

Sweet Wife 991

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 991 - One Pregnancy Becomes Two

By this time, this Christ has done things to this point, Faye naturally can no longer blame him.

So he also smiled awkwardly and waved his hand.

"Forget it, since you have said so, then I will be generous and not bother with you for the time being."

"But you also have to remember, ah, no more let those people out to do nonsense, or I can not be good at the end."

Christ nodded his head.

"Miss McCarthy please rest assured that I will supervise this matter to the end and never let this kind of thing happen again."

When the group saw this, they didn't say anything else and got up to prepare to leave.

Christ stopped them again.

He smiled, "I never thought I would meet you in Tacitus this time. Since I am here, and I have offended you in the first place, if you want to stay in Tacitus, why don't you contact me and I can show you around?"

Saying that, he took out a stack of business cards and gave one to each of them.

Faye swept a faint glance, then said, "We will stay for two more days, contact you again if you need."

Christ nodded, and Archie and his group left at that point.

After leaving the bar, Archie didn't ride with Faye in the same car.

Because Faye had driven herself here before, and Archie and the others were driving another car, so after they came out, everyone got into their own cars.

And Mr. Robinson, because they are not the same way back, so, after saying hello to them, also got into his car and left.

After everyone had left, Archie and Natalia sat in the car.

Natalia could not help but sigh: "I really did not expect that this time out, I thought it would pass peacefully, but I actually met such a thing."

Archie nodded back, "It was quite a surprise."

Natalia asked curiously, "Say, this Christ gives people a strange feeling, I obviously feel that he has a righteous aura, why would he come to such a place and open such a pandemonium, a speakeasy that is not a serious place at first glance?"

Archie looked at her with deep eyes, "Maybe he had some unavoidable hardship, I'm not really sure, when we were in college, we had a good relationship, but then we graduated and went our separate ways, no more contact, so I don't really understand what he's been through all these years."

Natalia ummed and nodded.

"That's true, but I think he's a talent, and it's too buried to stay here."

Archie held her hand.

"Well, stop being sad for others, how are you? Did you get scared just now, is your stomach okay?"

Natalia shook her head and laughed, "I'm fine, fine, your son is obedient and didn't mess with me, so don't worry."

Archie saw this and then smiled and swept her into his arms.

Back at the hotel, although Natalia kept saying she was fine, Archie went to Ian just in case and asked him to come over and take a look at Natalia.

Ian and Kiera had stayed up because they were worried about them, and now that they knew they were back, they both came running over.

Faye had gone to her room and did not come out, so Natalia told them about the bar.

After hearing this, both of them felt surprised and did not expect such a thing to happen.

Kiera sighed: "It's good that you're okay, I was afraid that something would happen to you, you don't know the place well, what would you do then?"

Natalia smiled and patted her hand soothingly.

"Mom, we're all fine, don't worry about it, it's just a misunderstanding."

Archie also nodded, "Yes, you are not well, it is better to go back to rest early, we are fine here, it will be fine."

Kiera saw this and nodded.

By this time, Ian had also finished helping Natalia with her examination.

Archie asked nervously, "How is it? Is everything okay?"

Ian gave him a look.

The look is a bit odd.

He did not look okay, he took a look, Archie suddenly more nervous.

"Natalia, is she okay?"

He asked again.

Ian shook his head, "It's fine."

After a pause, he suddenly said, "You guys are pretty lucky."

"Huh?"

Both of them froze for a moment, not understanding what he meant by that.

Ian said in a light voice: "Congratulations, you may have to be two fathers at once this time."

Archie froze, but quickly, responded.

"You, what did you just say? What do you mean by two dads?"

Although the answer was already in my mind, I still couldn't believe it.

Ian said, "It means that your wife is pregnant with twins, it is not clear whether it is a boy or a girl, but there are two gestational sacs is certain, you can be happy."

Archie was really happy when that came out.

I couldn't resist kissing Natalia heavily when I hugged her.

Kiera and Ian, seeing this, were both a little embarrassed, spoke to them, and turned away to go back to their rooms.

Natalia, however, was a bit unresponsive.

Until they all left, her mind was still dazed, and what Ian had just said kept echoing in her head.

Archie smiled at her dumbfounded look and pinched her face.

"Natalia, what are you thinking about? Are you happy too?"

Natalia looked up at him.

It was at this time that she finally reacted and her face darkened.

"What am I happy about? Two ah! There are already two at home, two more"

Needless to say, she has already thought of the days ahead and how torturous they will be.

It's not that she doesn't like children, but can you imagine a scene with four small children in the house?

If she hired more maids, she wouldn't be able to keep up with the children's need for a mother.

Archie knew her concerns and smiled as he took her into his arms.

"Don't worry, I'll help you in the future and keep them from messing with you, Natalia, this is our child, a symbol of our love, and I'm really happy."

Natalia is actually not really unhappy in her heart.

After all, no mother would be unhappy that she is pregnant with twins.

Who wouldn't feel lucky to win two jackpots at once?

She couldn't help but smile at the thought of it.

Leaning her head into Archie's arms, she whispered, "Do you think they're boys or girls?"

Archie whispered, "Male or female, I like it all."

Natalia raised her eyebrows and gave him a look.

"I hope it's a girl."

She laughed, "How nice to be a girl, sweet and cute, just like Anne."

Archie laughed lightly, "Both sexes are fine. If it's a girl, she'll be the little princess of The McCarthy family, and if it's a boy, she can help me protect you when she grows up, isn't that nice?"

Chapter 992 Really thank him

The atmosphere was warm and Natalia couldn't help but smile as she listened to Archie's words.

She whispered, "Archie, thank you."

Archie raised an eyebrow, put his arm around her, and asked, "Why are you thanking me all of a sudden?"

Natalia leaned her head on his shoulder and whispered, "I once fell into the darkness and thought I would never find the light that belonged to me again in this life, I thought that was it for me in this life, to get by, but since I met you, you gave me a new light, gave me lots and lots of warmth and love, so Archie, thank you really, thank you for making me believe Thank you for making me believe that there is real love in this world, and thank you for giving me a warm home."

Archie's heart was also warm and soft as he listened to her softly murmured words.

He held the person in his arms tighter and whispered, "If you really want to thank me, then take a lifetime to thank me."

After saying that, he lowered his head and sealed her lips.

Natalia did not refuse, closing her eyes and feeling this rare moment of warmth.

It took a long time before Archie let her go, his breathing already a little ruffled.

Natalia looked at him with some confusion and asked, "What's wrong?"

Archie's voice was muffled to the point where the big brace gently caressed her face.

"Good girl, you go to bed first, I'll take a shower."

"You didn't just wash at night"

She suddenly gave a beat, realized what, and her pretty face flushed all of a sudden.

Pushed him and snapped, "If you want to go, hurry up!"

Archie then smiled and stood up.

When he came out of the shower, Natalia had fallen asleep from exhaustion.

He gingerly came over and dropped a soft kiss on her ear before getting into bed, taking her into his arms and sleeping peacefully.

The next day, early in the morning, the geological prospector Archie had hired arrived.

Archie did not let Natalia follow the run again, but let her stay at the hotel and hang out with Kiera and the others, while he himself followed Mr. Robinson and the others to the mine.

Faye originally did not want to go, but Archie had the intention to let her practice, but also forced her to go.

Faye left reluctantly, but in Archie's words, since she wanted to learn how to do business, she had to learn from the beginning, she could not know the expertise, but she must go along with it, and she must know the basic common sense.

Natalia knew in her heart that Archie was really doing this for her own good.

Otherwise, according to Archie's status and position today, this time business, can not need to come personally.

So, she also followed to persuade Faye, "Aunt Faye, just go, if this business is successful, really make money, you go back in front of Ariana also have face, when you talk to Ariana about the business here, also have to talk about ah, otherwise when Ariana asked, found that do not know, this credit is not Archie and I will have taken all the credit?"

When Faye heard it, she thought it was also oh.

How can you not personally keep an eye on such a good project when you can't find it yourself?

So this happily followed.

Natalia accompanied Kiera and took a break in the hotel.

By the afternoon, Archie and his team returned and made sure there were no problems at the mine before signing the contract.

Mr. Robinson is naturally smiling, after all, no matter who he finds as a partner, it is not as good as Archie.

Besides Mr. Robinson, no one was happier than Faye.

Although the mine is not even dug out now, but she is already dreaming of a rich family, sitting on a mountain of gold and silver.

Archie saw that everything was done, so he and Natalia discussed the return trip.

Mr. Robinson saw this and immediately stopped them.

"I know Mr. McCarthy and Mrs. McCarthy are very busy people, but we are here, if we don't have a good time, wouldn't it be a waste of time? Besides, it's late now, so it's too tiring to travel all the way back home at this time. Why don't we take a good rest today, have some fun in the neighborhood, and then go back in the morning?"

Archie turned his head to Natalia, who nodded, indicating no problem.

Only then did he ask, "What's interesting around here?"

Mr. Robinson laughed, "I'll take care of it, I'll take you there tonight, and I promise to make you happy."

Archie saw that he was deliberately selling out, so he didn't press the issue and agreed to his proposal.

In the evening, the group had dinner outside and was led by Mr. Robinson, to the clubhouse he had arranged.

When we got to the place, we realized that it was a performance venue.

Mr. Robinson excitedly introduced: "This side is the largest performance venue in Tacitus, which has a variety of performances, not only limited to the stage, magic, and some circus or something, anyway, it is very exciting."

Natalia thought he had hidden half a day, mysteriously what is, did not expect it to be this.

She couldn't help but laugh: "Mr. Robinson, you're missing the boat this time, it's nothing new, we've seen it all before."

Faye also agreed, "That's right, it's just a circus, where there is nothing to see ah, must run here to see."

Mr. Robinson is not in a hurry, a mysterious smile.

"Although there are circuses everywhere, but this is different, you will know when you see it later."

Natalia saw this and couldn't say anything else, so she sat down with Faye.

Things really did not go as they expected.

Although they are all circuses, the performances here are, indeed, much more exciting than outside.

Archie, who has little interest in such things, also looked quite interesting and occasionally chatted with Natalia.

Mr. Robinson was relieved to see that they were all having fun watching.

After watching the show, a group of people headed out with the crowd.

Halfway through the walk, Kiera was suddenly bumped into by someone.

She let out a cry of surprise, but fortunately there was Ian's quick eye to pull her back, she was not knocked down by others.

"Is everything okay?" Ian asked with concern.

Kiera shook her head, while Natalia frowned.

"Mom, where's the bag you were holding in your hand?"

Kiera froze, and only then did she respond.

"Oops, my bag was robbed!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Ian had already gone after him.

Kiera was guarded by Natalia and Archie and others, and together they walked outside to wait.

Kiera blamed herself, "Oh, my brain is really bad, the bag is missing I did not notice."

I don't know if it's because of the previous incident that hit Kiera so hard psychologically that she can't remember a lot of things, or if it's for some other reason, Kiera's reactions are now often slow.

Just now, the other party is clearly a thief, taking advantage of the crowded time to snatch her bag, she did not react for a moment.

Natalia held her hand and said soothingly, "Don't be anxious, there's nothing valuable in the bag, right?"

"No, it's just some money and a cell phone."

"That's good, the money doesn't matter, the phone will just buy another one when the time comes."

Chapter 993 - Always protects the shortcomings

"Yes, as long as people are okay, our family is not short of money."

At this time, Faye at least said something human, followed by reassurance.

Kiera is not actually heartbroken about the money.

All these years, although Ian has been taking her to live in seclusion in the desert, he is a man of indifference to fame and fortune, otherwise it would not be in that kind of place where birds do not live in seclusion, but he is full of skills, money is absolutely not lacking.

Even in the castle in the desert, there are hordes of servants, and there is a great look of a paradisiacal life.

Therefore, Kiera is definitely not concerned about this small amount of money.

She was just frightened, plus found Ian chased out, a moment of some worry, which can not help but anxious.

Natalia naturally thought of this.

She turned her head to Archie, "Archie, you go along and see that nothing happens to Uncle Ian alone."

Today they came out to play, because they did not want to attract attention, so they did not bring bodyguards around.

Archie nodded and instructed Mr. Robinson to take care of the three women before he took off after them.

But unexpectedly, did not chase out much farther, suddenly saw a familiar figure ahead.

Felix took Queeny and only just arrived when he saw a man hurrying out after him and knocked Queeny into him.

Felix has always been an extremely protective person, how can he put up with this?

Therefore, it is straightforward to strike and restrain the other party.

By now, Ian had also caught up and was there to negotiate something with Felix.

Felix Xu heard him say that the man was a thief, and saw his hands, indeed, holding a lady's purse, suddenly the face sank, a direct kick in the other side of the leg, so that the other side of the knees.

The other party also did not expect to meet such an iron plate today, in a hurry, directly threw the bag in his hand to the crowd.

Several people were startled.

Ian rushed to the crowd to chase the bag, and the thief, seeing their eyes are chasing the bag to go.

Subconsciously, he tried to break free.

However, just stood up, not yet run on two steps, the face of another kick, right to the chest, he was immediately kicked away, the body fell heavily to the ground.

The thief coughed twice, turned blue and couldn't get up again.

Felix froze, and when he looked up, he saw Archie walking head-on through the crowd.

Eyes lit up.

"Archie, what are you doing here?"

Archie was surprised, too.

I never thought I would meet them when I came out to chase a thief.

He picked the thief up off the ground and laughed, "Why are you here, too?"

Felix replied, "Queeny and I came over to run an errand."

said, with a veiled hint of a gaze.

Archie immediately knew what he was up to.

There were outsiders in, and he didn't say anything. By this time Ian had gotten his bag and came over, looking at the thief with an unpleasant face.

"How dare you openly rob something in broad daylight, huh! I think you've lived to the point of impatience."

He said, swinging his fist to hit the thief.

The thief shrank back a little in fear and was stopped by Archie.

"Mr. Rankin, let me introduce to you first, this is my friend Felix Bissel, and this is Queeny Horton."

Felix and Queeny both said hello to him.

Ian looked at them and froze.

Although he has been living in seclusion in the desert, but not at all ignorant of what is going on outside.

On the contrary, with the name of ghost doctor, he is actually more familiar with this piece of underground power.

When I saw Felix and heard his name, I immediately remembered this number.

The eyes can't help but be a little more deeply versed.

He also stopped hitting people, put down his fist and said in a light voice: "So it's Head of Dragon Club, recently Dragon Club is famous, I've heard a lot about it."

Felix smiled faintly, "Compared to the ghost doctor, we are just making a living, Mr. Rankin is too modest."

Archie saw that both sides knew each other, and without explaining too much, grabbed the thief and said, "Since this guy stole from Mom, why don't we bring him over and let them send him off."

Ian sniffed and frowned.

But in the end, he did not object and nodded his head in agreement.

Felix was a little surprised to hear about Archie's mom.

After all, he knew that Archie's parents were both dead and long gone from the world.

Since this is the case, still can be called by him mother, is not

But it can't be, because neither Kiera nor Yvonne should be alive anymore.

So who is he calling?

With a sense of doubt, Felix and Queeny followed them towards the entrance of the theater.

In a clearing next to the entrance, Natalia several people had been standing there, waiting for a while, and finally saw the two familiar figures, coming from a distance.

They were all heartily pleased and rushed to welcome them.

"How's that? Is everything okay?"

"Did you get the man?"

Archie tossed the thief, who had completely wilted in his hands, in front of them, "Gotcha."

Ian also handed the bag to Kiera, "Check and see if anything is missing?"

Kiera took it, looked at it briefly, and shook her head.

"Nothing is missing."

"That's good." He paused and looked at the thief with a disgusted gaze, "I was going to beat him up straight away, but Archie said that it was your stuff he stole and asked me to bring the man over to you to be dealt with, so see what you can do about it!"

Kiera sniffed and gave Archie a grateful look.

She knows that Ian is not a bad person, but is too rigid, and especially cynical.

To put it plainly, the IQ is high, but the emotional intelligence is low.

He also did not think, according to his identity as a ghost doctor, to really in the streets of Tacitus, will beat people out of something, then will not be another pile of trouble.

Although it is said that they are not afraid of trouble, but it is best to avoid it is not?

Especially, the other side and the crime is not to death.

Kiera looked at the thief, only to see that the other party was not very old and looked to be in his teens.

The body is thin, dark-skinned, with one pair of eyes timidly staring at her, and the whole body is trembling slightly because it is being carried by Archie with fear in its heart.

Kiera softly asked, "What's your name? Why do you want to steal something?"

The other side froze and did not answer.

Mr. Robinson laughed: "This kid looks like a local, probably can't understand your words, so, I'll help you translate."

Mr. Robinson has traveled extensively and is very familiar with Tacitus.

Soon after, he was asked.

The child then understood and whispered a couple of words.

Mr. Robinson said, "He said his name was Kaza and he had no more money and wanted it, so he stole it."

Kiera frowned slightly.

"If you want money, why don't you work? Or where is your family? You look like you're in your teens too, not in school?"

Chapter 994 - The Wonderful Ghost Doctor

The words, without Mr. Robinson translation, the teenager just from her look to read a few points.

He didn't speak, lowering his head and biting his lip stubbornly.

Mr. Robinson watched, with some discomfort in his heart.

Sighing, he said, "Such children, usually orphans, Tacitus is not like our country, many refugee orphans are not taken in and end up on the streets, their stomachs are not filled, and no one is willing to hire them to work, let alone go to school."

Kiera then understood, face can not help but flash a touch of heartache.

She thought about it, opened her bag, took out all the cash inside and handed it to the teenager.

"Take it, it's not much, but I can only help you so far, be good to yourself in the future and don't do anything like this again."

The teenager froze and looked up at her.

Mr. Robinson said, "What are you waiting for? Take it if you want."

The teenager then reacted, hastily took the money, turned and ran away as fast as he could.

Ian frowned, looked at the background of the teenager darting away and sighed, "Kiera, you're just too nice."

Kiera's look was a bit dazed.

"It's not that I'm too kind, it's that there are too many poor people in this world, he's actually still a child, but he has to suffer so much ugh!"

She let out a sigh.

Natalia didn't want to upset her, plus, was a little happy to see Felix and the others coming too.

The conversation then turned to Felix and others.

"Felix, what brings you guys here?"

Felix smiled lightly, "Came over to run some errands."

He said, after a pause, pointing at Kiera and others, "No introduction?"

Natalia then reacted and hastily introduced with a smile, "Oh yes, this is my mom, and this is Ian, my mom's husband."

Felix froze.

Doubt was written all over his face.

How come Natalia has a mother and is Ian's wife after not seeing her for a while?

Just when he thought that this was the godmother that Natalia had recognized, Kiera smiled and introduced herself, "Hello, my name is Kiera."

Felix shook hard.

After such a period of Natalia's enlightenment, Kiera is now less repulsive to strangers.

Therefore, at this moment, seeing Felix and them, they can still introduce themselves comfortably.

But Felix was stunned.

He looked at Kiera incredulously and turned to Natalia and asked, "She's not"

Natalia pursed her lips, "It's a long story, I'll tell you later slowly."

Felix nodded, old friends meeting, naturally, we can not just break up, so we made a date to go back to the hotel together and go to a coffee shop near there for coffee.

Mr. Robinson could see that they had something to talk about and had the good sense to leave first.

The group asked for a private room and after they all sat down, Natalia then told the story of how she and her mother had met some time ago.

Felix was shocked to hear this.

But thinking about it, it doesn't seem impossible.

After all, when Kiera died, a lot of people went to recover her body, but at that time did not fish up.

However, because at that time, it is the flood season, the river is fierce, salvage a full half month after more than, or no news, we default she has been washed away by the water, do not know which sunk to the bottom of the river or the bottom of the sea, and no one will pursue.

All of this is still when Natalia was in distress abroad and was rescued by him, only after hearing her talk about it.

Now it seems that it is true that good people have good rewards.

I'm surprised she didn't die.

Felix knows all too well what this news means for Natalia and is therefore very happy for her.

After talking about Kiera, naturally it's time to talk about Felix and the others.

Because Kiera and Ian are not outsiders, Archie did not cover up this moment.

He asked directly, "Did you come to Tacitus this time for the Celestial Book?"

Felix nodded.

He picked up the tea in front of him and took a sip before saying, "I got word earlier that someone over here has a Celestial Book that was dug up from a newly unearthed tomb, and I wanted to come and see if it was true."

Archie was a little surprised, "Ancient tombs?"

"Yes, I'm not sure of the details, there is only a general direction, but I have asked my acquaintances to help inquire, there should be news in the next two days."

Archie laughed, "I wonder where the ancient tomb is?"

Felix said, "It's what was dug up some time ago from near a group of Jade mines, the tomb of an ancient king."

At these words, Archie's face became instantly playful.

"Jade mines?" he laughed lightly, "Ask around first, and if there's anything you need help with, contact me then."

Felix didn't notice the look on his face and just nodded.

"Okay, I know, I'll get back to you then."

A few people sat and drank tea for a while, and talked about Natalia being pregnant again.

Felix and Queeny both expressed their congratulations.

Natalia was a little worried about Queeny's health, but she looked as good as normal and heard that she had been taking the medication provided by Clinton on time, and that there was no more situation like the last wedding.

The conversation lasted until late at night at 12 o'clock, when they dispersed.

On the way home, Natalia put her arm around Archie and asked, "Do you think Clinton could be lying? Maybe the disease in Queeny's body is not some genetic disease as he said? It just so happens that Uncle Ian is also here, so why don't you let him take a look at Queeny? Maybe there will be some unexpected gains?"

Archie laughed: "Lying should not be so much, after all, Felix also had someone look at Queeny, indeed no cause was found, and the Zaccardi Family has a genetic disease this thing, all the Zaccardi Family people know, he should not have the means to make up such a lie, after all, too It's too easy to expose."

Natalia nodded, "That's true."

Archie again suddenly said: "But you just reminded me, Ian has been called by the outside world ghost doctor, many of his methods, contrary to the conventional traditional medicine, so has not been very popular with mainstream medicine, but sometimes, often this unexpected method, but more effective, indeed, should let him give Queeny a look. "

Natalia laughed, "So I'll go talk to him later and ask him to look at it for Queeny tomorrow?"

Archie pondered for a moment.

"No rush first, call Felix and see if he's willing to let Queeny be examined again."

Natalia nods her head.

So, the two called Felix.

Felix actually moved to this idea as early as when he saw Ian just now.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 995 That's not a disease

After all, he is not a rigid and rigid person, Clinton has shown him the way to go, but if there are other ways to go, he is not likely to stick to that one, at the mercy of others.

In the past, he had also thought about asking Ian to come out and treat Queeny.

But one, he hired a doctor, not worse than Ian's medical skills, and two, Ian this person's eccentric nature, and often living in the desert.

He had only heard of Ian's reputation, but had not met him in person, let alone had any friendship.

It is already difficult to find him, and it is even less easy to ask him to do it again.

But now, since he is Natalia's stepfather, it's different.

So, when he first saw Ian at the entrance of the theater today, he already had his heart set on it.

It's just that it's not a good idea to bring it up directly because it's the first time we've met, so I'm thinking that when I get back, I'll talk to Natalia and the others and let them ask about it.

Before he could say anything, Natalia's call came in first.

Felix's heart could not help but rise a comfort, thinking that this disciple did not teach in vain, when the key is still thinking of the master.

Felix dryly agreed to Natalia's proposal.

So Natalia hung up the phone and went back next door to Kiera and Ian.

After Kiera heard her reason for coming, she said to Ian, "Ian, I see that Miss Horton is also a good-looking person, and I like her very much, so you can help her look at it."

Ian still has that cold, icy face, but the words that come out are incredibly gentle.

"Okay, I'll look at it for her tomorrow."

Kiera looked back at Natalia, "You Uncle Ian agreed, just make an appointment with Miss Horton tomorrow and we'll meet then."

Natalia nodded happily and said good night to them again before leaving.

The next day, Queeny made an appointment with them to meet at their hotel room.

After all, Queeny's body of this disease, there are those instruments are useless, or have to Ian see in person to know.

And they are begging, naturally it is not good to let Ian walk too far, so simply they walk over to meet him.

Natalia went down to pick them up and took them to Ian and Kiera's room, where a group of people were sitting on a couch while Ian and Queeny sat on either side of a nearby table.

Ian first took her pulse and checked several places on her body, such as behind her ears, nails and whatnot.

Natalia was watching from the sidelines with great novelty.

She whispered to Kiera, "Mom, Queeny's illness seems to be a very serious one, can Uncle Ian tell anything by just looking and looking?"

Kiera laughed in a low voice: "The so-called look, smell, ask and cut, the word look is not simple, although I do not know what Miss Horton's disease, for medical theory also do not know much, but I know that if a person's internal organs are really out of order, then her appearance will certainly have some corresponding changes, even if it is only very subtle, as long as careful observation can certainly be found It can be found."

Natalia nodded with realization.

"So that's it."

After a short time, Ian finished his inspection.

Felix stepped forward quickly and asked sharply, "What about it? Did you see what it is?"

Ian turned his head to look at her and asked in a hushed voice, "She's with the Zaccardi Family?"

The crowd was in shock.

Kiera is not concerned about this and, therefore, still has some doubts.

"the Zaccardi Family ? What's that?"

But Natalia and Archie, and Felix knew, not only knew, but understood that Queeny was really the family.

Felix had a glimmer of hope burning in his heart at the moment.

Without hiding, he nodded, "Yes."

Ian's face was cold as he said, "I can't cure this disease."

"What? Even you can't cure it?"

About too confident in Ian's medical skills, Kiera's subconscious mind felt that there was no disease in this world that he could not cure, except death.

I didn't expect to run into it here.

Because Queeny is Natalia's friend, plus, she thinks the girl is docile and gentle, she likes Queeny from the bottom of her heart.

Therefore, he asked, "Ian, is her illness serious? Why can't it be cured? Is there any medicine missing or is something broken?"

Ian sneered, "If it's really where it's broken, then it's easy to do, where it's broken to fix it is, but unfortunately, she's not where it's broken, it's the whole body is broken, from blood to muscle tissue, as long as her body with that person's genes, with the kind of cells belonging to their the Zaccardi Family, it is impossible to live in peace. The Zaccardi family has the kind of cells that belong to them.

When he said this, everyone was stunned.

Felix's face has become very ugly, Queeny's face, also vaguely a little pale.

Natalia patted her comfortingly on the shoulder, looked to Ian and asked, "Uncle Ian, the fact that you can talk about this disease so clearly means you have researched it haven't you? And there's no way to find anything?"

Ian sneered, "Method? There is no method for this disease, because it can't be considered a disease at all, unless her blood is drained, her flesh is picked out, even the bones are removed, and the thing might disappear."

The faces of the people, can not help but change again.

Queeny frowned.

"Why? Dr Rankin, can you be more specific?"

Ian gave her a look.

I don't know what it is, but Natalia feels that Ian's attitude towards her has changed since he found out that Queeny was from the Zaccardi Family.

It seems that all of a sudden, from the initial goodwill, into a tit-for-tat, and vaguely hostile.

Although she didn't know where the hostility came from, she trusted her judgment that she should not be wrong.

Just see Ian coldly said: "You are not a disease, is a hidden in the body, through the genetic brought by the mutant cells, this mutant cells from your birth has been dormant, until a certain moment, it will suddenly become large, devouring other cells in your body, so your organs will quickly fail, you will quickly become old and die, the fastest no more than half an hour. "

Queeny's face went all white in a swish.

What he said, after all, was exactly the same as what Stephan had said before.

Felix also realized this and came forward and asked sharply, "Then can't there be some way to kill those cells? It's like targeting some cancer cells now."

Ian sneered.

"Kill? How to kill? This cell in her body is not in one place, but in her whole body, as big as her blood, her heart, as small as a hair strand, it can be said that she and this cell are symbiotic relationship, dying together, you want to kill her too?"

Chapter 996 Request for Help

His words silenced everyone.

Felix's face was very ugly.

In fact, before this, which has promised Clinton to find Celestial Book for him in exchange for the medicine that can suppress Queeny's disease.

But he still didn't give up completely and kept looking for other ways he could save her.

But now, Ian has dashed his last hope.

He realized at this time that Queeny's illness was not that simple.

Felix sulked and asked, "Mr. Rankin, do you know the origin of this cell?"

In his mind, he thought that perhaps finding the root cause would also lead to a solution.

Ian, however, shook his head.

"Want to know the origin, you have to ask the Zaccardi Family people, this is their family's genetic disease, as long as it is tainted with their family bloodline, it will definitely have, specific must be traced, only to be traced back to a long time ago."

He said, and sighed again.

Felix's heart shook, half a heartbeat, before he nodded.

"Okay, I get it."

He turned to look at Queeny, the two eyes collided in the air, there is a trace of heartache and attachment that only each other can see.

Felix is heartbroken that Queeny has to endure her illness all the time, while Queeny is heartbroken that Felix is running around like this for her sake.

She smiled faintly.

"Mr. Rankin, thank you, we got it."

She said, standing up.

Natalia was also a little hard on her heart and went up to hold her hand.

"Don't feel bad, there is still a way out, right? Clinton also said that as long as they keep taking their medication, they will be fine."

Queeny nodded.

Although she knew she was telling the truth, she had to admit that as long as Queeny still had to take her medication, Felix, and she, would always be subject to it.

I'm just afraid that in the future, whatever that Clinton says, they'll have to do it.

This is not something either Felix or Queeny would like to see.

Just then, Natalia's eyes suddenly lit up.

"Eh, by the way, Uncle Ian, do you know how to dispense medicine?"

Ian gave her a look and grunted, "What do you think?"

Natalia smilingly said: "How about this, Queeny now need to rely on a medicine to maintain health, but this medicine only the Zaccardi Family people have, if they always need to get the medicine from the Zaccardi Family people, inevitably subject to others, why do you trouble a little If you can formulate it, then of course it is very good."

This comment, in turn, gave Queeny and Felix a new thought.

They both, looked at Ian expectantly.

Ian's face doesn't look too good.

In fact, if it weren't for Natalia and Kiera's relationship, he wouldn't have wanted to bother just knowing that she was from the Zaccardi Family.

Thinking of this, his face sank a few more points and asked Queeny: "You just have to help that group of people in your family and they will naturally give you the medicine, so why do you have to come and beg me?"

The tone of voice is full of resentment.

Queeny froze, she was not stupid and immediately heard his words.

She said suspiciously, "Mr. Rankin seems to have a problem with the Zaccardi Family, dare I ask if they have a problem with you?"

Ian laughed coldly, "I don't think I have a problem with it, but I don't like the way the Zaccardi Family behaves.

Queeny is now considered to hear out, dare this really have a problem.

Ian did not know about her involvement with the Zaccardi Family, but saw that she had the disease and subconsciously thought of her as one of the Zaccardi Family.

She couldn't help but laugh, "Mr. Rankin, I think you misunderstood, although I have the blood of the Zaccardi Family flowing in my body, but I am not the same as them."

She said, pursing her lips slightly, and told the story of how she found out she was with THE Zaccardi Family and how she was threatened.

The so-called begging people should have the attitude of begging people, Queeny is not a fool, and will not pretend to be noble, she knows that now in this world, if there is still someone who can replicate the pills Clinton gave her, then Ian must be one of them.

She had also thought carefully, the Zaccardi Family so many people, the need for such a large amount of medicine, can not be always in stock, there must be a person, specifically responsible for helping them to dispense the medicine.

In this way, in this world, if there is one person who can dispense this medicine, there must be a second.

So, they can't put their hopes, alone, on one person.

With this in mind, Queeny said in a deep voice: "I am as opposed to the Zaccardi Family as you are, but now that my life is in their hands, I have to temporarily resign myself to them, and if you can help me solve this problem, we can naturally free ourselves from their grasp."

Ian looked deeply at her.

"You say your father defected from the country?"

Queeny nodded, "Yes."

"What proof do you have that what you say is true?"

Queeny choked.

Evidence? What evidence could she have?

The father, whom she had never met, was dead, her mother was dead, and now she was alone in the world.

If Stephan hadn't come to her, she wouldn't even have known that she still had this family's bloodline running through her.

She frowned deeply.

At this point, Natalia couldn't look away and spoke up.

"Uncle Ian, just trust Queeny, I can vouch for her, everything she says is true."

Seeing Natalia said so, Kiera also followed and echoed: "Yes, Ian, it is said that saving a life is better than building a seven-level pagoda, you can help her, I see Miss Horton face good, must be a good person, will not lie to us."

Felix also said in a deep voice: "Mr. Rankin if you can help, if there is anything you need in the future, just ask, I will definitely agree."

Ian gave him a look.

A haughty cold snort, "say I help you like figure what you pay."

He said this, making Felix choke.

But Natalia was heartily pleased, she knew that since Ian had said so, it was a promise to help.

She couldn't help but laugh, "Uncle Ian, that would be a pleasure."

With that, he turned his head again and asked Queeny to bring out the medicine.

Because of the fear that Queeny will be accidentally sick, so Felix always let her must always have two pills on her body, at this time, Queeny's body is exactly one.

She took the medicine out, only to see the tiny pill, which was in a small box, showing how precious they were to it.

Ian brought the medicine over, opened it and looked at it, only to see that it was a small golden pill, he put it on the end of his nose and smelled it, his eyebrows wrinkled up delicately.

A group of people looked at him nervously, expecting him to say a result

Chapter 997 - Human Selfishness

After half a second, only to see him put the medicine down.

"Did Clinton give you this stuff?"

Queeny nodded.

"He said it was only available to them at THE Zaccardi Family, and we've taken it to other medical doctors before, but none of them have been able to analyze the ingredients in it, let alone replicate it."

Speaking of which, Queeny's brow couldn't help but bring a hint of sadness.

Ian nodded, "Of course they can't replicate it, because it's not a medicine at all, but the fruit of a plant called money beads!"

When these words came out, everyone couldn't help but freeze.

"Money beads? What's that?"

Ian said in a light voice: "A rare poisonous herb, legend has it that it grows in extremely cold and dry places, usually near graves, but I have only read about it in books and information, and have not seen it for real."

Natalia blushed.

"So it's not sold on the market?"

Ian looked at her and sneered, "Sell? If I hadn't seen it today, I would have thought it was extinct, who would sell it?"

Natalia choked.

Felix said in a deep voice: "Since Clinton can come up with this, it means he has it there, big deal, I'll lead someone to kill in and grab a few plants out."

Ian shook his head.

"Useless, this thing to plant up very troublesome, where the original growth, it must always be where, if you leave the original soil, a second can immediately wither, you get it also use."

Ian's words silenced everyone.

Queeny pursed the corners of her lips, half a second, forced a smile.

"In that case, I won't force it."

Felix's brow, however, knitted up deeply.

After Ian said those words, he took Kiera and left.

The room was quiet for a while, and several people sat in their respective positions, none of them speaking.

After a long time, it was Archie who broke the silence.

"Although Uncle Ian said so, but you should not be discouraged, the good thing is that Clinton is still willing to bargain with you now, when the time comes to collect the Celestial Book, the big deal is that we do not change the medicine, just a few money beads, I believe he will not refuse."

Natalia nodded.

"His main purpose is still in Celestial Book, Queeny alive or dead, it doesn't matter to him, so you guys shouldn't worry too much."

Felix looked at her and didn't say anything.

Queeny, however, smiled.

"I know, you guys just don't worry about me, just do as you say, I see the Zaccardi Family that and much older people, and have not seen any early death, I believe that as long as you get the money beads, it will be fine."

Everyone nodded their heads.

At this point, it was only then that each dispersed.

After Felix and Queeny left, Natalia said with some concern, "Archie, I always feel that something is not right about this."

Archie helped her sit down on the bed and rubbed her calves after a long day of walking.

"What's wrong?"

"You say such a rare herb, how come Clinton is the only one who has it? And the Celestial Book, you and I both know that the so-called raising of the dead is nothing but a lie, I see that Clinton is not like a stupid person, how can he believe this? How could he believe this? How could he be so determined to find it?"

Archie was silent for a while and said in a light voice: "This is probably the selfishness and greed of human nature!"

He paused and said, "The more a man has, the more he wants to have more, but when wealth does not satisfy his yu, he will find a way to start with something else, such as longevity, such as miracles."

Speaking of which, he sneered.

"In fact, are only self-deception, Clinton may not not know that is false, only, even if there is only one millionth of hope, in case it is true? He could not let go of this glimmer of hope, so will be in the heart of it infinitely magnified, and then firmly believe that it is true, and then try to pursue, in the end, but is to find a faith for themselves."

Natalia froze and lost her smile, "What does this have to do with faith again?"

Archie said lightly: "You do not understand this, right? A person living in this world must believe in something, something to pursue in order to live well, especially an extremely intelligent and confident person like Clinton, who controls the Zaccardi Family, and the Zaccardi Family holds at least a third of the world's property, which means that he holds a third of the world's property. of the world."

"A person's wealth to this point, it is no longer interested in money, you see he lives with a clear mind, as if very indifferent transcendence, but if that is really the case, why he still has to live? This world for him, there is nothing to pursue, so he must have another obsession in his heart, or immortality, or return to life, or something else, in short, no goal is no hope, no hope, living is no different from dead, but a walking corpse."

Natalia really had not heard of such a theory, and could not help but shake his head.

"Simply perverted."

Archie hooked his lips in a smile.

Natalia suddenly remembered something and came over to ask him with a smile.

"So, it seems like you are quite rich too haha, so what is your faith?"

The man moved and looked at her with deep eyes.

Archie's eyelids were extremely deep, like two deep whirlpools, as if they were trying to suck her in.

He said in a deep voice, "It's you."

Natalia froze.

The man repeated, "My faith is you, as long as you live in this world one day, I will accompany you one day, if you die one day I, I will also immediately go with you, this life, life and death."

Natalia was suddenly stunned.

She had originally said it as a joke, not expecting him to answer seriously.

However, at this time to see his serious look, and I do not know why, suddenly a sour nose, tears did not hold back on soaring out.

"Archie, you hate it."

She cried and swung her fist at him.

Archie laughs, pulls a tissue, picks up her face and gently wipes her tears.

Then warmly coaxed, "Good girl, don't cry, be careful of the baby laughing at you."

"He dared."

Natalia looked at him and broke into tears, "No one is allowed to laugh at me, I am his mother."

"Yes yes yes, we are not laughing at you, good boy, come I will give you another rub."

Natalia then stretched her legs over.

The next day, they were leaving to go back to Equin.

Before they left, Natalia and Archie found Felix and asked them about their next arrangements.

Felix previously received news that there is a piece of this side, is an ancient tomb excavated, but that side is now extremely well protected, they can not enter for the time being, still thinking of other ways.??????

Chapter 998 Separation is imminent

Archie thought about it and introduced Mr. Robinson to him.

Although Mr. Robinson is a businessman, in some matters, may not be able to help much.

But he has at least been doing business in Tacitus for so many years, and his contacts here are more familiar than theirs, so he may really be able to help in such matters.

Felix nodded and thanked them before seeing them off.

It was afternoon when Natalia's group returned to Egitin.

She originally wanted to invite Kiera and Ian to the Maple Bridge villa for a temporary stay, but Kiera refused.

She took Natalia's hand and smiled gently, "Natalia, thank you, although I still haven't been able to think about the past, but now I'm not so afraid of people, compared to before, it's much better, and it's all because of you."

During this time, Natalia stayed with her, trying her best to use her gentleness and kindness to make her feel that most people in this world are still kind and that no one wants to harm her.

Kiera spent a lot of time with her, the layer of defenses against the outside world in the heart, which gradually loosened.

Now, she still gets scared if she gets too close to strangers though.

But at least normal socializing has been possible, no longer like when just to Egitin that to, meet a stranger will be nervous to death, must be Ian unblinking in the side to accompany.

Natalia laughed, "What thanks do mothers and daughters say to each other? As long as you get better, I'm happier than anything."

She said, seeing that they didn't seem to be planning to leave the airport, and asked, "Where are you planning to go?"

Kiera laughed, "We've been out long enough to go back today. I wanted to leave in Tacitus, but I couldn't leave you, so I flew with you to Egitin, but we booked a flight for later, so we're leaving soon."

Natalia froze, not expecting this.

She was moved and upset for a moment, holding Kiera's hand.

"Why are you guys going back so soon? I don't even feel like I've talked to you much."

She said, her eyes flushed.

Kiera was also red-eyed, but she knew that she would prefer to return to the desert than to stay in Egitin.

"It's okay Natalia, when you are free in the future, you can always come and play with me, I'll send you the address where we live, don't we have WeChat? You can contact at any time."

Natalia then wiped her tears and smiled.

"Good."

After the two said goodbye, they said goodbye at the airport and left separately.

Since Kiera and the others had to go to the other side to catch a flight, Natalia and the others had to leave the airport, so it was not convenient to see them off again, so they could only see each other off for some distance and then go their own way.

On the way home, Natalia's mood was a little sullen.

Archie, of course, knew what she was thinking, shook her hand and said comfortingly, "Don't be sad, I'll accompany you to the desert after this busy period, and then you'll be able to meet Mom again."

Natalia smiled and sighed.

"I didn't think there was anything to separation before, but now I realize that it's really annoying."

Archie nodded.

"It is indeed quite obnoxious."

When they got home, Natalia and Archie first went to the old mansion and picked up their two little ones and brought them home.

When Anne and Oliver, who had not seen their parents for a long time, saw them coming back, they naturally gave them a warm welcome, which reduced the sadness in Natalia's heart caused by the separation.

Ariana, knowing that Kiera was with them this time, left Natalia alone after dinner and asked with concern, "Is your mother okay?"

Natalia nodded, "Pretty good, nothing wrong with the body for now, just don't remember anything from before."

Ariana is aware of her past and naturally knows about Kiera.

She sighed a little.

"It's good not to remember, everyone's life will encounter many sad and painful things, not everyone has the opportunity to forget, if your mother really does not remember, that's a good thing."

Natalia nodded.

They didn't stay much longer at the old house and left after spending some time talking with Ariana.

Back at Villa Maple Bridge, Natalia had a slight headache.

The company's business is a very important part of its business.

Archie was so nervous that he was going to call the doctor, but she was stopped.

Natalia laughed, "What's so serious? If we call the doctor at this late hour, we'll have to wake everyone up again, and both kids are asleep, so don't bother."

Archie frowned, "But your body"

"I'm fine, just press it for me."

She said, grabbing his hand and placing it on her forehead.

Archie had no choice but to sit behind her and let her rest her head on her lap and gently press up for her, even though she was still a little worried.

The bedroom was silent, and neither man spoke.

The corners of Natalia's mouth curled slightly, and I don't know why, feeling his fingers gently pressing on his own head, as if the good sharp pain really eased a lot.

Archie saw her tired face and whispered, "Take a nap if you're tired, I'll stay here with you."

Natalia gave a "hmm".

In his company, actually fell asleep really quickly.

It was a cold night, and Archie saw her asleep, stopped his hand, carried her to bed and covered her with the blanket.

The temperature in the room was adjusted again, and only then did he embrace her and drift off to sleep together.

Day 2.

When Natalia woke up, it was 8:00 am.

Archie had woken up at some point and was downstairs taking his morning walk.

The door was pushed open from the outside, and the heads of two little babies peeked in quietly through the doorway.

When she was found awake, she gave a cheerful cry and pounced on her.

"Mommy Mommy, look at the little stars I folded."

"Mommy, I don't have school today, can you play with me?"

Natalia smiled and took the two babies into her arms, nudging each of them on the nose.

"You two little ones, you just want me to play with you, have you done all your homework? Even if you don't go to school, do you still have homework to do? Did you finish it?"

At the mention of study, the two little ones' brows furrowed.

"Mommy, we'll do it, just play with us for a while."

Natalia was two little baby soft and sticky little voice to the cute, heart early into a water, where can still care about education them?

Hastily nodded, "Good, good, I'll play with you, now you get up first, wait until I get up."

When the two little babies saw the success of selling misery, they cheered and nimbly climbed up from her.

After Natalia washed up and changed her clothes, she accompanied them downstairs.

Downstairs in the living room, Archie has finished his morning workout.

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 999 No one cares

His hair still carried the water droplets left after the shower, and had a messy handsomeness compared to his usual meticulous appearance.

Seeing the two little ones pestering Natalia, her face sank and she drank: "Go play with your own, don't keep pestering your mommy."

Anne sat at the table with a straight face, "Daddy, Mommy has been with you for many days, today Mommy has to be with us, you are a grown up, you can't compete with us kids."

Archie laughed directly at her frank and straightforward appearance.

"What are you fighting for? My wife, who are you to fight for?"

Anne puffed up her cheeks, "Daddy, you're not doing this right! She's our mommy, too."

"Heh!"

Archie gave a cool smile straight away.

Natalia see this big two small argued red face, can not help but laugh.

Pulling down Archie's hand, "Come on, what are you talking to the kids for? I'll play with them for a while, you go and do your own thing."

Archie frowned, "But your body"

"I've been fine for a long time."

Natalia's heart warmed up and she pushed him again, "Go and get busy."

Archie saw this and had no choice but to leave.

Natalia had been playing with her two children all morning and at noon, she received a call from Queeny.

She is still very worried about Queeny's current situation.

So, just after she got through, she asked about Queeny and their current situation.

Queeny's voice sounded a bit low, "We checked, that news is false, the piece of jade unearthed is not Celestial Book, it's just a very ordinary jade pendant."

Natalia was a little surprised and, at the same time, a little heartbroken.

She knew, of course, what the news meant to Queeny.

It's only three months before the New Year.

Clinton demanded that they find everything before New Year's Eve or they would cut off Queeny's medication.

And now, they've only found one piece.

At this rate of progress, there are still five pieces missing, and we will definitely not be able to find them all by New Year's Eve.

Thinking about it, Natalia couldn't help but frown.

"Do you have any other news on hand now?"

"There is one, but it needs to be confirmed. Something happened at Lanceham, we have to go back and deal with it before we go there."

Natalia nodded.

"Don't worry, we'll work together and we'll be able to get six pieces together before the New Year."

Although her heart was still worried, Natalia was so comforted.

Queeny smiled.

"I know, thank you."

The two talked for a while longer, until it was time for lunch, and Natalia hung up.

After hanging up the phone, she thought about it and sent messages to Victoria and Charlie as well, asking them to help keep an eye out for news about Celestial Book as well.

Charlie and Victoria are aware of Queeny's illness.

After all, the wedding scene, they were all there, only they only knew that Queeny was sick, as to what it was, and the subsequent negotiations with Clinton, they were not sure.

This time, when she heard that Natalia wanted to inquire about Celestial Book, Victoria even joked.

"Do you also believe in immortality? If there is such a thing, are you going to use it for yourself or for your Mr. McCarthy? Wouldn't you be sad if one person lived and the other died?"

Natalia some helpless, but Queeny this matter belongs to their secret, without their permission, they can not say much.

So I just said vaguely, "Don't care who I use it for, just keep an eye on the news for me anyway."

Victoria laughs and doesn't press the issue.

"Okay, I'll make a note of this and let you know if I hear anything."

Natalia nodded.

After hanging up the phone, in the afternoon, Natalia went to work.

Because both she and Archie went to Tacitus during this time, the company's affairs piled up.

There are several artists that have made mistakes, and the PR department has made several proposals out for her to take ideas.

Natalia was busy all afternoon and was not picked up from work by Archie until 7:00 pm.

Archie looked at the tired looking woman in front of him and his heart ached.

"Long ago and you said, pregnant this period of time at home to rest, stay with the children, you do not listen, to the company to suffer and tired and why is necessary? Is the company still not turning without you?"

Natalia smiled, "I like to work, besides, this is nothing, you have not seen when I was in Othua, that's what I call tired."

Speaking of this, there was a sudden lurch.

Archie's eyes also deepened for a moment, only he hid it quickly and was not noticed by Natalia.

Natalia turned her head to him, "By the way, isn't it The old Mrs. Vicky's birthday in another month?"

Archie nodded, "Yes."

"I heard Grandma say last time that she wanted to take a trip to Othua with Grandpa to visit Vicky."

Speaking of which, Archie's brow furrowed again.

"That's what she said, but I'm not sure about Grandpa's health and am still considering whether to let them go."

As he gets older, William's health has gotten worse and worse.

Older brother Wilhelm has passed away before, perhaps to see the close friends around them one by one, these two years, William more and more deep in seclusion, even the family matters, are not how to ask.

Fortunately, there is still Ariana to accompany him, Ariana although the last two years is not very good health, but generally or much better than William.

She and Vicky, is many years ago handkerchief friends, this time Ariana want to go abroad, probably also think that they are so old, can get together one time less, which is so stubborn want to go out it.

But as soon as she leaves, William can't stay at home alone and will definitely go together.

But his body, and can not withstand the torment, that is why Archie is worried.

Natalia thought about it, said: "Grandma's wish, naturally, can not let her realize, if you really do not feel at ease, find a trusted medical team, all the way to follow, and do not take the airliner, take their own plane to go over, to the side of the doctor and The Stevenson family care, I think there is no problem. "

Archie nodded.

"That's what I thought, and if Grandma insists, that's how it will end up."

Natalia nodded.

When they returned home, Mrs. Dottie had already asked the maid to make dinner.

Natalia took the two little ones to wash their hands before coming over to eat.

And at this time, the other side.

The castle was lit up and Felix looked at the news that his men had just returned, his face grim.

Queeny was sitting next to him, and her face was not looking too good, frowning and asking, "What does the Zaccardi Family mean? The four months are not up yet, and they are forcing us to do this?"

Felix grimaced and looked at Stephan, who was standing in the living room.??????

President's Sweet Wife

Chapter 1000 Sudden change of mind

Stephan's face was a peaceful one, and he even swaggered across to them and sat down, taking a fruit from the table to eat.

"You guys don't stare at me, it's useless to stare at me, after all, I'm not the one making the decisions on this, it's the top."

He said, pointing to the top of his head.

Felix sneered.

"You mean Clinton?"

Stephan froze.

"Who is Clinton?"

Felix choked for a moment, thinking to himself that it seemed Stephan didn't know about the existence of the Clinton character.

The Zaccardi Family has no idea how many others like him have been kept in the dark, thinking they are following York's orders, when in fact, someone else is behind the scenes.

Thinking about it, his eyebrows deepened slightly.

Who is this Clinton, anyway?

Looking at his age, he is only about the same age as himself, how can he make an old guy like York listen to him?

And looking at York's gesture of respect to him to the point of almost worship, it is not like he was coerced, but more like a devout faith from the depths of his heart, like a believer.

Yes, it's the believers.

Before Felix did not know how to describe the word in his mind for the relationship between York and Clinton, but now he finally came up with it.

Nangong Mu saw that he did not say anything, and did not care.

The apple in your hand and chewed a bite, then said: "In fact, it is not forced well, is to know that you have got a piece, let you hand it over, anyway, you do not have to hand it over in the end."

Felix sneered.

"If I get a piece and hand it over, what if you guys don't give me the medicine in the end? What are we going to do later on?"

Stephan smiled and said: "That will not, we the Zaccardi Family business is still very credible, in addition, this drug we all eat, is not a particularly rare stuff, with your ability to really tear the face, we can not benefit, so will not do this kind of stone smashing their own feet thing. "

After a pause, he added: "Besides, you can keep the last piece in your hand, anyway, as long as the twelve pieces are not set, there is no difference between having one piece or eleven pieces in your hand, I say so you understand it?"

Felix's face was very ugly.

It's not really about the Celestial Book, but the feeling of being under the control of others.

He grew up as a proud son of the sky, even though when he was small, he was not treated well by the Gu family while being ostracized by the Lan family.

But on the whole, he lives a privileged life, above people, never forced to agree to anything because of anyone's coercion.

And now, he always feels that every step he takes, he is walking on the tip of a knife.

It's a terrible feeling to have your hands and feet all tied up.

He feels this way, since childhood are particularly opinionated, free used to Queeny and not so?

She stared at Stephan coldly, as if she could not wait to stare a hole in him.

Stephan touched his nose and was a little embarrassed.

In all honesty, no matter how many times Felix had shaded him in the past, but in this case, it was he who was wrong about Felix.

After all, family interests aside, he and Felix are still considered friends.

A friend's wife fell on hard times, he fell like this to take advantage of the fire, how to look at it all makes people feel unkind.

Thinking this way, he sighed.

"Just, just, if you really do not want to take it out, I can also go back for you to intercede, but you also know that I am in the family is a small minion, talk has little weight, I can almost imagine when I intercede, the above rejection of the expression, but then what can be done? I want to help you, can only help to this point, the ability to do so, there is really nothing to do ah."

He said, shaking his head helplessly.

Felix stared at him for a moment with a sunken brow, and suddenly let go.

"No need, the stuff is here, you just take it."

Saying that, he let Qin Yue bring up a wooden box and threw it directly to Stephan.

Stephan was stunned, and hurriedly took it, opened the box, only to see that what lay inside was a piece of Celestial Book with a transparent snow-white body.

He couldn't help but swallow and look up at Felix.

"You're so dry, there's not a fraud in there, is there?"

Felix sneered.

"You'll have to take it, don't give it back to me."

After saying that, when really reach out to grab.

Stephan hastily hid the box behind him with a wary face.

"You want to take it back even after giving it, shame on you?"

He paused and looked at the two men with unsuspecting faces and sighed in the end.

"Come on, you guys don't look like I'm taking advantage of you, didn't I say so? Six pieces set, they will give you all the medicine Queeny will take later, you will keep a piece of defense on the line, still afraid of what ah?"

Felix didn't say anything, just nodded.

"I got it, you've got the stuff, you go."

Seeing this attitude of his, Stephan can't say anything else.

With a word to Queeny, he turned around with the men and walked away.

Only after they left did Queeny say in a deep voice, "I always had the feeling that something wasn't right about this."

Felix's voice was cold.

"It's not right, if it was before, we didn't know the ingredients of that medicine okay, now we know, heh!"

He sneered, "He said he was going to give us all the medicine you need to use in the back, but in fact it was not medicine at all, but a fruit called gold tree, what kind of fruit, can be kept for decades and still edible? This is simply fraud! Clinton is lying to us."

Queeny thought much the same as he did.

A touch of worry surfaced between her eyebrows.

"So what do we do now?"

Felix turned his head to look at her, and a cold stern look surfaced in his eyes.

"Don't worry, I've figured out a way."

Queeny froze, a little surprised.

"What's the solution?"

Felix's expression was mysterious, "I tampered with the box that Stephan took just now."

Queeny was stunned for a moment, and soon, reacted.

She and Felix already have a good understanding of each other, and now the other party only needs to give a slight warning, she immediately understood the other party's intention.

A smile could not help but appear on his face, "It seems that next, we are just waiting to close the net."

"Yes."

The two men agreed and said no more.

And the other side.

After Stephan got the stuff, he hurriedly took a plane overnight to the island where Clinton lived.

Naturally, he didn't know that Clinton lived here.

The one who gave him the order was always York, and before that it was only said that if he got something, he would send it to this island, so that's why he came overnight, without daring to be sloppy for a minute.

At this moment, the plane has just landed, there are already people who have received the news waiting there.
