

Chapter 2221: He was faking it

"Xunxun..." Old Master Lu turned to his granddaughter again, and his words were smooth. It looked like he was going to die soon, and now he was saying his last words.

"This was Grandpa's promise. You will help Grandpa fulfill it, right?"

Lu Wei's red lips touched lightly, and then she nodded. Only Grandpa could be good. She was willing to do anything, even if she was sold.

Moreover, this might not be a good thing. It was the old man's last words.

The most doting father and son in their lives was his great-granddaughter. How could Lu Wei make his great-grandfather suffer? How could she make him suffer? How could she make him die in peace.

"That's good..." grandfather Lu closed his eyes again. It seemed that everything was relaxed. He finally had no regrets.

"Great-grandfather is finally relieved. He can die in peace."

Lu Wei was stunned when she saw Old Master Lu and his son close their eyes. Her great-grandfather was gone..

Suddenly, she felt a pain in her head, and all her strength was drained in an instant.

Fang Yu reached out to support her, so that she would not fall. He was the one who lowered his head, and his amber eyes looked a little powerless.

"You're scaring your granddaughter so much, aren't you going to get up?"

Fang Yu had never seen such an old man in his life. He was already more than a hundred years old, yet he still loved to play more than a young man. Did he have to scare his granddaughter to death?

Old Master Lu suddenly opened his eyes and sat up as well. Who said that his old arms and legs were useless? He could lie down and sit down. His movements were simply natural, and he was not inferior to a young man at all, he wandered around here every day. When he wandered around, his red face made the younger ones want to die.

He sat down and stood up in one go. He did not need anyone to help him up. Every movement was strenuous.

"How do you know?" Old Master Lu reached out and touched his great-granddaughter's head. It's true. Xun Xun, don't blame great-grandfather. Doesn't great-grandfather know your character?"

If Great-grandfather didn't force you, you would have remained indifferent. If your great-grandfather really didn't see you get married, and believed in great-grandfather, great-grandfather's taste wouldn't be bad, your great-grandfather wouldn't harm you.

Fang Yu's face had a rare expression. It could be said that he was helpless, but it could also be said that he was powerless,

"Old Master, before you pretend to be sick, can you eat less?" Your Face was flushed, and you didn't look like you were about to die. "Also, when your eyes are fine, don't open them carelessly. It's too fake. Besides, your chest is still heaving."

"Then why didn't he notice?" Old Master Lu pointed at Lu Wei, then at the Guard who was still standing at the side.

"They were worried and confused."

Fang Yu knew from the very beginning. If it wasn't because he was too concerned and worried, with old master Lu's poor acting skills, who could he fool? Old Master Lu was really too old. If he wasn't careful., a fall might have killed him, but since it was a fall scene, could they be more professional? Could they be more pretentious? If you fell, don't be so radiant., could they be more pained? Could it be that they were too old, and their nerves had aged along with it, so they had completely forgotten what pain felt like?

"What are you looking at?" Grandfather Lu turned around and glared at the guard. "Come over and help me up. How long do you want to sit here?"

The guard quickly came over and helped grandfather Lu up.

"Chief, how could you lie to me?"

The guard had a bitter expression on his face. He had almost been scared out of his wits just now, but now his little heart was still thumping violently.

"It's your own stupidity."

Old Master Lu was not polite at all. "Why can't others see it? Why Can't You See It?"

"I never thought that you would lie to your own granddaughter."

The guard was bold and stubborn.

Old Master Lu reached out and patted the guard's head, "Who said that I cheated my granddaughter? This is to find a good future for my great-granddaughter. Why are the young people nowadays so gentle? They don't have the decisiveness I had in the past."

"Alright, help me to rest." Old Master Lu pushed the guard. "Can you be more observant? They are just a couple bonding. Why are you standing here? There is no need for such a big light cannon like you here."

The guard was sincere. The Tears on his face flowed like a small river. Just now, his heart was almost scared to death, but now, it was broken.

His goddess was going to become someone else's.

The two noodle tears flowed directly to his heart. They also flowed into the nightmare of being heartbroken before he had his first love.

“Great-grandfather...” Lu Wei suddenly sat up. She quickly pulled the blanket away and wanted to get down, but a big hand was placed on her shoulder.

“Don’t worry, your grandfather will be fine.”

“Fine?” Lu Wei still didn’t believe it. She seemed to have had a terrible nightmare. She dreamed that she went to attend her great-grandfather’s memorial ceremony. Her great-grandfather had turned from a living person.., to a black and white frame.

“He’s fine.” Fang Yu pulled a chair over and sat down in front of Lu Wei.

“He’s faking it.”

Faking it? Lu Wei’s eyes immediately widened. How could my great-grandfather be faking it? This was impossible. She didn’t recognize him, nor did she recognize him. His great-grandfather was actually half-sick to scare her

He was pretending. Fang Yu reached out again and placed his hand on Lu Wei’s neck. Lu Wei instinctively shrank her body and tightened the collar of her clothes.

“Why did my great-grandfather pretend?”

Lu Wei should have realized something by now. There was nothing she could do. Old Master Lu’s acting was really terrible. From the beginning to the end, he was pretending. He was not acting professionally at all. At the very least, his expression was too good, even his words were full of energy. He didn’t look like he was about to die. He was just giving his last words.

And she was really fooled by her great-grandfather.

When she thought of the matter that old master Lu asked her to agree to, she was so mad that she wanted to scratch the wall.

“Well, we can discuss it. It doesn’t count.”

Lu Wei wasn’t so thick-skinned that she had to throw herself at a man. Besides, she had never thought of getting married so early. According to her thoughts.., she would definitely wait until she was over 26 before she considered getting married. Moreover, she didn’t have a boyfriend yet, nor did she have any intention of getting one. What she wanted was a grandfather.., a man like her father.

He would have a tall figure and a face that wasn’t too handsome, but had character. Of course, he had to be responsible. She really hadn’t thought too much about other things.

Chapter 2222: was for real

Moreover, her grandfather had actually sold her off like that, and how much was she worth?

“I’ve said it before...” Fang Yu placed his hand on Lu Wei’s hair again, and his amber eyes also narrowed slightly.

“I’m back.”

“Because of you.”

Although the process was somewhat out of my expectations, I would still do it.

At this moment, Lu Wei felt like she had a cat's paw in her heart. She really wanted to scratch this man's face with her paw. How could this be? was this a forced marriage or something?

She had yet to say that she was willing to do it?

“We haven't known each other for long.”

“Time will pass eventually.”

“We're still not too familiar with each other.”

“We'll become familiar with each other after a long time.”

“We might not be suitable for each other.”

“What do you think is not suitable for each other?”

Lu Wei pulled up the blanket and covered her face. She admitted that her mouth was stupid and that she could not win against him. However, wasn't it strange that she would just hand over her entire life to a man? And she could not accept such a thing.

However, she just could not win against this man.

She grabbed a corner of the blanket, just like when she was young. As long as there was something she could not figure out, she would cover herself up tightly. She had to pinch the corner of the blanket to fall asleep. She did not know how old she had grown before she could change it.

And she realized that she was actually a little relaxed after pinching the corner of the blanket.

But even if she denied everything, she could not deny her own heart. There was still some joy in her heart.

Could it be..

She shook her head and, like a little turtle, hid herself inside a turtle shell. She heard the sound of footsteps leaving and then the sound of the door closing.

She pulled the blanket back until she breathed in the fresh air outside. She also took a long breath.

She turned over and counted her fingers. But there was still something in her heart that made her happy, made her like it, and made her want to reject it.

She asked herself

Do I really have to reject them?

She also asked herself

Are you really not tempted at all?

She could lie to others, but she could not lie to herself.

It was as if she liked those amber eyes.

She sat up again, pulled back the blanket, put on her shoes, and ran outside. She still had to go see her great-grandfather.

When she arrived, what she saw was her great-grandfather, who was about to fall to his death and had already given his last words. He was holding a drumstick in one hand and watching a war movie, enjoying himself, he even said proudly, "Beat this son of a bitch to death, and the drumstick in his hand is more exciting than anyone else's."

He looked like he was about to die, and he looked like he was half-dead from the fall. were they all people who had said their living wills?

His face was flushed red and he was full of energy. His eyes were bright and piercing.

Old Master Lu had originally thought that the guards had come. He had only stolen a chicken drumstick. was there a need to be so cautious? was there a need to pull a long face like how he had taken his money?

In this life, one naturally had to eat and drink as one wished. One couldn't eat this and one couldn't move that. It was just a wasted life. Of course, when one's life was about to end, one couldn't even think about living.

Take him for example.

He had already lived to more than a hundred years old. A few more years or a few more years wouldn't make much difference to him. He had already lived to this day, and that was enough. Even if he had to die tomorrow., he didn't feel any regret now. Didn't he find a good home for his favorite great-granddaughter.

And he was also very happy. Didn't he just let the guard steal a chicken.

Listen to what he said at that time?

"The mat..."

"Here."The guard stood up straight. It was very boring. In fact, old master Lu liked Xiao song the most. No, now he was old song. When Xiao song was around., that was great. He was making little song jump for fun. However, after little song left, a few guards came. They were all boring, especially this little mat. wasn't it fun to be a busybody all day?

He didn't want to think about how old he was. If the guard wasn't careful and something happened to him, the Guard wouldn't be able to shoulder the responsibility

Therefore, there was no problem with the guard's current attitude.

"Go buy a roast chicken."

Old Master Lu didn't seem to notice the fierce anger in the guard's eyes.

"Chief, you can't Eat Chicken."

The guard definitely wouldn't agree to this.

"Who said I ate it?" Old Master Lu rolled his eyes at the guard. "You eat it. Consider it my apology. I'll pay for it with my granddaughter."

When the guard heard this, no matter how angry he was, he didn't feel any anger. Besides, this was an old man over a hundred years old. How could he still have the same temperament as him?

Grandfather Lu had surrendered, so the guard naturally wouldn't praise him too much. He let the nanny look after the old man and went out to buy a roast chicken. This was a resort. Every year, many tourists from home and abroad would come here for these delicacies. There were also many unique good things, like a century-old roast chicken shop here, the whole country was famous. The fragrance could really be smelled here.

The guards had wanted to eat it for a long time, but there was no chance to go out. Now, he finally had a chance. He could finally go out and buy roast chicken to eat.

Moreover, this money was paid by Old Master Lu. It was a waste not to buy it, and it was a waste not to eat it.

In the end, when he bought the roast chicken back, old master Lu, this shameless old man, directly tore off the two drumsticks without saying a word.

Give this to me. The rest is for you. I only want two legs. This is just a bit of meat. You took advantage of me.

The guard was holding the chicken without legs. He was so angry that he almost died. Everyone knew that the essence of the whole chicken was on the two legs. Now that the essence was taken away by him.., what else could he eat?

However, father and son were very shameless. As if they were afraid that others would remember them, they directly took a bite of the two chicken legs and provoked him with a look that was almost asking for a beating, the guard was so angry that he almost threw away the big roast chicken in his arms and stepped on it twice. However, he did not do so in the end. It was all money and meat.

Therefore, this was the scene that appeared in front of Lu Wei. Grandfather Lu was eating the drumsticks and watching TV. He was still so lively. He did not look like a person who was about to die.

Lu Wei finally believed that what Fang Yu said was true. Her great-grandfather was faking it.

Chapter 2223: the small house was not bad

Lu Wei walked in. Then, like a child who had made a mistake, old master Lu quickly hid the two drumsticks behind his back. However, he had seen everything and knew everything, he had been doing this for decades. could he still change it?

Was he lying to himself or to others.

"Great-grandfather, is it good?"

Lu Wei asked Old Master Lu.

“Yes, it’s not bad.” Old Master Lu smiled carefully. He was not afraid of anyone, but he was afraid of Lu Wei.

“Great-grandfather, please continue eating.”

Lu Wei was very angry. At this moment, she did not smile, but her calm little face made old master Lu feel as guilty as he could.

“That Xun Xun, great-grandfather did not do it on purpose.”

He apologized, of course, only for stealing the drumstick. As for pretending to be dead to cheat his granddaughter, it was not that he had no choice. It was just that his little granddaughter was too slow-tempered. He was afraid that the remaining years of his life.., were not enough.

Lu Wei took a chair from the side and sat in front of Old Master Lu.

Then, she stretched out a hand and placed it in front of grandfather Lu.

“Drumstick.”

Grandfather Lu hardened his heart and was extremely conflicted. He took another big bite. Only then did he put the drumstick that he had just taken a few bites of in front of his great-granddaughter. If he had known earlier.., he might as well hide in his room and finish it. He had only eaten a few mouthfuls now and the taste was not enough. If he wanted to eat it again in the future, he would not be able to eat it anymore.

However, Lu Wei did not sympathize with him at all. She did not give him food because it was for his own good. It was such a greasy thing that it was difficult to digest.

Lu Wei took the drumstick out. What a heartless granddaughter. She would definitely not give it to him anyway.

What else could master Lu do? He could only look at his granddaughter’s back. He could not help but lament that he was old and had lost even the slightest bit of joy in life.

After a while, Lu Wei walked in again. She pulled a chair and sat in front of Master Lu. Master Lu was also sitting. Anyway, his eyes were not looking at his great-granddaughter. Who asked him to do the wrong thing today, who asked him to lie to his great-granddaughter.

“Great-grandfather, I want to know the reason. Why did you do that?”

Lu Wei’s face scrunched up. She did not believe that her grandfather would be willing to sell her granddaughter. When she was young, everyone who saw her said that it would be difficult for her to marry in the future. Her family already had five mountains, those who wanted to marry her would be crushed to death by these five mountains. They would be crushed to the point of insanity.

What, this time, the largest mountain in the family was no longer crushing people. Instead, it was giving it away for free?

“Xunxun, listen to great-grandfather...”

Grandfather Lu knew what his great-granddaughter was going to ask, so he did not pretend to be stupid. He just sat there and waited for his granddaughter to scold him.

“Okay, go ahead,” Lu Wei was waiting. He spoke, and she listened.

Grandfather Lu reached out and gently touched the bottom of his granddaughter’s head. In the end, he touched Lu Wei’s head until it was covered in oil. Lu Wei was also used to it. Alright, go ahead and touch it. At worst, she would go back and wash her hair, old Master Lu probably did not realize that his granddaughter’s originally clean hair was covered in oil from his hand. There was also the smell of roasted chicken.

“Xunxun, that small house is not bad.”

Yes, a small house. Lu Wei still could not tell whether that person was a good person or a bad person. However, a small animal that was loved could not be bad.

She could tell from the fact that he could protect the little kitten in his arms.

“He’s from the Fang family,” grandfather Lu continued. He was talking about the time when he met the Fang family when he was young. He was saved by Fang Yu’s great-grandfather. He was also talking about the arranged child marriage between the two families, in fact, what era was it now? Child marriage was not popular. However, grandfather Lu still remembered it in his heart. Even though his memory was obviously not as good as before, he still remembered some things, for example, the promise with the room.

“Grandfather Zeng, it’s not because of that promise. All the women in the Fang family are doing well. In the Fang family, the status of the women is much higher than that of the men. The men in the Fang family are also monogamous. It’s impossible for them to go out and randomly look for mistresses and mistresses. These bad habits did not appear in the bodies of the Fang family members. “They are all from legitimate families.”

“Moreover, that small house is the current head of the Fang family. I have also secretly checked on him. He is absolutely trustworthy and can be trusted for the rest of his life. Great-grandfather does not need you to be like your grandmother, suffering for the rest of your life. Even after your death, you will not be able to live in peace.”

Lu Wei lowered her head. Her heart ached for her grandmother, whom she had never met before. She knew that her grandmother had been pitiful all her life. She had suffered while she was alive and felt uneasy after her death.

The young grandmother lived alone with her mother. When she died of old age, her biological father would grind her bones and scatter her ashes.

Grandfather Lu gently stroked his granddaughter’s hair and said, “Great-grandfather doesn’t want you to be like your mother, with endless twists and turns. Great-grandfather hopes that you can live your life safely and smoothly.”

“You are the most precious child of the Lu family and the only girl in the Lu family. Believe in great-grandfather. As long as you are well, whether it is me, your grandparents, or your parents, we will be at ease.”

Of course, Old Master Lu smiled in relief. "Even if your great-grandfather is dead now, I can still smile in the afterlife."

Lu Wei looked up at Old Master Lu and saw that this frail old man was still looking at her like before. He had done everything for her and thought about her.

In fact, Old Master Lu did not lie to Lu Wei. He had not only found a suitable person for Lu Wei, but also a safe and smooth life.

Who was suitable for her? Could it be that he, an old man who was more than a hundred years old, did not know.

Of course, he knew what kind of personality Lu Wei had, and he also understood it.

Lu Wei's personality was not like Yan Huan's, nor was she like Lu Yi's. If one were to say who she was most like, it was actually Ye Rong from before. Ye Rong was also like this. They had grown up in wealth and honor, however, if they were to meet with adversity, they would not shrink back. However, what they were most afraid of was implicating their family members. If they were to replace Lu Wei with the Ye Rong of the past now..., perhaps Lu Wei's final choice was Ye Rong's choice back then.

And Old Master Lu was afraid of this. He was the one who had to personally handle the situation. He had to personally hand over his most beloved granddaughter to a man whom he trusted the most.

Lu Wei held old master Lu's hand tightly in anger. She had almost rubbed the oil on her hair.

"Great-grandfather..."

Chapter 2224: he liked cats

"HMM?" Old Master Lu smiled kindly at his granddaughter.

"You can keep looking. You'll see the heart of the people after a long time."

She didn't object to the house. As for whether the house would become her house in the future, she was willing to give it a try. After all, the house would stay here for another year.

She would think about it carefully.

After she came out, she was always a little absent-minded. She did not know what she was thinking about. She even walked in the wrong direction.

"Meow..."

She heard the sound of a cat meowing in her ears. She stopped and saw Fang Yu squatting on the ground not far away. He was holding a cat in his arms. That cat was raising its belly, he was as lazy as he could be.

He seemed to like cats very much.

"If you're here, come over."

The man pinched the Kitten's paws again, and these words... They were said to Lu Wei. Lu Wei hesitated for a moment, but in the end, she still walked over.

Instead, she squatted down and took the kitten from Fang Yu's hands.

"It doesn't seem to be doing well recently." Lu Wei pinched the kitten's little ears. This was what she liked about the little yellow cat. Usually, it was the most clingy and obedient. Of course, it was also the Little Kitten that knew how to act cute the most, however, it didn't seem to be too active recently, and it didn't like to find people to act cute anymore. Was it sick?

"It's very good."

Fang Yu carried the kitten over again and placed it on his lap. Then, he flipped its small belly up. This kitten was very obedient. It looked like it especially liked to be close to people. Of course, it also liked Fang Yu, it could be a female cat.

Fang Yu then pulled Lu Wei's hand. Lu Wei wanted to pull it out, but in the end, she did not move. She had promised her grandfather that she would spend a year trying to get along with this man, as for whether they would be able to get together in the future, no one knew. Maybe they were not suitable, or maybe he would find that she was not good enough, and she also found that he was not good enough. They had not reached that stage yet, they just had to wait for time to give them an answer.

Lu Wei's finger pressed on the kitten's small belly.

"Carefully touch it. Do you feel anything?"

Fang Yu reminded Lu Wei.

Lu Wei didn't feel anything at first, but she had touched the kitten's belly countless times.

"Try again," Fang Yu encouraged her again.

Lu Wei carefully weighed her fingers and gently touched the kitten's belly. Then her fingers suddenly trembled, as if she had really touched something?

"This is..."

"Is this a cat baby?"

Lu Wei touched it again, but she didn't dare to use force.

"Yes." Fang Yu put the Yellow Cat on the ground again. The yellow cat was still lazy and found a place for itself to continue lying down and sleeping.

This was a cat baby. Cats gave birth very quickly. It was not like a human who needed to be pregnant for ten months. They could give birth to kittens in three months.

This was the first time Lu Wei had seen a cat mother giving birth to a cat baby.

Bean's cat had never given birth to a cat because it had always been raised at home. The family had only raised bean. Now there were a few more cats in the inn, and this was the first time she had seen a cat giving birth to a kitten.

This felt a little strange.

Fang Yu took a tissue from himself and wiped Lu Wei's hair. In fact, even without looking, he knew that Lu Wei's hair was oozing oil. Just now, from afar.., he could already smell the smell of roasted chicken.

"Why, did you eat the chicken into your hair?"

Lu Wei was completely focused on the little yellow cat and the baby cat, so she did not notice Fang Yu's actions.

"My great-grandfather touched it. He ate the roasted chicken again." Lu Wei pulled his wrist. There was indeed a lot of oil on his hair. Fang Yu smiled slightly. His face, which had always been angular.., at this moment, he felt a little warm.

Perhaps it could be said that he was in a good mood. If Zha had a deeper understanding, you could also understand that he was smiling. Yes, he was smiling. He was really smiling, it was right that his smile was not too obvious.

Lu Wei was a little yellow cat a few times. The Little Yellow Cat was magnanimous and did not argue with its owner. Lu Wei turned around and asked Fang Yu, "You know so much about cats. Have you raised any?"

"I have a lot of cats at home, and my family loves them. When you go, you'll be able to see the cat I have. I even have a Garfield, a very fat one."

Fang Yu also flicked the Little Yellow Cat's ear. The two of them were teasing the cat until it went crazy.

Garfield. Lu Wei thought of the lost bean. The Bean was also Garfield's, but she knew if the one Fang Yu had also looked like the bean.

"If there's a chance, I'll go there later." She wanted to see the cat.

After she finished speaking, she realized that something was wrong.

She quickly explained, "I mean, I want to see your Garfield."

"You don't have to explain. I understand."

Fang Yu knew that she was embarrassed, so he didn't argue with her anymore.

"I'm going back to cook," Lu Wei stood up. She still had to prepare their food. Otherwise, they would not have any food to eat, and there had been a lot of big customers recently.

"I'll go with you," Fang Yu also stood up. He was almost a head and a half taller than Lu Wei, so Lu Wei really felt the pressure of the difference in height. Lu Wei originally wanted to refuse, but in the end, she realized.., she didn't seem to have any reason to refuse. If the guests wanted to know what she was eating today and what ingredients she was using, logically speaking, she couldn't refuse, nor could she refuse.

Besides, she didn't do anything bad, so why couldn't she let others see?

The kitchen here was very big, and of course, there were a few more. However, this was for Lu Wei only. She had bought all the dishes for today in advance. This time, including Old Master Lu, there were still three big guests., so, she only needed to make four servings.

Fang Yu would have old master Lu to eat with him, and old master Lu found a bosom friend. These days, he ate more than usual. Of course, the taste was good, and he talked a lot.

Even if it was for nothing else, Lu Wei had to be grateful for old master Lu's good mood and to be able to eat more.

Lu Wei put on her apron and began to cut the vegetables. She cut the vegetables very quickly and was used to such a frequency. It was hard to believe that she was a rich young lady.

Shouldn't rich young ladies open their mouths for food and stretch out their hands for clothes? However, she was different from other people. She cooked a good dish and had good knife skills.

The silk that was cut out was very thin, and the slices that were cut out were also very thin.

This was completely different from the ones that were cut out by a machine. Moreover, Lu Wei's hands were full. They were comparable to a machine.

Chapter 2225: Mother's hope

"Why do you like to learn this?"

Fang Yu did not understand. Many women nowadays did not know how to cook and did not like it.

"My mother's cooking is much better than mine. Lu Wei said as she cut the vegetables. Most of my cooking skills were learned from my mother. My mother loves to study all kinds of dishes. She is also a guest on a very famous food show. She also learned a lot of dishes from there. As long as we like to eat, she will cook for us."

"My mother doesn't like me to be a strong woman. She said that strong women are glorious, but strong women also lose more."

"She wants me to live a normal life, get married, and have children. She wants me to be like most ordinary people. She wants me to do whatever I want at any age. These are all based on the laws of nature."

"A good woman with good cooking skills is essential."

"So, I started to learn cooking from my mother when I was very young. Later on, I became the disciple of several famous chefs."

At this point, Lu Wei turned on the fire and also put the cut vegetables into the pot. With a sizzling sound, the flames at the bottom of the pot came out. After turning the pot a few times, she turned on the fire on the other side, she began to cook another dish.

Although she was only one person, the speed of the dishes was very fast. As for the reason, it was here. She could turn on two or three fires by herself. In other words., she could cook two or three dishes at the same time.

These were all things that she had practiced in her daily life. She could not do it without more than ten years of foundation. She had learned it from her mother since she was young. It had been more than ten years.

Of course, for many women, the reason they did not want to enter the kitchen was because of the smell of oil and smoke. However, for Lu Wei, she liked to be busy in the kitchen, and she also liked to make her own dishes, the dishes were all beautiful, fragrant, and tasty.

In a short while, she had already served seven or eight dishes. There was also a very popular seafood porridge in the pot. The ingredients were also very special. Of course, it could also be said that it was tacky, there would be things like abalone and sea cucumbers in it.

The 800-plus accommodation fee for the day, including three meals a day, was actually not a loss at all. After all, there was a chef here who was comparable to a five-star chef. If you just wanted to find that kind of Chef to cook a table full of dishes for you., then who knew how much of the 800-plus dishes would go out? It was possible that thousands of dishes would not escape.

Lu Wei divided the dishes into four portions. In a while, Ming Liang's mother would send the dishes over to the guests. There were seven or eight types of side dishes, a bowl of seafood porridge, and a cup of freshly squeezed fruit juice. They were very delicious, and of course, they were nutritious, moreover, every day was different. Of course, they were all prepared in advance. If one day she had a whim, she might change the recipe. However, such days were rare. Basically, she followed the recipe, today was different from the past few days. Not only were there a few more dishes, but there were also a few dishes that were not often eaten. It was also fresh soup that required a very long time.

"Let me do it." Fang Yu stretched out a hand and picked up the dishes that Lu Wei needed two hands to pick up.

He only had one hand, so he was not very tired. Meanwhile, Lu Wei's two hands were sore. Even her arms were sore now.

Fang Yu knew that the portion in his hand was his and old master Lu's.

Recently, he had been eating with old master Lu. Old Master Lu and his son were talkative, but because they were too old, they were getting younger and younger.

Old Master Lu wasn't difficult to get in touch with now. As long as he understood his temper, he would be fine for the rest of the day. Of course, it would also make Old Master Lu feel good for the rest of the day.

Fang Yu placed the dishes on the table one by one with his own hands.

Old Man Lu had always been unhappy, while the guard at the side stared anxiously.

"Who offended you?"

Fang Yu placed the chopsticks properly. The old man didn't seem to be in a good mood today.

“Ask him,” old man Lu yelled at the guard angrily.

Ask Him, ask him why? The guard felt wronged and wronged.

Chief, you took away the drumstick. I only ate a little bit of the skin, and you don’t want me to eat anymore. Chief, how can I not stay like this.

The guard thought of what happened just now and felt like scratching the wall.

The two of them were still carrying the drumstick. Old Master Lu actually thought that the guard was the main culprit for not eating the drumstick.

As for his guard, he was indeed wronged. It wasn’t easy for him to eat the roasted chicken, but before he could get enough of the smell, the drumstick was gone, so he could only eat the chicken skin. Miss Lu took away old master Lu’s drumstick, she also took away his chicken body.

They didn’t have anything to eat.

But this really wasn’t his fault.

“Let’s eat first.” Fang Yu placed the chopsticks in front of Old Master Lu and his son. “After we finish eating, we won’t be angry anymore.”

Only then did elder Lu pick up his chopsticks and start eating. There wasn’t much flavor to begin with, but as soon as he ate the good food personally made by his granddaughter, his mood immediately improved by a lot, how could he have so much trouble with such delicious food? If he didn’t eat it, he would be stupid. Besides, if he wasn’t annoyed enough today, he could continue tomorrow. Anyway, nothing could stop him from eating now.

Moreover, this dish was so delicious. It would be a waste if he didn’t eat it.

Therefore, the old man’s mood was much better after a while. Of course, he still ate two bowls of rice.

The security guard saw that the old chief was eating so well and also let out a sigh of relief. He was afraid that the old Lu father and son would throw a tantrum again. Sure enough, there was only Lu Wei in this world, this was the only way to appease Old Master Lu.

The old master didn’t care about other people, even his own son and grandson. His great-grandson was a little better, but it wasn’t of much use.

When Lu Wei heard that the old master had eaten two bowls of rice, her appetite was really good. Of course, she was probably in a good mood and didn’t want to eat chicken legs anymore.

And now, he was playing chess with Mr. Fang Zi. It had been a long time since anyone had made the old man want to play chess. It wasn’t that the old man didn’t want to play, it was just that they were too stupid. The old man didn’t like them at all.

Lu Wei also heaved a sigh of relief

“Thank you.” Lu Yi placed a glass of fruit juice in front of Fang Yu. “My great-grandfather has a very bad temper. Most people can’t make him listen.”

The old man's chess skills were superb, and I had benefited greatly from it.

Fang Yu was not a brick-sized player, and that was indeed how he started. Of course, when others heard it, they felt very comfortable, including Lu Wei.

Chapter 2226: cat fight

Lu Wei knew that it was not because of his identity as an old father and son, nor was it because of her. That was why he wanted to deliberately dissect the old man. He himself really liked playing chess. Of course, he also liked the character of this hundred-year-old man, because he was somewhat similar to his great-grandfather, who had passed away. It was no wonder that they were able to settle down their children's in-laws. This was like birds of a feather flock together.

Of course, Old Master Lu's chess move was indeed not bad.

He also liked to have opponents who were on par with him.

Fang Yu still lived here. He did not speak much, but once again, he let people know what he was like.

He was cold and warm, but he was also separated by a layer of ice.

He could not get close to them, and he also liked to isolate himself from everyone else.

However, he treated Lu Wei and old master Lu with his true nature. He didn't add anything else to it. No, he actually added some. After all, this was Lu Wei's grandfather, he might have added some more sincerity into it.

But no matter what, Fang Yu and Old Master Lu still had a good friendship. Old Master Lu also felt quite happy because he met a little friend here, and his body seemed to be getting better day by day, of course, his spirit was now much stronger than before.

As for Lu Wei and Fang Yu, there weren't too many ripples between them. It wasn't like Yan Huan's time, when she had to film three times a day and had to work hard every day. Compared to her mother, Lu Wei was indeed much happier.

Having too many ripples wasn't a good thing. Lu Wei didn't like to have any ripples. She liked a quiet life, and she also liked such simple days. Every day, she would stay in her little inn and raise a few kittens, she also made her little inn sound and colorful.

The Little Yellow Cat at home also gave birth and gave birth to four very beautiful and cute kittens.

Fang Yu found a large cardboard box and placed some old clothes inside. The little yellow anchor gave birth to kittens in the box.

Lu Wei would come over every day to see the little yellow cat and a few little kittens, but she would not touch them.

Fang Yu said that they were the real kittens and told people not to touch them. Otherwise, the mother cat would think that humans would snatch her child away and take the kittens to God knows where. The weather was so cold now. If the mother cat really took the kittens away, who knew if the kittens would freeze to death.

The little kittens grew very fast. In about a month, they could walk around. They were small and kept in a small warm room. The cat's Nest was very clean. Of course, the kittens were also very clean, although they were small, they already knew how to use a cat litter box.

Fang Yu was the one who took care of the kittens when they were born. Fortunately, he was there. Otherwise, who knew where the kittens would be born by the Cat Grandma?

It was not his own words about a person's character. It was the small details in life that could be displayed. Just like Fang Yu, in the beginning, everyone might have felt that he was cold and aloof, after all, his appearance did not belong to the kind of approachable person. After interacting with him for a long time, they would realize that he was not an easy person to get along with. Of course, it would depend on who the other party was.

"Is this okay?" Lu Wei took a bottle of shampoo and prepared to give the cats a bath. However, she did not dare to do so in the past. She had given Bean a bath before. However, the cats seemed to hate baths, including bean-sized ones. As soon as Bean entered the water, she would struggle and her hair would explode. She would splash water all over her body and even scratch her claws.

It was the same for the kittens. They did not know what Fang Yu was doing. It was possible that people were afraid of him. Could it be that the cats were afraid of him too? As long as he was around, the kittens would be obedient and would not bark, they allowed him to knead them.

Fang Yu took it and said, "The formula is gentle. Yes, this can be used. I'll give it to its pet later." He stretched out his palm.

Lu Wei understood and poured some into his palm. Fang Yu kneaded some foam in his hand and rubbed it on the cat's body.

"Can I try it too?"

Lu Wei really wanted to bathe the little kitten. They were quite obedient now, but they were all baring their fangs and brandishing their claws in front of her. Could it be that they didn't like her here or anywhere else?

"You can give it a try."

Fang Yu stroked the Little Cat's little head and comforted it. Perhaps some things were inborn. He didn't have enough affinity with people, but for cats., cats seemed to be closer to him than to their own kind.

Lu Wei carefully stroked the cat's small belly. The Cat's little pink paws were still tucked away and didn't reach out. Lu Wei was a bit bolder now. She poured some shampoo into her palm, then, she applied it on the cat's body. The cat seemed to enjoy it and let Lu Wei do whatever she wanted.

A meow came out of nowhere. The Cat in the basin seemed to be frightened. The fur thief who was stuck to his body instantly stood up and opened its sharp claws.

Its claws also swung forward.

With a whoosh, the cat flew into a mess. After the cat's fur exploded, a drop of red blood fell into the basin.

Lu Wei was frightened. At this time, the cat that was still covered in foam jumped out of the basin and splashed the water everywhere. Fang Yu's hand was already scratched by the cat, leaving a very long bloody line, after standing for a few times, his skin and flesh were overturned. However, he did not even show a hint of pain on his face.

Lu Wei was also shocked because the cat was originally going to scratch her face. If Fang Yu had not stood in front of her, there might have been an additional bloody scar on her face, the cat's fur would also be covered by her family and thrown into the pot to be boiled.

"It's just a surprise. It's fine. Don't be afraid."

Fang Yu used his uninjured hand to gently brush Lu Wei's hair, trying to calm Lu Wei's frightened emotions.

Not far away, there was a pure white fat cat. The Fat Cat had a pair of sky-blue eyes and was facing the cat that was covered in foam. The two of them seemed to be fighting, what did they mean by this?

Could it be that the two cats were fighting over some territory?

The White Cat barked several times at the cat that was drenched. In the end, the foam cat shook the water off its body. Lu Wei originally thought that they were going to fight, in the end, she did not know if it was because the white cat's weight was too terrifying. The cat was so scared that it turned around and ran away.

The white cat ran over and rubbed its small head against Fang Yu's leg.

Fang Yu picked up the little fat cat and brought it in front of him.

"Why is it you?"

"Dou Bao."

Chapter 2227: mother-in-law's return

Lu Wei also recognized it. It was Doubao. Wasn't this the cat that she had given to her mother? This cat had gone abroad with her mother. Why was it back? Could it be that her mother had also returned.

"Doubao, who named it?"

Fang Yu was somewhat noncommittal about this name. Whatever name was good, but why did it have to be called Doubao?

"My mother gave it to me. She said it's easy to remember."

Lu Wei quickly took Doubao and put it down. Doubao was also obedient and very close to Fang Yu. He lay at Fang Yu's feet and did not move.

Lu Wei then called for clear water to wash away the foam on Fang Yu's hands. However, the back of his hand was really scratched badly, and the cat could really use its claws, it almost turned the flesh on the back of his hand upside down.

After cleaning Fang Yu's wound, Lu Wei quickly took out the medicine box, disinfected it, and applied medicine.

Lu Wei really wanted to ask, Mr. Fang, do you know how painful it is?

Why? His expression did not change at all, as if these injuries were not on his body.

"I'm sorry..." Lu Wei apologized. If she had not insisted on bathing the cat, Fang Yu would not have been scratched by the cat. The injuries were on her face.

"It's none of your business." Fang Yu did not care about his injuries. "It's only right and proper for a man to protect his woman. If a man of the Fang family allowed his woman to be injured, he would not be worthy of being a member of the Fang family."

Lu Wei's face turned hot. She did not dare to think too much about it. She had already taken out gauze from the medicine box and carefully wrapped it around the back of Fang Yu's hand.

"Weiwei..." Fang Yu called Lu Wei's name. He called her Weiwei, not Xun Xun. Xun Xun was a nickname given by the Lu family, and Fang Yu had his own special nickname.

Initially, whenever Lu Wei heard these two words, she would feel very awkward. Yes, not only awkward, it was also very awkward. It was awkward everywhere. However, after listening to it for a long time.., perhaps she had gotten used to it.

"Go and get me a cup of fruit juice."

Fang Yu said to Lu Wei.

"Okay, I'll go right away." Lu Wei put away the medicine box and then stood up. She wanted to make some fruit juice later. The watermelon was too cold, and the pomegranate was too sweet. In fact, she should eat some seasonal fruits now, after all, it was not good to be out of season. It was not as delicious as the season.

Therefore, she should not make a cup of apple juice.

After she left, Fang Yu stood up and shouted to the outside.

"Miss, you have been standing outside for a long time. Can You Show Your Face Now?"

He had not finished his work for a few seconds when he heard footsteps coming from not far away. A woman in a light green dress walked over from the side of a big tree. The woman looked very young, she looked to be in her thirties. Her hair was slightly curly and her makeup was very light. Her eyebrows were very good-looking and her face was delicate. Fang Yu looked at this woman as if he could see Lu Wei growing up, Lu Wei was fresh, young, and energetic. However, this woman was not. She was mature, worldly, and experienced.

At this moment, she was still holding the little fat cat in her arms. After the little fat cat was picked up by her, she became obedient. She was no longer as lazy as she was when she fought with the water-washed cat for territory and exploded on the battlefield, she was not even willing to lift her eyelids.

“Hello, Aunty.”

Fang Yu must have recognized who this woman was. She was none other than Yan Huan, who was also Lu Wei’s mother. Lu Wei herself was very beautiful. She was the kind of beauty that made people’s eyes light up and was also stunning, however, she did not seem to have much of an impression of her own appearance. It was also possible that her beautiful mother had seen her too much since she was young.

Yan Huan walked over and stood in front of Fang Yu.

“Your name is Fang Yu?”

“Yes,” Fang Yu nodded.

“Where are you from?”

Yan Huan did not seem to have much of an expression when facing Fang Yu. There was no friendliness, no warmth, and of course, there was no repulsion. This also showed that Yan Huan did not dislike him.

“I’m from Pingning.”

“Pingning?” Yan Huan had heard Lu Yi mention this place before. “You’re from Pingning’s Fang Family?”

“Yes,” Fang Yu answered again. His back was always straight, but his tone was neither humble nor deceitful.

Yan Huan’s gaze stopped at the bandages wrapped around his hands.

“You have an agreement with my grandfather?”

Yan Huan found a chair and sat on it. She was getting old, and her bodily functions were obviously not as good as before. Therefore, she was very tired now, and of course, she could not stand for long, she could not even wear high heels. Her feet hurt when she wore them for a while, her legs hurt when she wore them for two, and everywhere when she wore them for three.

“Yes, Fang Yu did not hide anything either?”

“I’ll stay here for a year. After a year, if Lu Wei doesn’t have feelings for me, I’ll leave on my own accord.”

Yan Huan raised her eyes and carefully sized up the young man in front of her. She pursed her red lips lightly. These words were indeed dignified. However, how could she not know about that silly daughter of hers.

80% of her heart was going to be seduced by this brat.

“Let me ask you a few questions.”

Yan Huan sat up straight and gently stroked the lazy cat in her arms.

Fang Yu still stood there. He did not even change his movements.

“Will you give your money to my daughter to spend in the future?”

“I will transfer all my assets under my name to her.”

“When you find out one day that you have met a woman who makes you more moved and willing to give up everything for her, what will you do?” Yan Huan asked again, placing his finger on Doubao’s head.

Fang Yu held his wrist. “I’m the head of the Fang family. The men in the Fang family can not cheat and can not let down the women in the Fang family. If I do it, I will be expelled from the Fang family and lose everything.”

Yan Huan pinched Doubao’s little ear.

“What if my daughter can’t give birth in the future?”

This was a very realistic question. Back then, she was almost unable to give birth, but Lu Yi never gave up on her until they had three children.

And she was undoubtedly not lucky?

But she was lucky, but Lu Wei was not. There were too many things in this world that could not be changed.

“Our Fang family has a lot of collateral lines. I can inherit one. The rules of the Fang family did not say that if you can’t give birth, then there is divorce.”

This step was quite similar to the Lu family. Of course, it was even more strict than the Lu family.

Yan Huan sighed softly as her fair fingers gently caressed the shiny fur on Doubao’s body.

She stood up and walked out as well. However, when she reached the door, she suddenly turned her head around, “I’ve passed this round. However, you still have your future father-in-law and two elder brothers-in-law. You should properly prepare yourself.”

Chapter 2228: her father-in-law was not satisfied

She would not object to this matter. She felt that this young man was very good and outstanding. He was worthy of her family’s Xun Xun. She understood her own daughter. She did not need a complicated family background, however, she needed a strong man who could allow her to have her own space. Just like now, she could open a private inn and do whatever she wanted. She was quite satisfied with this son-in-law. This time, she stood by the old man’s side.

It had to be said that the old man had good taste. Of course, if it wasn’t for the war between the two cats, this man would have instinctively protected her daughter. To be honest.., she wasn’t really that easy to compromise. It was only because she saw it, only because she knew.

Yan Huan went to visit Old Master Lu First. She walked in and gave one of the gifts she bought to the guard. The guard hugged the gift and smiled like a fool.

"You're back." Old Master Lu raised his eyelids. Naturally, he wouldn't complain about not giving him a gift because he had the biggest head.

As soon as Yan Huan entered, he found that old master Lu was in good spirits. He must have eaten well, lived well, and played well. He also accompanied him to eat, play chess, and talk. These escorts were also quite competent. Otherwise.., it was impossible for the old man to be so happy.

"I just came back," Yan Huan came over to see him. He sat down and saw that the old man's face was really red and full of joy.

"Have you seen him?"

Old Master Lu asked Yan Huan. Yan Huan was very smart. How could he hide the things here from her? Don't forget about that little traitor, Xiangxiang. As long as Xiangxiang knew about Lu Wei, Yan Huan would definitely know, and Xiangxiang was the personal bodyguard that Yan Huan found for Lu Wei. Nothing about Lu Wei could escape her eyes. Of course, if it couldn't escape her, then naturally, it couldn't escape Yan Huan.

Yan Huan's expression was natural, and he didn't look surprised at all. Grandfather Lu knew about it.

She had long known about these matters.

"I believe in grandfather's judgment," Yan Huan flattered him. As expected, old master Lu started to gloat and his face became even redder.

Yan Huan felt that with such a mental state, it wouldn't be a problem for old master Lu to live for a few more years.

Yan Huan accompanied Old Master Lu and said a few more words. She also bought some things for Old Master Lu and her daughter to bring back. However, she didn't think that her family's search would also find her happiness..

She was actually quite gratified.

"What's wrong? You're not unhappy?"

Lu Yi was surprised. "When Lu Qi said that he wanted to get married, you weren't so angry that your nerves were weak. Are you better now?"

"That's different." Yan Huan had just gotten off the plane. Her eyes were slightly narrowed, and it was obvious that she was still sleepy. She was no longer the same as before. In the past, she could still continue filming after sitting for more than ten hours by car, but now, she could not. She was really old and her physical strength was not as good as before. Of course, it was impossible for her to continue filming?

"How is it different?"

Lu Yi did not feel that there was anything different. After all, it was still the same. The children had grown up and did not need their parents anymore. First, it was Lu Qi, and then it was Lu Wei.

"It is different," Yan Huan yawned. He was sleepy, but this time, it was not like the last time. He did not have a nervous breakdown and started having nightmares.

"Xunxun is getting married. I Can't see it, but Xiao Qi is different. He still has to show up in front of me every day. That way, he's saying, 'Mom, you're old, you're dying.'"

"But it doesn't matter now. I've thought it through. If he wants to marry, then let him marry."

She had really thought it through. Otherwise, she wouldn't have been able to accept the fact that there was a man who wanted to abduct her daughter so easily. She had tacitly accepted it, admitted it, and of course, didn't oppose it.

Lu Yi gently stroked her hair. So many years had passed, and their relationship had always been very good. Of course, it had always been good. As for the man who wanted to abduct his family's xunxun, he needed to have a good meeting, however, he was not as easy to talk to as Yan Huan. Yan Huan wanted his daughter to marry well, and every mother was like that. But for a father, it was different, this was stealing the cotton-padded jacket that he had raised with great difficulty. His daughter was only twenty-three years old, and someone already dared to steal it, and it was brazen.

Lu Yi went to Happiness Inn to look for trouble the next day without even going to work.

This was the first time Lu Yi had seen Fang Yu.

Yan Huan did not tell him too much about Fang Yu because everything she said had been subjective. As for what kind of personality Fang Yu had, what kind of character he had.

This required Lu Yi to personally test it out. He believed that Lu Yi would find the answer he wanted very soon.

Lu Yi's face had always been calm. Of course, he would not use his fists to solve problems with Fang Yu. Lu Yi really wanted to use his fists to solve problems. And some things could not be solved with his fists.

Lu Yi closed the door. They were all civilized people. They needed to use civilized methods.

Lu Yi was a prosecutor, and negotiation was his advantage. Very few people would be able to hide anything under his cold and cold pressure. At the very least, Lu Yi didn't believe it.

Whether it was sincere or not, he would know once he tried. Whether it was sincere or not, he could see it with one look.

After about half an hour, Lu Yi left. When he came, he didn't smile, but when he went back, his face seemed to be even longer.

"Have you seen the person?" Yan Huan held on to Doubao's little paws and played with them. Doubao was really a good cat. He was also very clingy.

“Yes, I’ve seen him.” Lu Yi sat down, picked up Doubao, and placed him on the ground, “Tomorrow, I’ll send Doubao to shave off all of its fur. It’s been shedding recently.” Lu Yi patted Yan Huan’s clothes. Sure enough, it was covered in Doubao’s cat fur

Yan Yi lowered his head and stretched out his fingers to pinch a strand of white cat fur. It really had shed fur.

Yan Huan was interrupted by the matter of Dou Bao shedding fur. She had completely forgotten what she had asked about earlier. She hurriedly ran into the bathroom, took a shower, and changed her clothes, then, she changed the bedding and everything else. If it wasn’t for Lu Yi blocking her way, she might have even changed the bed.

She liked cats, but she couldn’t tolerate cats losing their fur. Tomorrow, she had to shave off all of Dou Bao’s fur.

When she came out, Lu Yi was sitting at the table outside. There were two bowls of noodles on the table. Today, they didn’t eat anything but noodles.

Yan Huan hadn’t eaten the sour soup noodles cooked by Lu Yi for a long time.

Chapter 2229: light-skinned cat

She walked over and took a bowl of noodles. She hadn’t started eating yet, but just by smelling the taste, she felt that the taste was really too good. She couldn’t help but pick up some noodles with her chopsticks, she ate it into her mouth.

The taste was still the same. It had never changed.

“Oh right,” Yan Huan suddenly remembered something. “How’s Your Future Son-in-law? Are You Satisfied?”

Lu Yi was originally in a good mood, but when he heard the words ‘future son-in-law’, his expression was exactly the same as when Yan Huan heard that Lu Qi was going to get married.

His face was completely black.

“I haven’t agreed yet.”

Lu Yi put down his chopsticks. He couldn’t eat anymore either.

He thought about how Xun Xun, whom he had doted on since young, was going to be snatched away by another man soon. She was no longer his close-fitting cotton-padded jacket. He felt uncomfortable in his heart, or somewhere else.

“Your grandfather has agreed.”

Yan Huan didn’t mean to hurt Lu Yi, but she had to. What she said was the truth. This was the husband that old master Lu had found for Xun Xun, and he was indeed outstanding.

In any case, she felt that it was quite good and very suitable for Xun Xun. Of course, she wasn't an authoritarian mother who insisted on forcing her daughter to marry someone. If she married him, she wouldn't be happy. Could it be that she had to force her daughter to marry someone else

Of course, all of this had to do with Xun Xun's consent.

She was not willing. Even if this was the choice that master Lu wanted to make, she could still not marry him in the end.

However, if she agreed, Lu Yi, as a father, would still marry her even if he had to kill her with a kitchen knife.

This big family of theirs had this kind of character of not turning back until they hit a wall.

Of course, this included Xun Xun as well.

Lu Yi took the chopsticks again and started eating the noodles, but it was obvious that he was still not very happy.

"I've tried her."

Lu Yi then said.

"The Fang family is indeed like that. They have many rules, but most of them are chicken-bound men. The status of the women in the Fang family is very high in the family."

"We, Xun Xun, have been pampered since we were young. We have never been wronged, and we have never left our side. Although the women in the Fang family have never had to worry about food or clothing for their entire lives, and their status is higher than that of men, don't tell me that our family lacks food and clothing?"

"I was originally thinking of recruiting a son-in-law for Xun Xun. That way, we'll see who can bully our Xun Xun."

"Even if you're willing, I'm not willing."

Yan Huan really felt that Lu Yi was very calm under any circumstances. However, other than this, he simply had no bottom line regarding Xunxun's daughter.

What son-in-law? It wasn't like their family didn't have a son. If they really found a son-in-law for Xunxun, Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang would naturally be fine. They still had no choice but to keep their younger sister by their side. However.., when they had a family in the future and had their own responsibilities, all the conflicts would come out.

She understood Xiao Mei's character. She also believed that Xiao Mei was willing. However, there was only one Xiao Mei in this world. There wouldn't be a second Xiao Mei who would marry Lu Guang.

She didn't want to have a family that was restless. Moreover, a good man wouldn't become a visiting son-in-law for someone else, especially someone from the Fang family. He would think about it unless they wanted to change people.

She really did not want to change anyone. This was mainly because Fang Yu was indeed the most outstanding man she had seen in the past few years. Moreover, the situation of the Fang family was suitable for Lu Wei.

Fang Yu was the current head of the Fang family. How could he abandon the Fang family and come over to be their son-in-law.

Even if Fang Yu was willing, she was not willing.

She couldn't afford the rise and fall of a family, and Xun Xun couldn't afford it.

Lu Yi was still unhappy, very unhappy. Xun Xun was the daughter he had raised with his own hands. She had just grown up. He hadn't even guarded his daughter for a few years, and she was about to be snatched away by another man, how could he be willing? How could he be willing.

His little cotton-padded jacket was really going to be snatched away by someone else this time around.

He did not give Fang Yu any good looks. However, Fang Yu's performance was very commendable. He was also the head of everyone. Naturally, he had his magnanimity. When he deliberately made things difficult for Lu Yi., he silently endured it and resolved it in a reasonable manner.

He understood this very well. If he had a woman in the future, he would not be willing to let his daughter get married. He would also not be polite to the man who snatched his daughter away.

Lu Yi had already done his best.

The Little Princess of the Lu family was not that easy to marry. The people of the Lu family had taught Lu Wei very well. She was not spoiled, not impatient, sensible, and sensible. She was also a good cook. The most important thing was., she could give up her exaggerated life and was willing to return to reality. Therefore, if he did not grasp such a good woman, then he would really be a little stupid.

Therefore, no matter what difficulties his father-in-law faced, he would silently endure it. If he could not pass this hurdle, what else could he do in the future?

However, this torture was probably only the beginning. There were still two big brothers-in-law that he had yet to pass.

Fang Yu was holding a bald cat in his arms. The cat had a pair of round eyes. Its small eyes were very pitiful. No matter how one looked at it, it looked like it had nothing to live for.

How did it end up like this? He touched Doubao's smooth skin. This was the old DOUBAO. Doubao was a very pretty little white cat and he was also very arrogant. He came here once and he insisted on being the king. where he used to lie., there couldn't be any other cats around. But now, it was obvious that it had low self-esteem. Even its meowing was gone.

"Help me take good care of it for a few days."Yan Huan probably felt that Dou Bao didn't look like Dou Bao anymore. The hairless dou bao looked really scary. When Lu Yi handed the hairless dou bao to her., she almost dropped Dou Bao.

What was this ugly alien creature? Even though it was her fault, she couldn't stand it, so she threw it over to her son-in-law. And now, she really felt that she had a son-in-law., was much more useful than having a son. This son-in-law was very obedient and capable. Of course, the most important thing was that he was better than her son. Her Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were no longer very obedient., they loved to talk back.

But a son-in-law was good. Whatever she said, she would do.

That was why people said it.

Give birth to a son, grow up, become someone else's son, then marry a ancestor, give birth to a daughter, marry out, but have a son.

If I had known earlier, I would have given birth to a daughter.

Chapter 2230:

"Don't worry, Auntie. I'll take good care of it."

Fang Yu was still hugging the helpless cat. He could not help but sigh. Dou Bao, you met such a master. I wonder if you're lucky or not?

"Don't worry."Yan Huan knew what Fang Yu was worried about. "I'll take your uncle away. He's just worried about his little cotton-padded jacket, so his words and actions are a little sharp. Don't take it to heart."

"I know."Fang Yu was absolutely able to understand this point.

It was not easy to marry a girl from the Lu family, so he was naturally mentally prepared in advance.

Lu Yi was not in a difficult situation, and Lu Jin was also easy to deal with. After all, they were old, and what they cared about the most now was that Lu Wei could live a good life in the future and be safe and smooth.

Lu Jin and Old Master Lu had the same idea. Xun had to get married eventually, and there had to be a good one and a suitable one, so why didn't he agree?

Lu Yi was a little more troublesome, but he quickly figured it out.

Things were going well for them, but the troublesome ones were Lu Qi and Lu Guang.

Sure enough, when Lu Qi and Lu Guang found out that their sister was going to be kidnapped, they were even worse. They directly left the work at hand and went straight to the Happiness Inn, it was all for that man who came from God knows where.

When they arrived, they had a profound conversation like Lu Yi. When they finished their conversation, the three of them were all killed.

They advocated using their fists. Two against one, Fang Yu did not lose out. Although Lu Qi and Lu Guang did not dislike Fang Yu, it was not that they did not like Fang Yu, they just did not like anyone who wanted to abduct their sister.

The father and son trio were indeed the same.

Up until now, they only disliked Fang Yu.

Lu Yi took the medicinal oil and wiped the wound on Fang Yu's face.

"Is my brother's injury serious?"

She knew Fang Yu's skill. Fang Yu's skill was very good, but she did not know how he trained it. It was said that it was something passed down from ancient times in the Fang family. Every member of the Fang family had to learn. Her two brothers., two of them fought against one of him, and he didn't suffer too many injuries. As for her older brothers, they would use the temper of his two older brothers.

If it weren't for the fact that she couldn't beat him, the injuries on Fang Yu's body wouldn't have been so small. It was likely that his entire face would be swollen.

Fortunately, they were very good at fighting. When Fang Yu said these words, his tone was very calm. Of course, he didn't say that he was afraid. It could be seen that he was injured to such an extent, and her two older brothers weren't in a good state either.

"Don't worry." Fang Yu reached out and gently caressed Lu Wei's face. "I have to be careful."

Lu Wei raised her head and looked at the ceiling helplessly.

Really, these words must not be known by his two brothers. Otherwise, they would have to fight each other every day.

"You don't look like them."

This was the first time Fang Yu Met Lu Wei's two brothers. If he said that they were twins, he would still believe it. It was because Lu Guang and Lu Qi's facial features were very similar. They almost looked the same. If they changed into the same clothes., most people would not be able to tell the difference. However, if Lu Wei's words were added, many people would not believe it. Lu Qi and Lu Guang were indeed children of the Lu family. Between their brows., they had the same determination and unwillingness to admit defeat as Lu Yi. However, Lu Wei was different. She was not too tall, but she was very beautiful. She also had thin arms and legs. It was true that her two older brothers did not look like each other at all.

"We are from different eggs," Lu Wei rubbed medicine on Fang Yu's face, "Back then, everyone thought that my mother was pregnant with only two children. I was the last to be born, and it was also a small accident. My mother was given birth by a Caesarean section, and my two brothers were born very smoothly. The doctor only discovered that there was another me when he helped my mother clean up. At that time, I was only six pounds and nine ounces. Everyone thought that I could not live on, but later, I was strong enough to survive."

"I can't imagine it." Fang Yu had seen the children born in their house. Their house had a private hospital in pingning, and all the children in their house had been born there, of course, they had to do a full examination. If the child was five kilograms less, it would be pitifully small. Moreover, it was less than two kilograms. And he had never seen what a child less than two kilograms looked like?

“Okay.” Lu Wei stopped and put away the medicine box. She turned around and looked at Dou Bao, who was lying on the sofa motionlessly. Dou Bao was obviously suffering from depression. After its fur was shaved off., it never went out again, nor did it meow anymore.

Lu Wei put away the medicine box. She thought that it should not be used anymore. However, she did not expect that on the second day, Fang Yu had some more injuries, but not too many, it could only be said that he was in a rather sorry state.

On the third day, it was the same. This time, there were even fewer injuries, but there were still new injuries.

The world of men needed to be solved like this.

Fang Yu comforted Lu Wei. If I had a sister, I wouldn't want anyone else to marry my sister. Believe me, I would be more ruthless than your two big brothers.

What else could Lu Wei say? Just as she thought, this was the world of men. Every man's world was different, but it made people roll their eyes, it was just that these three people had clearly never met before, but their world frequency was the same. They wanted to use their fists to speak the truth.

It was unknown how long these days had passed, but Lu Wei had already become a little numb.

The injuries on Fang Yu's face were becoming less and less. It was likely that the friction between them was about to be resolved.

“This is for you. Fang Yu took a piece of candy and gave it to Lu Wei. I made it myself, so it's not very good. He discovered it by accident. Everyone else's place is played by little girls, and he's the only man...” He was tall and fierce, and he scared the boss so much that he didn't even dare to breathe.

This was the finished product that Fang Yu used a day to make. Although it wasn't very good, it was still considered a success. The candy was wrapped up by him one by one.

“Thank you.” Lu Wei liked these beautifully wrapped candy very much. She took one out from inside, peeled off the candy wrapper, and put it to her mouth.

“Oh right, what did you do?”

Lu Wei wanted to know why he had gone out so early in the morning and only came back when it was almost evening.

“I went out to sit with your two brothers for a while.”

Fang Yu rubbed the top of Lu Wei's head again. “Don't worry, your two brothers and I have established a good relationship. They won't find trouble with me in the future.”

“Come back to pingning with me in a few days, okay?”

Fang Yu asked Lu Wei directly, but he didn't force her.

They were going to get married in the first place. He had already met everyone in the Lu family, and now it was Lu Wei's turn.
