

Sweet Wife 2211

Chapter 2211: the old man was really smart

Others might not be able to tell, but he could.

He took off the sunglasses on his face, revealing a pair of slender eyes that were almost devoid of any emotion. At this moment, his clothes seemed simple, but every piece of clothing.., had his taste.

And they were all from certain brands, including his shoes.

He walked to the large bed and lay down. He knew that she was a woman who knew how to enjoy herself. Of course, she was willing to bring this kind of enjoyment to other people, just like the grass and trees here, as well as the tables and chairs, all of them had some scholarly heritage.

And after living here for a long time, he could not help but wash away his physical and mental exhaustion.

He sat up again and entered the bathroom. Sure enough, there was still a faint fragrance inside. The things that no one had used before, as well as the toothbrush, were all new, however, they were definitely not those cheap disposable items. The toilet was also cleaned very well, and one could smell a kind of disinfectant in it.

After taking a shower, he walked out and shook his hair. It was possible that he was in such a sorry state at that time, just like a stray cat, it was all thanks to her that he was picked up.

He had done everything, so he came to find her.

She had already received his token, so she was his property. No one could remember her.

“Achoo...”

Lu Wei sneezed and rubbed her nose. The window wasn't closed or something. Why was it so cold?

But the window was clearly closed properly.

She waited until Old Master Lu was asleep before standing up and preparing to return to the inn. Xiangxiang said that a big client had come, so she had to go back and prepare three meals a day for him.

As for her great-grandfather, she did not know whether she was going to cry or smile at him. He was not sick at all. Yes, he was really not sick. He was in excellent health, more than a hundred years old, he was better than an 80-year-old great-grandmother and grandfather. She felt that her great-grandfather's health was better than her grandfather's. It was obvious that he was faking his illness. As for why, it was because great-grandfather missed her.

However, she did not come over just a few days ago.

The older her grandfather was, the more like a child he was.

She was brought up by her great-grandfather. Although she still had two older brothers at home, her great-grandfather clearly doted on her the most.

She saw that grandfather Lu was really asleep, so she walked out and closed the door quietly. She did not know if he was still awake, or if he was still sitting up. Then, he tiptoed to the door, he didn't look sick at all. He was obviously full of vigor and vitality.

"Grandpa and Grandma."

As soon as Lu Wei came out, she saw ye Shuyun and Lu Jin sitting outside.

"How's Your Great-grandfather?" Ye Shuyun asked her granddaughter hurriedly. Every time she saw her granddaughter grow up and look so beautiful, she didn't know how much comfort she felt in her heart.

"He's fine. He's already asleep." Lu Wei sat down. Ye Shuyun lovingly stroked her granddaughter's hair. "Thank God for you. You Didn't know that your great-grandfather could live so long because of you."

Old Master Lu was now more than a hundred years old. It had to be said that it was a miracle. Perhaps he would live a few more years. However, he was too old and his body was not as good as before, in fact, how could they not know that old master Lu was not sick? He was obviously faking it to let his granddaughter come back to see him. As he got older, he became more like a child and needed someone to comfort him.

"Grandpa, Grandma, I want to bring great-grandfather to my place."

Lu Wei thought about it. Her place was actually quite suitable for the elderly. Moreover, she could take care of great-grandfather every day and not have to run back and forth. Moreover, if they changed the environment, the old master would be in a better mood, when the time came, she would bring the guards and the nanny. She could take care of grandfather Pu on a daily basis.

Great-grandfather was already so old. If she didn't take care of him now, how long would she have to wait?

Lu Jin thought about it and said, "I think that's it."

"But will it be bad?" Ye Shuyun was still quite worried. After all, the old man's age was always there. She was already more than a hundred years old. Now, they couldn't even let him go out.

"Dad's health is still fine now." Lu Jin's whole life had been weighed down by the weight of his father. He was almost going to be a great-grandfather, but his father was still alive in the household register. At the very least.., he still had his father.

"Alright then." Ye Shuyun was also afraid that old man Lu would be in a bad mood. The children couldn't stay by his side every day. They were all grown up and had their own businesses, even Xun Xun had managed his own small inn well.

"After Dad has confirmed that Xun Xun is going there, let's go out and take a look," Lu Jin said as he held ye Shuyun's hand. They had not gone out for a long time.

Yes, Ye Shuyun had been staying at home for the past few years, taking care of Old Master Lu and her three grandsons.

Now that the grandchildren had grown up, they could also take over the heavy burden on their shoulders.

“Okay, I support Grandpa and Grandma to go over. Oh right,” Lu Wei took out her phone and checked the time, “Mom will probably be back in half a month. Grandpa and Grandma can go to my mom’s place. The weather there is very good now, and it’s very suitable to live there.”

“That would be great.”

Ye Shuyun also felt that this was the best. There was also someone who took good care of them. After all, they had not traveled far for many years. If they went out, they might not even be able to find the north, south, east, and west.

Lu Wei hurriedly contacted second brother and asked him to book the plane tickets for Grandpa and Grandma. As for Yan Huan’s place, of course, she had to inform him. Yan Huan would be staying there for two months and there was still a month left, she rented a small courtyard there. There were mountains and rivers, and the scenery was very good. Of course, the weather was also good. It was still winter in the country, but the spring there was already warm and the flowers were in full bloom, therefore, Yan Huan was prepared to stay there until spring before coming back. This way, he would be able to avoid getting sick. He really could not afford to get sick now. As long as he got sick, he might not be able to go out even if it was winter, it was better here. The scenery was natural and the air was fresh. The country was still wearing cotton clothes, but Yan Huan was wearing short sleeves and sandals over there, eating tropical fruits, therefore, Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin came over. She was naturally very willing, but it was a pity that old master Lu was too old. They were worried even if he took a plane.

Chapter 2212: the old man moved

Therefore, it was better to let him stay at home. In any case, there was still that little girl Xun Xun at home. She was not young, but she was actually very good at taking care of people. Moreover, there were quite a number of people around the old man, there was no need to worry too much.

Moreover, Lu Guang was also over there. He could often go over to look after the old man.

Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin’s passports were ready-made and could be used. They would change their passports every few days, so they did not have to worry about the expiration date. As long as the tickets were booked.., they could go there at any time.

Yan Huan had already tidied up the room and was waiting for Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin to come over. They could spend the winter. Lu Yi had said that he might come over after he was done with his matters, however, it wasn’t now. In any case, he would be done with his matters very soon.

Old Master Lu sat up and pulled on the blanket again. He was smiling so much that his eyes were gone. Let’s go. They were going to go far away for him. From now on, his granddaughter would belong to him alone.

It wasn’t easy raising this granddaughter. He had lived for so many years and had become an old man. He just wanted to take a look at his little granddaughter.

Of course, before he died, he would settle the marriage of his little granddaughter. He had to personally check it out. He had to find a man like the Lu family. People nowadays had bad hearts.

Their roots were crooked.

Everyone in the family had children and wives, but they all started to turn bad. Why hadn't the Lu family men turned bad before, whether it was Lu Jin, Lu Yi, or his two great-grandchildren in the future, they were all good children. They would never go out and find a woman behind their wives' backs. He had to personally choose a good man for his granddaughter.

Otherwise, he would not die in peace. The Lu family had been in the family for a hundred years, but there was only one girl.

The next day, the security guards and the nanny prepared old master Lu's things.

Old Master Lu sat on the wheelchair and was pushed by the security guards. His hair was white, but his eyes were still very bright. He did not look like an old man who was more than a hundred years old. If he stood in front of others now..., at most, they would say that he was more than eighty years old.

This was an old man who was a hundred years old. He was on the birthday boy list. Every year, Hai City would give him a lot of good things. Moreover, Old Master Lu was an old Red Army soldier who had made contributions. Naturally, he was very respected, at his age, he was also a living old soldier, so he probably didn't have any more.

Thinking about it, Su Ancheng had been dead for more than ten years, and Ye Jianguo had also been dead for three years. Only He, Lu Yuanyang, was still alive and well. Therefore, he was more successful than them and was very capable.

His sons and daughters-in-law were all good, and he also had three very filial great-grandsons.

The great-grandfather was going to Lu Wei's place. Lu Guang came early in the morning, afraid that something might happen to the old man.

The weather today was pretty good. The old man was helped into the car, and the car drove to the inn that Lu Wei was driving.

The old man had not gone out for a long time. He was smiling all the way, obviously in a good mood. He also felt that he could actually get in and out of the car by himself. He really did not need to be in a wheelchair anymore.

His body was in good health?

However, if his granddaughter asked him to sit, he would sit. He would listen to his granddaughter.

In his life, old man Lu listened to who was the most obedient. When he was young, he did not listen to anyone. When he was old, he was a dictator at home. Until Lu Wei was born, he became a slave to his granddaughter. Now, he did not listen to anyone, but he listened to Lu Wei.

Whatever Lu Wei said, he would do. Even Lu Qi and Lu Guang, these two grandsons, had never received such treatment.

When they arrived at the inn, Old Master Lu was very satisfied with the environment here. The place was big enough. Although the buildings were not high, they were all exquisite. In front of them was the inn, with a very large courtyard, in the back, there were more than a dozen rooms, all for himself.

Lu Qi and Lu Guang each had one room. Lu Wei had one room, Xiang Xiang had one room, and Ming Liang's mother and Ming Liang also had one room. Each room was a big house with two bathrooms. Lu Wei had arranged for Old Master Lu, just like Ming Liang's mother's room, it had a kitchen, but it was never used.

Sometimes Xiang Xiang ate with Ming Liang and his mother. Sometimes when Lu Wei fired a gun, she would go to Lu Wei's place. Otherwise, she would not eat anyone's food and would go to the snack street outside to eat. There were many snacks there anyway, even if she was tired of eating on the first day, it wouldn't be a big problem. The next day, she liked it again.

Grandfather Lu's room was separated from Lu Wei's. The interior had been cleaned, and the decorations were not much different from the Lu family's. When grandfather Lu entered, he was very satisfied. Yes, it was very quiet. Moreover, when the window was opened., outside was a bamboo forest, and behind it was a small door. When he went out from this door, he could see such a large bamboo forest. In the morning, he could hear the chirping of birds, and he could also smell the fragrance of bamboo, there was also a table made of stone outside. Even the chairs were made of stone. There was also a large area of grape racks planted. In summer, he could still hear the chirping of cicadas, and then he could sit in front of this stone table, when he heard the chirping of cicadas, and the wind blew at night to cool him down, how comfortable would that be? He would have one less person to play chess with. Each and every one of them had no talent, and it was all because of this that he was not in the mood.

If he had nothing to do, he could only play with himself. What was the point of not playing with himself? Those who could play chess with him in the past had been dead for decades. He was the only one who was still alive and had lived for so long, he had become an old man who could not die.

Sigh... those old men had all died. He was the only one left. However, he thought that he was going to die soon. He had lived for so long, so it was really worth it.

Old Master Lu walked around the room with his walking stick. It was pretty good. He liked the house very much. There were two suites inside and outside. He lived in one room, his security guard lived in the other, and the nanny lived next door.

He had lived long enough. The security guard had changed three times. Now, this security guard was only a young man in his twenties. He liked his character very much. He was very much like little song in the past. No., now that he was old song, Old Song went back to marry his wife and have children.

Old Master Lu walked out with his cane. He was already old, and his legs were not very convenient.

"Matzi, take out my chess piece. I'll play a game."

"Chief, it's so cold outside. Can We stay inside?"

The guards did not dare to let Old Master Lu go out. If he caught a cold, it would be troublesome. He still wanted the old chief to live a few more years. It would be nice to stay by the old chief's side. It would be easy and he could earn a lot of money, he would also be able to see his goddess.

Chapter 2213: had a chess player

“What are you afraid of, useless?” The old man was full of energy. “Don’t look at me, I’m over a hundred years old, but I’m still full of energy. Why are you still standing there? Go get it.”

Alright, the security guard had no choice but to take out his chess piece. However, when he came out, it was an accident. It was not so cold here, and it was quite warm. In broad daylight, he had not noticed it, it turned out that this was a small greenhouse. The outside was covered by glass, and because it was transparent, he had not noticed it just now.

He hurriedly placed the chess piece on the table for the old man and also arranged the chessboard. Of course, he really did not know how to play chess, but he had seen the chief play for a long time, he was just used to looking at it. Of course, his chess skills were too poor, and he was not good at playing chess. The old chief killed him every time. He hated playing chess with the chief the most.

Men were competitive in their hearts. If they did not know how to be competitive, then they were cowards. Of course, he wanted to win, but he had never won once. Tell me, how could he be willing to do that, but the old chief, when no one played chess, no matter what, they had to catch up with him. Then, he broke out in a cold sweat and went crazy after a while.

He was already over a hundred years old. Couldn’t he give way to a young man? Didn’t he know that young people were full of vigor? He absolutely couldn’t be angry. What if his blood vessels exploded?

“Matzi, come and play a few games with me.”

The corner of the Guard’s eyes twitched. Chief, could you not pull me in? Could you not find someone else to play with you? You let Miss Lu play. Or the kitten that Miss Lu raised could also play. They didn’t have claws.

Of course, Old Master Lu would not play chess with his granddaughter. He did not want to anger his little granddaughter. Moreover, his little granddaughter still had to prepare a good meal for him.

His search had cooked a good dish. Whoever married it would really be smoking on the ancestral grave.

Now, he wanted to find a good husband for his granddaughter, whom he had doted on since she was young. He wanted to find someone who would love her for the rest of her life. He did not want to be like her grandmother, who met a bad person and did not have a good life in her life, he also did not want her to be like her mother, who had suffered a lot when she was young.

They did not believe any of the so-called rumors about the Lu family’s girl. The Lu family’s honor and wealth were earned by the men of the Lu family. They had nothing to do with the women of the Lu family, he had never thought that he would let his family’s Xun Xun Sacrifice Anything for the Lu family. She did not have to sacrifice anything. She just wanted to live a carefree life like this. She wanted to be the lady boss of an inn, no matter how much money she earned., as long as she was happy.

And as long as this matter was not settled, he would not be able to close his eyes for a day. Even if he did close his eyes, he would not be able to rest in peace.

He walked to the stone table with his walking stick and sat down. Come on, this table was a good thing for playing chess. It had its own checkers on it. They only needed chess pieces.

He started to move chess pieces, and the guards were killed in a short while. In the end, they were directly killed by the general, and his general was gone. He lost.

He lost three games in a row, and his fingers grabbed the table. He resisted the urge to flip the table over. However, even if he wanted to flip the table, he could not succeed. This table was made of a whole stone, even if he had really become a Hercules, he would not be able to throw a stone table to the side.

“Again.”

Old Master Lu was now in high spirits. He had to kill it for another 300 rounds today. It had been a long time since he had played chess so happily. He felt that this was a good environment. There were still bamboos around, he could still hear the sound of the wind blowing on the bamboo forest, but the surroundings were very warm.

The guard was really close to kneeling down.

He finally understood why when he came to be a guard for old master Lu, the old guard in front of him saw him with a sympathetic look. In the end, he even patted him on the shoulder.

“Young man, do a good job.”

Only now did he understand the meaning of what they said at that time. That was young man, do a good job, endure it well, and don't be angered to death. But why did he feel that one day.., i really have to be angered to death by Old Master Lu.

And now, she was already on the verge of being angered to death.

“One more game.”

Old Master Lu had already set up his chess pieces.

The guard was so anxious that one fell off his forehead. What if he didn't want to play anymore.

He really didn't want to play anymore

Could he just kneel down?

Just as he was about to kneel down and beg Old Master Lu to let him go, he suddenly turned his head, so that he could see the person standing outside the greenhouse

“Who is it?” He stood up with a whoosh and messed up the game of chess. Of course, he would never admit that he did it on purpose to not play chess with master Lu, and to not play chess, really.., he did not even want his face anymore

The glass door of the greenhouse opened, but there was no wind coming out. It was mainly because there were always two doors here. The one outside was wind-proof, and the one inside was thermal insulation.

The security guard had been standing at the door the whole time, staring at the man who walked in. What was the meaning of entering without an invitation?

“Do you know how to play chess?”

Old Master Lu asked the man who came in. He didn't care who the man was, but the person who could come in, Ba Cheng, was someone who loved chess, but he didn't love it. At the very least, he knew how to watch. If he didn't know how to watch, what was he doing here?

Those who knew how to watch would definitely know how to play.

"Yes." The man who walked in came over and sat in the position of the guard.

He stretched out his hand and arranged the go. With this move, he knew that he was absolutely not lying. He indeed knew how to play go.

Old Master Lu was currently in the prime of his game, and he had already started playing. Even the guards were standing quietly on the side. In a moment, they stopped moving. These two people were like two opposing parties in the arena, exchanging moves and not giving up.

Old Master Lu's chess playing was very good. No matter what he said back then, he was still an all-rounder in both civil and martial arts. He had played chess since he was young. He was already over a hundred years old. Naturally, his chess skills were not bad, otherwise, he would not have scared the Lu family, including the guards. Now, no one dared to play against him.

But this time, it seemed like an opponent had come. This young man from God knows where really had some tricks up his sleeve. He actually did not lose to Old Master Lu at all and even had the upper hand.

"I lost."

Old Master Lu lost very quickly. He hadn't played so quickly in a long time. Of course, he also lost very quickly.

Chapter 2214: turned out to be an old friend

"Let's go again." He placed the pieces again, and the man sitting opposite him did not say that he could not play. As long as Old Master Lu placed the pieces on his side, the man would move his own pieces.

In the second game, Old Master Lu still lost. It was better than the previous game, and he lost equally.

When it came to the third game, he won. It could not be said how proud he was. People said that a thousand cups of wine were already less than a thousand cups of wine. But now, he really felt that he had an opponent. This opponent was still very strong, it was on par with him, Qi Hu.

And this time, he really played to his heart's content. What he played was hot-blooded. It had been a long time since he felt this happy.

"Young man, How Old Are You?" Old Master Lu played another game, and he didn't know how many games he had played. The more he played, the more excited he became. Because neither he nor he had figured out the opponent's chess path up until now, therefore, they all needed to think carefully.

"Twenty-six years old," the man replied. Similarly, he did not move. He held the chess piece in one hand. His features were handsome but cold. There was a sense of alienation from him. His pair of slender eyes were also frightening, of course, there was also a pair of amber-colored light-colored eyes. His facial features were more three-dimensional than those of an Easterner. Perhaps he was a little mixed-race. In the end, his facial features were very deep. Although he was not very handsome., he was very handsome, but he was very pleasing to the eye. Although he did not smile, Old Master Lu, who was an old revolutionary, liked him very much. This kind of person was a man, and not the young people of today, who did not differentiate between men and women, if his grandson looked like that, he would definitely beat their legs.

Old Master Lu did not like the young fresh meat and little dogs that were popular now

A man should act like a man, breaking bones and swallowing blood, just like the men of the Lu family. He should be grounded, and of course, he should also stand tall and not act like a woman, he had to sell his face every day, just like Lu Qin, and thinking of Lu Qin, Old Master Lu still didn't acknowledge that grandson.

The Lu family didn't have a grandson like that.

Of course, the young man in front of him was quite pleasing to his eyes.

When he heard the man's age, Old Master Lu nodded. He didn't know what he was thinking about or what he was thinking?

"Where are you from?"

Old Master Lu was curious. "From your accent, you don't seem to be from Hai City."

People from Hai City, who were still used to living in Hai City, had a special accent. Only those who were born and bred in Hai City could hear it. An ordinary person wouldn't be able to hear the details, they really couldn't imitate it.

"I'm from Pingning," the man answered again.

"Oh, pingning. It's a good place." Old Master Lu knew about pingning.

"When I was young, I even went to pingning to fight in the war." Old Master Lu remembered that when he was young, his brain wasn't very good, so he forgot a lot of things. As for pingning, he remembered it., but now, he could still remember it. However, after a few more days, perhaps he would forget all these things.

"At that time, I was still a small soldier." Old Master Lu sipped his tea as he recalled the past days. Now that he thought about it, he felt a little sad. At that time, he had not been liberated, but now, looking at these days., they were living a good life. The children of these generations were all happy, and the sacrifices they made in their old lives were worth it.

"How old is old Lu?" The man looked at Old Lu's mental state. It seemed that he was at least eighty years old?

"Me..." after old Lu got older, his personality became more amiable, unlike the past when he always threw plates and bowls.

"I am already 105 years old. Next year, I will be 106 years old."

The man raised his head and looked at Old Lu again.

“You’re really old.”

“Haha...” Old Master Lu laughed. This was like eating another person’s chess piece. Although he was talking, he had never forgotten to play chess. Of course, his train of thought had not stopped.

“Oh right, where was I just now?”

“The chief talked about the war you fought in pingning back then. He said that you were still a small soldier back then. At that time, you were still not liberated,” the guard reminded Old Master Lu.

“Back then, when I just arrived in pingning, I was ambushed by the Japanese. We were wounded and crippled, and we didn’t even have a piece of cloth to bandage. It was a local family in pingning that saved us. Speaking of that family, it was also considered a big family in pingning back then. I wonder if it’s still there now?”

“His young master and I also played chess and drank tea. At that time, we even said that in the future, we would arrange a baby marriage for the child. However, after the war started, I ran around everywhere. Finally, I came to Hai City and married my own son. In the end, I gave birth to two sons. However, I still remember the agreement I made with my elder brother. After that, we even exchanged letters for a very long time. In the end, the people over there were really good, and they also gave birth to a son.”

“Both of them were sons, so there was no other way. Later on, my son got married, but he still gave birth to a son. I wrote them a reply, and they heard that he gave birth to another son. There was really no other way.”

“Later on, there was no more contact.”

“I just don’t know how that brother is doing now. If he’s still alive, he might not be around anymore, right?”

Yes, he probably won’t be around anymore. After all, there weren’t many people who could live like him.

However, his family’s life shouldn’t be bad. After all, that family, not to mention anything else, could be considered a prestigious family in the past. This family had quite a number of ancient treasures, and all of them were hidden away, just like him.

Moreover, that family was very strange. Their family head seemed to be selected according to special rules. Moreover, the person who could become the family head must have a first-class character or ability.

Old Master Lu said too much. He felt that his mouth was a little dry. He picked up the Teacup at the side. There was no water in the car.

“Matzi, go and pour us a pot of tea. It’s rare that someone can talk to this old man for a while.”

The guard really wanted to cry.

Chief, can we not lie so openly? When have you ever stopped talking? What do you mean no one talks to you? Everyone wants you to say a few more words, but you just don't say it. What can other people do? They can't pry open your mouth and fill it with water..., and then let you spit bubbles.

Not long after, the guard brought over a pot of tea. The tea leaves were ready to be drunk by these customers. Of course, they were all good tea leaves. The consumption here was quite high. He said he wanted tea, that Auntie..., she immediately brought over a pot of tea for him.

Chapter 2215: selling his granddaughter

Old Master Lu was really in a good mood today, but he just didn't have enough energy. After all, he was too old and his spirit was limited. He couldn't be compared to young people anywhere. However, he was happy today and made a good friend, although the age difference between the two of them was a few decades, old master Lu really liked this young man. Otherwise, with old master Lu's usual personality, he was arrogant, had a bad temper, and now he liked to take advantage of his seniority.

How could there be such a congenial conversation with a stranger.

"By the way, I haven't asked you, What's Your Name?" Old Master Lu held the Teacup in one hand, and the fold on his face was folded again. It was obvious that he was in a good mood.

"My name is Fang Yu."

Fang Yu?

"This name?" Old Master Lu put down the Teacup in his hand. "You're from Pingning, right?"

"Yes." The man nodded. "My ancestors are from Pingning."

"En..."

Old Master Lu picked up the Teacup again.

"Do you know Fang Zhihan?"

Fang Yu lightly touched the Teacup with his thin lips. Old Master Lu found a special tattoo on his wrist.

"He is my great-grandfather. He passed away thirty years ago."

"You are the current head of the Fang Family?"

Old Master Lu confirmed Fang Yu's identity as soon as he saw the tattoo.

"Yes." Fang Yu held his wrist again.

"Old Master said that the one who wanted to marry you was our Fang family."

"It's true." Master Lu reached out and patted Fang Yu's shoulder. You really look like your great-grandfather, especially those eyes. They look exactly like his.

“But it’s a pity.” He shook his head. “It’s a pity that I don’t see Big Brother Fang again.”

Master Lu looked deeply at Fang Yu again.

“Young man, are you married?”

Logically speaking, he was already twenty-six years old. He should be married and have children by now.

“No.” Fang Yu raised his cup and placed it by his lips. His every move had a unique tension, just like a calm lion.

He was currently recuperating. It was as if he was waiting for an opportunity to move. He could be quiet, but he could also eat people.

Old Master Lu did not ask Fang Yu anything else. However, he had a very good impression of Fang Yu. The rules of the Fang family were very strict. The men in the Fang family had to have their own responsibilities, the status of the women in the Fang family was higher than that of the men in the Fang family. Compared to the Lu family, the men in the Fang family had a deeper background. No one knew what dynasty the Fang family had existed in, old Master Lu didn’t know about this, so of course he didn’t ask.

But what was certain was that they had existed for many generations. It was possible that they had existed since the previous dynasties.

The rules of the Fang family were very strict.

Since ancient times, their family had been monogamous. The men in the Fang family absolutely couldn’t take in concubines. No, it was now called finding a mistress. He had learned these new words from watching television, when a man in the house got married, he had to earn money to support his wife. If his wife’s life was not good, if she did not eat well or dress well, in the heart of the man in the house, this woman’s man was a waste, he was just a good-for-nothing.

It was precisely because of the house rules that Old Master Lu was willing to get married in the first place. Even if he did not have a son, it did not matter. Didn’t he have a grandson?

In the end, it was a pity. He only had a son and no daughter. He only had a grandson and no granddaughter.

Even though several generations had passed, the rules of the Fang family had not changed. He knew this. The older the family, the more ancient the family rules were. Just like the current Fang family.., there was also the rule of choosing the family head.

And the more he looked at this young man, the more satisfied he was, and the more pleasing he was to the eye.

This was the best choice to be his great-grandson-in-law.

“I have a great-granddaughter who is four years younger than you,” old master Lu said. Of course, he was also carefully observing Fang Yu’s expression. If there was any unwillingness or reluctance on Fang Yu’s face.., he would not bring this up again.

He wanted the best and most complete search, and he would not find a man who was distracted.

Fang Yu lightly pursed his lips. He did not know what he was thinking?

“Lu Wei, is it?”

The guard at the side was about to bite off a piece of meat from the back of his hand.

He really wanted to scream. He wanted to scream. Chief, you can't do this. You Can't sell Miss Lu. She is my goddess. I Am Miss Lu, but I don't have any improper thoughts, at that time, because I didn't dare to think about it.

But now, I can often see my goddess. and the chief actually wants to sell his great-granddaughter. That's not someone else, that's Lu Wei. There's only one girl in the entire Lu family, the chief., how could he bear to do that?

And the more he listened, the more his heart bled. He was almost bleeding to death. Oh, did he still want him to live.

Actually, how could old master Lu Bear to part with her? Of course, he could not bear to. He could not bear to part with his great-granddaughter more than anyone else. However, whether it was him, Lu Jin, or Lu Yi, they could not accompany Xun Xun for the rest of his life.

Fang Yu was the most outstanding young man he had seen in all these years. Of course, it had a lot to do with the rules of the Fang family. The women in the Fang family lived very well, and the men in the Fang family doted on their wives very much.

Furthermore, he had made an agreement with the Fang family. No matter how many generations had passed, he had to fulfill his original promise.

Lu Wei had no idea that she had been sold by her family's favorite great-grandfather for free.

She was in the kitchen making delicious food for grandfather Lu. Grandfather Lu's portion had long been prepared and was now hot. Of course, he still had to pay attention to what he was eating, they could not eat too hard, so the food prepared for grandfather Lu was always soft and digested.

Not long after, she took off her apron and carried it to grandfather Lu's place. There was a sunlight greenhouse there and a large bamboo forest behind it. When she designed this sunlight greenhouse., she had thought that she could bring grandfather Lu over in the future. Grandfather Lu loved to play chess, so she had specially prepared a stone chessboard for him. If not for the stone being too heavy., she really wanted to give great-grandfather another stone chessboard.

That stone chessboard could be used for chess and tea. Of course, it could also be used as a dining table. The table was large and smooth, and one could see the bamboo forest outside. Although it was winter now., however, this bamboo forest was still green. The entire inn was filled with many evergreen trees. It was also filled with a vibrant green in this bleak winter.

Chapter 2216: this was a house

As long as she sat inside, even if she didn't do anything, she would still feel comfortable. She didn't know if it was because of the bamboo here, or the trees planted here, or perhaps it could be said that..., the feng shui here was very good.

In short, living here, she couldn't help but forget all the annoying things.

Lu Wei placed all the food she had brought on the stone table, but she did not notice the black figure outside. To her, it was somewhat familiar, and she had forgotten about it.

The guard at the side wanted to say something, but he did not dare to say it. What else could he say?

Could he really tell Lu Wei, Miss Lu, that he had been betrayed by his biological grandfather.

Miss Lu was only twenty-two years old. Some women only got married when they were in their thirties. In fact, she could have gotten married when she was in her thirties. Even if she didn't get married, she would still be living a good life.

In the eyes of the guards, a goddess like Lu Wei really shouldn't get married.

A goddess didn't belong to a man. A goddess belonged to everyone.

Lu Wei's attention was focused on the stone table, so she really did not notice the guard's complicated gaze.

When the dishes were placed on the table, old master Lu smiled and nodded. He was very satisfied with today's dishes.

He extended his hand to the guard, and the guard helped him sit down.

"House, come and have dinner with me."

The guard could not help but twitch his lips. The house did not even have a good defense. Could it be that the chief liked to call it that now.

His name was matzi, and he called people house.

In fact, he did not know that it was not that old master Lu really wanted to give people nicknames. It was just that he was too old, and he was forgetting them more and more.

He was afraid that he would forget their names, so he called them simply so that he could still remember them.

Just like mats, he would never forget that his new guard was called mats.

And the house was even simpler. No matter what, it was impossible for him to forget the house. He was just a little forgetful now, and he didn't have any old Parkinson's disease yet.

As soon as the greenhouse door opened, a man walked in from outside. It was an unfamiliar footsteps.

"En..."how could Lu Wei not know that old master Lu had a guest here? Moreover, Old Master Lu had just arrived today. How could there be a guest here.

She raised her face, only to meet a pair of amber-colored slender eyes. There was also a well-defined face. Although it could not be described as handsome, it was an extremely discerning face.

Her pupils constricted. She unintentionally felt that the dragon-shaped jade hanging on her neck was a little hot.

“Xunxun,” old master Lu called out to his granddaughter.

“Mm.” Lu Wei hurriedly lowered her head. She did not embarrass herself too much.

The security guards at the side really wanted to cry but had no tears. Look, this man’s looks were much worse than the eldest and second young masters of the Lu family. This had frightened Miss Lu, who had grown up among beauties.

Chief, we can’t do this. No one can cheat their own biological grandson, but you’re cheating their own biological great-granddaughter.

“House, come and sit.” Old Master Lu pointed to the seat next to him.

“Thank you, Old Master.”

The man’s voice was slightly hoarse. There was a unique charm that only he could have. Therefore, in the ears of others, it was quite easy to remember the tone.

Lu Wei sat on the right side of Old Master Lu. Old Master Lu seemed to be particularly happy today. He placed his hand on his great-granddaughter’s hair, “This is my great-granddaughter, Lu Wei. She cooks very well. She can be compared to a five-star chef.”

The guard secretly puffed out his chest, that was because not only was his goddess beautiful, but her cooking was also very good “Xunxun, he is the house, the child of your great-grandfather’s old friend when he was young. He is also your great-grandfather’s Savior. If it was his family, your great-grandfather would have died a long time ago. Your grandfather would not have been born, and it would have been impossible for him to have your father. You and your two brothers would not have come into this world, so this is your great-grandfather’s benefactor, and also your benefactor.”

Lu Wei almost choked to death on her own saliva

This... couldn’t be said that way, right?

Although it wasn’t wrong to say that, why was this theory so strange?

Also, what was the name of the house?

House, house..

Lu Wei really wanted to rub her forehead. Normal people wouldn’t call it that. Could it be that this man was really called a house? However, looking at the man’s eyes, it was clearly very normal.

However, this name was really difficult to describe in a few words.

The old man was eating the food on the table. He was in a good mood today, so he ate a little more. He also ate two bowls of rice.

Lu Wei also let out a sigh of relief. Her great-grandfather's appetite had not been very good these past few years. If he could eat an extra bowl of rice today, it proved that he was right to come here. Moreover, it was obvious that his face, which was always sullen., there was a hint of a smile on his face.

Mr. House across from him ate very slowly. He did not eat too much. It was not that he did not like these dishes. In fact, Mr. House was the least picky about food. In his eyes, those delicacies of the mountains and seas., he might as well go and eat a bowl of noodles.

The reason why he did not eat too much was because old master Lu seemed to like eating. He had never touched the dishes that old master Lu liked to eat, and his understanding made old master Lu even more satisfied.

In this era, there were not many young people who had the responsibility to respect the elderly.

He really couldn't find a child as good as the Lu family.

There was no rush. He would test them a few more times.

On the dining table, they didn't say anything about this matter. Even the guards didn't dare to say a word. When he first came, the bureau chief had always eaten with him, which made him excited for a long time, he thought that he could eat delicious food every day from now on.

Indeed, he ate delicious food every day. However, the problem was that he had to face the old chief with a long face every day. When he ate at the Lu family, he basically did not say a word, they really agreed with that sentence.

He ate without saying a word and slept without saying a word.

However, the few years he had been a guard for grandfather Lu really did not suffocate him to death.

It was fine if there were more people, but if there were fewer people, then it would be torture.

No matter how delicious the food was, he had never seen him gain weight in all these years.

It was like this, but it was less like that.

People really could not be perfect, right?

Old Master Lu finished eating and stood up. When Lu Wei wanted to help him up, she was faster than him. The big hand reached out and steadily helped old master Lu up, lu Wei's hand was still in the air.

Chapter 2217: I'll find you

It's fine, it's fine. Old Master Lu's walk was quite smooth. As long as he could walk on his own, he would definitely not sit in a wheelchair. The Doctor said that his mobility was currently limited. After all, it was an indisputable fact that he was old, however, old master Lu's physical function was quite good. He could walk, sleep, and eat. If the body's nutrition could keep up, then he would be an old man who was not lacking in energy.

Moreover, the family also paid great attention to the health of the father and son. The old man himself also understood some health care knowledge. In the past, he was quite picky and would even steal the family's roast chicken to eat, later, he gradually said that he would stay away from these high-fat and high-oil foods.

In addition, he was already so old. Every day, he would insist on practicing tai chi for a while, so his body was now very strong. He was the representative figure of the entire hai city.

Because he was already an old man, he was now almost 106 years old, an old military officer, and an old revolutionary. In the past, he would go out and give lectures, give lessons to children, and tell some stories about the anti-japanese war at that time, it was also to make them not forget how the good times came about. It was the blood and tears of the older generation that were exchanged for their lives.

Of course, it was also to make every generation remember what was called National Shame.

And that kind of mistake would never be made again.

The house master helped Old Master Lu into the house.

His hands were very big, and his bones were very strong. There was also a very special tattoo on his wrist. If he did not roll up his sleeves, it would not be visible.

This was the proof of his identity. As long as this tattoo appeared on a person's body, it would accompany that person for the rest of their life. Of course, this tattoo couldn't be removed. If the chosen family head really committed a very serious mistake., it was also impossible to forgive. Then, in addition to being chased out, he would also be stripped of the identity and rights of the family head. The piece of skin on his wrist was being dug out.

Therefore, Old Master Lu was right. The more ancient the family was, the more they paid attention to the family style. Of course, the family rules were more important than their lives.

The Fang family was just like this. They still had their own family head. Even the children of the Fang family had their own special education methods. They were different from the ordinary children outside.

Even if the children were of poor aptitude, the Fang family could allow them to reach a certain level of achievement in certain fields.

The people of the Fang family did not have to be mediocre, nor did they need to be mediocre.

After grandfather Lu sat down, he held his great-granddaughter's hand, "Xunxun, help your great-grandfather deliver the house. He played chess with your great-grandfather for a very long time today. Your great-grandfather has never played chess so happily in a very long time."

"Okay," Lu Wei agreed. The guard standing at the side really wanted to cry.

He really wanted to say, "Miss Lu, can we not go? That would really be like a sheep entering the tiger's mouth."

However, no matter how he screamed in his heart and stared at her, Lu Wei still went out with the house in the end. Old Master Lu was smiling, and now he was smiling like a Maitreya Buddha.

When Lu Wei came out, the cold air made her shiver involuntarily. It was still warm in the house. In the inn, central air-conditioning was used in summer, and in winter, geothermal heating was used, the temperature in the room was very comfortable all year round. However, no matter how comfortable it was, it should not be forgotten.

It was winter, and Hai City still had four distinct seasons.

Therefore, it was still cold outside. A hand reached out. Before Lu Wei could react, the hand was already placed on her neck.

She could feel the calluses on her fingers. When they touched her skin, it gave her goosebumps.

Fang Yu's fingers had already found Lu Wei's carotid artery. He could feel the temperature coming from her body, as well as the necklace that his fingers had pulled out. There was also a small jade pendant hanging under the necklace. It was in the shape of a dragon.

When he saw that the dragon-shaped jade was still there, his amber eyes were instantly stained with something?

He then put the Jade back.

"Take it well. Don't take it off."

Lu Wei was still a little confused.

"You, why are you back?"

She had actually wanted to ask this question just now.

Fang Yu's gaze had always been on Lu Wei's face, and his fingers had also been placed on her extremely long black hair.

"I'm back..."

"Looking for you."

His voice was hoarse, as if he had been immersed in red wine for many years. In an instant, it made people feel embarrassed.

Obviously, Lu Wei was already embarrassed.

I'll just send him here. I'll go take care of my great-grandfather. Lu Wei didn't know what she was still standing there for. She was even more afraid that this man would say something.

Fang Yu saw that she ran faster than a rabbit, so he walked back to his room.

Old Master Lu lived in the house with the big greenhouse. It was the quietest and the quietest.

Lu Wei walked in. Old Master Lu was resting with his eyes closed, but the television was on. In the past, Old Master Lu didn't watch TV, but now that he was old, he couldn't do many things, so, he watched TV, listened to the news, and then listened to the drama. Of course, Old Master Lu also liked watching war movies. Recently, there were a few movies, and they were all works of conscience, and some of them were produced by Linlang. Old Master Lu had a very high evaluation of them, recently, it happened to be a continuous broadcast, so old master Lu liked to stay in front of the TV.

Lu Wei brought a basin of hot water and placed it beside grandfather Lu's feet. Then, she rolled up her sleeves and helped him wash his feet, grandfather Lu loved his great-granddaughter the most. Of course, this great-granddaughter also loved her great-grandfather the most.

Grandfather Lu touched the top of his great-granddaughter's head. It was difficult to raise a little cotton-padded jacket, but girls were very thoughtful. They were unlike Lu Qi and Lu Guang. Those two brats had grown up, and their wings had also grown hard. They could also fly, however, they had started to abandon their great-grandfathers. Now, no one knew where they were. It was his family's Little Xun who was better off. She had been accompanying her grandfather all this time.

The security guards were very clear about old master Lu's current expression. Old Master Lu was most likely thinking of his two great-grandsons again. He said that they were unfilial and did not come to visit his grandfather. They knew how to fly outside every day, his wings had grown hard. As expected, he couldn't stay. Who knew when he would die? He might not even be able to see his two grandsons.

Every time old master Lu wanted to anger his grandsons, he would have this expression. So now, as long as he pulled his face and glared at them, the security guards would be able to confirm that he missed and despised them, this was the old chief blaming his two grandsons in his heart.

But Lu Qi and Lu Guang, he was the one who let them out.

Chapter 2218: this house is good

What men are ambitious, what men want to carve out a world for themselves, what men can not rely on the protection of their families, what are the prospects of squatting at home every day? Their Lu family does not want this kind of useless.., everything they want is to be like their father, to carve out a world for themselves. Of course, there is another point, that is, the men of the Lu family absolutely can not become actors, lu Qin was a good example at that time. His ability was completely insufficient to prop up the ambitions in his heart. In the end, he had harmed others.

As for the two grandchildren in the family, they were much better off than their second uncle Lu Qin back then. At the very least, they could rely on Lu Yi to grow up little by little, of course, there were also the best resources that Yan Huan provided for them.

However, Old Master Lu was really thinking too much. Lu Qi and Lu Guang did not like acting. Since they were young, they had never inherited their mother's talent in acting. Instead, they were very good at finding talent in this area, they had won an award at such a young age. Old Master Lu was treating them differently at this time. His grandchildren were definitely not allowed to step into that circle. However, his granddaughter was different. She could do whatever she wanted to do, if she wanted to become an actress, all the resources were prepared for her great-granddaughter.

Lu Wei did not choose this path in the end. Yan Huan had taught her daughter to be a chef. Of course, Lu Wei also liked this. Compared to filming, she liked the inn she owned more.

“Xun Xun.”

Old Master Lu patted his granddaughter’s head. “That house is very good. You two should get along well.”

Lu Wei was stunned

What did great-grandfather mean.

The house was nice. Of course, the house here was nice, but why did she want to get along with the house?

After thinking for a long time, she finally understood. This house was not that house, but that house.

However, what did he mean by getting along? Or was it that he had started to become a matchmaker.

“Okay, I got it,” Lu Wei promised. She would not refute her great-grandfather’s words now. However, getting along with him was getting along with him. Getting along with him did not mean that anything would happen.

However, why did she feel that this matter was not that simple? Also, what that man said.

He came back to look for her.

What was he looking for her for?

To repay his kindness?

However, she did not feel that she had done anything. Moreover, if she wanted to repay his kindness, she placed her hand on her neck. This seemed to be a form of gratitude. Although she did not understand jade, she could feel it, this piece of jade should not be priceless. It might be even more expensive. It was a priceless treasure.

Moreover, a man like that had always carried it with him. It was impossible for it to be something cheap. She knew this.

So they were even now.

She didn’t tell Old Master Lu about these things, and of course, she couldn’t tell anyone. This was her little secret, and also a little secret that she kept in her heart..

Lu Wei picked up the basin and walked out. At night, Old Master Lu had guards here, so she wasn’t worried. The nanny in the house lived on the other side, old Master Lu’s daily life was taken care of by the two of them, so old master Lu wasn’t that hard to please. As long as they didn’t provoke him, it was fine. When he was happy, he was a very kind old man.

It was this old man who sometimes could choke people to death with his words.

Lu Wei originally wanted to go back, but in the end, when she arrived at the bar counter, she saw the new bartender sitting at the bar counter. It was the bartender on the night shift. This bartender was also an honest girl. She and Xiang Xiang worked in shifts. In fact, the night shift was not that difficult to work. Compared to the day shift, the night shift was actually much easier, at night, there were not many people in the inn. Almost all of them were free until morning.

It was not that there were not many people who came to stay in the inn at night. Sometimes, there were even a few because they opened an inn. It was a day and night palace business.

“Miss Lu,” the new bartender immediately perked up when he saw Lu Wei. Although she was only on the night shift and had rested during the day, she was still not in good spirits. If Lu Wei had not come.., perhaps she would have already fallen asleep.

“I want to check if there is any record of a Mr. Fang staying here recently?”

Lu Wei was also glad that she was not in Xiangxiang right now. Otherwise, with Xiangxiang’s terrifying eyesight, it was inevitable that she would not notice anything?

“Wait a moment, I’ll check right away.”

As the bartender spoke, he turned on the computer and started to check.

And very quickly, he found out. After all, there were very few people with the surname Fang, and there was only one guest with the surname Fang in the inn.

“Yes, Miss Lu.”

The bartender said year after year, “There is a guest with the surname Fang, Fang Yu. He is our big guest, our 800 class guest, and the time is one year.”

“I got it.” Lu Wei lowered her head and brushed her hair. “I’ll go back first. You have to work harder.”

The bartender dared to say that it was hard. In fact, it was really not hard at all. She did not feel that it was hard at all. She slept during the day and only changed shifts at night. When there was no one around, she could also take a nap. Moreover, the salary was high, she rented a house with her boyfriend outside, and the rent was not very good. Moreover, the room here would be filled for her. Moreover, she and her boyfriend both worked the night shift, so when she wanted to find a job, she found a night shift job.

She really found it. Of course, her job was much better than her boyfriend’s job. Of course, it was also more profitable than her boyfriend’s job. A month was easy, and she had a lot of money in her account, moreover, she could also do some part-time jobs during the day, which would not affect her rest. Sometimes, she could even bring her job here to do it. The boss would not care about it. Of course, it was also to encourage her. Otherwise.., she would have to work here at night every day and stay there.

Therefore, where would she find such a good job and such a good boss.

If it weren’t for the fact that she didn’t need anyone here, she would have really wanted her boyfriend to come along. She turned on the computer again, and on the computer, there was still that person’s registration information.

En, Fang Yu had a strange surname and a strange name. However, he was also a rich person, so he directly charged a few hundred thousand yuan into his account.

With such an expensive price, there were still a lot of people living here. She was really envious of Lu Wei. Not only was she beautiful, how could she still earn money like this? She wasn't afraid of even how much the rent was, sometimes, she could receive hundreds of thousands of Yuan in this month. Could it be that she could not afford to pay the rent? No matter what, Lu Wei could earn hundreds of thousands of Yuan in a month. This money would be enough for an average family, it would be more than a few years' income.

Chapter 2219: how wonderful my granddaughter is However, she still didn't know Lu Wei very well. If she knew about Lu Wei's background, she wouldn't think like this. Lu Wei had been worth billions since she was born. If this money was only used to invest, that wasn't right.., she didn't need to make any investments either. She just needed to deposit it in the bank. After a month, she would have a lot of money.

Lu Wei opened this inn not to make money, but for her own business. Of course, she also liked to run her own small business. Although it was not as fast as her second brother making money, she could still rely on this inn to support herself.

Lu Wei closed the door and leaned against it.

After a long while, she sighed softly and pulled out the necklace that was hanging around her neck and the small dragon-shaped jade pendant on the necklace.

Fang Yu?

Yes, Fang Yu. It turned out that his name was Fang Yu and not the house. However, she had forgotten that her great-grandfather was now old and liked to give others a simplified name. Otherwise, he was afraid that she would not be able to remember it.

In the end, he called the guard such a nice name, and in the end, he called him a mat.

And Fang Yu was also called the house.

And what did great-grandfather mean by that?

Lu Sheng really understood now.

What was good with that house? Why did they have to get along well? Could it be that great-grandfather was randomly choosing a couple? There wouldn't be anything between her and the house?

For some reason, she had been tossing and turning all night and couldn't fall asleep. She didn't fall asleep until it was almost dawn. When she woke up, it was around seven o'clock. She sat up, she patted her face and squinted her eyes. She didn't want to see the light or get up, but in the end, she still got up. She still had to prepare breakfast. Even if she wanted to sleep, there was still old master Lu. There were still so many mouths waiting to eat?

Her great-grandfather woke up early. It was very normal. He woke up at 7:30 am and slept at 9 pm. It had always been like this.

And she didn't forget that there was a big guest among them. He even brought three meals a day. She just didn't understand.

This person was worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, but why did he become a vagrant in the first place.

However, she naturally would not spread such disgraceful things around. No matter who it was, there would always be a difficult road in one's life. Perhaps this was the most difficult road for that man, but.., these were the private matters of others..

She walked into the kitchen. She was still a little sleepy, but she had already rolled up her sleeves and put on an apron. The breakfast was the easiest to prepare, so there was no need to make too many tricks.

In the morning, she wrapped up the Xiaolongbao, then made thin meat porridge with preserved eggs. She also fried a bean sprout and shredded radish salad.

She sent these dishes to old master Lu, but to her surprise, her great-grandfather was still sitting with the House Master. The two of them were sitting on the stone table outside, playing chess again, old Master Lu was still wearing his training clothes. Although he was old, he was still very energetic. Moreover, it was indeed much warmer here than outside. Otherwise, if he were to mess around like this., he would really get sick from the cold. It was very cold outside, but the temperature inside was about 25 to 26 degrees Celsius. He could totally wear this single garment.

Moreover, it could be seen that master Lu was still maintaining his previous habits. When he woke up, it was around six o'clock. He would wear his own training clothes and practice a set of Taiji fist, it had not stopped for decades. This could also be the reason why his body was so good now. It was because he had not forgotten to take good health care. Of course, he did not need to take any medicine. Taking medicine could cure his illness, however, the others had also said that medicine was poisonous.

Lu Wei had learned many ways to make health-preserving soup from Grandma Gu. From time to time, she would make it for the old man to drink. The old man would also drink it until his face was red. Some of the ingredients in the soup could reduce blood pressure and snow sugar, the old man's body had always been nourished by eating, not by drinking medicine, to soften the blood vessels.

Therefore, there was nothing wrong with his body that allowed him to live a long life. It was not a coincidence that he was so energetic. It was due to many factors.

If Lu Jin and ye Shuyun had followed the same path as the old man and his son, they might have lived a long life as well.

Putting aside whether they could live to a hundred years old or not, it would not be a big problem if they could live to a ripe old age of eighty.

Lu Wei looked down at the food in her hands. Fortunately, she had brought a lot of food. Her great-grandfather and the big guests were all here, so she did not need to bother to prepare another set.

The people in the kitchen were specially invited by Lu Wei, and they all stayed in the Big Hotel. Usually, they would clean the kitchen and help her. If she was not there, they would help other cooks, they also did things like washing dishes and pots.

“My great-granddaughter’s cooking is not bad, right? Have a taste.” Grandfather Lu was 100 times satisfied with his great-granddaughter. He really felt that this world.., however, there were not many children who could be as outstanding as his great-granddaughter. Wasn’t that outstanding? His great-granddaughter was not boasting. She had a good personality and good looks. She was also a good cook. Of course, as the child of triplets, she had the genes of multiple births. If she was lucky.., he might really be able to give birth to another triplet.

Moreover, he had already given birth to a second child. If he gave birth to two this time, he would have given birth to four.

He walked a few steps more than others. Where could he find such a good girl?

“Old Master Lu is right,” house’s answer made old master Lu very proud. Of course, he was also very satisfied.

He was naturally very confident in his great-granddaughter. Of course, he was also not bad to the house’s young man. He was such a good granddaughter. Even if others begged him, he would not be willing to marry her, if it were not for the fact that he might not be able to live through these few years, he would not have let his great-granddaughter be kidnapped by another man so early.

And he was really a little worried. That was why, while he was still in this world, he had to find a good family member for himself. It was also to find a good man, a good man who could take care of her for the rest of her life.

That’s right, grandfather Lu seemed to be a little anxious recently.

It was just that this granddaughter of his seemed to have been taught too well by them. How many days had it been? The two young men hadn’t made any progress at all. Their children were all extremely popular.

Chapter 2220: Old Master was about to die

Just like himself, he had only met his old wife once before he married her back. At that time, when Lu Jin saw ye Shuyun, he was astounded. He did not marry her, but snatched her away from ye Chuji’s hands, he snatched her child bride away.

However, it was a good snatch. Ye Chuji did not have that kind of feelings for him as a child bride and only treated her as his sister. That was why he let Lu Jin snatch her away. As for Lu Yi, he was even more ruthless than his father, he directly took the initiative to strike first. He clearly knew that he did not like actors and hated them very much. However, even if he married an actor, he had also accurately predicted that as long as the men of the Lu family got married, they would not be able to divorce, therefore, he gave him a first strike, then a report, then a marriage certificate. In the end, even if he angered himself to death, he would not be able to do anything about it.

However, although he didn't like Yan Huan at first, this woman was really not bad. Not to mention anything else, she had given birth to such good three children for the Lu family, they could also make the Lu family worship her like a Buddha.

As for Lu Qi and Lu Guang, he wasn't worried.

Lu Qi had already decided on a little wife for himself. She was mayor Gao's only daughter. She had good grades, good looks, good family affairs, and a better personality. She was compatible with his outstanding eldest grandson, as for Lu Guang, he was even less worried. He didn't know who Lu Guang's personality was like. Could it be that those people from the Su family had somehow raised a smiling little fox? Of course, he was also very popular with women, if he wanted to get married, it would be a matter of minutes.

But why was his great-granddaughter so disobedient.

She was clearly a very smart child in the past, but he had already made this matter so obvious. Why, couldn't she see it? She gave him such a tepid attitude.

Old Master Lu was experienced. It wasn't like he couldn't see that the house had intentions toward his great-granddaughter, and it was also different from others.

It was this silent attitude that made him not know what to do.

Perhaps the young people nowadays were thinking of watching for a few more years, spending a few more years together, and getting to know each other for a few more years.

A few years. They still had a few decades to go. They still had a few decades to wait. However, he couldn't do it. He might only have a few years of life, or he might not have him in a few years, he had to finish this matter before he died. Otherwise, he would really die with a grievance.

Lu Wei was still busy in the kitchen, but Ming Liang's mother rushed in.

"Miss Lu, it's bad. The old man fell."

With a clang, the pan in Lu Wei's hand fell to the ground, and the pan spilled all over the floor.

Her expression changed, and she ran out without caring about anything.

Ming Liang's mother quickly followed her, but then she turned back to check if the fire was turned off. She couldn't be careless. If she wasn't careful, there would be a fire.

Lu Wei did not dare to stop running. The wind blew on her face from time to time, causing some unbearable pain.

"What's Wrong?" Someone grabbed her arm.

"Something happened to my great-grandfather."

Lu Wei was in a daze. If something really happened to her great-grandfather, what should she do? What should she do?

"Don't worry, I'll go with you."

Fang Yu quickly grabbed Lu Wei's shoulder and then her hand. Lu Wei's arm was trembling, and her palm was covered in cold sweat. It was clear that she was really scared and worried, she was also scared.

It was because of the force from her hand that Lu Wei did not lose her bearings and could still remain calm.

Of course, when they arrived, grandfather Lu was still lying on the ground. The guards were so anxious that they were about to cry, but they did not know what to do?

He was too old and did not dare to move. If he were to fall and break a bone, he would break even more if he moved.

Grandfather great... Lu Wei was really scared. She quickly let go of Fang Yu's hand and ran over. She did not know what to do.

She had been squatting beside grandfather Lu for half a day. She was already like this. Could she still move?

Grandfather Lu heard his granddaughter's voice and opened his eyes. However, he did not look like he was about to die. His face was red and he was starting to say his last words.

"Xun Xun..."

Old Master Lu and his son reached out their hands. Lu Wei quickly clenched old master Lu's palm. She was really scared, and she was even more scared.

Old Master Lu coughed. His old face did not seem to have much color left. Even the person who spoke was weak.

"Grandpa Zeng might not live for long."

"No, no. Grandpa Zeng can still talk for decades." Lu Wei shook her head. She stood up in a flurry and quickly asked the guards to find a doctor and an ambulance. They did not dare to move old master Lu. He was already so old, and the bones in his body were already very fragile. If he really fell and broke, his whole body might be fractured. If they moved him randomly, it would aggravate the injuries on his body, and they were not professionals, so they really did not dare to move.

"There's no need..."

Old Master Lu patted the back of his granddaughter's hand again, "There's no need to call an ambulance. I've already lived to such an old age, and I've become an old man who won't die. Look, my comrades have all left. Even Old Man Su and old man ye have died for so many years. I think they miss me too..." when he said this., not only did it scare Lu Wei, but it also scared the guards.

Oh No, this was bad. The old chief was really doomed this time. The older generation had said that if an older person saw a dead person, they would not be far from death. Could the chief really be dying?

Old Master Lu coughed again and looked at Fang Yu.

"The house..."

“Old Master Lu, I’m here.” Fang Yu also squatted down in front of old master Lu. Old Master Lu closed his eyes. When he opened them again, he was almost out of breath. But why was his face so red.

He coughed again.

“I had an agreement with your great-grandfather in the past, but the two generations did not complete it. Until your generation, we can finally fulfill the agreement.”

“My family’s Xun Xun Can Be Your Wife, okay?”

“Okay,” Fang Yu agreed without any reluctance.

“Great-grandfather...”

Lu Wei wanted to say something, but when she saw grandfather Lu like this, she did not dare to say anything else. She was afraid, she did not dare to say anything, and she did not dare to refute. Even if great-grandfather sold her, she could not object.
