

Chapter 61 He Has Conditions

Natalia was surprised and finally reacted.

It was hard to believe that she was tempted by this man to kiss with him, or in such an extremely ambiguous and dangerous posture!

With a cry of surprise, she tried to rise.

However, Archie was sitting in a chair close to his desk.

She rose with such a jerk that she hit the corner of the table on her waist, gave a cry of pain, and fell back heavily.

Archie's face changed.

After catching her, he quickly reached out to rub the spot where she had been hit.

"Why so careless? Does it hurt? Come, show me."

The man's big palm was only separated by a thin layer of cloth on her waist, the hot temperature passed through the palm, so that Natalia suddenly stretched all over.

She pressed his hand, which was trying to examine her wound, and shook her head.

There were tears in her eyes because of pain, but she still gnashed her teeth and said, "I am ok, it doesn't hurt."

Archie frowned slightly.

He said nothing more, but lifted her sideways with a grim face and strode off to the bedroom.

Natalia was startled and struggled for several times in vain. She grabbed his clothes and said in a hurry, "Archie, what are you doing? Put me down!"

There were so many servants at home, all watching downstairs!

But Archie turned a deaf ear to her. In the astonished sight of several servants downstairs, he carried her back to the bedroom through the corridor.

As soon as she touched the bed, she jumped into it.

Nathan also did not force her, took a cold look at her, and then turned around to take out a piece of ointment from the drawer.

"Take off your clothes!"

He said coldly.

Natalia covered her clothes, blushing like ripe tomatoes, hanging eyes and daring not look at him.

"I'll do it myself."

She said, reaching for his ointment.

But all of a sudden he laughed, avoided her hand, and lifted up her clothes.

"Ah! Archie, how could you do this?"

Cried Natalia, who was seized by a man and pressed over his head with his hands. She turned over and lay on the bed, even her delicate legs were suppressed by his knees.

The woman's resistance was muffled in the pillow and dissolved into a muffled sob.

Archie's face was cold and he looked at the red mark on her fair skin.

It had only been two minutes and there was already a tendency to bruise.

He was expressionless. With one hand he unscrewed the lid, squeezed some ointment into his hand, and pressed it against her wound.

"Ah, it hurts....."

Natalia shouted vaguely.

Archie said coldly, "Why were you so careless? You have grown up and you could not even notice a table?"

Natalia was wronged badly.

Obviously he took advantage of the trouble to kiss her, and now she has been hit like this, he still scolded her!

Archie found that she was stupefied and said, "Are you dumb?"

Natalia slanted her head and roared angrily, "I don't want to talk to you!"

Her face was crimson, and the tears were in the corners of her eyes out of pain, like a petulant little lion with its tusks pulled out.

Archie couldn't help laughing.

Her rough fingers rubbed against her delicate skin, feeling silky and creamy, it was unbelievably good.

His breathing gradually became heavy.

In the depths of his body, the heat that had just been pressed down soon began to rise faintly.

Natalia gradually realized something, feeling ambiguous and dangerous accompanied by the man's fingertip moving, which made her flurried.

"Are you done?" she said, "Let me go if you're done!"

This time, Archie didn't insist.

After all, he couldn't guarantee what would happen if he pressed her again.

After he got up, Natalia hurriedly stood up and arranged her clothes.

Archie turned and went to the bathroom.

He came out after a long while.

Natalia could guess what he was going to do, so she got flushed.

She always felt that the longer she spent with this man, the more dangerous in some ways it was.

But it reflected that this man was a gentleman.

He fulfilled his promise to her before marriage.

He would never touch her without her permission.

Thinking of this, Natalia showed a smile.

Archie went out to fill two glasses of water and came in, with his eyes fixed on her.

"I can let Xunghui Culture affiliate with Annita International, but I have conditions."

"What conditions?"

"You join Annita International as Director of PR department for Annita International."

Natalia was stunned.

She never thought he would ask for it.

Archie explained, "Although Annita International develops very fast, it has the disadvantage of being fast. Although resources are our strength, our talent department, especially PR department, is our weakness due to the rapid development. So I hope you can come and help me build a strong and effective PR team."

Natalia was stunned there.

The weak position of PR department of Annita International, in the case of Stephen before early actually, was faintly perceived by her.

Otherwise, such a case, which was not too complicated, would not have dragged on for half a month.

And with her help, it was solved in the end.

But it was different to hear it from Archie.

Natalia was actually hesitant.

In one hand, she had to deal with Xunghui Culture, so she was worried that she could not do a good job in Annita International.

In the other hand, if she agreed to become the director of Anning's international public relations department, then she would be a direct subordinate of Archie.

Whether out of self-interest or for other reasons, Natalia was reluctant to have a subordinate relationship with Archie.

She was hesitating and Archie suddenly said, "If you agree, you have priority to choose Annita International's resources in the future."

Natalia's eyes became bright.

"Really?"

"Of course."

"Good! Deal!"

There was a big difference between being attached to shared resources and prioritizing resources.

One was to find the meat to eat from the joints of other people's leftover meat; the other was to eat a pot of meat that had just been boiled, and eat whatever piece you want.

For Xunghui Culture, it was equivalent to have a direct promotion channel, and it was VIP kind!

Natalia could not help but beaming.

She accepted it even if she had to be in the same company as this man in the future.

Archie looked at her happy appearance and bent his lips.

"Sell yourself like that? Are you sure you don't want to think about it?"

Natalia blinked.

A pair of bright eyes stared at him seriously, "so you will bully me?"

Archie: ...

This girl learnt to fight back!

Natalia could not help laughing. She waved her hand with two steps backward.

"Mr. Archie, that is the deal. Tomorrow I will come to you to sign a contract. Don't go back to your words. I take a bath first."

With that, she took the clothes into the bathroom.

Archie looked at her back and smiled.????

Chapter 62 Wait for Him to Go Home

The next day, Natalia went directly to Annita International.

After signing a series of contracts, Xunghui Culture reached a cooperation with Annita International.

Because it was an order from Archie, thought the executives of the company were surprised, they dare not say anything.

After signing the contract, Brian brought Natalia to the public relations department and directly announced the identity of her public relations director.

These two years, Natalia had already made a reputation in Glory Group.

Most of her peers, despite her low profile, knew her and recognized her abilities.

When they learned that Mr. Archie invited her over, they couldn't help but be very happy.

Of course, there were a few senior people who thought that they could finally have the opportunity to take the post of director, but unexpectedly she came and seemed to have snatched their position.

There were some complaints about this, but they dared not say anything since she was welcomed.

Natalia first got to know the personnel in the department, and then left after she said she would be at work the next day.

After leaving Annita International, she went back to Xunghui Culture.

When she took over Xunghui Culture, she made a phone call to Elsa.

This day, Elsa came after resignation procedures.

For the arrival of this right-hand assistant, Natalia naturally was happy.

With her help, coupled with Mr. Lam, temporarily she had nothing to worry about Xunghui Culture.

After taking Elsa to get to know the company's environment, Natalia received a phone call and someone wanted to see her shop.

She just remembered she had not dealt with the shop she wanted to transfer.

She would have almost forgotten about it if someone hadn't called.

After work, Natalia did not go directly back to McCarthy mansion, but went to the shop.

The person she had made an appointment with had already arrived. After asking, she knew that he was a relative of Mila.

Mila helped her take care of the shop for such a long time, so she was clear about the profit. And there was such a good opportunity, naturally she could not wait to inform her family.

Natalia smiled, said nothing and gave them discount.

The transfer procedure went over smoothly.

When all this was done, it was eight o'clock in the evening.

Natalia made a call to McCarthy mansion and let Dottie do not have to prepare her dinner.

It happened that Archie worked overtime tonight and should not go back.

She went out of the shop, only to find that it had begun to rain.

It was now late autumn, and there was chill in the air from the north, which was intensified by the rain.

She bundled up her sweater and send WeChat messages to him as she walked to the garage.

He was still in the company as expected, so she drove to the Green Water Villa.

She only found out Archie's taste last night while cooking.

Knowing that he was picky and only eat the food cooked by Dottie and that from Green Water Villa, so even though it was late, she personally came.

Fortunately, there were a few cars in the night, and her position was near Green Water Villa, so it was not troublesome.

She packed a few dishes from the villa, and then went straight to the Mccarthy Group.

In the president's office, Archie was still in a meeting.

As the current owner of the group, he was busy and had to make decision on every kind of business.

In addition, recently the overseas electronic technology newly developed had results, which Archie attached importance to, so he rest assured only when he got to know about it. Therefore recently there were many overseas meetings.

When Natalia arrived, a picture of the other party's conference room was projected on the big screen in the office.

She was stunned for a moment, and then she said nothing and walked quietly in.

When Archie saw her coming, he quickly ended the meeting and stood up.

"Is it raining?"

He asked with a slight frown when he saw that she seemed to be wet.

Natalia smiled, wiped the hair just accidentally got wet the rain, put the food on the table and said, "It is small rain, it is estimated that it will end in the beginning of winter."

Seeing this, Archie said nothing, but quietly turned up the temperature in the office.

Natalia said, "I know you haven't had a meal, so I specially went to Green Water Villa and packed some food. How do you feel? Do I feel that I care about you?"

Archie smiled.

"I feel honored to be cared for so much by you, Mrs. Mccarthy."

He said with a smile, which made Natalia could not help but quiver.

The subject, which she had initiated, was hastily dropped.

The two of them sat down in the office and finished their meal. Archie poured her a cup of warm water and cleared up the leftovers on the table himself. Then he said, "I'm going to work for a while. You rest here and wait for me to go home, ok?"

Natalia was very tired today, so she did not plan to drive home by herself. She nodded her head.

Archie smiled and rubbed her head, and then walked back to his desk to get back to work.

Natalia sat on the sofa and played on the phone, holding the cup.

After reading the news and scrolling through Weibo for a while, she felt her eyelids twitching and her head getting drowsy.

Thinking that maybe it was because she was too tired today, she didn't think much about it. Seeing that Archie seemed to have to work for a long while, she put down her cup, took a pillow and lied down.

It was an hour later when Archie finished his work.

Natalia was here, so he did not want to work too late. He turned off the computer and stood up, only to find that she fell asleep on the sofa.

Nathan frowned slightly, walked over, bent to pat her shoulder gently.

"Natalia, we're going home."

The woman on the sofa raised her eyebrows slightly but did not respond.

He reached for her forehead.

The temperature was high. He slightly frowned, and in the next second, his hand was patted once.

The woman, still asleep, seemed to resent his intrusion, and waved her hand against his hand and muttered something.

Nathan couldn't help laughing.

He turned to look out the window. It was still raining, and even with the heat on, it was too easy to catch a cold sleeping like that.

He turned to take his coat and put it over Natalia's body before bending over to pick her up.

Outside, as Archie's personal assistant, Brian had been waiting.

Seeing him hold Natalia to come out, he was surprised and then lowered his head.

"President, do you want to go home?"

"Yes."

Nathan carried Natalia downstairs and she did not wake up until she got into the car.

He did not want to wake her up, but let her sleep on his arms. In the midway he just told Brian to turn up the temperature.

There was silence in the carriage.

It was not until nearly home that Natalia woke up faintly.

"Huh? How am I in the car?"

She rubbed her eyes and looked vaguely out of the window.

The man's chuckle came from overhead. "Are you awake?"

Chapter 63 Fall to the Ground During Bath

Natalia was stunned, looked up and saw the handsome face of Archie.

With a slight start, she was about to sit up.

However, the space of the carriage was limited, and the man was tall and she was held in his lap, when she straightened up, her head suddenly hit the roof of the car.

"Look out!"

Fortunately, Archie had a quick reaction and put his hand on her head.

Natalia bumped into his hand. Archie held her on his lap and said quietly, "Don't move. We'll be home soon."

Natalia had to obediently stay still and asked in confuse, "I fell asleep?"

"Yes. You've caught a cold. When you get home, ask Dottie to cook some ginger soup for you."

Natalia frowned and raised her hand to her forehead.

It seemed to be a little hot.

When the car arrived home, they got off. Archie ordered the servant to cook ginger soup and ordered her to go back to her room immediately for a hot bath.

There was heating in the room, and the hot bath helped to keep the cold off. Natalia went obediently.

But unexpectedly, he heard upstairs came a scream as she went upstairs.

"Ah!!"

Archie's face changed and he hurried upstairs.

The bedroom door was open, the bathroom door was closed and the light was on.

Archie frowned and knocked on the door.

"What's the matter, Natalia?"

For a moment, the inside came Natalia stuffy voice, "I'm OK! Leave me alone!"

Just by listening to the sound, he heard her tolerance and pain.

Archie's face became darker.

"Open the door!"

There was no more answer.

There was a faint rustling sound.

Archie's face became darker and darker. He found the key and opened the door.

At the moment the door opened, his pupil shrank.

He was surprised.

Natalia wrapped in a towel, fell to the ground, with her head full of bubbles. She was lying next to the bathtub with an extremely twisted posture.

Seeing him, Natalia had reached out her hands rubbing her leg to cover her face, feeling embarrassed.

Archie walked in.

"Mrs. McCarthy, are you putting on a bathing show?"

He crouched down beside her.

"Get out! Get out of here!"

Natalia was so embarrassed. She didn't even care about her face and wanted to push him away.

Archie took hold of her wrist and, seeing that one of her legs was lying in an eerie, straight position, reached out and grabbed her ankle.

"Have leg cramp?"

Natalia did not want to admit it, but nodded.

She turned away awkwardly, not looking at him.

Archie's eyes darkened for a moment, and then he picked her up and put her on the washbasin next to him.

Natalia hurriedly yanked the bath towel on the body.

The man did nothing but take her by the ankle and rub it.

His technique was good, and the strength was not too light or too heavy, soon, her leg that could not move because of cramp became better.

"Better?"

He asked softly.

Natalia nodded.

The bath lamp was turned on in the bathroom, and the temperature was very hot. Archie found her only wrapped in a bath towel, biting his lips with a face of awkwardness and helplessness. He inexplicably felt a trace of parched tongue.

He straightened up and put his hands at her sides.

"Mrs. McCarthy, if you try to seduce me, can you try another time? I don't want to attack a patient."

Natalia's face suddenly became flushed.

"Archie! When did I seduce you?"

Archie smiled.

"Don't get excited. Watch out the towel falls off."

He said, and his eyes rested on her breast with meaning.

Natalia immediately covered the hand in the chest more tightly.

The smile between Archie's eyes was deeper. He considered that she was sick and did not tease her. He held her back in the bathtub and then turned to leave.

When Natalia came out of the bath, there was a bowl of ginger soup and two cold pills on the table in the bedroom.

Archie sat down on the sofa and pointed to the soup and medicine. "Drink it, don't leave a drop."

Natalia frowned.

She hated the spicy stuff.

She didn't like spicy food at all.

The corner of the eye glimpsed the man on the sofa. He did not raise his head but said lightly, "I don't mind to feed you personally."

Natalia was stunned.

She carried it up, pinched her nose and drank it up.

After drinking it, she took the medicine.

Archie was satisfied.

After giving the bowl back, he came back, put her on the bed, and covered her with the quilt.

"Sleep well and tomorrow you will be fine."

Natalia's head was very drowsy, and she did not have the strength to say anything more. She fell asleep soon.

When she woke up the next day, she did get better.

Archie had already got up and was waiting for her in the downstairs dining room.

Natalia went downstairs and greeted to Dottie who was delivering the breakfast, "Dottie, thank you for the ginger soup last night, I am much better today."

Dottie smiled and said you are welcome.

Archie gave her a cold look.

Why didn't he get thanked for being the one who ordered the ginger soup to be made?

Natalia deliberately ignored the dissatisfaction in his eyes, walked to sit down opposite him.

Dottie delivered her breakfast. She thanked her with a smile and gave a provocative look at the opposite man.

Archie was silent.

The girl was presumptuous knowing that he would not do anything to her.

He felt that it was necessary for him to do something as a husband!

After breakfast, the two went out together.

Natalia had to work in Annita International. As they walked out, they saw Brian standing next to the car door.

She smiled and said hello to Brian, "Good morning, Brian!"

"Good morning, Mrs. Mccarthy."

Brian pulled open the door for her, smiling, "Please get on the car, Mrs. Mccarthy."

She looked back at Archie and smiled. "No, I'll drive myself."

"Are you sure your car is at home?"

Archie's voice came from behind him.

Natalia was stunned.

Then she remembered that she had parked the car downstairs the Mccarthy last night, and she came back by Archie's car. She didn't drive the car back.

There were plenty of cars in the garage, but they weren't hers.

She was slightly embarrassed. Finally in Brian smiling eyes, she got into the car.

Annita International was next to the Mccarthy Group.

Far away, Natalia let Brian stop the car.

She opened the door and got out of the car. She patted her wrinkled trousers and smiled, "Thanks! Drop me here, and you can go!"

Archie took a look at her, but his face showed no emotion.

He ordered Brian to drive, and went to Mccarthy Group.

Natalia breathed a sigh of relief.

As a new comer, she didn't want others to know about her relationship with Archie to avoid any bad publicity.

She walked all the way to the company. Because yesterday she had got to know the personnel, although today was her first day to work, a lot of procedures could be omitted.

At 8:30 in the morning, the department meeting was held directly.

Chapter 64 She was His Pride

She analyzed some of the cases that the company was working on, as well as past cases.

Work was assigned, and the meeting was over until twelve o'clock.

The company staff had refused to accept her, but after a meeting, they basically were convinced.

After all, those case they felt difficult to deal with was put forward solution by Natalia in a meeting directly.

And these solutions were absolutely feasible without any error.

Under such circumstances, it did not take long for Natalia to establish a firm foothold in the public relations department.

Archie at the beginning was worried that someone would think she was young and secretly cause troubles for her, so he had sent Brian to keep an eye on her.

However, in just half a month, they found that the staff in public relations department, not only did not exclude Natalia, but was obedient to her.

After receiving Brian's report, Archie showed a smile.

He found that she was even better than he had imagined.

She was indifferent, but when she worked, she immediately became decisive, imposing and domineering.

Whether on terms of ability, or the means of doing things, she was good.

He felt indescribably proud.

After all, his woman was excellent.

Since Archie was happy, Brian was naturally happy.

However he didn't quite understand it.

Seeing Archie's look, he felt that Archie was in a good mood today. Then he asked curiously, "President, you didn't approve of office romance, saying that it would affect work, why this time..."

Archie gave him a look.

There were unfathomable things in his eyes, a moment later, he smiled.

"You don't understand."

Brian: ? ? ? ?

'If you don't say it, how can I understand?'

Archie waved his hand. "All right, I have my own plans for this. You don't have to ask."

Brian could only give up since Archie would not tell him anything.

Time flew, and a month had passed.

Winter was coming.

Although J City was located in the east of the country, winter came especially early. It not had just entered the winter for more than a month, it had begun to snow.

It was the weekend, so Natalia did not have to go to work. In the morning she went to Xunghui Culture and in the afternoon she did not want to get out but nest in the sofa to read a book.

A few days ago, Archie went back to D City. He wanted to go back with Natalia, but was rejected by her.

She hadn't decided whether to go back with him or not.

She always felt that it would be awkward for them to go to D City based on their relationship.

Archie did not force her, because he knew what she was thinking in the heart and he also knew her temper. If he forced her, it was not good, so he could only give her time to think slowly.

Fortunately, she was always by his side, so there was nothing to worry about. It was all about time.

He got patient.

It was 5 p.m. when Natalia received the call.

She looked at the caller ID and a gleam of surprise came into her eyes.

She picked it up in a hurry and heard a familiar voice.

"Have you arrived?"

Archie said yes, "I had just got off the plane, but I need to go to the company to deal with an urgent matter, so I may not be able to go home immediately. Why don't you come to the company to wait for me, and we go to the Green Water Villa to have a meal in the evening?"

Natalia thought it worked.

So she agreed.

After hanging up the phone, she returned to the room to put on a coat, and went downstairs and went out after telling Dottie.

There were tiny snowflakes in the sky and a bone-chilling chill in the air.

Natalia drove the car to the McCarthy Group, but she did not go up. She sent a message to him and then sat in the car waiting.

Archie relied and said he would come down soon.

When Natalia was waiting, she caught a glimpse of a Christmas tree in a luxury store by the side of the road. She suddenly realized that it would soon be Christmas.

The luxury shop was clean and tidy, with fashionable and high-end suits hanging in the Windows.

She glanced down the shelves next to the suit and paused.

Then she turned off the engine and got off.

It was a dark gray cashmere scarf in quite simple style, with LOGO embroidered in the same color line, which was gorgeous.

Natalia had never seen Archie wearing a scarf before, but looking at this one, she thought it suited him.

She almost had a picture in her mind of the man wearing it, and the more she looked at it, the more handsome it seemed.

A clerk came to her. She pointed directly to the scarf and said, "I'd like one of these, please."

The clerk glanced at the scarf and smiled. "Ok, please wait a moment."

She had never given Archie any gifts, but he had bought a lot of things for her within two months of marriage.

She felt embarrassed about it and she would like to surprise him in this Christmas!

When she followed the clerk to the counter and was about to pay, behind suddenly came a surprising voice.

"...Natalia?"

She paused slightly and turned her head.

A young man and a young woman came down the stairs, and it was the girl who called to her.

"Is it really you? I thought I was wrong!"

The girl walked down quickly with a surprised look on her face. Natalia looked at her faintly, and there was a slight coldness between her eyebrows, but she did not answer.

She took a card out of her purse and gave it to the clerk for her to swipe.

After swiping the card, the clerk said with a smile, "That's 34,800. Here's your scarf, ma'am. Please hold it."

Natalia nodded and thanked the clerk, and then turned to go out with the wrapped scarf.

The girl came down from upstairs found Natalia incredibly ignored her and immediately sneered in disdain.

"Why are you so arrogant? I heard you broke up with Shawn. Do you have a sugar daddy or what? Do you buy the scarf worth more than thirty thousand to him?"

Natalia's eyes became cold.

She turned to that girl and said coldly, "Lily Gordon, I advise you to watch your mouth!"

Lily said complacently, "Didn't you pretend not to know me? Now you know me?"

Lily was her high schoolmate of different classes in the same grade, Natalia did know her.

When she knew Shawn, Lily liked Shawn.

But Shawn ignored her and pursued Natalia. After they were in a relationship, Lily had been long hating Natalia.

But after six years, she still cared about it.

Natalia looked at her coldly and then showed a sarcastic smile.

"I'm sorry, but I pretend I don't see you because I really don't think it's a wonderful thing to know you. Are you satisfied with this answer?"

Chapter 65 Encounter a Mad Dog

Lily immediately changed facial expression, "You!"

The man she was with came up to her and asked curiously, "Your friend?"

Lily was angry, pulled his arm and said in a wronged manner, "We are not friends! Jacob, you don't know her, right? She is the abandoned daughter of the Dawson family.

She not only robbed her boyfriend, and in order to be admitted by Royal Academy, but also stole her sister's works. You stay away from such a shameless woman, and do not be cheated by her!"

Jacob was surprised.

The president of the Royal Academy was his grandfather.

So he had heard of the scandal five years ago, though he had not seen it.

He had always thought that the person who could do such a thing must be extremely ugly, regardless of character or appearance, but it did not expect to be the woman who looked cold and elegant.

Natalia curved her lips and smiled.

"If I remember correctly, this store is monitored, right?"

Lily gave her a vigilant look, "Why?"

"Nothing, I just want a copy of the surveillance to use as evidence against you for libel in the future."

Lily: ...

"Natalia, don't pretend! I heard that Shawn dumped you because of your unscrupulous style! It seems that you went abroad five years ago because you hooked up with a big shot? Do you now come back because he dumped you?"

"If he did dump you, just tell me. I know a lot of rich people who would help you out, for the sake of schoolmates."

Natalia took a look at her and smiled ironically.

"No need, Miss Grodon, keep them for you! After all, it is not easy for you to know them with your look. Isn't it a pity to give them to others?"

"You!"

Lily was angry, Natalia did not want to talk to her again and walked outside with the scarf.

“Wait!”

Lily called her suddenly.

Natalia was impatient.

She turned to her and said coldly, “Anything else?”

Lily took a breath deeply, walked forward and suddenly showed her a very bad smile.

“Do you know, Natalia? There's something I've wanted to do five years ago, but never had the chance to do, and now I can finally do it.”

“What...”

A loud slap was in the face, and Natalia’s head slightly slanted and her right face became swollen.

Her face suddenly turned cold.

The next second--

Two ringing slaps were in the ears.

Lily covered her face and looked at Natalia in belief.

“Natalia, dare you hit me?”

“Courtesy reciprocates. It is said that when a dog bites a man, the man cannot bit back, but I always feel that some animals cannot be indulgent. Otherwise, they will forget who they are.”

“Ah --! You bitch!”

Lily went crazy and rushed toward her. The clerks in the store were stunned. They did not know whether to call the police or to stop her.

Natalia’s eyes were cold.

She took a step back and snapped, “Mr. Sutton, are you giving your girl permission to go crazy here?”

Jacob came back to his sense and hurriedly came forward to pull Lily.

“Lily! That's enough!”

“Don't pull me, this bitch hit me, I won't spare you today!”

Lily broke away from the obstruction of Jacob and continued to rush toward Natalia.

Natalia's face changed.

She was wearing a dress and was not dominant in a fight. Now Lily was like a mad dog, which made every normal person fear.

Natalia retreated towards the door.

Lily was crazy and suddenly grabbed a vase at the door and threw towards Natalia.

"Bitch, I fight with you!"

Just then, someone grabbed Natalia's wrist and pulled her aside.

Natalia avoided and the vase over her hit the ground and broke into pieces.

Everyone started and their faces changed.

How could this woman be as mad as a mad dog?

Natalia's face turned pale with fear. She looked back and saw the person behind her. She said in surprise, "Archie? What are you doing here?"

Archie's face was overcast.

In the store, Lily found she failed to hit Natalia and caught a vase to hit her again, but Jacob robbed it.

"That's enough! Lily, calm down!"

"This bitch hit me, how can I calm down?"

Lily was born in a rich family and the only child in her family. She used to be domineering and had never been treated like this?

She would not give up if she could not hit Natalia.

His face darkened and when he was about to speak, a low voice came from the door.

"If you can't calm down on your own, I don't mind helping you."

A man showed up and gave Lily two slap directly.

Lily was dizzy and went blank in head.

Jacob's face changed.

Archie Mccarthy? Why was he here?

Archie walked in through the door with Natalia in his hand.

Brian jilted his wrist and said with a smile, "President, this is the first time I hit a woman, but this woman deserves it! I have no guilt at all."

Archie curled his lips.

Lily came back to her sense at this moment.

Touching her rapidly swelling face, she screamed.

"Who are you? How dare you hit me? Do you know who I am? I....."

"That's enough! Shut up!"

Jacob turned pale and pulled her back.

Lily didn't know Archie, but he did.

Although he did not know what relationship he was with Natalia, but he had been holding Natalia's hand, so they must be related.

"Mr. Archie, I didn't know you are here. I'm really sorry. There was a little quarrel between the girls." He came forward and apologized.

"Oh? Does an argument escalate to throwing a vase?"

Jacob: ...

"Jacob, why do you apologize to him? She hit me!"

Lily was still screaming.

Jacob was almost mad. He regretted taking her out.

He gnashed his teeth and said, "This is Mr. Archie, from Mccarthy consortium."

"What?"

Lily finally understood.

She looked at Archie in disbelief as if she had seen a monster.

Her family was in business, and the elders in the family mentioned this figure at ordinary times when chatting.

But in the heart of Lily, Archie was the character in the legend and was too far away from her, like the star in the horizon cannot be reached, it was not reality.

So she never expected to actually meet him in real life.

Her eyes rested on the hands they were holding.

It took a while for her make a sound.

"How, how can it be?"

Chapter 66 Apologize to Her

"How can it be? Hurry to apologize to Mr. Archie and Miss Dawson?"

Lily came back to her sense.

Although she did not want to, although she hated Natalia, she knew that she could not offend Archie.

So, she said reluctantly, "I'm sorry Mr. Archie."

Archie raised his eyebrows.

"I did not feel the sincerity of your apology."

Lily clenched her fingers.

She was humiliated when it was her first time to meet this extraordinary man, and in front of Natalia.

Strong unwillingness and resentment surged in her heart, but after seeing the cold sight of Archie, they all were pressed down.

She took a deep breath and repeated, "I'm sorry, Mr. Archie. I was wrong."

"Sorry for who?"

"Mr. Archie....." Lily understood and took a glance at Natalia, "Sorry, Miss Dawson."

Natalia raised her lip angles.

"What did you say? I didn't hear you. Speak up, please."

Lily: ...

Archie curled his lips pleasantly.

Holding Natalia's hand, he approved, "Well, I think so."

Lily was helpless and angry, but she dared say nothing, and could only raise her voice.

"I'm sorry, Natalia. I am wrong. I apologize to you."

Natalia smiled joyfully.

"Now that's right!"

She touched her face. Lily's both cheeks were swollen, while her right face was in pain, but she no longer was angry.

"All right, let's go!"

Natalia shook Archie's hand and said.

Archie gave her a deep look. "That is it?"

"Yes, if you got bit by a mad dog, you just need to beat it. Do you still want to fight with a dog?"

Archie was amused by her words.

"Well, then, I'll do as you like."

Hand in hand, they walked out together.

Behind him, Jacob was slightly shocked looking at this scene.

Everyone knew that Archie never had a woman and had never heard of any scandals about him in these years.

Unexpectedly, he and Natalia were together!

Lily found him staring at the two people's back and pushed his arm in discontent.

"What are you looking at?"

He came back to his senses.

“Oh, nothing.”

Lily said angrily, “Natalia is a fox! In those days, Shawn was fascinated by her, and now she got close to Mr. Archie. What a shameless bitch!”

Hearing her scolding, Jacob's face changed.

Looking at her again, there was not a trace of disgust and impatience in his eyes.

Lily seemed to realize that she was too faux pas today.

It was Natalia's fault. If Natalia didn't deliberately provoke her, how could she show such a side in front of Jacob?

She quickly showed an expression of grievance, acting in a peevish way to pull his sleeve.

“Jacob, my face is hurt, take me to the hospital to deal with it! I'm afraid my face will be ruined if it's too late.”

Jacob said quietly, “I have something to do at night, so I don't have time to accompany you to the hospital. Take this card and go by yourself!”

He took a bank card out of his pocket and gave it to her. Then he turned and walked away.

Lily was stunned and angry.

What did he mean?

Would she have been with him if he was not the only son in his family, and her family did not want them to be together?

Now she had a problem, and he gave her a bank card and ran away?

She rushed out angrily, and found Jacob was already in the car and drove the car away.

She was so angry that she threw the bank card straight out.

“Fuck off! You coward who won't speak up when your girlfriend is beaten! Get away from me if you can, and never let me see you again!”

...

On the other side, Natalia and Archie got into the car together.

“President, where to?”

Archie looked at Natalia's face, frowning, “Go to the hospital first.”

“All right.”

Natalia took a breath and said, “No, I'm all right. There's no need to go to the hospital.”

“Don't talk.”

Archie could not help but say and Natalia had to shut up.

The man held her face in his hands and looked at it.

The face, once delicate and fair, was slightly swollen, and there were clear marks of five fingers.

His eyes grew cold again.

"You did a good job today, but the next time you meet one of those mad dogs, don't beat it yourself, call me, ok?"

Natalia looked at him and curled her lips, "Lily is like that. When she was in the high school, she liked to bully other female classmate in school. I did not expect to meet her here. Ah!"

The wound on her face was touched by Archie's fingers and she made a scream.

Archie had to let go of her and heard her continue, "You have just helped me, besides, she slapped me once, I slapped her twice, it is not a loss, so don't be angry."

Archie sneered.

"What am I to be angry about? I am angry because of you. You didn't call me first. I came in time today, in case I came late, that vase would hit on your body."

Natalia's eyes flickered.

"No way, I'll be careful."

"Oh!"

Archie said nothing more.

He turned to the packaging bag next to him and found a black scarf inside, and his eyes were slightly deep.

"What's this?"

"Oh, this is for you."

Natalia said, while taking out the scarf, "Originally I wanted to buy it secretly and give it to you on Christmas. But not it was ruined, take it!"

Archie looked at the fine scarf.

He looked at Natalia. "Did you pick this for me?"

Natalia nodded and looked at him expectantly, "How is it? Do you like it?"

The man curled his lips, "Yes."

"Then I'll put it on you!"

"Ok."

The man bent slightly, and Natalia placed the scarf around his neck in a fashionable circle.

After putting it on, she looked at it carefully.

Today, Archie was wearing a sweater with a black cashmere jacket over it, which was just the right match.

“Do I look good?” Mr. Archie asked.

Natalia smiled and nodded. “Yes, very handsome.”

“Thanks, Honey.”

“You're welcome.”

In front, Brian was driving and said silently.

It did not matter he showed off affection.

Was it good to show off affection unscrupulously?

He had been around the president for so long, so he knew that his president never wore a turtleneck or a scarf.

Well, sure enough, the power of love...

The car soon arrived at the hospital.

Archie asked the doctor to apply Natalia with medicine, and then walked out of the doctor's office.

He stood in the hallway and made a phone call.

“Within a week, I want the Gordon family to disappear in J City!”

When he was speaking, his handsome face was no longer gentle as he was with Natalia, but cruel and cold.

After giving the order, he hung up the phone.

He lowered his eyes to look at the scarf on the neck, a moment later, he smiled with satisfaction.????????????

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 67 High School Celebration

The injury on Natalia's face was not serious. The doctor gave her a check, applied some medicine, and let her leave.

As soon as she walked out of the door, she found Archie standing in the corridor, and did not know what was in his mind with his back to the door.

She called him and he looked around.

“Is it done?”

Natalia nodded. Seeing him holding a mobile phone, she asked, “Did you answer a phone?”

“Yes.”

Archie stared at her face carefully. “Does it still hurt?”

“No.”

The medicine the doctor had given her had worked well, and it was cool that the pain soon passed away.

Archie rest assured.

They went to Green Water Villa to have dinner as planned.

While after Lily learnt that Natalia and Archie were in a relationship, she felt dubious.

She had always been thinking highly of herself, and had looked down upon Natalia in her schooldays.

Since Shawn she liked was taken away by Natalia, she held deep hatred towards Natalia.

Fortunately, later the Dawson family had an accident and Natalia became down and out from a rich young lady overnight, and Lily felt good about it.

She heard from Katie that Shawn had already broken up with her, which made me feel even better.

But she did not expect that she had been with Archie.

Lily was upset about it.

After thinking, she made a phone call to Jessica.

“Hello, Jessica, what are you doing?”

“Rest? I just want to ask you something.”

Lily told Jessica that she met Natalia in the shop in the afternoon.

However, the story that she was beaten was hidden, she only said that she saw Natalia was with a man, who seemed to be Archie.

Jessica was surprised by Lily's phone.

But she would not let go any chance to make troubles to Natalia.

Over the telephone, she told Lily that as soon as Natalia had broken up with Shawn, she immediately fell into a relationship with Archie.

Then she sighed.

“Actually, if my sister really likes Mr. Archie, it would be fine to be with him. I just worry that she wants something else. You know, my sister...”

Lily sneered, “I know of course, she is peacockish. So many people chased after her, but she chose Shawn who has a rich and powerful family.”

Hearing that, Jessica's eyes flashed slightly.

She said nothing, and Lily asked, "Jessica, are you sure Natalia has married with Archie? Why do I think it is unreliable."

Jessica smiled reluctantly.

"I am not sure. We haven't been in touch for a few years, but... I didn't heard of her marriage."

Lily frowned.

She pondered for a while. Jessica didn't seem to want to continue the topic, so she asked, "By the way, the high school celebration is in next week. Will you go?"

"Of course, how about you?"

"The principal invited me to be a performing guest."

"So you will go too. All right, see you then."

"Ok."

After hanging up the phone, Lily meditated while holding the mobile phone.

Jessica said she did not hear the news of Natalia's marriage, so that meant that Natalia has not married?

Archie was a big figure and sure he would not marry her, so...

Her eyes flashed. She hurriedly dug out a number from the phone and made a call.

After telephone was connected, she forced a smile and asked in a sweet voice, "Mr. Fraser, are you free? I've got a few questions..."

A few minutes later, Lily hung up the phone.

She looked out of the window with a triumphant smile.

How could Natalia marry to Archie?

How was that possible?

She had just made it clear on the phone that it had never heard that there was a new hostess in the Mccarthy family.

Not only that, it was said that Archie had a fiancée, the daughter of the Kawn family.

Who was the Kwan family?

There were four great families in D City, including the Mccarthy family, the Collins family, the Kawn family and the Fraser family. Each of them was powerful enough to shock people. How could Natalia fight with them?

It was ridiculous!

After checking the matter, Lily felt much better.

She had just revealed the news pretending not to be intentional, and she believed that it would not be long before Natalia was in great trouble!

But she didn't mind causing a little trouble to her before she got into the big troubles!

As she was thinking, she showed a wry smile, picked up the mobile phone and made a call again.

"Helloe, Aleeza, I am Lily, will you go to the school celebration? Everyone in our class will be there! Has your class been informed? Have you informed Natalia? She's long gone home! Good, if you find her contact, inform her, you are classmates....."

The next day, Natalia received Aleeza Sharp's notice.

Aleeza Sharp was the monitor of her high school class.

Natalia was surprised to receive the school anniversary notice.

After all, her reputation had already been tarnished by the incident when she was in high school. She had heard about the school celebration but had not been officially notified and she did not want to go.

But unexpectedly, she received a phone call from Aleeza.

Natalia had little interest in such an activity, and she had few friends in her student days, let alone old memories, so she didn't want to agree.

But Aleeza repeatedly persuaded her, and finally she agreed.

After that, Natalia put the matter out of her mind and thought no more about it.

Unexpectedly, a few days later, she received a phone call from Victoria who asked about this matter.

"Natalia, I heard that you will attend the celebration, is it true?"

In high school, Victoria was in the same class as Natalia, and it was from Aleeza that she got the news.

When she received the call, Natalia was looking through a document and she answered casually.

"Well, yes, why?"

Victoria paused for a moment.

There was a feeling of a long story.

"You know what they invited you for. Why did you say yes?"

Natalia was stunned.

Of course she knew why Aleeza was trying so hard to invite her.

After all, she was not that Natalia five years ago. At the outset in the face of spreading rumors, she had no way of defense, but could only let her reputation be ruined and suffer all insults.

But that was not the case anymore.

She had the strength, and she had the claws.

If anyone tried to bully her, she would take revenge!

She was not afraid that they came to her.

At the thought of this, she gave a smile and said, "You don't have to worry about me. It's just a school celebration. They would not do anything to me in face of so many people."

"That is why I don't want you to go. You know for the scandal five years ago, everyone thought you did it!

Who else would believe you but me? Aleeza invited you just to humiliate you in public!

I even suspect that it was they spread the news!

How can they let you go when they've got a chance?"

Chapter 68 He is Going too

Natalia's eyes were slightly darkened.

She was silent for a moment, and then said quietly, "Isn't that better? It's been five years, and I didn't want to pursue it any more. But if someone has to provoke me in the face and make troubles to me, I shouldn't relent, should I?"

Victoria was stunned.

"Natalia, have you thought of methods to do with them?"

Natalia curled her lips.

"You'll see."

Time flew, and a week passed quickly.

There were two days before Christmas. Archie looked at the scarf hanging on the shelf in the president's office and a smile appeared on the corner of his lips.

He pressed the inside line and called Brian in.

"President, you want to see me?"

"Have you done what I asked you to do for me?" he asked.

Brian was stunned and then quickly understood what he asked.

"It's all done," he replied hurriedly.

"Well, take me to see it after work."

"All right."

After stopping for a while, Brian suddenly thought of something and took out an invitation.

"President, this is an invitation from WL High School to you. It will celebrate its 70th anniversary this weekend. They would like to invite you to attend. Will you go?"

Archie was slightly shocked.

The name WL High School sounded familiar to him.

Brian hurriedly reminded him, "Mrs. Mccarthy studied in this school before."

Archie remembered it.

He looked pale. "Is Natalia going?"

"Yes."

"I will go too!"

"Ok."

In the evening, when Natalia returned home and came out from her bath, Archie asked, "I heard that you are going to attend the school celebration the day after tomorrow."

Natalia looked back and saw him sitting on the sofa. "Yes, why?" she nodded.

The man's eyes were resentful.

"It is Christmas the day after tomorrow."

Natalia froze.

She pointed blankly to the scarf he had been wearing almost every day for the past week on a coat hanger. "Didn't I give you the present?"

Archie: ...

His chest hurt.

He felt he could still do something about it.

"Well, so I will return the favor. Shall we have dinner that night?"

"No, I made an appointment with Victoria and we need to attend the school celebration after dinner!"

Archie: ...

Forget it. He gave up.

On the weekend, Natalia got up very early.

She was not in a hurry, but she needed to deal with business of Xunghui Culture. She had to seize the time so that she could take time to attend the celebration.

When she finished all her work, it was three o'clock in the afternoon.

Victoria had called her several times.

She picked up the phone, "Victoria, I have already finished my work, and now I am on my way. Wait for a while, OK?"

Victoria was dissatisfied and said, "I have been waiting for you for two hours. Natalia, it is the school celebration. Since you promised to go, can you take it seriously? Nor for the sake of the reputation of the school, but for that you can be amazing, why don't you dress up beforehand?"

Natalia laughed, "I still have three hours."

"My god!" Victoria was like hearing a joke, "You need to try on the dress, make up, do hair and style, three hours are not enough. I've been working on it for two hours, okay?"

Natalia smiled, "You are a big star and will have performance in the evening. I as a member of the audience who is sitting in the audience applauding you don't need to dress up."

Victoria urged impatiently, "OK, I don't care if you dress up. Hurry over. I have been waiting for you here for a long time."

"Okay, I'll be right there."

When she arrived at the studio where Victoria did the make-up, Natalia saw her sitting there. Her hair had been done and she was making up.

Seeing her arrival, Victoria hurriedly said, "You must listen to me today! You wear whatever I tell you to wear, and you put on whatever makeup I tell you to put on, without any objection or comment."

Natalia: ...

Before she answered, two stylists came over.

Victoria pointed to Natalia and gave them orders.

"That's her, my best friend. You must dress her up today. If anyone outdoes her tonight, it means you have a problem with your skills and I'll fire you all!"

The stylists agreed.

Natalia was confused.

"Victoria, what are you doing here?"

Victoria gave her a mysterious smile.

"Natalia! Do you think I treat you well? Don't those bitches look down on you and want to see your jokes? I won't let them succeed! Tonight, you must be the most beautiful woman in the whole party!"

She said, reaching out to tease Natalia.

Natalia couldn't help laughing.

"Ok! Do what you say."

She knew Victoria was kind, besides, she had no plan to be a low-ley person tonight, so she let Victoria do as she wanted to.

Three hours later, both of them were ready.

What stylist picked for Natalia was a sky-blue handmade embroidered long skirt.

It was a tee dress, windproof gauze was applied in the chest and neck as well as arm. There were handmade flower patterns on the top with fine glittering diamond, which was charming.

The lower part of the dress was fishtail. It was a blue ocean from the chest to the thighs but, translucent gauze on the calf. It was full of little light spot to the fishtail with decorative pattern of hand embroidery, which was wonderful and amazing.

Natalia had a good figure shape, but Victoria had never found that.

This fish-tail dress really brought out all her figure.

She had a slender and straight back. The waist line was sexy because of the hollow design.

In Victoria's words, that was beautiful!

Natalia looked at herself in the mirror, and there was a moment of trance.

It was said that people rely on clothes and makeup, and it seemed that it was true.

The stylist picked a pair of silvery high-heeled shoes for her, paired with a handbag and jewelry, which made her more bright and charming.

Victoria nodded her head and said, "Natalia, you will certainly overwhelm the audience tonight, I promise!"

Natalia smiled.

She did not care about overwhelming the audience, but thought that that person would show up in the celebration, since even she was invited,!

How could she please those who wished her ill and wanted to see her jokes every day? ???????

Chapter 69 Competition in Red Carpet

WL High School was located in the outskirts of J City.

Although it was located in suburb, it was prosperous because of the vigorous development in recent years and several higher education institutions were in the neighborhood.

Because it was the 70th anniversary of the school, so WL High School held a special grand.

In addition to its own social elite from the school, it had invited a lot of big stars.

The whole party was star-studded.

Natalia and Victoria arrived together. When they were still sitting in the car, they found that the school gate had been occupied by luxury cars.

Except for a red carpet aisle in the middle, it was full of luxury cars.

There were many fans of Jessica and Victoria gathered on both sides with dozens of media reporters inside. Screams, noise, the sound of the flash, and the clear voice of the host made a unprecedented grand occasion.

"Jessica! Ah -!Jessica is so beautiful!"

"I love you Jessica!"

"Jessica and Mr. Shawn were so matched!!"

"The skirt that Jessica wears tonight is very beautiful, I like it very much!"

"Jessica is the fairy in the legend! She's so beautiful!"

There was no rush to get off the car, as seats on the red carpet were limited and the last person to arrive had to wait in line for the person in the front to pass.

Even so, the screams like tsunami were heard.

Through the window, Jessica and Shawn were walking on the red carpet.

Jessica was wearing a white bouffant dress tonight.

It was a corset spreading from the chest, covering her three-month pregnant belly.

The gauze looked generous, according with Jessica's fairy character.

Shawn, to match her look, wore a white suit tonight.

His handsome face in the flash was like a prince of the Middle Ages in the west, looking gentle. In a short ten seconds, he captured the hearts of many girls.

Victoria withdrew her eyes and rolled her eyes.

"A couple who cheat other's feelings, are they blind? Why do they like this white lotus!"

Natalia showed an ironic smile.

"But you've to admit she did put on a good show in the front of the audience. After all, she pretend to be a pure fairy."

"A pure fairy? She climbed into her sister's boyfriend's bed, is she pure?"

After Victoria said that, she realized that she had slipped her tongue.

She glanced at Natalia's face and was relieved to see that there was no sign of sadness on her face.

Natalia hang down her eyes and said in a moment, "In fact I should thank Jessica."

If not her, how could she know the true face of Shawn?

Sometimes she dared not imagine, if that night she did not see their adultery, would she be still in the dark and believe that he was in love with her?

Victoria seemed to think of this too, patting her hands reassuringly.

“Don't think about it any more. Anyway, you know it now. And I heard that Mr. Archie loves you very much!”

Since the last time she saw Archie in the video, Victoria had not stopped “questioning” her.

Natalia had no choice but to come clean about the truth.

Although the matter between she and Archie had exploded in Jessica's birthday party, because Archie made an order, no one on the scene dared to reveal the relationship between them.

So Victoria, who did not attend the birthday party, had no idea about that.

Speaking of him, Natalia could not help revealing a smile.

He was really kind to her.

He spoiled her.

Sometimes she wondered if Heaven had sent him to save her because he was unable to bear to see her alone.

It was Christmas today. She didn't know if he was still working overtime in the company. If the party was over early, maybe she had time to say merry Christmas to him face to face!

While Natalia was thinking wildly, the people in front of her had entered.

It was their turn to get off.

A staff member opened the door for them. Victoria got off first, but before Natalia could get down, a flood of cheers and screams was heard outside.

“Ah -- it's Victoria! I see Victoria!”

“Victoria is so beautiful! Victoria is the most beautiful!”

“Victoria is gorgeous!”

Victoria was known as the “entertainment beauty”, she was indeed beautiful.

Fortunately, she was used to such occasions, so she was cool.

She turned around and stretched out her hand.

“There is a person in Victoria's car, who is that?”

“Is it a handsome man?”

“No, no, no! Victoria is still single! Don't talk nonsense!”

“Yes! We only love Victoria!”

Soon, all the people saw clearly, it was a woman holding Victoria's hand to walk down.

Everyone gasped uncontrollably.

God! Who was that?

How beautiful!

She was tall and slim, wearing a long blue dress with a hollow frame, which gave a clear view of her delicate body.

Her maroon hair was in great curls, one side was pinned up with a blue diamond clip, the other hanging lightly over her shoulder and quivering in a jaunty way as she walked.

Her skin was fair in the lamplight, and her delicate features made her like a fairy out of the painting. She was so perfect.

At that moment, countless people thought the same question in their minds.

Who was she?

Was she a star?

Why hadn't they seen her before?

Natalia had always been used to behind-the-scenes, and it was her first time to step forward to enjoy the attention of so many people, so she felt unease.

Victoria held her hand and kept a smile on her face in the standard of a female star. She whispered, "I spent so much effort to dress you up so beautiful today. Don't be timid! At least you should defeat that bitch in front!"

That bitch in front...

was Jessica.

Natalia did not resist, but "burst" a light laugh out.

When she was not smiling, the crowd was just in low admiration.

However, that smile was astonishing, even the bright fireworks tonight lost color.

"Dear me! Who the hell is she? Come on! Look it up, I'm choking on her beauty!"

"Compared with her, Jessica was like a village girl simply, don't you think so?"

"Yeah..."

"Will you stop? Jessica is pure, they are not in the same style at all, you can't compare them."

"Gee, Victoria is a classical beauty, but Victoria is as beautiful as her when they are standing together. Just admit that Jessica is not as beautiful as she."

"You!"

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 70 The beauty of the Soul

Not far away, when Jessica who had gone to the signature wall found the two women coming from the red carpet entrance, she suddenly changed face.

Natalia? How could she come?

That matter five years ago was sensational, and everyone in the WL High School knew about it.

It was the 70th anniversary of the school. Almost all the students had come back to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the school. Naturally, she would meet many acquaintances.

And she had the nerve to come?

Flanking, the host asked with a smile, "Jessica, you and Mr. Shawn graduated from WL High School and once you were schoolmates for several years, but why we never heard of your relationship?"

Jessica withdrew her vision, came back to her sense and said with a smile, "Shawn and I had long engaged and witnessed by the elders, but we were still students at that time. We worried that it would cause bad influence to the school, so it was kept as a secret. Please forgive me!"

Her voice was warm and soft, with a hint of shyness.

The host smiled, "Jessica, you are really sensible, no wonder you had excellent performance in study. I heard that at that time you originally wanted to take an examination of the Royal Academy, but because of some reasons you had missed the opportunity, was it so?"

Speaking of this, the smile on Jessica's face was obviously dim down.

She forced a smile. "Yes, but that's all water under the bridge. Today's theme is the anniversary, so let's skip it."

Such considerate and inclusive move immediately won the goodwill of countless people.

Even those who had laughed at her lack of beauty had fallen silent.

Jessica was polite and well educated!

Even if she was sad, for the sake of the overall situation, she silently endured it!

She was a kind girl, so what she was not pretty enough?

She had the beauty of soul!

Jessica paused and suddenly said, "It has passed so many years, I believe that my sister has already realized her mistake, so I do not blame her."

As she spoke, she glanced down the aisle at two people who were slowly approaching the signature wall.

Her eyes flashed provocation.

Naturally, Victoria noticed it and was furious.

Natalia calmly grasped her hand and said without changing her face, "Hey, star, pay attention to your image!"

Victoria knew that since the red carpet was so long that she could not hit Jessica even if she ran over her.

She could only secretly take a deep breath and scolded, "Bitch!"

Not far away, Lily who had hidden in the crowd said to the people around, "Do you know what the host talked about?"

The people around her looked confused.

After all, although the incident was sensational, only student of the same year and teachers know it, as well as some students in the Royal Academy.

Many of those present today were alumni of other year, so they did not know about it.

Seeing this, Lily revealed a surprised expression on purpose.

"You don't know that? You don't?"

"What is it? If you know, just talk to us. Don't keep us guessing."

"Yeah!"

Lily smiled, "It is simple. Five years ago, Jessica and her sister studied in WL High School. They wanted to take an examination of the Royal Academy.

But on the day before submitting the work, her sister temporarily found her work was not as perfect as Jessica, so she directly destroyed her work and stole Jessica's and even stunned Jessica .

Jessica failed to participate in the exam, naturally she lost the qualification, and she had to choose the film academy and entered the entertainment industry."

The people around her looked incredulous after they heard what she had said.

"Dear me! How could there be such a wicked person in the world?"

"Yeah! They are sisters! No matter how jealous she was, she shouldn't do that!"

"Stealing work can be forgiven, why did she stun her sister? What person she is!"

"She shattered me!"

Listening to the people around making critical sound, Lily showed a smile of satisfaction.

'Natalia, dare you turn against me!'

'I'm going to let you know what it's like to be pointed at by the nose in front of everybody!'

It had been a week since she was humiliated by Natalia in a luxury store.

For a week, her teeth tingled with hate at the thought of that day.

She was a daughter of Grodon family, when had she been subjected to such humiliation?

Natalia was just a shady mistress, relying on the support of Archie. If Natalia bullied her, she would not forgive her?

After learning from a friend in D City about Archie's relationship with Miss Kawn, Lily considered Natalia as a mistress.

She wanted to take revenge on Natalia with the power of her family.

But she didn't know why there were misfortunes in her family business recently.

Her dad didn't say much to her, but she could tell from the atmosphere that the company was in serious trouble recently.

But Lily didn't care about these, her dad and uncles would deal with it, she just needed to be a rich lady.

Thinking so, Lily took a deep breath and got more and more satisfied.

"Wait, who is her sister? Is she a student of our school?"

"I think so! They took an exam together?"

Someone asked curiously. Lily showed a sinister smile looking at the two people on the red carpet.

"Her sister is Natalia! Here's the one in the blue dress walking on the red carpet!"

There was an uproar all around.

On the red carpet, Victoria noticed the stares from the crowd and sensed something was wrong.

"Natalia, be careful, I feel the people over there have a malice against you."

Natalia said softly, "I see it."

Even if Lily hid well, she still found her.

But she didn't care how hard they scolded her now, because they would know they were wrong!

Soon they reached the signature wall.

Jessica had gone over the process of the interview, but stood still. She seemed to be waiting for them.

When she saw them coming, she said with a smile, "Sister, Miss Kaur, you are here too."

Victoria grunted, ignored her, turned her head and took the pen to sign.

Some of Jessica's fans in the crowd snorted with disdain.

"So what she is pretty? She is not polite! Bitch!"

But there were more fans of Victoria.

“Do you have eyes? Victoria is not family with your little white lotus. She said hello to everyone though they are not family. She just wants to get some flow from her”

“You!”

“What? Obviously she did not want to talk to Jessica, don't you understand? She had signed and finished her interview, but she was still standing there. Does she think she is pretty?”
