Chapter 121 Put the Bite on Me

At Hotel W.

The assistant knocked the door, "Mr. Champs, we have received an investment fund."

He handed Peter the agreement which had Johnson's signature on it.

Didn't he reject it at first?

"What's the company background?" Peter frowned.

"The legal representative is Johnson, but I found out that the one who currently owns the largest share is Joseph."

Peter laughed out when he heard his words, "He just don't know how to be honest to himself. He still have to compromise in the end since he can't bear to see Kathy being kidnapped by me."

"Contact Joseph and tell him I want to see him."

In the afternoon, at the hotel restaurant.

Joseph's car was parked in front of the entrance of the hotel. A man wearing a white shirt and black trousers came in elegantly. Peter narrowed his eyes and smirked.

"Mr. Joseph finally shows up."

"Since Mr. Champs has received the fund now, please let go of my wife." Joseph sat down, his eyes were sharp and cold.

Peter’s expression grew colder, “Kathy, do you have to talk to me like this?”

“Then you let me go, or else I’ll keep pissing you off.” Kathy acted like a hedgehog with all her spines pointing outwards.

“As long as Joseph agrees to my conditions, I will let you go. But since he’s not worried about you, then you might as well leave him.” Peter squinted, with the bottom of his eyes scorching gradually.

Kathy didn’t say anything but quietly gripped her chopsticks.

It had been two days, and the time had passed exceptionally slow, thinking that Joseph and her were only contract couple, perhaps he wouldn’t even come to her rescue.

“Kathy, you still have me if he doesn’t cherish you.” Peter spoke when he saw Kathy’s disappointment.

Kathy looked up, with her eyes turning cold, “I’m sorry, what’s passed is past.”

The bodyguards behind Joseph soon rushed in, and in the next second they clamped down Peter and make him kneeling on the floor.

Kathy was relieved, a shadow fell down, and Joseph took off his jacket to cover her, the coldness within his eyes slowly warmed up when he saw Kathy.

"Mrs. Joseph." His husky voice came to her ears. Kathy's eyes were red, she went over and hugged him tightly.

He's really here.

The anger from the bottom of Peter's eyes burst out when he saw them hugging, but he couldn't push the bodyguards who were holding him back.

"Joseph, anyway, your money has been invested in my company, and I've already signed the agreement, you can't go back on your words!" Peter roared.

Upon hearing this, Joseph squinted and smirked, "Since I'm willing to invest, and my wife is not injured, sure you can use the money, but if the profit doesn't meet the requirements of the contract, then don't blame me for being merciless."

After finishing his words, he embraced Kathy and turned around to leave. Kathy felt piercingly painful when she lifted her leg.

Joseph frowned, looking at Kathy's bleeding knee, his eyes suddenly turned cold, and he carried Kathy in his arms.

"Lock him up first!" He instructed the bodyguard.

"What? You want to go back? Haven't you been resisting for all these years?" Johnson was surprised.

After all, Joseph would rather die than compromise in the beginning.

"Yea, Joseph's Group had been attacked recently, but grandpa hasn't assigned anyone to settle this. He's waiting for me to deal with it, he's using the Joseph's Group to bet. Johnson, I already knew it." Joseph said it calmly.

"I can settle the account in YK Group, and I'll have way to cover it when the Joseph's Group was here to audit the accounts. I feel sorry that you quit to become a doctor." Johnson tried to persuade him to change his mind.

The two of them had been friends since childhood, and Johnson knew Joseph too well.

Although he's talented in business, his talent was much more suitable for medical field.

Furthermore, that's what he liked the most.

Joseph smirked, "The internal strife in the Joseph's family is serious, although grandpa doesn't mention about it, I also know that well. This step has to be taken sooner or later."

"No matter what, I'll support your decision."

Kathy's cheeks burst into red, and before she could react, she was carried by Joseph into his arms.
Walking into the master room, he put her on the bed.

"I'm still injured..." Kathy subconsciously resisted him.

"Don't worry, I won't hurt there." Joseph's slender body figure leaned down, with his hand moving up.

Kathy raised her eyes, Joseph was too familiar with her sensitive spots, she got aroused too fast, and Kathy simply couldn't resist it.

She moaned, and Joseph made her feel good that she lied limply on the bed. At this moment, Joseph's phone rang.

But he ignored it, his thin lips reached Kathy's back of neck, moving down inch by inch.

Kathy shivered and turned her head. She saw Joseph's phone still flashing. This was his personal phone, usually only because of urgent matters or those who were close to him would call this phone.

"Joseph, listen to the phone first..." Kathy said while tugging on the blanket and sat up.

Joseph frowned, with the flame of desire still burning from the bottom of his eyes, but when his line of sight fell on the phone, he picked it up.

"Usually it's you who take advantage of me, now let me try it once in a while..." Kathy was talking in a baby voice.

Joseph lifted her face and kissed her deeply.

His handsome face was reflected on Kathy's eyes, and Kathy couldn't help but stand on her tiptoe.

Jade, who came to pick them up at the airport, frowned when she saw them kissing. She strode over and interrupted their kissing.

"Dr. Joseph, this way please."

Kathy lowered her head embarrassedly, and couldn't help but pinch Joseph, "We've been witnessed."

"Then just let them be jealous of us."

Kathy was speechless.

When they reached the hospital, Kathy couldn't enter the ward, so she was alone at the first floor lobby, Joseph had sent John to protect her.

Kathy thought of Joseph shouldn't have had his dinner, so she went to buy some food for him.

When she came back, she was carrying two takeaway meal boxes. When she reached the entrance, Jade had bought Joseph food as well.

"Dr. Joseph, it seems that I have done unnecessary move." Jade put down the meal box and went out.

Kathy came in, and it was a little awkward.

The food Kathy bought for him was almost similar to the one she had bought...

She also seemed to know Joseph's taste preference well...

"Mrs. Joseph, I'll ask John to send you back first." Joseph pinched his eyebrows when he saw Kathy coming in, he seemed like not planning to eat his dinner.

Kathy frowned and reminded him, "You haven't rested for several days."

“Mm, I have to settle things over here first.” Joseph said in a deep voice.

Kathy’s heart was aching, with her palm clenching, she handed him the meal box, “Remember to have your dinner.”

Chapter 128 Kept In the Dark

The next day, Kathy woke up early in the morning, Joseph was still sleeping, she moved quietly without disturbing him. After ordering their breakfast, she sat beside and read her book.

At this moment, her phone rang, it was a call from her mother.

“Kathy, I went to the police station today. Peter has been arrested, and it has been confirmed that he’s the one who broke into our house and harassed me, but it doesn’t seem to be enough to sentence him to jail.” Angela said in agitation.

“Then let’s wait for the notice from the police station, at least he got his punishment.”

“I heard from the police that the investigation progress was smooth because someone had submitted the evidence, was it Joseph?”

“Yea.” Kathy replied, and subconsciously turned to look at Joseph who was still sleeping soundly.

During this period, Joseph was busy enough with his own work, but still needed to take care of her mess, Kathy was truly grateful.

“That kid is really good, Kathy, you’ve found a good husband!”

Kathy couldn’t help but smile sweetly, it seemed like she really did...

It’s been almost half a year since she got married to Joseph, and she had seen all the good things he had done for her.

It’s just that she didn’t know how to repay his effort.

Billy narrowed his eyes and said affirmably, “It seems like Joseph doesn’t trust you.”

Kathy didn't refute as that was what she thought now as well.

"Kathy, if a man doesn't trust you, it means that he doesn't love you as well."

Kathy suddenly raised her head and retorted in a cold voice, "It's none of your business."

Billy laughed out softly, "Indeed, but Kathy, I'm quite concerned about you."

"I still have things to do, I won't disturb you any further." Kathy's heart was even more confused now.

Billy looked at her back, his black eyes twitched, he then dialled a phone, "What is the current situation of Joseph's Group?"

"Mr. Hilton, I've only found out that Joseph has invested in Peter's company, but as for Joseph's Group, they haven't made any move yet."

"Keep an eye on it."

Kathy went back to her room, and Joseph was already awake and was talking on the phone.

He walked over when he saw Kathy, he pulled her to sit beside her.

However, Kathy forcefully withdrew her hand and stayed away from him.

There were quite a few museums in Country C, Kathy bought a ticket to visit. As she wasn't familiar with some of the history, she was confused when she looked at it, so she browsed on net while walking around.

At this time, a familiar voice came from behind.

"Billy, what are being kept in this museum? I don't know anything about it." Herbert was a little annoyed.

"This place mainly collects some treasures from Song Dynasty, aren't you an art student? You should be familiar with history." Billy said with a flat tone.

"But it's been so many years, I've forgotten long time ago!" Herbert said and was about to leave.

However, Billy didn't leave, so she could only follow him around again.

When Herbert saw Kathy, she frowned and walked over displeasingly.

"Kathy, don't tell me that you're stalking me?" Herbert looked at Kathy angrily.

"Ms. Herbert, please keep quiet in the museum." Kathy ignored her.

Herbert was already bored, and when she bumped into Kathy, she wanted to gossip about her recent situation.
