

Sweet Wife 981

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 981 Traveling together

Next to her, Anne heard her talking on the phone and hurriedly ran over and asked, "Mommy, are you going on a business trip?"

Natalia looked down at her and laughed, "Yeah."

She reached out, rubbed Anne's hair and said softly, "Mommy and Daddy may have to go abroad for a few days in five days, so you have to take care of your brother at home then, and if he doesn't listen, you can beat him up, but if any outsiders try to bully him, you have to protect him, too, okay?"

Anne nodded heavily.

"Mommy, don't worry, I will take care of my brother."

Natalia nodded gratefully and lowered her head again to give her a kiss on the forehead before saying, "Okay, go eat."

The family finished their meal happily and in the evening, Natalia returned to her room and checked out all the fun places around Eqitin, then called the office and told Elsa to keep an eye on the company for her during this period before she hung up the phone.

She was looking up information on the Internet when, behind her, Archie came out of the shower, saw her back sitting there, and came around from behind.

"Looking at what?"

Natalia turned back and smiled at him, "I'll check out the surrounding attractions."

Archie was silent for a moment.

He wrapped his arms around Natalia's limp waist from behind and rested his chin on her shoulder.

"I can't accompany you in these few days, so you should take care of your health alone and be careful with your stomach."

Natalia nodded, "I know."

She paused, turned back, and reached out to rub his watery hair.

"Just take care of the company in the next few days, you're going to Tacitus in five days, and you can't be there without it."

Archie smiled, which he certainly knew.

Let alone this time, with Faye in, just Natalia alone with her, he was afraid that Faye would make some kind of trouble.

Let's say Natalia is still pregnant, it's okay to run around in a place like Eqitin, but he's definitely not comfortable letting her go so far away and abroad by herself.

Therefore, the two have long had a tacit agreement, when the time must be together.

Archie moved over and kissed her on the cheek before getting up to blow-dry her hair.

Natalia finished checking the information and sent a message to Kiera, sending her the places to visit tomorrow for her to choose from. After they exchanged messages, they went to take a shower and went to bed.

Day 2.

Natalia arrived outside Mr. Robinson's estate early in the morning.

The person driving the car is Nancy, who also knows about her and Kiera's recognition and is very happy for Natalia.

The two didn't have to wait long for Kiera and Ian to come out.

Kiera wore a light gray casual clothes, head also wore a hat, and Ian and she wore the same color, two people are extremely well maintained, far from looking like a middle-aged couple, but rather like a pair of young lovers.

Natalia sat in her car and watched the pair walk from a distance, curling her lips.

The heart can't help but think, in fact, this is good.

Isn't it the best ending for Mom to come out of the past and also find her true love again?

As long as she can open her heart and stop being overly sensitive and nervous, it's actually enough.

With that in mind, she pushed the door open and got out of the car, waving at them.

Kiera and Ian walked out quickly, and only when she got closer did she realize that Ian was holding something else in his hand.

It was a white box, and Ian handed it to her with a slightly uncomfortable look on his face.

"This, for you."

Natalia froze, looked at Kiera, took it, and smiled, "What's this?"

Kiera laughed: "Didn't you say you were pregnant before? This is a high grade ingredient that your Uncle Ian used to find in the desert, it is a great tonic for pregnant women, you take it back and make a soup to drink, remember not to drink too much every day, lest too much tonic is not good."

Natalia then reacted, and her heart couldn't help but feel a little warm.

She handed the items to Nancy to put away and smiled, "Thanks to Uncle Ian."

Perhaps it is not quite used to the name Uncle Ian, only to see Ian's face more embarrassed.

Without looking at her either, he nodded in a panic and hurriedly pulled open the door and got into the car.

Once in the car, Natalia let Nancy drive them to the first attraction first.

Because Kiera specifically said that she wanted to go to the suburbs, Natalia chose all the places in the suburbs, where the air is good and the scenery is good, which is rare in such a developed and prosperous Egitin.

Because the car could not drive into the scenic area, it stopped far away.

Natalia took Kiera and Ian inside first, leaving Nancy to park the car before coming after them.

Nancy is familiar with the area, plus she is a martial arts practitioner, fast on her feet, and is not afraid of not being able to catch up with them.

Natalia was actually not familiar with Egitin before, but since she married Archie, she moved to Egitin and has become familiar with it over the years.

In addition, last night she has done enough homework, so this moment to explain the landscape and the history of the neighborhood is simply a handful.

Nancy and Ian nodded their heads as they listened.

It didn't take long for Nancy to catch up.

She had two bottles of water in her hand, handed one to Kiera and one to Ian, and then took a thermos and handed it to Natalia.

Natalia froze, "What is this?"

Nancy laughed, "This is what sir gave me this morning, saying it was bird's nest, to bring on the road to quench your thirst."

Natalia's face couldn't help but blush a little, and with a glance at Kiera and Ian out of the corner of her eye, she snapped, "What's the point of quenching your thirst? This bird's nest is slippery and greasy, how can you quench your thirst? Give me water quickly."

Nancy then smiled and gave her a bottle of water.

Kiera saw this and laughed, "Natalia, you are still pregnant, it's not good to drink cold water all the time, since Archie told you to drink bird's nest, you should drink it, your body is the most important."

Natalia's face turned even redder, and she was annoyed at Archie, a man who was so motherly, while saying to Kiera, "Mom, it's okay, I'm not thirsty."

The group said, and continued on up the road.

About is to take into account Natalia's body, so they walked for a while, then rest a while, and not in a hurry to finish the neighborhood in a day.

Ian is a doctor, and a very skilled one at that, so Archie was relieved to let Natalia take them out.

Otherwise, he would not have allowed Natalia to do this now just for the strength work like climbing the mountain.

A few people had fun on the way, but also happy to play until it was dark, only to return home.

After a long day of running outside, everyone is tired.

In the evening, Archie also got off work, Natalia booked a hot pot restaurant and the group went to have hot pot.

Unexpectedly, only halfway through the hot pot, Natalia received a call from Ariana

Chapter 982 - Meeting of the in-laws

On the phone, Ariana's tone was very gentle.

"Natalia, are you home now?"

Natalia put her chopsticks down and walked to the outer room before she whispered, "No, Grandma, is there something wrong with you?"

Ariana laughed, "I'm fine, I'm just asking, I heard you are going to Tacitus in a few days?"

"Well, Aunt Faye has her eye on a Jade mines and I'm feeling pretty good about it and plan to check it out with Archie in a few days."

"Oh, so, then you guys be careful on the road, you take care of your health, let Archie do any work, you don't want to tire yourself out too much."

Natalia smiled, "I know grandma, don't worry."

"Hmm."

Ariana did not hang up the phone, she did not hang up, Natalia also embarrassed to hang up.

But, again, no more words were spoken across the table, and Natalia wondered what Ariana meant by this.

After about half a minute, I couldn't help myself, so I asked tentatively, "Grandma, is there something else you want to say to me?"

Across the table, Ariana's voice was a little embarrassed.

"Yes, Natalia, I heard that you found your foster mother?"

Natalia was stunned and her face snapped.

She glanced back at Kiera in the box, then walked to a quieter place and lowered her voice, "Grandma, how do you know?"

Ariana laughed: "This matter, you do not blame your Aunt Faye, she is that person ah is straightforward, in fact, nothing bad, she was talking to me accidentally leak, I casually a question, she said all out."

Natalia's head hurts and strokes her forehead.

Ariana added, "Your adoptive mother is she well? Did you recognize each other?"

Natalia barely smiled, "She is physically fine, it is the incident ten years ago left some sequelae on her psyche, she lost her memory and now can't remember anything."

Across the room, Ariana gave a surprised "ah".

"Alas, it's good not to think about it, it's not a happy thing, think about it and only then suffer.

Natalia said in a light voice, "Yeah."

Ariana sighed again.

"Natalia, don't think too much about it, I'm calling today because I'm concerned, since she's your adoptive mother, she's our in-laws, if she has any difficulties, just ask, we The McCarthy family will always be your strongest backing."

Natalia smiled and her heart warmed.

"Thank you, Grandma, I understand."

"Well, if you're free some day, why don't you ask your foster mother to come over and we'll meet together?"

Natalia hesitated for a moment.

"I'm afraid that is not very convenient for a short period of time."

"Why?"

Natalia sighed.

"She has Post traumatic stress disorder and doesn't like to interact with strangers, so I thought I'd bring her back to see you when she's better in that area."

Ariana understood, "So, that's okay, it's not urgent anyway, first her body is the priority, you take good care of her."

Natalia nodded.

The two spoke for a few more minutes before hanging up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Natalia breathed a long sigh of relief and turned around to walk towards the box.

In the box, the atmosphere was harmonious.

Seeing Natalia return, Archie lowered his voice and asked, "What's wrong?"

Natalia shook her head, "Nothing, Grandma's call."

Archie's eyes deepened and he understood something, but didn't ask any more questions.

After the group had dinner, Natalia and Archie took the Kiera couple back to the estate together before driving home.

With only the two of them left, Archie finally asks about Ariana's call.

Natalia did not hide, but told him the truth.

Archie held her hand and said soothingly, "Don't worry, I'll talk to Grandma about it, I'm sure she won't mind once she finds out about Mom's situation."

Natalia nodded.

Over the next few days, Natalia took Kiera and Ian and wandered all over Egitin.

The relationship between the two, but also in this period of time soared, although Kiera still can not remember the past, but she has obviously no longer reject Natalia, and even very close to her.

Natalia looked at Kiera's glowing look, which curled her lips in relief.

Soon, five days passed.

Mr. Robinson had made arrangements and sent someone to tell Natalia that it was time to leave.

Natalia then entrusted Anne and Oliver over to the old house, then packed up her things and went with them to Tacitus.

Since Ian was there, there was no need to bring along a doctor.

After all, there are few doctors in this world who are more skilled than Ian.

Faye got the benefit of Natalia this time, all along the way are also very cooperative, and did not make any demon.

On the contrary, Tony, her fresh meat, called several times in the middle, as if to ask Faye to bring him along, but Faye refused.

Faye although love to play, most of the usual behavior are also ridiculous, but really want to do the right thing, or to be able to prioritize.

Besides, this time with Archie along, she wouldn't dare to be as reckless as before.

Archie didn't bother to pay attention to her, and on the way, didn't talk to her much.

Faye was so angry that she found Natalia several times in private and complained to her, saying that Archie was ungrateful and ungrateful, and that if it wasn't for her, Aunt Faye, when she was a child, Archie would have been bullied more outside.

Natalia laughed helplessly, but did not say anything, only reassured her a few words.

At the same time, she secretly reminded Archie not to fall too much in Faye's face in front of outsiders.

Although within the family, everyone has much prejudice against her because of her unreliability.

But now, after all, there are outsiders together, and this time the business, or Faye in the middle of the matchmaking.

If you treat Faye too coldly, it will look like she has no place in The McCarthy family in front of outsiders.

If the word gets out, Faye will not do well in the future.

Archie did listen to her and treated Faye much better for the next while.

Faye also knows that Natalia played a role in the middle, while happy, but also can not help but think sourly, I brought up this child, did not expect that the end is not as good as a woman from the outside to talk.

The so-called daughter-in-law has forgotten her mother, so it is.

However, she has always been very open-minded, that is, a small sour after a little, quickly put this matter to the ninth cloud to go.

It was 3 p.m. when the group arrived in the Tacitus capital.

Mr. Robinson had already contacted someone waiting to pick them up at the airport over here.

Mr. Robinson has been in the Jade mines business for many years, and there are many Jade mines in Tacitus, so he knows the area very well.

Since he had already arranged for a place to stay and someone to pick them up, Archie made no further arrangements and followed them to the hotel, taking Natalia with him.????????????????

Chapter 983 - Street Fighting

With Archie and Natalia in the room, Mr. Robinson didn't dare to slow down.

The hotels booked are the most luxurious and largest hotels in Tacitus.

After the group entered the room, Natalia paid special attention and found that Kiera and Ian's room was next to her own, and knew that this should be specially arranged by Mr. Robinson.

Faye's room was on the other side, but she didn't like seeing Archie every day, so she was happy to make herself at home.

After the group dropped off their things, they went out to eat.

Natalia is now pregnant and has an excellent appetite, and she gets hungry easily within two hours.

Archie often carries a little snack on his person for her to keep on hand, others think that the president's briefcase, generally put should be hundreds of billions of dollars of large contracts.

It should never have occurred to me that the president's briefcase would have chocolate and crab meat strips in it.

Natalia took the snack Archie handed her and took a bite, saying contentedly, "It's still best to have something to eat."

Kiera sat across the table and laughed, "You are pregnant now, you are easily hungry, but you should also pay attention to one thing, some things are delicious but you should not eat too much, lest the baby's head circumference grows and then it is not good to give birth."

Natalia smiled and nodded, "Okay mom, I got it."

After saying that, when really put the snacks that have not finished eating back to the original place, no longer eat.

Archie saw this and poured her another glass of water.

"Some water?"

"Hmm."

Natalia took it and took a sip.

Just then, Mr. Robinson came over.

He smiled respectfully, "Mr. McCarthy, Mrs. McCarthy, Dr. Rankin, Ms. Hawkins, Miss McCarthy, I have ordered the most authentic meal here today, you will try it later, and if you don't like it, I will ask them to change it."

Kiera laughed, "Robinson, what a pain in the ass."

Mr. Robinson laughed: "No trouble, no trouble, you are not familiar with this side, I ah because of business, to often run to this side, five or six times a year is less, sometimes in order to keep an eye on the mine, half a year live here."

Natalia sipped her water and mused, "How long have you been in the Jade mines business over here?"

Mr. Robinson laughed: "It's been about ten years. There used to be more mines on the Tacitus side, but the last few years have been so heavily mined that there are very few good mines left."

Said, and seems to be afraid that they are worried, and quickly packaged.

"But I promise, this mineral that I'm taking you to this time, must be the best one found in the last ten years, I didn't tell anyone about this, just Miss McCarthy came over, I just told her about it, it's fate to say the least."

Faye was rarely complimented, and immediately smiled with a frown.

"Of course, I have been doing business for so many years, that is not blowing, other than that, this luck and vision is unique, no one can compare."

Natalia pursed her lips and laughed, Archie has been too lazy to poke her this kind of bull, so also not to talk.

Kiera was the only one who honestly praised, "Really? That Miss McCarthy is quite capable."

Faye smiled and waved his hand, "Well said, well said, that is just ordinary competent."

Soon, the waiter came up with the dishes.

Sure enough, the color and aroma, an exquisite dish is like a piece of rare and beautiful artwork presented on the table, just smell the aroma, can not help but want to drool.

Natalia's appetite was so great that she picked up her chopsticks and started to eat.

The rest of the group started to move their chopsticks, however, just then, there was a sudden noise from outside.

Several people were stunned and attracted by the noise to look out.

At this point, the others in the restaurant also attracted over, not even eating, all put down their dishes and went outside.

Mr. Robinson said, "You guys eat while I go out and see what's going on."

Archie nodded, and when Mr. Robinson left, he took a spoon and gave Natalia a bowl of soup, saying warmly, "Have some soup to warm up your stomach first."

Natalia nodded and gave Kiera another bowl, "Mom, you drink too."

Kiera was a little nervous at this time, she was most afraid of this sudden change, at this time, seeing Natalia handing over the soup, she seemed to remember that she was surrounded by many people, which relaxed a little.

She took the bowl of soup, barely smiled and nodded.

Natalia held her hand and soothed her softly, "Mom, don't be nervous, maybe it's just their local quarrel, it has nothing to do with us."

Ian also took Kiera's other hand, "Natalia is right, don't be afraid, even if anything happens, there's still us, we'll all protect you."

The warm atmosphere makes Kiera completely put his mind at ease.

She nodded and smiled, "I know, I'm at ease, don't you guys worry about me."

By this time, Faye could not sit still.

She loves to watch the hustle and bustle, so she put down her dishes and said as she walked out, "You guys eat first, don't wait for me, I'll go out and take a look too."

Archie had no choice but to go along with her.

It didn't take long to see Faye return with Mr. Robinson.

Faye said with a raised eyebrow: "This Tacitus is really new, you just did not see, a man who looks only a few meters five, actually put a man of a few meters eight almost killed, that body, tsk, I looked scared."

Natalia raised an eyebrow, "A fight?"

Mr. Robinson laughed: "Not a fight, this side of the folk style, like boxing, it is estimated that there is some personal grudge in the street coincidentally met again, so a little cut up, fists and kicks without eyes well, it is a little serious injury."

Archie Cope said, "The T-fist over here is very powerful, and rumor has it that nine out of ten men can fight."

Natalia couldn't help but snicker, "So are they good, or are you good?"

Archie narrowed his eyes slightly, "What do you think?"

That tone of voice and eyes, let Natalia instantly understand, heart amazed, and quickly right praise, "Of course you are great."

Archie laughed softly.

The two of them love this scene, fell into the opposite Mr. Robinson's eyes, a slight flash of gaze, heart more understand Natalia in Archie's heart status.

It is said that there is no true love in the house of luxury, it seems that it is not necessarily so.

At least the Mrs. McCarthy in front of him is not like the gentry he has seen before.

After the group ate, Mr. Robinson took them out on a tour of the city.

Tacitus is very different from China in terms of customs and customs, as well as architecture and food.

Natalia had been to many places before, but had never really been to Tacitus.

Archie has been here twice, but wherever he goes is because of business, usually surrounded by a large group of people, and never really relaxed to properly observe these places, so the familiarity is not much better than Natalia.

Faye, though she had never been here before, had watched many TV dramas in Tacitus, so she knew a lot of the customs and traditions.???

Chapter 984 Patrolling the Mines

The group wandered into the evening and went to another upscale restaurant for dinner.

After eating, Mr. Robinson asked them if they wanted to go to the night market or to some entertainment places.

But since Natalia felt a little tired, she declined.

When Mr. Robinson saw this, he didn't push it and sent them all the way back to the hotel.

He doesn't live here himself because he runs here a lot. He has his own house in Tacitus and has to go back there to stay at night.

Before leaving, Natalia asked curiously, "When are we going over to the mine?"

Mr. Robinson laughed: "Tomorrow, because the mine is a bit far from the city, today went to the day can not come back, the place is remote, security is not good, stay there at night only afraid of insecurity, so tomorrow morning to go in the evening back just right."

Natalia sniffed, then nodded.

After Mr. Robinson left, she went back to her room, briefly freshened up and laid down to rest.

Early the next morning, Mr. Robinson drove to pick them up.

This time, he was driving a stretch Lincoln.

A car, just so everyone can sit down, there is a refrigerator and wine in the car, because the drive has more than three hours, so you can drink a little wine to play, and will not feel bored.

Natalia is pregnant, so naturally she doesn't drink a drop of alcohol.

Archie doesn't drink either, and Kiera and Ian even less so.

So, in the end, only Mr. Robinson and Faye had a toast each.

Mr. Robinson is a talkative person, and very good at reading people's opinions, while telling them about the local customs, while talking to Faye some harmless jokes, the atmosphere is very warm.

It was nearly noon before the car finally stopped.

The group got out of the car, only to see the desolate in front of them, no one around, the sun shining overhead, as if they had arrived in an isolated place.

Faye is still the first time to this kind of place, can not help but some fear.

She shrank toward Archie's side and asked, "Mr. Robinson, where is the mine you said? You're not lying to us, are you?"

Mr. Robinson laughed: "Look what Miss McCarthy said, that can not lie to you? The mine is usually located in a relatively remote location, if it were near the city, it would have been discovered long ago, this location is a little more remote, but also close to here, we go over this hill, the opposite is."

He said, pointing to a small hill in front of him.

Because the hillside has not been built, so there is only a footpath with a foot out, the car can not drive past, which is stopped on this side.

Faye saw this and looked up at Archie.

Archie turned to Natalia and asked, "Are you tired?"

Natalia shook her head.

"Then let's go over there and take a look."

She nodded again.

So the group started over the small hill and headed across.

Over the hill, I really saw a mine across the street, below the mine hole, there are dozens of workers are working there.

A middle-aged man with sharp eyes saw Mr. Robinson and rushed over to him.

"Boss, you're back."

Mr. Robinson smiled and nodded, "Just to introduce you, this is Mr. McCarthy, this is Mrs. McCarthy, this is Mr. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin, and Miss McCarthy."

Mr. Robinson was smart enough to know that Archie was a very big deal and probably wouldn't want anyone to know that he was here.

Therefore, during the introduction, he did not name his identity, but just all addressed as the boss.

The man smiled and nodded as they all greeted each other.

Mr. Robinson waved his hand, "All right, you go down and get busy, I'll show them around."

The man went down with a quick nod and Mr. Robinson extended his hand, "Mr. McCarthy, please."

Archie led Natalia forward.

The mine is actually nothing to see, in addition to reading some information, and then look at the surrounding geography, as well as what has now to dig out, the rest, but also to put the geological surveyor to see.

Before Archie came, he had already found a geologist on this side, but the other party was not available today and could not come until tomorrow.

After Archie told Mr. Robinson about this, Mr. Robinson also nodded cheerfully.

"No problem, Mr. McCarthy is going to invest such a large sum of money after all, it's only right to get someone to survey it clearly, when he comes tomorrow, you can ask him to contact me directly, or ask him to contact me in the morning and I'll bring him along, it's the same thing, I have to drive here every morning anyway."

Archie nodded.

After a quick look around, Archie went back to the mine to see the fresh Jade mines that had just been picked up today.

There are many are not yet cut, now can not see the color, but just from the cut to see, you know that there must be a lot of treasure inside.

After reading these, he actually had a rough idea in his mind.

So he said to Mr. Robinson, "After my people come to see it tomorrow, if it's okay, you can come to me to sign the contract."

Mr. Robinson smiled and was overjoyed, nodding vigorously, "Yes, I understand."

He is happy not only to have found a partner for this business, but also to have gotten on the fast train with The McCarthy family.

Smart people should know that can people Archie do on business, that represents not just a business interests, but also the long-term impact.

Not to mention, just the fact that people know that he is doing business with Archie will raise a lot for him as a person and in terms of credibility.

Archie is not unaware of these little thoughts of his.

But as he is in a high position, he has long been used to people around him depending on himself and looking up to him.

Even if you want to get benefits from yourself, that is normal.

He doesn't mind cooperating with each other as long as the other party can also bring the same benefits to himself.

Therefore, when Mr. Robinson returned them to the hotel, he did not say anything.

On the contrary, Faye, today followed them to see a large circle, did not see anything, until now the brain is still confused.

When she saw Archie and Natalia walking ahead, she hurriedly followed them with a few steps and asked, "Natalia, you've seen that mine, right? Is it okay?"

Archie said lightly: "There should be no problem. When the geological survey people go over tomorrow and look at it, to make sure that the ore inside is real, then you can sign the contract."

Faye was then relieved and breathed a long sigh of relief, "Oh, that's good."

She said, suddenly excited again.

"Archie, you see, this time also counted aunt brought you a big deal, right? Do you want to thank your aunt?"

Archie gives her a look.

Natalia laughed, "What does Aunt Faye want?"

Faye smiled, "I heard there's a nice place in Tacitus called Nocturnal, it's a lot of fun, I'd like to go for a night out."

Chapter 985 Very heartbroken for her

Natalia frowned slightly.

"Nocturnal? That place is messy, right? Aunt Faye it's too dangerous for you to go alone."

Faye couldn't help but roll her eyes.

"How messy can it be? Can't I bring my bodyguards? Besides, with a family like ours, who would dare to mess with us, Archie?"

said, giving Archie another ingratiating smile.

Archie is not against her going out to play, after all, he also knows Faye's nature, is a can not be shut.

Therefore, took a card out and handed it to her.

Expressionlessly, he handed over, "Bring your bodyguards and don't cause any trouble."

Faye immediately smiled and nodded, "Okay, I'll remember, thanks big nephew."

Archie then led Natalia's group towards the hotel.

When we got back to the hotel, Kiera was a little tired, so Ian took her to her room to rest and made an appointment with Natalia to have dinner together before coming out.

Natalia also went to her room with Archie.

Once back in the room, Natalia couldn't help but complain, "You're too submissive to Aunt Faye, we don't know this place well, and she likes to cause trouble, if something really happens, what's the use of just bringing a few bodyguards?"

Archie came over and embraced her from behind, laughing, "Daughter-in-law learned her lesson well."

Although the mouth said so, but the hands are not honest at all.

He crouched down, hugged Natalia's thin, soft waist and pressed his ear to her stomach.

"Let me hear it, did my son talk to me today?"

Natalia stood there, letting him press against her belly and laughed, "It hasn't even been born yet, how do you know it's a son?"

Archie looked up at her, "I planted it I certainly know."

Natalia: "....."

What if I want to beat this man up?

Archie listened for a while and wondered if he heard him. Finally, finally, satisfied, he stood up and helped her to sit down on the sofa next to him.

Natalia smiled and joked, "Did you hear what your son said to you?"

Archie nodded fervently, "Of course I heard you."

"So what did he say to you?"

Archie said loftily, "He said that the sky is the limit."

Natalia immediately knew that he hadn't heard anything at all, and was purely teasing herself.

He couldn't help but laugh and punch his way through.

Archie also did not dodge, let her hit, anyway, her little embroidered fist hit in his body will be like scratching, not much feeling at all.

The two of them messed around for a while, and Natalia was tired, so she laid down on the couch to rest.

Archie went to the side to deal with some official documents that Brian passed over earlier and needed him to go through.

The room fell silent for a moment.

Both did not speak again, Archie sat there and concentrated on processing, and waited until everything was finished, and then looked up, only to find that it was dark outside somehow.

He looked at the time on his wristwatch and it was 8:00 p.m.

Heart astonished, can not help but blame themselves too much into, a moment even forget the time.

He hurriedly sat behind the desk and stood up, only to see that, perhaps because too tired, or perhaps because of waiting too long, Natalia has fallen asleep in the sofa.

Her body is thin and slender, sinking into the wide sofa, just like a paperweight.

The pallor is so heartbreaking that you can't help but want to protect it.

Archie came forward, put a jacket on her, and carefully touched her forehead and palm, and found that the temperature was normal, and then put his mind at ease.

He saw Natalia sleeping soundly and thought she was tired from running around with him for the past two days.

So he couldn't bear to wake her up, and gently picked her up and put her on the bed, covered her with the quilt, and only then turned around and walked out.

At this time, Kiera and Ian were still in their room.

Archie walked over and knocked gently on the door.

Soon, someone inside opened the door.

Ian, dressed in a suit, stood at the door and saw it was him, which made the mistake of letting him in.

Archie, however, shook his head.

Kiera heard the sound and came out, saw that he was just alone and Natalia did not come out, realized that something was wrong and asked in a hurry, "What's wrong?"

Archie smiled gently: "Nothing, I just came to tell you, Natalia fell asleep, may not be able to go to dinner with you for a while, you two if you are hungry, why not go to eat first, I heard that there are two relatively close restaurants around here, the taste is very good, later I will let someone take you there. "

Kiera froze, she is not stupid, just because she was once injured, resulting in a sensitive mind and the formation of communication barriers with strangers.

So, she quickly understood and quickly laughed, "No, we can just go by ourselves, since Natalia is tired, you can accompany her to have a good rest."

Archie nodded, "Then you guys take care on the road and call me anytime if anything happens."

The two men nodded and Archie left at that point.

After returning to the room, I found Natalia awake at some point.

Archie hurriedly and quickly walked over.

"Did I just close the door and make noise?"

Natalia looked at him and shook her head.

"No." She paused for a moment, and then looked at herself with some confusion.

"Why did I fall asleep?"

Archie sat down and gently stroked her hair.

"You were so tired that you just sat there waiting for me and fell asleep while sitting."

Natalia then remembered, could not help but embarrassed smile, followed by remembering Kiera and them.

"Yikes, what time is it? Isn't it time for Mom and the others to go out for dinner?"

While saying that, he took out his phone to check the time.

Archie hurriedly stopped her and laughed, "Don't worry, I've just gone out to talk to Mom and the others, they went out to eat on their own, no need to wait for us."

Natalia sniffed, which was a relief.

Perhaps because Kiera has been missing for ten years, Natalia has always had a sense of worry and loss, and now she is especially important to her, and naturally, she cannot help but be nervous.

Archie understood her state of mind and didn't say anything. He gathered the broken hair around her ears for her and asked, "Are you hungry?"

Natalia touched her stomach.

Do not say, just now he did not mention it did not feel, this time he mentioned, really feel hungry.

She nodded her head.

Archie said softly, "Two choices, one is to have dinner brought over and eat in the room, or go downstairs to the restaurant, which one do you choose?"

Natalia laughed, "Why are these the only two options? Can't we still go out and visit other places and find other restaurants to eat at?"

Archie, however, shook his head, "No, you've been gone too long today to go wandering around."

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 986 She Killed Someone

Natalia is now at least a pregnant woman, and she herself, on account of her good health, could care less.

But Archie couldn't care less.

Seeing this, Natalia could not afford to brush off his good intentions, and after a moment's consideration, she said, "Then ask someone to send it over and eat it in the room."

Archie nodded and after asking her what she wanted to eat, he ordered food on his phone and had it delivered to the room.

The two had dinner and not long after, Kiera and Ian came back as well.

Kiera was worried about Natalia's health and came back to see her.

"Mom, you're back."

Kiera hurriedly pressed her into a chair, "Yes, we went out for a casual stroll and came back, how are you? So tired today, how's your health?"

"I'm fine, I'm fine."

Natalia said with no concern.

Kiera, however, is still uneasy. She is not a cold person, even if she still can't remember the past, but she can feel and see Natalia's care and concern for her during this time, so she is also genuinely kind to Natalia.

She looks to Ian next to her.

"Ian, Natalia is a pregnant woman and needs regular maternity checkups. With all the running around in the past two days, I don't know if it has any effect on the baby in her belly, why don't you help her check it out?"

Natalia froze and said with some curiosity, "There is no equipment here, how can we check?"

Kiera laughed, "You don't need any equipment. You, Uncle Ian, are not only proficient in Western medicine, but also in Chinese medicine, and you are also good at taking pulses and asking questions."

Natalia smiled, then nodded in understanding, "Oh".

Ian walked across to her and sat down, "Put your hand out."

So, Natalia put her hand out.

Ian put two fingers on her pulse, and after a moment, asked her to pass her other hand over.

After watching carefully for a while, he stood up.

"It's okay, she's fine."

Natalia took it back, put her rolled up sleeve down and laughed, "Look, Mom, I told you it was okay."

Kiera laughed helplessly, "You, you just don't take your body seriously."

Natalia doesn't care, but Archie does.

Therefore, solemnly said to Ian, "Thanks a lot."

Ian said lightly, "No need to be polite."

After talking for a while, Kiera left to go back to her room for fear of disturbing their meal.

After eating, Natalia asked Archie to accompany her for a walk on the balcony to take a break from eating.

It so happened that Anne called at this time.

Anne now has her own cell phone and often sends messages and calls to Natalia, although the words are just a few, either missing her mommy or asking her what she is doing.

But in fact, it is loaded with the child's full of dependence and care.

Natalia was walking around with her phone, talking to her as she walked around.

I don't know why, obviously Oliver is her own, but at home, Oliver is actually closer to Archie, but Anne, sticky her sticky, more like a mother and daughter.

And, as Anne grew up, the outline of the little beauty emerged, and Natalia wonderfully found that she looked more and more like herself.

Not only was she surprised by this, but even Mrs. Dottie and the girls laughed and said that Anne was just like her.

Ariana also found out about this, but Ariana has seen a lot of knowledge, but did not think anything.

On the contrary, he said with a smile that this child has a destiny with Natalia, the two have a mother-daughter bond, naturally the more they look alike.

In any case, no one around her thought it was anything, and Natalia naturally didn't think much of it.

Only Archie, looking at Anne clinging to Natalia, a glimmer of gloom crossed his eyes.

After Natalia and Anne talked on the phone, they were ready to wash up and go to bed.

But just then, a phone call suddenly came in.

The call was from Faye.

As soon as he got through, he heard Faye's voice with a crying voice.

"Archie, come and help me, something, something is wrong!"

Archie blushed, "What's wrong?"

"I I seem to have killed someone!"

.....

Twenty minutes later, Natalia and Archie arrived at a speakeasy where Faye was.

The so-called speakeasy is something that normal bars do not dare to play, this place has it all.

Such as playing black boxing, such as some extremely revealing performances, as well as some dirty and bloody transactions.

Archie never expected that Faye would come to this kind of place to play, and his face was gloomy all the way.

Natalia's heart is also uncertain, she knows Faye's temper, because has been very afraid of Archie, so if there is not really what they can not handle the big event, usually will not call him.

At the hotel, Kiera and Ian also heard the news of their hurried outing and called to be concerned.

Natalia is not good to tell them too much detail, afraid that they are worried, only to say that something happened to Faye, they came to take a look, so they do not have to worry, and then hung up the phone.

Kiera saw the situation, know that they can not help, and do not add to the mess, told the two to be careful, pay attention to safety, and then hung up the phone.

When the two arrived at the bar, they found Faye sitting on a couch that was stuck in the lobby.

Across from her, lay a man with tattoos all over his body.

The man, who did not look tall, only about 5'6", lean and very dark skinned, was lying on the ground with blood running down his head, unaware of his death.

As soon as she saw Archie and Natalia, Faye immediately stood up and ran towards them.

"Archie, Natalia, you're finally here."

Natalia held her up and looked around at a group of men and women who were dancing like a group of demons and asked, "What's going on?"

"I"

Before she had a chance to speak, across the room, a large, brawny man stepped forward.

"Hey, are you her family?"

Natalia nodded.

She held Faye's hand and asked the other woman, "What's wrong?"

The man pointed to the person lying on the ground, and then pointed to Faye, "This woman, killed my best brother, and now I want to find her to pay for it, since you are her family, then take the money out, otherwise if this matter goes to court, it will not be as simple as taking money."

"That's right, hurry up and get the money!"

"It's cheap to let you pay for killing someone! Hurry up and get the money out."

The other side is crowded, each looks full of muscle, plus the dim light in the bar, and the atmosphere of pandemonium, can not help but let people feel fear.

But Natalia's face was impassive.

Archie's face had little expression either.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 987 - Something fishy is going on

The other side is trying to scare them with this atmosphere, but I'm afraid they don't know where they were when Natalia and Archie were hanging out in this lane.

But nonetheless, it's still on someone else's turf.

Therefore, Archie grimaced and asked Faye, "What the hell is going on?"

Faye was also very scared at this time, so she shivered and told what happened.

It turns out that Faye, this evening, was originally playing at another bar called the Nocturnal.

However, after playing for a while, I found that it was similar to the domestic ones, which was not interesting, and I happened to hear from another woman who was drinking with her at the bar that there was a speakeasy here that was fun, so I came over with her.

When she arrived over here, Faye really saw a lot of new and strange things that she had never seen before.

She had a great time and had a great time all night.

Finally, the woman left at some point, and just then a man stumbled over to her, looking as if he intended to molest her.

Faye has been hanging out, although she has been relying on her The McCarthy family's identity, but in fact, she is not a good fighter.

Although the other will not, but she was forced by Ariana to practice judo, self-protection or no problem.

That's why Archie is comfortable letting her out alone.

Therefore, at that time Faye found that this person is not right, subconsciously pushed him, did not expect the other party after a step back, saw her, but the deadly pounced on.

Faye smelled a stench on the other side and was instantly disgusted, so she pushed and kicked the other side away.

But in the process of pushing and kicking, I don't know what happened, the other body is unstable, but fell to the ground, head knocked on the glass coffee table next to it, dead.

Faye was instantly shocked.

Although she has always liked to do something wrong and has never done anything good, but she has never killed anyone.

Therefore, when the fingers probe the other party actually really out of breath, her first reaction is to flee.

But this side of the movement, has long been attentive to the attention of people.

Before her body could leave the card table, she was surrounded by people all at once.

Although Faye also brought bodyguards, but she only brought two or three, against the Lord so many people, plus this matter on the surface, it seems to be her righteousness, can not really kill people can still leave unharmed, so the bodyguards can not help.

So that's when Faye called Archie and asked him to come over and help out.

Archie's face became more and more gloomy after hearing her account.

Natalia tugged on his sleeve, secretly reminding him that he was outside at this time, so don't rush to blame Faye yet.

Then, look at the man across the room.

"Don't worry, if it's really me Aunt Faye killed someone, we will be responsible to the end, but before that, can you let me see this deceased first?"

The person on the other side nodded when he saw that they were not angry and did not deny it, and that their attitude was quite good.

Natalia stepped forward, squatted down and took a closer look at the dead man lying on the ground.

Only see each other face bruises, may be covered by the tattoo, so before Faye did not find.

And on his forehead, there was a large wound from which blood was pouring out.

The big guy at the head said, "See, we didn't lie to you, did we? It was your family that pushed him down and hit the table before he died, and she tried to renege on the debt!"

Faye hastily retorted, "I'm not trying to renege! You guys are the ones talking nonsense, and it's clearly him"

"Aunt Faye!" interrupted Natalia, stopping her from saying what she wanted to say next.

After all, this is someone else's territory, she and Archie are not afraid of each other, but there are times when it is best to avoid strife as much as possible.

Moreover, they will have to come over here to do business in the future, these local snakes, try not to make trouble, can also be less trouble.

With this in mind, she carefully examined the head of the dead man again.

Just when he touched the back of the other side of the head, he suddenly found a hint of something wrong.

Just as Natalia was frowning, intending to examine it more closely, just then a voice came rushing over.

"Ouch, Mr. McCarthy, Miss McCarthy, what's going on here?"

The crowd turned around and saw that it was Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson probably just heard about their accident, specially rushed from home, his clothes are still a bit messy.

Natalia stood up and gave him a look, her gaze slightly deep.

"What's Mr. Robinson doing here?"

Mr. Robinson laughed, "I heard that you had an accident. I rushed over to take a look."

Natalia narrowed her eyes finely.

"We've just arrived, and you've arrived so quickly. I can see that Mr. Robinson is quite well-informed."

Mr. Robinson's face froze.

In fact, although he went back, he did send someone to pay special attention to Archie and their movements.

But he could swear to God that he definitely did not have any bad thoughts, he did it just to be able to better please Archie and the others, to facilitate his service to them, to brush up his performance value and presence in front of them.

Mr. Robinson embarrassed smile, can not say this reason directly, can only force a smile to explain, "so it is not fate, my family lives in this neighborhood, just went out to buy cigarettes, heard people say here killed people, so I want to come to see, did not expect to come to see you guys."

He said, seemingly unwilling to dwell on the topic, and turned to step forward and look at the dead man on the ground.

"Yo, how come you're bleeding so much?"

Natalia took the handkerchief Archie handed her and wiped her fingers, saying in a light voice, "Of course there's blood from a hole that big in your forehead."

Mr. Robinson looked at her and saw that she was unchanged, and then she arched her hand in admiration.

"Mrs. McCarthy is really brave, I admire and admire."

Natalia didn't say anything and turned to Faye, "Aunt Faye, have you seen this man before?"

She always felt that it was a bit strange that this person suddenly came to Faye.

Faye looked at the other man, thought about it, and frowned.

"I think something looks familiar, but I can't remember where I've seen it before."

Natalia raised an eyebrow.

At this time, only to see Mr. Robinson also could not resist, went up to look at the face of the deceased, this look was a big shock.

"Ughhh, how is it him?"

Natalia froze and turned her head to look at Mr. Robinson.

"What, Mr. Robinson knows him?"

"How can you not recognize him? Isn't this the one who fought with people in the street last night? He was the one who beat a big man of 5'5" into the hospital!"

Chapter 988 Killing to pay for life

Natalia thought of it all at once.

Her face also changed slightly.

Suddenly squatted down and again touched the back of the head of the deceased, the heart has a plan.

Archie said in a deep voice, "What's wrong?"

Natalia shook her head, "Call the police, get forensics to test it, this matter is not to blame Aunt Faye, even if the police are not afraid."

When Faye heard this, she panicked.

"Natalia ah, can not call the police ah, murder is illegal, if reported to the police you Aunt Faye this life will be finished."

Although The McCarthy family is very powerful, but if she really killed someone, she does not expect Archie or the two old masters and wives will ignore the law for her and acquit her.

Natalia reached out and patted the back of her hand soothingly, "Don't worry, you didn't kill the man."

"Huh?"

Archie was very surprised, while next to her, Archie had understood something from her words.

He turned his head to look at the pugilists, "You guys don't have a problem with calling the police, do you?"

The people across from each other looked at each other, two of them looked at each other, and both saw the heart in each other's eyes.

They said angrily, "No, things on the road are settled on the road, what's the point of calling the police? You either pay for it today, or leave this woman's life behind, one life for one life, or no one will walk out of here!"

As soon as he said this, Archie's gaze chilled.

Mr. Robinson was afraid of a fight between the two sides, and rushed forward to play a round table.

"Eh, everyone, listen to me, this incident may not really be the fault of this Miss McCarthy, you may not know it? Your companion, last night, fought with someone on the street, the fight was quite hard, I just noticed, the back of his head has a big bag, I seriously suspect that the blood clogged the blood vessels, yesterday was fine, only today suddenly attacked, and died, this really has nothing to do with Miss McCarthy ah, besides, she is a weak woman, how strong a push can be, your Your companion is a Muay Thai master, can't really be knocked down by her, right?"

When these words came out, the other party's face became even more ugly.

"What? You mean you don't want to pay for it?"

Although Mr. Robinson traveled extensively and was bold, he was, after all, a weak businessman.

As soon as the opposing forces came up, he immediately wimped out and stepped back.

A side retreat while compensating for the smile, "I do not mean that, only"

"All right, stop it! Either pay for it or pay for your lives anyway, take your pick!"

Archie finally understood at this moment.

I dare say that the other side is not at all to really seek justice, in fact, just want to blackmail a sum of money.

Since he wanted money, he was in no hurry.

Archie helped Natalia and sat down on the couch next to the one Faye was sitting on before, then looked at them in a good way.

"If you want money, you can call your boss out and I'll talk to your boss."

The other side froze.

Obviously, I didn't expect that Archie would be so calm when it came to this point.

They glanced at each other, and their expressions were somewhat astonished.

Just then, a cheerful voice came over.

"Who's looking for me?"

Only to see the crowd move aside and a handsome young man walk in from outside.

The group of big men, who were very arrogant earlier, suddenly came down respectfully and walked over and shouted, "Boss."

The man waved his hand, glanced at the man and woman sitting on the couch, and immediately afterwards, broke into a big smile.

"Archie, how come it's you?"

Archie also picked up a playful smile.

"Hahahahahaha, I never thought I would see you here after so many years of absence, I'm so happy."

With that, the other person came over and gave Archie a bear hug.

Everyone was stunned and didn't understand what was going on.

Archie pushed him away with some disgust and laughed, "Come on, I didn't expect to meet you here either. Say, you didn't run off to do research, why did you come to this place to open a bar?"

Archie is obviously very familiar with each other.

The other side laughed, "Harm, in a word."

He said, turning his head to ask his men what had just happened here.

The handlers are a bit confused at the moment, but they still tell him the truth about what just happened.

The other man frowned, glanced at Archie, then at Faye, and finally, dropped his gaze on the dead man.

"Let's get a coroner in here first, so they can see how the hell they died."

His face didn't look too good, and he obviously thought of something too.

The hand was shocked, subconsciously wanted to stop, "Boss, this"

"Don't go yet!"

As soon as the man yelled, the other party immediately obeyed, "Yes."

After saying that, he instructed them to carry the man down.

The rest of the people see this, know that today this matter, only no good show, which is bored scattered, continue to play their own.

The bar where a murder had just occurred, the blood was still there, and now the song and dance immediately resumed, as if what had just happened had not happened.

The man came over and smiled at Archie, "It's getting dirty in here, let's sit somewhere else."

Saying that, he led them to a private box on the second floor with a quiet environment.

It's hard to think that in such a dirty and filthy speakeasy, going upstairs, there is actually a big VIP box.

One side of the box is the door and wall, the other side, but a full glass system of the sky garden, quite a sense of paradise.

The man laughed as he led them in, "Don't laugh, this is a resting place I built for myself, it's too noisy underneath, not to mention you guys, I don't like it either."

Once the door is closed, the outside sound is actually all isolated outside, can not hear at all.

He smiled and introduced, "I could have added ten layers of soundproof walls to create this, now it feels quiet, doesn't it?"

Several people nodded their heads.

Archie shot a look around, then turned his head to look at him.

"Say it! How did you end up here? I remember back then you followed your master and the others into the research group, how did you end up in this place?"

The other party laughed and said, "Don't worry, you guys sit down first, I'll make a pot of tea for you."

He said, seating Archie and the others on the sofa in the garden, and then going back to making tea himself.

While he was making tea, Faye whispered curiously, "Archie, who is he? You guys knew each other before?"

Archie said lightly: "His name is Christ Moran, formerly with me at the same school, we are classmates, I study finance he studied research, specializing in graduate chemistry, but has not seen for many years."

Faye's face changed, "Scientific research? That's talent, then how can"

Even Faye knows that the other party is a talent, and Archie naturally needs even less to say.

Thinking about this, Archie's eyes deepened slightly.

Chapter 989 - A Coincidental Encounter with an Old Friend

Christ quickly made tea and poured a cup for each of them with a smile.

"I ah, before something happened, and then left the research group, it just so happens that I have a friend over here, so I came over to play a trip, because I like the humanistic style here, so I stayed and opened a bar."

Christ poured tea as he spoke.

Just the truth in this statement, it is not known.

Archie didn't press the issue either.

After all, to their position, some times, mutual intercourse is no longer possible as simple as ordinary people.

Getting to the bottom of it doesn't change anything except to make the atmosphere awkward.

Natalia took a sip of tea and laughed, "I didn't think it would be such a coincidence that you were classmates and Aunt Faye had an accident in your store, Mr. Moran, I'm afraid no one would believe this coincidence if I told you."

Christ moved with a start.

gave her a look.

"This is"

Archie introduced, "This is my wife Natalia, this is my aunt Faye, and this is Mr. Robinson."

Mr. Robinson smiled and shook hands with him.

Christ laughed and said, "So, I didn't think you were married."

Since it's Archie's wife, Christ has nothing to hide.

He smiled a little embarrassed, "I'm really sorry, I should apologize to you for today's matter, just now the dead man, is a fighter in our bar, just now I checked, his death should have no relationship with Miss McCarthy, but in order to let the bottom of the gang convinced, I still let the forensic pathologist to test, you do not mind. "

Natalia smiled lightly: "Since you and Archie are classmates, of course we don't mind, we're just afraid that your helpers will not need forensic testing to actually already know the man's condition, right?"

When these words came out, the atmosphere instantly froze up.

Faye looked at them, her mind a little confused, thinking how she didn't seem to understand what they were saying.

Christ gave Natalia a deep look.

"Mrs. McCarthy is so ice-cold, no wonder Archie was single for so many years and you finally took him down."

The stagnant atmosphere lasted less than two seconds before he smiled and dissolved it.

He sighed and said helplessly, "Mrs. McCarthy is right, in fact, my men are good at everything, but they have some bad habits that they can't change. This is what led to this misunderstanding."

Faye now understood and stood up excitedly.

"So, I didn't kill anyone, it was you guys who touched the porcelain ah!"

Christ looked embarrassed.

Natalia laughed: "They are boxing ring masters, for this kind of injury should be very familiar, this person is also their colleagues, usually would have spent a lot of time together, the back of his head accumulated such a large piece of bruising, I just from the outside has been able to see the bulge, which means that he is in the day and night, must have shown a lot of wrong performance, such as dizziness, such as walking posture strange, such as pale. For example, dizziness, such as walking posture strange, such as pale, those people obviously found his wrong, guessed that some kind of possibility, but also deliberately let him to hit me Aunt Faye, this mind not to say malicious, at least can also be said to be ruthless, right?"

Natalia's remark made Christ's face change completely.

In fact, it's not that he didn't know what Natalia was saying.

However, in the end, it is their own people, the original heart still has a biased mind, thinking that if you can cover up the past, it is best to cover up the past first.

Back to his own liquidation, that is the matter of his own family.

But I didn't expect that this moment was actually pointed out by Natalia at once.

When Faye heard this, how could it be?

I thought you guys were really angry and upset about the deceased, so you came to me for money, but now it seems that it was a blackmail from the beginning to the end! Well, if you do this, then I will not be polite, I will immediately call the police! When the time comes, I'll shut down this shitty bar of yours!"

She said, about to take out her phone.

Archie's head hurts and strokes his forehead.

"Aunt Faye."

He shouted.

Faye turned around, "What?"

Natalia had no choice but to calm her down, "Aunt Faye, don't rush to the police first, this Mr. Moran since he and Archie are classmates, naturally they have their own way of dealing with it, you first rest easy."

When Faye heard her say that, she reacted and hurriedly put down her phone.

She looked to Christ, "Say, what do you want to do about this?"

After a pause, and added a sentence, "I can say in advance, this matter involves me, do not see you and Archie is a classmate I give you this face, but if you deal with me unsatisfactory, I will not be the same to give up."

She now occupies the positive side of the position, and at once her attitude has changed.

Christ also knows that today's matter, if not properly handled, there is no way to good.

I can't help but smile helplessly and stroke my forehead.

"Okay, Miss McCarthy don't worry, I'll make sure this is handled beautifully to your satisfaction, that's all, right?"

Faye grunted softly at this.

It didn't take long for the forensic pathologist to bring the test results.

It turned out that, as they expected, the reason for the other party's sudden death was not because of the wound on his forehead that Faye had hit by pushing him.

Rather, because, last night, when he was fighting with the other side, the other side hit him hard on the back of the head with his elbow, and at that time he felt uncomfortable, but because there was no trauma and no blood was seen, he did not pay attention to it.

Later, when I returned, I did experience dizziness, nausea, and the urge to vomit.

His colleagues noticed that something was wrong with him, plus, the guy he fought with yesterday was on better terms with them.

And this one, because of his size, although always very good hands, but in the company has always been ostracized and discriminated against.

So, they came up with a scheme to take advantage of this event of his death and make a fortune.

Finally, they picked and chose among the guests and selected Faye, who looked like a foreigner and had a lot of money.

Faye is also unlucky.

She originally came over, just to see a novelty, spending a hand, did not expect to be targeted and almost blackmailed a sum.

This group of people also did not dare to make a big deal out of it, so they just wanted her to pay a sum of money and forget it.

I never thought that this time I would kick a piece of iron.

Christ sat there, listening to the forensic pathologist after all this, his face was gloomy as hell.

And the fighters, knowing that the matter had been exposed, were all upset, but at this time, they couldn't leave even if they wanted to.???

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 990 Heart and soul

Because not only Christ's people are watching them, but the few bodyguards that Archie brought with him are also staring at them at this moment without moving, just to prevent them from escaping.

The bodyguard that Archie brought can be different from the one that Faye brought.

Faye brought along ordinary bodyguards, but those who followed Archie were professionally trained and retired from the battlefield.

That aura, and they are mixed with underground black boxing completely different.

That is a cold and killing that can not be easily erased after being soaked in blood and battlefield.

Just stand there, let people can not help but fear.

In such a situation, they don't even have the thought of resistance, not to mention escape.

Soon, Christ gave his approach to the situation.

In the end, it is still his people, did not have the heart to inflict death, just let the group all come to apologize to Faye, and then each of them break an arm, so that they can never again use the black boxing for a living, and then let go.

Faye is just a woman, once heard the words break the arm, the face immediately white with fear.

Although she likes to fool around and her character is not good, but in the end she has never seen such scenes.

Hearing the screams coming from outside, also asked Natalia somewhat weakly, "Natalia, is this a little too much?"

In the end, now that things have come to light, she hasn't lost anything.

Natalia said in a light voice: "Aunt Faye, they are playing black boxing, already have the ability to bully others in life, but also wrong-hearted, not only no compassion, but also use the death of their colleagues to blackmail others, today is we came to investigate the truth of the matter, and Aunt Faye your identity is not more than ordinary people, naturally can also But what if it was someone else? If the person they blackmailed today was an ordinary person, do you think she would have been as lucky as you, not only to perfectly resolve the crisis, but also to seek the truth to clear her name?"

Faye froze.

Speaking of which, Natalia looked faintly at Christ again.

"He who is armed with a weapon does not bully the weak and innocent with it, or no one will kill him, but heaven will kill him, Mr. Moran, don't you think so?"

Where would Christ not hear that she was knocking herself out with that statement.

Smiling helplessly, "Mrs. McCarthy has a point."

Natalia then turned to Faye and whispered, "If they are not punished severely today, they will repeat the same trick again next time, and there will be a second victim."

Faye then understood and nodded.

"You're right, such people are too shameless to be let off easily."

Natalia smiled faintly.

If they really change their ways, they can still work again in the future. They can go to the hospital to get their arms fixed, but they can't lift heavy things or fight. They will definitely give them an easy job that will allow them to spend their days, right?"

Christ was even more surprised by this one.

He had thought that Natalia had simply guessed the motives and actions of the group.

But I didn't expect that she even analyzed her own psychology.

Indeed, as Natalia said, this group of people have been with him for so many years, he is not a ruthless person, to really leave them alone, to fend for themselves, he really can not do.

After all, no one knows better than him, this group of people have been trained to play T boxing since childhood, life and death are in the ring, rich and powerful are also in the ring, is to earn money by a pair of fists to eat.

They are used to this kind of life, now all of a sudden they have no way to fight, what can they go out and do?

He laughed awkwardly, "Mrs. McCarthy is not only ice smart, she is also understanding, she even guessed what I was thinking, in that case, I won't hide it, yes, I do intend to, only, I am not just thinking of them either."

He said, pausing for a moment and looking up at Natalia.

"Although they are at fault, but the crime is not to death, this I believe you also think so, otherwise you will not agree with my decision to punish in this way, but have you ever thought, they can not do anything else except boxing, just throw them out, what will they rely on to survive in the future?"

"Do not tell me, as long as hard enough, outside what to earn a living occupation, if they are really willing to work as hard as ordinary people from 9 to 5, they will not run here to boxing, so, after they go out, the biggest possibility is to take the wrong path, become a criminal, after the root of the matter, the final sufferings of the victim who is it? "

"They have come to this point, anyway, is a rotten life, it does not matter, but this kind of instability, but it is easy to cause social unrest, when Mrs. McCarthy may be out of good intentions, do not want these evil people have a good end, but good intentions to do a bad thing, and finally let more people suffer, is not this more bad? "

Natalia looked at him.

The man in front of me, with a lean body and a pair of gold-rimmed glasses, just by looking at the surface, is more like a senior white-collar worker in an office building than such a tiny king of the underworld.

Before, she thought that she was looking away, but until he spat out these words, she knew that she was not looking away.

How else to say, after all, is a senior, Archie's former classmates?

This vision, this insight, this wishy-washy mind, is never the average person can have.

She hooked her lips slightly and smiled.

"Mr. Moran's words, I understand and agree with you, so I have no problem at all with what you are doing."

After a pause, he added: "But I also hope you can guarantee that they will never do anything wrong again under your hands."

Christ immediately looked solemn and said, "I promise, as long as I am here, they will have absolutely no chance to do anything bad again, and if they do again, I will show no mercy and bring their heads to Mrs. McCarthy to ask for their sins."

The way he looked at it made Natalia laugh at once.

"What are you asking me for? In the end, we are just nosy, this has nothing to do with us."

Said the man, turning his head to Archie, "Don't you think so, Archie?"

Archie laughed at the enemy and nodded back.

He takes Natalia's hand and looks to Christ.

"We don't care about your business, and since this matter has nothing to do with me Aunt Faye, I'll take the person away."

Christ nodded in a hurry and stood up.

"Anyway, I still have to apologize to you for today's incident. It is because the people under my hand do not know what to do that they rushed Miss McCarthy."❓
