

Sweet Wife 2491

Chapter 2491: had never heard of second aunt

Usually, her clothes were tightly wrapped, so no one could tell what she really looked like. If they hadn't seen the video of those few minutes, no one would have known for the rest of their lives.

However, when the guard thought of the scene in the video, his eyes also became strange.

"Urgh..."

The guard couldn't help but feel disgusted by the fat meat, so he quickly covered his mouth and ran into the bathroom.

Qin Xiaoyue sat on the ground pitifully, listening to the guard and old master Lu's continuous vomiting.

She didn't know what she had eaten, but she deserved to vomit.

Qin Xiaoyue grabbed her clothes tightly and stuck her hair together with her clothes. See, she was still fine. She was still a member of the Lu family. Anyway, she was born a member of the Lu family, and she died a ghost of the Lu family.

Not long after, Old Master Lu came out. He sat on his chair again, and with his hands folded, he once again stopped on the chair at the side. Otherwise., he was really afraid that he would want to vomit again later.

He stretched out his finger and pointed outside with a trembling finger.

That was the direction of the main entrance.

"Dad, you don't have to show me the way. Of course I know the place," Qin Xiaoyue said with a cheeky smile.

Old Master Lu put down his finger and then opened his lips, which had always been very vicious.

"Get lost..."

He blurted out a word.

Qin Xiaoyue was stunned. "Dad, What are you talking about?"

Yes, what was he talking about? He just said, get lost?

"Get lost!" Old Master Lu said each word very clearly, and even the last syllable disappeared very slowly.

"Dad, why did you tell me to get lost?" Qin Xiaoyue was still shameless. Her smile was awkward, but it was also uncomfortable.

"Get out of my house, get out of my garden."

Old Master Lu's words were already very polite. Of course, he was also enduring, but it seemed that he couldn't endure it any longer.

He stood up with a whoosh.

“Qin Xiaoyue, get out of the Lu family right now. Take your son and get lost. Don’t let me see you believe me again. Otherwise, I will break your legs.”

Qin Xiaoyue’s lips trembled. She could never imagine that she would leave the Lu family one day, and she still used the word “Get out”.

“Get Out!”

Old Master Lu’s eyes were wide open, and even the veins on the back of his hand were popping up. He had been looking around for something. He was going to smash someone. He was really going to smash it, and he was not joking.

“Dad, don’t be angry. Don’t be angry. I’m leaving. I’m leaving right now.”

Qin Xiaoyue hurriedly stood up from the ground and also crawled out. Of course, the place where she rolled was the Lu family’s house. That house was now Lu Jin’s. Although it was also separated., there was still her courtyard. Those were things that she and her son could live in peace in the Lu family.

Old Master Lu sat down again and continued to play with his jade finger. He also wished that he could kick Qin Xiaoyue to death so that he would not embarrass himself.

Qin Xiaoyue left the Liuyuan garden dejectedly while Old Master Lu sat there for half a day. Only then did he get the police to bring his phone over. He put the phone to his ear.

“Lu Jin, I’m your father...”

Lu Jin was still in a daze on the other end of the line.

Could he not be like this? was he trying to scare him to death?

Although his heart was now very strong, who knew what would happen in the future?

After Lu Jin hung up the phone, the expression on his face was really as strange as it could be.

The old man had always been a man of brotherhood. After Lu Jing died, his house was sold by Lu Jing. Lu Qin and his mother were not homeless, but they still ended up living in his house, the old man only thought of that “Brotherhood”.

He accepted it. Even if he raised Lu Qin until he was in his twenties, it did not matter. His food, clothing, and accommodation were all provided by them. Even if Qin Xiaoyue took advantage of them., he turned a blind eye to it.

Of course, he never thought of chasing Lu Qin and his mother out. Although it was annoying enough for him to face them every day, he didn’t say anything, even Ye Shuyun, who was already fed up with it, was trying her best to endure it.

However, even though they clearly didn’t like it in their hearts, they still had to bear with it for the sake of old master Lu’s old face. But now, what was wrong with his father., what was wrong with him, or what was wrong with him.

Not long after, all of Lu Qin's mother and son's belongings were thrown out. Qin Xiaoyue almost howled to death. She also scolded Lu Jin and Ye Shuyun for being heartless and bullying their orphaned and widowed mother.

The words she scolded were as unpleasant as they could be. In the end, Ye Shuyun only wanted to keep her eyes out of sight and her heart out of trouble. She directly went to her mother's house to play with little Zhizhi. Zhizhi was only eight years old now. People said that such an old child.., it was the age when dogs didn't like dogs, but Zhizhi was different. Zhizhi was very smart and cute. He was also a primary school student. In addition, he had a small mouth and could speak eloquently. which child in the family didn't like him, even someone as strict as Ye Jianguo doted on him very much.

Didn't they say that the emperor loved the eldest son while the common people doted on their youngest son.

Zhizhi was the youngest child in the family right now, and of course, he was also the one that the adults liked the most.

It was fortunate that she had zhi zhi. Otherwise, Ye Shuyun might have gone out and used a kitchen knife to kill people.

It had been so long. More than 20 years had passed. It was enough for her to live in their house for free for so long. Now that Lu Qin was in his early 20s, he was already an adult, didn't Qin Xiaoyue say that her son became a model every day and that he would earn a lot of money by filming? Then she would take care of her own mother?

The children of the Lu family did not live on the Lu family's capital. When the children of the Lu family reached adulthood, they all needed to support themselves and have their own family.

Her Lu Yi had already learned how to earn money to support himself when he was in his teens. Now, he did not even need the Lu family to sit firmly in the number one position of the Hai City Procuratorate. Lu Qin was only one year younger than her Lu Yi, there was no reason for everyone to be born into the Lu family.

Lu Yi had to do everything himself, but Lu Qin had to rely on his uncle and aunt to support him?

They had heard that he had to adopt his parents and grandparents, but they had never said that he had to support his second aunt and her adult son.

It was all thanks to the old man's determination this time. He wanted Lu Qin and his mother to get lost.

Couldn't they just leave? They had already done such a disgusting thing, and it was still uncertain how others would slap them in the face. With such a big black pot, how could the Lu family not take the blame. If they wanted to take the blame, they would let Qin Xiaoyue take the blame herself. In any case, they could forget about letting her Lu Yi take the blame.

Chapter 2492: could not become famous

Qin Xiaoyue was still standing outside, cursing loudly. Fortunately, there were not many people living here. Otherwise, just like what she had done today, the Lu family might become famous again in a few hours.

When Qin Xiaoyue jumped up to curse again, she saw Lu Yi, who was wearing a white prosecutor's uniform, walking over with Yan Huan by his side.

She was the one who was about to spit out those curses. Those curses were also because they met Lu Yi's cold, black eyes and were forcefully swallowed down by her. Even if she choked to death.., she didn't dare to speak nonsense in front of Lu Yi, and she also didn't dare to curse Lu Yi's parents.

She was here because she was afraid of Old Master Lu, because Old Master Lu held the power of life and death in the entire Lu family.

Secondly, she was afraid of Lu Yi. Don't ask her why, because she didn't know why. Every time she saw Lu Yi's eyes, she was afraid, afraid.

Qin Xiaoyue pulled the suitcase and left. Although old master Lu told Lu Jin to chase them out, he didn't really make them homeless, nor did he kill them all. The Lu family didn't only have one house.., even though Lu Qin wasn't the Lu Qin of the past, he was still a nobody. He bought himself a luxurious house and car because he didn't get the money from a woman, but he still had a house.., there were other houses in the Lu family. Father and son Lu randomly found one and stuffed Qin Xiaoyue and her son in it.

"I really want to beat someone up."Yan Huan held his wrist. It had been a long time since she had beaten someone up with her hands. Why did he give her so much strength? She couldn't fight, she was just an actress.., and she was such a young and beautiful girl. What was the point of giving her so much strength?

Lu Yi reached out and rubbed the top of Yan Huan's head.

"Don't think about your strength all the time."

"Got it."Yan Huan shook her hair. Seriously, she messed up her hairstyle. Didn't she know that her head could be broken, blood could flow, and her hairstyle couldn't be messed up?

"Let's go in."

Lu Yi opened the door and let Yan Huan in. This time, it was really good. Lu Qin and Qin Xiaoyue had left. They had left early in their lives, so there was no way to harm them.

Of course, the mother and son were still ticking time bombs that could explode at any time. He would cut off their fuse right now, so that they wouldn't be able to light a fire for the rest of their lives.

Hadn't Lu Qin always wanted to enter the entertainment industry? wasn't he just looking for women like Yan Huan? He wanted to take their money and fame, so that these things would be used by them as well?

What if he didn't become an actor? With Lu Qin's brain, they would wait and see.

And Qin Xiaoyue and her son left. As expected, the entire Lu family's sky seemed to brighten up. Their ears also became clear, and their hearts felt comfortable.

No matter how many reincarnations they had experienced, Lu Qin and her son were like a ticking time bomb to the Lu family. In this lifetime, before this ticking time bomb exploded, it had already been soaked in water.

Of course, in the future, they probably wouldn't have the strength to stir up any more waves.

And just like that, time gently jumped between their fingers. It was like the light bounce of the Sun, the light fall of the raindrops, and when they weren't paying attention, it turned out that year after year had passed.

This year, Yan Huan was nineteen years old. She had also won the most popular actress award of the Year. Her starting point was very high. She had acted at the age of three, and it had been sixteen years since then. In these sixteen years.., it made her the most popular young actress in these few years. Of course, she was also the goddess in many people's lives.

Moreover, the goddess grew up small and beautiful. She became more and more beautiful year after year, and she became more and more famous year after year. In this circle, she could not be any cleaner. No matter how many people wanted to dig out a trace of her dark history.., they couldn't dig it out.

If there wasn't anything, how could they dig it out?

To make up for her?

But no matter how much they made up, it would still be fake. If it was fake, it would always be a lie.

Moreover, no one knew who Yan Huan's backer was. However, not knowing didn't mean there wasn't. Yan Huan's backer was very strong. This was something that everyone in this circle already knew.

Of course, Lu Qin had been desperately trying to debut this year, but unfortunately, he had never had the chance. Although he had relied on his good skin to appear on a few shows.., but for some reason, those few shows were either cut or not broadcast, or they needed to be approved. The result was that he hadn't shown his face in front of the public for a year.

In fact, Lu Qin knew very well that as long as Lu Yi could help him, he could immediately debut. Lu Yi had this ability. As long as he could give it his all, he could definitely debut perfectly, and then, there were endless offers.

But for some reason, he didn't dare to face Lu Yi. Every time Lu Yi looked at him, it always made him feel terrified. It started when he was young. Back then, he was very smart, and Lu Yi was very stupid, but as smart as he was.., he was afraid of that pair of stupid eyes of Lu Yi's.

And he did not even dare to look for Lu Yi.

Especially now that they had moved out of the Lu family, they would not have the chance to meet Lu Yi. And he was certain that even if he knelt in front of Lu Yi, Lu Yi would not help him.

And he had not made any progress at all. But Yan Huan had become famous at the age of three. She was only nineteen now, but she was already like Mount Tai in the entire entertainment industry. Her sixteen years of acting was not for nothing, so many years of awards were not for nothing.

She had many friends in the industry. Her acting skills were excellent, and her looks were among the most beautiful. She was also a very prolific actress. Of course, whether it was in domestic or international films., she was an outstanding one. Moreover, she was very young. She was only nineteen years old, and she was not even twenty years old. Therefore, no one knew how much potential she had now.

However, she was the one that everyone looked up to the most in the industry.

Lu Qin wanted to reach Yan Huan's current level of popularity. To be honest, he had reincarnated once. He might even be able to make a mark. Otherwise, the current him would be a Fool's dream.

Originally, he was a late bloomer. Furthermore, Lu Yi wouldn't help him in this lifetime. Yan Huan would suppress him even more.

This was because Yan Huan had made it clear in the industry that as long as Lu Qin participated in the program, she would not appear. Moreover, she had openly said so.

Of course, the Lu family also knew, but they would not blame her. Who asked Lu Qin to dare to have designs on Yan Huan? Yan Huan now had the capital and ability to do so.

If he offended Lu Yi and Yan Huan, even if he did not die, he would lose a layer of skin.

Chapter 2493: younger brother

Moreover, this was not an offense. This was a new and old grudge.

This was an irreconcilable grudge.

Yan Huan drove the car to the school gate. The car door opened and a ten-year-old boy walked out. The boy was very tall, much taller than his peers. He had thick eyes and big eyes. If he smiled., there was also a small dimple on his face. It belonged to a handsome boy. From his current appearance, it could be deduced that if he continued to look like this, as long as he was not too short., then he would definitely become a handsome young man in the future.

Moreover, looking at the car he was in, it was a world-class famous car. It was also a limited-edition car. Although it looked low-key on the outside, its interior was spacious and comfortable. It was well-known internationally.

Besides being good-looking, this child was also likely to be reincarnated.

Just as the child straightened his body, something flew out of the car. He quickly reached out to hold the thing in his arms. It turned out that it was nothing else but his schoolbag.

"Sister..."

The boy called out to the person in the car helplessly after several stops. "I really shouldn't have let you send me to school. It would have been better if my brother had sent me. He drives better than you and is faster than you."

He was clearly complaining, but in a short while, he ran over again and almost stuck his head into the car.

"Sister, photo." He reached out his hand into the car with a flirtatious look.

At this moment, a hand reached out. It was slender fingers, fair and transparent skin, and almost the shape of a hand that everyone envied.

And this hand accurately placed on the boy's ear, and then unceremoniously tore at it, instantly causing the boy to grimace in pain.

"Sis, don't pull, don't pull, what if you tear it?"

"You sold your sister again?"

In the car, Yan Huan unceremoniously pulled at his younger brother's ear. Of course, he didn't go easy on him either. This was truly tearing and tearing.

This kid was getting more and more shrewd. He already knew how to betray his sister.

He took her photos, her autographed photos, and the things she used to coax girls to play. He also knew how to bribe his teacher. He had really grown up and become more daring.

"Sister, I want to chase my girlfriend."

Zhou Yanzhi hurriedly pulled Yan Huan's hand away and then shook his sister's hand like a spoiled child.

"Sister, can you just give me a few? Your Brother finally fell in love with a girl, and now a good girl is hard to come by. If I don't work harder, I won't be able to get a daughter-in-law for my mother in the future."

Yan Huan rolled his eyes at his brother. He didn't even look at how old he was. He wasn't even fully grown yet, and he already knew how to pick up a girlfriend. Moreover, he even claimed that he had passed through a myriad of flowers and didn't have the slightest bit of contact with them. Because of this., he didn't know how many times he had been beaten up. He had been beaten up since he was young. What was going on? Did he really remember to eat and not remember to hit?

If it wasn't for the fact that this kid had a moral integrity and was just a little more lively, he would have been quite popular in the class. Girls were even more fated, yet he didn't act like a hooligan for her at such a young age.

Otherwise, she would have already beaten him to death. This was the younger brother that she had brought into this world. She had saved her mother's life and also found a younger brother for herself. If he didn't give her a good long period of time., she would definitely end him with her own hands.

Yan Huan's younger brother had to have a healthy root. Otherwise, she might as well beat him to death. She did not want to follow in the footsteps of Lu Qin and Su Muran. Not only would she be harmed, but she would also harm her own family, if she did not do well, she would lose all her assets and her family would be destroyed.

She did not have a younger brother in her previous life, but she had a younger brother in this life. She could not let him grow crooked.

Fortunately, this kid wasn't bad. Every day, Lu Yi stuffed him with a lot of legal knowledge, so he knew more than her elder sister. No matter what, he wouldn't do such a thing, therefore, Yan Huan was relieved.

"Elder sister..." Zhou Yan Zhi smiled as sweetly as he could, and his face was very handsome. He didn't look like Yan Huan, but like Zhou Li. Although he didn't look angry or resentful., but he was still a very handsome boy.

If he wanted to debut, having such a good sister would provide him with top-notch resources. It was a pity that Zhou Yanzhi did not like it. Of course, he preferred doing business.

In the past few years, he had sold his sister's face to a considerable amount of money.

Yan Huan opened his bag and took out a stack of photos from it. They were the stills of her new drama. This was still an internal document, and it had yet to be circulated outside.

After knowing that her younger brother had such a hobby, every time she returned from filming, she would bring some with her. It was all for this kid. As long as it wasn't a nail on her photo, he could have it if he wanted it.

It's her own brother she begged for.

It's a kiss

One more thing

Kiss, Kiss.

My own little brother.

"Thank you, sister," Zhou Yanzhi quickly stuffed the photos into his schoolbag, ready to earn some money later. Of course, he would also give a piece of paper to a girl for free. This was his goddess, the prettiest girl in their class.

It was only later that he realized that his primary school aesthetic standards were really not that good?

When Zhou Yanzhi entered the school, Yan Huan turned the car around and prepared to go back. When she saw that she had placed her high school textbooks in the car, she could not help but sigh.

She was also about to take the college entrance examination. Time passed really quickly. After the college entrance examination, she would be a university student, a real university student. Her dreams of university for several lifetimes would be fulfilled just like this.

Of course, although she had to film and travel all over the world, she still had to revise questions every day. Similar to other students, even her schedule had stopped recently. After all, the college entrance examination was a major event, the turning point in a person's life was the college entrance examination.

Therefore, she was still an ordinary high school student recently. She was also a bitter high school student.

Of course, she was better than other high school students because she could completely control her college entrance exam results. In fact, she really had no way of not cheating. After all, she could not afford to lose face.

She drove the car to her and Lu Yi's home. She and Lu Yi were doing underground work. No matter when it would be publicized in the future, at least not now.

She used to be a minor, but now she was an adult. She was still young, so she would talk about it when she reached university.

She put the car away, took out her textbook from the car, and replaced it with a bicycle to ride to school. School was close, so riding a bicycle was sometimes faster than driving.

She would rather ride a bicycle to school than drive there.

Chapter 2494: was found

When she rode her bicycle into the school gate, there were already a lot of cars parked outside the school. One by one, they were placed here, and they were no longer moving forward. This was because unless it was a car inside the school, it was not allowed to enter the school.

So this was the reason that Yan Huan had mentioned earlier.

The reason why a bicycle was much faster than a sports car was that one had to find a parking space here, and if they found one, they had to walk.

She parked her bicycle and ran into the classroom. If it weren't for the fact that she was going to see Zhou Yanzhi off today, she wouldn't be in such a hurry. She was just afraid that she would be late.

She took her book out of her bag, but before she could turn the page and even take out her pen, someone came to inform her from outside.

Someone from the school was looking for her and was currently in the principal's office.

Yan Huan put down the book in her hand and was indeed a little puzzled. Her identity in this school was not considered a secret. Of course, it was also because of this that this school was very famous in Hai City. Of course, there was also an endless stream of students, although the quality of teaching was one aspect, her influence was not fake.

She had been memorizing books here for three years, and no one had ever been called to the principal's office alone. What was going on this time.

Was it a mysterious figure, or did the principal have something to say to her.

She thought about her performance in the past year. Well, her performance was not bad. She did not arrive late or leave early. If there was a film, she had already applied for leave. Of course, the most important thing was.., her results had always been pretty good, and she didn't lag behind. Her test scores were also pretty good, and she didn't hold back the class.

Not long after, she stood at the door of the principal's office.

She knocked on the door, but before she could open it, the door opened. It was indeed the principal. The principal smiled at Yan Huan, like a white-bearded KFC grandfather.

"You're here."

Yan Huan nodded. "The headmaster is looking for me?"

"Yes, there's someone who wants to see you."

The headmaster opened the door and let Yan Huan in. When Yan Huan heard that someone was looking for her, he immediately narrowed his eyes. A hint of confusion flashed across her eyes, and there was also an indescribable strangeness.

Someone wanted to see her, wanted to see her, and was able to see her. Moreover, it was a success?

Was it that easy to see her? When she was still in high school, she had already been informed by the school that she would not meet anyone and would not accept any backdoor or interviews.

During these three years, she had reached a natural balance with the school. What was going on? who was the person the school wanted her to meet this time?

She quietly followed the principal in. Of course, she wasn't afraid that she would be in danger. When she entered the principal's office, she was greeted by the entire class and the students of the school, who in their right mind would dare to harm her here.

The principal closed the door and shut his own door. Yan Huan then walked in and she also heard a sound coming from inside.

When she walked closer and saw the man drinking tea not far away, her pupils could not help but shrink a little.

Oh, it was him.

Su Qingdong, the current Su Qingdong was not like the one she had seen in her previous life. He was in his forties and was at the prime of his life. He was at the most shameless. Of course, the current Su Qingdong was also at the peak of his life, he was not the middle-aged man who did not manage to snatch the ye family's airport back then, was suppressed by the Ye family later on, and was infected with an incurable disease because of his only daughter.

At first glance, the man sitting in front of Yan Huan could be considered young. His hair was also jet-black. Of course, there were not many wrinkles on his face. It could also be related to his facial expression.

Yan Huan was not surprised by Su Qingdong's appearance. No, she was still a little surprised. After All, Su Qingdong seemed to have arrived later than she had imagined. Su Qingdong had initially been abroad, the Ye family's recognition of Ye Rong was not a big secret in Hai City. After all, they would meet many people they were familiar with in the past.

The SU family, who had always paid attention to the ye family, naturally knew about it. However, no matter how much Su Qingdong paid attention, he could not just kill his way to the Ye family and ask Ye Rong again.

Why did you marry someone else?

Why did you have children with someone else?

He was the one who had done something wrong.

He was the one who was disgusted.

He was the one who was shameless.

Anyone in this world could blame ye Rong for disappearing for no reason. However, there was only one person, and that was Su Qingdong. He, Su Qingdong, did not have any qualifications.

If he had the face to question ye Rong like this, then he was really out of his mind. Moreover, if what he had done to Ye Rong at that time was known by the Ye family and the outside world...

He would also not be able to bear the consequences.

Not to mention him, even the Su family would not be able to bear the consequences, let alone that Zhu Xianglan and the daughter that Zhu Xianglan had given birth to.

It had to be said that in Yan Huan's understanding, if there was anyone in this world who was the most shameless, it would be this Su Qingdong.

Yan Huan thought that the reason why he had not made a move or spoken for so many years was probably because of this.

And now that he had come to see her, he must have discovered that something was wrong with her existence, right?

And the matter of her being ye Rong's daughter had always been kept a secret. If it was not for a detailed investigation, it would have been impossible to detect it. After all, the traces of her past life had been mostly wiped away.

Thinking about it, Su Qingdong really had a crush on Yan Huan, who looked like Ye Rong's daughter. He wondered if Su Jiuran had fallen ill and wanted to look for his bone marrow?

Didn't they say that Su Mu ran's illness would only be contracted five years later? What was going on? He was starting to find a way to live for his daughter now.

And no matter what happened to Su Qingdong in the end, this person's nature was vicious. His scheming was also vicious, and he was even more shameless. Even if he changed, it would still be decades later.

The current Su Qingdong was not the Su Qingdong of her previous life. Yan Huan knew that.

Of course, she did not want to acknowledge him either.

She did not acknowledge him in her previous life. Why would she acknowledge him in this life? Was he looking for a beating? Or was he looking for a beating?

Su Qingdong was also sizing up Yan Huan as if he wanted to find something from Yan Huan. He gripped the cup in his hand tightly. It could be seen that his current heart was far from the natural expression on his face, it was so calm.

He was still excited.

But Yan Huan did not know what he was so excited about?

What, did he really want another daughter, or did he want her to take his daughter and establish a foothold in the entertainment industry? What did he think he was?

Was he really her father?

“You are Yan Huan?”

Chapter 2495: who was his daughter

Su Qingdong put down the Wang Zi in his hand. He also felt that he was a little too excited. However, he could not help but be excited. At that time, when he knew that Ye Rong had returned, he had been hiding. He had been afraid that ye Rong would tell him about what had happened that year, it was also because of this that he had been hiding abroad for four years. He had also conveniently developed his own business there. Of course, it was also to accompany his only daughter.

Of course, he had never deliberately inquired about Ye Rong. Of course, he also knew about Ye Rong's marriage and even gave birth to a son. His heart was extremely unfair, and he was even a little crazy.

But these were all useless.

He knew that there was no possibility between him and Ye Rong. Moreover, the Su family and ye family were currently at the stage of development. He was on par with Ye Chuji. He needed an opportunity, he needed an opportunity., he needed an opportunity to completely defeat the ye family. If it was, he would definitely make ye Rong kneel down and beg him to save the Ye family. She was willing to pay any price.

Even if it was herself.

Therefore, he had used this kind of mood to walk step by step over the past four years.

Hai city was peaceful, and the Ye family was also peaceful. He also slowly found out that ye Rong did not tell the Ye family about these things. However, as he heaved a sigh of relief, he also hated her to the extreme.

She did not say it, and she actually did not say it. He had thought about her for twenty years, but she had married someone else and even had a son.

However, he had been trapped in such injustice all this time and had forgotten who had betrayed him first. Ye Rong was married, so could it be that he was not married? He did not have a daughter. If one were to talk about betrayal.., he was the one who had betrayed him.

Otherwise, who was the one who was still in front of his wife in his house? who was the one who was studying in a first-class school abroad?

Su Qingdong narrowed his eyes and sized up Yan Huan again. He wanted to find something similar about Yan Huan that belonged to him. He only found out recently that Yan Huan was ye Rong's daughter.

He felt that such a big daughter was his because when he first found out about this matter, his heart was beating wildly. His heart was telling him, and his intuition was telling him as well.

This could possibly be his daughter. Otherwise, it was impossible for ye Rong to find a man in such a short period of time, marry him, and then give birth to a daughter.

Therefore, in Su Qingdong's heart, he had already decided that Yan Huan was his daughter. When he saw Yan Huan's photo, why did he feel that Yan Huan looked very similar to him? His eyes were similar, and his nose was similar, of course, outstanding was also more similar. This was something that the people of the Su family could not be wrong about.

And if Yan Huan knew what he was thinking at that time, he might even be lazy to mock him.

What did she mean by 'outstanding'? She did not look like a member of the Su family. The people of the Su family were all too fickle and Shameless. She, Yan Huan, was an upright and down-to-earth person. She had always spared no effort to help others, ever since she debuted and became famous, she had been doing charity every year. She was determined to be a good person, but she wanted to be a kind person.

As for the self-interested, short-sighted, disgusting and hypocritical character of the Su family, she did not inherit it at all.

Who Are You?

Yan Huan glanced at Su Qingdong indifferently. "Sir, if you want to talk about anything, you can look for my manager. Sorry, this is a school. I don't accept anything other than studying."

When she said these words, she was clearly a little impatient. She still had a lot of homework to do, and she had not finished signing her papers. She still had a lot of things to do. Didn't she know that she was a high school student? She was a senior three student.., she was about to take the college entrance exam.

That was why the Su family was selfish. They had always only cared about themselves and never thought about anyone else.

Now, regardless of whether it was the ye family or the Lu family, their main focus was on her studies. They didn't even let her film anymore. Every day, a bunch of people would follow her into the school because right now, there was nothing more important to them, there was nothing more important than Yan Huan's admission to university. No matter how famous Yan Huan was or how much money he made, he had to get into university.

It was early in the morning and the best time to study, yet Su Qingdong insisted that she stand here and play this game of recognizing her daughter?

"I..."

Su Qingdong was at a loss for words. Actually, he did not know how to say it. Of course, he had already thought about how to say it. However, when he stood here.., when he faced this person who resembled his daughter, his mouth was stupid. He was also a little silly.

Yan Huan secretly rolled her eyes. After so many years of living, her character could no longer remain calm.

"Sir, if there's nothing else, I still have to attend class."

She turned around and left. She had never thought of acknowledging Su Qingdong. Why did she have to acknowledge him? What benefits? There were no benefits at all. She was even forced to sell her blood. She was born so cheap to sell her blood and bone marrow to Su Qingdong's daughter.

She, Yan Huan, would be worth tens of billions in the future. One was from the Su family, and the other was from Su Qingdong. Did she need to put them in her eyes?

She didn't need her father's love in her previous life, and she didn't need it in this life.

So, whether she wanted Su Qingdong or not was the same

"Wait a moment." Su Qingdong stood up and walked in front of Yan Huan. He wanted to confirm whether Yan Huan was his daughter or not, but no matter how he looked at it, he felt that she was.., she was. She wouldn't be mistaken about this father-daughter nature.

So she was, right? She must be. Otherwise, it wouldn't be possible for him to have such a warm feeling. This was because of blood ties, because of the closeness of blood ties.

"Your name is Yan Huan, isn't it?"

For the first time, Su Qingdong felt that his mouth was so stupid.

Yan Huan looked at Su Qingdong suspiciously for a long time.

"Sir, you must be joking. You Didn't come to see me. If you don't even know my name, why did you see me? Could it be that you're my fan? You're the first one who chased celebrities to my school."

"No..."

Su Qingdong wanted to explain, but he didn't know how to open his mouth.

"Is your birthday in September?"

He asked with difficulty.

If Yan Huan was his daughter, then it should be September's birthday.

“Sir, you really know how to joke.” No matter how serious Yan Huan was, he looked straight at the anticipation in Su Qingdong’s eyes. “I was born in December. Everyone knows that.”

“Born in December?”

Su Qingdong did not believe it. “How could you be born in December?” He had only been with Ye Rong once, and that time was in September. Even if Ye Rong had been born prematurely at that time, she should have been born in May, June, and July, if it had been delayed, it would have been at most a month. How could Yan Huan have stayed in his mother’s stomach for three more months.

Chapter 2496: was not his daughter

However, he still did not give up. “You’re twenty years old this year, right?” He thought that Ye Rong might have remembered the wrong date. In any case, he absolutely did not believe that Yan Huan was not his daughter. With such a strong sense of blood relationship, he could not be wrong, this was his daughter. This was definitely Su Qingdong’s daughter.

“I’m not.” Yan Huan’s answer was no longer serious and could not be any more honest.

“I’m nineteen years old this year. I’m not even twenty yet. I took a year off from school due to some matters. This gentleman, twenty-year-old Nian Nian Nian isn’t that much of a troublemaker, right?”

“Nineteen...”

Su Qingdong took a step back. This was impossible. If this was his daughter, she would already be twenty years old. But now, Yan Huan was only nineteen years old. In other words, Yan Huan was only born a year after Ye Rong left him.

She could stay in her mother’s belly for another month, but she couldn’t stay for another year, right? This wasn’t a child. She was already a fossil.

Yan Huan turned around and left. She didn’t want to do this again. She didn’t want to meet those people she didn’t like and hated. All of them ran up to her and randomly recognized her daughter. What did they think of her, Yan Huan? She did not lack a father. One father was enough. Why did they come so many times?

Su Qingdong was also too traumatized. He did not even know that Yan Huan had left. However, he still did not believe Yan Huan’s words. What was nineteen years old and what was born in March.

He did not believe it. He did not believe it. He absolutely did not believe it.

He ran to the table and placed Yan Huan’s academic records there. He used his relationship with the principal to obtain these files. Otherwise, he would not be a professional, it would be impossible for him to pull out these student files.

He had naturally obtained these but had never seen them. He was eager to see the real person, but when he saw the real person, it was completely different from what he had imagined.

He was in a flurry as he opened the file. The information that fell out was none other than Yan Huan's files from primary school until now. There was also a photo of her on it.

The girl in the photo had an extremely exquisite and beautiful face. She was smiling with her mouth slightly pursed. Her eyes were beautiful, and her face was small and delicate. It was a very likable and photogenic face.

Even if it was just an ordinary ID photo, even if it was just a casual photo, it was because of this face that even her ID photo was beautiful.

On it were Yan Huan's birth date, her height and weight, and her blood type.

Su Qingdong's gaze fell on that blood type.

Blood Type O.

He was Blood Type A, and Ye Rong was blood type B. How could they give birth to a daughter with blood type o.

Their ages did not match, and their blood types did not match either. Their looks did not seem to resemble him at all. The friendliness and feeling just now also disappeared in an instant.

This was not his daughter.

Ye Rong did not give birth to his daughter. She was married to someone else and had children with someone else. She was proud of her life now, but what about him? What did he count as?

Su Qingdong squeezed the document in his hand with all his might. He was determined to tear the document apart. His face had already turned ashen, and the resentment that burst out from his eyes had almost completely poisoned the hearts of the people.

He was currently interacting with others, but he didn't know that the principal who had let him in was now being poisoned.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Lu. This is our fault. We promise there won't be a next time."

The principal would occasionally wipe the cold sweat off his head. He also didn't expect that he had only opened a back door for Su Qingdong, but in the end, he had provoked Lu Yi to come and question him.

Who Was Lu Yi? He was currently the number one position in the Hai City Procuratorate. His IQ was extremely high. When he was in school, he was already a genius in mathematics. If the Procuratorate had not gone to the school to poach him, he would still be holding an important position.

After all, it was a pity that he was so capable and had an extremely high IQ. Otherwise, the Procuratorate would not have treated Lu Yi as a treasure. They would not have thought that someone else would poach him, Lu Yi clearly had no intention of leaving. Otherwise, the principal would have wanted to poach him to their school. How great would it be if he could become a teacher? He hadn't been poached, but now he was standing in front of him.., moreover, he was here to cause trouble and interrogate him.

"Principal Li, I remember what we said back then very clearly."

Lu Yi lifted his eyelids indifferently. The expression on his face didn't have the slightest hint of a sunny day. Even the corners of his lips, which had always been thin and curved, were tightly pursed at this moment. Of course, there wasn't the slightest hint of a smile on his face.

Another drop of bean-sized sweat dripped down from principal Li's forehead.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Lu. We were thoughtless."

The principal had nothing to explain about this. No matter how he explained, how could he satisfy Lu Yi, who had always been meticulous? Because he had indeed used a backdoor for Su Qingdong, and he had indeed violated the agreement between him and Lu Yi back then.

When Yan Huan enrolled, Lu Yi was the one who had sent her to school. At that time, Lu Yi had said that. Because Yan Huan's status was rather special, and she had to continue filming, he did not allow the school to privately allow unrelated people to see Yan Huan. This would bring trouble to Yan Huan's life and studies, originally, she had been in the school to study, not to put on a show. If she wanted to see her, she would directly go through the proper channels and look for his manager.

This time, the principal had nothing to say. Of course, he also repeatedly promised that in the future, he would never let anyone see Yan Huan privately. However, this time, Lu Yi came over personally to warn him, this also almost scared the principal out of his wits.

When Su Qingdong wanted to come over again to see Yan Huan, not to mention that Yan Huan was unwilling, even the principal did not dare to do so now.

"Tell me, will he believe me?"

Yan Huan lay on Lu Yi's lap and flipped through her textbook. It was almost time for the exam. She had been taking textbooks these few days and not scripts. Fortunately, Lu Yi would help her revise. Although her studies were not considered top-notch, it was not so bad that she would drag down the entire class.

It was Su Qingdong who suddenly appeared that made her unhappy. Although she had deceived Su Qingdong back then, would she qingjiang go and test some huge DNA.

"He will believe it." Lu Yi was helping Yan Huan to answer the question. As for Su Qingdong's matter, he did not take it to heart.

"You are not a man, so you don't understand men."

"Oh..."

Yan Huan nodded as if she was serious. Of course, she was not a man. She had reincarnated twice, but they were both women. It was a pity that she did not treat them as men.

"So..." Yan Huan did not want to ask for any details. She just wanted results.

"So."

Lu Yi continued, "Su Qingdong will definitely not do a DNA test."

"Why?" Yan Huan flipped another page of the book. She could still multitask. Of course, she also wanted to hear what Lu Yi's conclusion was that men understood men better?

Chapter 2497: Men Understand Men

“Men’s self-esteem.” Yi had almost changed Yan Huan’s question. He put the test paper aside and patiently explained the so-called man’s self-esteem to Yan Huan.

With Yan Huan’s IQ, it would not be so easy to figure out such a difficult question.

Lu Yi was a man. Of course, men understood men. Moreover, there was one more point. He had a lifetime of dealings with Su Qingdong in his previous life. Therefore, he knew what kind of character Su Qingdong had.

To put it bluntly, Su Qingdong was a selfish man who was also a man’s heart. To him, women were nothing more than ornaments in his life, including Zhu Xianglan and Ye Rong. He had never put women in his eyes, therefore, he could use women without any considerations. To enjoy women was also to hurt women. As for his women, even if he did not want them, he could not let others have them.

Especially ye Rong.

Sometimes, the best was the one that could not be obtained. Therefore, Su Qingdong had never forgotten ye Rong in his entire life. Of course, this did not mean that Su Qingdong was completely devoted to Ye Rong, he loved her until he died

The woman that Su Qingdong loved the most in his life might not be anyone else but su Muran. Even Yan Huan could not be ranked in the list. In the end, he could not let go of Yan Huan’s reason. To put it bluntly., it was simply because Yan Huan was the last root of the Su family. It was a pity that Yan Huan was not willing to be the root.

It was understandable that Su Qingdong doubted Yan Huan’s identity. After all, Ye Rong had disappeared for twenty years and suddenly returned with a daughter as big as Yan Huan. It was normal for him to think too much about it. It was just a pity., lu Yi did not give him a chance this time. All of Yan Huan’s files had been changed by him, including his age, date of birth, and blood type. Therefore, all the information that other people could find about Yan Huan., was what they were seeing now.

Of course, the Yan Huan that Su Qingdong saw would definitely not have his daughter.

The time did not match at all. Of course, the blood type could not match either.

Therefore, how could a male chauvinist like Su Qingdong, who was extremely vain, tolerate ye Rong remarrying and even having a child with someone else? In his heart, he was a double-standard slut, he would think that Ye Rong had betrayed him.

And Yan Huan was the proof that Ye Rong had betrayed him.

It was a failure to recognize a woman. Coupled with the perception of betrayal, Su Qingdong did not even want to meet Yan Huan, let alone investigate Yan Huan’s matter.

In fact, it was not only Su Qingdong, but also the others. If he had not been reborn, Lu Yi would not have changed Yan Huan’s age and identity.

What he was wary of were the people from the Su family.

What he was wary of was that the Su family had designs on Yan Huan again.

And the best way to protect Yan Huan was to never let others know Yan Huan's true identity and her blood type.

She was Ye Rong's daughter, and she was also Zhou Li's daughter. And it was impossible for her to become Su Qingdong's daughter in her entire life.

As expected, Lu Yi was right. Su Qingdong felt as if he was wearing a green hat on his head. Of course, as soon as he saw the news about Yan Huan on the television..., the more he disliked Yan Huan, the more it was impossible for him to check for any DNA. This was because he did not expect that Lu Yi had already erased all of Yan Huan's past and gave her such an identity.

An identity that was almost unassailable.

Ever since Su Qingdong had found Yan Huan, she had been a little annoyed. She was afraid that Su Qingdong would come and find trouble with her again. She did not want to be surnamed Su, and it was because she had the blood of the Su family flowing through her body, she felt a little disgusted.

She felt a little inferior because she had a father like Su Qingdong.

If she didn't know before, it wouldn't have mattered. But now that she knew, whenever she thought of the Su family, she wouldn't have a good face. Of course, she wouldn't be in a good mood.

She didn't know if it was because of Lu Yi's words, or if Su Qingdong really couldn't stand being cuckolded, or if he really did look for Yan Huan, but the principal didn't let him in, yan Huan never saw Su Qingdong again in school, and of course, she didn't go back to filming.

How would she dare to film?

To Ye Rong and Zhou Li, no matter how famous she was, no matter how many movies and TV shows she shot, no matter how she was, she was still a student, a high school student, and as a student..., there was nothing more important than studying.

Moreover, it was the third year of high school. If she couldn't get into university, then what would she do? How embarrassing would that be.

Yan Huan had also experienced what it meant to be a devil-like third year of high school. She had endless questions during the day, and at night, she still had to be pressured by Lu Yi to revise. In short, over the past few months..., she felt that she had been through a lot of training.

Although Lu Yi had the questions for this year's college entrance exam in his hands, and she could also cheat, she still had to be like the other students in her third year of high school. She just didn't have any pressure, and she didn't have any pressure..., but that didn't mean that she could indulge and not have to study.

She would just live her miserable third year of high school like this. If she didn't have this third year of high school, although it would be hard, and although she would also complain from time to time and be irritable from time to time, and sometimes she wouldn't be able to eat or sleep well, but.., if she didn't have a senior year, she thought that her life might not be complete. It was also thanks to Lu Yi's merciless encouragement behind her back that she didn't have to immerse herself in that college entrance examination paper, both body and mind were tormented.

If a person was still alive, then this life would be bitter, tired, sleepy, and in love. They all had to go all out, or else they would just be wasting the prosperity of this life.

Yan Huan put down the book in her hand and pulled Lu Yi's sleeve curiously.

"Lu Yi, when were you in your third year of high school? Were you also this bitter when you were taking the University Entrance Exam?"

She thought that Lu Yi would definitely say the same thing. Whose High School wasn't bitter? Whose College Entrance Exam wasn't crying? It was all the accumulation of time and blood and tears.

"Me?"

Lu Yi raised the corner of his lips indifferently. "There's no difference from usual?"

"That's impossible." Yan Huan waved her hand. She didn't know whether other people would believe her or not. In any case, she wouldn't believe it.

"I have a high IQ. In my eyes, those questions are just an ordinary quiz. It's very easy. What do you think?"

Yan Huan covered her face with both hands.

Could they still have a pleasant conversation.

She had heard of flaunting her wealth, Xuan 'er, and girls, but she had never heard of flaunting her IQ.

She had lived two lifetimes, and her IQ combined could not compare to Lu Yi's in this life.

Chapter 2498: You Can Fall in love

People said that poverty limited imagination, but she was definitely lacking in intelligence, which limited her imagination.

With a bang, she closed the door, unwilling to see Lu Yi's smug face. But would Lu Yi be smug? It seemed like he wouldn't. He couldn't be more humble.

On the day of the college entrance exam, Yan Huan really didn't sleep the whole night, just like many high school students. Although she had double guarantees, the accumulation of her own learning.., there was also the college entrance examination paper that she had long memorized thoroughly. She could definitely get the good marks that she had dreamed of.

If she was willing, it was not impossible for her to get into the top scorer of the college entrance examination.

However, she was still worried and afraid. She could not fall asleep, and Lu Yi did not sleep either. Lu Yi also thought of many ways. In the end, he just wanted to knock Yan Huan out. Otherwise., yan Huan was too worried and too excited. He probably did not sleep the entire night. He was right. Yan Huan did not sleep the entire night. She did not sleep at all, because she did not feel sleepy at all.

So early the next morning, she went out with a pair of panda eyes.

Yan Huan and Yi Ling were on the same level, so they had to participate in the college entrance exam together.

The whole family was in the past.

Ye Rong, Zhou Li, Ye Jianguo, Grandma Ye, and Ye Shuyun and Lu Yi were all in the past.

Every time ye Jianguo saw Yan Huan, he couldn't help but feel a little complicated. In fact, he didn't know what was wrong with him either. Yan Huan treated everyone very well, especially since she liked Grandma ye very much, however, there was some distance between him and this grandfather of his, causing him to be unable to get along with Yan Huan.

Actually, Yan Huan could not be blamed for this. After all, in his previous life, it was not so easy to forget the injuries that he had caused Yan Huan. Even if it was a lifetime ago., however, every time he saw ye Jianguo's face, it was possible that everything in the past was still vivid in Yan Huan's heart. It was also a fact that he could not forget.

However, her life might be better. Some things needed time. Relationships between people also needed to be interacted with.

Perhaps one day, Yan Huan would come to her senses and acknowledge her grandfather. However, for now.

"Don't worry." Lu Yi stroked Yan Huan's hair and checked the stationery she had brought with her. When he found that there was nothing missing, he was relieved.

"I will definitely do well in the exams."

Yan Huan was quite confident in herself. Of course, she would be admitted to university. Otherwise, putting everything else aside, wouldn't her three years of time be wasted here? And to her, time was., how precious was it.

In these three years, how many movies would she have to shoot, how many endorsements would she have to accept, how many advertisements would she have to shoot, and how much money would she have to save?

It wasn't that she had no other choice. The Ye family's future airports would burn too much money. Whether it was her or Lu Yi, they were all rushing to save up money. They also had to make up for it in this life, they had to make up for all the money that the ye family's airports required.

This wasn't just for the Ye family. It was also for Ye Rong.

Her mother had managed to live until now with great difficulty. She also had a son and daughter, as well as a husband who loved her. In this life, all of her hardships had ended because of her daughter's rebirth.

And no matter what happened in the future, they would always stand in front of her.

Even if it was the ye family's matter, it was the same.

Yan Huan took his things and walked into the examination hall. The examination hall here could be considered extremely closed. The parents were all waiting outside. Of course, there were also those reporters who had chased after Yan Huan for a long time, they were all waiting outside. However, there was no one in the examination hall. It was rather quiet. Of course, this was also a very good examination venue.

The moment the examination papers were handed down, Yan Huan took the papers and sighed softly. She also calmed down along with Cheng.

She took the papers and began to write them down one by one.

Of course, the paper would not be wrong. History had not been changed, and the questions on this paper were already flowing smoothly. Of course, she also knew how to answer them, and they were all the most standard answers that Lu Yi had written.

She wrote very quickly, and she did not even have the intention to stop. She finished the entire paper in one go, but she still remembered to write a few mistakes. She really did not want to be the top scorer in the college entrance exam., was she that smart? No, was she that hardworking? To be honest, she did work very hard. However, she definitely did not do as well as that person who was supposed to be the first in the exam.

Therefore, she returned the College Entrance Exam's top scorer to him. She did not want to join in the fun. One must know that a top scorer was enough to change someone's life. She could not afford to pay for the change of fate.

She answered the exam very quickly. After checking it a few more times, she also handed in the exam paper at the first moment.

How was it? When she came out, Lu Yi saw her.

Yan Huan made an OK gesture to Lu Yi.

Lu Yi smiled.

However, he still narrowed his eyes. There was a hint of warning in them.

"I know." Yan Huan naturally understood what Lu Yi meant. He wanted her to take it easy so that she wouldn't really get a top scorer. It was fine if she didn't do well, but if she did too well., then she wouldn't be able to clear her name even if she jumped into the Yellow River.

As for the remaining few classes, Yan Huan naturally passed them smoothly. She estimated that her results should be pretty good. Although it was a little shameless, it was better than her scolding herself for being shameless.., it was better than others scolding her for being useless and getting into a university.

“Yeah, I’m free.” Yan Huan threw her textbook aside and directly laid on Lu Yi’s big bed. Then, she rolled around on the bed. She really couldn’t be too happy.

University, ah, university, her university life was coming.

And when she reached university, she could..

Hehe, fall in love.

Lu Yi walked over. It was a rare occasion to see Yan Huan so lively.

It was great that she didn’t suffer much in this life.

“Lu Yi...” Yan Huan extended her hands to Lu Yi.

Lu Yi bent his body and Yan Huan put her arms around his neck. She sat up as he stood up.

“Lu Yi,” her eyes lit up.

“We can fall in love now.”

“HM?” Lu Yi tidied up her messy hair.

“Have you decided not to risk your career?”

“Of course I’ve decided.” Yan Huan had been waiting for this. She had been waiting for almost twenty years, and she had never thought of fighting a long battle with Lu Yi.

“When I’m twenty years old, we’ll get married.

Chapter 2499: Your Good Grandson

Yan Huan had made all the arrangements. She was 20 years old, and Lu Yi was 25 years old. There was a five-year gap between them, and by the time she was 25 years old, Ye Shuyun was going to introduce Lu Yi to a girlfriend.

Therefore, they had to be successful for the rest of their lives.

“Okay.” Lu Yi gently stroked her hair. If they got married, they would get married. In his previous life, when he married Yan Huan, Yan Huan was only 23 years old, and he was already 28 years old. At that time, he was already regretting it, why did he have to get to know her so late? If it had been earlier, she would have suffered a lot less, and they would have been together for a few more years.

And after experiencing a lifetime, he treasured everything between them even more, including every minute and every second.

After waiting for about twenty days, the college entrance examination results were out. Yan Huan had applied for the acting exam at Hai City University. It was only ten minutes away from home, and she didn’t need to live on campus. She just needed to live here, Lu Yi went to work at the Procuratorate every day. He could bring her along on the way. Then, they could be together openly. Of course, she didn't like this kind of underground work.

The underground work had been done for too long. No matter how she looked at it, she felt wronged.

She wasn't ugly, stupid, or scumbag. How could she be so shameful?

Of course, this piece of news was satisfactory, but it shocked the people of the Ye family and the Lu family.

"What?" Ye Shuyun stood up and pointed at Yan Huan and Lu Yi in disbelief. "You... you... how could you? You're cousins."

"They're not related."

Lu Jin was calm as he reminded Ye Shuyun.

Yes, they were not related, they were not related, they were really not related.

Important things had to be emphasized three times. They were really not related, so there was no such thing as cousins. Of course, he was very satisfied. Who asked Lu Yi to be a weird director since he was young, they were afraid that Lu Yi would not want to get married in his entire life. Otherwise, how could he not have a woman by his side? How old was he? He was twenty-five years old, but he had never had a girlfriend, at one point, he was worried that his son's sexual preferences were not normal. He did not like women, but liked men. How could that be? How could that be possible? The Lu family only had one root.

It was also the only child of three generations.

Although there was Lu Jing, he was dead now, and there was also Lu Qin. But what did it have to do with Shan Shan? Therefore, the family's incense was also dependent on Lu Yi. If Lu Yi did not find a girlfriend, what would happen then, wouldn't this take the lives of the old couple?

However, he did not expect that the situation would change.

It turned out that it was not because he liked men. Instead, it was because he already had a secret relationship with Yan Huan.

Of course, if it was Yan Huan, he would be satisfied with a thousand of them.

Yan Huan was only twenty years old. He was very beautiful. If he had a grandson in the future, like her, he would be very happy. Moreover, they had a good relationship with the Ye family. Yan Huan was such a good child. Even if he was from the Ye family..., thinking about it, they were probably worried about teaching their child to others. That would require a lot of worry. What if those people were to treat Yan Huan badly, beat him up, and mistreat him.

Therefore, it was not a good thing to marry his son. This was called keeping the good water in one's own fields

Right, why didn't they think of this before?

His family's Lu Yi was so good, and Yan Huan was so beautiful. In the future, the child he gave birth to would belong to the Lu family and the Ye family. When that time came, the two families would dote on him together. This was beautiful. In any case, they were not related by blood, who said they couldn't get married.

Ye Rong was naturally stunned for a long time. In the end, she turned around and glanced at Zhou Li.

Sorry, perhaps her reflex was really too low, so she really hadn't reacted until now. Tell her, what happened?

"I agree to this matter."

As Yan Huan's father, Zhou Li had the right to make such a decision. Of course, he also believed that Ye Rong would agree.

Ye Rong Thought for a long time, then looked at her own daughter. Finally, she stared at Lu Yi for a long time.

Lu Yi generously let his aunt look at him. There was not a trace of guilt on his face, and of course, there was not a hint of shame. He had lived with Yan Huan for so many years, and they had always greeted each other passionately, of course, they had never done anything that crossed the line.

So, he had no regrets.

As for Yan Huan, he had to marry her.

In his previous life, she was his wife, and in this life as well.

If anyone dared to have any designs on Yan Huan, he would strangle them to death.

Ye Rong stared at Lu Yi for a long time, and then she nodded her head vigorously. I agree. My Huanhuan is too stupid, and Lu Yi is very smart. The children he will give birth to in the future will be smart and beautiful.

Just like that, Ye Shuyun had thought it through. She quickly walked to Ye Rong's side and sat down, directly pushing Zhou Li away.

The two women had already begun to whisper about their future grandsons.

However, Yan Huan and Lu Yi were not together yet. Where were they going to find their grandsons? Of course, Lu Yi had never thought of getting Yan Huan pregnant right now. It was mainly because Yan Huan was too young.

As for giving birth, they would wait until Yan Huan was around 25 years old. At that time, the crises that would appear in their lives would probably be resolved.

In their previous life, only Yan Huan knew about this and had experienced it. In this life, with Lu Yi around, Lu Yi would have a suitable method to get rid of all the crises around them.

And getting Lu Qin out of the Lu family was the first step.

No one objected to Yan Huan and Lu Yi being together.

It was just that ye Jianguo felt a little unbalanced.

He had managed to find a granddaughter with great difficulty, but now their relationship wasn't very good. How could she be kidnapped by the Lu family before she could be raised, he was so angry that he directly went to the Liuyuan Garden to argue with old master Lu.

"You gave birth to a good grandson."

Ye Jianguo immediately glared at Old Master Lu.

"My granddaughter is only twenty years old."

"Mother Ye Rong married you when she was only eighteen years old." Old Master Lu faintly raised his eyelids, "Twenty years old isn't young anymore. If you live well, you might even be able to carry a great-grandson in the future. You see, my grandson is smart, and your granddaughter is good-looking. In the future, she will give birth to a cute and smart little fellow."

Old Master Lu was actually not that satisfied with Yan Huan. After all, in the past, Yan Huan's profession was known as an actor. He was still a little awkward about this heartless actor's unintentional actions.

But because it was Yan Huan, he turned a blind eye to it.

Of course, the biggest reason why he agreed and did not object was because of Yan Huan's face. He really wanted a beautiful great-granddaughter.

Chapter 2500:

The moment ye Jianguo mentioned his great-grandson, his fiery temper instantly disappeared.

Wasn't that right?

Wasn't Lu Yuanyang's great-grandson his great-grandson? Children were only fun when they were three or four years old. They weren't cute when they grew up. It was true that he had watched Lu Yi grow up. In terms of character and ability..., they were very clear about it. In their circle, there was no one more outstanding than him.

No matter how good Yan Huan was, how beautiful she was, or how famous she was, she would still grow up one year after another. Of course, she would still get married. Moreover, actors like Yan Huan would usually get married ten times later, he did not dare to let Yan Huan get married when she was in her thirties. Otherwise, she would never get married or have children.

How could that be possible?

"Lu Yuanyang, what do you think..."

Ye Jianguo did not object now. Great-grandchildren were important. Of course, he wanted to marry off his granddaughter as soon as possible so that she would not have to walk down the road of no return.

And now, he still had something to ask Lu Yuanyang.

"HM?" Old Master Lu glanced at ye Jianguo from the corner of his eyes.

“Speak quickly. If you have something to say, say it quickly. Don’t be so coy and shy. You’re not a woman.”

Ye Jianguo was choked by Old Master Lu and directly rolled his eyes at him.

He didn’t know how to speak. Why did he look exactly the same as when he was young? He was already so old. How could he have such a poisonous mouth? Even if he didn’t change it, it was a loss for him. He was such an impolite person, he actually gave birth to Lu Jin and Lu Yi.

Lu Jin couldn’t have picked them up, right?

Otherwise, how could his father’s mouth be so poisonous? However, his son couldn’t be more serious. He didn’t even say anything harsh. Fortunately, Lu Jin didn’t look like his father, and Lu Yi naturally didn’t look like him.

Otherwise, he would be like Old Master Lu. If he wasn’t happy, he would smash plates and bowls, and he loved to scold people. Even if he made his granddaughter an old lady for life, he wouldn’t marry her to the Lu family.

He was so angry that he wanted to leave on the spot. However, when he thought about what he wanted to ask, he could only swallow his anger and say nothing. He stayed behind.

“Lu Yuanyang, what do you think?”

He asked again.

“Tell me, how are you better than me?” He looked at Old Master Lu for half a day. His face was like a shoe target. He was as ugly as he could be, as ugly as he could be, he thought that he was much more pleasing to the eye than old master Lu and his son. At the very least, when he was young, he was also a handsome young man. So what, his old face was now so disliked by others.

It was clearly Lu Yuanyang who scared the child to tears, not ye Jianguo.

“How am I Not Better Than You?” These words directly made old master Lu and his son’s hair stand on end.

“Ye Jianguo, I am better than you in every way. When I was young, I was taller than you, more handsome than you, more capable than you, and more accurate than you.”

“I am clearly better looking than you.”

Ye Jianguo stretched his neck and then pulled his face. “When I was young, people always said that I was as beautiful as a flower and that a pear flower pressed down on a begonia.”

“What do you mean by pressing the flower to death? You scared the dog to death, didn’t you?”

Old Master Lu’s mouth was so poisonous that it made people choke to death.

“You scared the dog to death.” Ye Jianguo stood up and was about to hit old master Lu.

Old Master Lu moved his old face closer and patted his old face again.

“Come, hit me, hit me. Now, slap my face.”

Old Master Lu snorted. Even if he stretched out his face to let ye Jianguo hit him, would ye Jianguo dare to do it?

Ye Jianguo indeed didn't dare to make a move. He was already so old. If he really made a move, his wife at home wouldn't let him off first. Besides, he didn't want to dirty his hands. His face was covered in oil., how disgusting.

"I think you are ugly."

Old Master Lu still felt that ye Jianguo was not angry enough. There was really nothing he could do about this poisonous mouth.

Even a living person could be angered to death, but a dead person could also be angered to the point of escaping to heaven.

"You are the ugly one."Ye Jianguo's lips trembled. "You are so ugly that even ghosts would be paralyzed from fear by you."

The two ages added together were more than 100 years old, like children. Here, you say something, and I curse out loud. The guards at the side also heard that it was really very tiring to hold it in, however, even if they died from holding it in, they did not dare to laugh. How could they? How could they? If they laughed, they would definitely be strangled to death by the old chief.

These two people had been insulting each other for more than an hour. After the two of them finished scolding each other, they felt comfortable. They drank tea and could listen to Beijing opera together.

"Old Lu, why do you think my granddaughter dislikes me so much?"Ye Jianguo wiped his face. "Am I really that ugly?"

He really wanted to treat his granddaughter well and make it up to his own granddaughter. Now that his daughter was married and had children, he had spent the past few years trying to make it up to his granddaughter.

His grandson was still young and could kiss him, but he liked his granddaughter who looked like his daughter. For some reason, he felt inexplicably guilty towards his granddaughter, however, what if that child was cold?

"With that face of yours, no one would like it."Old Master Lu really did not let go of any opportunity to insult others.

Ye Jianguo's eyes widened, but he could not help but touch his own face. Could it be that he was really that ugly? However, when he was young, even though he could not blow the flowers to death, he was still considered a decent-looking person, it was difficult for him to become really old, so his face had grown fierce.

"You don't have to worry too much."Old Master Lu poured a cup of tea and placed it in front of ye Jianguo, "That granddaughter of yours is quite thoughtful. After all, it was not easy for her to reach this step. Perhaps she has seen many things since she was young, so she still has some resentment towards the both of you in her heart. It will be fine after a long time. I asked my family's Lu Yi to persuade her a little more."

They cursed, mended their relationship, and were annoyed at the same time. However, they didn't know that there were already two people standing outside. They were Yan Huan and Lu Yi.

Lu Yi shook Yan Huan's hand.

"Actually, he's not that bad. Our past lives are all in the past. Our lives actually ended there. Now, our lives are reborn. In this life, you're here to make up for your regrets and find a happiness that you didn't have in your past life."

"So..."he turned around and met Yan Huan's calm eyes again.

"Don't hate him so much anymore. Did he admit his mistake? And all those things he did were only because of that fake granddaughter. It was his guilt towards you and your mother. He made up for it until he died."
