

Sweetheart 1001

Chapter 1001: she's the star who won the first prize in the chinese style competition!

hearing this, fu jiatong almost couldn't keep her calm face.

luo chenxi had actually addressed mu yichen as her husband!

did she really think that she could sit firmly on the throne of the mu family's young mistress?

fu jiatong was furious, but she still had to maintain her dignity as the president's daughter and couldn't lose her temper.

"that's ... that's good. i'm relieved," he said, suppressing his anger.

"since you're fine, let's hurry in. we're here for an interview, we can't let director yan wait for us, don't you think so?" luo chenxi said with a smile.

fu jiatong gritted her teeth. " that's right, let's go. " the corners of luo chenxi's lips curled up. she turned around and left without waiting for her.

fu jiatong looked at her tall and slender back and sneered.

boxn ov el. c o m

as expected, she was from a lower class background. she felt so terrified after making a director wait for a few minutes. she was really petty.

it should be director yan's honor to be able to wait for a rich girl like her!

how could a country bumpkin like him survive in the circle of the rich? what's the use of only seducing men?

luo chenxi noticed that fu jiatong had been staring at her, but she did not turn around to look. instead, she went straight up to the fifth floor and arrived at the location of the crew's interview.

the other designers who came for the interview had already arrived.

there were more than a dozen people waiting outside the interview meeting room.

the crowd looked at luo chenxi as soon as she entered the room. a few of them appeared rather nervous.

luo chenxi smiled and took the initiative to greet them, " good morning, everyone. may i know which designer's turn is now? "

"it's number two's turn now." someone replied.

luo chenxi thanked him and sat down in the crowd in a natural and poised manner.

no matter how others looked at her, she remained calm and collected as she flipped through the information in her hands.

not long after, fu jiatong followed her in.

fu jiatong's face was not so good.

she disdainfully glanced at her surroundings, and her eyes revealed a bit of disgust. after hesitating for a while, she found a seat at the side and sat down.

this time, the interview was quite formal, and it took a lot of time for each person to go in and talk alone.

the waiting time was very long.

some designers couldn't sit still and started to discuss secretly.

"i didn't expect that young designer to be young master mu's wife! oh my god, i actually talked to the wife of the nation's husband! she's so pretty, no wonder she could get young master mu ..."

the short-haired woman whom luo chenxi bumped into at the entrance had been observing her secretly for quite a while.

the long-haired woman scoffed coldly and took a glance at luo chenxi. she could not conceal the jealousy on her face.

"what's the use of being pretty? if you want to win director yan's recognition, you'll have to see your ability."

the short-haired woman said, "her design level should also be very outstanding, right?" she was the star who won the first prize in the chinese style competition! many of her designs are stunning ..."

"so what?" the long-haired woman felt even more embarrassed when she heard her companion praising luo chenxi. she insisted, "weren't there rumors of constellation stealing other people's designs? who knows if she's really that good or if the mu family helped her create hype!"

" but, even chief sheng thinks highly of her ... "

"so what? no matter how powerful she is, can she be compared to miss fu?"

Chapter 1002: you won't be able to smile later!

"miss fu has held a solo exhibition at the paris fashion week! could luo chenxi do it? she still has the cheek to talk to miss fu about fair competition with her own ability ... isn't she too thick-skinned?"

the long-haired woman's words were filled with obvious jealousy and hatred.

the short-haired woman frowned, but she could not refute.

this was because even she thought that fu jiatong's design standard was obviously a few levels higher than luo chenxi's.

when the two of them spoke, they did not deliberately lower their voices. the lounge was not big.
all the designers in the room heard their conversation.

fu jiatong raised her chin, her eyes full of pride.

her abilities were publicly acknowledged by everyone. luo chenxi had spoken so arrogantly in front of the media earlier. she wondered how embarrassing it would be when she failed to be selected later!

he was really seeking his own death!

she took a glance at luo chenxi subconsciously.

even so, luo chenxi did not even raise her head. it was as if she did not hear the discussion around her at all. she was focused on her phone with a knowing smile on her face from time to time.

“pretend, keep pretending to be calm! you won’t be able to laugh later!” fu jiatong sneered.

at the same time.

in the conference room, a row of five judges were giving marks to the designers who came for the interview.

sheng yu was also among the judges.

the second designer was obviously very nervous. after being asked a few questions by the five people in turn, his face turned pale and he stuttered, unable to answer.

sheng xiao narrowed his eyes and gave her a zero.

then, he turned to look at yan heng, who was sitting beside him.

“old yan, i really don’t understand you. what’s the point of doing this interview? it was not that these designers did not have any talent, but with their ability to withstand pressure, it was impossible for them to take on the work of the crew. aren’t you just wasting your time?”

“why didn’t you use the person i recommended? we’ve known each other for so many years, i won’t trick you. luo chenxi is definitely the young designer with the most potential i’ve ever seen!”

when yan heng heard this, he had a difficult expression on his face. “sigh, i know you won’t trick me, but i have no choice, right? you’ve seen it for yourself just now, the young lady of the fu family has also taken a fancy to my film for some reason, and she wants to join the crew. what do you think i should do?”

sheng xiao sneered with a disdainful look on his face. “how can fu jiatong be better than luo chenxi? let her go home and rest! if she doesn’t want to leave, i’ll help you chase her away.”

“oh, my young master sheng!” yan heng almost vomited blood. “ i’m not a young master from a rich family like you. i have to feed an entire crew! if i offend the daughter of the president’s house, how am i going to pass the vetting process for my film?”

“isn’t there young master mu?” sheng yu scoffed coldly.

yan heng said,“i can’t afford to offend either side!” besides, young master sheng, don’t you think you’re being too subjective when you say that fu jiatong is not as good as luo chenxi? when i was in fstan, i personally saw fu jiatong’s solo exhibition. i have to say, her design skills are very eye-catching even in the european and american fashion circles.”

” i know you admire xingchen, but until now, xingchen is only famous in the country. the two of them are not on the same level. ” sheng yu’s expression changed. he was obviously quite displeased. even his voice had been raised a little.

“you said that stars can’t do it? she’s just too young and hasn’t had the chance to step onto the international stage yet!”

Chapter 1003: have confidence in luo chenxi

” i believe that if xing chen had resources like fu jiatong’s, they would have made a name for themselves in the international fashion industry early on. they wouldn’t be worse than fu jiatong. ” sheng yu said with a serious face.

he had said this to save fu jiatong’s face.

in fact, in his opinion, fu jiatong’s achievements today were largely due to her family.

if one were to remove the aura of being the president’s daughter, fu jiatong’s design skills were only slightly better than that of a normal new designer.

how could he be mentioned in the same breath as a real design genius like luo chenxi?

yan heng and sheng yu had known each other for many years and knew sheng yu’s temper very well. he knew that this was the first time he spared no effort in praising a newcomer.

” well ... third young master sheng, it’s not that i don’t believe you, but it’s useless for me to believe you. the crew doesn’t belong to me alone, and everyone acknowledges miss fu’s ability ... ” yan heng still looked troubled.

“director yan, you’ll regret it if you don’t use stars!” sheng xiao snorted coldly. just now, the two of them were being interviewed by the reporters downstairs. you saw the entire process with your own eyes. if fu jiatong is appointed as the design director, you can imagine how the reporters will report about it. ”

upon hearing this, yan heng's brows immediately furrowed.

sheng yu's words had struck a chord in his heart.

when the reporters had surrounded fu jiatong for an interview, he and sheng yu had actually been standing on the balcony upstairs and had a panoramic view of the situation at the entrance.

fu jiatong was full of confidence in front of the reporters, as if she had officially become the design director of the crew. this attitude actually made yan heng a little unhappy.

although fu jiatong had a high chance of winning, the interview hadn't even started yet. if she said something like that, it would easily cause a negative impact on the crew after the media reported it.

however, with fu jiatong's status, yan heng couldn't say anything even if he was unhappy.

luo chenxi suddenly appeared just as he was feeling depressed.

they were both interviewed by reporters and asked if they were confident, but luo chenxi's answer was much more brilliant than fu jiatong's. she had been emphasizing the fairness of the production team.

this was indeed very rare.

yan heng was obviously more hesitant.

he thought for a while before saying, "it's true that luo chenxi is more appropriate than fu jiatong in handling matters, but ... the most important thing for the crew is still the standard of design! you should know that i've been preparing for 'a magnificent turn' for two whole years. i've been working on everything from the script to the actors. i'm going to use this movie to aim for an oscar! "so, i can tolerate any flaws of the designer, but the standard of the design must be high enough ..."

he was most worried about luo chenxi because she had never been in the european and american fashion circles.

even if sheng yu admired her a lot, it could only represent the attitude of the chinese fashion circle.

his film was going to be taken abroad to participate in various film festivals for awards.

if luo chenxi's design concept could not be recognized by the european and american fashion circles, all the funds and energy that he had invested in the early stage would be for naught.

this was a loss that he could not afford.

sheng yu frowned and looked at yan heng. he knew that he could not convince him with empty words.

he frowned and did not speak again.

he was confident in luo chenxi. he believed that yan heng would find out whose design standard was better by the end of the interview!

Chapter 1004: no one would be more suitable than me following that, a few more designers came in for an interview.

however, it was quickly rejected by sheng yu and yan heng.

“number seven, fu jiatong.”

hearing fu jiatong’s name, the judges in the conference room were all excited and looked at her expectantly.

fu jiatong pushed the door open and entered. she nodded at the judges and sat down on the sofa opposite them.

” director yan, chief sheng, and the rest of the crew ... it’s a pleasure to meet you. ” as soon as fu jiatong sat down, she spoke with confidence.

“i really like the novel ‘a magnificent turn’. that’s why i’m here for the interview today. i also know that you have high expectations for this film. not only do you hope that it will be successful in the box office, but you also hope that it will win you a national award. and i ... am the most suitable choice for you.”

“when i was studying in country F, i made a name for myself in the european and american fashion circles. i’ve had exchanges with designers from major international brands, which is where my advantage lies. i’ve personally experienced all the scenes depicted in the novel ‘gorgeous turn’, so no one knows the situation better than me. ”

boxn ov el. c o m

” if you want to find a young designer with an international vision to take on the role of design director, i don’t think anyone is more suitable than me. ” fu jiatong clearly knew where her advantages were, so she emphasized her experience of studying and working in fstan.

this experience was indeed a plus for her.

after hearing fu jiatong’s words, yan heng and the other judges of the production team all had a look of approval on their faces.

the producer, fan yinghua, immediately nodded and smiled. ” “miss fu, you’re right. when we were considering the position of design director, chief sheng was the first person we thought of, and you were the second! i was worried that you wouldn’t accept our invitation, but i didn’t expect you to be willing to be the design director. we’re really honored ...”

hearing fan yinghua’s almost flattering praise, fu jiatong couldn’t help but smile smugly.

she knew that she had been chosen by the crew a long time ago.

the reason luo chenxi was able to attend the interview was that the production crew had no choice but to invite her over on account of the mu family. they felt that it would be difficult to reject her.

in reality, luo chenxi was only there to serve as her foil!

in addition to fan yinghua, the other judges in the crew also praised fu jiatong.

fu jiatong kept saying, ” you’re too kind, ” but she couldn’t hide the smugness on her face.

” wait, president fan, please wait a moment. i still have questions to ask! ” he was suddenly interrupted by someone.

fan yinghua looked back and found that it was yan heng who had spoken. she couldn't help but be stunned.

he thought that if there was anyone present who would object, it would be sheng yu.

after all, sheng yu had always supported luo chenxi from the beginning to the end.

unexpectedly, while sheng yu was sitting at the side without saying anything, yan heng jumped out first.

” director yan, you're ... ” fan yinghua said in surprise.

yan heng's expression was a little ugly. he cleared his throat and said, ” “that ... miss fu, did you bring your portfolio with you? can you take it out and let me have a look first?”

Chapter 1005: it's a matter of work attitude!

hearing this, fu jiatong raised her eyebrows in surprise.

” well ... i just returned to china and didn't have time to draw up a design, so i didn't have time to prepare a portfolio ... ” she looked displeased and glanced at yan heng.

that's right, in the notice for the interview sent by the production team, it did mention that the interviewee had to draw a set of ten design drawings according to the theme given by the production team within a set time. they also had to edit it into a work collection according to the requirements.

during the interview, he had to bring his portfolio over.

however, fu jiatong also knew that these so-called requirements were only for ordinary designers.

with her qualifications and status, how could anyone ask her to do this?

therefore, she didn't even bother to draw any design drafts and came straight over.

whoever knew that yan heng would actually ask her this kind of question?

isn't he too insensible?

yan heng frowned at fu jiatong's answer. ” but, miss fu, we sent you the interview requirements last week, and it clearly stated that you had to bring out the corresponding portfolio. if you couldn't complete it, why didn't you call us in advance? ” in yan heng's eyes, fu jiatong's behavior was quite excessive.

his impression of fu jiatong had been greatly reduced.

besides, even if he was really busy, he should have contacted the crew and explained the situation out of courtesy, right?

even if he couldn't complete the entire portfolio, he should at least have time to draw up a few designs, right?

fu jiatong didn't do anything, and she acted like it was a matter of course. it was obvious that she was used to being flattered and lacked the attitude to work seriously.

seeing this, fan yinghua quickly interjected, "director yan, miss fu has so many things to do, it's normal for her to forget to call. why are you so serious?" besides, you've seen miss fu's work at the paris fashion week, so why would you need to look at the design? isn't this an unnecessary move?"

"i'm not being serious! this isn't the same thing at all!" yan heng emphasized unhappily, "of course there's no problem with miss fu's design standards, but the costumes in the movie are different from ordinary ones. i need to know if she can match the style of the movie ... "

"aiya, what cooperation? what's the difference? we're shooting an urban fashion film, not a historical film, so it's impossible that they can't cooperate!"

she was the daughter of the president's house! he couldn't afford to offend them!

yan heng frowned, "but ... "

fan yinghua was all smiles as she sent fu jiatong out.

yan heng's expression immediately turned extremely ugly.

when fu jiatong was being interviewed by the reporters downstairs, he already felt that fu jiatong's words were inappropriate, but this level of arrogance was still acceptable.

however, she didn't bring the design plan with her. this wasn't a matter of pride.

this was a matter of work attitude!

if the crew had such a design director, how would they carry out their work in the future?

Chapter 1006: why is the pace of this interview a little off?

fan yinghua could see yan heng's dissatisfaction, so she walked over and advised, "director yan, please calm down ..."

"how can i not be angry?" yan heng said angrily, "fu jiatong hasn't even joined the crew yet, and she's already showing this attitude!" can she really cooperate with the crew?"

fan yinghua said, "i also know that fu jiatong's actions were too much." but we don't have any other choice. compared to attitude, her design level was more important, wasn't it? "director yan, think about how your goal is to get an oscar award, calm down ..."

yan heng snorted and stopped talking.

fan yinghua also heaved a sigh of relief.

at that moment, the staff announced the name of the next interviewee.

"number eight, luo chenxi."

fan yinghua became nervous again and hurriedly said, "director yan, the next one is mrs. mu. this one is even more difficult to deal with, so you can't talk like you did just now! we've already offended her enough by not being able to hire her. if we say something wrong to anger her ..."

"i know!" yan heng said impatiently.

in the next second, the meeting room's door was opened and luo chenxi walked in from the outside.

"good morning, judges."

the corners of luo chenxi's lips were raised and she cracked into a polite smile.

she was a little surprised to see sheng yu sitting on the judging panel. then, she nodded at him.

sheng xiao glanced at her and asked, "where's your portfolio? did you bring it?"

luo chenxi was stunned for a second.

why did the pace of the interview seem a little off?

why did he skip to the portfolio section without even an opening remark?

the other judges also felt that something was wrong and looked at sheng yu in surprise.

fan yinghua coughed lightly. "ms. luo, please take a seat. it's okay if you didn't bring your portfolio. we ..."

"producer fan, you've misunderstood. i've brought the portfolio."

luo chenxi interrupted him. she took out five bound portfolio from the file she carried with her. she walked forward and stuffed them into the judges' hands one by one.

it was just enough for one person.

obviously, she had inquired about the number of judges in advance, made full preparations, and specially made several copies.

this was something that no one else could have considered.

for a moment, everyone's gazes were somewhat complicated.

luo chenxi's pragmatic behavior was in stark contrast to fu jiatong's behavior a few minutes ago!

even though fu jiatong was the daughter of the president's house, luo chenxi was still the young mistress of the richest family in the country!

in terms of status, she was no worse than fu jiatong.

however, she didn't have any of fu jiatong's narcissism and arrogance.

yan heng couldn't help but sigh to himself. as expected, talent and character can't be both at the same time? luo chenxi's compatibility with her was certainly very high, yet she was not as capable as fu jiatong

he heaved a faint sigh. he picked up luo chenxi's portfolio and flipped through it.

"ahem, miss luo, your work is really outstanding. it's very rare among the domestic designers ..."

he spoke of the excuse he had thought of earlier while he was reading. he was trying his best to reject luo chenxi in a tactful manner.

however, when yan heng took a casual glance at the design drawings in the collection, his voice stopped abruptly. his eyes suddenly widened, and he stared at the design drawings, unable to speak.

a few seconds later, yan heng came back to his senses and began to flip through the collection page by page, carefully looking at each design.

his face was full of surprise and anxiety.

"this ... this ..."

Chapter 1007: mu yichen must be feeling depressed, right?

not only yan heng, but fan yinghua and the others were also shocked.

holding the portfolio, she was so engrossed in reading it that she didn't even have the time to speak.

only sheng yu was very calm. he flipped through the portfolio from beginning to end with a relaxed expression. then, his lips curled into a satisfied smile.

that's right, a star was indeed a star.

even though she was newly married, she still put in a lot of effort into her designs!

the newly-wedded wife had spent so much energy on the design. mu yichen must be feeling depressed, right?

just thinking about it made him happy.

for a moment, the only sound in the meeting room was the sound of paper being flipped.

luo chenxi sat on the sofa and waited quietly. she did not seem to be in a hurry at all.

she was very confident in her own work.

" gorgeous turn " was her favorite novel in middle school. not only had she read it a few times, but she had also imagined countless times in her teenage years how the designs described in the novel would look like when they were made into ready-to-wear clothes.

the design drawings in the collection had long been in her mind.

therefore, even with young master mu's interference, she still successfully completed all the designs.

after a long while, the judges finally finished reading the entire portfolio and recovered from their initial shock.

it had only been a week since the notice of the interview.

it was simply unbelievable that luo chenxi was capable of coming up with such an outstanding design!

luo chenxi smiled and explained, "it's true that i've only started drawing the design drawings after i received the notice for the interview. however, i've already prepared a draft in my mind since a long time ago ..."

her voice was sweet as she explained her design idea in simple terms.

her design itself was already amazing enough, but when she opened her mouth, it made the judges even more amazed.

luo chenxi's design concept was very unique and her logic was very clear. one could not help but be impressed by her talent.

"miss luo, can you tell me how to complete this set?" this set is really beautiful, but i personally think that it will be very difficult to produce. as the director, i have to consider the cost of the crew and time ...
" yan heng asked.

luo chenxi took a glance at it and said with a smile, "this only looks complicated. we can use a special craft to ..."

the judges raised several questions one after another.

however, he was not doing this to make things difficult for luo chenxi on purpose. on the contrary, he could not help but be attracted by her work and wanted to understand more about it.

luo chenxi lived up to everyone's expectations and answered all the questions.

half an hour later, sheng yu could not help but cough a few times.

“cough, cough, are you guys done? wasn’t it enough to ask so many questions? let me tell you, designers have the copyright to their own works. you haven’t signed a contract with xingchen yet, so it’s not appropriate for her to explain so much, right?”

only then did yan heng and the others wake up from their dream.

” ahem, i’m sorry, ms. lu. we just love your designs ... ”

“that’s right, that’s right. if i’ve offended you in any way, please don’t mind.”

luo chenxi smiled faintly. ” i’m fine. so, is my interview over? ” fan yinghua personally sent her out.

as soon as luo chenxi left, the meeting room immediately burst into an uproar.

Chapter 1008: there’s always someone better!

” chief sheng’s eyes are so accurate. he’s indeed the godfather of the fashion industry! ”

“besides, isn’t luo chenxi too gentle? she’s so polite and answers all my questions. i’m sure she’ll be able to cooperate well with the crew!”

sheng yu listened on the side and could not help but ridicule while feeling proud.

upon hearing fu jiatong’s name, the judges who had been so excited just a moment ago all looked embarrassed.

if it wasn’t for xingchen as a comparison, they would definitely think that fu jiatong’s work was good enough.

they only realized that there would always be someone better after watching luo chenxi’s work!

suddenly, fan yinghua’s face turned pale. ” oh no! “when i was in contact with fu jiatong, i already hinted to her that this interview was just a formality. her ability is better than all the other interviewees, so she’ll definitely be able to join the crew ...”

the judges calmed down when they heard that.

the excitement and agitation he felt earlier had all disappeared.

that's right, they had all forgotten about fu jiatong!

"oh no, what do we do now? if we choose constellation, how are we going to explain it to fu jiatong?"

"if she reneges now and doesn't choose fu jiatong, she will definitely be very angry! this is too offensive!"

"but, it's fine if i haven't seen xing chen's designs, but now that i've seen them, i really can't accept it if i have to choose fu jiatong!" yan heng's face was gloomy. "sigh, what should i do?"

sheng yu could not help but sneer. "what did i say earlier?"

"chief sheng, i was wrong, alright? quickly think of a way!" yan heng quickly admitted his mistake.

"i have an idea ..." sheng yu thought for a moment and said.

even though he looked down on the crew, he had no choice but to help in order to ensure that luochenxi could successfully join the crew.

five minutes later.

the designers outside the conference room received a notice: the interview was over.

designers after the ninth would not have any more interviews.

this time, the faces of those who did not have time to be interviewed did not look good.

but on second thought, they had to accept the reality.

"forget it, forget it. we only came here to show our faces in front of director yan, not to become the design director. i'm sure this position has already been reserved for fu jiatong."

"that's right. after miss fu went for the interview, the crew must have made the decision and didn't want to waste time interviewing people after that."

"luochenxi must be able to attend the interview because of the mu family behind her. even though miss fu had been set, he would not be able to answer to the mu family if he did not even allow luochenxi to attend the interview. on the other hand, the person behind luochenxi is not as lucky as her. she can't even go for the interview."

"yes, that's right, that's definitely the case."

hearing the discussion, fu jiatong smiled.

she had no doubt that she would be the final winner.

just now, fan yinghua and the others were fighting to please her, afraid that she would not cooperate with the crew!

only an internationally renowned designer like her could enjoy such treatment.

compared to her, luochenxi was far inferior!

Chapter 1009: the second round of interviews at this moment, the door of the conference room was pushed open, and the judges came out one after another.

the designers present were all excited. they subconsciously looked up at the judges with anticipation.

although it was impossible for them to become the design director, if they performed well in the interview and caught the eye of director yan and the others, they could still join the crew.

once "gorgeous turn" won an international award, their net worth would also rise.

such opportunities were rare.

yan heng walked into the crowd and exchanged a look with sheng yu, who was behind him. he cleared his throat and said, "today's interview will end here. about the candidate for the fashion design director ..."

he paused for a moment.

he swept his gaze across luo chenxi and fu jiatong's faces one by one.

luo chenxi's gaze met his. there was no change in her expression. she remained calm and composed.

fu jiatong raised her chin subconsciously, looking very confident. she was waiting to hear her name from yan heng's mouth.

"this interview was very successful. every designer who participated was of a very high standard, and it was beyond my expectations. this is really making it difficult for us to choose. we've already had a meeting to discuss it just now, but we still can't decide on a director ..."

everyone was surprised to hear this.

fu jiatong frowned slightly, looking a little unhappy.

however, his brows quickly relaxed again.

yan heng must have said that only to give luo chenxi some face.

no, this honor was not for luo chenxi, but for the mu family behind her!

"so ... " yan heng's expression became very serious, "so, after some discussion, we decided to conduct the second round of interviews."

"what? the second round of interviews?"

"is one interview not enough? and what's with this second round of interviews?"

"director yan, can we all participate in the second round of interviews?"

the video game designers couldn't take it anymore and started to ask questions.

they originally thought that the position of the design director had already been decided internally. they never thought that yan heng would actually propose a second round of interviews!

didn't this mean that they still had a chance?

yan heng raised his hand to signal for everyone to be quiet, then continued, " " all the designers who came for the interview today can participate in the second round of interviews. furthermore, we will use the results of the second round of interviews to determine the final candidate for the director. " he paused for a moment before continuing, "i'm sure everyone has already guessed that the second round of the interview is a test question that our production team has set for everyone." only those who pass the assessment and perform the best in this round of interviews are what we need."

"director yan, what do you mean by this? you're even going to test us?"

fu jiatong had felt something was wrong when she heard that, but when she heard the last part, she finally couldn't hold it in anymore and stood up, walking over to yan heng.

"miss fu, please let me explain, this matter ..." yan heng said.

"explain what? producer fan, you just told me that i'm the most promising designer in the crew!" fu jiatong's face was livid, and before yan heng could finish his sentence, she interrupted him and turned to look at fan yinghua, who was standing beside yan heng.

fan yinghua also looked a little embarrassed. " miss fu, this ... "

Chapter 1010: miss fu, are you going to give up?

" i did say that i have the most faith in you, but you didn't bring your portfolio with you this time. our crew doesn't know your design style well, so we can't take the risk to sign a contract with you ... "

"what? what do you mean by that?"

fu jiatong's face was full of displeasure, and she said rudely, " "i've already explained the issue of the portfolio! i've been too busy these few days and don't have time to create a portfolio. don't you know how busy i am? how can i be like a normal designer and waste my time on such things?"

"miss fu, we all know that you're very busy and we understand. the second interview was for your sake."

sheng yu spoke at the right time and interrupted.

fu jiatong frowned. " third young master sheng, what do you mean by this? is this considered being considerate of me?"

if it was someone else, she would have cursed out loud.

however, she still had to show some respect to the third young master of the sheng family. it was just that her tone was not very nice.

" you don't have the time to finish your portfolio, " sheng xiao said. " and the crew has to be responsible for the investors 'funds. they have to understand your design style. so, the only way is to ask you to show off your design style on the spot. this second round of interviews is to invite the few of you to complete a design on the spot. through your final work, we can then choose the most suitable designer for the crew.”

fu jiatong’s eyes widened. complete the design on the spot?”

she did not expect sheng xiao to make such a request.

she was not the only one. the other designers present were even more surprised than her.

yan heng nodded and walked to sheng yu’s side. he continued, ” “that’s right. it’s just as chief sheng said. we’ve just decided to draw out a plot from ‘magnificent turn’. please design a set of clothes for the female lead in this plot. not only do you have to complete the design draft, but you also have to make a ready-to-wear one.”

” in four hours, we’ll come and look at the finished products and pick out the most suitable piece. ” upon hearing such a request, many designers exclaimed on the spot.

“what? four hours!”

“director yan, you must be mistaken. four hours ... how was it possible to make a ready-made outfit? isn’t this a joke?”

“that’s right. isn’t your request a little too demanding? how is this possible?”

fu jiatong was even more direct. ” director yan, you’re a complete layman in fashion design! do you think that making ready-made clothes is as simple as sewing a few pieces of fabric together? and four hours ... even if he had four days and four nights, he might not be able to complete a satisfactory product! this kind of interview is completely meaningless!”

she relied on her status and didn’t have as many concerns as other designers. she was just short of pointing at yan heng’s nose and scolding him.

yan heng couldn’t help but frown, ” miss fu ... ” fu jiatong didn’t give him a chance to speak. ” i can’t participate in this kind of assessment! ” sheng xiao glanced at her. ” so, you’re going to give up, miss fu? ”

“of course i ... wait, when did i say i was going to forfeit?” fu jiatong reacted in time.

sheng xiao said, ” that’s the requirement of the production team. everyone must pass the assessment and compete fairly. since miss fu is not participating, i can only take it as forfeiting. ”
