

Chapter 2501: choosing a place

Yan Huan pursed her red lips tightly and raised her head to look at Lu Yi. Actually, she still felt a little uncomfortable in her heart.

“Alright.” Lu Yi patted her face again. “Let’s go take a look at that piece of land at the Ye family’s airport and the place where you can build your company in the future.”

“Sure.” Yan Huan perked up when she heard this. In her previous life, the place where the Linlang building was built did not satisfy her very much. This time, while she still had a choice, she wanted to build a new building for her linlang building, she also had to choose the best location.

Now, she had gotten rid of all the unhappiness from before and followed Lu Yi to choose a place.

“Let’s go here.” Lu Yi pointed at a place for Yan Huan. Right now, this place was quite empty and no one was interested in it. Of course, this place was considered state-owned in the past. If Lu Yi hadn’t bought it first., it would have become the private land of the Su family. In the future, this place would become the second city center of Hai City. In addition, the Ye family airport was built nearby and an ancient tomb was dug out, it had also become the most famous scenic spot in Hai City. In the past ten years, the development of this place had surpassed that of the old city district. Of course, in the future, there would be countless tens of floors of buildings, linlang was one of them.

In this life, they had seized all kinds of opportunities, including the best location here.

Yan Huan recalled the development of this place back then. Some of it was clearly imprinted in his mind.

“En, this is it.” Yan Huan also felt that this place was good.

He couldn’t see anything at the moment, but the roads here would be the best and widest in Hai City. Of course, it would also connect to the special section of Hai City. There was also the airport that led directly to the ye family. The traffic was also in all directions, all kinds of buses were also very convenient. It was indeed much better than the place she had chosen for Linlang in her previous life.

It wasn’t that the location of Linlang’s building wasn’t good. In fact, it was also good. After all, she was also known for her foresight at that time. She had found a good place for herself, and it was even obtained from the Su family. It had also caused the SU family to suffer a lot of losses, perhaps at that time, Su Qingdong’s family was so angry that they vomited blood and almost died.

However, she didn’t have a choice in that kind of location. There were even better places. It was just that at that time, she didn’t think that when she thought about it, it had already become someone else’s, so., she only obtained that one piece, which wasn’t very satisfactory. She could only make do with it.

And now, she had finally found a good place for her future Linlang. Of course, she could build it now. This high-rise building needed to be built, including the formalities, it might take five years. After five years, she would be twenty-five years old. By then, she would be able to start her own business. Of course, there were still many films waiting for her to film. Her whole life was still before the start of filming, from the start of filming, she wanted to create a miracle that was even more amazing than her previous life.

Lu Yi roughly estimated that this place was not far from the Ye family's airport, and he bought a large piece of land nearby. This time, he let the Ye family's airport controller walk past the ancient tomb, this way, he could minimize the loss of the airport and also receive a very good compensation.

In his previous life, Ye Chuji had already set his eyes on the airport. Of course, when he fought with the Su family for the right to build the airport, it was the same as in his previous life. He won, and the Su family lost. As for the Su family.., they would not give up so easily.

They were still waiting to dig a hole for the ye family, especially Su Qingdong. Ever since ye Rong cuckolded him, his hostility towards the ye family had become more and more obvious.

And he had to destroy the Ye family in his hands. At that time, what he wanted to see was the ye family wagging their tails and begging for mercy. It would be too late for Ye Rong to regret.

And he had already dug a hole for the ye family. Now, he was waiting for the Ye family to jump into it. When that time came, they would fall beyond recognition and their family would be destroyed.

After Yan Huan finished high school, she had rested for a very long time. It had been about two months. During these two months, she had coincidentally taken on a movie. This movie had been filmed for quite a long time, about a month or so, hence, Lu Yi was the only one in the family.

The two families were naturally more and more satisfied with the matter between Lu Yi and Yan Huan.

It was their fault that both families were not stupid. Of course, they also knew what it meant to not let others reap the benefits. Originally, Lu Yi still needed a lot of planning, but in the end, he only mentioned it once, and then both of them agreed, they still hoped that they could get married and have children now.

Regardless of whether it was the Lu or the ye family, they were afraid that they would always be single in the future.

Lu Yi was a character.

Yan Huan was a professional.

"Lu Yi, you're here."

Ye Chuji hurriedly greeted his nephew upon seeing him. Of course, he was in a good mood now, mainly because they had obtained the construction rights for the airport. Now, it was only the initial stage of the planning, after that, they still had to carry out a series of financial transactions.

Ye Chuji was quite confident about this. Although their initial investment would be very large, and it might even empty out the entire ye family, in a few years, as long as the airport was built, then the return to them at that time would be.., it would be a thousand times, ten thousand times. Of course, this was also a good cause to benefit the future descendants of the Ye family.

Therefore, all his energy was now focused on the airport.

“Uncle...” Lu Yi called out to Ye Chuji and then sat down. He also glanced at the map that Ye Chuji had placed on the table. It had already been marked with red dots, this was the place that Ye Chuji was looking for the most suitable to build a private airport. This was every private international airport in the country. Of course, he had to pay great attention to the location first.

And this location was chosen correctly. Besides the airport being prosperous, the economy and development of the surrounding areas were also boosted. He dared to say that as long as the private airport of the Ye family landed there, in less than ten years., this place would definitely become the most prosperous place in Hai City.

Ye Chuji happened to have no one to discuss it with, so Lu Yi came. He wanted to share his thoughts with Lu Yi and also listen to Lu Yi’s suggestion.

“What do you think of this place?” Ye Chuji pointed at a place. “Your Uncle Zhou and I both feel that this place is good. When the construction starts, your uncle Zhou will move his business here as well.”

Ye Chuji then pointed at the place on the map where they had highlighted the red line.

Lu Yi’s eyes flashed.

And Ye Chuji had indeed chosen such a place without any mistakes. This place was none other than the place where Ye Chu’s airport was in his previous life. Of course, it was also the place where the Ye family was destroyed.

Lu Yi did not express his opinion. Instead, he took a pen from the side and drew a line on the map with the red pen.

Chapter 2502: then let’s do it

“You said pick this place?”

Ye Chuji understood what Lu Yi meant. Was this really a good place?

“This is the only place we can get our hands on right now.”

Ye Chuji calculated a place that he had drawn himself. He had already chosen that place several times in a row, so the color of the red strokes was deeper than the other places, it was obvious that Ye Chu Ji was also thinking about this place seriously.

“As for this piece of land that you’re talking about...” Ye Chu Ji thought about it again, then shook his head, “I’ve never found the owner of this piece of land. Right now, we don’t have that much time. The land that I’ve chosen belongs to the government. We can buy it and build it into a jiyang. The piece that you’re referring to is said to be privately owned. Moreover, it was already sold ten years ago, and it was bought by a fifteen-year-old young man.”

When he said this, Ye Chuji could not help but sigh. He felt a little helpless.

“How do you think he raised this child? “How did he know how to buy land when he was fifteen years old? Moreover, he bought it at the cheapest price back then. Now, that money is probably only enough to buy less than one-fiftieth of it.”

Hai City had developed very quickly in the past few years. It had also taken over the international market. Not to mention ten years, even if it was a year, looking back, Hai City might have undergone drastic changes.

The biggest change in Hai City was the fact that the housing prices in Hai City had increased several times in the past ten years, not to mention the land. Back then, the land here was quite cheap, however, they did not have the foresight to do so. They thought that with such a big place like Hai City, the land could be bought at any time. However, none of them had expected that.

In the blink of an eye, it had risen to such a terrifying level. He could not find anyone who owned this piece of land, so he could only turn to the next best place and choose the location next to it.

More or less, it was not satisfactory. However, this was also the best place that he had chosen. The others were either too small, or the location was not ideal, or the subsequent development was not very good.

And this piece of land was the one he had set his eyes on the most, and he felt that it was the most suitable.

“Uncle wants this piece of land, right?”

Lu Yi took a pen and pointed at the piece of land he had circled.

“Uncle wants it too,” Ye Chuji smiled bitterly. “Unfortunately, I can’t find anyone.”

“Uncle will just choose this place,” Lu Yi said the same thing.

“Huh?”

Ye Chuji’s heart suddenly tightened. He knew Lu Yi’s personality. If Lu Yi wasn’t completely confident, he wouldn’t have said such a thing. He had been emphasizing it repeatedly, if he asked Ye Chuji to choose this piece of land, then wouldn’t that be..

“Lu Yi, do you know who the buyer is?”

Lu Yi nodded. “I just happen to know.”

It was true.

Ye Chuji stood up with a whoosh and rubbed his hands again, “If that’s really the case, that would be great. First, help uncle contact the other party and see how much the other party is willing to give up this piece of land. If you can get this piece of land, then that would be the best thing that could happen.”

“Alright.” Lu Yi nodded. Actually, he did not need to contact the other party, nor did he need to discuss it. Of course, regarding the price, he could give it away for free. However, he could not say this to Ye Chuji right now.

If the people of the Su clan did not suffer a loss here, then they would not remember the lesson. If they wanted the people of the Su clan to stop having designs on the Ye clan, then they would have to suffer a great loss. Only when they were ruthless., only when the fall hurt would they be obedient.

The next day, Lu Yi had already told ye Chuji the answer. This piece of land was worth 500 million. However, because of Lu Yi's own connections, the Ye family could wait until the airport was built before returning the money, therefore, there was no need to go through the bank procedures. Of course, there was no need to pay the bank a high loan fee.

Ye Chuji naturally agreed. If there was no need to go through the bank, that would be the best. One had to know that 500 million was not a small amount. If they first took out 500 million to buy land, they would have to pay the interest to the bank, it was also very scary.

And a piece of land was obviously much better than the one he had initially chosen. Not only was the place big, but the surroundings were also empty. The places that needed to be demolished were even smaller. There was almost no need for this kind of trouble.

After ye Chuji confirmed with Lu Yi, he had already started to do other work.

Lu Yi placed his phone by his ear. One was still gently pressing on the keyboard of the computer, handling his own work.

"Mr. Lu, that piece of land has already been bought by the Su family."

"En, I understand," Lu Yi replied faintly. Then, he put down the phone in his hand and removed his finger from the computer. Sure enough, Su Qingdong would not let go of any opportunity to strike a blow at the Ye family.

The piece of land that Ye Chuji had his eyes on the most had already been sold by Su Qingdong. Of course, when the antiques were dug out in the end, it had nothing to do with them. They had already earned enough money, and of course, they had earned it from the Su family.

At that time, Ye Chu sued to buy this piece of land, and finally paid a huge price, and such a price, is he spell out, if spell out, then everything is easy to say, but very poor.

They failed in their struggle.

He lost the ownership of that piece of land, and in the end, he could only continue to build it in another place. However, the loss that was held inside was not something that he could afford to pay back. However, the Su family profited from it. Not only did they earn enough money, they'll take over the Ye family and build half the airport.

And this time, they did.

All right, let's do it.

If we don't lose half of Su Qingdong's fortune this time, he won't be called Lu Yi.

Lu Yi just put down the mobile phone, the result there is a phone call, is Yan Huan.

The corners of his lips curved upward. Why did you call him at this time.

“What’s wrong? Are You Alright?”

Lu Yi held his phone in one hand and stood up as well. He walked over to the French window and the afterglow of the setting sun fell on his face. It was the blood of the setting sun and the twilight of the evening.

It was also the light of the setting sun that fell on his eyes. It seemed to have dyed his pupils a faint golden color.

“En, it’s very good. The food here is pretty good.” Yan Huan leaned against the headboard of the bed. Her body was also covered by the blanket. Although it was still a little hot outside, the air-conditioning in the room was blowing. It could be seen that her life was pretty good, it was pretty good.

“Don’t worry. I’m a big shot now. I’m no longer the small fry from the past. They won’t arrange a bad room for me.”

“Okay, that’s good.”

Lu Yi was slightly relieved when he heard Yan Huan say that. He had to go over again after he was done with the matters at hand. He had to see it with his own eyes.

Chapter 2503: was their fate

Filming was an extremely tiring task. Soaking in cold water in the middle of winter and wearing cotton-padded clothes in the middle of summer were also common occurrences. Yan Huan’s star path in this life was extremely smooth. Ever since she was three years old, a movie had already become popular.

After so many years, it was just as Yan Huan had said. She was no longer the small-time cameo she used to be. It was also impossible for people to treat her as a small-time cameo. Of course, it was not after she became a small-time cameo, her treatment on the set was also much better. At the very least, she did not have to suffer a lot. At the very least, when she was unwell during her period, someone else would act as her stand-in instead of her acting as someone else’s stand-in.

However, Lu Yi was still worried about Yan Huan. He had to go over and take a look for himself to be at ease.

After all, Yan Huan’s health had always been poor in his previous life. When he passed away, he was only 60 years old. At that time, Lu Jin and ye Shuyun were almost 90 years old, but they were still alive.

So in this life, you must take good care of your body. You mistreated your body when you were young, and when you are old, your body will ask for something from you.

You only have one life in this life, and only this skin.

Rebirth, that was their life.

But they only had this life. In the next life, Lu Yi did not dare to think about it. Thinking about it, it was also somewhat impossible.

Therefore, they had to live their lives well. They had to cherish every second of this life.

Yan Huan had never wasted her life. It was the same for him.

He naturally knew that Yan Huan couldn't leave her career in this life. This was her other life. This meant that even if he was reborn, even if he had countless wealth, even if he had money.., he could buy the entire sea city. He did not let Yan Huan give up on his love and his pursuit.

A person needed to have an ideal.

A person also needed to pursue

The Ye family took that piece of land very quickly. Of course, Ye Chuji also held on to every minute. He did not want to waste too much time in other places. The moment he took the land.., everything was already prepared and ready to start construction.

The Ye family's airport started construction very quickly. In less than half a month, the workers and equipment were already in place. Ye Chuji placed all of the Ye family's resources on this airport, this was something that he had considered carefully. For this airport, the Ye family had sacrificed everything.

It was also the future of the Ye family.

And the people of the Ye family were also waiting for an opportunity.

Lu Yi felt that Su Jiafang should know something about that ancient tomb. Otherwise, it was impossible for her to buy that piece of land so confidently back then. At first, she had asked for a large sum of money from the Ye family, it was almost as if she had emptied out all of the Ye family's savings. Less than half of the Ye family's savings from the past hundred years had been left.

The other half had been smashed into the airport. If not for the ancient tomb, the Ye family would have been able to survive no matter what. However, it was because of the existence of the ancient tomb.

In the end, the Ye family's airport had been forced to stop construction. Although the government had given compensation to the ye family, such compensation was at least half the size of the land, however, the losses that the Ye family had invested in the airport could not be salvaged. That was why the Su family was able to annex the ye family so easily in the end. It also caused the destruction of the Ye family, even ye Xinyu was not spared.

In his previous life, Youyan Huan worked hard to earn money and saved the ye family.

In this life, Lu Yi had already calculated everything.

Of course, it was a few years earlier than in his previous life. It didn't matter if it was a few years earlier. At this time, the prices weren't too good. By the time the airport was built, this place had already begun to develop.

And sure enough, as he expected, whether it was a few years earlier, when the ye family was repairing the airport, or when they were digging the edge of the ancient tomb, it was just the edge of the edge. It really was just the edge of the edge, it didn't matter whether they wanted that piece of land or not.

However, the hai city government still gave the ye family a lot of compensation. This time, the Ye family didn't lose anything at the airport, but they gained a lot of land for nothing.

And that piece of land also made the Su family lose all their money.

Of course, it wasn't that they lost all their money, because Gong Fu also lost them to another piece of land. It was that piece of land, which was basically a barren land. What was the use of coming here? Regardless of whether that piece of land would be worthless or valuable in the future, they could not wait any longer. This was because when they bought this piece of land, the bank had lent them a loan. At the end of the day, just the interest from the bank alone was enough to eat him dry.

Su Qingdong was so angry that he almost spat out a liter of blood. Even in his dreams, he had not expected that the piece of land that Ye Chuji had not wanted them to look after and had bought was now for that piece of land, they had invested half of their assets.

And now that the land was gone, there was also a piece of useless wasteland.

And now, they still needed a large amount of capital turnover. But in order to buy that piece of land, he had borrowed money from the bank. Now, the bank was pressing for a loan, but they could not take it out at the moment.

Clearly, Ye Chuji did not say that he had his eyes on that piece of land. He had asked around and he was certain. Otherwise, why would he have bought that piece of land in the first place? In the end, Ye Chuji did not have it, however, he had lost both his wife and his soldiers.

The only thing he could do now was to sell the piece of land that the government had given him. However, the geographical location of that piece of land was too poor. As long as it was someone who knew how to do business, anyone with a discerning eye would not want it.

That place was basically a wasteland.

And now, he was a little desperate to seek medical help. It was also because of this that some things had lowered his IQ, causing him to think a little less. In fact, he had thought about it a little more, the population of Hai City would only increase. At that time, no matter where the wasteland was, it would be useful in the future and the price would increase.

But now, Su Qingdong's eyes were red with anxiety. He urgently needed to sell the land and pay back the bank loans. If he paid them back a day earlier, he would have to pay back a lot less. Otherwise, the entire SU family would be greatly weakened, at that time, even if the Ye family did not have an airport, their SU family would still become a low-class family.

And the thing he regretted the most in his life was buying that piece of land. In the end, he did not succeed in stealing the chicken and was instead bitten by the chicken.

What he did not know was that the thing he regretted the most in his life was not buying the land, but selling that piece of land. Of course, this was all in the aftermath. Now, he did not have that much foresight, but he did not. Others did.

Those two who were reborn were both present.

To put it bluntly, what Su Qingdong should regret the most was not anything else. It was that he had wanted to scheme against Ye Rong, but in the end, he had plotted against Yan Huan.

And Yan Huan had come back to give him a hard time in this life.

It was also to make the Su family lose their descendants.

Chapter 2504: tricked Su Qingdong again

No, even without Yan Huan, the Su family would still have no descendants.

Yan Huan would not save her enemy. In this life, she would never let her lover know of her existence. Then Su Muran's fate would never change.

Su Muran would still suffer from thalassemia. No one would donate her bone marrow. She would still die.

Lu Yi placed his phone on the table. When he turned around, he met Yan Huan's clear and beautiful eyes.

She had suffered less in this lifetime, so even her gaze became much clearer.

He reached out and pinched Yan Huan's face. "Why aren't you sleeping?"

"I'm Looking at you."

Yan Huan sat down and leaned into Lu Yi's embrace. She couldn't live without him for the rest of her life. If she really didn't have him, she would rather commit suicide.

"What were you doing just now?"

Yan Huan pointed at Lu Yi's phone and computer at the side. He seemed to be doing something just now, but Yan Huan was a little stupid and he couldn't understand it.

"I bought the Su family's land at Kepeng."

Yan Huan widened her eyes like a little goldfish. No matter how she matched it with her extremely young face, it was still a little cute.

"Isn't that..."

Yan Huan covered her face. Didn't they not have land there?

Yan Huan had been reborn for two lifetimes. Although she didn't know about the Su family's matters, how many businesses the Su family owned and how they developed back then weren't considered a secret in Hai City, as long as they were true Hai City people, they should know about it.

When did the Su family get that piece of land? The land there would be very valuable in the future. Of course, it would also be the future prime location of the entire Hai City. This was because there would be a large hot spring in the future. The hot spring here was scientifically determined, it was extremely beneficial to the human body. Hence, a five-star hotel would be built there in the future. It would be one of the best hotels in Hai City. It was also the most famous hotel for receiving foreign guests.

Of course, when that hotel took that piece of land, it took a lot of effort. and at that time, Yan Huan really wanted a piece of the land there. Why.

Of course, it was to make a place for him to soak in a hot spring. His own place was better than others. Who knew how many people had soaked in that temperature, and how many people had peed in it.

It was a pity that Yan Huan did not have the ability to make a place for himself to soak in the hot spring in his previous life.

“Did you really buy the land there? Is it really at Kepeng’s Place?”

Yan Huan asked again. She was not sure, and she could not believe that Lu Yi would buy that place.

“Don’t you like to soak in the hot spring?”

Lu Yi pinched Yan Huan’s face. “I bought that place. You can soak in it as you wish in the future.”

Lu Yi knew Yan Huan’s personality.

Hence, when the ye family wanted to sell that piece of land at a low price, he bought that piece of land at a very low price. In the future, he would soak his wife in the hot spring. Didn’t she not like to soak in the hot spring with others, in the future, she would soak in the hot spring alone, Alright?

“Ah, you’re So Nice.”

Yan Huan hugged Lu Yi’s neck happily. She really wanted to roll on this big bed again. Wasn’t she too happy? wasn’t she too blissful? Wasn’t she? She could bathe in a hot spring every day in the future, she was willing to bathe until her skin peeled off.

It was just that..

MMM..

She tapped her chin.

“What’s going on? The Su family clearly doesn’t have this piece of land, but now they do. And you bought it?”

“You Want to know?”

Lu Yi saw Yan Huan’s eyes darting around, and he knew what she was thinking?

Yan Huan nodded her head vigorously.

Yes, she thought, she thought. This was simply burning her curiosity. She really wanted to know.

“First, sleep. I’ll tell you when you wake up.”

Lu Yi cupped Yan Huan’s face with both hands.

“Miss Yan, aren’t You Sleepy?”

“No, I’m not sleepy. I’m not sleepy at all.”Yan Huan shook her head. She was in great spirits.

Well, she couldn’t help it. She was young. She was only twenty years old.

Actually, she had just returned from filming. On the plane last night, Lu Yi had picked her up. Once she returned, she couldn’t adjust her jet lag. She was excited for half a day, but she couldn’t fall asleep. In the end, she finally fell asleep, but when she opened her eyes, she woke up again after not sleeping for an hour.

She was still quite excited.

“Go to sleep.” Lu Yi pulled the blanket for her.

“When you wake up, I’ll tell you again. You can soak in the hot spring every day from now on.”

Yan Huan furrowed her delicate brows. Why did she feel like she was coaxing a baby? Also, she only knew now that she could soak in the hot spring in the future. Her heart was filled with excitement. How could she possibly fall asleep, and how could she have forgotten about this? She had been reborn for nothing. Fortunately, Lu Yi remembered. Fortunately, he had bought these most important lands, Yan Huan did not want to open some international few-star hotel. She would just let someone else open it. She only wanted a small place where she could bathe in the hot springs.

As she lay down, her thoughts were running wild. Initially, she had thought that she would definitely fall asleep. However, Lu Yi patted her shoulder gently, accompanied by his breathing and patting. She actually fell asleep just like that.

When she woke up, it was already afternoon.

The sunlight outside was a little dazzling, so at this time, there were still a few people who went out. It was not time to go to work yet. No, actually, some people did not need to go to work at all.

Just like Lu Yi.

Because he took a few days off, he did not know why he took a leave. Could it be that it was to soak in the hot spring.

Yan Huan pulled away the blanket and stretched comfortably. She could sleep until she woke up naturally. She really did not want to feel uncomfortable or too happy.

“You’re awake.”

Lu Yi opened the door and walked in.

He walked in front of Yan Huan and rubbed her face like he was kneading dough. “MMM, what do you want to eat? Let’s go out for a feast.”

“Sure, let’s go for a feast. Bring me to eat something good.” Yan Huan rubbed her stomach. She was starving to death. While they were eating, they would also tell her about the origin of the hot spring?

Of course, Lu Yi would naturally tell her everything he knew, as long as Yan Huan wanted to know.

Lu Yi brought Yan Huan to a private restaurant. Lei Qingyi discovered this. This place wasn’t big and was a little remote. However, the people who went there were also attracted by the name. As for Yan Huan., she didn’t have to worry about her identity being exposed. The people inside weren’t nosy people. They could stay inside freely and enjoy a delicious meal in peace. The main reason was that there were very few people, it was probably just one table for them.

Chapter 2505: high-profile admission

Yan Huan had also satisfied his curiosity. Of course, he also knew where the land for the hot spring came from.

Actually, it could be said that it was an unintentional ploy.

Su Qingdong's land was taken back by the government, and they gave him another piece of land that was not too eye-catching. Su Qingdong was the same as the Ye family in his previous life. He was cheated by that ancient tomb, and he almost lost everything.

At that time, the government had given him two choices. One was the land near the Ye family airport, and the other was a place with a hot spring. These two places would be places with very high land prices in the future. However.., now, they were all the same piece of wasteland.

Su Qingdong was so disgusted by the word "Ye" that he wanted to vomit. How could he choose to be next to the Ye family airport? Therefore, he asked for another piece, which was the one with the hot spring.

However, no matter which piece, he had no intention of keeping it. He also wanted to sell it and think of ways to repay the bank's loan.

He could only sell that piece of land to make up for the huge hole he had lost this time. Of course, the amount he lost was not as great as the Ye family in his previous life. The Ye family had almost been destroyed, so now, he was asked to lose some money, it was all too easy for him.

Lu Yi, of course, did not hesitate to buy that piece of land back at the lowest price possible.

Back then, Yan Huan had used Su Qingdong's scheming against her to threaten Su Qingdong. He had also taken a piece of land from Su Qingdong's hands, which was that beautiful piece of land.

At that time, he had wanted to make Su Qingdong so angry that he spat out a liter of blood. This time, he had sold another piece of gold lump. He did not know if he would really die of anger.

"Have you really never thought of acknowledging him?"

Lu Yi asked Yan Huan again. He also wanted to confirm Yan Huan's thoughts. Only then would he know how to treat the people of the Su family. If Yan Huan still had a trace of affection for the Su family, then he would leave a trace for the Su family in the future, if he did not, then he would be a stranger.

What should be calculated, what should be dealt with, was dealt with. That was it.

"Why should I acknowledge them? So that they can plot against me?"

Yan Huan snorted. Before Su Qingdong died, he had always wanted to plot against one of her children to the Su family. Now that she was blind, she would acknowledge the SU family

"In any case, I am a Jedi and will not acknowledge him. In the future, don't let them know what my relationship with them is. Otherwise, they will plot against me again. I was born not to be played with by them."

Yan Huan pulled the quilt over her face and covered her face. She didn't like much about the people and matters of the Su family. Whenever the Su family was mentioned, she would be annoyed, and she would be evil. She hated them.

In this life, let her live a peaceful life, okay?

What Su family people? What did it have to do with her? In any case, her surname had never been su.

As for the Ye family, with her mother around, the Ye family wouldn't break up.

As for her, she was just like Lu Yi in her previous life, living happily and happily. Of course, in this life, she would protect her body well and strive to live to the same age as Old Master Lu.

To be an old man who would never die.

This was the greatest and most beautiful wish of her life.

Wasn't it rather beautiful.

"Oh right," Yan Huan suddenly opened her eyes and rolled over, landing in Lu Yi's embrace. It was also Lu Yi's arm on the pillow.

"Is school starting soon?"

She rubbed her eyes.

She had been so busy recently that she felt dizzy. After filming, she had been drunk for a long time. She had completely forgotten about the change of the sun and moon outside and the changes of the four seasons.

Of course, she had also forgotten about the passage of time. So, what day was it now? What Day was it? Could she start school now.

She didn't remember, but Lu Yi should also remember, right?

"There are still five days left," Lu Yi naturally remembered. He was clearer about Yan Huan's matters than he was about his own. Of course, his memory in this lifetime was clearly much better than before.

Yan Huan had five days left before school started, so he naturally wouldn't forget.

"Oh..." when Yan Huan heard that, he immediately understood. If she closed her eyes and slept, she could still spend another five days in a drunken stupor. After five days, she would be a university student, and then she would start her normal life, filming the best scenes and becoming the best reputation.

Lu Yi saw that she had fallen asleep, so he took his computer and placed it on his lap. He began to study the land with the hot spring.

Now, the ownership of the land was in his hands, and it was also his private property. Of course, he had not thought of developing this place until now. After a few years, when a road was built there., news would spread that there was a hot spring. Then, he would build a private villa there, just like a garden. It would be natural.

He believed that Yan Huan would definitely like it.

As expected, Yan Huan had been drunk at home for five days. She ate, slept, and ate every day. It was rare for her to be so relaxed and free. In the past, she had acted.., she didn't even have time to rest. Finally, she had these few days to eat well, sleep well, then go to school, and work hard.

Of course, these days passed quickly. Before she noticed, five days had passed.

Lu Yi parked his car at the school gate. He still liked to drive such a low-profile car. In addition, he had a very special license plate number. No matter what, once the car was parked here.., it attracted the attention of everyone present.

Whether it was the students or their parents, they were all the same. Everyone was also thinking about where the big brand was. In a place like Hai City, it could be hung with such a license plate number.., it was probably not an ordinary person.

The entire hai city university was hung with horizontal stripes. On them were the words, "Welcome, Yan Huan, to our school."

Yan Huan covered his eyes. He really couldn't bear to look at her.

"Don't you feel that you're very high-profile?"

"You're high-profile." Lu Yi helped Yan Huan put on her mask. "Celebrity, you should be more careful."

"I'm clearly very low-profile."

Yan Huan had always been a low-profile person. She was a low-profile person. When had she ever been high-profile.

"You didn't go to a famous university, but you managed to get into Hai Gao's acting department. Hai Gao's acting department is a new department, and the number of students there is pitiful. Now that you're so famous, do you think you can keep a low profile?"

"I just want to be closer to you." Yan Huan took off her mask and smacked Lu Yi's face hard.

She wouldn't be so stupid as to go to university elsewhere. After four years of university, coupled with the fact that she still had to film everywhere, she would have to be closer to Lu Yi. At that time, either Lu Yi would become a wife-gazing stone, or she would become a husband-gazing stone.

Lu Yi rubbed her hair. He naturally knew what Yan Huan meant. Yan Huan had never thought about which university she wanted to go to, or what kind of name she wanted to become in the university.

Chapter 2506:

With her current qualifications and acting skills, there was no need for her to go to university. She was just fulfilling her dream of going to university. She wanted her life to go according to a certain standard. It was also a normal procedure.

"Let's go and register."

Lu Yi pinched Yan Huan's face again. It was really as if he had raised a daughter. Now that he had grown up, he was finally going to university.

The car door opened and Yan Huan came out. For a moment, she was wrapped up very tightly. Even her eyes were covered by a pair of sunglasses. In addition to the fact that she was traveling frugally, no one could tell who she was, who Was She?

Actually, Yan Huan really did not feel that she was very famous. She just had more experience than the average actress. After all, no one was like her, who had been acting since young and had grown up, throughout the year, there were a few good movies to brush up on her presence. Moreover, every year, whether it was a big drama or a small drama, she would pull out an award from it. In addition, she had been beautiful since she was young, so it was good that she was recognized by the audience, moreover, she didn't have any dark history. She was a small actress who couldn't be criticized anymore.

When she walked over to the acting department, the students there were already working as volunteers.

When Yan Huan walked over, they were already very observant as they welcomed her.

"Junior, are you students from our department?"

Yan Huan had always kept her head down, and she had also lowered her hat a little, so no one could see her face clearly. When the volunteers saw Yan Huan holding the acceptance letter in his hand, they walked over to them, therefore, she should be a student of their department. As their department had not been open for long, it could be considered an independent college. Usually, there would be no other department coming over, after all, Hai Shi University was not considered the most famous art school.

However, this was also the time now. When the time came, when all sorts of dazzling things would appear, in addition to the rise of various entertainment companies in Hai Shi, Hai Shi University's acting would also become famous. Of course, there would also be many students., and now, it was really a pity for these people.

"Let's Register." Lu Yi took Yan Huan's admission letter and placed his hand on Yan Huan's hat. He was very tall, and his expression was a little solemn. Therefore, in front of others., there was always an absolute pressure.

Not to mention a university student who had yet to make his debut, even people on the same level as him would feel a pressure on him.

The university student was stunned for a long time, but he did not dare to face Lu Yi directly.

"Please follow me."

He turned around and could not help but wipe the cold sweat off his head. It was said that some people could kill with their eyes. He had really never seen eyes that could kill, but eyes could scare people to death, today, he had really seen one.

No matter how hard Lu Yi pressed on Yan Huan's hat, he held on to Yan Huan's hand so that he would not be squeezed to death.

When they reached the registration area, he saw a female teacher who was dressed in black sitting over there. His eyes narrowed slightly. Yan Huan was also very sensitive and felt that something was wrong?

She lifted her face and took off her sunglasses.

'Eh??' She blinked her eyes in disbelief. Then, she didn't know whether to laugh or cry. This life was full of surprises and fate.

What was going on? was she the one who signed her up?

Grand Master extinction, Fang Zhu.

After all, they had been talking for so long with Fang Zhu. Moreover, this teacher Fang Zhu had been Lu Yi's wife for the rest of his life.

However, in this life, Lu Yi and Fang Zhu wouldn't have any interaction or relationship. It was impossible for them to even be familiar with strangers.

Fang Zhu could not help but take another look at Lu Yi. She did not know why, but there was a layer of unspeakable chaos in her heart. Her heartbeat could not help but increase a little. It was so fast that she was somewhat powerless to stop it.

She awkwardly put her hand to her mouth and coughed softly to stop herself from losing her composure.

"Sign up."

Lu Yi placed Yan Huan's acceptance letter on the table while Fang Zhu took the letter. When she saw the name on it, her pupils involuntarily contracted. The name written on it was not anything else but Yan Huan.

Although she had never paid attention to these things, all of them had grown up watching Yan Huan's films. Yan Huan was growing up, and so were they. Yan Huan had grown up with them, and they had never watched Yan Huan grow up.

To them, Yan Huan was an existence that they could not get close to.

Because he was very famous.

If it had been an ordinary person, they would have been shocked.

Fang Zhu was indeed shocked. However, her calmness since she was young did not cause him to panic like other people. In addition, he was flustered.

She still followed the procedures to help Yan Huan complete the enrollment procedures. She did not feel that there was anything wrong with registering a celebrity. So what if she was a celebrity? No matter how famous she was, she was still a student and she was a teacher, students should listen to their teachers and be afraid of them.

And the current Fang Zhu was only a newcomer to the school. He did not have a bunch of weird problems in the future. Although his image was still a little inferior, he was not considered to be annoying.

Although Yan Huan held grudges, the grudges of his previous life would also be held in this life. The grudges that he had not finished in his previous life would also be kept in this life. However, Fang Zhu was different.

She had no grudges with Fang Zhu.

Of course, she also did not feel that she had stolen Fang Zhu's man. It should be Fang Zhu who had stolen her man.

"Sign." Fang Zhu pointed at the pen on the table and let Yan Huan Sign It.

Yan Huan took the pen and also signed her name on it. She raised her eyelashes and looked serious. It could be seen that she had a pair of very beautiful eyes. She was twenty years old, in fact, it was the best color.

No matter how she looked, she could not be compared to a twenty-five year old woman. Moreover, she was a peerless beauty.

Her long eyelashes trembled slightly, as if there was a light shining on her eyelashes. When the light fell, her eyelashes were almost one centimeter long, extremely curly and thick.

Yan Huan had a pair of extremely beautiful eyes.

Fang Zhu's hands could not help but tremble. She could not tell what she was feeling in her heart?

Perhaps she was a little jealous. Although she had been an outstanding person since she was young, it had nothing to do with her appearance. She knew that she was not beautiful, but she was from a scholarly family, and her studies were good. She was only 25 years old, other people wanted to find a suitable job and ran around everywhere. Most of them were mediocre, but she was already a university teacher.

Therefore, she was very proud. Of course, she was also proud. At the same time, she looked down on those women who only had empty faces but did not have brains. However, only she herself knew the reason why she hated them so much, it was because they could not get that beautiful face of theirs. That was why they hated it. That was why they were jealous because they could not get it.

Chapter 2507: A Smooth Life

She was jealous, and she knew it.

The name Yan Huan was something that she could not get close to or achieve. He was the cloud, and she was the mud. No matter how arrogant she was, she could not be compared to that person. Because that person not only had a good face, but also had an excellent family background. Of course, he also had excellent results. Even his college entrance examination results were ranked at the top.

She did not rely on her family background or her parents. It was all because of herself.

Everyone knew how many points she had scored in the college entrance examination this time. Not only was that person good-looking, but she also had a pretty good head.

Fang Zhu lowered her head and put Yan Huan's registration information aside. She had also received the registration fee. However, she could not help but glance at that tall and handsome man again.

At this moment, the man was lowering his head and talking to the woman beside him. He was also tidying up the hat on her head.

The woman's hand was also holding the man's hand and shaking it.

University life.

It was very normal for someone to have a virgin boyfriend and girlfriend. No matter how conservative Fang Zhu was, she could not point at the man's nose and scold him. It was immoral.

She did not have the guts to do so, nor did she have the guts to think so highly of herself.

Yan Huan naturally would not have another in-depth conversation with Fang Zhu. Since it had nothing to do with her, then she would just remain indifferent. Everyone had their own paths to walk, and they also had their own lives to live.

Life was as it should be, and it was not up to fate. It was all up to her to walk.

As for Yan Huan's university life, it was truly extremely comfortable. She only had a small amount of time in school, and most of the time, she would take a break from school. As long as she could stay there until she graduated, it would be fine, this was because this was the golden period for her to act in the past few years. Of course, there were many films that she had to film.

For example, she had lost her marriage, which was almost her representative work. She had to take it back and film it.

Of course, in this life, she was more popular and had more resources than in her previous life. She didn't need to be an extra every day. Yi Ling had also followed her everywhere. In these few years, Yi Ling had grown very fast, she had the demeanor of a lifetime.

However, she still had to worry about not meeting that scumbag.

However, that shouldn't be the case.

The fate between people was very strange. For example, Yi Ling and Lei Qingyi. They were husband and wife in their previous lives, but they had never met each other in this life. From the first time they met, the two of them had a good impression of each other, they didn't fight, and they didn't scold each other until they vomited blood.

In these few years, they had naturally gotten together.

And from then on, her mother did not have to worry. No one would want the short-breasted Yi Ling in the future.

And mother Lei did not have to worry. Her son from the stupid electric pole could not get a wife, which also meant that the Lei family would have no children.

Actually, it was not that easy to have no children.

Just like that, Yan Huan's three years of university life passed like this. The Ye family's airport had always been built very peacefully. And the Su family, after that blow, although it did not hurt their roots., they still kept a low profile, and didn't use any high-profile tricks on others anymore.

Yes, they could all live their lives peacefully and happily, right?

The development of various places in Hai City was just like in his previous life. The new urban areas were also built along the Ye family's private airport. The money that Yan Huan and Lu Yi had earned over the past few years was also enough.

Therefore, the dazzling buildings had also been erected during these three years. Of course, they also had a hot spring villa. It was not big and was private because when they were repairing the roads there, it was not surprising, it was discovered that there was an extremely rare geothermal resource, and the land prices there were rising like crazy. Of course, it was also possible that it had angered Su Qing so much that he was about to vomit blood and die.

However, no matter how angry and regretful he was, it was useless.

That piece of land used to belong to the Su family, but now it had become someone else's.

Lu Yi only took out a piece of land to build a small resort villa for Yan Huan. It was enough for her to soak in the hot springs. Then, the manager of the star-rated hotel in his previous life came to him and said that he wanted to buy that piece of land.

Lu Yi did not sell that piece of land, but he sold that piece of land to the hotel. No matter how they sold that piece of land now, they would suffer a loss. Therefore, the ownership of that piece of land was still with Lu Yi, however, the right to use that piece of land was given to that star-rated hotel. The rental period was first ten years, and after ten years, Lu Yi would sell that piece of land.

Of course, it would depend on the future land price.

Lu Yi was a prosecutor, but he was not stupid in doing business. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to earn so much money in just a few short years and buy the land at the Ye family airport before Yan Huan

Yan Huan had already become famous at that time, and her pay was also quite high. The actors themselves were very profitable, not to mention that Yan Huan was already famous to half the sky back then.

Her earnings would definitely not be small.

However, no matter how much she earned, it was all surpassed by Lu Yi in the end.

Yan Huan did not care about these things. She only needed to have her own resort villa. Of course, if there was a star-rated hotel next to it, which was one of the best in Hai City, then it would be a good thing for her to speak to it face to face, after all, those who lived next to each other were all famous figures. Only then would they be able to set off the scene. Just how valuable was this piece of land?

This year, Yan Huan graduated from university. She was twenty-four years old, just like in her previous life. She was already married to Lu Yi. Of course, Lu Yi was not an underground husband, and Yan Huan did not hide the news of her marriage, she was not afraid of losing any fans.

She was already very popular. Her popularity was not only because of her face, but also because of her acting skills and the popularity that she had worked hard to accumulate in the entertainment industry.

Those who really liked her would naturally be happy for her.

She had married her own love at her most beautiful age.

Of course, the most important thing was that the scenes that she had acted in later were almost one hit after another. Obviously, her popularity in this industry had almost reached an uncontrollable stage.

With the experience of two lifetimes, how could she not succeed? Regardless of whether it was the ye family or Lu Ai, the disasters that belonged to both families were perfectly avoided.

Ye Xinyu was beaten up by Lu Yi and could not get up. Even if he wanted to get out, he could not. Unless he crawled, Lu Jin did not participate in that overseas trip, so he did not encounter any earthquakes.

When the earthquake happened, Lu Jin did not go over. Fortunately, he had diarrhea and was hospitalized. Otherwise, his life might have ended there, of course, when they thought of the tragic situation there, both he and ye Shuyun broke out in cold sweat. They thought that this was truly a disaster that would not end in death. There would definitely be good fortune in the future.

Chapter 2508: the daughter of another

However, there was always a cause and effect, and there was always a sacrifice.

Lu Jin did not become a general.

However, compared to the hardships he had suffered at that time, it was better this way. Although it was a pity that he did not reach the next step, it was only when he grew old that he realized that the most important thing in this life was still the people around him.

These natural disasters and man-made disasters were things that they could reverse. The only people they could save were the people around them. Whether it was Lu Yi or Yan Huan, it was the same. It didn't matter how many times they had been reborn.., what was going to happen still had to happen. The path that they had to walk also had to be taken.

There would be mudslides, earthquakes, and even floods.

And after every major disaster, Yan Huan would donate a large sum of money. She did what she could, and did what she couldn't, except for those that couldn't be changed.

After all, she was only one person. It was impossible for her to save the entire world.

Because she wasn't some savior.

When Yan Huan became more and more popular and her career reached its peak, Su Muran appeared. However, even though she had the ye family behind her, if she wanted to develop in this circle.., she had to ask if Yan Huan was willing?

Su Muran looked down on Yan Huan. Of course, she had her own intentions. She wanted to compete with Yan Huan. After all, one mountain could not accommodate two tigers. However, if she wanted to take root in the domestic entertainment industry., it was no longer an easy task.

Yan Huan's influence in the entertainment industry was no longer on the same level as hers.

"Dad, think of a way to get rid of her for me."

Recently, Su Muran had been encountering problems everywhere. Initially, there were a few films that were meant for her to shoot, but in the end, she was rejected. At first, she did not know what the reason was?

It was not until not long ago that someone secretly told her that someone wanted to go with her.

As long as that person was around, she would not be able to get what she wanted. She would not be able to become famous.

That person's status in the entertainment industry was very special. Now, as long as she stretched out a finger, she could destroy a newbie.

Su Muran had already guessed who that woman was. However, no matter what, she could not find any evidence against that person. This was because, whether it was in terms of popularity or other aspects., she was far from that person.

Even if she wanted to play tricks behind her back, someone had to be willing to listen to her.

And that person, she realized that she could not move at all.

Therefore, she could only come and look for Su Qingdong. As long as Su Qingdong agreed to help her, then that woman who went against her would definitely not have a good ending.

She was waiting for Su Qingdong's answer, and also waiting for Su Qingdong's decision.

However, after half a day, she did not see Su Qingdong respond no matter what.

"Dad..."

Su Muran once again tugged at Su Qingdong's sleeve.

Su Qingdong had always doted on her, his only daughter. Ever since she was young, as long as she wanted, Su Qingdong would definitely do it for her. It was just kicking a woman out of the entertainment industry, he believed that as long as Su Qingdong was willing, then he would definitely be able to do it.

"Ranran..."this was the first time Su Qingdong faced his daughter with such a heavy heart.

"You can touch anyone, but remember, stay far away from having a good time."

Su Qingdong's tone couldn't be any more serious, and there was a lot of warning in it.

"Father, why?"

Su Muran didn't understand, but of course, she was unwilling to accept it. It was fine if she didn't help her, but why did she have to warn her? Could it be that Su Qingdong had some unspeakable secrets with that woman.

Fortunately, she didn't say it out loud, and it was only because she was a little suspicious.

If Yan Huan found out, Yan Huan would feel that he was too merciful to the Su family. He should have let the Su family lose in Hai City, and let their hundred-year-old foundation go down the drain.

Without money, the Su family and Su Qingran were nothing. Just like the current Lu Qin, without money and the Lu family, he didn't dare to say anything, he couldn't stir up any trouble.

Su Qingdong reached out and patted his daughter's shoulder.

"Ranran, you have to listen to your father on this matter. Remember, you must not mess with that woman."

Su Muran now knew that there was no point in saying anything now because Su Qingdong would never agree to anything. Moreover, it was impossible for her to make him deal with Yan Huan.

However, she would not give up just like that. Her eyes flashed, but of course, she did not let Su Qingdong notice the unwillingness in her eyes.

"RANRAN, do you understand?"

Su Qingdong was still afraid that Su Mulan would not know the immensity of Heaven and earth, so he could only ask Su Mulan again. His expression was heavy, and his tone was stern.

The SU family was not the only one that was dominant in this world. The current su family was greatly weakened, but the Lu family was becoming more and more mysterious. Even the financial resources of the Lu family had reached a stage that he did not know about, especially that Yan Huan who was too good at making money. She invested and acted on her own. She had also established her own company. In these few years, just the billions of films alone were more than a dozen. This kind of money-making speed., was really too terrifying.

He was doing business. How could he not have calculated it? How could he not have known? How could he not have thought of it.

Moreover, once the ye family's airport was built, what would it mean?

It would be an endless stream of money, a thriving family business, and an existence that could not be surpassed.

However, the Su family's family business had been seriously declining in the past few years. Especially in this one year, it had almost started to regress.

At the same time, the complicated feeling in his heart was also that kind of jealousy.

If only Yan Huan was his daughter, then all of the economic benefits that Yan Huan brought would belong to the Su family.

It was just a pity.

She wasn't.

She was someone else's daughter. She was the daughter that Ye Rong gave birth to. She was also the daughter that Ye Rong gave birth to. She was born to be at odds with him.

He also understood that his daughter, ran ran, was still too young. She had yet to grow up and she only had arrogance and arrogance. However, when it came to scheming, she was far inferior to that Yan Zhan.

A woman who could rake in a large sum of wealth and build such a huge building, other than the man behind her, her own abilities were also not low.

If Su Mu ran wanted to go against her, it was simply a Fool's dream. In the end, it would probably end up with nothing.

Su Qingdong warned Su Mu ran heavily, and Su Mu ran seemed to be frightened. Although she was still unwilling in her heart, she still agreed in the end. She would not go against Yan Huan, of course, she would not go and find trouble with Yan Huan.

It was just that Su Qingdong still did not know much about his daughter.

Chapter 2509: Female Transformation too

He was right about one thing. Su Muran was indeed a spoiled child. She had yet to grow up to be as scheming as she was back then. She had never suffered a loss before, so she did not know that there were some people that she could not offend, of course, there were also some people that she, Su Muran, could not afford to offend.

And one of them was called Yan Huan.

Yan Huan walked out of Linlang building. The entire building had already begun to be used, and she had poached Luo Lin over. Together with Yi Ling, as long as the two of them got together.., then nothing would be difficult for them. They believed that as long as they worked together, Linlang would be able to develop even better, just like in her previous life. Of course, they would not have to worry about operating problems.

Wasn't there still her?

How did she manage to support Linlang in her previous life? Of course, she could do the same in this life.

And Yan Huan had never been worried about this. Of course, she wasn't afraid that Linlang would lose money, because she simply couldn't afford to lose money.

Mm, she thought about it. Everything had become official. As long as she acted well, she couldn't do it. Of course, she had to make those few films that made money for Linlang.

Then, what else had she forgotten?

That's right, why couldn't she remember?

That's right, what exactly had she forgotten?

She went back to ask Lu Yi. She knew what Lu Yi knew, but she couldn't remember. Perhaps Lu Yi could. Even if she couldn't think of anything, it didn't matter. If she gave her some hints, she would definitely remember.

In any case, she didn't have any impression of him at the moment, so Yan Huan didn't think about it anymore. She lowered her hat and walked forward. Originally, she was going to get her car, but in the end, she remembered... it was almost twelve o'clock now, and it was also almost lunchtime. She had been busy all this time, so she had forgotten about the meal.

Of course, it would take some time if she went home and made it herself. In the end, she decided to buy some ready-made fish to go to Lu Yi's place. It was just right. This place was not too far from the prosecutor's office. After she bought it..., she could directly go to Lu Yi's place.

She also thought of what she wanted to buy. There was a restaurant here that had good grilled fish. She had eaten it once, and the taste was quite authentic. Today, they were going to eat grilled fish.

After packing up her things, she was ready to set off. Of course, she did not drive. The distance was very short and it was the most convenient to walk. Even if she drove, it was not easy to find a parking spot in such a place, it was not as fast as her. Perhaps the parking time was enough for her to go to the prosecutor's office.

She was also walking along a small road. She had already walked this road countless times. Now, she could walk out with her eyes closed. Of course, she did not think that someone would harm her.

She did not put others in her eyes. If anyone dared to have designs on her, they would have to test her fists?

And today, she had really met someone who dared to follow her.

She secretly clenched her fingers.

Then, she stopped and sighed to the sky.

It was also Yousang's, really.

Finally, there was someone who could let her practice. She had been a violent Loli since she was young. Now, she was actually a violent woman. However, she still had to be a lady. She could not beat anyone, and of course, she could not beat anyone.

Besides, everyone was just doing their job. She wouldn't hit anyone she could.

The footsteps behind her got closer and closer. Yan Huan was quite familiar with this feeling. In her previous life, she had been captured several times. Her sense of danger seemed to have been left over from her previous life.

Of course, she had to be grateful to Su Qingdong for giving her such an unforgettable memory.

That was why she really would not acknowledge Su Qingdong as her father.

She still stood there and looked at the blue sky and white clouds above her head. The weather today was really good. She closed her eyes in enjoyment. Her naturally colored red lips also curved slightly.

Such a beautiful spring scene was best used for fighting, right?

A gust of wind suddenly blew by her ear. She knew that those people had made their move.

She turned her head abruptly and that hand was about to land on her shoulder.

A hint of surprise flashed across that man's eyes. Of course, there was also a hint of greed. Was this greed for pleasure? However, he really had to teach himself a lesson. He knew that the so-called beauty was not something that one could be greedy for just like that.

If things went wrong, they would have to pay a price. Perhaps they would not be able to accept love.

The Man's eyes were hot, and his heart was beating faster. Of course, his body's hormones were constantly secreting a kind of excitement. There was also an evil fire that could not be dissipated.

In the end, he had not fully prepared his emotions. He did not say a few more words to tease the man. Then, he heard a miserable cry from the man. Following that, with a bang, the man flew backward and smashed heavily into the wall, the wall was still rather sturdy and did not fall down. However, the dust that fell from the wall had charmed the man's face and his body, which was lying on the ground like a turtle.

Yan Huan put down his foot and then clenched his knuckles. His gaze swept over the men who had not made a move.

She was clearly a beautiful face and a pair of clear eyes. She was clearly a weak little woman who could be smashed flat with one of their hands, but how could this kick send a grown man flying.

And now she was still smiling, but this smile made their hair stand on end.

The few men couldn't help but take a step back. They couldn't believe it. They were afraid, afraid, and even wanted to run away.

But in the end, they still braced themselves and looked at each other. At the same time, they knew what the other party was thinking. They had to capture this woman.

They really did not believe this. A few grown men could not deal with a little woman. If this were to be revealed, it was likely that they would laugh their teeth off.

The few of them were now hugging a group of people who were outnumbered. Of course, they did not think that they would lose to a woman. Unless this woman was too much of a change and could kick them over one by one.

What they didn't know was that this time, they had really kicked a huge iron plate. This was because Yan Huan was a woman with strange strength. Her strength had changed so much that up until now, other than her own family members.., no one knew.

There were a few more banging sounds. This was like a martial arts movie. The few men had nothing to live for and sprawled on the ground. They felt like they wanted to die.

Especially the one at the bottom, the one that wasn't squashed.

What happened to a woman without strength?

What happened to a woman who can't take a punch?

What happened to the one-handed grip?

Deal. deal.

What happened to the deal?

Chapter 2510: would be slapped to death

But tell him, what's going on? Is it because they opened it in the wrong way? Or did they enter a wuxia movie? How could this woman be so good at fighting?

Where did this woman come from? Where did this crazy woman come from? Where did this female devil come from.

Yan Huan took out his phone and dialed Lu Yi's number. Lu Yi was the best at such things.

Not long after, Lu Yi came over. Lei Qingyi had personally captured these people. Lei Qingyi did not need to find anyone. He just needed to use his bear-like body to scare people out of their wits.

Not long after, Lei Qingyi came out. His entire body was relaxed, but his face was full of disdain. He must have asked something?

"You got it?"

Lu Yi asked, using a statement instead of a question. This meant that he already knew that Lei Qingyi had asked everything. Who was the one who ordered him to do it?

"Of course. Are you still worried about me?" Lei Qingyi sat down and placed his feet on the table, "They're just a few useless people. I gave them a scare and told them everything. Even the eight generations of my ancestors have told me everything."

"Who did it?"

Lu Yi sat down. When he turned around, he saw Yan Huan playing games with his laptop as if nothing had happened. He had never felt anything good about the strange strength he had in his life. Now that he thought about it., having such good strength was the best thing that could happen to Yan Huan. At the very least, Yan Huan did not need to hit him, but he could use it to protect himself.

Lei Qingyi gulped down a large glass of water before speaking.

"That Su Muran, from the Su family. Isn't she still in the limelight recently, the woman who gets scolded by my Lingling every day?"

When Lei Puyi mentioned the word 'Su', there was nothing to be angry about. He hated people that his Lingling disliked. He also disliked people that his Lingling disliked. That Su Mu was ugly and stupid, with such a pig-like appearance, she still wanted to mingle in the entertainment industry. Even his lingling was better-looking than her.

And now in Lei Qingyi's eyes.

Yi Ling was the best-looking, the most adorable, and the most beautiful. She could instantly kill that Su.

She was ugly and pretentious. He didn't have the ability, but he only knew how to do evil things. He thought that they were all vegetarians. If they started eating meat, the Su family would be eaten up.

Not long after, Su Qingdong faced the person standing in front of him. His hands were clenched tightly. He really wanted to strangle Su Muran's daughter. Was her brain really an idiot?

Why? Did she not even have this bit of common sense?

Did he say all those things in the past?

Or was it because he was studying in the country? Did He really lose his mind? He actually dared to attack that person. Who Did she think she was dealing with? Was it a stray cat or a puppy on the street?

That was Yan Huan. Yan Huan was nothing. She was mostly a celebrity who mingled in the entertainment industry, however, behind her was the ye family, the Lu family, and the Zhou family.

Now that they had been caught red-handed, the witnesses and evidence were all there. What else could he say.

Su Muran was still too inexperienced. Perhaps she had done this kind of thing many times in the past. After all, with her character, she could not tolerate others being strong for her since she was young. Therefore, she secretly taught others a lesson.

She was probably very familiar with this kind of thing.

Otherwise, how would she know where to find people and follow them.

In the end, she really did not know what it meant to be one foot higher than the devil. What did she think the people she invited were? She had grown a heart, but she could not grow a heart of ten or eight.

Not only did she leave her contact details, the other party's transfer number, and even their voice recording on the spot. Now, all of this evidence was in Lei Qingyi's hands, and this evidence.., was enough to ruin Su Qingran's reputation.

The more famous she was, the more powerful the SU family was. These things would make them lose face. Of course, it would also make the Su family stink for ten thousand years, not to mention the revenge of the Xi family and the Ye family.

Su Qingdong knew that this matter could not go on. If he did not give a definite answer, these people would definitely blow the matter up. And if the matter really blew up.., he believed that the entire SU family would not be able to bear the consequences.

“How can you all let this matter go?”

Everyone was smart. He would not just stand there and watch. He would say a bunch of nonsense. In the end, it would only lead to this.

“Let it go?” Lei Qingyi pursed her lips.

Mr. Su’s daughter was really capable. “This kind of kidnapping is something that can be done.”

That was because Yan Huan had some skills. If she did not have this identity, who knew what kind of harm she would have suffered?

Now, there was no need to talk about terms with Su Qingdong. Even if she cried, there was no way she could cry.

So if she wanted them to let Su Muran off so easily, Hehe, in her dreams.

Lei Qingyi pursed her lips and put on a fake smile.

It was easier said than done.

“Do you want money or something?” Su Qingdong saw that Lei Qingyi and Lu Yi did not answer and said, “As long as you want it, as long as I can do it, I will spare no effort.”

He just hoped that they would let her off because she was still too young and insensible. Don’t worry, Su Qingdong promised that he would discipline her well in the future.

Lu Yi raised his face. “Money, I have it.”

Lu Yi had never placed money in his eyes, and he had never lacked it. Even if he didn’t have any other income, his salary was enough for him to support his family, it was enough for his woman to live a life of gold and silver.

“Then what do you mean?”

Su Qingdong tightened his grip on his fingers.

In this world, things that could be bought with money were not difficult.

However, the Lu family did not lack money, and Lu Yi did not lack money either. If he wanted to throw money at him, he wanted to see if the entire SU family could be thrown at Lu Yi.

“I only have one request.”

Lu Yi placed one of his hands in the pocket of his pants. He stood casually, but his body was also straight. As expected of a former soldier. When he sat and itched, he naturally had a strong backbone.

“What?”

When Su Qingdong heard this, he was not so worried anymore. As long as there were requirements, it was good. Yes, as long as there were requirements. No matter what, Su Muran could not lose face. The Su family could not afford to lose face.

“Su Muran asked my wife to give him a slap.”

Lu Yi said faintly.

Su Qingdong was stunned. He was stunned.

Lei Qingyi was stunned. He was stunned.

Good heavens, others might not know what he said, but how could lei qingyi not know? With Yan Huan's strange strength, not to mention a slap, even a light poke with his finger could cause a person to die of pain. if he dared to slap him, he would definitely die.
