpless when he was young, so his feelings for Zhu Meina were very deep, he also treated her as another mother.

She had been such a good godmother to him since he was young, so how could he not kiss her.

When Zhu Meina heard Lu Guang's voice, she was so happy that she was dumbfounded.

She rambled on and on again, talking to Lu Guang for a long time. When she was about to hang up, she suddenly remembered something. Looking at her, she seemed to have forgotten about the important matter..

"Xiao Guang, tell your mother something and ask her for her opinion..."

Lu Guang hung up and placed his phone back on the table. Then, he continued to massage Yan Huan's shoulders. Xunye's mother's cotton-padded jacket. As for him, he was her mother's mink coat, he was as warm as he could get.

"Mom, My Godmother asked me to tell you something."

Lu Guang pretended to be casual, but of course, he didn't care too much about it.

"Okay." Yan Huan put down the program list in his hand and focused a little. "What is it?"

"She said that Su Qingdong wants to see you."

Lu Guang didn't like Su Qingdong, just like how Yan Huan didn't like him. No, it was their three siblings who didn't like him. If their mother disliked him, they disliked him as well. There was no reason, no reason, no explanation. If they disliked him, they disliked him. If they disliked him, they disliked him.

Even if Su Qingdong was their biological grandfather.

“You want to see me?” Yan Huan didn’t feel like he needed any reason to see that man. In the past ten years, they had always stayed out of each other’s way. Even when Zhu Meina came over, they didn’t mention anything about the Su family, she didn’t mention it at all.

Only when old master Su died did Zhu Meina ask her if she wanted to go to the funeral.

Yan Huan refused.

As for Su Qingdong, he wanted to see her.

“Mom, are you going?”

Lu Guang asked Yan Huan. Of course, he also noticed Yan Huan’s expression. “My Godmother said that he seemed to be sick. She said that she wanted to see you one last time.”

“One last time?”

Yan Huan retracted her long eyelashes. Didn’t she say that she was still alive and well? What was going on? was she going to die?

She was not cold-blooded. She simply did not have a single bit of cordiality toward Su Qingdong. Others said that there was an unbreakable connection between blood ties, but she could not feel it at all.

There was no sadness, nor was there sadness. There was also no sorrow of being separated by life and death.

Especially towards Su Qingdong, it was like hearing about the death of old master Su.

If he was not here, then he was not here. It had nothing to do with her in the first place?

As for whether to go or not?

She felt that she needed to think about it carefully.

“Let’s go and take a look.” At night, Lu Yi walked over and squatted in front of Yan Huan. These few years, time had given him a lot of maturity and stability. His hair was still very black, the Lu family’s hair turned white slowly. Perhaps after another ten years, his hair would start to turn white. As for a woman like Yan Huan, who could not be understood by common sense, she did not need to worry about how old she was, when would her hair turn white?

If one did not know her age, who would have thought that she was almost fifty years old.

To be honest, Yan Huan had never said that she wanted to forgive the SU family.

She could forgive ye Jianguo, but she would never forgive the SU family. Even when old master Su wanted to see her for the last time, she did not say anything about the past. Even now, she did not treat the SU family as family.

However, no matter how inappropriate it was, it could not change the fact that the Su family’s blood flowed in her body.

“You can disown him,” Lu Yi tried to persuade Yan Huan again. “But you still need to see him one last time. After all, he is still your father.”

Yan Huan was still unwilling. She kicked off her shoes and pulled up the blanket to sleep.

Lu Yi shook his head. 'look.'. This was the result of him successfully spoiling Yan Huan's temper for so many years. Even his two sons were obedient to her as a mother. Her status in the family was that of the queen, the empress dowager.

Even Xun Xun's status could not compare to hers.

And he had thought that Yan Huan would be awkward for a long time. After all, Yan Huan's personality had always been like this since she was young. She had never had the thought of holding a grudge with a smile. She had hated old master Su for her entire life, she had never treated him as a grandfather. As for Su Qingdong, as her father, she had the highest possibility of not wanting to acknowledge him in her entire life.

However, this time, he was rather surprised. Yan Huan thought it through very quickly. In the end, she decided to meet Su Qingdong. There were some things that needed to be settled in the end, for the rest of her life.

In a ward lay a skinny old man. He was really very old and at the end of his life. What he was about to lose might be his life, and his life should have come to an end.

It was not to say that he was unwilling or unwilling. It was better to have a release than to live to such an extent.

"You guys are here."

Zhu Meina walked in from the side. She was still holding a towel in her hand. The high heels on her feet were finally a little lower. It was not that she did not want to wear them, nor was it that she did not want to wear them any higher. It was just that she was really too old, it was also possible that she had stuffed too many things into her chest back then. This weight was something that she could not bear. Due to the gravity of the earth, her body had become heavier.

Chapter 2175: she actually didn't need you

Zhu Meina sat down and took Su Qingdong's hand to wipe it for him.

"Look, I'm good to him, right?"

Zhu Meina didn't know if it was from the dynasty or something else, "In his life, he schemed against others for his entire life. In the end, I was the only one who schemed and schemed. I only did it because he treated me fairly in the past. Otherwise, I wouldn't have cared about him."

"Do you believe me?"? If it had been that woman, Zhu Xianglan, she would have killed him long ago and taken over the Su family. However, what was so good about being a member of the Su Family? Look at him, look at Su Ancheng, Su Muran, and that Zhu Xianglan. None of them had a good ending. The feng shui of the Su family is probably not good. When he is gone in the future, I will look for a place with good feng shui. HMM, your residence garden is not bad. I have decided to buy a piece of land there and build a small house for me. I will be able to see my godson frequently in the future."

As she spoke, her hands did not stop moving. Of course, it was not for Yan Huan to see. How could Yan Huan not know her personality? Besides, there was no need for her to pretend in front of Yan Huan, Yan Huan did not want anything from the Su family. She did not even acknowledge Su Qingdong as her father. What else did she want from him? Moreover, she did not want anything right now. In her eyes, she did not care about the Su family.

“If you have something to say now, just say it. While he is still awake, I will come in later.”

Zhu Meina threw the towel into the basin at the side and also carried the basin out.

When the door of the ward was closed, only Su Qingdong and Yan Huan were left.

Yan Huan had not changed much in the past ten years. However, Su Qingdong had aged too much. His old face had also changed. It was dry, thin, and sallow.

Su Qingdong suddenly coughed. He might have a lot to say. It was just like when he knew that he still had a daughter in this world more than twenty years ago. However, this daughter did not acknowledge him, so he had nothing to say, it was as if there was nothing he could do.

“Thank you for coming to see me.”

Su Qingdong coughed painfully again. In this manner, he was like a lamp that had run out of oil. Even his throat was dry and without any moisture. He was like a traveler in the desert, almost all of the last drop of water in his body was evaporated by the sun.

Yan Huan walked to the side and took the cup as well. She poured a cup of water for Su Qingdong, she came over again and placed the cup in front of Su Qingdong.

“Thank, thank you...”

Su Qingdong’s hands trembled as he took the cup, but his eyes were red.

He had reached this point in his life, so he didn’t have any regrets. Although there might not be the SU family in the future, and there wouldn’t be anyone with the surname Su, as for how Zhu Meina would treat the SU family in the future, he couldn’t care less. He closed his eyes, he was already in the dust and didn’t know anything.

But as long as he knew that the Su family still had a bloodline, their Su family wouldn’t truly collapse. Their su family’s bloodline would continue, and it would continue for generations to come.

Therefore, he could be considered to be doing the SU family a favor.

This was also the reason why he was no longer afraid of death.

At the very least, in this lifetime, he would still have a daughter to send him off.

If there was another lifetime, he would bitterly smile. This bitter taste had practically followed him for his entire lifetime. If he was given another chance.

“If there is still a lifetime, I will treat your mother well and I will treat you well. Tell me, your mother will forgive me, right?”

“She will, right?” Yan Huan said faintly. Yes, she believed it. She could see it, and she could feel it too. But so what? After all, it was already too late. It was impossible for someone to be like her. They would be lucky enough to have another life. They could make up for the mistakes of their previous lives. They could find the right person, and they could love the right person.

And since Su Qingdong was already at the end of his rope, she did not say this out loud.

“Thank you.” Su Qingdong smiled. He closed his eyes. His expression was much more peaceful than before. Perhaps he had let go of something. He had been thinking about it for his entire life, but he could finally let it go.

He had never done anything good in his life, but the heavens had treated him well. They had even given him a daughter and three grandsons.

“I...” His voice was dry, but he still wanted to give it a try.

“When your grandfather was dying, he wanted...”

Yan Huan stared into his eyes indifferently. The corners of his lips were slightly mocking. He was still thinking about that. The three children were surnamed Lu, not Su.

Su Qingdong smiled bitterly. He swallowed his last sentence.

There were some things that he could not decide.

Yan Huan opened the door, and Lu Yi was outside.

Lu Yi placed his hands on her shoulders. This was a path that no one was allowed to take. However, he was in a good condition and did not suffer much. No matter how he was when he was alive, at this moment, he wanted him to walk a little more smoothly.

He knew Yan Huan’s character. Perhaps Yan Huan would not acknowledge Su Qingdong’s father. She was also past the age where she needed a father. However, no matter what, this was still her father. Some blood ties could not be separated, some feelings could not be abandoned.

She did not acknowledge it in her mouth, and she did not acknowledge it in her heart. But at certain times, Su Qingdong would still affect some things.

“He just said that if there was a next life, he would definitely find my mother and would definitely not do anything that would be detrimental to my mother.”

“But, I don’t want to.” Yan Huan held Lu Yi’s hand tightly. Actually, there were some things that she had very vague memories of, but it was just that it had been too long, so she did not remember it very clearly.

But vaguely, there was indeed something that had happened in the past, right beside her, right in the midst of her vague memories.

And Lu Yi was smiling and listening attentively.

Yan Huan raised her face and looked at the bleak streets outside. Ever since autumn had arrived, she could see the withered leaves falling for no reason. Each day grew more and more, and each day grew colder and colder. She didn't know why., she could not help but feel sad for the spring and autumn.

Autumn was indeed heartbreaking.

In fact, everyone could be treated as a poet.

Even she was the same.

"If he comes back for the rest of his life, I don't want my mother to return to his side. Su Qingdong is too ambitious. Even if Zhu Xianglan was replaced by my mother, Su Qingdong would not have much sincerity for my mother in the end."

"When he was young, ambition was above everything. My mother's personality was too weak and too persistent. What she needed was not an ambitious man. What she needed was an ordinary man, a stable relationship, a warm family, and a stable and peaceful life."

Yan Huan lowered her eyelashes gently. When she opened her eyes again, there were still those shadows in her memories. However, these shadows were somewhat incomplete and she could not remember too much.

Chapter 2176: he wanted to see his three children

"When I was young, there was an uncle who often came to visit me. I was very, very young at that time. I don't remember what that uncle looked like, but I do remember that uncle would often carry me out to buy delicious food. He was very good to my mother and also very good to me. Later on, he left. At that time, I thought about my uncle for a very long time, but my mother said that my uncle had gone to a very far place."

"I thought that he had crossed the ocean far away. I also thought that he was like my father who didn't want me anymore. It wasn't until a long time later that I realized that my uncle was really gone and that he would never come back. He was gone to save my mother."

"A man who can scheme for his own purposes would never sacrifice anything for my mother. What's more, it's his life. His life is more important than anything else. How could he give away even a tiny bit to someone else?"

"But this uncle did it. Let's not talk about it. It's impossible for us to go back to the past. Even if we can do it all over again, I won't let my mother be with Su Qingdong again."

"My mother should have something better."

Lu Yi took a step forward and tied the scarf around Yan Huan's neck. He sighed softly and placed his chin on Yan Huan's head.

"That's why your mother left so early. She's been with you for so long. It's time for her to live the life she wants, isn't it?"

Yan Huan had never mentioned these things before. Perhaps it was just as she said. In fact, she had even forgotten about it. It was only by chance that she remembered that there was actually someone who had once existed.

Lu Yi thought that perhaps the reason why Ye Rong had left so early at that time, other than her body, was probably because of the long-term pressure or guilt.

No one could shoulder another person's life for the rest of their life, and Ye Rong could not do that either.

Yan Huan rested her head on Lu Yi's shoulder.

She had already relied on this man for her entire life.

And she would continue to rely on him in the future.

"Let's go." She stood up straight and didn't want to stay here any longer. She had fulfilled Zhu Meina's request. She had said what she wanted to say, and she had done what she could. No matter how much, she was sorry.., there was nothing she could do, including letting the SU family have designs on her three children.

And even if she could do it, it was all fake.

"They left..."

"Thank you," Su Qingdong said sincerely. He also owed Zhu Meina this sentence. He also believed that if the person standing here today was Zhu Xianglan, with Zhu Xianglan's character.., she couldn't wait to send him to the crematorium and then take over the Su family's property. Moreover, everything in the Su family would become her own. If she were to be euthanized, Zhu Xianglan might not be able to survive.., she would directly euthanize him. Otherwise, she would have to come over and take care of this old man every day.

Therefore, people also said that husband and wife were birds in the same forest. When disaster came, they would fly separately.

He believed this sentence, and this sentence was very suitable for Zhu Xianglan.

What kind of character was Zhu Xianglan? He had been married to her for a lifetime, so how could he not know.

"I also want to thank you."

Zhu Meina did not know how she felt when she saw Su Qingdong like this. Perhaps it was because she felt uncomfortable.

"Actually, you treat me not too badly."

Zhu Meina gave Su Qingdong another glass of water to drink. Of course, Zhu Meina didn't spout nonsense. Su Qingdong didn't treat her badly in these ten or so rooms. He treated her quite well and had never mistreated her.

She had everything she wanted. Apart from not having children and not having a family, she had everything.

She was such a vain person. Since she had chosen bread back then, she didn't think about looking for love anymore.

She did not regret this decision.

Of course, it was because Su Qingdong treated her quite well. Otherwise, she would not have waited on him here. She might have already flown overseas to buy things everywhere. Who cared if he was dead or alive.

"Can I ask you one more thing?"

Su Qingdong drank some water and felt that his throat seemed to have become much more comfortable. It was not like just now where his entire throat was smoking.

He suddenly felt that his spirit had become a little better, and there was nothing wrong with it?

"Speak." Zhu Meina placed the cup to the side. When she saw Su Qingdong like this, the word 'reflection' also swayed in her heart.

Seeing that he was about to die, as long as it was not something too excessive, she would agree.

"I want to meet my three grandsons. Is that okay?"

Su Qingdong practically begged. Those were his grandsons, his biological grandsons. However, ever since he was young, he had never taken a good look at them and was too ashamed to meet them. And now.., he probably didn't have much time left. He just wanted to meet the children. was that okay?

"I'll make the arrangements." Zhu Meina didn't refuse.

The three children were all adults. They would have their own thoughts and thoughts. Lu Qi and Xun Xun didn't know, but Lu Guang, she could ask him to come over once to meet this most irresponsible grandfather.

Moreover, they were already like this. Everything in the past had also dispersed in a few years.

Yan Huan had already forgiven ye Jianguo. In that case, he should forgive Su Taidong now, right? Even if he did not forgive him, he should treat it as a dying wish.

No, there was probably no such thing as forgiveness. After all, Yan Huan had always treated Su Qingdong as a stranger. Since he was a stranger, there was no need to talk about whether he should be forgiven or not.

The call went through very quickly. Zhu Meina also heard Lu Guang's smiling voice. Lu Guang loved to smile. His smile was not only on his face, but also in his eyes and voice, it was also in his senses.

"What's wrong, godmother? Did you need something from me?"

"It's just a small matter." Zhu Meina tightened her grip on the phone in her hand.

When Lu Guang put down his phone, there was a slight hint of sarcasm in his eyes. Of course, it was more likely to be a sigh. But to put it bluntly, some things were between adults, it actually had nothing to do with their generation

However, he still didn't like Su Qingdong that person.

But what Zhu Meina said, he really had to consider. If it was just him alone, he would definitely give some face to his godmother. He would go, but there were still big brother and sister.

Chapter 2177: He had to bear the consequences

He was not the only one that that person wanted to see. They also wanted to see him.

He took out his phone and made a call to Lu Qi and Lu Wei.

Not long after, they all went to their own homes. It was a separate house from the Lu family. In the past, Lu Qin and his mother lived there. Later, Ye Shuyun separated this house from the middle, it was specially reserved for her three grandsons.

At that time, Ye Shuyun only thought of one grandchild. In the end, she did not expect to have three grandsons. Of course, she did not succeed. It was best to have as many grandsons as possible. However, it was a pity.., in the end, she did not give birth to any more grandsons. Otherwise, who knew how many grandsons they would have?

The original half of the Lu family's room was definitely enough for the three of them to live in. In fact, not to mention the three of them, it was enough for at least ten people to live in. Therefore, it would not be a problem for the three of them to share two rooms.

Lu Wei brewed a flower and fruit tea for her two brothers to drink. This was a type of flower and fruit tea that she made herself. It would have a faint fruit fragrance. Moreover, if they drank more, it would refresh their minds. If they were to change to another method of brewing.., it would be able to calm one's mind and help one to sleep.

Currently, they clearly had something to say. Naturally, they could not use it to calm one's mind. Instead, they had to use it to wake one up.

Lu Guang had already finished his cup. He smacked his lips. His sister was a little capable person. The flowers and plants were really too delicious. There was a slight sweetness and sourness. However, after drinking it.., his mouth did not have the taste of sweetness before bitterness. There was only the sweet and sour taste. It could be maintained for a very long time. The aftertaste was truly endless.

"Give me another Cup." Lu Guang passed his cup forward.

Lu Wei had already poured another cup for him. There was still half a pot. Even if Lu Guang drank like a donkey, it could still be served.

Lu Qi picked up the cup. He gently shook the cup in his hand. From Afar, he could smell the scent of some kind of herbal tea. It was a very comfortable and cool feeling.

He placed the cup on the table. Alright, he had drunk the tea. He had also rested and was ready to get down to business.

“Su Qingdong wants to see us?”

Lu Guang looked at Lu Qi. “Big Brother, we’ll listen to you. Do you want to see him or not?”

“Is he going to die soon?”

Lu Qi’s question was rather straightforward.

“Big Brother is really smart.” Lu Guang directly gave his boss a thumbs up. His boss was his boss, which meant that he was different from others. He had only said the beginning, but his big brother already knew the result, it was just that he did not know if they would be involved in this result.

Of course, he listened to his big brother. If his Big Brother said he wouldn’t go, then he had no choice but to not go.

“You guys discuss it.” Lu Wei had always been obedient. Of course, she also listened to her brother. and her brother had always been right. They wouldn’t harm her.

So, she still said the same thing. She listened to them.

Lu Qi raised his wrist and looked at the watch on his wrist. He also calculated the time.

“Tomorrow morning, stop what you’re doing and say, “Let’s go see him.”

“Okay.” Lu Guang was so happy.

“Okay.” Lu Wei nodded. She had heard her brother’s words. She didn’t have anything to do anyway. The major she chose in university wasn’t too difficult. University was just a university in Hai City, so she didn’t have to go out of the province, it was very convenient to stay at home. Of course, it was also the most relaxing. Her Big Brother and second brother were both free. Of course, she had even more time.

“Then, don’t Tell Mom and Dad?” Lu Wei asked Lu Qi carefully.

“No need.” Lu Qi put down his wrist, then picked up the cup of tea on the table and put it to his lips.

“What if Mom and Dad find out?”

Lu Wei was afraid. What if their mom found out about what they saw? What if they were punished?

“I’ll carry it.”

Lu Qi put the cup on the table. Lu Wei quickly picked up the cup and poured him another cup.

She had heard too many words. Growing up, she had heard them from a young age.

It was impossible for the three of them to be obedient all the time. It was impossible for them not to do something stupid. No matter how precocious they were, how sensible they were compared to other children, or how they had their own opinions, they had to put it bluntly.

At that time, they were still children. How could they escape from the stupid things that a child would do.

Of course, in the eyes of children, these stupid things were nothing more than small matters. However, when it came to adults, they would really be stupid. And every time they came out to take the blame, it was the eldest brother who scolded them, getting beaten up was also the eldest brother's responsibility.

Not only did their elder brother have to take the blame for himself, but he also had to take the blame for his younger brother and sister. Of course, there were some things that his elder brother could take the blame for, but they could not. And they were habitually dependent on their elder brother.

Early the next morning, Lu Qi brought his younger brother and sister to the hospital.

Zhu Meina had been waiting outside for a long time. She had been waiting ever since she woke up. Su Qingdong's condition was really not very good right now. The doctor had already told her to be mentally prepared.

Yes, she did not have any feelings for Su Qingdong, and she did not love him either. How could she love an old man? She only loved herself the most. The reason why she cared about these things now was because she had no other choice?

No matter what, she had been with Su Qingdong for so long. Even if they were a cat and a dog, let alone a human, they still had some feelings, not to mention how many years it had been.

It was not until she saw the Lu siblings from afar that she let out a sigh of relief.

"You're here." She walked over and looked at the closed door of the ward. "He's inside. The doctor told us to be mentally prepared."

Lu Qi did not have any feelings for this grandfather, and Lu Wei's Lu Guang was the same. They had not seen each other since they were young, so how could they still have any feelings for him?

And now, they had come here out of humanitarian reasons.

The door of the ward opened, and the inside was filled with the smell of disinfectant and the smell of death. Living people had a kind of vitality, but on Su Qingdong's body.., there was only this kind of cold aura of death.

Su Qingdong opened his eyes. When he saw his three grandsons, he was very excited, and he coughed again. His ashen face was so thin that only a layer of skin was left, his eyes seemed to be broken along with it.

His years were gone, his youth was gone, and his life was almost gone.

He only looked at his grandsons like this. This was also the Su family's bloodline. It was a pity that no one was willing to return to the Su family, and no one was willing to inherit the Su family's estate.

Chapter 2178: was Grandpa

The three children were all very outstanding, especially that girl.

Su Qingdong's eyes seemed to be lost. It was as if he had seen that young girl again.

At that time, she was like a rose, standing in the wind. She smiled gently and the dimples on her face sank deeply.

He stretched out his hand, wanting to grab something, but his hand in the air was unable to touch anything.

And he was about to grab him. Yes, he was about to grab her, just a little bit, just a little bit more.

He raised his old hand again, and finally, his fingers condensed into a touch of warmth..

He grabbed her.

When he opened his old eyes again, he saw a young girl, just like Ye Rong's age at that time, the years of youth, the time of youth.

But he looked at his fingers that were almost as dry as tree bark.

Suddenly, he smiled, but his nose was sore from smiling.

"You're very much like your grandmother."

"Uncle said the same thing." Lu Wei squatted in front of Su Qingdong. No matter what he had done in the past, he did not have much life left. She looked sad when she saw him like this.

It was just like the cat that Grandma had raised for more than ten years. At that time, it was very old, and Dou Zi had grown up with her. At that time, she was still young, but Dou zi was very old.

Doudou was a kitten that her mother had picked up. She could be considered a love cat between her father and her mother. She had even become a small internet celebrity in the cat world. People grew up, and cats grew old. At that time, Doudou was so old that she could not walk anymore, one day, Doudou ran out on her own and never came back. It was not until later that she was heard of the most.

Cats were very smart animals. It felt that its life would not be long before it found a place to end its life quietly.

In its life, Bean Cat had met a good master and lived a good life. Its life was also very long. Even in death, even a cat could not avoid it, Lu Wei still cried for a very long time.

Not to mention the cat, the person in front of her was a person.

And it was her unfamiliar grandfather.

She sighed softly.

And Su Qingdong was looking forward to something?

“Grandfather...”

Yan Huan put down his phone and continued to place the program list in front of him. He did not know whether she was looking at the program list in front of her or recalling the past. Perhaps it was the time of her two lifetimes.

She only had one enemy left, and the last one was also gone.

Zhu Meina said that Su Qingdong’s heart had stopped beating at night. When he left, he was very quiet and didn’t suffer much. The last thing he said was thanks..

He said that Su Qingdong gave half of the Su family’s assets to Yan Huan and half to her.

Zhu Meina said that these were his last words. Yan Huan had to accept them. Otherwise, even if he died, he would not be able to rest in peace.

Yan Huan raised his face and looked at the bleak sky through the window. Under the sky, there was a blue-gray sky. The air was also slightly damp as usual.

The second rainy season was coming to Hai City. After the rainy season, the long winter was coming.

Su Qingdong’s funeral was very simple. There was no extravagance at all, and only a few people went. Yan Huan brought the three children over. Under the black couplet, it was also the end of a person’s life.

With him, there would also be him.

And no one knew when he would have himself.

“This is for you.”Yan Huan handed a document to Lu Qi. “I don’t want to see this. Do As you see fit.”

Lu Guang was very worried about Yan Huan. Ever since Su Qingdong was gone, Yan Huan had been in this state. It seemed that she was in a very bad mood.

He wanted to say something, but Lu Qi shook his head at him. His mother did not need anyone to comfort her now. She just needed time to think things through.

When Lu Guang saw Lu Qi’s expression of stopping her, he knew that he could not say anything.

They walked to the place where they lived. Lu Qi opened the document. It was filled with the property power of attorney that Su Qingdong had written before he died. This power of attorney was written very clearly.

The Su family’s house, including the shares of the company, as well as the savings in the bank, were all left to Zhu Meina.

The Su family’s several properties, as well as a commercial building in the center of Hai City, were all given to Lu Qi and Lu Guang. There was also a newly built antique manor, which was left for Lu Wei. Lu Wei liked flowers and plants, he didn’t know where Su Qingdong found out about it. It might have been Zhu Meina who told him about it, or he might have heard about it from many sources.

In fact, Zhu Meina had said that during these few years, Su Qingdong had been secretly paying attention to them. Although Yan Huan was unwilling to acknowledge him, and even the three children didn't acknowledge him as their grandfather, he had still participated in their growth, since kindergarten, as long as he had time, he would secretly visit the three children. The three children could also be said that he had watched them grow up since they were young, and he knew what the three children wanted, after knowing that Xun Xun liked to grow flowers and grass, he spent a large sum of money to buy a very large piece of land in a DU village not far away from Li Hai High School. He also built an antique building there, of course, there was also a very large courtyard. If he wanted to grow grass, he would grow grass. If he wanted to grow flowers, he would grow flowers. He could grow whatever he wanted.

"This is for you."

Lu Qi gave the property to Lu Wei. The few of them were not cheap and did not want to touch the things that Su Qingdong had given them. If these were not the last words of others, to be honest, Lu Qi really did not want to touch the things of the Su family.

Lu Wei took it over and saw that the signature on it was her name. She could not help but think of the pair of hands that she used to hold.

She was still very sad.

Lu Guang touched his sister's hair.

Lu Wei raised her head and looked at her brother. She was still sad.

"Okay, don't be sad." Lu Guang put his arm around his sister's shoulder. Although his sister was born in the same year, month, and day as them, they raised their sister as if they were raising a daughter.

Lu Qi directly threw the other things to his brother.

"Brother, why are you giving them to me?" Lu Guang almost blew his top. He hadn't settled his own mess yet, and now he was giving them to him. Did they think he was a garbage collector?

The children of the Lu family were quite surprised. They would almost fight to the death to fight for the power of the family property. However, the Lu family was different. Needless to say, Lu Wei had never wanted anything since she was young,

Chapter 2179: He was not going to be a prosecutor

She was a very Buddhist girl, and Lu Qi was not the same either, because he was not lacking. However, Lu Guang liked to earn money the most, so he would continue to earn it. After all, the liquid funds of their three brothers were all managed by Lu Guang, when the time came, Lu Guang just had to give them a share of the dividends.

Lu Qi glanced at his younger brother indifferently, and Lu Guang immediately shut his mouth and did not speak.

Of course, Lu Guang had to tell Yan Huan about these things. His mother was the eldest in the family, and they did not dare to privately deal with Su Qingdong's things.

"It's for you guys. Just take it." Yan Huan actually knew about these things. In any case, that person was no longer around, and the Su family was no longer around. If Su Qingdong wanted to leave peacefully because of this, he would not have any regrets, if he wanted to give it, then he would.

"Thank you, Mom." Lu Guang happily hugged Yan Huan's arm and placed his big head on his mother's shoulder.

It was because he was too big now that he didn't dare to use too much strength. Otherwise, his mother would have been squashed by him. Fortunately, he and his eldest brother could be considered normal children, even though they were much taller than the average person, however, they were normal height. Before they were five years old, their mother could still carry them. Before they were ten years old, their mother could also carry them. Otherwise, if they were like little thunder, they would have been given away as payment for phone bills since they were young., because they grew too fast, they did not have the fun of being children. They were still the best.

Yan Huan was amused as he rubbed his little son's big head.

In the past, Lu Wei was the most clingy to her mother. However, now that Lu Wei had grown up, she was independent. However, Lu Guang was as usual. It was his mother's mink coat.

Yan Huan took a few documents. There was a building on it, which was located in the center of Hai City. She did not expect that Su Qingdong, who valued his business more than his life, would actually give this building to her child in the end.

In fact, before Su Qingdong died, he still tricked her. He took the things from the Su family, but he still had to admit his bloodline.

Su Qingdong wasn't unwilling. If he didn't give these things to his grandson, could he give them to Zhu Meina?

Zhu Meina wasn't someone who could keep her money. Her money now was more than she could spend in a few lifetimes. Even if he gave it to her, she couldn't say when she would be in a bad mood and sell the building at a low price. At the very least, she would give it to three children, these three children would still be facing the Su family's commercial building. Unless the earthquake collapsed, they would not collapse.

"What are you planning to do with it?" Yan Huan asked Lu Guang. Lu Qi did not care too much about these things, but Lu Guang liked to make money. Of course, Lu Guang's mind was also flexible. He had a business mind that was rarely seen in the Lu family. Of course, he was shrewd about these things, she did not have a mother like him, and there were not many people in the Ye family either. In the end, she might have to talk about the Su family.

Sometimes, Lu Guang's thoughts were actually a little like the treacherous Su Qingdong.

This son loved to do business. If he liked it, he would let him go and play. If he earned his money, he would accompany Yan Huan as his mother. This was what Yan Huan had told Lu Guang since he was young. Otherwise, how could Lu Guang be so bold?

Lu Guang knew that their mother's family background was very solid. It was so solid that it could cost him his entire life. Moreover, he was not that stupid.

In fact, Lu Guang had always been thinking about what he was going to do with this ten-story tall building? He knew the situation inside the building. The first floor was a parking lot, the first floor was a shopping mall, and the upper floors were used by Su Qingdong himself in the past. Therefore, the use of this building now.., he really had to think about it carefully.

As for the lower floors, he hadn't thought about moving them yet. What he did in the past was still what he did now.

The empty floors were good for him.

"Mom, I want to transfer to the law department."

Lu Guang sat up straight and said to Yan Huan seriously. He studied finance and was only a freshman. His major was finance and his minor was law. He chose this major because he liked to make money. The three siblings went to university in Hai City University, he didn't think about going to other places. It was the same no matter which school he went to. His parents, his grandparents, and his 100-year-old great-grandfather loved him. How could they be far away? Besides.., hai City University was also a famous university in the country. Why did they have to go to other places to study.

However, after a period of time, Lu Guang realized that he did not have much interest in finance. He did like to make money, but he had never thought of getting into the money trap.

At that time, he would only be studying law as a minor, but he had some interest.

Why? Yan Huan did not understand the change in Lu Guang's mind.

"You want to be a prosecutor?"

"No, Lu Guang shook his head. My dad is so busy. Being a prosecutor is very tiring. I Can't do it. Also, Mom, Look at me." He pointed at his face, "I'm so adorable. How can I be so stern every day to scare people? I don't have any dignity at all, do I? "At the very least, I can't scare the children into crying. I'll make many girls like me."

Yan Huan pinched Lu Guang's face hard. "Who said that the prosecutor has to keep a straight face? There are a lot of smiling foxes."

Lu Guang happened to be a little fox.

Although foxes were smart, they did not have the dignity of lions or Tigers.

Anyway, Lu Guang had never thought that he would have to fend off the prosecutor. Ever since he was young, he knew how busy his father was every day, how he worked overtime, how he did not have time to accompany them, and how tiring it was, not everyone was like his father. Not only was he outstanding in his work, but he also loved his work.

As for the job of a prosecutor, he really couldn't take it.

So..

“Mom, I want to be a lawyer,” he said with a smile, “So those floors are just right. I don’t need to look for a place anymore. I’m going to set up my own law firm. Maybe in the future, Dad can work on cases together.”

This was the decision he made after a few days. Being a lawyer was much easier than being a prosecutor. It was also challenging. Of course, he could still make money. After all, making money was his pleasure.

“Have you talked to your dad?”

Yan Huan was very pleased with his second son’s choice. Being a lawyer was indeed a good profession. She was very supportive of it.

“Not yet. I’ll talk to dad about it.” Lu Guang felt that there was basically no problem. In fact, as long as his mother agreed, his father would definitely not object. Moreover, such a good career and such a bright future.., of course, his mother would not object, right?

After he graduated, he would set up his own law firm. That building was really timely. That grandfather gave it to him so that the building would not collapse. Sure, he would make the building not collapse.

Chapter 2180: Lu Wei’s ideal career

Lu Wei brought out the dishes from the kitchen. They ate a little less at night, but Lu Wei thought of a way to make their dinner sumptuous..

Her studies were the easiest, and she was the first to get out of class. She also took care of the lives of her two brothers.

“How fragrant!” Lu Guang threw his things aside and strode over. He pinched his sister’s little face and said, “My family’s xunxun is the best.” As he smiled, he seemed to have thought of something, however, his eyes turned cold.

His sister, whom his family had painstakingly raised, would soon be kidnapped by another man. How pitiful and painful would that be.

No, xunxun must stay by their side. Even if it was the worst, she had to stay until she was 30 years old. Aunt Lorraine got married at the age of 34. That was how it was.

He believed that regardless of whether it was his big brother or his parents, it was the same.

During dinner, Lu Qi transferred the antique garden that he had already completed the formalities to his sister.

“I’ve seen it. The geographical location is not bad. What do you want to Do?”

What do you want to Do? Lu Wei really hadn’t thought about it. She had been pampered by her family since she was young. Although her parents might not have spoiled her like a little princess, she had never suffered much. She could have whatever she wanted, as long as it wasn’t too excessive, it wasn’t a big deal. She still had two older brothers. Her older brothers would give her whatever she wanted.

As for what she wanted to do with those ancient buildings?

“I want...”

Lu Wei really had some ideas. In fact, this was something she had been planning for a long time. It had always been in her imagination. This time, it was unexpected and could be realized ahead of time.

“I want to open an inn.”

“Inn?” Lu Guang turned his sister’s little face over. “Are you going to be the Lady Boss?”

“Yes,” Lu Wei smiled, revealing her dimples, “Actually, I don’t know what I’m going to do in the future, but I can’t just be a rice worm and do nothing all the time. I want to be independent too. This is the simplest and most suitable for me.”

Lu Wei herself studied landscape design. Was she going to wear a hard hat to build a house for others? Or was she supposed to be a farmer? With her small body, she might not even be able to wear a hard hat. She wasn’t too delicate, but that didn’t mean that she was tough enough to farm.

How about she open an inn? She designed it herself. Yes, she could raise a few cats. She could put a rocking chair in the yard. When she wasn’t busy, she could have a cup of tea, a book, and a room filled with the fragrance of books.

She was not as smart as her big brother and second brother. Of course, she did not want to make herself a strong woman. If she wanted to be a strong woman, she could just take over her mother’s job. It would be easy to act, however, she really did not like it. She did not like to expose everything about herself in front of others. She still liked to be quiet and have more privacy.

“Sure.” Lu Qi put down his chopsticks. If he had spoken, then it would have been very likely.

“Thank you, Big Brother.” Lu Wei rushed over and hugged Lu Qi’s arm. Lu Qi rubbed his sister’s little head. You can build whatever you want. I will help you find a good person. That location is not bad. In fact, I already have it all ready-made, moreover, it was close to many famous scenic spots. It should be very suitable to open a special inn.

Lu Qi touched his sister’s hair again. The corner of his lips could not help but raise slightly. HMM, there seemed to be a smile. Other than the smile, there was really a dimple on one side of his face.

Lu Guang let out a PFFT, and finally could not help but laugh out loud.

He really felt that his rigid-looking big brother was a little too funny, didn’t he?

It was clearly that cold face, but it was born out of nowhere. It was no wonder that in the past few years, his boss really did not like to laugh at all. Who asked his boss to suddenly grow a dimple.

Lu Qi lifted his eyelids indifferently, and the cold light in his eyes swept over Lu Guang. Lu Guang coughed, then pretended to turn his face away, pretending to enjoy the scenery through the window. In fact, there was no scenery, there was nothing.

The next day, Lu Qi brought his sister to the small manor. Everything here was designed by Lu Wei herself. The style of the place itself was archaic, there were already three-story buildings, so there was no need to build anything special. As long as flowers were planted outside, every room needed to be decorated. It also needed a complete set of bathroom equipment, air-conditioning, and the like, it also needed to build a set of wooden tables and chairs.

All of this happened very quickly. The three siblings came here every day. This was their sister's future career. How could the two older brothers not care about their sister.

This small inn took more than three months to complete. Lu Wei had also raised a kitten for it, but now there were some problems.

Lu Wei was also a student. She could not stay here every day. She had to take care of the flowers, plants, and kittens. She would only come over on weekends. She still had two years before graduation.

In these two years, she couldn't close the inn, right? It was rare for Lu Wei to insist on doing something for the first time.

That was simple. She just needed to find someone to take care of it.

Lu Guang felt that his sister was really thinking too much. Could it be that she wouldn't ask for help in the future? Everything would be done by him, including the bed sheets and quilts. He would have to wash them by himself.

Even if she wanted to, she would have to be busy.

A small inn like this had always been very popular. Moreover, this was a place with a lot of people. During the peak tourist season, there was a lot of possibility that this place would be full of people, this itself was a very famous cultural street in Hai City. The essence of the entire hai city was here.

Therefore, it was impossible for Lu Wei to manage such a big shop alone. Besides, she was a girl, so they couldn't be at ease. Therefore, the two of them would probably live here in the future. Of course., they were also selfish. Without their sister, would they have to have children in the future?

Lu Guang had chosen his own room. It was his own room and would not be rented out. It would be used as a guest room for others.

"Do you have a good candidate?"

Lu Qi asked Lu Guang.

If he wanted to find someone who was honest, he would be able to do it. At the very least, he had to know how to farm. If he found someone who was opportunistic and lazy, what if he cheated his sister? It did not matter if he cheated her for money, but if he cheated her., his sister would be heartbroken.

Lu Guang Thought for a moment. "You don't say. I really do have a person here."
