

Sweet Wife 961

Chapter 961 Life-saving grace

Faye snorted proudly, "That's about it."

At this moment, Tony came over, and she let Tony take his arm and swayed away.

Ian Rankin helped Kiera Hawkins to the back lounge.

As soon as he sat down, Ian Rankin asked with concern: "How are you? Is your body okay? Is there nothing uncomfortable?"

Kiera Hawkins shook her head and smiled at him with a raised face. "Ian Rankin, I'm so sorry today, I got you into trouble again."

Ian Rankin frowned, looking a little displeased.

"How many times have I told you? We are husband and wife, and we should support each other. Why would you cause trouble for me?"

He paused and sighed again: "Besides, it's clear that the woman is being unreasonable, and you still let her."

Kiera Hawkins smiled lightly, "I see that her dress and her arrogance are not common to ordinary people. When we first arrived in China, we should try our best not to cause trouble, and today is Mr. Robinson's venue. , he is in business, and all the visitors are guests, we better not make trouble and offend the guests, so as not to hurt Mr. Robinson's wealth."

Of course Ian Rankin knew what she was thinking, but he couldn't help but feel distressed when he saw her aggrieved look.

He wisely did not continue the topic, and patted Kiera Hawkins's hand, "Sit down for a while, I'll go get you a glass of water."

Kiera Hawkins nodded and watched him go out.

Soon, Ian Rankin came back, with a glass of water in his hand, followed by another middle-aged man.

Although the man has yellow skin, his eyebrows are deep and his eyes are high, and his nose is very high. He looks like a Westerner.

He walked in with a smile on his face, and as soon as he entered the door, he said with a hearty smile: "Since you are here today, you should come to me and take a good look, you don't know, I am here, but I sent people back to China to repair it a few years ago. , the front is the gambling venue, and the back is the manor I built myself. During this period of time, you all lived in the manor in the back, and the environment, I, Lao Yu, patted my chest with you to make sure that you will definitely like it."

Kiera Hawkins stood up and smiled slightly, "Mr. Robinson said yes, it must be good, but we are coming back this time, but we are going to bother you."

Mr. Robinson waved his hand and looked like he didn't care, "Hey, what are you talking about, what are you talking about? Of course, if it wasn't for Doctor Que, I would have died in the desert long ago. Speaking of which, I still owe you and your husband a life. Woolen cloth."

Ian Rankin said mildly, "It's just a little effort."

"It's a job for you, and it's a life-saving grace for me."

The three chatted and laughed and sat down.

Five years ago, Kiera Hawkins and Ian Rankin went out to travel, and accidentally rescued Mr. Robinson, who was bitten by a poisonous snake, in the desert, and brought it back to the castle for treatment, thus forming a friendship.

Because Mr. Robinson's mother is from China, this time Kiera Hawkins and Ian Rankin wanted to come back to China to play, because they didn't know anyone in China, so they contacted him, or someone they knew could guide one or two.

Mr. Robinson sat for a while, and suddenly made an "eh" and asked, "By the way, I was outside just now and heard someone making a noise. I just found out it was you, what happened?"

Kiera Hawkins' face changed, and Ian Rankin frowned.

Kiera Hawkins smiled and said, "It's not a big deal, it's just that I got separated from Asu just now. I was in a hurry to find him, and accidentally bumped into a young lady. I hope it doesn't affect your business."

Mr. Robinson waved his hand, "That doesn't exist, but I know the lady you mentioned."

Kiera Hawkins was taken aback, "You know him?"

"Yes." Speaking of this, Mr. Robinson seemed to be interested and said mysteriously: "She is a member of the McCarthy family of Eqitin, you know the McCarthy family, right?"

Kiera Hawkins nodded, "Have you heard that, it seems to be one of the four major families?"

"Yes, I don't need to say more about how powerful the McCarthy family is. As far as I know, that lady is the eldest lady of the McCarthy family, called Faye, the daughter of the founding father, the old Mr. McCarthy. Eqitin has always been rude."

Kiera Hawkins heard the words, her face changed, and she was faintly pale.

She patted her chest in fear, "Fortunately, I didn't offend her, otherwise wouldn't it be a bad thing?"

Ian Rankin interjected coldly, "So what if he messes with it? Could it be that he really dared to take revenge with a lot of fanfare?"

Mr. Robinson shook his head, "That's not true. Although she is the eldest lady of the McCarthy family, the head of the McCarthy family is not the old Mr. McCarthy, nor her, but her nephew. Archie McCarthy, although I have never met Archie McCarthy, but I heard that he is a very reasonable and personable person, and he will not be serious with people for such things."

Kiera Hawkins nodded reassuringly.

The three were chatting when suddenly, a staff member walked in quickly.

"Boss, a lady named McCarthy said she wanted to see you."

Mr. Robinson was taken aback for a moment, a little surprised, "Ms. McCarthy? Who?"

The staff glanced at Kiera Hawkins.

He is Mr. Robinson's personal assistant, and naturally knows Kiera Hawkins, so he quickly said, "The one who had a conflict with Miss Dawson in the hall before."

This time, Kiera Hawkins and Ian Rankin both changed their faces.

Ian Rankin stood up abruptly, his face icy cold, "She still wants to make trouble, doesn't she? Kiera, sit here and don't move, I'll go out and teach her a lesson!"

"Asu!"

Kiera Hawkins grabbed him, afraid that something might happen to his impulse.

Mr. Robinson raised his hand and said solemnly, "Don't worry, I'll go out to see first, maybe I'm not here to find you? Besides, this is my place, even if there is anything, there is still me, You don't need to take action."

He said and walked out quickly.

Kiera Hawkins pulled Ian Rankin to sit down, feeling uneasy in her heart, but at this moment, she heard a beautiful female voice coming from outside the door.

"It turns out that you are the boss here. I also said that I couldn't find you after searching for a long time. I have something important to discuss with you."

Mr. Robinson said with a smile: "Miss McCarthy is here, please forgive me if I miss you. I wonder if you have anything to discuss with me?"

"It's inconvenient to speak here, let's go in and talk."

After speaking, regardless of Mr. Robinson's obstruction, he stepped into the lounge.

As soon as I entered the door, I saw a man and a woman sitting on the sofa.

Mr. Robinson hurried in behind, and quickly explained: "Miss McCarthy, let me introduce to you, these two are my friends, Kiera Hawkins and Ian Rankin."

Kiera Hawkins gave her an embarrassed and polite smile, but Ian Rankin kept his face cold, looking at her like an enemy, ready to attack at any time.

Faye raised an eyebrow, somewhat surprised.????

Chapter 962 Seeking Cooperation

"So they are Mr. Robinson's friends, I say, how come they are so imposing."

She smiled and turned her head to Mr. Robinson, "So, you know what happened in the hall before."

Mr. Robinson also do not know what the lady wants, wiped the sweat on his forehead, said with a smile: "I know, but these two are my friends, plus before bumping into you is indeed unintentional, but please be kind"

Before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by Faye raising her hand.

Immediately afterwards, Mr. Robinson saw her twisting and turning toward Kiera.

Ian got up alertly, shielding Kiera behind him, and asked in a cold voice, "What do you want?"

Faye gave him a look and raised her eyebrows, "None of your business, I'll just have a word with her."

Behind him, Kiera stood up and tugged at the corner of his shirt.

"Ian, it's okay, let her talk to me."

Ian then coldly moved out of the way.

Faye sized up the woman in front of her.

Just see obviously are past middle age, but the woman in front of you seems to be extremely well maintained, the kind of maintenance and their own face by countless high-class skin care products piled up out of the youth is not the same, that is a kind of youth from the inside out, exuding a warm and quiet temperament, just like a prairie blooming in the most soft and beautiful flowers, with a puff of fresh wind, people can not help but like.

She hummed softly and asked, "Your name is?"

Kiera smiled slightly, "I'm Kiera, and you're Miss McCarthy, right?"

Faye clasped her arms and smiled smugly, "Yes, my name is Faye McCarthy, I am the eldest lady of The McCarthy family, we are also considered not to fight, although I disliked you before, but since you are Mr. Robinson's friend, I will not bother with you, make a friend. "

She said, holding out a hand.

Kiera paused for a moment.

She is not stupid, what is Faye's status?

The McCarthy family's first lady, that is the same as the McCarthy family's first princess, placed in ancient times can be the level of the Princess, a person below, above all.

And what about her? An ordinary person in the sea of people, these years and Ian living in the desert together, almost never involved in the circle of the powerful and noble, and what makes her friends with others?

But Faye has said so, and she can't refuse.

Therefore, he also had to put his hand out and shook her gently, smiling in a friendly way, "Good."

Ian frowned slightly next to her, somewhat confused by Faye's behavior.

Not to mention her, even Mr. Robinson, who is used to walking in the shopping mall and is the best at understanding people's hearts, is also a bit confused at this time.

He had thought that Faye had come over and was coming to get Kiera in trouble.

But now it seems to be here to make friends?

What's going on here?

Faye doesn't care what they think, as the eldest lady of The McCarthy family, she is used to doing what she wants and never cares what others think.

Therefore, after shaking hands with Kiera, he turned his head to Mr. Robinson.

"Well, Mr. Robinson, now that your friend is my friend too, we can sit down and talk business."

Mr. Robinson was stunned, "Talking business?"

"Yes!" Faye nonchalantly found herself a couch and sat down, and pointed to the couch across from her, as if she were the hostess of the place, "Mr. Robinson, sit."

Mr. Robinson swallowed and walked across the room to sit down.

Faye said calmly, "To tell you the truth, I came here today, not to gamble on stones, but to talk business with you."

Mr. Robinson smiled awkwardly at the enemy, "I wonder what business Miss McCarthy wants to talk about?"

"Naturally, it is the business of ore. I know that you have extracted a lot of good jade from your mines this time, and I also know that you have shipped this shipment from Tacitus, and I just want to ask, where are your mines?"

Mr. Robinson's face changed as soon as the words came out.

You know, do this business, everyone is clear, the mine this thing is their life, can dig out a good yield of the mine is not easy, the monk porridge is scarce, everyone is staring to grab, where will easily let others know?

Therefore, Faye is so big to come to the door, open the door to ask, inevitably will make people feel that she is a bit bullying, want to use their power, forcing the other party to give up the meaning of the resources at hand.

Mr. Robinson was silent for a moment and suddenly turned to his assistant and ordered something.

The assistant hurriedly went out and not long after, brought in a check.

Mr. Robinson smiled dryly, put the check on the table and pushed it in front of Faye.

"Miss McCarthy, look at it this way, this time I came to China to hold a gambling meeting, indeed I have not greeted with the people here, I also understand, after all, this is not my territory, I should indeed come to your place to report before holding, this is my negligence, please forgive me, this check as a small token of my appreciation, also I hope you will accept it."

Faye looked at the check in front of her and first froze, then reacted and her face changed violently.

She stood up with a swish and said angrily with crossed eyebrows, "Yu, what do you mean? Do you think I'm blackmailing you?"

Mr. Robinson's face is not very good, thinking, you have said so obviously, not blackmail is not a joke?

Faye guessed what he was thinking, and was furious.

She pointed at Mr. Robinson, a look of hatred, "I tell you, I Faye have plenty of money, I simply do not need you a few million, I just sincerely want to inquire about where you found this good mine, want to invest in a share, is it so difficult to understand? What's going on in your head?"

Mr. Robinson froze for a moment, somewhat incredulous.

"Investment? An equity stake?"

"Yeah!" Faye was so angry that she stuck her hands in her waist, "What? Don't tell me you don't need it, to tell you the truth, before coming here today, I have checked, Tacitus several large mines have been developed almost, there are good jade has long been dug out, the goods out of the last few years is nothing good at all.

But your shipment is so good, and you even found such a large piece of jadeite, I think it must be a new mine that has just been discovered, right? If the new mine is small, that's all, but if it's big, you won't be able to eat it alone, and it's easy to be jealous, just right, I've been looking for some investment in this area, I have The McCarthy family behind me, if you're willing, show me, I'll buy the mine if I like it, how about we mine it together? "

I have to say, in this world, sometimes there really is such a thing as a foolish man having a foolish fortune.

Maybe it was a mistake, maybe Faye really did her homework before, and this time she really guessed it.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 963 - Picking up the jade pendant

Mr. Robinson's batch of Jade mines, is a newly found mine dug out, not much is known there yet, but the stuff has been dug out, and it's only a matter of time before it's known.

This time he has been worried about this matter, not only can not let go of the mine, but also know that such a big piece of meat, one can not eat, so is trying to find a solution, Faye came to the door.

He hesitated and asked, "Miss McCarthy is here this time, I don't know if it is your own intention or The McCarthy family's intention?"

Faye raised her eyebrows, "What difference does it make? What? Do you not believe me or The McCarthy family?"

Mr. Robinson awkwardly smiled, "not do not believe, just this is ultimately a big thing, investment in minerals is not a little money can do, I know Miss McCarthy rich, but such a big thing, I personally still think you need to ask"

Faye sneered, "I finally got it, aren't you just afraid I won't have the money and that The McCarthy family won't support me in this?"

She said, flipping open her handbag and pulling out a check and slapping it directly on the table.

"How about this, Mr. Robinson, you tell me where your mine is, this 20 million is considered a deposit from me to you, you tell me how much money I need to invest, and when I turn around and look at the mine, I'll put the rest of the money on your account."

Mr. Robinson's expression grew more and more embarrassed and he hurriedly pushed that check back.

"Miss McCarthy, you misunderstood, I didn't mean it that way."

He paused and said in a deep voice: "Let's do this, since you are willing to cooperate, I might as well tell you the truth, I have indeed found a great, mineral-rich quarry, but please forgive me for not being able to tell you the exact location right now."

This mine, I do want to find a competent person to cooperate with the mining, if you really want to invest, at least 15 billion, and then less, the mine alone we two can not take down, this money is not a small amount, why do you think carefully, if you think clearly, come to tell me, I will take you to see, how?"

Faye frowned, "Fifteen billion? It takes that much?"

"Right. This is still only half of it, I will also contribute half, when the time comes, we share 50-50, of course, if you are not convenient on the mining side, I will help you take charge."

Faye hesitated and thought about it, "I'll tell you what, I'll go back and ask around, and when I get enough money together, I'll come back to you."

Mr. Robinson burst out laughing, "Eh, well, then I'll be grateful to Miss McCarthy."

Faye stood up, "In that case, I'll go first."

"Miss McCarthy, I'll drop you off."

Faye waved her hand, "No, still have to go to the bathroom, you stay, I know the way myself."

She spoke frankly and straightforwardly, and Mr. Robinson could not send her off any further, so he could only stop and remind her kindly: "The VIP restroom is on the left, Miss McCarthy don't go the wrong way."

Faye waved her hand, indicating that she knew.

When she left, Kiera, who had been keeping silent next to her, smiled and spoke, "This Miss McCarthy..... is really frank and lovely."

Mr. Robinson turned around, wiped a handful of cold sweat on his forehead, shook his head: "What rate of lovely? Equating about her reputation can be bad, to put it nicely called frank, to put it badly called brutal, forced to buy and sell this kind of thing she is not the first time to do, at a glance, you know handy, skilled very much."

Kiera saw him complaining and couldn't help but laugh, "Anyway, it's not out of malice, it's okay."

Mr. Robinson nodded, "That's true."

Saying that, he suddenly remembered something and looked up at them.

"Right, you guys have been strolling around this side for so long, you're tired, right? Do you want me to send you back to the manor to rest first?"

Kiera stood up, "Just don't bother Robinson, Ian and I just came from there this morning and know the way, we'll just go back ourselves."

Ian echoed, "Yeah, we'll just go back on our own, you're still busy over here, you go ahead and do your own thing."

When Mr. Robinson saw this, he didn't push it any further and urged, "Then you take care on your way."

The two men nodded, which led to their departure.

After they left, Mr. Robinson was just about to go out when he suddenly saw Faye coming out of the bathroom again and heading this way.

He felt a headache, but could not pretend not to see, and could only smile and welcome.

"I wonder what else Miss McCarthy would like to order?"

Faye said with a high voice: "Nothing, I just want to tell you, before I make a decision, this mine, you are not allowed to tell others, and not to seek cooperation, everything must wait until my letter back, understand?"

Mr. Robinson nodded hastily, "Understood."

Faye then said, "Okay, I'll go then."

"Miss McCarthy take it easy."

Mr. Robinson was relieved to finally send Faye away.

And at this time, Faye walked to the door, her foot suddenly stepped on a hard thing, she frowned, moved her foot to see, but saw a piece of transparent lotus flower jade pendant.

She couldn't help but squat down curiously, picking up the jade pendant and looking at it carefully.

Just see that the jade pendant body glittering, high degree of transparency, coupled with fine carving, lifelike, at a glance, you know that it is not ordinary products.

Whose stuff is this and why did it fall here?

The mind was searching, when a sweet voice came.

"Miss Faye, why didn't you call me when you came out, so I had to search for you."

Tony, who had been waiting for her outside earlier, ran over and hugged her arm and pampered her.

Faye was impatient when the other party suddenly saw the jade pendant in her hand and her eyes lit up, "Miss Faye, this jade pendant is so beautiful, is it for me?"

Faye gave him a look, her eyes cold, "Think good."

After saying that, he put it into his bag and walked away in a big way.

Tony froze, and hurriedly cried to follow.

"Miss Faye, don't go too fast, wait for me!"

Faye went out, got into the car, just started the car, see Tony followed out again, can only helplessly said: "I have some business to do now, you take a taxi back, today out to accompany me tips, I will later cell phone transfer to you, that's it, bye."

After saying that, he drove away directly.

Tony was left in her path, stunned and wide-eyed with disbelief.

But in the end, one can only grunt indignantly and open it back up by oneself.

In fact, there is a reason why Faye won't take him.

She just thought about it carefully, fifteen billion, even if she smashed the pots and pans, plus sold herself, but also can not come up with the money.

But now such a good opportunity in front of her, if really give up, she is not willing to.

So, she had to find a way to get some money to do so.

Chapter 964 Looking for her to invest

In The McCarthy family, if you ask who has the money, it's Archie.

But Faye did not dare to find Archie directly, after all, his nephew, that is known for being reasonable outside, but to his aunt is absolutely not reasonable.

Sometimes it was so harsh that she wondered if he was still the nephew she had grown up with.

But men, married will be like this, have a wife and forget the mother, is not an uncommon thing.

So this matter, she first can not directly talk to Archie, first have to talk to Natalia, probe the wind first.

So, Faye made up her mind and drove the car directly to Harlingen's building.

At this time, Natalia was still at work.

She dialed Natalia's number and as soon as she got through, she immediately smiled affectionately, "Dear Natalia, are you at work?"

Across the table, Natalia was a little surprised, "Yeah, what's up with Aunt Faye?"

"No, no, no, it's almost noon, I want to ask you to have lunch together, in the French restaurant near your company, okay? I know you like to eat light, the dishes there are particularly light."

Natalia laughed lightly, "Aunt Faye may want to speak up, I have a meeting at noon, I'm afraid I can't find the time."

"Ah ah, people are iron rice is steel, what meeting can not eat after dinner? And you are still pregnant with a child, can not be so desperate, I do not care, I want you to come out to eat with me, I will wait for you in the French restaurant that I said before ah, you must come."

After saying that, he just hung up the phone.

Natalia didn't expect her to be straightforward like this, and looked at the hung-up phone, crying and laughing for a moment.

Elsa came in from outside, put a stack of reports on her desk, and said, "Boss, this is the last quarterly report from Star Entertainment, please take a look."

Natalia nodded and looked at the clock again.

"I'll look at it this afternoon, now I'm going out, I'll get back to you by direct mail when I'm done."

Elsa nodded, and Natalia then took her coat, grabbed her bag and left the office.

When she arrived at the French restaurant, she found Faye already seated inside, even having ordered her food.

The box put a light and good smelling incense, Faye smiled, "Natalia is here, sit down, you see I ordered these dishes are you love to eat, and this incense, this is specifically good for pregnant women incense, not hurt the body, you do not worry ha."

Natalia smiled and sat down across from her, "What's with Aunt Faye being so nice today and thinking of asking me out to dinner?"

Faye smiled awkwardly and placed her fingers under the table, tangled in unease and nervousness.

"That I know I have not been very good to you in the past few years, I am older, bad temper, you have to understand, last time I said those words in your home are angry words, can not be taken seriously, you must not be angry with me because of those words ah."

Natalia gave a slight pause, followed by a smile.

"Aunt Faye don't worry, I'm not mad."

"That's good, that's good." Faye smiled, glanced at her, and said again in a hurry, "Eat, eat first, we'll talk after we eat."

Natalia saw this and didn't push it.

She had been busy all morning and was already hungry, so if Faye didn't call her, I guess she just ate directly at the office.

Archie didn't want her to work so hard, but she likes to work, so Archie couldn't stop her.

The good thing is that now that she's pregnant, she doesn't eat takeout. Archie has arranged a small kitchen for her at work and will force her to stop and eat when the time comes, so she can keep up with the nutrition.

The two of them ate in silence, Faye although many shortcomings, but after all is since childhood in The McCarthy family grew up, life literacy or needless to say, food not to say this is a certain.

Therefore, in addition to the sound of eating and chewing at the table, no one spoke again for a while.

Until the meal was finished, Natalia put down the dishes and wiped her mouth with a tissue again before looking at Faye across the table.

"Now that you're done eating, Aunt Faye, say what you have to say, I have to rush back to the office and can't stay here too long."

Faye saw this, and hurriedly also put down the dishes, also do not beat around the bush, said directly: "I went to a gambling meeting today, met a boss who developed his own mine, he said he found a Jade mines in Tacitus has not been exploited, want to find me to cooperate together to buy this mine."

Natalia raised an eyebrow.

Faye continued: "Natalia, you know, I have done a lot of business over the years, but there are not many successful, although I usually do not worry about food and clothing, but I always feel that something is missing in my heart, not to be able to, this time I think it is a good opportunity, I would like to try, but there are some difficulties above the capital. "

Natalia laughed, "What location in Tacitus did the other side say the mine was in, and did you learn about it?"

Faye shook his head, "I asked, he refused to say ah, said that I must know that I have the ability to share in the stock later, only then willing to tell me, I am not enough money, so back to put it together?"

Natalia nodded.

Jade mines business, because The Brown family is in this piece of business before, so she knows a lot.

Knowing that an undiscovered mine like this is a very valuable resource, generally to avoid people fighting over it, the information will indeed be very confidential and will not be easily told to outsiders.

She thought for a moment and asked, "How much money are you still short?"

Faye is a little apprehensive, "The other side wants me to pay fifteen billion, and I have four billion on hand right now."

Natalia froze, a little surprised.

"Fifteen billion? That much?"

Faye smile embarrassed, "is a little more ha, but let's think about it another way, the investment is large, that the mine is also large ah, otherwise the general small mine where need so much money?"

Natalia thought about it, and that's true.

But she still felt some doubts, so she only said in a light voice: "This is too big for me to decide alone, if you really want to invest, I'm afraid you still have to talk to Archie."

Faye nodded repeatedly, "I know I know, involving such a large amount of money, I certainly can not find you to take, I will go and Archie later, that is, you know, Archie does not trust me much, he only trusts you, if I go to ask, he certainly will not agree, now parents are biased towards him, in the eyes of his heart is only his precious grandson I have no status as a daughter. I have no choice but to find you, Natalia, I don't ask for anything else, I just hope that when I talk to Archie, you can say something for me, okay?"

Natalia looked at her, only to see Faye's face, with a careful pleading, which was rare for her, who was usually used to being condescending.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 965 Psychological Needs

She pursed her lips and said in a light voice, "Okay, I promise you, but you also have to promise me one thing."

Faye's heart fluttered with joy and she quickly asked, "What is it?"

"Don't ever say those things to Anne again, Aunt Faye, you know that I have always treated Anne as if she were my own daughter, and I don't want anyone to come between us, especially not our relatives."

Faye blushed.

From panic, to irritation, and finally deep shame.

She slightly bowed her head, her tone was a little weak, "I I did not mean to, I was just too angry, a momentary ghost"

"I don't care what you did because of." Natalia's voice was cold with an unprecedented seriousness, "Anyway, in the future, I don't want such a thing to happen again."

"Okay, I promise, I'll never talk nonsense again."

Faye agreed in a hurry.

Natalia then nodded and stood up.

"Don't worry, when you talk to Archie, I'll speak up for you."

After saying that, he turned around and went out.

Faye watched her back as she left, and only then did she heaved a sigh of relief.

After Natalia left the restaurant, she received a call from Anne.

It was Sunday, and Anne was calling from her home phone.

As soon as I got through, I heard the sweet voice of my little baby, "Mommy, are you off work yet, have you eaten yet?"

Natalia sat in the car and couldn't help but laugh, "It's time to get off work and eat, has Anne eaten yet?"

"Anne ate too, but Anne missed Mommy, so she called Mommy."

"So that's how it is." Natalia thought about it and asked her, "It's Anne's birthday today. Later, when Mommy comes back from work, pick up Anne and go to Greatgrandma's for her birthday, okay?"

Anne cheered excitedly, "Yes, I want mousse cake, and I want to wear the prettiest dress."

"Okay, let Mrs. Dottie find you pretty little dresses to wear when Mommy comes back to pick you up."

"Yes, Mommy, I love you."

"I love you too, bye."

"Bye bye mommy."

Hanging up the phone, she sat in the car, the corners of her lips could not help but hook up a smile.

Then, only to get out of the car and walk towards the company building.

Natalia worked until 5:30 before she got off the bus.

Archie also got off work early. Everyone knew it was the little princess' birthday, so they all purposely left work early to go home and pick her up for the reunion.

In fact, Natalia and the others have the habit of coming to the old house for dinner on weekends, after all, they don't have to come during the week, but every weekend they have to come and spend some time with the two old people.

Today coincides with Anne's birthday, so it just so happens to be together.

When I got home, I received a large and a small baby, and then I set out to drive to the old house.

On the way, Natalia and Archie talk a little about Faye.

After Archie heard this, his first reaction was really to refuse.

Over the years, Faye has done a lot of business, in all kinds of industries, but none of them have been successful, they have all failed.

Archie and William, as well as Ariana, have pretty much decided that she's just not cut out for business.

Look at the wind and fire at the first call, in fact, is a big fool pretending to have ideas but simple brain, often people say a few words to throw a bait she was hooked.

After all these years, I don't know how much money has been cheated.

Being cheated of money is still a small matter, the main thing is to say out of shame.

After all, when William was young, a generation of excellence, Ariana is also considered a heroine, Archie, not to mention, even Archie died young parents, that is also known for their talent and talent.

Faye is here, but not in the arts, in addition to spending, nothing else will.

Therefore, Archie would never agree to something like investing fifteen billion dollars.

Natalia, on the contrary, had a different idea from him.

She said in a light voice: "Aunt Faye is forty years old this year, not impulsive and capricious than when she was young, and has been much more thoughtful and careful than before, and I always feel that there are things we can not only look at the final result and the benefits to hand, but also the psychological needs of the other party."

Archie turned his eyes to look at her, "Psychological needs?"

"Yes." Natalia smiled slightly, "Have you ever thought about why Aunt Faye has invested in so many businesses that have failed, but this time she still wants to invest such a large sum of money, she already has a good life, even if she does not do anything, just the McCarthy family's annual dividends are enough for her to live a carefree life, but why is she so Why is she so insistent on going into business for herself?"

Archie frowned, "Why?"

"Because of the sense of accomplishment."

Natalia looked at him with a straight face, "You The McCarthy family, everyone is a natural talent, smart as hell, very successful in everything, only she looks like nothing, always dragging everyone's feet, she is a human being, is a human being will have self-esteem, no one wants to be a drag on others forever, she also wants to be herself She also wants to make some achievements, or even a career of their own.

This is actually a good thing, but every time she used the wrong method, but this time, according to my understanding, should still be more reliable, we might as well support it, in case it succeeds? It's also a way to fulfill her wish, isn't it?"

Her words put Archie in deep thought.

After half a sound, only then said in a deep voice: "Since you all say so, let her try again."

Natalia smiled faintly, "We also unnecessarily all lend money to her, not to mention The McCarthy family originally as one, just to borrow such a large sum of money, I'm afraid it will give her a lot of pressure, she just started such a large business, only afraid that will not be able to press the formation, chaos."

Archie raised an eyebrow, "So what do you mean"

"Jade mines well, if it is true, then no matter how much is invested, it is definitely earned, why don't we take this money as an investment and we will be partners for once."

Archie sniffed and laughed outright.

"You've really thought of everything for her. Aunt Faye would be touched to death if she knew that."

Natalia also pursed her lips and smiled, "I do not ask her to be touched, only to ask her to be smooth as she wishes, after Anne heart to live her life, do not fool around again."

Archie nodded, "In that case, then as you say, we invest."

After the two men conferred, they stopped the subject.

Soon, the car arrived at the old mansion.

Faye arrived before them, and when she saw them enter, she got up in a hurry, smiling more warmly and attentively than any other time in the past.

"Archie, Natalia, Anne, Oliver, you're here, come and sit down."

She said, and came over to pick Oliver up again with one hand.

"Ugh this brat, why is it heavy again? Auntie can barely hold you anymore."

Oliver giggled, "Auntie, I'm not a brat, I'm a fragrant brat."☹

Chapter 966 Anne's Birthday Party

This statement drew laughter from everyone.

Natalia walked over and gave him a scornful look, "also fragrant boy, also not ashamed, hurry down, do not tire your aunt."

Oliver hurriedly jumped down from Faye's arms, Faye smiled, "It's not a problem, our good grandson, I like it."

The Brown family also sent a gift to the dining room, after all, it is Natalia's child, although not biological, but in terms of generation, Anne still have to call Louis an uncle and grandfather.

Natalia and Archie also sent gifts, Natalia sent a small dress that Anne had always liked before, while Archie was much more brutal and simple.

It's a bank card, and when she's old enough, it's her private money to do with as she pleases.

Natalia looked at his straight man gift and cried and laughed.

Luckily, Ariana and William were attentive enough to prepare hand-made snacks for her.

Anne was so happy that she ate her snack while opening her presents.

When it was Faye's turn, Anne looked up with an expectant face and asked, "Grandma, what gift are you giving me?"

Faye smiled mysteriously, "You are the precious little princess of our The McCarthy family, and what your aunt gave you is, of course, the best gift ever."

Saying that, take out a delicate gift box.

Anne's eyes lit up and she took it in a hurry.

When I opened it, I found that it was a piece of jade lotus of exquisite workmanship and pure translucent quality.

"What a beautiful jade pendant!"

Anne surprised the jade lotus out and Faye laughed, "How about it? Do you like the gift your aunt gave you?"

Anne nodded her head repeatedly, "I like it, thank you auntie."

Ariana also laughed, "Ranchi has finally been generous for once."

Faye pouted, "Mom, what are you talking about? When have I ever been ungenerous to Anne?"

The group laughed and laughed, however, Natalia, who was sitting next to her, changed her face slightly.

She stared at the jade lotus, her mind involuntarily recalled some very long ago images, slightly lost in thought.

It was only when someone next to her called out to her that she came back to her senses.

"Natalia, Natalia?"

Natalia froze and turned her head to look at Archie, "Huh? What's wrong?"

Archie's brow furrowed slightly, keenly aware that something was wrong with her.

"What's wrong with you?"

Natalia pursed her lips and shook her head, "I'm fine."

said, his gaze fell on the jade pendant in Anne's hand, a flash of doubt under his eyes.

After the family finished eating, they spent some time chatting with Ariana and William, and at 12:00 p.m., the cake was cut on time, and the birthday was considered complete.

On the way home, both little ones were so sleepy that their eyelids fought.

Natalia held Oliver and let Anne sleep in the back chair. Although she is only nine years old, she inherited Archie's genes and is very tall, already 5'4" at such a young age.

The little baby was huddled in the chair, not sleeping very soundly.

Natalia reached out, shook her hand, and tugged the little blanket she was wearing, which settled her down.

The car soon arrived at Maple Bridge Villa.

Natalia pushed Anne awake and carried Oliver out of the car again. Anne was confused and reached for a hug before her eyes opened.

Archie came over to her, picked her up in his arms, and headed for the house.

Mrs. Dottie had been waiting for them, knowing that they would be late today, and had prepared a special snack.

Natalia and the others couldn't eat. Let Mrs. Dottie go back to rest early and then take the children to their room.

After settling the children to sleep, he went back to his room.

Today we are all exhausted, back to the room since a deep sleep, for the time being.

Day 2.

When Natalia woke up, it was 8:00 am.

The two little ones were supposed to go to school today, but Anne suddenly caught a cold and Natalia came downstairs to find out.

Anne had a birthday last night, had too much fun, maybe she caught a cold, the doctor came to take the temperature, only a little low fever, 37.5 degrees.

Natalia had no choice but to call her and ask her maid to send Oliver to the early childhood class before accompanying Anne to feed her the medicine.

Archie left early in the morning, Natalia coaxed Anne to take her medicine and lie down again, then laughed: "Such a big child, why are you still so unable to suffer? This little cold has knocked you down? You don't even go to school anymore, shame!"

Anne was a little embarrassed, her little face flushed crimson, her whole body shrunken under the little quilt, and said crisply, "I'll just play for one day, Mommy, I promise I'll make up for today's schoolwork later."

Natalia knew that she hadn't gotten over the joy of her birthday yesterday, and didn't force her.

But still, she went and fetched two exercise books and placed them by her bedside.

"Rest can be, but study can not be left behind, later on feel better, then do these two booklets, OK?"

Anne nodded good-naturedly.

Natalia rubbed her head, "That's a good girl."

Anne suddenly said, "Mommy, I want to see the present from last night."

Natalia was stunned that not only did The McCarthy family send gifts last night, but several of the rest of the family, as well as some relatives who knew it was Anne's birthday, had also sent gifts over.

There is a part that is sent to the old mansion, but some of them are far away and do not know that they went to the old mansion last night, so things are still sent to this side of the Maple Bridge villa.

Mrs. Dottie thought the boxes were blocking the living room, so she piled them up in the storage room last night before they came back.

Natalia laughed, "OK, can you get up now?"

"Can."

When it comes to opening presents, Anne was energized and rolled over and got up from under the covers.

Natalia couldn't help but lose her smile, and had no choice but to go up and help her get dressed.

After getting dressed, he laughed again, "It's agreed, I can only stay home with you for half a day, after I finish opening gifts with you later, I have to go to the company, you're home alone and do your problems well, okay?"

Anne nodded, wrapped her arms around her neck and barfed on her face.

"Mommy, you're so sweet."

Natalia lost her smile and shook her head.

The two went to the storage room, only to see a small mountain of gift boxes of a thousand strange and various colors on the floor in the middle.

Mrs. Dottie came in from outside and smiled awkwardly, "Sorry, Mrs. McCarthy, Missy, all these things came in at once last night, and I didn't have time to clean them up, so they were all piled up here."

Anne replied with a straight face, "It's okay Mrs. Dottie, you can pack it up after I unpack it, otherwise if you pack it up and I come back to unpack it, won't it be more trouble?"

Mrs. Dottie smiled dryly as Natalia left her to her own devices, then picked up a box and glanced at it to find that it was from the Kwan family.

She couldn't help but laugh, "Here, let's give it to you, you can open it yourself."

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 967 Grandma's Relics

Anne nodded, took the hobby knife, and la-ho-ho took apart several boxes in one breath in front of her.

Girls are really attracted to things like gift boxes.

On a normal day, the girl is gentle and soft, when opening gifts, can also become invincible scissor hands, and fast and accurate, in one go.

Anne finished opening her gift and was finally satisfied.

Natalia stayed with her again, showing her how to put her gifts in order, before leading her out of the storehouse.

"Mommy, I'm done opening presents, so you can stop accompanying me and go to work."

Natalia nodded and looked at the time, it was only 10:30 am, not too late.

She gave Anne a few words of advice and was about to leave when suddenly there was a "ding" and a piece of white stuff fell on the floor.

Anne exclaimed, "Yah, my jade pendant!"

Natalia turned around and saw her picking a jade pendant up off the ground, and hurried over to take a look.

It was the same piece that Faye had given her.

Last night, Natalia did not look closely at the jade pendant, just a blurred glance through the light, felt familiar, very much like his mother Kiera's living relics.

But at that time, she was just a thought that flashed through her mind, and did not take it seriously.

After all, Kiera has been dead for so many years and has long left nothing behind, so how could there be a jade pendant belonging to her in Faye's hands?

Therefore, at that time, she just thought about it and revealed it.

But now, when seeing this jade pendant again, looking at the clear and crisp lotus flower pattern on it, only then the heart can not help but tremble.

That familiar feeling grew stronger and stronger, and she couldn't help but reach out and take the jade pendant from Anne's hand.

"Mommy, what's wrong?"

Anne froze, a little confused.

Natalia, however, did not answer, she carefully stroked the texture on the jade pendant, turning it over and over, looking at it carefully for a long time, and finally, by the sunlight coming in through the doorway, she made out a small Family emblem in a place at the very center of the lotus.

Just see, that is a The Hawkins Family's emblem.

She couldn't help but shake hard!

How is this, how is this possible?

The Hawkins family was the first family in Julio. Her grandfather, The old Mr. Hawkins, was very powerful in Julio, and as the only daughter of The old Mr. Hawkins, Kiera was also well fed.

The old Mr. Hawkins wanted to make his daughter stand out from the rest, so he nurtured her talents and interests from an early age.

And the so-called mark, in fact, is also very simple, is a small The Hawkins Family's emblem engraved on it.

From small dishes, books and pens to large jewelry, clothes and cars, all of them are engraved with this Family emblem.

Natalia once thought that she might never see this Family emblem again in her life, but now, she sees it on a small jade pendant.

Her face was vaguely white, and her whole body was immersed in the memories of the past.

Anne, however, was terrified, and when she saw her standing there as if she were demented and motionless, she was so anxious that she was on the verge of tears.

While tugging her sleeve, she shouted, "Mommy, Mommy what's wrong with you? Don't you scare Anne."

A hot, rolling tear dropped on the back of her hand.

Natalia, startled by the heat, finally came back to her senses and looked at Anne lost in thought.

A cold watery feeling slid across her face, and only then did she react with hindsight that she had, at some point, cried.

Mostly because she saw her crying and the child was frightened, Anne cried out this time.

Natalia hurriedly wiped away her tears and squatted down to soothe, "Mommy is fine, Anne don't be anxious, Mommy just thought of something."

Anne deflated her mouth and tears fell down like broken beads.

"Mommy, don't be sad, you're sad Anne will be sad along with you, mommy don't cry oh."

He said, taking a soft little hand, wiping her tears for her.

Natalia's nose turned sour and her tears became heavier.

She forced a smile, "Okay, Mommy doesn't cry or feel sad, and neither does our Anne, Anne is the prettiest girl in the world, and pretty girls are not crybabies."

Anne nodded her head.

Natalia looked at the jade pendant in her hand and sighed.

Anne asked, "Mommy, are you crying because of this jade pendant?"

Natalia nodded, "Yeah, it reminds me of my mother, your grandmother, and do you see that, it has a little Family emblem on it."

She said, guiding Anne to stand in the sunlight as well, and turning the jade pendant over to show her.

Anne exclaimed in amazement, "There really is!"

Natalia laughed, "This is the Family emblem that is unique to the top of the things your grandmother used. I always thought that there should be nothing of hers left in this world, but now I realized that there is still."

Anne blinked, a little puzzled, "But Grandma is obviously The Brown family, why would she carve a The Hawkins family's Family emblem?"

Natalia choked.

She then remembered that Anne did not know that she had previously been switched and stranded in Julio growing up.

Since Anne has been able to understand these complex relationships, she and Louis have met and have recognized their real mother, Yvonne, then in Anne's eyes, her mother's own grandmother is naturally Yvonne.

Natalia smiled to herself and explained, "That was your other grandmother, a woman who raised your mommy as a child and gave her a second life."

Anne seemed to understand, but tried very hard to make sense of it.

"I understand, it's all grandma anyway, and since it's grandma's stuff, we must treasure it and never lose it again."

Natalia smiled, "Yeah, so Anne has to put things away and not lose them."

Anne was a little nervous when she heard that.

"But but I lose things too easily, what if I lose it?"

She frowned at the showy brow, and suddenly her eyes lit up.

"Huh, why don't you put it away for me, mommy? I haven't met this grandmother yet, you put it away and when you see her one day, you can bring it out to me and I'll take it with me to see her, then she'll be happier won't she?"

Natalia froze, and a sudden sourness welled up in her heart.

She didn't know how she was going to explain to Anne that she would never be able to see her grandmother.

Because Grandma passed away many years ago.

Natalia sniffled and forced a smile.

"Yes, Mommy will put it away for you, and when you see Grandma next time, you can put it on, and then Grandma will definitely like you more when she sees you wearing something of hers."

"Then it's a deal."

Anne joyfully handed over the jade pendant to her, and then joyfully went back to her room to read a book.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 968 - The Heart Knows the Heart

Natalia stood there, holding the jade pendant in his hand, but his heart seemed to have a thousand pounds.

She stood for a moment, half a second, before taking a deep breath and holding the jade pendant as she walked outside.

Meanwhile, the other side.

Inside the estate behind the casino.

Early in the morning, Ian noticed that Kiera was a little distracted today and had been rummaging around the house looking for something.

He couldn't help but frown and ask curiously, "What are you looking for?"

"Ian, I've lost my jade pendant."

Ian's face changed.

"Which jade pendant?"

"It's the one I grew up with, the one with the lotus flower pattern."

Ian's face grew harder and harder, and he hurriedly followed suit and rummaged around.

While looking, while comforting, "You do not rush, I help you look together, you also think about the last time you saw this thing is in what place, remember I will accompany you to find."

Kiera stops moving and thinks carefully.

But after thinking about it for half a day, but still have no clue.

She shook her head, "I don't know, this jade pendant was given to me by my father, I have been wearing it for so many years and never took it off, so I never paid any special attention to it, it was as if it had become one with me, I simply no one noticed its loss, and I don't know when I last saw it. "

Ian sniffed and frowned.

He thought about it and said in a deep voice: "First look in the house, if the house is not, it is likely that two days ago to the gambling venue over there, dropped over there."

Hearing him say that, Kiera suddenly blushed.

"If it really fell over there, it's definitely"

The latter words do not need to be said, both know it by heart, and therefore, the faces are not very good.

In fact, the jade pendant itself does not have much value, otherwise Faye would not have casually taken it out and given it to Anne.

But this jade pendant means so much to Kiera. It was built for her when The old Mr. Hawkins was still alive, and decades have passed, and The old Mr. Hawkins left her with just the same thing.

In others, just a less valuable jade, for her, it is a reminder, a memory.

The two men rummaged through the house, however, the whole house was rummaged through, but did not find.

There was no choice but to go out together and search all along the places they had visited in the past few days.

They searched the entire estate as well, but they didn't find the jade either.

Finally, there was no choice but to find Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson was a little surprised to hear about this.

"The jade pendant is lost? What kind of jade pendant was it?"

Kiera described anxiously, "It's a lotus-shaped jade pendant about three centimeters long and three or four millimeters thick, with a small The Hawkins Family's emblem engraved in the place of the lotus pistil in the center of the jade pendant, which is very recognizable."

Mr. Robinson frowned.

He pondered for a while, "This is not a good thing to do, after all, you are not sure when the jade pendant was lost, so small an object, really want to find and needle in a haystack is no different."

How could Kiera not know this? But that thing was too important to her.

She doesn't know how it got lost.

Come to think of it, it could only be that day at the gambling venue, when it collided with Faye, it could have been knocked off.

Although this speculation, also sounds a little unbelievable, but this is the only possibility of the greatest speculation.

Mr. Robinson after listening, said in a deep voice: "so, you also do not rush, if it is really lost in the venue, it is a good thing, at least the venue are monitored, can be found at any time, if it is lost outside that is the difficult thing."

Ian also nodded, "I think so too, so I'm only going to trouble you a little bit to retrieve the surveillance for us to see."

Mr. Robinson nodded, "It's not a big deal, you guys wait a minute, I'll have someone transfer it right away."

With that, pressed the intercom to make a call, and soon, someone brought in the surveillance footage of the past few days.

Mr. Robinson took a computer to them and said, "You guys watch it first, I still have some things to deal with, after you look at it, if you find any clues then tell me, as long as it is lost in the venue, I will help you find it."

Ian and Kiera both nodded their heads and said gratefully, "Thank you so much."

Mr. Robinson got up and left, and the two sat down in the office and concentrated on watching.

The surveillance video is from the first time they came to the gambling venue, until today, there are several days in between, such a large venue, all angles, do not need to think to know how much workload.

But both men knew the significance of that jade pendant and must not let it fall into the hands of others.

Therefore, they all watched with extra seriousness and concentration.

From noon until evening, finally, Kiera's eyes lit up.

"I found it."

Ian hurriedly brought his body over, "Where?"

Kiera pointed to a certain point on the screen and pressed pause, "Do you see it, right here."

Ian fixed his eyes to see the screen, only to see the screen, it is Kiera from the office when, at that time Faye just came to the office to find Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Robinson after talking, left.

Kiera and Ian then followed suit and left as well. Just then, on the way out the door Kiera tripped over the threshold and almost fell.

It was at this second that the jade pendant slipped off her body and fell to the ground.

Both were a little excited and a little nervous.

Excited to finally find a clue, the jade pendant there is hope to find back.

I'm nervous because I don't know who will pick it up, and if the person who finds it doesn't want to return it, I'm just afraid it will be another hassle.

Ian taps the play button directly to let the video continue to play.

Just see the picture, people coming and going, but everyone seems to have not noticed the small piece of jade pendant on the ground.

After all, it was a gambling venue, and everyone's eyes had long been drawn to the big, shiny Jade mines, so who would keep staring at the floor?

Just then, however, a familiar figure crashed into their line of sight.

Only to see that it was none other than Faye.

At that time, Mr. Robinson happened to come out of the office, and Faye came from the other direction, stood there and spoke to Mr. Robinson, then turned around and walked away.

After walking a few steps, he suddenly took a step back and squatted down to pick something up.

Kiera held her breath as Ian hit pause, zooming in to see what she was holding.

It was Kiera's lotus flower jade pendant.

"Is that her?"

Ian's face was sullen, and he couldn't help the disgust between his eyebrows, "This woman again!"

Kiera's heart was also a little worried, "She is the eldest lady of The McCarthy family, she should not look at such a small jade pendant." ???

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 969 - The Misadventures

"Since she picked it up, let's find her and get it back. Ian, don't start a conflict with people first, maybe they are a kind heart and are waiting for us to collect it."

Ian's face is a bit ugly, "I think she is not so kind, 80% of your things, otherwise really want to let the owner to claim, directly to the boss here, and why quietly take away?"

Kiera pursed her lips and sighed.

"You don't say that, The McCarthy family is a powerful and luxurious noble family, Miss McCarthy should not do such a thing, really, we will pay to buy the jade pendant back, it's not a big deal."

When Ian saw her say that, he didn't say anything else.

Not long after that, Mr. Robinson returned.

As soon as he entered, he smiled cheerfully and said, "How's it going? Did you find a clue?"

Kiera smiled faintly, "Found it, just might have to trouble Robinson to help us get in touch."

Mr. Robinson raised an eyebrow, a little surprised, "Yo, you really found it? Who picked it up?"

Kiera silenced for a moment and opened her lips, "It's the same Miss McCarthy who came to you last time to talk business."

When she said this, Mr. Robinson was in front of the water fountain to get water, heard the words and froze.

It was only when the water was almost full that he reacted, turned it off and came over with the cup.

"Faye? Are you sure?"

Kiera nodded and turned the computer screen to his side again and played him the video earlier.

Mr. Robinson was also a bit speechless after reading it.

He was silent for a moment and sighed.

"If it is someone else, right, this is still good to do, but this Lu careful"

He frowned, a bit distressed, "I don't have her contact information on hand, either."

Kiera and Ian were both a little surprised, "You don't have contact information either? Didn't she say last time that she was looking for you to invest in her business? She didn't leave a phone number?"

Mr. Robinson laughed, "They are rich wives' words, just listen to them and take them seriously! Fifteen billion dollars of business, she is not the head of The McCarthy family, how can she come up with so much money at once, I think this business 80% is not negotiable."

He looked at the momentary dimming of the glow in Kiera and Ian's eyes and couldn't bear it in the end.

"How about this, you guys wait for a few days, see if she will come back to me, if she doesn't come back, I will try to find out her contact information for you guys, you guys go to her directly, Faye this person is a bit spiteful, but as long as it is reasonable, she shouldn't give you guys a hard time."

Ian and Kiera nodded at this.

Over here, Kiera and the others are in a hurry to find Faye.

On the other hand, Natalia was also looking for her.

When she got the jade pendant, she felt something was wrong.

When Kiera died, she only left her daughter a necklace, the rest of The Hawkins family, all the things that Philip the family lost.

As for the things that her mother used before she died, they were also burned in a fire because Clara hated her.

It is reasonable to say that something like this jade pendant should not be strayed.

Could it be that you were cheated in the first place?

They said they burned the stuff up, but they didn't, they sold it quietly?

Natalia does not know, but she does know that she has to get this straightened out.

After all, those things are her mother's relics, and no matter what, she can't let them stray.

She must get them back, even if they have been destroyed beyond recognition, and not let it fall into the hands of others.

With this in mind, she called Faye directly.

Across the street, Faye was a little surprised to receive her call.

"Natalia, why did you remember to call me?"

Natalia laughed, "Aunt Faye, where are you?"

"Me? I'm doing beauty, you want to come? I tell you oh, this technician technology can be good, you are so busy every day, and now pregnant, you have to pay attention to maintenance, or women get old fast, be careful of men out to mess up"

Natalia listened to her more and more outrageous, can't help but headache stroke forehead.

Finally, directly interrupted, "You send me the address, I'll come right over."

Faye smiled and immediately agreed happily, "Yes, yes, I'll send you the address right away."

After the phone call hung up, Faye quickly sent the address over.

Natalia glanced at the address on her phone, entered it directly into the navigation, and drove towards that salon.

The other side.

After Faye hung up the phone, she sent Natalia the address and then bragged to the beauty technician next to her, "You don't know who the person who just called me is, do you? It's my nephew-in-law, and when I say it's my nephew-in-law, it's actually just like my daughter-in-law."

"Alas, you know, I'm not married, nor do I have children, so my nephew is not the equivalent of my son's well."

The technician laughed, "So, is your nephew treating you well?"

"Of course it's good, they are very filial to me, money and so on are at my disposal to spend, did not you hear? Knowing that I am having a beauty treatment, this rushed over to pay for me and came to keep me company."

The group of technicians did not know her real identity, but just looked at her dressing and knew that she was not a normal rich person.

They all laughed at the words and complimented, "Your niece-in-law is so sweet, you are so happy."

Faye smiled contentedly before lying back and closing her eyes, enjoying herself at ease.

Natalia arrived twenty minutes later.

Because she knew she was coming, Faye, even if she was feeling more comfortable, kept holding on to stay awake.

Hearing the sound of high heels ringing outside, her spirits shot up and she immediately waved her hand, signaling the technician to get out of the way, and then sat up.

When I looked back, it was Natalia who had arrived.

"Natalia, you're here."

Natalia looked at Faye's big smile and smiled along with her as she walked over and sat down.

"Aunt Faye is in such a good mood today, why did you remember to come so far for a facial?"

Natalia is familiar with the ones she usually goes to because she has been dragged by Faye to do it a few times before.

But this family, she never came.

Faye laughed: "The previous few technology is not good ah, has been the same few projects to do back and forth, are tired of doing, this one is Tony recommended to me two days ago, I came to try, not bad, you want to try?"

She looked at Natalia with an expectant face. Natalia paused for a moment and said in a deep voice, "I'm not going to try, I came over to see you today because I have something serious to talk about."

She said, turning her head to look at a few staff members nearby.

"Excuse me, please go out for a moment."

Several people were stunned and could not help but look at each other.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 970 - Negotiate a deal

Faye also froze for a moment, carefully watching Natalia's face, found that her face is not right, heart about understand is really something wrong.

Then he also waved his hand and asked those staff to back off.

Then, only to compensate a smile, smilingly asked, "Natalia, what is it?"

Natalia took the jade pendant out from inside her bag and looked at her seriously, "Aunt Faye, this jade pendant, where did you get it from?"

Faye was stunned, looking at the jade pendant in her hand, and subconsciously got a little weak.

Her gaze flashed, "The jade pendant well I can get from where else? Of course I bought it at the counter, but the jade pendant I gave Anne, how come you have it?"

Saying that, he tried to reach out to grab the jade pendant, but Natalia dodged it with agility.

Natalia didn't want to talk to her too much and got straight to the point.

"Which counter did you buy it at, show me."

Faye sniffed, realized something, and her face sank instantly.

She glared at Natalia with no good grace.

"What? What do you mean by that? You are suspicious of me, I bought the jade pendant in which counter, what is it to you ah? Besides, I gave it to Anne, not to you. Don't think you can just take her things because you're her mother.

Natalia pursed her lips and looked at her, not speaking.

Faye continued: "Eh, I'm not saying you ah, you are in such a hurry to find over, I thought it was a big deal, but it turned out to be for a jade pendant, if you like jade pendant, you go buy it yourself, why ask me? I'm not responsible for helping you inquire about this."

Only when she had finished complaining did Natalia say in a hushed voice, "This is my mother's stuff."

Faye's heart "thumped".

Turning her head, she looked at her incredulously.

Natalia repeated it again in case she didn't hear it clearly.

"This is my mother's stuff, the engraving on this, it's my mother's family crest, only she would have it, so Aunt Faye, please tell me where did you get this from? Even if you bought it, please tell me where you bought it from, can you?"

Faye finally reacted this time, her face changed, followed by some amusement.

"Haven't you your mother been dead for many years? How come it's your mom's stuff"

She spoke, but the more she said, the more she felt weak.

I also do not know what came to mind, the face became a little ugly at once.

Natalia kept looking at her in silence.

After half a second, Faye finally could not stand her gaze, waved her hand, impatiently said: "Okay, okay, I'll tell you is, this jade pendant is not bought, I picked it up."

Natalia frowned, "Picked it up? Where did you pick it up?"

Faye unhappily deflated mouth, "is in a gambling venue picked up ah, where I know I went out of the door, pick up a piece of jade pendant is your mother's things ah, said I was really unlucky."

She said, and couldn't help but roll her eyes.

Natalia, however, keenly grasped the key word in her words.

"The gambling venue? Which gambling venue?"

"It's"

Faye said halfway, suddenly a meal, followed by as if remembering something, eyes lit up.

She rubbed her hands together excitedly, "Well, Natalia, let's discuss something."

Natalia put the jade pendant away, her face unchanged, "Say."

"Before I told you about investing in Jade mines, in fact, the jade pendant I found this time is the one I want to cooperate with the mineral boss held a gambling meeting, how about this, you accompany me to go there, and talk with the boss about cooperation matters, just so I can also take you to see the place where I found the jade pendant, what do you think? What do you think?"

Natalia understood that Faye was afraid that she would not agree to lend money and wanted to take this opportunity to make a deal with her.

She couldn't help but lose her smile, because she and Archie had made it clear before that they were willing to support Faye.

Therefore, it did not refuse, "Yes, but I also have a condition."

Faye was stunned, "What are the conditions?"

"I can go with you to meet that Jade mines boss, but say a good deal, if after inspection, this time the minerals are indeed worth investing, the money is counted as our investment, not a loan to you, you yourself can also contribute a sum of money to invest in your, how about we kiss the flesh and bone to settle the score?"

Faye was stunned, how could not expect that she would actually say this.

Her face changed, rather furiously.

"Natalia! Are you and Archie that short of money? Even your aunt won't let go of this mosquito meat?"

Natalia stood up.

"Whether it's meat or a mud pit, we don't know yet, Aunt Faye, fifteen billion is not a small amount, are you sure you can grasp such a large investment if you really invest in it by yourself?"

Faye's face changed again and again, and finally, in the end, she lost the battle.

"Then you lend me another 100 million, I'll put in 500 million, and you both put in a billion."

Natalia didn't hesitate, "Okay, deal!"

Once she said yes, she lifted her wrist to check the time.

"When are you done with your beauty treatment?"

Faye did not have the good grace to tear the mask off her face.

"You're spoiling the fun, so why do it? I'll take you to see Mr. Robinson now, okay?"

Natalia hooked her lips, "That would be hard on Aunt Faye."

When Faye changed her clothes and packed her things, the two of them left the door together.

The staff who had been waiting outside were shocked to see that they had suddenly come out and even changed their clothes.

"Ms. Lu, are you leaving? Are you not satisfied with our previous service?"

Faye rolled her eyes helplessly.

"It's not that I'm not happy with you guys, I have something to do, okay, I'll open the card, come back next time."

She said, and this followed Natalia out with a twist.

Once in the car, Faye gave her address, and Natalia drove her directly to the gambling venue with her.

And at this time, inside the gambling venue, the gambling session is still continuing.

After discussing with Mr. Robinson, Kiera and Ian went back to the back of the estate, Mr. Robinson had to look after the business and naturally could not leave.

At this moment, someone just happened to open a good piece of jade, and everyone is gathering around the stone cutting knife and is watching the fun.

Mr. Robinson is an all-round character, even though his eyes on the stone cutting knife, but the corner of the eye has been watching the door.

If any big customers really come over, he naturally has to take the first step to welcome them.

Just then, a familiar figure suddenly crashed into the eye.

He was slightly stunned, a little surprised, and then, immediately after, he smiled.
