

Chapter 2191: benefactor

In the past few years, although there had been wind and rain in Hai City and Hai River was not calm, there had not been too many floods.

Of course, it had never rained so heavily. When the raindrops fell on the window outside, it was clear how heavy the rain was. If it continued like this., perhaps they would have to flee to the Liuyuan Garden again. The Liuyuan Garden was the highest place in Hai City. Therefore, even if the entire hai city was flooded, the Liuyuan Garden would still be able to last until the end.

Moreover, she also knew that the hai city would not be flooded. After all, there were already a few railings added. They could completely withstand the once-in-a-century flood. It would not be like the last time, the second line of defense was completely destroyed.

In the past decade or so, Hai city's major measures were also to repair the riverbanks of Hai River. The existing defenses on both sides of Hai River were already done very well, except for the storm that was currently raging, it would still make people feel a little flustered and helpless, but there was no danger that Hai River would flood. Therefore, they should continue doing what they should do now. Everyone's lives were affected, but they could still live a normal life, just like her inn, it would open every day, and there would be a lot of guests.

Of course, January could also bring her a lot of income to maintain the entire inn. It was definitely enough to pay bright mother and the employees in the inn. Of course, she could also take some, although it wasn't much, it was earned by herself, which was different from other things.

And this was only the beginning. After a few more years, she believed that her business would definitely get better and better.

She opened the door. The rain outside was really heavy. From where she was standing, she could see that the raindrops were almost continuously falling down. They became dots, connected into a line, and continued endlessly.

The sound of rain filled the sky.

She took out an umbrella from inside and opened it. She walked into the rain. She first looked at her cats. Fortunately, these kittens were lying under the eaves of the house, so they could not get wet here, they were also protected from the wind. They were quite smart. They even knew to find a place where there was no rain to hide. Of course, their fur was not wet.

Lu Wei squatted down and stroked the head of a kitten. The kitten opened its eyes lazily. It glanced at Lu Wei, then curled up its body and continued to sleep, the other cats were the same. They lay together quietly and slept soundly. They had no intention of waking up and moving their nests.

"Meow..."

There was another series of Cat Meows. Lu Wei seemed to have heard this cat just now.

However, this was clearly not her cat. Her cats were a little bigger, and this cat that was meowing seemed to belong to a little kitten. She had raised cats for a long time and had always kept beans at home, she had been feeding the beans in the past. Later, she had also raised a few at the inn. It could be said that she had raised them since they were young, so she could still hear some of the meowing of the cats.

This voice indeed did not sound like a cat, but like a little kitten. Perhaps it was even smaller. She held up the umbrella and walked into the rain. The rain was really too heavy, so heavy that it almost blew her umbrella over.

She could still hear the meowing of the cat. It sounded quite pitiful.

Lu Wei followed the sound of the cat and walked to the door. The sound was coming from outside.

She opened the door and saw that the street lights were still on. With the help of the street lights, she could see the storm outside. It had been raining for a long time. It had been raining almost every day for the past few days, the rainy season in Hai City would last for at least a month. The scattered drizzle in front of them was not counted, and could only be counted as an appetizer before the meal. The rainy season in Hai City officially began today, it would continue until the next month or so. They would have to spend the entire month in this kind of rain, and everyone in Hai City would also have to spend the same amount of time in this kind of rain, they would spend the same amount of time together for a month.

Whether it was traveling or working, they would all be affected by it.

In fact, Lu Wei did not like the rain very much. Perhaps it was because the rainy season would last for a month almost every year. Perhaps it would even last for half a month. The rainy season.

Hai City loved to rain. These were things that many people knew.

“Meow...”

It was the meow of the cat again.

Lu Wei walked out. It seemed that the meow came from the wall. She walked forward carefully, and she saw the light outside the street lamp from afar.

It was...

A person.

Yes, it was a person.

He was sitting in the corner. She didn't know if it was a man or a woman, but his hair was drenched by the rain. The ground was covered in rain, and the Meow of the little kitten came from his body.

Meow. Another sound.

The person gently patted his chest. It was not bulging at all. In a short while, a little kitten poked its little head out. The Kitten's body was quite dry. It was a little white cat. It was very cute, however, it was a little too small. Lu Wei did not know how big it was. It had not been a month?

Lu Wei walked over. At this moment, that person might have also heard her footsteps. When he suddenly turned his head, his pair of sharp eyes also narrowed. Lu Wei's heart suddenly trembled, it was as if she had been bumped by someone.

She couldn't believe it and looked carefully for half a day.

It was him.

Was It really him?

She rubbed her eyes. There were traces of rain on her face. She took another step forward. That Man's eyes were still narrowed, as if he was outside the street lamp. Even his eyes were like a cat's, it was a mysterious amber color.

The Little Kitten meowed, tender and pitiful,

Lu Wei took another step forward, and then looked down at the man on the ground.

He was the person who had rescued her from the car. Yes, it was his. She recognized his eyes, his shoes, and his clothes. He had not changed his clothes, nor had he changed his shoes, he was still dressed the same as he had been that day. He had the same eyes, the same clothes, and the same shoes.

"Do you want to come to my house?" She pointed behind the wall. "My House is in this inn. Don't worry, I won't hurt you."

Also, she pointed at the little kitten in the man's arms. It could also go. I have a lot of kittens at home.

Just when Lu Wei thought that the man would not agree, the man stood up. In an instant, he was almost one and a half head taller than Lu Wei,

Chapter 2192: picking up a person, and then picking up a cat

The men in the Lu family were all very tall, but Lu Wei was not very tall. Her mother was not tall, but fortunately, she was as tall as her mother. If she was taller than her mother, the whole family would be taller than her mother, then her mother would definitely be very depressed, and of course, she would not be happy.

Therefore, she would rather be shorter, as long as her mother did not always say that the Lu family genes were too bullying.

Moreover, she was actually not that short. She was much shorter compared to her older brother at home. However, in the crowd, she could be considered to be very normal height.

Moreover, she really did not want to grow into a telephone pole.

The man walking in front of her was indeed very tall. He was about 1.85 meters tall, a little taller than his two older brothers.

Lu Wei looked at the little kitten in the man's arms. The little kitten licked the man's fingers, and its eyes were moist.

The man suddenly put his hands forward. In his big hands, the kitten could be used as a bed for the kitten.

Lu Wei looked at the man and then at the little anchor in his hands. She carefully reached out and picked up the kitten. Then, she touched her chest. She couldn't help but look back, it was as if she was worried that the man wouldn't go back with her.

Fortunately, although the man walked slowly, he always followed her.

She finally let out a sigh of relief.

The rainy season in Hai City was really too long. It was fine if there was a home. No matter how they lived, at least there was a place to stay. There was also a place above their heads that could shelter them from the wind and rain, but there was no one with a home, just like this man, where could they find a place to hide from the rain.

At this moment, because of the rain, the weather was already very cold.

She lowered her head and carried the kitten into her arms. She also let the kitten get closer to her shoulders. The kitten's soft paws grabbed her shoulders tightly. Perhaps it was afraid, so its paws grabbed her very tightly, however, she wore a lot of clothes, and the kitten's paws were soft, so she did not feel any pain.

It was also possible that because it felt warm, it also shrank its small body. After a while, it seemed to have fallen asleep and started to snore.

This was indeed small, and it was quite pitiful. If it was not for the man who brought it, it would have died because of the rain. There was nothing to eat, the weather was cold, and it was because of the rain.., the probability of it dying was very high.

Lu Wei brought the man into the inn.

It was the rainy season, so there were not many guests in the inn. The inn was also very quiet. There was no other sound, only the sound of the rain getting louder and louder, it also cleaned the entire inn very cleanly.

Lu Wei opened the door of a room. There was not much here, just that there were many places to stay. The bed and quilt inside had been washed and disinfected. She had always attached great importance to hygiene, and she would not take advantage of the hygiene.

Each room was equipped with a small bathroom. The inside was also carefully disinfected, and the toiletries were all available.

"I'll get you some clothes." Lu Wei turned around and saw that the man's clothes were so wet that water could be wrung out. She put the little kitten in her arms on the blanket. The kitten was so small that even its paws were pink, once it reached a warm and soft place, the little kitten knew what was good for it and crawled into the blanket. Then, it hid inside and slept obediently. Sometimes, it would even find its little ears sticking out, it was quite cute and pitiful.

Lu Wei turned around and was about to take out a few pieces of her brother's clothes. Lu Qi and Lu Guang both had houses here. Sometimes, they would come over to stay, but recently, the two of them had not been here for a long time, the main reason was that Lu Qi had gone to the army, and Lu Guang's law firm had just been set up. Now, he had a lot of things to do. He was already a lawyer and had fought a few good lawsuits, Lu Guang's fame was instantly made famous in those few lawsuits. His words were very incisive, and in the midst of talking and laughing, he had already sharpened his knife and killed the other party to the point of leaving nothing behind.

Of course, Lu Guang's fame had also gone out. Moreover, none of the few lawsuits he had taken on had lost together. Therefore, recently, his law firm had become more and more popular. Of course, one should not treat it as a good person, he should not treat what he had done as serving the people. No matter how upright he was, he was still a black-hearted businessman.

Lu Wei opened the door to Lu Guang's room and prepared to take a few pieces of Lu Guang's clothes out. Her eldest brother's temper was too weird. It was better not to touch him. Her second brother was easier to talk to. After all, if his clothes were to be worn by someone else., at worst, he didn't want them. He could just buy new ones. After all, he didn't lack money.

Lu Wei opened the closet and took out a few pieces of clothes. There were coats, shirts, pants, and socks. As for shoes, there were slippers in the house, but she thought., she pulled out a pair of underwear that her second brother hadn't worn before. In a short while, her face was a little hot. wasn't it too difficult for a little girl like her to take underwear for a man.

She carried all the clothes out and walked into the guest room. She knocked on the door, but there was no response. However, the door was open, and she could vaguely hear the sound of water coming from inside, she held the clothes and stood for a long time. In the end, she went straight in. She put the clothes on the bed, and the little kitten had already crawled out from under the blanket. It was indeed very small and pitiful.

"Are You Hungry?" Lu Wei picked up the palm-sized little kitten. The little kitten rubbed its little head against her hand. Its little pink paws were soft, and even its paws were soft. Its little head., its pink little nose was indeed very cute.

The Little Kitten meowed again. It was definitely hungry.

Lu Wei had the experience of feeding the little kitten. She still had milk powder there, and she would make some biscuits for the little guy to eat. She had three cats here, but they hadn't given birth to kittens yet. If they were going to give birth., she could still give it some cat milk, but she didn't have it now. So, she could only let the little guy suffer and drink milk powder.

She held the little cat in her arms. Just as she turned around, the bathroom door opened. She also smelled the smell of water vapor and a faint smell of shampoo, it was a very light scent of jade flowers. She liked this smell, so she put these shampoo in every guest room.

Chapter 2193: cats are cute and scary

This smell was very fragrant, and it was suitable for both men and women..

"That..." she pointed behind in embarrassment. "I took all my brother's clothes, which he has never worn before." Of course, she was also referring to the underwear, and she was such an innocent girl. In this life, she had never even touched a man's hand. Even the cats she raised were female cats. Now, she had to face a man who had just showered, and a naked man.

Oh God, let her die.

And she didn't dare to raise her head. She carried the kitten and walked out.

"I'll go get something for it to eat. It's hungry."

Lu Wei replied and gently stroked the Kitten's little ears. The Kitten meowed and its little pink paws clung tightly to Lu Wei's arm, as if it was afraid that someone would drop it.

Lu Wei walked out and used the cold rain outside to make her face hot. It also became more normal. She patted her face.

Why was her fever so bad? She was not having a fever.

She adjusted her emotions and carried the kitten back to her room. She took a small plate and put some milk powder in it. Then she pinched some biscuit crumbs into it.

She put the kitten on the ground.

The kitten ran over too. It sniffed the small plate with its little nose. Then it stuck out its little tongue and licked the milk in the plate from time to time. It could be seen that it was really hungry and squatted there, it did not stop eating.

The Cats were hungry. Where was the person?

Lu Wei finally remembered that the man might not have eaten. She took her phone and opened it. The time on it was around one o'clock in the morning. There were still seven or eight hours left, it would only be time for breakfast the next day.

The kitten had probably not eaten a few meals, and the man was probably the same.

She stroked the Kitten's Little Head and sat down on the ground.

The kitten meowed and then lowered its little head to lick the milk. In a short while, it had almost finished drinking. Its pair of cat eyes also narrowed. It seemed to be quite satisfied and happy, then, it rolled around in the room. The little pink paw also scratched randomly. However, it was still small, so its destructive power was far less than that of an adult cat.

Therefore, Lu Wei let it play by itself. It could play however it wanted.

Lu Wei opened the kitchen door and thought for a moment. Then, she opened the refrigerator and took out a few pieces of Ginger. First, she boiled some ginger soup. When she boiled the soup, she also made a pot of soup noodles.

There were a lot of dishes in the noodles. At most, she could eat more, but it would not fill her stomach. Moreover, for people with a weak stomach, this was obviously more practical than rice, and it was easier to digest, it also did not hurt the stomach. Therefore, there were very few noodles in this pot. There were many dishes, and there was also a lot of soup.

When her noodles were ready, the ginger soup was also ready. She first scooped a bowl and drank it. It would go away the cold, and she did not need to take medicine.

Her physique was similar to her mother's. If there was a slight chill, she would be fine as long as she drank a bowl of ginger soup.

She placed the ginger soup on the small pot and walked to the guest room. Before she arrived, the door had already opened. The man stood in front of the door. The light behind him fell on his hair, making it slightly messy, however, it still carried a stiff, vertical, and sharp aura that was like a sword.

Lu Wei now knew that his looks, to be honest, were not that good-looking. According to modern women's aesthetic standards, he was actually quite unqualified. He had a pair of very slender, single-eyelid eyes, he also had a very angular face. In addition to his superior figure, he felt stiff. Of course, it also gave her an inexplicable pressure.

"I'll bring you some food."

Lu Wei had long been used to her big brother and father's temperament. Both of them did not like to talk. Sometimes, they liked to look at people with their eyes, which made others afraid of them, therefore, she did not feel very uncomfortable about this kind of temperament of killing people with her eyes. Moreover, she did not make any mistakes. She was being kind.

She placed both bowls on the table and then picked up the bowl of ginger soup.

"This is my grandmother's recipe. It can prevent colds and colds. It's not bad. I've drunk it myself."

The man stared at her for half a day with a pair of amber eyes. Finally, he picked up the bowl and put it to his mouth. He took a sip. There was a slight spicy taste, but it wasn't too bad.

He took another sip, and his mouth instantly had this taste. In fact, he did not like this taste very much.

Lu Wei did not like it very much either. She had been drinking since she was young, but because she had drunk too much, she had long been able to tolerate this taste. That was why it felt good, however, her good taste was discounted by others.

Fortunately, this man gave her face. Even if he didn't like it, he didn't show it on his face. Of course, he still drank a bowl of ginger soup in one go without missing a drop.

Lu Wei pointed at the pot of noodles on the table. There was more than half a pot in the small pot. It wasn't much, but it wasn't little either. If she used a bowl to hold it, there would be two bowls.

"You can eat by yourself. Just leave the bowls at the door. I will come over tomorrow to collect them."

After saying that, she did not stay here any longer. After all, it was already so late. It was not a good thing for a man and a woman to stay together.

Although they were upright people, they were not afraid of shadows.

However, she still had to be careful.

When she was about to go out, she heard the man speak for the first time.

“Thank you.”

Lu Wei stopped in her tracks.

“That...” she was actually quite embarrassed. “You saved me too.”

After saying that, she walked out in large strides. In the end, she was so fast that it was as if she was jogging.

Only then did the man sit down and pick up his bowl. Actually, he disliked eating noodles very much. Ever since he was young, the thing he disliked the most was noodles. However, he was so hungry now that he had almost forgotten.., how long had it been since he had eaten.

And the noodles seemed to be quite fragrant. He picked up the chopsticks at the side and took a bite.

The noodles were very delicious, and there were a lot of dishes inside. He was really too hungry, so he didn't care about his image. He just ate one bite at a time. Even the noodles and soup were all eaten up. After he finished.., he scooped a big bowl for himself.

When he took the empty bowl to fill the rice again, he found that the bottom of the pot was already empty, and there wasn't a single strand of noodles inside.

Chapter 2194: she was really a good person

He had unknowingly eaten up a pot of noodles, but his stomach did not feel too much. A pot of noodles had been eaten up, but he still felt that it was not enough?

Could it be that he had really become a pig.

The rain outside was still falling, sparsely scattered. Raindrops also hit the glass from time to time. The rain today was really heavy. Of course, this kind of rain would probably last for another half a month, during the plum rain season.., that was how it was.

Lu Wei returned to her room. The Kitten had already curled up in the corner of her blanket and was sleeping.

Lu Wei took a cardboard box and put a piece of her own clothes in it. Then, she picked up the kitten and put it in the small cardboard box. The kitten was too small. She was afraid that if she was not careful.., what if she crushed it to death?

The little kitten was still sleeping obediently. Its pink little nose was breathing, and its eyes were closed. It was really very, very small. She didn't know if it could be raised?

After she was done with the little kitten, she went into the bathroom. When she came out, the little kitten was still sleeping in the small box. The wind outside was very strong, and the rain was also very strong. Although it wasn't a typhoon.., but if the rain was a little stronger, the destructive power was almost the same as a typhoon.

She squatted down beside the cardboard box and touched the kitten's Little Paws. The kitten was still very fast asleep. No matter how Lu Wei moved it, it did not open its eyes.

Lu Wei stood up and prepared to go to sleep. It was just that she slept a little late tonight. Perhaps tomorrow, she would wake up even later. Whether she woke up too early or too late, it did not make any difference now, it was mainly because the weather had always been raining, and the rain was currently hot, so it would continue to rain endlessly.

Early the next morning, she felt that her face was a little itchy. She opened her eyes and saw the little kitten. It was lying on her pillow, meowing from time to time.

Lu Wei sat up. She slept too late and didn't get enough sleep, so she was a little sleepy. She took her phone and looked at the time. It was a little past nine in the morning. Fortunately, she didn't wake up too late. She picked up the little kitten, then she pinched its little ears. It was so noisy early in the morning. It must have become a demon. It even knew how to beg for food for her. It knew that she was a breadwinner, right?

The kitten continued to Meow. Its eyes were wet. It looked very pitiful.

"I know you are hungry. There is no hurry. I will get you something to eat right away."

Lu Wei took off the blanket and went to get some milk powder for the kitten. She also crushed some biscuits inside. The kitten automatically ran to her little rice bowl. It lowered its head and began to eat.

Lu Wei opened the door. It was still raining outside, just like the heavy rain last night. It had never stopped raining.

"Miss Lu, why is there a strange person in the Inn?"

Ming Liang's mother was shocked. As soon as she saw Lu Wei, she complained.

She went to clean every room routinely in the morning. In the end, she found a strange man living in a guest room. In fact, she was not afraid of strangers. Which one of them was not a stranger here, it was just that the man had a pair of very scary eyes, which made people very afraid.

"That..." Lu Wei did not know how to answer. Oh, right, who was that person? She picked up a cat with crotch, and she also picked up a big man, let alone others, even she herself felt that she could not believe it.

Of course, she couldn't blurt it out, because it was too strange.

"He's our new guest. He came last night."

Lu Wei smiled, but she was actually very embarrassed.

"Oh, I see." Of course, bright mother didn't suspect that Lu Wei was lying. They originally opened an inn here, and there were many people coming and going. Some left, and of course, some stayed in, they could not specify when the guests could stay in, right.

Lu Wei saw Bright's mother did not ask any more questions, and only then did she heave a sigh of relief.

She did not dare to let others know that she had picked up a cat and a man. If her two brothers found out, they would definitely drag her back and beat that man up at the same time.

Lu Wei took advantage of the time when Ming Liang's mother went to tidy up the other rooms. She quickly ran back to her room and took out her wallet from her bag. Then, she secretly ran to the guest room.

As soon as she arrived, the door to the room was already open. The door was opened just in time. She did not need to knock anymore. She did not know that it was not the door that was opened just in time, it was because the man had already heard her footsteps.

Each person's footsteps were different. If they had been together for a long time, they might have been able to hear it, or someone with a very sharp hearing would be able to tell.

Lu Wei opened her wallet and took out all the money inside. This was the account that she had just received. It was about twenty thousand yuan. She put all the money on the table.

The man looked at the money. His amber eyes were filled with gloom.

"Don't misunderstand."

Lu Wei quickly explained, "I didn't mean anything by it. You saved my life. Now that you're in trouble, I'll help you. But I can't let others know that I brought you back. So this money..."

She carefully pointed at the money on the table. "Just take it as helping me. Just say that you're our guest, okay? Otherwise, I'll end up in a terrible state."

Although she was repaying her debt and didn't do anything wrong, picking up a single man was a big taboo in her family. If she was dragged back, she would have a male creature by her side, she might not even be able to open this inn. This inn was her blood and sweat. She would not give up.

The man reached out and took the money. Then, he put it in his pocket. He was not greedy or happy. He was just casual. It was normal.

Lu Wei finally let out a sigh of relief. In fact, she was afraid that he would think too much. She was afraid that he would not dare to accept it. If he did not accept it, what would she do? How many excuses would she have to find to explain his identity.

After she came out, she went to see the little kitten. As for that man, he lived there. However, she did pay attention to him. On the first day, he went out. Just when Lu Wei thought that he would not come back., in the end, he came back at night. He was still carrying some things in his hands. Perhaps it was clothes. That's right. She only took a set of clothes for him. Even if it was dirty, she did not change it.

Chapter 2195: family problems

As for food, Lu Wei also thought of a way. Anyway, she was going to cook anyway, so she told Ming Liang's mother that they could provide a private breakfast. Of course, this was not unheard of, as long as she could afford it, she would certainly prepare the breakfast. If Lu Wei, the cook, was comparable to an ordinary chef, then the money would definitely be worth it.

Lu Wei, who was a member of the family, naturally made good food.

As expected, bright mother did not suspect anything.

Lu Wei had nothing to do recently. She would be the cook, but bright mother would have to trouble her to send the food over.

Bright mother felt that it was a loss. After all, apart from her family members, she did not know how much money Lu Wei had spent on the food. She even wanted Lu Wei to personally cook it.

However, although she felt that something was wrong, she didn't say anything. Whatever Lu Wei said, she would do. She would send the food and Lu Wei would cook it.

The Little Kitten had grown a little because it had been eating well recently and had eaten too much. It had finally grown fat and was very cute. Of course, it was also playing well with the big cats in the inn, it ran around with the big cats every day. However, the big cats were rather lazy. While the little one was still active, she liked to run around and jump around the most. However., she was also smart enough not to go outside and get caught in the rain.

As for that man, Lu Wei had not seen him for a long time. The Cats had grown fat, so it was the same for him. Even if he was not fat, his vitality should have been replenished, right?

That night, when she was about to sleep...

She heard the sound of knocking on the door.

She hurriedly sat up and went over to open the door, but she did not know who would come at night.

When the door opened, the man was dressed in black. His hair was slightly messy, covering his eyes. This mess was not sloppy, but his personality. Everything about this man., seemed to be hidden in his amber eyes.

Lu Wei looked up. She was a little confused. Did he need her help with something?

The man put his hand on his neck and pulled something out. Before Lu Wei noticed it, there was something hanging on her neck. It looked like a piece of jade. The shape of the Jade was a little like a dragon, it was very small, and the jade still carried his body temperature. It was like the first time he saved her from the wheel. It felt slightly warm and cool, like the rain outside, it was also like the wind outside.

"I'm leaving,"the man said and turned to leave. He didn't say much to Lu Wei. He only said thank you and now, "I'm leaving."

As for the rest, there was nothing else.

After a long time, Lu Wei took out the necklace around her neck. She suddenly ran out. After taking a few steps, she turned back. She didn't know what she was going to do, what was she going to say?

Actually, she didn't know him.

She retracted her feet, turned around, and walked into her own room. Then, she closed the door and meowed.

A little white cat walked in from outside the door. It was much fatter and whiter, but it still had a pink and tender little nose and small claws. Its eyes were also a little blue. Why did it look like a Persian cat.

Lu Wei squatted down and picked up the little white cat. It had only been less than a month, and it could not have grown to be that big. It was still a soft and cute kitten.

“He’s gone.” Lu Wei sat down and gently stroked the soft and smooth white fur on the kitten’s body.

“You’ll miss him, won’t you?”

“But, I don’t even know his name?”

She turned back to look at her bag, which had been placed on the side. She didn’t know if he had any money on him. She should have given him some money. What if he was a vagrant again?

The little white cat only licked its little paws. Its pair of cat eyes were half-closed, and it was enjoying its master’s touch very much. This little cat met its master, Lu Wei, and it could be considered a cat’s life happiness.

Lu Wei put the little white cat down and touched the necklace on her neck. She didn’t know if she would forget about that man, but it seemed to have already existed.

The inn was still open, and the rain was still falling.

There were people who would come, and of course, there were people who would leave. Sometimes, Lu Wei would think of that man, but as time passed, she realized that she couldn’t even remember his face.

He was the most unexpected person in her life. Therefore, gradually, she might really forget about him. Perhaps, she would still remember him sometimes, however, it seemed to have faded into the past.

“Okay, I’ll be back right away.”

Lu Wei took her bag. The white cat ran over again. It stretched out its two small paws and was about to hug its master’s legs.

Fine, Lu Wei picked up the white cat. I’ll let my mother raise you. You’re so beautiful, my mother will definitely like you.

She sat in the car and put the white cat on her lap. Xiang Xiang had already driven the car to the Liuyuan Garden.

She had only been away for a few days, how did such a big thing happen at home.

And this incident did not seem to have caused her any mishaps. Perhaps it was because she knew that this would happen sooner or later. She just did not know what her mother would think?

When she returned to the residence, she saw Yan Huan sitting on the sofa. She placed her hand on her face and her brows were gently shut. It was also because of her exquisite features that it was impossible to tell just how old she was, if one were to guess based on her age, one would not be able to tell how old she really was.

“Meow...”

Lu Wei hugged the little white cat in her arms and meowed. Yan Huan opened his eyes and saw a little white cat jumping towards him. It squatted in front of her and did not leave. A pair of wet eyes stared at her from time to time, it seemed that it was still quite curious. It could also be because Yan Huan was very similar to Lu Wei and the aura on his body was also similar. Therefore, the little white cat also treated Yan Huan as its master.

Yan Huan carried the little white cat and placed it on his lap.

She stroked the Little White Cat's little head. It seemed that Bean was also like this in the past. She liked her the most and also knew how to please her master. This white cat did not look like bean at all, however, she inexplicably thought of it as bean.

Bean was no longer there. She knew that after all, the lives of cats and humans were too different. Bean had lived for a long time, so she could not accompany her any longer.

Chapter 2196: nightmare

The little white cat was still small, only about two months old. It meowed from time to time, but it looked very cute. Apparently, women could not refuse such a cute little animal.

"Does mommy like it?" Lu Wei asked Yan Huan, "I picked it up on a rainy day. Mommy also picked up beans on a rainy day."

"And then she picked up your father."

Yan Huan laughed and took over her daughter's words. "What About You? Did you pick up a husband for your own?"

Lu Wei's face turned red. "Mom, you're really good at guessing. I only picked up a cat, and it was a little female cat. How could I pick up a husband?"

When she said these words, she actually felt very guilty because she had lied. She had really picked up a man. Of course, that was only a man, not a husband.

"Mom, don't you agree?"

Lu Wei squatted down and also leaned on Yan Huan's knee. Her mother was a very open-minded mother, and also the best mother. When they were young, in kindergarten, the three siblings were the proudest children, because they had the most beautiful mother in the entire kindergarten.

And her mother had arranged everything for them. Her mother had accidentally gotten a sapphire and sold it for nearly ten billion. She gave the money to the three siblings, one billion each, as an education and Growth Fund, this was not something that every mother could do.

However, what happened this time?

Yan Huan leaned against the sofa at the side. She did not say anything and only hugged the little white cat with her eyes closed to rest.

This was the first time Lu Wei had seen her mother so silent. She could not help but say something bad. From the looks of it, her mother did not agree.

She was now having a headache for her big brother. According to her mother's temper, she might have ignored her big brother for a long time. She just didn't understand. Wasn't this a good thing? Why did her mother have such an expression?

Meanwhile, in the study room, Lu Yi looked at Lu Qi indifferently.

"Didn't I tell you that your mother has always been mentally weak? She can't stand the stimulation. She doesn't like you to get married early, yet you want to get married now. Lu Qi, you're the most obedient. This time, are you deliberately making her feel bad, or are you trying to make her mad?"

"Dad, Why won't Mom let me get married early? Is this a tradition of the Lu Family?"

Lu Qi had never heard of such a tradition. His father got married at the age of 25. Although he was 22 now, he wasn't young either. Moreover, wouldn't it be better to get married early?

This way, his mother wouldn't have to wait for her grandson every day like his grandmother.

"I've talked to Xiaomei. When you have a child, bring it to your mother."

"That's enough," Lu Yi interrupted Lu Qin. "Don't say such things in front of your mother. You have no idea how many years of Nightmares Your Mother has had because of your grandson."

Lu Qi's back stiffened and he kept quiet.

No matter what, he would never do anything to hurt his mother.

The three children of the Lu family loved their mother very much. Of course, they respected her and would never hurt their mother.

"Dad, can I know the reason?"

Lu Qi really wanted to know the reason. Why did Yan Huan not like them to get married early? Why did Lu Yi also stop them.

"I can't tell you now." Lu Yi stood up. "If you want to marry, you can too..." Lu Yi narrowed his eyes. Facing his son, who was as tall as him, he could not help but sigh, he really couldn't take it anymore.

"If you want to marry, go live with Xiaomei. Don't appear in front of your mother if you have nothing to do."

Lu Qi pursed his lips and stood there without saying a word. Lu Yi opened the door and walked out. He couldn't tell Lu Qi the reason why Yan Huan wouldn't let them marry and have children so early.

It was because of a dream that Yan Huan had in the past. She dreamed that she had become a grandmother at a young age. It was because of this dream that she had been depressed for a very long time.

It was not that she was afraid of death, but that she was afraid of getting old. It was just that this was a kind of obsession in her bones. It could also be said to be an obsessive-compulsive disorder. She would not object to children getting married and having children. After all, this was a path that a person had to take, the responsibility that one had to bear was to not show their love in front of Yan Huan.

And Lu Yi would not forcefully suppress his son. They could get married, but they had to stay far away from Yan Huan.

In this life, to Lu Yi, there was no one in this world that was more important than Yan Huan, including his son.

Lu Qi's black eyes had always been slightly calm. He could see that his parents did not object. They could also give him their blessings, but they wanted them to stay far away. Could it be that the price of getting married was to stay far away.., did he not want his parents?

Lu Yi did not say anything to Lu Qi. Whether he married or not, that was his own life. It had nothing to do with others. Even as their parents, they could not control when they got married and who they wanted to marry?

At night, Yan Huan sat with the little white cat in her arms. She was still in a daze. The little white cat in her arms was as small as beans back then. It was very obedient and obedient.

Lu Yi walked over and took the little white cat from Yan Huan's arms. He brought the little white cat in front of him.

The little white cat had a pair of blue eyes. It was raised so it was not afraid of humans. It was probably smart and knew who would be its parents in the future. Hence, it was very obedient in Lu Yi's hands. It did not move at all, that pair of small claws did not stretch out either. Instead, it meowed from time to time and even stretched out its little tongue to lick Lu Yi's fingers.

"Are You Hungry?"

Lu Yi asked Yan Huan. Yan Huan hugged the little fella in his arms. The children had grown up and were now independent. They did not need parents, and the two of them could only raise a little cat.

It was not that the children were not sensible. In fact, the three children were very filial and put their parents first. However, they had grown up and had their own lives, in the future, they would also form their own families. Just like now, they each had their own careers. The only one who could accompany Yan Huan was Lu Yi, and the only one who could accompany Lu Yi was Yan Huan.

"I'll go get something for it to eat."

Lu Yi stood up and prepared some soft cat food to feed the little guy.

A two-month-old kitten could already eat cat food. When its teeth grew a little longer, it could eat dry cat food. Lu Yi took out the soft cat food and placed it on the ground, the little white cat had already run over with its little fat body swaying. It lowered its head and began to eat.

Chapter 2197: Lu Qi was a scumbag son

“Do you have a name?” Lu Yi knew that this cat was given to his mother by Lu Wei. She said that she picked it up on a rainy day. She had a good personality and was very likable, so she came over to give it to his mother to raise.

Obviously, Yan Huan also liked this kitten. She was too lonely at home alone, so it was good to have a little white cat to accompany her.

“I haven’t gotten up yet.” Yan Huan propped up his face on the sofa again.

What should he call it? It didn’t seem like it could be called Mimi.

Lu Yi also stroked the Kitten’s Little Head. It was a very beautiful white cat. Its little face was good, and its little nose was also pink.

However, it was indeed necessary to have a name.

“Let’s call it Bean bun.” Yan Huan’s naming was really powerless. Just like the bean from back then, Yi Ling had randomly picked a bean, so it was called Bean. It was a bean that she had called for more than ten years, but there was no more bean. However., if Dou Zi was made into dou bao, then there would be a ready-made dou bao here.

“Alright, let’s call it dou bao.”

Lu Yi did not object to Yan Huan’s name at all.

In any case, it was just a name. Dou Zi was simple, and Dou Bao was easy to remember. Moreover, if they continued to feed him like this, he would most likely become a fat cat.

After Dou Bao finished eating the cat food, he immediately ran to Yan Huan’s feet. A pair of small claws grabbed onto her clothes. She was indeed a very smart cat. She was much smarter than Dou zi back then, of course, the two cats walked on different paths. Little Bean walked on the silly and cute path while bun-hit-dog walked on the approachable path.

Yan Huan picked up bun-hit-dog and placed him on the side. Bun-hit-dog found a soft spot for himself and curled up his little body. The white fur all over his body was like a small snowball as he slept quietly, yan Huan was still in a bad mood because she was going to be a grandmother very soon. She was going to start repeating the nightmare that she had finally forgotten.

“Everyone has to grow old.” Lu Yi sat in front of Yan Huan, “It’s the same for me and it’s the same for you. Children always have their own paths to walk in life. We can’t accompany them forever. At that time, their wives will accompany them. Their children will be just like us.”

“I know,” Yan Huan knew. She knew everything, and she also understood all the principles. However, understanding was understanding, and understanding was understanding.

If they wanted to get married, then so be it. It was impossible for Yan Huan not to let her son get married. She wasn’t such an autocratic mother, and she had watched Little Xiaomei grow up. She was a good child. Moreover, if Lu Yi was like the current Lu Qi., she would have already decided on half of her future. At that time, Ye Shuyun would not be worried about Lu Yi getting married as soon as possible.

It was good that the children in the family could get married as soon as possible. At the very least, she would not have to worry about her son being unwanted like Ye Shuyun.

As for herself, she would think it through.

Actually, she just didn't want to be old. It was just that she was still old.

She smiled and picked up Doubao. This way, she could be considered to have thought it through. Although it wasn't too clear, she had already accepted the fact that she wanted to be a mother-in-law and also a grandmother.

Lu Yi caressed her hair. Her features were still like a painting. Time seemed to have stopped on her body. Other than her body not being as good as before, she was really no different from the past.

She was still Yan Huan, the beautiful and exquisite woman from before.

She was already prepared to be a mother-in-law and a grandmother. However, Mei Ru could not bear to part with her daughter. That was why she was unwilling to let her daughter marry so early. At the very least, she would have to wait until Xiao Mei was twenty-five years old.

The Gao family did not agree, and Lu Qi naturally had no choice.

"Brother, I really gave birth to you for nothing. I raised you for nothing." Lu Guang took an apple from the side and munched on it. Lu Wei also pulled a long face and was not too happy. This was because she felt that her big brother had become bad and did not love her mother anymore.

One had to know how difficult it was for her mother to give birth to them back then. At that time, her mother had originally not planned to have children because of an injury to her uterus. In the end, when her mother was twenty-seven years old, she was unexpectedly pregnant, she was still pregnant with three of them. However, at that time, they all thought that it was two of them. However, their mother's body was injured after all. Giving birth to one of them was already a problem, let alone three of them. Therefore, their mother went all out, even if she did not want her own life, she still wanted to give birth to the three of them.

However, Big Brother had really gone too far this time. It was not as if his mother did not want him to get married. Did he have to get married so early and not care about his mother's feelings?

Now that his mother-in-law had said that he wouldn't get married, he wouldn't.

Why did his mother insist on getting married even if she didn't want to? When his mother-in-law said that, she became obedient?

Sure enough, a son couldn't be raised. If he was raised, he would become someone else's son.

"Second brother, you're not allowed to get married too early in the future." Lu Wei was now very angry with Lu Qi. It was his fault for being so angry with his mother. His mother had always been in a bad mood. When she thought about it, she was so angry that she ignored big brother, her mother's health was not that good to begin with. Most of it was the old injuries left behind when she gave birth to the three of them. When she was young, she did not feel anything, but now, those injuries began to increase, therefore, in these few years, her mother's health was not very good, and she could not be angry.

But her eldest brother, this good son, was actually so angry with her mother.

Moreover, it was even more official matters. His mother did not listen to his mother's words, but she had to listen to her mother-in-law's words. Wasn't this too much?

If second brother also angered his mother, she would definitely not acknowledge him as her brother in the future. His mother only needed a small cotton-padded jacket like hers. She did not need a mink coat.

Lu Guang rubbed the top of his sister's head in amusement. "Don't worry. Your second brother doesn't even have a partner now. How can he get married early?"

I knew it. Second Brother is the best. Lu Wei hugged Lu Guang's arm tightly. In the future, she decided to only have second brother and not eldest brother.

Lu Qi didn't actually think that this would happen. At that time, he only thought that his personality was very much like his father's. Would his mother be worried that he wouldn't be able to get a wife in the future? Later, little lei zi mentioned it, he said that it was good for him to get married early. When he came back, he told Yan Huan about it. However, he didn't think that things would turn out like this. Not only was he reprimanded by his father, but he was also reprimanded by his mother, now, he had become the scumbag son that his sister had mentioned.

He didn't want to explain anything because no matter how many explanations he gave, he would still find excuses for himself. He had made his mother angry. It was also because he had listened to his mother-in-law's words that he didn't want to get married anymore.

Actually, he didn't have to go against Yan Huan's story. No matter what happened, the result was that he had become the scumbag son.

There was a light knock on the door.

"Come in." Yan Huan was watching TV with Dou Bao in his arms. It was Linlang's latest film. She had caught a cold recently, so she didn't go out,

Chapter 2198:

Lu Yi still had to go to work, but she still knew how to cook. She had someone deliver the food to him, but she couldn't go out on her own. There was still the nanny here, and for the past few decades, Lu Yi had been eating shamelessly every day, it was all her doing, so all these years, Lu Yi had never let him go hungry, and he had never suffered a loss when it came to food

Lu Yi's mouth was really blessed in this life.

He had eaten almost all the dishes from all over the world.

He had not lived in vain in this life when he married a wife who was comparable to a chef. He had tasted all the food that could be eaten, delicious, and Super Delicious. Of course, it was also because of the past few decades, his meals were very regular and he ate according to the amount. Therefore, his body was comparable to a young man's. Of course, it was also because he often exercised his body. Although he was not like Yan Huan., he had a face that would not age even if he died, but he was still much younger than a man of the same age. It seemed that his body was much better and he was also much younger.

Of course, in reality, it was just like that.

"It's you." Yan Huan raised her face and saw Lu Qi walking over. She put down the kitten in her arms. She also knew that Lu Qi wanted to talk to her about something. Was it because of Xiaomei.

If she wanted to marry him, her mother would go to the Gao family to discuss it.

And she naturally had a similar confidence that she could say that she wanted to repay the GAO family. It would depend on Lu Qi's intentions. Of course, she wasn't angry with Lu Qi. In fact, she wasn't angry at all. It was her own problem, it really had nothing to do with anyone else.

Lu Qi squatted down. Yan Huan was still smiling at him as usual. This was because this wasn't anyone else. This was her son.

No matter who she was angry with, it was impossible for her to be unable to interact with her own son until he died of old age.

She had really become a young man. In the past, she had to squat down to be able to look at his eyes. But now, it was him who had to squat down to be able to look at her face.

She reached out and placed her hand on her son's head.

"Mommy, I'm sorry." Lu Qi placed his head on Yan Huan's lap, "I heard from cousin that back then, because Daddy wasn't getting married, Grandma didn't turn her hair white. In the end, it was only then that Daddy finally got married."

"He said that my personality was the same as Daddy's. Mommy might have to worry about my marriage too, so I thought of getting married as soon as possible. That way, mommy wouldn't have to worry about these things."

Mom's body was no longer the same as Grandma's. Grandma's life had been smooth sailing. However, Mom had suffered a lot when she was young, so he didn't want mom to live the same life as Grandma in the future.

However, he didn't expect that Mom's words about not allowing them to get married as soon as possible were true. He made mom angry, didn't he?

"Actually, the one who should be apologizing should be your mother. Your mother shouldn't have forced her emotions on you." Yan Huan rubbed the bottom of his son's head. This child had really grown up, and he was also an outstanding child, of course, she was also gratified. Children were all good-looking. The most important thing was that their thoughts had always been upright.

This was what she was most proud of, because none of the children she loved were crooked.

"Do you want to know why Mommy never wanted you to get married early?"

Yan Huan patted Lu Qi's shoulder. "Go and sit properly. Your mother's legs are also uncomfortable. After all, she has already become an adult."

Lu Qi hurriedly moved his body away and sat directly on the ground.

Yan Huan picked up Doubao and placed him on his lap. Lu Qi began to dislike this cat. He didn't have the chance to sit on his mother's lap anymore. After all, he had grown up, but this cat, Doubao., recently, he had taken up quite a bit of his mother's time.

Yan Huan gently stroked Doubao's small body. Doubao was still asleep, and he was still snoring. When she thought about the unreasonable dream that she had that year, it became her nightmare for the past few years. In fact, she didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Actually, it's nothing much. When Mom was young, she had a dream." She told Lu Qi all this because she wanted Lu Liu to know that she was really not angry with him, she was not an unenlightened mother. It was just that she had a small problem of her own, and it had nothing to do with anyone else.

"You want to know what kind of dream mommy had, right?"

Lu Qi did not say anything. He just listened quietly.

Yan Huan smiled. Her fingers pinched the little ears of Doubao again and again. This little bit of Doubao was made very well. In any case, Yan Huan could touch it whenever he wanted, and it would sleep in its sleep.

"At that time, you were still young." Yan Huan was still smiling. There were some memories that always made people not know whether to laugh or cry. And now, she was talking about that dream. In fact, even she felt that it was quite ridiculous.

"In my dream, you carried a child in front of me and said to me, 'Mom, this is your grandson.' and there was a mirror placed opposite me. At that time, I realized that my face was already full of folds, and I was an old lady with a head full of silver hair."

"No one wants to be old, and no one wants to lose their time and youth for no reason. Of course, there are also many people who don't want to be old. You Don't know that your mother loves beauty the most. "Later, I was afraid that such things would come true. Of course, I was also afraid that one day, you would suddenly put a child in front of me and say to me, 'Mom, this is your grandson.' When I turned around, I realized that I was already past my prime."

"At that time, you were still young, and I had yet to properly enjoy the time, but in the end, I became old."

She then put the little bean bun aside and stood up as well. If you really wanted to get married early, mom wouldn't object. After all, you were already old and had your own life to live.

Lu Qi's heart was filled with guilt. He really felt that he had let Yan Huan down. Yan Huan had suffered a lot during those years. Now that he was finally better, it was all his fault., he had to force Yan Huan to face it. She had never wanted to face reality and the future.

Lu Qi had also decided that he would get married later. He just wanted his mother to be able to continue living like this. Yan Huan stood in front of the window. Time did not seem to have left much on her, in fact, there were still too many things left. For example, her heart was old, and she had walked an extra lifetime.

A lifetime was really too short. They still had many things to do, many things to eat, and many scenery to see. However, in the blink of an eye, they were already so old.

Chapter 2199: Brown Sugar

This was just a small incident and it passed very quickly. However, Yan Huan's personality seemed to have become much more cheerful. She still had a bean bun at home, and because of her health, she did not go to that gourmet program anymore, she and Zhu Meina were currently doing beauty treatments together. They were also doing some shopping and things like that. They were living very well. With Zhu Meina around, it was unlikely that she would be lonely. Zhu Meina was very good at shopping. Where would there be good food, she knew all the places where there would be fun.

As for Lu Yi, Yan Huan was not worried. There was still xunxun. Xunxun would prepare the food and send it over. She would not starve Lu Yi. Moreover, Lu Yi was no longer busy. He could also drive home to the Lu family to eat. He could also take care of Ye Shuyun, Lu Jin, and Old Master Lu.

The rest of the family members were very well-rested. Not to mention Lu Jin and ye Shuyun, even old master Lu could live for a few more years.

Old Master Lu was still in high spirits. He insisted on moving to his great-granddaughter's place, so he could not see his great-granddaughter every day. Otherwise, what was the point?

It was just that the week was tiring. After all, Old Master Lu was old, so it was better not to move around. Therefore, Lu Wei often came by herself. She stayed at the Lu family during the day and only returned to the inn at night.

The business of the inn was very good now. It was unknown whether it was because of the good reputation or because there was really a mysterious beautiful boss here, so there were quite a number of single young men who came, but.., it was just that they had fewer opportunities to see her.

Lu Wei placed her hand on her neck and also took the dragon-shaped jade that she had always carried on her body. For some reason, she thought of the man that she had picked up and brought home, her eyes were amber, and his back was cold and thin.

Lu Wei couldn't remember how many days he had been gone. She really couldn't remember. It seemed like a long time ago. It was still the rainy season, and now it had been a month since the rainy season, so.., he had been gone for more than two months, so he probably wouldn't come back.

"Lu Wei, do you have any more juice? Give me another glass," a young man stood in front of the door, he crossed his legs and gently pulled out his hair. His face was fair, and his clothes were very flashy. The watch on his wrist was also very dazzling.

This man's body exuded the aura of a nouveau riche.

He wore a gold watch on his hand and a few rings on his fingers. He wore a floral shirt on his upper body and his phone would be changed almost every day.

He was the tenant who lived here. Of course, he spent a lot of money to eat the food that Lu Wei personally made.

“You’ve already drunk three cups, Ding Yifeng. If you keep drinking like this, you’ll have diarrhea. I Won’t care about you anymore.”

Lu Wei didn’t know how she had attracted such a guest. It was like a piece of candy. No matter what, she couldn’t beat him away. She couldn’t scold or cry. He stuck to her for a long time. Wherever she went, he would follow.

Lu Wei was helpless about this. She understood what Ding Yifeng was thinking. She just wanted to say that she was sorry. She really could not develop such feelings for him. Even if he stayed here for another year or two., five years would not be enough to move her heart.

Everyone said that a strong woman was afraid of being pestered. Lu Wei was not another woman. A good character was not easily compromised.

What she did not like was that she did not like it. It was just like how she had been like her mother since she was young. She did not like to eat meat. Even now, it was the same. This Ding Yifeng was not the type that she liked at all.

She liked..

Right, what did she like?

Suddenly, a pair of amber eyes seemed to appear in her mind. She quickly shook off these thoughts that should not have appeared. Then, she took a fruit and began to peel it quickly. Her hand speed was very fast, it was almost impossible to see how she had finished cutting the fruit.

She put the fruit in a juicer.

She waited for it to be squeezed.

Ding Yifeng was actually a little shocked, but he was still full of confidence.

He believed that with his character, his looks, and his family background, it would be easy for him to get a woman.

When he first saw Lu Wei here, he was shocked beyond belief. His eyes were filled with thoughts of her, which was why he had shamelessly stayed. After all, she was an inn, this was a place that was open to the public. He was only staying here. Presumably, no one would chase him away.

Furthermore, with his good family background and noble status, it would be a piece of cake for him to trust a small inn attendant. He had been filled with confidence when he first entered.

Anyway, he had chased girls before. No matter how arrogant he was, he still got them in the end. They only wanted his money. could he buy them a lot of things?

He believed that Lu Wei would also be that kind of person, but she was still reserved and pretending.

As long as he was with her, he could buy everything for her. He wanted everything, not to be a small waiter who could have whatever he wanted in the future.

He adjusted his hair and winked at Lu Wei from time to time.

As a man, his winking was pretty good, but it was a little like eye twitching.

Lu Wei sighed softly. Nowadays, the oddities were getting more and more.

At this time, the Juicer stopped working and the cup of Juice was finally squeezed. She took the cup and poured a full cup of juice and placed it in front of Ding Yifeng.

She really hoped that this person would leave as soon as he took the glass. She really didn't want him to wander around in front of her, okay? If he hung around for too long and she got bored, she was really worried that one day, she would pick up the frying pan..., she smashed it on this person's head. Fortunately, her eldest brother and second brother weren't around. Otherwise, this Ding Yifeng would have been beaten up countless times.

"Thank you." Ding Yifeng took the juice. However, his hand still wanted to touch Lu Wei's small hand. When he saw the warning in Lu Wei's eyes, he could only move his hand away and drink the juice again, however, could he still drink it?

He had drunk three large glasses of juice empty-handed. Now, his stomach would still ring when he walked.

Ding Yifeng placed the glass by his mouth, but his eyes were fixed on Lu Wei. He endured and drank the fruit juice again. However, as he walked, he heard the sound of water in his stomach again, it seemed that he had really drunk too much. His stomach was also filled with too much water, so he couldn't walk anymore.

Chapter 2200: had all failed

Now, he didn't look like a person, but more like a water-storing machine.

After the water-storing machine left, a person flashed in. It was none other than Xiangxiang.

"This person, it's better that he left."

Xiangxiang leaned to the side. This was the truth. If Lu Qi and Lu Guang knew that her sister had such a dangerous sugar-coated person by her side, she wouldn't be easy to deal with.

"I think so too. My brother Will beat him to death."

Lu Wei sighed. Ever since she was young, these male animals were forbidden by her side. If she really wanted to think about Ding Yifeng's safety, she might have to light a row of wax for him in advance.

She turned around again, squeezed a cup of fruit juice, and handed it to Xiangxiang.

Xiangxiang took it and her eyes narrowed dangerously.

Fortunately, the person just now did not make a move on her. Otherwise, she would have broken his dog paw.

Ding Yifeng, who had returned to his room, became more and more pleased with himself. Although he had drunk a belly full of water and had not made any progress, he could already feel it, Lu Wei was no longer as unfamiliar with him as before.

In fact, he was really thinking too much. What did she mean by being unfamiliar with him as before? Anyone who saw him for the first time would not give him a warm hug, right?

However, now that he had lived here for a long time, not to mention Lu Wei, even the three cats that he had raised here knew him. In the past, they would meow when they saw him, but he knew Lu Wei's personality, it was better to start from another place than to be liked directly by others. He did not know how many cat food these cat owners would give to the Paschie, but they would hang out with Lu Wei every day.

Therefore, even the cat owners turned a blind eye to him now.

Ding Yifeng still felt that it was a little slow. Lu Wei was the most patient he had been in all these years, and such a beautiful woman was so suitable to be his wife, he had only seen this one person in his entire life, so even if he had to put in more patience, he would still be willing. However, he could not be so slow.

Now, he had not even touched a beauty's small hand, so his heart was a little anxious. However, no matter how anxious he was, there was no other way. He could not force himself on her, right?

He didn't dare. Sometimes, Lu Wei's gaze was quite scary.

He was afraid.

No, he couldn't just sit and wait for death. If this continued, would he have to wait until he was Old and dead? He really didn't have much patience. He had been here for so long., he couldn't stay any longer.

"Brother, think of something for me."

At night, he directly dialed his good brother's number. This good brother often said that he was an expert in love. There was no woman in this world that he couldn't handle. Moreover, as long as he thought about the woman he was going to pursue., there was no woman that he couldn't get. and his method of pursuing a woman was also full of tricks

Of course, even Ding Yifeng was amazed. He was also full of admiration.

He didn't know what his good friend had whispered to him. Anyway, they had been talking on the phone for most of the night. The next morning, he followed them out early. Of course, he also dressed himself up like a human, he put on hair gel and perfume. The fragrance was everywhere. Even the cats in the yard sneezed.

Lu Wei took some cat food and prepared to feed the cats.

When the cats saw Lu Wei coming over, they quickly ran over. They knew it was time to eat. Today, Lu Wei brought them cat food, beef, and chicken, she mixed these into the cat food. The little ones liked to eat this. Their appetite had increased recently, and they were all fed until they became fat.

Today, without Ding Yifeng in front of her, her ears and ears were very quiet. Really, let her be quiet like this. Otherwise, if she didn't smell good, she would really beat people up.

Although her kung fu wasn't good, she was still good at beating people up.

Just when she was about to stand up and leave, she heard a demonic sound behind her that made people want to scratch the wall.

"Lu Wei..."

Lu Wei turned her head helplessly.

Ding Yifeng, who was standing behind her, was smiling slyly. He had applied so much hair gel on his head that it was hard to tell how much hair gel he had applied. The hair that was originally soft on the scalp was smeared all over the sky. The hair was also sticking out one strand at a time, they all stood up as if they were going to prick people. Their faces were as white as ghosts. It was obvious that they had applied foundation. And he seemed to have applied eyeliner. Who said that men couldn't apply eyeliner? After applying eyeliner.., didn't it make his eyes look bigger and more spirited?

Makeup wasn't a woman's prerogative. Men could do it too.

And now, he was holding a bouquet of flowers in his hands. This was the method his good brother had thought of for him to chase after women.

The first was the flower offensive.

"Lu Wei, this is for you."

He took the flowers forward and smiled with incomparable confidence. Why did he give this matter to the house? In the past, as long as he sent flowers, he would be successful in everything. When a woman faced a man with flowers.., that was irresistible, wasn't it?

If a woman saw a handsome man like him, who wanted money and money, holding such big and expensive flowers, how could she not be tempted?

If she was really not tempted, it proved that this woman was not a real woman, but a fake woman.

Lu Wei looked at the flowers in her garden and then at the red roses that were wrapped very well in Ding Yifeng's arms.

"These flowers are beautiful," she said as she raised her eyelashes. The light in her black eyes didn't leave anything behind.

"Of course they're beautiful," Ding Yifeng said proudly. "There are 990 roses here. They're too expensive. Ordinary people can't afford them."

Lu Wei lowered her head and looked at the Roses in Ding Yifeng's arms.

"What a pity..."

"What's a pity?"

Ding Yifeng picked up the flower. There was no problem. How could there be a problem with such a beautiful flower?

“No matter how beautiful the flower is, it’s still dead.”

Lu Wei’s cool voice was like a bucket of cold water pouring down on Ding Yifeng.

The smile on Ding Yifeng’s face froze.

The flower attack failed.

Lu Wei liked living flowers. She didn’t like dead flowers.

And Ding Yifeng couldn’t be beaten to death. Besides, a good woman naturally needed to spend time chasing after her. Moreover, such a beautiful woman naturally needed to spend more time.
